Two Trail Rinks Alone Unbeaten After Bonspiel Upsets

ROSSLAND, B. C., Jan. 31—A. M. Chesser and O. H. Hill, both of Trail, tonight were the only rinks remaining undefeated as the second days' play of this British Columbia Bonspiel closed.

The Trail foursomes had won five games each in the sectional qualifying round. Just behind with five wins, one loss each were Reg Stone of Trail, K. Comesotti of Rossland, Frank Avery of Vancouver, and L. F. Tinling of Nelson. Donald MacDonald of Trail had won four and lost two.

Top 16 winners in the sectional round robin play enter the British Columbia championship events. Top second and third groups of 10 each enter the three primary events.

Tonight's event saw a dramatic defeat for a three-man Nelson rink over Donald MacDonald of Trail. Walt Tozer, Dave Cathcart and Archie Malcolm defeated the Trail foursome 12-6. Their skip, Fred Tinling, was sent to hospital here for at least an overnight rest when he apparently caught cold in his back. It was hoped he might leave hospital tomorrow.

Another surprise was the 11-10 defeat administered Reg Stone of Trail by Tom Feeney of Rossland. It was Stone's first defeat in five games. Feeney started off with a big five in the first end, when Stone whittled his lead to finally go ahead in the seventh. But Feeney scored three in the eighth to again go ahead, 10-8. Stone's two in the ninth tied it up. Feeney had last rock but didn't need it. He had moved Stone's rock in such manner that the Trailite had to make an angle raise on his last rock, but he was a little light.

The day also saw Donald MacDonald fall before Storm Maartman of Kimberley and Clyde Seccombe of Rossland hand Fred Tinling his first defeat in four games. MacDonald had another close call when he met A. F. Snowball of Trail who led 8-7 in the ninth, but succumbed 9-8 when MacDonald drew him for two.

CLOSE PLAY

There were several other tight games. Tied coming home Frank Avery of Vancouver took another close entry, Dave Garnham, 8-6. The Avery rink is skipped by B. Cartmell. Also tied coming home were Bruce Vermiere of Rossland and A. M. Chesser of Trail, the latter winning 8-7. E. Perkins of Rossland lost a couple of games at least by one point.

The last draw of the night at 11:15 was cancelled to enable flooding of the ice sheets, the condition of which bothered the curlers throughout the day. Below zero temperatures also continued to give the curlers a rough time.

Wednesday's draws follow:

7:30 a.m.—E. Avery vs. Feeney; Chesser vs. Morrison; Phillips vs Snowball; Maartman vs. Jones; Topping vs. Hill; Hamson vs. Comesotti.

9:45 a.m.—MacDonald vs. Perkins; Davis vs. Seccombe; Wright vs. Vermiere; F. Avery vs. Caughlin; Cartmell vs. Gill; Cameron vs. McGhie.

12 noon—Snowball vs. Tinling; Pollock vs. Rose; Feeney vs. Fowler; Morrison vs. Wright; Stone vs. Chesser; Hill vs. Maartman.

... Drive . . . Br... United States, Canadian's Best Markets

NIAGARA, FALLS, Ont., Jan. 31 (CP)—Agriculture Minister Gardiner said today the future of the Canadian farmer "so far as the sale of surpluses are concerned," could be determined by policies now followed by Britain and the United States.

Natural markets for most of Canada's five major farm products—wheat, hogs, cattle, milk and eggs—still are in those countries, he told the 14th annual meeting of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

Mr. Gardiner said the British policy affected Canada most directly because of Britain's determination to build up a dollar reserve of $2,000,000,000 by 1952. The British dollar-shortage already had cost Canada some food contracts.

"It will be to our interests as farmers to have Britain in a position in 1952 where she meet her adverse dollars balance without depending upon assistance from others", he said.

Canada had attempted to meet the situation where trade was off balance with a $1,250,000,000 loan to Britain and was encouraging the purchase of United Kingdom goods for dollars.

Under the American policy, Mr. Gardiner said, he trusted that the United States would be successful in attempting to save Canada's natural markets when arranging bargain sales to European countries under the Marshall plan.

Another phase of Canadian policy, was a drive to sell Canadian products in every part of the world where dollars could be obtained as payment.

On the future of the British market, he said it was still taking about $400,000,000 worth of Canadian farm products and was still the best outside market and prospects were that it would continue to be Canada's best market.

He said Canada would lose but $30,000,000 in 1950 from the British market compared with what we had in 1949 if we lose all we are asking for and did not get.

"It is up to every organization, Farmer, Provincial, Federal and particularly private business, to prove ourselves capable of meeting a situation involving so small a sum without ruining the best market business in Canada—the farm".

Bidault Wins New Vote of Confidence

PARIS, Jan. 31 (AP) — The French National Assembly today approved a record budget for 1950 and gave Premier Georges Bidault a new vote of confidence.

The budget, as finally approved, calls for expenditures of 2,238,000,000,000 francs (about $6,300,000,000) and receipts of 2,118,000,000,000 francs, leaving a dificit of 20,000,000,000 francs which the Government promised to make up by economies.

FOURTH VOTE

It was Bidault's fourth clear-cut vote of confidence of the day. On another issue the Assembly vote had been a tie, but under parliamentary rules, the Government had not lost on the confidence issue.

The official tally was 293 to 293. By this the National Assembly refused to adopt the Cabinet's figure on 1,095,000,000,000 francs (about $3,120,000,000) for non-military expenses of the Government.

Bidault was not obliged to resign because of the tie. To force him to resign the combined opposition — Communists, De Gaullists and right wingers — would have needed an absolute majority, or 311 votes.

The final vote was reported unofficially as 300 to 284, the widest margin for Bidault in a series of five confidence votes on his budget policies upon which he staked his three-month-old Government.

MILK SALES INCREASE

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — Canadian farmers sold 340,191,000 pounds of fluid milk and cream during November, an inrcease of 7,000,000 pounds over the same month in 1948.

The November figure brought total fluid milk and cream sales during the first 11 motnhs of 1949 to 3,725,223,000 pounds, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. It represented an increase of 54,000,000 pounds over the same period the year before.

PURCHASE HOTEL CHAIN

BOSTON, Jan. 31 (AP) — Sheraton Corporation, $63,000,000 hotel chain, tonight announced its purchase of "full operating control" of the $15,000,000 Cardy hotel chain in Canada.

NEW FREIGHT RATE BATTLE STARTS THURSDAY

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — Advocates and opponents of higher rail freight rates were lining up their forces today for a new phase of their long battle.

They claim again Thursday when the railways attempt to boost their latest general rate increase — obtained last Sept. 20—from eight to 20 per cent.

Lined up against the railways before the Board of Transport Commissioners will be the seven provinces—all except Ontario, Quebec and Newfoundland — which have been fighting rate hoists since the carriers made their first post-war move in that direction late in 1946.

The Forum will be the Board's re-opened hearings on the 1948 railway application that led to last September's award of an "interim" eight-per-cent increase to the companies. The review of that award is being made in line with a judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Quebec Liberal Senator Dies

MONTREAL, Jan. 31 (CP)—Senator Edouard Charles St. Pere, 73, died at his suburban Westmount home tonight following a lengthy illness.

A Liberal, he was born at Ste. Melanie, Que., and was an editorial member of the French-language newspaper Le Canada for 20 years. He was a leader in sports in Montreal and co-founded the Montreal sports centre of La Palestre Nationale.

He was first elected a Liberal member of Parliament for Montreal-Hochelaga in 1921, representing the riding for 18 years before his appointment to the Senate Feb. 9, 1940.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Happleton of Montreal and Miss Cecile St. Pere, International Bank, Washington, D.C.

His death leaves the Senate with the following standing: Liberals 75, Progressive Conservatives 15, vacant seats 12, total 102. Vacancies by provinces are: British Columbia one; New Brunswick one; Nova Scotia two; Quebec one; Ontario two; Newfoundland four; Prince Edward Island one.

RESCUE INJURED OF SEARCH PLANE

Revives Hope for Missing 44; Cold Weather Continues

By GRAHAM TROTTER

WHITEHORSE, Y.T., Jan. 31 (CP)—The search for a missing transport with 44 persons aboard took on new life tonight after rescuers saved three men injured in the crash of one of the search planes on a mountain peak.

With the rescue of the three in a dash through rugged timberland, some hope revived that Mrs. Robert Espe, her two-year-old son Victor and the 42 other passengers and crew members of the transport might also be saved. But, renewed sub-zero weather and ending of the fifth day of the search without success, added new urgency to the operation.

Hauling the sleds, the party, a group of specially-trained mountain rescue troops commanded by Maj. George Gormlie of Chicago, took 2½ hours to reach the scene of the search plane crash on snowshoes and skiis.

They found Capt. Peter M. Berry of Anchorage, Alaska, the plane's co-pilot, and Cpl. Bruno J. Przydzial of Philadelphia, stoking a huge fire to keep their three injured comrades warm.

The injured, TX-Sgt. Forrest W. Hudson of Three Rivers, Texas; Eugene Cole of Centrahoma, Okla.; and Jack Borges, a civilian radio news reporter from Anchorage, were given first aid. Cole appeared to be the most seriously hurt with undetermined injuries to the leg and arm.

Wind-Fanned Fire Sweeps Vernon Hotel, Total Loss

VERNON, B.C., Jan. 31 (CP) — Three screaming children were carried to safety down fire ladders today when a wind-fanned blaze swept the Vernon Hotel, leaving a smouldering, ice-encrusted shell.

The fire, which broke out at 8:30 a.m in the furnace room of the $65,000 building, was still being fought in the late afternoon.

Four firemen narrowly escaped a flaming death when the front portion of the 40-room structure collapsed.

The number of guests in the hotel when the fire broke out has not yet been determined, but Fire Department officials said they are confident they were no casualties.

They said it will be "many hours" before a complete check of the ruins becomes possible.

The building was covered by insurance.

North Vancouver Cafe, Dance-Hall Gutted By Fire

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP)—The Canyon Dine and Dance Hall in suburban North Vancouver was gutted early today by a blaze which spread to an adjoining grocery and hardware store and forced three persons to flee in night attire.

Damage to the building was placed at $35,000. Damage suffered by the hardware store has not yet been estimated.

WIN WAGE INCREASE

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP)—Wage increases retroactive to Aug. 1, 1949, have been won by 75 employees of Bonar-Bemis Ltd. bag manufacturers here, it was announced today.

Truman Consents To Production of H-Bomb

Directed to Continue Work on All Atomic Weapons to Guard Defence

By ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP) — President Truman today gave the fateful order for development of the hydrogen super-bomb so that the United States may defend itself "against any possible aggressor."

Truman indicated that American atomic scientists may already have started tackling the problem of creating a weapon far surpassing the destructive fury of the A-bomb.

The President said:

"I have directed the Atomic Energy Commission to continue its work on all forms of atomic weapons, including the so-called hydrogen or super-bomb.

"Like all other work in the field of atomic weapons, it is being and will be carried forward on a basis consistent with the over-all objectives of our program for peace and security".

Reputed up to 1000 times more devastating than the atomic bombs dropped on Japan during the war, the H-bomb has been the subject of behind-the-scenes debate for at least four months.

The cost of producing the new super-weapon has been variously estimated at $100,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

Truman said he gave the historic order because "it is part of my responsibility as Commander-in-Chief of our armed forces to see that our country is able to defend itself" against any attack.

He has directed the A.E.C. to press forward with the development of atomic weapons, including the H-bomb, "until a satisfactory plan for International control of atomic energy is achieved".

Hopes for air-tight International control of atomic weapons in the United Nations have been repeatedly blocked by Russia's refusal to accept the Western plan for International inspection.

Little has leaked out during all the months of rumor and speculation about building H-bombs in the United States. However, as far as is known, the super-bomb presumably would be constructed to "fuse" hydrogen atoms in contrast to the "fission" or splitting of uranium or plutonium atoms in the A-bomb.

On Capital Hill, senators and representatives generally applauded Truman's decision to go ahead with the dread weapon.

SET UP GUARD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—The United States Air Force moved today to set up an aerial guard line around all major American atomic plants.

Similar protections were announced for a long stretch of the Atlantic Coast, taking in major United States ports.

The obvious aim is to guard against surprise one-way air attack.

All planes coming within 100 miles of the atomic installations in Tennessee, New Mexico and Washington States must file flight plans with defence authorities. The same rules apply within 200 miles of the coast from Norflok to Maine.

Planes violating the rules will be intercepted and action against the pilots will be taken under civil aeronautics regulations, the Air Force said.

A spokesman added that interception and identification will be carried out by fighter planes.

Government officials said in Ottawa they knew of no move to institute similar regulations in Canada.

C.N.R. LINES OPEN AT COAST

Railway Connections Reopened After Blocked 12 Days

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 31 (CP)—Canadian National Railway officials announced tonight in a statement that their snow-choked mainline linking British Columbia with the East has been cleared in the Fraser River Canyon.

The line has been blocked 12 days.

The announcement followed back-breaking toil in cold and snow as crews battle ice-covered drifts as high as 50 feet. Snow plows, bull dozers and shovel gangs were used to inch through the final eight miles of blocked track.

The Canadian Pacific lines through the same area were cleared Thursday.

Caught in the mass of monster drifts was an eight-car "ghost" train from which the locomotive and passengers were taken before a second blizzard sealed it in last week. The section was removed today.

However, passenger trains will not operate over the cleared lines tonight since more work must be done on the narrow cut. The longer passenger coaches makes this necessary. Freight trains loaded with coal for Vancouver will be cleared first.

U.K. to Operate 123 Canada Ships

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — The United Kingdom has agreed to let 123 Canadian-owned ships operate under her flag, it was learned today, with their profits coming to Canada in dollars.

Besides an original 65 vessels which she accepted for transfer of registry under a Federal Government plan for keeping Canada's merchant marine afloat, the United Kingdom now has contracted to take on an additional 58 ships.

The latest additions to the plan now are in the United Kingdom, on loan there since the war, but where to have been returned to Canadian owners this year. They will remain under British registry, to be operated by agents in the U. K. for the Canadian companies.

The arrangement is part of a government plan announced by Prime Minister St. Laurent Dec. 9, whereby some of the Canadian deep-sea fleet—beset by dwindling business—was to be kept in operation through transfer to British registry. This would have the result of reducing costs.

The ships to be transferred to the U.K. will form part of a proposed allied "defence shipping pool," from which Canada will be able to draw for shipping requirements in the event of war.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP) — H. F. Jones, Manager of the Canadian Transport Co. Monday was elected President of the Shipping Federation of British Columbia at the organization's annual meeting.

Dealers Struggle to Meet Demand On Limited Stocks; Coal Cars Rolling

Nelson's fuel dealers are being "run off our feet" in their attempts to meet a "terrific" demand from limited stocks.

Cars of coal, held up for weeks in the Crows' Nest Pass, were starting to move in, but there was not enough yet on hand to fill the long lists of orders.

Oil companies reported no shortage of fuel oil; customers were being supplied.

The long spell of zero weather had diminished coal bins to "rock bottom," and the situation was only eased when cars began to roll a few days ago.

All dealers had not received their orders. While some had got one or two cars, others were "scraping the bottom of the bin" waiting for shipments. All expected cars within the next two or three days, however.

Wood, also in heavy demand, was in short supply, and deliveries were two or three days behind.

One of the longest cold spells in Nelson's history was making heating a problem in home and business. It was not uncommon to see women store clerks in slacks and indoor workers bundled in coats.

Gov't End to Rent Controls Could Mean "Very Serious Disaster"

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP)—A Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada today said sudden abandonment of Government controls could engender "a very serious disaster".

The statement was made by Mr. Justice I. C. Rand while listening to argument in support of contentions that federal rent controls are valid.

The Supreme Court, completing the second day of hearings in the rentals case, heard a plea from Attorney-General Dana Porter of Ontario that it find the controls valid.

Other highlights:

1. John J. Robinette of Toronto, Counsel for tenants, conditionally withdrew a motion asking that the court appoint a roving commission to determine if there still is a housing emergency in Canada.

2. F. P. Varcoe, Deputy Minister of Justice and acting for the Federal Government, said the court has no power to rule on whether there is an emergency in Canada. That was the prerogative of Parliament.

3. Counsel for the Canadian Legion, and the Canadian Congress of Labor supported arguments by Mr. Varcoe, Mr. Porter and Mr. Robinette that an emergency still exists.

4. Chief Justice Thibaudeau Rinfret admonished Counsel Maurice Wright, acting for the Canadian Congress of Labor for taking up time with recitation of rentals cases before the Supreme Court of the United States. He didn't think there was any need to go to the U.S. for views on questions of how cases will be settled by the Supreme Court of Canada.

Missing Vessel Comes To Port

LIVERPOOL, N.S., Jan. 31 (CP)—The motor vessel Atlantic Salvage, with five men aboard and more than 24 hours overdue on a voyage from Halifax, entered this South shore harbor town early today reporting all hands safe.

Capt. Albert Lloyd said he had put into a cove about 20 miles from Liverpool to wait out a gale that whipped across Nova Scotia's South shore during the week-end.

States Charges Trumped Up Behind Iron Curtain

SHANNON, Ireland, Jan. 31 (CP)—Sgt. Reginald Danko of Toronto and Lauder, Man., one of two R.C.A.F. men expelled from Czechoslovakia, said today charges against them were "definitely trumped up" and their expulsion was not unexpected.

"They're doing the same sort of thing in all the iron-curtain countries, said Danko who, along with Cpl. Gaston Vanier of Montreal, was expelled from Prague on 48 hours notice Jan. 18.

NO COMMENT

In an interview at this airport where his plane stopped briefly en route to Montreal, Danko said he had no other comment to make on Czech charges that he engaged in espionage and that he and Vanier had been involved in altercations with Czech Security Police.

New Baronet in Peace River District

LONDON, Jan. 31 (CP)—Somewhere in Alberta's Peace River country there is a new baronet—the eighth of a line dating from 1778.

He is Sir Robert Charles Dunning, 49-year-old father of four sons and two daughters, who lives at Peace River, Alta.

Debrett's peerage, which keeps an lineage, said today Dunning was official eye on Britain's noble only a distant cousin but the closest relative of the seventh Baronet, Sir Charles Vere Dunning who died in London last Sunday at the age of 91.

Motorist Laws In Force Today

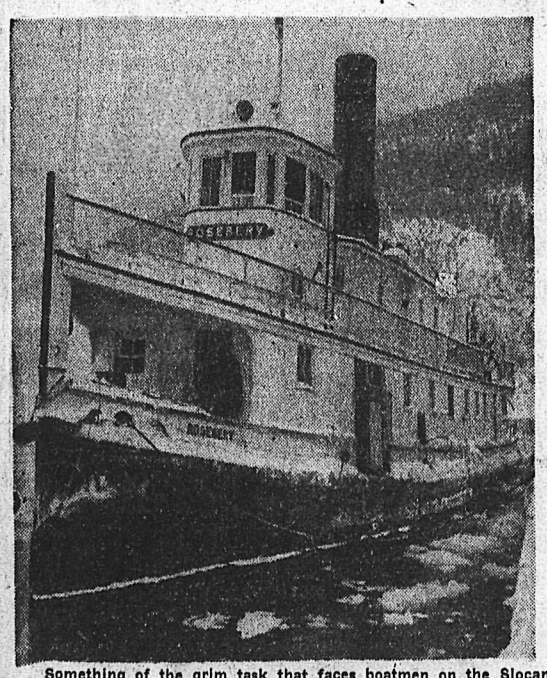
OLYMPIA, Jan. 31 (AP)—Washington State's new financial responsibility law for motorists goes into effect tomorrow.

The law requires that every motorist shall prove that he is able to pay for damages in any accident in which he is involved if:

1. Property of any one person was damaged more than $200, or

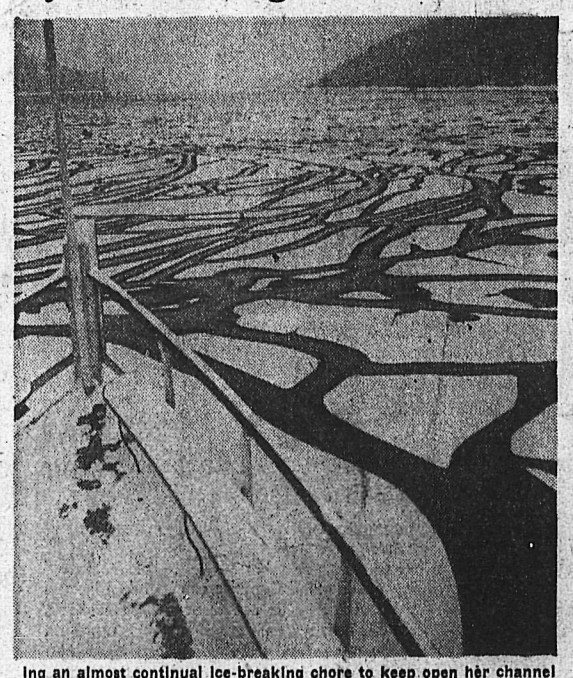
2. Any person is injured seriously enough to require medical attention by a doctor.

S.S. Rosebery Battles Against Ice on Slocan Lake



Something of the grim task that faces boatmen on the Slocan Lake during this Winter's below-zero cold is evident in these pictures. They were taken by Daily News correspondent Jim Kakutani of Slocan City after the S.S. Rosebery broke through the ice to berth at Slocan City.

The steamer, under Captain D. MacFarlane, has been maintaining an almost continual ice-breaking chore to keep open her channel between Rosebery and Slocan City.



The steamer and barge were caught overnight in the ice during the Thursday trip; she came into Slocan City finally 24 hours after leaving Rosebery—25 miles distant.

Ice conditions have been plaguing ferrys all over Kootenay.

Cars were crossing the frozen Arrow Lakes between Needles and Fauquier in about "two minutes" while the ferry took a laborious four hours to crunch through the ice.

Both the West Creston and Northport ferries have been tied up by ice, the Northport craft still being out of service though the West Creston ferry is back in use. The Nelson-North Shore ferry has faced some difficulties, but has been able to maintain a constant schedule.

And in This Corner —

LONDON, Jan. 31 (AP)—Heavyweight boxer Bruce Woodcock appealed last night for money for charity at a boxing show.

A woman offered £2 ($6.20) if he would kiss her.

He did.

She added a bonus of 30 shillings.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 31 (AP)—The couple upstairs were arguing and their conversation suddenly became interesting to Patrolman James A Hicks.

The off-duty policeman reached for his phone and dialed headquarters after he heard the wife shout:

"You know where you belong? Right back on that Georgia Chain (road) gang you got away from!"

Detectives arrived within minutes, arrested the man, Thomas J. Dixon, 30, and wired Georgia for his record.

Yesterday police had to tell Dixon's now remorseful wife the information she unwittingly gave them was correct. Dixon is wanted as an escapee from the Public Works Camp in Dublin, Ga., where he was serving a 20-year burglary sentence.

MONTCLAIR, N.J., Jan. 31 (AP) — A Montclair woman won a divorce yesterday because her husband slept with a hammer and hatchet under his pillow. She said he threatened "I'll conk you" every time she asked about the weapons and his motives.

HAMBURG, Jan. 31 (Reuters)—The only school on the North Frisian Island of Groed is closing this Spring because two of its three pupils are going to work. It will remain closed until five babies on the island are old enough to attend.

MOSCOW, Jan. 31 (AP)—A Soviet film director has been fired by a Government Ministry for faking fishing scenes in a new documentary movie.

Pravda, organ of the Communist Party, reported today that Director Y. M. Blokh shot scenes of Caspian Sea fishermen catching sturgeon—but made sure the movies would show lots of action by actually catching the fish before taking the pictures.

Such artificial practices are not permissible in Soviet documentary films, Pravda said. It reported Blokh was barred by the Ministry of Cinematography from working as a film director for two years.

$1000 Aim of Fire Relief Fund . . .

Lost All To Aid Neighbor; Inch Of Ice on Kaslo Volunteers' Clothes

Twenty persons, five of them small children, lost their homes when fire swept four Kaslo business buildings.

The 20—three teen-agers, five youngsters and 12 adults—will be aided in replacing lost personal effects through the Fire Relief Fund, a collection started by the citizens of Kaslo. The Fund's aim is $1000, or $50 for each person, "little enough for sure, but at least it will help them to get on their feet once more," George Armstrong, Committee chairman, said. Monies received to date were just over $400.

"LOST EVERYTHING"

Two families, with the help of volunteers, saved about 50 per cent of their household furniture and a small quantity of clothing. "The rest lost everything they had, with the exception of what they stood in," Mr. Armstrong said.

"In one instance a young lady, who had all her personal effects, including complete furniture for her suite, disregarded everything to help another family with three small children. With only a housedress over her night clothes, she took one of the children out of the building and by that time the fire had made it impossible to get anything out of her suite.

"The fire spread so rapidly that the first thought was to make sure every person was safe. With this done the firemen had a full time job on their hands to try and stop the fire from spreading.

"Fighting fire in below-zero weather presents all the handicaps possible. Our fire brigade is all volunteer and when the fire siren goes we all get there as quickly as possible in the first clothes we find handy. I can assure you that standing in the spray of a fire nozzle at 10 below for about four hours is invigorating, to say the least, but when you have to break an inch of ice off your clothes so you can get out of them, only to find your pyjamas frozen to your outer clothes, you realize what it meant to those who just got out, with nothing.

"There weren't any heroes — everyone just did all they could."

Temporary quarters were found for the persons burned out and donated furniture and clothing and a Red Cross grant helped to fill immediate needs.

The Weather

SYNOPSIS

Light snow fell over omst of British Columbia as a week disturbance moved Southward across the province. A few snowflurries still persist along the coast. Clouds persisting along the coast will help to keep the temperatures above frigid values in these regions.

The cold air which has covered the province for so long is beginning to recede slowly. Warmer air now covers the Queen Charlotte Islands where temperatures climbed into the forties briefly. There is no indication that warmer air will spread much farther Eastward during the next 24 hours.

MRS. MacLEOD, 81, DIES AT ROSSLAND

ROSSLAND, B.C., Jan. 31—Mrs. Arrabell MacLeod, a resident of Rossland for the past three years, died in hospital here Friday night at the age of 81 years.

Born in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia she had resided at Bengough, Sask., until her husband died about three years ago when she moved to Rossland. She had been residing here with her daughter Mrs. W. Eastcott.

Survivors are three sons, Archie of Edmonton, John in Rossland, and Hector in Ongre, Sask., and a daughter, Mrs. Effie Ottosen at New Westminster.

Her body will be forwarded to Bengough where burial will be held

Weather Break Promised for Trappers' Festival

THE PAS, Man., Jan. 31 (CP)—The weatherman promises to give Northern Manitobans a break tomorrow as they open their four-day third annual trappers' festival.

After shivering through one of the coldest Januarys in the province's history, residents at The Pas and some 500 vistors to the colorful affair will be treated to only five-below-zero weather tomorrow. Officials of the festival consider this "quite a break" after the Winter's consistent 40-below temperatures.

The town has had a festive air for more than a week, with pine trees lining the streets, and strings of colored lights and welcoming signs strung from power poles. Mounted Northern animals also are on display at the corner of two streets.

Hotels are crammed, rooming houses and private homes are jammed as visitors swarm into town. Many are satisfied to just have a spot to put sleeping bags.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Dial telephones are being extended in Manitoba. The Manitoba Telephone System has announced that Flin Flon, Minnedosa and Dauphin are next in line for automatic telephone service.

Cold Weather For One Week Delays Sno-Sho

ROSSLAND, B.C. Jan. 31—The extreme cold weather which has persisted in the District sending temperatures to well below zero recordings has also brought about the postponement of the famed Rossland Sno-Sho.

Set to be held Feb. 10 and 11, the event has now been postponed for one week and will be held on Feb. 17 and 18.

Officials Tuesday night stated that queen contestants from below the border may have some difficulty during their trip to Rossland because of the North Port ferry freeze-up. The Kettle Falls queen was crowned Saturday night at a ceremony held there when some 40 beauties from Colville, Northport, Kettle Falls and Chewelah paraded before the judges.

The Nelson Curling Club will also sponsor a queen contestant to the show while the figure skating club will display some of its bladesters in the ice carnival. Four Castlegar ice stars will also be in the carnival.

Miss Lorraine Noah, last year's Sno-Sho queen winner from Kettle Falls, Wash., will preside over the crowning while Mayor J. R. Corner will preside over the ceremony.

An added event to the already fun packed program has been a snowshoe contest. Somewhat different from last year's race, snowshoers this year will begin at the top of Red Mountain and work their way down the South Side. This way will enable spectators from Rossland's main street intersection to witness the grueling descent, a distance of about two miles away.

APPEALS TO U. K. WORKERS TO VOTE LABOR

LONDON, Jan. 31 (CP) — The powerful Trades Union Congress tonight appealed to all British workers to "vote Labor at this most crucial election."

The T.U.C., which claims 8,000,000 members, said in a 700-word statement aimed at getting out a big Labor vote in the Feb. 23 general election;

"Few people in this country or in the world have anything to gain from a change in the Government of Britain. Working people have a great deal to lose."

The statement said the "T.U.C. gratefully acknowledges the financial help Great Britain has received since the end of the war from the U.S.A. and countries of the Commonwealth."

"But," it said, "it is basically as a result of the material enlargement and a more equitable distribution of our own country's resources that wages, working hours and conditions of labor have been improved and means have been found for the building up of our social services.

"And we claim, too, for Labor Britain full credit for the help we have given to other countries in the reconstruction of their war-devastated countries."

DIPLOMATIC CHANGES

Meanwhile, informed officials reported a major reshuffle of Britain's diplomatic corps is on the way.

They said Foreign Secretary Bevin and other political chiefs, as well as several top career men in the Foreign Office, are likely to switch jobs or retire in the next few months.

Romance Among Radio Operators

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 31 — (CP) — This, by the tail of the Sea Hag, is the way it's supposed to have happened.

She was a blonde and beautiful radio operator aboard a freighter. He was dark, handsome, and a radio operator aboard the freighter alongside hers in Vancouver harbor.

They met.

She departed for Manila, he for Sydney, Australia. He caught up with her in Calcutta and popped the question with a ring he's purchased in Durban. Three months later, Vancouver-bound via the Pacific, he radioed to her Vancouver-bound via the Atlantic.

"Arrive Vancouver Jan. 30. Will you marry me?"

She radioed back: "Arrive Vancouver Jan. 30. Yes."

The bride-to-be then proceeded to arrange for the wedding and minister—by radio.

Native Sons Beat Trail Juniors 6-3

TRAIL, B.C., Jan. 31 — Led by their ace centre Guyle Fielder, the Lethbridge Native Sons defeated the Trail Junior Smoke Eaters 6-3 tonight in the first of a two game exhibition series.

The Native Sons, lead out in the Western Canada Junior circuit had to go all out to down a fighting Smoke Eater club. The Smokies were all tied with the Sons at 2-2 during the second period but failed in the final session when the visitors fired three goals.

Fielder, top scorer in the Prairie league, paced the winners attack with three goals and two assists. Linemate Steve Arisman followed with two goals and a pair of helpers while the other Lethbridge goal went to former Traillite Stets Geyschuk.

Sonny Hackett found the net twice for the Smokies with the other goal going to Leo Mailley.

Lethbridge took a 2-0 lead in the first period, Fielder opened the scoring at the 3:38 mark, neatly stickhandling in to beat Bruce Sam cleanly.

Arisman drew credit for the Sons second goal at 10:24 when his long shot was pulled into the net by the Trail goalie.

Buddy Dumont almost got one back for Trail in the first stanza with a shot which bounced off the goal post while Lethbridge netminder Boomer Rodzinak was out of the net.

The Smokies came back fast early in the second period with two goals in the first seven minutes. Speedy Leo Mailley deflected a blue line drive into the net for the first counter and then Hackett scored the equalizer on a pass from Archie McKinnon at 7:46.

From then on however, the Sons took over and dominated play until the period ended. With Fielder leading the attack, the Lethbridge team poured a barrage of rubber at Sam. The Smoke Eater netminder finally was beaten at 19:40, Gryschuk scored with a backhander.

Only 16 seconds were gone in the final chapter when the Alberta team went ahead 4-2 on an Arisman, Fielder combination play with the former dumping the disc in the hemp.

After Hackett teamed with McKinnon to notch the final Trail marker, Fielder broke loose to ice the tilt with a brace of goals.

Fielder, who centred two lines for a period and a half, played an outstanding game for the winners and was the best man on the ice. Former Nelson juvenile Lee Hyssop, though not in on the scoring also turned in a strong game.

Bruce Ham came up with a fine chore in the Smoke Eater goal while Johnny Paolone was outstanding on the blue line.

Rossland Navy Man Retires

OTTAWA, Jan. 31—Petty Officer George P. Burkmar, 40, of Rossland and Victoria, B. C., retired this month on pension from the Royal Canadian Navy after 21 years of service, Naval Headquarters announced today.

Petty Officer Burkmar was living in Rossland when he joined the R.C.N. in January, 1929, as an Ordinary Seaman. He took his early training in H.M.C.S. "Naden," the R.C.N. Barracks at Esquimalt, following which he served in various ships and establishments, both with the R.C.N. and Royal Navy.

He was back in "Naden" at the outbreak of the Second World War, and from there he went to the United Kingdom for a specialist communications course. Later he served at sea in the destroyers "Restigouche," "St. Francis" and "Athabaskan," the corvette "Fredericton" and the Algerine minesweeper "Rockcliffe," as well as at the signal school at St. Hyacinthe, P.Q.

He was awarded the R.C.N. Long Service and Good Conduct Medal in April, 1944.

Prior to his retirement, Petty Officer Burkmar was serving in H.M.C.S. "Naden." His present address is R.R. 1, Decross Ave., Saanichton, Victoria.

May Force British Boxing Rings Open To More Title Fights

LONDON, Jan. 31 (AP)—Huge crowds and a shortage of home-grown champions may soon force open British boxing rings to more world title fights.

Rules here now say that two non-British boxers can't fight each other. And in Britain both world champions and No. 1 contenders are in extremely short supply.

The public, however, is hungry for good boxing. Capacity crowds jam top-rinking shows which run as often as once a week. Some 18,000 paid £65,000 ($201,500) to see American Joey Maxim take the world's light heavyweight title from Freddie Mills. That was a bigger gate than any of the three fights in the United States last year for the National Boxing Association's world heavyweight title.

$123,000 FOR CLEARING

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP) — The city today received a whopping bill—$123,000 for snow clearing and street sanding during the first 30 days of January.

John Oliver, City Engineer, said that since Dec. 1 snow and sand have cost $141,000. Cost for the same period last Winter was $90,000.

SPORTS

Hockey, Races, Fancy Skating, Costumes Highlight Denver Carnival

NEW DENVER, B. C., Jan. 31—The Ice Carnival staged in the skating rink drew a full house, many coming from Nakusp and Silverton, both to take part and watch the varied sport provided by the management.

Pee-Wee hockey was a tie between Silverton and New Denver, Midgets won by New Denver from Silverton and the New Denver married men won from the bachelors. Both the ladies' broom ball games between New Denver and Nakusp and Nakusp and Silverton ended in a scoreless tie.

Masqueraders judging and races made it a full evening of entertainment.

In the Pee-Wee tie game, New Denver scored twice in the first period before Silverton could find the net. There was no score in the second period. Silverton tied the score in the middle of the third and though both teams tried hard, they could not break the tie.

SIDWELL OMITTED FROM AUSTRALIAN DAVIS CUP TEAM

MELBOURNE, Jan. 31 (CP)—Australia today announced the make-up of its Davis Cup team, and the most surprising item of all was the omission of Bill Sidwell.

Sidwell is the slight, 25-year-old ace who came within an inch of upsetting Ted Schroeder of the United States in the challenge round at Forest Hills, N.Y., last August. Schroeder finally won out in a torrid five-setter.

Sidwell combined with veteran John Bromwich, who was named to the team again with four youngsters, to win in the doubles—Australia's only victory in the final round. In addition the twosome won the United States doubles championship.

Besides Bromwich, 31, the team announced by the Australian Lawn Tennis Association, is composed of Frank Sedgman, 22-year-old national champion; Ken McGregor, 20-year-old finalist in the Nationals which ended yesterday; George Worthington, 21; and Mervyn Rose, 20.

Teams for Scots Football Cup

GLASGOW, Jan. 31 (CP)—Draw for the second round of the Scottish Football Cup, to be played Reb. 11, was announced today:

Kilmarnock or Stirling Albion vs. Dumbarton; Raith Rovers vs. Clyde; Queen of the South vs. Morton, Stenhousemuir vs. St. Johnstone, Aberdeen vs. Hearts or Dundee; Partick Thistle vs. Dundee United; Third Lanark vs. Celtic; Rangers vs. Cowdenbeath or Hamilton Academicals; Falkirk vs. East Fife; Albion Rovers vs. Dunfermline Town.

Lamotta to Defend Title Next June

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (AP)—Middleweight Champion Jake Lamotta has signed a contract to defend his title next June, and the contenders are all lining up on the right in the hopes of getting first crack.

Eddie Eagan, Chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission and Harry Markson of the International Boxing Club, disclosed today that the Bronx Bull has signed papers for a championship fight against an opponent to be named. The bout will be held in either Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds.

$100,000 FOR ROOKIE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today paid $100,000 for Lefty Paul Pettit, 18-year-old High School lad from Long Beach, Calif.

It was reported to be the highest price ever paid for an untried rookie.

Lethbridge Team Strong Opponent For Nelson

Nelson Maple Leaf Juniors will indeed have a tough team to beat when they meet the Lethbridge Native Sons on the Civic Centre Ice here Thursday night.

The fast-skating, hard hitting Sons are an exceptionally good team this year, and should bring out the best in the Nelsonites. The Leafs are to be bolstered by a forward line from the senior Leafs.

Matched against the Nelson goalies, Argillo Dozzi with Graham Dawson as spare, will be two Lethbridge boys, Jim MacDonald, originally from Trail, where he played in two championship teams, one midget and one juvenile, and Boomer Rodzinyak, who has played all his hockey with the Native Sons, right up through the ranks.

Representing Nelson on the defensive end will be Moose McNaughton of the Nelson seniors and formerly of Regina, Fred Smith, G. Pickering, B. Koehle and R. McIntyre, all Nelson boys, who have gone through all phases of hockey on Nelson ice.

Opposite them will be Jim Malacko, in his second year of junior hockey, Cooney Wood, Laurie Thompson, who played last year for the Winnipeg Canadians, Jim Rollingson who came up through the ranks, and was on the Native Sons Juveniles who were the Western Canada Champs in 1948-49, and Jack Yucytus, one of the Sons' youngest players.

Irwin Rink In Schools 'Spiel

Lorne Irwin and his curling foursome battled to the finish in the final High School round robin competition game on the Nelson Curling Club ice lanes Tuesday to defeat the Owen Brown quartet 10-6.

The win gave them the opportunity to represent Nelson in the B. C. High Schools championship to be curled off here over the weekend. Forty-one rinks from all parts of the Province will compete in the sixth annual 'spiel.

High School enthusiasts who helped Lorne Irwin in the win were Kenneth White, Gene Nutter and Bruce McLean while playing on the Owen Brown rink were Donald Collinson, Mike Kinihan and Stanley Grill.

Trail Curling

Wednesday draws for the Trail Curling Club's Hodge Rotation competition:

6:30 p.m.—A. Crichton vs C. D. Stuart; H. Currie vs F. Strachan; T. D'Amour vs C. Strachan; J. Devito vs R. Sommerville; R. P. Dockerill vs R. M. Somerville.

Strikes 'n' Spares

Norm Nelson rolled his way to a high single of 331 in the Men's Commercial League games Monday night while high aggregate was copped by Mike Vecchio who spilled the pins for a 737 score.

Other keglers who notched up scores at or over the 300 mark were Ted Perry with 300, Arvid Sneider 311, Jim Nish 322.

High team for the evening was Maddens with 3104.

Teams standings to date are Waterer 7, Madden Hotel 6, B. and K. 6, North Shore Motel 6, Standard Cafe 5, Wood Vallance 4, Queen's Hotel 3, Royal Hotel 2, rBewery No. 1, 2, Mc and Mc 2, Safeway 1.

Mercurys Defeat Italian Team 9-1

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 31 (CP)—Edmonton Mercurys hockey team tonight defeated the Italian Red and Black Devils 9-1.

EARLY START FOR JUNIOR GAME

The Lethbridge Native Sons game with the Nelson Juniors here this Thursday will start at 8 p.m. instead of the customary 8:30 time. The Sons Manager Ed Bruchet requested an earlier start so that his Club could make the Eastbound passenger for Lethbridge.

Interest in the junior tussle is high here. The Lethbridge Club have an outstanding record and is noted for a classy calibre of hockey.

Canadians Win Two, Lose One to Scottish Curlers

GLASGOW, Scotland, Jan. 31 — (CP) — Canadian curlers today defeated two Scottish clubs, then lost to a Glasgow outfit.

In Edinburgh the Canadian "B" side won by eight shots over Midlothian, 130 to 122. Five of the six Canadian rinks won keenly-contested matches, sometimes by only one shot.

In Glasgow the Canadian "A" team beat the forth, Edrick and Dumbarton team by 32 shots, 71 to 39. In the afternoon encounter with Glasgow, the Dominion outfit was overhauled 54 to 42.

UTICA CREWS KEEP ROAD OPEN

Utica Mines (1937) Ltd., in spite of cold weather, has shipped a continual flow of ore from its Sandon property.

Crews were keeping the mountain road open to the mine workings and it is planned to remain in operation until the snow slides start.

D. M. Armstead, President, reported that a carload of ore shipped in December averaged 176.8 ounces silver per ton, 18 per cent lead and 22 per cent zinc.

There is ore in four faces, and the stope on the East vein is improving continually, Mr. Armstead said.

Equipment Care Must for Skier

By BILL DERIDDER

After recovering from the rather chilly weekend skiing, skiers are heard remarking on the terrific snow conditions at last Sundays skiing. Of course there's the odd remark, too, about the icy sections of the hill, but this ice just added to the fun and everyone had to really ski to stay erect on the hickories. Some of the junior skiers are really progressing and it won't be long before some of the seniors had better start thinking of retiring, but of course this is one sport you can't get out of your blood once you have started.

CARE OF EQUIPMENT

When that sickening sight of snow disappearing comes about, it is time for the skier to be thinking of keeping or storing his equipment properly throughout the Summer. I realize that this seems to be hurrying the season, but many of these fine points hold while the season is still in progress. The ski clothes should be stored in a mothproof closet and before this is done, they should be cleaned and pressed. The boots should be well oiled or some other protective applied to the leather. The boots should be put on a shoe tree or some other device to hold the soles flat, as the walking action has a strong tendency to curl up the toes of the boots, the laces should be removed and the boot opened as wide as possible so that the leather is under no strain whatsoever.

Skis need a careful check. All screws missing from the steel edges should be bored out and replaced, the old wax should be removed and the tops well cleaned. The skis then should be blocked in the centre with a block about three inches wide and the heels and tips fastened. This blocking of the skis prevents the loss of camber or bend in the skis during the hot weather although lamianted skis have this camber built in. The tips should be spread for the same reason. Regular tip spreaders can be got. The skis then should be placed away from heat during the rest of the season. Keep that equipment in shape, you'll enjoy skiing more.

C.R.U. Annual Meet Set for Toronto

TORONTO, Jan. 31 (CP) — Percy Robinson, Secretary of the Canadian Rugby Union, said tonight that the C.R.U.'s annual meeting will be held here Feb. 25.

The meeting was originally scheduled for Winnipeg on that date.

Robinson said he could not discuss the reason for the change.

NEW BOSUN VEIN STRONG

A new Bosun mine vein, deepened to the eighth level, is strong in the bottom of the shaft, mine officials report. The Bosun is near New Denver, in the Slocan mining area.

The oreshoot has raked out of the shaft toward the West about halfway up the face of the eighth level and timbering is now being completed in preparation for the start of lateral work.

Puck Pourri

By CLIVE FLEMING

As if the Nelson Maple Leafs didn't have enough trouble. Two of their players, Mike Fischer and Moose McNaughton have been laid off their jobs, and are seeking work. Joe Benoit, just released by Eddie Shore to amateur ranks, is presently laid up in bed, and it isn't known whether he will be able to play Saturday night. Today is the last day that Benoit can be signed to play for the Leafs, after receiving his reinstatement.

Ron Collings, Nelson's rapidly improving rookie defenceman, is still bothered by his left foot. First of all, he was hit in the instep by a puck while refereeing a kid game here, then it was severely hurt in a game at Kimberley. Ever since that time, it seems, he has been catching sticks or pucks in the same spot, and just can't shake off the nuisance.

A little more from the deal to get Benoit: Nelson officials extended an invitation to Shore to be in Nelson for the Midsummer Curling Bonspiel and referee the hockey game at that time. He said he would likely be in this neck of the woods at that time, and would look forward to it.

By the way, Ed Fitzgerald, authoring a piece in Sports Magazine, refers to Eddie Shore as "the greatest hockey player" in the history of the game.

Seems strange, but Jack Gelineau of the Boston Bruins, is the only NHL goalie yet to receive a penalty. Toronto Maple Leafs are keeping up their rate of penalties. At January 25, the Leafs had received 486 minutes in penalties.

There's talk that Frank Currie, coach of the Edmonton Flyers, won't be renewing his contract as coach of the Edmonton Flyers who are flying in overdrive nowadays. The Flyers are indirectly hooked up with Montreal Canadiens, and it is thought that Frank Selke may have the coaching job of the Cincinnati Mohawks open for Currie.

Don Fleming of the Edmonton Journal has it through his grapevine that Johnny Black will be reinstated next season, and will probably play for the Edmonton Flyers. Previously he called Benoit's release, so could be.

By the way, a short while ago, Black and Van Deelan, who have found their way to outlaw hockey in the Yellowknife, ran wild in a recent game. Van Deelan scored seven goals, while Black had two goals beside his six assists. I wonder if Dutchy still wants to come down to Kimberley.

From Kimberley comes this finger-rapping:

Sir—Kindly bring to the attention of your youthful sports editor the fact that in his column "Puck Pourri", dated Jan. 24, he has stated two falsehoods. Here is the truth:

Cliff Kilburn took over from Mc. Lay of Kimberley Dynamiters in the Saturday night game in Spokane when the score was 6-0 for Spokane. He then let in two goals in one and one-half periods of hockey, stopping 23 shots.

Cliff Kilburn never received a three game suspension for attacking Culley. He was not the attacker, but the leaders were Sully Sullivan and Buck Kavanaugh.

Kilburn became involved after this, in the mixup that ensued. All three men were given a warning by Mr. Grimston, President of the B.C.A.H.A. No suspensions were handed out at any time.

Yours truly,
B. C. KILBURN,
Secretary, Kimberley Dynamiters Hockey Club.

Castlegar Airfield an Important West Kootenay Asset

Importance of the Castlegar airport to West Kootenay was heavily underscored during the days of tough weather in the first month of 1950, just ended. Surface transportation for a period bogged down under the impossible conditions of snow and slides, and aircraft provided the only Canadian link between the District and Pacific Coast centres of the Province.

That meant that only first class mail, airborne over the trouble sections, reached or was dispatched from the West Kootenay; and the importance of mail service, which with telephone and telegraph serves as the very nerve system of business, needs no emphasis. It was at the Castlegar airfield that planes loaded or delivered this vital mail.

This is not the first time that the field has proven its worth to the District, aside from its role in the six-days-weekly air service connecting the Coast, Okanagan, Kootenay and Alberta. Planes lifting from the field have carried patients in a life and death race to skilled medical care.

Statistics relating to the operation of the field in 1949 give a further insight into the role it has so recently begun to play in West Kootenay life. Canadian Pacific Airlines made 587 landings in the year, carrying 900 to 1000 passengers into and from the field monthly. Approximately 150 pounds of incoming and outgoing mail were handled on the average at each landing. This was, of course, aside from the heavier chore performed in mail movement during last week's emergency.

The airfield has been developed as a joint enterprise and service to their district by the Villages of Castlegar and Kinnaird and the City of Nelson. The development was undertaken after the Board of Transport Commissioners, following a hearing in Nelson, declared it as capable of giving the safest service to the greatest number from among fields in West Kootenay. Other fields considered before inauguration of the C.P.A. service were those at Salmo and Columbia Gardens, Trail.

Some hope that the Federal Government might take a hand in providing funds for further development of the field was raised only last week. Minister of Transport Hon. Lionel Chevrier had requested details on required improvements, H. W. Herridge, M.P. for Kootenay West, reported. His suggestions for presenting the proposals are certainly ones to be followed up rapidly. There is an indication that fruition of the three centres' campaign for Ottawa aid is nearing.

Outlay in actual cash on the field has not been high, but the outlay of effort by representatives of the three centres has, comparatively, been prodigious. The field has proven worth every penny and every ounce of effort put into it; and the service of those men who have seen the project carried through is deserving of the commendation of the entire West Kootenay.

Nelson Municipal Library Book Notes

NON-FICTION

ISHERWOOD, Christopher—The Condor and the Cows.

A diary of travel through five of the South American Republics—Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia, Peru and Argentina. The author and his friend William Caskey, the photographer, made their way by river-boat, train, bus and truck, usually avoiding the normal tourist routes. And they saw much that the average tourist misses—an Indian ceremony on the Day of the Dead, an oil-well in the Amazon jungle amidst head-hunting tribes, a madhoues in Quito, and a fight between angels and devils on the Bolivian highlands. The book is full of portraits, miscellaneous information and personal impressions.

BROCKIE, William—Tales of the Mounted.

The author is an ex-constable of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He relates in simple, straightforward style his most outstanding experiences of the years he served with the Mounted Police. He recalls these with particular vividness because they added grey to his hair and toughness to his soul. Every phase of crime comes within their jurisdiction, from petty larceny to murder. Such as these, and the Far North's vast white spaces, awesome in their unbroken silence, form the material for these thrilling stories.

LONG, E. Hudson—O. Henry; the Man and His Work.

A biography that reads like fiction. O. Henry lived a life as romantic as any story he ever wrote. A rolling stone who for a time lived on the heights, he also tasted the dregs of life. Wealthy and penniless by turn, he was the most widely read American in the early part of the century. This is a full and rich account of his life, and an understanding interpretation of his character and personality.

TAYLOR, Deems—Music to My Ears.

A new book for music-lovers by the author of The Well-Tempered Listener and Of Men and Music.

MACAULAY, Rose—Fatled Shore; From the Pyrenees to Portugal.

A travel book that describes the long Mediterranean coastline of Spain from the Ppreneas to the Pillars of Hercules, and beyond this the Atlantic shore that sweeps 'round Cadiz Bay to the Southern edge of Portugal—perhaps the most beautiful and interesting thousand miles or so of coast in Europe. Miss Macaulay is witty, erudite, observant, and she has the sense of the past perhaps more strongly developed than any other contemporary English writer.

DE KRUIF, Paul—Life Among the Doctors.

A chronicle of the fight by responsible men of medicine against human disease—and against a few irresponsible but powerful human beings who handicap the fighters in their struggle. The longest of de-Kruif's books, it has the deepest social implications, and is perhaps his major work. By the author of The Microbe Hunters and The Fight for Life.

FABIAN, Bela—Cardinal Mindszenty: the Story of a Modern Martyr.

The story of the man who has become the living symbol of the fate of Christianity under Communism. Dr. Bela Fabian, a Jew, has known the Cardinal personally for years, and writes from knowledge gained first-hand. As a member of the Hungarian Parliament for 17 years, as a former Judge of the Criminal Court, as leader of the Independent Democratic Party, he was in frequent official contact with Mindszenty. As a Jew who worked closely with the Cardinal to prevent racial persecutions under the Nazis, he is in a position to demolish the charge of anti-Semitism made at the trial.

Press Comment

A fish identified as a perch was the subject of X-ray investigation by the late Dr. Howard A. Kelly, famous physician and friend of Sir William Osler at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore. It had two well-formed heads, anatomically complete, and a bifurcated spine. Icthyologists say such freaks among fishes are extremely rare.

Another radiograph made by Dr. Kelly was of a garter snake that had swallowed a frog twice its own diameter. On the X-ray film the snake, all curled up like a question mark, appeared to be asking a question of itself: "What was that funny thing I swallowed for lunch?"

Mrs. F. M., Trail—Is there any way to treat a blanket so that the smell of wool can be removed? We received the blanket as a gift from South America, and it is made from pure sheep's wool. We have tried many ways but nothing seems to help.

Perhaps a cleaner's recipe might be of assistance: Make a hot bath of 4 parts water, 1 part ammonia. Place the blanket, unfolded, into this solution, and open it out to admit full action of the liquid. After 20 minutes' immersion, remove and allow to drain, then rinse in clean running water and spread out to dry.

F. D., Fernie—Is there any gold produced in the Sullivan Mine, Kimberley? Are there two thermometers, mercury and alcohol thermometers, and if so, what is the difference?

Yes, the Sullivan produces gold. There are two thermometers, the one in which quicksilver rises from bulb to stem, and the alcohol, which expands and contracts also, and, being a pure white liquid, is always colored. The mercury thermometer is considered more reliable.

P. S., Nakusp—Please give me the address of the head office of the Unemployment Insurance Commission. How much is a single man supposed to get per week from unemployment insurance?

Unemployment Insurance Commission, Department of Labor, Ottawa, Ont. With regard to the amount of insurance due a single man, that would depend on the classification under which he contributed.

Russia Makes Formal Recognition of Viet Nam's Republic

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY

MOSCOW, Jan. 31 (AP)—Russia today recognized Ho Chi-minh's anti-French Viet Nam's Republic in Indo-China and agreed to exchange diplomatic representatives with the Moscow-trained Communist chieftain.

The announcement by Tass, official Soviet news agency, at the same time described the French-supported rival regime of former Emperor Bao Dai as a "puppet Government" representing only a "small group of reactionaries."

The Soviet statement called attention to the fact that Britain and the United States have announced they probably will recognize the Bao Dai regime.

Formal Soviet recognition of Ho Chi-minh will be of major interest to the French, whose troops have been fighting Ho's troops since 1946.

(The Soviet announcement came only a few hours after a report from Washington said State Secretary Dean Acheson of the United States had sent greetings to Bao Dai, expressing the hope of establishing closer relations. Diplomatic officials in London said yesterday Britain will recognize the Bao Dai Government next week and the United States probably would follow suit.

(The French Parliament last Sunday ratified an agreement made last Spring with Bao Dai, former Emperor of Annam, placing him at the head of the new Government with considerable autonomy. But control of foreign relations and military forces remained with the French who have ruled Indo-China with varying degrees of authority since 1787).

The Tass description of Ho -hi-minh's Viet Nam Republic said it controls 90 per cent of the Indo-Chinese population and that the areas occupied by the French contain only 2,000,000 of the country's population.

UNNECESSARY

PARIS, Jan. 31 (AP) — A French official spokesman said today that Russia's recognition of the anti-French Ho Chi-minh regime in Indo-China was "an act of very great gravity."

A Foreign Office source said the Russian move was "unnecessary." He added: "It complicates matters considerably. France extends diplomatic recognition to Russia. Now Russia recognizes the enemies of France."

Moscow Press Sneers at Commonwealth Conference

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Signs multiply that the weapon which will contribute most towards winning the crucial war of the isms in Southeast Asia will be food.

In the language of the Oriental that means rice, which to him is the staff of life. The belligerent who controls the rice-fields is likely to be the ultimate victor, and for two good reasons:

1. No man can fight on an empty stomach.

2. The under-privileged millions of the Orient do much of their thinking with their hungry bellies—and who wouldn't?

STORM SIGNALS

Thus it's no surprise to see the storm signals in Moscow veer around towards Indo-China. That not only is one of the great rice producing countries but it is a strategic key to Burma and other growers of this staple food. Moreover it lies up against China proper, which already has been virtually over-run by the Chinese Communist forces.

Indo-China appears to be one of the crucial battle-grounds in the swelling Red offensive for control of the whole vast Oriental theatre.

Russia today formally recognized the Viet Nam Republic of Dr. Ho Chi-Minh, the Moscow-trained Communist leader whose Guerrilla troops have been fighting the French since 1946. The Moscow Press has been emphasizing Indo-China and Tass, official Russian news agency, reports fierce fighting in Indo-China near the Chinese border between Ho's troops and the combined French and Nationalist forces of former Emperor Bao Dai.

RED PICTURE

The Emperor is heading a new Indo-Chinese Government in rivalry to Ho Chi-minh. One Moscow newspaper declared that "Truman's billions will not save Bao Dai." Another article dealt with the British Commonwealth Conference at Ceylon which decided to plan economic aid to Southeast Asia. This article proclaimed that "no amount of weapons, no threats, no American intervention is capable of crushing the movement of Asian peoples for freedom and independence."

That's the Red side of the picture. Diplomatic officials in London state that Britain will recognize Bao Dai's Government in a week or so. These same sources say that parallel action probably will be taken by America soon afterward.

This development in Indo-China is part of the Communists' encirclement of Burma, Tibet, Afghanistan and the Indian Peninsula. It is a further attempt to tighten the vise which Russia is trying to clamp on that vast area—thus far with a great degree of success.

Fresh Snow May Decide Lake Placid's Problem

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Jan. 31—(AP)—Four inches of snow that fell during the night made it appear that most if not all of the world ski championship jumping and cross-country events would be held in this Adirondack village.

The big championships, first to be held since the end of the Second World War, were due to open yesterday, but lack of snow has thrown everything into confusion.

Long after midnight, but before any snow had fallen, the Council of the Federation Internationale de Ski decided to shift the cross-country races to Rumford, Me., but hold the jumps here on artificial snow if necessary.

The powerful Swedish team is already in Rumford, but the Canadians, Americans and others who were ready to start today were held back by orders of Roger Langley, Executive Secretary of the National Ski Association.

As of now the revised ski schedule gives the jumping definitely set for Lake Placid and the cross-country races scheduled for Lake Placid if possible, with one—as yet undesignated—at Rumford.

British Fleet and Canadian Ships to Meet in Caribbean

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — Two ships of the Canadian Navy will maneuver with units of the British Fleet in the Caribbean late in March winding up a two-month training cruise by the Mediterranean ships.

The aircraft carrier Magnificent and the destroyer Micmac will make the trip, Naval headquarters announced today.

The Magnificent, now at Bermuda, will take the 18th Carrier Air group, comprising two squadrons of Firefly Fighters, on the cruise.

Commodore K. F. Adams of the Magnificent will command the Canadian ships.

Public Servants' Pension Mooted

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP) — The Vancouver Sun in a dispatch from Victoria today says British Columbia Cabinet Ministers and members of the Legislature are getting pension minded.

The Sun says the politicians are talking about ways and means of setting up some kind of a retirement fund for those who come to the end of their days in public life.

WINNIPEG (CP)—Edward Gray, a city fireman, has a modest home. He also has a "hobby". He manages to squeeze 70 youngsters into his home at one time. When they're all in, he teaches them square-d...

Social Service Work Keeps Soroptimists Busy

Social service work, covering Christmas cheer, donations and food parcles to England, has been the main work of the Nelson Soroptimist Club.

As its regular meeting, the Club reported that two Nelson families were given hampers of food at Christmas, and that gifts donated by members had been distributed among senior citizens.

Two tons of coal were donated to a North Shore widow, who lost $70 during a shopping trip in Nelson.

A donation of $10 was made to the Canadian March of Dimes.

A letter from the Croydon Club, England, thanked the Soroptimists for their parcels.

The meeting elected Miss Marjorie Whitmore Recording Secretary, replacing Mrs. Hildred Hughes.

Project for the Western Canadion Region in 1950 is to be a Post Graduate scholarship of $1500 offered to a Canadian medical woman for 1950-51. The award is to be made at the Regional Conference in Regina in April.

Reelect Officers Of Kimberley Church W.A.

KIMBERLEY, B. C., Jan. 31 — All offices of the United Church W. A. were reelected at the annual meeting of the organization. These were, President, Mrs. J. Colthorp; Vice-President, Mrs. F. Phillips; Secretary, Mrs. E. Elliott; Treasurer Mrs. E. Nesbitt.

The five groups of the W.A. held a joint meeting for the election, which was followed by a business session.

Nelson Lions Hear Report on Winter Conference

A report on the mid-Winter Lions conference at Wenatchee last week was given to the Nelson Lions Club by W. G. Valin, Nelson delegate at their supper meeting in the Hume Tuesday night.

He told of the variety of business conducted, and of the novel idea used by the Wenatchee Club in presenting each visitor with a large red apple to remind that Wenatchee was a great apple growing district.

One film, "Farm Homes Beautiful in England" was shown.

A sing-song was also held, new members leading in the singing.

TRAIL-ROSSLAND OLDTIMER DIES

TRAIL, B.C., Jan. 31—A well known District resident and an ardent curler, George C. McKay of Trail and Rossland died in the Trail-Tadanac Hospital early Sunday morning after a lengthy illness.

A native of Earltown, N.C., he was one of the district's real oldtimers coming to B.C. over 60 years ago. He came to Rossland in 1898 at the height of the mining boom to establish a general store that was a gathering place for a host of his friends and cronies.

He later lived at the Coast, Vancouver Island and Edmonton, returning to Trail in 1915 where he was employed by the C.M.&S. Company. He retired four years ago.

A charter member of Emulation Lodge, A.F. and A.M., he was predeceased by his daughter in 1919 and by his wife in 1921. His only known survivors are two sisters, Mrs. B. Crighton of Seattle and Mrs. M. Beaton of Woodland, Wash.

Mrs. Townsend, Nelson Pioneer, Dies

Mrs. Barbara Townsend, well known pioneer resident of Nelson, died at the Kootenay Lake General Hospital Tuesday morning following a brief illness.

With her husband H. H. Townsend, she came to Nelson direct from her native Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1912. Mr. Townsend operated a match block fuel business here for a number of years prior to his death in March, 1939. He was a close friend of R. G. Joy, Historian of the Nelson District Oldtimers' Association.

Active in numerous fields, Mrs. Townsend was always closely connected with church activities. She was a member of the Altar Guild of the St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral Church. In past years Mrs. Townsend was active in the Mothers Club and the Cub Mothers Association. Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. J. A. B. Curtis of Lincoln, England; three sons, John Lindsay of Castlegar, and William Alex and Edward Arthur of Nelson; four sisters, Margaret, in London, England, Janet, in Glasgow, Scotland, Mary at Scapa Flow, Scotland, and Elizabeth in Carstairs Junction, Scotland; two brothers, Alex in Edinburgh and William in London; six grandchildren, one in Nelson, three in Castlegar, and two in Lincoln, England.

Ice Unsafe, Three Take "Dunkings"

Treacherous ice between the boat houses and the Nelson ferry on the Kootenay West Arm has proved the downfall of skaters and people walking on the ice.

One Nelsonite reported Tuesday seeing three accidents, none of them serious.

One man, walking across the lake to work suddenly fell through the ice, being saved only by the fact that he was carrying a long pole, which held him at the edges of the hole. Two others were reported to have fallen in, but were quickly helped out by nearby skaters.

Watery spots on top of the ice were showing, and the ice was soft in some places despite its general thickness.

Returning Officers For Kootenay Named

TODAY'S News Pictures

Nearly Drowned

Mila-Jean Rosentrater of Morburg fell into the St. Lawrence River while playing near her home. She floated 40 feet down the icy river while her brother, Wayne, shown here with her, nearly drowned trying to catch up with her. Her father finally managed to grasp her shoe and pull her from the water.—Central Press Canadian.

Royalty Awaits People's Pleasure

The Royal Family of Belgium is vacationing on the French Riviera, awaiting the vote in Belgium which may return King Leopold to his throne. Shown walking on the grounds of their Riviera chateau are (left to right) Countess De Rethy, King Leopold III and Princess Josephine.—Central Press Canadian.

Heiress of C.P.R. Fortune

Beverly Van Horne (above), the 17-year-old Montreal heiress to a two-million-dollar fortune, who vanished from her home on Dec. 15, is shown after she was found washing dishes in a Vancouver cafe on Jan. 17. Miss Van Horne, a McGill University freshman, was the object of an attempt by Vancouver police to invoke Canada's juvenile protection law as a reason for denying newsmen any information concerning the girl, whose great-grandfather was the main wheel in the construction of the Canadian Pacific railway.—Central Press Canadian.

Meet a Genuine Talking Dog

David Beattie, of Geres, Scotland, poses with his dog, "Blackie Boy," a 4½-year-old pekinese, whose fame has crossed the Atlantic. "Blackie" has put Ceres on the map with his habit of gossiping—if you can call it that. Witnesses vouch for the dog's ability to speak. His vocabulary is limited, of course, but he does say "hello" and indicates his desire for sugar by saying "yum yum." According to Beattie, the dog admonishes visitors who start to leave the Beattie home when it's raining by ejaculating "no, no, not now." Another story goes that the dog once orally greeted a judge at a dog show. A woman exhibitor who heard him keeled over in a dead faint. —Central Press Canadian

Had Her Own Marshall Plan

Attractive Helene Moine is held by French police for allegedly having a Marshall Plan of her own. The 29-year-old woman posed as a niece of U. S. General George C. Marshall, according to the gendarmes, who charge that she defrauded French businessmen by promising them benefits in connection with the Marshall Plan.—Central Press Canadian.

$430,000 IN BONUSES FOR McMILLAN WORKERS

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31. (CP)—Cash bonuses totalling more than $430,000 will be distributed to employees of th H. R. MacMillan Co Ltd., and its subsidiaries, it was announced today at the giant timber firm's annual meeting.

All 15 directors of the company were re-elected.

VERMILION, Alta. (CP)—William B. Elford, organist and choirmaster at First United Church here since 1921, retired recently. The last anthem sung by the choir under his direction was composed by Mr. Elford.

Calgary Livestock

CALGARY, Jan. 31 (CP)—Exporters were looking for stockers and feeders on the Calgary livestock market this morning, while West Coast buyers were showing a keen demand for all classes of butcher cattle.

Quality and finish of offerings remained medium, the percentage of brandable cattle being at a minimum. Strictly fat butcher cattle were unobtainable. About 50 per cent of total receipts were stockers and feeders.

Yesterday 840 cattle were sold and weighed. About 500 were on offer by noon today, with indications of a fair run by the market's close.

The Dominion Livestock Markets Service reported yesterday's saleable receipts: 913 cattle, 2153 calves, 513 hogs. Today's saleable receipts: 73 cattle, 2 calves, 100 hogs, 6 sheep.

Hogs sold yesterday at $25.50 to $25.75 for A's at yards and plants; sows, $12.25, live weight.

Good to near choice butcher steers, $21.50 to $22.50; common to medium, $17 to $21.

Good butcher heifers, $19.50 to $20.50; common to medium, $16 to $19.

Good cows, $15.50 to $16; common to medium, $13.50 to $15. Canners and cutters, $10 to $13.

Good bulls, $17 to $18; common to medium, $14.50 to $16.50.

Good to choice veal calves, $20 to $21; common to medium, $16 to $19.50.

Good stocker and feeder steers, $19 to $20.50; common to medium, $16 to $18.

Market Trends

TORONTO (CP)—A wide list of industrials climbed steadily in very dull trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Ford Motors of Canada held the spotlight, trading heavily for strong gains following announcement of an increased dividend and extra.

Ford A rolled upward for a gain of $3.25 at a new high at $28 at one time, but settled slightly toward the close.

LONDON (CP)—Dullness in most sections of the market featured the London Stock Exchange session today.

British Government bonds drifted lower on light selling.

Official figures on a sharp decline in beer consumption depressed brewery stocks.

MONTREAL (CP) — Gains outnumbered losses in fairly active trading to give the market a slight upward trend near the final hour on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb Market today.

NEW YORK (AP)—Buyers and sellers of stocks had pretty close ideas on the subject of prices today.

Most changes were in minor fractions, with only a handful running to as much as a point either way. Gains and losses were well distributed.

Boy, Mauled by Dogs, Dies in Northern Hospital

FLIN FLON, Man., Jan. 31 (CP) — Six-year-old Garry Lawrence Bielby died in hospital at this Northern Manitoba mining town last night after being mauled by two husky dogs. He also suffered from exposure.

His mother, Mrs. L. Bielby, had sent him out into the back yard to gather wood for the fire.

Approximately an hour later, a neighbor, Gunnar Johanneson, saw the two dogs mauling the boy. He rushed to the Bielby yard and found the boy lying in the snow, his clothes torn from his partially-frozen body and scattered about the yard. Barry was nearly unconscious.

The dogs retreated as Mr. Johnneson came to the scene. The boy was taken to hospital but died within a few minutes after arrival.

National Health Week in Canada

National Health Week, "designed to induce Canadians to think about the promotion of health and the postponement of untimely death," is being observed across Canada this week.

The information on health will be emphasized during the week by various agencies "to help anyone who desires it to win better health for himself and for his children." What the parents, teachers and youth leaders will teach children will show the extent of their understanding of the opportunities medical science has given them to secure health for themselves and for children under their care, the Health League of Canada has declared.

The school health environment of students is improved through health excursions, Junior Red Cross activities and school health projects, the League has pointed out.

"Brush Your Teeth Three Times a Day"

CHICAGO, Jn. 31 (AP) — Tooth decay can be cut to 70 per cent by brushing or rinsing the teeth immediately after eating, a Northwestern University chemist reported today.

Dr. Leonard S. Fosdick said the findings were based on two years of research work with 956 men and women college and university students.

An experimental group of 533 students brushed their teeth 10 minutes after eating. If that was impossible, they rinsed their mouths thoroughly with water. The other 423 students continued their usual oral hygiene habits, most of them brushing their teeth upon arising or before retiring.

The first year the exeprimental group developed an average of 0.8 new cavities compared with 2.2 in the central group, a reduction of 63 per cent. At the end of the second year, X-ray examinations showed the experimental group had 60 per cent less new cavities than the control group.

C.C.L. Hopes to Call National Convention Of Unemployed

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP—The Canadian Congress of Labor said today it hopes soon to call a National convention of unemployed.

The National Council of the 350,000-member C.C.L. decided Jan. 19 to organize unemployed workers and bring them into affiliation with the Congress.

Today, C.C.L. Secretary-Treasurer Pat Conroy said in a statement that organization of the new group is proceeding rapidly and appointment of a National Director and Associate Director wil be announced in a few days.

On the 10-Pin Alleys

R. Brown and his ten pin keglers rolled their way to a 974-944 victory over the W. Leslie quartet on the Legion Alleys Tuesday night. J. H. Allen was top scorer of the night's games when he tipped the pins for a high individual of 164 and a high aggregate of 302.

In Monday night's games, Vic Graves team took the S. J. Newell foursome for a ride with their win of 1030-964. Allen captured both the high individual and the high aggregate with 182 and 346.

Scores follow:

C.P.R. Promotions

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 31—Charles G. Jordan, formely General Agent for the Pacific Railways Passenger Department at Seattle, Wash., has been appointed Assistant General Passenger Agent at Vancouver, effective February 1, it has been announced by W. D. Buchanan, General Passenger Agent here. Mr. Jordan replaces the late Ernest Officer, whose death occurred here recently after many years of service with the company.

Succeeding Mr. Jordan at Seattle is Walker W. Gosnell, well-known in Vancouver and through out the Interior of B.C., and formely District Passenger Agent for the Canadian Pacific at Vancouver. He has been in Vancouver since 1943.

Mr. Gosnell made frequent trips to the Kootenay District as special traffic representative while stationed at Vancouver.

In other Passenger Department changes announced by Mr. Buchanan, J. M. Alderson, has been promoted to become District Passenger Agent for the C.P.R.'s British Columbia Coast Steamship Services. He has been General Agent for the Lines Passenger operations since 1946.

Harry Newton; formerly General Agent at Calgary, comes to Vancouver to be Passegner Traffic Representative.

Sixth Year for Foulkes as Army Chief

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — As an indirect reflection of the cold war, the Government has decided to extend the term of Lt.-Gen. Charles Foulkes as Canada's Army Chief into a sixth year, equalling the record for a Canadian. He will finish five years in office this August and will continue at least until August, 1951.

The decision indicates official feeling that the wartime corps commander should continue in office at least until Atlantic-pact defence planning emerges from earlier stages and the long-range form takes shape. He is Canada's spokesman on the Pact Military Committee, highest non-political body.

There is no sign, either, of early shifts for the other three chiefs of staff, Vice Admiral H. T. W. Grant of the Navy, Air Marshal W. A. Curtis of the R.C.A.F. and Dr. O. M. Solandt, Director-General of Defence Research.

Air Marshal Curtis, at 56, is one year beyond the normal retirement age for one of his rank but such extensions are not unusual in exceptional circumstances. He and Admiral Grant, 50, were appointed chiefs Sept. 1, 1947.

The fact that there is any thought at all of retirement for Gen. Foulkes—he is 47—points up a problem that arises from the fact that Canada's forces, probably more than any other in the world, are youthful organizations. The problem is pointed up, too, by the fact that the logical heirs to all three services chiefs are all in their 40s.

On one side is the rotation system under which the services keep shifting officers from job to job over two or three year periods to broaden experience. If the man on top stays there too long it tends to thwart the system. There is, however, no set period for a chief of staff.

On the other side is the fact that a retired chief of staff gets a $12,000-a-year pension and the public can hardly be expected to welcome too many pensions of that size for men still relatively young.

Movie Gossip—

Van Heflin Prefers To Make Own Mistakes, Starts Free Lancing

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 31 (AP) — Would you leave a $3,000-a-week job to assert your independence?

Van Heflin did. And he has no regrets.

"I figure this way," he said. "After five years of college and 20 years in the business, I ought to be capable enough to make my own decisions. At any rate, I would prefer my mistakes to be my own, and not those made by my studio."

Heflin's parting with M.G.M. was friendly, but he made no secret of his discontent with his post-war roles.

GRATEFUL FOR 'NAME'

But the Oklahoma-born actor is grateful to the studio for giving him what he sought from the movies—a "name."

"I realized the importance of a movie 'name' when I was touring with 'Philadelphia Story,' he recalled. "I knew that people like Lunt and Fontanne, Katherine Cornell and Helen Hayes could fill houses for the first three days in a town, but business might fall off after that.

But the movie 'name' of Katharine Hepburn could fill the house, even to the balconies, for a week or more.

"The power of the movies was also driven home to me when the film version of 'Philadelphia Story' came out. I realized that Jimmy Stewart, playing the same role I did on the stage, could be seen by as many people in two days as had seen me in two years and he could get an academy award for doing it."

FLOPPED IN B PIX

Heflin, who had flopped as a B-picture actor at R.K.O. in 1936, accepted an M.G.M. contract in 1941. He started at $500 a week, $150 less than his stage salary.

"I wasn't 'swamped with offers,'" he said with unusual candor. "I took the salary cut because I wanted to get a movie 'name,' I realized I didn't have the good looks or personality to become a topflight star, but I felt I had enough competence as an actor to establish myself."

He did it in a hurry—by winning an Oscar in his third film "Johnny Eager."

But after three years in the Army he was dissatisfied with his roles. He felt that his best ones were three he did on loan-out to other studios. So he got his release.

However, shed no tears for Heflin's loss of three gees every pay day. His salary as a free-lancer will amount to around $10,000 a week—and there are plenty of takers.

Medical Science Scores Again

By FRED KERNER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (CP)—Medical science has scored another victory in its never-ending battle to reduce the risks of childbirth.

A Columbia University specialist today disclosed the development of an electrical machine which determines whether an expectant mother is on the verge of giving normal or abnormal labor to her child. The unique device also shows whether labor is real or false.

The designer of the machine is Dr. Charles Steer, a member of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology at the University's College of Physicians and Surgeons. He made public his unique machine in the current issue of the American Journal of Obsterics and Gynaecology published today.

Truman Calls for 70-Day Truce in Mining Deadlock

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—President Truman today called for a 70-day truce in the coal mining deadlock while presidential fact-finders investigate.

He proposed to act outside the Union-hated Taft-Hartley Act, following the same pattern he used in last year's steel strike.

In messages to the United Mine Workers and leading operator groups, Mr. Truman asked that they agree to:

1. Seventy days of full coal production beginning Feb. 9.

2. An investigation by a Presidential Board of three which would be under instructions to make recommendations within 60 days for a settlement of the mining contract dispute.

Neither side would be bound to accept the Board's recommendations.

The President asked for replies to his proposal by noon Saturday, Feb. 4.

Sudden Wealth Story Too Good To Be True

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (CP)— It was too good to be true for 85-year-old Martin Oscar Olson. The story was that he had a $40,000 fortune coming to him from an old insurance policy.

Who first reported the $40,000 figure remains a mystery. Also as spurious was the report that Olson took out the policy in the 1890s, paid $20,000 for it, and stipulated that it be locked in the vaults of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York for 50 years.

SHARP MEMORY

Olson, who despite his age still has a sharp memory, apparently never took the "windfall" seriously. At his home in Tarzana, Calif., he denied ever laying out $20,000 for insurance. Yes, he did remember taking out a policy with Mutual in "1893 or 1894," but it was for only $100.

After a bit of checking, Mutual said that Olson, a one-time Topeka, Kas., blacksmith, took out a 20-payment life policy for $1000 in June 1896.

The Company said Olson, however, failed to keep up payments and in 1931 the policy was put on a "paid up basis" with a current cash value of $132 and a $150 value on death.

Because of Olson's age, the Insurance Company undertook an investigation to find out his whereabouts.

That's where Detective George Pinchin of Vancouver entered the picture. Pinchin said he had been hired by the Company to locate Olson, who once lived in Vancouver, and has a sister, Mrs. Gordon McKenzie, living there.

Pinchin said, too, that the policy was worth but $132.

Congress Hears Korea Must Have Economic Help

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson told Congress today that to stop economic aid to Korea now would be "most unfortunate." He said it would affect not only that young post-war republic but all of Southeast Asia.

It is a "safe bet," the Secretary added, the democratic South Korea can resist anything short of a "major attack" from the Russian-dominated Northern half of the Korean Peninsula.

Acheson outlined American responsibilities in Korea at an amicable session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

After that, Chairman Kee (D-W. Va.) ordered the committee into executive session for a closed-door discussion of the more touchy questions of U. S. foreign policy throughout all of Asia. This policy now is under fire from Acheson's Republican critics.

Acheson urged reversal of the House defeat last Monday at the $60,000,000 Korean Assistance Bill.

Franco-British Wheat Contract Near Completion

PARIS, Jan. 31 (AP)—Informed circles said today a Franco-British wheat agreement is virtually concluded.

France will send Britain 50,000 tons of wheat. Negotiations were within the International Wheat Agreement.

France signed an international agreement in Washington last year.

The French export quota was then put at 90,000 tons. Already 40,000 tons have been sold to the Netherlands.

Threaten to Bomb Montreal Paper

MONTREAL, Jan. 31 (CP)—Le Devoir, which has been carrying a series of articles by the city's former Vice-Buster Pacific (Pax) Plante on Montreal's underworld, today reported a bomb threat unless the articles are stopped.

The newspaper said in a newspage story that two well-dressed men called at its office Saturday asking to see Mr. Plante.

When told that Mr. Plante was not there, the men asked for the newspaper's manager. They told him: "If you publish another article by Plante, the place will be blown up".

Le Devoir sent a copy of its letter to Chief of Detectives Wilfrid Bourdon informing him of the incident.

Want Action on Unemployment

OTTAWA, Jan. 31 (CP) — Canada's two major labor congresses today renewed demands that the Government take immediate action to halt mounting unemployment.

A. R. Mosher, President of the Canadian Congress of Labor, and Percy Bengough, President of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, both placed unemployment above the 323,000 figure announced by the Government Saturday.

Excluding Imports May Damage Exports' Trade

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

N. S. Robertson, President of the North American Life Assurance Company, had some plain speaking to do yesterday about exports.

Some of it may not be pleasant reading to some industries, but here it is:

It is said that our impending external trade problem stems from world conditions, from our customers' dollar exchange problem, and that there is nothing we as Canadians can do about it. With this view I do not agree. There are factors in the problem which are wholly external to Canada, and no doubt over these we have no control. But I am convinced that there are many other elements which we can ourselves regulate and manage so as to assist in the capture and retention of foreign markets.

The old trade patterns by which our customers earned dollars from others with which to pay us, have perhaps largely disappeared, at prospective customers are to gain least for the present, and if our dollars they must in the meantime earn them from us or from this continent.

G. E. Tunstall, Remembered by Oldtimers, Once Sailed on Lytton

By R. G. JOY
Historian, Nelson and District Oldtimer's Association

On reading the Daily News Monday morning, I noted that G. E. Tunstall of Kamloops, another real oldtimer, had gone over the Divide.

He and his father were well known in the early days of the Kootenay. The late Captain James Fitzsimmons, in his chronicles of the Columbia River, writes that George Tunstall was purser on the steamship Lytton. Many oldtimers remembered George when he sold explosives in the Kootenay. He built the brick powder magazine on Hoover's point in the early 90's, about 91 or 92.

John Burns later bought the property from Newlin Hoover and made old powder magazine his residence.

George Tunstall, representing his company, did his best to claim ownership to Hoover's point, but with the help of the late John Houston, Hoover was given the land on preemption rights.

George was very popular and always in a happy mood. He built a nice little bungalow in Bogus Town (now Fairview). The late Mr. Beattie and his family resided there for some years. It is I think, on the Southeast corner of Behnsen and Second Street.

The streamer Lytton was launched in 1890 and completed in July at a cost of about $40,000. She was 130 feet long, 25½ feet wide, and about 125 tons burthen. First officers of the steamer were Captain Frank Odin, Master; Alex Lindquist, Mate; George E. Tunstall, Purser; Mr. Hattersley, Engineer; and Mr. Henley, Stewart.

Claims Charge No Worse Than Distributing Aspirin

VICTORIA, B.C., Jan. 31 (CP)—One of Canada's noted criminal lawyers told Appeal Court here today that charges against five men convicted as members of a Canada-wide narcotics ring were "no more serious than a charge of conspiring to distribute aspirin tablets".

G. A. Martin, K. C., of Toronto, Defence Counsel for three of the five men, said that since the criminal code never mentions the drug the men allegedly conspired to distribute, it was up to the Crown to prove that it was a salt of one of the drugs that is forbidden. He charged that the Crown had never done that.

B.C. Fruit Trees Damaged by Frost

KELOWNA, B. C., Jan. 31 (CP) —Some damage to British Columbia fruit trees is expected, officials of the B. C. Agriculture Department said today, but it still is too early to estimate just how much will occur.

Peach, apricot and cherry, particularly those three years old or more, are believed most likely to suffer as well as apple trees North of this Okanagan centre where temperatures have gone as low as 30 degrees below zero.

On the good side, a heavy snow blanket has protected roots.

Mouse damage to bark has been reported, too, but it won't be possible to ascertain how much until the snow leaves.

In the Wenatchee, Wash., Valley, experts have warned of a frost kill that may be serious. There, last Winter's cold hit many peach, apricot and sweet cherry trees hard and Sunday's low of 22 degrees below zero may have finished many.

Tuna Prices Down May Affect B.C.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 31 (CP) — Two fishing companies today said California tuna is being offered at a new low price of $200 a ton—a price which may jeopardize British Columbia's albacore industry.

They said at that price, the fish could be landed in B. C. at $320 a ton including duty and freight.

Albacore—or tuna—curerntly selling here goes for $540 a ton, storage price.

The companies say the United States market is glutted with tuna and that, too, American companies wish to clear out stocks in case Japanese tuna hit the market this coming Summer.

The British Columbia tuna fishing industry has been operating on a large scale for only two years. Already it has undergone price cuts slumping from a 1948 price of $600 a ton, to 1949's low of $350.

British Tug, Rumania, Saves German Seamen

ROTTERDAM, The Netherlands, Jan. 31 (AP)—The 743-ton German ship S.S. Fidamus has sunk near the German island of Borkum, the British tug Rumania reported by radio today.

The radio message, picked up here, said the Rumania rescued eight survivors and that a search for eight other missing crew members was continuing.

The Rumania is owned by William Watkins, Limited, of London. She was built in 1944 and was formerly called the Empire Susan.

War Memorials For Those With No Known Graves

LONDON, Jan. 31 (Reuters)—The Imperial War Graves Commission announced plans tonight for war memorials in many parts of the world for Britons and other Empire and Commonwealth citizens who fell in the war and have no known graves.

Most naval memorials will be in Britain. Commemoration of armies will be by campaign with most memorials in war cemeteries.

In Europe, the sites chosen are Trondheim in Norway, Dunkerque and Bayeux in France, Nijmegen in The Netherlands, Cassino in Italy, and Athens in rGeece.

The principal memorial in Africa will be at El Alamein. Others will be Madjez-el-Bab in Tunsia, Hargeisa in, Somaliland, Port Sudan and Mombasa in Kenya, and Diegosuarez in Madagascar.

In Asia there will be memorials at two cemeteries in Iraq and Iran; at Beyrouth, Lebanon; at Singapore, and at Saiwan Bay, Hong Kong.

The sites for the memorials for the campaigns in Burma and for the defence of India have not yet been chosen.

The largest memorial to the air forces will be at Cooper's Hill, Surrey, England. It will bear the names of all those lost in operations from bases in the United Kingdom and Northwest Europe.

Others will be in Malta, at El Alamein, at Singapore and in Canada.

In the South and Southwest Pacific eight memorials will commemorate together those of the land and air forces and merchant navies of Australia and New Zealand.

The commemoration of the navies will be linked with the naval memorials built in England after the First World War at Chatham, Plymouth and Portsmouth in honor of those who had no other grave than the sea.

At Plymouth the names of the Royal Navy, the South African naval forces, the Royal Australian Navy and the naval forces of the colonies will be inscribed.

At the wish of the Governments of Canada and New Zealand, commemoration for the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal New Zealand Navy will be by memorials to be built in the two Dominions.

At the Kranji military cemetery, Singapore, the memorial will be for the fallen in the campaigns in Malaya, Java and Sumatra, and at Saiwan Bay military cemetery for the Hong Kong campaign.

At Singapore there will also be a memorial to air force men lost while operating from bases in India, Burma, Malaya and the Far East.

Eight memorials will commemorate together those of the land and air forces and of the merchant navies of Australia and New Zealand who died in those areas and have no known grave. They will be built in the war cemeteries of the Pacific Islands at Port Moresby, Lae, Rabaul, Ambon, Labuan, Bourail, and on the mainland of Australia at Adelaide River and Sydney.

JOHANNESBURG, Jan. 31 (Reuters)—South African Police today arrested 650 persons after an armed raid on Newclare—a non-European suburb of Johannesburg—following disturbances last night.

Many were released after "screening" and the situation in Newclare was officially described as "all quiet."

In last night's disturbances some non-European motorists, policemen and a European civilian were injured when police opened fire.

Trouble at Newclare was believed to have started when an African constable arrested an African for possessing liquor.

C. Emory Tells Gyros of Old Time Nelson, Events and Buildings

Nelson Gyros Monday were told of many of the old time buildings, people, and events of Nelson, as A. C. Emory reminisced on his childhood in Nelson. Mr. Emory, himself a Gyro, spoke on Nelson's early days at the supper meeting of the Nelson Gyro Club in the Hume.

His father, A. D. Emory, had first come to Nelson in 1890, when he was travelling for a clothing firm in Calgary. He travelled for eight years in the Kootenays, before coming to Nelson and settling in a clothing business of his own here. It was not until two years later however, Mr. Emory said, that the rest of his father's family moved to Nelson.

A. D. Emory's first store was at a site which is now the K.W.C. block. It was, after some time, moved to a store on Ward Street, where the Medical Arts building now stands, until 1903, when the business was moved to a Baker Street store, also on the present Medical Arts building site. In 1907 the store was moved to its present Baker Street location.

During all these moves A. D. Emory had as his partner A. T. Walley. In 1920 Mr. Emory became the sole owner of the business.

SCHOOL NOW APARTMENT

A. C. Emory said that the first Nelson school house, a four-roomed wooden building is now being used as an apartment house in the 100 block of Baker Street.

He also told of the skating rinks in Nelson, the first on Front Street, the second at the top of Stanley Street, third at the site of the former Four-Ways Playground on Hall Mines Road, and finally the Civic Centre Arena.

The Hume School in those days, he said was just a wooden building where the Gordon Road now runs.

He remembered also when the old cemetery, where the Nelson tourist park now is, was moved up the hill to the Nelson Memorial Park location.

A waterfront park existed about half a mile farther up the West Arm from the present Lakeside Park position. A lumber mill now operated at the site beyond the present shipyards.

He said that the shipyards used to be on the other side of the old slaughterhouse, which was on the stretch of sand now known as Shirley Beach.

The hospital in those days used to be a small house, on the corner of Latimer and Kootenay Streets. This, he said, had recently been made into an apartment house.

LIVELY

Nelson was a lively mining town, and the smelter was running at full force. There were 25 hotels and saloons in Nelson when he was growing up. Ward Creek ran down Ward Street, and a bridge crossed it on Baker Street, he recalled.

For spending money, as a boy, with the rest of his friends, he used to gather bottles and sell them to the Nelson Soda Water Factory, where the present Grizzelle's Greenhouses stand.

Mr. Emory also spoke of the rivalry between the Great Northern and C.P.R. Railways, and their ships on the Kootenay Lake.

July 1 in those days called for a two-day celebration, July 1 and 2. Another major event of the year was the Fall Fair, he said.

Main attractions for the small fry at these festivals were the drilling contests, and all the other contests famous to mining and logging towns. The kids always flocked around the grounds when a balloon ascension was being made ready. He told of the time that the men were filling a balloon in preparation for an ascension, at the ball park, and the wind caught the balloon, blowing it over onto the fire. It caught fire readily, blowing against the grandstand, which was on the opposite side of the grounds to the present grandstand location, and there was a near-panic in the crowd watching.

FIRST CREMATION

He also remembered well the time that he played "hookey" from school, along with all the other children in the town, and went instead to the cremation of a Hindu. This was the first cremation in Nelson, he said.

One of his recollections was of the reign of a firebug, who burned down the smelter in Rosemont. He recalled the fires at the smelter and at the Brewery, among others, which were set.

He had many pictures of ships, scenes, people, and buildings of the old time City of Nelson which he passed around.

His son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emory played two well-received piano duets: "Night and Day" and "Two Guitars."
