Biggest Single Bag in Korean War; Peace Talks Deadlocked; Canadian Commanders Report "Business as Usual"

By JOHN RANDOLPH
SEOUL, Korea, Dec. 1 (Saturday) (AP)—U.S. Sabre jets pounced on 46 Red planes Friday near the Manchurian border and shot down 10 in flames for the biggest single bag of positive kills in the Korean war.

Significantly, six of the destroyed Red planes were twin-engined bombers and three were single-engined fighter-bombers. Heretofore Red bombers over Korea have been notably scarce. The 10th victim was a Mig jet.

The victorious U.N. pilots, including a new jet ace, said they turned the battle into a "rat race."

Three more Red planes were damaged. The U.S. Fifth Air Force said all 31 Sabres involved returned safely.

The Sabres surprised a flight of 30 slower, propeller-driven Red bombers and fighter-bombers escorted by 16 Mig-15 jets.

Financial Aid to Farmers Likely Made by January

CALGARY, Nov. 30 (CP)—Trade Minister Howe said today that financial aid for distressed Prairie grain growers is in prospect for early in the new year.

The Minister in charge of grain marketing, said at the annual meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool he is prepared to recommend legislation for interim credit for farmers with unthreshed grain and those who, for one reason or another have been unable to deliver their grain to country elevators.

Mr. Howe said the legislation would be introduced at the current session of parliament in the expectation the plan would be in operation by the early part of January. For the next few weeks, he said, final payments totalling $130,000,000 from the Wheat Board's 1950-51 pool would tide farmers over.

10 Strokes, 7 Years For Coast Youth

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 (CP)—Ten strokes of the paddle and seven years in the penitentiary have been given Raymond Todd, 21, charged as the ring leader in the Aug. 30 holdup of a Vancouver bank.

Also sentenced by Judge R. A. Sargent in County Court today was Charles Stuart, 22. He was given five years.

A third accused, James Roxburgh, 21, was previously sentenced to six months definite and two years less a day indefinite.

In passing sentence his honor said Todd was the ringleader and had led both Roxburgh and Stuart into the crime.

The men were arrested after a $2200 robbery at a Broadway branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada.

Rallying Ground for Hitlerism . . . Reich Party Arouses Fears in Many Minds

By DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HANNOVER, Germany, Nov. 30 (CP)—Chancellor has dropped Canada's 27th Brigade into the hotbed of Germany's resurgent Nazism, a small but growing movement that is causing anxiety in Ottawa as well as other capitals.

The Canadians have no direct concern or contact with the so-called Socialist Reich Party and most of them probably don't know it exists.

At Hameln, where Canadian engineers are based, flags of the West German Republic have been torn down six times and a newspaper is published by former S.S. men of the Second World War. The flag has been torn down, too, at nearby Celle and Peine.

HAVING RISEN FIVE FEET INTO THE AIR on four test flights, says inventor J. E. Caldwell, this machine has proved its principle of flight and is the prototype of the "flying car." It's a propellerless whizzer-bike with wings fore and aft which operates by flapping the wings in the same manner as a bird. It is supposed to be capable of flying straight up and down and go 100 miles on a gallon of gasoline at 100 miles an hour. This prototype model has been retired while inventor Caldwell, shown standing beside the contraption, builds a stronger frame and substitutes a more powerful (10 h.p.) motor. In the pilot's seat is W. H. Francis, operator of an aircraft service, who tested the model in Medicine Hat, Alberta. — Central Press Canadian.

Drilled Team Robs Bank of $30,000

TORONTO, Nov. 30 (CP)—A six-man gang of bandits, working like a precision-drill team, used a Sten gun today to kow 30 persons while they snatched $30,000 from a suburban bank branch and fled in a fast car.

The robbery, just before noon in Leaside, was carried out in four minutes. The loot was money on hand to cash month-end payroll checks from employees of big Leaside industries.

One shot was fired but no one was hurt.

It is believed some of the men were those who held up a Toronto bank Nov. 20.

Bank employees said the men carried out today's holdup without a waste motion. The escape car was found later, abandoned on a side street a short distance from the bank.

Lumber Workers Slay at Jobs

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 (CP)—Three thousands interior lumber workers continued on the job today while efforts were made to settle a wage dispute.

For the second day, officials of the International Woodworkers of America (I.W.O.) and mill operators met with Labor Relations Board to discuss a dispute contract.

The Union seeks a settlement on the basis of a 1944 cent-an-hour wage increase and a check-off of union dues. Operators offered 20 cents to bring the basic wage to $1.30, but refused other concessions.

The Union called a strike a week ago, but the men went back to the job until the Labor Relations Board deals with the dispute.

Familiar Figure to Be Absent From Vancouver Street

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 (CP)—The little grey-haired widow who for the last eight years has entertained Christmas shoppers outside a department store, will not be there this year.

Mrs. Violet Wells is another victim of a new city policy which bans all types of entertainment on the streets.

Last year shoppers donated over $200 in the Yuletide season to augment her $85 a month war veterans' allowance.

Pope Receives Two Canadian Ministers

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 30 (CP)—The Pope today received Canadian External Affairs Minister, L. B. Pearson, and Defence Minister Brooke Claxton in private audience. The Minister's wives accompanied them. The audience was held at the Pope's summer residence at Castel Gandolfo.

Reject Pay Hike For Coast Constables

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 30 (CP)—City Police Commission today flatly refused pay increases for police constables but agreed to a request for a $15 a month hike for sergeants and detectives.

Const. Joseph Barlow, president of the Police Union, earlier asked a basic pay of $380 a month for detectives and sergeants, $335 for constables, $285 second class constables, and $235 for probationers.

The commission agreed on the $15 hike for detectives and sergeants to increase the differential between the constables' wages.

"We feel we have to try and keep costs down," Mayor Percy George, chairman of the commission, said.

Propose Cominco, Oil Earnings Should Enter Freight Rate Picture

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP)—The proposal that freight rates should be held down through the use of income from the non-rail enterprises of the railway corporations was put before the Board of Transport Commissioners today.

The idea was advanced by counsel for Provincial Governments opposing the general 10-per-cent rate increase currently sought by the railways. They kept the theme running through cross-examination of railway witnesses.

It was taken up in part, too, by Mr. Justice J. D. Kearney, new chief commissioner of the board. The chief commissioner indicated he is thinking of possible formulas for taking non-rail income into account in setting freight charges.

The question developed as the Canadian Pacific Railway—the "yardstick" line on freight rates—was presenting its case. The C.P.R. has heavy yearly revenues from its non-rail undertakings such as Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company, which gives it about $18,000,000 a year in dividends. But its witnesses have suggested the railway operations, which involve freight rates directly, should stand on their own feet.

Counsel for some of the provinces took issue with the suggestion of a C.P.R. witness—Dr. M. H. Waterman, professor of finance at the University of Michigan—that the non-rail and non-rail operations of the C.P.R. should be divorced for rate-making purposes.

Dr. Waterman had expressed the view that the non-rail enterprises were carrying their share of the corporate loading in helping keep up the price of C.P.R. stock, from which the corporation draws its needed capital.

Pessimism Seen for Big Four Disarmament Talks

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer
PARIS, Nov. 30 (CP)—The United Nations, with a rare display of unanimity, today agreed on a plan for secret big-power, East-West disarmament talks.

But Western diplomats saw little chance of agreement being reached in sessions starting tomorrow among the four major powers—Britain, France, the United States and Russia.

The reason was the rejection of the Western disarmament plan outlined in familiar phrases by Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky at today's meeting of the 60-power political committee.

Delegates of the four countries are to report not later than Dec. 10 on prospects for agreement on world disarmament.

The political committee acted unanimously to hand the conflicting Eastern and Western disarmament plans to the Big Four after Vishinsky announced that Russia would take part in such talks.

VISHINSKY BOOS
But Vishinsky lashed out once more at the disarmament proposals of the Western Big Three in his acceptance. Key delegates were pessimistic about the possibility of a compromise.

The political committee had taken all week to reach the decision. Iraq, Syria and Pakistan proposed Monday that the committee ask the Big Four powers to see what they could do about disarmament.

U.S. Ambassador Philip Jessup accepted. Later Selwyn Lloyd, Britain, and formally accepted for all the three Western powers but Vishinsky refused to be hurried. He insisted he

Doctor Protests Gov't Statement Concerning Hoax

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP)—A Liberal member and doctor, Brig. E. A. McCusker, protested angrily in the Commons today against a Government statement concerning the youthful American who fraudulently posed as a physician in the Royal Canadian Navy.

Brig. McCusker, member for Regina and Deputy-Director of Medical Services of the 1st Canadian Corps during the Second World War, jumped to his feet and shouted:

"I object to this statement. It is an insult to the medical profession. The doctors who examined this man and admitted him to the service should be examined themselves."

Brig. McCusker is parliamentary assistant to Health Minister Martin.

His outburst came after the reading of a statement which said Ferdinand Waldo Demarec of Lawrence, Mass., had been questioned extensively by physicians whose reports "led us to believe that he had had all the necessary experience and knowledge that a doctor would be required to have."

LACK INFORMATION
The statement was read by J. A. Blanchette, parliamentary assistant to Defence Minister Claxton, in reply to questions asked previously by an opposition member.

Mr. Blanchette said the Defence Department lacks information as to whether or not Demarec, since discharged from the Navy and deported from Canada, actually "is a qualified doctor." However, his identity as Demarec had been established.

Mr. Blanchette told Howard Green (PC—Vancouver-Quadrant) that the department is looking into possible changes in the method by which doctors are taken into the Navy.

Free Beer Result Of Merchants' War

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Nov. 30 (AP)—A merchants' war drove the price of beer down to zero in Alaska. One dealer even delivered it free.

Streets were jammed with residents who squeezed and pushed into retail establishments after the price dropped from $8 a case to nothing.

It started when one dealer slashed his prices from $9 to $3.75 a case last week. A competitor cut to $3.35, scarcely what it costs to ship the beverage to Alaska plus taxes.

Last night the Southside Liquor Market started giving it away. The proprietor, noting that many could not get in, started delivering it to downtown points. Police were called in to break up a traffic jam.

But beer was still free. One market owner said he was going to make it even cheaper—he didn't explain how.

Lady Alexander Names Destroyer

MONTREAL, Nov. 30 (CP)—Lady Alexander, wife of the Governor-General, today christened the first of 14 anti-submarine destroyer escort vessels at a launching here.

The new ship was named H.M.C.S. St. Laurent in honor of a previous Canadian destroyer which served with distinction in the Second World War.

The launching ceremony marked the successful conclusion of the first stage of a new technique in naval shipbuilding, involving an all-welded hull and extensive use of aluminum in the ship's superstructure and interior.

Year's Probation for Taking Tug for Ride

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Nov. 30 (CP)—Donald R. Elms, 22-year-old deckhand, pleaded guilty today to the theft of a $500 tug.

His explanation: "I had been drinking and I just wanted to go for a boat ride."

He was given a year's probation and ordered to post a $500 bond. Elms took the tug on a roundabout voyage from the Fraser River to Vancouver harbor, a distance of 40 miles along the twisting shoreline.

TORONTO, Nov. 30 (CP)—Civic election note: More than 800 persons gathered in a smoke-filled ground floor room of the West-end Orange Hall Thursday to play bingo. On the third floor candidates were beseeching voters to take a more active part in Toronto's elections. Third floor attendance: 50.

New Pension Makes Taxpayer-Aided Scheme Unnecessary, Well-To-Do Chief Beneficiaries, Underwriters Argue

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP)—Two insurance organizations today urged the Government to discontinue the sale of annuities, or, alternately, to sell them only at self-supporting premium rates.

The request was made first by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association, whose membership includes 64 Canadian, British and United States companies conducting business in Canada. It was supported by the Life Underwriters Association of Canada, made up of some 10,000 life insurance agents across Canada.

The request was contained in a 2000-word brief submitted to the Commons Committee on Industrial Relations, studying the proposed changes to the Government Annuities Act.

The Association suggested that the need for government annuities has largely disappeared with adoption of the $40-a-month old-age pension. SELF-SUPPORTING RATES

The Association said that if Parliament decides that the government should continue to sell annuities, then they should be sold at self-supporting premium rates; the maximum amount of the annuity should be decreased, and no cash surrender privilege should be granted.

In the bill before the committee, the government proposes to increase the maximum amount of an individual annuity to $2400 from $1200. It also provides for a cash surrender privilege in some cases.

"SUBSIDIZES"
The Association said the government now "subsidizes" the sale of annuities. The government bore the $800,000 cost of administering the Government Annuities Act.

The subsidy meant that taxpayers as a whole were providing cheap annuities for people, mainly in the well-to-do class.

"It is not a proper function of government to subsidize a small part of the population at the expense of the general taxpayer, especially when many members of that part are better able to take care of themselves than is the average Canadian," the brief said.

Annuity rates of insurance companies are from five to 15 per cent higher than the government rates, partly due to more active merchandising and servicing and partly due to subsidy.

Queen's Carpet Earns Dollars for Britain

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Queen Mary's hand-made carpet earned almost 120,000 scarce dollars for Britain.

A cheque for $119,651.88 was sent to Prime Minister Churchill to be turned into the British Treasury. Churchill today wrote Queen Mary expressing the Cabinet's thanks.

The money was earned by exhibiting the carpet in Canada and the United States and by its sale to the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in Canada, who gave it to the National Museum in Ottawa. Its formal presentation to the museum was made by Princess Elizabeth on her recent Canadian tour.

MANCHESTER, England, Nov. 30 (Reuters)—Normal court procedure was reversed yesterday when a man charged with murder threw the book at the judge.

Albert Bradley, 24, was being sworn in on the witness stand. Suddenly he heaved the Bible at Judge Sir George Justin Lynkay.

The startled judge caught the book in the chest. It spilled a glass of water and splashed his gown and papers.

Police dragged the struggling Bradley out of court and the judge declared a recess.

When the hearing resumed, a medical officer testified that Bradley was "in a highly overwrought emotional condition."

The judge stopped the trial, discharged the jury and ordered a new trial. He said the present jury would likely be prejudiced.

LONDON (CP)—Accused in a court case here, the man in the dock was given his choice of lawyers and pointed to one with the remark "I'll have that one." The chosen lawyer replied: "I'm sorry, you can't have him. I'm prosecuting you."

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 30 (AP)—A patient in St. Francis Hospital wanted a postage stamp when he pulled the lever on a red box in the lobby yesterday. Instead he got a quick visit from eight fire companies.

"You should have noticed that there's no coin slot in a fire alarm box," chided Rudy Kneer, assistant fire chief.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP)—A bit of St. Andrew's day by-play brought roars of laughter in the Commons today.

Gordon Graydon, Ontario-born Progressive Conservative Member for Peel, sent William (Scotty) Bryce, Scottish-born C.C.F. Member for Selkirk, a "replica of the Stone of Scone," stolen from Westminster Abbey by Scottish nationalists last year, but later recovered.

Civic Choir Wins Acclaim of Nelson

Listeners After First Radio Program

They are giving Nelson audiences something they've never had before. That was the way one music lover described the Nelson Civic Choir's performance after listening to the half-hour program over Radio Station CKLN Friday night. And that was just the comment of one. Others were equally enthusiastic.

The program was the first radio undertaking of the choir, organized last year and now entering its second season.

Under the direction of Eric W. Les, schools music director, the group presented a program of sheer musical beauty. It included eight songs, "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "The Song of the Mountaineers," "The Highland Love Song," "The Enchanted Evening," "Artist's Life," "My Bonnie Lass Smilth," "An Eskay Love Lull" and "The Long Day Closes."

Mrs. J. Fraser was accompanist. The program was the first in a series to be broadcast, next of which will be a Christmas season presentation.

Schools Band Readies for BBC Presentation

Preparations for the recording of several selections by the Nelson High School Band for BBC presentation are well under way and are progressing "very well," E. W. Les, music director of Nelson Junior and Senior High Schools, said Friday. Recording will be made in either January or February.

The band, which has two practices a week at which all 60 members attend, expects to record the "Cardinal March" an overture, "Rhapsody in Blue" and several selections from the Christmas Concert including a piano concerto, which will feature, it is believed, for the first time, a pianist accompanied by a band and a trumpet duet.

Recordings will be used by the British Broadcasting Company in a half hour broadcast on an exchange school program.

Nelson to Elect Two Trustees

Completing their terms are Chairman Dr. A. K. Gibbons and Trustee George Latta.

Dr. Gibbons and Mrs. Latta have not announced their intentions regarding the elections. Nomination deadline is noon Dec. 8.

Combines Committee Rejects Witness

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP) — A prominent Canadian retail merchant today described the methods by which the MacQuarrie report on resale price maintenance was prepared as "disgraceful" and "scandalous."

R. A. Harris of Windsor, Ont., vice-president of the Canadian Retail Federation, said the report urging the Government to make price maintenance illegal has no factual evidence to back it up.

Recalled as a witness before Parliament's special committee on retail price-fixing, Mr. Harris produced percentage figures on margins of profit on clothing items and said the margins on price-maintained items are lower than on those which are not.

Alleging that the MacQuarrie report had shown "no facts and figures," he maintained that such an important step as banning price maintenance — which would affect a large part of the economy — should not be considered until all these facts and figures are obtained.

As the committee continued study of the controversial issue, these developments emerged.

1. Ellen Fairclough (PC — Hamilton West) was voted down 10 to 7 when she attempted to have the committee call a representative of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. as a witness, and allow other members to call other witnesses as they desired.

2. Mr. Harris, noting that the T. Eaton Co. was not opposed to government legislation, said eight other concerns are in the same category, but an "overwhelming" majority of retail merchants are definitely opposed.

Royal 22nd Leave Coast for Korea

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 — Thirty members of the famous Royal 22nd Regiment of Quebec headed for Korea as replacements to their regiment left Vancouver today aboard a Canadian Pacific Airlines Korean airlift flight.

Mrs. J. M. Rockingham, wife of Brigadier Rockingham, who commands the 25th Canadian Brigade in Korea, was on hand to see the men off. Accompanying her was Col. R. B. McDougall, representing the British Columbia command.

Russ Fear U.S. Claims Tourer

"Wherever we went, on our visit to the Soviet Union, the people did not hold the Canadians, the British or Europeans responsible for the present world situation. They are, however, suspicious of the Americans," Kenneth Smith, member of the Canadian Trade Union delegation to Europe told this to some 50 persons in an address on working conditions in Russia at the Capitol Friday.

"Wherever I went, I found them most concerned about peace and they ask 'are we going to be left alone to finish our reconstruction?'" he said.

The purpose of the visit by the delegation of Trade Unionists was to strive "for better understanding between the common people of Canada and the Soviet Union." Before their departure from Canada, the group drew up an agenda to determine:

1. The working conditions in Russia. 2. The status of the Trade Union in Russia. 3. Their economy was based on preparation for war or peace? 4. The attitude of the Soviet Union to Canada and 5. If unionists have the confidence of the Soviet Union or are they oppressed.

Going through the Russian immigration, claimed Mr. Smith, was "the same as crossing from Canada to the United States."

Mr. Smith said that he was "very impressed" with the mines. "The coal mines are more highly mechanized than in Canada. I saw one machine by which four men can turn out 20,000 tons of coal per month and no human hand touches the coal."

He said that their logging camps are "completely mechanized," but the industry does not compare to that of B. C., but is similar to Eastern logging operations.

Metal mining was almost identical to the Canadian operation. This mine he visited had concrete shafts and haulage ways.

"There is no rationing in the Soviet Union, their stores are well stocked. Russians are heavy meat eaters and meat prices are considered low. We found no one going hungry. Four per cent of the workingman's wage goes for rent. This is the maximum, and if he is interested in purchasing his own home, he can obtain a loan from the Government, interest free, extended over a period of 10 years."

FREE TRADE UNIONS

While in the Soviet Union, Mr. Smith was assigned to investigate unions in Russia. "The trade unions in the Soviet function exactly as we in American and Canada expected it to function when we set up C.I.O. They do not have less than one shop steward to every 25 persons. If anything," he claimed, "the trade unions dominate the government."

The delegation asked to see a "slave labor camp," to which Soviet unionists replied that there had to be some restriction for criminals. These convictions often have their families with them and earn wages while in the camp, he said.

Expect Food Prices To Go Up In Britain

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP) — Britain's food prices may rise $25,000,000 in a year as a result of two grants to farmers announced by the Agriculture Ministry today. A grant of $16,000,000 will compensate farmers for the higher wages they must pay their workers under a government ruling last month. The second grant, for $9,000,000 is to help meet higher prices for phosphate fertilizers.

Marine Railway at Balfour for Anscomb Overhauling Studied

A marine railway to facilitate overhauls of Kootenay Lake ferry, M.V. Anscomb may be built in the vicinity of its present landing spot near Balfour.

Because of the many obstacles to bringing the ferry to Nelson for regular overhauls and repairs, the Department of Public Works is investigating the possibility of constructing a marine railway in that vicinity.

The railway would be an elaboration of the C.P.R. dock at Nelson, consisting of an inclined ramp with a cradle on rollers, the device would handle the boat on the cradle and move it, rather than sideways as at Nelson.

Ice, covering the West Arm at many points between Balfour and Nelson, is a major hindrance in bringing the Anscomb to Nelson for repairs during the winter. The ferry would also be given scheduled overhauls at the new marine railway site, avoiding trips to Nelson entirely.

At the present time, the Department of Public Works is surveying and taking soundings at various points on the West Arm.

Following establishment of a suitable location, plans will be drawn up. Construction may begin early in the spring.

"MUST ABOLISH SOCIAL OSTRACISM . . ." Solving of Freedomite Problem May Take 25 Years—Dr. Black

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Doukhobor problem is being solved, Dr. W. G. Black, regional liaison officer for B. C. Citizenship Branch, Department of Citizenship and Immigration, said at a meeting of Women's Canadian Club.

"It may take 25 years but that is a short time in the history of a nation," he said.

Referring to a committee, headed by Prof. Geoffrey Andrew, set up to study the Doukhobor situation, Dr. Black said:

"For the first time a committee is studying the problem scientifically, objectively and patiently."

"The committee has found there is not a Doukhobor problem but there are several kinds of Doukhobors."

One award was for his long service and work in the interests of first aid in Michel and Natal, the other being a life membership in the Ambulance Association.

A musical program followed, including the showing of a few films. Co-chairmen for the evening were W. Chapman of Michel and J. Litter of Fernie.

and not be treated with condescension."

Dr. Black said one way to solve the Orient-Occident impasse was for Canadians to show they were really democratic and treat immigrants like themselves.

He said most newcomers from other lands are doing well, ready to work hard and grateful to be in a land where they can be free.

"There are some who complain and don't work well but the great majority have been well chosen and appreciate this land," he said.

"I feel furious at the suggestion they will take jobs from us. Canada has only 14,000,000 population and we should be glad we can get from Europe people who can be so well assimilated."

The Holiday Season That Yuletide Spirit Should Make Preparation Chores Easy

Approach of the holiday season finds many a housewife with broom in hand ready to begin house cleaning... shampooing rugs... and, cleaning walls. Here are a few simple suggestions that will help you to clean your walls and ceilings with the maximum efficiency.

Different types of wall surfaces present totally different cleaning problems.

To clean dull-painted walls:
1. Dust with a wall brush or broom covered with a soft cloth. Use light, overlapping strokes—heavy ones will rub the dirt "in" rather than "out." Change the cloth frequently.
2. Painted walls may be washed with a cloth wrung out of light suds. Rinse with a cloth wrung out of clear water and wipe with a dry cloth.

3. Special precautions: Clean only a small space at a time. Use an up and down motion and be sure that each stroke overlaps the last and leaves no streaks. Use very little water. Any food soap or cleanser may be used. Yellow soap, soda or washing powders may change the color of paint.

To clean walls that are finished with enameled paint:
1. Enameled paints are dulled by soap. Walls that are finished with enamel should be cleaned with a cloth wrung out of hot water.
2. Remove spots with a fine scourer such as whiting lightly applied.

To clean calcined walls:

1. Calcined walls are very difficult to clean because the calcimine comes off easily. Refinishing is usually necessary.

2. Some spots may be removed by rubbing with art gum or putty erasers, but unless very carefully done, it is apt to leave spots or rings.

To clean papered walls:

1. Papered walls are somewhat difficult to clean since hard rubbing blurs the pattern. Use a soft, clean cloth or soft brush, and rub with an even stroke and very little pressure.

2. Most commercial cleaners and powders streak the paper unless very carefully used. Putty erasers or cleaners and prepared starch or dough cleaners may be used, but require much time and energy and results are not always satisfactory.

3. Spotted or sooty paper may be cleaned by using soft stale bread.
4. Grease spots are difficult to remove, but may sometimes be removed by coating them with a thick layer of fuller's earth, magnesium, or even talcum. Let the coating remain for 24 hours and lightly brush it off. Repeat application if necessary.

SOAP AND WATER REMOVES GREASE

SOAP, WATER AND STEEL WOOL often do not budge a dirt line around where linoleum has been on the floor. Try cleaning the area with a medium coarse number "1" or "2" steel wool and turpentine. In removing the dark line, some of the finish may also come off, but waxing will restore some of the lustre.

"NELSON'S PIONEER BUILDERS"

Hallways Dramatize Your House

Halls are meant to be passageways, first of all, but there is no reason why they cannot also be strikingly decorative. Since the hall sets the pace for the entire house, it's a mistake to treat it carelessly, or casually, no matter how modest the home.

You can be dramatic in selection of wallpaper, color combinations and furnishings. For instance, a plain wallpaper might become tiresome in a living room, but in a hall you see it in glimpses, and there it can prove to be a refreshing change.

Or if you and your husband are unable to agree on the right color, paint your hall in a half-and-half manner, with two walls in one color and the other two in harmonizing or contrasting hue.

A vista wallpaper can create an illusion of space in a small hall. Mirrors are useful for the same purpose.

Now don't spoil the effect of your carefully chosen colors by stuffing the hall with your extra furniture. A good table with a low bowl or vase of flowers as a greeting, a straight-backed chair or two, and perhaps a low chest as a family convenience are as much as you'll need.

Pre-Fab House Easily Erected

Norman Hipel, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests 10 years ago, has developed a new type of pre-fabricated dwelling which can be erected in a day and costs less than $8000.

Mr. Hipel had a complete four-room modern cottage built on his farm recently. Everything used in erecting the house was loaded in the morning on trucks at a factory in nearby Preston. By sundown all that remained to be finished was installation of interior partitions.

The windows are all sealed and ventilation is supplied through special aluminum vents in the outer walls. Filters are installed to clean the incoming air.

The roof is self-supporting and walls can be erected wherever the owner wishes them. The shape of rooms can be altered at any time the owner wishes to move the partitions.

An Idea to Aid Furniture Movers

Will that new radio-combination go in the corner beside your favorite chair? Or will it stick out and look ugly, jarring against the rest of the room's symmetry?

One way to find out is to lug the heavy brute into position, push and pull the chair around and then try to fit an end-table nearby.

Admittedly, that is hard on the back—and there is a much simpler way to do it all.

Whether you're just trying to fit in one new piece of furniture or even if you're rearranging or furnishing for the first time an entire room, the old "floor plan and cutouts" method is hard to beat.

You'll find that a little time spent planning your furniture arrangements on paper will pay good dividends in the way of the best results for the least work.

And if you have disappointments they will come before you start the job and not when you are halfway through it—when it is often difficult to make changes without ruining your whole scheme.

You can also tell with accuracy whether pieces looking so right in the store are the correct proportions for the locations you planned for them and, quite as important, how they balance with the furniture you already have.

You may start with rough sketches but before you settle down to change the room around, be sure to prove they will fit by making a scale drawing (say one-quarter inch to the foot) of the floor plan with accurate cutouts of the furniture to push around on it.

THERMOSTAT SATISFACTORY OUT OF DOORS

An "outdoor thermostat" has been perfected by a Chicago heating firm to reduce the lag between alterations of outdoor temperature and adjustment of the building heating system.

Called the comfort control system, it reflects changes in outdoor temperature and wind-velocity by means of a regulator which extends through the wall of the home and measures the amount of heat lost through the building wall.

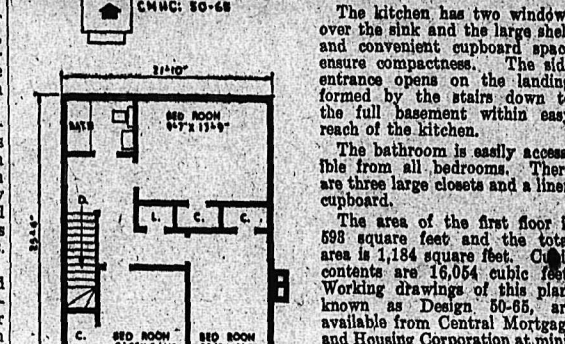

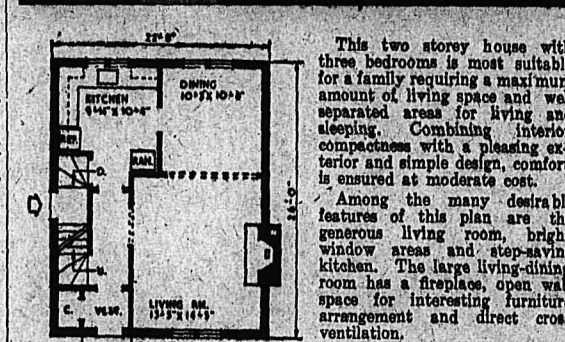

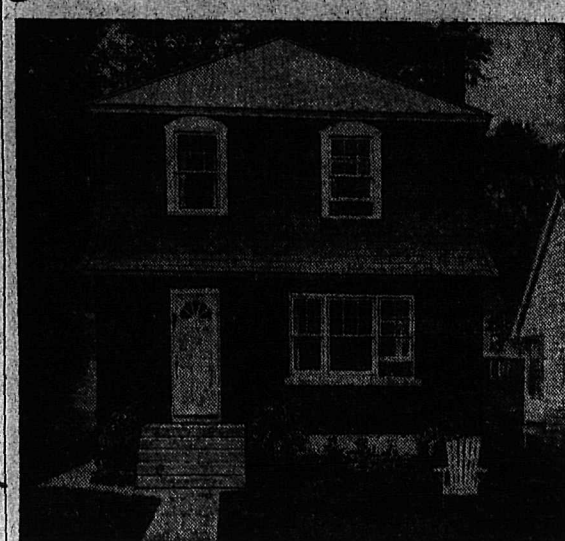

Being out the outside, the device anticipates effects of outdoor conditions on indoor temperatures, removing the normal lag.

FIX THAT WALL BEHIND THE SINK

Very few housewives are content with a kitchen sink which has a blank wall behind it instead of the usual window. Sometimes the rest of a good plan makes it impossible to place a window over the sink. Or you may acquire a house so designed which defies remodelling to get that wanted window.

A fairly good substitute is to place as large a piece of mirror as possible where you would like a window. Even if it only reflects the kitchen behind you, it will be livelier than the wall, and it just may catch a reflection of outdoors from another window.

The Modern Home

AROUND THE HOME

More About Electricity

By now we hope we have explained that your electric system is something not to be fooled with, to be left alone unless you know what you are doing.

However, everybody gets plenty of chances to repair, replace or rewire connecting cords for appliances. If such a cord becomes worn or damaged, usually a short circuit develops at the break and a fuse blows.

WHEN WIRE BREAKS
Sometimes when the wires, or one of them, in an appliance connection cord breaks, instead of causing a short circuit which blows a fuse all that happens is that no current flows and the appliance stops working.

Now we will suppose that your cord on the iron, a lamp, mixer or whatever it is, requires to be repaired. Because these cords take a lot of abuse due to twisting, tugging, and perhaps being walked on, it is good policy to watch for fraying and replace them before they go.

If the cord is of the type which plugs into both the electric service outlet and the appliance, you can get new cords at any electric or department store.

Whether the break is near the plug for the outlet or the fitting which goes on the appliance, the method is much the same. If the break is near the end, you can shorten the cord up a few inches. Otherwise you should get new wire of the same type. Remember that for a heating appliance such as an iron or space heater, the cord should be of the asbestos insulated type.

TAKE IT APART
You will probably be able to figure out how the plug comes apart. There may be one or two screws holding parts together. The simple plugs for convenience outlets only have to have an insulating disc of fibre pried off.

You will find two wires attached under terminal screws of brass. If these two wires are tied into a special knot try to learn how this knot is made so that you can retie it. Its purpose is to take any strain which might otherwise pull the wires off the terminals. The knot is too large to go through the hole in the plug.

With a knife, neither too sharp nor too dull, scrape away the insulating material which covers the ends of the wire for just enough length to make a complete circle around the terminal screw. Then scrape the bare wire to ensure a bright, clean contact, and place it,

This two storey house with three bedrooms is most suitable for a family requiring a maximum amount of living space and well separated areas for living and sleeping. Combining interior compactness with a pleasing exterior and simple design, comfort is ensured at moderate cost.

Among the many desirable features of this plan are the generous living room, bright window areas and step-saving kitchen. The large living-dining room has a fireplace, open wall space for interesting furniture arrangement and direct cross ventilation.

The kitchen has two windows over the sink and the large shelf and convenient cupboard space ensure compactness. The side entrance opens on the landing formed by the stairs down to the full basement within easy reach of the kitchen.

The bathroom is easily accessible from all bedrooms. There are three large closets and a linen closet.

The area of the first floor is 598 square feet and the total area is 1,184 square feet. C.G.C. contents are 16,054 cubic feet. Working drawings of this plan, known as Design 30-55, are available from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

Take Care of Good Brushes; Use Cheap Ones Only Once

Painting and decorating around the home provides the "home fixer" with a field of operations in which nobody will hedge him round with restrictions other than perhaps the fire regulations.

This is not the time for exterior painting, which, besides adding to the appearance of a home and the district, protects it against deterioration. This is the time for inside work. A room, all the rooms, or maybe the furniture need repainting.

There are two types of people interested in this job. One type will enjoy creating new color harmonies and effects, and will try to achieve professional skills in doing the work. The other sort will do the job because it needs doing, and can be done by themselves to save money.

USE READY MIXED
For both these approaches there are a great number of different varieties of paints. Some are made for specific purposes and effects, others are just different, and one may choose at will. By and large, all paints to be used at home will be of the ready mixed sort, and many professional painters now use these standardized, dependable products.

One bit of advice may be given about brushes. If you intend to do a lot of decorating now and later on, get good brushes and learn to care for them. They will be expensive, but will do a better job. If you are the least interested type who is faced with a paint job now and again and just want to get it over with, buy cheap brushes and throw them away when the job is done. The best brushes were made of wild pig bristles which used to come in quantity from China. Whether the internal unrest there has caused the pigs to be destroyed by millions as reported, or for whatever the cause, this source has gone. Cheap brushes are made of horsehair, or horsehair mixed with inferior bristles. Some fairly good brushes are now made with nylon. Ends of the bristles on good brushes are cut tapered towards the middle across the thickness. The price will indicate the quality.

Always have a separate set of brushes for paint and varnish. If you are going to use any varnish, later we will discuss when you might use it. Never leave your brushes standing on their bristles. Either hang them in a suitable solvent by wires through a hole in the handle, or, after cleaning, wrap them in waxed paper and lay them flat.

Most brushes which are ruined are lost because they are not cleaned. Cleaning is a dirty job, but must be done if your brushes are worth saving for later use. Soak them in coal oil or turpentine repeatedly. If the upper part is sticky and gummed up, there are steel combs to help clean out the mass. Use old newspaper to wipe off the loosened paint. Then you must wash with soap and water until the smell of solvent has gone.

A bristle brush should then be soaked in linseed oil and wrapped in the waxed paper before mentioned.

If you have badly neglected a good brush you may be able to reclaim it by using special cleaning compounds you can buy. Follow directions. Another thing, if you choose to hang your brushes in a solvent, these solvents are volatile, and your container should be covered.

FOLLOW DIRECTIONS

Other tools you will need will be a putty knife and a hook style scraper for removing old paint. We urge the amateur not to use a blowtorch around the house for taking paint off. It takes a sure hand to do it right, and there are too many chances of damaged surfaces and fire. There are chemical paint removers which will work if used as directed. Two applications will have to be made. Again—follow directions! If the remover is an inflammable one, be careful.

Some people like to use roller coats instead of brushes. We have seen professional painters use them. In buying brushes for home use a flat 3/4-inch brush and a 1 1/2-inch sash brush will be suitable.

DO YOUR OWN BLONDE FINISHING IN NATURAL OR PASTEL SHADES

There are those who claim that unfinished furniture is the finest invention since the telephone. When you consider the good lines of it, the fine, sturdy structure, it's an argument that makes a lot of sense.

There's no real difficulty in finishing off this furniture to lovely, gleaming smoothness that will add beauty to your room. But, as in most other things, you have to know the routine in order to achieve the highest success.

SAND WITH GRAIN
Thoroughly sandpaper all surfaces of the piece with No. 2-0 sandpaper. Sand with the grain, as far as possible, across the grain will show. Dilute white shellac with equal parts of methyl hydrate and brush a full coat on all surfaces. If your piece contains drawers or cupboards, the insides of these should be coated with this mixture, too.

Let your piece stand for at least 12 hours—and then sandpaper it again. After this you can apply a second coat of shellac. Allow the piece to stand for at least 12 hours until the shellac is thoroughly dry. Then sandpaper it lightly to make sure that all dust and specks have been removed to leave a clear, smooth surface for the next operation.

USE THIN MIXTURE
Now, mix flat white paint with turpentine. Our mixture should be quite thin. Add a little raw umber to break the deadness of the color. Brush a coat of paint quickly over the surfaces of the furniture. If the piece has drawers, remove these and do them one at a time. Then do the sides, and finally the top.

Before the paint is completely dry, wipe it off with clean rags—being sure to move always with the grain—until the grain texture shows through.

WAX AND POLISH
Leave the piece to dry—and then apply a final, finishing coat of thin white shellac. When this is dry, apply wax and polish to a dull sheen.

This will produce the well-known blond effect—which goes so beautifully with modern furnishing schemes. Pastel effects can be just as easily achieved by adding tints to the white paint instead of raw umber.

Small leaks along the seams of hot-water storage tanks can often be fixed by rubbing a cold chisel along the bevelled edge of the joint.

Don't store shellac in a metal container—use a glass one. Shellac stored in metal will absorb salts which will discolor certain woods.

You can make an excellent door stop out of a wedge-shaped piece of wood covered with a strip of old inner tube.

A wood screw is much less likely to come loose if, after the screw is in place, you punch a small indentation on the outer edge.

Before you disassemble a tap to replace the washer, or for any other reason, cover the tap with a cloth or masking tape so that the wrench won't mar the finish.

Use a water putty for patching cracks between sections of wall-board. Ordinary oil putty will cause the area around the seam to become stained.

Soroptomist Club Aims
For Calendar of Events

The Soroptomist Club of Nelson is working for establishment of a calendar of events in Nelson.

Arrangements for this were made at the monthly meeting of the club at the home of Miss Irene Laughton, with Miss Helen Sloan as co-hostess.

Miss Leona Boss, president, is to contact J. A. Bracken, Nelson Board of Trade secretary, in the hope of a diary being kept at the Board of Trade rooms to record all coming public events.

The club had previously suggested this be done in an effort to prevent overlapping of dates, and offered to present a diary if the suggestion were acted upon. The club offered to notify all clubs of this diary and to ask for their cooperation.

FOOD PARCELS SENT
Miss Dorothy Fawcett reported that two food parcels totalling in weight 40 pounds, had been sent to the sister club in Croydon, England.

Members voted that $150 be paid to Kootenay Lake General Hospital on account of the operating table. The sum of $10 will be sent to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The club accepted Miss Mary King's resignation with regret. Miss King has been transferred to the coast.

FIVE NEW CLUBS

It was reported that five new clubs had been sponsored in the United States, and that the biennial convention of the American Federation of Soroptomist Clubs will be held in Banff in 1954.

Plans were worked out by the members under Miss Jean Gilker, chairman for the conference to be held here in April.

South Slocan Guides

Guides served tea under the direction of Mrs. D. Kuchar and Mrs. N. Brewster. Mrs. A. McFadden was at the door.

Our Father's Business

You would be surprised at the difficulty I have had in choosing a theme for this short column. In my search for some great theme, something that would command your interest by its tremendous importance, I recalled the story of the trouble experienced by a student minister in choosing his sermon subject. He remembered the advice of his professor that he ought to choose a large theme, something of broad, universal application. So, after due consideration, he chose as his subject, "God, Man and the Universe; Past, Present and Future." Well, that ought to be sufficiently large a theme for any minister. Surely such a subject ought to provide enough material for a twenty-minute sermon!

Nevertheless, however much I may wish for a mighty theme to discuss with you, the plain truth seems to be that in ordinary living we seldom come face to face with the larger issues of life. On the contrary, for us life is made up of a succession of little things, little tasks, little decisions. It is seldom that the whole course of a life is changed by one momentous decision. Rather, we make a succession of easy decisions on seemingly minor matters, thereby veering gradually in a chosen direction, without actually realizing that the pattern of our life is being established.

Let me draw your attention to "ODTAA." This strange word appears in a booklet by the late Dr. Richard Roberts, once Moderator of the United Church of Canada. In a foot-note (and in very small print) he explains that the word is composed of the first letter of each word in the phrase "one damned thing after another." His feeling was that "ODTAA" is both a description of the kind of life we live and also a judgment upon us for allowing the description to fit us at all.

There can be no doubting the aptness of the word as a description of our situation. Our lives are made up of an endless succession of small things. For many, life seems to be composed wholly of tedious tasks and minor duties. Each day is the same as yesterday and as tomorrow.

"The world is too much with us; late and soon,"

Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers."
Is there, then, no release from "ODTAA"? There most certainly is release, not from the little things of life, but from all feeling that by our preoccupation with necessary routine we are being robbed of the abundant life. The key to our release is the awareness that it is by God's will we are set in this life, to know Him, to serve Him wherever we may be. There is no boredom in any occupation, if it is accompanied by the awareness that it fits into our larger destiny as children of God, as citizens of His Kingdom. If our activities do not fit into this pattern, if they end in "ODTAA," if they lead us to surround ourselves with a hard shell of selfish interest, then we had better change our activities. Herein lies our particular valley of decision.

"If, in our daily course, our mind be set to hallow all we find, New treasures still, of countless price, God will provide for sacrifice."

Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care."

The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God."

THE Y.M.C.A.

A century ago this month, the Young Men's Christian Association was established in Montreal, under the leadership of a merchant of that city who had seen the new movement at work in Britain. This was the first Y.M.C.A. in North America, coming seven years after its founding in London. Having taken the lead on this continent, Canadians sustained their interest to such good purpose that today there are 96 associations in the Dominion, with a total membership of more than 82,000. Among the most recent establishments is that of the Trail Association. The present Nelson Canadian Legion building is a former "Y."

The Y.M.C.A. continues, as it began, largely a laymen's movement, with 16,816 Canadian laymen serving on its boards, committees and councils. This public participation in its executive work reflects the spirit of the Y.M.C.A. itself. While conceived as a world-wide Christian fellowship movement, it has worked most effectively toward this goal through personalized service and face-to-face counselling among young people. It has pioneered in the field of sports and is credited with inventing and developing basketball and volleyball. Men of all ages look back on their Y.M.C.A. activities as a helpful chapter in their lives.

A Sample of Prison

A teen-age Oklahoma bandit who was required to spend a day in a penitentiary, for its educational effect, seems to have learned much from the experience. By his own admission, this brush with prison life scared him stiff. Assisting this education was the warning of a man in "death row" that the youth's start in crime duplicated his own. Here was a contact with ugly reality; first-hand experience with the fact that crime does not pay.

As a consequence of the youth's favorable reaction, the likelihood is, says the Windsor Daily Star, that the judge who ordered the prison visit will suspend sentence, instead of imposing a five-year term. The youth therefore has much to be thankful for, and the intelligence of the judge who tried him is one of those blessings.

Such educational experiences as his could profitably be given wherever this could profitably be given wherever it is convenient to show a young hoodlum a glimpse of prison life. The Oklahoma case underscores their sobering effect on salvagable delinquents.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

New Canadian Opposes Aussie's Stand

To the Editor:

Sir—Quite a few things about the letter from "An Aussie" surprised me. First, the fact it was printed; and then, the gross inaccuracies and the veiled slurs in it about Canada.

Originally I was an Englishman, and before coming to Canada (a change I am very pleased with and see reason to be proud of) I was engaged in a seafaring capacity, and visited Australia and New Zealand nine times between 1938 and 1940. I feel, therefore, as though I am justified in appointing myself a referee in an argument between Canada, who should know about immigration, having dealt with it for so long, and Australia.

As an immigrant myself, I object to being referred to as part of a sodden mass surrounding a dependable nucleus. Has it not been proved that this sodden mass becomes integrated with the land by the power of example and tradition, together with all the other qualities which go to make a great people so as to produce an even greater and more powerful nation?

The idea of a country degenerating into a multitude of imbeciles by reason of the mixing of the breeds, to use the "Aussie's" expression, is the height of idiocy. The New Zealanders are a fine people, and there the whites and natives mix pretty freely.

As regards production, I recall that the ships I served on carried cars, planes, machinery, engines, cable, pipe, glass, china, footwear, wines, and many other commodities. These ships also took out a lot if not all of the steel used for the Sydney Harbor bridge. As for shipyards, I never saw any capable of handling anything worthy of the name ship.

Australia is a beautiful country in part, but "Aussie" is slipping when he mentions the Blue Mountains in a paper published so close to the Rockies. The sun which warms the beaches in Australia is, I imagine, the same which sparkles on so many Canadian lakes and ripens that grain which we have so much of that we can give it to hungry people, completely ignoring their race or color.

I would hesitate to define a gentleman as one who sits in comfort and drinks liquor. I would say, though, that I rather like the liquor laws of Australia. The bars close at 6 in most places, and then you go around to the back door and continue.

The rest of the letter says enough to make a real Australian writhe. As regards breeding, I would say that a part of it is not to beattle the country you are at present living in.

In conclusion I would like to say that I found Australians very generous and possessing a great sense of humor—most of whom, incidentally, would have signed their name to a letter.

P. F. GRIFFITHS.

Riondel, B. C.

(Editor's note: Mr. P. F. Griffiths need feel no surprise at the fact the Daily News printed Aussie's letter. It is part of our code to give the opportunity for exercise of the freedom of public expression whether we agree with our correspondents or not.)

Favors Borrowing for Bath-House Financing

To the Editor:

Sir—In your issue of Nov. 27, it was reported that at the coming civic election the voters will be asked to express their opinion on the financing of the proposed bath-house construction at Lakeside Park.

They will be asked to say if they wish our Council for 1952 to put in its estimated expenditure the sum of $16,050 to match a like amount furnished by the efforts of the Kinsmen Club; if they would prefer to borrow that sum of money and repay it over a period of years; or if they are opposed to paying any part of the cost of the project.

If the sum of $13,000 is raised next year by taxation, our tax rate will be increased by approximately 3 1/2 mills. This means an increase of about 8 per cent on our taxes, unless some other expenditures can be stalled off.

Why should the taxpayers of 1952 be asked to pay $16,000 as part of the cost of a building that is going to serve the needs of bathers for the next 20 years or more?

Why not spread the cost over a period of 20 years under a money bylaw and let the people who reap the benefits of a bath-house pay for it? If this were done, the tax-rate increase would be approximately one-twentieth of 1 per cent.

Reader, Trail—Is there a telegraph school in Spokane, Wash.? If not, is there one near to this part of Canada?

Press Comment

THEN AND NOW

The law of supply and demand no longer operates two ways. It used to be that when there was a surplus of anything its price dropped. A scarcity stiffened the price. In this age of price-fixing, floor prices and what not, when there is a scarcity of anything the price shoots up. When there is a surplus, the price remains about the same.—Kitchen-Waterloo Record.

eth of 3 1/2 mills, or .175 mill for 20 years. Of course, we should have to pay interest on the borrowed money, but the equivalent of it would be in the bath-house being used.

The second alternative would be far more equitable and far easier to hear than the first, especially by the taxpayers with small, fixed and limited incomes.

It is my hope that voters will take this reasonable view of the situation and vote against taking on the whole burden in 1952.

Merchants Prepare for Poultry Sales in Coast-to-Coast Survey

By The Canadian Press

Food merchants have cast a wary eye on the way 1951 shoppers are hanging on to their Christmas purse strings. The result: They're timidly stocking shelves with the least expensive holiday-season goodies.

In a coast-to-coast survey, The Canadian Press found that most dealers delayed ordering supplies, trying first to establish how consumers were going to spend.

In Halifax, merchants predicted a "sharp cut" in luxury buying. In Toronto, one butcher estimated it would be one of the biggest years in poultry. Families which never bought chicken or turkey would have one this year, probably because it would be cheaper than meat.

Quebec City and Montreal predicted a big demand for poultry now selling for between 64 and 69 cents a pound. This is from five to nine cents more expensive than in Toronto.

At Edmonton, shoppers will find they can buy about anything they desire. Prices are not much higher than last year. Packaged nuts, however, will be more expensive.

Winnipeg boasts a "fair supply" of oranges from Japan. While this type of orange won't be available in Toronto, residents there will find an ample supply of tangerines from Florida—and at a reasonable price.

Cranberries, both fresh and in jelly, are plentiful in most parts of Ontario. Those who buy Christmas cakes will find them about six cents a pound more expensive than in 1950. California raisins at 23 cents a pound are approximately seven cents dearer than in 1950. Walnuts also cost more.

Most merchants may shun out-of-the-ordinary foods, but at Montreal all kinds of biscuits and candies from England, Holland and France

Landlady Collects Dead Man's Rents

By The Canadian Press

For five years Nicholas Lukinchuk lived at the home of Mrs. Mary Kunka without paying rent, but he always told her:

"When I die, everything will be yours."

His body was found yesterday in a gas-filled, trash-littered room. One lot of a gas plate was on.

The pockets of the 73-year-old man contained 59 cents and a small watch.

But bank books in the room showed Lukinchuk had more than $5000 in savings.

"He told me he would leave me everything as long as I looked after the funeral," said Mrs. Kunka today.

Other savings may be disclosed when a complete search of the room is made, police said.

The trash-littered room was piled with old shoeleaves, pieces of paper, paper bags and other odds and ends.

Montreal's Unpopular Bylaw Confuses City Authorities

MONTREAL, Nov. 30 (CP)—City Hall authorities are busy these days trying to figure out when a store is not a store.

The study concerns Montreal's new bylaw ordering stores to close on Roman Catholic holy days.

First application of the bylaw comes Dec. 8, Feast of the Immaculate Conception. There are five others in a year, including New Year's Day and Christmas.

The bylaw's definition of "store" doesn't specifically say retail stores. Many store owners wonder if their places fall within its scope.

Beauty salons pose one of the problems. Saturday is a big day with them, and the next holy day of obligation is a Saturday.

Then there are newspapers. Will they be aiding and abetting an offence if they accept advertisements for merchandise to be sold Dec. 8?

Another point is whether "store" includes wholesale establishments which are not manufacturers.

The penalty under the bylaw is a fine not exceeding $40, or, in default of payment, imprisonment for not more than two months.

It is understood that several stores plan to remain open to test the legality of the regulation.

The bylaw defines "store" as "any establishment or place where merchandise is exposed or offered for sale, as well as any establishment where any merchandise is sold by auction."

It follows on with exceptions. In a general way these apply to such establishments as drug stores, tobacco stores, newspaper and magazine vending places, florists' shops, and places selling fruit and food.

But the bylaw adds:

"The word 'store' shall also be held to mean any establishment where the following business is carried out, namely: Soliciting directly or by advertisement, receiving, transporting or delivering one only or several of the following articles . . ."

The last list includes wearing apparel, linen, personal effects, "adornments and articles intended for such operations as laundering, ironing, dry-cleaning, repairing, and keeping in good order."

Non-Smoker Drew Objects to Tax

By The Canadian Press

Non-smoker George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, doesn't like the present Federal cigarette tax.

During an interview today he refused a 43-cent-a-pack cigarette offered by a reporter and declared:

"The new four-cent tax is completely unnecessary. It has started smuggling on a commercial basis far in excess of anything we have known in recent years."

Mr. Drew, who arrived here by plane from the East early today, spoke at a Canadian Club luncheon and tomorrow will speak at the annual meeting of the British Columbia Progressive Conservative Association.

News Fronts

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR., Associated Press News Analyst

The appearance of Russian-made bombers in Korea, snags in the truce talks at Panmunjom and heightened activity along Communist supply lines from Manchuria have led to a new period of nervousness.

President Truman says there is still the possibility that cease-fire negotiations started by the Reds are only a screen behind which they hope to get set for a new offensive.

It could be, however, that the Communists are merely doing what the Allies have been doing—putting on military threats to emphasize the need for agreement in the truce negotiations, hoping to wear down disagreement over terms.

The appearance of 30 bombers over Korea probably has the most significance. Snags in the truce talks are commonplace, and the Chinese may have gotten the idea from the American-made lull on the front that they would also have some immunity in moving up things of which their troops are always short.

Dispatches also indicate that the high cost of moving trucks may have been due to better-than-usual observation conditions rather than to an actual increase.

REDS PREPARING?

But if the Reds are preparing to inject a new factor into the air war, they are asking for extension of the war beyond Korea.

The dispatches are somewhat vague about the nature of the bomber incursion. It is described as "apparently" a training flight. If that is correct, it means someone was willing to run heavy risks in order to familiarize pilots with terrain over which some important operation is planned.

Word went out from the United States nearly a year ago, in such form that it obviously was designed to reach Russia and China, that if Communist air power were used against Allied troops or installations, retaliation would be carried beyond the Korean border to the bases from which such operation would have to be conducted.

Ball Career Over For Yanks' Henrich

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP) — Tommy Henrich's brilliant career with New York Yankees ended today when the club revealed it was not renewing his coaching contract.

Henrich's "unavailability to work outside the metropolitan area" was given as the reason for his release by George Weiss, Yankees General Manager.

The Yankees will not replace Henrich continuing with a three-man staff of Bill Dickey, Frank Crosetti and Jim Turner as Casey Stengel's aides.

A member of the Yankees since

1937 and one of the game's most feared batsmen, Henrich decided to hang up his glove last winter rather than play on an injured knee. He played little in 1950 and was taken off the eligible list for the world series with the Phils.

Tommy, known as "Old Reliable," injured his knee in the Spring of 1950. Surgeons gave him only half hope that an operation would help. He could have managed Kansas City, the Yanks' farm, but chose to coach.

In announcing the release, Weiss said:

"With the current restrictions on Henrich's availability to work outside the metropolitan area, we are unable to fit him into our 1952 plans. It is our mutual hope that some day Tommy will be available for assignment somewhere in the Yankees organization. When, and if, this becomes so, we will welcome his return."

Power Houses of Old Have Batteries Recharged for Puck Classic Tonight

(Contributed)
Old timers of Nelson and Trail hockey teams declared Friday they had tapered off neatly in their training and were at the peak of condition for tonight's "Battle of the Bards" on Clivio Centre ice. It still wasn't evident of what their training consisted, but that's what the "boys" said, and all we can do is quote them.

However, they do assure the fans that they intend to give them full value for their money. In the case of the game here Saturday, Dec. 1, the proceeds will go to senior hockey.

Definite word of the Trail lineup was received. Included will be Tuffy Garland in goal; "Speed" Moynes, Harold Jordan, Tommy Johnston and Wes Walt on defense; and the forwards will include

"Deacon" Wait, "Tip" Shires, Joe Buckner, Rico Martin, Pat Morris, Mike Kwanine, Freddie Lauriente, and Carroll Kendall.

This lineup assures the fans that the Nelsonites are hustling to develop last minute ways and means of shutting off the power.

That the locals are strong may be gleaned from the following rumor. It is stated that the bylaws of the outfit inserted two players in "Eddie Ware's" senior practice two nights in a row and Eddie didn't notice the difference except to state complacently, "I believe the team as a whole is looking much better."

At press time a rumor was heard that all lines of liniment had disappeared from drug store shelves as wives prepared to welcome back the warriors following the game.

Stranger Gave Laura Nelson Pitching Tips

Remember Laura Nelson? The former Nelson ball player who was ace pitcher for the Western Mutuals softball team in Vancouver this season, chinned with a coast scribe a while back on her early pitching career.

"I was so terrible," she said, "I decided I had to learn to pitch if I killed me."

She went out and practiced every day—until the one practice which cinched her pitching future. On that day Laura was listlessly tossing a ball round Memorial Park in Vancouver when a "motherly-looking, gray-haired woman" stopped to watch.

"You trying to pitch?" the woman asked.

When Laura said yes, the elderly sports fan dropped her bundles and took the ball, remarking, "I'll show you what you need to know."

A one-hour lesson with the housewife gave Laura the basis for her later steady improvement.

"I still use the gimmicks she showed me that day," Laura said. "Wish I could find that woman and thank her."

Harry Won't Be There

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30 (AP) — Those glamorized "orphans" of the 1951 football season, Army and Navy, clash in Municipal Stadium tomorrow with only the President of the United States missing from the pageantry that marks this 62-year-old service spectacle.

President Truman declined to cut short a Florida vacation to watch these bitter antagonists of the military and naval academies, each beaten six times, wrangle for the year's consolation honors.

It's the first time since the war the President and members of his family haven't attended.

Nevertheless, a crowd of 101,000 including many other Government dignitaries and ranking officers of the armed forces, will jam into the giant horseshoe.

The first test ended in a draw.

ENGLAND IN COMEBACK

KARACHI, Pakistan, Nov. 30 (Reuters) — England made a fighting second innings comeback today when the second unofficial cricket test match against Pakistan entered its second day.

England took the seven outstanding Pakistan first innings wickets for the addition of 37 runs, putting the Pakistan team out for 130 and leaving England only seven runs behind.

England dismissed for 123 in first innings, scored 189 for 4 in the second innings before play ended for the day to hold a lead of 123 with six wickets in hand.

The first test ended in a draw.

All Square In Rousing Middle Tiff

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP) — Middleweights' Ernie Durando and Paddy Young battled to a furious 10-round draw tonight in a toe-to-toe slugfest that easily was the most exciting battle of the new Madison Square Garden fight season. Young weighed 158½, Durando 158½.

With a non-tit Jan. 25 shot at middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson dangling for the winner, the two young bombers poured it on in savage flurries of wild action.

There were no knockdowns although Durando, a 25-year-old from Bayonne, N. J., seemed on the way in the sixth and Paddy, pride of New York's Greenwich village, was almost ready to go in the ninth.

Two officials voted a draw, and Judge Art Adala had it for Young 5-4-1. Under New York State Athletic Commission rules the majority judge, Referee George Walsh and Judge Charley Shortell saw it 5-5. Walsh had eight points each and Shortell seven for each. The AP card had it a tight squeak for Young 5-4-1.

Few of the 5056 customers who paid $18,073 had any fault to find with the decision or fight. The way the two boys put out it would have been a shame to vote against either one.

Pari-Mutuel Toll Exceeds Records

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 (CP) — Race-track customers loosened their clutch on bankrolls in Canada's 1951 turf season, feeding into the pari-mutuel machines almost $7,000,000 more than last year.

Pari-mutuel betting on the horses increased to a record $60,384,287, the Federal Agriculture Department reported today, from $53,409,032 wagered in 1950.

There were 30 meets totalling 359 days at the tracks against 31 meets and 356 days in 1950.

Purse money to owners of winning horses also went up, increasing by $144,435 from $3,009,014 to $3,153,450.

More than half the money that went into the machines was wagered in Ontario. In that province's 148 racing days, fans sent $37,606,139 through the windows, nearly $4,700,000 more than last year's $32,925,119.

Each of the six reporting provinces had a higher pari-mutuel take than last year. British Columbia patrons contributed the second most, wagering $8,719,212 compared to $8,037,909 last year.

The heaviest amount laid on the line at any meet was at the Spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club at Woodbine Park, Toronto, where $2,552,411 was bet.

Scouts to Watch As Intermeds Tangle for Title

HAMILTON, Nov. 30 (CP) — St. Boniface Legionnaires and Hamilton Panthers meet tomorrow in Canada's first East-West intermediate football final.

They are playing for the Canadian title and the Percy E. Robinson Memorial Trophy.

In addition, outstanding players may earn invitations to try out with one or more of Canada's eight professional football teams. Scouts from several of the pro clubs will be on hand.

Merle Hapes, coach of the Panthers, is taking his team into the final at a disadvantage. Hapes and Co. have no idea what the St. Boniface club looks like, although the Westerners have scouted the Panthers thoroughly.

Jockey Injured When Mount Spills in Mud

ALBANY, Calif., Nov. 30 (AP) — Apprentice jockey Willie Marsh, Jr., of Calgary was seriously injured at Golden Gate Fields today when the three-year-old gelding Last Wing fell with him during the running of the first race.

The 19-year-old rider, leading apprentice at the race meet, was rushed to hospital in Oakland with a brain concussion and a laceration over the right eye.

Last Wing fell rounding the first turn. In the clear at the time, pictures of the race showed the horse just couldn't stay afoot on the muddy curve. The horse broke a right foreleg and was destroyed.

ORANGE, N.J., Nov. 30 (AP) — David D. Leighton, 73, retired Associated Press chart caller and one of the best known personalities in race track press boxes, died today after a lengthy illness.

Watch That Map When Hunting Doe

Lockhart Creek flows in to Kootenay Lake just north of Boswell. The Eastern border of the Nelson-Creston electoral district is declared in large letters on a sign on the main No. 3 highway at Goat-fell between Kitchener and Yahk.

These are two important facts to be consigned to the memories of any hunter who may venture forth in the next nine days in pursuit of doe deer.

Doe are fair game only in the portion of the Nelson-Creston electoral district south from Lockhart Creek to the international border and East from the East shore of Kootenay Lake and East bank of Kootenay River.

If you've already got your buck deer the season is all over for you. Only one deer per hunter is the rule this season.

Extension of the buck season to Dec. 9 and opening of a doe season in the limited area described, however, gives a second chance to those hunters who haven't been lucky so far.

Season was extended because of the lateness of the snow season which has kept the deer high in the hills until lately, and the low record kill.

Buck can be hunted until Dec. 9 in the Nelson-Creston, Rossland-Trail and Kaslo-Slocan ridings.

AUSSIE RAPS OUT EASY WIN OVER YANK NETSTER

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 30 (AP) — Mervyn Rose, Australia's southpaw star, today scored an easy 6-3, 6-0, 6-4 victory today over Frank Shields of the United States in their postponed first-round match in the Victorian Tennis Championships.

The rest of today's program was given over to the first round of the men's doubles.

Ted Schroeder and Tony Trabert, America's Davis Cup doubles pair, eliminated Peter Molloy and Jim Matthews of Melbourne, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

Vic Selas and Dick Savitt of the U.S. took a 6-3 3-6, 6-3, 10-8 victory over George Worthington and Red Hartwig. The Australian combination of Frank Sedgman and Don Candy defeated the brother team of Kevin and Leo Loneragon, 6-0, 6-0, 6-3.

Shields, paired with youthful Hamilton Richardson, won a 6-3, 7-5, 6-4 triumph over Ian Ayre and John O'Brien.

Lennart Bergelin and Sven Davidson of Australia eliminated Torsten Johansson and Bertil Blomquist of Sweden 6-2, 6-4, 8-6.

Shutout for McLay as Kimberley Mates Paste Spokane Flyers 5-0

Bell Counts Two In Dynamiters' First Over Yanks

KIMBERLEY, B.C. — Dave McLay scored his first shutout in senior hockey tonight, sparking the Kimberley Dynamiters to a decisive 5-0 victory over the Spokane Flyers. It was the local club's first win of the Western International Hockey League season—over the American aggregation.

Claude Bell got two goals and two helpers while line mate Red Koewen grabbed one marker and three assists. Centreman Bob Schmied followed with one and three.

Kimberley opened the first period fast with Buzz Mellor popping in the first goal at the two-minute mark. Although Scoop Bentley received a head injury, the period was marred by only one penalty, that to Rozzini of the Flyers. Play lapsed into ruggedness after Mellor's counter, and Bentley had to be "on" to stop some hard drives.

MISCONDUCT FOR MELLOR
The sandwich session was as rugged as the first with penalties coming thick and often. The Schmied-Koewen-Bell line came to life. Koewen and Schmied scoring in quick succession. Bev Bentley blocked a number of shots before these markers were netted.

Buzz Mellor was nicked for a 10-minute misconduct when he took exception to a roughing penalty.

Claude Bell fired two goals in the third period to give Kimberley the 5-0 margin.

PASSING FOILS FLYERS

Buzz Mellor, Spence Tatchell, Buck Kavanagh, Bill Barker and Bill Johnston put on a great display of passing late in the third period, and the Flyers failed to touch the puck during this exhibition. The game ended with Spokane trying desperately to score.

ROYALS DO WELL ON TOUR

New Westminster started off the week with a 6-5 victory over Victoria's fifth-place Cougars. Seattle held the Royals to a 1-1 tie on their next outing but the leaders rolled into a Prairie tour to whip Calgary 4-1, down Edmonton 4-2 and play to a 2-2 stalemate with Saskatoon. Quakers now have two ties and a win over Royals in three meetings.

Seattle trimmed Edmonton 4-1 and edged Vancouver 6-5 after the draw with New Westminster to hold second place with 31 points, five less than Royals.

EIGHT STRAIGHT SET QUAKERS UP AS RIVALS TO LEADING ROYALS

EDMONTON, Nov. 30 (CP) — Saskatoon Quakers, in third place, appear to be the hottest team in the Pacific Coast Hockey League this week as they ran their undefeated streak to eight games and climbed to within nine points of the league-leading New Westminster Royals.

Royals carried their unbeaten skein to seven games to hold first place and Seattle Ironmen clung to the second rung, running their unbeaten list to five.

Edmonton's faltering Flyers failed to come to life and strung out their losing streak to six straight games.

Vancouver Canucks warmed up long enough to win two games and move four points ahead of the cellar-dwelling Calgary Stampeders. Canucks, with 16 points, trail sixth-place Edmonton by only two points.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Drew Strong For Canadian Steel

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 (CP) — George Drew, Federal Progressive Conservative leader, told the Canadian Club today that Canada needs a population of at least 100,000,000.

He said it was sheer nonsense to suggest Canada's optimum population was not much above 20,000,000. Demands should be made in contracts under which Canada supplied iron ore to the United States to enable this country to build its own steel mills and produce all the steel it possibly can require if it is to grow to full stature as a nation of 100,000,000.

Coast Workmen
Freed From Trap

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 30 (CP) — Rescuers freed five workmen late Wednesday night after they had been imprisoned in a blocked tunnel for six hours at the $10,000,000 Jones Lake power development East of Chilliwack.

Plight of the men was discovered when a worker went to the tunnel to call them for lunch. The construction company, which employs the crew, said nobody was injured. The Northern Construction Company and J. W. Stewart, Ltd., is drilling a tunnel through Four Brothers Mountain, about 75 miles East of Vancouver, as part of the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd., project.

The men were trapped in an old tunnel, drilled early last Summer. They were driving old timber from the tunnel, drilled at a 48-degree slant, when the logs slid down the shaft and jammed at the entrance. Names of the men were not known immediately.

They were freed when fellow-workers ripped open a timbered bulkhead above them. The construction company said the workmen were in no danger of suffocation during their imprisonment.

Paper Says Drew to Patch P. C. Quarrel

VANCOUVER, Nov. 30 (CP) — The Vancouver Daily Province says today in a front page story that George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, is here to patch up a quarrel between provincial and federal party members in British Columbia.

"This is the real reason for his trip, Conservative members said today," the newspaper said. "But Mr. Drew wasn't talking about it." Mr. Drew in an interview explained that he was here to speak at a provincial meeting of Progressive Conservatives "the eighth I've attended in recent months."

"But others said that the trip comes as a climax to a growing quarrel over who is running the party's provincial association," said the Province. It has been charged from time to time that Federal members of Parliament have had too much "voice" in provincial affairs. The Province added: "At an executive meeting tomorrow, it is expected a suggested change in the groups' constitution will be modified because the change would have 'slandered' the voices of federal members."

Woman Accused of Poisoning Attempt

LOWESTOFT, England, Nov. 30 (Reuters) — A woman was accused in court of dosing her husband's food with poison from a home permanent wave lotion every weekend so she could sneak out for dates while he was sick.

Mrs. Margaret Cossey, 30, faces four charges of poisoning. The prosecution stated that she would mix the hair chemical with her husband's tea on Friday night and Saturday morning. This would make him sick by Saturday night and keep him home while she went out. He would recover by Monday in time to go to work.

Police said she confessed. Her husband said he had gained seven pounds and had not been sick once since his wife had been in jail.

"The fabulous iron discoveries in Quebec and Labrador have assured our place as one of the greatest producers of iron ore in the world," he said. "We know we have the iron ore. It is steel we must think and talk about."

"We need some manufacturing clause in our agreements respecting iron ore such as were introduced into many of the agreements permitting cutting of pulp logs." Provision should also be made for sending ore to Britain to supply its needs and as a means of adding to the strength of both Britain and the Commonwealth.

King Leaves Palace
For Royal Lodge

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP) — The King left Buckingham Palace today to spend a weekend in the country at Windsor. It was his first venture outside the palace grounds since part of one of his lungs was removed Sept. 23.

The Queen went with him. The royal lodge at Windsor is 23 miles West of London. The King and Queen were greeted there by Princess and her children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne.

Red-Headed Tiger
Woman Escapes

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 30 (AP) — Winnie Ruth Judd, the red-headed "Tiger Woman" trunk murderer of 1931, escaped from the state hospital for the insane for the fourth time Thursday.

Twenty years ago she shot two girl friends to death, dismembered their bodies and shipped the grisly remains to Los Angeles in a trunk and a suitcase. She was convicted and sentenced to be hanged, but was adjudged insane.

Mrs. Judd, 48, climbed out a second-storey window about 10:30 p.m. on a ladder fashioned from rags.

Hospital attendants said it must have taken her weeks to weave the ladder of yarn, rags and part of a heavy ironing cord. They said a screw driver and pliers used to open a heavy window screen must have been smuggled to her.

Attendants said Mrs. Judd had been upset for the last week after a patient told her she would be taken away from her mother, 84-year-old Mrs. Carrie B. McKinnell, also a patient.

Winnie Ruth had lived in quiet seclusion since her last break from the hospital in 1947. She had escaped twice in the Fall of 1939.

Mrs. Judd killed her roommates, Agnes Anne LeRoi and Hedvig Samuelson, on Oct. 16, 1931. The prosecution contended she killed them in a jealous rage.

Ridgway Explains
Massacre Figures

TOKYO, Nov. 30 (Reuters) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway Thursday issued a statement designed to show why different figures have been given on "leged massacres of United Nations war prisoners by Communists."

The statement said evaluation of reports of massacres is a continual process, with cases being dropped or confirmed whenever the information comes to hand.

The statement quoted the U.N. command's report to the U.N. Organization in August, which said that 8000 Americans were reported killed in war crimes.

On Nov. 20 the U.N. command said there was "considerable evidence to justify the presumption of death by atrocity of a large number which may approximate 6000."

This followed a release by Col. James Hanley, head of the Eighth Army Judge-Advocate Section in Korea, claiming that 5790 Allied war prisoners had been murdered since the war began.

Today's statement said: "Reports are gathered from many sources — from eyewitnesses, escaped U.N. and enemy prisoners, intelligence sources, and from evidence uncovered by advancing forces."

"Constant reevaluation as the result of accumulating evidence results in many cases originally reported as investigated being classed as unfounded or unprovable. "These cases and the numbers of reported victims involved are then dropped."

Wandering Stranger Suspected of Being Man Who Hoaxed U.S. Army

SUDBURY, Ont., Nov. 30 (CP) — The apparent perpetrator of a huge hoax on the United States Army was held here today on a vagrancy charge. He's Peter Ernest John Grainger, 25-year-old Northern Ontario forest ranger.

Friends and police said he was the "shoeless hillbilly" the man who claimed to have seen only one woman in his life, who joined the U.S. Army in Texas on Nov. 3 and later deserted.

Grainger was found walking along the highway between Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie. A tourist camp operator called police because the man's behavior was strange.

Friends said after his arrest that he was the Texas Grainger, Sgt. Tom Crawford of the Sudbury detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police said there was doubt he was the same man. They based their identification on newspaper photographs. Like the man in the photo, Grainger has the index finger of his left hand missing.

In court he was remanded a week on a charge of vagrancy. Previously Dr. Tom Dixon, psychiatrist at the mental health clinic here, examined Grainger and recommended sending him to hospital for treatment of a head injury suffered in the Second World War.

The man who enlisted in Texas claimed he grew lean and lanky on a steady diet of goat's milk. He told recruiting officers he left his New Mexico mountain cabin because his father died and added: "I buried Paw on the top of a mountain, and then set out to join the army."

Forestry officials said Grainger applied for a job with his Sudbury office Aug. 21. His application papers said he was born in London and served with the British Army in North Africa, Italy, France, Holland and Germany. He came to Canada in December, 1950.

He left his job Oct. 9 for a medical examination at North Bay and didn't return.

Police said Grainger was incoherent when brought in here. While working here he had a strong English accent. There was no trace of the "hillbilly twang" reported used by the recruit in Texas.

Not Hopeful for
H.I. Offer Result

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 30 (CP) — Results of the new deal recently offered Hospital Insurance delinquents and non-registrants are expected to be disappointing.

The offer, recommended by the B.C.H.I.S. Inquiry Board, allowed persons in this category to become eligible for coverage by paying one year's premium (last six months of 1951 and first six months of 1952) and agreeing to pay their arrears off in instalments.

The offer was good until today. It is estimated there are about 5500 persons who haven't paid premiums. There now seems no likelihood that the offer will be extended.

If results of the scheme are as bad as expected there remains little chance of attracting the delinquents and non-registrants into the Hospital Insurance plan. Taking them all to court officials feel, is not the answer to the problem.
