To Talk Pension Plan With Provinces

Government Urged to Immediate Action on Promises, by Members; Complete Security Scheme Sought

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP) — Health Minister Martin said tonight in the Commons that inauguration of contributory old-age pension progam will be discussed at a forthcoming Dominion-Provincial conference on the Constitution.

Under the Constitution the Government has not the power to inaugurate a contributory pension program. But the constitutional conference, now being arranged, will discuss the question of endowing the Federal Government with power to bring in such a program providing the Provinces agree to it.

He made the statements during debate on a resolution, sponsored by Angus MacInnis (CCF--Vancouver East), which called on the Dominion to cooperate with the provinces in formulating a national social-security program.

The resolution, discussed on a day devoted entirely to private members' business, was still under discussion at adjournment. It now moves to the bottom of the list of private members' resolutions and may not be reached again this session.

Mr. Martin said the resolution left many matters unclear, including the question of municipal responsibility.

Mr. MacInnis' resolution said:

"That, in the opinion of this House, the Government should seek the cooperation of the provinces for the purpose of formulating a program of social security that will be national in scope, adequate in its provisions, and that will cover all citizens of Canada in every circumstance where the individual or the family is, for any reason, deprived of the opportunity of earning a living."

He said it was the fourth time he sponsored such a resolution, but it was never reached at other sessions because of Government business.

The individual, he said, had a right to expect assistance from the state. If the state could call on citizens in time of need, then citizens should be able to call on the state in their time of need.

The Dominion Government had placed social-security proposals before a Dominion-Provincial conference in 1945. That conference had ended in failure, but there was no reason why failure then should mean failure for all time.

CHARGES POLITICS

So far, he said, many of the social-security measures now in effect had been introduced piecemeal. They were introduced not so much because governments believed in them but because it was felt "politically expedient" to introduce them.

There were tremendous gaps in the country's social-security program. For instance, there are no sickness benefits.

Howard Green (PC--Vancouver-Quadra) said he believes Canadians generally desire an all-embracing program of social security. They wanted it put into operation "at the earliest possible moment." They were willing to pay for the program. "Every party in this House is pledged up to the hilt to bring in a program of antional security," he said. The only difference of opinion was in the method of doing it.

He expressed belief that Canada should have a system of contributory pensions with employers, employees and the Government giving a share.

INJUSTICES

Dr. E. A. McCusker (L--Regina City) said now a person might work hard and save for old age, retiring with an amount just large enough to prevent an old-age pension from the Government. Another "lazy galoot" who never did a day's work could qualify for the pension and live almost as well as his neighbor.

George Cruickshank (L--Fraser Valley) said he didn't think the Government should delay bringing in a comprehensive social-security program just because two provinces — Ontario and Quebec—were at odds with the Federal Government. He urged the Government to go ahead in reaching agreement on such a scheme with the other eight provinces.

IS GOAL

Health Minister Martin said despite failure of the 1945 Dominion-Provincial Conference, agreements on taxation matters were reached with several provinces.

More than $800,000,000 would be spent for social security measures by the Federal Government this year alone.

The goal of Government was toward a system of contributory old-age pensions, he said.

"None o... ss," Says Driver; Told Could ... topped Killing

MONTREAL, Oc... (CP)—"You could have prevented this murder had you taken the right action," a Montreal coroner today told a taxi-driver who appeared as a material witness in the street-slaying of a young woman here Saturday night.

Gaston Avon, 31-year-old restaurant owner, has been charged with murdering his estranged wife, Lucille.

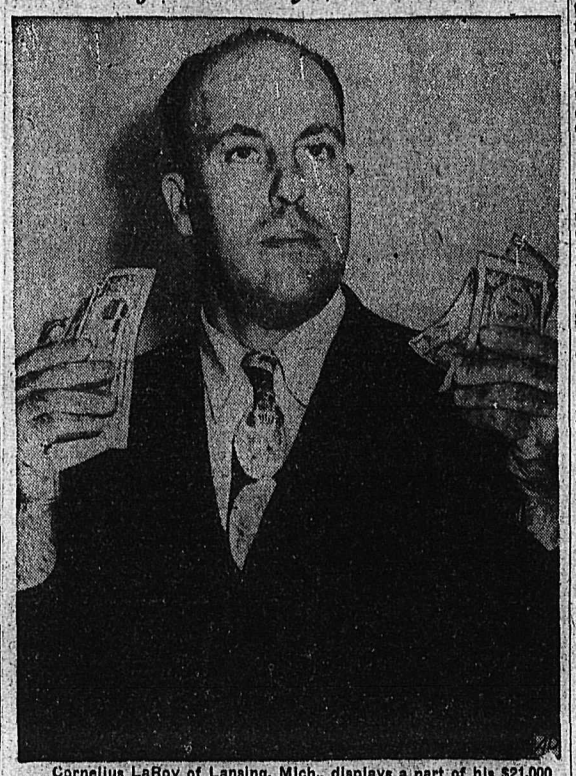
Taxi-driver Roger Lachance testified at the inquest into Mrs. Avon's death he had driven Avon to the woman's home. He said Avon had told him he was going to kill his wife and had showed him a revolver.

Coroner J. A. Duckett asked:

"When you saw him with the gun and he told you he was going to shoot his wife, why didn't you tell the police?"

"It was none of my business," replied Lachance.

Gives Away $15,000



Cornelius LaRoy of Lansing, Mich., displays a part of his $21,000 fortune which he has been distributing to Washington, D.C., cabbies and waitresses to the tune of $15,000 in five days. He told police who are investigating him, "it was my money, I came by it honestly and I wanted to give it away." The Michigan man, who has been staying at a tourist home while in Washington to arrange passport to return to his birthplace in South Africa, is now under mental observation. —(AP Wirephoto.)

NOT OFFERING P.G.E. TO U.S. SAYS JOHNSON

Has Profitable Future; Premier to Go to Washington

TO OTTAWA

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP) — British Columbia's Coalition Government does not intend to offer the Pacific Great Eastern Railway for sale to the United States Government.

Premier Byron Johnson said here the railway has a great future under B.C. ownership. When the extension from Quesnel to Prince George is completed, he said, it will start paying its own way.

Premier Johnson said he is prepared to visit Washington next week to discuss with U.S. Government officials—and possibly President Truman—any possible plans for cooperation on the railway between the two governments.

His proposed visit to the U.S. capitol was suggested in the U.S. Senate by Washington State Senator Warren Magnuson. Mr. Johnson is on his way to Ottawa.

VICTORIA, Oct. 3 (CP) — The Provincial Department of Railways is worried about the effect of the United States steel strike will have on the supply of rails for the Quesnel-Prince George extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

The Department has called for tenders on 18,000 tons of steel, 16,000 tons of which are 85-pound rails and the remainder fastenings.

Tenders are to be submitted by October 12 and officials think there is little chance of the strike being over by that time.

They admitted today that the strike situation had added some headaches in the plan to have P.G.E. trains rolling into Prince George by the Autumn of 1951 as the strike could mean prolonged delay in delivery.

AWAITS OTTAWA RULING ON OATH TAKING

VICTORIA, B.C., Oct. 3 (CP) — Canadian citizenship papers were withheld from an applicant in County Court today to await an Ottawa ruling on the question of swearing the oath of allegiance.

Linn A. Gale, American-born cost accountant, refused to swear the oath on the Bible on grounds he has no religion. He gave a declaration of allegiance instead.

Judge H. H. Shandley accepted the declaration but held back the citizenship certificate until he could find out if granting it without the oath was legal.

Mr. Gale pointed out the Canada Evidence Act provided that witnesses who objected to swearing on the Bible could give evidence by affirmation.

Judge Shandley agreed, but said there was no similar provision in the Canadian Citizenship Act.

In his declaration of allegiance Mr. Gale substituted the words "I affirm" for the words "I swear," and left out the phrase "so help me God" at the end of the usual oath of allegiance. He did not kiss the Bible.

Instead of "so help me God" he added:

"I do solemnly and conscienitously swear that I will fulfill this declaration."

Find Body on Road

MERRITT, B.C., Oct. 3 (CP) — Possible victim of a hit-and-run driver, the body of 26-year-old Robert Smith was found on a road here.

Smith was last seen walking down the road early Sunday morning. His body was found at 7:30 p.m. Police, who conducted a district-wide investigation, refused comment today.

Bullets Fly Again in Coal Fields; Strike Unemployment Grows

Fifth of Miners Return to Work; Federal Mediators Seek Settlements; 3 Hurt in Miners Bout

By ARTHUR EDSON

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3 (AP) — Bloody violence erupted anew today in the strike-scarred coal-fields of the United States as the country's first doubleheader steel-coal walkout pinched American economy a little harder.

Gunfire pinpointed a clash between Tennessee's union and non-union miners with at least three hurt and two others missing. This came at the same time as 102,800 of John L. Lewis' men streamed back to the pits, the one bright spot on the strike scene.

With 400,000 United Mine Workers and 50,000 United Steelworkers still on strike over pensions, the industrial snowball began to roll.

Dockhand members of the steel union, who handle iron ore on the Great Lakes, walked out. This held up the unloading of ore at Detroit, Cleveland and Buffalo.

The Packard Motor Car Company said it will lay off 7856 workers Thursday and Friday due to "shortages already caused by the steel strike."

Railroads announced plans for laying off additional workers—and started toting up their millions in losses if the walkouts continue.

HOMES TO BE WARM

The day's good news was for home owners who heat with coal.

Almost all the output of the returning miners — 80,000 anthracite workers in Eastern Pennsylvania and 22,000 bituminous miners West of the Mississippi—goes for home heat. John L. Lewis ordered them back because their output has no bearing on contract negotiations.

As for any plans for an early end to the strikes that could cripple the country's industrial life, they are most conspicuous by their absence.

DOUBLE-BARRELLED

Federal mediators are reported trying to hatch plans to bring an end to both disputes. But they faced these discouraging problems:

If they solve the steel problem, and not coal, steel would soon have to shut down again because of a coal shortage. If they solve the coal problems, and not steel, coal would soon have to shut down again because of a customer shortage.

The only news from any of the four disputing parties is negative.

U.S. STRIKES WORRY TO BUSINESS HERE

Controls Return Possible If Walkouts Prolonged

WEEK'S SUPPLY

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP) — The shadow of a United States Steel strike hung darkly over Canadian industries today.

With Canada importing one-third of her steel from U.S. mills a prolonged strike threatened to have repercussions in almost every aspect of the Dominion's industry.

Adding to the worry of Government and industrial officials was uncertainty as to what form of support Canada's 50,000 steel workers might give their U.S. fellow-Union members.

Government officials indicated that if the strike of 528,000 United Steelworkers of America (C.I.O.) continues beyond another week to 10 days, it might be necessary to reinstitute wartime controls on distribution of steel.

Officials said there is enough steel on hand in Canada so that effects of the U.S. strike will not be felt in Canada for at least a week. If it were to continue, remaining supplies of steel would have to be channelled to such vital industries as construction and public utility development.

A Government official said Canadian mills, working at capacity, are able to meet most of the country's primary steel needs. However, they lack capacity to meet the country's complete finished steel requirements.

Finished steel products were one of the main items exempted from an import restriction order that went into effect Saturday. Needed from the U.S. are such items as fenders, hoods and turret tops for automobiles and specially-treated sheets used in manufacture of refrigerators, washing machines and bath tubs.

GUAY HEARING TODAY

QUEBEC, Oct. 3 (CP)—A slight, boyish-looking jeweller tomorrow faces preliminary hearing into the charge that he murdered his wife by having a time bomb planted in an aircraft.

The woman and 22 others died in the explosion and crash.

At the preliminary hearing of J. Albert Guay, Crown prosecutors are expected to present some of the evidence gathered painstakingly since a Canadian Pacific airliner crashed near here Sept. 9 killing four crew members and 19 passengers.

The preliminary hearing is held to determine whether the Crown has established a case against Guay.

Court officials said that because of the interest in the case and the crowds expected to be on hand, the Criminal Assizes Courtroom will be used instead of the smaller Sessions Court Chamber.

'Crazy Gibson' Builder Sees Model of Pioneer Aircraft in Museum

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP) —One of Canada's pioneer airmen paid a visit here today to relive a little history.

W. W. Gibson of San Francisco, designer and builder of the first aircraft in Western Canada, visited the city archives where he saw a model of the second craft he built.

The first one—called the "Crazy Gibson"—was built in 1909. It crashed into a tree in Victoria in the same year.

Mr. Gibson's second plane, powered by the Gibson-built motor salvaged from the first ship, cracked up in 1911 at Ladner, B.C., after a one-mile flight.

That put him reluctantly out of the plane business.

Today, he's a successful machinery manufacturer in San Francisco.

DIES WHEN PLANE CRASHES TREE

PORT CARLING, Ont., Oct. 3 (CP)—Reginald M. Hill, 47, Toronto amateur pilot, died today of injuries suffered yesterday when his light aircraft struck a tree and crashed in flames into a plowed field near Lake Rosseau in the Muskoka District, 90 miles North of Toronto. A passenger, 29-year-old Mrs. Betty George, suffered severe burns.

FIND LIVE BOMB IN INCINERATOR

WINNIPEG, Oct. 3 (CP)—A City workman raking over a truckload of garbage at the new $1,500,000 incinerator found a live Mills bomb which experts said today could have wrecked part of the plant and killed or injured men working on the job.

Police officials said discovery of the hand grenade was only one incident in what appeared to be an epidemic of live-ammunition dumping in City garbage pails. They said the bomb came in with a load from the Weston District, but could narrow down its source no closer.

"DE LAWD" GETS 18 MONTHS

KANSAS, CITY, Kas., Oct. 3 (AP) —Rex Ingram, Negro actor, today was sentenced to 18 months in a Federal institution on a Mann Act charge.

The 54-year-old actor, who portrayed "De Lawd" in the film, "The Green Pastures," was sentenced by Judge Arthur J. Mellott.

Ingram pleaded guilty at Topeka last May 5 to a charge of transporting a 15-year-old White girl to New York City for immoral purposes.

City Studies Proposal for Option Of Suggested New Hospital Site

City Council Monday night instructed City Clerk W. A. Gordon to find out what obligation the City will face in securing an option on Fairview property proposed as a site for a new Nelson hospital.

This action was taken after reading of a letter suggesting the City take up an option on the property for future purchase for construction of a new hospital. The letter was from George Turner, President of the Kootenay Lake General Hospital Board.

Mr. Turner explained that Provincial Government hospital experts had recommended a 140-bed hospital to be built on a new site, with a view to a long range program of perhaps a 200 or 250-bed hospital. Acreage requirements for a hospital this size must have a minimum of at least five acres which would give sufficient room for future expansion.

The site was located between Tenth Street and the Great Northern Railway, bounded by Elwyn Street and Kokanee Avenue. It comprised three City blocks of approximately six acres, and was owned by the Sisters of St. Anne, who operate Mount St. Francis.

The Hospital Executive believed the property satisfactory for all purposes. Considering its size and advantages such as sewerage, water and transportation that the site offered in comparison to various others in and around the City limits, the Executive believed it the most suitable.

The City's financial obligation would largely depend upon what was secured for the present hospital and the nurses' home, Mayor T. H. Waters told Alderman A. H. Allan. He thought it might be more than Ald. Allan's guess of $300,000. Construction costs were estimated at about $10,000 per bed ($1,400,000 for a 140-bed hospital).

Provincial Government share in financing new hospitals is one third; the Dominion Government share $1000 per bed, and the City one third, which leaves a balance of about one-sixth, split by the City and Province.

Ald. Allan questioned the meaning of the option, and it was explained that the City Clerk would interview City Solicitor G. B. Garland, K.C., in connection with this.

Aldermen Allan and Stibbs suggested that the Provincial Government, which "takes in all the money that comes in," should put up new hospitals.

To Ald. Allan's suggestion the hospital should be within the City limits, Ald. Stibbs replied that if it was built outside the City boundaries, then the responsibility became more than ever the Province's and for this reason he would like to see it located outside the City.

Naval Ships Seen By Thousands

VANCOUVER Oct. 3 (CP)—Thousands of civilians got a glimpse of Canada's naval might during the weekend as they swarmed aboard three Canadian warships in Vancouver and New Westminster.

Like Double Debate

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 3 — (CP) — The majority of delegate to the United Nations Assembly are not willing to make rules which would bring drastic economy in talk.

This was indicated today when proposals to cut out 'double debate" were defeated in the Assembly's 59-member Legal Committee.

The vote on a proposal by a special committee, in which Canada took a leading part, was 24 against 22 for and three abstentions.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP) — Elimination of Federal income taxes on the British Columbia Electric Co. as one step toward reducing transit fares here will be sought by City of Vancouver.

BACKFIRE . . .

DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—Mrs. Annie Miller felt that love was slipping away when she became 147 pounds heavier than her husband. Five feet two, she weighs 287.

What did she do about it? She told District Attorney James S. Soletsz that she stole a letter from a neighbor's mail box, changed the name to hers, steamed it open and put in a love letter from an imaginary boy friend. She left it in her mail box, hoping her husband would find it and the fire of love would be rekindled.
love would be rekindled.

Her husband, James, showed no curiosity. But the postal inspectors did.

She pleaded guilty today to obstructing the mails and now is in jail awaiting sentence. Her husband has not even been around to see her since her arrest, the District Attorney said.

10-FOOT TIDE . . .

Hurricane Drives Into Texas

GALVESTON, Tex., Oct. 4 (Tuesday) (AP)—A hurricane with winds over 100 miles an hour smashed toward the big Texas city of Houston early today after crossing the rich Texas coast.

Shortly after midnight wind gusts of 70 miles an hour struck Houston and the barometer dropped steadily. Winds in gusts of 73 to 75 miles an hour pounded Galveston, at the storm's upper edge.

The storm hit first late last night between Freeport, about 40 miles Southwest of here, and Matagorda, another 30 miles to the Southwest.

Screaming winds whipped the coastal towns as the hurricane ripped across sea-level rice farmland.

In its path were dozens of villages, more than a million homes, and many millions of dollars worth of industry, shipping and farms.

A ten-foot tide was reported at Freeport. Angleton's fire chief toured the town and reported the only evidence of destruction was tin roofs and minor debris sailing around.

No panic, no casualties, and no heavy property damage had yet been reported.

The hurricane flailed Freeport with gusts up to 100 miles an hour. The Coast Guard's gauge went out with the storm blowing a steady 80-mile-an-hour clip.

FLEE TO HOUSTON

Both towns are small. Freeport was about 500 residents, Angleton about 2000. Most of Freeport's people had cleared out of town. An estimated 1500 jammed into Angleton's courthouse.

Refugees from small towns in the path of the storm swarmed into Houston. Hotels said all rooms were full and lobbies were crowded.

SCOUT SKIDROAD FOR KILLER

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP) — A retired logger, William (Crosshaul) Kelly, was slain by a single-bit axe yesterday and today police searched Vancouver's Skidroad for the slayer.

The 63-year-old logger's body, his head split open by an axe found nearby, was discovered in a small cabin on Powell Street. The floor was covered in blood.

Police reported three men have been questioned. They said there was no hint of a quarrel and believed the slaying followed a Saturday night "canned heat" drinking party.

SIR HARRY LAUDER'S CONDITION UNCHANGED

STRATHAVEN, Lanarkshire, Scotland, Oct. 3 (CP) — Condition of Sir Harry Lauder, 79, famed Scottish comedian who has been critically ill several weeks, was reported unchanged today. Sir Harry, ill with cerebral thrombosis and uraemia, is understood to be resting quietly and no longer losing strength.

DEATH FOR 3150

ATHENS, Oct. 3 (AP) — The Government reports today that 3150 persons have been sentenced to death since June 1, 1946, for taking part in Greece's Communist-led revolt and 1223 have been executed.

Home From Balmy South Seas, 3 Adventurers Long for Winter

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP) — Three Vancouver men arrived home today from a 20,000-mile voyage by sail through the romantic South Seas, and the thing they looked forward to most of all was "just a little touch of old Winter."

The sturdy 40-foot auxiliary cutter Escapee brought back Phillip "Pip" Brock and Bob Fortune of West Vancouver, and Jack Wells of Vancouver . . . the three adventurous lads who left port of Vancouver in May, 1948 to see the Polynesians and their fabulous tropic islands.

They arrived at Coal Harbor moorings of Royal Vancouver Yacht Club under tow of Fishpacker MV. Cape Norman. The Cape Norman took them from Port Renfrew, lower coast of Vancouver Island—where they first reached land after a 2200-mile trip from Honolulu.

They sailed first to San Francisco, then to Honolulu, Samoe, Fiji, Tonga, Tahiti, back to Honolulu, and out across the broad Pacific Ocean to home . . . the longest leg of all.

They got within sight of Port Renfrew on Thursday, were becalmed and accepted the offer of a "tow" from the skipper of Fishpacker MV. Elwins of Victoria. He took them to Port Renfrew.

They also accepted a large salmon, which the crew of the packer tossed aboard the stilled sailboat.

32 DAYS EN ROUTE

Escapee left the Hawaiian Islands late in August, was at sea for 32 days before sighting the welcome shores of British Columbia. The salmon given to them was their first fresh food in all that time.

Those tropical Coral Islands, the balmy breezes, the people, are something they'll never forget.

Neither will they forget the sublimely peaceful days-on-end scudding before the wind through gently rolling blue seas while they baked in the tropical sun.

And now that they are back after their 20,000-mile cruise through the lush South Seas, what's the thing they look forward to most?

"Just a little touch of good old Winter!" said Jack Wells.

And in This Corner—

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—There was harmony in the House of Commons today. It wasn't the rare political harmony, however, it was strictly musical.

While party whips roamed outside the Chamber hunting for members to take part in a vote on a C.C.F. resolution, a group of Liberals sang a chorus from "Home on the Range."

Another group followed with "I've Been Working on the Railroad."

The latter was a timely choice. The Commons was preparing for a vote on a question involving pensions of railway workers.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Oct. 3 (AP)—Mailman Charles McCune bragged he never was nipped by strange dogs as he made the rounds in this old seaport town.

He wouldn't disclose his formula. But he said it was foolproof.

Today he's nursing a gashed hand—suffered when he patted his own pup.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3 (AP)—"Read all about the big murder," yelled a newsboy on a Philadelphia street corner.

Passersby stopped either to buy papers or look over the shoulder of someone who had.

"I don't see anything about a murder," said one buyer.

"Read all about it," yelled the newsboy. "Yanks murder Red Sox."

HEREFORD, England, Oct. 3 (Reuters)—Goldfish, mice, rabbits, chickens, ponies, pigeons, a goat, a tortoise and a donkey went to church here yesterday for a special animals' service.

More than 500 pets, including 100 dogs, attended the service. The only absentee was "Ginger"—a cat that was frightened by a dog and was later found asleep at home.

Prayers were led by a minister seated on a pony.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Saturday New York City cops began a new course on how to be kind and sympathetic to the public.

As 20,000 Polish-Americans paraded up Fifth Avenue to celebrate Pulaski Day, the public appeared—in the form of two ragged little boys.

They pushed their way through the spectators along the avenue, and ran into the street.

"Let us through or we'll shoot!"

The cops fell back, grinning, and the desperadoes proceeded across the street.

Canada Recalls China Envoy For Consultation

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP) — Recalled for consultation, Canada's Ambassador to Nationalist China is en route home by ship today as the question of recognition of a Communist Government in that country moved gradually towards a head in Western capitals.

T. C. Davis, a Saskatchewan judge-turned-diplomat, is due to arrive at San Francisco Oct. 13 and is expected in Ottawa shortly after to bring the Government up to date on hte Chinese political situation.

In the midst of Communist territory, Canada still maintains there the Embassy that is the symbol of her recognition of the Nationalist Government. She also maintains a consul-general at Redheld Shanghai. Her interests in that portion of China the Nationalists still hold are looked after by the United Kingdom.

The Weather

Synopsis — The rain which fell along most of the B.C. coast Monday extended into the Interior last evening. This was expected to prevent a repetition of the sharp frost which occurred in the valleys of the southern Interior Sunday night. Several storms over the Pacific are moving towards the Coast and the weather will remain cool and wet over most of the Province.

Referendum on Union Library For Trailites

TRAIL, B.C., Oct. 3 — Whether or not Trail ratepayers want a union library for School District No. 11 will be decided by referendum in the December municipal elections.

City Council Monday night approved a recommendation that the question be taken to the taxpayers, who would probably be assessed for partial financing of the public library. The library would serve Trail, Rossland, Tadanac and the rural area.

Assessment was only means of paying for the library, Alderman P. A. Sindell pointed out. "The Library Act goes so far, and then the municipality must take over. The most a library tax can be is $2".

The Alderman said the tentative per capita cost for Trail's 12,000 residents would be 50 cents, and Rossland's 31 cents.

"But," Alderman G. E. Sanborne objected, "you can't take 50 cents as a basis of payment. There were only 2500 taxpayers to pay for 12,000 people."

Need of a public library in the district was stressed by Alderman Sindell, who recalled that in 1946 members of the Memorial Library Board asked for increased library services.

Four libraries of the type suggested were in operation in B.C. and "wherever they are, they are highly recommended." Alderman Sindel lsaid.

"I still think we have sufficient library facilities in Trail," Alderman Sanbonre replied.

Passengers Not Participants in Noronic Drills

TORONTO, Oct. 3 (CP)—A Federal Government inquiry into the Noronic disaster was told today that passengers did not take part in weekly fire drills.

Captain Howard R. Baxter of Montreal, Marine Superintendent for Canada Steamship Lines, the ship's owners, produced reports which showed that fire drills were held each Tuesday at 10:15 a.m. without exception.

Capt. Baxter said to his knowledge passengers did not take part in fire drills.

Mr. Justice R. L. Kellock, presiding over the inquiry, commented that such drills "obviously lacked any element of surprise."

In reply to a question by John J. Robinette, Counsel for the Seafarers' International Union, bargaining agent for the crew, Capt. Baxter said that all members of the crew aboard the vessel at the time of the fire escaped because they were "familiar with the ship.

"They knew their way to the exits."

The power grader, which would be purchased if a $40,000 equipment bylaw is passed, should have been obtained years ago, he said.

Chatham Street residents had "no street, no sidewalk," Ald. Sutherland said. The road should at least be gravelled.

Council Thrashes Out Equipment Buying Problem

Nelson City Council Monday night went into the question of purchase of power equipment in a closed meeting after viewing moving pictures of various types of machinery.

Prior to going into a Committee of the Whole Council, there was a brief discussion on the proposed $40,000 bylaw, for purchase of a power grader, snow-loading equipment, snow plow blades with frames for attaching them to trucks and a caterpillar. Alderman N. C. Stibbs thought a garbage collector and a sidewalk sweeper should also be included in the bylaw.

Ald. Alex Sutherland thought the City required a garbage collector more than a snow loader. He said the City was faced with heavy costs for snow removal if the new equipment was purchased. Last year costs were $9000, including labor.

"If you're going to give the citizens value for their money, you've got to give them the proper equipment," Mayor T. H. Waters said. It would mean saving of costs "many times over." There was no reason why a lot of money should be spent for manual snow removal.

Further discussion was held over for the closed meeting.

Films were shown by Lorne Hatton of Dietrich-Collins Equipment Company of Vancouver, distributors for the Pettibone-Mulliken Corporation of Chicago. They showed the Speedloader and Haiss loader in action. Both machines remove snow at a speed of 10 to 20 yards a minute, and can also be used for loading trucks with gravel and other material. City of Trail is purchasing a Speedloader, Mr. Hatton said, at a cost of more than $12,000.

Clear Way for Extension of Nelson Air Strip

Steps toward removal of rails on the Canadian Pacific Railway spur at the West end of Nelson's waterfront air strip have been taken, City Council was advised Monday night.

The C.P.R. has leased the area to the City so that extension of the air strip can be carried out, and in a letter asked what length of track was to be moved. City Engineer W. S. Jackson has provided this information, Council was advised.

Alderman N. C. Stibbs' motion that the Dominion Government's Department of Transport be asked for a grant towards the air strip was passed. Ald. Stibbs, who was Mayor at the time the air strip work was started, reminded the Council that Government policy was to give financial support to air fields after municipalities had undertaken to do a certain amount of work on them.

With the C.P.R. permission to extend it, the air strip would soon reach a length of 3000 feet. He said $85,000 had been spent on the emergency field at Salmo, and the village had not been required to put up a cent.

Ald. Alex Sutherland suggested that obtaining of a grant might force the City to spend more money to bring the air strip up to Government standards. He thought "we are already in this air business pretty deep," referring to the City's purchase of the Castlegar airport.

He was assured by Mayor T. H. Waters and Ald. Stibbs that the Government's policy was to encourage municipalities to the utmost, financially. All that was required was that the municipality show good faith by first making its own efforts toward establishment of an airport. It would not be a case of asking the taxpayers for more money.

TRAIL TO TRY CONSULTING ENGINEERS

TRAIL, B.C., Oct. 3 — Trail City Council Monday night decided to operate its Public Works Department for six months without a city engineer.

On motion of Alderman Harry Ivers, Council moved to "try the system of going without an engineer calling on consulting engineers in time of need."

Trail has been without an engineer since early in September when J. P. Coates resigned. The Public Works Department has been supervised by F. W. Banton.

TO ANNOUNCE COST-OF-LIVING INDEX TODAY

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—The trend of Canadian prices during August will be disclosed tomorrow when the Government's monthly cost-of-living index is announced.

The Government's computations may show that prices went a little higher than the July all-time peak, or even a little lower. However, whatever change is noted won't be because of recent currency cuts. Sterling and dollar devaluations were still a matter of conjecture in the hot August days.

Fruits and vegetables were slightly down in price but meat prices still were buoyant and so were a variety of other goods which housewives buy and which have a direct impact on the price barometer.

Sterling and dollar devaluation arrived with electrifying rapidity in mid-Summer and therefore will have some impact when the September index is published early in November—even then, since only part of the month saw devaluation; the impact is expected to be only slight.

The housewife and the Canadian buyer generally likely will be able to measure the full benefits or ill-effects of the currency cuts for the first time when the October index comes out early in December.

Argentina Pesos Devalued

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 3 (AP)—Argentina today devalued her money 46 per cent in relation to the United States dollar. The effect was to make the U. S. dollar bring 84.6 per cent more pesos than it did before for travellers and for certain services. The rates for exports and imports were realigned less drastically.

The rate was fixed at nine pesos to the dollar, compared with the old rate of 4.875. The peso was devalued at 25.20 to the British pound instead of the old rate of 19.37.

This South American country also suspended all imports at least temporarily.

LONDON, Oct. 3 (Reuters)—Authoritative sources in London said tonight that the announcement of a rate of 9.40 Argentine pesos to the pound sterling for Argentine meat exports will not of itself make any difference to the price Britain now is paying for meat.

It was stated that the price for meat now being imported by Britain was agreed in sterling, at 97.536 sterling a long ton.

Come to Britain Urging to Tourists

LONDON, Oct. 3 (CP)—Britain's unofficial tourist minister set off Saturday on another mission seeking $100,000,000 worth of North American business.

John G. Bridges, Director General of the Travel Association — the Tourist Division of the British Tourist and Holidays Board—sailed abroad the Caronia for Canada and the United States to drum up still more tourist trade.

Key figure in a business that has become one of the country's biggest dollar earners, he will attend the Convention of the American Society of Travel Agents at Mexico City. There he will meet leaders of Canadian and United States travel industries and make a speech launching a "Come to Britain" campaign.

He will tell the meeting that an estimated 135,000 Americans and 35,000 Canadians will have had a good time in Britain by the end of the year and will have spent an estimated $70,000,000. He will say that despite crisis and austerity one can still have a wonderful holiday in the historic and beautiful old country.

To Make Survey Of Books In Canada

By GEORGE FORSTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—A 45-year-old historian is about to take a big step toward a national library, long the dream of Canadian scholars and librarians.

As soon as Parliament gives the signal, Dr. William Kaye Lamb, the Dominion Archivist, will start finding out just how many books there are in the Dominion, and where they are.

When the survey is finished, Canada will still be a long way from having a national library. The final job will take a lot more than the $18,950 Parliament is being asked to vote for the survey.

Dr. Lamb, a native of New Westminster, B. C., says, however, there is not much point in buying books for a national library until it is known what books are in the country already.

Neither he nor anyone else knows what the libary will be like when it is really finished. That is one of the things being considered by the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences, now preparing to start a cross-Canada tour with public hearings in Winnipeg.

But completion of Dr. Lamb's project is considered essential before work on the library itself can start.

He was appointed Dominion Archivist just over a year ago, and given the job of "preparing the way for the establishment of a national library in Canada." He came to the job after eight years as librarian at the University of British Columbia and six years as B. C.'s Provincial Librarian.

Canada Sells 74 Million Bu. of Wheat Outside U.K.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—Canada exported 74,013,774 bushels of wheat to countries other than the United Kingdom during the 1948-49 crop year at an average price of $2.22 a bushel, it was shown today in a return tabled in the Commons by Trade Minister Howe.

REV. A. MURPHY, ACTIVE ANGLICAN CLERGYMAN, DIES

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP). — Rev. Arthur Murphy, one of the grand old men of the Church of England in Canada, died here during the weekend. At 93 he was Canada's oldest active Anglican clergyman.

An active sportsman to his 90th year, he moved here in 1946 after leading the parish of St. John's Anglican Church in Edmonton for more than 25 years.

On the day before he lost consciousness his third book, "Spiritual Help" arrived at his bedside from the publishers. Most of it was written in his 92nd and 93rd years.

Rev. Mr. Murphy was the author of two other religious volumes, "The Way of Life" and "An Old Testament Story."

His wife, who predeceased him some years ago was Emily Murphy, first woman magistrate in the British Empire and an authoress who wrote under the widely-known pen name of Janey Canuck.

Eastern Germany Gov't Urged Without Election

By DANIEL DE LUCE

BERLIN, Oct. 3 (AP)—Russia apparently signalled East-German Communists today to form a Government for a "National German Democratic Republic" in Berlin without a popular election.

Usually reliable political sources said Ministers of the five States in the Soviet occupation zone have been summoned to a conference here tomorrow.

Gerhart Eisler, fugitive from the United States Department of Justice, and now Information Director for the East German Economic Commission, chuckled enigmatically when asked to comment on the political developments.

"The time is ripe for a solution and it will come, but I can not say anything about the formation of a National Government," he replied. "The people of the East zone showed last weekend what they think and want."

Eisler referred to the resolutions adopted by Communist-controlled organizations Saturday, demanding an "all-German Government free of dictatorship by high commissioners."

The Kremlin formally denounced last night the action of the United States, Britain and France in sponsoring the West German Federal Republic. It implied that, because "a new situation has been created in Germany," the Soviet Union would take quick action.

BULGARIA ENDS BORDER PACT WITH YUGOSLAVIA

LONDON, Oct. 3 (AP)—Bulgaria denounced today a 1947 border agreement reached with Yugoslavia, Sofia radio said.

The broadcast said Bulgaria's Foreign Minister handed the Yugoslav Ambassador in Sofia a note saying Bulgaria "can no longer consider itself bound" by the border convention under which Yugoslavs and Bulgarians could pass freely across the frontier.

The radio said the note accused the Yugoslavs of using the border freedom to send spies and hostile elements into Bulgaria.

Love Problems

No Girl Does Any Good by Running After Man Who Runs Away From Her

I don't believe any girl ever did erself or her romance any good y clutching desperately at the coat-ails of a departing sweetheart.

Trying to stop him on his way out ith tearful protestations that your fe will be blighted forever if he aves you, may temporarily post-one the final good-bye perhaps, ut it's not likely to change the out-ome. And if you've tried to hang n to him, humbled yourself in ront of him, not only will he go way thinking less of you, but your wn remembrance of the episode ill make you blush for years after-ard.

Some girls seem to know this bit f psychology by instinct, and ey're the ones who usually end up ith adoring husbands who spend eir lives trying to make them appy. And some never learn it, and ake the same mistake over and ver again.

ET WELL ALOVE

An 18-year-old girl who quarreled ith her boy friend because he got runk and insulted her hasn't the ood sense to let matters stay as ey are. This, in the face of the act that instead of apologizing to er for his drunken behavior, he wrote her a letter commenting sarcastically on her reactions to his advances. In his letter, moreover, he asked her to return a ring he had given her, obviously indicating that her lack of response to his crude approach had cooled his interest in her.

Now it seems fairly obvious that any normal girl who receives such a letter would send the ring back by return mail. But not this foolish one. Instead, she wrote him a letter apologizing for having been angry with him, and making some feeble excuse about the ring to put him in the position of having to come and get it, of he wanted it. If he did this, she figured it would give her ae chanc to make up again.

True to the pattern such matters usually take, this misguided policy got her exactly nowhere. For the boy friend has bothered neither to come for his ring nor to answer her letter of uncalled-for apology. So now she wants advice on the next step in her campaign to get him back.

If she has so much as a single grain of commonsense, she will put her mind on other people and other things, and forget she ever knew this creature.

For Parents

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

When Baby Learns Crying Won't Win, Sleeping Problems Will Soon End

The baby or tot who has had n operation or a long and serious lness, even a little disturbance rom teething, may, on walking in he night or lying long awake at edtime, be tenderly snuggled into ed with one or both his parents. t's the human thing for them to o. Practically always it brings the oungster immediate comfort and is parents temporary peace. But fter a little practice, the young-ter, though well again, may de-hand that these satisfying ex-eriences continue.

By and by the parents suppose problem is growing and they try o train the youngster to sleep lone.

If they have read some of the ecent advice of certain child ex-erts not to let a youngster cry for want of personal show of affection, hey fear they might cause him to eel insecure and to suppose he isn't oved if he is left to cry it out. What awful conflicts these parents ave. Thanks to their doubts and ears, the youngster wins.

OTHER GAVE IN

"Dear Dr. Myers: Cynthia had er tonsils out about two months go. I was afraid to let her cry im-ediately after the operation, so hen she awoke at night and asked o come into bed with my husband nd me, I'm afraid I gave in rather asily. He is 22 months old.

"Now I find that she has become sleeping problem. She cries when put her in her crib. She invariably akens during the night and will o to sleep only if taken into our bed. I have tried putting her in her crib and sitting in the room but I find it takes too much time for her to fall asleep.

"I cannot imagine she feels insecure, yet I hesitate to let her cry it out, for I am afraid she will develop the very anxieties we wish to avoid."

MUST BE FIRM

Nobody has proved conclusively that a youngster left to cry it out will feel insecure long. Of course, she will feel insecure at that time, especially as long as she is hopeful of winning. Once she discovers the way is final she will give up. You could leave a light on outside her room left ajar or even go to her occasionally or speak to her from your room to assure her of your nearness, staying awake to make sure she doesn't suffocate. (My bulletin, "Sleep Problems: Their Prevention and Correction" may be had in a stamped envelope sent me in care of this paper.)

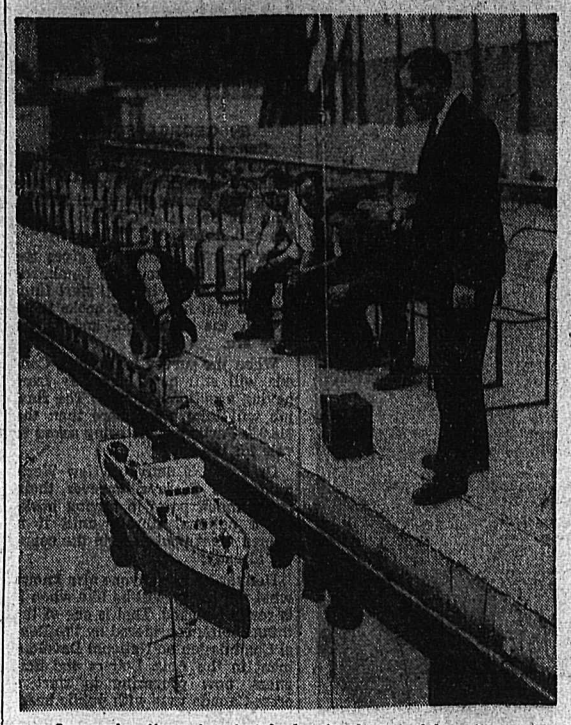
Pilotless Model to Cross Channel



Seen going through a test in London is a model yacht six feet long which may cross the English Channel under radio control. It was designed by H. W. During the attempt to navigate the yacht across the channel—which is to be made this year—the yacht will be controlled from a boat which can operate at a range of three miles. HARVEST AUCTION AIDS KIMBERLEY CHURCH BUILDING

KIMBERLEY, B.C., Oct. 3—A substantial sum was raised for the United Church Building Fund Sept. 26, when the C.G.I.T. sponsored a Harvest Auction. Fruit, vegetables, preserves and home cooking were quickly sold under the hammer of Jimmy Mills, auctioneer, and "Red" Foster, his assistant.

Free coffee and doughnuts gave the affair the complete effect of the old fashioned auction.

NO COMMONS SITTINGS FOR THANKSGIVING

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP) — Prime Minister St. Laurent indicated today in the Commons that the House will not sit Thanksgiving Day, next Monday, Oct. 10.

He said if it apeared to be the desire of members not to sit on the holiday, then the Government would be prepared to move that the Commons stand adjourned from 9 p.m. C.S.T. Friday to 1 p.m. Tuesday. Loud applause greeted the statement.

Confident B. C. Tourist Record Will Be Broken

VICTORIA, B.C., Oct. 3 (CP).—Provincial Travel Bureau officials, with August travel figures at hand, said today they were confident 1949 would smash all B.C. tourist records.

During August 39,925 cars entered the Province at border customs ports. This compares with 37,383 for August, 1948, and brings the total for the first eight months of this year to 154,989—17,020 more than during the first eight months of 1948.

Wool Jersey

Pleated dress with stand-up collar.

By VERA WINSTON

Wool jersey emerges as the big fabric favorite for the coming season, a position which it well deserves. This fabric is light yet cosy, drapes beautifully, and is moderately priced. Something different is this wool jersey dress that is pleated from neck to hem with only the stand-away collar and the push-up sleeve unpleated. Cording in separate bands defines the midriff, with the last row forming a belt that ties in a string bow in front. This is a prime example of the adaptability of wool jersey.

Ask National Housing Policy, Uniform Times

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—Six Canadian housewives discussed housing and senate nominations with Prime Minister St. Laurent Saturday.

Representing the National Council of Women, they held an hour-long conference with the Prime Minister and presented him with 14 resolutions. The major one asked for the establishment of a National housing policy based on promoting the health, happiness and welfare of the Canadian people.

Mrs. R. J. Marshall of Agincourt, Ont., Leader of the Delegation and Council President, said the women were favorably impressed with the reception given them by the Prime Minister.

The Council asked for a Dominion-Provincial Conference of housing, to outline a pattern—the co-ordination and direction of housing activities at the three levels of Government—Dominion, Provincial and Municipal.

It also asked for an educational program on the social values of good housing similar to the one undertaken when family allowances were introduced; and for research and distribution of information on low-rental housing.

The Council urged a change in the manner of senate appointments. It asked that consideration be given to choosing men and women who have contributed outstanding service to educational and cultural progress in Canada.

It also asked the Government for establishment of daylight saving time in Summer, and standard time in Winter "for all communities and transportation systems."

CHURCH SERVICE FOR ANIMALS PROVES SUCCESS

HEREFORD, England, Oct. 3 (AP) —Forty horses went to church here yesterday.

So did hundreds of dogs and cats, guinea pigs, rabbits, goldfish, along with a goose, a cock, a grass snake, a canary, a calf, a goat and a tortoise.

Once a year the Very Rev. Hedley Burrows, Dean of Hereford, has a service for pets and their owners, dedicated to St. Francis of Assissi, patron saint of animals.

"I think the service was a marvelous success," said the Vicar of Holy Trinity, the Rev. Leonard Snell. "It will help people to realize their responsibilities toward dumb animals."

The animals got the spirit of the ceremony. No dogs chased cats. No cats ate mice. The cats left the goldfish unmolested. Only a goose named Egbert disgraced his owner. Egbert waddled out just as the service began.

The Doctor

Ringworm, Fungus Parasite, Worse When It Attacks Feet and Toe-Nails

Ringworm is a fungus parasite which may affect the skin in any part of the body, but nowhere is it more difficult to get rid of, once it becomes entrenched, than in the nails of the hands or feet. Thickness of the nail tissue, plus the fact that most drugs cannot penetrate it readily, make fungi established in these locations almost impervious to attack.

Since this type of ringworm often causes marked deformity of the nails and may even result in their permanent loss, word of a new and more successful treatment than we have had in the past comes as a boon to many people.

It is described by Drs. White and Nickerson, and its success is due to the fact that the substance used — ammoniacal silver nitrate — is capable not only of killing the fungi but of penetrating the nails.

AFFECTED AREA

In carrying out the treatment, the affected area was painted once a week with the solution just described and allowed to dry. The treated nail turns very black. However, as the new nail grows in, it is free from infection, and the line between the treated nail and the new nail is clearly indicated by the dark color of the damaged nail. It was possible to tell whether the patient was cured by the appearance of the nails and the absence of fungi in scrapings from the nails.

Other methods used against this condition include X-ray and sometimes the removal of the affected nail, followed by treatment with various ointments effective in ringworm of the skin. Neither has proved to be particularly successful, and ringworm infection of the nails has been considered a more or less incurable disorder.

In view of the large number of cures reported from ammoniacal silver nitrate, it would seem that it is well worth trying by those who have this condition.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

J. N.: I have a constant ringing in my head. What would you suggest?

Answer: Buzzing and ringing in the ears may be due to a number of causes, such as anemia, kidney disease, accumulation of wax in the ear, as well as an infection in the tube connecting the ear with the mouth.

It would be advisable to have a physical examination made to determine the cause of this condition.

Homespun Dishes for Autumn

Come Fall and it's time for sturdy, if not hearty foods, dishes with a homespun flavor. Bake a batch of cookies, crisp as the crackle of leaves underfoot. Serve a spicy meat stew, make use of the late fruits, and the vegetables in season. Put aside Summer's fluffy foods, those light, lacy salads and foamy frills for dessert, and heed the down-to-earth hunger for heartier dishes.

Casseroles of eathenware come into their own, and supersede the sparkling Summer salad bowl. To market, to market to buy some pork chops to be served in an Autumn casserole dish. To serve 4, combine 4 c. soft bread crumbs and 1 c. bran cereal. Cook tbsp. chopped onion and ¼ c. chopped celery in 2 tbsp. shortening until lightly browned. Add to bread mixture with tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. poultry seasoning, 1 c. cooked corn kernels and 1 c. stock (liquid from corn, or milk). Mix thoroughly. Press into baking pan, 8 inches in diameter. Arrange 4 pork chops on top of dressing, sprinkle with ½ tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. pepper. Cover and bake at 375 F. for about 45 min., then uncover and bake 15 min. longer.

MEATLESS MEAL

A hearty shrimp bake is the ticket for a meatless meal. To serve 6, cook half of an 8-oz. package of elbow macaroni in boiling salted water until tender; drain. Slice a large onion and saute in 4 tbsp. butter until slightly browned. Add 2¼ c. cooked tomatoes, one chopped green pepper, tsp. salt, ⅛ tsp. pepper; simmer 15 min. Add 1 c. cooked shrimp and the cooked macaroni. Place in casserole; sprinkle with ½ c. grated Canadian cheese. Bake at 350 F. for 30 min.

Plum tarts round up dinner nicely, be it a simple or lavish menu. To prepare 8 tarts, you will need 2½ to 3 c. fresh, peeled, halved plums. If skins do not slip off easily, scald before peeling. Line individual muffin tins with plain pastry, brush with melted butter, then fill pastry shells with plum halves. Blend together 2-3 c. dark corn syrup, 3 tbsp. flour, ¼ tsp. salt. Pour mixture over plums in tart shells: dot with 2 tbsp. butter. Bake at 350 F. for 40 to 45 min.

ARCURI-GILLIO

● On Monday October 3, at 10:00 a.m., before the Autumn flower-banked High Altar of the Cathedral of Mary Immaculate, Nelson, Marion Gillis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gillis of Rossland, exchanged nuptial vows with Antonio Arcuri, son of Mrs. I. F. Arcuri and the late Bernardo Arcuri of Nelson. Rev. R. D. Anderson officiated and offered the Nuptial Mass. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and chose a traditional, long-sleeved slipper satin gown with fitted bodice and marquisette yoke with beaded trim. The skirt was gracefully designed in tuxedo style with front insertion of French lace. Her equisite fingertip veil was held in place by a headdress of dainty net adorned with a spray of Lily of the Valley wreath. Her only ornaments were a beautiful cameo necklace and earrings, gift of the groom. Her ensemble was completed by a bridal bouquet of red roses. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Cyril Gillis of Rossland, sister-in-law of the bride, was gowned in a simple gown of yellow brocaded taffeta, with cape sleeves and fitted at the waist, with a full and flowing skirt. Her ensemble was completed with a matching Dutch type hat trimmed with shoulder veiling and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She wore a lovely string of pears, the gift of the bride. The groom was supported by Dr. J. Vingo. During the Nuptial Mass Thomas Prime played appropriate wedding music, and during the signing of the register Miss Pat Scott sang "Ave Maria." Servers of the Mass were Pat Wilcox and Tom Fulkco. Following the wedding was a breakfast for the immediate families. At 7:00 p.m., a reception was held in the Legion Hall where covers were laid for 175 guests. Assisting the happy couple to receive were the mother of the bride, Mrs. J. Gillis, gowned in a lovely green dress with matching accessories and wearing a corsage of pink roses; and the mother of the groom, Mrs. I. Arcuri, who chose a dress of dark green, and black accessories and also wore a corsage of pink roses. Rev. R. D. Anderson proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. After a honeymoon at the Coast Mr. and Mrs. Arcuri will reside in Nelson.

Long Way From Record

Canada exported more wheat and wheat flour in the crop year ending July 31 than she did in the preceding year, according to The Current Review of Agricultural Conditions in Canada, published by the Economics Division, Marketing Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Preliminary estimates indicate that Canada's 1948-49 exports of wheat and wheat flour amounted to 231,600,000 bushels, an increase of 36,600,000 over the 1947-48 total. But it is still a long way from the all-time record for Canadian wheat exports, set in the 1928-29 crop year, when the total reached 407,600,000 bushels.

The United Kingdom continues to be Canada's chief outlet for wheat and wheat flour exports, receiving approximately 66 per cent of the 1948-49 total. Other important purchasers of Canadian wheat as grain in 1948-49 were India, British South Africa, Switzerland and Belgium. More than 30 Crown colonies and foreign countries accounted for the balance, with individual totals ranging from a few bushels to more than a million.

In addition to the shipments to the United Kingdom, exports of wheat flour to the equivalent of at least one million bushels of wheat were made to each of the following: The Philippine Islands, Syria, Trinidad and Tobago, Italy, Venezuela, Jamaica and Newfoundland, prior to union with Canada.

Duty of Government

Much criticism of governments of various shades, by people of various political beliefs, is due directly to differing conceptions as to what constitutes the proper functions of a government.

Some think governments should interfere as little as possible with people, leaving them free to develop their individual capacities according to their initiative. This is the laissez faire concept, and, to a degree, coincides with the viewpoint of many capitalists. But, even under this system, some are prepared to allow the government to interfere in the business of others, if it is to the benefit of themselves.

The opposite concept is that a government is warranted in interfering, in one form or another, with the activities of any individual or group if it is to the benefit of the majority.

Fighting back against Republican charges that his politics are leading to a "welfare state", President Harry S. Truman makes an important observation. The preamble of the American Constitution says the Constitution was established "to promote the general welfare."

It goes without saying the framers of that Constitution could have had little comprehension of the modern "welfare state". But it is equally obvious that the welfare of the people was held to be of paramount concern.

All too often it is noted that some of those most vehemently opposed to a "welfare state" have no objections whatever to any governmental action that rebounds to their own personal profit or welfare.

Hockey Fan Wants Later, Not Earlier, Starting Times

To the Editor:

Sir—Regarding a hockey fan wanting the games to start at 8 p.m., I certainly can't agree with him. I feel that all Saturday night games should start at 8:45 p.m., and certainly not before 8:30 p.m., and should they start before this time I am sure they would lose a lot of season ticket holders.

And after all, they can sleep in on Sunday.

Reader, Cranbrook—Could you please tell me who was Mother Shipton, when and where she lived, and what were her prophecies?

The Dictionary of National Bigrophy states that "this interesting lady is, in all likelihood, a wholly mythical personage." In 1873, Charles Hindley, a well-known London bookseller and publisher, made a clean breast of having fabricated the Prophecy, with some 10 others included in his reprint of a chap-book version, issued in 1862. The lines in question were:

Ancient Prediction, Entitled by Popular Tradition Mother Shipton's Prophecy, Published in 1448, Republished in 1641.

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe.
Around the earth thoughts shall fly
In the twinkling of an eye.
The world upside down shall be,
And gold be found at the foot of a tree.
Through hills men shall ride,
And no horse be at his side.
Under water men shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk.
In the air men shall be seen
In white, in black, in green;
Iron in the water shall float
As easily as a wooden boat.
Gold shall be found and shown
In a land that's not now known.
Fire and water shall wonders do,
England shall at last admit a foe.
The world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

DEVALUING DAYLIGHT

This is the time of year when managed daylight, like managed currency, is adjusted to changing conditions.

It is now many years since the gold content of 7 o'clock on a certain Sunday morning was first changed radically from the gold content of 7 o'clock on the preceding Saturday morning. Since then we have got used to the fact that 7 or any other o'clock is not governed by a "natural" sun time but by our own agreed convenience. We simply yawn (after an extra hour of sleep) and say: "Daylight saving's over."

But wait a minute! Must we really stop saving daylight? Are we to become spendthrift of our dwindling hoard of Autumn sunshine? No, apparently we are to work harder, produce more, waste less, and so by dint of our Winter industry earn those long, luxurious hours of gold when Spring's blossomy surplus brings revaluation again.—Christian Science Monitor.

Americans Not Neglecting Weighty Matters in World Series Interest

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Some straws show which way the wind blows.

One of the encouraging signs of our harrassed times is the great number of people of both sexes and all ages whom one sees grouped about the news printers on a pleasant afternoon. Maybe my imaginatio is working overtime, but that's the way it strikes me.

"And what," demands the lady from Texas, "do you find encouraging in that? They're reading about Russia having the atomic bomb, I suppose—or about Marshal Tito and his troubles with the Kremlin—or about the cold war."

BASEBALL MANIA

Well, madam, I reckon they're reading about those things. You have to dig through such news in order to get to anything else these days. But their big interest of the moment probably is centred in the World Series. And that's the way it should be.

Interest in the lighter things of life doesn't mean there is no interest in the serious problems. Even the hangman plays checkers when he's off duty.

There are no people on earth more deeply interested in world affairs than Americans, or who are better informed. I've travelled about the United States a good deal, discussing foreign affairs, and can testify that even the young folk of high school age are well informed. The United States has undergone a wonderful development in this respect during the past generation.

No, Americans aren't neglecting weighty matters for baseball. They're just maintaining their perspectives by balancing their mental diets. One-food diets aren't healthful.

It probably is true that the average American is fed up to the neck with the constant barrage of news about the cold war. We've been bombarded with it day and night ever since the end of the world conflict, and it certainly frays the nerves.

Movie Gossip

June Allyson and Hubby, Dick Powell Finally Arrange Picture Together

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 3 (AP)—Five years ago a wavy-haired crooner, slightly on the down-grade, starred in a hapless musical hash called "Meet the People." Playing a bit in the film was a winsome and hopeful young blonde from Broadway.

The crooner soon after traded his megaphone for a gat and played a new career as a private eye. The blonde struggled to stardom.

The pair now co-star in "The Reformer and the Redhead." Even the dullest-witted film fan can tell you their names are Dick Powell and June Allyson. They are also Mr. and Mrs., as if you didn't know.

Their marriage has been remarkably smooth for such Hollywood unions, and it's possible that this picture will be the acid test. I visited them on their first day of work together and found them dussgustingly happy.

PLANNED GET TOGETHER

"She's a doll," glowed Powell, looking like a college senior in his crew cut.

"He's wonderful," cooed Allyson, her squinty smile lighting up the sound stage.

The Powells have been plotting a film get-together for some time.

"I tried to get her for my production, 'Mrs. Mike.' " said the actor, "but her bosses said they didn't approve of married couples appearing together. I must have put up a good argument, because then the studio turned around and asked me to appear with her."

Capsule review: "The Red Dundee" (MGM) concerns an English colonel who slowly realizes the Russians intend ill toward their refugees he helps to repatriate in Vienna. Walter Pidgeon is the army man who finally brings about reforms in the United Nations and the British Army. Ethel Barrymore, Peter Lawford, Janet Leigh and Angela Lansbury also figure in the film, which is sometimes soggy but interesting in a ponderous way. The many loose ends are tied up neatly.

SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I. (CP)—A dial telephone system has been introduced in Summerside, Prince Edward Island's second largest centre. It is the first such system in the province.

ENVOY TO CEYLON—Joseph C. Satterthwaite (above), career diplomat for twenty-five years, has been nominated by President Truman to be Ambassador to Ceylon.

U.S. Freighters Taken to Base By Nationalists

SHANGHAI, Oct. 3 (AP)—Shipping officials received word today two seized American freighters have been taken to a Chinese naval base by armed Nationalist patrol vessels.

The message (later confirmed by official quarters in Canton) said the Isbrandtsen Line's flying independent and flying Clipper had been escorted to Chushan on the Archipelago South of Communist held Shanghai— a major target of the Nationalist blockade.

Information here is that the Nationalists confiscated cargoes of blockade runners previously taken to Chushan.

The flying independent's captain radioed earlier that the British armed Frigate St. Bride's Bay was standing by, within blinker-contact range and ready to give aid in case of extreme emergency.

Urge Canadians To Invest Money In Country

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Canada is and will be for some time to come—unless all signs fail—about the best place in the wold into which to put your money.

The question is: Will the aver-Canadian get his money into it and share in the profits which will come from its expansion?

The average person probably feels he knows little about how to do this. And he needs to know: Else he is going to lose opportunities, or get taken in by some one trying to turn a fast dollar.

Well, he is going to get a chance to learn. He is going to get a chance because money now is more widely distributed than it used to be, and the sums he has cached away or can get together are needed by the expanding business and industry of the country.

Investment men state there now are 827,000 Canadians with bank balances of more than $1,000, about four times as many as in 1939.

LECTURES STARTED

They started last year to tell the investment story and its opportunities by giving public lectures, and the large attendances satisfied them that the public is interested. Mrs. Canada, who controls so many of those bank balances, was particularly interested. In some cases lectures were given for women only, and to capacity attendance.

Various companies and organizations across the country, including the British Columbia Bond Dealers' Association, have already arranged lecture programs for this year.

A course being given by the University of Toronto in co-operation with the education committee of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada, illustrates the range of topics discussed. They include:

How the stock market functions; the difference between bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks; how to understand a balance sheet; the effect of changes in business prosperity on stock market prices; dangers to be avoided in speculation; and methods for choosing a well-balanced group of securities to give the greatest opportunity for profit and security.

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., Oct. 3 (CP)—Two salmon purse seiners collided late last night about 30 miles off this Northern B. C. Port.

However there were no injuries to six-men crews abroad the vessels.

Crew members of the 15-ton Invercan said in a radio-telephone interview that their ship ploughed into the motionless Row City which sank in 10 minutes.

The Row City crew escaped to the Invercan which managed to tow the stricken 16-ton fish boat toward the beach of nearby Williams Island. Salvage proceedings are underway.

Yanks Heavy Favorites; Roe, Lopat May Start

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)— Two ent but triumphant baseball ams caught their collective eaths today after perhaps the ost exhausting finish in the his- ry of the major leagues, and brac- themselves for a playoff starting ednesday.

Brooklyn Dodgers were still anting from the extra-inning riller over the tough Philadelphia hillies which enabled them to hit e tape a length ahead of St. Louis ardinals.

Casey Stengel's almost-fabulous ankees, who rose to dramatic ights in smashing back the final allenge of the Boston Red Sox, dulged in a light practice.

Tomorrow the Brooks plan to vis- their rival's huge Yankee Stad- m and line their sights on its nces in a batting drill.

The National League champs re- ll that they were granted no rkout in the Stadium before the "Subway Series", which they st to the Yanks in a tingling sev- -game set.

OLD OUT

Every box and reserved chair th at the Stadium and Ebbets eld—whence the Series will ansfer for three games starting riday—were sold during the final elirious stages of the pennant ces.

A few determined fans approach- the Stadium box office during e day to purchase standing-room ckets at $4 each.

The Yankees may be a solid 2-to- choice by the time they square f at 2 p.m. EDT (12 noon CST) ednesday, especially if Joe DiMaggio shows no ill effects.

But, with or without DiMaggio near his best, the American Leaguers will be favored on past record alone. They lost only one game in whipping the Dodgers in the '41 Series, the memorable set-to in which Catcher Mickey Owens dropped a third strike on Tommy Henrich for the final out of a game and the Yanks came on to win.

None who witnessed the '47 brawl between the same clubs will ever forget the ninth-inning, two-out double by Cookie Lavagetto, which deprived Bill Bevens of a no-hitter and salvaged a game which the Brooks had given up for lost. Nor the sensational catch made by stubby little Al Gionfriddo — now with Montreal — off DiMaggio to save a later game in the Stadium.

Pee Wee Reese, the only member of the present Dodgers who will have played in all three interborough Series, complained today: "Doesn't any team except the Yankees ever get in the World Series from the American League?"

PITCHERS DUEL

Wednesday's opener shapes up as a duel between two crafty left-handers of the older school—Elwin (Preacher) Roe for the Dodgers and Ed Lopat for the Yankees. Both are 15-game winners, and both specialize in sneaky, control pitching which baffles a batter rather than blows him down.

It is considered a possibility that Manager Burt Shotton may pass over Roe in favor of his big Negro rookie, Don Newcombe, who racked up 17 victories after reporting to the Dodgers from Montreal in May.

TO TRY AGAIN TODAY . . .

Miss Canada Tops World Mark, But Not for Books

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

PICTON, Ont., Oct. 3 (CP)—Harold Wilson of Ingersoll, Ont., will try again tomorrow to break the world speedboat record with his $100,000 Miss Canada IV. Between sunrise and sunset he will make three two-way runs over a measured mile.

Wilson was threatened with disqualification late today when his speedboat failed to make the second leg of an attempt on the record. Regulations of the American Power Boat Association call for the second run to be made within 20 minutes of the first, but Wilson applied for an extension.

The extension was ruled out but permission for the new try tomorrow was granted. At the same time, officials announced that Miss Canada hit an official 142.2-mile-an-hour clip in today's run—the world record is 141.7 — but this achievement will not count, since only one lap in the trial was completed.

The announcement that Wilson could try again tomorrow was made by Reg Sparks of Toronto, Vice President of the American Power Boat Association. If Wilson is unable to complete two laps tomorrow, no further periods of grace will be granted.

If permission for a new attempt had not been granted, the run today would have gone down as another failure for the sleek 2500-horsepower boat which set the North American record of 138.6 miles an hour here Sunday.

UP TO 150 M.P.H.

Wilson said earlier that "with some adjustments, she can get up to 150 miles an hour. That's what we will be out for next year."

It takes time to "iron the kinks" out of the high speedboat, Wilson said. Miss Canada IV was launched only four months ago.

Waters on the Picton Bay course smoothed out considerably after Miss Canada negotiated the first lap. Chief mechanic Charlie Volker told reporters there was so much suction on the bottom of the hull that it was "just like a drag."

Robinson Tops National League Batters

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP), — Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn Dodgers is the unofficial 1949 batting champion of the National League with an average of .342.

The swift infielder lashed out 203 hits in 593 trips to the plate and shunted Stan Musial of St. Louis Cardinals, 1948 leader, into second place.

Musial, who led last year with .376, sunk to .339 this term and barely beat out teammate Enos (Country) Slaughter, who had .336.

Not only did Robinson win the batting title but he predominated in all offensive phases.

He led the National League base stealers with 37 thefts. He was the runner up in number of hits and runs batted in, and shared second place in hitting doubles and triples.

Musial was the pace setter in hits, with 207; doubles with 41 and triples with 13. Robinson's 203 hits was second best and he tied Del Ennis of Philadelphia, for second in doubles with 38. Slaughter and Robinson each banged out 12 triples. The Negro second baseman drove in 124 runs to trail Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh, by four.

The League home run honors went to Kiner, who belted 54 and who threatened the circuit's record held by the late Hack Wilson at 56.

Two pitchers with the pennant-winning Dodgers had the best won-and-lost records and a third Brooklyn flinger was second in strike outs.

Preacher Roe had the best won-lost record with 15 triumphs and only five setbacks. Ralph Branca was next with 13-5. Don Newcombe, who spent the first six weeks of the season with Montreal, whiffed 148 batters, four less than did Warren Spahn of the Boston Braves.

Royals Win First In Little Series

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, Oct. 3 (CP)—Monal Royals got back into the run- ng in the Little World Series to- ght with a 3-1 win over Indiana- lis Indians, leaving the Series nding two to one for the Indians. The Royals scraped through on ree hits off Mel Queen, two of e hits coming in the fifth when, ded by an error, the Royals got their runs. Queen was replaced a pinchhitter in the seventh and et Johnson held the Royals hit- s the rset of the way.

Dan Bankhead held the Indians five hits, an error also figuring the Indians' lone run in the sixth ning.

KELL NIPS BATTING LEAD FROM WILLIAMS

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 (AP)—George Kell, the new unofficial American League batting champion, knows how to hit the ball. But more important—he knows when to hit it.

After breathing on the neck of Ted Williams in the tight American League Pennant drive, the Detroit Tigers' third baseman uncorked two hits against Cleveland yesterday and won the crown.

Williams, four-time winner, went hitless against the Yankees on the last day of the season. But the difference was close—to a fraction of a point. Kell's average was .3429, Williams' .3427.

It is Kell's first batting championship. Also it is the first time an American League third baseman ever has won the title.

No Yankee batters ranked among the top 10 for the first time in many years.

Williams and Dale Mitchell of Cleveland shared honors in the specialized departments. Big Ted held the leadership in most runs with 150, most doubles, 39, and most home runs, 43.

Mitchell blasted the most hits—203. His record of 23 triples won him the title in that department.

Tied at 159 for the most runs batted in were Boston teammates Vern Stephens and Williams.

Dillinger finished first in stolen bases with 20, far behind Jackie Robinson's pace-setting bag of 34 in the National League.

Boston's Ellis Kinder was the league's best percentage pitcher with a 23-6 record for .793, but the winningest hurler was his Red Sox Buddy, Mel Parnell, with 25 victories and seven losses. Virgil Trucks of Detroit became the 1949 strike-out king with 153.

Individual low score was held by Dr. Frank Fergie and J. Falkins of the Cranbrook Club with 109.

Personnel of the Kimberley team were Hugo Mackie, F. W. Holmes, R. Sortome, R. Lake, J. McLay, F. Walker, G. Coombs, and F. Sullivan.

The 1949 competition will have as hosts the Creston Club, with Russ Joyce of Creston as Chairman.

$10,000 a Year Sought by Lewicki

STRATFORD, Oct. 3 (CP)—Danny Lewicki wants a contract for $10,000 a year for two seasons plus $2500 bonus for signing from Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League.

That was the word today from J. H. Wyatt, President of the Stratford Junior Hockey Club, which claims rights to the starry young left-winger if he stays in amateur hockey.

Wyatt said that the Leafs had offered Lewicki $4000 a year for two years with a bonus of $2000 if he would sign a professional contract.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3 (CP), — President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League said today that if Danny Lewicki fails to meet the terms of his present agreement with Toronto Maple Leafs "he definitely will be suspended from both professional and amateur hockey."

Campbell was commenting on a report from Stratford, Ont., that Lewicki, promising junior ice star from Fort William, Ont. was demanding a Maple Leaf contract calling for $10,000 a year for two seasons plus a $2500 bonus for signing.

"Lewicki already has signed an agreement with the Leafs and terms are contained in that agreement," the N.H.L. President told The Canadian Press. "That agreement is the N.H.L. form C which gives Leafs the right to negotiate for his services as pro. Less than two months ago, Lewicki renewed his form C agreement with the Leafs."

Campbell said he had not, as yet, received any word on the latest development on the case from either the Leafs or Lewicki. Earlier today, Conny Smythe, boss of the Leafs, said in Toronto that he had turned the case over to Campbell.

Christian Rally in Berlin

An estimated 30,000 Protestants from Berlin and from the Soviet zone of Germany gathered in the Waldbunne, in the British sector, to attend a Christian solidarity rally. Dr. Otto Dibelius, Bishop of Berlin, addressed the crowds, stressing the need of practising obedience, love of neighbor and self-sacrifice, and criticizing the rising power of the State. In this view of the event the overflow of spectators can be seen seated in the aisles and standing on the outskirts of the huge arena.

Bullets Fly on Russ-Persian Border

Persian troops, under the command of General Mobasherry, have dug themselves in and are resisting attacks by Russian soldiers near the border of the two countries. Reason given for the attacks was the refusal of the Persian authorities to give up a Russian officer and soldier who had taken refuge across the border. The Russians attacked one of the border posts, capturing a Persian officer and 10 men as hostages. Later they made further advances toward Naftchila area, which is rich in oil potential. Here Persian soldiers man gun emplacements, entrenched near the Russo-Persian border.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

CALGARY LIVESTOCK

CALGARY, Oct. 3 (CP).—Trading on the livestock market opened steady this morning. Bulk of receipts were stock cattle, common to fair cows and plain killers. Well finished butcher steers and heifers were scarce.

There was fairly good action at last week's prices on all classes. One car of strictly choice steers sold at $20.25.

Around 500 head of cattle were received over the weekend and, while early deliveries were light, a fair truck run was in sight. Liberal receipts by end of trading were indicated.

Weekend saleable receipts: 362 cattle, 50 calves, 14 hogs. Today's saleable receipts: 143 cattle, 35 calves.

Hogs closed last week at $29.50 for As at yards and plants. Sows $16.25-16.50 live weight.

Good to choice butcher steers 19.00 to 20.00; common to medium 16.00 to 18.50. Good butcher heifers 17.00 to 17.75; common to medium 14.00 to 16.50.

Good cows 12.75 to 13.25; common to medium 11.25 to 12.50. Canners and cutters 9.00 to 11.00.

Goods bulls 13.50 to 14.50; common to medium 10.00 to 13.00. Good to choice veal calves 17.00 to 18.00; common to medium 14.00 to 16.50. Good stocker and feeder steers 17.00 to 18.00; common to medium 14.00 to 16.50.

Market Trends

TORONTO, Oct. 3 (CP).—Trading pursued an uneven course with the industrial list tending down but showing some flashes of strength. There was general lack of interest except for heavy trading in a number of junior golds.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3 (CP).—Business lagged along. Mines were improved and business in this section was moderately active.

Papers and utilities were about evenly mixed while base metals and senior oils were lower. Beverages were better while the balance of the list moved gently downward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP). — Prices edged higher in a moderately active stock market. The upturn came late in the day after the market had ambled along quietly in a narrow range.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3 (CP).—Oils continued to provide major activity as the exchange showed a complete rejection of New York and Eastern market trends. Mines were steady, golds were slightly off with mixed gains in base metals.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3 (CP).—Dominions, provincials, municipals and corporations were firm in quiet dealings.

LONDON, Oct. 3 (Reuters). — Overseas buyers of British Government short-dated stocks resulted in rises of up to one-quarter per cent in the gilt-edged section. Advances were well held and spread to the medium and longer-dated issues.

Claims Russian Recognition of Red China a Threat to Far East Peace

By SPENCER MOOSA

CANTON, China, Oct. 3 (AP)—Soviet recognition of the Chinese Communist regime is "not only an act of aggression against China, but also a threat to peace and security of the Far East," Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh declared tonight.

Yeh summoned Vladimir Varskov, Soviet Charge d'Affaires, to the Foreign Office and read him a written statement containing this assertion.

The statement described Moscow's recognition of the Red "bogus regime" at Peiping as the natural culmination of a long series of Soviet violations of the Chinese-Russian treaty of 1945 and further evidence of Soviet infringement on China's political independence and territorial integrity.

"That the regime set up in Peiping is Soviet-sponsored now should be clear to all the world," said the Nationalist Foreign Minister.

He concluded that in view of what he called Soviet utter disregard for the sanctity of treaty obligations, the Nationalist Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with Russia and to recall its representatives from the Soviet Union.

Lawn Sown at Cranbrook Golf Course

CRANBROOK, B. C., Oct. 3 — Member-shareholders who expect to play golf next Summer on their new scenic golf course they have hewn out of the woods on the hill just East of Cranbrook, sowed over a ton of grass seed on the nine fairways this week. This work, done by hand, represents nearly the last work necsary to put the course in play. The final job will be installation of the watering system and connection with the City supply to keep the fairways watered next Spring.

Two years ago the 200-acre tract was a wilderness of bush commanding a magnificent view over the Kootenay Valley, Rockies and Selkirks. It was bought from the Crown and the course was laid out on paper by a professional. Since then a band of enthusiasts with borrowed equipment, using all their spare time in season, have cleared all the fairways, removed stumps, broken the soil, and plowed and disked in preparation for the planting. The grass seed for the project cost $1400.

A continual drive for subscriptions is under way to finance the small necessary expenditures, and all the work was volunteered. Subscriptions are in the form of shares in the Club, and are refundable to the subscriber in the form of future playing and associate memberships.

The course is close to the Municipal Tourist Camp, and future greens fees are expected to assist financing appreciably. Following installation of the water connection before heavy frosts this Winter, new objective of a clubhouse on the property has been set.

CLAIMS AUSTRIA WILL NOT TURN COMMUNIST

By G. K. HODENFIELD

VIENNA, Oct. 3 (AP)—There are two predictions that can safely be made regarding the Austrian national elections next Sunday:

Austria will not go Communist, and the Coalition Government between the Right-Wing People's Paryt and the Socialists will continue.

The Communists may not even be able to return one candidate to Parliament.

In the last elections, held in 1945, the People's Party won 85 of the 165 seats in Parliament; the Socialists won 76, and the Communists won only four.

This time the balance of power may shift to the Socialists, but there will be no landslide.

The Pope appealed for "prompt and responsible community action" to end the "blight of peace-time detention camps . . . and the plight of millions who now must answer to the hideous appellation of 'expellees'."

Dr. Barrett Tells Rotarians of Health Insurance

Dr. G. R. Barrett Thursday gave an address to the Nelson Rotary Club based on the progress of health insurance.

Health insurance in some form was an accepted feature of most Governments' programs. North American Governments have endeavored to stay away from Government control as opposed to the policy of state-run schemes in Europe and New Zealand.

"We in America feel that we have the better method," the doctor declared.

About one person in eight was already covered by a voluntary scheme. About one million people in B.C. have subscribed to the hopsitalization plan. This probably gave one of the most advanced health insurance plans in operation. It had few or no limitations as to service.

At an Executive meeting held after the luncheon, A. H. Allan was elected Treasurer of the Club to replace J. R. McLennan.

The damage toll included cars belonging to Peter Hadikin, estimated at $100 damage, Nick Bereoukoff, $10, and O. J. Hagen, $20. The truck in which Mr. Larsen was riding received damages estimated at $200.

INCREASE TARIFFS ON PRUNES AND PEARS

OTTAWA, Oct. 3 (CP)—Canada has strengthened the tariff wall against the import of prunes and pears—two items of the fruits and vegetables category on which import controls came off Saturday.

Decontrol means a greater influx of United States fresh fruits and vegetables. However, the increase in tariff may slow shipments of United States pears and prunes.

Both items bear a 10-per cent duty, but the value for duty has been increased by one-half cent a pound on pears and three-fifths of a cent a pound on prunes.
