American Forces Join Korea Lines

Allies Sparing No Lives as Reds Put Up Stiff Battle for Seoul; 100,000 Enemy Troops Said Cut Off

By RELMAN MORIN

TOKYO, Sept. 27 (Wednesday) (AP)—A linkup of the two United Nations beachhead forces turned the Korean War today into a giant mopping-up operation.

Spearheads of American forces from the Inchon and Pusan beachheads met about midnight Tuesday near Osan, 30 miles South of war-ravaged Seoul.

American Intelligence officers estimated 100,000 Reds, the bulk of the Communist army, were cut off by the linkup.

While the forces met, fierce fighting continued in the streets of the 500-year-old Korean capital against die-hard Communist defenders. Gen. MacArthur announced tactical liberation of the city Tuesday.

U.S. 1st Cavalry Division troops completed a 115-mile dash in five days and nights by making contact with U.S. 7th Division troops near Osan.

The linkup severed most of the possible routes of escape for the shattered Red army in small groups or individually. Some fleeing Reds probably will escape through the hills.

NEAR TAEJON

South Korean and American troops fanned out today over highways in South Korea toward cities which are communication points.

The U.S. 24th Division approached Taejon, whose occupation would seal a network of rail and highway routes. Taejon is nearly 90 miles South of Seoul.

U.S. 2nd and 25th Division troops threatened to close a trap on about 30,000 men of three Communist divisions.

Second Infantrymen swung South from Kochang, 65 miles Northwest of Pusan. From Kochang, they advanced seven miles toward the area where the Communists are.

JUNCTURE IMMINENT

Another arm of the trap was being extended toward Kochang from Chinju. Last reports placed 25th Division troops 30 miles Northwest of Chinju.

Kochang and Chinju are only 35 air miles apart but slightly more by road. A juncture appeared imminent.

Low-flying planes added to the Red deterioration by taking heavy tolls of fleeing elements. Pilots estimated they killed more than 1200 Tuesday. The estimated kill Monday was 1400.

A 10th Corps communique early today said the South Korean units moved rapidly through Seoul to the East, reaching high ground eight miles from the centre of the devastated city. This was along the Northern retreat route the Reds were taking in their flight toward the 38th parallel.

Three counter-attacks were broken up Tuesday night inside Seoul, two of them by the Marine 1st Division and the other by the 7th Division. The attacking Red forces were destroyed. An estimated 650 Korean Reds were captured.

NO SAFETY

Non-combatants—the men, women and children who made up Seoul's more than 1,000,000 population—struggled to keep out of the fighting swirling around them. But there was no safety.

Seoul was suffering the agonies of Manila, Berlin, Warsaw and the other devastated capitals of the Second World War. AP correspondent Don Whitehead reported "not in two wars have I seen anything to equal the battle for Seoul."

Whitehead said the Reds were making their death stand from houses, ridges and rooftops of the 550-year-old city.

The night sky was aglow with fires. It lit up weirdly the smoke-filled streets where Marines dashed past buildings crashing to the ground after fires gutted them.

The Reds had chosen to defend Seoul and the Americans were not sparing any building where the Reds had built up strong points. The Allied High Command was determined not to sacrifice lives to save the face of Seoul.

CLOUDBURST KILLS 82

Cattle Swept Away, Crops Inundated In French Morocco

CASABLANCA, Sept. 26 (Reuters)—A cloudburst over French Morocco Monday night killed at least 82 persons.

Villagers today were digging bodies out of heaps of mud and gravel swept down from the mountains by swollen streams. It was feared that the number of deaths would pass 100 when the count is completed.

Hundreds of cattle were washed away and crops were inundated. A little shepherdess and her 43 sheep were swept away by the flood in one district, and in another a man was killed by hailstones.

Sons of Freedom On Way Home

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP) — Sixty Sons of Freedom — first of 395 eligible for release from British Columbia prisons and penitentiary —left Oakalla Prison Farm today.

In a secret move, under the eye of R.C.M.P. and prison guards, the group boarded two buses for a trip to Coquitlam outside Vancouver where they were placed in the last two cars of the C.P.R.'s Kettle Valley line to the Interior.

The train is scheduled to reach Nelson at 4:45 p.m. tomorrow.

Another group is expected to leave the prison farm within the next few days and a third will clear the provincial penitentiary at New Westminster of its radical Sons of Freedom members, convicted of nudism in disturbances in the South-Central Interior last Fall and Winter.

Women convicted and sentenced have been held at Grand Forks, in the boundary area in buildings converted for that purpose.

Order for the release of the strange, fanatic religious sect came Sept. 20 from Justice Minister Stuart Garson.

Mr. Garson was following recommendations of a special committee established to study the Doukhobor problem. Members of the sect convicted of arson or conspiracy are not affected by the order. A number of these remain in prison.

Inspector R. S. Nelson of R.C.M.P. at Nelson said Tuesday that convicted women nudists in Nelson jail would be released within the next few days. Exactly when he did not know.

Prices Break On N.Y. Market

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP) — The stock market today suffered the sharpest break since mid-July.

A selling wave hit in the final hour, prices broke widely down the entire list, especially the rails and quotations fell behind floor transactions during a three-minute period just before the close.

Losses in many cases ran to more than $3 a share, and $1 and $2 losses were frequent. The bulk of the decline was held to less than $1.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 1.3 to 81.2, the sharpest decline in the average since July 12. The industrial component of the average lost 1.5, rails were down 1.7, and utilities were off .1 of a point.

MURPHY ATTACKS C. C. L. ACTIONS

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP) — Harvey Murphy, Director of the British Columbia District of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.), said tonight he deplored "current witch hunting" by the Canadian Congress of Labor.

In a statement on the C.C.L.'s expulsion action yesterday at Winnipeg against the United Electrical Workers of America, Mr. Murphy said Congress President A. R. Mosher should remember that the unions "he has expelled from the C.C.L. are the unions which have won greater wage gains for the working people and he, himself, represents a union which has lower wages than any workers organized in the Canadian trade union movement."

U. N. PRISONERS OF WAR RELEASED

TOKYO, Sept. 27 (Wednesday) (AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters announced today 400 United Nations prisoners of war were released in Western Korea yesterday by advancing Allied troops.

VIENNA TRAFFIC CUT

Storm Barricades, Protest Wage, Price Scales

VIENNA, Austria, Sept. 26 (CP) —Thousands of Austrian Communists today cut Vienna's rail traffic to the West temporarily and clashed sporadically with police for eight hours in demonstrations over wage and price scales.

Vienna, like Berlin, is a four-power city nearly 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain in the Soviet occupation zone. But it never has had a serious blockade.

Columns of "hunger demonstrators"—about 12,000 in all—marched on the Austrian Federal Chancellery and stormed barricades erected by police, who had hurriedly thrown a cordon round Central Vienna.

In two places demonstrators broke through the barricades and reached the Chancellery. A deputation was allowed to see Cabinet Ministers.

The Austrian Press Agency said Communist demonstrators also stormed through the Linz City Hall in the American occupation zone and made speeches from the balcony outside the Mayor's office.

Other unconfirmed reports told of Communist seizure of Government offices in several provincial cities.

The demonstrations were aimed against a recent agreement on wages and prices between Government officials and the Socialist-led Austrian Trade Union Federation.

An official statement said the Cabinet had agreed that pay and prices should be increased to the extent fixed in the negotiations with the unions.

Most wages would be raised by 10 per cent. Commodity-price increases averaged about 20 per cent.

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—The North Atlantic Treaty Council tonight agreed on creating a combined force for protecting Western Europe against Soviet aggression and tossed to its defence ministers the problem of what to do about using German manpower in this set-up.

The North Atlantic Council adjourned talks which have been under way two weeks in formal and informal sessions.

The Council's decision followed closely upon the agreement of the big three foreign ministers to end the state of war with Germany and authorize formation of 30,000 or more highly-trained German military police to protect the Western German zones from riots and disorder.

The major Council decisions were:

1. A combined force will be organized under the North Atlantic Treaty organization subject to the political and strategic guidance exercised by the organization.

2. A supreme commander will be appointed with sufficient authority to insure that national units allocated to his command are organized and trained into an effective and integrated force in time of peace as well as in the event of war.

3. The supreme commander will be supported by an international staff representing all countries contributing to the force. Pending the appointment of the supreme commander, there will be a chief of staff for training and organizing this unit.

No names were mentioned in the communique but Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of Columbia University, has been widely but unofficially mentioned as the probable choice for supreme commander.

4. The standing group of the military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty organization will be responsible for the strategic direction of the integrated force.

RAIN HELPS CHECK SOME FIRES; 10 OUT OF CONTROL

EDMONTON, Sept. 26 (CP) — Skies were clear again over Edmonton this evening for the first time in three days as light but urgently-needed rain fell in Northern Alberta's parched forest fire areas. The moisture dissipated the smoke and helped check some of the blazes.

But along the Southern end of the Alaska Highway in the Northeast corner of British Columbia huge fires continued to eat up big tracts of bush and timber. No rain fell there.

J. L. Janssen, Chief Timber Inspector for Alberta, reported no new fire outbreaks in the province today. He said 35 fires still were burning, of which only 10 were out of control.

AWARDED GEORGE MEDAL

QUEBEC, Sept. 26 (CP) — Governor-General, Viscount Alexander, today invested Capt. Guy D'Artois of the Royal 22nd Regiment with the George Medal for outstanding bravery and courage in peacetime.

The citation said Capt. D'Artois showed "outstanding qualities of leadership, bravery, ability and power of decision of the highest order" in bringing about the 1947 rescue of an injured Anglican missionary 450 miles inside the Arctic Circle.

Federal-Provincial Conference Date May Be Set Shortly

QUEBEC, Sept. 26 (CP)— The date for a general Federal-Provincial Conference in Ottawa this Fall may be fixed shortly, it was learned today.

A Federal Cabinet Minister, here for the Federal-Provincial Constitutional Conference, said some understanding on a date for the General Conference may be reached while all Governments are represented here.

South Africa Loosens Policy Over Imports

PRETORIA, Sept. 26 (CP) — South Africa, which has been keeping a tight rein over imports during the last two years, today announced that it will embark on a freer policy in 1951.

The new policy, as outlined by Economics Minister Eric Louw, is expected in the first instance to increase the flow of goods mainly from sterling area countries. But it also will mean greater shipments from Canada and other dollar countries.

Britain Submits Draft for Solution to Korean War

Independence, Aid to Repel Attacks, Democratic Gov't for All Korea Asked

By STANLEY JOHNSON

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Britain has taken over the task of finding a solution to the Korean War and "maintaining the impressive unity" of Allied forces in the closing phases of the campaign, an informed source said tonight.

This source said Britain has written the draft of a resolution which would call on the United Nations General Assembly to:

1. Establish an independent, united Korea.

2. Continue to furnish assistance to repel an armed attack.

3. Establish a Democratic Government in all Korea elected under United Nations supervision.

4. Set up a new United Nations Commission, stronger than any established previously, to make sure the U. N.'s recommendations are obeyed. This Commission, it is believed, would be heavily weighted with Asian members.

The source refused to say whether the United Nations, or the United States, would order United Nations forces, acting under Gen. MacArthur, to cross the 38th parallel and occupy all Korea.

The source agreed that stopping at the 38th parallel would lead to "inconclusive and indecisive results," but insisted that the problem was a military one and not for discussion in the U. N.

An American source said the U. S. has not yet determined whether it will act as co-sponsor of the resolution.

He also said Britain has consulted many other delegations which support U. N. action in Korea and that the final form of the resolution will depend on the reaction of those countries.

In response to a question, the source said that the British resolution also envisaged a military occupation of Korea, but said that it would be for as short a period as possible.

He said that elections would not be held until occupation forces had been withdrawn.

ANSWERS VAGUE

Queried as to how elections could be held throughout Korea without U. N. troops present, in North Korea, he would say only:

"At this point in history it's sensible to be as vague as possible."

A British spokesman said Britain would press for the resolution to be the first item of business before the U. N.'s 59-member Political Committee when it meets later in the week.

The question of Korea, made urgent by the fall of Seoul, dominated United Nations activities today.

Diplomats of both the East and West who would ordinarily be attending one meeting or the other conferred all day long in the delegates' lounge. Western delegates huddled together and, although they refused to discuss their conversations, it became obvious that the British proposal was the subject.

VISHINSKY, LIE MEET

Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia had a 15-minute conversation with Secretary-General Trygve Lie, but informed quarters said it had no connection with the Korean problem.

In the Security Council Soviet delegate Jakob A. Malik revived a Russian resolution calling on the United States to halt its "inhuman, barbaric bombings of the peaceful population, towns and villages in Korea."

U. S. delegate Ernest A. Gross described the Soviet resolution as "a warmed over dish of propaganda hash." He did not object, however, to placing the question on the Council's agenda.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP) —The United States is telling other friendly powers that they will have to carry the main burden of occupying North Korea under the United Nations flag, if U. N. forces push North of the 38th parallel.

Under the policy proposal which this Government now is discussing with its Allies, the main body of United States forces would stop at the 38th parallel in cleaning up enemy remnants, and the task of restoring peace and order Northward toward the borders of Russia and Communist China would be left to other hands.

State Secretary Dean Acheson is said to feel that this is the best course of action, his chief reason being that an American disavowal of any territorial or permanent military interest in Korea should reassure Russia on security grounds.

British Miners Trapped in Fire, Hope of Rescuing Men Abandoned

Women and Children Moan When Decision Made to Seal Shaft

CRESWELL, Northumberland, England, Sept. 26 (AP)—A raging underground fire trapped and killed at least 80 men today at the Creswell coal mine.

Caught behind a wall of flame from burning rubber and timber roof supports, they were choked to death by gas and fumes.

Another 120 men crept to safety on their hands and knees.

An official death list issued this afternoon contained 80 names. However, estimates of the toll had ranged from 83 to 90.

Smoke and intense heat drove back rescuers and hope for the trapped men was abandoned at 1 p.m. when the fire had been burning for nine hours.

Decision to give up rescue attempts and seal off the burning section of the mine was announced by Sir Hubert Houldsworth, Chairman of the East Midlands division of the National Coal Board.

This afternoon Sir Hubert and the Mineworkers Union, in a joint statement, said despite rescue efforts "it was not possible to rescue any of the trapped men."

The statement added:

"All possible steps were taken to combat the fire but it was impossible to prevent it spreading. After a full inspection underground . . . it was the unanimous opinion that there was no possibility of any of the men remaining in the districts affected being alive.

"It was also considered that any attempt to recover the bodies was bound to fail and that such attempts would inevitably involve further loss of life.

"It was then unanimously resolved that no course remained except to seal off the affected part of the pit. This work is now taking place."

A long moan went up from waiting wives and children of the trapped men when the decision was announced.

Virtually the whole community of 6000 persons had been clustered around the pit head since early morning.

Above ground, hundreds of men filled sandbags to be taken below to seal off the fire. Rescue teams rushed here from surrounding mines.

The flames broke out at 4 a.m., apparently in a conveyor belt about 1000 yards from the bottom of the pit. The mine has an elaborate network of more than 15 miles of such belts—one of them 1932 yards long to carry coal from the coal face to the main shaft.

It was Britain's second coal mine disaster in recent weeks. Thirteen men were killed and 116 others were entombed for two days before they were rescued after a cave-in Sept. 8 near New Cumnock, Scotland.

"SAFEST MINE"

The Creswell mine is a mile from Creswell Crags, a noted beauty spot near Welbeck Abbey, the home of the Dukes of Portland. The colliery, employing more than 1500 workers, is the centre of a community of 6000 persons.

The Creswell mine had been known as one of the safest coal pits in Britain.

The blaze took the heaviest toll of lives of any British mine disaster since 1947, when 104 died in the undersea workings of the Whitehaven pit on the Northwest coast.

Increase Soon In Milk Prices

Milk prices will probably go up in West Kootenay within the next few days.

Just what increase will be made will be discussed at meetings of the Nelson District and Trail District Milk Producers' Associations. But one thing is known—the price increase will be effective throughout the entire district.

The retail prices now are 20 cents a quart and 11 cents a pint.

B. C. Fixes Higher Liquor Prices

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 26 (CP)— The Cabinet today authorized an increase in liquor prices. The increases, to go into effect next Monday, range from 10 to 20 cents a bottle.

A 25-ounce bottle of rye whisky will cost 20 cents more and the 12 ounce size will cost 10 cents more. That will put the price of most popular brands at $3.70 for the large-size bottle.

Canadian and imported Scotch whisby will go up 15 cents on large bottles and 10 cents on smaller sizes. Some brands will cost $5.50 for the large-size bottle when the price change takes effect.

Canadian gin will cost 20 cents a bottle more while imported gin will cost 15 cents more. Brandy and rum will both add 15 cents to their price tags.

Other liquors will increase in price between 10 and 15 cents a bottle.

Stout will go up 10 cents a case from $4 to $4.10 and imported ale will increase similarly.

The price of beer will not be changed by today's Cabinet action although a price increase is anticipated here before long.

Today's price changes were made by the Cabinet on recommendation of Liquor Commissioner W. F. Kennedy.

Eggs Up Two Cents On Victoria Market

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 26 (AP)— Prices of Grade A large eggs took a two-cent rise here yesterday, bringing the present price to 59 cents a dozen to consumers. This was offset however by a three-cent drop in prices of grade A pullet eggs which now retail at 41 cents per dozen.

Bedlam Breaks At C.C.L. Meet

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP)—An uproarious convention of the 360,000-member Canadian Congress of Labor late today batted down the C.C.L.'s Communist fringe.

Amid a turmoil that saw threats of having left-wingers thrown out physically from the Convention Hall, the delegates voted by about 700 to 25 to adopt a policy declaration favored by the anti-Red executive and fought stiffly by Leftists.

The raging scrap, which threw Winnipeg's big Civic Auditorium into a brief bedlam, brought from C.C.L. President A. R. Mosher a statement that unless Leftist delegates maintained order, he would have them thrown out of the Hall.

The fight was punctuated by charges from the Left-Wingers that the C.C.L. executive was practically "crawling on its belly" to Prime Minister St. Laurent and counter-claims from the executive that the opposition was merely trying to "smear" officers of the Congress.

The eventual vote, coming after a long debate on what the Congress leadership described as its "positive economical philosophy," established that the anti-Red leadership of the Congress is firmly in the saddle and will have no trouble putting through a number of anti-Communist measures due to come up later in the convention.

One of these measures will be a constitutional amendment giving the executive power to suspend unions on the ground of domination by Communists or Fascists.

Liveliest moment came when Bob Stewart, a United Mine Workers of America delegate, Glace Bay, N. S., shouted vainly for the floor after Congress President Mosher had steered through the policy declaration against the objections of Left-Wingers.

Two top Canadian officials of the United Mine Workers backed up the executive on the policy statement. They were Freeman Jenkins of Glace Bay, President of District 26 (Maritimes), and Bob Leavitt of Calgary, head of District 18 in the West. Both denounced Communism. Jenkins calling it a "cancerous" growth on the country.

Jenkins and Stewart had a run-in within their own union a few months ago, with Jenkins barring Stewart from running against him for District President on the ground that Stewart was no longer a mining company employee.

VANCOUVER LUMBER FIRM DAMAGED IN FIRE

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP) — Fire which caused approximately $12,000 damage to the Best Lumber and Building Supplies Co., tonight left three East Indians homeless.

Owner of the company, Norman Ginder, his wife, Durbilkor, and his 14-year-old brother, Bobby, were in bed in living quarters over a hardware store in the front of the building when the fire broke out.

Greenwood Cafe Robbed of $800

GREENWOOD, B.C., Sept. 26 — The Windsor Cafe, owned and operated by Omae Brothers was broken into and robbed in the early hours of Monday morning. Around $800 in cash and checks are missing.

Entry was made through the transom over a doorway into the hotel hallway. Money was cached in kitchen and it is believed the thieves must of had some idea where to look.

R.C.M.P. D. G. Rogers is investigating.

Blue Sun Startles Excited Scotsmen

EDINBURGH, Sept. 26 (AP) — The sun in Eastern Scotland today was a "perfect pale blue sphere in the Western sky," according to the thousands of excited Scots who deluged weather bureaux, observatories and newspapers with telephone calls.

Meteorologists here and in London thought the phenomenon may have been caused by smoke particles, possibly swept across the Atlantic from the forest fires in Alberta.

The avalanche of telephone calls —some from people who wanted to know if it was the end of the world or an atom bomb attack—clogged up the lines for normal business for most of the day.

In London the sun looked about the same as usual—sickly pale between dull, grey clouds.

100,000 DEER TO SPARE

WENATCHEE, Wash., Sept. 26 (AP)—Don. W. Clarke, state director of game, told a Chamber of Commerce meeting today that 100,000 deer could be killed this Fall without endangering the state's supply. He estimated 460,000 hunters would hold licences this season and that a big share of them would converge on Chelan and Okanogan counties.

PORTLAND INCREASES BUS, TROLLEY FARES

PORTLAND, Sept. 26 (AP)—Bus and trolley fares here go up one cent Oct. 1—to 13 cents or two tokens for a quarter—on vote of City Council today.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Sept. 26 (AP)—Two-year-old Bernard E. Mack had been off his feed lately, so his parents took him in for a check-up.

Today surgeons removed a 5½-inch screwdriver from Bernard's stomach.

His puzzled father, Robert, recognized the tool but couldn't remember just when he saw it last.

His mother said the baby "hadn't been eating too well" for a month.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Sept. 26 (AP)—A Bluefield woman, who couldn't see last night's eclipse of the moon telephoned the editorial offices of the Bluefield Daily Telegraph to ask if it had been postponed. She couldn't see through the smoke-screen blown from forest fires in Alberta.

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., Sept. 26 (AP)—Take heart, those bald spots on your pate matter little. The women love you just the same.

That's what delegates to the United Baldheads of America were told here at a convention aimed mainly at bucking up spirits and engaging in horseplay.

For instance a salesman caught peddling hair tonic was hustled out. Pretty girl speakers assured delegates that women prefer baldheads. Others claimed people with shiny scalps are "mentally superior."

Special honors were paid to delegates from Bald Knob, Ark., and Hairless, Tenn.

Support Mounting in Democracies For Creation of Military Machine

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Support is mounting among the democracies for the U. S. proposal that every United Nations member maintain a special unit in its army subject to call by the U. N., for enforcement of peace.

This amounts to creation of a United Nations Army which, in its totality, would be a powerful military machine. It would provide the strength to make the peace organization fully effective.

Without this the U. N. must be impotent in the fact of any crisis which could only be dealt with by force.

The Korean war is fair illustration of the point. Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the U. S. joint Chiefs-of-Staff, said the other day that this campaign has become one of the most significant in all military history because it marks the birth of a new power in the world: "Armed action by the United Nations."

POWERLESS

When Korea was invaded from the North, the U. N. was powerless —in its own strength—to intervene. It appealed for intervention by its members under the U. N. flag, and the U. S. went into action, soon followed by others.

Had any country intervened in Korea without sponsorship of the U. N., it likely would have precipitated a major war. As it is, success of the U. N. volutneer forces has been so sweeping that their victory in South Korea seems assured.

Moreover, while potentialities still are dangerous, well informed American officials express the belief that Moscow is getting set to dismiss the Korean affair with a shrug of the shoulders as a minor matter.

To this appraisal one might add that Russia isn't turning away empty handed, because a further economic load has been heaped on the U. S .That is an integral part of Soviet strategy in its cold war against the West.

FRIENDLY

Coincident with his apparent display of apathy by Russia towards the Korean show, there is another interesting phenomenon. The Muscovite representatives at the United Nations have adopted an amazingly mild and even friendly policy towards the Western representatives. Peace is in the air.

Typical of this tendency was a statement in New York yesterday by the fiery-tongued Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, Jacob A. Malik, to a Baltimore delegation, described as the Maryland Committee for Peace. He said he favored a meeting between the top leaders of the United States and Russia to negotiate their differences and help achieve full peace. It was presumed he was talking about President Truman and Prime Minister Stalin.

ANOTHER BLOW

Some observers interpret this soft talk as indicating Moscow is preparing for another blow, similar to that in Korea. This would be a continuation of the strategy of weakening the U. S. and other Western powers by economic attrition.

Where will the blow come? The danger spots include Indonesia and Burma. There even has been talk of an attack on Western Germany with the people's police of East Germany.

The minister, in office less than two months and making his first appearance before the C.C.L., declared there is "a greater measure of agreement than ever before" that the objectives sought by unions must be reached.

Puzzle Surrounds Eccentric's Fortune

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26 (AP)—Two new facets in the fantastic puzzle over the fortune of an elderly eccentric, the late Charles Babonet, confronted public administrator's investigators today.

They dug up $4680 worth of $20 gold coins in the back yard of Babonet's brother, Frank, who also used the name Frank Landl. Landl died last February. Charles Babonet, 66, died Aug. 7 leaving more than $130,000 in cash in his modest cottage and a total fortune that may reach $500,000.

Neighbors recalled seeing Charles digging at times in his brother's yard. The gold was added to Charles' estate.

The next puzzler is a torn piece of what appeared to be a 1941 will of Charles Babonet. Public administrator Ben Brown said this document was mailed to him from Sacramento Aug .24. It is so fragmentary that its complete bequests cannot be determined, investigators said.

Another and presumably genuine will of Charles Babonet, dated in 1943, and written in pencil on butcher paper, was pushed under a door at the bank of America Aug. 25. A hearing has been set for Oct. 19.

This is the document in which Babonet bequeathed $100,000 to the family of William Tyson, Los Angeles, who befriended Babonet 31 years ago.

Minimum Light Rate Should Be Levied On Summer Homes, VanSacker Feels

The City should be collecting a minimum annual light revenue from North Shore Summer camp owners.

A. C. VanSacker, Electrical Superintendent, expressed this view to City Council Monday night. It cost the city money, he said, to connect and disconnect services to Summer homes which were used only two or three months in the year.

He raised the matter during a discussion on a communication from the Public Utilities Commission concerning a petition from Queen's Bay residents, most of them Summer home owners, for an electric light extension which would cost $3000.

The City had asked the 18 prospective consumers to contribute $50 each toward the cost and guarantee to use power for a four-year period. Only four agreed to this.

Feeling of the Public Utilities Commission was that the proposal should be modified, and that either the four-year guarantee or the $50 payment should be asked.

A Council suggestion was that a minimum annual revenue might be asked in lieu of the four-year guarantee. At any rate, the matter was tabled for further consideration.

United Steel to Coordinate With Management

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP) — Union workers in the bridge and structural steel industry are going to co-ordinate all their further negotiations with management, it was announced today after a meeting of Steel Union representatives.

William Mahoney of Toronto, assistant Canadian director of the United Steel Workers of America, said it is planned to set up a National Co-Ordinating Committee for negotiations.

The meeting of the U.S.W.A. representatives was held in conjunction with the annual convention here of the Canadian Congress of Labor.

Mahoney issued this statement:

"The delegates reported that negotiations on a local level were unsatisfactory and time-consuming, since all decisions of importance were made at the head-office level in the Dominion Bridge Company chain. Since the company was not in fact bargaining on a local basis it was necessary for the union to set up a co-ordinating committee to conduct negotiations on behalf of the workers on a national level.

"The question of union proposals for contract changes now will go before local union membership meetings. A meeting of the Dominion Bridge locals national committee will be held in Lachine, Que., in November. It is likely that a master contract will be asked at that time. Such an agreement would cover plants at Amherst, N.S.; Lachine, Toronto, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and Winnipeg.

Steel Dike for 'Peg City Power Station

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP) — A $300,000 dike of steel and concrete will protect Winnipeg City hydro's Rover Street power station from Red River flooding.

City Council last night ordered an immediate start on the project. It will be completed before the next Spring run-off.

J. W. Sanger, manager of the city-owned hydro system, said that if the station were flooded it would take three months to restore service.

During the 1950 flood temporary protection of the power plant cost about $200,000.

The new dike will be a secondary line of defence in case flood waters rise to between 33 and 36 feet. The primary dike in the area will be built by the Greater Winnipeg Diking Board as part of its general plan of flood protection.

But this first line of defence will be built only to the 26.5-foot level—3.8 feet lower than the 1950 flood level.

Proper Diet For the Aged

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Proper diet is important at all times of life but never more so than during its later years, indeed, many authorities believe that wise eating is our most powerful tool for the attainment of health and vigor in old age.

Elderly people are particularly apt to suffer from lack of the right kinds of protein. When too little of the right protein-supplying foods, such as meat, milk, and eggs, is eaten, there is wasting of the tissues, anemia, and edema.

Anemia means that the blood is below par so far as its red cells and their coloring matter are concerned. Sufferers from this condition are likely to feel constantly tired. Edema refers to a collection of fluid in the tissues.

It is not a difficult matter to determine the amount of protein in the blood serum by chemical tests. If it is found by such a blood examination that a protein deficiency is present, additional protein foods must be added to the diet. One of the good sources is milk. It is not only a valuable source of protein, but also is one of the best sources for calcium or lime in the diet.

In order to avoid increasing the fat intake, it may be advisable to use skim milk instead of whole milk. Then, too, there are certain skim milk preparations available which have been fortified with iron and vitamins, that are ideally suited to keeping up the protein vitamin intake for elderly individuals. Other good sources of proteins are yeast and lean meats. Nuts, also, supply protein, but many older persons find difficulty in digesting them, particularly if they are not properly chewed. Unfortunately, many old people do not like milk, but if they realize its importance in maintaining health, they can be persuaded to drink it.

Eggs are a good source of protein, but they contain goodly quantities of the substance known as cholesterol. It is thought that cholesterol, taken in excessive amounts, may be a factor in the occurrence of hardening of the arteries.

Just exactly what role an excessive intake of cholesterol may play insofar as hardening of the arteries is concerned, has not as yet been determined, but it is generally advisable that older persons avoid excessive amounts of foods which furnish this substance.

WOOL WONDERS REVEALED TO PRESS WOMEN

By KAY REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP)—Nine Canadian women discovered today that wool goes into more things than socks and sweaters.

There's a place for it in shimmering cocktail dresses and even in svelte evening gowns, a delegation of Canadian newspaper women learned at the biennial fashion show of the International Wool Secretariat and the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers.

The visiting Canadians saw everything from dinner dresses to plaid suits—in wool—by such prominent designers as Norman Hartnell, the Queen's dressmaker.

Of particular interest was a Digby Morton two-piece, double-breasted suit, pronounced best seller this year in Canadian and United States markets.

Some 400 buyers and fashion experts attended the show, which for the Canadians marks the opening of a three-week tour of England and Scotland. The women are here on the invitation of the Dollar Exports Board to get an insight into the goods Britain is making for Canada.

Earl Jorgensen Marries In Double-Ring Ceremony

Nelson, the groom's home, shares interest with Vancouver in a double-ring ceremony in St. Andrew's-Wesley Church in Vancouver uniting in marriage Earl Scaller Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jorgensen of Nelson, and Dorothy Elaine Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Irvine of Vancouver. Rev. Dr. O. W. S. McCall officiated.

The groom grew up in Nelson, and was a member of St. Paul's United Church. He sang in its Boys Choir for years and latterly was a member of its Senior Choir.

Rev. R. W. Ashbee escorted the bride into the church. She wore a tunic of brocaded taffeta over a hooped skirt of plain faille taffeta for her wedding gown. A flange collar edged the flaring Empire neckline and her illusion veil fell from a braided coronet. Her Colonial bouquet was of white gladioli and Talisman roses.

Similar in style was the peach shot taffeta frock of the bridesmaid, Miss Violet Irvine, the bride's sister. Her headdress matched and she carried white gladioli and yellow carnations.

Mr. Robert W. Graham was best man, and ushers were Mr. Ken Bogus and Mr. James Akeroid. The soloist was Miss Milla Andrew of the University of B.C. Musical Society of which the groom is also a member.

3-YEAR-OLDS ATTEND THIS NURSERY SCHOOL

AGINCOURT, Ont., Sept. 26 (CP) —The boys outnumber the girls, three to one, in one co-ed school here, but the lasses don't seem to appreciate the fact.

The school is a nursery group and the boys and girls are three and four years of age.

The Agincourt Nursery School was opened Sept. 5 and is flourishing, helped by the cooperation of Knox United Church, and guided by a teacher who came out of retirement.

No attempt is made to teach subjects covered in kindergartens where the customary age is five. The 24 express themselves with crayons and water colors, blocks and beads, simplified jig-saw puzzles and other constructive accessories.

"Most of all," says Mrs. Mel Winterton, one of the two founders, "We're teaching the children how to get along with others. The progress they made in a week was amazing."

All money received from the school is used to pay the teacher and buy equipment and fresh orange juice for the mid-morning recess. No attempt is made to show a profit. Though held in cooperation with the United Church, the school also embraces members of the Anglican and Presbyterian faiths.

Simple, but Good

When the Canadian Restaurant Association met, one speaker made a worthwhile suggestion. It was that the average eating place should specialize in a few simple meals within their capacity to prepare properly and not try for lengthy, impressive and undecipherable menus. That was good advice, and it is to be hoped restaurant owners take heed.

The best eating places in the world are those known for a few special dishes for which they have a reputation. Often these restaurants have been serving the same dishes for years, and have no intention of changing. Content with doing a few things well, they leave it to the man next door, or a block away, to be an expert with other dishes.

It can be annoying to a restaurant patron in a hurry to be confronted with a long and bewildering choice of foods, to make a selection from an almost endless list and then to be told this particular item is not available.

The truth is that few chefs, or just plain cooks, today are capable of preparing an endless variety of good dishes. They have had neither the training nor the experience to do this. But most can do a few dishes well, take pride in their proper preparation. Further, the vast majority of people who eat in restaurants do not expect a wide selection, but most do expect that the dishes served should be properly cooked and a little different from the place next door.

It Takes More Than Gadgets

Patent offices these days are being called upon to register all sorts of devices to be utilized in the "ideal home".

Glass, rubber, plastics, electricity, and a dozen other sorts of material are used in new inventions to lessen labor for the housewife. Automatic gadgets will be everywhere about the dwelling and life will be one pleasant dream, according to the building contractors.

The press dispatches do not say whether or not there will be an automatic gadget to put the cat out for the night, but apparently every other household chore is to be taken care of.

We seem to have made our minds up definitely that the machine is to be our salvation, in little things as well as big things. Yet, asks The Prince Albert Herald, why should that word "ideal" be tacked on to a proposition of this kind? Is the process of making a home as simple as that? Did domestic happiness wait, through all the ages, for the invention of the electric egg-beater?

It is obvious, of course, that this label "ideal" is only a bit of sales talk, not meant to be taken seriously. But some people will take it seriously, just the same. The luxuries of a former day are the necessities of the present. Today's family is not contented if it lacks an auto; tomorrow's bride may flounce home to mother if her husband fails to provide an automatic window opener and furnace regulator.

The whole trouble, when you stop to think about it, lies in the way that word "ideal" is used. It connotes a change in our attitude; a change whereby we elevate incidentals, meant to iron out the minor rough places in life's pathway, into items of major importance, ends in themselves, things greater than the spirit that lies behind them.

Making a home—an "ideal home", if you please—is at once the simplest and the most complex task any man faces. The statistics of any divorce court will prove that a great many people make a hopeless botch of it, and the half-scandalous activities of any quick-stepping married set will indicate that many more people do not meet with the success they once expected.

Yet the job is not so stupendous. A few simple old-fashioned words, such as love, tact, kindness and forebearance, sum up the essentials.

Plainly the man and woman who go after the job do not really need the help of the manufacturer and the inventor. If they are not, in their own hearts, up to the task, the factories cannot help them.

?Questions? ANSWERS

Open to any reader. Names of persons asking questions will not be published. There is no charge for this service. Questions WILL NOT BE ANSWERED BY MAIL except where there is obvious necessity for privacy.

Mrs. J. B., Nelson—I have been reading that "yogurt" is good to eat. Can you tell me what it is and where it may be obtained? Also, where can I purchase genuine blackstrap molasses?

We have no information on "yogurt", but it sounds rather as if goats' milk was used in making it. Can any other reader supply the recipe? With regard to blackstrap, inquire at any store in town that sells tobacco and its substitutes.

C. M., Kimberley—Could you give me the address of a doll factory where I could buy undressed dolls? And where could I buy velvet patches, and other materials, suitable for quilts?

Reliable Toy Company, Ltd., 258 Carlaw Avenue, Toronto 8, and Earle Pullan Company, Ltd., Toronto, could supply the dolls. With regard to "patches", write to the Nelson Upholstery, Hall Street, Nelson, explaining what you want; also, presumably most dressmakers, anywhere, could let you have left-over scraps.

Parental Buck Passing

One of the most universal parental customs is to pass the buck. Johnny gets arrested for speeding or destroying property. Dad and Mom shake their heads and wonder what the world is coming to. Movies, comic books, radio and television are sending their son straight to the dogs.

While we admit that our means of mass communication may leave something to be desired in the education and cultural development of Johnny, Dad and Mom would do well to look in the mirror, put the responsibility where it belongs, and take corrective action.

Dr. Martin L. Reymert, director of the laboratory for child research at Mooseheart School in Illinois, said in Chicago the other day: "Laying the blame for a juvenile delinquent at the door of the movies, radio or television is superficial thinking. Parents are the most important models for their children." —From The Minneapolis Tribune.

Life in a Small Town

While Toronto schools have grown old and many of them antiquated and unsafe. Fergus has replaced its entire school system in less than 31 years. The air in town is fresh and mostly unpolluted. Workmen get wages that compare favorably with city wages; they live in better houses, on the average; they have gardens and room for their children to play.

There are no class distinctions. Workmen and bosses meet together in the service club, in the churches, in sports. There are no long rides on street cars to go to work or recreation.

Fergus children have a better opportunity to take part in sports than most city children have. The finest example is provided by the swimming pool. Every child in the Fergus schools, over the third grade, can swim. That's a perfect record, and cannot be beaten anywhere.—Fergus News-Record.

Gimli Residents Watch Lake With Dread; Level Rises Alarmingly

GIMLI, Man., Sept. 26 (CP) — Big Lake Winnipeg, friend and livelihood of thousands of Manitobans, apparently has lost its benevolent mood. Lakefront residents dread its temper during the approaching annual "October blow."

The 250-mile-long provider of fish and haven for thousands of tourists annually, this Fall has become swollen and rambunctious. Normally a shallow lake, nowhere 100 feet in depth, it has filled with huge runoffs from rivers—including the Saskatchewan and flood-rampant Red—which this year emptied more than normal quotas.

Residents report the level has risen to an alarming degree. Rocked by the slightest North wind, exposed Lake Winnipeg with its low shores has smashed furiously against the whole Western shoreline.

Acres of valuable frontage of short-spotted villages have been gouged away.

At Gimli, 80 miles North of Winnipeg, every available man and older boy among the town's 1000 inhabitants answered Mayor Barney Egilson's call to duty to bolster the endangered waterfront. They threw up a mile-long loose-boulder barricade.

But Mayor Egilson still is worried.

"Any heavy North winds in October will probably cause very serious damage and danger to Gimli residents," he said in an interview.

"Unless Lake Winnipeg's inroads are stopped at the present point, it will soon become necessary to move the whole town."

The Mayor said that "for years now we have begged the Federal Government for some help in saving Gimli." He was "surprised" the Lake Winnipeg problem was not discussed at the last session of Parliament—"they proprogued without a whisper about it."

There was danger of Lake Winnipeg flooding "worse than ever before" this October. He said the lake is higher "and more treacherous" than it has ever been.

Within recent years the lake—which covers four per cent of Manitoba's total area—has hacked deeper into the heart of Gimli. Sections of first and second streets have disappeared beneath the water.

Red Berlin Closes Small Businesses

BERLIN, Sept. 26 (AP)—Seizure of several hundred small shops by the Communist government in East Berlin was reported today.

The newspapers Telegraf and the Berlin Stadtblatt, which have good standing among former Socialists in the East, said the seizures occurred in the last 24 hours.

The East zone government assigned several hundred employees of various "people's owned" plants to take over title to the shops, which included cabinet makers, retailers, small construction firms and laundries.

The peoples' police accompanied employees of nationalized industries chosen to act as trustees of the seized shops.

Owners were served with notices charging the victims with "a number of violations as regards to goods as well as money against the law for the protection of inner German trade."

Many of the larger industries in East Berlin were taken over by the Communist state long ago. But small private enterprises had survived until now.

Two Games Would Decide Yanks Fate

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

New York Yankees and Philadelphia Phillies surged closer to a World Series meeting Tuesday.

By splitting a doubleheader with Washington while Detroit divided a pair with St. Louis, the Yanks made the American League's 'magic' number two. Two Yankee victories and the race is all over. Two Detroit and two Boston losses would end it.

The Yanks lost the opener in New York 11-9 and won the second game 10-7. The Tigers, playing at home, also lost their first game to St. Louis 3-1 and rallied to capture the nightcap 5-3. Boston was idle.

In the National League fight, the Phillies eliminated Boston by beating the third-place Braves 8-7 while the runner-up Dodgers routed New York Giants 8-4.

The Phillies need only three victories or three Brooklyn defeats, or a combination of three, to wrap up their first National League pennant in 35 years.

Both of the Yankees-Senators games were loosely played. The Senators piled up a 10-1 lead in the opener and almost blew it when the Yanks rallied for six runs in the seventh inning.

In the nightcap, the Yanks soared to a 6-2 lead for six innings. The Senators then came back with three runs in the seventh to give the 19,610 fans many anxious moments. The Yanks replied with three in their half of the seventh to sew up the game.

Detroit's pennant hopes all but flew out of Briggs Stadium as the surprising St. Louis Browns held the tired Tigers to a split.

It took a two-out eighth inning uprising for the Bengals to come from behind and win 5-3 after the Browns had grabbed the opener 3-1.

The tamed Tigers appeared just about ready to accept a double pasting when they came alive in the eighth to rout Sliff Fannin with a four run outburst.

The fighting Philadelphia Whiz Kids rallied to edge Boston after Jim Konstanty failed in his record-breaking 71st relief chore. Three runs in the eighth off reliefer Bob Hall after two were out did the trick.

BREAKS OWN RECORD

Konstanty broke the modern major league record that he tied Monday when Manager Eddie Sawyer called him to rescue sore-shouldered Bob Miller in the seventh.

The Dodgers won the New York inter-borough title, making it 12 out of 22 in defeating the Gaints.

Gil Hodges featured a five-run first inning by hitting his 31st home run with two mates on.

The Giants came up with four double plays and by that set a high for one season with 176. It is one more than their best previous mark in 1928.

In an American League night fixture, Cleveland Indians whitewashed Chicago White Sox 2-0. It was the 18th win of the season for pitcher Early Wynn who gave up six hits in the arc-light contest at Cleveland.

Max Lanier was no puzzle at all to Cincinnati and the Reds defeated St. Louis Cardinals 7-2 in a rain-soaked National League game at St. Louis which was called after seven innings because of the continuing downpour. Howard Fox held the Redbirds to five hits.

Champs—Again

Perennial champions of West Kootenay women's softball are the Nelson Royals, pictured at the Nelson Recreation Grounds just after they had successfully defended their title against the Trail reps.

The Nelson team, with at least 10 championships in the last 15 years to their credit, have one of the top records in District sport. It is in the books that they've never sidestepped a challenge, never missed a scheduled performance; frequently they have turned out for charity games and participated in service club programs. This season they went unbeaten in games against women's teams of both East Kootenay and West Kootenay centres; and lost only once to a men's nine.

English Horse Said Worth $70,000 Dies

LONDON, Sept. 26 (AP)—Aldborough, a five-year-old chestnut horse on which Britain based hopes of breeding a new line of stayers, died of a twisted intestine in his barn Sunday, it was disclosed today.

Owned by Dorothy Paget, the horse was reckoned to be worth $70,000 as a stallion. He was not insured.

Knows Nothing of Report on Illegal Blocking by Argos

TORONTO, Sept. 26 (CP) — Bob Moran, President of Toronto Argonauts, said today he had heard nothing about a protest that an official of the Ottawa Rough Riders claimed was made by three of the big four football clubs against alleged illegal blocking by Argo backfielders.

Moran said if Ottawa, Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Montreal Alouettes had protested, it appeared to be a case of "sour grapes" on their part because of Argos' success this season.

Tried to Take Corner Too Fast

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va., Sept. 26 (AP)—An attempt to take a turn too fast caused the sinking of the $100,000 racing boat "Miss Pepsi" Sunday, its driver said today.

Chuck Thompson of Detroit said he was out to set a speed record, and had the boat up to 140 miles an hour on a straightaway. He said he failed to slow down sufficiently and the craft turned over.

In the opening minutes D. Hashimoto flipped a pass to J. Reibin who raced over for a touchdown. Team A put on the pressure in the last 10 minutes and came close to trying it up but just failed at the goal line.

Louis, Charles Set For Bout Tonight

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Joe Louis and Ezzard Charles, their hard training finished, exercised only lightly at their camps today and were reported ready and rearing for tomorrow night's heavyweight title fight at Yankee Stadium.

The city remained calm. Even with clear weather forecast for fight time, prospects were for a gross gate of under $200,000. This would be, roughly, $62,000 less than was paid to see Willie Pep lose his featherweight toga to Sandy Saddler three weeks ago.

It is not that the name of Joe Louis has lots its magnetic quality. The great Negro fighter who held the title for nearly 12 years before he retired 18 months ago still is the greatest individual attraction in sport.

But the word has been spread that Joe and Ezzard will fight before the television cameras and it has had a distressing effect upon the box office.

Mike Jacobs, who brought Louis up from a pugilistic pup, once said there will come a time when the heavyweight championship is settled in a studio for the benefit of the television audience, and that the gladiators will split a cool million in advertising revenue. He could have been right.

As a result of tomorrow night's 15-rounder, the guessing still is wide open. A majority of the assembled newspaper experts favor the 36-year-old Louis to win back his title, to starch Charles, the N.B.A.-recognized champion, "the first time he hits him good."

But more than a few pick Charles — not only writers, but managers of fighters and other experts. Take Dan Morgan, long one of the most respected of the fraternity.

"Charles will circle around Joe and cut him to pieces," Dan said emphatically.

The odds remained a steady 2-to-1 against Charles in man-to-man betting—what little there was. It was said that 5 to 1 could be obtained against Charles' chances of winning by a knockout.

Ezzard, himself, in a fiery statement said the odds were ridiculous and added: "I expect to score a technical knockout no later than the 12th round. Joe can be chopped up like any other old guy."

Louis, who looked somewhat terrific in his final three workouts, reiterated that he expects to stop the Cincinnati fighter, just as he chilled 22 of the 25 men who challenged him while he held the title.

"I have trained long and hard," he said, which is true. "I have trained to go 15 rounds, but if I see the opening you can be sure I'll throw the knockout punch."

Charles will weigh around 183 at the weigh-in at 12 noon tomorrow. Louis will be in the neighborhood of 217.

Split Decision for Ike Williams Against Salas

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP) — Lightweikht Boxing Champ Ike Williams tonight won a split decision over welterweight Charley Salas in a non-title 10-round bout at Griffith Stadium.

Williams weighed 142; Salas 147.

Williams, who aspires for welter laurels, dropped a decision to Salas here last month.

$2 Million B. C. Peat Crop Marketed

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Sept. 26 (CP) — British Columbia has marketed its entire $2,000,000 peat crop in a winning fight against strong foreign competition, industry spokesmen reported today.

It was feared earlier that German peat, produced at less than a quarter of the cost of the B. C. product, would lure American buyers away from B. C.

About 90 per cent of the crop, more than 1,000,000 bales, goes to the U. S. There will be no surplus, spokesmen said.

Although sales were curtailed in the Eastern and Southeastern sections of the U. S., an expanding market in California and the mid-West came to the rescue of B. C. operators.

Trail-Rossland P.C.s to Coast With 'Open Mind'

TRAIL, B. C., Sept. 26 (CP)—Ten delegates were elected last night by the Trail-Rossland Progressive Conservative Association to attend the Provincial Convention in Vancouver next month.

A. G. Cameron who condemned the Young Progressive Conservatives for their resolution calling on Finance Minister Anscomb to resign his directorships of corporations doing business with the Crown, or to resign as Party leader, pt up a slate of 10 nominees for the Coast meet, all of whom were defeated.

Mr. Cameron's defence of Mr. Anscomb as a "fair and honest man was replied to by J. Curtis, who said that Y.P.C.'s were not alone in their grievances against the Party leader, who, according to Mr. Curtis, refused to cooperate with the B. C. Association, and with the Federal organization.

The delegates were not instructed but requested to go to the Vancouver meeting with an "open mind."

The delegates named were J. Curtis, Robert Lawrie, E. B. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Gordon and H. W. Waite, all of the executive of the local association; J. H. Gordon, formerly of the executive, Miss Betty Petrie, Secretary-Treasurer of the local Y.P.C.'s; Mrs. K. Lyons, Acting President of the local women's group; Mrs. I. B. Kenny, Secretary of the women's group and Miss Shirley Dougan, Vice-President of the Y.P.C.'s.

Unconscious 108 Days

VERMILION, Alta., Sept. 26 (CP)—Marvin Osbaldeston, seriously injured in an automobile accident last June 10 near Macleod, Alta., today completed 108 consecutive days of unconsciousness.

The young Vermilion man was to have been married July 14. But he has remained unconscious since the car in which he was riding was in collision with a heavy transport truck.

His fiancee, injured in the same accident, spends many hours every day at the Vermilion Hospital, sitting by Osbaldeston's bedside and waiting for some sign of consciousness.

Doctors report subconscious reactions of the patient appear quite normal. He yawns, stretches his arms and legs and perspires when warm.

Ominous Rumbles From Aussie Labor

CANBERRA, Sept. 26 (Reuters)—The Federal Executive of the Australian Labor Party made a decision today which may lead to a dissolution of both Houses of Parliament and a national election.

It decided not to withdraw its opposition to certain clauses of the Government's anti-Communist bill.

Political qaurters believed this meant the party was prepared to use its majority in the Senate to block the passage of the bill.

Prime Minister Robert Menzies has already threatened to seek a dissolution if the Senate blocks or amends the bill.

Market Trends

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP) — Sellers hammered away today and succeeded in pounding prices down by as much as $2 a share.

Most of the losses were in the smaller brackets measured by cents, but the set-back was widespread.

The volume of trading was moderately heavy at 2,000,000 shares as compared with 2,010,000 shares yesterday.

Canadian issues followed downward with International Nickel losing ⅝, Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker each off ½ and Distillers Seagrams ⅛. McIntyre added ½. Dome Mines was unchanged.

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials and base metals backed down in the face of mild profit-taking today. Volume was about 1,350,000 shares.

The base metal decline picked up speed as the session progressed and losses ranged to a full point in leaders like Consolidated Smelters, Noranda and International Nickel.

MONTREAL (CP) — Trends were mixed near the final hour today. Moves in either direction were mostly small fractions, but some issues moved around a point or more. Volume showed industrials with 90,100 shares. A moderate group of base metals and senior oils dropped narrowly.

LONDON (Reuters)—Movements in rubber shares today were less spectacular than yesterday. Nevertheless many rises were recorded in a considerable turnover.

Interest broadened to include many other far Eastern issues. Tin shares attracted good support and moved higher and there were gains in Chinese and Japanese bonds. Bankings and shippings with connections in the Far East were firm.

Reports that Western Germany is to assume responsibility for Germany's external debts helped German bonds.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP) — Base metals on the Vancouver stock exchange followed the downward trend in Eastern markets.

On the downpath were Pend Oreille off 10 at 8.60; Reeves MacDonald down 25 at 4.00 and Silver Standard off 5 at 1.98.

Little change was shown in gold stocks while oils displayed a mixed trend.

Ambassador Douglas Resigning

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas, U.S. envoy to Britain, is resigning in the immediate future, it was learned today.

Douglas had an appointment with President Truman this afternoon and it was understood that the President would at least agree to the diplomat's desire to leave the London post which he has held since March 1947.

CCL Adopts Wage Policy Resolution

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP)—The Canadian Congress of Labor today adopted a resolution calling for an "effective wage policy" by its unions after a sharp scrap between right and left wing groups at the C.C.L.'s annual convention.

Sponsored by the anti-Red executive, the resolution came in for condemnation from leftists on the ground that it did not spell out wage objectives distinctly enough.

It declared that wage rates must be increased to meet the cost of living and went on to urge all affiliated unions to "give consideration to the formulation of an effective wage policy designed to meet this increased cost in living."

Delegates from the International Fur and Leather Workers' Union the major left-wing body in the Congress, led the fight against the executive resolution.

Muni Taub, Winnipeg member of that union, denounced the resolution for vagueness and moved that it be sent back to the resolutions committee for re-drafting. He was backed up by William Gilbey, another fur-leather worker from this city.

George Burt of Windsor, Ont., Canadian Director of the United Automobile Workers of America, and Pat Conroy of Ottawa, National Secretary-Treasurer of the Congress, spoke against the fur-leather workers' move.

Lightning Bolts Strike Homes

EDMONTON, Sept. 26 (CP) — Lightning bolts today struck two South Edmonton homes within seven minutes and in resulting explosive fires the buildings were almost totally destroyed.

One person was sent to hospital and two families were left homeless.

In hospital is John Kobsar, who suffered a badly cut leg when he fled his flaming home through a bedroom window.

The bolts struck the houses with explosive force, sending debris flying half a block away and occupants screaming into the street in night attire.

Two upstairs tenants in the home of Alfred Birkland escaped serious injury. Their bed was directly in the path of the bolt which slit the upper part of the house like a giant knife but they had just left before the lightning struck.

Mrs. Birkland, alone with her baby son and six-year-old boy, handed them through a window to a neighbor after the fire broke out.

An adjacent house caught flame but firemen succeeded in saving it from much damage.

Mrs. Kobsar said "I jumped out a window blown right out by the explosion. My husband handed our three-year-old son out to me."

Churchill, Attlee, At Smuts' Service

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP) — The South African flag flew at half-mast today over Westminster Abbey at a memorial service for Jan Christiaan Smuts, South Africa's wartime Prime Minister.

Government and Opposition leaders, including Prime Minister Attlee and Winston Churchill, attended along with field marshals, ambassadors and prominent educationists.

Canada was represented by Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew and L. Dana Wilgress, High Commissioner in London.

The King and Queen sent personal representatives.

City Jail Prisoner Commits Suicide

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 26 (CP)—Hanging himself in the city jail with a necktie taken from a fellow prisoner, Frank Douglas Smith, Vancouver, "came to his death by his own hands," according to the verdict today of a coroner's jury which inquired into his death. Police told of Smith having been taken to the jail early Saturday morning in an intoxicated condition. Periodic checks were made of the cells, and at 2:20 Saturday morning Smith was found hanging by a necktie from one of the cell bars.

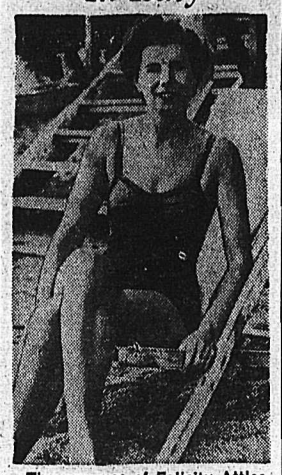
Miss Attlee In Italy



The presence of Felicity Attlee, daughter of England's Prime Minister, on the Italian Riviera, has been given wide publicity in Italian newspapers. First reports said the English girl was working as a governess for the three children of Italian industrialist Antonio Stabile. Felicity is shown relaxing on the beach.—Central Press Canadian.

Doctors Oppose State Medicine

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP)—The medical profession in Canada will oppose state control of medicine or a health scheme like that in Britain, Dr. Norman H. Gosse, of Halifax said here today.

Dr. Gosse, President of the Canadian Medical Association, said: "We are definitely opposed to the state control of medicine in any form, but we do subscribe to the principle of health insurance so long as the essential principals of medical practice are observed."

He said in an interview that the British scheme gives a poorer quality of medical services to the people.

The Canadian Medical Association favors a national health plan along the lines of the Medical Services Association with special provisions for indigent persons.

Dr. Gosse, here for the annual meeting of the B. C. Division of the Association ,will outline the Association's stand on a national medical plan in an address Friday to the Canadian Club.

Famous Artists Take Over Hilker Firms

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP) — Hilker Attractions Ltd., and Hilker Enterprises Ltd., names synonymous with nearly all major concerts and stage plays presented here during the last 14 years, today went out of business.

Announcement of the companies' failure was made by Gordon Hilker, one of Canada's best known impresarios.

At the same time, a new company, Famous Artists Ltd., announced its formation. Famous Artists said it will honor tickets already purchased for Hilker Attractions' Greater Artist series this season.

Members of the new firm are Holly Maxwell, President, Hugh Pickett, Vice-President, and Jean Reid, Secretary-Treasurer.

FULFILL OBLIGATIONS

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP)—A. K. Gee, Persident of Celebrity Concerts (Canada) Ltd., said today his company will voluntarily assume the obligations of Hilker Attractions Ltd. to the concert-going public at Calgary.

He said that Celebrity Concerts Ltd. has engaged the 12 artists scheduled by the Hilker Company for 1950-51 appearances and that subscribers in Calgary who have paid money into the now defunct Hilker Company will receive full value.

TOTLAND BAY, Isle of Wight (CP)—A three-year-old baby, Peter Athey, fell on a wasps' nest. His mother found him covered from head to foot with wasps. Lucky for baby Peter, the insects were drowsy and he escaped with only a dozen stings.

"Town That Did Not Give a Darn" Not Typical for Friendly West

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

On the prairies you live in the sky.

That is the best description this writer has heard of the peculiar fascination of the land of broad horizons.

It was given by Robert M. Campbell of Toronto, a delegate on the recent trip West of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. He got it from an artist, a chance train acquaintance some time ago.

Said the artist in effect:

Take the train window as a frame, and if you look out in mountain country you see three-quarters earth and one-quarter sky; look out in ordinary country and you have half-earth and half-sky; but look out on the prairies and you have less than one-quarter earth: virtually you are in the sky.

Prairie people, whether or not they put it in these words, are very conscious of it.

Their crops raise their heads into it. Sometimes it is kind; and then, almost in a twinkling, it may breathe frost, lightly taking from farmers millions of the dollars it has just given them. It may give soft airs or searing heat—hail, wind, tornado. In the main, despite caprice, it gives great wealth.

Perhaps it is living in the sky that gives the Westerner his traditional open, hearty manner.

There are a lot of other things about the West that draw one without one's knowing exactly why. In the years that this writer used occasionally to travel between Vancouver and the East, we never passed the station at Saskatoon, for instance, without wanting to get off.

Finally, we managed it twice, but without quite satisfying the yen just to walk around those broad, orderly streets; not to mention discovering that it is a city of bridges as it straddles the Saskatchewan River, or seeing its great, relatively-new University of Saskatchewan.

LARGER CITIES

The larger Western cities—Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton — have their own fascinations; but, to one from the East, perhaps the smaller cities (though they're getting pretty big now) appear more like what one considers typically West: say Saskatoon and Lethbridge; and probably many another such as Regina, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Medicine Hat or Brandon, if one knows them.

In case there is too much sentiment in this, here is a yarn without sentiment, but with a pang of some kind:

On a long trans-country trip one talks to many people and sees many places.

Finally, however, we came to a small and remote community and had barely time to walk along its main street.

On a sort of public bulletin board was a notice from the district nurse saying the railway had repaired the hospital boilers and the hospital would not be closed as scheduled—but its continuance, it was indicated, would depend on more community co-operation.

Alongside it was another notice calling upon citizens to meet on a certain date to discuss establishment of an ice rink. It appealed: "Mothers, do you want a place for your children to skate?" Beneath the housing summons was a pencilled note:

"Postponed because of lack of interest."

I called it "the town that just didn't give a darn," and somehow had a perverse admiration for it as perhaps the only place in the country that seemed not concerned about past, present or future.

But that may be a visitor's quick impression, and possibly unfair; or the sky, and it's not a Western one, may be nearly always unkind there.

Mosher Warns Reds Of Rough Handling

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26 (CP) — Communists at the Canadian Congress of Labor convention got a warning today that they are going to get further rough handling.

President A. R. Mosher, whose Executive yesterday led the C.C.L. in tossing out the Red-dominated United Electrical Workers, told the convention today that party liners are not going to get much change.

"The time has come," he said, "when 95 per cent of the delegates at this convention are not going to have their minds diverted from the important things they've come here to do by a small minority that wants to kick up a racket."
