GERMANS EVACUATING CRIMEA

Fleeing Germans Savagely Strike at Italian People

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Associated Press War Correspondent

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALGIERS, Oct. 20 (AP)—In the ugliest of moods and venting their wrath on the Italian civil population, the Germans fell back from the scorched Volturno Valley today to a new mountain line along Massico Ridge after being threatened by a swift Allied advance five miles on their left flank.

Reconnaissance showed heavy concentrations of German troops on the high ground North of Liberi, itself five miles North of the Volturno, and a major battle may be developed there by a Nazi counter-attack, said a dispatch by Raiman Morin, Associated Press correspondent on the 5th Army front.

As British and United States troops swept across the fertile Mazzoni plain North of the Volturno they found not only the most dreadful devastation yet encountered in Southern front operations, but many slain civilians as well.

In addition to blowing up roads and railways and destroying everything that might be of value to the Allies, the Nazis fired farm houses and haystacks to provide smoke screens for their withdrawal and slaughtered all livestock.

The enemy is establishing a strong new system of defences along a winding 27-mile line extending from Mondragone, six miles North of the Volturno River mouth, Northeast to the mountain stronghold of Venafro.

By driving five miles North and Northeast of Capua, Lt.-Gen. Mark Clark's troops left the Nazis no choice but to fall back to their new defences. The advance carried the Allies into the towns of Pignataro, six miles North of Capua; Roccaromana, five miles Northwest of Liberi, and Dragoni, a highway junction 2½ miles Northwest of Alvignano, seized the previous day. The villages of Formicola, Cainiglliano and San Potito also were taken.

Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's British 8th Army pushed through increased German resistance along the Adriatic to capture Petacciato, nine miles West of Termoli, and beat back a heavy enemy counter-attack on Montecilfone, occupied Monday. A spokesman said the Germans had been strongly reinforced all along the 8th Army front.

(Latest reports indicated that the Canadian 1st Division is still operating on the left flank of the 8th Army, in mountainous country. A delayed dispatch, dated Oct. 2, from William Stewart, Canadian Press war correspondent, disclosed that the Royal Canadian Regiment—only Canadian unit positively identified by name as being in Italy—had taken Motta, a mountain town 25 miles West of Foggia, during that weekend, after a week devoted to rest and repair of equipment.

(A more recent dispatch from Louis V. Hunter, also a Canadian Press war correspondent, dated Oct. 18, said Canadian troops were meeting stiffer resistance along its sector of the front in thickly-wooded, hilly country. The enemy has reinforced his positions, Hunter reported.)

Today it was disclosed that the fighting British 78th Division, companions in arms of the Canadians during part of the Sicilian campaign, is with the 8th Army.

AMERICANS HIT NAZI METAL PLANT, AIRFIELD

Doubled-Barrelled Escort Sees Bombers Through

DOWN 11 HUNS

By ROBERT N. STURDEVANT
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 20 (AP)—United States 8th Air Force bombers blasted the metal plant at Duren, in Western Germany, and the airfield at Gilze-Rijen, Holland, in daylight raids today from which eight bombers failed to return, a communique announced tonight.

Eleven enemy fighters were reported destroyed in this raid in which a new double-barrelled fighter escort technique was used to meet the challenge of the fierce Nazi opposition.

The bomber formations, which struck at lunchtime, were protected by both British Spitfires and American Thunderbolts as an answer to such Nazi fighter opposition as encountered over the important ball bearing plant at Schweinfurt, where 60 American bombers and 593 airmen were lost. Thunderbolts recently have been the exclusive support of U. S. heavy bomber operations.

Tonight the Berlin radio stopped broadcasting "on account of technical reasons," indicating that new Allied raids on the continent might be under way. R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. big bombers were idle last night.

The significance of the move to give the daylight bombers a better fighter screen was pointed up by an R.A.F. commentator who said that the Germans had increased their fighter force by one-third since January.

Regardless of losses, air officials have made it clear that the American bombing effort is to be continued with growing intensity.

The R.A.F. commentator told correspondents that "the one thing standing between us and rapid destruction of Germany today is the German fighter force." The remarks referred to the British night bombing effort but were as applicable to the daylight operations.

He gave this picture of the change in German fighter deployment (including both single-engined and twin-engined)—

January—Western front, less than one-third; Russian front, one-third; Mediterranean front, more than one third.

Now—Western front, two-thirds; Russian front, less than one-fifth; Italian front, one ninth, although being augmented.

While a few German planes were over London and Eastern England last night for the fourth night in a row, the R.A.F. commentator emphasized that in the 100-day period between July 9 and Oct. 17, the Germans dropped 480 tons of bombs on England with a loss of 10 per cent of their sorties, while the R.A.F. was dropping an average of the same amount on Germany—480 tons—every night of that period.

Furthermore the Germans let the whole 100 days, considered the height of the bombing season, pass without dropping a single bomb by daylight on Britain.

SCENE OF ALLIED TRIUMPH

Allied armies have forced their way well across the Volturno River line along the whole front. Campobasso has been taken by the 8th Army. A major battle seems to be shaping up as the Nazis concentrate on high ground five miles North of the Volturno.

UNITY SOUGHT IN YUGOSLAVIA BY MIHAILOVIC

His Army Ready to "Vanquish Common Foe"

ASKS ALLIED AID

LONDON, Oct. 20 (AP.)—Gen. Draja Mihailovic in his first public statement in months replied to critics today with a declaration widely interpreted as meaning he is willing to suspend the long and bitter quarrel between his Yugoslav army and the Partisan forces of Gen. Josip (Tito) Broz.

The statement was issued by the Yugoslav Government in Cairo, of which Gen. Mihailovic is War Minister, as Tito's Partisans announced they had smashed a German attempt to land on Yugoslavia's Dalmatian coast.

Gen. Mihailovic, who has been accused by Tito's supporters of cooperating with the Germans, declared that his Yugoslav Army has stood fast for 2½ years in its "struggle against the invaders" and said that it is now ready to "vanquish the common enemy."

The statement contained an implied appeal for aid from the Allies.

"All I expect from the Allies is sufficient aid to enable us to accomplish definitely the most ardent wish of us all—to vanquish the common enemy," said the General.

Although his statement made no mention of Tito's guerillas, it was noted both in Cairo and London that he did declare that "the unity of our country is being sealed by the common struggle against the hated conqueror." This was interpreted as meaning Mihailovic is ready to make peace with the Partisans.

Yugoslav officials in Cairo said that Mihailovic's units are continuing the struggle in Bosnia and Hercegovina and claim to hold the greater part of Montenegro.

Prolonged fighting is continuing between Tarvnik and Sarajevo, 50 miles to the Southeast. Thus the Partisans remained in the vicinity of Zenica, the "Balkan Ruhr," which they previously held for a period long enough to enable them to destroy an important Krupp plant.

The French radio at Algiers broadcast an Istanbul report tonight that mutiny had broken out among some German troops in the Balkans. The men were said to have declined to obey commands and in some cases to have killed their officers.

Labor to Take Part in Victoria Campaign

VICTORIA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Organized labor will be represented by a full slate of candidates in the coming Victoria civic election campaign, an election committee of labor organizations announced today. The committee represents members of the Victoria District Trades and Labor Council, the Victoria Labor Council and the Vancouver Island Joint Labor Conference.

Wavell Sworn in as Viceroy

FIELD MARSHALL WAVELL

NEW DELHI, Oct. 20 (CP).—Field Marshal Viscount Wavell was formally sworn in today as Viceroy of India, succeeding Lord Linlithgow, who has held the office since April, 1936.

Viscount Wavell arrived here Monday by plane from Britain.

He became the 19th Viceroy of India in a simple ceremony, lasting nine minutes.

The induction was shorn of the pomp marking the swearing in of previous Viceroys. It was held in Durbar Hall of the Vice-Regal Lodge.

About 800 persons including less than a dozen women witnessed the ceremony. Most of the men were in naval, army or air uniforms.

Sir Dudley Pound in Serious Condition

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP.)—Condition of Admiral of the Fleet Sir Dudley Pound, the former First Sea Lord, ill in hospital here, was reported tonight to be worse and causing grave anxiety.

The 66-year-old Sir Dudley, whose resignation because of ill health was announced Oct. 4, entered Royal Masonic Hospital shortly after his return from the Quebec conference. He was succeeded as First Lord by Admiral of the Fleet Sir Andrew Cunningham, Allied naval commander in the Mediterranean.

1200 Servicemen to Work in B.C. Logging Camps

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — The Province in a newspage story today says that British Columbia logging camps and sawmills will get at least 1200 of 1900 Canadian Forestry Corps men being returned to Canada from Britain.

All are experienced men. Many worked in B.C. camps and mills before enlisting.

The remaining 700 returning soldier-loggers are to be allocated to other logging centres in the Dominion, it is understood.

British Columbia is short about 3,000 loggers, and needs about 4,000 more men to bring sawmills up to peacetime strength.

The men will not be discharged. They will work under a system similar to that adopted for soldiers who were released to do farm work in a similar emergency.

It is understood the soldiers will get Army pay plus the difference between service pay and the pay loggers receive in the B.C. woods.

Big Bomber Missing

MONTREAL, Oct. 20 (CP) — A flood of reports from the lower St. Lawrence area tonight indicating a missing service bomber had been seen to crash into the river, were discounted by an operations officer at the R.A.F. Transport Command station at nearby Dorval.

The reports, which followed broad cast requests for information on a missing bomber, were all second-hand. They told of a big bomber plunging into the water between Murray Bay and St. Simeon on the North shore of the St. Lawrence and 125 miles Northeast of Quebec.

Meanwhile Air Force officials did not confirm a report that the missing aircraft—believed to be a four-engined Liberator—was carrying more than 20 passengers from Britain.

The operations officer said that since the broadcasts, announcing the plane as missing, there had been many reports the craft had been sighted but none had proved to be correct. He added the search by air, land and water was continuing.

Fast Hun Planes Attack London

LONDON, Oct. 21 (Thursday) (AP)—A number of fast, high-flying German planes swept over London from several directions early today, causing the fifth alarm in as many nights and provoking the heaviest anti-aircraft barrage heard in the British capital in a long time.

Some bombs were dropped, but it was not learned immediately if there were any casualties or extensive damage.

The all-clear sounded at 1:45 a.m. London's big guns roared into action even before the wail of the sirens stopped, and search lights picked out some of the planes for the gunners.

A few enemy aircraft also were over Northeast England, and bombs were reported to have been dropped in one area there.

Early yesterday evening a single Nazi raiding plane was driven off as it approached the Thames estuary area.

Fuel Situation Eases at Coast

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — "The fuel situation has been much eased by concentration of coal on this market, and with the help of the railways, the Government and continuance of the present good weather, we hope to build up enough coal to carry Western Canada at least a good part of the way through the Winter," J. A. Boyd, President of Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., said here today.

In addition to supplies from Vancouver Island mines, coal from McLeod River operations in Alberta is being sent down to the Coast, said Mr. Boyd.

11 Killed in Bomber Crash

EDMONTON, Oct. 20 (CP) — Eleven officers and men were killed in a crash of a heavy bomber Saturday in the Yukon Territories, and two more died when a rescue plane was lost Sunday near the scene of the first crash, it was announced here today by United States Army Air Force officials.

The bomber crashed in a lake difficult to reach and the pilot and crew chief of a single-engined plane engaged in rescue efforts Sunday morning were killed near the same spot.

JAPS CONTINUE PUSH ON TO FINSCHHAFEN

Several Thousand Troops Battle Near River

JAP LOSSES HIGH

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Oct. 21 (Thursday) (AP) — The Japanese counter-offensive against Finschhafen, New Guinea, Allied-won base nearest to New Britain, has made progress for the second straight day, a spokesman said.

The Japanese are seeking to drive down from Sattelberg, 15 miles to the Northwest, upon Finschhafen which Australians captured Oct. 2.

In sharp fighting North of there, more than 300 Japanese have been killed, headquarters reported.

To the Northwest where Australians are moving along the Ramu Valley toward Madang in a drive which might bypass the enemy near Finschhafen, 72 Japanese have been slain.

The initial Japanese strategy appears to be to attempt to push toward the coast North of Finschhafen to join with other forces there. Several thousand troops are involved in the fighting near the Song River.

In the Solomons, another American raid in the Southern Bougainville area has resulted in the downing of 17 Japanese planes out of a force of 85, today's communique said.

Medium bombers, striking in coordination with the Ramu Valley drive, strafed bridges and villages along a good road which the Japanese built from Madang past Bogadjim. The Aussies in the Ramu Valley last were reported only 20 miles from Bogadjim which is the main defence outpost for Madang.

The communique itself made no mention of the Japanese progress North of Finschhafen, saying only that ground forces North of there "repulsed several sharp attacks, the enemy leaving more than 200 dead in our hands."

The communique for the second straight day reported successful aerial action against troop-laden boats. This time it was a large barge filled with Japanese troops on a river in the Aroe Islands North of Australia. Long-range fighters sank it.

The Japanese air base of Ballale on Shortland Island, just South of Bougainville, was the scene of the Solomon's action.

The barge depot of Kakaan on Chabetul Island was bombed by an American patrolling plane. North of Bougainville, four small Japanese ships were attacked at night by medium bombers in the vicinity of Buka.

Other patrol planes struck at barges in the vicinity of New Britain, scene of heavy bombing attacks in the week.

Monday's raid on Rabaul was made by low-flying medium bombers which attacked in adverse weather without fighter protection.

Again they caught the Japanese with their planes on the ground, destroying 36 of them. In attacks on shipping in the Bay, the bombers sank three vessels, including a destroyer.

A force of 60 Zeros pounced on the Allied bombers. Twenty-four Zeros, and probably six more, were shot down.

In the Kavieng area at the Northernmost tip of New Ireland, a heavy unit from the South Pacific forces got a direct hit on an 8000-ton transport heavily loaded with Japanese. The vessel was left "afire and sinking," the communique said.

Victoria Man Burned to Death

VICTORIA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Burned to death apparently while attempting to remove some valuable property from his blazing three-roomed home, the charred body of Thomas Shaw, 60, was discovered today by Saanich firemen.

It is believed that Shaw, a bachelor, who lived alone in the house, worked on defence projects near Victoria but so far police have been unable to trace his last place of work or locate any relatives.

Hid Husband From Authorities

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP)—Mrs. C. A. Hanover of Vancouver, charged under the Army Act with aiding her husband, Pte. C. A. Hanover, to conceal himself from Army authorities while he was absent without leave, was given suspended sentence by Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson in Police Court today.

Pte. Hanover was found in a clothes closet of a West End home when a military policeman and two City detectives executed a search warrant on September 22, the day after he was granted a divorce decree and married his present wife.

Allied Landing Near Rome Imminent Says Hun Broadcast

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP.)— An Allied landing in the area of Rome, which lies but 15 miles from the Tyrrhenian Sea coast, is imminent, a D.N.B. dispatch broadcast from Berlin said tonight.

"Feverish efforts which have been observed recently to make the port of Naples serviceable by day and night shifts" were cited in the broadcast.

"The remarkably increased Allied shipping traffic at the Southwestern coast of Italy seems also to lend emphasis to this assumption," it said.

VICTORY LOAN AHEAD OF LAST SPRING'S

80,000 Individual Subscriptions; Total $126,500,000

AIR FORCE AHEAD

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Individual subscriptions to Canada's $1,200,000,000 Fifth Victory Loan in the first two days of the 18-day campaign totalled 80,557, compared with 61,446 in the corresponding period of the last loan, National Headquarters announced tonight.

In addition, the dollar total was $2,341,900 greater than the previous loan's total at $126,507,150—an average of $63,260,000 a day for the first two days. A daily average of $66,666,000 is required to meet the loan objective in 18 days.

From Brantford, Ont., came word that the Canadian Order of Foresters had invested $400,000.

Industrial firms in widely-distributed parts of Canada reported generally that employees were responding notably to the payroll canvass, though it will be some days before these results begin to show in the recorded figures.

The R.C.A.F. has outstripped the Army in the competition between the Armed Forces. Subscriptions reported from R.C.A.F. Headquarters at Ottawa total $4,196,300 against the Army's figures of $3,098,900. The Army's figure does not include, however, the reports from England while the Air Force does include some overseas subscriptions.

From Pioneer Gold Mines in British Columbia came word that the mine employees had passed their $12,000 quota.

Winnipeg companies are holding as many as 100 mass meetings of employees daily and in larger plants, where salesmen are on 24-hour duty, up to the minute news of loan progress is broadcast frequently to all factory buildings.

News from towns and villages included the fact that Drumheller, Alta., tripled the total of all previous opening days. Red Deer, in the same Province, has reached almost 50 per cent of its $360,000 objective.

Manitoba's total subscription for two days was $9,126,200. A score of Winnipeg firms had "V" flags up and plans were completed for a paratroop demonstration Saturday at Assiniboine Park. Thirty men will jump, carrying letters to spell out the words; "Jump for war bonds."

Two old loan rivals, Kitsilano and Point Grey Districts of Vancouver, have high school "princesses," Joan Denman and Maxine McClung, making competitive appeals to the younger element. Every dollar invested carries a vote to elect one of the young ladies "queen" of the combined communities. The Chinese War Relief Fund there subscribed $1,000 and promptly raffled off the bonds to raise money for China.

The spirit in which the Armed Forces are attacking objective is demonstrated in British Columbia and the Yukon, which have been divided into 10 sections for loan purposes. The leading division is that of the Combined Armed Forces, with 32 per cent of their quota. Vancouver is in second position, with nine per cent.

At the end of the second day of the Army's Victory Loan campaign, the total of subscriptions raised stood at $3,098,900, compared with a total objective of $30,000,000.

Seek to Speed Coal Men to Work

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 20 (AP)—District Headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America called a mass meeting of all local union presidents and mine committeemen today in an effort to speed a back-to-work movement of thousands of Alabama coal miners.

Desperate Fight in North Fails to Stop Russians

By JUDSON O'QUINN
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Moscow dispatches said tonight that a large-scale German evacuation of the Crimea is under way as the Russians raced to outflank the Peninsula from the North and tore at the last thin protective shell from the East.

Reuters News Agency said that information brought back to Moscow through the German lines indicated that Nazi divisions garrisoned in the Crimea are fleeing through the last railroad open to them, via the Perekop land bridge.

The Germans were desperately piling reserves and bombers into the Dnieper River bend to the North but the Russians, already West of the Crimea, sent spearheads six miles farther on, killed 1500 Nazis and reached down a railway to within 35 miles of a major objective—Krivoi Rog, key railway junction and iron mine centre.

These gains appeared aimed at trapping the Germans defending the Dnieper bulge. Soviet success here would make the Crimea untenable for the Nazis.

In addition, the Russians cleaned out new districts of Melitopol, East of the Crimea, where for more than a week the Germans have waged desperate defensive war. Beyond Melitopol lie miles of flat, virtually undefensible steppe and the Crimea.

In the Dnieper bend battle, where the Nazis faced their greatest debacle since Stalingrad, Germans were hurriedly swung from other sectors to meet the Russians pouring through a major break in the front South of Kremenchug. One spearhead swept into Zheltye-Vody where guns and stores were captured.

This town is on the railroad leading South from Pyatikhatka, captured yesterday, and is 40 miles South of Kremenchug. The line leads directly to Krivoi Rog, capture of which would seal the last railroad exit for the German divisions in the great bend of the river between Kremenchug and Zaporozhe.

Russian progress in this sector dropped German morale to its lowest depth since the Nazis lost Stalingrad last year, dispatches from Stockholm and the Berlin radio indicated.

The Moscow daily communique told of continued bitter fighting in Melitopol, South of the Dnieper bend, where for more than a week gains have been counted in city blocks as both sides grappled in fierce hand-to-hand fighting.

South of Rechitsa, in the Gomel area, the Russians pushed out their bridgehead across the Dnieper and took several towns, and there was also bitter fighting North of Kiev and South of Gomel.

BERLIN GLOOMY

Berlin wallowed in gloom as the implications of the Soviet advance behind the Dnieper sank in, according to Swedish correspondents in the German capital. The correspondents said the German High Command representatives broke the news to them solemnly and made no effort to hide the fact that Germany's situation is critical and did not insist that the breach could be repaired.

The Russian drive is mounting to a crisis which will force German soldiers to muster all the morale and military courage they possess, a Stockholm report said.

A Berlin broadcast by Martin Hallens Leben, D.N.B. military correspondent, said "the purpose of the German Command apparently is by evasive movements and counterthursts and with as small losses as possible to hold a line where the transition from the Autumn to the Winter campaign will be easiest."

MILITARY MEN SIT IN AT RUSS SESSION

"Real Spirit of Friendship Around the Table"

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Oct. 20 (AP)— Foreign Secretary Eden of Britain, Cordell Hull, United States Secretary of State, and Soviet Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov engaged today in what the Soviet press called the "practical work" of their conferences, meaning that the formalities are over and the men are considering basic topics.

In its front page account of the tri-partite meetings on wartime and postwar matters the Moscow press said:

"Conferences of the representatives of the three Allied powers, opened in Moscow yesterday. The Soviet Union was represented by V. M. Molotov, the U. S. by a delegation headed by Secretary Hull and Great Britain by a delegation headed by Foreign Secretary Eden. Upon its opening, the conference passed immediately to practical work."

The conferees disclosed that they would meet once a day in Spiridonovka Palace until their discussions are concluded.

Two military men — Maj.-Gen John R. Deane, of the United States and Lt.-Gen. Sir Hastings Ismay of Britain—sat in with the foreign secretaries today.

Deane has been attached to the chief of staff's office of the United States Army and Ismay is from the office of the British War Cabinet.

It was sensed at once that the presence of the generals might mean that a Western Europe land front was discussed or at least that the Soviet Union's side of the matter was heard.

A British spokesman told American newsmen that Britain agreed to discuss anything the Russians wished to discuss. It was pointed out that before the meetings began the representatives had exchanged agendas.

Newsmen here understood that both Eden and Hull had been favorably impressed with the proceedings to date. Hull's already high regard for Molotov was reported to be growing. Molotov looked extremely well.

The initial meetings yesterday were given over to setting the agenda for the conferences, a spokesman said, and he pointed out that there was "no challenge" to the agenda by any of the parties. Asked what it contained, a British spokesman said "there are all sorts of problems to be discussed."

Describing a luncheon attended today by Molotov, Hull and Eden at the Spiridonovka Palace, an American who is a veteran of such affairs said:

"This was really something in the way of a luncheon. There was a real spirit of friendship around the table."

There were at least 15 toasts and all were offered in the spirit of friendship. There was no toast to the second front. Several Russian generals and at least one marshal were among the more than 100 persons present. Premier Stalin, Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt all were toasted.

The Moscow News, an English language newspaper, today devoted most of its front page to the conference and an editorial entitled "Chief task of the moment" that said:

"If the Hitlerite Army has not yet been defeated it is only because there is not yet a second front in the West that would turn the present defeats of the Fascist armies into a death blow for Hitlerite Germany."

Coast Federation Employees Win Preferences

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — The Vancouver Province in a newspage story today said members of the Civic (Employees) Federation will be given preference in promotions and continued employment in the Civic service as long as their qualifications and capabilities are equal to those of workers who are not Federation members.

This concession was granted Federation representatives by the City Council yesterday as the central point of a compromise which staved off arbitration over the employees' demands for a "closed shop" agreement. More than 1700 workers are affected.

The Federation agreed to leave until after the war its request that the Council require all new employees to join The Federation or one of its affiliates after three months in the Civic employ. This was the formal closed shop application.

Curlers Will Ring Up Curtain Nov 15; Slight Change In Rules; Exped Membership of Over 200

Nelson curlers will ring up the curtain on the 1943-44 curling season on Monday, Nov. 15, it was announced at the meeting of the Nelson Curling Club at the Canadian Legion Wednesday night, when various preparatory decisions were taken by the Club. President C. H. Marshall was in the chair, and J. H. Long, who took over some time ago from S. T. McCulloch as Secretary, handled the records.

After hearing report of the Rules Committee on substitution, a change was made in the competition rules, to provide that when a vice-skip was absent, the second should play as third, while an unattached skip in such a contingency should not substitute in a higher position than second. The new rule was framed to prevent a rink benefitting by absence of its third, through playing an unattached skip in that position, thus having two skips in the dominating half of each end.

Various expedients were suggested for assuring the low-scoring rinks more games in sectional play without lengthening the time required for completing the playoffs, but no change was made.

CONTINUE DRAWING FROM HAT

There was some sentiment for departing from the practice of many years past, of having the composition of rinks drawn from a hat, and giving a trial to the early day practice of skips making up their own rinks as a means of getting a better balance, but the overwhelming majority of the 30 members present voted for retaining the drawing from a hat basis.

The Membership Committee was reported to be actively campaigning for new members. The aim is a membership of a little over 200, as usual.

A tribute was paid to the memory of the late A. H. Noakes, a member during his residence in Nelson in recent years, who died in September when starting from Balfour on a fishing trip.

The Classification Committee will perform its duties as soon as the membership lists are filled, and the rinks will be drawn for the "opening 'spiel" which will get under way Nov. 15 and which will precede the President vs Vice-President Competition.

COMMITTEES

Committees as drawn up at the annual meeting, held at the end of the 1942-43 season, are as follows:

Executive—President C. H. Marshall, Vice-President J. Thom, A. Ronmark, H. Farenholtz, E. Hopwood, R. Hickey, W. Chrishop, Secretary J. H. Long.

Membership Committee — Chairman J. Thom, T. A. Wallace, C. Ward, A. Ronmark, R. Hickey, E. Hopwood, S. T. McCulloch, A. H. Whitehead, S. Bostock, A. Hamson, R. D. Walace, W. Manson, J. J. McEwen, D. Valentine, F. Whitfield, F. Slater, B. Stevens, A. Lane.

Classification Committee—Chairman A. Ronmark, J. J. McEwen, A. H. Whitehead.

Rules Committee—Chairman R. Sharp, E. Hopwood, J. Thom.

Ice Committee—Chairman R. Hickey, T. A. Wallace.

Inter-City and Bonspiel Committee—Chairman E. Hopwood, P. E. Poulin, T. Swanson.

Entertainment Committee—Chairman W. Chrishop, A. Waters, W. Toser, F. Slater and B. Stevens.

Purchasing Committee—Chairman H. Farenholtz, A. Rotmark.

School Board in Rossland Asks Data on Fees

ROSSLAND, B. C., Oct. 20—The Rossland School Board Tuesday decreed that in future parents should be informed through the press regarding age requirements and date of registration for beginners. This decision followed the reading of a letter from Mrs. E. L. Selwood in which she pointed out the inconvenience caused recently by the omission of such a notice.

BILL BOSWELL AND ROCK CREEK

It was decided to bill the Boswell and Rock Creek School Districts for tuition fees of $30 each for students attending Rossland High School.

Upon the advice of Inspector English, who attended the meeting, it was decided to write to the Department of Education asking for a ruling regarding fees collectable from pupils residing outside the city limits, whose parents do not own property within the city. There was also discussion regarding children of alien parents living outside the city limits and attending local schools, and doubt was expressed as to whether the Dominion Government was responsible for their education.

Principal E. E. Perkins of MacLean School reported having interviewed the City Clerk to determine just where the boundaries of the city lay, and that he was informed that residents of both Black and White Bear districts were within the city limits, and that, except South, residents of the Reservoir district were also within the city limits.

Little Northern Unit Leads B. C.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — The little Northern unit of Dawson-Mayo led all others in British Columbia and the Yukon in the Fifth Victory Loan drive tonight with 20 per cent of its quota reached and rapidly heading toward the half-way mark in the first three days.

Powell River was the only other unit reporting over 30 per cent of its quota attained. Vancouver reported 10.33 per cent.

The general public total in British Columbia and the Yukon tonight totalled $6,507,450, as compared with $4,492,500 in the same period of the Fourth Victory Loan last year.

The Armed Forces continued to forge ahead, reaching a total of 40.76 per cent of their $1,900,000 quota. They have invested $774,350 in the B.C.-Yukon Division so far.

A three-star "V" flag indicating better than 20 per cent participation in the Fifth Loan drive flew tonight over the Alberni Plywoods Plant at Port Alberni. The 166 employees there made 177 applications totalling $17,150 against their quota of $14,270.

London—Oxford University is to create a Department of Opthalmology, whose activities will include research into the causes of blindness and into the problems of eye disease, teaching and the treatment of patients. Lord Nuffield has already presented £25,000 ($111,000) for the promotion of research in this field.

SFORZA TO TAKE OVER LEADERSHIP OF ITALIAN ACTION PARTY

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP.) — Count Carlo Sforza, anti-Fascist who recently returned to Italy after living for a number of years in the United States, will take over the leadership of the Italian "Action Party" tomorrow, Don Hollenbeck, NBC reporter, said tonight in a broadcast from Algiers.

"The Action Party," Hollenbeck said, is composed of "Socialist groups which have come out for a progressive Socialist republic in Italy."

"IT'S ONE HELL OF A WAR" MEMBERS TOLD

Marshall Report Leaves U.S. Politicians Grim

STRUGGLE AHEAD

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (CP)—Members of the House of Representatives heard a grim and graphic account of the war today in a secret session in the auditorium of the Library of Congress, leaving the white marble building convinced that a terrific struggle lies ahead for the United Nations.

The Congressmen heard Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief of the Staff of the United States Army; War Secretary Henry Stimson and other military leaders give detailed accounts of the fighting on every battlefield. They left the building visibly sobered by what they had heard, with some of them determined to combat public optimism through urging the freer release of information by the War and Navy Departments.

The session was an off-the-record one, but House Members reported the military men supplied this information as part of the global picture:

1. The task of defending them makes it difficult, at this time, to think of using Russian bases in Siberia, to strike at the Japanese, even with Russia's consent. Japan has 500,000 troops within a short distance of Siberia.

2. The Germans are building up their fighter strength which today is their first line of defence, just as the fighter squadrons of the R.A.F. were Britain's shield in 1940.

3. Allied Air Forces in the Pacific are knocking down Japanese planes at a satisfactory rate but not as fast as Japan is building them. Japan's Air Force is increasing in numbers, despite battle losses.

4. Japan's war effort is not being impeded by a manpower shortage; in fact the problem of mobilizing her population is not as serious as the one existing in the United States.

5. The over-all problem of transporting supplies is the No. 1 brake on the Allied war effort. The airplane is still a long distance from superseding the ship.

"Gen. Marshal gave us the impression that we are in one hell of a war," said one Member.

Indians Present Petitions to Ontario Gov't

TORONTO, Oct. 20 (CP) — Representatives of a group of Indians now in Ottawa seeking an interview with government officials to present their case for exemption from income tax and compulsory military service announced here tonight that a petition has been presented to Premier Drew asking the right to place the case before the Ontario Supreme Court.

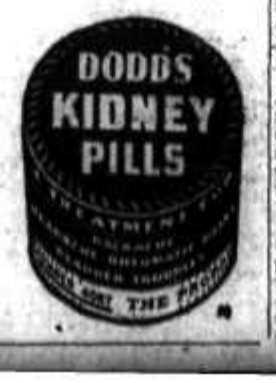
The announcement was made by Andrew Paull of Vancouver and Chief George A. Cree of Lake of Two Mountains Reserve, Quebec, who said the Ottawa conference sent them to Toronto to make the petition because, they said, the Indian Affairs Branch of the Federal Government refused to allow the Indians to lay their case before the members of the Federal Cabinet.

The delegates from Ottawa said they were well received by Premier Drew and Attorney-General Blackwell of Ontario, whom they quoted as assuring them that Ontario will cooperate in the case "to the extent to which Ontario may be constitutionally-bound."

In Ottawa an official said the Government will see the Indians if they have a "bona-fide right to speak for their people."

Find Body of Child

EDMONTON, Oct. 20 (CP)— Believed to have been strangled to death, the body of a nine-year-old girl, tentatively identified by Royal Canadian Mounted Police as Kathleen Vanderwood, was found today in the Namao district on the outskirts of the city. Police early tonight were unable to furnish any details of the tragedy.



West Kootenay Rod and Gun Body to Continue Fight on Duck Lake; Receives Pledge No Jap Fishing

NEW DENVER, B. C., Oct. 20—All officers of the West Kootenay Rod and Gun Club Association were returned to office at the Association's annual meeting today. The officers are A. L. MacPhee, Kaslo, Hon. President; J. G. Cunningham, Vancouver, B.C. Game Commission, Hon. Vice-President; J. J. McEwen, President; Al Farnum, Trail, Vice-President; William Young, Nelson, Secretary-Treasurer.

The convention dealt with a heavy agenda, of which one of the highlights was the polution of streams and lakes by mining and lumbering operations. Feeling the sporting thing would be for operators to make contributions for fish propagation, the convention instructed the Executive to contact mining and lumbering operators.

JAPANESE PROBLEM

Another feature of the discussion was the joint problem of having Japanese take coarse fish from Kootenay and Slocan Lakes, and of preventing fishing by Japanese. B.C. Security officials stated they hoped to net considerable numbers of coarse fish. Delegates opposed permitting Japanese to do any fishing with hook and line.

The Executive was instructed to continue to fight to retain Duck Lake near Sirdar as a resting and breeding place for ducks and geese.

Among convention guests were B. T. McCauley, Director of Game for the State of Washington, and J. G. Cunningham of the B.C. Game Commission.

Convention proceedings were interrupted in the afternoon while delegates attended the Victory Loan Concert by the R.C.A.F. Band from No. 3 Manning Depot, Edmonton.

At night delegates were guests of the Slocan Rod and Gun Club at dinner.

Trail District In 2 Days Writes $89,250 Victory Loan Total

TRAIL, B. C., Oct. 20—Figures released at noon Wednesday by the local Victory Loan office showed a decline over the same period in the last loan. One Quart Liquor Ration for B.C. Is Promised

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — Chairman W. F. Kennedy of the Liquor Control Board, in an interview here today said the spirit ration for November and December will be one reputed quart "if we have to break a leg to do it."

But there will be no change in the alternative ration of two dozen beer or ale for November. "That is definite," he said.

He hopes to add three dozen pints of the malt beverage to the reputed quart of spirits for December.

"That would make it better for citizens for the Christmas and New Year holidays. A quart of the hard stuff and that much beer would help things out a lot and I hope very much that we can do it. We will try to build up our beer reserve in November to be ready for December."

Partisans Smash Hun Attempt to Land Troops

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP)—Yugoslav Partisan forces have smashed a German seaborne attempt to land troops on the Dalmatian coast and two nearby islands in the Adriatic, a communique issued by Gen. Dmja Tito's headquarters and broadcast by the Free Yugoslav radio said today.

The landing attempts, the bulletin declared, were directed against the Peljesac Peninsula, which juts Northwestward into the Adriatic between Split and Dubrovnik, and against the islands of Hvar and Mljet, which guard the approaches to those ports.

A communique issued Sunday by Allied headquarters in North Africa told of a sortie by small British craft between Mljet and Dubrovnik and said they withdrew undamaged under fire from German shore batteries.

Wholesale prices of all commodities in Great Britain rose by 42.2 per cent during the first year of the war; by 9.4 per cent in the second year; by 3.6 per cent in the third; and by only 3.1 per cent in the fourth year.

EXPLOSIONS WRECK ITALIAN SHIPYARDS, BATTLESHIP

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP)—The Russian agency, Tass, said today that the Italian shipyards at Trieste on the Adriatic, which the Germans "had hoped to use for repair and construction," purposes had been wrecked by explosions. The agency added in a broadcast that the 35,000-ton Italian battleship Impero, which the "Hitlerians hoped to complete in a few weeks, has been seriously damaged." Other vessels in drydock were destroyed.

Cranbrook Sets Fast Pace In Victory Loan

CRANBROOK, B. C., Oct. 20 — Cranbrook continued to set a dizzy pace among the East Kootenay centres when today's sales put them past the 33 per cent mark toward their $210,000 goal. Kimberley continued its splendidly organized effort and now lists 513 applications, more than one in every 10 citizens, for close to 20 per cent of its $360,000 quota. East Kootenay as a whole stands at 18 per cent of its $925,000 quota. Fernie and Creston reports cover sales until Tuesday night only, showing seven per cent and four per cent of their respective quotas.

The figures follow:

	Wed.	To date
Cranbrook	$20,400	$ 78,800
Creston	2,450	5,900
Fernie	8,150	13,700
Kimberley	16,950	70,400
Michel-Natal		800
Windermere
Total	$47,950	$167,400

Catholics Free to Join Any Political Party

QUEBEC, Oct. 20 (CP)—Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church of Canada ruled at a plenary meeting here Oct. 18 that Communism "is only a form of revolutionary Socialism based on a materialist philosophy—abolishing liberty and degrading human personality."

The bishops' declaration, contained in a statement issued here today at the archbishop's palace, also said that Canadians of Catholic faith "have all liberty to join any political party as long as that party maintains the fundamental principles of Christianism which are traditional in Canada—"

The statement said in part that Canadian archbishops and bishops "renew the condemnation they have expressed against Communist doctrines, no matter the name the party may use to abuse the good faith of our population."

MEDICO-LEGAL EXPERT DIES IN CRASH OF R.A.F. PLANE

NORTH BATTLEFORD, Sask., Oct. 20 (CP.)—Dr. Maurice Powers of Regina, internationally known medico-legal expert, and two R. C. A. F. men were killed last night when their plane from No. 15 Service Flying Training School, R.A.F., crashed in the Eagle Hills, near here.

Dr. Powers, in charge of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police crime detection laboratories, testified yesterday at the inquest into the death of Cpl. George Alexander, R. C. A. F., who died Oct. 5 allegedly as the result of a fracas in North Battleford Sept. 21 last.

It was believed that Dr. Powers was being flown to Saskatoon to catch the midnight train to Regina.

Chinese Battle Intense

CHUNGKING, Oct. 20 (AP) — Japanese troops still barred from crossing the Salween River on the Yunnan-Burma front have thrust North and South along the West bank of that strategic water barrier to Southwest China, engaging in bank-to-bank artillery duelling and close quarter fighting, the Chinese High Command declared today.

A communique said a Japanese column which previously had been reported routed from its position opposite Luku, on the East bank, had divided into two forces, one going North, the other South.

"The North column is held South of Lisuil by our troops, while the South column had advanced to Lichaipeh on Oct. 18," today's Chinese war bulletin said. "They shelled our positions on the East bank but the fire was silenced by our batteries."

A joint war communique issued in New Delhi said RAF planes damaged 11 locomotives and more than 35 railway cars yesterday on railways in Burma running East of Thazi Junction and Mandalay, and pounded Japanese Army buildings at Kyaukta w and Mawlaik, and bombed the airfields at Magwe and Akyab.

Indirectly aiding the Chinese Yunnan fighting, American Mitchells on the Burma side of the frontier with Southwestern China swarmed over the important Japanese bases of Myitkyina and Bhamo Monday, attacking the airfield at Myitkyina and Irrawaddy shipping at Bhamo, a U.S. communique said.

SPLITS PLANE'S BACK IN PULLOUT

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP)— R.A.F. Pilot Officer R. T. H. Collis split the back of his aircraft today pulling out of a 500-mile-an-hour vertical dive after destroying a FW-190 but managed to bring the plane home safely. The action was one of several by two fighter command Spitfire squadrons which shot down nine enemy planes without any loss to themselves during the day.

Protect Binned Coal Rossland High School Against Over-Heating

ROSSLAND, B. C., Oct. 20—Upon the request of Principal E. E. Perkins of Maclean School, permission was granted by the School Board Tuesday for Maclean School to be closed to pupils on November 1, in order to accommodate the teachers attending the Conventionette.

Principal A. E. Thompson of the High School reported the recommendation made to him by the Fire Inspector, that 20 iron rods placed four feet apart be installed in the coal bin at the High School, so that the temperature could be taken at stated intervals, thus avoiding spontaneous combustion.

He also reported the entrance to the High School had been very much improved.

Acting upon Inspector English's suggestion, the City's priority number will be used in order to get action when purchasing lumber, electrical equipment, and other necessary supplies.

Trustee Harry Lefevre, Chairman of the Maintenance Committee, reported the automatic switch of the Maclean School heating plant was at the Coast being repaired, as the transformer needed rewiring, having been burned out by lightning.

It was reported an arrangement has been made with the High School janitor, who has steam engineer papers, to oversee the Maclean School furnace. A janitor for Maclean School was appointed.

BEEF PRODUCTION UP, BUT DEMAND GAINS

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP.)— The 1943 book of meat statistics was closed today with its strange story of more beef than ever before but still insufficient to go around.

Only an echo of the weeks when complains of beef shortages came from many Canadian cities, the Agriculture Department has issued a review of the livestock market and meat trade in 1943.

It revealed:

1. While complains of beef shortages were being heard, more tons of meat were produced in 1943 than in any other years in Canadian history.

2. Although cattle marketings were about 96,000 head less than in 1941 ,the average carcass weight was much heavier—500 pounds compared with 487—and the total beef yield was sufficient to create a record.

3. Enlarged consumer demand was chiefly responsible for the temporary shortages. Another factor was the reduction in pork supplies available for home use because of heavy shipments to the United Kingdom. Unable to buy pork, consumers turned to purchase of beef.

Bracken Presents Postwar Creed

NEEPAWA, Man., Oct. 20 (CP)—John Bracken, National Progressive Conservative Leader, outlined a 10-pound post-war creed for Canada in an address here tonight which he said "is simple, understandable and accomplishable." The creed called for post-war jobs for every returned soldier, sailor and airman.

Rossland Co-Op to Aid Junior Board With Rink

ROSSLAND, B. C., Oct. 20—The Board of Directors of the Rossland Co-Operative Transportation Society, Tuesday authorized the Sports Committee, with Alex Pollock as Chairman, to cooperate with the Junior Board of Trade regarding the forming of a joint committee to take over the operation of the skating rink for the coming season.

This followed the reading of a letter from the Society's Sports Committee asking for the moral support of the Board of Directors on this project. Mr. Pollock reported the financial statement presented by the Junior Board at a special meeting which he recently attended showed a balance of $90 in the Rink Fund. He suggested the Directors make a donation to this fund at a later date if it was found necessary.

Charge Farmers Working Sunday Is Profanation

TORONTO, Oct. 20 (CP) — Hearing of charges against 33 Toronto and district residents for violating a Dominion Statute prohibiting "profanation of the Lord's Day" by picking vegetables last Sunday was given today a one week hoist to next Wednesday while Ontario Government and Church officials argued publicly the right of farmers to work on Sunday in the harvest of war-vital food crops.

Crown Attorney George Gardhouse in Ontario County Police Court said the Department of Agriculture asked for an adjournment of the charges, which were laid by the York Township Police.

At Queen's Park, it was understood that Attorney-General Blackwell of Ontario had called into conference Chief Robert Alexander of the York Township Police to discuss the charges but that Chief Alexander had been insistent that the charges should be proceeded with.

In the flood of public comment on the case, the e statements represented the most important groups of opinion:

V. S. Milburn, Secretary of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, said: "There wouldn't be jails big enough to hold all the farmers that have been working on Sunday," he said. "This year the food situation has been so serious that many farmers are doing things they wouldn't do normally."

The defendants are W. J. Smith, W. C. Mason and J. Rennie who occupy neighboring farms North of Toronto. Smith said 1000 bushels of carrots had been gathered on his farm Oct. 10 by 32 workers, most of them from Toronto offices and war plants.

"I wasn't doing it for money," Smith said, "but, under war conditions, there's a terrible shortage of labor on week-days."

Chief Constable Robert Alexander of York Township Police said: "The Act forbids the carrying on of regular occupations on Sunday. That's why we laid the charges."

EQUALIZE U.S. AIR AND LAND TROOPS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP) — Equality of the United States Army Air Forces with ground troops has been established formally by order of Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief-of-Staff, in a step which appears to employ the principle of a separate American air arm without an actual divorcement.

A manual governing the Command and employment of air power, in use quietly for three months, describes the land and air forces as "co-equal and interdependent," neither being an auxiliary of the other.

The new rules provide that "the command of air and ground forces in a theatre of operations will be vested in the Superior Commander charged with the actual conduct of operations in the theatre, who will exercise command of air forces through the air force Commander and command of ground forces through the ground force commander."

Naxis Wished Many Happy Returns of Capitulation

MONTREAL, Oct. 20 (CP) — The Norwegian Information Office told today of how wreaths were discovered outside the homes of Nazis in Kristiansand South, Norway, following the capitulation of Italy. The wreaths were inscribed "many happy returns of the day."

Says de Marigny Was "Theatrical" at Murder Scene

By E. V. W. JONES
Associated Press Staff Writer

NASSAU, Bahamas, Oct. 20 (CP) —Chief Defence Counsel Godfrey Higgs twice drew shouted replies today with a relentless cross-examination of Harold G. Christie, the house guest who found the slugged and burned body of Sir Harry Oakes at his Nassau estate last July.

The next witness, Mrs. Newell Kelly, declared that Sir Harry's son-in-law, Alfred de Marigny, who is on trial for murder, "impressed me as theatrical" when she saw him a few hours after the crime.

Christie lifted his voice when one of Higgs' questions suggested that he attempted to revive Oakes even though it was obvious the millionaire was dead. Again he arose to a pitch above his normal calm when Higgs pressed into the detail of which end of a towel he wet to wipe Oake's face.

Mrs. Kelly, wife of the manager of Oakes' Nassau enterprises and the second person to see the body, told of a visit to her home, near the Oakes' estate, by de Marigny and J. H. Anderson, manager of the Bahamas General Trust Company.

"De Marigny said, 'this is terrible. Terrible.'

"He leaned against the porch and said 'I think I am going to be sick.' Both men came into the cottage. De Marigny asked for water, and Anderson for a telephone.

"De Marigny impressed me as theatrical. To get away from him I followed Anderson to the bedroom where he was telephoning. De Marigny came to the room and said again that he thought he was going to be sick.

"I told him to take hold of himself."

Christie had testified that he saw a burned mosquito bar over Oakes' bed, rushed into the room and tried to revive the described as "one of my best friends."

"Had any blood come from Harry when you shook him?" Higgs asked.

"I did not notice," replied the witness.

"Did you use both hands to pour a glass of water for Harry?"

"I believe I used both."

"What happened when you put the water to his lips?"

"It appeared to go down his throat."

"Was there a bad rainstorm during the night?"

"There was."

"Why did you touch the body?"

"If you walk into a room and find your best friend you do everything possible."

Once the dapper De Marigny, watching from the cage-like prisoner's dock, passed a note through the bars to Higgs.

"Look at this photograph," the attorney said during the questioning "does it look like a living man?"

"No, but the body still was warm when I first saw it."

"Did you know when you called to the servant that she was not there?"

"I didn't know."

"You didn't have much hope of saving Harry's life?" Higgs demanded.

Christie lifted his voice and almost shouted his reply:

"Yes, I had hopes of saving my best friend's life."

Higgs brought out that Christie called the maid, a watchman and Mrs. Kelly, wife of the manager of the Oakes Nassau properties but had not summoned a doctor.

He then questioned Christie about his statement that he had left Sir Harry's partly burned room to see whether there was fire in his own room or any other place in the estate, known as Westbourne.

"You were in the house all night?"

"Yes."

"But you went back to the room you slept in to see if there was a fire in it?"

"That was the natural thing to do"

Four law students seated near the front of the prisoner's dock scribbled notes, frequently stopping to look at Higgs or Christie. De Marigny stood with his foot on the bench in the cell, his arm over his knees, watching the proceedings intently. His expression was solemn.

GABLE TO RETURN TO U. S. AFTER BOMBING RAIDS

AT A U. S. FORTRESS BASE IN ENGLAND, Oct. 20 (AP)— Packing up his things to return to the United States, Captain Clark Gable declared today that the fliers he has been filming for six months are boys "America may well be proud of."

They, in turn, summed him up as a "great guy."

"My chief impression from my work here is the splendid spirit and achievement of all of the men," said the film actor who went on five raids over Europe.

"It is amazing that kids who only two years ago were in school or at peacetime work have developed so rapidly into tough fighters—a real match for the Jerries who have been at it four years."

Gable and his film crew expect to get departure orders in London shortly to return to Hollywood to complete editing a Fortress combat picture. Afterward, Gable hopes to get another aerial camera assignment.

Boy Who Swallowed Staple on Way to Philadelphia

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — Eight-year-old Melvin Gilliland will leave here Monday night bound for Temple University Clinic at Philadelphia where it is hoped doctors can remove an iron staple that has been lodged in his lung for more than a year.

Melvin will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Norman Gilliland. The trip was made possible through a fund that began after publication of his plight in a newspaper (Vancouver Sun) and realized about $1400 in little more than a week.

The lad swallowed the staple at playing in Star City, Sask., where his parents lived before coming to Vancouver.

Edmonton Man Is Third Member of Probe Commission

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP) — L. D. Hyndman of Edmonton has been appointed third member of a commission to investigate wage rates in Alberta and British Columbia coal mines, it was learned today.

Appointment of the other two members—Mr. Justice B. G. O'Connor of Edmonton, Chairman, and T. W. Laidlaw, K. C., of Winnipeg—was announced last week by Labor Minister Mitchell.

The Commission was set up under provisions of the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act following demand of the miners, members of District 18, U.M.W.A., for increased wages.

Deodorized Skunk Wandering at Large in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — Joe, the wandering skunk, is still at large today and Vancouver Police haven't even got a "scent" to go on. Daphne Hall, Joe's mistress, claims her pet isn't wild—but then again you couldn't exactly call him tame.

There's strong evidence that Joe was stolen as there aren't any signs of his having dug underneath his kennel which would indicate an "escape."

He has been missing since Sunday and Miss Hall would like to have him back.

"If you come across him, you needn't worry about my Joe—" she said. "He has been thoroughly deodorized."

Harrop Institute Discusses School Concert

HARROP, B. C.—At the October meeting of Harrop and District Women's Institute it was decided to alter the day for regular meetings from the third Tuesday to the third Saturday in each month.

Plans were discussed for the school children's Christmas concert and will be announced later when completed.

The meeting voted to donate $6.25 to Harrop Red Cross Group for their Christmas Parcel Fund for servicemen and women from this district. This was proceeds of a collection for the Red Cross at a recent bean supper party.

Mrs. Bert Fitchett and Miss L. Grant were prize winners.

Tea hostess was Mrs. W. J. McConnell.

Claim Mussolini Intended to Resign

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 20 (AP) —A Budapest dispatch to the Swiss newspaper Gazette de Lausanne today said that Mussolini had indicated his intention to resign as head of Italy's "Fascist Republican Government" and had asked the directors of the Party in Berlin to name Marshal Rodolfo Graziani as his successor.

The dispatch said the former Duce never had left Germany, although he was reported to have returned to Rome from Germany after his "liberation" by Nazi parachutists. Italians in Budapest, the dispatch added, said that Mussolini had never actively participated in the new Government, which was "against his heart."

Plan Programs for Sunday School

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

The following will be of interest to many parents.

Please give me suggestions for conducting opening exercises for juniors (ages ten to fourteen) in our Sunday School. The meetings cover 15 minutes each Sunday morning just prior to going to their classes.

Is it advisable to have them meet by themselves or with the rest of the Sunday School during the opening exercises? For the past several months they have tried to have their own opening exercises but attendance has gradually declined. I recently visited them and noticed that the children all semed very much bored with the program. I have been asked to take them over. A self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed.

DOCTOR'S ANSWER

Here is how I answered her. If the number of children exceeds ten or fifteen, separate opening exercises for these juniors is far better than their union with the adult assembly, since it can be adapted to the ability and interest of the children. This is the very age when opening exercises can be made most interesting, if they provide variety and participation by all the children.

Let there be group singing of songs the children know and like. Now and then the boys might sing alone and the girls alone, arousing some competition. One group might occasionally whistle while the other group sing. There should be some surprises. A committee of children might, with the aid of the adult leader, plan the program ahead for various Sundays.

Let there be great variety in the program, with no two successive Sundays alike. So far as possible, the adult leader should keep in the background while the children carry on themselves. Care should be exercised that the jobs at leadership are passed around among the children. Now and then a representative from the departments of the Sunday School should visit the junior assembly in order to make their work appear more worthwhile.

Also the individual teachers of the regular classes of this age-range should strive to make the lessons interesting through a variety of kinds of presentation, considerable dramatization, with participation by every child aimed at.

Enough Vitamins in Average Diet

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

During a conversation I had only the other day with a gentleman at my golf club who was sitting in the sunlight, he said something to the following effect: "How in the world did our parents and grandparents get along when they couldn't get vitamins, although I will say they are very expensive because I just got a box of them and they cost me $7.50."

I asked him what he had had for lunch and he said carrots, cabbage and beans. So I called his attention to the fact that he had engulfed quite a lot of vitamins in his regular meal, which was just the way his grandparents got theirs. And just the way Adam and Eve got theirs. When Eve ate the apple she may have got quite a dose of sin, but she also got quite a wad of vitamins A, B, C, and a little B2.

VITAMINS IN DIET

In his carrots my friend got about 3700 units of Vitamin A, about 50 units of B, and about 10 units of C. In his cabbage he got A, B1, C and B2. In his beans he got A, B1, C and B2. I asked him if he ever took any orange juice, and of course he said he took it every morning, so I said, "You get plenty of Vitamin C."

Then I asked him whether he ate any meat and he said yes, he loved ham and eggs, and I said, "Well, you get about 430 International Units of B1 in the ham, and nearly everything but Vitamin C in the eggs, and since he was sitting in the sunlight he was manufacturing Vitamin D in his skin, and so he was practically getting everything he needed without the $7.50 box of tablets. And also the way his grandfather got vitamins was just the way he was getting them—to wit, through his food.

People who are worrying about their vitamin intake should go to a large nutrition experiment laboratory and watch them trying to process food so as to get all the vitamins out of it. Or even worse, to get all of one vitamin out so they can make controlled experiments.

HUMAN REQUIREMENT

Vitamins become a human requirement by a process of adaptation to environment in the course of evolution. It is perfectly simple and scientific to imagine animals who do not need any vitamins at all. Plants are living organisms that in the course of evolution manufacture their tissue mostly out of sunlight, air and water.

But the food that animals, and later man, ate contained vitamins and the animal organism gradually adapted itself to utilizing them so it grew to be a habit that they couldn't get along without. Did you ever develop a habit that you finally couldn't get along without? Yes, you developed one, which is that your food must contain vitamins.

Of course, to answer the original question: It is safe to take vitamin pills, but tough on the pocketbook —$7.50 versus .07½ cents.

War Plant Work More Exciting Than Housework

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Come along with me through a shipyard and get, first hand, the answers to whether women like working in war plants, how they are standing up to the jobs, and will they be willing to go back to house work when it is all over.

The first girl I talked to had been a manicurist. (She is pretty, too.) She took the job because she had heard the beauty operators make good workers since they know how to use their hands. She has been at it 10 months now and says: "It keeps me trim and is much more exciting than filling fingernails."

Some of the lady welders used to work in offices. They said for me to tell you white collar girls that it is a lot easier to weld than to take letters and that it is more fun. You don't get bored and you don't come home crabby from having to concentrate all day long.

A good many of the women are in war work to take their minds off their troubles. I talked with a home maker whose son had died in the Navy. She had never worked out before, but she thought she would go crazy staying home, so she took this job. She does bench work. Now she says, she is is almost happy.

The women with families like to get on the five o'clock in the afternoon to the 12:45 in the morning shift. They go home and to bed after work, then get up and fix breakfast for the children, do the housework, and prepare lunch. To make up for any lost sleep they rest in the afternoon. They say it isn't easy having two jobs, but they find it exciting and different, and on the whole, they like it.

In general, the reply to the question, "which do you like better, this or housework" was "I kind of like this better. It's different, and here you work with people." Will they go back to homemaking when it's all over?" "Oh, sure! My husband will want me back where I belong. But I'll miss this." And do they get more tired doing housework or war work? Most of them seem to think the war work is easier—"there's something going on here all the time."

Teamwork makes work and exercise more fun. The favorite sport of the women welders at U. S. Steel Federal Shipyard, Port Newark, New Jersey, is bowling. Mrs. Dale Rini is shown in the foreground. Her team is about ready to challenge a rival in one of the other departments at the yard.

No Love . . .

Husband Leads Miserable Life

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Here's a letter from a husband which would furnish unlimited thought for wives who don't take the job of matrimony seriously.

Dear Miss Fairfax:

"I've been reading your column for a long time, and what gets me is why do people think a man can't really love another woman even if he is married?

"I love another woman although I've been married for 13 years and have three little daughters. Without them I could not live with my wife, but she imagines I love her. And let me say I've never given her any reason to think I don't. Three month married, I knew I'd made a mistake. At the end of the first year she left me and our baby because I couldn't afford to rent a house to ourselves, but had to live with my own people at the time.

"Now I'm making good, and if I don't give her everything she wants she threatens to desert again. She will leave our younger child, a baby, with anyone who will take her. I don't know where my wife is, what she is doing, and I'm not interested in her enough to care.

"The other woman is a type that any man would honor as a wife. She loves me too, but I haven't seen her for months and she won't see me because she thinks our friendship would make others unhappy and she would not consider my getting a divorce.

"When my children used to see her they really loved her more than they did their own mother. Their mother seems to have no time for them and whips them when I'm not there to defend them.

"I'm not asking for sympathy; I just felt like telling my story to you. Of course there are a lot of things that can't be told, among them why a man doesn't love his wife. I wish I could love her. I've tried to make myself love her, and make a go of our marriage.

"M.I.S."

While this correspondent says he's not asking for sympathy, he surely has ours in full measure and overflowing. If readers of this column have any helpful suggestions, we'll be glad to print them.

Hints for Housewives

By BETSY NEWMAN

Liver is a good source of vitamins and other important nutritional elements and we should use it often. In the menu I'm giving you, a small amount of liver is made to serve at least four people.

TODAY'S MENU

Crisp Liver with Onion Gravy
Brown Rice
Broiled Tomato Slices
Cabbage Salad
Wartime Ice Cream
Coffee

CRISP LIVER WITH ONION GRAVY

1 pound liver, ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, ½ teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ⅛ teaspoon savory, 2 onions, finely sliced, 6 tablespoons fat, 1 bouillon cube, ¾ cup hot water.

Have liver sliced; cut in 1 inch cubes, blend dry ingredients and dip liver cubes in flour mixture so that each one is well coated; reserve any flour remaining. Saute onions in 2 tablespoons of fat in your copper clad steel skillet, until golden brown, and put to one side of skillet; add remaining fat and fry liver cubes until they are cooked through and crisp. Remove liver from skillet. Dissolve bouillon cube and add to onions and drippings in pan. Thicken with flour remaining from liver coating. Serve liver and gravy over cooked brown rice.

WARTIME ICE CREAM

2 cups milk, ½ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 3 egg yolks, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 3 egg whites, 3 tablespoons sugar.

Scald milk in double boiler. Mix the ½ cup sugar, flour, salt and egg yolks; add scalded milk and cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until thick. Add flavoring and chill. Beat egg whites, adding the 3 tablespoons sugar, beat until creamy. Fold into the chilled mixture. Turn into tray and freeze with temperature regulator set at coldest point. Serves 6.

The Wisdom That Is Willing

The 3 per cent interest which will be paid to the buyers of the war loan being raised today by the Government indicates the great wealth of Canada and the wisdom of the people.

The sound prudence of the people to subscribe to a national loan of the importance of this one is strikingly seen when the willingness of Canada to do this is compared with the recent history of some others and what happened to them.

Castlegar Woman Granted Divorce

Alida Benoit of Castlegar was successful in her petition for divorce from Osa Louis Benoit of Maillardville, B.C., in Fall Assizes at Nelson Wednesday. Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane of Victoria in awarding a decree of dissolution of the marraige also awarded the petitioner custody of two sons and costs against the respondent.

Two witnesses, James Alexander Aitchinson and Gordon Stanley Graves, private investigators of Vancouver, appeared on behalf of the petitioner.

C. H. Clegg of Trail was solicitor for Mrs. Benoit.

IF YOUR CHILD IS THIN and NERVOUS

Try New, Improved Ovaltine

Children who are thin, nervous and under par, science has discovered, are often found to be eating foods which do not give them enough of the essential food elements everyone needs for health.

As a "protecting" food-drink, New, Improved Ovaltine adds to a child's meals the essential food elements most likely to be deficient in his diet.

Three servings of New, Improved Ovaltine furnish a child with a significant portion of his daily requirement of Vitamins A, B_1, and D, and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron—also quick food-energy elements and high quality proteins — all for building sturdy bodies.

So—if your child is thin, nervous, under par, or eats poorly, why not start giving him New, Improved Ovaltine regularly? Get Ovaltine at your drug or food store.

I felt terrible!

I thought my blouse was white until
...I saw Helen's RINSO-WASHED blouse!

PEGGY: Good gracious, Helen, next to your blouse mine looks downright dingy. How you must have rubbed to get it so gleaming white!

HELEN: Not at all! It's easy to get clothes the whitest white with Rinso. Rinso's thick, lively suds float away dirt—even ground-in dirt.

PEGGY: But is Rinso really safe for my washable colored clothes, too?

HELEN: It most certainly is! Washable colors stay bright as flowers, even after dozens of washings.

PEGGY: I'm convinced! From now on I'm going to use nothing but Rinso on washday.

Dishwashing's easier Rinso's Soak-and-Swish way! Just soak dishes in Rinso's rich suds then swish them clean in no time. Rinse. Drain 'em, don't dry 'em. Grease is gone—they'll drain without streaking. And with Rinso your hands don't get red and rough!

Public Cooperation Is Helping to Move Freight

So well have shippers and consignees of freight cooperated with Canadian railroads that in June this year 287,000 more tons were handled than in October of 1942 with 25,000 less cars.

Shippers have been urged to load cars to capacity, which resulted in average contents of cars being increased by about 10 tons. Consignees and shippers were urged to load and unload cars promptly and when unloading to clean out all dunnage, etc., so that cars were immediately ready for use by another shipper.

Continued cooperation is necessary. Wartime freight loadings in June reached an all-time high with more than 9 million tons, May figure was 8 million, April 7.8. A year ago June loadings were 7.9 and in 1939 they were 4.2.

Canadian railroads are doing a magnificent job in handling freight and passenger traffic of enormously increased volume. New equipment is virtually impossible to get, repair and maintenance work has to be carried out under high pressure, operating crews are working to the limit.

Indications are that traffic will continue to mount and that the need for speeding up the use of freight cars by prompt loadings and prompt releases, together with capacity loading, will increase.

Speed the Victory by Beating Loan Quotas

The case for subscriptions on a maximum scale to the Fifth Victory Loan is exceptionally well put by A. J. Kelly, Chairman, and William L. Best, Secretary, of the Dominion Joint Legislative Committee of the Railway Transportation Brotherhoods.

In a letter which has been sent to members of their organizations they mention plans for the present Loan campaign and say:

"All Canadian citizens are again asked to assist in this progressive move toward victory and the conclusion of hostilities which will speed the return of our loved ones and our normal way of life.

"We are asked to combine our efforts and resources to the point of sacrifice of personal pleasures and unessential articles and services that our national objectives and obligations may be met. We are urged to spend less, save more, and buy Victory Bonds, thereby cooperationg in financing the gigantic task yet before us.

"Experience has proven the value of cooperation by Government, Management and Labor in a systematic canvass and savings by wage-earners through Payroll Savings plan. The Executives of our Organizations have approved and General Chairmen and Local Officers have been requested to play their part, thus ensuring success by concerted directed effort.

"We most heartily commend the past efforts and the plans now undertaken and urge the enthusiastic support of all in this effort to save for our individual future benefit, and in so doing speed the victory of our Allied cause."

Coordination of Shipping, Railways and Air Transport

Administration of the Port of London, the greatest shipping centre in the world as measured by tonnage and variety of products which are handled through the port, is very much alive to the development of air traffic which will revolutionize transportation after the war.

The Port authorities do not anticipate that air transports will replace the ships that ply the seas to an extent which would make the Thames no longer a great seaport, but they realize that a big volume of traffic which formerly was handled by rail or ship will in future be carried through the air.

Wisely, instead of engaging in a fight against the progress of air transportation, the Port of London authorities are preparing to cooperate with and take advantage of it. The idea is the integation in the immediate post-war future of the new arm of air transport with existing sea and land transport facilities of the Port of London.

On the subject of provision for Air Transport, the authors of "County of London Plan" state: "All the portents indicate that, after the war, there will be a very considerable expansion in air transport for passengers and, perhaps, for freight. Any plan for the future arrangements of London must have close regard to these eventualities. Flying, as a means of quick transport, has developed rapidly in recent years, not least under the spur of war-time emergency, and this is likely to continue afterwards. A greatly increased volume of traffic on long-distance continental and overseas routes must be envisaged, and there might well be a similar or even greater expansion in intercity traffic. There can be little doubt that after the war a number of additional civil aerodromes will be needed in the London region to serve the metropolis. In view of the lack of information as to the location and future use of the new military aerodromes, it has not been possible to ensure with any degree of certainty that the road and rail systems, as proposed in the Plan, will be properly coordinated with the aerodromes. Much justifiable criticism has been levelled in the past against the lack of quick means of transport between the existing aerodromes and the centre of London and main railway stations. The grounds for this criticism will be at least partially removed if the principal road and rail proposals in the Plan materialize, irrespective of where the aerodromes are situated, they might be found to be removed altogether. A solution to the problem of getting quickly from aerodrome to centre might ultimately lie in the direction of using taxi-plane services, the planes landing on open spaces or on the roofs of buildings in the central areas."

The Report also suggests that "the potentialities of the River and its frontage land for seaplanes merit investigation," and the setting up of an Investigating Body to consider various transport problems, including "the need for the provision of express services from the centre to airports."

Approximately 300 single unemployed men from Northern Alberta, for whom the Dominion authorities are to provide relief work, will arrive at Nelson at noon Saturday by a special Canadian Pacific train from Edmonton, to be distributed among four Dominion relief camps in this district under arrangements directed at this end by J. LONDON, Oct. 20—The Alaska award, as far as it relates to Portland Canal, gives the United States two islands, Kannagbui and Sitklan, commanding the entrance of Portland Canal and the ocean passage to Port Simpson, and destroying the strategic value of Wales and Pearce Islands, which are given to Canada. The mountain line adopted as the boundary lies so far from the coast as to give the United States substantially all the territory in dispute. It clears all the bays and inlets and means of access to the sea, giving the United States a complete land barrier between Canada and the sea from Portland Canal to Mount St. Elias. Around the head of Lynn Canal the line follows the watershed, somewhat in accordance with the present provisional boundary.

Kaslo, Oct. 20—A gruesome find of a headless body of a well grown and well dressed young man was stumbled over today by J. W. Cockle of the Kaslo Hotel, while hunting on Kaslo Mountain. The first and second joints of the thumb were still clinging to the trigger of a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver. The body of the suicide victim had been in place a long time, and wore rubbers and a large quantity of tasteful jewelry, including a neat pin with pearl setting and a gold watch and chain.

London, Oct. 20—The engrossed copy of the Alaska award was signed at 2:10 p.m. today, but the Canadian Commissioners declined to sign. They will submit their contrary opinions to the tribunal so as to officially go on record. They signed the maps agreed upon by the majority. In a statement of their reasons for refusing to sign the award, they say they consider the finding of the tribunal regarding the islands at the entrance to Portland Canal, and regarding the mountain line, is not a judicial one. They add: "We urged our views as strongly as we were able, but have been compelled to witness the sacrifice of the interests of Canada. We were powerless to prevent it, though satisfied that the course which the majority was determined to pursue in respect to the matters above specially referred to, ignored the just rights of Canada."

J. C. H., New Denver—Can you supply me with information on soy bean culture?

Take a piece of one-inch water pipe of sufficient length to suit your garden. Put a cap on one end or plug the pipe by driving in a close fitting wooden plug. On the other end of the pipe attach a short piece of garden hose, 18 inches to 36 inches is enough. Equip this hose with two female hose couplers. Couple one end of the hose to the pipe and the other to the male end of a garden hose. If your garden rows are 24 inches apart drill small holes approximately one eighth of an inch in diameter at intervals of 24 inches in a straight line along one side of the pipe. If your rows are of different distances make the holes to fit your rows. They can be drilled at 12, 18 or 24 inches and small wooden plugs driven in to stop the holes not required. The flow of water through the pipe is controlled by the main water tap. Small furrows may be made with a hoe or hand plow and the water from a small hole in pipe admitted to each furrow. About ten or twelve feet of pipe to do from 4 to 6 rows at once is the best. Allow the water to run in these furrows till the ground is thoroughly moistened and then do not irrigate again for a week in hot weather and for longer intervals in cooler weather.

For garden use, try the Early Blackeye, if you can obtain seed of it. Mandarin and Kabott are the two most satisfactory main crop varieties. O.A.C. 211 is very tall and late as also is A.K. Harrow. The seed of Manitoba Brown is very small and the plants are short and difficult to harvest, except by hand. This variety is the earliest, Wisconsin Black is the next earliest. Usually for household use a yellow seeded variey is preferable.

"DEAD STICK LANDING"

Swift Teamwork Saves Five Airmen Forced Down Off B.C. Coast

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP) — Fast teamwork in a failing aircraft saved the lives of five R.A.F. members of an Anson bomber crew when their plane "hit the deck" in the Pacific 60 miles off the Coast of British Columbia, the R.C.A.F. reported today in a Press release.

Well out at sea, the Anson's starboard engine kicked and conked out. The pilot, Sgt. A. G. Jagger, swung the ship around and headed for home on one engine. Losing altitude rapidly, he realized he was forced to "ditch the ship" as they sifted down to 300 feet. He picked out the crest of an oncoming wave for his forced landing.

At this point, every member of the crew had to work fast with no time allowed for mistakes.

The student navigator, Sgt. William Walton, gave the pilot a quick wind direction, shot the emergency landing order along to the wireless air gunners, Sgt. Neilson and Sgt. N. O. Weekes, who swiftly got the emergency dinghy ready for launching and inflation. Flt. Sgt. J. H. Straughan, instructor, jumped to the wireless key and was tapping out an SOS signal as the big ship hit the sea.

The dinghy launched and inflated, the crew members scrambled out and the pilot made a quick check to see that no one was injured, that everything of use in an open sea had been brought along. Noting the Aldis lamp and signalling cartridges were missing, the pilot and instructor climbed back to get the equipment.

Tossing in their small dinghy on the vast expanse of the Pacific Ocean, the five airmen scanned the horizon, hoped their SOS signals had not gone unheard. Their luck held. An Anson from their own base sighted a red Very light fired by the pilot and passed the word along to the Air-Sea Rescue Service. A motor launch sped to the scene. Three hours from the time the aircraft pointed its nose at the sea, five wet but happy airmen were helped aboard the rescue launch.

Apart from some exposure and the odd minor bruise, the only injury was a one-inch cut on the pilot's forehead, caused by his head striking the windshield on landing.

BEN BERNIE DIES

BEN BERNIE

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Oct. 20 (AP) — Ben Bernie, the old maestro of the stage, screen and radio, died at his apartment this morning after a long illness from a pulmonary affection with heart complications.

The 52-year-old band leader was stricken with pleurisy while playing an engagement in Chicago last February. After a short period abed he disregarded his physicians orders and came to the West Coast to fulfill entertainment engagements in war plants. Soon after arriving here he suffered a relapse and for 11 weeks was confined to an oxygen tent.

Bernie was born Benjamin Anselevitz, in Bayonne, N. J., in a family of 12.

Identify U. S. Pilot Killed in Crash at Victoria

SEATTLE, Oct. 20 (AP)—The pilot of a United States Navy plane which dove into the water off Cordova Bay, near Victoria, B. C., last Saturday as hundreds of people watched from shore was identified by Thirteenth Naval District headquarters today as Ensign Gordon E. Kruskopf, from a Puget Sound station. His father, E. B. Kruskopf, lives at St. Paul, Minn.

Rescue boats from shore found only wreckage at the crash scene.

Airwomen Will be Provided for After War

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP) — When Airwoman Janey Canadian comes marching home from service in the R.C.A.F. Women's Division she'll find that the nation's interest in her well-being doesn't end when her discharge certificate is handed to her.

The R.C.A.F. announced today in a Press release the Defence Department will give her money to help br buy new "civvies" pay for 30 days after discharge if she has been in uniform six months or more and a ticket back home or to where she enlisted, whichever is nearest.

What's more, she can go back to the job she left to enlist, or one equal to it, if she asks her employer within three months after discharge had been working there at least three months before she enlisted, and is still capable of carrying on the work.

If she works at least 15 weeks in insurable employment and then finds herself unemployed, the Department of Pensions and National Health will contribute on her behalf to the Unemployment Insurance for her period of service between July 1, 1941, and the date of discharge. Thus, she will have more credits on which to draw than the 15 or more weeks of contributions made since her discharge.

Pearl-shelling is carried on in the tropical waters of Queensland, the Northern Territory and Western Australia.

British Plan for Postwar Civil Aviation Ready

LONDON, Oct. 20 (CP) — Lord Beaverbrook announced today that Britain has an "extensive and complete" plan for postwar civil aviation ready to present to an international conference.

Lord Beaverbrook who has been entrusted by Prime Minister Churchill with direction of the British Air Transport policy forecast forces of 2000 aircraft engaged in civil aviation in Britain after the war.

He said however that this estimate—which would be four times the number of commercial planes used in the United States before the war—"will not afford a great basis for production of aircraft after the war."

Submission of the Empire Plan to an international conference, he said, "must wait upon the United States and particularly upon Russia."

Canada was represented at the Empire Air Conference by Hon. C. D. Howe, Munitions Minister, Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, High Commissioner, H. J. Symington, head of Trans-Canada Air Lines and J.R. Baldwin, Assistant Secretary in the Privy Council office at Ottawa.

Denies Possibility Chinese Civil War

CHUNGKING, Oct. 20 (AP) — The Chinese National Government, speaking through its new minister of Information, Liang Han-chao, voiced assurance today of the prospective settlement of a quarrel with Chinese Communists and declared there would be no civil war in China.

"I can assure you that no such thing as a clash is impending between the Kuomintang (National People's Party) and the Communists," Liang asserted at his first Press conference in his new position.

The people's political council adjourned Sept. 27 with a strong denunciation of the Chinese Communists, accusing them of a "disobedient attitude and subversive activities." This climaxed recriminations between Chungking and Yenan headquarters of Chinese Communists, in which each accused the other of disrupting national unity and hindering prosecution of the war.

Doukhobors Take Part in Zeebeck Burial

Doukhobors participated in the funeral services at Somers Funeral Home Wednesday, for Samuel Zeebeck of Thrums, former miner, who died in Kootenay Lake General Hospital Monday, aged about 50 years. Rev. H. Stewart Forbes conducted the services. The Doukhobors sang their own hymns in Russian at the chapel, then took part in the services at the graveside, repeating the Lord's Prayer and singing Nearer My God to Thee in their language.

Pall bearers were H. Sallken, John Androsoff, W. S. Pershudoff, George Pevaksbonoff, John Kolosovski and Mike Zayzoff.

Date Set for Prisoner Exchange

MADRID, Oct. 20 (AP) — An exchange of German and British disabled war prisoners will take place at Barcelona Oct. 28 or 29, the Barcelona correspondent of the Spanish News Agency Cifra said today.

Announcement of an exchange of Allied and German prisoners was made in London yesterday by the British Foreign Office which said one transfer would take place at Barcelona and another at Goteborg in Sweden. The announcement gave no date for the Barcelona exchange, however.

GERMAN-MANNED ITALIAN STEAMER CAPTURED

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALGIERS, Oct. 20 (AP) — Two Royal Navy destroyers intercepted two German-manned Italian steamers in the Adriatic Sea off the Dalmatian Coast Saturday, captured one and sank the other, it was disclosed today.

The action took place off the Island of Mljet, near Dubrovnik, where the Yugoslavs reported today they had repulsed a German landing attempt.

R.C.A.F. BAND WINDS UP TOUR AT NAKUSP

R.C.A.F. Band of No. 3 Manning Depot, Edmonton, continuing its tour of the Kootenays in support of the Fifth Victory Loan Campaign, performed at Nakusp Wednesday. The entertainment in the Slocan wound up their highly successful tour and Thursday they will pass through Nelson en route home.

The trip has carried them to five West Kootenay and Boundary centres as well as through East Kootenay. Since crossing the main lake ferry Saturday they have played at Rossland, Grand Forks, Trail, Nelson and Nakusp.

Navy League Marks Historic Victory Today

Oct. 21st is one of the great days in history of the British Navy, and I take advantage of this Trafalgar Day to wish you and all associated with you in the movement all success . . ."

This was the message from Hon. A. L. MacDonald, Minister of Defence for the Navy, to Mayor N. C. Stibbs as Chairman of the Navy League of Canada Branch here for today's anniversary of the historic victory. Accompanying the message was a scroll copy of Nelson's Prayer:

"May the great God I worship grant to my country, and for the benefit of Europe in general, a great and glorious victory; and may no misconduct in anyone tarnish it, and may humility after victory be the predominant feature in the British Fleet. For myself individually, I commit my life to Him that made me, and may his blessing alight on my endeavors for serving my country faithfully. To Him I resign myself and the just cause which is entrusted to me to defend. Amen."

Education in matter pertaining to the Navy and Merchant Navy, the training of Royal Canadian Sea Cadets for service and good citizenship, caring for survivors, providing hostels, recreation centres, comforts and welfare for men of the seas, are objects of the Navy League.

Assistance in furthering these objects are the duty of the newly-founded Navy League of Canada Branch here.

The first Canadian contingent in Britain during the First Great War landed October 15, 1914, two months after the declaration of war.

Interpreting The War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Events along the whole length of Hitler's "blood wall" defence front on the Dnieper are moving at a pace that makes possible a greater Nazi military catastrophe than Stalingrad.

As Moscow pictures the situation in the South, and it is endorsed in Berlin, a powerful segment of the Nazi army is virtually trapped in the upper elbow of the Dnieper Bend.

There was no attempt in Berlin to minimize the extreme gravity of the situation. On the contrary, Nazi censors permitted Swedish correspondents in Berlin to describe Tuesday as "the blackest day since the war started" for Germany.

The Stockholm advices added that there was growing speculation there as to whether there might not be "more behind the latest conferences between Adolf Hitler and the Nazi leaders than officially announced." That seems justified. The German announcement telling of the most recent conference at which Hitler spoke said it had been called to meet Hitler, not by Hitler. It included leading German "personalities," civilians as well as military; but it was summoned, the semi-official D.N.B. announcement said, "by the Chief of the High Command."

HITLER'S STAR FALLING

Field Marshal General Wilhelm Kletel holds that post. He represents the old German army officer caste, not the Nazi elements of the army. That may prove significant. It could indicate, coupled with the amazing action of the Nazi censors in passing the gloom-filled Berlin dispatches to Stockholm papers, a beginning of the elimination of Hitler and Hitlerism from the German scene by action of the old-guard military caste.

That is obviously hinted at in the Stockholm comment on the news from Berlin. There has always been speculation in London and in Washington as to what the German generals might do if they became convinced as military realists not only that victory or even a negotiated peace was impossible, but utter defeat assured unless Hitler and all he represents in Germany was unhorsed as was Mussolini in Italy.

It seems fantastic that Germany has yet reached that point. As the record stands, however, it seems that German public opinion is being prepared for something on the basis of bad news from the Russian front. Just what that something is remains to be seen, but it might prove an attempt to make a separate peace with Russia if she could be satisfied by removal of Hitler and his whole regime and a German retirement within old borders on the East.

This is mere guesswork. If there is brewing in Germany some sort of a political upheaval designed to end hostilities in the East, it will put Russian-Allied commitments not to make peace without joint discussions to a test that could change the whole aspect of the Moscow conference overnight.

LETTING YOU IN ON AN ALLIED MILITARY SECRET

This photo gives you the first peek at a military secret—the landing boat that carries its own roadway for use when it can not get close enough to shore to unload its cargo of men and material right on to the beach. This roadway, or pier, is carried on the side of the L.S.T. and is put into place in a few minutes. One ramp can serve many landing craft.

Contract... By Shepard Barclay

LEADING DUMMY'S SUIT

WHEN YOUR partner leads a suit which the dummy had bid and rebid, against a game contract in another suit, what was his reason? Should it not be pretty clear that, under all ordinary circumstances, that is just about the most dangerous opening that can be made? Doesn't that risk helping declarer set up the suit? Your partner then must have some purpose in the lead. It is almost sure to be one of two things. Either he has so many of it he expects you can get a first or second round ruff, or else he has led a singleton expecting a ruff himself.

(Dealer: South. East-West vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1♥	Pass	2♣	Pass
2♥	Pass	3♣	Pass
4♥

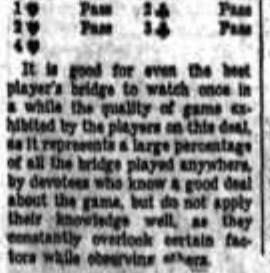
It is good for even the best player's bridge to watch once in a while the quality of game exhibited by the players on this deal, as it represents a large percentage of all the bridge played anywhere, by devotees who know a good deal about the game, but do not apply their knowledge well, as they constantly overlook certain factors while observing others.

With his long trumps, and not much else, West refrained from opening his longest suit, diamonds, to force the declarer, but used his singleton club. The Q won that, then South went to dummy with the diamond K and led the heart 9, which he sent through. West letting it run because later he hoped to "see a signal from his partner." South then led a diamond to his A and led the heart A, K and J. West won with the Q. Having seen a high spade from East, he now led to the A. After East cashed the diamond Q, West was jubilant, with visions of a ruff of a club with his last trump.

East, however, could not imagine his partner as having had five trumps, so returned his spade Q. The declarer, of course, won with the K, dropped the last trump and made his contract.

* * *

Tomorrow's Problem



(Dealer: East. East-West vulnerable.)

What is the soundest return for East to make, against South's 6-Clubs, if West leads the spade 5 to his A, after having supported spades during the bidding, which was marked by diamond and club bids from South?

Market Trends . . .

LONDON, Oct. 20 (AP). — The stock market drifted irregularly lower today in quiet trade. Industrials, oils and Rattlers failed to maintain early improvement and closed lower. Home rails and diamonds also were in supply in late transactions. International securities did a little better.

British funds countered the general trend with firmness.

NEW YORK — Communications shares and a few industrial specialties registered substantial gains today as the main stock market list moved sluggishly in a narrow area.

In the Canadian section McIntyre and Distillers Seagram recorded gains and Lake Shore was firm. C. P. R. eased a fraction.

CHICAGO—Wheat dropped a cent at times today as commercial demand dried up and selling was prompted by President Roosevelt's reiteration late yesterday that he was strongly in favor of subsidies as a method of controlling food prices.

At the close wheat was ¼ to ⅝ lower, December $1.54¼-⅝, May $1.51-$1.53½; Rye was down ⅛ to 1¼, December $1.11¼-⅜; oats were ¼ lower to ⅛ higher and barley was ⅝ to ¾ lower.

MONTREAL—Leading Quebec electric were a trifle stronger and other sections irregular in transfers today.

Canadian Car, Gypsum and Westinghouse made headway in industrials.

Hollinger did better in golds and Lamaque and Perron posted decreases. Sullivan retrieved a loss.

TORONTO—Stocks were in dull trade but prices held firm to strong in the main today. A wide range of industrials appeared in the action and the balance of price changes was on the upside in the senior oils, utilities, liquors and miscellaneous issues.

WINNIPEG—Rye futures moved into lower ground today in a dull session. Closing values were ⅛ to ¾ cents below the previous close with October at $1.10⅝.

Selling by locals and United States commission houses featured the market which was influenced by lower values at Chicago.

Business in cash grains was highlighted by the sale of an estimated 250,000 bushels of No. 2 Northern to the United States Commodity Credit Corporation. The transactions apparently represented vessel loading of old orders.

VANCOUVER—Trading was quiet today with a total turnover of 8255 shares.

Eighty-year-old Alderman Austin Harford has been chosen Lord Mayor of Liverpool.

COME ON POP, LET'S HIT THAT LINE

Little Mike Svendsen, seven, was right on the job at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, to make sure his dad, Bud Svendsen, Dodger star, got a real workout and is shown here giving the old man plenty of rear support as they hit the bucking sleigh. The Dodgers went through a practice game in preparation for their contest against the New York Giants.

Warwick Signs Ranger Contract

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20 (CP.) — Lester Patrick, Manager of New York Rangers, announced here tonight that Grant (Knobby) Warwick, 22-year-old right winger and a winner of the Calder rookie trophy in 1941-42, has signed a 1943-44 contract.

Warwick, who made the jump to the National Hockey League after aiding Regina Rangers to the Allan Cup in 1941, therefore became the fifth player to reach terms with the Ranger Manager since pre-season training got underway last week.

Patrick announced Monday he had signed three youthful goalkeepers, Don Murray, Elwin Rollins, and Ken McAuley, and a 17-year-old forward, Ron Raleigh.

Making the announcement, Patrick said Warwick appeared destined to have another great year with the New York Club.

"He's been burning up the ice in practice," he said, "and has been one of the performers on view."

Warwick enjoyed a sensational amateur hockey career before he turned professional with Rangers.

Bert Gardiner May Go to Boston; Boucher Likes Shero

By The Canadian Press

One of the slickest performers at the St. Catharines, Ont., training camp of Toronto Maple Leafs won't lift a stick for Leafs this season. He's Billy Taylor of the Canadian Army, spending a furlough with the Leafs. The former Toronto centre star is ticketed to coach Toronto's Junior Marlboros this season.

Coach Frank Boucher of Rangers is high on Fred Shero, a junior with St. James Canadians in the Winnipeg League last season. "He carries himself like a professional player," says Boucher.

Another promising rookie in the Ranger Camp at Winnipeg is Bill Tindall, who played defence for Winnipeg Rangers when they won the Memorial Cup last season.

Rinkside rumor in Montreal has it that Bert Gardiner may go to Boston Bruins to fill the gap left by Frankie Brimsek's departure. Gardiner is Canadiens' property and played last season with Chicago Black Hawks.

If Jack McDonald gains a berth with Rangers, he'll be reunited with Bill Gooden. Both played for Portage La Prairie Terriers when they won the Memorial Cup in 1942.

BOMBERS EDGE OUT SERVICES

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20 (CP — Winnipeg R.C.A.F. Bombers increased their victory streak in the Western Canada armed services rugby league to four straight here tonight when they defeated Winnipeg United Services 6-5 in a close struggle.

A costly fumble by the United Services aggregation in the third quarter gave the Bombers their triumph. Down 4-0 after the Services gained the scoring column on a rouge and a field goal in the first half, Lanky Cpl. Don Durno grabbed a ball dropped by Lieut. Lee Sherman, United Services backfielder to race 60 yards for a touchdown which his teammate Ches McCance converted.

TORONTO NAVY TAKES INDIANS

TORONTO, Oct. 20 (CP) — Toronto Navy took over sole possession of fourth place in the Ontario Rugby Football Union's Senior series tonight by overpowering Toronto Indians 14-0 in a game played under floodlights.

It was Navy's second win in six starts while it was the fifth defeat for Indians whose one victory was scored over Navy in the first meeting between the two teams 10 days ago.

Tigers Please Jack Adams

DETROIT, Oct. 20 (CP.)— Still undecided on the squad he will choose to defend Detroit Red Wings' National Hockey League championship, Manager Jack Adams will send his Wings into four exhibition games during the next five nights, and the ones that stand the gaff best will get the nod.

Bringing their pre-season training to a climax, Wings will meet Cleveland Barons here tomorrow night, rest one day, meet Cleveland again Saturday in Cleveland, moved back to Detroit for a game against Indianapolis Sunday night and then to Toledo for another with Indianapolis Monday night.

Adams was pleased with Wings' performance in their 9-2 victory over Cleveland here last night in their first exhibition game of the season. As indicated by practice sessions, his veterans were still the class of the crop, and he pointed with particular joy to the five-goal performance of his first forward line—three goals for elderly Mud Brunisteu, and two for Carl Liscombe, while Syd Howe got four assists.

Detroit's hopes for a well-balanced team were given a boost when Joe Carveth was given a draft deferment on physical grounds today.

HAMILTON CATS TAKE BEACHES

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 20 (CP)— In thrilling seesaw fashion, Hamilton Flying Wildcats tonight came from behind twice and then clung tenaciously to a slim lead to defeat Toronto Balmy Beach 18-17 for their sixth straight Ontario Rugby Football Union victory.

While 7000 fans watched, Quarterback Annis Stukus missed by a scant foot on a placement attempted on the last play of the game. The score stood at 13-13 after the final whistle but the officials ruled later that the kick should count as a rouge because the ball was picked up by a spectator behind the posts. That made it 18-17 for Hamilton.

Sands, Getliffe Report to Canadiens

MONTREAL, Oct. 20 (CP)—Forwards Charlie Sands and Ray Getliffe reported to Canadiens today, as the player prospects of the National Hockey League club began to take more definite shape.

Club officials said Bert Gardiner was on his way to take over the goal-stopping duties, but he hasn't put in an appearance yet. He had previously been reported sold variously to Chicago and Boston.

In the meantime, Canadiens have been doing all right with steady Bill Durnan of the Quebec Senior Hockey League Royals and 17-year-old Jerry McNeil in the nets during practice sessions.

Yorkton Out of Senior League

REGINA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Officials of the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League announced tonight that Yorkton R.C.A.F. will not participate in the League this season. A League meeting will be held here Saturday to decide the make-up of the loop.

Saskatoon Navy and Flin Flon Bombers have signified their intention to operate again while Regina Army is also expected to ice a team.

Yorkton will play in an R.C.A.F. Inter-Station Intermediate League.

Eight-Year-Old Wins Cambridgeshire

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 20 (CP Cable) — Quarrier Maitre, an eight-year-old racer generally considered past his prime, today won the Newmarket Cambridgeshire, last big race of England's 1943 racing season. He showed his heels to a field of 15.

The event lacked the sparkle of the big peacetime race of the same name because wartime restrictions confined it to horses trained locally.

Quarrier Maitre, whose last big success was in the Lincolnshire Handicap of 1940, won by a head from Lord Derby's Full Bloom over a mile course.

The winner is owned by I. Ligiom Chanada carrying the colors of Maj. J. Walker finished third.

Army Reject Turns Up for Toronto

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Oct. 20—(CP)—Player strength at the National Hockey League training camp of Toronto Maple Leafs was boosted today by the arrival of Cliff Maundrell, Cornwall, Ont., right wing who has been rejected by the Canadian Army.

Maundrell was formerly with Oshawa in the Ontario Association and Cornwall Flyers in the Quebec Senior League.

Ross Knowles, 21-year-old Fort William, Ont., defenceman, rejoined the club at practice today. He was injured yesterday in a collision with Jack Ingoldsby, who reports Saturday for a second medical examination. Ingoldsby previously was given a "C" category.

Hawks Choose Starting Lineup

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 20 (CP)—Manager Paul Thomson sent his Chicago Black Hawks through a brisk workout here today and at its conclusion named a tentative starting line-up for the Hawks' opening game of the season with Toronto Maple Leafs Oct. 31 in Chicago.

Thompson, a star winger with the Chicago Club for many National Hockey League campaigns, said he would probably start Hec Heighton, a 19-year-old Vancouver youngster in goal.

Heighton has been impressive in practice since the team hit Minneapolis and according to the Chicago chief is one of the best rookie netminders ever to show at the Black Hawk training camp.

On the defence he will have his choice of Earl Seibert, for the past several years chosen on the N.H.L. All-Star team, Jack Dyte, a 200-pound lad from Toronto, Virgil Johnson and possibly Veterans George Allen and Art Wiebe. Allen and Wiebe have not joined the team.

Bill Thomas will pivot the first string forward line, Thompson said, with Doug Bentley on left wing and Bill Moslenko, a Winnipeg boy on right.

Clint Smith, purchased from New York Rangers yesterday, will centre the second attacking string with Vic Heyliger and Mush March flanking him on left and right wings, respectively.

Thompson said the third line would have Cully Dahlstrom at centre, Johnny Gottselig at left wing and Fido Purpur on right.

PRO REC LEADERS CLASS IS PLANNED HERE

Formation of a Pro Rec leaders class to study and for instruction in advanced physical training and gymnastics is planned by Ed Kelter, Pro Rec Director, Mr. Kelter anticipates enrolling six or seven of the more promising members from each of the men's and women's classes here for this group. Instruction will be under him.

Boeing Arranges Loan Canvass for Plant Here

Plans were completed at the Boeing Aircraft of Canada Company, Ltd., plant here Wednesday for an internal canvass of all employees for the Fifth Victory Loan.

Visomatic films were shown members of the plant committee to assist them in putting their objective over the top. Under this plan all employees are canvassed by their own committee on a voluntary basis and no commission is paid on the sale of these bonds.

Committee members are Alec Lockhart, Mrs. Weir, Mrs. B. B. Stallwood and Fred Fallbrook.

Says No Rationing Canned Vegetables

VANCOUVER, Oct. 20 (CP) — The News-Herald in a newspage story today says it "learns from Ottawa sources" that there will be no rationing of canned vegetables, but a system of controlled distribution is being contemplated by Federal authorities to meet a growing shortage.

In the 13 years following the boom year of 1897, more than 2,350,000 immigrants came to Canada.
