Plane Upsets In Lardeau Swamp, Three Walk Away

Former R.C.A.F. Pilot Makes Dead Stick Landing When Engine Fails; Creston Man a Passenger

Three University of British Columbia students escaped "without a scratch" when their plane made a forced landing and turned over Thursday in an inaccessible Lardeau swamp.

From a logging camp, Grant Livingstone, 26-year-old retiring Alma Mater Society president, told the story of the forced landing.

"We were all strapped in and climbed out without a scratch," he said.

Engine failure forced the trio down 10 miles Northwest of Duncan Lake near Howser, B.C., 60 miles North of Nelson.

The plane was piloted by Fred Nesbitt, 23-year-old U.B.C. Aero Club flier, and also carried Ray Dewar of Creston as a passenger.

LOGGERS AT HAND

"We put down in a swamp," said Livingstone in a telephone interview. "It was only 800 yards away from a logging camp and loggers with first aid kits came rushing to our rescue."

He paid tribute to Nesbitt's handling of the plane. "Thank's to Fred's experience we made a lovely landing, but long grass caught the undercarriage and we turned over."

Nesbitt, who gained his flying experience with the R.C.A.F. in Burma and India, said:

"The engine quit. There was nothing to do but put her down."

The only damage suffered by the plane was a twisted wing.

'And that's under half a foot of swamp water now," said Nesbitt.

The U.B.C. men were bound for Saskatoon to attend a convention of the Canadian Legion.

En route from Princeton to Cranbrook they turned the light plane North to avoid a storm. They were unreported for 11 hours.

Livingstone and Dewar will continue their journey. Nesbitt will try to get the wrecked plane freighted out by boat.

TRAVEL ON FOOT TRUCK, LAUNCH

KASLO, B.C., May 21 — U.B.C. Aero Club plane enroute from Vancouver to Saskatoon, piloted by C. F. Nesbitt and accompanied by passengers Ray Dewar of Creston and Grant Livingstone of Vancouver to attend the Canadian Legion convention at Saskatoon, was grounded about 9 a.m. Thursday 10 miles Northwest of Duncan Lake in the Lardeau Valley.

The plane was forced from its original course by the weather and then developed engine trouble over Howser Creek forcing them to glide back down to Duncan River where the best landing spot was a cranberry marsh. Pilot Nesbitt set her down on a dead stick landing with no injury to the occupants. The aircraft overturned against tuffs of grass after which all three occupants left the plane and waded to shore where they spotted two loggers with first aid emergency kits. From there they walked for about an hour and a half, a distance of approximately four miles to D. J. Fayette's Duncan Lake Lumber Company's camp.

They obtained a launch and were brought down to the B.C. Forest Service camp. They endeavoured to contact Lardeau but the lines of communication were impassible. The Forest Service camp command then brought them to the Duncan Lake Lumber Company's offices at Howser where they contacted the C.P.R. Agent at Lardeau over the C.P.R. telephone lines and a message was transmitted to the airport control at Cranbrook advising the airport of their plight.

All three remained at Howser until 10 p.m. from there they were trucked from Howser to Lardeau and a launch chartered and brought to Kaslo, arriving at Kaslo at 3 a.m. today.

Dewar took a bus to his home in Creston, Livingstone is continuing his trip to Saskatoon by train from Nelson tonight. Nesbitt will remain in this territory for the time being to look after the plane.

Old City Jews Penned In Battered Fortress

Arab Artillery Rakes Holdouts; Surrender or Die Is Demand to Grim Band; Israel Capital Bombed

By DANIEL DE LUCE

INSIDE THE OLD CITY OF JERSUSALEM, May 21 (AP) — A desperate band of Jews clung to a rubbled fortress 300-yards square in the old city of Jerusalem tonight after four days of the Arab Legion's effort to crush or dislodge them.

Arab artillery screamed over the religious city of Jerusalem in all directions as Legion gunners raked at Jewish lookouts and gunposts on high points supporting the small grim band of Israelis penned against the 400-year-old walls.

Five times Arab dynamite squads set off charges in Tiferet Israel Synagogue, tallest building in the Jewish quarter of the old city, which the Arabs thought they had captured yesterday. But Jews clung to the domed roof and underground chambers and crawled out for sniping shots today. The five huge charges blew down the North wall of the old synagogue.

Arab artillerymen for the second day turned shellfire on Hadassah Hospital and Hebrew University on Mount Scopus and demanded that the 400 Jewish fighters there surrender or die. The Mount overlooks the old city from the North. Arabs said Jewish machine-gunners and mortar crews in entrenchments at the hospital and university opened up on Arabs in the Sheikh Jarrah and Wadi El Joz quarters at the base of the Mount this morning.

Legion howitzers also battered Jewish positions on Mount Zion in the vicinity of Dormition Church, reputed scene of Virgin Mary's death, and Crusader Hall where the Last Supper is supposed to have been held.

COUNTER-BLOW FAILS

Mount Zion overlooks the old Jewish quarter from the South, and from that vantage point, the Arabs said, Jews launched a counter-attack last night in a vain attempt to free the old city's beleaguered Jewish garrison.

(Although the Arabs claimed to have cut all Jerusalem's communications by deployment of artillery and patrols, a high ranking Jewish staff officer in Tel Aviv said Jewish convoys got through from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem's 100,000 Jews in the last week.)

CAPITAL BOMBED

Arab planes again struck at Tel Aviv, Israel's capital, today. A flight of two or three fighter-bombers dive-bombed through light anti-aircraft fire over a Northern district of the city. Haifa had its first air raid warning today, but no planes appeared.

A Jewish communique said Jewish forces had ousted Arab troops from the village of Samakh and seized a great quantity of arms and munitions.

(The Syrians said, however, that their entrenched troops had struck out from Samakh and destroyed the nearby villages of Degania A and Degania B.)

The Jewish air strikes set fires at the Gaza air field, which the Egyptians have occupied, an announcement said. An attack was made also on Shu'fat, a Northern suburb of Jerusalem.

VICTORIA, May 21 (CP) — The Provincial Works Department has awarded to Western Bridge and Steel Fabricators Ltd., Vancouver, the contract for the construction of a steel scow for Twelve Mile Ferry on the Arrow Lakes.

Tendering to build the scow for $24,480, the Vancouver firm won the contract from Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd. and Yarrows Ltd., Victoria firms who had submitted slightly higher tenders.

BETTER POWER SUPPLY FOR NAKUSP AREA

Will Extend Service From Whatshan Plant When Required

PROJECT FOR HOPE

VICTORIA, May 21 (CP)—Premier Johnson announced this afternoon that the B.C. Power Commission would construct a hydro-electric development at Silver Creek.

The project will supply power to Hope and the adjacent area. Cost will be $180,000.

At the same time is was announced that the hydro-electric plant at Nakusp would be rehabilitated and improved at a cost of $28,000. This will improve power supplies for Nakusp and adjacent areas.

Equipment from Vancouver Island plants taken over by the Commission will be used in both projects.

The project for Nakusp is a temporary measure to cover the transition period leading to the servicing of the district with power from the Whatshan Lake development now underway for the Commission. Nakusp will have Whatshan power when the needs of the district justify extension of the transmission lines to that area.

It was on Jan. 24, 1906, that Mr. Boyes came first to Nelson, transferred by the railway from Minnedosa, Man. Here he worked in the shops as a machinist, and it was here Mr. and Mrs. Boyes made their home and raised their family of eight, four of whom are still well known Nelson residents.

Mrs. Boyes died here in September, 1939.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. R. J. Dunsmore at Winnipeg, Mrs. W. J. Hipperson at Nelson and Mrs. V. Nelson at Trail; five sons, James M. Boyes at Spokane, Thomas T. at Drumheller, David C., George G., and Edward J. at Nelson.

Diaper Peddlers Find Them Handy Gadgets

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Irving Zafran, 32, delivery man for a diaper service, was robbed of $85 and his trousers today, but his composure remained intact.

Donning a diaper, kilt-like, he went to the nearest customer's house and called police. He had to explain to the housewife who opened the door that it was an emergency and that he was not taking part in an advertising stunt for his employer.

A squad car called for Zafran and officers provided him with a pair of regular pants.

Babies-for-Sale Ring Disclosed in E. Canada

Aid Society Asks Restraints to Block "Black Market"; "Solicitors" Visit Hospitals to Seek Infants

FREDERICTON, May 22 (CP) (Saturday)—Premier J. B. McNair said today he had communicated with the Minister of External Affairs for assistance in investigating the baby black market operating out of Saint John, N.B.

Stressing the international aspects of the matter, Premier McNair, who is also New Brunswick Attorney-General, said he had written the External Affairs Minister to find out whether American laws were being circumvented.

By IRVING C. WHYNOT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

SAINT JOHN, N.B., May 21 (CP)—Deputy Police Chief P. F. Biddiscombe today confirmed that a ring selling babies for adoption was operating out of Saint John and said it was international in scope.

The "black market," he said, had province-wide connections and was working in other provinces as well. He did not elaborate. Reports of the ring, disclosed at a meeting of the Saint John City and County Children's Aid Society last night, came to the attention of the city police more than a year ago.

At that time an unwed mother, who had offered her baby to representatives of the ring, had appealed to police when she decided she wanted the child.

"After investigation," the deputy police chief said, "we found it had international connections and turned the whole thing over to the R.C.M.P."

"They have investigated and have complete files on the case."

(In Ottawa an official source confirmed that the R.C.M.P. have carried out extensive investigation. Because the investigation is still alive the R.C.M.P. are unable to give further information).

Most of the babies, which the Children's Aid Society said brought prices ranging up to $1500, went to the Newark, N.J., and New York areas.

Travis W. Cushing, President of the Society and Chairman of the meeting which last night passed a resolution seeking a meeting with Premier John B. McNair on the matter, told The Canadian Press further details of the ring's operation.

CLEARING HOUSE

Known to be actively engaged in the ring's work, Mr. Cushing said, were two "solicitors" who approached mothers-to-be and the leader of the ring, whom he described as a Saint John professional man.

A boarding home which acted as clearing house was operating in the centre of the city, he said. One of the solicitors was known to have made regular weekly visits to local hospital maternity wards to seek babies. She usually posed as a relative of a girl in hospital and had registered at one hospital as the "aunt" of five different girls.

More than 50 babies had been "sold" by the ring during the past year in New Jersey, New York and Delaware. A few, Mr. Cushing said, went to other Canadian provinces.

Kathleen Jackson, Ottawa, Secretary, Family Welfare Division, Canadian Welfare Council had been in Saint John a month ago and had held a two-hour conference on the ring's operation.

"We have given the Welfare Council a full report on the matter and they have taken it to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for investigation of possible infractions of border regulations," Mr. Cushing said.

SEEK LEGAL CHECK

The leader of the Saint John ring, he said, was believed previously to be connected with a similar organization operating in another province.

The Children's Aid Society had asked immediate proclamation of amendments to the children's protection in an effort to curtail operation of the ring.

There was a possibility that the ring actually operated within the law but he was doubtful if adoptions in the United States had been legal. Various state welfare organizations in the states concerned were being asked to check records in this regard.

The amendments to the act, passed at the recent sitting of the New Brunswick Legislature at the Society's request, would make solicitation of mothers for adoption of children illegal and would impose tighter controls on homes where children were boarded.

PAID HOSPITAL BILLS

Another official, closely connected with a local hospital which accepts maternity cases, told The Canadian Press that a woman believed to be a solicitor for the ring paid confinement costs of the mothers after posing as a relative or friend of the girl's.

Mr. Cushing, who said the Childrens Aid Society had been investigating the ring for more than a year and a half, said the Society had finally decided to "turn to publicity" as a possible method of curtailing the group's operations.

At the meeting last night Mr. Cushing said that at least five children had been "snatched" from the ring during the last month. Society officials had gained possession of them after they were in the ring's hands.

Mr. Cushing said the ring operated for "financial gain" and estimated the leader of the ring probably made about $1000 a week.

Most of the children handled by the group, he said, came from the class which would be termed "questionable" in ordinary, legal adoption procedure.

HALIFAX, May 21 (CP)—A Halifax man is under suspicion of illegally trafficking in babies from Nova Scotia into the United States Fred R. MacKinnon, Provincial Director of Child Welfare said today.

He did not name the man and said no proof was available. Indications were that someone had been "messing around on a small scale," Mr. MacKinnon said.

He was commenting on a report from Saint John that a black market in babies was being conducted there.

EMBASSY CLERK HELD AFTER ARMS SEIZED

$200 Phone Bill Leads to Discovery Guns, Ammunition

NO SPY RING LINK

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Enrique Ladesma Wyn an office clerk in the Argentine Embassy, was detained by police late today on a charge of having firearms in his possession illegally.

His detention followed seizure this morning of a car in which a county bailiff found a sub-machine gun and 400 rounds of ammunition. Police later found a revolver in a bureau drawer of a room Ladesma has been occupying in an Ottawa hotel for some months.

Argentine Embassy officials said he came here last August and expressed surprise at the discovery of arms. They said Ladesma had no diplomatic status.

The bailiff seized the car, a costly, four-door sedan, at the request of a telephone company whom Ladesma reputedly owed more than $200 for telephone calls to the Argentine.

An official of the hotel said had once tried to telephone Moscow, but there was no confirmation of this.

Police said there was no indication that Ladesma was part of any espionage ring.

Flood Nearly Traps Lardeau Crew

HOWSER, B. C., May 21—Rapidly rising waters of the Lardeau River almost cut off the crew at the Nine Mile Camp of the Duncan Lake Lumber Company here this week. Plans had been made to abandon the camp during high water and move to safer ground, but the warm weather of the past few days, coupled with a heavy rain, raised the water level so rapidly that it was only by the closest of margins that personnel and equipment were removed. As it was, cat tractors had to be used to bring the heavy logging trucks to safety when the flood caught them.

Reject Demand Of Woodworkers

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP) — Demands for a 35-cent hourly pay boost, union shop and union-administered welfare fund by 3000 International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) have been rejected by lumber and box manufacturers in British Columbia's Southern Interior, it was learned here tonight.

The rejection followed negotiations at Nelson, B.C., with manufacturers' representatives and officials of I.W.A. locals at Cranbrook, Kamloops, Kelowna and Nelson. Another meeting is scheduled here Tuesday.

LOCUSTS SWARM INTO GUATEMALA

GUATEMALA, Guatemala, May 21 (AP)—Vast swarms of locusts have invaded Guatemala and threaten Mexico, the Director General of Agriculture said today. The locusts ate their way through El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua. The director said they probably would devour more than a third of the Guatemala corn crop.

Kootenay Celebrations, Fishing, "Just Holidaying" Are May 24 Plans

Some will don their holiday garb and drive off to district centres to take in sports and ball games, outdoorsmen will pick up their fishing trappings and spend the day on a lake, while others will just rest in their back yards. But, whatever their plans, all Kootenay residents will celebrate May 24—a Dominion holiday.

Throughout the district—in Kaslo, Burton, Ymir, Fruitvale and other centres — Victoria Day festivities will be under way. Sports, ball games, novelty contests and crowning of May Queens will fill a happy bill in the various centres.

A giant parade is planned in Kaslo, famed for its May 24 celebrations, to start the day. Crowning of 14-year-old June Nomland as Queen of the May will climax a round of sports and ball games.

In Burton three softball games will run through the day, the ladies will take hammer in hand to a spike-driving contest and will enter a wheelbarrow contest. A greased pig will be turned loose for another novelty sport, while three horse races will be run.

Second game in the West Kootenay Baseball League will be played with Nelson at Fruitvale. Both Fruitvale and Ymir will see sports for young and old.

All stores, banks and business centres will be closed the full day. There will be no mail delivery in Nelson Monday, but the Post Office lobby will be open until 6 p.m., and the wickets from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. One delivery will be made Saturday.

Buses and trains will run on their usual times, while the street cars will operate on their usual holiday schedules.

Crew of '98 Brings Engine Into Cranbrook To Open Golden Jubilee

CRANBROOK, B. C., May 21 — Three aircraft dipped low in salute over locomotive 468 as it drew into the railway station this morning to mark the 50th anniversary of the arrival of the railway construction to Cranbrook in 1898. The same engineer, Hugh Brock, was at the throttle, and the brakeman from the long ago train, J. A. Genest, was conductor.

George Ploudre, tract man in 1898 was on the engine, and so was Tommy Wardman, age 83, of Lethbridge, early day fireman, who fired 468 today. Dan Burton and G. S. Moore completed the crew.

A replica last spike ceremony with George Baillie and Mayor R. E. Sang wielded hammers in the last spike ceemony, then Mr. Baillie crowned Mrs. T. S. Gill, an 1897 arrival, First Lady. Pioneers from before 1898 were there with the large crowd and former residents from as far away as California eyed each other cautiously, then grinned as old friendships were renewed. The retired railroaders grouped into little puddles and logged off miles by the million.

The old time parade led off the scale model of the original locomotive 375 and a coach which accommodated two dozen children. Highlight in the parade were the silk hatted Mayor and City Council on a team drawn wagon, the three first ladies' carriage, and Dr. F. W. Green and Tom Cameron of Mayook in a dashing sulky with sparking trotter. Many of the residents and visitors were in costume and the day was sunny and warm.

A track washout last night 12 miles West of Jerrome upset railway schedules but not the Jubilee program.

Meat Handlers Strike Over, Except for Single U.S. Outfit

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP) — The 67-day C.I.O. meat handlers strike—marked by occasional rioting and bloodshed and mobilization of National Guard troops in two states—was called off today against all of the meat packing industry except Wilson and Co. The strike for higher wages was ended on company terms.

The United Packinghouse Workers Union called off the work stoppage after the workers voted in favor of a back-to-work movement at Swift, Armour and Cudahy plants. Nearly 100,000 were on strike.

WORE NIGHTGOWN TO PARIS OPERA

LONDON, May 21 (AP) — Reporter Joan Reeder wrote in The Daily Mirror today she wore her nightgown to the Paris opera and that Princess Elizabeth and the other customers never knew the difference.

Joan, 25, was sent to Paris on short notice last week to report the visit of Elizabeth and Prince Philip. She got an unexpected invitation to the opera, but had no evening gown.

She wore instead a pink and black nightgown with a bare midriff. "It being Paris, no one noticed," she wrote.

"There were new looks everywhere but the looks I got were the most old-fashioned in the world," she commented.

FIFTH-GRADERS CONFESS STEALING PLANE, ADMIT 120-MILE FLIGHT

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21—(AP) — Two fifth-graders who studied flying in comic books confessed to the State Patrol last night they piloted a stolen plane almost to Texas.

"There is no doubt about it," the Patrol said.

The plane was a two-place Ercoupe with simplified controls, advertised as nearly foolproof.

Astonishment at the 120-mile flight — air distance — almost drowned out talk of a Juvenile Court hearing tomorrow morning.

"It's incredible . . . I am astounded . . . This is more than mere mischief," one of the fathers, Burney P. Bodard, a lawyer, said.

The grade-school aviators are Jimmy Bodard, 11, and Robert Ronald Peterson, 12. Both families are prominent here.

Troopers cracked the case when all evidence pointed to an unbelievable but inescapable conclusion.

Jimmy and Robert played truant from school Monday, and were reported missing the next day. Tuesday night they were picked up in the little Western Oklahoma town of Cheyenne, due West of here, and 18 miles from the Texas Panhandle. They told a story of hitchhiking by road, and Wednesday their parents brought them back home.

But yesterday police found the Ercoupe abandoned in a field eight miles Northwest of Cheyenne.

Troopers took the case and linked the two Cheyenne incidents.

"When we put it to them they broke down and told us all about it," one said.

"They hung around the airpark Monday afternoon, and slept in a Cessna plane in a hangar that night. They fooled around Tuesday, and at 5 p.m. pushed the Ercoupe out on to the runway, fired up, and took off."

TOOK TURNS

"They said they took turns flying, and didn't have any trouble. They said it bounced a little when they landed in a farm field. But when they tried to taxi they hit soft dirt and the undercarriage buckled.

"Then they took the farmer's saddle horse and rode near town, turned the horse loose and walked on in. The Sheriff got them."

Nelson Board Resolution To Seek "Substantial Federal Aid" for Completion Southern Highway Route

A resolution that would press the necessity for "substantial Federal financial aid" in early construction and completion of the Southern Trans-Canada Highway, has been drawn up by Nelson Board of Trade.

It will be presented to the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern B.C., meeting in Rossland next Thursday.

The resolution points out that the highway is of "outstanding merit" because it is an all-year short route, traversing the most densely populated and largest tax producing areas of the four Western provinces.

Also in its favor were that it serves a number of industries, including farming, oil and coal production, lumbering, fruit and seed growing, and mining and smelting, as well as an extensive tourist traffic. There are upwards of 40 connecting points of entry with the United States between Brandon and Vancouver, and it was the natural entry to Canada's national parks, the resolution stated.

As the only practical route for year-round East and West travel, the Southern Trans-Canada Highway was a "national necessity," and therefore should be a Federal financial responsibility resulting in an investment of the highest calibre, it said.

Presented by H. E. Thain, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, at the Nelson Board of Trade monthly meeting Thursday in the Hume, the resolution will be discussed with Trail Board of Trade delegates before being tendered, as Trail has prepared a resolution calling for a complete survey of the Southern Trans-Canada Highway route between Creston and Princeton, with a view to extensive highway improvements in that sector.

Four other resolutions to be dealt with at the Rossland meeting were also voted on by the Board.

Two came from the Trail Board of Trade. One urged that authorities at University of British Columbia as well as the B.C. Government, be requested to proceed with construction of dormitories at U.B.C., and was given approval. The second, which protested increase of B.C. freight rates, was left to the discretion of Nelson delegates.

Also left to the delegates was a resolution that would broaden qualifications for a citizen to hold the office of Mayor, Alderman, Reeve or Councillor. Entered by Rossland Junior Board of Trade, it asked that the Municipal Act be amended to allow a citizen, upon swearing of an affidavit as a land owner, to run for Mayor with $1000 land backing; Alderman $500, Reeve $500 and Councillor $250.

A resolution from the Prince George Board of Trade was ordered filed. It saw a need for publicity on reproted proposals emanating from American sources for acquisition of the Pacific Great Eastern and the construction of a new railway through B.C. to Alaska.

Lewiston Band Popular With Nelson Audiences In Two Perfomances

Matching smartness in appearance with smartness and rhythm in music, the Lewiston High School Band Friday afternoon and evening drew rounds of hearty applause from Nelson audiences. During the afternoon the Idaho youngsters gave a matinee performance for throngs of school children, and in the evening drew a large adult audience.

Stirring marches, snappy novelty numbers and "sweet" music, mingled with a twirling display by Lewiston High's prettiest drum majorettes, filled a two-hour program Friday evening. The band's visit here was sponsored by the Nelson Music Festival Committee.

Under the direction of J. Ross Woods, "March of the Spanish Soldiers" by De Smetsky opened the program. Cornet soloist Ivan French, accompanied by pianist Leora Hagedorn, was featured in Simons "Atlantic Zephyrs," while Fred Schmidt's trombone soloing of "Morning Glory" by Vander Cook brought a demand for an encore from the audience. Accompanist for his two selections was pianist Lois Greer.

"Jerome Kern Songs," "Colonel Bogey" march by Alford, "Bad Boy Boogie Woogie" by Bennett, "Lustspiel Overture" by Keler Bela, "The Marching Band" by Kleffman and "South of the Rio," a selection of Latin-American melodies arranged by Olivadoti was part of the evening's program.

"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" was a solo selection on the sousaphone by Delmer Storey, accompanied by Leora Hagedorn, who had earlier taken the solo spot with a piano rendition of "Impromptu in C Sharp Minor" by Reinhold.

INTERNATIONAL GESTURE

In introducing the band, Ross Fleming, Chairman of the Music Festival Committee, said he felt "we are making a fine international gesture in bringing in these boys and girls and introducing them to our boys and girls."

A snappy display of the band's marching ability was given during the afternoon when it paraded Baker Street, stopping at the intersection of Ward and Baker Streets to play two selections. A twirling demonstration was given by the majorettes while the band was playing.

The young musicians, brought here in charter buses from Lewiston, after the evening concert played for a dance in the Civic Centre.

A banquet in the auditorium was provided by the Festival Committee.

Round Up Suspects After $1000 Burglary at Coast

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. May 21 (CP)—Two suspects were in police hands today half an hour after a $1000 safe burglary was discovered.

The men were apprehended on the street with an "uncommon amount" of small bills and change in their possession.

The safe, property of Stubby Beverages, was believed hauled away with an auto or truck.

TRUCK PLUNGES 300 FEET; MAN KILLED, 2 HURT

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP) — One man died instantly and two others escaped with minor injuries Wednesday when a truck carrying 10 tons of steel plunged 300 feet down a cliff at Tisdall, 57 miles North of Squamish on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, it was learned here today.

Dead is William Kadvan, 22, of Thorhild, Alta.

Townmates Nicholas Bawol, 23, driver of the truck, suffered scalp lacerations and a strained back, and Fred Dowhan, 20, sustained a fractured jaw, face lacerations and bruises.

Cause of the accident was failure of brakes and gears to hold the laden vehicle.

STOCKS CLIMB, THEN FALTER

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Stocks took a short whirl upward today, almost reaching 21-month highs before beating a fast retreat.

For a time, after an early flurry that put the ticker tape briefly behind actual transactions, it looked like a broad revival of bullish control of the market.

When automobile shares joined in an afternoon advance, however, traders with accumulated profits turned to some quick cashing-in sales. This unsettled portions of the list; steels slumped, and the close was no better than irregularly higher.

With 1154 issues traded, it was the second broadest market on record. While gains outnumbered losses by 561 to 361, The Associated Press 60-stock composite climbed only .2 of a point to 70.9.

Transfers totalled 2,670,000 shares, compared with 2,470,000 Thursday.

HE REALLY WAS

BIRMINGHAM, England, May 21 (AP)—Trembling, Miss Jane Underhill, 57, told a court that she sat petrified while a holdup man threatened her with a knife and ransacked her home.

"But," she added, "he suddenly turned to me and said: 'I am just as frightened as you are, really.'"

There was a thud in the dock. James Battle, 34, accused of the holdup, had fainted.

TRUMAN ASKS STATEHOOD FOR ALASKA

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP) — President Truman today sent to Congress a five-point program for the development of Alaska with a request that it be admitted to statehood "at the earliest possible date."

Asserting that Alaska has had territorial government for more than 35 years, Truman said that it has had "a sufficient period of preparation for its admission as a state."

The program, in addition to asking for congressional action on statehood, calls for:

Description of Cranbrook Jubilee Scene Is Aired

Radio listeners to CBC News Roundup Friday evening heard a description of the Cranbrook Jubilee Celebrations, and a recorded interview with two of the prominent participants.

Description of the arrival of a replica of the first train into Cranbrook in 1898 was given by the CBC announcer, and a two-minute interview with members of the original crew, Engineer Hugh Brock and Conductor J. A. Genest was conducted by W. E. Bracken, Manager of Station CKLN, Nelson.

For the broadcast, recorded on magnetic tape, Mr. Bracken and CKLN Engineer Tom Walsh were flown to Cranbrook by chartered aircraft. The trip by aircraft, piloted by Don Herman of Trail, was made at the request of the Cranbrook Jubilee Committee.

To broadcast over CBC, the interview, along with commentator's material, was sent on open line to Toronto by Mr. Bracken.

Mr. Bracken said in Nelson Friday night that he and Mr. Walsh had received a "very pleasant welcome, and we were treated cordially."

The scene, he said, was one of the finest displays he had seen in a "long, long time."

The number of aircraft on the landing strip, many of them United States planes, was commented on by Mr. Bracken. He said there were five planes in the hangar, and several others on the field.

People had come from all over British Columbia, and parts of Alberta and the U.S. for the celebrations, he said.

Over 50 gathered at the home of the couple's daughter, Mrs. W. R. Walkley at South Slocan for a reception, attended by relatives and friends.

Four children were born to the couple in Belleville before coming West to Calgary in 1912. Later, in 1916, they moved to Vancouver where they lived for over 30 years before moving to South Slocan in the Fall of 1936.

Mr. Thompson is a member of the Masonic Order and when he was younger took an active part in the work of the organization.

Their only son was killed January 1, 1917 in Detroit, Mich., they have three daughters, Mrs. Walkley of South Slocan, Mrs. A. E. Scott of Vancouver and Mrs. C. E. Crowell of San Gabriel, Canyon, Calif.

Nelson Singers, Players Visit Rossland

ROSSLAND, B.C., May 21—Ten members of St. Paul's Boys Choir of Nelson and the cast of the play entered in the Kootenay Musical Festival at Nelson by St. Paul's Junior Players delighted a large audience in High School Auditorium here tonight.

The play, "The Maid of Domremy," won first place in the competition for high school players at the Festival. The cast included Joan McArthur as Joan of Arc; Joe Chell and Flora Johnson as her parents; Leonard Lythgoe as Pierre, her brother; Ruby Bruneski and Billy Ferguson as family friends, and Gary Barnhardt as the Cure.

Four of the members of the cast also took part in the musical program featuring the boys' choir, and Doris Bradshaw and Paul Hielscher also took part. Solos were sung by Gerry Pickering, Neil Horswill and Billy Horswill.

The Nelson group was later entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mitchell, Columbia Avenue.

The program was sponsored by St. Andrew's United Church Jubilee Club.

First Impressions of Canada Recalled By Natives of Britain at W.I. Meet

Impressions of Canada upon first arriving in this country were conveyed to Nelson Women's Institute Friday by several members, originally from the United Kingdom.

The meeting was attended by two members of the newly-formed Granite Road W.I., including President Mrs. A. G. Norcross.

Reminiscing on their impressions of Canada were Mrs. H. B. Penny, Miss Beatrice M. Hodges, Mrs. W. R. Perry, Mrs. S. C. Colman, President, and Mrs. M. Whiteley. Among members having lived longest in Canada were Mrs. Penny, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Whiteley. Miss Hodges, however, came only last year.

Familiar with life in Britain today, Miss Hodges gave her views on conditions on both sides of the Atlantic. She was amazed at the vast uninhabited tracts of land here as compared with England. She noted that darky porters on the trains were willing and efficient, household appliances more convenient in many instances, and that children in Canada seemingly had more fun than English youngsters, but did not get as much sleep.

Finding the people friendly and hospitable, she said she "could not fail to take root in the warm, kindly soil of Canada."

Mrs. Penny, who arrived in Calgary 35 years ago from the Old Country early one bright morning, remembered she thought Canada a "land of sunshine."

On the other hand, Mrs. Perry recalled strong gales that blew in Manitoba, to which she emigrated in 1913. Mrs. Whitely, also a comer to Canada in 1913, came to Nelson from Grand Forks. Mrs. Colman sailed to Canada in 1918, and too marvelled at Canada's open stretches of land.

Mrs. Colman told of her visit two weeks ago to a new W.I. branch at Renata. The members were "very enthusiastic," she said, and had done considerable work in the short time they had been organized.

The members voted $25 to the W.I. Memorial Fund.

A welcome was extended to Mrs. Bowlby of Chilliwack, Past President of the Institute there, who told of Fraser Valley Institutes. She has been in Institute work for 30 years.

Resolutions to be voted on at the W.I. convention at the Coast were discussed.

Tea Convener was Mrs. Penny, while Mrs. Les Browett and Mrs. W. H. Rixon were hostesses.

CUBS EDGE JUNIOR CARDS

Displaying another fine ball performance the Cubs edged out the Cards 5-4 in another Junior A League game at the Recreation Grounds Friday evening.

Ronny Brown and Denny Kraft split the mound work for the winning Cubs while Les Hufty went the full route for the Cards. The game was featured by some nice infield work by both teams with the Cubs showing a slight edge.

The Cubs drove in one run in each of the first and fourth innings and three in the fifth. The Cards scored once in the first frame and twice in the fifth. Les Hufty and Lee Hyssop smashed out a double each for the extra base hits of the Cards. Norm Hyssop drove out a double for the only big blow from the Cubs dugout.

Brown struck out five, walked none and yielded only two hits. Kraft whiffed three, walked one to first and gave up one hit. Hufty on the Card's hill was nicked for 10 hits, but struck out eight batters and gave two free passes to first. Brown led the winners with two runs, while Dozzi, Pitts and Vecchio scored one run each. Hufty, Clark, Leschuck and Lee Hyssop were the Cardinals scorers.

Herb Pitts and Jimmy McNabb were the umpires.

Urges More Income Tax Exemptions

Would Be Gov't Contribution to Cost-of-Living Situation—Macdonnell

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—J. M. Macdonnell, chief financial critic for the Progressive Conservative Party, suggested today that income tax exemptions be increased to help counter the cost-of-living increase during the last year.

Mr. Macdonnell, member for Muskoka-Ontario, said in the Commons that some Government contribution to the cost-of-living situation "might be a good investment." He made the statements as he resumed a speech started Tuesday night after Finance Minister Abbott brought down the 1948-49 budget.

That document, said Mr. Macdonnell, should have done something to bring down living costs and give incentive to business.

Noting that Mr. Abbott budgetted for a surplus of almost $500,000,000 this year, Mr. Macdonnel suggested that the Government take the following steps:

"1. Add to the income tax exemption an amount which has regard to the increase in the cost of living during the last year.

"I have made some calculations on this point and I believe that substantial relief could be given without undue cost, say not more than 25 per cent of the $500,000,000 which I have mentioned.

"2. I suggest further that special encouragement be given to small enterprises, so that they may develop and add to production.

"I think that this would be specially desirable at the present time when small business is so hampered by the restriction and permit system into which we have drifted."

He said that this year taxation by various Governments in Canada is at a rate of $259 per capita. About $198 of the amount was levied by the Dominion Government.

"Governments find it almost impossible to get out of the easy way of wartime spending."

The Government had shown a tendency to reduce the size of the civil service after the war but now the number of Government employees again was on the increase.

"The trouble is that here the Minister can get his hand into the pocket of the taxpayer, and is not forced, as private business is, to retrench."

One example of waste of money was the Commons Committee on Prices which, he said, has "almost become farcical." The Committee was paying high fees for lawyers, accounting and clerical staff and still prices continued to rise.

Mr. Macdonnell said he approves the practice of budgetting for a surplus in years of prosperity. But he questioned how much of a surplus should be fixed as a target.

NOT ELECTION YEAR

Reaction to Mr. Abbott's budget had been that it proved this is not an election year. In other words, it meant "little Jack Horner is not going to pull out the plums yet."

Turning to matters of trade, Mr. Macdonnell said the Canadian Government agreed at Geneva to lower tariffs in an effort to increase world trade on the same night at conclusion of the Geneva Agreement was announced, the Government had disclosed its decision to bar imports in an effort to save United States dollars.

"These restrictive measures all resulted from the action taken in July, 1946, whereby the Canadian Government, arbitrarily and contrary to all indications given, took the artificial step of making the Canadian dollar equal to the American. This cost the Foreign Exchange Control Board over $1,100,000,000 in 15 months, and is still costing a most grievous distortion of our economy."

The move had discouraged American investment in Canada. It had been followed by the import restrictions which excluded American imports at a time when it was most important to cooperate with the "new-born desire in the United States to promote multilateral trade."

"Whether we like it or not, we must to some extent shift the direction of our exports and at the same time encourage American investment in this country."

RUSS PLANE LANDS IN SOUTH KOREA

Pilot Destroys Plane on Landing; Held by Americans

REFUSES TO EAT

SEOUL, May 21 (AP)—A Soviet YAK-9 airplane landed near Taejon in United States-occupied South Korea and the pilot destroyed the craft by firing it.

The United States Army said today the plane, bearing the number, 84, was forced down by lack of fuel Wednesday.

The Army announcement related that when American soldiers arrived at the scene, they found the pilot had been seized by unidentified South Koreans. The Americans took charge of him and quartered him in an American officer's billet.

The pilot has refused to eat, wash or shave.

The pilot gave his name as Ivan Feodrovich Osmakov. He said he is a Soviet Air Force Captain. He wore no insignia and said he carried no identification papers.

More Rebukes For Elizabeth

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—Another Scottish Church group rebuked Princess Elizabeth today for frolicking on Sunday in Paris. The heiress apparent received support however, from the Archdeacon of Lewes, Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard and the London Star.

The General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland started the ruckus Wednesday by sending Prime Minister Attlee a resolution saying Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip set a bad example by going to the races and a night club in Paris on Sunday.

The Scottish Free Presbyterian Synod of Inverness joined the protest today.

Without explanation, the Princess was snubbed today by the Trades Union Council in Coventry. The Council decided to boycott her visit there tomorrow to dedicate a public square. The Council's Executive Committee previously planned to present representatives to the Princess.

The Free Presbyterians said they were "profoundly grieved" by the Royal Couple's Sunday activities.

The Archdeacon of Lewes, the Venerable J. H. L. Morrell, decried the criticism. Speaking at Hastings last night, the Archdeacon said:

"Two well-loved members of our Royal House, after faithfully doing their duty by attending divine service, for the second part of the day enjoyed themselves naturally and normally as people in that country (France) normally behave, and then there is an outburst by the Sabbatarian people in Scotland. That is bosh. It is an example of the muddleheaded thinking which is becoming common among us."

The Evening Standard said critics of the Princess are stiff-necked and unable to "look down into the fathomless abyss of their own folly."

The London Star called the criticism "intolerant."

"Most British people, we think, will regret the Church Assembly's action."

Goodyear Employees Agree to Arbitration

TORONTO, May 22 (CP) —Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company employees at the suburban new Toronto plant have agreed to arbitrate their differences and were ordered back to work today. About 2100 workers were laid off yesterday because of a sit-down strike by six inspection-room employees.

Douglas Durkin, Advertising Manager, said the six quit over a change in the method of dellvery of a type of tire larger than the size they were used to handling. Sympathy walkouts by other inspection-room workers forced a halt in all production.

Clear Weather Aids Prairie Seeding

WINNIPEG, May 21 (CP)—Warm winds and clear weather during the last few days are contributing to fast-drying soil in many areas throughout the Prairies, the Agricultural Departments of the Canadian *Pacific and Canadian National Rail*ways reported today.

Seeding operations are becoming general in Manitoba, although still far behind last year. Twenty seven per cent of planned acreage is estimated to have been seeded, compared to 81 per cent a year ago. Excess moisture is causing most delay in Northern Manitoba where floods still are reaping a heavy toll in the Carrot River Valley.

50 P.C. BEHIND

Saskatchewan is 50 per cent behind last year's average in wheat seeded, with 25 per cent of the crop in the ground. Eight per cent of the oats and barley crop has been seeded, a 40-per-cent drop soil drifting is reported in the Maple Creek and Moose Jaw regions and indications are more rain would be beneficial at these points.

Greatest progress is reported from the Southern section of Alberta where 85 per cent of seeding is completed in some sections. While seeding has not yet started in some sections of central Alberta, the overall average is estimated at 10 per cent completed. At this time last year, 75 per cent of the wheat seeding was completed. Seeding is expected to be general in all sections by the end of the week if weather conditions continue to be favorable.

Freak Weather Hits Central Washington

SEATTLE, May 21 (AP) — A cloudburst, flash floods, tornado funnel and a wave of warm weather gave Pacific Northwest residents a liberal sprinkling of the "unusual" yesterday.

The good part—the warm weather—will be repeated today, the Weather Bureau said.

While many Oregon and Washington cities racked up new high temperatures for the year, Central Washington was experiencing some of Mother Nature's freaks.

A cloudburst at Roc Island sent a stream of water over a 500-foot cliff and buried the Great Northern Railroad tracks and State Highway No. 10 under 15 feet of mud and rocks.

Yakima Valley residents watched for 20 minutes as a tornado funnel spun harmlessly overhead. Both the highway and railroad tracks were cleared for traffic late last night.

Weather Bureau officials said the Yakima tornado was the first ever observed in the valley. The bottom of the funnel never came closer to the ground than 2500 feet.

Portland was the Northwest's "hot spot" with a 78-degree reading.

BUZZ BEURLING TO BE BURIED AT SCENE OF CRASH

MONTREAL, May 21 (CP) —The family of George (Buzz) Beurling prefers that the Canadian air ace be buried in Italy near the scene of the crash which took his life yesterday, his family said today.

"We are not planning to bring his body back to Canada," Mrs. Frank Hall, a sister said. "Nor are we intending to make any funeral arrangements—all talk to the contrary."

"We feel that it is better that he be buried near the scene of the crash which took his life."

AUSTRIA PEACE TREATY TALKS HIT DEAD END

Americans, Russ Refuse to Change Claims

TRIED TWO YEARS

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

LONDON, May 21 (AP)— Four-power efforts to write a peace treaty for occupied Austria hit dead end today, after nearly two years of futile negotiations.

Official United States sources said the negotiations broke down completely Wednesday, after a two-week temporary suspension during which efforts were made to compromise the differences between Russia and the Western powers — the United States, Britain and France.

The breakdown was said to have come when Sam el Reber, chief of the American delegation, privately conferred with M. P. Kotimov, head of the Soviet delegation, to discuss the prospects of compromise.

Kotimov, American sources said, advised Reber he had been instructed by Moscow to stand fast in support of Yugoslavia's claims against Austria. The Western powers oppose these claims.

Yugoslavia has demanded approximately 800 square miles of Austrian territory in mineral-rich Carinthia and scenic Syria, both of which have numbers of Slavic residents. The Yugoslavs also have made reparations claims against Austria.

Just before the talks were suspended two weeks ago, Reber outlined the American position by saying that the United States would insist upon two basic principles in any Austrian peace settlement:

1. Austria's frontiers must remain as they were before Anschluss in 1938.

2. Austria must pay no reparations.

Since Wednesday, Reber has talked with French and British officials and received their support concerning Russia's position.

In the long course of the talks in London, only one agreement was reached concerning Austria—that its armed forces should be limited to 53,000 men.

Widowed Mother Hacked to Death With Hatchet

TIMMINS, Ont., May 21 (CP)—A 42-year-old widowed mother, Mrs. Lucy Victoria (Banty) Hutson, was hacked to death with a hatchet last night in her four-room bungalow in Timmins' West End.

Her son, Mervyn Hutson, 23, was arrested by police, who sped to the bungalow in response to the calls of neighbors.

He was arraigned today on a charge of murder and remanded to next Tuesday.

Dr. R. P. Smith, who performed an autopsy, told police the woman died of two hatchet wounds in the head. The weapon, found in the Hutson dwelling, will be sent to Toronto for examination by police experts.

Mrs. Hutson's body was discovered at the foot of a stairway leading to the basement. The son was waiting in the house when police arrived. They declined to say whether he made any statement.

Detectives said the woman apparently was attacked in the kitchen and her body thrown down the stairs. A supper was on the kitchen stove.

IDLE DRUMHELLER MINERS TO RETURN TO WORK

DRUMHELLER, Alta., May 21 (CP)—About 400 coal miners of the nearby East Coulee District, idle since last April 21, expect to return to work next Tuesday.

The miners were forced to remain away from work when Spring floods washed out a railway bridge across the Red Deer River at East Coulee. A new temporary structure is being erected. A ferry at East Coulee has been unable to operate because of the high level of the river.

Non-Confidence Motion Filed Against Gov't

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP) — The Progressive Conservative Party today in the Commons introduced at the opening of the budget debate a motion of non-confidence in the Government.

The motion, introduced by J. W. Macdonell (PC-Muskoka - Ontario) was brief.

It called upon the Commons to express this opinion:

"That this Government does not possess the confidence of the country."

German Reds To Defy Ban Against State Plebiscite

BERLIN, May 21 (AP)—Berlin's Communists announced today they intended to defy the American ban against their plebiscite on a unified German state.

The plebiscite is scheduled to start Sunday. The United States military Government has prohibited circulation of petitions for the plebiscite in the American sector of Berlin and in the United States zone of Western Germany. The Americans call the plebiscite an unauthorized and pernicious manoeuvre by a Communist-front organization—the so-called German People's Congress.

The Communist Press, denouncing the ban as a "suppression of Democracy," announced that the plebiscite would recognize no sectors. The Communists said they intend to send their petitions into the Western areas, and to set up extra polling booths in the Soviet sector for any in the American area who want to cross over and vote.

Russian authorities aided the Communists by voiding a city Government order prohibiting the use of public offices for plebiscite purposes. The Russians said they did this to preserve "true Democracy."

United States authorities said they would not attempt to stop Germans from crossing over to the Soviet sector to vote, but that they would not permit the Communists to solicit signatures. German police have orders on this.

EFFORTS TO TAME OIL WELL MEET PARTIAL SUCCESS

EDMONTON, May 21 (CP) — Grimy workers should know today how much of the oil being spewed up by Atlantic No. 3—rogue well of the Leduc Field 16 air miles Southwest of Edmonton—is flowing into storage tanks.

The well has given trouble ever since it was brought in March 8. It went wild with a vengeance April 30, when oil and natural gas began rumbling through the ground surrounding the site.

Efforts to tame it have met with partial success, the Chairman of the Alberta Petroleum Conservation Board—I. N. McKinnon of Edmonton—announced last night.

Atlantic No. 3's drill pipe has been connected with the tanks, and a "good proportion' of its oil is being tanked," he said. However, cratering caused by oil and natural gas eruptions at the well was continuing "to a certain extent."

In efforts to control the flow, the Provincial Government ordered the 59 other producing wells in the field closed down, and there has been no word yet whether they will be allowed to resume production.

The wild well has been producing more than the 6000 barrels allotted for the entire field.

Chief cause of its behavior was a shale bridge in the well head. When that broke out, workers were able to begin attempts to cap the well and save it for further production.

Though they took into account the fire hazard and the interruption to production, over the field, the principal fear of oilmen at one time was that the escape of natural gas through through earth fissues would lower pressure throughout the entire field, necessitating the pumping of oil from the ground.

Engagement Order Keeps Britons Home

LONDON, May 21 (CP)— Many Britons who dream of an escape from austerity and read that the Government is "eager to facilitate emigration" will find the Control of Engagement Order keeps them at home.

The order is Britain's protection against the loss of essential skilled workers. If too many emigrated her recovery would be impeded and her dollar-earning industries crippled.

The order has been used sparingly to check emigration thus far, mainly because comparatively few have been able to leave the United Kingdom. The limitation has been imposed by a shortage of ships to carry emigrants.

Government spokesmen said they doubted the oft-quoted estimate that 500,000 emigrants are ready to leave the United Kingdom but agree none can be sure of the number until ocean berths are more plentiful. But even a smaller movement overseas, especially if it drained skilled men and women from certain industries, would be a blow to the British economy.

Government policy on emigration was set forth by Patrick Gordon-Walker, Commonwealth Relations Under-Secretary, in the Commons as follows:

"The only limitation that we have in mind over the facilities we can offer for travel is that we do not want too many skilled workers in certain categories to go out. With that one exception we are willing and eager to facilitate emigration, and we do our utmost to make shipping available."

All persons whose occupation is not regarded as professional, executive or managerial come under the Control of Engagement Order. It requires workers to obtain employment through Labor exchanges and permits the Government to direct them to work where they can best serve the national good.

The restrictions apply, with some exceptions, to engagements taken up in Britain for employment abroad. The coal miner who wishes to emigrate cannot do so without receiving permission to leave his employment in Britain.

Canada Still Buying Heavily From U. S.

By The Canadian Press

Canada continues to make progress in correcting her unfavorable trade position with the United States, and consequently in her American dollar situation.

However, she still buys much more from that country than she sells there, and continues to have a dollar problem which she must try to make up by getting payment in dollars for what she sells to other countries.

Assistance to European countries through the European Recovery Program helps in this, though the course of American policy is not clear in all respects. Also, Canada is suffering somewhat in her trade with dollar-short countries which do not get E.R.P. aid, and which have put restrictions on what they will buy from dollar areas.

Total Canadian sales to the United States in the first four months of this year were $421,533,000, compared with $320,237,000 in the similar period of 1947, an advance of more than 31 per cent. Complete figures for purchases for the four months are not available, but, with import restrictions in effect, they are down. For the first three months of the year the unfavorable trade balance with the United States was $107,900,000, compared with $203,200,000 in the same period of 1947.

$127 MILLION IMPROVEMENT

In his budget speech Tuesday Finance Minister Abbott stated that Canada's exchange reserves were $668,000,000 as of April 30. This compares with $461,000,000 Dec. 17, an improvement of $207,000,000 in four and one-half months. However, $80,000,000 of it consists of drawings on the United States Export-Import Bank loan, so that the net improvement is $127,000,000. Mr. Abbott also said that these figures included items of a non-recurring character.

The former practice of withholding exchange reserve figures until some time has passed, so that they will not assist in speculation, will be resumed.

May oats ended at a seasonal high of .98⅝ cents, up ⅜, with other months also ahead. May barley ended down, but July and October were up. Chicago prices also were up except for May oats.

Gov't Building Surplus at Expense Of Wrong People Says Coldwell

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP) — M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. Leader, said today in the Commons that the Government is building up huge surpluses at the expense of those least able to bear the taxation burden.

Speaking in debate on the budget, Mr. Coldwell said the budgets last year and this year gave "substantial relief to wealthy individuals and corporations." Taxes on the wealthy and on corporations should have been retained at their high levels.

The Excess Profits Tax, repealed at the end of 1947, should have been continued. This would have enabled the Government to increase Income Tax exemptions from $750 to $1250 for single persons and from $1500 to 2000 for married persons.

"In addition, the continued higher taxation of wealthy individuals and corporations, together with Excess Profits Tax, could have permitted *elimination of the Sales Tax with*out changing substantially the surplus position for which the Government is deliberately budgeting."

Mr. Abbott had announced removal of Sales Tax from some food items, but "he should be severely criticized for not removing it from other commodities — particularly clothing and construction materials."

It was difficult to understand the logic of the $500 increase in Income Tax exemption for persons 65 years and over. While such an increase was welcome, few would benefit from it.

Forty per cent of persons 70 years or over were in receipt of old age pensions, indicating that their incomes were less than $600 a year.

"The better plan would have been to abolish the means test and to raise old-age pensions to $50 per month."

U. S. CURTIS CUP SCORE WINS AGAINST ENGLISH

BIRKDALE, England, May 21—(AP)—The United States Curtis Cup team defeated Britain's best women golfers in two of the three foursome matches which opened the international series today on the Birkdale course.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., and Dorothy Kielty of Los Angeles sent the Americans off in front by defeating Maureen Ruttle of England and Mrs. Val Reddan of Ireland, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare of Merion, Pa., and Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, Ga., turned back Philomena Garvey of Ireland and Mrs. Sara Bolton of England, 4 and 3.

But Louise Suggs of Atlanta, U. S. women's champion, and Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., went down before Jean Donald of Scotland and Jacqueline Gordon of England, two of Britain's best, 3 and 2.

The international series will be completed tomorrow with half a dozen singles matches.

A crowd of some 2000 came out in bright, sunny weather to watch today's 18-hole two-ball foursome matches, with each teammate hitting the ball alternately.

BOARD DANCE TO AID SPORTS DAY

HOWSER, B.C., May 21 — Lardeau Board of Trade sponsored another successful dance in the Howser School in aid of the Children's Sports Day to be held here on May 24. Residents from all parts of the valley, and even from as far away as Johnson's Landing turned out to support the cause and to enjoy an evening of fun.

This was the second in a series of dances held by the Board to raise funds for the sports day, and both events were highly successful, with almost $100 being raised towards the expenses for the 24th.

This dance drew one of the largest crowds ever to attend an event of this kind here. Music was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Greenlaw, Dr. Wilkinson and Charlie Johnston; while Frank Abey acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Different Drugs That Are Used In the Treatment of Epilepsy

In spite of the great strides made recently in the treatment of epilepsy, all too many patients fail to benefit because measures taken are not thorough-going enough.

Epilepsy is a most distressing condition both for the patient and his family because it is marked by recurrent attacks of unconsciousness, sometimes accompanied by major convulsions.

EXACT CAUSE UNKNOWN

Its exact cause is unknown but today we have a number of drugs which can control or even banish the attacks altogether in many patients.

It is suggested in carrying out treatment that the drug usually considered the most effective in the type of epilepsy present be employed, that it be started in the usual dose, and that the amount be gradually increased until the attacks stop or until the tolerance point to the drug is reached. In other words, only a certain amount of the drug can be employed without causing reactions, and when this amount is reached, no increase in the dose is possible. If the seizures become less frequent with this treatment, and the tolerance point of the drug is reached, another preparation may be added to the treatment. No possible remedy is discarded as useless until the largest dose which can be tolerated has been tried.

TYPE OF EPILEPSY

Once the seizures are controlled, a lower percentage of the drug may then often be enough to keep the attacks from recurring.

The type of epilepsy in which there are convulsions and unconsciousness is known as grand mal epilepsy. The drug which has been found to be most helpful for this condition is dilantin. It is often given together with phenobarbital, which is a quieting or a sedative drug.

The dilantin may cause such reactions as double vision. Some patients are sensitive to this preparation and, in these instances, it may produce overgrowth of the gum tissues and an itching rash, as well as irritation of the stomach. The phenobarbital sometimes causes excessive sleepiness.

BROMIDES USED

Bromides, also, are used in the treatment of epilepsy, but they may cause a skin eruption known as acne as well as some mental depression and confusion.

In petit mal epilepsy, there is loss of consciousness for a few seconds at a time, but no convulsions.

A drug recently employed for this type of epilepsy is known as tridione. It may cause inability to see in a bright light, and drowsiness. Sensitive persons may develop a skin rash and a lessening of the red cells in the blood. Should the latter develop, the use of the drug must be stopped at once. For this reason, those taking this preparation must have periodic blood tests.

A person with epilepsy should, of course, be under the care of a physician so that he may employ the drugs which have been found most useful in this disease, meanwhile observing their effects and guarding against harmful reactions.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. A.: My son is going on fifteen years of age. Seven months ago, he had an attack during sleep in which his entire body shook. It lasted about two minutes. A few days ago he had another attack but milder. Would you advise?

A: It would appear from your description that the boy is suffering from nocturnal epilepsy. This condition is treated with such preparations as phenobarbital, dilantin or other drugs.

Your son should consult his family doctor or a children's specialist. Specialists in diseases of the nervous system also take care of this type of condition.

EXPORTS CLIMB

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP) — Canada's exports during April jumped to $212,300,000, an increase of 11 per cent over the total of $190,900,000 for April last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. Further gains in sales to the United States and shipments of bacon and hams, wood pulp, aluminum, nickel and other non-ferrous metals featured the month's statistics.

Aggregate shipments in the first four months of the year were 12 per cent higher than a year ago, at $84,400,000 against $78,000,000.

War Leadership Came When Halifax Rejected Suggestion, Winnie Recalls

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Winston Churchill tells in his war memoirs of the quietly dramatic circumstances in which he became Prime Minister on the day Germany launched its crushing invasion of France and the low countries.

The account is in the last instalment published from "The Gathering Storm," the first volume of the memoirs. There will be four additional volumes. Publication rights in Canada are held by the Montreal Standard.

Churchill describes the political crisis which engulfed Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain in May, 1940, after Britain's abortive effort to go to the aid of a Norway overrun by the Germans.

On the morning of May 10, Chamberlain had become convinced he could not form a national government of all parties, Churchill writes. The Prime Minister then summoned Lord Halifax and Churchill to 10 Downing Street.

SILENT SESSION

Chamberlain was phlegmatic and unruffled, Churchill says. He adds that he himself, usually quite voluble, remained silent.

Finally Chamberlain implied that he believed Lord Halifax should take over the Government because of Churchill's vigorous exchanges with Labor Party leaders May 8 during the House of Commons debate.

Another long pause ensued, Churchill says. It was broken by Lord Halifax, who said he felt that he could not serve as Prime Minister because his position as a peer disqualified him for the House of Commons.

Churchill realized the premiership had fallen to him when Lord Halifax finished speaking.

At 6 p.m. on May 10 Churchill was summoned by the King and requested to form a Government. Within four hours he had obtained the consent of Labor and Liberal Party members to serve with him and had sent the names of his war cabinet to the King.

A RELIEF

Churchill writes that his pulse did not quicken throughout the political crisis. As he went to bed the night of May 10, he says he was conscious of a great relief that he at last had the supreme authority.

After taking office on one of the Allies' most critical days of the war, Churchill notes that he served five years and three months until final victory was at hand. Then, he says, he was at once turned out by the voters.

Michel Coal Output B. C. April Highest

VICTORIA, May 21 (CP)—British Columbia's coal mine production, despite a strike which ended during the month, exceeded the April, 1947, production last month.

Monthly report of the Chief Inspector of Mines showed today total output from the Province last month was 132,225 long tons, compared with 114,397 long tons for the previous April.

The biggest single mine output increase was recorded by Michel Collieries, which produced 69,849 tons last month, compared with 47,269 tons during the previous April.

Production of the East Kootenay District, all from the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co., Ltd., properties, totalled 95,921 tons, compared with 69,849 tons for the previous April.

Closed by a strike during the first part of the month, Vancouver Island mines turned out 33,728 tons. This compared with 41,125 tons produced during the previous April.

Output of the Nicola-Princeton District was 2228 tons, compared with 3826 tons for the previous April, while in the Northern District only 348 tons were produced last month. This, however, compared with 137 tons produced during April of last year.

Morrison Would Make Changes in House of Lords

SCARBOROUGH, England, May 21 (AP)—Cockney-born Herbert Morrison, the Labor Government's Deputy Prime Minister, defended the House of Lords today, but suggested there should be some changes made.

Sixteen years after the Labor Party voted for abolition of the Peer's chamber, he told the Party's annual conference the present Government has decided such a step would be unwise.

Without a vote after hearing Morrison, the conference delegates pigeon-holed a resolution expressing alarm over reports the Government plans to support a Conservative plan for remodelling the House of Lords on a permanent basis.

Such, said Morrison, is not the case. The Government intended to go ahead with its own measure to halve the Peers' present power to delay passage of legislation for two years. Moreover, it intended to pursue its study of long-range revision of the House of Lords.

However, the House of Lords has proved "useful" both in perfecting legislation and in taking part of the law-making load off the Commons.

But Morrison contended the future House of Lords should not be elective on the grounds that would give it "greater moral authority." He held that members should be appointed for life rather than obtain their seats on a hereditary basis.

"There is no sense," he said, "in a person being a legislator in the House of Lords merely because he is the son of his father."

He will be returned to Russian authorities.

No Action Taken for Police Censorship

MONTREAL, May 21 (CP) — No action on a motion to consider establishment of a police censorship bureau has been taken by the Montreal section of the Canadian Brotherhood of Policemen, because requested information has not been received from the United Kingdom, a spokesman said yesterday.

The matter was to have been discussed at yesterday's meeting of the section.

The decision to study "internal police censorship" was made several months ago after several members of the Police Morality Squad were fired for using immoral methods in obtaining evidence in prostitution cases.

The Brotherhood criticized the action of authorities in releasing the names of the Morality Squad members involved, contending that it caused their families undue anguish.

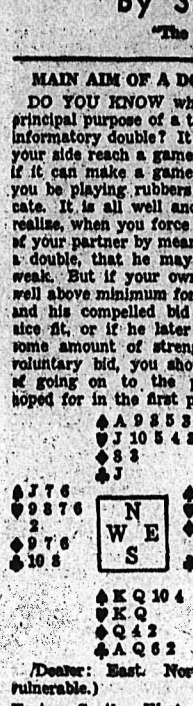
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

MAIN AIM OF A DOUBLE

DO YOU KNOW what is the principal purpose of a takeout or informatory double? It is to help your side reach a game contract, if it can make a game, whether you be playing rubbers or duplicate. It is all well and good to realize, when you force a bid out of your partner by means of such a double, that he may be quite weak. But if your own hand is well above minimum for doubling and his compelled bid shows a nice fit, or if he later indicates some amount of strength by a voluntary bid, you should think of going on to the point you hoped for in the first place.



(Dealer: East. North-South vulnerable.)

East	South	West	North
1♦	Dbl	Pass	1♠
2♣	Pass	Pass	2♥
Pass	2♠

That last bid by South was terrible. North had asserted the fact that he had some kind of real assets, in honors or extreme distribution, or both, with his voluntary call of 2-Hearts. South's shift from that to 2-Spades, a mere preference, indicated that his own double was based on an irreducible minimum, perhaps even being a bit shaded, or that he didn't fit either of North's suits any too well. In truth, South's holding was appreciably over minimum for a double, and his arrangement of honors and distribution were fine for a spade contract.

South, indeed, should have made a bid of 2-Spades over East's second call, of 2-Clubs, to show that his hand was some better than a minimum double and also fitted the spade response admirably. Had he done that, North would have leaped into game. Having passed, as he did on that second turn, South should have welcomed North's free bid of 2-Hearts with open arms and should have rushed gleefully into game. Even the rankest coward should then have called 3-Spades instead of two, an invitation North might well have accepted with his spade A and his extremely fine distribution. North of course made game without difficulty, losing only one trick in hearts and two in diamonds, but couldn't score it because it wasn't bid.

Love Problems

By JANE ATKINSON

Man Who Married Only to Obtain A Stepmother for His Children

For two people to marry for any other reason than because they are in love with each other is always ticklish business. If the two are lucky, it may work out. If they are unlucky, it can be very bad, indeed, as a letter from one of my male correspondents proves.

This man, whose wife died while he was in the Army, leaving him with two small children to care for, says that he married again "just so my children would have a home." He says nothing whatever about any love for the woman he married, so presumably, on his side at least, it was purely a marriage of convenience.

As for the woman who became his second wife, it seems rather doubtful if she loved him either, for if she had, the present sad situation could scarcely have come about.

"At first my second wife was very willing and anxious," the letter reads. "But now that the novelty is over, she wants to put the children in a home or send them to my first wife's mother where they were until my discharge from the Army. Those two kids are actually all I have in the world and my wife threatens divorce unless I do her bidding. What am I to do?

If this man married his wife solely to give his children a home, as he says, and not because he loved her for herself, then what is there to hold him to her? The purpose for which he married her is obviously not going to be fulfilled, since she now refuses to do her part to make the home he wanted for his children.

What haunts him is probably the likelihood that if he is divorced, he would have to be separated from his children. If he tried to carry on alone, there would be the problem of caring for the children while he was away at work. If he did as his wife suggests, and sent them back to his former mother-in-law, the assumption is that they would be living at a distance from him, perhaps too far for him to see them often.

If he could afford to employ a housekeeper to take charge of his home and look after his children, I think it would be a much better situation than to try and persuade a reluctant stepmother to care for children with whom she does not want to be bothered. There are many motherly middle-aged women either unmarried or widowed, who could ably fill such a position, and there are reliable ways of locating them.

If this man's wife presents him with the choice of losing her or the children, I think he might well keep the children and let her go.

Neat Twist Tones Upper Arm Muscles, Keeps Them Shapely and Youthful

Roll up your sleeves, ladies . . . we're going after the muscles on the backs of the upper arms and really take them to task.

It's not as though we sat with our hands folded! One would naturally suppose that with the amount of exercise the arms get in the course of the day's work, the least they could do would be to stay shapely! But the catch is that ordinary arm movements do not put the triceps muscles into action.

What movements do put them to work then? The triceps insert below the elbow joint, and as the science of muscular movement shows, they are involved in elbow cation. We get considerable action of that short—by way of eating. But not even taking calories into account, elbow-bending does not use the muscles on the backs of the upper arms. The triceps are used to extend the elbows, forcibly—for exomple, to pushing firmly away from the table.

But there must be some easier exercise than that, so let's find it.

One plan is to keep the circulation in that area up and doing by rubbing briskly with a rough towel after the bath—vigorously. rub the backs of the upper arms, right where those muscles tend to sag. Another trick is to get the knack of holding the arms with the inside of the elbow, the soft part, toward the body, and the elbow bone turned to the outside. In that position the backs of the hands are in front view as the arms hang at the sides, which is the correct way to carry the arms. It puts a very slight twist on, the ticeps muscles and keeps them toned

Since a twist is toning, carry on with an easy exercise on that order. Take this from the position of elbows straight, arms held out at sides, shoulder level. Slowly but firmly turn arms inward until palms face up, then slowly twist in the opposite direction as far as possible. Repeat three times, relax, and repeat three times more.

Kinesiology reveals that loss of the triceps muscles would destroy our ability to extend the elbow forcibly, so that is the cue for vigorous action. These muscles are put through their paces in such action as pounding nails, thrusting out with dumbbells, pushing the lawnmower, and punching. My favorite shaper-upper for arms is the pillow punching routine—to suspend an old sofa pillow so that it is shoulder level, or very slightly above, and punch, punch, punch. It will do the trick.

A Good Use For Dice

From the North West Magazines, published in St. Paul, Minnesota, Sept., 1892:

An incident worthy of note as characteristic of Western mining life was observed at Kaslo, British Columbia.

Kaslo is scarcely six months old as yet, but the inevitable missionary has reached it and services are being held regularly. There is now a proposition on foot to build a church.

On the occasion in question a young lady came in to Green Brothers store, soliciting subscriptions for the church organ. She went straight up to a prospector who was buying an outfit at the counter. She explained to him the subject of her mission, and asked him if he would subscribe, at the same time handing him the book with the names in it and the amounts subscribed. As he glanced over the names, his chum stepped up and asked: "What have you got there pard?" Anticipating the reply, the young lady stepped up and explained, and wanted to know if he would subscribe. Without noticing the solicitous look and pleading smile on the young lady's face the second said carelessly, "I'll tell you what I'll do, Bob, I'll flip the dice with you to see who pays the girl $5."

"I'll go you," was the nonchalant reply, and turning to the clerk he said, "Hand me down the arbitrators" meaning the leather dice box.) They shook — pooker dice — aces high. One lost, handed over the $5, and the young lady proceeded in a business-like way to the next.

No one seemed to look on the event as in any way humorous or unusual although it could not but strike a stranger as extremely so.

The North West Magazines had a circulation in the Kootenay in 1892.

Finds That Children Are Very Forgiving of Parents Faults

Like other parents, I learned a great deal from my children while they were growing up. Two things about them impressed me more than anything else, perhaps; their readiness to overlook my human frailties when they believed I was trying to improve, and their amazing spirit of forgiveness of my transgressions against them when they say that I was really sorry.

When the eldest was fourteen and the next a few years younger Mrs. Myers and I one evening were scurrying around to dress for a formal dinner party. I had great trouble finding a few needed buttons. As we were leaving I said to the children: "I'm sorry I have been more irritable than usual."

In concert the children replied: "Never mind, Dad; we expected it."

HUMAN FRAILTIES

On numerous occasions the three children during their teens, singly or together, would recount with glee some earlier incidents which revealed my human frailties. Fortunately, I was able to laugh with them then.

I recall that when one of the boys was about fourteen he was not so much impressed with my apology and promise not to repeat a certain offense of mine. Said he, "That's all right, Dad, but you will do it again." It was about my interrupting him as he spoke. "Well, you may collect a nickel from me each time I offend," I said. It was during lunchtime and he collected a quarter before the end of the meal.

DEDICATED TO CHILDREN

Though I once wrote a book, "The Modern Parent," which might well have had the title, "How We Parents Annoy Our Children," being somewhat autobigraphical, I did not begin to include all the ways in which I sinned against my children. I did, however, dedicate that book "To my Three Children, Jack, Betty and Garry, Jr., whom I often have annoyed." The book ends with a prayer for parents which I wrote for myself (a copy maybe had for postage.) One sentence from it: "Give me the courage to confess my sins against my children and to ask of them forgiveness, when I know that I have done them wrong."

Of course I never nearly attained perfection at helping Heaven a bit to answer this prayer. Yet I am sure that insofar as I kept striving in this direction my efforts were fruitful, not only for the children, but for myself.

So many writers refer to resentment by children over punishment. Our children got some punishment, of course, given with deliberate purpose, though they were not punished physically after the age of five and seldom after three. Yet so far as Mrs. Myers and I were able to observe, we practically never sensed a resentment in them.

TOMORROW'S DINNER

Citrus Fruit Cup
Mustard Grilled Frankfurters in Rolls
Brown Beans

Recipes Serve Four

CITRUS FRUIT CUP

Use a blend of three well chilled citrus fruits, oranges, tangerines and grape fruit. Peel and cut into neat segments with a sharp knife, and arrange in wide glass sherbets or deep sauce dishes. To serve, pour over chilled canned or fresh orange, tangerine or grape fruit juice, or a blend of citrus juices. If canned, pour the juices from one utensil to another to freshen the flavor. This makes lots of difference. Try it.

MUSTARD GRILLED FRANKFURTERS

Select skinless frankfurters, allowing 2 for each person. Brush lightly with table mustard. Melt a little butter or savory meat fat in a heavy frying pan and pan-fry slowly, turning occasionally until the frankfurters are light brown and very hot. Meantime hollow out long rolls and heat in the oven. (Save the crumbs to use in an escallop or pudding.) Place a frankfurter in the hollow of each roll, spread with a little pickle relish and serve.

BROWN BEANS

Wash and rinse 1 lb. kidney or pinto beans. Put in a good sized sauce pan and pour in 2 qts. boiling water. Let stand 50 minutes. Then add 1½ teaspoons salt and simmer 2 hours or until the beans are tender and the liquid is almost evaporated. During the last part of the cooking better set the sauce pan on an asbestos mat. Add 1 tablespoon bacon, sausage or ham drippings, ¼ cup very light molasses or brown corn syrup and 3 tablespoons vinegar. Simmer 15 minutes so the flavors will be absorbed. Nice not only with frankfurters but with sausage, or meat balls made of pork and veal.

RAISIN RICE MOLDS

Into a double-boiler top measure 1 cup brown rice. Add 2 tablespoons honey or sugar, ½ teaspoon salt and ½ cup water and 2 cups any kind fruit juice, except grape fruit juice. Bring to boiling point. Boil 5 minutes then place over hot water. Stir in ½ cup raisins, cover and cook 40 minutes in the double-boiler. Serve hot with light cream; or mold and serve cold. To do this pack the rice into custard cups first rinsed in cold water. Chill, unmold, and serve with light cream or sweetened whipped cream.

TRICK OF THE CHEF

To make a tasty dressing for a tossed vegetable salad that will make mayonnaise go farther and taste more interesting, add to ½ cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar and ¼ teaspoon powdered mixed herbs, tarragon or basil.

Movie Gossip

Believes "Sorrowful Jones" With Bob Hope Worth Academy Attention

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 19 (AP) — Bob Hope did a tender scene with Mary Jayne Saunders for "Sorrowful Jones" that evoked many a wet eye among onlookers. When I suggested that the picture might be Oscar bait, Bob answered, "No chance — too many laughs in it to woo an Academy Award." But, I pointed out, "It happened One Night" did all right. And if Bing can snag an Oscar, why can't Bob? . . .

FAIR-HAIRED FARROW

No wonder John Farrow is the fair-haired director at Paramount. The wartime Royal Canadian Navy officer finished "Dark Circle," originally slated for 45 days, in 24. Careful planning did the trick. Said his star, Ray Milland: "The director is the one to cut down costs. If he knows what he wants, and gets it, you save money."

Constance Bennett, on the other hand, reports: "I always hire the most capable actors I can for the pictures I produce. If the actor knows his job, the picture moves along. That's where you save the money."

10-SECOND REVIEW

"Silver River" (Warners) is hewn from the same rock that has served movie Westerns for decades. It's the yarn of the strong man (Errol Flynn, intrepid as ever) who rules a frontier town and woos and wins his gal (Ann Sheridan). Plenty of shooting, brawling and riding, plus an Indian threat that doesn't materialize. Neither do some other things, but horse opera fans will love it.

Believe Municipalities Should Collect 50 p.c. Of Amusement Tax

VICTORIA, May 21 (CP)—Victoria City Council thinks at least 50 per cent of the Provincial Amusement Tax should be paid to municipalities.

A resolution asking this bill be prepared for the annual meeting of the Union of B. C. Municipalities this Autumn.

Council endorsed the move in a report from the Finance Committee which pointed out that municipalities have to provide police and fire protection and all essential services to amusement premises.

The B. C. Government proclaimed an act Wednesday enabling the Province to take over the 25 per cent tax which was vacated by the Federal Government.

Finance Minister Anscomb will be notified of the resolution

Comfortable, Efficient Office Furniture Was Unheard of . . . Then!

In the olden days offices were drab affairs with dark stain woodwork, poorly lighted with an olive-green shaded lamp. It has been proven that bright woodwork, an ample flood of light and modern desks and appliances step up production incredibly.

No doubt you have followed the modern trend in your office—but are you still color-shy? For instance when you send out circulars of mailing pieces do you still insist on "black and white?"

We can show you some color jobs that are full of pep but are at the same time in the best of taste. Enquire about them today.

Wire Just Crossed in British, U. S. Differences in Palestine Issue

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

The sharp differences between Britain and the United States over the Arab-Jewish issue are bringing many anxious queries to this column.

Why should we find the United States recognizing the new Jewish State of Israel, while Britain withholds recognition?

Well, we are treading on delicate ground here. However, I think we are safe in saying that London and Washington aren't really working toward different ends. They just have their wires crossed in a most disconcerting manner.

Britain's main objective is to safeguard her interests in the Middle East. These include control of the strategic areas necessary for maintenance of her life-line through the Mediterranean and the Suez Canal to the Far East. Many of these strategic bases are Arabic. She also is vitally interested in the Middle East petroleum fields—as is the United States.

HEAVY EMPHASIS

It may surprise many people to find Britain thus apparently putting heavy emphasis on her Mediterranean defences once more. It's only a little more than a year ago that she announced withdrawal of her military administrative and supply bases from the Eastern Mediterranean to Kenya Colony on the East coast of Africa. It was said that her reasons for this sensational change included the instability of her political and military status in Egypt and Palestine.

London said this program envisaged retention of forward operational bases "as long as practicable" in such countries as the Sudan, Palestine, Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq. However, the world got the impression that British military experts felt the position was such that they would not be able to defend the Mediterranean lifeline in another great war.

That was a year ago. Since then the situation has changed vastly, due to Communist aggression. Moscow not only has virtually annexed Eastern Europe, but is trying to make true Russia's age-old dream of breaking through into the Middle East and becoming a Mediterranean power.

WORST DANGER SPOT

Thus this area has again become one of the world's worst danger spots.

So we see Britain maneuvering to maintain her position in the Arab countries, or so it seems from here. She proposes to defend the Mediterranean if the need arises.

But meantime the Holy Land is torn by bloody strife. What of that? Some observers familiar with the Middle East believe that sooner or later the Arabs and the Jews will make a deal for a division of Palestine, and end the war. King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, Commander-in-Chief of all the Arab forces, is ambitious for expansion, and might well be interested in bargaining.

C.C.F. Opens Byelection Campaign

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP)—The C.C.F. opened their Vancouver Centre byelection campaign with Provincial Leader Harold Winch criticizing the "wedlock" of the Liberal-Progressive Conservative Coalition in British Columbia.

He told a meeting last night there is an "unholy wedlock" and an "unholy deadlock" of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives in Provincial politics.

"They dare not separate," he said. "But how can they be enemies nationally and sweethearts Provincially if they are honest."

The C. C. F. candidate in the byelection is Rod Young, who is opposed by Liberal and Progressive Conservative nominees.

KINGSTON, Ont., (CP) — Four year-old David Kirby escaped without a scratch when a bus tore the tricycle he was riding out from under him. The lad started to cross a street as the light turned red.

Nelson Success as Convention City

Two outstandingly successful conventions were held in Nelson within the last ten days. They were the Conference of Rotary District No. 103 and the convention of the Grand Orange Lodge of British Columbia.

Apart from the highly commendable personal efforts of the Nelson Rotarians and Orangemen to make their respective conventions outstanding events, there are several other factors which consistently contribute to the success of all "Nelson-sponsored" conventions.

The billeting of visitors in private homes seems to have been brought down to a fine point. Catering is carried out in a similar methodical manner by ladies' organizations of the various church clubs. Finally the Nelson Civic Centre is a never-ending source of interest and pleasure to visitors.

Naturally the final warmth and good fellowship of these meetings must come from within the organizations themselves, and of this there was an abundance in these last two conventions.

The Nelson Rotarians and Orangemen handled their conferences in a manner which does great credit to themselves and to Nelson.

Modern Olympics

After nearly two years of concentrated effort by experts, plans have been practically finalized for staging the athletic events of the XIV Olympiad at Wembley Stadium, near London. The curtain will rise July 30, on this, the biggest athletic meeting ever held in Britain.

The equipment to be provided will in many instances be novel and the increased use of metal may well revolutionize the manufacture of standard athletic gear. For example, both pole vault and high jump equipment will be constructed of aluminum, as will the hurdles. It is easy to see the advantages over the old-fashioned wooden standards; non-sag cross bars, accurately calibrated scales, and the entire absence of the ill effect of weather on wood. No longer need the judges perform balancing feats to replace the pole vault bar; a patent pulley and hoist will solve the problem.

The long jump and hop, step and jump measuring apparatus will also be in metal, hairline measurements ensuring accurate recording, while the old bogey of bumpy sandpits will be taken care by a special automatic sand leveller which quickly and accurately prepares a level pit surface for the next jumper.

A remote-controlled starter's pistol, sited to give a report heard absolutely simultaneously by all the runners in a start in echelon, while the starter is free to take up his normal position where he can most easily see all the competitors, has been tried out with success and is now being perfected for use at the Games.

The photographic finish apparatus, familiar to spectators at the 1932 and 1936 Olympiads, which produced a cinematograph film of each finish with a record of time incorporated, has been superseded by the photo-finish camera which, by an ingenious movement of the film, produces within 90 seconds of the finish of the race a print showing the exact order of the runners as they pass the post and also portrays the exact period of time between each runner. If the order in a close finish has to be verified, a visit to the cinema to have the film run off will no longer be necessary.

War on Rheumatism

Britain is planning a big-scale war on rheumatism. Leader of the fight is 77-year-old Lord Horder, Physician to the King.

Lord Horder believed relief could be brought to millions of Britons suffering from rheumatism and other painful muscular ailments. He planned a flying squad of 200 mobile physiotherapy units, fitted with the most modern electrical equipment, bringing the latest treatment to every small town and village in the country.

His dream has started to come true. Already 20 women, all trained electrical equipment operators, have been travelling Britain for more than a year. In 12 trucks, they have taken their equipment to remote farms and cottages, miles from bus routes, and to homes where people were too sick to travel to hospital. Every week they sent reports to Lord Horder, and on them he is basing his new campaign.

He says that the mobile physiotherapy service will expand throughout this year and well into 1949. He hopes to have 200 trucks strategically placed in every centre in the country. There will be two fully-trained physiotherapists to each truck, and all the latest equipment.

Lord Horder hopes to have a uniformed service for his war on rheumatism. There are between 10,000 and 12,000 people in Britain fully trained to handle the necessary equipment. At the moment the staff is all women.

The service's first target is to be able to treat all urgent cases who cannot leave home, and, in time, to serve anyone who needs the treatment. Fifty cents a visit is charged those who are able to pay for the service.

Another Anniversary

By GERALD S. REES
Victoria, B. C.

This fugitive from the Upper Country for many years past has on this date in the annual cycle offered News readers some relevant observations on the state of the Empire, which on no occasion have caused any flutter in diplomatic dovecotes or ruffled the classic calm of Ottawa. He finds it difficult to refrain even though now far from Kootenay regions. There was a real Empire once upon a time, when the pound sterling lauded over the baser currencies of lesser nations and Gunga Din carried gin-slings to the complacent British Raj; when Britons believed a point in history had arrived when the sun would stay obligingly at full noon!

BLOOD AND IRON

Then it was said that British justice, tramp steamers and Scotch whisky loosely bound a diverse association of peoples scattered worldwide over a hodge-podge of real estate, some of which had been taken over without much sweetness and light, but roughly and toughly!

However, the unsung adventuring pioneers made green the desert and straight the paths. Now, with some poetic licence, has almost come the time when—"All our pomp of yesterday is one with Nineveh and Tyre," though it is too early yet to ask—"How long until sunset?"

Attlee's Empire, governed largely by anti-imperialist Socialists and now inhabited largely by fiercely independent "dependent peoples," is a lot more peculiar than Disraeli's Empire, who remarked that—"No Caesar or Charlemagne ever presided over a dominion so peculiar!"

We are now witnessing the whirlwind finish of the greatest peaceful revolution known, and what the future holds in store cannot presently be foreseen. Sufficient to say the old sea-connected Empire system is now only a part of history. During this fiercely transitional period, we can remind ourselves there has never been a static Empire, and Britain's is no exception, and all old imperial concepts were sharply accelerated by two World Wars.

MAGNIFICENT ALL-ROUND RECORD

In the last analysis, all Empires wax and wane according to their people's general recognition of spiritual values, and herein lies our greatest hope, for with all its imperfections, our Empire, old and new, is one of the greatest forces for the protection of human liberty and man's evolutionary progress toward the building of a better world. This is plain enough from the history of the last eight years. If there had been no British Empire in July, 1940, Britain, like France, would have been pushed to surrender. Hitler would have won his war. After that, the deluge! The imperial system—space precludes any itemization of its factors—saved the day for the Western Democracies. It saved the world then from irreparable disaster, being willing with the Dominions overseas (Come where the bugles of England play!) to endure the unendurable rather than quit. The world at large, despite its current grievous troubles, is reaping a great reward for fidelity to a great trust. It is the writer's firm conviction, on these premises, that this Empire of ours, in some form or another, will stand, serene and humble, great in its courage and dignity, at the core of the Free Nations of the earth which have pledged themselves to the principles of the Atlantic Charter.

REQUIESCAT

And when the long day is done . . . the story told . . . and the books fully balanced, we can still in truth recall the high words of destiny—

"Shall now its star descend, its flag depart.
Not now nor ever. There is that in thee,
That stems from law. Thy sure defence is drawn
From Horeb's height and from Galilee."

Modern Manners

In a double wedding, it is usual for the ceremony to be read to both couples, with the responses made twice. If the brides are sisters, their father gives both brides away.

Inquirer, Nelson—Could you tell me if the Naval College at the Coast is called Royal Rhodes or Royal Roads?

It is Royal Roads.

Card Fiend, Creston—Will you please list the rank of hands in poker, beginning with the best possible hand? Also, what cards constitute the hands?

Rank of the hands, all of five cards, follows:

1. Royal flush—The five highest cards of the same suit, such as the A K Q J 10 of hearts.

2. Straight flush—Five cards of the same suit in sequence, such as the J 10 9 8 7 of clubs. This is ranked as "jack high."

Four of a kind—Any four cards of the same denomination, one of each suit, such as four tens. The odd card may be anything.

4. Full house—Three cards of one denomination and two of another, such as three kings and a pair of 9s. The highest, triplet wins, regardless of the pair.

5. Flush—Any five cards of the same suit, not in sequence, such as K 10 7 6 2 of diamonds. Flushes rank according to the highest card. This would be a "king high" flush.

6. Straight—A sequence of five cards in various suits, such as the 10 9 of diamonds, 8 of hearts, 7 and 6 of clubs. Straights outrank one another according to the highest card. This would be "10 high". An ace must either begin or end a sequence; as, ace to 10—5 to ace.

7. Threes—Any three cards of the same denomination, such as three Qs. The two odd cards may be any unmatched cards.

8. Two pairs—Any pair of one denomination, with a pair of different denominations, such as two Qs and two 6s. The higher pair gives the rank of the hand. This one would be "queens up". The odd card may be anything else.

9. One pair—Any two cards of the same denomination, with three other unmatched cards.

10. High card—Any hand that contains none of the foregoing combinations is ranked by the highest card in it. The K J of clubs, 9 of diamonds, 7 and 2 of spades would be "king high".

Your Future

You may make some geographical move—change of residence, office or Summer vacation—on the full moon, or within a few weeks. Do not let excessive pleasure seeking arouse hostility, thus incurring financial loss.

For May 23, the influences which are rife predict that many changes can be effected now which can be preliminary to bigger moves later in the year. Your anniversary promises some gain, which you should conserve. It will be well to avoid nervous and physical overstrain.

It Happened Today

In 1939, on May 22, Germany and Italy signed a 10-year military pact. On May 23, 1937, John D. Rockefeller died at the age of 97. During his lifetime he gave away $700,000,000.

Giant Cleaning Jobs Face Women After Floods

By GEORGE BRIMMELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WINNIPEG, May 21 (CP)—Peter Farmer had a farm—and then the flood-crest hit. Lorne (Baldy) Northcott had a sumptuous home on the Red River's bank. But he found flood waters will come through even concrete basements.

Can you picture yourself canoeing in your home to rescue furniture? Both the Farmers and the Northcotts had to.

Few can imagine just what the flood victims in Western Canada did go through . . . just what the women have to contend with as they start their mopping-up operations.

Today Mrs. Peter Farmer, in slacks and plaid shirt, is scrubbing the walls of her once cozy farm-style home in Winnipeg's suburban St. Northbert District. The water level shows black above her window-sills.

"The work of four years destroyed in minutes," she said.

With her husband and their two dogs, she had to evacuate her home a month ago, tying outbuildings and lawn furniture to trees. They hoped the water wouldn't get to their first floor. But it did. And that meant a return trip by canoe to move furniture to the upstairs.

She came back 10 days ago to a heart-breaking scene. The only thing on their property undamaged was a birdhouse sheltering purple martins atop a high pole. Everything else, inside and out, had been flooded, covered with inches of black river mud.

Strawberry patch and chicken house—their only sources of income—both were ruined. Cord wood, ice, clothing, tools—all were lost. Floors and walls are warped; doors won't close.

Water for drinking and scrubbing comes from a neighbor's well, 300 yards away. And the outlook: Two months or more of scrubbing, cleaning up.

Mrs. Northcott, wife of a nationally-known former hockey player, also has weeks of work ahead at her flood-hit home in the swank section of suburban St. Vital. But she's not complaining.

"Sure, we had tough luck," she says. "But there are many worse off than we."

The Northcotts thought at first they had things under control. They pumped their basement with two pumps for three days and nights. But their concrete basement floor heaved, and in two minutes the water rose eight feet.

FURNITURE ON TRESTLES

The furniture from their basement recreation room they had moved before. Now it meant hoisting their first-floor furniture onto three-foot trestles. And this precaution saved further damage.

"I fired my maid when she slept during those first three days of pumping," said Mrs. Northcott. "But I'm managing though I haven't worked like this for years. You can do it when you have to."

And across Western Canada, women in large homes and small "have to." But they're rolling up their sleeves and digging in, hoping the river will stay 'way from their doors for a long time to come.

Rev. E. Thain, Former Nelsonite, Brings Kiwanis Prairie Greetings

Quarterly reports of committees featured the meeting of Nelson Kiwanis Club at the Hume Thursday night.

The Club also heard briefly from Rev. Edwin Thain, former Nelson resident and now of St. James, near Winnipeg; and from President Walter Hendricks, who urged full cooperation of members in the "On To Nelson Caravan" here next week.

Mr. Thain offered the greetings of the St. James Kiwanis Club, of which he is a member. A son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thain, well known Nelsonites, he left here in 1926 to attend Anglican Theological College at Vancouver. He has been at St. James for four years.

Mr. Hendricks said that first Caravan arrivals in Nelson would come from the East next Thursday. He stressed the need for members to act as hosts. Nelson had been honored in being chosen as the converging point for the Caravan and citizens were being called on to do all in their power to help put over the campaign for completion of the Southern Trans-Canada Highway.

He read stories from newspapers in which objection to the Caravan's objective was taken, in one case route and in another, the Yellowhead Pass route.

Two other visitors to the meeting were J. H. Johnson of Spokane, Traffic Representative of the Missouri Pacific Lines, and W. A. Rathbun of Penticton.

The Committee reports, called for by Vice-President Ken Gibbons, were given as follows:

Stanley Morris, Finance; House and Reception, Peter Marken; Ty Culley, Inter-Club Relations; C. E. E. Marshall, Underprivileged and Aged; Dr. Gibbons, membership; S. H. Smythe, Classification; W. DeFoe, Attendance; Leo Gansner, Public Affairs; Phillip Robinson, Club Bulletin; Richard Palmer, Business Standards and Business Relations; J. Haines, Club Extension; Robert Bayne, Annual Picnic, to be held at Kaslo July 18.

SPORTS

A's Check Losing Streak; Tame Tigers

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Philadelphia Athletics reversed their field neatly Friday and stayed right in the thick of the American League pennant race.

Just when they seemed to be sliding back toward the second division where the pre-season prophets claimed they belonged, the brightly Philadelphians pounded out a 9-6 win over Detroit Tigers. coupled with losses by Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees, that left the Mackmen half a game out of first place and a game and a half ahead of the third-place New Yorkers.

Scoring in three-run clusters, the Athletics ended a three-game losing streak at the expense of Paul (Dizzy) Trout, who was hampered by two damaging Tiger errors. Hank Majeski paced the winners' offensive with a double and two singles, good for three runs.

Ted Williams and company reached to hitting form as Boston Red Sox smothered the Indians 11-5. Williams had a perfect day at the plate with four hits and two walks. Jerry Doby had a two-run homer for the losers.

Two former New Yorkers—Pitcher Ed Wight and Catcher Aaron Robinson—were poison to their old mates as Wight chilled the Yanks with a three-hit shutout while Robinson collected two hits, drove in a run and scored a second himself to help the Chicago White Sox a 3-0 win.

STINE TOUGH ON DODGERS

The Brooklyn Dodgers felt relieved when the St. Louis Cardinals left town, Pittsburgh Pirates served notice on Flatbush that Leo Durocher's worries aren't over yet.

Licking their wounds from five straight defeats—the last two administered in particularly humiliating fashion by the front-running Boston Birds—the Dodgers ran into a hungry ginger who reminded them painfully of Stan Musial, the man who beat them almost singlehanded with three safeties in two games.

Yesterday's nemesis was Frank Frisella, one of Musial's top contenders for National League batting honors, who collected a homer, a triple and two singles as the Bucs chalked up an 8-4 decision. Max West also helped him up with a three-run homer.

The victory win put the Pirates in a virtual second-place tie with New York Giants who lost 8-3 to Chicago Cubs. Rookie Clarence Maddern and veteran Ed Waitkus drove in seven runs between them, Maddern accounting for four with two homers and Waitkus kicking in with a homer and a triple.

Hogan Calls Up Best To Stay in P.G.A.

ST. LOUIS, May 21 (AP) — Ben Hogan staged two great comebacks today to move into the third round of the 30th Professional Golfers Association championship.

After being carried to the 23rd hole of his morning match by Jock Hutchison, Jr., of Glencoe, Ill., the slender shotmaker who plays from Hershey, Pa., shot an eagle and two birdies on the last four holes of his second match and turned back Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C., 1-up.

This victory sent Hogan into the third round of 16 along with such prominent players as United States open champion Lew Worsham, medalist Skip Alexander, Gene Sarazen, Jimmy Demaret, Sammy Snead and Ed (Porky) Oliver.

STARS OUT

A lot of big name pros flunked their test in this short course shotmaking as the two 18-hole rounds of match play reduced the field of 64 qualifiers to the 16 who will go into tomorrow's 36-hole contests.

Among those knocked out in the first round were Tony Penna, whose 135 left him only a stroke behind Alexander in yesterday's qualifying rounds; such well-known veterans as Horton Smith, Lawson Little, Dutch Harrison, Vic Ghezzi, Bob Hamilton and Herman Keiser, who looked like threats on the basis of their qualifying performances.

Of today's survivors, only George Fazio, former Canadian open champion from Conshohocken, Pr., and Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. V., had it fairly easy all the way.

Snead whipped Clay Gaddie of Cincinnati, 6 and 5, in morning competition. He followed it up with 4 and 3 victory over Frank Moore of St. Louis, in the second round. Moore had scored one of the day's most decisive triumphs when he whipped Ghezzi 7 and 6.

Fazio routed Edmond Onoretta of Pittsburgh, Pa., 6 and 5, then whipped Henry Williams of Secane, Pa., 7 and 6.

Sarazen, winner of three P.G.A. titles including one in 1922, turned in a pair of the day's most popular victories, 4 and 3, over Harvey Raynor of Modesto, Calif., and 2 and 1 over Jackson Bradley, of St. Charles, Ill. He faces Hogan tomorrow.

Yanofsky To Play For Canada in World Chess Test

QUEBEC, May 21 (CP) — Abe Yanofsky, Canadian chess champion who two years ago won an encounter with Mikhail Botvinnik, new world champion, has been picked to represent Canada in a world tournament opening at Stockholm July 15. Winner of the interzonal play at Stockholm will meet Botvinnik next year.

Announcement of Yanofsky's selection to represent the Canadian zone was made today by Leopold Christin, President of the Canadian Chess Federation.

Mr. Christin said that choice of the Canadian zone representative had been between two possible candidates, Yanofsky and Maurice Fox of Montreal, Canadian champion seven times since 1927.

Fox would not have been able to travel to Sweden for the matches July 15 to Aug. 15 so Yanofsky became the automatic choice.

At present the 23-year-old Canadian champion from Winnipeg is engaged in a tournament at Budapest and is due to compete also at Bad Gastein in Austria before the interzonal meet.

The world's top 20 chess masters will match wits at Stockholm. Apart from leading representatives of the various world zones, four contestants who competed in Moscow for the world title against Botvinnik will also be entered.

Minors Fear Major League Television

COLUMBUS, O., May 21 (AP) — Minor league baseball is ready to fight against invasion of its territory by televised major loop games.

Frank C. Lane, President of the American Association, said today a committee of which he is chairman would propose at a St. Louis minor league meeting July 13 a resolution asking that "rebroadcasting or televising . . . by stations within 100 miles of a minor leageu city" be banned.

Nelson Junior Baseballs at G. Forks Sunday

The Fairview Athletic Club's Nelson Junior baseball team will see action for the first time this Sunday when they travel to Grand Forks for the Grand Forks Fireman's Senior Ball Tournament.

The Nelson Club drew the Grand Forks Co-Op team for the opening game of the tournament and if successful face another game on the 24th. The Nelson Juniors, whose ages average 16 this year, have rebuilt their infield to fill the gaps left by Herb Pitts and Red Koehle, who have joined the Nelson Seniors. Bobby Pitts has been brought in from the outfield to fill brother Herb's spot on first. Fritz Koehle has been moved from second to third to fill in brother Red's place. Argy Dozzi is now regular at shortstop, while the youthful Don Kennedy is filling in well on second. Brown Bear Koehle is again looking after the backstop position.

"On the whole, the infield looks better than anything we have had before," commented Manager Slim Porter. "In the outfield we will miss Bob Hallbauer and his hitting power, but his place in centre field will be ably handled by Jimmy Todd, the Club's veteran youngster."

Alan Hood will patrol the right field again. A left hand hitter, Hood batted over .300 last year. Lorne Irwin and Ken White will likely divide the left field work. Both are left hand hitters with batting averages of .280 last year.

MOUND HELP APLENTY

The Club has a formidable array of hurlers, packing more chuckers than any district club outside of the Trail Cardinals. Denny Kraft is the veteran hurler of the club having been with them for three full years. Les Hufty, who joined the club this Spring, shows consistent improvement with every workout. Ronny Brown is the speed ball artist and joined them during the latter part of last season playing the outfield. Lorne Irwin is making his debut in the Junior A League this season and besides being a fielder displays a polished performance when on the mound. He is the youngest of the right handers.

Aleo Clark, another right hander was out of action most of last year but he is rounding into shape and should see regular mound work soon. Alan Hood and Jimmy Todd are the club's only southpaws. Hood started out as hurler in last year's Junior B League but wildness forced him to the outfield. This year he has shown vast improvement and looks promising. Jimmy Todd, while a veteran of the club is still their youngest player. He hurled steadily in the Junior B League last year and also saw action in several Junior A games. Todd, while lacking the speed of the other chuckers, combines style and headwork, for a smooth performance.

County Cricket

OXFORD, May 21 (Reuters)—The Australian cricket tourists in England today made short work of the remaining Oxford University batsmen, to win by an innings and 90 runs after less than two hours' play of the last day of their three-day encounter here.

Australia made 431 runs, to which the young University players responded with 185 in the first innings and 156 in the second. Former Indian Test Bowler A. H. Kardar was top scorer in each Oxford innings, completing 29 today.

Buffalo Galloper Wins at Woodbine

TORONTO, May 21 (CP) — The Buffalo-owned colt Pet Shadow today coasted to victory in the 50th running of the Woodstock Plate, feature of the fifth day's card of the Ontario Jockey Club's Spring meeting at old Woodbine Park.

Pet Shadow covered the six furlongs in 1.13 2-5 over a fast track to win by two lengths over Warhem, with Blarney Maid third in an eight-horse field. The winner paid off at $3.75 for a $2 winning ticket, only odds-on favorite coming down in front in any of the eight races. The Woodstock carried $2000 added.

WALCOTT'S STYLE IN LOUIS BOUT BIG QUESTION

GLENLOCH, N. J., May 21 (AP) —The big prize fight question today is what kind of style Jersey Joe Walcott will use against Joe Louis.

For their first fight Dec. 5, 1947, in Madison Square Garden, Jersey Joe used a dance step with a feint that ended in slamming home hard rights.

This baffled Louis and convinced the referee and most of the crowd that Jersey Joe was the heavyweight champion of the world. The judges ruled otherwise.

Will Jersey Joe repeat his methods?

"I don't know what my plan of battle is yet," he answers. "I'm going to fight as I'm told."

Canadiens To Make Pre-Season Western Tour

MONTREAL, May 21 (CP) — Montreal Canadiens will desert the home atmosphere of the Forum for next Fall's hockey training season and pitch camp at St. Hyacinthe, 40 miles away.

General Manager Frank Selke of Canadiens, announcing the arrangements today, said training will start Sept. 15.

Dallas Texans of the United States Hockey League will also train at St. Hyacinthe, and Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League will take over the Forum in Montreal. Both clubs are affiliates of Canadiens.

After two weeks at camp, with a Forum appearance against Buffalo scheduled for Sept. 25, Canadiens will head West for a short pre-season tour.

Present plans call for games in Winnipeg Oct. 2 and 7; Regina Oct. 4 and 6, and Port Arthur Oct. 8. On the return trip Canadiens will stop off in Buffalo for a game with the Bisons Oct. 10.

St. Paul of the U.S.H.L. will be met in at least one of the Winnipeg games. Other arrangements are not yet complete but some of Canadiens' opponents may be all-star teams from amateur clubs, arrangements may be made also for a game in either Edmonton or Saskatoon.

TRIPLE PURPOSE

Selke said the Western trip has a three-fold purpose: To introduce Canadiens to Western fans who have never seen the Montrealers, to get the team selected and playing in first-class shape before the National Hockey League season opens, and to aid in developing minor hockey by contributing part of the gates to the amateur clubs in cities visited.

Canadiens have given Pete Morin permission to accompany them on the Western trip. The veteran forward with Montreal Royals of the Quebec Senior Hockey League asked to be taken along.

Selke said today no word had been received from Dick Irvin in Regina as to whether Irvin will accept Canadiens' offer renewing his last year's coaching contract for next season.

It was expected some definite word would come from Irvin before the N.H.L. meeting in Montreal June 2 and 3.

Alberta Caribou Safe This Year

EDMONTON, May 21 (CP)—Caribou hunting is prohibited in Alberta this year, the Government said today, announcing big-game-hunting regulations for 1948. Open seasons on deer, moose, elk, mountain sheep and mountain goats were cut from last year's.

Parade, Queen Crowning, Ball, Sports on Tap for Kaslo May 24

KASLO, B.C., May 21—Executive meeting of the Kaslo Recreation Association in the City Hall heard reports of committees for Victoria Day Celebration. The program was reported well organized, the parade being the major attraction. Led by the Kootenay Kilties, parade participants will vie for many prizes.

Immediately after the crowning of the May Queen in Vimy Park, the sports program will open with a baseball game, Trail vs. Kaslo. It was decided to purchase bases for the ball park.

Kootenay Kilties offer to bring their band and Scottish dancers was accepted.

The Dance Committee reported that arrangements to accommodate a big crowd for the dance in the Legion Hall were completed.

11-YEAR-OLD KEPT FROM TOURNEY FOR FEAR OF EMBARRASSING STARS

YORKTON, Sask., May 21 (CP)—Saskatchewan apparently has a golfing great in the making. He is 75-pound, 11-year-old Wilfred Homeniuk of Yorkton, who frequently flirts with par on many holes of his home-town Deer Park course.

The youngster consistently hits 150 yards straightaway off the tee, seldom explores the rough and is particularly deadly with both approaches and putts. No longer does it come as a surprise when he scores in the 80s. He once shot a 38 on the first nine holes of Deer Park's sand-green layout.

"LINK RAT"

Bill Kerr, club professional, loans Wilfred the clubs with which to play, and in turn, the eager youngster mats the sand greens and does other odd jobs around the course.

Players at the course say Wilf is to the Deer Park course what "rink rats" are to a hockey rink.

Young Homeniuk walks the daily two miles to the course after school and sometimes practises his shotmaking until darkness sets in.

He has been known on occasion to win his share of nickels off seasoned men golfers. Last Summer, Wilf was sidetracked from the Northeastern Saskatchewan Tournament because it was felt it would not look well should he eliminate some of the stars, many years his senior.

His big test this year will be the juvenile and junior tournaments at Prince Albert, Sask., early in June. And his many supporters wouldn't be at all surprised if he decides to take a whirl at the senior division.

Bakken Athletics Chief for U.B.C.

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP) — Ole Bakken, giant basketball ace, is the new boss of Athletics today at the University of British Columbia.

His appointment as graduate manager of athletics was announced following a meeting of the University Men's Athletic Directorate.

Bakken will start his new job Aug. 15, and it may mean that he will not travel to the Olympic Games with the U.B.C.-Montreal Y.M.H.A. basketball team. Final decision will be made later.

HOWSER NINE WALLOPS 9-MILE; PLAY ON 24TH

HOWSER B.C., May 21—Hammering out runs in every inning and featuring some sensational fielding catches the Howser softball nine defeated 9 Mile at the local diamond 45-27 and avenged the set-back they suffered at the hands of the same team the previous week. Fielding a much improved team the locals took the lead in the first inning and were never headed from then on. The fourth was their big inning when they pushed 11 runs across to clinch the score.

In their first encounter a week ago 9 Mile played snappy ball all the way to hand the locals a 42-15 shellacking. The same two teams meet again at the local sports day on May 24 in what should be a really hard fought tussle.

Batteries for Sundays game were: Howser — Howard Furiak and Waite.

9 Mile—Kebe, Irwin and Popadynetz.

City Dads Offer Condolences

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Chicago's city fathers, burdened with tax, housing and other problems, took cognizance of another one today—the White Sox.

Until today the Sox, Chicago's entry in the American League, have won only four games since the 1948 season opened last month. They've lost 19 games. The last time they won an American League pennant was in 1919. Third place is the best they've finished since 1920.

The City Council unanimously approved a resolution co-sponsored by 19 aldermen offering the Sox sympathy for games lost "through bad breaks and tough luck" and expressing confidence in ultimate success. The Sox responded today by beating the New York Yankees, 3-0.

Old Plate Entry Undecided

TORONTO, May 21 (CP)—Loud voices from the barns—and some from the clubhouse too—are saying tonight that Jim Fair's colt Last Mark is going to win the King's Plate on Monday.

Whether the voices will be able to add a chorus of "I told you so" after the 80th running of the continent's oldest horse race, remains to be seen.

Just as uncertain is the size of the field for the mile and an eighth classic which brings out the cream of the Canadian-bred three-year-olds for the King's 50 guineas and $5,000 added.

Right now these appear the runners: Last Mark, Fair Mark, Lord Ormond, Sweepblu, Coleraine, Brandon Trace, War Wrack, Kid Nimble, All British, Red Bottle, Bellhime, Joey Bomber, Misty Waters, Chance Toss, Lashbrook, Alsipat.

Scratching of Chance Toss, Fair Mark and Lashbrook would not be surprising, narrowing the field to

SOLID HORSE

With entry speculation set away, what's left is: Who'll win?

Owner and Trainer Charlie Hemsley gives it to Last Mark. "He's a solid horse. He can go if it's fast or slow."

Jimmy Hagen, racing clocker, says: "I'll take Last Mark. He's going to be tough to whip."

And Parkwood Stable Trainer Colonel Brent said of the Fair Mary: "The horse to beat."

Speculation revolves around five outstanding contenders and two sleepers. The contenders: Last Mark, Sweep-On, All British, Lord Fairmond and Coleraine.

The dark horses, Kid Rumble and Red Bottle, might show up well in the Plate distance, having already proven capable of considerable reserve at the end of the Derby trials when both finished strongly. But—there may be seven or eight starters. And anyone of them could take it all.

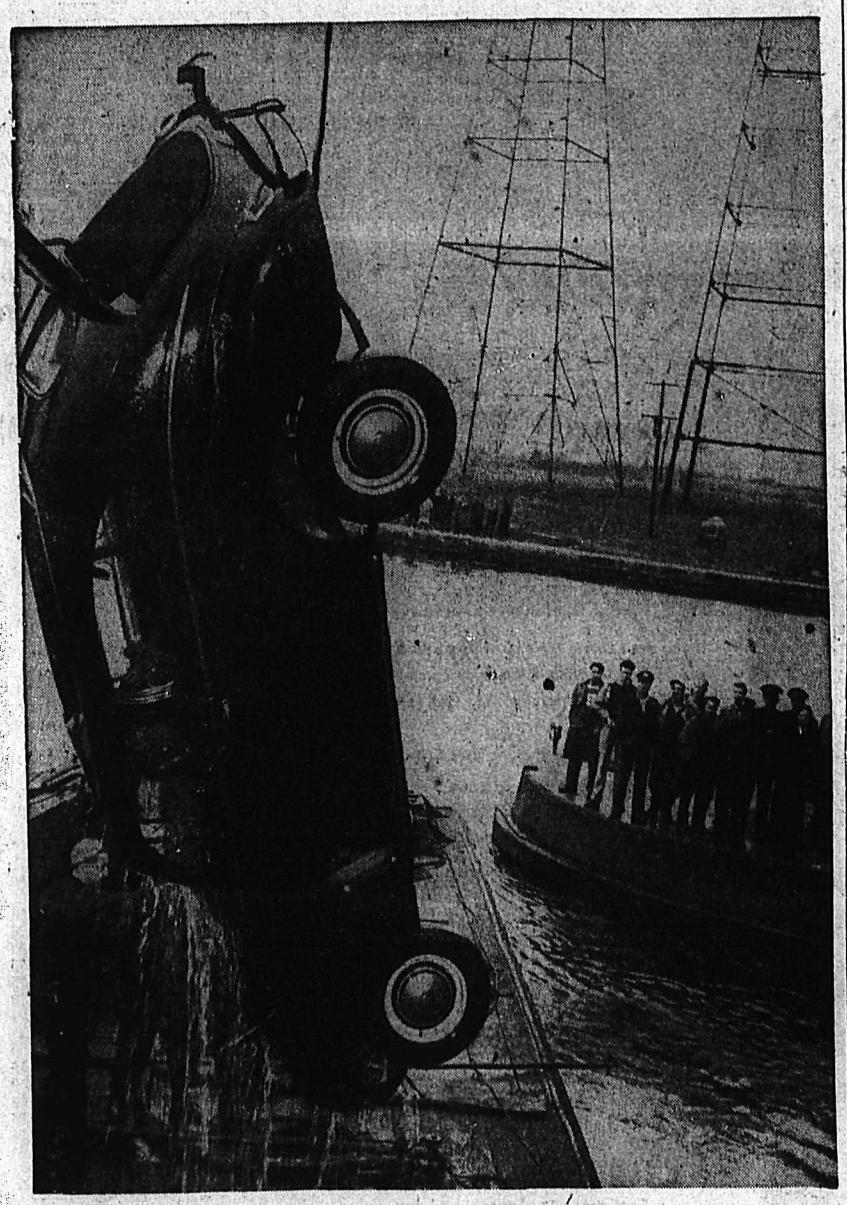
Boy Dies, Pal Escapes as Car Drops Into Canal



Clifford Wilson, 18, of Winona, Ont., was drowned and his prospective brother-in-law, Frank Theoret, 19, of Hamilton, Ont., was rescued when this automobile plunged off the open Burlington, Ont., canal bridge into 40 feet of water. Photo shows water pouring from the interior of the car as it was pulled from the water. The car was empty when found by a diver. The two youths were "just killing time" until a shower for Jesse Wilson, sister of the dead man, was over. Miss Wilson and Theoret were to be married.
