Cabinet Supports Straith's Separate Schools Stand

VICTORIA, B.C., April 20 (CP) — Education Minister W. T. Straith said here today that his policy on separate schools has the full authority of the British Columbia Cabinet.

Earlier in the week he condemned the separate school system when he spoke at the annual convention of the B.C. Teachers' Federation.

"I have stated the policy of the Government on authority of the Cabinet and that's it," he said in an interview today.

"As far as my department is concerned it is purely an educational issue and we're not involving politics or religion in it."

The Roman Catholic Education Association has asked that Catholic schools be absorbed into the public school system, providing "safeguards" were set up, such as provisions for certain textbooks and teachers in some subjects.

ELECTION ISSUE

Spokesman for other major political parties have made no comment on the issue of separate schools but the question will be on an agenda of both the Liberal and Progressive Conservative called for later in the month to prepare for the June 12 provincial election.

The Catholic Education Association has warned, in effect, that it will ask Roman Catholics to vote against party candidates who oppose its school policy. The Catholics claim a voting strength of 100,000.

Mr. Straith, in opposing any change in the present school system has said:

"We do not have the cleavages on religious and racial lines as in other provinces where separate schools are maintained."

He reiterated his stand today and said: "Our policy is designed to protect the best interests of our school system and the children of British Columbia."

The Provincial Government builds and maintains public schools. Religious groups operating their own schools must provide the major costs of operation.

The issue came to the fore a year ago when two Roman Catholic schools in Maillardville were closed and the students absorbed into the public school system.

At that time, the Catholic School Board said it did not have funds to carry on the separate schools.

MEMBERS of the staff of the Russian legation in Havana are shown walking across the Rancho Boyeros airport to take a plane from the Cuban capital for Mexico as a result of the breaking off diplomatic relations by the Soviet Union. The break stemmed from the refusal of Cuban authorities to permit two Soviet couriers arriving from Mexico to enter Cuba with luggage unless inspected by customs authorities. At left, above, is Lt. Uerez Janeiro of the Cuban army, who is in charge of the airport under the Batista regime. It was by his orders that the Soviet couriers were refused entrance unless they submitted to baggage inspection.—Central Press Canadian.

Man Killed, 3 Hurt When C.N. Passenger Derailed in Rockies

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — One crew member was killed and three were injured Saturday when a Canadian National Railways transcontinental passenger train was derailed by a washout in the Rockies.

C.N.R. officials said no passengers were injured in the wreck about 50 miles West of Jasper, Alta.

Fireman D. C. Harris of Jasper was killed when the engine, tender and three express cars careened off the rails and plunged down an embankment. Injured were Engineer A. E. Key, baggageman C. A. Glover and express messenger Floyd Gates, all of Jasper.

A hospital train from Jasper sped to the scene and evacuated the three injured men to hospital in Jasper. Key, the most seriously injured, was reported in "fair shape."

Doctors and medical orderlies from the R.C.A.F. para-rescue school at Jasper travelled aboard the hospital train, as well as three nurses.

The 150 passengers aboard the Toronto-bound, 13-coach train were transferred to another train on the East side of the washout. They arrived in Edmonton early today.

The washout, believed caused by the Spring runoff, apparently weakened the roadbed and the cars tipped over when they hit that section. Road gangs were rushed to the spot to repair the damage.

The train left here Friday night. The wreck occurred about 12:30 p.m. Telegraph lines were cut but later restored.

It was the first train wreck in the Rockies since Nov. 21, 1950, when 21 died in the head-on collision of a C.N.R. passenger train and a troop train.

PORT ALBERNI, B. C., April 20 (CP)—An Esquimalt and Nanaimo railway passenger train managed to stop in time Saturday night before hitting a rock slide which crashed down over the tracks 12 miles East of this Vancouver Island city.

The seven-car train backed up 15 miles to the nearest point where the railway approaches the highway and the 15 passengers continued their journey by bus.

The slide was cleared later and the train arrived here 5½ hours behind schedule. E. and N. officials attributed the 100-ton slide, first in this area in more than a year, to the Spring runoff.

The East-bound No. 12 arrived in Nelson one hour and 40 minutes late Saturday night after being held up at Lafferty, West of Farron, by a snow slide.

RIVAL FOR CADDY?

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Victoria's famed Caddy, the sea monster with a 50-foot long body and a head like a snake, may have a rival in Vancouver waters.

Deputy Police Chief Harry Whelan reported today he saw an underwater "thing" off Brockton Point while fishing in Burrard Inlet.

"I couldn't tell whether it was the head or the back," he said. "There was no dorsal fin. I have no idea of its complete size."

"It was travelling at terrific speed. I would say about 30 knots. There were no coils or anything like that.

It may have been Sarah, the Sea Hag, last reported in Vancouver waters in 1947, a shaggy horse-faced creature sighted often in Burrard Inlet.

Gov't. Announces Plebicites Wording

VICTORIA, B.C., April 20 (CP) — Wording of two plebiscites to be placed before the voters in the June 12 provincial election was announced today by Premier Byron Johnson and Attorney-General Gordon Wismer.

The liquor plebiscite will ask:

"Are you in favor of the sale of spirituous liquor and wine by the glass in establishments licensed for such purpose?"

The daylight saving plebiscite will simply ask:

"Are you in favor of daylight saving?"

In explaining the plebiscite, Mr. Wismer said the suggested change in liquor distribution will not be considered unless there is an overall affirmative response to the question.

"In this event (affirmative vote) it would not be the intention of the government to grant licenses in those districts which voted negatively. In other words, the mandate of the people would be carried out on a local option basis."

"In those constituencies that voted negatively, the suggested change would not be made," said the attorney-general.

TO STUDY LAWS

Regardless of how the plebiscite vote goes, Mr. Wismer said it is the intention of the government to set up a consultative committee, composed of a cross-section of community life, immediately after the election.

"The duty of the committee would be to consider the Liquor Act in the light of the result of the plebiscite and to suggest for the consideration of the Legislature changes which might advantageously be made in the method of dealing with liquor in this province," he said.

Mr. Wismer said it should be understood that the Legislature must take the full responsibility for any changes which might be made and the consultative committee would, therefore, act in an advisory capacity only.

The attorney-general's announcement that the Liquor Act will be studied regardless of the outcome of the vote was welcomed in most quarters. The act has not been overhauled for years, and general opinion is that there are severable objectionable features which should be removed.

Both plebiscites, of course, will be submitted to all ridings in the province.

In commenting on the daylight saving plebiscite, Premier Johnson said:

"There has been considerable divergence of opinion, particularly in the rural areas, in regard to this matter. As daylight saving time, to be effective, must be province-wide, it was thought advisable to secure the opinion of the electors on the question."

LITTLE COMMENT

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Little comment has been available yet from church, civic and tourist leaders in Vancouver on the wording of British Columbia's liquor plebiscite, announced at Victoria Saturday.

Mike McCormack, publicity director for the Vancouver Tourist Association, said "our organization doesn't have an official policy yet.

"However," he added "we do know what the tourist say, and they've been saying it many, many times — 'Why can't we get a glass of wine or beer with our meals?"

Six ministers refused comment when wording of the plebiscite was read to them.

TEENAGERS FORM COUNCIL

NANAIMO, B.C., April 20 (CP)— A B.C. provincial teen town council was set up by B.C. teen town mayors at their seventh annual conference here yesterday.

Threatened Dam Holds Back Water

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask., April 20 (CP) — Duncairn Dam held today, protecting this city of 7500 population from a torrential descent of floodwaters.

Engineers in charge of the 16-mile-long Duncairn irrigation reservoir voiced confidence that the earthen-and-concrete girdle would not give. But the danger would continue.

"It could go in five hours or five days," said Jim Switzer, engineer of the Prairie Rehabilitation Administration.

In an official statement at 2 p.m. today, the Swift Current civil defence committee headquarters said the situation had not improved. Crews were working at the dam without let-up.

No water now is flowing over the threatened $200,000 concrete spillway, undermined by soil erosion around its lower perimeter. Danger to the dam is focussed in these eroded areas and engineers are trying to reinforce the weak spots with timbers.

DUKE PLANS PALACE REFORMS

LONDON, April 20 (AP) — The Sunday Pictorial says today the Duke of Edinburgh plans a "palace upheaval" to reform a servant caste system in Buckingham Palace and cut costs and red tape of Royal court life.

The servant problem was reported to be a case of servants serving servants — holding on to a system of gentleman's gentleman and lady's lady—and eating too much on the house.

The mass-circulation London paper says the Queen welcomes her husband's "tactful advice" on the reforms. "He wants to bring her closer to her people," the pictorial says.

The reported reforms apparently would arise from investigations by the administrative chief of the staff of Clarence House, home of the Queen and the Duke. He is Lt.-Gen. Frederick Browning an old crony of the Duke's uncle and boyhood guardian, Earl Mountbatten.

Things are due for a big change about June when the Royal couple move into Buckingham Palace, the newspaper says. It adds that the navy-trained young Duke was surprised to find that only two dozen of a household staff of 230 actually look after the Royal family.

"Most of the remainder," it says, "wait on other members of the house, minor officials — and the senior servants themselves. Upper servants are served by those of middle rank; those of middle rank by lower grades."

4 Killed, 42 Hurt by Runaway Speed Car

DAYTON, O., April 20 (AP)— A big red and white racing car suddenly whirled out of control at Dayton speedway today, smacked a paint barrel, and plunged into a crowded grandstand killing four persons and injuring 42.

Its driver, 29-year-old Gordon Reid of Burbank, Calif., a father of four was killed instantly. Also killed was a track guard, Robert Thatcher, 22, who tried to shunt people out of the racer's path; Gene Lawson, 19 and an unidentified woman.

Swollen Creek Bursts Huge Culvert in West Trail

TRAIL — Running its highest in seventeen years Trail Creek caused some alarm to residents in West Trail over the weekend.

Carried through Trail in a huge underground culvert the water broke through in three places and men who were engaged in clearing up after the East Trail flood were rushed to the scene. Water and mud trickled for several blocks down the hill along Rossland avenue, the arterial highway. The situation was soon under control.

In a scattered residential area beyond the city limits a small bridge was washed away along with half the garden of one resident. Close to this the home of J. A. Howell, about ten feet from the swirling creek, was threatened as the water lapped over a retaining wall. Public Works Department sent men out who continued working through Sunday though by Sunday morning the creek had dropped about 18 inches.

2 Treaties to Be Signed May 17

BONN, April 20 (Reuters) — Two vital treaties — one ending the allied occupation of Germany, the other setting up the European army — will be signed May 17, informed allied sources said today.

Both treaties will come into force simultaneously when ratified by all parliaments concerned, a process expected to last several months.

The treaty ending the occupation of West Germany will be signed by the foreign ministers of Britain, The United States and France in the office of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who will sign for West Germany.

The same day, under the present plan, the ministers will fly to The Hague, where the six members of the European defence community will sign the European army treaty.

MISSOURI FLOOD WATERS RECEDING

By LARRY HALL

KANSAS CITY, April 20 (AP) — A record upper Missouri river flood smashed into Northwestern Missouri today, slowing down a little as it spread over rich valley farmlands. But it looked as if the worst was over.

The crest—the advancing peak of flood—was around Rulo in the extreme southeastern Nebraksa this morning. The weather bureau said it was knocking at the back steps of St. Joseph, Mo.

Scattered overnight showers were not heavy enough to increase the danger downstream. Army engineers said the two Kansas cities, battered by a record flood last July, would be safe this time.

Omaha and Council Bluffs far upstream seemed to have won their dramatic fight against the wild river. Levee patrolling was the big job there as the stream was falling.

On the upper Mississippi another record flood bore down on La Crosse, Wis., and Winona, Minn. Workers fought to strengthen soggy dikes before the expected crest hits today.

Army engineers said the situation is well in hand at Winona, but a forecast of rain and strong northwest winds raised new fears in that area.

SEARCH ABANDONED

HALIFAX, April 20 (CP) — The search for seven naval airmen missing since their planes collided and plunged into the ocean off Southwestern Nova Scotia Thursday was abandoned during the weekend.

B. C. GOV'T RECALLS MEAT INSPECTORS

VICTORIA, B.C., April 20 (CP) —British Columbia has handed over inspection of westbound meats, livestock and poultry shipments to federal authorities.

Agricultue minister Harry Bowman said Saturday the B.C. Government has recalled its inspectors from Alberta, where they have been enforcing B.C.'s partial embargo on meat and livestock, lifted last week.

Mr. Bowman said he had received notification from the federal officials that they now were prepared to take over full control of inspection services.

It was announced last Thursday that an order-in-council had been approved by the B.C. cabinet wiping out the embargo.

The provincial order followed announcement by the federal government that it would guarantee a floor price of 25 cents a pound liveweight for beef.

Mutinies Flare In U.S. Prisons

JACKSON, Mich., April 20 (AP) —Two hundred tough convicts grabbed four guards as hostages at Southern Michigan prison here tonight in a mutiny.

Five hours later they still were barricaded in a cell block. All the convicts are in the segregated cell block for infraction of prison disciplinary rules.

They demand to see Assistant deputy Warden George Bacon, chairman of the disciplinary board of the prison and a newspaper man, specifying they wanted "a representative of the Associated Press."

Bacon and reporter Ed F. Smith of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot, who was called, said the men told them they wanted to protest "brutality."

Smith said the prisoners told him they "wouldn't say" what it would take to end the mutiny.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 20 (AP)— Sounds of arguing and bickering today filtered from behind barricades at the Rahway prison farm where 231 mutinous convicts are defying authorities for the third day.

F. Lovell Bixby, deputy commissioner of state institutions and agencies, said guards stationed near the barricaded prison wing told him of hearing heated arguments among the thirsty, hungry holdouts.

He said he figured a small but powerful group of rebels apparently holds control of whatever food is left, by means of force.

Earlier in the day, the mutineers, with desperate bravado, vowed "victory of death" on a crudely-lettered kite fashioned from a bedsheet and flown from a window.

Water has been shut off from the wrecked dormitory wing since they began their riot Thursday night and they apparently are out of food, too, since they sent up a chant of "We want food" today.

The convicts have made numerous demands on their bedsheet signs—for an end to beatings, an outside investigation of the prison, a revamping of the parole system, and complaints about food.

Engineers Predict No Floods for B. C.

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Engineers of the federal water resources division here cautiously predicted there would be no floods in B.C. unless there is a radical change in weather conditions.

"If we get a fair melt (of snow) now in the lower areas and no long, abnormal hot period, the runoff should come off satisfactorily during the next six weeks," a spokesma nsaid.

"At present we see nothing alarming in the situation."

SIR STAFFORD SERIOUSLY ILL

ZURICH, Switzerland, April 20 (CP)—Sir Stafford Cripps' condition, reported to be "extremely serious" Saturday night, has not changed, his chief physician said today.

Dr. Dagman Liechti conferred with the wife of Britain's former Chancellor of the Exchequer and issued the bulletin at mid-day.

Cripps, who launched Britain's post-war austerity program, has been under treatment for a spinal infection known as spondylitis. He will be 63 Thursday.

Leo T. Nimsick was unanimously named C.C.F. candidate for Cranbrook-Kimberley constituency at last night's nominating convention attended by about 80 delegates. Mr. Nimsick has been member of the Legislature for the riding since the last provincial election.

He is warehouseman for Cominco at the Sullivan mine in Kimberley and has been a long-time C.C.F. worker in both Kootenays.

R. J. Laurie, president of the Cranbrook C.C.F. club was chairman of the meeting and proposed Mr. Nimsick's nomination.

This brings to three the candidates in the field for Cranbrook-Kimberley, with G.E.K. MacDonald, Progressive Conservative, and Maurice Klinkhamer, Liberal. Both nominated in recent weeks. Social Credit nomination is still to come.

Raddall Lashes at Paper Reprints

WOLFVILLE, N.S., April 20 (CP) —Thomas Raddall, Liverpool, N.S., author, said recently that book clubs and paper reprints make it "most difficult" for writers to earn a living.

Addressing an Acadia University discussion group, Mr. Raddall said the "soft backs" had revolutionized the book trade and have almost put the book store out of business.

400 Fight Big Coast Blaze

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — A $500,000 fire today destroyed a four-storey warehouse here containing the stored belongings of scores of families.

Ten firemen were overcome by smoke in fighting what was the biggest industrial-district fire here in two years.

Four hundred firemen grappled for 13 hours with the fire.

Destroyed was the Bowman Storage and Cartage Ltd. warehouse on East-End Powell Street about a mile from the heart of downtown Vancouver.

Insurance adjusters gave a preliminary damage estimate of "well over half a million dollars."

Frederick R. Armstrong, company manager, said contents — such things as furniture and a variety of household effects — are apparently a total loss.

Cause of the fire is undetermined. Fourteen hours after the fire broke out, firemen were still pouring water on the smouldering ruins.

Smoke and water damage was done to four industrial firms neighboring the brick-and-wood building.

Two of the 10 firemen overcome by smoke needed hospital treatment — but were later released, while the others were treated at the scene.

A police constable who reached the scene minutes after the alarm said the interior of the building was "ablaze from end to end."

Norman Akins, chief fire warden, said it will be "some time" before the ashes cool sufficiently to allow a complete investigation.

Eleven fire trucks spread hose from every fire hydrant in the area. The city's Burrard Inlet fire boat pumped water through hose strung several hundred feet from the waterfront.

Firemen chopped holes through walls to free water which became dammed in the building and threatened to collapse the walls.

The building also housed the premises of the mechanical packing firm of Joseph Robb and Company.

The fire was the biggest of its kind since a $600,000 fire hit British Columbia Packers waterfront property in May, 1950.

Paper Says Queen Mother to Be Governor-General

LONDON, April 20 (Reuters) — A Sunday newspaper report that the Queen Mother might become Australia's governor-general was described by an Australian spokesman today as a "most novel piece of speculation."

The Sunday Empire News said in a front-page story that the Queen Mother was expected to be appointed governor-general "at her own wish."

The idea will be discussed, it added, when Robert Menzies, Australian Prime Minister, comes to London later this year for talks with Prime Minister Churchill.

13 Miners Killed

BERLIN, April 20 (AP) — At least 13 miners were killed and 27 hurt in a coal-mine explosion Saturday at Zwickau, the East German government announced tonight. "Some of the miners are missing," the government announcement said, without giving a number. Some East-zone pits have as many as 500 workmen in them.

Injured Trapper Taken From Wilderness Cabin

REVELSTOKE, B.C., April 20 (CP) — A be-whiskered, wild-eyed trapper was brought back to civilization today after living three lonely months in pain and fear of death by starvation.

Adolph Anderson left here last October for his wilderness cabin in the Big Bend country. He told his friends he would be "out by Christmas."

Worried friends waited month after month for him to come out and finally R.C.M.P. sent a two man rescue party out last week. Constable James King and guide George Laforme returned with Anderson after a 120-mile journey by canoe and snowshoe.

Anderson said he lost his footing and rolled down a steep mountainside while trapping before Christmas.

Painfully he crawled back to his cabin and for the next three months lived in agony while he treated himself for multiple injuries.

It was the end of March before he felt he was recovering. He had not seen a soul since he left here. During the seemingly endless days he forced himself to get out of bed to do necessary chores.

He had one week's supply of food when King and Laforme arrived.

He is reported to be in fairly good condition today.

Spring Harvest Tempo Quickens

REGINA, April 20 (CP) — The tempo of Saskatchewan's greatest Spring harvest is increasing after more than a week of excellent drying weather. Grain men report that wheat harvested is in very good condition.

The harvesting is going on in many scattered points in the province. But sufficient grain has not yet been threshed to determine the effect of wintering out on grade and yield.

The farmers have the task of getting in 88,000,000 bushels of wheat and 56,000,000 bushels of oats and barley. It was left in the fields when premature snow and cold halted harvesting last Fall.

This Spring labor is a bigger problem than weather. W. F. Robinson, farm placement officer for the unemployment insurance commission, said demand for harvest labor is great and the supply small. Greatest demand is for tractor and combine operators.

Spring seeding also has begun at many points. But generally farmers seem more concerned with harvesting the 1951 crop than with seeding the new.

"I can't do that," the young man was quoted as he fled with his wife.

LONDON, April 20 (AP) — Posters advertising a fete at suburban All Saints Church said there would be a dancing bear.

Edmund MacMichael, Director of the Performing Animals Defence League rushed to the vicar, Rev. P. W. Rushmer, with a strong protest.

Dancing bears, he said are trained by thumping a drum while the bear tried to keep his paws cool on a hot tub. A Church of England fete, he added, is no place for an animal trained in suffering.

The vicar sent him to John Purchase, organizer of the fete. Purchase summoned his 26-year-old wife Anne and exhibited a hired bearskin.

"That's no bear," he said "That's my wife."

EASTON, Md., April 20 (AP) — Ever vigilant against possible subversive activities, police immediately called the Easton Star-Democrat to demand an explanation of this advertisement in the paper yesterday:

"PARENTS — If your son is between 17 and 18½, you can help him avoid being drafted. Mail a card to Box 495, Easton, for information."

Weston D. Black Choice Nelson-Creston Socreds

Weston D. Black, Creston school teacher, was nominated Social Credit candidate for the Nelson-Creston electoral district, at a nominating convention in Nelson Saturday.

Eighty voting delegates, 36 from the Creston district, attended the meeting.

Born in Vancouver, Mr. Black attended the University of British Columbia. He has worked in logging camps, shipyards, on road crews and in power plants.

Mr. Black has served with the consultative committee of the B. C. Teachers' Federation and has attended 13 consecutive conventions.

In an address to the group, Mr. Black said he was sincerely "convicted to the principles of the Social Credit Party. Convicted, because those principles are founded upon rock, that rock being true democracy.

"When Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg address said 'government of the people, by the people and for the people' little did that great man realize how far governments would stray from that democratic principle. But the Social Credit Party has been conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, and, too, that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth. Social Credit is not a political party but rather a Christian crusade for democracy.

"Its principles are based on Christian teachings and in governments we seem to have forgotten the Bible warning that 'unless the Lord built the house, they labor in vain that build it.'

INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

"Other parties may have hacked at the branches of evil within governments but Social Credit is the only group which cuts at the roots of evil in governments. They are the only group which is geared from the bottom up, instead of the top down. Individual rights and liberty are the keynotes of Social Credit policy; honest government for all groups without discrimination against color, race or creed but above all else individual freedom.

"Soon, Social Credit will be coming before the people of British Columbia with what politicians call a platform. Everyone seems anxious to hear what that platform is going to be and people seem somewhat worried that platform will not fit the needs of the people. But you and I know that the Social Credit platform for B. C. will be one of justice, not full of idle promises. It will hold out a hope to the people of this province in that it is a party of construction not destruction. The people need have no fear of Social Credit encroaching on their individual rights and liberties because this is the very party that will defend them. Social Credit does not seek to distill some imaginary panacea out of thin air; its policies are sound and founded upon rock. The people of B. C. will find a way out of their political quagmire through Social Credit."

Civil Defence Recruiting "Slow" in Nelson

Organization of Nelson Civil Defence has proceeded slowly and considerable difficulty has been experienced in getting citizens to accept positions of responsibility in the defence organization, Gerald H. Lee, Coordinator of Civil Defence at Nelson, states in his February-March report.

"In appointing people to positions of responsibility the committee has felt all appointees should be able and willing to carry out their duties. This policy has made it a tedious task interviewing numerous prospects before an appointment is made. However, we feel it absolutely essential—that every recruit is capable and willing to do the assigned task," the report said.

Permission has been obtained from City Council to use the old sweeper street car close to the airstrip as a gas or fire demonstration unit while school board permission for a class room for instruction purposes, has been obtained.

In a resolution, the organization says that in view of the difficulties that have arisen in obtaining the necessary number of volunteers to take the mobile training course it has been suggested that H. G. Gilhooly, training officer, be nominated to take the next available course at Ottawa.

Says Famine Worse Than Atomic War

LONDON (CP)—A bowl of grass soup, followed by some synthetic dish, garnished with plankton, may become a common diet of the future unless something is done to meet the growing threat of a world food shortage.

The warning was given by Dr. G. H. Bourne, London University scientist, in an address here to a group of women public health nurses.

Former nutritional adviser to the British Military Administration in Malaya, Dr. Bourne said that grass provided protein in abundance and plankton, organic matter that drifts in the sea, although fishy in taste was rich in vitamins.

"It isn't a very happy thought," he added, "but we are faced with the threat of world famine and may have to adjust ourselves to more synthetic foods in future. States should realize that it is a danger even greater than atomic war."

Doctrine of Atonement Is Sermon Subject

The daily life of Christ Jesus presented irrefutable evidence that God is Love. This proof is revealed in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist Sunday.

The Golden Text was: "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransome for many."

—Mark 10:45.

The Lesson-Sermon included the following passage from the Bible: "And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him . . . Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."—Luke 23: 33, 34.

Among the selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, was the following: "The Science Jesus taught and lived must triumph over all material beliefs about life, substance, and intelligence, and the multitudinous errors growing from such beliefs."

Boy Sniffer Suffers From Gas Fumes

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., April 20 (CP)—Until Friday, nine-year-old Wesley Brown hadn't sniffed a gas tank in three years.

He used to, his mother said, because he liked the smell and the way the fumes made his head go round and see stars.

In those days, Wesley would walk down the street, sniffing gas tanks of parked cars. When he got drowsy enough, he climbed in the nearest car and fell asleep.

Friday when Mrs. Brown noticed the family dog staring at something inside the garage, she ran out and found Wesley.

"He was like a dishrag," she said, "hanging limp over the gas filler pipe on our car."

Firemen came and revived him. Later Wesley was complaining that every time he closed his eyes they hurt. And he was seeing more stars than he cared to.

Lifting of U. S. Gov't Controls On Zinc, Lead Seen by Summer

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — The improving metals supply outlook now is expected to permit the lifting of major government controls on zinc and lead by early Summer and on aluminum by the fourth quarter. However, neither industry nor government authorities have yet been willing to predict how soon the tight restrictions on copper might be eased.

The Missouri River flood forced the shutdown of the Omaha, Neb., lead refinery of American Smelting & Refining Co., which had been turning out 14,000 to 15,000 tons of refined lead a month. Motors and other movable equipment were transferred to higher ground as a precautionary measure. Railroads were unable to deliver materials into the plant or take anything out.

Metals prices were unchanged with two exceptions: quicksilver fell $2 a flask (76 pounds) to a new range of $204-$207 in a buyer's market. And India manganese ore eased 2-3 cents a long ton unit to $1.20-$1.24, nominal, in a quiet market unsettled by the steel labor dispute.

Major metals prices:

Copper—24.5 cents a pound, delivered. Foreign, 27.5 cents, New York.

Silver—88 cents an ounce, New York: 77 pence, London.

Tin—$1.215 a pound, New York.

Tourist Park Brightened by Jaycees Bee

Nelson's Junior Chamber of Commerce turned out in full force early Sunday morning, in a combined painting-clean-up effort to make the city's tourist park one of the brightest and cleanest spots in town.

Fresh white paint graces the exterior of the pavilion, and railings and borders trimmed in light green, give a striking contrast.

By early afternoon, painters were busy putting finishing touches on the floor, a light grey.

Half a dozen Jaycees, armed with rakes, axes and shovels, were busy cutting underbrush, twigs and shrubs, burning old leaves and preparing the ground for planting of decorative shrubbery.

Later, the city parks committee, under direction of Frank Holt, will plant shrubs in the park.

U. S. Controls On Rubber Off

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The government Saturday announced the removal of almost all controls on the use of natural and synthetic rubber, effective April 21.

But the door was left open for a quick clampdown should the United States rubber stockpile fall dangerously low or prices skyrocket again.

Free Booklet Tells How Deaf Hear Again With Startling Clarity, Ease

CHICAGO (Special)—New hope for the 15 million persons in the United States who are hard of hearing was voiced by a noted Chicago acoustical scientist.

He reported that through the miracle of modern electronics it is now possible to overcome deafness even if the loss is severe.

He demonstrated how the deaf can hear again with a clarity and ease they never dreamed possible.

According to this electronic engineer, Mr. Sam Posen of Beltone, "the longer a hearing loss is neglected, the harder it is to recapture certain speech sounds and understand them."

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with what may be done to help the deaf hear again with miraculous clarity, full authoritative details about deafness and how to overcome it are described in an informative, new, illustrated booklet, which will be sent in a plain wrapper without any cost or obligation.

To obtain your free copy, simply send your request to: Electronic Research Director, Dept. 988B Beltone Hearing Aid Co., 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill. A postcard will do.

What is

1 IT'S FAIR!

The Alternative Vote, to be used in the coming election, prevents the election of a candidate on a minority vote. The Alternative Vote is a fair method of voting because it enables you to vote for your favorite candidate as number one, your second choice as number two and so forth. You are thereby given the opportunity of selecting the candidates in order of your preference.

2 IT'S EASY!

It's as simple as before, only instead of marking an X against your one favorite candidate only, you can mark 1-2-3-4 with your first choice as number one. In the majority of ridings where one member only is to be elected you will mark one ballot only, listing the candidates in order of your preference. In a few ridings where more than one member is to be elected, more than one ballot will be used. Marking of these ballots, however, will be done exactly the same way as where only one ballot is used.

There is no problem or anything difficult in Alternative Voting. It is simple and fair. Under the old system of voting, it was possible for the candidate or party with a minority vote to get elected. For instance, if two candidates had 1000 votes each and the third had 1025, the third candidate would win even though 2000 votes had been cast against him. Under the Alternative Vote this is impossible. You mark the ballot thus: 1-for your first choice; 2-for your second choice and so on. If, on the first count, there is no absolute majority for any one candidate, the one with the fewest ballots marked in his favor is dropped and his ballots distributed among the candidates according to the second choices as indicated on these ballots. Again, if on the second count, no absolute majority is reached the same process would be used again. Then, when the candidate who has more votes than all the other candidates together is found, he wins and is elected.

Remember, all you have to do is to mark a numeral 1-2-3-4 against the candidates listed on the ballot in order of your preference.

Maureen O'Sullivan Plans to Return to Serious Film Work

By BOB THOMAS

That was the plaintive remark of Maureen O'Sullivan, back before the movie cameras after a lengthy absence. In the 1930s, she spent nine years as the mate of Tarzan and nursemaid to Cheetah the chimp and other beasts.

Now, after mothering seven children, she is appearing with the educated monkey in "Bonzo Goes to College."

"I don't mind the monkeys so much," she said. "This one—her real name is Peggy—seems quite gentle and affectionate. The ones we had on the Tarzan pictures were all right until they grew older."

MORE MOVIES

Miss O'Sullivan's last film work was five years ago, when she appeared in "The Big Clock." She indicated she will be doing more movies in the future.

"My children range from 13 to eight months," she said, "so now the older ones are beginning to be able to take care of the younger ones. That allows me more time off, and I think I will use it in acting."

The actress is also going in for television and has a story-telling series for children, a field in which she should be an expert. Despite her heavy maternity schedule, she still looks as trim and pretty as a starlet.

OBSERVATION

Perhaps the vaudeville shows on television are running their course. The slam-bang variety shows are bogging down in a mess of old jokes and worn-out acts. I don't know about you, but I can watch one of the big name comedy shows for a whole hour without cracking a smile. (Sole exception: The Caesar-Coca offering, a perpetual delight.)

Australia Plans to Turn Island Into Bastion Against Invaders

By BRIAN CROZIER

MELBOURNE, April 20 (Reuters)—Australia is pushing ahead with long-term plans to turn Manus Island into a bastion guarding the Northern approaches to the Australian continent.

In 1944 the United States built a $224,000,000 naval and air base on Manus, one of the main islands in the Australian-mandated Admiralty group about 200 miles North of New Guinea.

After the war ended in the Pacific, the then Labor government refused U.S. forces the use of Manus as a base. One of the arguments was that Australia could not tolerate any alienation of her territory.

The U. S. then shifted its Pacific defence interests further North, bypassing Manus.

Today Australian defence officials believe that should the U. S. and Australia ever again be involved in war in the Pacific, Manus would be used as a joint base for operations.

October William McMahon, Air and Navy Minister, announced that the government was pushing ahead as quickly as possible to develop the air and naval bases on Manus and would do her utmost to encourage the U.S. to use them.

JUNK HEAP

A party of members of Parliament plans to fly there this month to see how well the island is being put back into "operational efficiency."

When the Australian Navy took over the base in 1949 they found a desolate junk heap overgrown by the jungle.

Ships could not even tie up because the wharves at Lorengau, the port area, were rotten. All around were rusty junk heaps up to 30 feet high. Disused hangars and the wreckage of cranes and other machinery completed the picture.

The little that Australia found was of restricted value, even as salvage. In the intervening years, Chinese Nationalists, New Zealanders and Indonesians had taken their pick of what the Americans left behind.

Canadian Cadets To Span Globe

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—More than 2000 potential sailors will go away to camps this Summer all the way from Vancouver Island to England.

They are members of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets Corps and they will take part in a Summer training program jointly run by the Navy League and the Navy.

About 1000 cadets from Western Canada will take their Summer training at Camp Comox on the East coast of Vancouver Island.

Another 1000 cadets from the East will attend Camp Ewing at Choisy, Que., 40 miles East of Montreal.

At H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, Navy new-entry-training establishment at Annapolis, N.S., an advanced course will be held July 7 to 19 for 150 senior cadets. This will be followed by two 14-day courses for cadet corps officers, July 21 to Aug. 2 and Aug. 4 to 16.

In addition, 24 cadets will be selected from across Canada to travel to the United Kingdom this Summer to attend a Commonwealth Sea Cadet camp. They will be joined by cadets from New Zealand, Australia and South Africa.

Ottawa Members Back to Work

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Members of the Commons return Monday from the Easter recess and will launch almost immediately into debaet on two major issues.

Appeal Court Cuts Robertson's Term

VICTORIA, B.C., April 20 (CP)—A reduction of sentence to two years less a day, retroactive to March 7, has been granted P.E. Robertson, Prince George bookkeeper, by Court of Appeal here.

Robertson was sentenced by Prince George Magistrate P. Moran to two terms, of one year in Oakalla and 2½ years in the penitentiary, to run concurrently, on two charges of theft from his employer of checks totalling more than $1200.

Appeals from prison sentences by three other mainland men, E. G. Swain, Walter Ainsworth and C. E. Walker, were dismissed.

Treaty Changes British Status

TOKYO, April 20 (Reuters) — British forces using Korean war bases in Japan may lose their legal status after the Japanese peace treaty comes into effect April 28, official sources said today.

But no provision has yet been made for retaining Japanese facilities for other United Nations forces engaged in Korea, of which the British are the only ones with substantial instalaitions handling an independent supply system.

It is unlikely that a final agreement will be able to be worked out in the short time remaining before the treaty becomes effective. The "illegality" of the British position will not change the physical stationing of their troops. But it will affect financing.

Public statements here have already suggested strong Japanese opposition to bearing any sort of British costs now covered by occupation charges.

It is understood that representatives of Commonwealth countries have worked out a formula and that it will be considered in Washington, Tokyo and by the U. N. Supreme Commander in Japan.

NEW INDUSTRY IS ROLLING TO BRITISH COLUMBIA
CREATING
New Jobs
New Communities
New Opportunities

WILL WE KEEP IT COMING?
In one of the greatest development programmes under way anywhere in North America, we in British Columbia can look forward to the spending of about 1½ billions of dollars in the next three years... PROVIDED investors still feel that our province is a safe place to risk their money.
Right within B.C.'s grasp is the cherished future we have so long awaited. But this will fade away if investors are told that their holdings may be nationalized under some socialistic scheme of government-owned everything.
New jobs, new opportunities, bigger sales, higher living standards, more population all depend on B.C. continuing to earn the kind of CONFIDENCE that developed from the election three years ago when the great majority of people clearly said they wanted a sound, free opportunity system of economy.
LET'S MAKE ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN OF OUR FUTURE. LET'S KEEP THE MONEY WE NEED COMING TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

NEW CLUB AT CASTLEGAR . . .

Soroptimists Award Fellowship to Torontonian at Regional Banquet

The $1300 Western Regional Soroptimist Fellowship Award was presented to Mrs. Helen Butling who acted as proxy for Dr. Dorothy C. H. Ley, B.Sc., by Miss Marjorie Whitmore as proxy for Dr. Jessie McGeachy, convener of the Western Regional Soroptimist Fellowship Selection Committee, here Saturday.

Owing to the nature of their work neither Dr. Ley nor Dr. McGeachy were able to be present at the Western Regional Soroptimist banquet held in the Silver Room of the Hume Saturday evening when the award was made. Dr. Ley, recipient of the award, is a 1948 graduate of the Toronto Medical School and is now completing her fourth post graduate course preparatory for her final degree in internal medicine.

After the tasty dinner of roast turkey, Miss Leona Boss, president of the Nelson club, proposed the toast to the Queen. A toast to the out-of-town guests was proposed by Mrs. Sarah Tyler and was responded to by Miss Lennie MacNeill of Edmonton. Miss Dorothy Browning of Vancouver toasted the Soroptimist International, expressing the hope that the club would continue to expand and eventually be represented in every country in the world. The response was given by Mrs. Greta Currie of Winnipeg who credited the club with creating love and understanding among the world's citizens.

CASTLEGAR CLUB

An announcement that a new club had been inaugurated at Castlegar received congratulatory applause from the convention.

Miss Marion Barnum at the piano added her individual touch of buoyancy to the occasion with a musicale en miniature. Her numbers included three short Scarlatti sonatas, a set of three Chopin selections, "Waltz", "F Major Ballade" and "Etude in F", and "Spanish Dance" by Albeniz. For her final encore Miss Barnum played the impressive "Ritual Fire Dance" by de Falla. Her playing at its usual peak of perfection won her generous applause.

Two vocal solos by Miss Flora Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson delighted the appreciative audience. Miss Johnson sang "Connais-tu le Pays?" from the opera "Mignon" by Ambroise Thomas and "I Have Twelve Oxen" by John Ireland.

FAIRS EXPERT

Miss Amy Hall of Regina, one of the two guest speakers for the evening told the convention about her particular line of work in managing the arrangements for the three Regina exhibitions, the Summer fair, the Fall show of sheep and swine and the Spring show of horses, cattle, and swine when an auction of pure breed livestock is also held. Miss Hall told of arrangements that had to be made to have all exhibits fed and stalled, of the ordering of thousands of tickets, the prize ribbons and most of all she stressed the dependence on the weatherman.

Miss Hall traced the beginnings of fairs back to ancient times when fairs were a means of exchanging goods, even between warring peoples. Fairs, she said, have always been a means of exchanging ideas and culture.

The present day industrial exhibitions, Miss Hall said, are responsible to a large extent for improved agriculture, better livestock and for showing the farmer how to produce the best.

The second speaker, Mrs. Robbie Robertson of Victoria, told of her antique business, interspersing her talk with a few bits of humor which delighted her listeners. Mrs. Ross told of fabulous collections she had handled and others she had been fortunate enough to see in her travels.

Mrs. Robertson came out from Scotland 35 years ago and had spent almost all of that time in Victoria, starting out in business selling fine china and antiques, and eventually having to have two stores, one for her thriving trade in china and the other for her precious antiques. Mrs. Robertson deals only in period antiques and Georgian silver.

Before the session was brought to a close, Mrs. Frank Mah of the Travel Service showed an interesting travelogue of Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The film was of special interest since the International Soroptimist convention is to be held in Copenhagen, Denmark, in August of this year.

Greenwood Couple United in Marriage

GREENWOOD, B. C.—On Easter Monday morning, nuptial high mass was celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church, when Clara Shigamatsu and Mr. Eugene Hamagishi were united in marriage by Rev. Father Aeden Davis, S.A.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was attired in a long flowing dress of white satin with an over skirt of lace, with a deep yoke and long sleeves of nylon. Her embroidered veil was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms and fell to train length. Miss Mary Shigamatsu, cousin of the bride, was dressed in ankle-length pale pink, silver-embroidered dress with tiny cap to match and Master Hiroshi Shigamatsu, brother of the bride, and dressed in a white satin suit were the two small train-bearers. The bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Marjorie Shigamatsu was her sister's bridesmaid and was tastefully attired in powder blue, with a chapel veil, and carried a sheaf of pink carnations.

Mr. Eugene Fujisawa supported the groom and ushers were Mr. F. Nakagawa and Mr. S. Shigamatsu.

At noon, a tasty luncheon was served in the W. I. Hall, by the Women's Institute. About 70 guests were present and the hall was beautifully decorated with white streamers and bells. The head table, for the bridal party was tastefully decorated with deep rose-pink tulips and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake which the bride cut.

Many of the guests were members of the bride's graduating class of 1950, and several of the teachers were present, besides some out-of-town guests. The bride's sister, Miss S. Shigamatsu, her aunt, Mrs. Y. Nagata, and also Miss E. Armstrong, all of Vancouver, the groom's brother, Mr. J. Konori of Vancouver, were present.

For the honeymoon, the young couple left by car for the U.S.A. and Pacific Coast. The bride's going-away costume was a yellow suit, topped with a beige short coat with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The bride tossed her bouquet and Miss T. Yodagawa was the lucky guest.

Trans-Lake Power Line Means Much to Area, Calls For Tourist Viewpoint

The spectacular drama of man overcoming one of the typical problems presented industrial development by this region's rugged topography has drawn to a close over Kootenay Lake, and today the world's longest overhead power transmission lines drapes over two miles from shore to shore. As electric power from the Kootenay River plants a few miles downstream from Nelson go coursing through the conductors the implications of the new engineering development are obvious. It means that new industry will be possible in the East Kootenay, it means more jobs, greater payrolls, and in some sections light at the touch of a switch where gas and oil lanterns had to suffice before.

The ores of the historic Bluebell will soon be added to the Kootenay's mineral output, already the greatest in the province. Creston will have the additional power it wants to carry out needed expansion, the agricultural communities of Wynndel, Erickson, Kitchener and the Lister-Huscroft area all expect improvements with the electrification. For the first time hydro-electric power from the Cominco and West Kootenay Power and Light Company plants will be available to the resorts and farms from Kootenay Bay, through Crawford Bay, Gray Creek, Boswell, LaFrance, Sanca, Kuskanook and Sirdar.

Over the mountains still a further new transmission line is to go, and eventually that will bring energy 90 miles to a great new industry, Cominco's $9 million fertilizer plant at Marysville, and to the record-sized Sullivan mine and mill workings at Kimberley. The entire project is an example of man employing his intelligence to leash elemental forces to accomplish his will for better conditions.

Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company didn't have it as an intention when it began the tremendous project, but it has, in fact, created a tourist attraction of the first order in its trans-lake transmission line. The conductors that hang like a giant's clothesline across the waters are spectacularly located in a mountain and lake setting; they are 3000 feet longer than the world's next longest line in Switzerland.

It is to be hoped that the Department of Public Works will do its part by constructing a suitable viewpoint for the cars of visitors on the Balfour-Kaslo road, and that the Chambers of Commerce of the area will erect a suitable record board describing the feat, providing pictures and figures near the site of the undertaking. These simple additions will enhance the tourists' interest in an obvious attraction

A Look From The Outside

(Los Angeles Mirror)

While the United States Government is wallowing in deficits, Canada is enjoying its greatest surplus in history.

When the fighting started in Korea, and both nations embarked on a program of rearmament, the Canadians and Americans attacked the problem of inevitable inflation differently.

The U.S. chose to impose price controls. Canada chose to put controls on available credit. These are, for all practical purposes, directly opposite approaches. One method attempts to put a lid on the boiling pot and sit on it. The other—credit controls—lowers the fire under the pot.

At first, without price controls, Canadian prices rose faster than U.S. prices. However, since that time the Canadian credit controls have choked off inflation. Canada, in avoiding price controls, has also avoided the voluminous red tape and the costly machinery of a price control bureau. We've got both, and haven't done as good a job as Canada, with its simpler, workable credit control.

Canada has licked its inflation problem. Canadian prices are decreasing without price controls. Her currency is so sound that it has recently commanded $1.05 to the United States dollar in international exchange.

It might be a smart idea for us to send a delegation to Ottawa, hat in hand, to find out how they do it.

Right Side Up Again

Because we believed O. Henry we had always assumed that, if you could catch the sharper who sold you the Brooklyn Bridge, he might be clapped into the bastille. Because, in our youth, we had faith in Alfred Henry Lewis, we had cherished the illusion that the man who sold you a mining claim on the court house lawn could be landed in the calabozo—that is, if you could drag the varmint before the nearest alcalde.

All these charming fairy tales were shattered, however, when a Federal District Court in Mississippi ruled that for a politician to sell appointments to offices that didn't exist might be a sin but was not a crime. So indictments accusing certain Democratic State Committeemen of peddling ration board jobs, when there weren't any ration board jobs, were placed in doubt.

Now the Supreme Court, albeit by the narrowest of margins, has set our world right again. Said Mr. Justice Frankfurter for the majority:

"It is no less corrupt to sell an office one may never be able to deliver than to sell one he can. . . . There is no indication that this statute punishes delivery of the fruit of the forbidden transaction—it forbids the sale."

Which, we opine, is what just about everybody has thought all along.—Christian Science Monitor.

Into Socialism

Down in the State of Oregon the barbers of Portland are distributing an initative petition to get a State law to close all barber shops on Monday. They want a five-day week, too, and they want a law to compel all barber shops to close on Monday.

Of course, if the barbers work only five days a week it stands to reason they can get less done than when they worked six days. It is a simple matter of arithmetic that a barber can perform fewer hirsute operations in five days than he can in six. That means he cannot earn as much, unless the price of a haircut goes up. Perhaps that is the strategy of the Monday closing move.

If that is the case, why wouldn't it simplify everything for all barber shops to close six days a week, and on the one day they open their doors charge $5 for a haircut?

The whole thing is becoming absurd. In a world which is crying for goods and services, the only answer to the problems of the day is greater production. That means more men should work more hours to produce more goods.

But under the strange economy of the day the cry is for shorter hours, which in turn reduces production and raises costs, while more people turn to the Government for support and relief.

Unless we get over this mania for passing laws to compel people to work less, the end of free enterprise is not far off. When private initiative is hamstrung by too many laws it quickly languishes and dies. Then we enter the socialist state.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Housewife, Nelson — Is it true that nylon stockings wear longer if put in the refrigerator after wearing? And is it safe to boil odd colors together so that they come out all the same shade?

There is apparently no truth in the current rumor that ice-box treatment lengthens the wearing life of nylons. Scientists are definite about it; cold neither increases nor decreases the life of nylon stockings. Regarding the second question, many women boil together lone stockings of different shades and it is true they come out practically one shade; but many women also find the stockings so treated don't last more than two wearings. Provided a pair is made up of similar, if not identical, colors it can be worn without detection. A fawn and a grey, however, would look peculiar worn together.

Miss Joyce Hirst, Queen's Bay, comes to Nelson regularly to give lessons. Write to her at above address for times and place.

Curious, Yahk — How much of Canada's lumber is exported?

About two-fifths.

Student, Kimberley — Which is the largest country in the world — not the largest continent or even empire, but the largest country without including colonies?

The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics is the largest country in the world in area. It stretches across two continents from the North Pacific Ocean to the Gulf of Finland. It occupies the Northern part of Asia and the Eastern half of Europe, from the Arctic to the Black Sea. Its Western borders touch Finland, the Baltic Sea, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Romania. On the South it is bounded by Romania, the Black Sea, Turkey, Iran, Afghanistan, China, Mongolian People's Republic, and Korea. In the far North-East the Bering Strait separates Russia from Alaska.

INVADERS OF GRAND BANKS

Last year there were 128 pair-trawling vessels from Spain on the Grand Banks. These pair-trawlers had started to make their appearance the previous year, although large Spanish trawlers operating by themselves had been fishing the Banks for several years previously.

As European waters are being fished out, European fishermen are coming to North American waters in increasing and alarming numbers. We have been able to contrive international conventions and regulations in relation to such activities as whaling and pelagic sealing; is it beyond our capacity to do as much to protect the greatest fishery of them all?—Halifax Chronicle-Herald.

BEGGARS DISAPPEAR

Few Canadian boys who are taking their first looks at approaching manhood can recollect seeing a man stop another on the street and ask for a dime or a quarter.

For a previous generation the sight was a common one.

Preoccupied by the rush of busy days which have been with us since the start of the Second World War, not many Canadians have paused to consider the arresting fact that street begging has been practically non-existent in most centres of the country for a period of 13 to 14 years.

Unemployment insurance and the plenitude of jobs during the period made it unnecessary for men with any self-respect at all to appeal for help promiscuously.

This is a sidelight, but an important sidelight, on the prosperity we have enjoyed in the past decade.—Fort William Times-Journal.

Trenchard Urges Strong R.C.A.F.

MONTREAL, April 20 (CP) — Marshal Trenchard of the R.A.F. said a strong air force is the most potent factor in the preservation of peace.

The British airman, on a three-weeks tour of Canada and the United States, was mainly responsible for the development of the R.A.F. and was its first chief of staff.

Speaking Friday at a dinner of the air force veterans of Montreal and the Montreal wings of the R.C.A.F. Association, Lord Trenchard said:

"You cannot move anywhere in the world without complete air superiority."

Nelson Tigers To Field Strong Club

Nelson Tigers, with two workouts under their belts, look like a much stronger club than the one that beat Rossland last year for the West Kootenay Senior Baseball championship.

With more than 20 prospects out now and several more expected, the ex-Peerless-8 squad should be improved at every position by the time the league season rolls around early next month.

Addition of right-hander Marsh Severyn, member of the Bentleys' Delisle, Sask., Gems last season, will add class to the pitching corps while the club also has hopes of landing another import chucker to go with holdovers Les Hufty and Jimmy Todd.

Swede Larsen has returned for backstop duties after a year's absence, and will be the first-string receiver with Charlie Christensen, who had the job most of last season, ready for relief chores.

Red Wassick will again hold down the initial sack while Bob (Brown Bear) Koehle, who missed most of last season with a broken ankle is back again for second-base duties.

Carl Locatelli, the West Kootenay loop's leading batsman with a .455 mark last season, will be ready for shortstop or the hot corner while Fritz Koehle will be available for third base or an outfield spot.

Two youngsters who saw a lot of infield action last year, second baseman Dunc Kennedy and shortstop Joe Postnikoff, are also trying for regular berths.

Last year's regular outfield of Red Koehle in left, Bill Haldane in centre and Frank Hufty in right, will be back with Jimmy McNabb and Ernie Gare rounding out the corps.

Several more newcomers are expected to try out for the club, which holds its next workout Tuesday evening.

Dodgers Won't Let Up in '52 Says Robinson

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN, April 19 (AP) — Jackie Robinson, brilliant Brooklyn second baseman, says "incentive" is the difference between the current Dodger team and the one that lost the 1951 pennant after holding a 13-game lead in August.

"The boys don't talk much about it," Robby said, "but blowing last year's big lead still weighs heavy in their minds. Although we lost more because of the Giants' amazing finish than because of our own failures, the fellows feel that they've let the fans down.

"We're determined to win this season. More than any other year, We feel we've just got to do it. We owe something to the fans. You can tell the difference in the club house. There is no fooling around. No horseplay. Everything is strictly business. We're out to win every game."

Jackie rates the '52 Dodgers a stronger club despite the loss of 20-game winner Don Newcombe to the army.

"We've got some fine looking young pitchers on the club," he said. "That Ben Wade looks great, so does John Rutherford. Those two plus Clem Labine ought to make up those 20 wins we lost when Newcombe went into the army."

COX 'GREATEST FIELDER'

"Another thing to remember is this. We've got two players who are improved over last year—Billy Cox and Roy Campanella. Cox is the greatest fielding third baseman I have ever seen. And he's going to be one of our best hitters this season.

"It sounds funny to say that Campanella is improved. But he is. I'm glad I'm batting third this year ahead of him. He's going to make me the league's leading run-getter."

Allan, Memorial Cup Final Dates

KEMPTVILLE, Ont., April 20 (CP)—The Allan Cup and Memorial Cup hockey finals open this week, W. B. George, first vice-president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced today.

The first two games of the best-of-seven Allan Cup final between Stratford Indians and Fort Frances Canadians will be held at Fort William, Ont., April 22 and 24.

Balance of the fight for the senior amateur hockey championship of Canada will be at Fort Frances, Ont., with matches set for April 26 28, 30 and May 2 and 3 if necessary.

Opener in the best-of-seven Memorial Cup finals between Regina Pats and Guelph Biltmores is set for Guelph, Ont., April 25.

Balance of these junior amateur championship matches will be in Toronto April 27, 30, May 2, 4, 5 and May 6 or 7 if necessary.

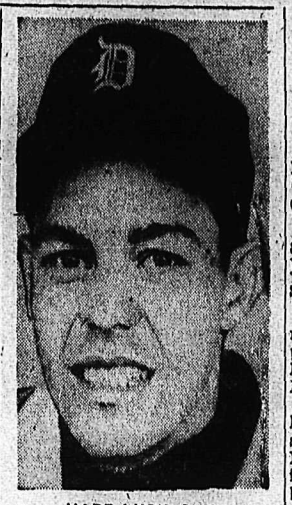
Hap Shculdice and Stan Pratt, both of Ottawa, will be referees for the Allan Cup tussle; Lorne (Windy) Lyndon and Vic Lindquist both of Winnipeg, will referee the Memorial Cup fight.

CLARK BREAKS WRIST

BOSTON, April 20 (AP) — Allie Clark, Philadelphia Athletics' outfielder, suffered a broken right wrist Saturday when he tripped over first base in the first game of a doubleheader with Boston Red Sox.

Clark's arm will be in a cast for 10 days.

Sox won the morning game 11-2.



HARD-LUCK GUY

. . . is Detroit Tigers' young hurler, Art Houtteman, who Sunday dropped his second straight one-run decision in as many starts this season, an ominous sign that ill fortune may continue to dog him again in 1952 as it did in 1949 when he dropped 14 straight, mostly by one run, before scoring a victory. Houtteman was nearly killed two years ago in a car accident and this Spring lost his infant daughter in another road mishap. The courageous 21-year-old is starting his career anew this season following discharge from the Army.

Fishing Activity in E. Kootenay Lakes

CRANBROOK, B.C.—Twin Lakes on the highway a few miles from Cranbrook yielded a few fish when the fishing season opened April 15, but the other 10 lakes open that day for fishing were still ice-locked or inaccessible because of mud.

Most popular fishing lakes do not open until May 1, except for Munroe, Mineral, Fish and Garbutt Lake which do not open until June.

Horseshoe in the vicinity of Bull River will not open again until 1954 to allow plantings of recent years to grow to appreciable size. This is initial step in an experimental rotation plan.

1952 regulation forbid use of fish-roe for bait in any waters of Cranbrook, Fernie and Columbia electoral districts. Also prohibited this season is use of gang-trolls in Munroe Lake. Gang-trolls have been outlawed for some time in Kootenay Lake, West Arm and Trout Lake.

Most lakes are open until November 14, but stream fishing on Palmer Bar Creek, which opens June 1, downstream to the Moyie River closes August 31.

CANADIANS SET WORLD MARK FOR DISTANCE RELAY

COLUMBUS, O., April 20 (AP)—The University of Michigan's mighty relay team, composed of three Canadians and one American, set a world record Saturday in the distance medley event at the Ohio relays.

The runners flashed home in 9:56.3 to win the first event. North Texas State Teachers' College set the previous record of 9:59.4 in 1938.

Aaron Gordon, only American on the team, ran an opening leg in 1:54.2 for the half mile. Jack Carroll, a native of Montreal, added the one-quarter second leg in :46.1; John Ross, of Oakville, Ont., did the third-quarter leg in 3:04.8, and Don McEwen, veteran from Ottawa, finished up in the mile with 4:11.2.

REGINA EARNS MEMORIAL CUP FINALS BERTH

REGINA, April 20 (CP) — Big Ed Litzenberger scored both Regina goals Saturday as the Pats defeated Fort William Hurricane's 2-1 to gain their second Memorial Cup hockey final berth in three years.

Litzenberger scored once in the second period and once in the third to bring Pats their victory and the best-of-seven Western Canada final 4-2 in games. Pats now meet Guelph Biltmores in the cup final.

More than 4500 fans went wild when Litzenberger scored the winner at the eight-minute mark of the third period after Pats had trailed 1-0 after the first and evened it in the second.

Joe Malo scored the lone Fort William goal to open the scoring. Alex Irving's tricky stickhandling enabled him to get a pass across the left side of the Pat net to Malo for the goal.

Only Unbeaten Club as Dodgers Drop First But Lead N.L.; Maglie, Garver Hot

By The Associated Press

The unbeaten Clevenland Indians went on the war path again Sunday, stretching their winning streak to seven games but their expected 1952 World Series foes, Brooklyn Dodgers, bit the dust for the first time this season.

Cleveland, blending fine pitching along with home runs, swept an American League doubleheader from the hapless Detroit Tigers, 3-2, and 7-2, to extend the Bengals' winless skein to seven games.

Sal Maglie halted Brooklyn's winning streak at five games as he pitched New York Giants to a 6-0 National League victory over the Dodgers in Ebbets Field.

Bob Lemon scattered seven tiger hits in the opener and won his second game of the season when Luke Easter homered with one out in the ninth off Art Houtteman to break a 2-2 tie.

Al Rosen poled two homers and Pete Reiser and Ray Boone one apiece to lead Cleveland to victory in the second game. Steve Gromek, a member of Cleveland's "Little Five", checked the Tigers on five safties.

The second place Boston Red Sox scored four runs in the seventh inning and went on to beat Washington Senators 6-3. Pinch-hitter Billy Goodman featured the Sox' big rally with a three-run homer. Starter Mel Parnell gained credit for his 16th straight victory over Washington.

GARVER AGAIN

Ned Garver pitched the amazing St. Louis Browns to an 8-0 two-hit victory over Chicago White Sox in the first game of a doubleheader at St. Louis. The White Sox won the second game 10-2. The game was called after seven innings because of darkness.

The Browns supported Garver's pitching with a 14-hit attack that included home runs by Tom Wright and Jim Rivera. Rivera drove in four runs. The victory was Garver's second straight shutout. The crowd of 25,801 was the largest for a Browns' home game since 1944.

Manager Casey Stengel shook up his lineup and the New York Yankees responded by beating Philadelphia Athletics 9-6 to halt a three-game losing streak. Johnny Mize was inserted in the cleanup spot and celebrated his promotion by driving in four runs.

Maglie struck out eight Dodgers including Carl Furillo four times in checking a three-game Giant losing streak, Roy Campanella singled in the fourth and Cal Abrams in the seventh for Brooklyn.

The shutout was the first suffered by the Dodgers at home in 176 consecutive games. Johnny Schmitz, now a Dodger, was the last to turn the trick. He blanked the Brooks on Aug. 25, 1949 for Chicago.

Ben Wade, 29-year-old Dodger rookie, allowed the Giants only six hits in eight innings but two of the blows were home runs by Dave Williams and Hank Thompson.

REDS WINS TWO

Cincinnati Reds took over second place in the National League from Chicago by trouncing Pittsburgh Pirates in a doubleheader, 8-6, and 12-2, while the Cubs dropped a 2-1 decision to St. Louis Cardinals.

Husky Ted Kluszewski drove home nine runs for the Reds on a pair of homers and two triples. He sent seven runs across in the nightcap, four on a grand-slam homer. Johnny Wyrostek also homered in the opener for Cincinnati while Joe Adcock connected twice in the second game.

Home runs acounted for all the scoring in Gerry Staley's triumph over Joe Hatten at Chicago. Steve Bilko clouted a two-run homer for the Cards in the fifth and Randy Jackson homered for the Cubs in their half of the fifth.

Del Ennis was the star and the goat as Philadelphia Phils divided a doubleheader with Boston Braves Ennis tripled home Willie Jones in the tenth inning of the first game to give the Phils a 4-3 victory.

The Braves won the second game, 2-1, scoring twice in the eighth on three singles and a wild throw by Ennis.

26 HOMERS SATURDAY

The rabbit ball made its first appearance of the season Saturday as major league batters connected for 26 home runs in nine games.

Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants set the pace hammering out nine homers in a game won by Brooklyn 11-6.

The record for most homers in one game by both clubs is 11, set last year by Detroit and New York.

Andy Pafko cracked two homers and Carl Furillo, Ray Campanella and Duke Snider one each to lead Brooklyn. Campanella, Pafko, and Snider homered in succession in the seventh to tie a major-league record shared by many.

Whitey Lockman collected two homers and Willie Mays and Wes Westrum one each for the Giants.

Chicago Cubs smeared St. Louis Cardinals 8-1 on home runs by Hank Sauer and Frank Baumholtz.

Home runs by Sam Jethroe and Ed Matthews aided Boston Braves to down Philadelphia Phillies 9-7. Gran Hamner homered for the Phils.

Cincinnati Reds whipped Pittsburgh Pirates 9-3 with Grady Hatton, Bobby Adams and Andy Seminick belting home runs.

Cleveland Indians made it five straight by turning back Detroit Tigers 7-5.

St. Louis Browns suffered their first defeat in five starts, bowing to Chicago White Sox 8-3.

Boston Red Sox captured a morning-afternoon doubleheader from Philadelphia Athletics 11-2 and 6-1 to move into second place one-half game behind Cleveland.

Don Lenhardt clouted a grand-slam homer to feature a seven-run uprising in the fourth inning of the opener.

Bob Porterfield pitched Washington Senator to a 2-0, six-hit victory over New Yorkers at Yankee stadium. Mickey Vernon drove in both runs.

CHESS IS A STRENUOUS SPORT

LONDON, April 20 (AP) — A young Russian chess expert said today Russian players train for the sport as a fighter would for a championship bout.

Mark Taimanov, who is also a concert pianist, said he keeps in shape for chess by participating in tennis, volleyball and swimming. Other players train by running, walking, and cycling, he added.

But the strangest methods of all, Taimanov said, are practiced by the world champion, Mikhail Botvannik.

"Before Botvannik plays a match in a Western country where smoking is not forbidden as in Russia, he spends three weeks with a companion, working out problems, while a radio blares in the background and his companion blows smoke in his face."

Quakers One Win From PCHL Title

SASKATOON, April 20 (CP) — Saskatoon Quakers Saturday night moved within one game of the Pacific Coast Hockey League championship when they defeated Victoria Cougars 7-2 before a packed house of more then 5200 fans.

The victory moved Quakers ahead 3-1 in games in the best-of-seven final series and the fifth game is scheduled here Monday night. Quakers lost the first game 4-3 at Victoria but won the next two 3-1 and 5-2. If more games are needed they will be played here Wednesday and Saturday.

Quakers broke slowly, matching Cougars single in the second, scoring two unanswered goals in the second and then outscoring Victoria 4-1 in the third.

George Senick, the guy who couldn't buy a goal in games at Victoria, set a blistering scoring pace with three goals and two assists. Playing coach Doug Bentley, Neil Strain, Tommy Fowler and Ken Hunter scored the others.

Les Hickey and Bob Frampton scored for Cougars.

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP) — Sandy Saddler, world featherweight boxing champion, will be inducted Monday, it was announced today by the Army Recruiting Service. Saddler served a brief hitch in the Navy at the close of the Second World War.

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Still smarting from bad political forecasts in 1948, U. S. newspaper editors have taken advice on how to avoid red faces this November.

Two anti-error prescriptions were offered to the anual meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors:

1. Use "more legwork and headwork and less guesswork."

2. Find out what the people are thinking, not what politicans say.

Basil L. Walters, executive editor of the Knight Newspapers, told 400 editors on the closing day of the convention that they forgot four years ago that "a good legman is still the backbone of a good newspaper."

"In 1948 newspaper men whose legs were tired were so convinced that they knew the final outcome that they covered politicians and fellow newspaper men and not the people.

"Mr. Truman, no matter what his sins may be, is a good leg man and a hard fighter. He sensed what we as newspaper people failed to sense, and by becoming a legman candidate he won the election."

Saturday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Market Trends

Canadian issues were mixed. Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker each gained ⅛. Dome Miens was off ⅛, McIntyre dropped ¼, International Nickel remained unchanged and Distillers Seagram was not quoted.

TORONTO (CP) — Except for Western oils prices in all sections slipped steadily to mid-session.

Western oils held firm in the face of the decline to climb three-quarters of a point on the exchange's indices within the first hour.

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices were mainly steady at mid-session. Trading was dull.

Most issues traded unchanged and the few changes were limited to fractions either way.

NELSON DAILY NEWS, MONDAY, APRIL 21, 1952 — 9

ENTOMOLOGISTS—the experts on bugs—are warning that nature is ready to release a scourge of caterpillars across Ontario. An egg count of the tent caterpillar larva on trees from North Bay to Sault Ste. Marie indicated that the number of tiny leaf-chewing bugs on the march this May will be the greatest on record. In other years they have left thousands of acres of trees as bare as the one shown here.—Central Press Canadian.

Views From the News Fronts

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

The next few weeks will be critical ones for the future of Germany. It will be interesting to watch Soviet manoeuvres.

Soviet thrusts and dodges to prevent West Germany's final integration in Western defence plans have been unsuccessful in recent weeks but each thrust tended to create doubts in the German mind.

The Soviet zone Communists have called for mass strikes against the forthcoming peace contract between West Germany and the Western allies.

But Communists lack strength in West Germany to carry the ball alone. Any action intended to stave off the signing of the peace contract in May will have to come from the Kremlin.

Soviet moves up to now have been strong but not strong enough. The U.S.S.R. has played heavily on the theme of German unity but has failed to convince West Germans that the Kremlin wants free elections. It rejected United Nations supervision over elections and substituted a proposal for four-power supervision.

The Kremlin has only a few weeks left in which to act decisively. If it bid to stop the peace contract is to have any hope of success it must be a major grandstand play. The manoeuvre must have the look of an unheard-of concession to Western demands.

Western diplomats inside Germany have pointed out one beartrap in the making. A Soviet offer to pull its occupation troops out of East Germany.

It would be a move the West could not easily match. Soviet troops pulled out of Germany still would dominate the East sector. They have only to draw back as far as the new Polish border along the Oder-Niesse line. The Russians would leave behind two units—a trained, Communists-dominated bereitschaften (alert units) organized on a military plane, plus thousands of Tolkspolizei (people's police.)

Cushy Barracks Ready, Manitoba

SHILO, Man., April 20 (CP)—First of four post, new-type army barracks providing enlisted men with such things as carpeted floors, bed lamps and automatic washing machines was opened at the big army camp here last week.

A far-cry from tar-papered barracks of the Second World War, the $2,500,000, E-shaped block is named Fort Assiniboine. It houses 250 men who sleep two or four to a room. Tiled showers glitter with chrome. Special equipment is installed for washing webbing equipment. Each man has his own writing desk.

The first unit will house the army's permanent school of artillery men. Students are expected to occupy older quarters.

Aviation Writers' Award Sponsored

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Six editors and aviation executives have been named to decide which Canadians turn in the best articles on aviation in a contest sponsored jointly by the Air Industries and Transport Association of Canada and the Aviation Writers' Association.

The contest offers a series of awards "designed to encourage accurate, significant and interesting aviation writing in Canada."

The judges:

R. J. Churchill, executive editor of the London Free Press and President of the Managing Editors' Association; Herve Major, news editor of Montreal La Presse and President of the Canadian Press; James J. Haggerty, military editor of American Aviation Magazine and President of the Aviation Writers' Association in the U.S.; Sir William Hildred, Director-General of the International Air Transport Association; Air Vice-Marshal Allan Ferrier, Assistant Secretary-General of the International Civil Aviation Organization; Grant McConachie, President of Canadian Pacific Air Lines and President of the Air Industries and Transport Association.

The contest is open to all Canadian writers and those resident in Canada and there is no restriction on the type of aviation articles submitted. Point of publication may be anywhere providing they appeared between Sept. 1, 1951, and Sept. 1, 1952.

There will be a first prize of $150 and a second prize of $100 in each of four classifications and a grand prize of $100.

Mosher-McGuire Case, Tuesday

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—A court action brought by A. R. Mosher, Presidetn of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, against James E. McGuire, expelled Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, has been set for hearing next Tuesday.

Mr. Justice W. F. Spence of the Ontario Supreme Court at a hearing last week extended until that time an interim injunction restraining Mr. McGuire from further spreading alleged libellous statements about Mr. Mosher.

Mr. Mosher has filed suit against Mr. McGuire for libel in connection with a statement issued by the latter after his expulsion from the C.B.R.E.

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)—A new, reduced menu for the Vancouver city jail has been approved by the Police Commission.

The change has been effected because prisoners are sending back trays loaded with uneaten food.

Biggest cuts made were in supplies of meat and cheese. The Commission said heavy eaters will still be able to get seconds of porridge and stew.

British Clerics Welcome New Version of King James' Bible

By EDWIN S. JOHNSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 20 (CP)—Publication in New York of a revised standard version of the Bible will be welcomed by prominent churchmen in Britain.

The undertaking by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States has been followed with keen interest here as a new translation of the Bible is already in progress in the United Kingdom. This venture, launched five years ago under the direction of a joint committee of the churches, is not expected to be ready for the printers for another 10 years.

Rev. John K. S. Reid, Secretary of the British Committee, said many people of varying interests would welcome the American version which is easily distinguishable from the new translation project on which the Churches of Britain have embarked.

"The considered and carefully-chosen intention here is to produce a new translation," he said. "The American design was to revise an earlier translation in the light of modern scholarship. There is no doubt, room for both projects."

Emphasizing that his comment was strictly a personal view, Mr. Reid added: "A revision is less likely than a quite new translation to startle into new realization of the message of the Bible the minds that have become almost too accustomed to the smooth familiarity of the authorized version.

"But the form which the American scholars have imparted to it will commend the Bible in the case of those who, alienated by the strangeness of the biblical vocabulary and thought, have hitherto found it offensively unintelligible."

TO BE CLOSELY STUDIED

An Anglican spokesman said the new Bible, sponsored with the concurrence of the Canadian Council of Churches, was sure to be carefully considered in Britain.

Another remarked that while constant research of scholars should result in a more accurate text, many would consider that the particular beauty crystallized in the authorized version could never be surpassed.

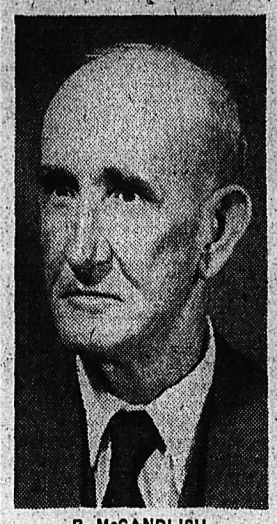
"In the light of present-day knowledge," he said, "flaws of scholarship may appear, but the majesty of its language has taken root in our national life and thought."

The move for a new British translation was initiated in 1946 by the General Assembly of The Church of Scotland. Following a series of conferences a joint committee was set up representative of the Church of England, the Methodist Church of Great Britain, the Congregational Union of England and Wales and the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland.

Later, invitation to send representatives were accepted by The Presbyterian Church of England, The Society of Friends, the Churches in Wales, the Churches in Ireland, The British and Foreign Bible Society, The National Bible Society of Scotland and University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge.

The joint committee has been entrusted with the final responsibility for completing the work. From its own members the committee appointed Prof. T. H. Robinson, of London, as convener of the Old Testament and Apocrypha translation panels, with Dr. C. H. Dodds, formerly of Cambridge University, in charge of the New Testament and the Bishop of Durham, convener of the literary panel.

Familiar Figure on Nelson Ferry For 21 Years, R. McCandlish, Retires



R. McCANDLISH

One of Nelson's well known oldtimers and a familiar figure on Nelson Provincial Government ferry for the past 21 years, Reuben (Rube) McCandlish, retired, effective April 1. He has been resident here 54 years and plans to remain in Nelson.

Throughout his 21 years of service, Mr. McCandlish has missed only two or three weeks, due to illness.

Mr. McCandlish, who was born in Brandon, Manitoba, moved to Kananaskis, Alberta, in 1886 and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCandlish and 10 brothers and sisters, moved to Nelson in 1898 where he received a portion of his education and worked at many different trades.

He began employment in Nelson as a "printer's devil" (apprentice) on the Daily Miner in 1898-99 at the time when such oldtimers as the late W. G. MacMorris, Harry Hubbard, Jim Hill, who is now in Calgary, Hiram Maltby, who is retired and living in Nelson, the late Dick James and Leo Brown worked there and the late W. A. Jowett was owner. He was about 12 years old at the time, after working for the Miner for a few months. Mr. McCandlish returned to school, taking part time employment with the C.P.R. telegraph office as messenger boy. Here he continued to work until 1904 after leaving school.

From the C.P.R. he became an apprentice printer for the Nelson Tribune when John Houston was owner and the paper was still a weekly before becoming a daily a year later.

IN HOTEL BUSINESS

From apprentice printer Mr. McCandlish turned his hand to the hotel business to work with his father, W. E. McCandlish, in the Silver-King Hotel. They sold the business in 1907 to open a billiard room in the basement of the K.W.C. Block and later moved to the site of the old Tribune office where the National Employment office is situated. In 1909 they decided to sell the billiard equipment and opened the Gem Theatre which they later sold to Johnson and Meachen.

Mr. McCandlish again returned to the newspaper business, this time to the Daily News where he ran the mailing department for two years under the managing editor, W. G. Foster.

No Jazz Music in Soviet Russia

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, April 20 (AP)—There's a lively discussion going on in the Soviet Union about jazz and the conclusion is—there can be no such thing as Soviet jazz.

Most of the opinions are being expressed in the newspaper Soviet Art, which admits it has received letters from all parts of the country on the jazz question.

"Side by side with a sharp condemnation of American jazz music," said the paper, "certain readers touch upon the question of 'Soviet jazz.'"

These people ask: "Why cannot Soviet jazz exist?"—"how does a variety orchestra differ from a jazz orchestra?" — "are not many jazz instruments included in the variety orchestras conducted by Utesov, Knushevitsky, Alvazyan?" (These three lead what are perhaps the most popular light music bands.)

SUGGEST TANGO

Certain other readers have suggested that if the "roaring" and "croaking" of jazz has no place in the Soviet way of life, then maybe there's room for the tango and the slow fox trot.

Comrade Suslov of Moscow, in a letter to the paper, got the notion somehow that light Soviet music is jazz music.

"We have no jazz songs by Soviet composers, comrade Suslov," said Soviet Art, "but there are Soviet mass songs and variety songs. If the influence of jazz is felt in some of these, this by no means is characteristic of Soviet song creations, but only indicates that deficiencies in the creative works of certain composers and singers have not yet been overcome."

Bolivia Protects Closed Newspaper

LA PAZ, Bolivia, April 20 (AP)—Propaganda Minister Hugo Roberts has announced that La Razon, chief newspaper opposing the new revolutionary government, will have to stay closed for a few days until the anger of the hot-tempered, armed populace dies down.

But he said the government still sticks to its promise of freedom for the press. He said popular feelings soon will cool and La Razon will be able to resume publication without danger of threatened militia raids. Such a threat kept it from publishing last week.

La Razon is owned by Victor Carlos Aramayo, one of Bolivia's big tin mine owners. It is the largest newspaper in Bolivia and has frequently criticized the National Revolutionary Party, which won power in last week's brief but bloody revolution.

Quote Stalin's Son On Katyn Massacre

LONDON, April 20 (AP)—A son of Premier Stalin was quoted Saturday as having said the Russians "probably" exterminated Polish intellectuals in the Katyn Forest massacre.

Testimony to this effect, purportedly given by a former Polish army officer, was disclosed to a press conference by the United States Congressional Committee investigating the wartime massacre. The committee has completed four days of closed hearings in London.

The son quoted was Jacob Stalin (or Djugashivili), elder son of the Soviet boss. Jacob has been missing since 1941 when he was captured by the Germans while serving as a senior lieutenant in the Russian army.

The witness, testifying under oath, was George Lewszecki. Lewszecki said he met Jacob in Luebeck prison camp in Northeast Germany.

Lewszecki testified he asked Stalin about the Katyn Forest massacre after receiving letters blaming it on the Russians.

According to Lewszecki, Stalin said the reports were "probably correct," that he had heard in Russia of the "extermination of intellectuals in one camp near Smolensk after there had been an uprising in camp."

Lewszecki testified the camp Stalin referred to was one of three which held the 15,000 Polish officers and intellectuals who died in the massacre.

In the cross-barrage of charges hurled by the Germans and Russians, who accuse each other of the massacre, the Russians have maintained the murders occurred after the German invasion of Rsusian 1941.

The committee will hold hearings in Frankfurt, Germany, from April 21 to 26 before returning to Washington.

Alta. Farmers Demand Equal Cattle Prices

EDMONTON, April 20 (CP)—The Farmers' Union of Alberta Saturday urged a uniform floor price for cattle under the Federal Government's support program.

In a telegram to Agriculture Minister Gardiner, President Henry G. Young said there is no justification for prices in Alebrta being lower than in Toronto.

"All contribute to the subsidy that is paid to help the East get Western food, this subsidy being applicable on eastbound shipments from the head of the Great Lakes," said Mr. Young.

"There should be a uniform floor price for cattle and the same principle also should be applied to hog prices."
