Detroit Accused In Nelson in '47

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Wallace, being held by Detroit police in connection with the slaying of a Calgary girl last August, are known in Nelson. Both worked in Nelson for several months during part of 1946 and 1947.

Their Nelson connection was recalled by City Police officers here.

They were married in Nelson in 1947, Mrs. Wallace formerly being Wilhelmina Gita Dryden. Mr. Wallace was an electrician and Mrs. Wallace was a store clerk. Coast sources identified him as a former Captain in the Canadian Army, and an electrical engineer.

On Oct. 20, 1946, they received a jail sentence in Nelson City Police Court on fighting and intoxication charges.

Nelson police recalled that Wallace's mother-in-law worked as a fortune teller at a Nelson cafe.

DETROIT, Nov. 8 (CP) — The daughter of a 'French noblewoman was held here today with her husband for questioning in a tourist-cabin slaying at Calgary.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wallace, are charged with the murder of Yvonne Levesque, 23-year-old Edmonton waitress, whose nude and battered body was found last Aug. 11 in a Calgary automobile camp.

An elderly, dignified woman, who identified herself as the Marchioness Margaret D'Autier, appeared at police headquarters today. Indignantly, she demanded to see her daughter Wilhelma, Wallace's wife.

Detective-Sergeant Bruce McCannell of Calgary arrived here tonight. Police said McCannell would begin in the morning questioning the Marchioness and the Wallaces, arrested in the Marchioness' apartment.

"WILD STORY"

The Marchioness, chain-smoking cigarets and speaking with a strong French accent, intimated that statements made by Wallace, 42-year-old native of Oxbow, Sask., were imaginary.

Police said that Wallace had given them a statement in which he told of pounding Miss Levesque's head with a bottle of beer while his wife held the struggling girl.

"He made up the whole wild story," the Marchioness said.

Wallace, an electrician, was picked up by Federal authorities for a deportation hearing. Police in Vancouver, where he left last July, said he had been deported from the United States four times. In 1948 he was sent from Seattle to Vancouver.

The Canadian Consul here is investigating the case.

The Marchioness said she came to the United States in 1906 after the death of the Marquis in France. Mrs. Wallace, her daughter by a second marriage, was born in Bellingham, Wash.

Wallace said in his statement that while Miss Levesque lay dying in the bedroom of the overnight cabin, his wife assured him she could "fix it up to look like a sex crime."

HENDERSON SOUGHT

A fourth person, who Wallace said was in the bedroom at the time of the slaying, is being sought by Alberta police. He is Donald W. Henderson, 33, of Clive, Alta., wanted for questioning. A warrant for his arrest on a murder charge still stands, Alberta police said.

Henderson was found bent over the limp body of the girl, a native of Pincher Creek, Alta., whom he had introduced as his bride-to-be, Calgary police said. While police tried to revive Miss Levesque, Henderson disappeared.

B. C. TURKEY PRICE 70-75 CENTS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — That Grade A Yuletide turkey will probably cost British Columbians 70 to 75 cents a pound this year—a price scale similar to last Christmas.

This belief was expressed today by Fraser Valley turkey producers as this year's estimate of supply for the Christmas season began to take shape.

The Vancouver Island Turkey Improvement Association recently proposed a retail price of 72 to 74 cents a pound for Grade A gobblers.

Refuse Delay on Proposed Loan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) —The Reconstruction Finance Corporation today turned down a request from Senator Fulbright (Dem.-Ark.) that it hold up a proposed $44,400,000 loan to the Kaiser-Frazer Auto Corporation.

DEAD MAN'S KIN PUZZLED BY ACTRESS' STAND

Ann Rutherford "Knew He Was Her Father," Says Brother

KEPT ADVISED

SEATTLE, Nov. 8 (AP)—Relatives of an elderly man who died here of cancer Saturday night said tonight he was the father of screen actress Ann Rutherford.

In a deathbed note, the man, rendered mute by cancer of the tongue, identified himself as John Dufferin Rutherford and said he was a former Metropolitan Opera Co., tenor and the father of the actress.

In Hollywood the actress told reporters "there's a possibility he is my father. I haven't seen him since I was little. I'm all confused and bewildered."

Tonight Rutherford's brother, W. C. Rutherford who flew here from his San Diego, Calif., home, said:

"I can't understand why Ann issued such a statement. She knows very well he is her father."

A sister, Mrs. H. P. Lang, of Vancouver, B.C., who also came here to make funeral arrangements, said that she, too, knew of no reason for Miss Rutherford's uncertainty.

ADVISED

"Both she and her mother have known his whereabouts and have been kept advised of his illness," Mrs. Lang said.

"Of course, Ann had not had much to do with him. Her parents separated and were divorced, and Ann went with her mother," Rutherford said.

The actress told reporters her father would have been about 55 years old, not 71, the age of the dead man.

"That's ridiculous," Rutherford said. "He was 71 and he is Ann's father. No, I don't expect Ann and her mother to come to the funeral. After all, my brother and Ann's mother separated when Ann was five years old."

In Hollywood Miss Rutherford told reporters she would confer with her mother, Mrs. Lucille Mansfield Rutherford, in Palm Springs, Calif., before making any further statement.

Rutherford said the dead man had dabbled in real estate and had other business interests here, and had lived in a downtown hotel for 10 years before being stricken. He died in King County Hospital in Georgetown.

STEEL STRIKE NEAR END, WORK ON COAL DISPUTE

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Convinced that the steel strike is nearly over, United States Government mediators turned today to the soft-coal contract deadlock, calling John L. Lewis and operators to a meeting here Thursday.

The fact that three major steel companies now have reached agreement with Philip Murray's United Steelworkers (C.I.O.) was regarded by Government officials as a sign of a quick end to the 39-day-old steel walkout.

The coal strike, which now has lasted 51 days, was not so easily written off. The conciliation director Cyrus S. Ching, in a telegram to the contending parties, noted that collective bargaining "has failed to result in an agreement," and asked spokesmen for each side to a mediation meeting.

Vocational School Opened at Coast

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — Vancouver's $2,000,000 vocational school today opened by Labor Minister Mitchell and Premier Byron Johnson.

Waves Isolate Lightkeeper's Body

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 8 (CP) Rough seas early today thwarted an attempt to remove the body of Harry O'Connor, 57, from the Lake Superior light house where it was found Sunday.

Constable A. Graham of Marathon, about 75 miles East of here on the North Lake shore, found the body after a bottle containing a note was washed up on the shore. The note said O'Connor, a Transport Department employee, felt he was dying.

Win Hailed As Fair Deal Boost

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (CP) — Democrat Herbert H. Lehman tonight won election to the United States Senate from New York State, and President Truman hailed the victory as a big boost for his "fair deal" program.

Lehman, four times Governor of his State, piled up a big lead over his Republican opponent, Senator John Foster Dulles.

A record turnout of voters—it was estimated that nearly 5,500,000 voted out of 6,300,000 eligible—turned out in Indian Summer weather in the New York contests, which headlined the off-year elections scattered across the country.

There was also voting for two Governorships, two seats in the House of Representatives, scores of mayoralty contests, and a long string of State constitutional amendments and referendums.

The off-year elections are held in years ending in odd numbers. They come between Presidential elections and the regular Congressional elections held every two years.

O'DWYER RETURNED

The Democrats also came out on top in New York City, where Mayor William O'Dwyer was re-elected by a large margin. He defeated Newbold Morris, Republican-Liberal-Fusion candidate, and Communist-backed Vito Marcantonio, American Labor Party.

Another struggle that attracted wide attention resulted in James Michael Curley—one of the last of the old-time political bosses still in power—being tossed out of the Mayor's chair in Boston.

Bidding for a fifth term, the 74-year-old Curley bowed to a comparative newcomer, City Clerk John B. Hynes. The latter had the backing of Labor Secretary Tobin, himself a vote-getter of note in Boston.

Dulles conceded to Lehman, but commented that "this is the first round, not the last round."

The Lehman victory gives the Democrats 53 Senate seats and the Republicans 43. The Democrats expect to pick up another next month when the resignation of Senator Raymond Baldwin (Rep. Conn). becomes effective. Baldwin is leaving to take a Connecticut Supreme Court post.

REJOICE

Altogether, the Democrats found several causes for rejoicing. They captured a number of mayoral chairs from the Republicans in upstate New York, including Syracuse, Binghamton and Geneva, although Buffalo remained Republican. And they took several city offices in Philadelphia.

Such consolation as the Republicans were able to muster out of the elections was concentrated largely in New Jersey, where Governor Alfred E. Driscoll was successful in his bid for reelection.

Driscoll, who has been mentioned as Republican Presidential timber in 1952, took an early lead over his Democratic opponent, State Senator Elmer H. Wene, and kept on increasing it.

In the only other Governorship race, Democratic State Senator John S. Battle won handily in Virginia over his Republican opponent, Walter Johnson.

Record Dividends For G. M. Stocks

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—One of the biggest cash dividends in United States history will go to General Motors Stockholders Dec. 10.

It totals more than $190,000,000. With other payments already made this year, it will bring the Company's grand total of dividends for 1949 to more than $333,000,000.

The yearly earnings will amount to $8 a share for common stock, which has a par value of $10. The stock closed yesterday—before the Company announcement—at $69.12½ a share. The year's dividend will be 80 per cent of the par value and almost 12 per cent of yesterday's price.

Bond Sales Over $200 Millions

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — Sales of Canada savings-bonds zoomed past the $200,000,000 mark this week as more Canadians continue to buy more bonds, the Bank of Canada reported today.

General sales climbed $46,000,000 in three days to spear-head the third week of the campaign period. General sales for the first 17 days of the campaign totalled $91,000,000 and bank officials said they were confident this up-surge would be continued to bring the final total of such sales well above last year's mark of $142,000,000.

Reports of general sales, made through investment dealers and banks, are always slower in reaching headquarters.

Meanwhile payroll savings sales already have shattered all existing records. To date organized establishments and special groups have reported sales of $123,000,000 up $5,000,000 from the previous high set last year.

Each of the five economic regions across Canada has exceeded its total payroll savings sales of a year ago.

Reject Former Nazi For Christ Role

OBERAMMERGUA, Germany, Nov. 8 (AP)—The villiage elders today rejected 58-year-old Alois Lang, adjudged a minor Nazi follower, for the Role of Christ in the 1950 Passion Play.

They chose, instead, 37-year-old Anton Preisinger, a father of five children. The mild-mannered innkeeper has curly brown hair and beard.

Chosen to play the Virgin Mary was Annamie Mayr, 20, blonde daughter of a building contractor. She finished school last year and is studying to be a wood carver.

Lang, who played Christ in the most recent Oberammergau Passion Plays in 1930 and 1934, lost out to Preisinger not because he formerly was a member of the Nazi Party but because of his age, the villiagers said. He was selected to read the prologue.

Sinks, Rescue Near

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — A 30-foot gillnetter sank today while a police boat was speeding to the rescue. It was not identified.

Provincial Police sighted the vessel after a five-hour search prompted by a phone call from a woman in the Point Roberts area. It sank before they could reach it.

There were no signs of life aboard the craft when it went down.

NOT RESPONSIBLE SAYS OTTAWA OF BUTTER INCREASE

Claim Government Sales to Blame Nullified

PRICES EASE

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — The Agriculture Department said today sales of Government-held butter stocks had nothing to do with increases in retail butter prices across Canada.

The Government, with some 50,000,000 pounds of butter on hand that it bought at 58 cents under its prices-support program, announced last week it would sell the butter at 60½ cents a pound to dealers in carload lots. Previously, it had set a price of 59 cents but no butter was sold at this price, the Department said.

"The open market price at Montreal at the time the Government made its announcement was exactly the same as the selling price then announced—60½ cents," the Department said in a statement, "so that this factor itself completely nullifies any claim that Government action can be used as justification for price increases."

Increases of from one to two cents a pound in retail prices were reported across Canada today. The National Dairy Council said the increase at the retail level was due to general increases during the last two weeks at the wholesale level. The wholesale increases now are just reaching the consumer.

Department officials said that wholesale butter prices eased to 60¼ cents on Toronto and Montreal markets today, below the price fixed for sale of Government stocks.

Consider Mount Royal As Montreal Site For Television

MONTREAL, Nov. 9 (CP)—The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation announced today completion of a nine-months survey of possible television transmitter sites in Montreal and said the best site would be Mount Royal in the heart of the city.

CBC said the survey was the latest preparatory step toward television by the CBC, pending the result of an application for a development loan from the Dominion Government.

CBC said less extensive surveys on television possibilities have been conducted in Toronto.

Police Break Up Gang Clashes

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — Rival teen-age gangs clashed during the noon hour today in Vancouver and Police were called to break up the "rough and tumble" affray.

One youth said he was kicked in the face and that a member of the rival gang had "pulled a knife." It was the neighborhood's second gang fight in two days.

Butter Price Bumped

ANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP)—Retail prices today jumped one cent a pound, following a similar jump yesterday in the wholesale price. Butter now retails at 64 to 66 cents.

Abbott Faces Opposition Onslaught on Rental Move

Herridge Critical of Action Without Debate; Attacks Come From Socred, C.C.F. and P-C Quarters

By MEL SUFRIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Under concerted verbal onslaught from all Opposition quarters, Finance Minister Abbott today defended recently-announced domestic rent increases. The attacks from Opposition members continued into the night session.

In a lively debate virtually monopolized by Opposition speakers, Mr. Abbott told the Commons the Federal Cabinet had "seriously" considered abandoning all rent controls but decided against the step after careful study.

H. W. Herridge (C.C.F.—Kootenay West) said if the Government had submitted the question to a one-day debate in the Commons it would have acted differently after hearing the views of all members.

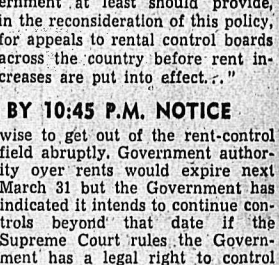
He felt the Government was trying to evade responsibility to carry on rent controls. It was clear the provinces did not want to take over rent controls because they could be better handled from a National level.

The increases were far more drastic than those that would have been authorized by the Commons if the Government had asked members for their opinion. The members might have authorized an increase of 10 per cent on middle class dwellings.

Angus MacInnis (cap l) (C.C.F.—Vancouver East) said the increases won't affect the Members of Parliament; nor would they affect anyone else making $6,000 a year. They would affect the people who could least afford it.

The increases meant that a mother bringing up several children on $100 a month would have to cut down on such essentials as food.

Some landlords probably had been "getting a bad deal" on rents. But the Government should have dealt with them individually instead of granting blanket increases.



H. W. HERRIDGE

CONTROL OPPONENTS RALLY AGAINST ACTION

He said he could also quote figures showing that unemployment is increasing, production is falling off and poverty is increasing.

This situation would be worsened by the increase in rent controls.

Mr. Macinnis said that when Mr. Abbott described the 20 and 25 per cent increases as "orderly decontrol" he was "talking nonsense."

He wasn't sure that things would have been worse if controls had been removed altogether. The result of the increases would be that landlords would take advantage of the full amount permitted.

Mr. Macinnis said the opposition to the increases must really be intense when such oponents of controls as the Montreal Gazette and Montrea lStar carried long editorials criticizing the Government action.

Mr. Macinnis said the increases will aggravate the housing situation. Figures showed that fewer houses were started this year than last year.

Mr. Abbott indicated, however, that gradual decontrol is still the Government Policy and that the 20 and 25 per cent increases he announced last week were "part and parcel" of this policy.

M. J. Coldwell C. C. F. Leader, initiated the housing debate when he obtained adjournment of the Commons, regular business to discuss the situation arising from the Government's dicision to authorize rent increases.

Said Mr. Coldwell:

"This house must say explicitly to the Government that the recent announcement by the Minister of Finance must be reconsidered, and that rental controls must remain until the provinces are prepared to step into the field and undertake the protection of the Canadian people, if it should prove to be their obligation to do so.

"Indeed until the menace of high rentals has been removed the Government at least should provide, in the reconsideration of this policy, for appeals to rental control boards across the country before rent increases are put into effect..."

CONSERVATIVES "AMAZED" BY 10:45 P.M. NOTICE

Donald Fleming (P.C.—Toronto Eglinton) placed his Party's position before the House he said:

"It is amazing that while Parliament is in session the thing that has happened which affected the lives and homes of Canadians more than any other since this session began was something done outside Parliament and Parliament is simply notified at a quarter to 11 one evening that it has been done."

Mr. Fleming said the flat increases did not take into account the great variety of conditions in Canada, and the timing had been "incredibly bad" in view of the approach of Winter.

The Social Credit view was outlined by C. E. Johnston (SC--Bow River) who said this is not the time for rent controls to be lifted to the extent announced last week.

Some landlords might forego the boosts, but it would not be the ones whose premises now rented to a class of people which could least afford the increases.

Mr. Abbott told the Commons the Government did not consider it wise to get out of the rent-control field abruptly. Government authority over rents would expire next March 31 but the Government has indicated it intends to continue controls beyond that date if the Supreme Court rules the Government has a legal right to control rents.

Ross Thatcher (CCF -- Moose Jaw), said the Government action in announcing the rent increases without first consulting Parliament reminded him of the way the Cominform was running Czechoslovakia—"by decree."

He said what is left of rent control is, in effect, "no rent control at all."

He objected to increased rents at a time when the housing situation was infinitely worse than when the Government had found it necessary nine years ago to introduce the controls.

Mr. Knowles said the Government would not have authorized rent increases of 20 and 25 per cent before an election or if it had a smaller majority of members.

CHARGES LIBERALS NOT THINKING OF PEOPLE

He said the "tragedy" of this Parliament is that the overwhelming majority of Government Members are becoming detached from the people they are supposed to represent.

It was the duty of Members not to think of the Government's overwhelming majority, but to consider the wishes of the people they represent.

He said Mr. Abbott had stated earlier in the debate that the Government plans to stand by the rental increases. The Liberal Members accepted the announcement and were satisfied.

He suggested that the Liberal Members send copies of the minister's speech back to their constituents and suggest that it be used to help pay the rent increases.

He suggested that Liberal Members not forget that despite their overwhelming majority they did not represent the majority of the Canadian people.

Thumbing through a copy of the Canadian Press election handbook, he quoted figures showing that 49.54 per cent of the people voted for the Liberals, This meant, he said, that 50.46 per cent of the people voted against the Government in power. He said that in case anyone should charge him with misinterpreting the figures, he wished to point out that 49 per cent voted for Independent Liberals.

If the latter figure was added to the Liberal total, it still meant that 49.97 per cent of the people voted against the Liberals.

"Half of the people did not want the Liberals in power and the half that did expected them to live up to some of their promises," said Mr. Knowles.

Have Success in Cancer Fight

Five medical scientists of the Sloan-Kettering Institute and the Department of Medicine of the Memorial Centre of New York, have revealed that the experimental use of two hormones, acth and cortisone, has caused the dwindling away of certain types of cancerous growths in a few patients. Four of the five researchers who used the hormones on malignant tumors with dramatic results are (left to right): Dr. Konrad Dobringer, Dr. Rulon W. Rawson, Dr. Leonard P. Eliel, and Dr. Olaf H. Pearson The fifth scientist, not pictured, is Dr. C. P. Rhodes. A new hope for ultimate success in solving the problem of cancer is warranted on the basis of the research so far done with the two hormones.—Central Press Canadian.

Urges Care of Game As Basis of Tourism

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Wildlife, a major tourist attraction but a dwindling Canadian resource, was the subject of a lively controversy today at the fourth Dominion-Provincial tourist conference.

The conference, now in its second day, ran into the topic after Dr. Harrison Lewis, chief of the Wildlife Division of the Federal Resources Department, outlined the situation.

In his review, presented at a conference which has been largely devoted to advertising Canadian attractions in the United States, Dr. Lewis noted "substantial improvement" in the tone of such advertising during the last two years.

But he urged "continued care to exercise restraint" in trying to attract tourists by advertising Canada's hunting and fishing possibilities.

Dr. Lewis noted that the increasing population of Canada not only meant more hunters but was driving game into rugged outlying areas where it could thrive no better by comparison than could humans.

"We all recognize," he said, "that Canada's wildlife is the basis for a large part of the lucrative Canadian tourist industry. If that wildlife is properly managed, it may continue in that role for a long time to come, but the active interest and cooperation of the tourist industry are necessary.

"It is fine to share our wilderness areas and their game with our neighbors, as long as the stock will stand it, but if that kind of use of wildlife is carried too far it will ruin itself and, at the same time, deprive Canadians of the share of their own game that they have a perfect right to expect."

Man Who Sold Kootenay Land to Doukhobor Leader Dies at Coast

A pioneer B.C. civil engineer and hotel owner, John Winfield Moore of Deep Cove died in North Vancouver General Hospital, Friday. He was 86.

Services were held Monday, at 3 p.m. in Haron Brothers Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Forest Lawn.

Mr. Moore came from his native Vermont to B.C. in 1888 after graduating from Tufts College, Mass. He prepared some of the first geological maps of B.C.

An outdoor man, he roved over the province as prospector, logger, longshoreman, miner and later hotel and store owner.

For 20 years he built a new cabin each Fall to Winter in wherever he happened to be.

In 1893 he logged the area where Fraser Avenue now runs in Vancouver with ox teams.

He followed the inland Klondike trail in 1898 on horseback.

The late Doukhobor leader Peter Verigin bought 1700 acres of land from Mr. Moore to start his colony near South Slocan.

Mr. Moore lived for some years in Nelson and Rossland, and owned the Kootenay Falls Hotel in South Slocan in 1910. He sold out in 1916 to come to Vancouver. In 1920, he became one of the original settlers of Deep Cove where he later built Deep Cove Lodge.

He opened two grocery stores, one of which he operated until his retirement five years ago.

Surviving are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Inkster, Vancouver and Mrs. R. E. Fegan, Abbotsford; four sons, John G., Vancouver, Charles Ed (Ike) and James Willard, Princeton and Thomas Owen, at home; five grandchildren and a sister in the U.S.

British Steel Cheapest for B. C.

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Britain can land steel in British Columbia at a lower price than the Canadian or American product—and next year she will be sending it in quantity.

That is the prediction Sir George Binney, chief of the British steel fact-finding mission, made today.

"In the course of 1950 we expect to ship a considerable quantity of your requirements. We think that many Canadian consumers will ask for British steel, in their own interests.

"Otherwise we will find it harder to buy such Canadian commodities as lumber and apples."

PORT ALBERNI, B.C., Nov. 8 (CP)—A logger identified only as John Hardie, 28, was killed today in an accident at Camp Eight, Great Central Lake, Provincial Police here reported.

Williamson contended if any air safety regulations were broken, there were other agencies besides the City Council to take action.

City Weighmaster Salary Fixed Federation Told

City weighmaster's job is a special one and the salary is fixed at $125, Civic Employees' Federation is being advised by City Council. The Federation in a letter to the Council asked an upward adjustment for D. Webster, who has replaced E. Ogden, weighmaster for many years.

Ald. T. S. Shorthouse, during discussion, said he felt that the City had been unfair to Mr. Ogden. Many letters of praise for the manner in which he carried out his work had been received from various City companies. He thought the matter of the appointment should be reopened for consideration. Council suggested this could be dealt with as the matter progressed in connection with the salary.

Believe Snag Tree Hit Logger, Jury Told

An inquest into the death of Jens Tangen, 65-year-old logger who died in Kootenay Lake General Hospital Sunday following a logging accident at Six-Mile last Wednesday, opened in Provincial Police Court here Tuesday.

Mr Tangen never regained consciouness from the time he was struck on the head by a falling tree until his death. His body was viewed Monday afternoon by the Coroner's jury.

Dr. G. R. Barrett, who examined the body, stated in court that Mr. Tangen suffered a broken skull from "a terrific blow" on the head severe enough to break a piece of the skull, pushing it in and increasing the blood pressure against the brain to such an extent that it caused death.

The skull showed a fracture on the right side and part of a fracture from ear to ear. The right temple was lacerated and the brain on the right side of the head also showed a laceration.

NO WARNING

Jens Tangen's brother, Peter, who was felling a tree a short distance from him at the time, testified that he did not shout a warning of the falling tree because he felt sure his brother was working some distance away. The accident occurred about 11.30 a. m. Wednesday he said.

Earl D. Thomas, who together with the two Tangens, was employed by S. R. Storey, was also cutting cordwood at the time of the accident. Mr. Thomas said he heard a man shout about 700 feet away and went in the direction of the sound. Upon arriving at the scene he found Mr. Tangen lying on a log. Peter Tangen had also arrived by this time and both men straightened the injured man to a sitting position. He was unconscious, Mr. Thomas said, and his head was cut at the top. Mr. Thomas stayed with the injured man until help came.

Mr. Storey, employer of the men, was not with them at the time of the accident, but upon examination of the trees testified that while Peter Tangen had been chopping down the tree, Jens Tangen, who had been splitting cord wood about 15 feet from his brother, left his position and had gone some distance South in search of another wedge. While he was looking for the wedge, his brother began to fell the tree, which during its fall, caught a snag, pushing it over in the fall. Mr. Storey believed that it was the snag tree which struck Mr. Tangen.

Due to illness, Dr. R. B. Brummitt, who attended the injured man until his death, was unable to give his report at the inquest, which was adjourned untill Thursday afternoon.

On the jury were Lorne G. Catley, Jack D. Morris, W. E. Ogden, D. F. McKay, C. D. Olsen and J. Powelsen.

Wartime Houses Policy Under Study, Herridge Reports

A letter of thanks for his efforts in pressing for sale of Wartime Houses to Nelson veterans, is to be sent by the City of Nelson to H. W. Herridge, M. P. for West Kootenay.

Mr. Herridge said in a letter read by City Council Monday night that he had been advised by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation that this matter was receiving active consideration and that information on the policy in respect to sale of the houses might be available within two weeks.

Alcoholics to Pay For Own Recoveries

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 8 (CP) — British Colmubia alcoholics wearing off a binge in a private hospital will do so at their expense.

This was made clear today by Dr. J. M. Hershey, Commissioner of Hospital Insurance, in a circular letter to private hospitals.

Due to shortage of beds in general hospitals, the Commissioner has permitted patients to be treated in private hospitals where beds were available.

"They must make way for treatment of persons suffering from more 'legitimate' acute illnesses where beds are available."

CAR THIEVES CHANCES SLIM IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP) — The car thief's chances of success are slim in Winnipeg. Figures prove the odds are roughly 400 to one against the thief.

Detective Inspector David Nicholson said today about 400 cars were reported stolen last year and all except one were recovered within a few days. This one car has not yet been located.

Inspector Nicholson said Winnipeg's record is much better than the larger Eastern cities.

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP) — British soldiers in Hong Kong are paid Friday and go broke on Monday ,the House of Commons was told.

"These men are charged 4s 6d. (about 70 cents) a pint for their beer at all the canteens," he told Defence Minister Alexander.

Alexander replied no complaints about conditions in Hong Kong had reached his department.

No parking will be permitted in front of the Nelson School District No. 7 garage, formerly the Smedley Garage, on Vernon Street. Lions Learn Policy of Civic Commission

Archie Birse, Secretary-Manager, explained the policy of the Civic Centre Commission in a talk to the Nelson Lions Club at their Tuesday night meeting in the Hume.

He said that it was "to make the building as useful as possible with the least possible cost to the taxpayers." There were interests in the building for all age groups, although there were not as many cultural activities as there could be, but, he said, "as a building built for sports, it is doing a good job."

To illustrate the number of people participating in some of the sports carried on in the Civic, he said that last year there were over 1000 people skating each week, over 300 curlers, over 100 badminton players, and over 300 junior hockey players. He also said that fees which the boys paid for the year, not much more than $2, are about the lowest to be found anywhere in Canada. Basketball, especially the senior men's teams, has fallen off lately, but there were still about 125 players, he stated.

W. G. Vain asked Mr. Birse if the Commission could not influence the Civic Theatre in some way to improve the quality of films being shown. In his reply Mr. Birse said that nothing could be done about it. In 1957 the present lease with the Famous Players will expire. The first lease, signed in 1937, lasted until 1947, when a new one was agreed on for another years.

W. J. Coleman played four selections with his one-man orchestra.

M. N. Olson, a new member, was introduced.

It was announced that the International Lions President would be in Spokane on Nov. 17, at which date a social evening was planned in his honor. All members who could go were requested to do so.

In return for a conveyance of five feet of land, the City will build concrete steps at the Dr. N. E. Morrison property at 422 Maple Street, City Council decided Monday night. Crushed rock will also be laid on a section of the road in the vicinity, where clay conditions prevail.

Council Asked To Check Heavy Expenditures

City of Nelson Department heads and members of the Council Finance Committee will discuss overexpenditures which have taken place in some departments, according to City Clerk W. A. Gordon.

In a letter to the City Council Monday night, Mr. Gordon said with the end of the year at hand, he had noticed several "rather heavy expenditures" and drew attention to a section of the Municipal Act providing that every Council "shall commence with the legal collections from the first day of the year" for which the Council was elected, until the end of the year.

In 1948, he continued, liquid assets were $11,119.64 less than the liabilities and if this continued, it would "certainly affect our standing in the investment market."

He asked that all purchases of materials and repairs and construction, except that which was absolutely necessary, be discontinued until "our financial position is ascertained in the October statement."

Certain departments had overexpended and this would have to be taken care of by other departments. He suggested all department heads be asked to make an estimate of their requirements from Nov. 1 to Dec 31 so accurate knowledge of the City financial position could be ascertained.

He referred the Council to Sections 412 to 416 of the Municipal Act which deal with liabilities of Councils in respect to overexpenditures.

Sister of District Men Passes

Word was received in Nelson by James Waldie of the death of his sister, Mrs. J. Wilson at McMurdo, B. C. Sunday.

Mrs. Wilson was born in Hawick, Scotland in January 1887, and came to Nelson in 1910.

Besides her husband, she is survived by six brothers, James Waldie at Nelson, William and Alexander at Kimberley, John at Rochester, N. Y., Andrew at Trail and George at Kelowna.

Two brothers and two sisters predeceased her.

Market Trends

TORONTO (CP)—Slight demand in key issues lifted industrials to the highest price level in three years. Base metals and Western oils moved quietly from yesterday's strong gains. Golds were at a standstill in the dull dealings.

MONTREAL (CP)—After reaching highs for the day, prices started to drift lower near the final hour.

Although gains still outnumbered losses many key issues turned up with minor setbacks.

MONTREAL (CP) — High-grade issues were slightly easier on the bond market.

Trading was dull in most sections but corporations were firm with interprovincial pipe line issue going up a point.

LONDON (Reuters) — British Government stocks took a fresh tumble. Prices crumbled as a new wave of selling swamped the market with unwanted stock.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—After showing weakness, base metals surged upward. All stocks were up during a fairly heavy session.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—A city miner told police late Monday he had lost his wallet, containing a personal fortune totalling $18,000.

He said his name was John Cherney and that he was an owner of a tungsten mine near Barkerville, B.C.

The man said he started drinking last Tuesday and missed his wallet on Saturday.

Garland, K.C., to provide details of the airport operation so that he could determine the City's liability, Monday night. Council will ask Mr. Garland to write to S. C. Watson of Kinnaird, Secretary of the Nelson-Castlegar-Kinnaird committee which is managing the airport, and to Air Transport authorities, to obtain the information.

TRAIL, B.C., Nov. 7 — The Rossland-Trail-Fruitvale Highway within the City limits has been classified as part of the arterial highway.

City Council Monday night was informed that the Provincial Government had rated the highway, that routes along Rossland Avenue, Weir Avenue, Tamarac Avenue, Victoria Street, Bay and Riverside Avenues across the Columbia River bridge and along Columbia Avenue to the Easterly boundary. Piper's Social A Success

The Kootenay Kiltie Pipe Band had a fine turnout for their social in the Canadian Legion Monday night. They were entertained by Doreen Speirs, who danced the Highland Fling and Ann MacKill, who did the Sword Dance. Bobby Robinson of Fairview played an accordion solo, accompanied by Enid Prime on the piano.

Jack Stout gave a resume of the Band's activities for the past year and Cleland Taylor reported the financial standing of the band was satisfactory.

Fred Denyer and Ken Forbes were Masters of Ceremonies.

Bennie Sutherland outlined the Kiltie Pipe Band program for the rest of this year, which included among other events a St. Andrew's night program Dec. 2 at Procter.

Mrs. Jack Stout was in charge of the refreshments, assisted by a committee. Scotch dancing was enjoyed by the crowd and the music was provided by Jack Stout, the piper. Dave Paul was the floor manager.

Another social will be held in the near future.

CITY STUDIES DIRECTORY PUBLICITY PLAN

City Council's Finance Committee is studying a suggestion that the City purchase publicity in a Nelson directory to be published by Sun Directories Ltd.

F. W. Mantell and A. W. Chowne of Vancouver suggested to Council Monday night that the City buy a four-page writeup in the directory. They displayed copies of the Kelowna and Penticton directories in which were writeups of those cities. Cost of the City would be $25 a page.

The Sun's B.C. Directory will no longer be published they explained. It had become so bulky that new editions were out of date before they could be delivered. No other province printed such a directory.

The publishers were members of the North American Conference of Directories, and copies of each biannual directory would be sent to every reference library across the continent. There were well over 500 libraries, they told the Council.

The Finance Committee was given power to act on the proposal.

Highschoolers Featured on Kin Broadcast

Radio listeners in Nelson enjoyed a fine variety of music and songs in the Kinauctions of the Air, third program of the season, broadcast from the Capitol Theatre Tuesday night.

Under the direction of Donald Cowan, Junior and Senior High School music and band instructor, many popular songs and musical selections were given by the High School's Kampus Kings Swing Band and by the High School Girls' Chorus of 22 lovely blended voices.

Mixed in for a bit of variety were solos rendered by little Sybel Chalmers, a fast-rising singer on the Kinauctions program, Margaret Ratkowski and Pat Martin. The High School Girls' Trio also left a good impression on the radio fans. Taking turns as accompanists at the piano were Thomas Shorthouse jr., Pat Halleran and Katherine McLean. The Kin Chorus directed by F. E. Wheeler, also got their version of "White Christmas" into the program as only they can render it—with a bit of help from the High School Girls' Chorus.

Bids from the listeners brought the performers back to the footlights many times during the program.

Kinsmen members reported that incoming proceeds from the popular auctions had climbed steadily since the first air show and that their fourth and last performance would top them all. Entire proceeds are to be used for the Nelson Aquatic Centre.

Sees Success Of Coast Defence Tests

SILVER LAKE, Wash., Nov. 8 (AP).—Radar screens in the Pacific Northwest scanned the skies constantly yesterday as the U.S. Air Force and R.C.A.F. continued a quiet, 10-day test of the area's defences.

Results remained an official secret, but the remark of one commanding officer indicated satisfaction with the way "exercise overgreasy" is progressing.

"In case anyone wants to know, an air defence for the Pacific Northwest has been established," said Col. Clinton D. Vincent, commanding the 25th Air Division.

This nerve centre of the training exercise was alive with activity throughout the day. Most of the time the ground was obscured by thick fog, but radar stations relayed a steady stream of reports to headquarters here.

Cranbrook Plans Improved Lower Wafer Pressure

CRANBROOK, B. C., Nov. 8 — Methods to improve lowered water pressure in the higher parts of the city are being discussed by the City Council, possibly foreshadowing appreciable capital expenditure which would require ratepayers' authorization. Required improvements in the electrical supply have already been discussed. Recommendations on both problems will be drawn up by the present council and handed over to the 1950 council for implementation.

Survey of the present supply situation is the initial consideration. Checking of the main between the reservoir and the city for partial rock blockage at specific points will be undertaken in brief night shutdowns shortly, and the distribution system in the city, under violent strain in the extreme Winter of 1948-49, will be checked for leaks.

Pressure remains close to normal in the city except in the Southern part where terrain rises. This area is also where the city is expanding more rapidly for residential purposes. The scores of new water connections in the city during the past few years account for some of the pressure drop, and scores more applications for connections have had to be tabled until the situation of supply is surveyed.

Under consideration as recommendations to assure meeting all needs for a considerable period as the city expands are installation of a second main from the reservoir to the city, and investigation of the possibility of acquiring additional water rights to those already held for water supply.

UNIFICATION OF RAILWAYS URGED

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Public pressure may force unification of the railways unless they effect greater economies in operation, the Royal Commission on Transportation was told today.

Dr. E. C. Hope, Economist of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, made the statement as he testified on a Federation brief calling for more railway efficiency and economy.

As an instance of one potential economy, he said many points in Saskatchewan had two railway stations, when to an outsider it appeared only one would be necessary.

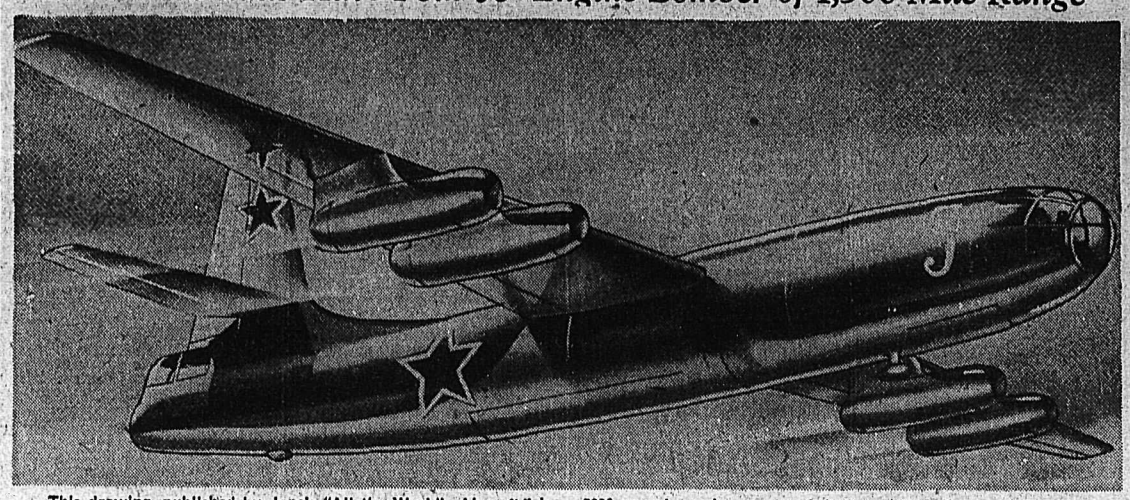
Believe Russians Have Four-Je Engine Bomber of 1,500-Mile Range



This drawing, published by Jane's "All the World's Aircraft," is believed to represent the general outline of the new four-jet high wing Russian Ilyushin medium bomber. According to this authoritative publication, Russia is building at least two types of four-jet bombers which may be able to carry the atomic bomb limited distances. These are the Ilyushin, with a probable bomb capacity of 5000 pounds, and a range of 1000 to 1500 miles; and the Junkers Ju-287, a four-jet medium-to-heavy bomber of German design. The Ilyushin was first reported and identified by foreign observers at the 1947 aviation display over Moscow, Jane's said. It gave no performance figures on the Ju-287.

British Woes Born in Fighting Germans Alone

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

The United Kingdom Information Office in Ottawa has issued a booklet stating "the A.B.C. of Britain's dollar shortage."

It prefaces it with a quotation from Paul-Henri Spaak, President of the European Consultative Assembly and former Prime Minister of Belgium. Speaking at Strasbourg Aug. 25, he said:

"I think that all the world should remember that most of Britain's economic problems were born when she resisted Germany alone."

The booklet goes on in question and answer form, and says in part:

Does the dollar shortage mean the British are not working?

Industrial production in Britain still is rising, and now is more than 30 per cent above pre-war levels. Her exports in 1949 have averaged almost 50 per cent by volume above 1938. She now has approached a balance in her total overseas payments, expressed in sterling. It is only in dollar trade and payments that Britain shows a deficit.

Why must Britain balance her dollar payments?

Even before the war, Britain bought more from the United States and Canada than she sold to them. But the deficit with any particular country or countries did not matter as long as relatively free trading between all countries allowed deficits in one direction to be offset by surpluses in another . .

The Second World War shattered this precarious balance . . . since all non-dollar countries as a whole have a deficit with any dollar countries, they cannot possibly earn enough dollars from each other to keep multilateral trade flowing by automatic means.

Consequently, until a world overall trade balance can again be restored, every country has somehow to ensure that it itself earns enough dollars to meet its own dollar payments. That is why Britain can no longer be content to balance its "over-all" overseas payments.

What are the obstacles to Britain's achieving a dollar balance of payments?

Her dollar income from investments has been cut drastically because, during the war, she had to sell $1,712,000,000 of investments in North America to pay for food, planes, arms and other supplies before lend-lease.

Barbara Ann "Sorry" She Missed Children In Edmonton Store

EDMONTON, Nov. 8 (CP)—Tommy Gorman, Press Chief for the skating extravaganza starring Barbara Ann Scott, said today the failure of Barbara Ann to appear at a department store as scheduled yesterday was due to a misunderstanding.

Hundreds of Edmonton children went away disappointed when it was announced Miss Scott would not be there. It was advertised that she would appear on her arrival in Edmonton.

The skater drove past the store twice in an open convertible car, the nwent directly to her hotel. Later she said she was sorry she disappointed the children.

"I had no idea before arriving in Edmonton they were expecting to see me," she said.

Gorman said he thought Barbara Ann and her mother were heading for the store. He said he was amazed when he learned she had not gone there. He said it was all a misunderstanding.

Tenants Breathe Sigh of Relief

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP) — Some 3400 tenants who rent in Montreal from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, a Crown company, today breathed a little easier than most Montreal apartment dwellers. It appeared these 3400 tenants will receive only minor rent boosts.

A spokesman for the Crown Company said that until top-ranking corporation officials decide what steps to take on the Federal Government's recent rentals decontrol decision, there will be no increases for Central Mortgage tenants.

Retail Butter Prices Up

By The Canadian Press

Retail butter prices have jumped one to two cents a pound almost throughout Canada, a survey by The Canadian Press showed today. Reports of further increases also were indicated.

The price hoists were attributed in part to a Federal Government announcement last week it plans to unload its stock of about 60,000,000 pounds at 60½ cents, and also to a seasonal drop in production.

In Winnipeg, where a one-cent increase to 64 cents a pound was reported Monday, a retailer said a two-cent-a-pound rise in the price of butterfat to the farmer indicated "a further increase in the retail price" later in the week.

The largest increase—3½ cents a pound—was reported from Saint John, N. B., where butter now retails at 67-69 cents. In Charlottetown it sold at 65 cents, up from $1.25 for two pounds last Saturday; in Montreal 65 cents, up two cents from Saturday, and in Halifax some stores sold at 68 cents, an increase of two cents.

STEADY IN OTTAWA

Prices remained steady at 66 cents a pound in Ottawa. This was said to be the prevailing price for some time. Price changes there are based on the Montreal market, a dairy official said.

Ontario centres reported increases of from one to two cents a pound.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—Agriculture Department officials said today there was no connection between increases in butter prices and an increased selling price for Government-held butter stocks.

Beverly Hills Home for Clifton Webb; Long "Mr. Belvedere" Series Planned

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 8 (AP) — Clifton Webb appears set for a long career as Mr. Belvedere.

The fastidious actor has sold his Greenwich, Conn., home and bought one in Beverly Hills; his film schedule will keep him busy here. Now playing the father of 12 in "Cheaper by the Dozen," he returns to his familiar character next in "Mr. Belvedere Takes a Rap."

This will apparently precede such other announced subjects as "Mr. Belvedere's Book of the Month," "Mr. Belvedere Goes West," and "Mr. Belvedere Goes to Africa."

Webb himself would like a change of pace. Says he: "I'd like to play a despicable character, one even I could hate."

Charles Laughton's Bible-reading tour in the East may be extended. He has been well received and is enjoying himself. But he'd like to be home for Christmas.

William Bendix will be added to the growing list of famous Hollywood grandparents. His daughter Lorraine expects a baby next Spring.

The Motion Picture Academy is hunting for means of support, now that the studios have withdrawn financial aid. First move is permission for manufacture of an "Academy Award" watch, which will bring $125,000 in four years.

Louis Calhern has abandoned the stage for at least a couple of years. Now playing Buffalo Bill Cody in "Annie Get Your Gun," he has bought a home here and will settle down.

THE BOGIES

Humphrey Bogart says he doubts if Warners will lend Lauren Bacall. "If she ever got out of her contract, she'd probably work for my company, Santana," he added. "She might as well—she owns half of it under community property law."

Bogie said he'll have a homey Christmas this year for the baby (Stephen, not Lauren). He admitted Hollywood softens up at Christmas.

"Why, Hollywood people are the most sentimental in the world," he said on the set of "In a Lonely Place." "I don't know where people get the idea we're hardboiled and tough. We're just like anybody else."

Reports New System for School Financing

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP)—A report that the Provincial Education Department is working on an entirely new system of educational financing is news to Education Minister W. T. Straith.

The report was made by Charles Ovans, General Secretary of the B. C. Teachers' Federation, at the third annual Vancouver Island Teachers' Convention held here last weekend. Mr. Ovans told the teachers that he did not know what the system would be or whether or not it would be to the advantage of the teachers.

Mr. Straith, who confessed he had heard nothing of a proposed revision of school finances, noted that the present system now was an established Government policy and seemed to be adequate.

The test case will affect all those merchants involved under the bylaw.

Says 630-Foot Fill Needed For City Wharf

A 630-foot fill would be necessary in order to have Nelson's floating wharf in sufficient depth of water, K. W. Morton of New Westminster District Engineer for the Dominion Government, advised City Council in a letter Monday night.

The letter was referred to City Engineer W. S. Jackson to see if a solution could be found. The fill carried out by the City extends 390 feet.

A letter was also received from H. W. Herridge, M. P. for Kootenay West, advising the Council that $15,000 had been authorized for construction of the wharf. A letter of appreciation for his efforts in connection with the matter will be sent.

In the plan of the wharf, Mr. Morton's letter said, it was intended to construct a pile trestle 65 feet long by 32 feet wide off the end of a fill put in by the City. From the trestle there would be a four by 32 foot gagway to a main landing float 40 by 60 feet held in place by dolphins.

In order to have the float in sufficient depth of water in the above layout, it would be necessary to commence the trestle approach at the end of a fill 630 feet long. D. E. Male, of the Dominion Public Works Department at Nelson, had measured the existing fill put in by the City of Nelson and had advised that it was only 390 feet long. The fill would be 32 feet wide, whereas a width of 16 feet wide would be sufficient.

290-FOOT GAP

If the structure was built according to the plan for which the allotment was obtained, there would be a gap 290 feet long between the inner end of the trestle on the existing fill and access to the wharf would be impossible.

It had been Mr. Male's understanding that the City would put in the fill. There remained a distance of 290 feet still to be filled.

It was noted that the top of the fill placed is 10 feet above low water level and should be raised at least one foot and preferably two feet as there would be danger of the fill being inundated at the high water stage. It would not only make access to the wharf difficult, but would wash out the fines in the fill and make a very rough surface.

Catholic Judges Must Use "Own Conscience"

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — A spokesman for Msgr. Ildebrando Antonutti, Apostolic delegate to Canada, said today Roman Catholic judges must act in accordance with the laws of the church and "their own conscience" when hearing civil divorce cases.

He was commenting on a speech delivered by Pope Pius Sunday in which the Pontiff said Catholic judges "cannot pronounce, unless for motives of great moment, a decision of civil service (where it does exist) in a marriage valid before God and the Church."

The spokesman said the Pope was not announcing a new church law but was drawing attention to a law that had always existed.

Love Problems . . .

Marriage Without Love Won't Solve Problem of Lonely Folks

If there is one thing more than another that I wish lonely people could be made to realize is that they themselves are the ones who primarily have to solve their own problems.

To those lonely people who are unmarried, and think that marriage would solve their problem there is another important thing that should be emphasized. This is while it would be a very fine thing if a happy marriage came their way, it is perfectly possible to enjoy life thoroughly even without husband or wife.

TYPICAL LETTER

Typical of many letters that reach me from women who have been widowed is this from a young woman of 29: "Since my husband died two years ago," she writes, "I don't think I have been out of my home more than three times, except to go to see my mother. I am finding life so lonesome, and trying to bring up my two children by myself is rather hard.

"I would like very much to meet a nice fellow whom I would later love, honor and obey, and who would be a good father to my children. People think a widow would just marry for security, but I am one who doesn't think money makes a marriage—just love and only love."

The first thing I think this young woman should do is to stop making the finding of a new husband the primary concern of her life. If she will do as I suggest, and start taking steps to broaden her life, she certainly can, as I have also suggested, find that there is much happiness to be had even though one is single.

So her problem becomes a matter of how to gain more interests and make more friends. Why can't she start by having good times with the friends she already has? She says that except for visiting her mother, she has scarcely been out of her home more than three times since her husband's death. I can't understand why not. If she has any friends at all, and apparently she has, since she mentions them, surely she could have been more sociable with them.

Another good way to make friends and acquire more interests is to take part in some community activity, or join a club in a church, or just a neighborhood affair. If there is no neighborhood club, why not organize one? Since this girl apparently lives near enough to her mother to visit her frequently, no doubt her mother would be glad to take care of the children occasionally.

Any of these things makes a good beginning for a wider social life, but it takes real initiative for anyone to make a start, and initiative is something no one can give another person. It must be found within one's self.

The Lure of the Open Road

Bicycle Information Bureau.

By PRUNELLA WOOD

Off on the open road, the pretty girl above, but no raggle-taggle Gypsy-o she, with her green suede vest, her neat clan wool kilt, her smart white wash blouse.

What is a bicycle . . . sporting equipment, a means of locomotion, an exercising device as is a skip rope? Well, none . . . and all three. You get where you want to go on a bicycle, and on the way you exercise in the open air; wheeling along in groups out for a lark, it is at least as much of a sport as croquet, and a game with social value, although not competitive.

The Doctor . . .

COUGHING MAKES ASTHMA WORSE

Most patients with asthma are inclined to cough a great deal. Some even cough on principle, feeling that it is good thing to bring up secretions which they believe may be a factor in making their condition worse.

It just happens that where asthmatics are concerned this is the wrong principle. Instead of helping, coughing may make matters worse, even to the point of bringing on an attack of asthma.

This is true despite the fact that, in general, coughing is a protective device—both a warning that something is irritating the breathing organs and a means of getting rid of the offender. The patient with asthma, who is subject to repeated attacks of spasm of the tubes in the lungs, already has a good deal if inflammation in these passages. Continued coughing will cause further irritation and prevent rest and healing.

WHY COUGHING OCCURS

Sometimes the coughing may be a habit due to nervousness. In other cases it may be caused by an infection of the air passages, and in such cases the cause must be removed.

For example, the patient may be suffering from a chronic sinus infection. In these instances it may be necessary to drain the sinuses because the asthma cannot be controlled if the chronic sinus infection persists.

SINUS INFECTIONS

Recurring colds, acute sinus infections or bronchitis not only will bring on asthmatic attacks but also make coughing more severe.

To avoid these infections, the patient must at all times keep warm and dry, get plenty of rest and stay out of contact with others who have colds or similar infections. The patient with asthma should go to bed at the first sign of a cold and stay in bed until the cold is gone.

Three Varieties Of Overeating

While overeating is beyond doubt the most popular cause of overweight, the phrase "just plain overeating" may be misleading. Many overweights are convinced it doesn't apply to them. But wait . . . there are at least three varieties of overeating.

The modern habit of eating lightly at breakfast and lunch and taking the bulk of the calories at the evening meal, is perhaps the most insidious. It is hard to look upon one good meal a day as overeating. But, at the end of the day's activities there is little demand for energy, and whatever is eaten in excess of immediate needs is stored as fat.

There is no way out of it . . . if you are overweight, you are overeating. The question is how?

If your tendency is to eat too much dinner, start cutting calories there. The easiest way would be simply to get up from the table at the end of the main course, skipping the dessert. Or perhaps you would prefer to cut down on the size of all first helpings, with the exception of the lean meat, and finish off with a small serving of dessert. (Of course second helpings are definitely out!) Try whichever plan suits you, but get up from the table just short of full. In 10 days your stomach will actually be smaller, which shrinks the appetite . . . you'll be reducing.

If you're the type who eats next to nothing at meals but more than makes up for it between meals, the cure is to eat more at meals and nothing between, except water. Pin yourself down to three moderate meals a day, including breakfast. Try it for 10 days. You'll be amazed at the amount you can eat and lose weight, and at your increase in energy and sense of well-being.

New Foundations Kill Rumor About Curves

By DOROTHY ROE

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP).—Women may accept the boyish bob, the cloche hat and the short—or long—skirt, but the Corset and Brassiere Association of America will resist to the death a return of the flat-chested silhouette of the flapper era.

So said Harold Kurzman, President of the Association, on his return today from a flying trip to Britain and France, to track down the frightening rumor that feminine curves are on the way out.

"There is no truth to the rumor that the sack silhouette of the 1920s is due for a comeback," he said. "Women would never accept it. And for the immediate future, I can assure you that the natural curves of the bust will be more important than ever in 1950 fashions."

Contrary to the disturbing report of a return to the boyish form, Kurzman found on his tour of Paris and London dressmaking salons that the revealing neckline is slated for even deeper plunges next Spring, and that many new dresses, with no visible means of support, are being made, in part, by corsetieres.

"The exposed bra, which is part of the dress, seems an important new trend,' he said. "We already have made some for dress manufacturers in this country, and some Paris couturieres are having dress bodices made by regular corset manufacturers."

The only change in the silhouette of the bust, said Kurzman, is a trend toward less exaggeration and more natural but still rounded lines. He does not think the silhouette will interfere with the sale of "falsies."

OPENS OTTAWA PASTRY SHOP

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — The wife of a Czech diplomat who quit his job when the Communists took over his country today opened a pastry shop—strictly for gourmets.

Mayor E. A. Bourque of Ottawa snipped a broad yellow ribbon across the door at official opening ceremonies of the shop which has been the talk of the diplomatic corps ever since Mrs. Frantisek Nemec announced its establishment.

Today she saw her dream come true. Several diplomats' wives, among them Mrs. Laurence Steinhardt, wife of the United States Ambassador, Mrs. James Thorn, wife of the New Zealand High Commissioner, were on hand at a reception which immediately preceded the official opening.

In her store, in the Glebe section of South Ottawa, Mrs. Nemec hopes to sell French, Swiss, Danish, Italian pastries, and hand-made European chocolates.

In early times the shin-bones of animals were used as blades on ice skates.

PANCAKE SUCCESS DEPENDS ON USE OF GRIDDLE

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Three rousing cheers for the ready mixes; the bread, biscuit, cake and pancake jobs that help to make the task of getting three square meals a day less onerous. How wonderful these mixes are to be sure during the warm weather when kitchen duty commands while the cool ocean beckons!

We've been experimenting with pancake mixes and find them a cinch to handle. There are several little pancake baking tips to help assure perfect pancakes every time. First of all, follow package directions to the letter. The directions have been worked out by professional cooks to get the best out of the product.

Measure accurately, and stir lightly. You may notice small lumps in the batter, this is one time when it is best not to beat them out. A somewhat lumpy batter usually makes light, tender pancakes.

GRIDDLE IS IMPORTANT

The griddle is very important to the success of pancakes. Grease it lightly with unsalted fat. It is just hot enough when a drop of water will bounce for a second before evaporating. Then pour the batter onto the griddle, rather than spooning it on. If it is spooned on, the first spoonful will start to bake before the second can be added. Bake the pancakes until the edges look dry and the top is covered with tiny bubbles. Turn and bake on the other side until brown. Don't "pat" pancakes or turn them more than once. And of course it goes without comment that pancakes are served "hot off the griddle."

Cheese pancakes topped with applesauce adds up to good eating, no matter what the time of year. To prepare 14-16 medium-sized pancakes use 2 c. pancake ready-mix. Add all at one time 2¼ c. milk and stir lightly. Fold in ½ c. grated American cheese. Pour ¼ c. batter for each pancake onto a hot, lightly greased griddle. Bake to a golden brown, turning only once. Serve at once, topped with hot applesauce.

For Parents . . .

Fidgetty Child May Be Bored

Many a mother writes me that her child (who may be ever so bright) of three, four or five doesn't want to be read to and won't be still long enough to listen to a story. It's hard to convince these mothers that they can easily cultivate an eagerness in this child for listening to stories read to him.

Suppose you are the mother of such a child. Choose a time to begin to read to him when you feel relaxed and he seems to be and when he and you feel mutually companionable.

KEEP TRYING

Even should he move a bit or be doing something as you read he may be listening. Let him walk away as soon as he chooses, after which you would put the book away. Try him again later. Patiently keep on trying. You soon may see a growing interest by him in what he sees and hears. Just proceed as if he were a child much younger.

As soon as he evinces strong interest in having you read tell him you won't read unless he will sit pretty still. If he wriggles much, walks or jumps about and plays with a toy while you read, close the book and put it away, but don't scold.

TRAIN CHILD

Train your little child from his earliest experiences at being read to, to concentrate not only with his head but also with his whole body, by refusing to read further when he does not thus cooperate. It easily can be done and can be very useful to him afterwards. Normally, listening happily to a story read can and should have a quieting effect.

Weeds often harbor fungi aphids carrying plant diseases which sometimes reduce potato yields by as much as 50 per cent.

Wants to Fight Hollywood Glamor Girls' Influence

LONDON, Nov. 8 (AP) — Lady Astor appealed for a million-dollar fund today to build an educational back-fire against the "wretched glamour girls" of Hollywood and their impact on world thinking.

The United States-born noblewoman wants the money for the Crosby fund, which helps pay for study in Britain by University women of other lands.

Her goal is £400,000 pounds ($1,240,000) and her chief project is a new wing for Crosby Hall in London's Chelsea District, which houses the visiting students.

"My plan is for educated women from every country to understand each other an dexchang their varying points of view," Lady Astor told a reporter.

Mother's Pet

Mother love is perhaps the purest and most unselfish of all human emotions. But an overdose of it has ruined many a boy. Such a mother thinks her son can do no wrong, is a little angel, and must be protected against any punishment. Soon the boy begins to believe this himself, and then trouble starts.

In imposing six months definite and three months indefinite, plus 10 strokes of the strap, upon a young man convicted of a brutal attack on a young woman, an Ontario magistrate had some sharp words to say about his mother. Even when previously convicted of a heinous sexual offence, the mother had defended and "babied" him.

Mother love is a fine emotion. But there are times when it is not deserved and should not be given. When overdone, it can contribute to the downfall of a boy, either by encouraging him to persist in wrongdoing, or by producing a namby-pamby, sissy sort of a man unable to cope with the realities of the world.

An additional tragedy in the case before the Chatham magistrate was the hard-working, honest father, kept poor helping pay for the misdeeds of a no-good son ruined by a foolish mother.

Citizenship

The Canadian Citizenship Council is engaged in a nationwide campaign to promote public interest in its aims and ideals. Those are, in essence, to make Canadians more conscious of their heritage, the rights and privileges which also entail responsibilities.

As forms of public expression, the Council plans a national conference on citizenship, the first to be held in Canada. It seeks support for a Federally-proclaimed "Citizenship Day", to be a statutory holiday in mid-Spring, and also the institution of "coming of age" ceremonies for the 250,000 young Canadians who reach the age of 21 each year. It is among the young, and among the newcomers to Canada, that an important part of its work is concentrated. The Council explains that it "combats subversion in a positive way," and adds that "strong influences are constantly striving to capture the allegiance of our people."

The Council's efforts, and the spontaneous help they engender, are greatly needed to create a greater awareness in this country of what it means to be a Canadian citizen. That awareness is nowhere keener than among our immigrants. The people who have to qualify for citizenship cherish it with pride. Those of us to whom it has come simply through birth are apt to take it as a matter of course, giving too little thought to its significance and the responsibilities which free expression imposes.

In this country, with people of many races, we have on a national scale a model of the world's new interdependence. Our future is wrapped up with the future of other countries. That wider horizon, far from lessening our citizenship responsibilities, has extended them. We must take an increasing share in shaping human destiny. To do so wisely, we need a lively consciousness of our own duties and privileges. These are the principles which the Citizenship Council seeks to nourish and spread.

The Sentinel Is Relieved

By JOSEPH LISTER RUTLEDGE

They are tearing down the Collegiate Reformed Church at 5th Avenue and 48th Street, New York, to make way for a 21-story office building. The lovely Gothic tower, which has been a landmark as much to tens of thousands of occasional visitors as to New Yorkers, is giving place to the practical.

No one can argue with the practical aspects of the case. No one could be foolish enough to aver that St. Nicholas, the Collegiate Church of Fifth Avenue, could compare in financial returns with the same space occupied by a 21-story office building. All the careful economic arguments support the claim that a church is as well off and as useful in less costly neighborhoods. That is the trouble with economic arguments; they touch only the surface of things—the benefits that can be tabulated, the nicely balanced profit and loss account. But not all benefits can be measured in dollars. There are some that must be assessed in the peace and serenity of human hearts.

When the darkest days of war were upon us, church doors stood open and men and women were not ashamed to seek there the assurance and hope and compassion they could find nowhere else. But today the downtown church is passing, falling back before our economic arguments—its failing attendance, its lessening revenue. But who can measure the cost to us and to our world? We have lost a sentinel over our lives, the symbol of a reassuring certainty. That was the certainty that supported General Gordon in his last solitary vigil at Khartoum, when, deserted by all, he looked out beyond the encircling foes for the relieving column that he knew would come, too late to say with a tranquil and confident heart, "The hosts are with me."

K. J., Nakusp—Will you please give me the altitude of the highest mountains in the Okanagan, Arrow Lakes, Slocan and Kootenay?

Okanagan, Mount Big White, 7603, 19 miles East of Kelowna; Arrow Lakes, Mount Odin, 9751, 14 miles Southwest of Arrowhead; Slocan Lake, Mount Marion, 9750, 18 miles Northeast of Rosebery; Kootenay Lake, Hamill Peak, 10,640, 13 miles East of Argenta.

K. M., Nakusp—How would one make rugs from nylon hose?

We presume by the same method as used with old silk stockings: Cut into strips about two inches wide and roll tightly, lengthwise, then crochet according to required shape.

Questioner, Cranbrook—Where could I get a book of names of boys and girls?

Inquire at a local book and drug store, your library, or write Wilsons, Booksellers, Calgary; Allan & Ireland, Granville Street, Vancouver; or the book department of any of the mail-order stores. Many dictionaries—such as Chambers, Collins and others—have a section for names and meanings.

F. G., Salmo—Have you a recipe for molasses taffy?

Two cups molasses, one cup granulated sugar, three-quarters cup water, one-eighth teaspoon soda, four tablespoons butter or other fat, half teaspoon vanilla. Cook molasses, sugar and water slowly to the hard-ball stage (260 F.), stirring to prevent burning, then remove from heat, add fat, soda and vanilla, and stir enough to mix. Pour into greased pan, and when cool enough to handle, pull until it becomes light in color. Stretch into long rope and cut with scissors into small pieces.

INDIA TO SPEAK ENGLISH

An interesting item of news from Delhi is that India's Constituent Assembly has passed a resolution to continue teaching English, and that all natives who are given official appointments under the Government must speak English. In such a large country, with a teeming population, the number of officials of all kinds must be tremendous, and it is to be expected that a large percentage of people will learn English as well as their racial language, whether they hope to obtain civil servants' jobs or not. A time limit of 15 years is put on this regulation, with a proviso, which will no doubt be carried out, that it be extended, probably indefinitely.

In view of the intensity of Indian nationalism, this decision to keep the English language is a tribute to India's debt to Britain, and a recognition of the fact that the past contacts will have to be continued for many years. For more material reasons it is necessary for the building up of the new nation that the English language be maintained for commerce with the English-speaking countries. To isolate themselves behind a language barrier would be a disastrous and shortsighted policy. — St. Thomas Times-Journal.

1000 QUISLINGS STILL JAILED

Since 1946, 7 per cent of all Norwegians imprisoned on collaboration charges have been granted pardons in one form or another, according to a recent statement by the Norwegian Justice Department. Of the 1363 persons who have been pardoned to date, action was taken in most instances because of ill health, old age, or in cases where similar offences had rated unequal punishment. As of Sept. 1, approximately 1000 persons were still imprisoned on charges of collaboration.

Prefer Mud Huts to Living in East Zone

Hundreds of Germans who have found life in the Soviet zone not to their liking have crossed the border illegally and taken up residence in the British zone. These refugees, having no relatives in the zone, and having political reasons for leaving the East zone, could not receive permission to reside legally in West Germany. They build makeshift homes of mud, hay stacks or tenting, where they prefer to live rather than return to their former life. Here are some of the women and children who are among the refugees camping out in home-made dwellings near the Bohldamm barracks in the British zone.

Vishinsky Urges Better Russian, U.S. Friendship

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinski of Russia says the Soviet Union and the United States ought to be better friends.

The honor guest at a glittering Soviet Embassy reception last night, Vishinsky talked informally with newspaper men on this general theme—but put his specific observations "off the record."

His general line: The common feeling of Russian-American friendship has fallen asleep, but some day it will awaken and confound the enemies of freedom.

Smiling amiably, Vishinsky shook hands with more than 1000 dignitaries. They jammed the Embassy for the annual celebration of the anniversary of the 1917 revolution which swept the Communists into power in Russia.

Vishinsky came from the United Nations General Assembly session at New York for the occasion. He had a private 14-minute talk with State Secretary Acheson in the afternoon, shortly before Acheson left by plane for the Big Three Western Foreign Ministers' meeting at Paris. Both he and the State Department declared it was merely a social call.

NOT INVITED

One envoy missing from the reception was Yugoslav Ambassador Sava N. Kosanovic, whose Government is on distinctly bad terms with Moscow at the moment. He was not invited.

Claims Domestic Servants in "Slave Class"

EDMONTON, Nov. 8 (CP) — Joseph Cherrington, Vice-President of the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, last night said that domestic servants are "virtually a slave class."

He made the remark at a meeting of the council following receipt of a letter from the Vancouver Home Service Union asking for help in organizing domestic servants in the province.

"We must keep the pressure on the Government," Mr. Cherrington said, "If there is any body of workers in the province that really needs help it is domestic servants. We have virtually a slave class here."

All Provinces Agree To Jan. 10 Talks

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent announced today that all provinces have agreed that a Dominion-Provincial Conference on constitutional matters should open in Ottawa Jan. 10.

He made the announcement in the Commons.

Mr. St. Laurent wrote the 10 provincial premiers a few weeks ago asking if the January date would be suitable for the opening of the conference which will deal with ways of amending the constitution on matters under provincial jurisdiction or under joint Federal-Provincial jurisdiction.

Some premiers had replied earlier that the date was suitable. Mr. St. Laurent said he was tabling further correspondence indicating that all premiers agree on the date.

CAUSES INTERFERENCE

Several of the provincial premiers said Jan. 10 would interfere with legislature plans but nevertheless they would agree to attend on that date.

Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec said the date would mean postponement of the Legislature's session and would involve "some inconvenience."

Premier Campbell of Manitoba said in his letter of Nov. 1, that a week earlier would have been more suitable to his Government.

But "if the date of Jan. 10 is preferred by the other provinces, we shall be quite agreeable to meeting at that time," he said.

Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan said in his letter of Oct. 31 that he, too, would have preferred an earlier date. It would have given his Government more time to prepare questions that might be submitted to the Legislature when it meets early next year.

"However, I can appreciate the fact that your (Mr. St. Laurent's) Government will require some time to prepare for this conference and if you feel that Jan. 10 is the most convenient date, we will most heartily concur in this arrangement."

Premier Manning of Alberta said his Government would have preferred a preparatory conference of constitutional experts in advance of the main meeting.

The Jan. 10 date for the general meeting would be satisfactory, but "in view of the many intricate aspects of the matter involved, we believe such a preliminary meeting to be most desirable."

"We would appreciate being advised as soon as possible in respect to this advance meeting."

Short letters accepting the invitation to attend were sent by Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland, Premier Macdonald of Nova Scotia, Premier Jones of Prince Edward Island, Premier Frost of Ontario and Premier Johnson of British Columbia.

Premier McNair of New Brunswick sent his acceptance by telegram dated Nov. 5. He was the only Premier to do so.

Mr. St. Laurent replied to all the premiers yesterday. He said the meeting would open at 7:30 a.m. PST.

As to the preparatory meeting of experts, he said the Cabinet felt it should not attempt to arrange such a gathering since "many of the premiers did not feel that a preliminary meeting of constitutional experts in advance of the main conference would serve any useful purpose."

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP)—One hundred and nine persons died in B. C. motor vehicle accidents during the first nine months of this year.

During the first nine months of this year 12,563 accidents were recorded. This is 1067 more than during the same period of last year.

Scowling as though with indignation at being uprooted is this figurehead, seen being removed from the old "wooden-wall" French warship Implacable at Portsmouth, England. Sawn off at the base, the figurehead, together with other relics of the ship, will go to the National Maritime Museum at Greenwich. Built at Rochefort in 1789, Implacable fought against Nelson at the Battle of Trafalgar, was captured later and made a unit of the British fleet. The ship itself will be scuttled.

All of B.C., espcelally the Kootnays, can justly be proud of the neo (Frenchy) D'Amour four-me which won the four cars in e first automobile bonspiel at dmonton, sponsored by the Asso-ated Commercial Travellers. There ere only two B.C. rinks in the -rink affair, but many claim that is quartet was the strongest to ver come out of B.C.

D'Amour, Freddy Wendell, hnny Cameron and Nelson's Fred nling didn't by any means have going away. They had to meet o Johnson, a former Dominion le holder, as was Frenchy at one me, the curling Campbells, and ck Lebeau and Larry Hodgins of dmonton.

The last shot by Skip D'Amour as acclaimed as almost an im-ssible shot.

These are portions of the story lated through the Edmonton urnal by Don Fleming, who drove Amour home to Trail in his new dan, passing through Nelson last ght.

"If not a million-dollar shot, rtainly at the very least it was rth 10 grand . . . and the thrill their lives for Frenchy D'Amour's me of curling shotmakers from all and a meagre audience of 1500 the Gardens Saturday night.

"For it was a spectacular 10-foot gle raise of one of his own rocks the shot to the shot stone of o Johnson's of Winnipeg . . . de-itely verging on the variety that ould be the conception of a Holly-ood mind . . . that won the cars r D'Amour, Freddy Tinling, eddy Wendell and Johnny Cam-on with the last shot of Edmon-n's first A.C.T. automobile bon-iel.

"When it came time for D'Amour make his last shot—and the last the spiel, as it turned out—he as presented with two possibilities. "First he could attempt a cold aw to the button from the other de of the house, but at that, this as no cinch, because there was a hnson rock just to the left of the ntre line, and the right side was ldly plugged. Even if he should ake this, he would only tie the me . . . thus forcing an extra d with Johnson having last rock."

"His other hope . . . and definitley terrific gamble . . . was an out rn raise of a rock of his own out three feet from the boards. owever, should he succeed in smashing that rock onto the Winnipegger's, he ran the chance of it in turn banging back to his own. In such an event, he would at best get a tie, but more likely not even that.

"When the crowd saw that he decided in favor of the running raise, they gave Frenchy a great ovation for his courage as he headed down the ice to make the crucial shot. Thus he was definitely under the axe, so much hanging in the balance.

"Then the runner was on its way . . . hit the D'Amour guard rock on the right angle to drive it back to the Johnson stone, which was passed through the house without touching the other Trail rock.

"The reaction of the crowd was just as if the Flyers (Edmonton) had scored the winning goal for an Allan Cup campaign. For his part, Frenchy threw his broom in the air, leapt in the air, let out a war whoop. His mates ran down the ice to meet him as he left the hack, and it was a mad scene of jubilation as the Trail curlers deliriously hugged and kissed one another."

Frenchy is definitely a great champ when he can win the prizes on a shot as described.

Norm Baker Joins N. Y. Celtics

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — Norm Baker, generally conceded to be the finest basketball player in Canada, today was reported to have joined the ranks of the New York Celtics.

Baker, who was about to be reinstated into amateur ranks after playing three years pro ball, decided to take the $400 a month job offered by Abe Saperstein.

Baker will join the barnstorming Celtics to draw from American pro moguls comment on just how good he can be. Saperstein figures that after one season, he will be able to peddle the blond flash for a tidy sum, of which Norm will take a cut.

Baseball Trade Deal Shaping

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8 (AP) — Branch Rickey, busy Brooklyn President, climaxed three days of activity today by re-engaging Burt Shotton as Dodger Manager, selling another player to a rival National League Club, and laying the groundwork for a "big" trade that may bring the League champions a top-flight pitcher.

The player sold by the Dodgers was Infielder Henry (Hank) Schenz. He went to Pittsburgh Pirates for an undisclosed sum. Schenz batted .345 for St. Paul last season. The Dodgers farmed him to their American Association farm club after acquiring him from the Chicago Cubs as a "throw-in" in a deal that sent Bob Ramazzotti to the Cubs for $50,000.

In the three years since Frank McKinney took over control of the Pirates, Rickey has sold him more than $700,000 worth of ball players.

The sale of Schenz leaves the Brooks with 39 players on their roster, one short of the Winter player limit.

Coast To Take Step For Major League Baseball Loop

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Pacific Coast League will try again next month to nudge a short step toward its long-sought recognition as a Major League baseball loop.

But the effort will be made without any help from the Major League Executive Council.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler disclosed yesterday that the Council last week considered a Pacific Coast proposal that its players be exempt from the major League draft, and finally agreed to submit the proposal to Major Club owners without a recommendation. The joint meeting of Major League teams will be held in New York Dec. 14.

FIRST DEFEAT FOR CANADIANS

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP) — Hull Volants, touring Canadian hockey squad, tonight suffered their third defeat in four games as they were outclassed 7-3 by Harringay Racers, British Ice Hockey Association champions. Hull Manager Bob Guertin pleaded unfamiliarity with the rink and British rules in explaining the Volants' defeat.

Only Five Out For Game Meet

Only five members attended the Nelson Fish and Wildlife Protective Association meeting in the City Hall Tuesday night. They saw two films entitled "Big Timber" and "Out of a Chinese Paint Brush."

The business meeting was postponed due to the lack of attendance.

Notre Dame Tops Football Picture

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—Notre Dame is dominating the United States college football picture this year as few teams have done in the past.

The resourceful Fighting Irish, making mincemeat of a man-sized schedule, held the No. 1 position for the fifth straight weak today in the Associated Press country-wide poll.

15 FOOTBALL DEATHS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8 (AP) — Football has claimed 15 lives in the United States thus far in the 1949 season, six of them in unsupervised sandlot games.

The fatalities also include one college player, five in high school, and three in professional and semi-professional ranks.

For the same period last year, sandlot deaths totalled three, high schools seven, three in pro or semi-pro and none in college ranks.

Car Winning Curlers Visit Here On Way to Trail

Four Trail and Nelson curlers who participated in the A.C.T. auto bonpiel at Edmonton last week, happy in their shiny new sedans, continued on to Trail Tuesday night after stopping at the home of L. F. Tinling of Nelson. Mr. Tinling was the third in the Theo D'Amour rink which captured the automobile prizes in the Associated Canadian Travellers Bonspiel.

Leaving Edmonton on Nov. 6 they were in town at 7:30 last night and continued on to Trail two hours later. Those winning the cars were Theo (Frenchy) D'Amour, lead Jack Cameron, second Fred Wendell, all of Trail, and Fred Tinling of Nelson. Don Fleming, Edmonton Journal Assistant Sports Editor, drove D'Amour's car.

D'Amour said that "when you have curled for a good many years, and have three wonderful fellows backing you, that is what makes for good curling". He said that in their games they met some of the best and toughest competition in Canada.

The crowd was very disappointing, he said, as only about 2000 watched the final game, and 7000 or 8000 had been expected.

Tinling, Wendell and Cameron came back through Canada, arriving half an hour before D'Amour, who came back through the States. Mr. Fleming, who drove the D'Amour car, is a former well known Nelsonite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fleming.

None of the four curlers had cars previously.

BIG-4 PLAYOFF OPENS WITH DAYLIGHT GAME

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP)—Coach Lew Hayman took his Alouettes out today for a final workout in broad daylight, a scant 24 hours before they appear in what has become known hereabouts as the Command Performance.

The Als will meet Ottawa Rough Riders in the first game of the Big Four Football Union's playoff at 2 p.m. EST. The second of the two-game, total-point series will be played in Ottawa Saturday.

After all the argument over night game or day game, the Alouette management finally bowing to the edict of the Big Four executive, there was lively speculation as to the probable size of the crowd as well as to the outcome of the game.

61 NAMED TO GAMES TEAM

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP) — Canada's competitive representation for the British Empire Games in New Zealand next February was restored today to practically its originally-planned strength with announcement by General Manager Jack Davies that 61 athletes have finally been named.

The announcement followed a meeting of the Organizing Committee at which George Machum, President of Canada's B. E. Games Association, said he thought there was enough money in sight to warrant the upward revision.

The original total aimed at was 62. Several weeks ago Davies announced this had been slashed to 50 because of scarcity of funds. Heaviest cuts fell on the men's and women's track and field squads.

Hilltops Like Underdog Billing

SASKATOON, Nov. 8 (CP) — Saskatoon Hilltops tonight were on their way to Vancouver to defend their Western Canada junior football crown in a sudden-death final against the vaunted Blue Bombers.

Full of confidence despite advance notices of Bombers' terrific power, Hilltops feel they always play better when posted as "underdogs." Reports indicate the Saskatoon club will be on the short end of the betting when the two teams clash on Remembrance Day.

NO GREY CUP TICKETS FOR RUGBY UNION

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP)—Canadian Rugby Union officials have hung out the "I have no tickets" sign already for the Grey Cup football final at Toronto's Varsity Stadium Nov. 26.

The I.H.N.T. sign differs from the "Sold right out" notice because it means they had none in the first place.

Each League represented in the Canadian final will be allotted 30 per cent of all tickets. The losing League in the Eastern final between the Big Four and the Ontario Union will get 10 per cent. The other 30 per cent will go on sale through Toronto ticket agencies after Nov. 19.

Shotton Named Dodger Manager

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8 (AP)—Burt (Barney) Shotton, who led Brooklyn to a pennant but lost the World Series to New York Yankees last season, was reappointed Manager of the Dodgers today.

No terms were announced, but it is believed the 65-year-old resident of Bartow, Fla., was hired for one year at the same figure he received last season—$25,000.

Stick Swinging Accusation Brings Warning

HALIFAX, Nov. 8 (CP)—Judge J. Elliott Hudson, President of the Maritime Senior Hockey League, said tonight Gord Armstrong of Halifax St. Mary's is being warned about stick-swinging after a scuffle with a fan in a game against Beavers at Saint John Monday night.

During the first period Referee Hugh Gillis tagged Armstrong with a misconduct for swinging his stick at a spectator. Gillis said the fan had held Armstrong's stick during a scuffle with a Saint John player along the boards. The spectator claimed he held the stick to protect himself.

After the game, Gillis reported, a fan who identified himself as John Flewelling came to the referees' dressing room and claimed that Don McLaughlin and Tom Brennan of St Mary's had struck him with their sticks as the players were leaving the ice.

Gillis and Referee Neil Sanford said they did not see any such incident.

Abel Commands N.H.L. Scoring

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP)—Veteran Sid Abel of Detroit Red Wings commands the National Hockey League scoring race following a whirlwind week in which he picked up seven points—four goals and three assists.

League statistics released today show that the Melville, Sask., born Abel leads the high-point snipers with a total of 12 points, one ahead of the runner-up spot which is jammed with five players. They are Chicago's Metro Prystal and Doug Bentley, Boston's Paul Ronty, Detroit's Ted Lindsay and Toronto's Cal Gardner — all with 11 points. In the next spot, in a three-way split with 10 points each, are Johnny Peirson of Boston, Gordie Howe of Detroit and Roy Conacher of Chicago.

New York Rangers' Dunc Fisher leads the penalty parade with 24 minutes spent outside the oval.

Leads A.H.L. Scorers

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—Les Douglas, centre on Cleveland's powerful Barons, continued to lead the field this week in the American Hockey League's individual scoring race.

Douglas, the top scorer since the season opened, added two points during the week to boost his output to 20.

Another centre, Ab DeMarco of Buffalo Bisons, trailed Douglas by two points. Douglas topped the loop in assists with 13 and DeMarco in goals with 10.

Terry Sawchuk, 19-year-old goalie of Indianapolis Caps, was the circuit's No. 1 netminder. Sawchuk has turned in the most shutouts, two, and sports and best goals-against Mark, 2.23 for 13 games.

Biggest Year For Manufacturers

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Canada's growing manufacturing industries had their biggest year in history in 1948.

They turned out products with a gross value of $11,800,887,000 — nearly $950 for every man, woman and child in the country.

The value of production was 17 per cen- higher than in 1947, itself a record year.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reporting the figures today, said the increases were shown by all nine groups of industries. The largest actual increase was in the iron industry but non-metallic minerals showed the biggest percentage increase.

During the year, iron and iron products replaced wood and paper as the biggest group of manufactures.

The total value of the iron group —comprising 18 individual industries—was $2,251,392,000, an increase of 21.4 per cent. The biggest increases were shown in farm implements, automobiles, machinery, primary iron and steel, railway rolling stock and sheet metal products.

The wood and paper group had a gross production value of $2,207,361,000, compared with $1,953,243,000 a year earlier.

The vegetable products group, the third largest, had a production value of $1,903,778,000, a nine-per-cent increase, with advances in 15 of the 21 component industries. Largest gains were in tobacco, sugar refineries, fruit and vegetable preparations, confectionery, cocoa and bakery products.

Gross value of the animal products group was $1,560,761,000, up 24 per cent with increases in slaughtering and meat packing, butter and cheese, and fish curing and packing.

Non-ferrous metals were 21.9 per cent higher at $1,261,284,000, with increased totals recorded for smelting and refining, electrical apparatus and supplies and brass and copper products.

Utah Uranium Prospect Bright

DURANGO, Colo., Nov. 8 (AP)— One of the major uranium discoveries in the United States is believed to have been uncovered in Southern Utah it was reported today.

The group of claims is located near Fishlake National Forest, just outside the small community of Marysvale, some 220 miles South of Salt Lake City.

"I consider it one of the best prospects in the country at this time," D. W. Viles, Vice-President and General Manager of the Vanadium Corporation of America, said.

The Seegmiller and Smith-Anderson claims were leased by V.C.A. which did considerable diamond drilling and surfacing prospecting.

"Sufficient uranium bearing ore was found to justify additional prospecting expense," Viles said. Development work and further tests on the new discovery is expected to take about six months.

IDENTIFY $5 PAINTING AS WORK OF GREAT ITALIAN'S STUDENT

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP) — A painting which sold for $5 at an auction 50 years ago has been identified as the work of a pupil of the great 16th century Italian artist, Titian.

The value and importance of the 400-year-old canvas was recognized recently because of the persistence of its owner, Betty Tothe of Toronto and Brantford, Ont.

For years she had a hunch it was a "lost master"—or something close to it.

Miss Tothe, who is a dress designer, finally submitted the painting to George Chapellier of New York, an art restorer. His decision: It was done by a Titian pupil. He told The Canadian Press he is unable to estimate its value.

The painting was given to Miss Tothe by her friend Hedley Pentland, also of Brantford, but now living in Toronto. Miss Pentland's mother bought it for $5 at an auction in Maine 50 years ago. Although its value went unrecognized, it never was discarded or sold. Finally it was brought to the Toronto apartment shared by Miss Pentland and Miss Tothe.

Last Sept. 25 Miss Tothe took it to Chapellier, the man who cleaned and restored Gainsborough's famous "Master Buttal" (The Blue Boy).

RESTORED

After careful examination, he said he was convinced it came from Titian's studio. He now is restoring it; Miss Tothe expects it to be returned soon.

The canvas, still on the original stretcher, Mr. Chapellier says, is a 20 by 25 inch portrait of Lavinia, Titian's daughter.

Community Effort Built Kootenay's "Most Modern"

FERNIE, B. C., Nov. 8—Fernie Memorial Hospital opening officially here Friday, is a monument not only to Fernie District men who gave their lives in two world wars, but to the people throughout this District whose efforts have given this area Kootenay's finest hospital.

R. A. Pennington, Provincial Deputy Minister of Health and Welfare will participate in the opening, which will be held in conection with Fernie's Remembrance Day ceremonies. Also taking part will be Dr. Sparling East, President of the Canadian Legion, and members of the Hospital Board, headed by K. N. Stewart, Chairman.

The thoughts and actions of scores of citizens over a period of years dating back to the time this City was administrated by a Manager, J. B. Fisher, culminated in the final construction of the new building.

Four years ago, Hospital Board of the old hospital and citizens decided action must be taken. The Board Chairman then was the late J. R. Johnstone. A commitee of citizens was selected to find means of raising funds and in 1945 nearly $40,000 was raised by public subscription .

There were a number of delays before financial arrangements were completed in the Fall of 1947, then early in 1948 the contract was let to the Marwell Construction Company, and on May 15, 1948 the work commenced. On October 23 of this year patients were moved in from the old hospital.

BUILT DEBT-FREE

One of the brightest spots in the whole picture is the manner in which financing of the building was carried out. The construction cost of $248,000 was taken care of by the $40,000 public subscription; the City of Fernie's share of $65,000; the Dominion Government's share of $45,000, the Porvincial Government's share of $80,000 and the surplus of $18,000 derived from operation of the Fernie Hospital.

An additional $10,000 was raised locally for furnishings and $25,000 obtained from the hospital operating surplus was placed towards furnishings and equipment. Further assistance in this respect will be received from the Provincial Government.

To help keep contruction costs down, citizens donated time and assistance and various corporations within the City loaned construction equipment or aided by keeping construction costs to a minimum. Equipmen of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company was used for filling and levelling work on the grounds. East Kootenay Power Company Ltd. and various merchants also cooperated.

Besides Mr. Johnstone, two other hard workers in the cause have died. They were Benjamin Drew, Vice-President, and Harold White.

Officially, the Hospital is described as having 45-2-3 beds. There are five 4-bed wards; seven 2-bed wards; three private rooms; one 3-bed ward; seven bassinettes and seven children's ward beds.

LATEST EQUIPMENT

Gleaming new and highly modern equipment and furnishings fill the beautifully appointed hospital. Latest X-Ray laundry and sterilizing equipment is being used. A steam plant operated by a 10-horsepower boiler serves the laundry and sterilizing equipment, and a hot water heating plant, automatic stoker fed, serves the building. The modern touch also dominates the kitchen.

A fully automatic elevator was installed. The decorating scheme is outstanding with soft colors, easy on the eye, and modern and comfortable furniture featured. Floors are of asphalt tile.

The building was designed by Vancouver architects, Gardiner and Thornton, who were the new Vernon Hospital designers.

SEPARATE MATERNITY WING

The West wing, which includes the Maternity Ward, is three storys high, and the South Wing two. The Maternity wing is completely separated from the rest of the Hospital, which is described in many quarters as Kootenay's most modern and up to date.

Besides Chairman Stewart, the Hospital Board is composed of [illegible] Vice-Chairman; Mrs. H. Miard, T. Ewart, Frank Hughes, Mayor Thomas Uphill, M. L. A. for Fernie; Mike Nee, R. Lilley, M. Whitelaw, Treasurer, and J. Brown.

Administrator of the Hospital is C. W. Pugsley, and Matron is Miss M. Saunders, formerly of Calgary and a graduate of St. Paul's Hospital at Vancouver.

On the staff are 12 nurses, four nurses' aides, two cooks, three engineers, four cleaning women, three laundry women and three kitchen maids.

Mitchell Lashes Depression Talk

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP).—Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell last night lashed depression prophets and promised that "there will never be a Taft-Hartley law in Canada while I am Minister of Labor."

Addressing the Laurier Club, he denounced "those brave people who take a Satanic delight in predicting bad times."

"You can't solve a problem by taking a negative attitude to that problem. We have no great fear of the future in Canada as long as we keep our feet on the ground."

But there would be some difficulties, he warned. "You can't have a rise of the tide without a fall of the tide."

Mr. Mitchell said he believed wages should be "as high as the traffic will bear."

He declared himself a firm supporter of the "middle-of-the-road" policy of conciliation and fair dealing established by former Prime Minister Mackenzie King when he passed the Industral Disputes Conciliation Act.

"There will never be a Taft-Hartley Law in Canada while I am Minister of Labor."

"I believe you should never pass a law which you can't enforce, it brings the whole of the law into disrepute."

He opposed labor settlements on the floor of the House—a practice which he said brought disaster in Germany and later in France.

He said he had at first opposed family allowances, but now thought it "the greatest piece of social legislation placed on the statute books of any nation."

Fallen Mahatma Forgave Assassins; Intervention in Hangings Likely?

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

One week from today the law of India is scheduled to exact the death penalty on the gallows from two Hindus for the assassination, Jan. 30, 1948, of Mohandas Gandhi, one of the greatest spiritual leaders of all time.

If any one ought to be hanged, surely that fate should befall Narayan V. Godse, whose hand held the pistol which fired the fatal shots, and his fellow conspirator, Narayan B. Apte. Theirs was a crime which not only India but the world at large cannot forgive.

By all odds they should be punished. Still, as one who knows the saintly little Mahatma, I believe if he could make his wishes known he would ask that the sentences of death be conmmuted.

Indeed, Gandhi rendered his personal verdict even as he died. He was walking across the lawn of his prayer meeting grounds in New Delhi, to attend a gathering of his followers, when the assassin struck.

As the 78-year-old Mahatma sank under the impact of two or more bullets he raised his hand to Godse in the Hindu sign of forgiveness.

That is what would be expected from the man who once told me that his greatest inspiration had been Christ's sermon on the Mount. This being the attitude of a lifelong exponent of non-violence, one wonders whether the Indian Government may yet intervene to prevent the hangings, and commute the sentences to imprisonment.

NEHRU'S MOVE

Should any move of this sort be made it would have to be initiated officially by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who yesterday finished his lengthy visit in North America and flew back to India. Nehru was Gandhi's devoted disciple and held the Mahatma in deepest reverence and love.

The question of clemency would rest with Governor-General C. Rajagopalachari, who would act on any recommendation made by Prime Minister Nehru and his Cabinet.

It will be interesting to see what happens.

CONDEMNS COAST VANDALISM

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 8—(CP)—Mayor Charles E. Thompson has declared war on vandalism here and wants Vigilante-style voluntary groups to help stamp out teen-age violence.

"Acts of violence cannot and will not be tolerated," he told a United Church meeting late Monday.

Mayor Thompson concluded his attack on city vandals by demanding that a committee be set up to "make a thorough study of our situation and bring in definite recommendations for future use."

He said the Committee should include elements of home, church, school and community groups.

Radio Addresses End For Man. Candidates

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP)—Political radio addresses by candidates in the Nov. 10 Provincial election were tuned out at midnight last night, but the campaign still goes on in the hustings.

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation officials ruled the Canadian Broadcasting Act meant that midnight was the deadline—two full days before the polls open Thursday.

Urges Conciliation Board for Dispute Of Woodworkers

CRANBROOK, B. C., Nov. 8—Recommendation has been made by A.C.A. Baker, Labor Relations Board Conciliation Officer, that the Labor Relations Board appoint a conciliation board to settle a dispute between the Interior Lumber Operators Association and Local 405, Woodworkers Industrial Union of Canada with regard to renewal of working agreements for 17 lumber and logging operations in Southern East Kootenay and Nelson districts which expired September 7.

Negotiations began in late September and with failure to reach agreement Mr. Baker of Kelowna was appointed Conciliation Officer. He met with J. H. Ruddock, operators' bargaining representative, and Ernest Dalskog, W.I.U.C. representative at the weekend here when another stalemate was reached.

Fined $300 on Liquor Charge

CRANBROOK, B. C., Nov. 8 — Mrs. Anne Weston, Kootenay Street was fined $300 and nine dollars court costs Monday when she appeared for judgment by Magistrate C. R. Ward Monday and was found guilty of keeping liquor for sale. She appeared originally in City Police Court October 20 and pleaded not guilty. She was represented in court by D. M. Mitchell and T. A. Chandler of Fernie.

Following evidence by Corporal J. M. Hicks, Constable J. F. Gregory and three taxi-drivers for the prosecution, which was conducted by Constable Richard Shiell, and defense evidence of occupants of the house during police visits, judgment was reserved. The charge dealt with alleged sales of liquor between early July and early October.
