Charges Disrobing Came With Verigin

Nudism at Baptisms, Wife-Exchanging Told at Trial of Hilliers Leaders

"When he came nudism started and baptism started, and parading, and all children, everybody undressed."

Florence E. Lebedoff, Secretary of the Spiritual Community of Christ (Sons of Freedom), Wednesday gave this evidence against Michael (Archangel) Verigin in the opening hours of his joint conspiracy trial in Supreme Court here.

Verigin is charged with Joe Podovinikoff, of conspiracy to create disaffection in Kootenay and elsewhere through encouragement of nudism, refusal to send children to school and adultery. Proceedings are before Mr. Justice James M. Coady of Vancouver.

The young woman, who described herself as "Mrs. John Lebedoff No. ", said that before the Archangel's return to Krestova in 1944, "I didn't believe in nudism and I was not against English schools. I myself went to school."

Only a few had practised nudism before Veregin's arrival, she said.

She claimed that threats of burning had frightened her of Michael Verigin. She heard the alleged threats from Krestova leader John Lebedoff, who had claimed they originated with Verigin.

She described to Crown Prosecutor Angelo E. Branca of Vancouver how later a home was burned and occupants had to escape from an upper floor down a rope, because doors had been previously locked.

This incident, she claimed, followed the pattern of the alleged threat passed on to her by Lebedoff, who was later to become her husband. Included in the threat, she said, were herself, three young couples and three older couples. "He wanted to put us in a house and burn us."

HE'S SLICK

Cross-examined by defence counsel Donald L. Brothers of Trail, Florence said that she did not hear the alleged threat from Verigin personally. "He didn't talk . . . he's slick, Michael Archangel, he's very slick. But that family came down with a rope, isn't that something?"

She added that he had, however, thanked her for "upholding nudism, and he was undressed too and was baptizing him." (The "baptism" explained in earlier evidence, was necessary, along with a $25 fee, for membership in the Spiritual Community of Christ.)

One of three women who had administered the "baptism", Florence said that Michael had instructed her, telling her she must "speak the words" while in the nude. The baptisms were instituted on Michael's return to Krestova in 1944.

On one occasion she had completed giving the baptisms and had dressed, but more came. "I asked if I could do it dressed, but Archangel said 'no, undress' ".

She added that she was "only 17 and I didn't have much in my head."

Mrs. Lebedoff became "No. 2" wife five years ago "so I could work with John Lebedoff to tell the world the wrong Michael Verigin is doing."

Evidence on the existence of a "Spiritual Home" where members lived on a rotation wife-exchange basis, was given by William Stupnikoff, Son of Freedom who said he lived at the home. "Everybody shared wives, but Mike's family was barred from us," Stupnikoff said.

It was a case of reciprocal interest, as far as Polly Koftinoff was concerned when defence counsel Brothers replied he was not interested in why she became Mrs. Lebdoff No. 3.

"If you're not interested in what I have to say, I'm not interested in what you have to say." Folding her arms and turning her back to show her disfavor, she added "I don't want to speak with you any more."

It was only on the request of Mr. Justice Coady that she agreed to continue her evidence.

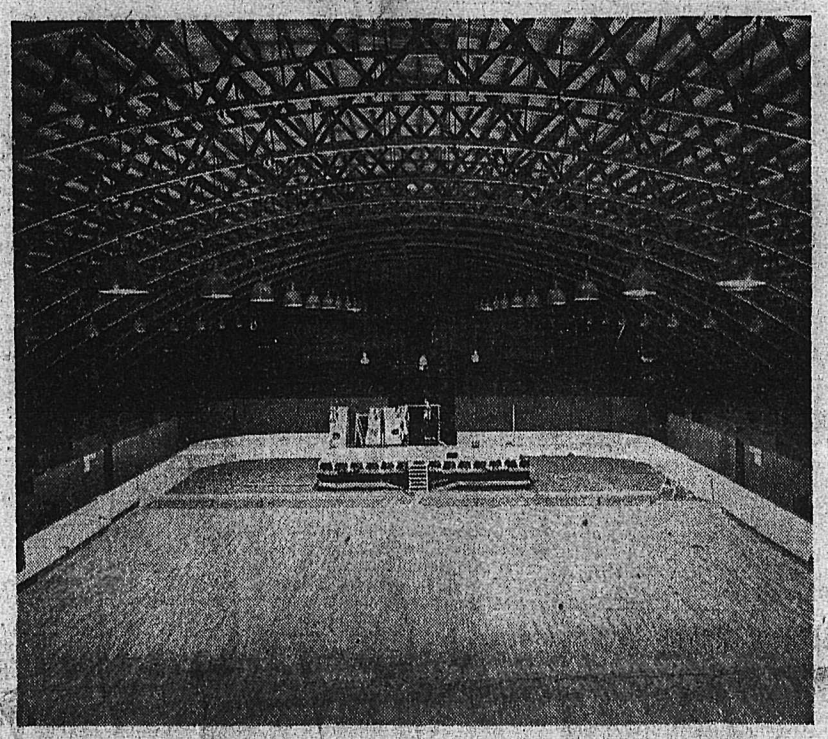
Staff Sergeant John W. Hooker of Vancouver identified 42 exhibits, including documents, mimeographed letters, pamphlets and pictures that he seized at the home of Verigin and Podovinikoff. Many of the documents declared Michael Verigin to be the Archangel, and bade the Doukhobors to "break the union between law and man on earth;" "do not register names in books, do not notify of the increase and decrease in Doukhobor population;" and "as soon as people learn grammar they revoke their parents and elders . . . it is awful to even speak of education."

Proceedings were interpreted by Capt. V. V. Pogoretsky of Vancouver.

On the jury are John B. Mowatt of Rossland, foreman; John M. Binns of Rossland; Charles A. Short of Ainsworth; Harry L. Smith of Tadanac; Arthur C. Matheson of Balfour; Else L. Kelly of Salmo; John K. Jansen of Nakusp; Alexander Leven of Kaslo; George D. Asher of Ainsworth; Leslie Thorington of Trail and John L. Hobson of Harrop.

Unique Structural Method Goes Into Cranbrook's New Memorial Centre

EXTERIOR VIEW OF $69,000 CRANBROOK MEMORIAL CENTRE



Unique among community centres is Cranbrook's new Memorial Centre built at a cost of $69,000 during the past nine months. It was started as a skating rink in August, and during construction other facilities were incorporated to provide auditorium space for nearly 3000, heating plant and portable hardwood floor for use in non-ice seasons.

The basic plan was designed and patented by university personnel at Edmonton, and construction engineer is E. E. Tory, formerly of Wainwright and now of Vancouver. Principal feature is lack of inside uprights to interfere with the view of the arena.

The exterior view shows the entrance to the building which covers 114 by 230 feet. Cement abutments on the left are matched on the right, joined underground with steel rails and truss work above ground terminates in the abutments suspending the building.

Across the front are office, dressing rooms with running water, furnace room and coffee bar. Remainder is occupied by arena and seats tiered up from ice level, and a gallery.

The interior view is from the gallery above the entrance and shows half the rink space, which is 191 by 80 feet. A temporary stage has been erected at the North end of the rink, and the portable floor is maple plywood in 12-by-4-foot sections which can be laid in 60 man-hours. Under tiers of seats at the rink end are two more dressing rooms with running water.

Permanent tiers of seats accommodate 1600 spectators, standing room allows 600 more, and seating in the arena portion accommodates 1000.

A half-dozen communities in British Columbia and Alberta are contemplating construction of similar units for rink purposes with the boom in hockey and ice shows. Cranbrook's centre is so designed that as soon as funds are available for artificial ice the plant can be installed in the building without any alterations.

British Labor Defeats Tories on Six Votes

Beat Amendments on New, Higher Gasoline Tax; Many Members Missing

LONDON, June 15 (Thursday) (CP) — The Government defeated the Conservative Opposition last night and early today on six votes on the new, higher gasoline tax.

Its margin ranged from 11 to 14 votes. Labor has a working majority of only eight in the House of Commons. Many Members were absent on both sides. Liberals voted with the Opposition.

The main Conservative attack consisted of a move to void the tax increase. The Government beat this down, 302 to 288. It then defeated a series of other amendments, including one which would have exempted from the tax boost gasoline used in invalid motorchairs.

The Opposition contended that the increased tax would hit industry and the middle classes, and that it showed an "anti-motorist" bias by the government.

It also accused the government of trying to divert traffic from the roads, where a section of motor transport is still privately owned, to the nationalized railways.

Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, retorted that to influence traffic in this way it would have been necessary to increase the tax by three, four or five shillings instead of by ninepence.

The ninepenny increase, he said, was imposed to get relief for the lower rates of income tax.

150 SONS HELD ILLEGALLY?

Should Be Serving Terms in Federal Penitentiary

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP)—A report that some 150 Sons of Freedom convicted of nude parading may be "held illegally" was published today by the News-Herald.

Shortage of penitentiary space is the reason, the newspaper said.

The story adds: "The Doukhobors in question were recently sentenced to terms of more than two years which must be served in a Federal penitentiary.

"It is customary for such prisoners to be sent to Oakalla (Prison Farm) for 30 days pending an appeal. If no appeal is made, prisoners are immediately transported to the penitentiary at New Westminster to serve their terms."

The News-Herald says 50 Sons of Freedom who have not appealed their sentences, and have been in Oakalla more than 30 days, have not yet been sent to the penitentiary, which hasn't room for any more of the rampaging Sons.

"Some of the 91 Freedomite women now under penitentiary sentence at Grand Forks have been there more than 30 days."

The story says "several prominent Vancouver legal men" say they believe the Doukhobors could be freed either by Habeas Corpus proceedings or by a Writ of Mandamus.

POLICE CHARGE DEMONSTRATORS

CAPETOWN, June 14 (AP) — Police tonight charged crowds demonstrating outside the Parliament Building against anti-Communist legislation.

Members of the parliament watched as protestors were beaten by club-swinging police.

The legislation which touched off the protest would outlaw Communist activity in the Union of South Africa. A bill on this subject now is up for second reading.

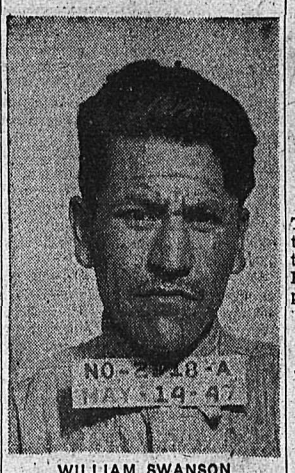
$1 Million Damage In Nordegg Fire

NORDEGG, Alta., June 14 (CP) —A tar-fed fire, black smoke billowing, raged through $1,000,000 worth of surface installations at Brazeau Collieries early today. All buildings except an office were destroyed in an hour.

Permanent tiers of seats accommodate 1600 spectators, standing room allows 600 more, and seating in the arena portion accommodates 1000.

The most-damaging fire in Alberta since March, 1949, threw 450 mine employees out of work. No one was injured.

14-Year Term For Swanson



WILLIAM SWANSON

Fourteen years in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed on William Francis Swanson Wednesday morning.

Swanson Tuesday evening was convicted by an Assize Court jury that reduced a murder charge to manslaughter; and Mr. Justice James M. Coady gave the 31-year-old Indian 14 years. Maximum for manslaughter is life.

A police record, stretching over 14 years and covering total sentences of three years and four months, was entered by Crown Prosecutor C. B. Garland, K.C. Since 1936, Swanson had served jail terms ranging from one month to nine months for charges including drunkenness, causing grievous bodily harm resulting from an attack on his wife, wounding, theft and a jail break.

Murder charges on which he was first tried after an almost year-long police search, arose from the death of Swanson's wife, Julia, whose beaten body was found in their Indian reservation shack near Creston, Oct. 23, 1948. The retrial held here Monday and Tuesday was ordered by Appeal Court.

Strawberry Price Likely To Stay High

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP)—Prices for strawberries likely will remain high with a big U.S. demand and the crop, already three weeks late and shrunken, may run into bad weather that could cut production in half.

R. C. Lucas, manager of Pacific Cooperative Union at Mission, said today bad weather has ruined most major U.S. crops and that country is offering record prices here. Steady rain may deplete the harvest expected to start in 10 days.

London Declines To Comment on Gardiner Speech

LONDON, June 14 (CP) — Food Ministry officials today declined comment on Anglo-Canadian trade problems discussed in the Canadian House of Commons by Agriculture Minister Gardiner. But the Daily Express quoted one Ministry official on the handling of Canadian gift apples.

The Express, the only London paper to give prominent display to Gardiner's statement that "more direct talking" was needed to market Canadian apples in Britain, said the minister had expressed curiosity about the disposition of apples sent to the United Kingdom as a gift.

It quoted a Food Ministry official as saying the Commonwealth gift centre had distributed as many of the apples to school children as it could handle.

"The rest were sold to wholesalers at normal prices so that we could recover freight charges from Vancouver," the official was quoted as saying.

"The fruit growers of British Columbia agreed to this. We do not know yet if we have made a profit or loss. In any case, we could not have sold at below British market prices without under-cutting our own growers."

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — The City of Vancouver announced today it won't appeal an interim telephone rate increase awarded the British Columbia Telephone Company.

REDS START RUHR CAMPAIGN

Soviet Dignitaries Arrive; Plan "Peace Rally"

By RICHARD O'REGAN

FRANKFURT, June 14 (AP) — Germany's Communists plunged today into a feverish campaign to win support in the mighty Ruhr industrial valley.

They announced:

1. The imminent arrival of Communist dignitaries from the Soviet zone to help to win votes in elections next Sunday for a Ruhr State legislature.

2. A "peace rally" in Essen next Sept. 1—A rally the Communists hope to make a replica of their Russian-protected Whitsuntide march in Berlin.

The announcements were regarded in some Allied quarters as possibly the start of a Communist attempt to stir up discontent in the industrial heart of Western Germany.

On the other hand, some observers believed the Communists were merely trying to hold their grip on thousands of followers who recently have been losing sympathy with their cause.

BERTHA OVEREATS

LAWTON, Okla., June 14 (AP) —This little piggy went to market . . . this little piggy stayed home . . . this little piggy had roast beef . . .

But this little piggy had kaffir corn . . .

And she had too much of it.

Little piggy Bertha—which weighs only 35 pounds—was bouncing around farmer Bob Beck's farm when she slammed into a five-gallon milk can.

The can toppled over, and the milk—mixed with the rich kaffir corn feed—started spilling on to the ground.

Bertha ate her way right into the can.

Then her full tummy refused to let Bertha free herself.

A veterinarian's advice: "Leave her alone, keep her cool—and everything will work out all right."

Bertha scrambled out eight hours later.

District Woodworkers Seek Strike Vote

CRANBROOK, B.C., June 14—Application for a government supervised strike vote has been made to the provincial Labor Relations Board by Local 405, Woodworkers Industrial Union of Canada, certified bargaining agent for approximately 17 of the 56 lumber operations in East Kootenay and Nelson district, to be completed by July 1. Decision was made at a union meeting here Sunday following nine months of negotiations for renewal of the contract which expired Sept. 1, 1949.

In December a conciliation board headed by Judge E. P. Dawson of Nelson gave a majority award of 2½ cents increase retroactive to Sept. 1, five cents an hour night shift differential and a set $2 a day board. The Southern Interior Lumber Operators' Association, as management factor in the contract rejected this award. Late in May their secretary and negotiations representative, R. A. Mahoney, offered on their behalf terms of 2½ cents increase not retroactive and refused the night shift differential. This offer was rejected by the WIUC meeting Sunday when the strike vote was requested.

International Woodworkers of America was bargaining agent for all East Kootenay operations until October, 1948, when a union split resulted in formation of the WIUC. The IWA contracts were transferred to the WIUC as certifications were received in some operations but no new contracts between operators and WIUC have ever been signed.

Remaining lumber operations in the East Kootenay-Nelson area have the IWA as bargaining agent as part of the current negotiations centring around Kamloops for interior contracts. Same terms as are now being negotiated for coast logging and millwork, 17 cents increase and union shop, are being asked by the IWA for interior workers, main difference being coast contracts expire June 15, while interior contracts do not expire until Sept. 1.

WOODS STRIKE CALLED OFF

CRASHES WITH 45 ABOARD

"Severance Pay" For B.C. Police Likely in Turnover

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — The Vancouver Sun, in a dispatch from Victoria, says members of the B.C. Provincial Police may be given a "severance allowance" when they are transferred into the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

The dispatch says this allowance would be designed to make up, in a cash settlement, for lower pay they would receive as Mounties.

The newspaper says that, while it has not been definitely settled, the severance pay plan is one of the items now under consideration by government authorities as part of the turnover proposal.

The Victoria dispatch says most of the men would get lower pay as Mounties because they now receive a $48-a-month cost of living bonus from the provincial government.

Would Change Name Of Commonwealth Press Union

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP) — The changing status of the British Empire was recognized today by the Empire Press Union in unanimously favoring a change in name to the Commonwealth Press Union.

As one of the first items of business at the seventh Imperial Press Conference, delegates from 15 countries voted to recommend the change to the union's Governing Council. They stipulated that the change in name would not affect individual memberships of the Crown colonies.

Delegates heard urgings that the penny-a-word rate on intra-Commonwealth Press be safeguarded; that air and surface rates for Press material be lowered; that newspapers keep abreast of technological developments in their field, and that better training be provided for newspaper men.

And in This Corner —

RYE, N.Y., June 14 (AP)—Frank O'Hara put away his bow and arrows today. Golf players of the Rye Wood Country Club sliced and hooked with abandon.

Between the O'Hara home and the golf links now stands a wire fence 15 feet high and 90 feet long, impenetrable to golf balls—and to arrows.

O'Hara merely protested when his house was peppered by misdirected golf balls. But when his wife was hit on the head, he bought an archery set and "accidentally" fired arrows onto the course when golf players approached his property.

The expense of the fence was defrayed by the Country Club.

CLEVELAND, June 14 (AP)—Municipal Deputy Clerk Harry J. Walker filed another eviction notice today. Then he served it—on himself.

Walker notified himself that his landlord wants his house vacated by June 20.

A poll of 90 octogenarians disclosed last night that 88 of 90 men were married. The men, ranging in age from 80 to 97, were guests at an annual banquet held here for community oldsters.

Asked how to reach an advanced age, the men roared in chorus: "Get married."

EDMONTON, June 14 (CP)—Policemen and gangsters apparently are not the only ones who engage in car chases at top speeds. Now it's Romeos and blondes.

Police testified in court today that a man stopped for speeding said he was following two blondes in the car ahead.

"That's a good enough reason," commented the magistrate, "but don't follow any more blondes or you'll lose your licence." The man was fined $25.

DETROIT, June 14 (AP)—As a plumber, 50-year-old Dan Reed should have known that before you remove a bathtub from a house you have to turn off the water.

Reed tried to take the fixture from a condemned building. While he was dragging it out, water seeped through the floor and sprinkled an occupant in the room below.

Reed pleaded guilty yesterday to a larceny charge and was held in $3000 bond.

Second Day Lost For N.Y. Paper

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—The New York World-Telegram and Sun did not publish today for the second day as A.F.L. mechanical workers again refused to cross the C.I.O. picket lines.

The American Newspaper Guild (C.I.O.), walked out yesterday to enforce its contract demands for editorial and commercial workers.

As yesterday, a group of A.F.L. printers showed up for work this morning, saw the Guild picket line and then left.

The World-Telegram, which bought the Sun last January and added its name to its masthead, is one of the largest evening newspapers in the United States, with a circulation of more than 600,000.

"Even if the craft unions cross the picket lines we probably won't put out a paper today," said N. S. MacNeish, the newspaper's business manager.

"We have no advertising and the paper would not be normal without advertising. The printers have been out and it takes a while to prepare a paper."

By "no advertising" he meant none was set in type. In any case, it would take several hours to melt the type metal now "frozen" in stereotype and linotype pots.

The Guild had demanded a 10-per-cent general pay raise, a $4-to-$10 boost in minimum pay rates to bring the top minimum up from $110 to $120, a "nine out of 10" Guild shop, a 35-hour week and other benefits.

Management offered a $2-to-$5 raise, a $1-to-$3.50 boost in minimums for a $113.50 top, the 35-hour week and vacation and holiday improvements. The work week now is 37½ hours.

Revolution Breaks In Southern Peru

LA PAZ, Bolivia, June 14 (AP)—Radio Continental of Arequipa, Peru, said late today that a revolution has broken out throughout South Peru.

The radio said the revolution is directed by Francisco Mostajo, who was not further identified in the broadcast.

Skeena Chases 100 Residents To Higher Ground

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP)—First evacuations before the British Columbia 1950 flood threat came today in the Northern Interior as the clear, turbulent waters of the Skeena River chased the 100 residents of Usk to higher ground.

Elsewhere rivers swelled by a prolonged hot spell over the snow-stacked mountains inched upward against the dykes.

In the lower Fraser Valley dyke patrols started last night and will be strengthened tonight. The Fraser, villain in a $30,000,000 flood in 1948, ripped away $17,000 worth of rock at Agassiz and trucks worked today to replace the material protecting one of the new dykes erected since then.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 14 (CP)—The on-again off-again Northwest flood danger was back "on" today as inland rivers surged to their highest level of the season after a steady two-day rise.

But it appeared that the new threat may be short-lived. Weatherman Robert McComb said the rate of rise was slowing down at most points and the trend is expected to continue.

PENTICTON, B.C., June 14 (CP)—Civic employees tonight began sandbagging of Penticton Creek at two weak points as the Spring freshet began in earnest.

The move was described as a precautionary measure.

New Rossland Jaycee Officers Installed; W. Johnson President

ROSSLAND, B.C., June 14—Officers of the Rossland Junior Chamber of Commerce were installed by Installing Officer Rex McMeekin, B.C. Regional Vice-President, at a meeting at I.O.O.F. Hall. They were:

Members of the Trail Executive were guests. Those attending were L. J. Filippelli, First Vice-President; A. V. Marcolin, President; Ian Kenney, Secretary and District Officers Rex McMeekin, B. C. Regional Vice-President; Fred Miller, District Counsillor.

Prospective members introduced to the Chamber were Chuck Waldman, Jim Jecks, George Bourchier, Bill Hrick and Ralph Blench.

A letter was read from the Red Cross Society, indicating the need of blood. To this Harry Stevens urged that all members donate their blood. Mr. Filippelli also gave an interesting talk on the drive. Fourteen members of the Rossland Jaycees signed as blood donors.

AGAINST CANVAS

The City Council had asked if the Chamber would survey the entire city to get the opinion from house holders as to a weekly garbage service on an "extra charge" basis.

This the Chamber decided against, as it was felt that the Chamber could not do a good job on canvassing at the present time. Also it was thought that there should be other means of ascertaining public opinion.

Ed Batt, delegated to attend the National Convention in Vancouver, read and sumarized the resolutions to be brought forward at the convention.

Members were urged by Fred Miller to attend the charter meeting in Nelson, on June 23. A big program is scheduled for the evening, which the Trail and Rossland Chambers are invited to attend.

Al Lapage gave his report on the convention held at Vernon and told of the grand time he had.

The chairman of all the committees gave a report on their respective activities, and summarized the work so that the new members could follow up the work and join the committees they favored.

A donation of $25 was received from the C.M. & S. Co., to be used in the work of the Jaycees.

District Councillor Fred Miller asked that the Chamber work on resolutions now for the next convention which is to be held at Kamloops. He also urged that the Rossland Chamber be regional host to Nelson and Trail units, throughout the year ahead.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Second Reading For Bill Giving Howe Powers

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP)—Despite opposition argument against a Government bill giving Trade Minister Howe broad powers to purchase supplies for the defence forces, the bill won second reading—approval of principle—by a formal vote of 127 to 44 in the Commons today.

The vote came after George Drew, Progressive Conservative Leader, declared that it could "open the door to dictatorship" in Canada.

The Progressive Conservatives, Social Credit and C.C.F. voted against the bill and drew support from two independent Members—P. E. Gagnon (Chicoutimi) and Dr. Raoul Poulin (Beauce.)

H. W. Herridge (CCF—Kootenay West), speaking for the C.C.F., termed the powers in the bill "enormous."

H. W. Herridge (CCF—Kootenay West), said the C.C.F. Party smelled a "rat" in the Legislation.

Mr. Herridge said the C.C.F. would like to see a clause in the bill that would restrict profits on defence production to five per cent. Above that it would like to see nationalization of those plants which directly produce war supplies. Nothing less would keep faith with Canada's desire for peace.

Artificial respiration should not be abandoned until there are definite signs of rigor mortis.

COUNTERFEITING RING BELIEVED ENDED AT COAST

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP)—A chance tip by a Seattle clerk resulted today in the arrest of two men here and the end, police believe, of an international counterfeiting ring that passed more than $100,000 in forged travellers checks in several American cities and Edmonton.

Two Vancouver men, a 39-year-old salesman and a 40-year-old accountant, are held but are not charged. One is wanted by Edmonton police on other charges.

Seek Address of Washington Woman Visiting in Nelson

Information is being sought on the whereabouts of Mrs. William B. (Dorothy) Rogers of Aberdeen, Washington, who, with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sporle, is visiting a sister of Mr. Sporle's in Nelson. 597 Donate Blood In 2-Day Clinic; Van to Trail

An increase of 200 pints of blood over last year's contribution set a record 597 pints contribution as the two-day Red Cross Society Blood Clinic at the Canadian Legion closed Wednesday night.

It was felt that next year Nelson should be able to contribute the same amount that is used in Kootenay Lake General Hospital, 750 pints.

Tuesday donors numbered 308 with 289 Wednesday. It was especially gratifying to see so many young people who were new donors, officials said Wednesday night.

Groups assisting the Clinic Staff, were St. Paul's Excelsior Club, Nelson Parent-Teacher Association, Nelson Graduate Nurses' Association, Soroptimists and Venture Club, four High School girls, Gyrettes and Trinity Service Club.

The Red Cross officials expressed pleasure at the success of the Clinic and for the cooperation of so many organizations and individuals.

Mrs. Pitre Held Without Bail

By RICHARD DAIGNAULT

QUEBEC, June 14 (CP) — The woman who placed aboard an airliner a time-bomb that killed 23 persons over Sault au Cochon last Sept. 9, was held without bail tonight, charged with intimidating witnesses.

Mrs. Arthur Pitre, black-haired sister of Genereux Ruest who is charged with murder in the airlines disaster, sobbed and shrieked loudly as she was taken by two burly Provincial Police officers from a corridor near the courtroom and carried to cells.

The arrest, ordered by Judge Achille Pettigrew from the bench, climaxed the first day of Ruest's preliminary hearing on the charge of manufacturing a time-bomb to blow up the airliner and kill Mrs. J. Albert Guay.

Arrest of Mrs. Pitre, 41, was ordered after a frail, pale girl in a black coat testified Mrs. Pitre "threatened" her in the witness room adjoining the court this morning.

The girl, Marguerite Lachance, said Mrs. Pitre warned her not to mention how Ruest counselled her, his sister, to commit suicide by "putting a blanket ove rmy head and turning on the gas."

Always in Control Of Car, Trail Inquest Jury Told

TRAIL, B. C., June 14—A Coroner's Jury was adjourned until next Monday after hearing five witnesses give evidence today in the traffic death of Elmer Green, 34, of Trail.

Green died of injuries suffered last Sunday when the car in which he was a passenger smashed into a rock bluff near Brilliant, 25 miles North of here.

Among the witnesses was Robert Spratt, 29, of Trail, who told of the ride to Nelson where the party of four had stayed briefly before setting out for the return trip.

Spratt said that John Miros, 22, owner and driver of the car in which the four were riding, had "very little" to drink and was in complete control of the car at all times.

Others to testify included Adam Waldie, who attended the dying man as he lay in the office of Dr. V. B. Goreski, at nearby Castlegar.

Winston Churchill served with Spanish forces in Cuba during the Spanish-American War.

West Van. Woman Heads Legion LAs

Officers Installed as Successful Parley Ends

TRAIL, B. C., June 14—A greying, pleasant woman from West Vancouver who served in Territorial Nursing Service in the First World War is the new President of B. C. Command, Ladies' Auxiliaries to Canadian Legion.

Mrs. W. H. Green was elected here at final day of the Auxiliaries' annual convention to succeed Mrs. E. E. Swan of Victoria. She has been First Vice-President.

Mrs. F. C. Jones of Qualicum Beach and Mrs. T. A. Barnard of Nanaimo are again Honorary Presidents; Mrs. A. Erickson of Creston, First Vice-President; Mrs. J. S. Black of Prince Rupert, Second Vice-President; Mrs. J. H. Martin of Nanaimo, Third Vice-President; Mrs. Bessie Clements of Seattle, Fourth Vice-President, and Mrs. Grahame Kincaid of Penticton, Recording Secretary.

The officers were installed in an impressive ceremony conducted by the retiring president.

Mrs. Green will represent Fraser Valley in 1950-51 as she expects to move to Surrey; Mrs. Erickson will represent East and West Kootenay; Mrs. Black, Northern B.C.; Mrs. Martin, Vancouver Island; Mrs. Clements, the United States area, and Mrs. Kincaid, the Okanagan, Main Line, Cariboo and Similkameen.

Vancouver delegates raised a hue and cry that through Mrs. Swan's position as past president and Mrs. Martin's election, Vancouver Island would have two representatives and Vancouver non.

The shout started as the last officer, the recording secretary, was to be elected, and Vancouver and the Interior (Okanagan, Main Line, Cariboo and Similkameen) were not represented.

Mrs. Kincaid, who as past president has represented the Interior, pleaded for representation for the area as having more widely-scattered auxiliaries than Vancouver.

Vancouver auxiliaries, she said, could be handled by Fraser Valley or one of the Vancouver Island representatives.

Offer from Mrs. Swan to represent Vancouver appeased the Vancouver delegates and Mrs. Kincaid was chosen by acclamation as Interior representative through election as recording secretary succeeding Mrs. E. Bowler of Vancouver.

But for next convention attempts will be made toward representation on the executive from every district.

Secretary-treasurer is Mrs. A. McLennan of Vancouver, for whom this year is an anniversary—her 30th on B.C. Command. She's a past president, for years has been secretary-treasurer and is a life member of Kerrisdale Auxiliary.

Kootenay's representative, Mrs. Erickson, is as enthusiastic over work of Ladies' Auxiliaries as her fellow officers with longer years of service.

Second vice-president for the last two years, she became actively interested in the movement in 1937; has been president of Creston Auxiliary for 11 years and was Creston's "Woman of the Year" in 1949.

Appeals for clothing from two children's homes in England operated by Women's Section of British Legion were drawn to the delegates' attention. One is in Richmond, Surrey, the other in Hampstead, London.

Suggestion was made that no more than one life membership be awarded in each auxiliary a year and only for outstanding service, not necessarily for long service.

TOUR COMINCO

After a tour of operations of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and Trail residential areas, installation of officers and closing ritual in which 41 standard bearers were led by their captain, Mrs. E. Harris of Vancouver, took place.

Recognition was paid to Mr. Swan for her guidance as president and to other officers with presentation of gifts. H. Cann, president of Trail Branch of Canadian Legion, also spoke.

Hostesses for the convention, members of Trail Auxiliary, came in for their share of the bouquets. President is Mrs. James Pearson, and secretary, Mrs. J. D. Pearson. Huge task of billetting delegates was overcome by Mr. A. Middleton and Mrs. C. R. Mear. Auxiliaries in West Kootenay Zone assisted in afternoons by serving tea.

A party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Diamond and a luncheon given by Trail Branch of Canadian Legion were enjoyed by the executive.

The 254 delegates (124 official, 122 fraternal, and eight executives) left later in the day for their homes, having represented 86 auxiliaries at one of their most successful conventions.

Transparent Statue For Health Lecture

LONDON, June 14 (CP)—A transparent statue of an anonymous 29-year-old German girl will be exhibited at the British Food Fair in September.

German scientists are making the model, described as "an exact reproduction of the female body."

"Within the figure is reproduced every organ, blood vessel, bone, gland and nerve of the human system," said a press release.

"The exterior is a new substance, plastic and fully transparent, which reveals every detail of the wondrous mechanism of the human anatomy."

The figure, lit by electronically operated lights, will be used to demonstrate lectures of health, diet and hygiene.

Diamonds Worth Millions Shown by Paris Jewellers

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON

PARIS, June 14 (AP) — When Paris 's richest business district became 250 years old this month, women started on a window-shopping spree.

Diamonds worth tens of millions of dollars were on view as merchants on the Place Vendome celebrated the 250th anniversary of their square by putting their most valuable jewels on display.

It was in June 1700 that the "Sun King", Louis XIV, opened the plaza, in which his own statue was the centre-piece. He built only the facades of the buildings, and then hinted to his wealthy friends that they should buy the facades and build stores and business houses there. They did.

Louis XIV no longer watches from his pedestal, however. About 100 years after the Place Vendome was founded, Napoleon Bonaparte melted down 1200 captive bronze cannon and put his own likeness atop a tall stone column.

Thousands of Parisiens flocked down the world famous Rue de la Paix and into the Place Vendome for the birthday party. One display, in the Boucheron window, was a coat of arms in the 17th century style that Louis fancied. The insignia are in diamonds, totalling some 220 carats, and valued by Gerard Boucheron, its designer at some $200,000.

Nearby, the windows of the venerable firm of Mauboussin showed a veritable waterfall of diamonds worth nearly $1,000,000.

Just off the Place Vendome, named for one of the wealthy dukes of France who fought to protect Louis' crown, Cartier's exhibited one diamond necklac containing 20 perfect stones totalling 150 carats. Store officials declined to estimate its value, but $2,000,000, they said, "wouldn't even touch it."

There's little new in design in this most original of all the world's diamond markets, except possibly a trend to trinkets.

One of them was an inch-long jewelled insect, with a diamond back, ruby eyes and a gold nose. Price: $930.

Put Life Belts in That Boat

Boating is one of the favorite sports of this Kootenay; and naturally so, with its abundance of lakes, streams and rivers. The sport provides enjoyment for countless numbers, but, unfortunately, it too often brings tragedy for a few.

Boating need not be dangerous. Most boats are well constructed and safe under proper conditions of use. It is when they are mishandled that the sport becomes dangerous.

Few vacations in the Kootenay are complete without a boat. Small craft are particularly popular with the fisherman, the camper, the cottager, at Summer hotels and city waterfronts. Ignorance, poor judgment and foolhardiness cause many small craft tragedies each Summer. A few simple "don'ts" are easy to remember, and will help you to prevent these tragedies:

Don't stand up in a small boat.

Don't paddle a canoe from one end so that the bow is high out of the water.

Don't overload any boat — large or small.

Don't go out in stormy weather.

Don't shoot rapids.

Carry sufficient life-saving equipment.

Nelson Fish and Wildlife Protective Association—then the Rod and Gun Club—at one time sponsored a campaign for a "life belt with every fishing rod". It was a good campaign, and one that should be enthusiastically revived and continued with the support of every sportsman, boat owner, vacationist and resort operator.

1950 for the Prospector

This year, as another prospecting season rolls around, the men whose profession it is to scour the woods looking for the tell-tale gossans of a base metal outcrop or who anxiously scan a gold pan for the yellow flecks that may signal a new-found gold deposit, are heading into the bush with more confidence than they have known in the past few years. Financial markets have been bubbling lately, real cash is being deposited on the line for development deals, and claims in the popular areas are being traded at a relatively brisk pace. The Northern Miner sees these as all healthy omens for the prospector, and they mean that there will be a market for his wares if he should be lucky enough to make a find.

Although the true prospector does not make a fetish of concentrating his activities in those sections which have currently caught the public fancy, the economics of the business have taught him that he's got to have a saleable product. He has learned, for instance, that he can turn over a poor showing in a popular district much easier than a better one in a section that does not enjoy public recognition. This year's field party is, however, hemmed in by no such restriction, notes The Miner. The prospector can pick any one of a dozen favorite haunts and he's almost sure to land himself in an area held in high esteem by the mining public.

Gold will be the price object of search by most prospectors, but rising price trends have assured that any likely looking base metal prospects will not go begging for lack of a backer. There is a growing appreciation that there is good money to be made at current prices for silver. Doubling the price of uranium and extending the guaranteed period has revived the interest of prospectors who were beginning to feel that the search for radioactive minerals was a lost cause. Now they can see real profit possibilities in finding a deposit that can support a modest-sized operation.

The prospector's lot is never an easy one. Grubstakes don't grow on trees, but those who have been able to finance themselves for a season's work have reason to hope that this year's operations should yield a fair return, even if they don't find the Mother Lode.

Questions Hospital Insurance Cases

To The Editor:

Sir—I noticed in last Thursday's issue where five people were fined $5 for not paying Hospital Insurance.

Why were they let off for that sum when others have been fined $10? It seems very unfair, not real justice.

(Editor's note: In City Police Court, fines of $10 have been imposed but in Provincial Police Court convicted persons have been ordered to pay fines of $5 and costs of $4 for a levy comparable to the $10 fine.)

Another thing, the letter of another issue signed by a member of Doukhobors complain of putting their able-bodied men and women in jail. Do they think the taxpayers want that burden when there are so many decent people seeking homes to live in?

In no case does there seem any explanation as to what they should do when they burn their homes. I think they should be left to look after themselves and sleep under the stars.

If I deliberately burned my house the authorities would say I was insane and send me to a mental home.

Mrs. H. E. Rohde,

Sirdar, B.C.

Verse

B. C. Smallpox

The girl had a neat form, a delight to see
But her face drew pity from friends and me.
Smallpox had left it full of scars and sores
Like our B.C. roads, holes and hard cores.

Mother Victoria busy shelving sidewalks for night.
Father, "Lord provide," praying with all his might.
Doctor said, "Inoculate; diseases will pass by",
But none followed advise so fever raged high.

Now our roads are like this horrible face,
Both should have beauty and be happy in place.
So tourists raving over each mountain scene
Would fill our province with visitors keen.

Trucks must drive on our pock-marked roads,
Without drainage they break with heavy loads.
A three foot ditch on each side and you'll see
Hard surface will last; drive happy and free.

With top three feet dry, the whole road heaves,
Settles without cracks when Jack Frost leaves.
But when our highway is soaked to the crown
It's split and pulverized ere it settles down.

Must we follow and blaa like the docile sheep
Or inoculate with sense road men who sleep?
Make engineers use sense and drain our roads
So in Spring and Fall they will carry loads.

The parsons and priests would save more souls
If they worked on the road to heal the holes.
The way all the drivers quote from The Book,
St. Peter will turn away all with a B.C. look.

Labor's Rejection of Schuman Plan Causes Surprise, Concern

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Surprise and shocked concern, to put it mildly, have been caused in Western capitals by the action of Britain's Labor Party in calling for that country to eschew further plans for European political and economic union until continental countries have adopted socialism.

This would, of course, put an ideological damper on concerted rehabilitation projects like the sensational French Schuman plan for the pooling of Western Europe's coal and steel. Indeed, this sweeping proposal for unprecedented cooperation, which has aroused so much hope and optimism among the Western powers, seems to be the immediate objective of the socialist declaration.

The Labor Party doesn't speak officially for the Attlee Government. But that's a hair-splitting distinction, because, the party is master of the government which it creates.

However, Prime Minister Attlee took cognizance of the consternation caused by his party's edict and hastened to give an explanation in the House of Commons. He declared that his government wanted "to help and not to hinder" the Schuman plan. The prime minister held out hope that "the practical working out of the scheme will show ways by which the United Kingdom may be able to associate itself with this valuable piece of cooperation."

MUCH LEFT UNSAID

The point is that Britain has refused to commit herself in advance of hearing exactly what the continental countries propose in connection with the Schuman plan. The reason for this may be explained in the Labor Party statement regarding further programs for European political or economic union. This emphasized that European unity is not an "overriding end in itself" and that national sovereignty and Britain's obligations to her Commonwealth must come first.

The story as unfolded thus far leaves one with the feeling that there is much left unsaid. Britain is an active member of other cooperative organizations formed in Western Europe since the war.

Why then should she suddenly shy away from the steel-and-coal project which has held out so much promise for the strengthening of Western Europe?

It's a fair guess that John Bull is fearful on two scores: His steel and coal industries are among his greatest assets and the Schuman plan might hit him hard on the pocket-book. Further, the dollar-supplying Dominions have a decided interest in the extent of Britain's surrender of sovereignty in any such cooperative project, and they may have shown uneasiness.

Official Secrets Act Faces Change

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP) — The Government today gave notice the most spy-conscious session of Parliament in years is shortly going to be asked to study proposed changes in the country's espionage legislation.

Justice Minister Garson confirmed he will introduce at this session amendments to the Official Secrets Act, basis of the 1946 prosecutions in the Communist espionage probe. He placed a notice on the Commons order paper.

Hitherto the Government has said the amendments might be held up until a later session.

They are not expected to work any sweeping changes in the act but rather to tighten up loopholes. One is expected to provide for prosecution of Canadians who violated the Act outside Canada and later return home.

British Inaugurate New-Type Hospital

LONDON, June 14 (Reuters) — A Viennese doctor, who came to Britain just before the war, has revealed to psychiatrists and Health Ministry officials secrets of a new-type hospital here which claims to mend broken hearts, wipe out frightening blitz memories, and cure anxiety neuroses.

This pioneer hospital, at Hampstead, London, has been incorporated into Britain's national health services and its success will lead to the opening of similar hospitals elsewhere.

The doctor, Josua Bierer, believes thousands of men and women are certified insane and sent to mental hospitals when two weeks of sympathetic treatment might make them normal citizens again.

Dr. Bierer served in the British army during the war and dreamed then of the project which he has since supervised. He established his pioneer hospital in 1947, taking patients on a day-by-day, non-residential, basis.

His Deputy, Dr. E. N. Snowden, told visitors to the hospital:

"We catalogue everything about our patients—all aspects of their attitude to life and environment. Then we bring them into the scope of social activities like drama, music appreciation, art and handicrafts."

Dr. Snowden said they pinned their hopes to more day hospitals. At the pioneer hospital patients are treated by a team of eight specialist psychiatrists during the day, but go home each night. Thus these avoid the unnatural and depressing atmosphere of most mental hospitals.

Italians Resent War Comments

ROME, June 14 (Reuters)—Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza today told the Italian Cabinet Viscount Alexander's views on Italy's part in the war cotnradicted the recognition given in Italy's peace treaty with the Allies.

The views, published in the London Gazette, had belittled Italy's war effort, he said.

Now Governor-General of Canada, Lord Alexander was war-time Commander-in-Chief of the Allied armies in Italy. His dispatches said Italy came into the war only to be on the winning side. They have awakened hostility in both the left and right wing Italian press.

The right-wing independent Messaggero said publication of the documents seemed intended to imply that not much was to be expected of Italy and that other coutnries, perhaps Yugoslavia, were more worthy of Britain's friendship.

Coast Banker Wins Good Citizen Award

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — E. E. W. Rhodes, city banker, last night was presented the 1950 British Columbia "good citizen" award.

Presentation, on behalf of the B.C. Native Sons, Post Two, was made by Mayor Charles Thompson.

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP)—A party of six United Kingdom agricultural scientists and administrators, headed by Sir William Ogg, director of the Experimental Station at Rothamsted, England, will tour Canada this Summer as guests of the Canada Department of Agriculture.

The tour is a return call for the visit of Canadian agricultural scientists to the United Kingdom last year, and is part of a postwar movement toward the interchange of ideas related to the scientific and organizational aspects of agriculture.

Their itinerary includes an extended tour of the great St. Mary dam and canal system near Lethbridge, Alta.

They will also cisit representative farms from coast to coast, manufacturing and packing plants, experimental farms and stations, universities and agricultural colleges.

Two Girls Escape From Coast Fire

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — Fire last night destroyed a grocery and damaged three adjoining buildings. Cause of the blaze was undetermined, and neighbors reported sighting a "suspicious character."

Scene of the blaze, which did $10,000 damage to the store of Roy Kwong, was on the site of the proposed new Vancouver post office at Hamilton and Georgia Streets.

Miss Walsh, trapped by the flames, jumped from a second-storey window. Awning on the store front broke her fall and she was taken to hospital with bruises and shock.

MAKE JAM THE MODERN SHORT-BOIL WAY

SAVE TIME, WORK, MONEY

Compare These Two Methods —

WITH CERTO

1. Mrs. A. makes jam the short-boil way with CERTO. She has 2 pounds of fruit prepared, ready to start at 9 o'clock.

2. The dotted line shows level of the prepared fruit in Mrs. A's saucepan.

3. Mrs. A. adds 3 pounds of sugar. A pound of jam made with CERTO contains no more sugar than a pound made the old long-boil way.

4. Mrs. A. brings the mixture to a full rolling boil; boils hard ONE MINUTE only; removes from stove and adds ½ bottle (4 ozs.) Certo. CERTO is the natural jellying substance in fruit in concentrated form.

5. Mrs. A. is able to pour and paraffin about 5 pounds (10 glasses) of jam from her 2 pounds of fruit.
She gets sure results because she follows the CERTO recipe EXACTLY.

6. Mrs. A's 10 glasses of jam were made in just 15 minutes.

THE OLD WAY

1. Mrs. B. makes jam the old-fashioned long-boil way. She, too, is ready to start her jam making at 9 o'clock.

2. Mrs. B. starts off with the same amount of prepared fruit in her saucepan.

3. Mrs. B. uses the old "pound of sugar per pound of fruit" standard recipe. So she adds 2 pounds of sugar.

4. Mrs. B. boils the mixture about 30 minutes before the jam thickens to the desired consistency. This evaporates about ⅓ the weight of the fruit, darkens the color and carries off much of the natural fresh-fruit flavor in steam.

5. Mrs. B. pours and paraffins about 3 pounds (6 glasses) of jam from the same amount of fruit.
Until it is finished she cannot tell for sure how well her jam will turn out.

6. Mrs. B. took 45 minutes to make her 6 glasses of jam.

Free Recipe Book

Certo gave Mrs. A. sure results... much more jam... saved time, work and money.

Under the label of every bottle of CERTO is a book of 78 tested recipes for jams and jellies. Different fruits need different handling, so CERTO gives you a separate recipe for each fruit. Be sure to follow the simple directions EXACTLY.

Gray Creek Club Protests Woolens Shipment Route

GRAY CREEK, B. C., June 14—At the monthly meeting of the Porcupine Club, held at the home of Mrs. Norman Anderson, the Secretary reported that no dental appointment for the local children had yet been obtained.

A letter from Fairfield Mills advising that woollens should be shipped to Vancouver from this place aroused much discussion. It was felt that if the mills are in Winnipeg, this was unnecessarily costly. The Secretary was asked to write to Fairfield Mills and point out the great distance from Vancouver.

A letter from the Boswell and District Women's Club inviting Porcupine members to a tea was also read, and it was decided to accept the invitation.

A report on the Nickel and Dime Carnival was given by Hall Secretary Mrs. Lymbery. There was a general discussion on the Hall roof project. Mrs. Lymbery also reported that Miss Beth Oliver had received a letter from the National Film Board stating that settlements were now required to purchase or share in the district purchase of projecting equipment in order to enjoy the Film Service. Until further particulars were available the matter was laid over. It was felt, however, that the average local attendance at the film showings did not warrant raising funds for this object.

As a Club member, Mrs. Gibbs of Lakeview, is leaving the district, a farewell tea was arranged at the home of Mrs. Grant.

An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was the viewing of Mrs. Anderson's Spring garden, with its splendid tulips.

NAKUSP, B. C., June 14—In commemoration of the 25th year of Church Union the ladies' Aid of the Robertson Memorial United Church held a garden tea on the United Church manse lawn to which some 60 guests, members and adherents of the church and of the Anglican Church attended. The weather was ideal for this outdoor event.

A large table forming a "four way" had four silver tea sets where each of the following ladies poured tea. Mrs. R. H. LaRue, Mrs. E. W. Bill, Miss A. A. Allen and Miss Jean Fawcett.

The tables were bautifully decorated with white covers and gleaming silver and tulips in silver vases. In the centre was the two tier anniversary cake iced in white and silver. The cake had been made by the Secretary, Mrs. V. C. Smith and was cut by the President of the Society, Mrs. R. S. LaRue.

Rev. B. S. S. Hartley welcomed those attending, explaining the meaning of Church Union.

Mrs. T. Steenhoff and Mrs. J. Olsen were in their accustomed places, that of "making tea". Assisting were Mrs. H. L. Miller, Miss R. Hamer, Mrs. A. Giraude, Miss Fawcett, Mrs. H. Hainsworth, Mrs. B. The C.G.I.T. girls assisted in serving.

On Sunday evening a special service was held conducted by Rev. B. S. S. Hartley when the 25th Anniversary of Church Union plans and objections were outlined by the four-fold expression:

First—Humble thanksgiving to Almighty God for heritage and for the first 25 years of work and witness, here at home and in other lands;

Second — Sincere repentance for shortcomings, and a fuller dedication on the part of all people to Christ and His Kingdom;

Third—Personal recognition of the principle of stewardship of life and possessions and accountability to God for their exercise and use;

Fourth — Willing acceptance of christian obligation to aid in rebuilding the nation and world in the ways of righteousness and peace.

A dedication service followed when chimes and church bell amplifier was dedicated to the memory of the late A. Slater of Edgewood, and the late W. Wells (Mrs. Hartley's father), of Vancouver.

Special music and singing was enjoyed throughout the service.

Payment Through Canada Dodge a Legal Loophole

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—Sure, you can dodge U.S. transportation taxes by buying passenger tickets and paying freight bills in Canada.

But there's a catch: You've got to go to Canada to do it.

Payment through banks, mail or telegraph doesn't count.

The legal loophole to dodge the 3 per cent freight tax and the 15 per cent on passenger travel became widely known yesterday.

From Seattle, Wash., where the idea is catching on, came estimates that U.S. shippers such as the big railroad users would save millions of dollars.

Officials of the Bureau of Internal Revenue confirmed that the plan is legal, but doubted the savings would run so high. They figure that personal payment requirements will hold things down.

The loophole is in the wording of the Tax Act, which applies to the "amount paid within the United States."

What Congress will do to end the payments-through-Canada is uncertain.

Senator Magnuson (D., Wash.) had one way all figured out.

Kill the tax, he suggested.

Rev. T. T. Gibson To Take Over Duties at Nelson Church Sunday

REV. T. T. GIBSON

Rev. Theo. T. Gibson, B.A., who will preach his first sermon in the First Baptist Church at Nelson on Sunday, comes to this city from Vernon, where for the past four years he has been in charge of the Baptist congregation there.

Under his ministry at Vernon, a new church was built and dedicated some months ago, the exterior finishing having been rushed to completion early this month just prior to Mr. Gibson's departure. It is hoped by the Nelson congregation that under his ministry here an early start may be made on the building problem which is arising through the age of the local church building.

A native of Calgary, Mr. Gibson received his university training in University of Alberta and University of Manitoba, where he received honors degree in Classical Greek and English, afterward taking theological studies in Vancouver.

Ordained under the Baptist Union of Western Canada in Clive, Alta., in 1942, he went to South Hill Baptist Church in Vancouver, where he served until going to Vernon. During the last seven years he has also had an active part in denominational affairs, serving as secretary of the Convention of Baptist Churches of B.C.

Britain's Pool Plans Veiled

LONDON, June 14 (AP)—Britain intends to try to make "a contribution, if we can, at a later date," toward the Schuman plan for pooling Europe's coal and steel resources, State Minister Kenneth Younger today told Parliament.

But under heated questioning, the Minister refused to give any details of such a contribution, or even to say whether Britain intends to present a pool plan of her own.

Pranksters Add $255.67 to Fund

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 14—(CP) — A happy thought amounted to $255.67 arriving today for the city's Winnipeg Flood Relief Fund.

The Oregon Journal of Portland was the donator, handing over funds garnered from passengers homebound aboard a special train after the Journal's second annual cruise to Alaska on the Vancouver-based S.S. Prince George.

Pranksters in one of the lounge cars first set up a toll gate, demanding each passerby pay in small Canadian coins left over from the trip. Then they extended the toll to each of the 249 travellers with Canadian and American funds tossed into the flood relief pot.

Ship Ahoy!

Monday saw the final parade in the Armories of Hampton Gray V.C. Sea Cadet Corps, for the season 1949-50. Under Acting Commanding Officer Lieut. Graves, and Acting Executive Officer Lieut. Coletti, as well as other officers, McKay and Warrior, the cadets were given instructions regarding their attendance at Camp Latona.

At the conclusion of this parade, the newly formed Ladies Auxiliary to the Sea Cadet Corps, convened by Mrs. J. W. Longworth, provided refreshments for the cadets in the Mess, and the boys had a fine time to wind up their year. The singsong, in which all the cadets joined heartily, was led by Cadet Johnstone, while Petty Officer Lythgoe played the piano. Lieut. Graves entertained the boys with a talk on the splendid comradeship to be found in the Navy, and related some of his exciting experiences with sharks and flying fish while he was on duty in the tropics.

Cadets who are eligible to attend Camp Latona and Petty Officer Lythgoe who is going to Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, will leave about July 1 and will be away for two weeks at camp.

The thanks of the Navy League and Sea Cadet Committee, as well as the Officers and Cadets of Hampton Gray V.C. Sea Cadet Corps were extended to Sergeant Bannister of the 111th Heavy Ack Ack Field Battery, for his kindness in permitting the Corps parades to be held there while the Corps was without a "home" of its own.

It is confidently expected that this home will be provided by the opening of the September parades, when this column will again bring you news of your Nelson Sea Cadets.

Wynndel Miss Weds Vancouverite In Pretty Church Ceremony

WYNNDEL, B.C., June 13—Miss Arlene Velma Ogilvie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ogilvie of Wynndel, and Mr. Francis Patrick Gleeson (Frank), youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gleeson, 2915 West 8th Avenue, Vancouver, were the principals at a pretty wedding in St. Helen's Church, Wynndel, June 10. Father Doyle officiated.

The pretty blonde bride entering the church on the arm of her father looked charming in a gown of ice blue flowered organza featuring high neckline and tiny round collar with self covered buttons on front of tight fitting bodice and cap sleeves. The full skirt was floor length, and her blue fingertip veil fell from a halo of blue net and pink buds. Blue organza mittens and white shoes completed her ensemble. Her only ornament was a gold cameo pendant, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white satin ribbon.

Miss Dawn Huscroft as bridesmaid chose a gown of mauve nylon flowered net, fashioned with off-the-shoulder bertha puff sleeves and floor length full skirt with mittens to match. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a halo of mauve lace with tiny pink buds. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations and yellow streamers.

Shaun McLean of Vancouver supported the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held on the spacious lawn of the bride's parents.

The bride's mother wore a light grey gabardine suit with pink accessories, a corsage of pink carnations and pink rosebud. The groom's mother chose a navy gabardine suit with grey accessories and her corsage was pink carnations.

The serving table decorated with pink and white streamers was centred with a three tiered wedding cake, flanked by vases of white lilac. Mrs. Cherrington and Mrs. Packman poured. Mrs. Wigen cut the cake.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Gleeson, responded to by the groom.

For travelling, the bride wore a pale blue gabardine suit with top coat of dusty rose French crepe with navy accessories.

The honeymoon will be spent in California and on their return the young couple will make their home in Vancouver.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold signet ring, the bridesmaid and best man being remembered with an amethyst ring and cigaret case.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gleeson, Miss Peggy Gleeson of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hess, H. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Sithes, all of Cranbrook.

Do You Want a Girl?

Chicago, June 14 (AP) — A shoemaker who claimed an "unbelievable" method of predetermining the sex of children was told by a judge yesterday to stick to his last.

Anastas Calendar, 64, was before Judge Eugene Holland on a charge of distributing commercial advertising. The cards he passed out read: "Do you want a girl? My unbelievable method will guarantee your wish . . ."

The shoemaker said the "method" was a Greek potion given him by a Russian midwife purported to have predetermined the sex of a son for Czar Nicholas II of Russia.

Judge Holland fined Calendar $5 and costs and ordered his 200 cards destroyed.

Calendar, out of court, told reporters that if the wife drinks the brew before conception, she will have a daughter; if the husband drinks it, the baby will be a boy.

He appeared hurt when a reporter asked what happened if both wife and husband drank the potion.

New 'Phone Rates Effective JUNE 10

In an interim order, dated May 29, 1950, the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada authorized a new schedule of rates for the British Columbia Telephone Company. The new rates went into effect on June 10.

The next telephone bills received by subscribers will be based on the new rates. Because the billing dates vary with the different exchanges, most telephone bills will contain an adjustment between the old rates and the new for the period from June 10 to the billing date. In such cases, details will be shown on a statement enclosed with the bill. Because of these adjustments, the total rental charges on the first bill may be greater than on later bills.

"Dollar Discount" Abolished

As the "dollar discount" has been done away with, the amount to be paid by the subscriber is the amount shown on the bill. In other words, subscribers should not deduct $1 from the totals of their bills in making payment.

The surcharge on Monophones and desk telephones has been eliminated. This means that the charge is now the same for all kinds of telephone instruments.

New Rates Give 72.18% of Increase Sought

In its application to the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada on June 29 of last year, the Company requested approval of rates which would give an estimated increase in gross revenue of $2,261,741 per annum. The Board have now approved rates which will give the Company an estimated increase in gross revenue of $1,632,455 per annum, which is 72.18 per cent of the increase sought by it.

The new rates represent the first general increase received by the Company since 1921. The Company's application was based on increased costs.

ree Press News Exchange rong Force Against War

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP) — Free change of news around the be would be one of the strong- forces against war, Transport nister Chevrier today told the venth Imperial Press Confer- ce.

Chevrier, the Federal Minis- in charge of communications, e as about 80 delegates from Canada and other Commonwealth countries opened business sessions of the Empire Press Union at its first conference in Canada since 1920.

Mr. Chevrier said the main mission on the press was to interpret peoples and races and classes to each other.

"That mission would be more easily accomplished," he said, "if throughout the world today the dispatch of news was free and unfettered.

"Had we in these unsettled times the right to send news everywhere and the right to pick up news everywhere, I firmly believe we would have one of the strongest deterrents to war."

Mr. Chevrier indicated that he did not believe there should be any reduction in the intra-Commonwealth rates for the handling of press messages.

He said:

"The existing press rates of two cents a word is, of course, very definitely uneconomic. Consequently, I believe it is only fair to say that the Commonwealth countries have thus considerably aided your organization (the E.P.U.) in its laudable aim to draw us yet nearer together. . .

"The press organizations within the Commonwealth . . . have for some time enjoyed the benefit of the lowest press rates in the world."

Mr. Chevrier welcomed the Imperial Press conference deelgates on behalf of Prime Minister St. Laurent, who will address them tomorrow.

Pictured in their gay costumes are members of the Spokane Junior-Senior High School Square Dancing Group who will give a demonstration on how to "swing your partner" Friday evening in the Civic Centre.

About 30 boys and girls will give an hour's performance with their caller, F. W. (Red) Henderson and then mix with Nelson folks for an evening of square dancing.

The group is sponsored by the Nelson Rotary Club and the proceeds of the dance will be in aid of the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund.

Flood Areas Starts Tourist Campaign

WINNIPEG, June 14 (CP)—Hon. J. S. McDiarmid, Minister of Mines and Resources, announced today that Manitoba is launching a campaign to show that flood effects on her importance as a distributing, manufacturing and tourist centre were only temporary.

The campaign will have five main projects:

1. Letters pointing out industrial advantage here will go to 50,000 business men, bankers, Chambers of Commerce and Trade Associations in Canada, United States and United Kingdom;

2. United Kingdom and United States manufacturers will be urged to have products partially or wholly manufactured or assembled by Manitoba manufacturers;

3. Canadian and American financial and business editors will be guests of the Manitoba Government this Summer;

4. Manitoba will have an office at the first United States International Trade Fair at Chicago, Aug. 7-20; and

5. Letters will be sent to the 15,000 potential American tourists who had indicated before the flood they would visit Manitoba. They will advise of road conditions.

Warns on Canadian Trade Conditions

LONDON, June 14 (CP) — A warning on Canadian trade conditions was sounded today in the annual report of the Hudson's Bay Company.

"Prosperity in Canada is precariously balanced at the moment," Governor Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper said in the closing sentences of a statement on the Canadian economic situation.

"It is resting on a large export trade which, in spite of the Marshall Plan, is running into difficulties."

The Company's annual report and account for the year ended last Jan. 31, issued to shareholders in London today, show group revenues of £1,487,000 ($4,499,700) compared with £1,854,000, with adequate cover for a maintained dividend of eight per cent.

The trade warning follows references to the Dominion's great potential wealth in Prairie oil and in Labrador-Quebec iron ore.

French Communist Parade Subject for Deep Thought

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

We had seen the Eiffel Tower, the tomb of Napoleon, the Arc de Triomphe and the other things one must seen in Paris.

And so, on a bright recent Sunday, my friends thought I should see something different—a Communist parade in a working quarter.

That sort of brought one face to face with the narrow margin by which the Western way of life may win out, or could lose, on the war-torn continent of Europe. One got a glimpse of the anti-Western and especially anti-American propaganda that goes on.

For the United States is not loved; she is the rich person and even her best deeds are accepted grudgingly as nothing more than she should do, and perhaps something she is doing for her own good rather than for any one else.

SUBTLE CAMPAIGN

You will hear some of that in many, many circles overseas, even among people who don't really believe it—but among the Communists of their supporters it is a refined and subtle campaign.

The Communist parade that day was in a cause with which no one could quarrel. It was to honor workers who had died fighting the Germans in 1871; but somehow it became anti-American.

Banners proclaimed against the atom bomb—something, also, that every one is against; they showed terror-stricken children pleading with their parents to save them from the bomb; and somehow, all this, too, was directed against the United States. One never heard the suggestion that Russia need be approached on the matter.

And there were the peace petitions. They and the bomb placards didn't name any one but there seemed no question of the villain—the United States, of course.

In brief, all the appeals were for things to which virtually any one would ordinarily subscribe; the difference in opinion being as to whom they should be most urgently addressed.

I don't know how many thousands were in the parade or how many watched it; it might have been 30,000—it might have been more.

OUT FOR A WALK?

Possibly, in large degree, it was just a fine Sunday and possibly most of the people were simply out for a walk.

I have never believed, even in early post-war years, that France could possibly go Communist; or, if she did, it wouldn't be Communism any longer—French people are too individualistic for that.

But I couldn't help but feel that there were probably millions in Europe, including most of those I saw that day, who would have cheered if Russian Communism had not been stopped, for the time being at least, at its present frontier. One felt that many are not so sold on the Western way of life as are we and that, for them, whatever comes, it would not matter much.

One felt grateful for the recovery Europe has made; for the help given her by such things as the European Recovery Program. One felt that we have had so far a narrow escape.

Teen-Age Problem Challenges Faith

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — Wild teen-age gangs, a growing problem in Canada since the end of the war, are a "challenge to our faith in people," the Canadian Conference on Social Work was told last night.

These were the words of Saul Bernstein of Boston University who prescribed an "inside track" method—obtaining the cooperation and trust of youths—in dealing with hoodlum gangs.

"It's impossible to solve the 'gang problem 'in any city without the cooperation of the gangs themselves," he said. "All aspects must be thoroughly probed—then marshal all the help possible to combat the menace.

"Remember, you're not trying to destroy the gang. You're seeking the gang lever with which to work.

"Basically, all people are worthwhile," Mr. Bernstein concluded. "The gang problem is a challenge to our faith in people; to our skill; and to our pocket books—but it's not the cost it would be if the final end to the gang's behavior is a long prison term."

Turbulent River New Link With Ontario Industry

THESSALON, Ont., June 14 (CP) —The turbulent Mississaga River, long the servant of the fur trader, the lumberman and the sportsman, today forges a new link with Northern Ontario industry.

At the towering Tunnel Gorge, 15 miles Northeast of Thessalon and 44 miles East of Sault Ste. Marie, Premier Frost of Ontario will press a button harnessing the swirling waters to generators which will send 56,500 horsepower of electricity through power lines serving the nickel mines at Sudbury and gold mines in Northeastern Ontario.

The project, started in September, 1947, cost an estimated $16,600,000. Cost of transmission lines to major distributing points is estimated at $2,200,000. Its dam rises 235 feet above the rocky floor of the gorge. Only 186 feet wide at the base, it is 1000 feet across at the top. Two side dams confine low sections of the flooded forebay.

A large area 50 miles farther North at Rocky Island Lake was cleared for water storage. A tunnel 30 feet in diameter and 900 feet long was blasted through solid rock to divert the river during the construction job.

The Mississago River and its tributaries rise South of the height of land which divides the flow of water between Hudson and James Bays and the Great Lakes. Its mouth is near Blind River. At one time fur traders from the old Hudson's Bay post at Lacloche on Lake Huron went up the river to trade with Indians.

Japanese "Soft" Peace Terms Waiting Approval

LONDON, June 14 (AP) — Diplomatic officials say that only formal aproval now stands in the way for a British Commonwealth "soft" peace policy for Japan.

The policy is intended to induce Japan not to enter any alliance with Russia and Red China, they say. It was gareed on in detail at a 17-day conference of Commonwealth Governments here last month. It reverses the harsh punsh-Japan policy talked of two years ago at a conference in Australia.

The program favors a peace treaty that would deny Japan an army, a secret police force, or sercet bloodbond societies ,but it would allow Japanese police to be armed. Japan would-be confined to her main four islands, giving up pre-war overseas possessions.

Japan would have her sovereignty restored and would not have to pay reparations, under the Commonwealth plan.

London's 1951 Festival Reaches Skeleton Stage

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 14 (CP) — Something spectacular is going to take place in Britain next year, but politicians are of two minds whether it will be good or bad for the country.

From May to September, 1951, this tight little island will officially and somewhat self-consciously signal its peacetime recovery with a project known as the Festival of Britain. At least £10,000,000 ($31,000,000) will be spent.

The centrepiece will be a 30-acre site in London, a stone's throw from Waterloo Bridge, at a cost reported to be £6,000,000. This will tell Britain's story in various kinds of exhibits.

A mile or so up the River Thames will be a pelasure garden in Battersea and, says an official announcement, "all sorts of entertainments." Special rvier craft will link the two sites.

LIVE ARCHITECTURE

In the badly-bombed East End, in the heart of teeming dockland, there will be a £1,600,000 development scheme eventually to be named Lansbury, after the late George Lansbury, a celebrated Labor leader. Visitors wil lsee apartments, houses, maisonettes, schools and a shopping centre forming what is called the "live architecture" section of the exhibition.

Today, less than a year before its scheduled opening, the South-bank site is a shambles of skeleton buildings.

Complaints are that the Festival buildings "drink" cement, while private builders can't get any; that the south-bank site is only about one-sixth of the size of Britain's great exhibition of 1851, and therefore it wont' have room for all who want to see it; and that vast traffic jams in the centre of the city will be inevitable if the show catches on with the public.

Gen. Lord Ismay, chairman of the Festival Council, admits he has met problems as tough as any he encountered in helping to plan the invasion of Normandy during the Second World War. But the work goes on.

Fruits, Vegetables Plentiful, Local Eggs Scarce

Nelson and district grocery stores have been kept well supplied with an abundance of fruits and vegetables which arrived at local warehouses during the last week.

From California came cars of new potatoes, bananas, oranges, mixed fruits and vegetables including canteloupe, watermellon, lettuce and celery. Green onions were the only vegetable being supplied locally.

Meat supply warehouses reported the arrival of the usual two cars of fresh and cured meats. Local eggs were scarce and did not meet requirement, they said, but Alberta eggs were being shipped in.

For the ranchers and farmers, one car of bulk oats reached grain dealers.

Housewife Takes Jail Sentence Rather Than $25 Fine

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — Fifteen days in jail rather than a $25 fine was chosen today by a Vancouver housewife convicted of wilful damage.

Mrs. Elsie Gill, 37-year-old laborer's wife, was charged with breaking a $24.96 lamp in a dispute over a $1 refund from electrical dealer Jack Koven.

Mrs. Gill said the hotplate element she bought wouldn't work. Koven declined a refund but offered to exchange it for another item of the same value. It was charged Mrs. Gill swept the lamp off a table in the argument.

"I'll take the jail, your worship," she said quickly on sentencing.

"As you wish," said Magistrate McInnes.

To Continue Subsidy On Bacon Contract

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP)—The Government plans to continue beyond June 30 a subsidy of 3½ cents a pound on bacon required to fill a 60,000,000-pound contract with the United Kingdom.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner told the Commons shortly after a Cabinet meeting yesterday that the Government has decided to continue the subsidy beyond the previously-announced termination date of June 30. Payment of the subsidy will continue at least until the U. K. contract requirements are filled.

"All other regulations with regard to the handling of pork products will go along in the same manner as they are going along now," he said. This was interpreted as meaning that there will be no early removal of the ban on the export of pork products to the United States.

Paintings Added to National Gallery

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP)—An oil painting by the 19th-century historic painter, Carl Weimar, has been added to the National Gallery's permanent collection.

H. O. McCurry, gallery director, today told a meeting of the gallery board of trustees that the painting, which depicts the abduction of Daniel Boone's daughter by Indians, was the gift of Kathleen Agnew of Victoria. Her family has been in possession of the painting for nearly a century.

Other gifts include a painting by the 19th-century Canadian artist F. A. Verner of "Ojibway Indians — Lake Superior."

The water color was presented by Miss Tudor Monti-Zambert of Ottawa, in memory of Mrs. Noulan Cauchon, also of Ottawa.

A third painting, a portrait of the Toronto woman sculptor, Frances Loring, was given the gallery by Florence Wyle of Toronto. The portrait was done by Lilias Newton of Montreal.

The trustees discussed the question of a site for the new National Gallery.

6 Rescued From Jungle Crash

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, June 14 (AP)—Italian armored cars battled through thick, lion-infested jungles today and rescued six Americans whose plane crashed near the Somaliland border Sunday.

Radio advices received here said the Americans were taken to Belet Uen, about 35 miles from the scene of the crash. An Ethiopian Airlines plane was waiting there to fly them to Addis Ababa.

Earlier radio reports said all were alive but gave no names. Capt. Donald C. Colins of Los Angeles, Ethiopian Airlines pilot, had dropped medicine and food at a spot where the plane's wreckage was believed sighted.

The plane was a single-engined Norseman type chartered by the Rogers Ray Company, an American firm which transports supplies and personnel to the camp of the Sinclair Petroleum Company in distant Ogaden Desert.

The plane left Mogadiscio, Somaliland, Sunday morning. Nothing was heard from it until faint garbled radio messages were picked up by the camp, which relayed them to Addis Ababa.

More Men Today Care for Nails

EDMONTON, June 14 (CP) — More and more men are falling in line with women in the professional care of their fingernails, says Edmonton manicurist Ruth Natichak.

Nearly one-third of her clients now are men, she says. Most are business and professional men getting a manicure "for a special occasion."

Miss Natichak attributes the trend mostly to less conservatism in today's males.

"Younger men go in for brighter colors, more daring styles. They take more pains to be completely turned out."

Ruest's Nephew Questioned on Former Statement

QUEBEC, June 14 (CP)—A young nephew of Genereux Ruest, 51-year-old watchmaker, Maurice Michaud, 16—was taken to task by crown prosecutor Noel Dorion at Ruest's preliminary hearing today because he could not remember whether his uncle at one time had used the word "watch" or "bomb." Ruest is charged with murder in the Sault au Cochon air disaster.

The uncle's remarks came soon after J. Albert Guay, 32-year-old jeweller, was arrested on a murder charge. Guay was convicted of the murder of his wife who died with 22 others in the plane crash caused by a time bomb. He was sentenced to be hanged June 23 but the date was set back to Jan. 12 when Ruest was arrested on a similar murder charge.

Young Michaud said Ruest's remarks were made after the uncle had been informed police found paraffin in Ruest's room.

Michaud quoted Ruest as saying: "I don't care; there was none of it in the'—watch or bomb, I don't remember which he said."

The French words "montre" (watch) and "bombre" (bomb) have a similarity in sound.

Mr. Dorion informed Michaud that when he was questioned by police he had declared Ruest said "bomb."

Michaud insisted he could not remember which word was used.

Declares S. Africa Sits on Volcano

CAPETOWN, June 14 (Reuters) —South Africa was told today by Justice Minister Charles Swart that "a secret organization among the natives, led by Communists" is preparing a coup on a date yet to be selected.

Moving second reading of the Government's suppression of Communism bill, he told the House of Assembly that members of the organization have been trained and placed in the most important departments of public life.

On a given date one man would poison water supplies, another would cut off power and light, others were ready to murder persons they want "out of the way."

"We in South Africa are sitting on a volcano," he said.

Rising Fraser Claims $17,000 Bank Protection

MISSION, B.C., June 14 (CP) — The rising Fraser River claimed a $17,000 bank protection project at Agassiz in the Lower Fraser Valley today as the water edged past the 19-foot mark here and to within one foot of the danger point.

Continuing hot weather in the Fraser basin of the interior gave every indication that Friday may see the river pass the mark.

Trucks worked pouring ballast at Agassiz, dumping rock on the bank threatened by the current that already has swirled away one protection layer.

There is little indication the present hot streak, beating down on the above-normal snow heaps of the interior mountain peaks, will end immediately.

At Princeton, the Tulameen River already is lapping at several low-lying houses at the bottom of the town while the Similkameen River rose 18 inches in the last 24 hours to within six inches of its bank tops.

Bruce Dixon, provincial diking inspector, said today the Fraser should rise for another three days but that "there is no danger of a Fraser River flood yet." He said, however, the next few days would be crucial.

Doubts Soviet Use Of Atomic Energy

MANCHESTER, England, June 14 (Reuters)—Doubts that Russia has found ways to use atomic power industrially is voiced today in a news story published by the Manchester Guardian.

The article recalls reports from Russian satellite countries last December that Russia's imminent plants for atomic application included one to divert the flow of several Siberian rivers by moving entire mountains.

Today's story says that for many months Moscow radio avoided either confirming or denying the December reports. Then, June 4, the radio made its first reference to the Siberian scheme—without mentioning atomic energy.

Movie Gossip—

TV Opens Hollywood's Eyes To Canada's Alan Young

(For vacationing Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD, June 14 (AP) — Three months ago the movies wanted Alan Young in only one role—that of a paying fan.

"I couldn't even get arrested in a radio then," said the Vancouver comedian.

Today alomst every studio in town has bid for him. And with the plumb of a beauty contest judge he has just chosen Universal-International. That studio not only wants to star him in a movie but also wants him—and his two writers—to create the story.

Why the sudden change of the Hollywood heart?

On March 14, "The Alan Young Show" was first seen on the more than 500,000 television screens here. Some of those screens are in movie producers' homes.

On March 14, Hollywood "discovered" Alan Young.

SAME ALAN

The discovery, of course, was the same Alan Young who had starred in his own radio network comedy show both here and in Canada.

It was the same Alan Young who was under contract at 20th Century-Fox Studio for three years until they dropped him. Remember him as "Margie" and as Clifton Webb's sophomore roommate in "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College"?

HAS FORTE

The television Alan Young is a comedian the radio and movie Alan Young didn't know existed. His natural gift for pantomime, lost in radio except to studio audiences, is magnificently evident in television. His feeling for mimicry and situation comedy are suggestive of Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd, although his style is strictly his own.

What does his family in Vancouver think of his success?

"I had to learn to play the bagpipes for a recent sketch. My father is staunchly Scottish. I came across from Edinburgh myself wearing the kilt when I was six. Well, I called up dad to tell him I was working. He didn't say much until I played the bagpipes over the phone. I heard a proud sight, and then he said, 'Lad, ye played the pipes!'"

Six Basic Needs To Avert Strikes

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — Higher wages and shorter hours are not the real grounds for labor disputes, Dr. J. C. Hewson, believes.

He told the Engineering Institute of Canada here that the basic needs of workers are intangible.

"They get mad first, and then find something to strike about."

Dr. Hewson, an industrialist psychologist with a firm of management engineers, lists six basic needs for a man to be happy in his job that never come up for labor bargaining. These are affection, a sense of belonging and recognition, independence, social approval, self respect and variety with occasional excitement.

"The plan should include the eventual goal that the man should try for and will probably reach, the route he will take in getting there, and the training he will have to take, and a time-table outlining approximately how long it will take him to go from position to position."

N. Z. Widens Scope of New British Migration Scheme

By J. C. GRAHAM
Canadian Press Correspondent

WELLINGTON, N.Z., (CP) — Faced with a decline in the flow of unmarried migrants from Britain and a continued acute labor shortage, New Zealand has widened the scope of its assisted migration scheme in a bid to get the cream of Britons wishing to settle abroad in Commonwealth countries.

Because of the housing shortage, New Zealand has so far limited its post-war immigration scheme to single men and women under 35 and skilled in various occupations for which there is an unsatisfied labor market in the Dominion. Most of them have had to pay part of their fares.

Now the upper age limit has been extended to 45 and married workers with up to two children can qualify for passage. In addition, all those selected will have the whole cost of their fares paid by the New Zealand Government. New Zealand will also seek unmarried skilled workers in Europe.

2500 ANUALLY

At present, only about 2500 migrants a year are being brought to the country under Government schemes. It is hoped to step up the number to 10,000, but transport and housing problems will not make it possible for this target to be reached for a year or more. Married workers at first will be limited to those recruited for hydro-electric construction schemes and workers for building and similar industries.

In spite of its accommodation problems, however, New Zealand will again accept from the International Refugee Organization this year 1000 displaced persons, including a proportion of elderly people beyond the age to be of economic value to the country. The Dominion made a similar gesture last year as a contribution to the solution of the refugee problem.

The decision to include elderly people, banned from drafts accepted by most countries, was hailed as a fine humanitarian action by families in camps throughout Europe last year who faced disruption on account of age limits.

Protests Against Short Shorts

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP)—Protests against the wearing of shorts by women and men on city streets have been lodged with Ottawa's Board of Control by four Roman Catholic organizations.

The groups asked the Board last night for a bylaw forbidding the public from wearing such apparel in any city area with the exception of bathing beaches.

Organizations protesting were: The Federation Canadienne Francaise: St. Jerome Society, St. Brigid's Church; the Girl Guide Company of St. Mary's Parish and the Sacred Heart League of St. Brigid's Church.

The Board deferred action.

"If you start trying to legislate what people should wear you are in for a thin time," said Controller C. E. Pickering.

NO TRUTH IN MURDER REPORT, UCLUELET

VICTORIA, B.C., June 14 (CP)—Reports of a slaying at the Ucluelet Indian reserve were discounted today by Provincial Police who now are investigating a drunken brawl, nothing more.

Police at Nanaimo quashed the report of the death after further information was received from the West coast Vancouver Island fishing village.

They said an Indian tentatively identified as Solomon Peters, or Peter Solomon, was knocked unconscious in a fracas. This, somehow, touched off reports of "murder."

Occupational Thera py Hospital, Ont., Unique in North America

MALTON, Ont., (CP)—Railway tracks run through a hospital room in this town 10 miles from Toronto and there's a box-car ladder bolted to a wall. Another room has huge tree trunks fixed in the earthen floor.

They're in the Ontario Workmen's Compensation Board Occupational Therapy Hospital, where injured workmen fit themselves to go back to their jobs.

A railway brakeman who fractured both elbows in a fall from a moving box-car climbs a regulation ladder, couples and uncouples a real air line between imaginary cars and walks on the top of a simulated swaying car. A lineman who was hurt in a 40-foot fall from a pole climbs higher each day to regain use of injured muscles and to overcome possible nervousness.

The hospital is said to be unique in North America because it is the only one which offers such a wide range of occupational therapy and it is the only one of its kind at which patients stay for a 24-hour day.

LARGE TURNOVER

The hospital currently has 460 patients. It admitted 3014 last year and discharged 3,056. Superintendent Ian Campbell credits it with reducing the rate of permanent disability from industrial accidents in Ontario. In 1948 2000 of the 180,000 persons hurt in accidents were permanently disabled. In 1921 the number was 3000 out of 40,000.

The hospital has attracted wide attention. Delegations come from all over the world to see it in operation. Governments and United States colleges send students here for courses. The government of India is sending a girl student next month.

Goodfellow Coach Of Black Hawks

CHICAGO, June 14 (AP)—Ebenezer (Ebbie) Goodfellow today signed a three-year contract to coach Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League.

The new Hawk pilot, who managed St. Louis Flyers of the American Hockey League for the last two years, succeeds Charlie Conacher, who resigned to devote his time to business affairs in Toronto.

Goodfellow, 44, is a native of Ottawa. He was a star in the NHL for 14 years, playing centre and defense for Detroit Red Wings. He won the most valuable player trophy in 1939-40 and was twice chosen for all-star honors. Later he served as assistant to Jack Adams, manager of the Red Wings.

Goodfellow takes over a difficult assignment with the Hawks, since the team finished in last place three out of the last four years.

He brought St. Louis from last place to the championship of the Western division of the league by the end of the 1948-49 season. Last season his St. Louis team finished third in the league, but lost out in the playoffs to Indianapolis, which went on to capture the post-season championship.

Try to Renew Rose Bowl Pact

VICTORIA, B.C., June 14 (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference will try to renew its Rose Bowl Pact with the Big Ten on a basis of each conference sending its best team to the New Year's Day Classic each year.

This word came unofficially today from the final session of the Summer meeting of the P.C.C., just before delegates headed for a Seattle-bound boat. None would be quoted as confirming or denying the report.

In the past, the Big Ten (Western Conference) has limited any of its teams to one Rose Bowl appearance every three seasons, while the Coast Conference always has sent its champion. The report today killed rumors the P.C.C. might compromise on a limit of two years for Rose Bowl appearances by any team in either Conference.

Yachts Ready for 635-Mile Newport to Bermuda Race

By TOM HORGAN

NEW PORT, R. I., June 14 (AP)—Stiff international competition loomed tonight as a record fleet of small but sturdy sailing yachts assembled for Sunday's start of the 17th 635-mile race from Newport to Bermuda.

Names of 59 schooners, yawls, ketches, sloops and cutters are on the entry list, compared with the previous record of 44 set in 1936.

Included are six owned by the Royal Navy's Yacht Club. Special rivals are six craft sailed by midshipmen of the United States Naval Academy.

The Cruising Club of America has divided the contestants into three divisions, getting away at 15-minute intervals.

Easily the blue ribbon salt-water event of the year, since the passing of the America's Cup races, the long dash to Bermuda was inaugurated in 1906.

Best time for the course—two days, 23 hours, 35 minutes—was set in 1932 by the 61-foot cutter Highland Light, then privately owned, but now a Naval Academy entry.

Athletics Trounce Tigers 8-2 End 7-Game Losing Streak

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Philadelphia Athletics ended a seven-game losing strec at the hands of League-leading Detroit Tigers yesterday whe they trounced the Detroit Tigers 8-2 in an American Leagu fixture.

The National League meanwhile had its greatest batt with the weather when three games—Pittsburgh at New Yor Chicago at Brooklyn and Cincinnati at Boston—were rained out.

The setback did not cost the Tigers anything in their first-place American League duel with the New York Yankees, who dropped their second straight decision to Chicago White Sox 5-2 and still remained a half game behind the Detroit Club.

Left-hander Lou Brissie turned in a six-hit pitching job for the Athletics. Brissie, who failed to finish his last three starts, was rough on the Detroiters as none got more than one hit.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout, the Detroit starting hurler, came up against some heavy stickwork. He was battered for five runs and six hits in five innings to receive his first defeat after four straight triumphs. Hal White and Montreal's Paul Calvert finished up for Detroit.

Joe Page failed for the second straight day as Dave Philley greeted the ace reliever with a three-run homer in the last of the ninth to give Chicago the nod over the Yankees. Philley's smash climaxed a rally in which the White Sox scored four times after two were out and bases empty.

The win was the fourth in succession for Chicago, their longest winning streak of the season. The long drive earned Bill Wight the decision over Allie Reynolds. Wight had yielded only six hits to nine for the Yankee righthander until the explosive finish.

Cleveland defeated Boston 7-3, in a five-home-run game. Larry Doby, Al Rosen and Lou Boudreau hit four-baggers for the Indians and Vern Stephens and Ted Williams hit round-trippers for the losing Red Sox. It was the fourth victory for Mike Garcia, who gave up only five hits.

The lone National League game played saw Max Lanier hold Philadelphia Phillies to six hits as St. Louis Cards won their seventh straight game by a 4-2 count. It was Lanier's fourth victory in a row and increased the Red Birds' League lead to 3½ games over the idle Dodgers.

In an American League nighter Washington Senators turned on t St. Louis Browns and won the b game 4-1 with a four-hit pitchi performance by Chico Marrero.

Washington thus broke the after losing seven straight to t Brownies, including a doublehea er Tuesday night.

Nelson's Youngest Golfer

GAIL WARREN

All set and ready for a drive straight down the fairway is little Edith Gail Warren, an ardent Nelson golfer of the "youngest set."

Gail, who will be four years old in August, took the sport in hand about a year ago and has been going strong since. The petite golfer has her own set of clubs and takes to the Nelson Golf and Country Club putting greens every morning and afternoon. She seems to be following in the footsteps of her father, A. C. Warren, greenskeeper, who instructs Gail in the know-how of the sport.

Mrs. Warren said Tuesday that Gail even drives the tractor from one green to another when she is helping Dad with the greenskeeping.

Gail's parents have been caretakers at the club house and fairways for over a year, coming here from Calgary.

Wounded Veteran To Test Channel Swim

DENNIS PORT, Mass., June 14 (AP)—A 44-year-old wounded war veteran who swam his way back to health may be the "Cinderella Man" of the 1950 English Channel sweepstakes.

George (Scotty) Fraser, a stocky Glasgow native, will sail tomorrow from New York with little money but lots of courage.

He is lured by more than the prospect of fame and fortune. He wants to show disabled veterans the restorative powers of swimming.

He owes his own rehabilitation largely to rediscovery of a hobby—swimming. He came to this Cape Cod town in 1946 to rest and recuperate from scars of war, both mental and physical.

As a Merchant Marine officer he spent months under enemy attack and suffered a severe leg wound when German planes blasted his North Atlantic convoy in 1944.

Swimming returned him to health. Now he works as an aircraft welder.

"I feel confident that I can make the Channel," he said today, "If I get an even break in the weather. I'd like to help disabled fellows to overcome their disabilities through swimming and this will give me my chance to show what it can do for them."

The ruddy Scot scales 148 pounds and stands five feet, six inches.

June 8, he negotiated the treacherous tides and current of Nantucket sound in a nine-mile swim between West Chop on Martha's Vineyard Island to Falmouth on the mainland. Only one person did it before. Two men were drowned trying to make it in 1923. In temperature and fierceness, the seas on that swim rival those of the English Channel.

"If I make it I want to give half of any money I might realize to help disabled veterans or handicapped children."

Then with a switch of mood he added:

"And I want to come back in the kilt."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

T E B Z R A G R , L E K — R A E B Z R U Z E Q Z .

Daily Mail Editor Re-Joins Express

LONDON, June 14 (CP)—Frank Owen, rated one of the top go-getters in Fleet Street, is going back to the newspaper with which he started his career in journalism.

Big, burly Owen, editor of the Daily Mail from 1947 to May 1950, is joining the Daily Express as a columnist.

The Mail and the Express, both opposed to the Labor Government, have long been bitter rivals among London's popular newspapers.

Owen, 43, was elected Liberal member of Parliament in 1929 and shortly after joined the Express. He rose from reporter to chief editorial writer and in 1938 became editor of the Evening Standard, stable companion of the Express in the group of newspapers owned by Canadian-born Lord Beaverbrook.

Market Trends

NEW YORK (AP)—A series of selling flurries kept on the defensive today.

Trading volume tended to expand when prices were on the way down and to slow on the comeback. Turnover touched a rate of about 1,900,000 shares for the full session.

Canadian issues gained with Hiram Walker adding ⅝ and Distillers Seagrams climbing ½. Canadian Pacific, Dome Mines and McIntyre were unchanged.

MONTREAL (CP) — A stronger trend prevailed in active trading near the final hour today.

Moderate advances dominated the industrial section.

Mines and Western oils followed the trend. Anacon, Ascot and Anglo-Canadian oils each gained around 10 cents in active trading. Belle-Chiboug and Pan Western oils, also in good demand, were firm.

TORONTO (CP)—Prices rode the roller-coaster today.

Market leaders bounced between the plus and minus columns in the highly irregular dealings. Activity continued at the rapid rate of recent markets with low-priced mining stocks accounting for much of the turnover. Volume was about 3,200,000 shares.

LONDON (Reuters) — London showed hesitancy today and price movements were generally to slightly lower levels.

Business in British Government stocks was checked by a disposition to await the terms of the British coal stock to be issued as compensation for nationalization of collieries.

Feature of the international section was a sharp rise in Canadian Pacific Common to $31¼ on rumors of an oil strike in Alberta.

MONTREAL, June 14 (CP) — Trading was quiet on the bond market.

Dominions, Provincials, Municipals and Corporations were generally unchanged.

Possible Strike No Bearing on C.M.H.C. Action

VANCOUVER, June 14 (CP) — A spokesman for the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation said today the threat of a lumber strike had no bearing on the cancellation of construction of 280 homes in British Columbia.

This was erroneously reported yesterday by The Canadian Press.

J. Allan Jones, C.M.H.C. regional supervisor, said: "The possibility of a strike had nothing to do with our cancelling plans for building. Bids by builders on the projects were higher than the amount we have to spend."

The Corporation announced tenders have been withdrawn for homes at the Fraserview project here, at Sea Island, Chilliwack and Esquimalt.

CANBERRA (CP)—P. H. Allen, new official dingo destroyer in Australia's Northern territory, figures on an average of 100 dingo scalps a week. With his salary, camping allowance and bounties, at that rate he would make about £6000. ($18,600) a year—twice as much as the administrator of the territory.
