Still No Trace of Ainsworth Youth

The search for 18-year-old Carl Olson, missing in the Gold Hill area North of Lardeau since last Wednesday night, moved into the sixth day Tuesday with still no trace of the youth.

The strange disappearance, occurring just a few minutes' walk from the camp at Gold Hill and the Lardeau-Gerrard road, has weary searchers baffled.

Monday, two R.C.M.P. police service dogs were put on the trail but failed to locate any scent of the lost Yale Lead and Zinc Mines employee who disappeared while blazing a survey trail.

Hopes that the dogs might offer much assistance were dimmed by the fact that the trail was over 96 hours old when they arrived on the scene and made less discernible by a heavy rain Thursday.

The dogs will continue the search again today, together with a large search party comprised of the youth's fellow-employees from the Yale Mines at Ainsworth.

The only possible clue searchers have uncovered to date is a freshly-broken bridge railing overlooking Lake Creek, but it is felt that an ainmal may have broken it.

The lad was carrying a survey chain and an axe but neither has been found. Although he had no food, the husky six-footer is said to have been in good physical condition and might be expected to survive several more days if still alive.

8-Year-Old Cranbrook Lad Falls From Raft, Drowns

CRANBROOK, B.C., May 21 — Extraordinarily high water in Alkali Lake, a slough a mile East of Cranbrook, claimed the life of eight-year-old Bobby Lacey yesterday when he fell from a raft on which he was playing with two other small youngsters. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Lacey.

The boys had gone for a walk to the slough in the vicinity of the rifle range and pushed the raft out on the water which is normally only a few feet deep. The two other boys ran back to town for help and Mr. Lacey found the boy's body within an hour.

Mr. Lacey is on the Byng Hotel staff. There will be no inquest.

Violence in Iran Oil Issue May Break Out

By ROBERT B. HEWETT,

TEHRAN, Iran, May 21 (AP) — The Iranian oil issue generated so much heat today that some diplomats feared it might break out into anti-British and anti-American violence.

The Foreign Ministry retorted sharply to an American statement urging moderation on both sides, and declared any delay in carrying out oil nationalization would "provoke the anger of the Iranian people."

Moslem religious leaders summoned a mass meeting for tomorrow to demonstrate the rising temper against the United States and Britain.

The prime mover in the demonstration was Ayutullah Seyed Abolghassem Kashani who has threatened a holy war if Britain resists an ouster from her great oil refinery and fields in Southern Iran.

Kashani, a leading priest, in a proclamation called on Moslems to turn the religious holiday—the birthday of their 12th prophet—into a vent for their "hatred" of British interference and of the "American Government's menacing statement."

In Iranian eyes, the U. S. committed itself to Britain's side by the State Department declaration Friday night urging Iranians to "achieve their legitimate objectives through friendly negotiations."

The statement reiterated America's "great interest" in Iran's territorial integrity and independence —a clear warning to Russia not to take the oil dispute as an excuse for moving into the Persian kingdom.

The Foreign Ministry's reply to the U. S. State Department declaration was handed out at a Press conference tonight.

Hossein Makki, Secretary-General of Mossadegh's national bloc, and Secretary of the Government's Oil Nationalization Board, said in Parliament Sunday that "it is Britain and the United States who are pushing us toward Russia."

In a note Saturday, Britain warned of the "most serious consequences" if Iran fails to negotiate, and offered to send a high-level mission here for the purpose.

Informed sources said Mossadegh already had rejected this note.

Unopened Parachutes Leave Scant Hope for Plane Crew Members

HALIFAX, May 21 (CP)—Three unopened parachutes were found near the wreckage of an R.C.A.F. Dakota in the Labrador wilds today, leaving scant hope that any of its four crew members will be found alive.

The Dakota crashed last Monday on a routine flight. The body of the co-pilot—Fo. Owen Foster, 23, of North Vancouver—was found yesterday by a land party.

The air force still was searching the crash area tonight, some 130 miles Southwest of Goose Bay.

SEATTLE, May 21 (AP) —The University of Washington will begin a three-month field study in June in the Wenatchee area to determine the effects of orchard sprays on human beings.

Researchers will make physical examinations and take blood tests from persons working in the Wenatchee area.

They will also test spraying methods and the various spray compounds used.

NO KILTS FOR CANADIANS

LONDON, May 21 (CP)—Canadian Army officers went shopping today for 1500 kilts and 50 sets of bagpipes—but so far, no Scots firm can be found to fill the order.

Edinburgh's largest supplier of kilts said it would be eight months at least before it could supply that many of the garments.

The kilts and the bagpipes are needed for a new Scottish battalion, the Canadian Scottish, being formed as part of the Dominion's new brigade. When trained the soldiers are expected to go to Europe.

Refuses to Quash Indictment Against Match Companies

MONTREAL, May 21 (CP)—Mr. Justice Valmore Bienvenue today turned down a motion to quash the indictment against five Canadian match companies accused of operating a combine. He ordered a trial to continue.

The trial was adjourned until tomorrow after His Lordship's ruling.

The defendant companies are Eddy Match Co., Ltd., Commonwealth Match Co., Ltd., Canada Match Co., Ltd., Federal Match Co., Ltd., and Valcourt Company.

SEATTLE, May 21 (AP)—Military boards of inquiry probed today to find what caused an Orient-bound troopship and a heavily-loaded tanker—both radar-equipped —to collide in the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

Not Time to Use Nationalist Troops—Bradley

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP) — Gen. Omar N. Bradley said today there is no military objection to Chinese Nationalist troops harrassing Communist China from Formosa—so long as American forces are not involved. But he advised against such a move.

Bradley told Senators the Nationalists might suffer such losses in men and equipment that the security of Formosa would be jeopardized.

Someday he argued, it might be "proper" to use the Chinese Nationalists in the war as Gen. Douglas MacArthur has proposed. He insisted now is not the time.

The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff gave these views to the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees in his third day of outspoken opposition to the war program proposed by MacArthur. He is scheduled to testify again tomorrow.

RISING COLUMBIA CLOSES SAWMILL

PORTLAND, May 21 (AP)—The rising Columbia River, expected to crest at Vancouver, Wash., tomorrow at 20.6 feet, forced closure of a sawmill and continued to spread over low pasture land today.

Water from Lake River, backed up by the Columbia, forced the Ridgefield, Wash., shingle company to halt operations.

The Weather Bureau said the river should begin dropping after tomorrow's crest, 5.6 feet above flood stage, but may rise again later in the Spring.

The Bureau of Reclamation is controlling the flow at Grand Coulee dam where another 6½ to seven feet of water storage space remains, river forecaster Elmer Fisher said.

Meanwhile, the Kootenai River, which twice has risen to flood level in a week, began dropping again today and is expected to be two feet below 30-foot flood stage tomorrow.

The North Idaho River, which annually goes on a rampage, reached a season's high of 31.8 feet a week ago. Forecasters said it may start up once more if warm weather continues throughout the week.

INCREASE FEES

TORONTO, May 21 (CP) — Fee increases were announced tonight by the University of Toronto.

They range from $29 a year in the music general course to $7 in engineering, architecture, medicine and dentistry.

Howe Rations Copper, Aluminum and Brass

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Production Minister Howe today announced that rationing of aluminum, copper and brass will come under compulsory Government control beginning June 1.

Previously, these items were rationed informally and on a voluntary basis by the producing companies to manufacturers.

Under the compulsory control scheme, rationing from mills to manufacturers will be on the basis of 100 per cent of 1950 purchases. That will mean that if a manufacturer used 100,000 tons of copper in 1950, he will continue to get monthly allotments on that basis.

However, officials said the Canadian defence effort will be getting first call on these items and within a matter of months it appeared likely that certain non-essential manufacturing using these items will be cut.

The order embraces primary and wrought aluminum, primary copper, brass mill products, copper wire rod and copper wire.

Two other metals, nickel and steel, already are under compulsory rationing control.

Rationing will be under the direction of Frank Hewett, Government non-ferrous metals administrator. Steel administrator Kenneth Harris directs steel controls.

Mr. Howe, in a statement, said that under compulsory control, no user of aluminum, brass or copper will be allowed to buy extra supplies if his stockpile is considered sufficient to meet his current needs.

After June 1, buyers will have to get their purchase orders approved by the metals administrator before shipments can be made by producing mills.

The order applies to the raw forms of these metals, before they can be developed into usable goods.

Mainly it is directed at Government control over shipments from mills. Once approval is given to allow the metals to leave the mill, Government control ends.

In the case of aluminum, the order applies to primary aluminum, which is aluminum in raw or ingot form and to wrought aluminum, meaning aluminum in the form of wire, rods, bars, plates, sheets, tubes and forgings.

However, in cases where a mill both produces the raw aluminum and turns it into marketable products, the control is extended so that Government approval must be obtained before the raw aluminum can be used for the finished goods.

SCORED FIRST KNOCKDOWN . . .

HALIFAX, May 21 (CP — Mrs. Lucy Kane didn't get the last word in court here today because she struck the first blow earlier. And a hefty wallop it was.

Her assault charge against Edward Smith fizzled out after she told the court she knocked him down with a slap and then "hit him with a stick until I got too tired."

She said Smith had used profane language. Later he bit her finger and tore off some of her clothes when she bashed him.

Smith's version was that Mrs. Kane attacked him with a bottle and beat him across the head with a wooden mallet.

Magistrate R. E. Inglis called it a draw because Mrs. Kane scored the first knockdown on the first punch.

Man's Carelessness Responsible for Most Forest Fires

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Man's carelessness is responsible for most forest fires in Canada, the resources department said today.

In releasing national forest fire statistics for 1950, the department said that 88 per cent of last year's fires were "man-caused." This represented an increase of eight per cent over 1949.

While the total of man-caused fires increased, the number of fires decreased to 5310 in 1950 from 7046 in 1949.

Allies Push Reds Back 10 Miles From Parallel

New Threat Arises in East; Enemy Battalions Routed in Preparing Attack

By DON HUTH

TOKYO, May 22 (Tuesday) (AP)—Allied troops chased retreating Communists as far as 26 miles in West and Central Korea today but a new tank-led Communist offensive threat arose in the East.

Allied forces swung to the attack and rammed North along two main highways North and Northwest of Seoul. One force reached within 10 miles or less of the 38th parallel.

Two days ago Allied forces were fighting off Reds in Seoul's outskirts.

U. N. forces held the initiative on a 30-mile arc North of Seoul. But the situation was reversed in the mountainous East-Central area.

An Allied officer said huge armored Red forces were massing 50 to 75 miles Northeast of Seoul.

He told AP correspondent William C. Barnard the Reds may strike in hilly East-Central Korea with even greater force than the 125,000-man drive that opened there last Wednesday night.

The U. S. 2nd Division stopped that drive in five days by killing or wounding an estimated 37,750 of the 96,000 Reds who tried to destroy the American outfit.

Monday the division cut down more Reds attacking near Pungam about 70 miles Northeast of Seoul.

Other heavy Red losses were inflicted on three battalions by a 200-ton B-29 bombing attack last night. The battalions were hit and routed in front of the 2nd Division just as the Reds were preparing to attack.

60,000 MEN LOST

Allied sources estimated the Communists lost nearly 60,000 men in five days on the East and West-Central fronts by ground action alone.

(Reuters News Agency said British, Australian and Canadian troops, driving North of Seoul, came under Communist machine-gun fire at one stage but brushed the Communists aside and continued their advance.

(Bill Boss, Canadian Press correspondent, reported from the West-Central sector that Canadian troops moved up 5000 yards through pouring rain without meeting opposition.)

AP correspondent William C. Barnard, on the East-Central front, said "the Communist time-table was thrown out of whack" by the stalwart defences of the U. S. 2nd Division.

This division handed the Reds, "one of the most stunning defeats of the war," in repulsing a savage five-day onslaught.

This single American division killed or wounded 37,750 Chinese Reds in five days by conservative estimate, the U. S. Eighth Army announced.

The whole 10th Corps, of which the 2nd Division is a part, cost the Chinese 48,341 casualties, according to an estimate by Lt.-Gen. Edward M. Almond, the Corps commander.

Of these, Almond said almost half, 27,700, were inflicted on Sunday alone on the biggest one-day toll of the war.

Officers on the West Central front (another Corps, area), estimated the Chinese suffered 10,220 casualties from Wednesday through Sunday.

This made a total of 58,561 Communists estimated knocked out in five days of ground action, with the tallies from the Western front and the high score of Air Force and Navy planes still to be added.

Allied losses were not disclosed but officers said the Red casualties ran 20 to 1 and even 30 to 1 by comparison.

Estimated Allied losses for the five days of the offensive through May 20 were 1618 dead and wounded, compared with 58,000 Communist casualties, the Defence Department announced from Washington.

The Chinese Communist radio at Peiping made an unsubstantiated claim that 16 U. S. planes were shot down and 17 more damaged during the first 10 days of May. It said three American pilots were captured alive from crashed planes. One B-26 pilot was taken in spite of attempts of two helicopters to rescue him, the Reds claimed.

FREED OF BLAME

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP)—A coroner's jury today absolved Patrick Hassard, 22, of all blame in the highway death Sunday of Claude Mailhot, 22, of Gravelbourg, Sask. The jury said Mailhot was "intoxicated and jaywalking" when he was hit by a car driven by Hassard. Police today charged Hassard with manslaughter after originally charging him with dangerous driving.

Drew Urges End Of Commonwealth Trade Barriers

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP) — The Government was urged today by George Drew, Progressive Conservative Leader, to take the lead in arranging a Commonwealth economic conference for the removal of trade barriers.

As a major dollar country, Mr. Drew said, Canada is in a unique position to help break down the problem of dollar-sterling convertibility without waiting for a general international solution through United Nations bodies.

In a Commons debate on the recently-announced Torquay trade agreements, M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. Leader, also urged that Canada do all it can to expand trade with the United Kingdom and the sterling area generally. Restoration of the convertibility of dollars and sterling was of great importance.

Solon Low, Social Credit Leader, endorsed the idea of a Commonwealth conference. The Commonwealth could be a great "balancing factor in a world of unbalanced trade."

"Only through a solid Commonwealth bloc," Mr. Low said, "could you impress on countries like the United States the need for balanced trade."

The opposition party leaders spoke on a motion by Prime Minister St. Laurent to have the Torquay agreements, under which Canada swapped tariff concessions with other countries, sent to a committee for detailed study.

Mr. Drew said the dollar-sterling convertibility problem is nearer solution now than at any time since convertibility was abandoned shortly after the war. United States purchases abroad had put more dollars in circulation. The opportunity should be seized now.

Canada, he said, should not take the risk of becoming a United States "satellite" by having such a preponderance of trade with that country that she became dependent on the United States.

Head Cook Dismissed From Utah Prison

POINT-OF-THE MOUNTAIN, Utah, May 21 (AP)—The head cook at the Utah prison was dismissed today as an aftermath of rioting which raged through the new multi-million dollar structure.

There were no serious injuries during the 4½-hour melee Sunday. More than 200 prisoners ranged through the cellblocks and main corridors of the modern prison.

But they couldn't break into the courtyard because the keys they took from guards wouldn't unlock the main gates. Those are controlled electrically.

Warden Alvin O. Severson announced dismissal of Wallace M. Ostler, chief culinary steward. The convicts had protested that Ostler "couldn't boil water".

The hotel turned out everything but the local fishing fleet in his honor. A picture of Rita Hayworth was dug up from somewhere and placed in the visitor's room.

After a few days, the visitor departed, announcing regally that a secretary would take care of the bill.

Today 22-year-old German Gardin of Bruges, unmasked as an imposter, is charged by police with non-payment of a hotel bill—a big one.

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—This is how City Detective John Carroll says he solved the "case of the mama doll that would only cry Ma."

Mrs. Phoebe Kelly, 50, reported a $17,000 diamond ring missing just after a maid of two days quit her employment.

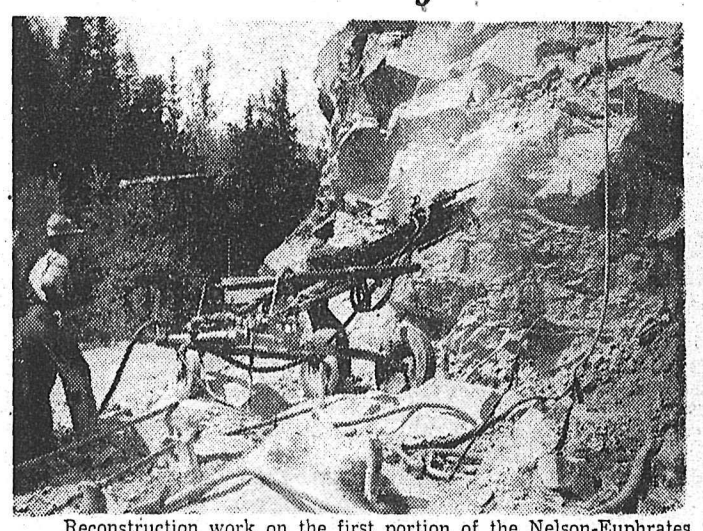
In felony court Sunday, Carroll said he visited the maid, Mrs. Georgia Smith, 26.

During the interview Mrs. Smith's five-year-old daughter played with a doll that sounded funny, the detective said.

So he examined the doll, pulled off a leg, and out popped the ring.

Before the operation, Carroll added, the doll said "Ma," afterwards "Mama."

Nature Gets Face-Lifting as Nelson-Euphrates Road Work Moves Ahead



Reconstruction work on the first portion of the Nelson-Euphrates highway section is progressing steadily and is expected to be completed "within two months", O. W. Smith, superintendent of the Storms Contracting (Pacific) crew, reports.

The work, started last Fall, is a 2.65-mile stretch which calls for a major widening and straightening job for almost the entire distance. The work, exclusive of paving which is likely to be undertaken next year, will cost approximately $70,000 per mile. The improvement of the Nelson-Nelway road started at the end of cement pavement at Nelson's South border.

Work at present is nearly all done by heavy equipment requiring about 35 machine operators, including a rock-drilling crew of 15 men. During the early stages last Fall when about 44 acres of brush were cleared, a crew of about 83 was employed.

One of the latest-type wagon drills (left), capable of drilling through several feet of solid rock, is engaged in piercing the rock for blasting. An estimated 35,000 yards of solid rock must be blasted out to widen the road to a standard width of 36 feet. This rock is being used as base fill together with an additional 95,000 yards of "borrow" fill and other material.

In the centre picture, looking North, one of the heavy trucks is shown dumping its multi-ton load of rock and dirt fill on to a section of new road-bed aimed at straightening out a dog-leg about one mile out of Nelson. The grader (foreground) starts into the winding stretch of old road.

The same stretch viewed from the other end indicates the amount of fill required to build up the road. Cottonwood Creek here has been funnelled through a large 7x10-foot multiple arch oval culvert made of corrugated iron and 132 feet in length.

The creek has been diverted four times, requiring over 700 additional lineal feet of smaller culverts.

A second contract is to be let by the Provincial Government this month for a further 3.63 miles of reconstruction.

COUNCIL TABLES REPLY FROM SOUTH NELSON

City Council Monday night tabled a reply from South Nelson Ratepayers' Association to a report by City Comptroller W. A. Gordon on two schemes whereby South Nelson might amalgamate with the city.

The Association said the "only practical" scheme for amalgamation was one which would give the area water mains and hydrants, sewers and street lights at a cost of $44,000. It was the less elaborate of the two proposals.

Property owners of the area had asked assurance that the services would be installed immediately after amalgamation, and Council was asked if it could promise such action. With such assurance, steps to petition South Nelson residents on amalgamation would be completed. Council tabled the reply in order to give the matter further study.

Tripple Project For Woodbury

SPOKANE, May 21—A triple development project is being launched at the Woodbury Mines Ltd. property at Ainsworth which will follow the recent completion of a financing agreement designed to place an additional $77,000 in the treasury on a share purchase and option basis. Work on these veins will follow recommendations of Henry L. Hill, consulting engineer aimed at proving sufficient ore to warrant a mill.

Reports are that the outlook appears promising for Woodbury due to encouraging results on the Daisy vein, and that geological conditions are identical to those at Yale Lead and Zinc and at the adjoining Ainsmore Consolidated Mine, both on successful production.

Shipments of high grade silver, lead and zinc ore are being made to the Trail Smelter from Woodbury's Daisy vein at the rate of 12 tons daily. Low grade ore will be milled at the adjoining Ainsmore Consolidated mill.

In addition to underground stoping, the Daisy vein will be tested by surface stripping by bulldozer and by diamond drilling. A new diamond drill outfit, capable of running 1000 foot holes has been purchased, for delivery within a month.

On Woodbury's Budweiser vein surface prospecting and diamond drilling will proceed following favorable results reported on the Eastern extension of this vein by a neighboring company. An early start on underground work on the Bell vein will be made to test downward extension of both the replacement and cross fracture ore bodies exposed on the surfaces.

Nelson Finance Statement Out Next Week

Civic Centre financial statement will probably be completed in a week, Council was told Monday night by City Comptroller W. A. Gordon.

Printing of the city's annual financial statement is being held up pending completion of the Civic Centre statement.

Ald. Joseph Kary and Ald. Arthur Foster urged that the comptroller, City Clerk Reeve Harper and City Auditor C. F. Hunter review the situation and report back to Council, but it was pointed out that such a study would delay printing longer.

Council at its last meeting passed a motion which received the Civic Centre statement and authorized its inclusion in printing of the city statement. Ald. Kary asked if this had been done, and the comptroller said the Civic Centre statement had not been certified by Mr. Hunter.

He read a portion of the opening of the statement in which Mr. Hunter stated it was "a true copy of one loaned to me by Mr. Gordon." He had not noticed this phrase earlier.

Mr. Gordon said he had not made up the statement, that he could not yet say it was certfied. He also read Section 409 of the Municipal Act which requires civic statements to be certified by the auditor or auditors.

Pipeline Benefits Told at Rotary

An outline of the effect the interprovincial oil pipeline is expected to have on the Canadian economy was presented by Glen Warren, Imperial Oil Kootenay manager here, in an address to the Rotary Club Monday.

The 1150-mile line, stretching from Edmonton to Superior, Wis., will carry Alberta crude to Sarnia refineries at a cost of less than $1 per barrel in contrast to the cost by rail tank car of $3.40 a barrel, the speaker said.

This will make it possible for Eastern Canada industries to tap the Alberta wells at no more cost than from present U.S. supplies, thus saving this country an estimated $300,000,000 annually in U.S. funds.

The 450-mile link from Edmonton to Regina is 20-inch pipe capable of carrying 95,000 barrels daily. From Regina to Gretna, Man., a distance of 340 miles, the pipe is 16 inches in diameter and the 360-mile link from Gretna to Superior is 18 inches. The flow in the latter stretches is 70,000 barrels a day.

The pipeline had been built through the United States to effect a saving of $10,000,000 and a distance of 128 miles, he pointed out.

Mr. Warren said the oil industry was spending $4,000,000 a week on exploration and development in Alberta and the Yukon.

The Weather

Monday was one of the warmest days so far this year across Southern British Columbia. Some afternoon highs were 85 at Lytton, 82 at Penticton, 79 at Revelstoke and 76 at Abbotsford. Meanwhile the Central and Northern parts of the province had cloudy skies with scattered light showers.

Sunny weather is expected in almost all parts of the province Tuesday but it will remain cloudy along the West coast, Vancouver Island and in the North coast region. Afternoon temperatures will range from 55 to 65 along the coast and from 65 to 80 inland.

GOV'T CURBING INFLATION, COUNCIL TOLD

The Dominion Government is taking action which it feels will be effective in curbing inflationary pressures, City Council was advised Monday night in a letter from Finance Minister Abbott.

The Cabinet Minister was replying to a resolution endorsing a City of Victoria resolution calling for curbing action. "The government shall always be on the alert to take all steps necessary to assure the stability of our economy and to further our national well-being".

Ald. Alex Sutherland said price controls had not received attention at the last session of Parliament. "Prices are going up all the time and will continue to unless controls are enforced," he said.

Body Identified As Calgary Youth; Inquest June 4

A body recovered from the Kootenay River near Shirley Beach Sunday afternoon was identified as that of 21-year-old Charles William Keating of Calgary, Monday, following a post mortem examination and viewing by a Coroner's jury.

Following this the coroner's inquest was adjourned until June 4. Dr. F. M. Auld of Nelson will conduct the hearing while jurors will be Nick Sardich, foreman; Robert Mills, Thomas Halsey, William Forrest, D'Arcy Hughes and Albert Wallach.

No post mortem details were available but it is believed the body had been in the water for more than two weeks. Cause of death has not yet been determined.

The body was discovered Sunday by a Nelson fishing group of Bill Ramsden, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Ramsden, John Olisoff and Alex Chernenkoff.

Praise Creston, Kimberley Events

Reports on Creston's Diamond Jubilee and the recent meeting at Kimberley of the Association of Kootenay Municipalities were given to City Council Monday night and votes of thanks passed for hospitality accorded Council representatives at both events.

Ald. Alex Sutherland, who accompanied Mayor N. C. Stibbs to Creston, outlined the celebration program. It was an "eyeopener", he said and he described Creston as a "go-ahead" municipality and one of the most progressive communities in Canada.

Mayor Stibbs supported his remarks and added that Creston could be "justly proud" of the manner in which the celebration was conducted.

Ald. Sutherland, who with Ald. W. S. Smith, City Comptroller W. A. Gordon and City Clerk Reeve Harper, went to Kimberley, said the Association had one of its most successful meetings. There were 60 at the conference, one of the largest in history. He gave a summary of the program and business meetings and had high praise for hospitality received.

Street Car Will Become Museum At Lakeside Park

City Council placed two street cars in custody of Kootenay Historical Association Monday night. One will be a public refreshment booth and the other, a museum.

In taking the action, Council authorized park closure after 11 p.m. to help protect the cars from vandalism.

Intention of the recently-formed Kootenay Historical Association is to move the cars to ground between a refreshment stand and cottage at Lakeside Park, convert one into a place where the public could eat or take shelter, and make the nucleus of a museum out of the other. Both would be redecorated, and a fence built around the museum car.

Council rescinded a motion passed at a previous meeting which would have sold the cars, and agreed to give the Association all the support it can in the enterprise.

Sale of the third streetcar, situated on the uphill playground on Cemetery Road, to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carney, North Shore, was approved.

The streetcar would be used to house pets, Mrs. Carney said in a letter, and it would be well cared for.

Cost of moving the car will be borne by the new owners and Mrs. Carney's suggestion that sale price be $10 because of the cost of moving it was accepted.

Ald. Alex Sutherland reminded Council that it had been planned to use the car as accommodation at the playground where it was hoped to lay out tennis courts, but other members declared the car was a disgrace, an eyesore, and if left there much longer would become matchwood. It had been taken over by "hoodlums." Persons who had moved the car to the playground, to be used by skaters, said they could not seem to "control the situation at all."

Wartime Housing Owners to Meet City Council

Possibility of carrying out improvements to wartime housing areas will be discussed at a meeting of City Council and owners of the houses next Monday.

Council set the date for the meeting after reading a letter from a newly formed committee of wartime home owners asking for airing of the situation.

The letter by G. L. Pickard, president, and a number of the members of the committee, explained that a representative from each housing section had been appointed, this group to report to the central committee, which would in turn discuss the improvement possibilities with Council.

"Difficult Day?. . take a Disprin"

Why DISPRIN? Because DISPRIN is soluble and substantially neutral. When taken in water as recommended, it enters the stomach as a true solution and not as undissolved particles. It is therefore less liable to cause stomach discomfort.

DISPRIN is readily absorbed. Because it definitely dissolves (not merely disintegrates) DISPRIN permits speedy absorption and gives quicker relief.

DISPRIN is palatable. Even children will take it readily.

KLONDIKE KATE SUES MAGAZINE

LOS ANGELES, May 21 (AP)—Mrs. W. L. Van Duren, who contends she is the original Klondike Kate of the Alaska gold rush days, filed a $575,000 libel suit today against the Fawcett Publications, Inc.

The Federal Court action asserts that the former "Queen of the Klondike" was ridiculed, her privacy invaded and her name used without authorization in a Fawcett magazine article.

The article is listed as "Fifty-eight Feet of Rope" by Alan Hynd, in the March, 1951, issue of Daring Detectives.

The article, the suit says, purports to be the true story of the murder of Katherine Moores, whose body, wrapped in 58 feet of rope, was found in the Puget Sound area of Washington in 1921. Throughout the article, the action states, the victim is referred to as Klondike Kate. Attorneys Morten E. Feiler and Harold A. Fendler filed the suit.

Actually, said Feiler, Klondike Kate is living at Jefferson, Ore., with her husband, W. L. Van Duren, an accountant. She is about 70 years old.

The lawyer added that Mrs. Van Duren's identity never has been questioned, and that she is the Klondike Kate who became widely known 50 years ago as a dancer and entertainer in Dawson.

Airman Befriends Boy Who Robs Him

MOOSE JAW, Sask., May 21 (CP) —A 19-year-old Ontario youth who robbed an airman who befriended him today was sentenced to 12 months in prison.

The youth, Richard Beresford, also known as Alebrt Gibbs, hitched a ride with an R.C.A.F. man en route from Port Arthur to Calgary.

The airman bought him a meal, allowed him to share his room at a Moose Jaw hotel and promised to take him on to Calgary the next day. But when he awoke at 1 a.m., the airman found his car keys, his wallet and his car gone.

Beresford, who formerly lived in Brantford, Ont., and had a previous conviction in Toronto, was arrested at Swift Current, Sask., and the stolen car—by this time damaged—was recovered.

Curb on Spending Halts Fernie's School Programs

FERNIE, B. C., May 21—With the current sharp curb on public spending, Fernie's proposed school district construction program for badly needed school accommodation may have to be postponed or partially reduced. Detailed plans for an addition to Fernie High School, additional accommodation at Michel-Natal and additions and construction of rural schools had been approved by the Department of Education, School Board and City Council and a bylaw is in preparation for ratepayer ratification.

The Department of Education is now urging a delay in presentation of the bylaw at least until November, while the City Council and School Board believe that essential repairs and replacements, particularly in rural areas should not be postponed.

Basic plans for the work, first school construction and addition in many years, have been made public, but not the amount of the proposed bylaw.

Trail Resolution Passed at Jaycee Convention

QUEBEC, May 21 (CP)—The 16th annual convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada today rejected a resolution calling for adoption of a National flag for Canada distinct from all others.

The Junior Chamber had previously approved the principle of a National flag but voted down one resolution sponsored by two Quebec Province Chambers, from Beauharnois and Levis.

It asked Chamber approval for a "flag which will bear its own emblem distinct from all others and that the above-mentioned decision be made known to the Government of Canada as soon as possible."

Five of nine resolutions were passed by the three-day convention which got underway today attended by 220 delegates from across Canada.

A resolution submitted by the Chatham, Ont., and Trail, B.C., Junior Chambers was passed. It approved Federal government plans for a constitutional amendment giving the provinces powers of indirect retail sales taxation. It said that any increased taxation on Canadian citizens at the present time should be levied for defence purposes only.

Canada Increases Anti-Sub Training

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP) — More Canadians are being trained and more ships are being constructed for anti-submarine operations, a spokesman for the Royal Canadian Navy said today.

He was commenting on a New York Daily News report which said the United States Navy has for months mounted "on a wartime basis" a round-the-clock anti-sub watch in the Atlantic that is increasing steadily in scope and intensity.

About a year ago there were several reports of submarines having been sighted in East coast waters, especially in the Bay of Fundy. The Canadian Navy believes that one or more Russian subs did visit those waters.

"That," said the spokesman," has increased the vigilance."

The only national flag different on each side is that of Paraguay, with coat of arms on one side and a lion on the reverse.

A log sawing contest for lumberjacks and others too, greasy pole and tug of war are also on the afternoon's program. The Kootenay Kiltie Pipe Band of Nelson will be decked out in its bright costumes to add color and music to the celebration.

In the evening a display of fireworks will probably draw hundreds. A dance following will close the program.

Ymir Plans 24th Celebration

YMIR, B.C., May 21—Ymir will be one of the many district centres staging a gala May 24th day of celebration.

As usual there will be races and events for children. One of the day's features will be the May Queen pageant and a Maypole dance.

And the women haven't been left out of the fun. For them there will be a rolling pin contest, in which the women will take a shy at Jiggs. Another event for the ladies will be a scramble race. Merchandise will be set out in a huge pile and each contestant will be given a shopping bag. At the word "go" they are to run 25 yards and what they get from the pile will be theirs.

In the evening, a motion picture and dance in Ymir's new community hall will end the celebration.

Movie Gossip—

Claudette Colbert Advises Stars On How To Be Successful in TV

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 21 (AP)—The public seems to like off-beat casting so here is my offering for today: Claudette Colbert expounding on television.

You might think that the glamor queen of the movies wouldn't know any more about TV than she would about diesel engines. That's where she fools you. One of the smartest movie minds, she has been anlyzing the new medium with the same cool calculation.

Miss Colbert was one of the first stars of top calibre to make a video venture. She appeared on Jack Benny's show last month.

"I did it for two reasons," she told me. "1, because Jack is such a good friend of mine. 2. I wanted to see if television is like the movies. I found out it is.

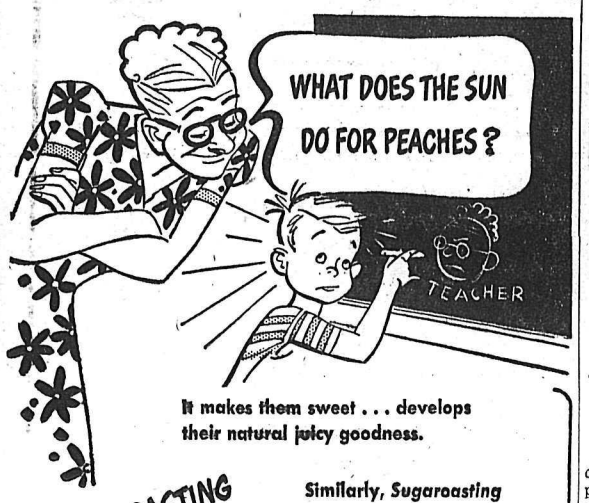
"I think one of the reasons most of the actresses in Hollywood are scared of television is that they're afraid how they'll look on it.

I've seen some very beautiful women look like hags on TV. And I've seen some wonderful clothes look like rags.

"So I threw three or four dresses over my arm and went over to CBS to test how I looked on a TV screen. I found out I looked just the same as I do on the movie screen."

The actress predicted a healthy future for Hollywood in the new medium.

"You've got to give people what they expect. And the public is too accustomed to the scope and action of movies to go for dramas that are limited to one or two sets. That is the theatre technique, and TV is not theatre. When you throw an image on a screen, you must use movie methods."



It makes them sweet . . . develops their natural juicy goodness.

TO DEVOTE LIFE TO FIND MISSING WIFE

SPOKANE, May 21 (AP) — A young engineer whose wife disappeared here almost a month ago has quit his job and said today he will "devote the rest of my life if necessary" to find her.

The engineer, John Kaster, 25, reported to police April 24 that his wife, Jane, 23, simply vanished after he brought her here from Curlew, Wash., to take a civil service examination. Police haven't found a trace.

He said his wife is the daughter of Dr. George S. Luckett, a professor at Stanford University.

The Kasters moved to Curlew, 140 miles Northwest of here, from Palo Alto, Calif., last February. He was working there as a civilian radar engineer for the Air Force.

Kaster said he and his wife were happy in Curlew and planned to buy a house there. He said she had travellers' checks when she came to Spokane and intended to buy him a boat for his birthday. Only one of the checks has been cashed, he said.

Kaster, a graduate of San Jose College, has suggested amnesia. Deputy Sheriff John Scott said there is no evidence of foul play.

FEATHER BUNS

● Combine ⅔ c. water, 3 tbs. granulated sugar, 1 tsp. salt and ¼ c. shortening; heat, stirring constantly, until sugar and salt are dissolved and shortening melted; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Add cooled sugar-shortening mixture and stir in 1 well-beaten egg and 1 tsp. lemon juice. Sift together twice 2 c. once-sifted bread flour and ¼ tsp. ground mace. Stir into yeast mixture; beat until smooth. Work in 1 c. once-sifted bread flour to make a very soft dough. Grease top of dough. Cover and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough and cut out rounded spoonfuls of dough with a tablespoon and drop into greased muffin pans, filling each pan about half-full. Grease tops. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in a hot oven, 425°, about 20 minutes. Yield — 20 medium-sized buns.

Creston Wedding Has Interest in Nelson

CRESTON, B.C., May 21—A quiet wedding of interest to Nelson and Revelstoke was solemnized in Trinity United Church here when vows were exchanged by the former Helen Romano, eldest daughter of the late Mrs. V. Civetta of Nelson, and William Alcorn Munro, second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Munro of Revelstoke. Rev. A. O. McNeil officiated.

The petite brunette bride was a picture in an ankle-length dress of white lace with a cap to match and elbow-length white gloves. She wore a corsage of red rosebuds.

The bridesmaid was Miss Bernice Jones of South Slocan, who wore an ankle-length dress of yellow net and a matching cap. Her corsage was of yellow variegated carnations.

The groom was supported by Mr. Michael E. Moran of Castlegar.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ryley. The couple left for a honeymoon in Sandpoint, Idaho, and other U.S. points, the bride wearing a grey suit for going-away.

The newlyweds will leave soon for Fort St. John, B.C., where the groom has been appointed government sub-agent.

Canned Seafoods Can be Made Into Tasty Dishes

By ALICE DENHOFF

With canned seafood well represented on the grocery shelves, there is always a prime ingredient for various delightful dishes.

Spanish Crabmeat is quite a production, and ever so good to eat. To serve 6-8, melt 2 tablespoons butter over low heat; add a finely-shredded green pepper, saute gently, being careful not to brown. Combine 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon mustard or ⅛ teaspoon paprika; stir into saucepan, cooking and stirring over low heat until mixture is smooth and well blended. Gradually add ¾ cup scalded milk, stirring constantly until mixture has thickened. Remove from heat, and add a little of the mixture to one beaten egg. Stir until well blended, then add egg mixture to first mixture, blending thoroughly. Stir in one cup grated cheese.

AT BOILING POINT

Meantime, heat one can tomato soup in a separate saucepan and when just at the boiling point, add to thickened mixture with one can crabmeat, flaked. Place the whole over heat just long enough to heat through, but do not boil. Serve at once over crackers or toast.

Devilled tuna next, this one an easy job. Saute 2 tablespoons each chopped pimiento, chopped onion, chopped celery, chopped green pepper and parsley in 2 tablespoons butter for 5 minutes. Mix 7-oz. can tuna, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 4 tablespoons flour, one cup cream, dash of tabasco sauce, tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and ¼ cup tomato ketchup. Add sauteed vegetables; place in buttered baking dish. Dust with buttered crumbs and ¼ cup grated parmesan cheese. Bake at 350 F. for 25 minutes. Serve with rice or noodles.

Micmac, Magnificent Exchange Pranks

HALIFAX, May 21 (CP)—Naval men here are still chuckling about the smoky battle of the big 'un and the little 'un."

The big 'un is the aircraft carrier Magnificent. The little 'un is the destroyer Micmac.

While anchored in nearby St. Margaret's Bay during exercises last week a boat crew from Magnificent succeeded in making off with Micmac's motor launch and painting out some of the destroyer's numerals.

Next night Micmac had her turn. Two boats set across to the carrier.

One craft, a decoy, purposely let itself be detected. Its crew, prepared with oilskins, were thoroughly hosed by the carrier's fire equipment.

While this was going on, the other craft slipped toward the Magnificent's anchor cable and attached a large smoke flare with chain and padlock.

The carrier was filled with smoke for hours after.

ANYONE CAN FALL IN LOVE WITHOUT ENCOURAGEMENT

By JANE ATKINSON

Dear Miss Atkinson:

I am 20 years old and have been going with a young man of 22. I'm afraid I have fallen in love with him even though he has never led me on to think he loves me. I see him three times a week and I know he likes me, but do you think it's possible for me to fall in love with him when he hasn't given me any reason to do so?

I just can't think of anyone but him. Do you think I should tell him how I feel, or wait for him to say something?

Y.

Dear Y.:

Unfortunately, it's perfectly possible for a girl to fall in love with a man, or vice versa, without any encouragement whatever from the other person. No one can be blamed for doing this, of course; it's only too bad if nothing ever comes of it.

However, for a girl to tell a man she is in love with him when he has never indicated that he's seriously interested in her, is a pretty hazardous thing to do. As a rule, such a procedure scares the man off.

Most young men are not so shy nor so backward about expressing their feelings that they fail to let a girl know when they are sincerely interested in her, so it would be far wiser for you to wait for your friend to make the first move. Obviously he must have a certain amount of interest in you if he sees you three times a week, so the best thing for you to do is to bide your time and see what happens. If you accept all his invitations to go out, he already knows that you like him, and that's enough for now.

At drug and department stores for as little as 25c.

Sharing Secrets is fun! Especially cooking secrets like this. Yesterday I made an apple pie—good, yes—but it was the pastry that caused comments. I made it with SUNKIST Lemon Juice—quite the tenderest, flakiest and tastiest pastry I've ever made. And here's all you do:

SUNKIST PASTRY—Sift together 3 cups sifted flour, 1 tsp. salt. Cut in 1 cup shortening. Add 1 slightly beaten egg combined with 3 tbsp. Sunkist lemon juice. Add Ice Water gradually, just enough to bind dough together. Roll pastry out thin and line pie plates. Bake in hot oven (475 deg.) for 15 minutes. (Makes 3 8-inch pie shells. Keep unbaked dough in refrigerator until needed.)

Try this Sunkist pastry next pie you make, you'll love it!

Is Your Family the kind that "skips" breakfast? Well, you can make breakfast a meal they won't want to miss—by serving luscious, smooth-as-satin 5 Minute "CREAM OF WHEAT"! It's so easy to prepare. Just five minutes of boiling and it's ready to eat—the delicious reason for coming to breakfast! And "Cream of Wheat" gives you Iron, Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. No wonder the "Cream of Wheat" habit is such a good family habit—such a wonderful way to begin the day! Remember, the words "Cream of Wheat" and the smiling chef on the package are registered trade marks of The Cream of Wheat Corp. and Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

A New Treat . . . and a wonderful treat, is BIRDS EYE Concentrated Lemonade! It has that delicious sunny-tart tang—for my money, even better than home-squeezed lemonade! You see, it's the concentrated juice of sun-ripened lemons, sweetened and quick-frozen. It takes just 30 seconds to fix six glasses—that's a pint and two-thirds . . . imagine! Do keep a supply in the ice box . . . what you don't drink will keep for days. I always keep it handy for myself, for the family, and for company. Try it—and if you don't agree it's the best lemonade you ever tasted the Birds Eye people will give your money back!

Wismer Intimates Early B. C. Election

ARMSTRONG, B.C., May 21—(CP)—Attorney-General Gordon Wismer has intimated an early Provincial election.

Speaking at a public meeting at Armstrong, a North Okanagan centre, during the weekend, Mr. Wismer said "an election may come sooner than you think."

He urged the meeting to back "free enterprise" in order to prevent the CCF from chasing capital across the B. C. borders.

"If there is a CCF gold mine in the sky," he said, "it's in the Federal field, not here. If you believe in Socialism, support it at the Federal level for that is the only place it has a chance of working."

Straith Cites Trail as B.C. Danger Point

PENTICTON, B.C., May 21 (CP)—Education Minister W. T. Straith Sunday called on war veterans to help in the civil defence of Canada.

He spoke at the opening of the 20th convention of the Canadian Legion, B. C. Command, and said the veterans could aid by manning civil defence posts now being set up by the Province .

All senior posts will be held by veterans. He asked the veterans to be ready to take over the jobs.

Mr. Straith said that while the United States is the most likely to be bombed in the event of war, many Canadian points are vulnerable. In B C. points that would be in danger are Vancouver, Victoria, Esquimalt, Prince Rupert and Trail. Cushion areas will be set up for the injured and evacuation areas would include the Okanagan.

Awards Planes to Communist China

HONG KONG, May 21 (AP)—A Hong Kong Supreme Court Justice today awarded 40 former Chinese Nationalist airplanes to Communist China but that didn't end the dispute over their ownership.

The Civil Air Transoprt, Inc., owned by retired Maj.-Gen. Claire Chennault and Whiting Willauer, purchased the planes from Chiang Kai-shek's Government in Formosa, March 2, 1950.

The air line announced it will appeal the decision if necessary to the Privy Council in London. The planes will remain "frozen" on the Hong Kong airport where they have been sitting.

Chennault argued that his purchase of the planes not only was legal but was transacted while Britain still recognized the Nationalist regime.

Justice Sir Gerald Howe ruled in effect that the deal was actually a "sell-out" of the Chinese people.

He expressed three other opinions:

1. Britain's recognition of Red China (Jan. 6, 1950) should be retroactive "at least as far back as (Red China's) dismissal of ministers of the Nationalist Government in October, 1949.

2. Therefore, the disputed aircraft actually belonged to Red China as from Oct. 1, 1949.

3. As far as Britain is concerned, Formosa at the present time is not Chinese but belongs to Japan. In 1943, Formosa was part of the territories of the Japanese empire and the British Government considers Formosa is still part of that territory.

They will sail for home June 23. Approximately 150 cadets are aboard the three ships.

Too Many Menial Tasks for Aides

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., May 21 (CP)—"Little girls in blue"—nurses' aides—may supplant nurses in mankind's reverence and respect if modern trends in nursing training continue, Most Rev. P. F. Pocock, Roman Catholic Bishop of Saskatoon, said last night.

He told the graduating class at Holy Family Hospital here that too many of the menial tasks are being turned over to the nurses' aides. These were the humble chores requiring much of the devotion and compassion which had made nurses respected.

"If the trend continues, in a few years I may return here to address a graduating class, not of nurses, but of 'litle girls in blue,'" the prelate said.

15 BUSH FIRES BURN IN B. C.

VICTORIA, B.C., May 21 (CP)—Fifteen forest fires are burning in the province, it was reported by B.C. Forest Service officials.

There were 20 new fires during the past week, they said, and 20 fires were extinguished in the week. But 15 were burning from the previous week leaving the same number still causing trouble at the end of the week.

There have been 235 fires in various sections of the province so far this year compared to 84 in the same period of last year. Cost of fighting fires this year has been $15,422 while last year at this time only $524 had been spent.

Over half the fires this year have been in the Vancouver district, which takes in Vancouver Island. The cost of fighting 140 fires in the area was $7999.

Other districts were Prince Rupert 25 fires, costing $1809; Fort George 25, $3455; Kamloops 23, $181; and Nelson 22, $1978.

Forest Travel Ban May Be in Store For Quebec, Ontario

QUEBEC, May 21 (CP)—The week-end's warm dry weather brought a serious fire threat today to the woodlands of Quebec and Ontario.

Two dozen or more fires, some of them still burning, broke out in seven widely-separated districts of Quebec. A dozen fires were discovered and brought under control in Ontario.

Henri Kieffer, Chief of Quebec's Forest Protection Service, announced that 1800 to 2000 men fighting fires in Temiskaming, Abitibi, St. Maurice, Chicoutimi, Lake St. John, Riviere du Loup and Rimouski districts.

Mr. Kieffer said that unless cooler weather and rain removes the fire hazard, the government will apply a ban on forest travel.

Patricias Well Fed

By BILL BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WITH THE CANADIANS IN KOREA, May 21 (CP)—This is one for the book: Army cooks in this theatre don't know what to do with all the rations they're getting.

Says Sgt. John Moore of Yorkton, Sask., the man who handles rations stores for the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry:

"It's been a problem trying to find the best use for all the rations we're getting.

"We get our fresh rations from the Americans. They also supply us with our tinned combat rations. All our dry and canned stuff comes from British sources."

Moore agrees with observers who hold that no army, anywhere in history, has been as well fed as the Eighth United States army in Korea. Nor have cooks been as well equipped.

"We can do anything on the American army stoves we're using. We can fry, deep-fry, bake, roast and boil with them.

"And silent? Remember those pressure-burners we used to use during the war? Artillery could be landing all around you and you'll never hear it for the noise in the kitchen. These stoves give a front-line cook a break."

Not that Canadian cooks have been working in the front lines.

With the Patricias apparently specializing in mountain warfare, and all their supplies reaching them on the backs of Korean porters, only essentials are sent up to them. And as far as food is concerned, the most compact form is the American "C" (for combat) ration—a box containing tins adding up to three balanced meals.

But even when the Patricias are in the line, the ration point from which the supplies are drawn has fresh commodities: eggs, meats, fruits, bread, potatoes.

"You can't say you don't want it," says Moore, who in civilian life operated a flourishing business combining a motel, a service station and a mail run. "You just have to take it."

And so in addition to its combat ration, and its dry and canned British foods, the battalion has been getting—even when its troops are fighting—three eggs a man a day, frequent issues of 10 ounces of meat a man, between half a pound to 10 ounces of chicken or turkey a man, and sacks of fresh bread.

Never during the war did one see eggs lying around slit trenches waiting to be fried!

For some while the fresh food went principally to troops left out of battle and to men of the rear headquarters.

"Never had so many complaints about 'always steak for dinner' and 'what, chicken again?' in my life," commented Maj. Don Grant of Vancouver, officer commanding the Patricias' Headquarters Company.

Moore solved the problem recently, when the unit was maning strong defensive positions in hills North of the Han River by having the eggs, frankfurters, meat, chicken and turkey, made up in sandwiches.

Whole truckloads of well-buttered bread liberally filled with generous slices of meat were sent to the front.

Moore says the only commodity the Canadians don't get is coffee, which doesn't figure in the Americans' fresh ration. And the British dry ration provides only for tea. A lot of Canadians are learning to like tea.

Revelstoke's Future May Depend On Mosquitos and Diesel Engines

REVELSTOKE, B.C., May 21 — Diesel locomotives and mosquitos apparently hold the key to the destiny of this Rockies railroad town.

The monster coal-burners which haul the rumbling freights over the continental divide are on the way out as the Canadian Pacific Railway replaces them with diesels.

The new locomotives threaten to eliminate Revelstoke as a mountain stop by screaming right through, whistling derisively at the coal piles.

So Revelstoke is thinking about making the resort business its future. It would seem a good gamble —from the lookout on Mt. Revelstoke you can see 2000 mountaintops on a clear day. In fact, Revelstoke is attracting more skiers every year (it had a record 231 inches of snow last Winter).

But in Summer the mosquitos are enough to drive a person to drink. They were so bad last year that even the golf course was shut down.

A full-fledged campaign against mosquitos is under way this year. Sackfuls of sawdust soaked in oil are being dropped in the sloughs and surplus army equipment for spraying has been bought.

Revelstoke started as a tough rail construction camp known as Second Crossing. It was named for Lord Revelstoke, who sank the family cash in the then fledgling C.P.R.

C.C.F. Abandons B.C. Youth Group

VANCOUVER, May 23 (CP) — The C.C.F. youth movement in British Columbia will be disbanded because of declining membership.

The annual convention of the C.C.F., which ended last night, adopted a recommendation of its Executive that the movement be "disaffiliated" in B. C. It was reported youth movement membership had dropped to 32.

Members of the youth group were advised to either form their own CCF clubs or to join up individually in such clubs.

The movement was designed to promote party policy among young men and women.

Shaughnessy Home Raided by Squad

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP) — A police gambling squad early today raided a swank Shaughnessy Heights home where it was alleged a dice game was in progress.

Anne McCormack, attractive 28 year-old redhead, was charged as keeper of a gaming house and nine men were charged as inmates. Seven of the men listed their occupations as taxi drivers.

The police raiders battered down two doors to gain entrance to the house.

Britain's Labor Government Looks On Titles as Monument to History

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Britain's Socialist Government certainly is a political enigma, as witness its announcement that it is prepared to give monetary aid to gentry who live in stately mansions and are unable financially to maintain these "national heritages."

Of course the desire to preserve fine old historic mansions is quite understandable. But how do the "gentry" fit into the picture? Do they also rank as "national heritages"?

The answer to this in effect is "yes." That is to say, the peerages originally are granted as recognition of ability and worth and service. The government looks on titles as monuments.

Many of Britain's nobility and landed gentry have fallen on evil days because of terrific taxation. Great estates have had to be broken up to meet death duties.

The country is filled with ancient and historic castles and fine old mansions. In many cases the present owners live in a couple of rooms or so, and earn a living by acting as guides to tourists.

Many years ago Britain created a national trust to protect its historic monuments, including mansions and castles, and as public parks. So the Labor Government, feeling that these places are indeed a national heritage, has announced that destitute gentry who can't afford to maintain the more stately of the heritages, can apply for cash loans from the Treasury.

Ask a British Socialist (as I did) whether he sees any inconsistency in his party taking such ar attitude towards the peerage and he will shake his head, with the quip:

"It's a good answer to Commun-

Let's Not Forget Our Objective—Peace

With the conclusion of U. S. Secretary Marshall's testimony two methods of pursuing American and United Nations purposes in Korea have been laid out. One calls for limiting the conflict to Korea if possible, the other for limiting it to China if possible. The choice is between two kinds of war. But is there not a third method—peace? And is it not high time, asks the Christian Science Monitor, to give more attention to the possibilities of peace?

"We trust the word can be used without setting off 'appeasement' charges. We are not interested in a false, expedient peace. We do not think there is a very present danger of forgetting what our immediate objectives are and assuming that they can only be achieved through war. Our ultimate aim may well be the complete eradication of evil from the world. But we know that will not be done with the sword, and that wisdom bids us deal with aggressive evil by meeting each attack as it comes."

These words of the Monitor are ones in which all Christians will find accord.

"We should all consider at this time whether we wish to become the prisoners of an 'unconditional surrender' formula. Hindsight has disclosed the weaknesses of that slogan in the last war; foresight should find a better description of purposes for the present struggle. Americans in particular should notice that in 1942 'unconditional surrender' could be used to bind allies together; in 1951 it tends to destroy unity and leave the United States without allies. These considerations have a direct bearing on the McArthur-Marshall testimony.

"General MacArthur said that in War 'there is no substitute for victory.' It would be equally true to say there is no substitute for peace, and to add that war is not an end in itself, nor is victory. The purpose must be peace—a just and reasonable peace. There is real danger at this time that American opinion will be carried so far toward an 'unconditional surrender' position in Korea that peace terms which would have been welcomed a few months ago will be scorned as 'appeasement'. Such an attitude could not merely prevent a cease fire; it could destroy any common ground for long-range U.N. peacemaking.

"Secretary Marshall in his testimony came very close to committing the United States to permanent control of Formosa and an everlasting veto against U.N. membership for Peiping. Certainly American opinion will not tolerate rewarding Chinese aggression in Korea. But so long as that purpose is maintained is it not possible to leave the future of Formosa to the U.N.? Is it not possible to continue to oppose membership for the Chinese Reds without going so far as to assert an illegal and illogical veto? General MacArthur offered the Reds a simple military truce—with terms for a peace to be open. Apparently General Marshall also would favor that kind of cease fire.

"Would that not be the most useful immediate goal, centering attention on establishing a just and reasonable settlement in Korea, with adequate safeguards for maintaining it? Let us not confuse negotiation with appeasement. Let us not become so enmeshed in debating two methods of war that we forget to wage peace."

Confusion Indicates Need for Thinking About Religion

To the Editor:

Sir—For the sake of the argument it is a good thing for both sides to discuss the same question—otherwise we "beat about the bush" and get nowhere.

You, sir, deplored the decline of Christian moral thinking. I said that the reason for the decline is that while our children get a lot of practice in the thinking proper to many other disciplines, they have very little practice in Christian moral thinking. This tends to make them adults in mathematics, science, etc., while they remain as children with respect to Christian moral thinking. I further suggested that it is unreasonable to deplore the effect and not want to remove its cause.

Your correspondent, F. B. Pearce, has confused the issue with a number of irrelevancies.

Everybody should know that "moral standards" do not depend upon religious education alone. I would be the first to congratulate the public school teachers of Canada for the fine job they do in helping their students to form good moral habits.

What the moral standards of Spain and Italy might be I haven't the slightest idea, but I do know that they have nothing to do with the question under discussion.

Whether the Reformation in England or the Revolution in America raised moral standards in those two countries is a question far too big for my limited knowledge of historical fact. I do think that Christian moral thinking (judged by the rigor of thought in subsequent works in moral theology) has declined, but whether the above events had anything to do with it is beyond me.

That we are confused about what religion is, seems to me to be a very good reason for doing a lot of thinking about religion, unless, of course, we prefer confusion.

And we should not wait until moral thinking or even moral standards "decline perceptibly". Educators should know what education is, and what its effects are. Either we want adult Christian moral thinking or we do not. Our present practice indicates that we do not want it.

Incidentally, the question of the desirability of Christian moral thinking is by no means the most important reason why a Christian might favor religious education in the school to which he would want to send his children. But to discuss the other reasons here would be irrelevant to the present question.

Finds Pleasure in Gardener's Work

To the Editor:

Sir—Nelson is proud of its flower-decked banks and boulevards, but they don't just happen. Many weeks of hard labor and care go into the raising of these plants.

A visit to Nelson greenhouse in Lakeside Park is a treat for anyone. How so much beauty can be packed into such a small space is a marvel. Mr. Holt, the City gardener, must have a green thumb indeed.

When you have visitors from out of town be sure they see this man's work. So many living here never give it a second thought.

The world loves flowers, and Nelson has its share, I'm sure.

Questioner, Nelson—What is the name of the reference library in the Chronicle Building, Spokane?

Cowles Reference Library.

Reader, Nelson—Please print recipes for dandelion and cherry wines.

For cherry wine, 10 gallons cold water, 10 gallons cherries, leave to ferment., Mix 30 pounds raw sugar with three ounces red tartar in fine powder, add to fermented cherries with two or three quarts brandy, making altogether 18 gallons. Two days after cherries have been in vat take out about three-quarters of the pits, break them up and return to vat. Leave twenty-four hours, strain, leave another 24 hours, then pour clear liquor into cask and when all fermentation has ceased bung closely. Bottle in about six months. Dandelion wine: To every gallon of water allow three pounds lump sugar, rind of two lemons, juice of one lemon, rind and juice of one bitter orange, one gallon of dandelion flowers. Boil sugar and water for half-hour, carefully removing all scum; pour this, boiling, on orange and lemon rinds, strained juice, and flowers; add two cakes of yeast, leave to ferment three or four days, then put in cask and leave for at least two months. A little brandy added before putting in cask gives a pleasant flavor.

A boom of settlers is expected in the Pend d'Oreille district this Summer which has been overlooked for so long. Visitors from other districts have expressed their astonishment regarding the rich fertility of the soil, the climate and low cost of farming land. The valley is expected to be much in evidence from now on. Not only will the completion of the new railroad and other projects attract to the widespread attention, but settlers are already coming into the valley.

Canadian Censors Protest Violence in Film Stories

TORONTO, May 21 (CP) — Canadian censor boards have protested to Hollywood producers in an attempt to correct objectionable scenes in films, the Ontario Film Censorship Board said in its annual report to Premier Frost today.

"There has been much recent discussion arising from the incidence of undue violence in the content of many films and its relationship to crime," the report said. "Many censor boards, including the one in Ontario, have protested during the past year, directly and indirectly to film producers in Hollywood in an attempt to correct the condition."

The Board said films not meeting the taste or requirements of censor boards in Canada would be dealt with in a "uniformly severe manner."

The report said 479 feature films from Hollywood, 56 from England, and 28 from other countries had been submitted for censorship in Ontario last year, a total of 305 eliminations were made for such reasons as coarse dialogue, torture of women, brutality, gruesomeness, suggestive dancing, knifing, nudity, hanging and lashing.

Advertising was also carefully examined for misleading suggestions. Occasionally the advertising associated with a film was found to be entirely false.

Sugar Ray Stops Marcel in Fifth

PARIS, May 21 (AP)—Middleweight champion Ray Robinson stopped Kid Marcel of France in the fifth round of a non-title fight tonight. The New York Negro toyed with his rival for four rounds and then tossed some hefty punches in the fifth.

Marcel's handlers quickly threw in the towel.

The end came after 57 seconds of the fifth while Marcel, French middleweight champion, was still on his feet and apparently unhurt. Robinson obviously meant business, however, and Marcel's handlers decided to take no chances on their fighter getting hurt.

A slim crowd of about 6000 was on hand in the Palais des Sport to see Robinson make his first appearance of his current European tour. The champion received only a symbolic one franc. His purse was donated to the French cancer fund.

Both fighters weighed in at just over 160 pounds for the non-title bout.

The promoter, Gilbert Benaim, said there were two weigh-ins. At first Marcel tipped the scales at 159¾ and was sent away to put on some more weight. He came back later and weighed in at four-fifths of an ounce over the middleweight limit of 160 pounds. Robinson weighed in at about the same.

If both had been under the middleweight limit Robinson could have lost his title by being knocked out.

Ray Famechon, France's contender for the world featherweight title stopped Jadques DeHaye in the seventh round of a 10-round preliminary fight.

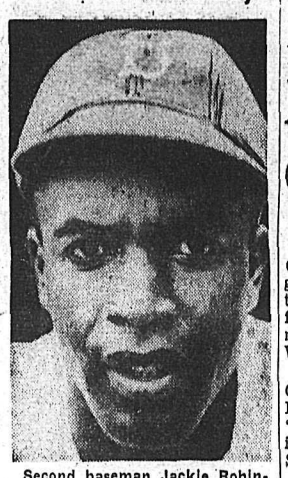
Will Quit if Career Interferes With Aim in Life



Second baseman Jackie Robinson, a determined but disturbed star of the Brooklyn Dodgers, has reported he will quit baseball if unwarranted disputes, such as statements criticizing umpires, "dustings" by pitchers that provoked an attempt to pile into Giant hurler Sal Maglie and an argument with Giant Manager Leo Durocher threatened to undo the good he's been trying to do. At the start of the season, the league batting champion of 1949 had promised his bosses and his wife that he'd try to avoid arguments. "I have in every way I know how," said the 33-year-old Robinson, first of his race to crack the big leagues. "But somehow these things keep coming up. A soft-spoken college graduate with a deep-seated social conscience, Robinson said his aim in life is to help educate people in racial tolerance. "I love baseball, but I couldn't let it undo all the things I believe in."—Central Press Canadian.

Ball took on the catching duties for the winning team while Loewen and Bicknell shared the mound. Barefoot was pitcher for the Transfer and Koenig catcher.

The Association is endeavoring to organize a third team. Anyone wishing to try out for a position has been asked to attend the Friday night exhibition game.

Lineups were:

Legion—Fargher, Ball, McClelland, Morgan, Winlaw, Whitfield, McClenaghan, Hyssop, Maglio, Cathcart, Malcolm, Porteous, Loewen, Bicknell.

PORTHCAWL, Wales, May 21 (AP)—Comedian Bob Hope was the first American casualty in the opening round of the British amateur golf championship today.

About all Bob had to offer his gallery of 1000 was some sharp repartee as he bowed to pipe-smoking Christopher Fox, of England, 2 and 1. He was all over the windswept course as he took a whopping 45 going out.

"Anyhow, Bing (Crosby) will be glad to know I got beat by a man with a pipe," Hope quipped as he congratulated Fox.

Durocher Fined $100, On Best Behaviour

By NELLO CASSAI

ST. LOUIS, May 21 (AP) — Leo (The Lip) Durocher got a perfect grade in dugout deportment today, to the disappointment of baseball fans who had expected to see a renewal of his feud with umpire Lon Warneke.

Durocher, manager of New York Giants, was fined $100 by National League President Ford Frick for "vile and abusive" language used in a game with St. Louis Cardinals Sunday.

The usually-talkative Leo didn't have anything to say about it. Through Vice-President Charles Feeney, however, Giants immediately asked for a New York hearing before Frick.

Frick said he would oblige.

Durocher had several good opportunities to gripe in today's contest, which his club lost 5-2. But he did not make an appearance on the playing field.

Expectant murmurs rippled through the crowd on close plays. Chides of "Where's Lippy" went up as the Giants booted two plays for errors. Another time, five New Yorkers crashed at the pitcher's mound while chasing a pop fly, which finally was caught.

But Leo remained aloof.

Warneke, who drew Durocher's wrath in a play at second Sunday, was behind the plate in today's contest. He called one close one but it was in favor of New York.

The umpire, who was Durocher's teammate with the Cardinals in 1937, told newspaper men that he missed the play which touched off the verbal fireworks Sunday.

Asked later what he thought about Leo's fine and the New York request for a hearing, Warneke said: "I haven't heard anything about it and I have nothing more to say on the subject."

Both Warneke and Durocher denied reports that blows were struck in an argument under the stands after Sunday's game, which the Giants also lost.

The rhubarb started in the eighth inning when the Giants' Whitey Lockman was ruled safe at second on a double steal. Red Schoendienst Redbird second baseman, flew into a rage at the decision.

There was some pushing and Durocher, with expansive gestures, allowed as how Red should be evicted from the game.

Cards Gain on Brooks

By The Canadian Press

The hot National League race—only 4½ games separate the top and bottom teams—drew a trifle tighter Monday as St. Louis Cardinals rang up a 5-2 victory over New York Giants.

The victory left the Cards only 1½ games behind the idle Brooklyn Dodgers, who lead the circuit. Cincinnati is in last place.

Nippy Jones doubled home three runs in the fifth inning to sew up the game and enable the Cards to sweep the two-game series. Gerry Staley stopped the Giants with a six-hitter for his sixth victory.

It was the only National League game scheduled for Monday.

Boston's Red Sox won a heavy-hitting American League game from Detroit Tigers 9-7. The Sox made merry with seven runs in the third inning but they needed Ted Williams' two-run homer in the seventh to pull the game out of the fire.

Williams broke his batting slump with three hits in four times at bat. He now is batting .247. His homer, No. 8 for the season, was lined off Gene Bearden, Detroit lefthander who made only eight pitches before he was yanked.

Big Vic Raschi turned in his seventh victory against one defeat as he pitched New York Yankees, American League leaders, to a 2-0 triumph over Stubby Overmire and St. Louis Browns. Yogi Berra drove in both runs on a single and a fly out in the night game.

The defeat was a heartbreaker for Overmire. The little southpaw and Raschi were locked in a scoreless duel going into the sixth inning when the world champions broke loose against the league's cellar team.

Chicago's high-riding White Sox won their fifth straight American League game when Joe Dobson, Billy Pierce and Harry Dorish combined to limit Washington Senators to four hits. The Sox won the game 5-3. Dobson was credited with the victory, his third without loss.

Kryhoski Leads American League

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Dick Kryhoski, Detroit first-sacker, held the American League batting lead through Sunday's games with a .403 mark. Last week's pace-setter, Washington's Gil Coan, slumped 52 points from .412 to a third spot .360.

Kryhoski with 25 hits in 62 trips held a 10-point margin over Philadelphia's Ferris Fain who boomed 11 hits in 25 trips during the week, for a 14-point climb to .393.

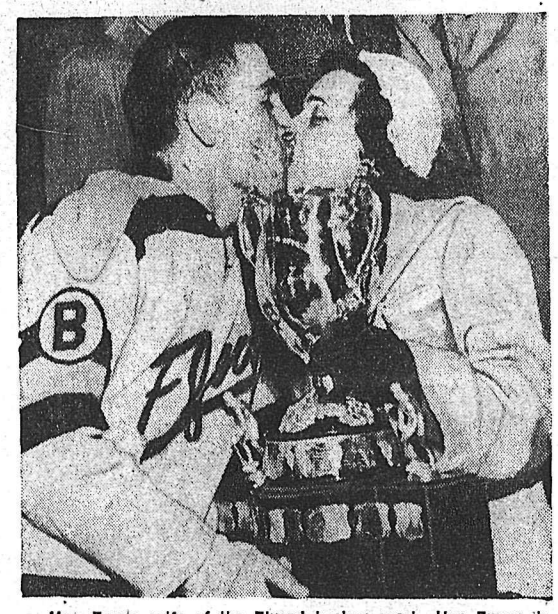
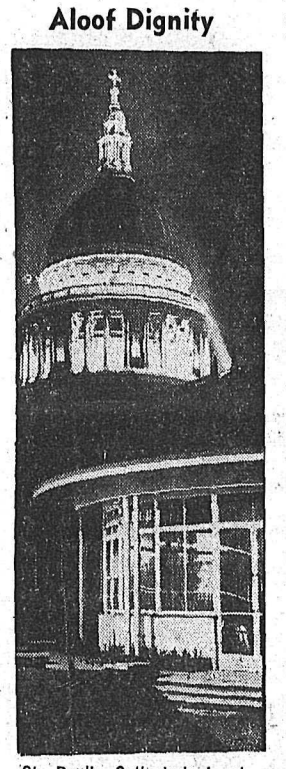
Well Worth the Effort!



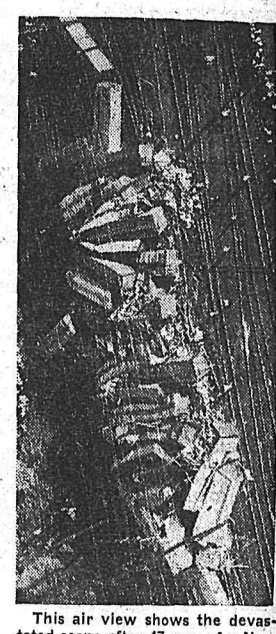
Mrs. Emms, wife of the Flyers' hockey coach, Hap Emms, is shown planting a kiss on Real Chevrefils, captain of the Barrie Flyers, after the Ontario team had disposed of Winnipeg Monarchs for the Canadian junior hockey title and the Memorial Cup, which Chevrefils is seen clutching. Formed just six years ago, the club has won three O.H.A. titles, reached the Memorial Cup finals once before, and lost to the eventual winners in the Eastern final on another occasion. Only once—in that inaugural year—did they miss the playoffs, and then by a single point.—Central Press Canadian.

Aloof Dignity



St. Paul's Cathedral, London, maintains its aloof dignity as it towers above a booth set near its base as part of the Festival of Britain. Searchlights shine on the dome as crowds throng the festival grounds.—Central Press Canadian.

Box Cars Like Scrambled Eggs



This air view shows the devastated scene after 47 cars of a New York bound Pennsylvania freight train jumped the tracks South of New Brunswick, N. J. No one was hurt in the derailment, but the four tracks were strewn with derailed cars and more than 2000 feet of rail were reportedly torn up. The wreck is thought to have been caused by a faulty switch.

LONDON (CP)—An appeal has been made to British school children to collect sports gear, knitting wools and handicraft material for physically-handicapped children in the overseas colonies.

LONDON (CP) — For the first time in history stores in Regent Street are staying open on Thursday evenings until 7 p.m. The idea is to give Festival of Britain visitors a chance to do evening shopping.

HALIFAX (CP) — Nova Scotia's woodland guides will display the skills that have made them famous in the annual guides' meet at Molega Lake from Aug. 16 to 22. Canoe paddling, log sawing, fly casting, logging and shooting contests are on the program.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

NELSON DAILY NEWS, TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1951 — 11

Market Trends

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Prices slipped fractions to around a point. There were a few dips as well to $2 but they were in the minority.

Canadian issues were in a continuous fall. Hiram Walker dropped ¾, Canadian Pacific ⅝. International Nickel and McIntyre came down ½. Distillers Seagrams ⅛. Dome Mines was unchanged.

TORONTO (CP)—Prices declined in quiet trading.

They tended a little higher at the opening after last week's selling but soon slipped downward under a lack of support. Trading continued its quiet streak of the last 13 weeks and and volume was about 1,000,000 shares.

MONTREAL (CP) — Securities eased moderately in a step-up of the irregular easiness towards the close. Trading was moderate.

Industrials, papers and steels led the market with all other groups participating in the downslide, beverages and carriers enjoying the least easiness.

LONDON (Reuters)—The Iranian situation continued to weigh heavily and prices in most sections moved to slightly lower levels.

Selling, however, was small and business mainly consisted of levelling of positions with tomorrow, Tuesday, the last day of the account.

Balance Sheets Can Be Homey

BY FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Some homey bits occasionally show through the matter-of-fact figures of company balance sheets.

For instance, "old Dobbin" himself appears in the current annual report of a Hamilton dairy company, and, comforting thought, he appears among "fixed asse's," as follows:

"Horses at estimated current value $2,400."

If you should happen to think that "Dobbin" is something less than a "fixed asset," you'll find his replacement amply provided for in an item called "reserves for depreciation."

In the same report, a second homey touch reaches right to the housewife. It appears under "current liabilities" and is called:

"Tickets and bottles outstanding—$21,723."

That shows as a liability to the company because it still has to provide milk on tickets for which you have already paid; and, further, in case you don't return the bottle.

In general, annual reports are in the process of a considerable evolution, if not quite a revolution.

Many of them are published in larger and much more attractive form than formerly; and many are becoming more understandable. Even if the balance sheet and statement of profit and loss remain much the same, more effort is made to explain what they mean.

U.K. Would Allow More Canadian Goods on Market

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Informed quarters disclosed today that Britain is giving favorable consideration to a plan to ease import controls and so allow more Canadian manufactured goods to reach the British market.

The informants said she also is considering a scheme to release more dollars from her exchange pool to allow the British West Indies to increase purchases from Canada.

These developments, favorable to the Canadian exporter, emerged as finance, trade and economic officials from both countries pluged into a three-day secret trade conference.

The meeting, inParliament's East block, was the fifth session of the Canada-United Kingdom continuing trade committee, a trade link born of Britain's critical exchange days in 1948.

The meetings will continue for three days. Decisions reached will form the basis of recommendations to both governments.

Though it is not mandatory that the governments accept these recommendations, informants recalled that major decisions reached at previous meetings were, in fact, accepted and adopted by the governments.

Britain's plan to ease import controls, likely will be done through expansion of the token import scheme. Under this scheme Canadian exporters were allowed to ship into Britain 20 per cent of the value of their goods bought by Britain in pre-war years. This quota was doubled to 40 per cent in January.

Informants believed that within a month, Britain will either:

1. Announce a further percentage increase, or

2. Add further goods to the unrestricted list to widen the varieties which may be shipped.

The British West Indies have been particularly anxious to get U.K. agreement on an increase in dollars to buy more goods from Canada.

Canada has repeatedly pointed out that the B.W.I. area last year purchased $30,000,000 worth of goods from Canada, while Canada bought about double that amount from the British colonies. This left a big balance in favor of the B.W.I.

It is Canada's contention that at least part of this balance should have been used to build up purchases from Canadian suppliers.

Informants said it now appears likely that Britain will agree to an increase in dollars for the B.W.I., dependent, of course, on the nature of her own dollars needs for defence purposes.

On this basis, a delegation from the B.W.I. is expected to arrive here May 25 to work out further trade-expansion details with Canadian officials.

U.K. Newsprint Head Won't Talk

MONTREAL, May 21 (CP)—Lord Layton, chairman of Britain's newsprint supply company, said here today that he "preferred not to discuss my newsprint mission in this country."

Lord Layton arrived from London early today by British Overseas Airways. Prior to his departure he told reporters at London that he would try to revive the long-term contracts he negotiated in Canada in 1946 and which the government has been reducing since.

He said his primary purpose in coming to Canada is to discuss the forthcoming Council of Europe joint congress at Strasbourg.

Major Search for Strategic Minerals

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Canada is launching a major search this year for new deposits of scarce strategic minerals to aid in her defence build-up.

The government's geological survey said today that within the next few weeks a total of 88 mapping and survey parties will be sent into the North and to nine of the 10 provinces.

They will be looking particularly for such scarce minerals as tungsten, molydenum, chromite and antimony, used as alloys for the production of high-grade steel and other metals and for the development of high-speed cutting tools, radar and other defence equipment.

Cranbrook Group Wins Dance Cup

CRESTON, B.C., May 21—Besides the large number of games on the midway, some 3000 people witnessed a two-hour program of folk dancing at the Civic Centre Saturday evening with the Hatters of Cranbrook taking the trophy presented by the Creston Valley Teacher's Association and the Creston Indians and Edgewater square dancing team tying for second prize.

With 14 teams competing for the lovely trophy, H. Dodd, chairman kept the large crowd informed of what was transpiring. The adjudicator, Miss N. Ferguson, Victoria, was loud in her praise of the effort and the closeness of the competitions. She emphasized how close the Creston school entries were and the vitality and color of the entire performance.

The crowd was brought to its feet by the war dance of the costumed and plumaged local Indian pacing to the beat of tom-toms.

Tying for second place, and popular with the crowd, was the Edgewater group, who gave ease, dignity and precision to their performance.

The Hatters, through their color, vitality and precision won the first place with their Scandinavian folk dance.

Teams taking part were Creston High School directed by Miss Tucker; Creston Elementary School by Miss Jackson; and Creston Elementary School by Mrs. Constable.

Chairman of the midway, Gordon Thorpe reported crowds jammed the midway during the carnival periods. A new floor plan proved successful and with the added decorations, games and carnival-dressed Kiwanis operators, the crowd enjoyed themselves throughout the weekend.

An added attraction throughout the weekend was the rides for the kiddies who enjoyed every minute of it. For the adults were rides and one concession of carnival interest.

Confectionery concessions were handled by the I.O.D.E. both inside and outside the building throughout the three-day period. Officials stated the midway along with the jitney dancing was far beyond their expectations.
