Aluminum Strikers Add To Million U. S. Idle

Fail in 11th-Hour Attempt to Solve Differences; Threat to Economy

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17 (Monday)—(AP)—Some 16,000 aluminum workers struck today, making nearly 1,000,000 workers idle in strikes across the United States.

The new strike came as the steel and coal walkouts continued with no sign of peace. Government negotiators, however, continued their efforts to end the stalemates.

In Washington, Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer Grimly predicted that the steel strike, now two weeks old, will leave 5,000,000 idle if it continues to Dec. 1.

William Margoli of the United States Conciliation Service made a futile, 11th-hour attempt Sunday to head off the strike of the United Steelworkers Union (C.I.O.) against the Aluminum Company of America.

A company spokesman, however, said his visit accomplished nothing.

The strike became effective at 12:01 a.m. in nine Alcoa plants.

UNION REFUSES

An Alcoa spokesman said that the company "again expressed willingness to work out details of a settlement and postponement of the strike action," but that the Union refused to go along.

A Union spokesman said only that "the situation is unchanged."

Philip Murray, C.I.O. and United Steelworkers President, said settlement of the two-week-old steel strike now is "in the lap of the gods."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP) — Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer said tonight that the steel strike in the United States will make 5,000,000 persons idle if it runs to Dec. 1—and will have badly damaged the country's economy.

Already, he said, strikes and threats of strikes have changed what he termed a definite upward trend in business and employment. This had held almost all Summer "until about two weeks ago," when the steel strike began.

Sawyer expressed concern for more than 200,000 small manufacturing firms and additional thousands of service establishments which he said depend on steel.

He said reports to his Department suggest that many small firms will be forced to close their plants if steel-inventory replacements do not become available before Nov. 15, Aid he added that far too many of them would not have the capital to reopen.

Sawyer's statement said the strike has curtailed steel production to 10 per cent of capacity.

"It is estimated that by Jan. 1 there will in effect, be a complete shutdown in the metal-consuming industries."

There was no immediate indication that Sawyer's survey might be the advance signal for some drastic Government move.

Czechs Continue Middleclass Purge

More Properties Confiscated; Ban Circulation of Papal Encyclicals

PRAGUE, Oct. 16 (AP) — The Communist-led Government of Czechoslovakia cracked down again Saturday.

Marked for confiscation and nationalization of properties were:

1. Hundreds of resorts and mineral springs dotting the country.
2. Nine more export and import firms and 22 wholesale enterprises.

The new steps, announced in the official Gazette, are in keeping with the reported intention of the Government to liquidate the middle class by the end of the year.

The official Gazette also disclosed a new blow at the Roman Catholic Church. Papal encyclicals cannot be circulated in Czechoslovakia without violating the law.

President Klement Gottwald signed two church laws passed Friday which go into effect Nov. 1.

Armed with the legal power in these acts to take over administration of the churches, put the clergy in the pay of the state, and control appointments and finances, Communist leaders warned that the first loyalty of priests and preachers is to the state, not the church.

The country's Roman Catholic bishops have denounced the measures as "anti-social and unjust."

Secrecy of Ballot Feared Violated After Probe of Regina Election

REGINA, Oct. 16 (CP) — A Commissioner inquiring into the counting of ballots in Regina City constituency during the Federal election June 27 has expressed fear the "secrecy of the ballot" was violated.

Chief Justice J. T. Brown of the Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench said Saturday that if the poll book had been open to public scrutiny, numbered ballots possibly could reveal the name of a voter and the candidate for whom he had cast his vote.

Chief Justice was appointed to conduct the inquiry by former Chief Eelectoral Officer Jules Castonguay after J. C. Probe, defeated C.C.F. candidate, protested that Judge B. D. Gofarth disallowed during a recount 460 ballots which the Deputy Returning Officer counted on election night.

Dr. E. A. McCusker, the Liberal candidate, was declared elected with a plurality of 162 votes after the recount.

During the five-day inquiry, which ended Saturday, an R.C.M.P. handwriting specialist, Staff Sgt. H. H. Radcliffe, expressed the opinion some ballots became marked because a D.R.O. filled in numbers on the ballot counterfoil without first removing the ballot from the pad.

Mr. Probe had requested an investigation of the marked ballots, all of which, contrary to election regulations, were marked with a number.

Sgt. Radcliffe said the markings apparently were made through carbons when the D.R.O. wrote the voters number and initials on a ballot while using unused ballots as a writing pad.

"If the carbon off-set markings which appeared on Regina ballots have been duplicated anywhere else in Canada, and I have no doubt they have, then the secrecy of the whole Canadian vote has been jeopardized," Chief Justice Brown said.

He suggested during the inquiry that the style of ballot should be changed. He believed the best means of overcoming the difficulty would be to use a lighter, more permanent ink for borders around the names of the candidates and the counterfoils.

The Chief Justice indicated his report on the investigation would not be completed for at least two weeks. His findings will be forwarded to Ottawa, where the report will be placed before the Commons. It will remain secret until then.

REFUSES COMMENT

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP)—Nelson Castonguay, Canada's chief electoral officer, said tonight he was "not in a position" to comment on the findings of a royal commissioner that the secrecy of the whole Canadian vote may have been jeopardized.

M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the C.C.F. Party, said he "would much prefer to make no comment or statement until I have been able to study Chief Justice Brown's official report."

Asked by The Canadian Press if he had received any reports of numbers appearing in carbon on any ballots at other recounts held following the June 27 election, Mr. Castonguay replied:

"I have received no report of any similar findings from any other judge who officiated at a recount."

In reply to a second question of whether carbon paper was used in ballots for the Federal election, Mr. Castonguay said "no carbon paper is used in ballots whatsoever."

Aside from his replies to the direct questions, Mr. Castonguay would say nothing concerning Chief Justice Brown's findings.

"It is impossible to comment on a thing like this. I will have to wait until I receive the official report from the commissioner and study its findings and the evidence contained in it."

Teachers Seek Federal Aid, Higher Trained Personnel, 12 Pay Checks

ROSSLAND, B.C., Oct. 16—Federal aid for education was demanded by teachers of West Kootenay and Boundary Saturday afternoon as they closed their three-day Rossland convention.

The 300 teachers also:

1. Asked that School Boards be "emphatically" made to solicit every available certificated teacher before hiring an untrained one.

2. Passed a resolution to have their annual income paid in 12 equal installments, rather than 10.

3. Heard a suggestion that future West Kootenay conventions incorporate workshops, with the teachers working in smaller groups to gain more "actual" knowledge.

A resolution to take "active steps to back the British Columbia Teachers Federation in its program for federal aid" was unanimously approved. Moved by D. G. Chamberlain, Vice President of B.C.T.F. and Principal of Rossland High School, it was the outcome of the Federation's appeal for aid from the locals.

During the sessions speakers outlined the need for this help, stressing that with the higher cost of living Provincial incomes had become heavier taxed. Education costs, along with all others, had risen and the Provinces could not afford to give the necessary help, it was said.

Dominion Government could better assist, it was said, with its surplus.

"GREAT ALARM"

The number of uncertificated teachers in class rooms was reason for "great alarm," Fred B. Tassman of New Denver said in offering a resolution to have trained personnel placed first. "In our own district alone, eight out of 28 are uncertificated."

He wanted to know "how hard" School Boards were trying to find trained teachers. "There are lots coming out of Normal School and training classes."

Agreement came from Stanley Evans of Vancouver, Assistant General Secretary of B.C.T.F. Mr. Evans said that as long as the Department of Education "continues to soft pedal high school graduates into Normal and then out to teach, we'll never attain the proper status."

The Department should maintain the standard it had set itself. However, it could not meet the demand for teachers in B.C. 'Should they close a school in the Slocan Valley, or keep it open as best they can?"

The "hardship" in budgeting for two extra months would be eliminated if teachers were paid in 12 installments, rather than 10, the convention decided. A resolution from Miss Margaret S. Slater of Edgewood, stating that "whereas teachers are paid 10 times a year and whereas there are 12 months in a year, be it resolved to have the salary paid in 12 equal installments" was passed.

DISAPPOINTMENT

Disappointment in "this convention and all conventions" was expressed by J. L. Canty of New Denver. "We're exposed to middle-age education philosophy, listening to speech after speech." Mr. Canty suggested that convention committees consider workshops, where teachers with common interests could get together and work out their problems. "That way we would gain knowledge."

Conventions in the past few years were the result of experience, Gerald Lee, Principal of Nelson High School said. In them it was attempted to present the aims and objectives of modern teaching methods.

The 1950-51 convention will be held in Trail.

RECAPTU[RE] 'DANGEROUS' PONOKA ESCAPEE

Two Men Use Chairs to Break Grille on Window

ONE STILL LOOSE

EDMONTON, Oct. 16 (CP)—A criminally insane murderer was recaptured tonight about 24 hours after he and a companion broke through a barred window at the Provincial Government mental home in Ponoka, Alta.

Described as "very dangerous," 20-year-old Mike Zachariuk, convicted of murdering his former employer, was recaptured near his former home at Two Hills, Alta., more than 100 miles from the institution.

Zachariuk and a 22-year-old inmate, Howard Otman, smashed through a metal grille on a window yesterday and escaped. Officials of the mental home said nobody saw Zachariuk and Otman, who is harmless, break out.

The pair were missed minutes after the escape and officials of the home alerted police in Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver. An official said Zachariuk and Otman used a chair in the room to smash the grille on the window.

Officials said Zachariuk had been returned to the institution but Otman still was at large. When police were alerted, the men were thought to be heading for Vancouver.

Zarchiuk was convicted Oct. 19, 1948 of the murder of his former employer William Pacholek. He was sentenced to be hanged Jan. 12, 1949, but was declared criminally insane and confined to Ponoka.

NATIONALIST CHINA SPLIT IN 3 CENTRES

Many Fronts Buckling Under Pressure of Reds

NEAR HONG KONG

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

HONG KONG, Oct. 16 (AP) — Communist columns sweeping through the Canton region to the South China Sea have split Nationalist China into three widely-separated centres of resistance.

Several minor nationalist positions, such as the island city of Amoy and the Chushan Islands, are under assaults that threaten their quick liquidation.

Other Nationalist fronts are buckling under the pressure of the Red Armies, spurred on by the unopposed occupation of Canton Saturday.

About 500,000 Nationalist troops confront the attackers, who outnumber them at least four to one.

Chungking, 600 miles by air Northwest of Canton and new seat of the Nationalist Government, is one of the major defence centres. Guarding the Northern and Eastern approaches to Chungking's Szechwan Province are about 175,000 troops under Generals Hu Tsungnan and Sun Hai-Lien.

The British steamship Anhui was hit by three shells. It limped into Hong Kong today with three Chinese passengers dead and 24 wounded.

The Chinese Communists Saturday night completed the occupation of Canton and reached the border of the British colony of Hong Kong.

Doubts Value Of Chemical to Prevent Blood Clots

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 16 (AP) — Dr. Alton Ochsner of Tulane University said Saturday he doubts that a chemical which offers some hope of preventing dangerous blood-vessel clots in surgical patients will be of any value in preventing clots associated with heart disease.

Several days ago, Ochsner and several associates were incorrectly quoted in an Associated Press dispatch as saying there is some hope the chemical may help prevent clots associated with heart disease.

The doctors made their original report to the 13th Congress of the International Society of Surgery which closed Saturday.

The chemical referred to is called "alpha tocopherol phosphate."

Dr. Ochsner said in an interview: "In the presence of diseased blood vessels, I doubt that this substance will prevent clotting."

He also said some mines were trying to establish company unions.

Mr. Stokaluk said that under the agreement the companies are required to pay three cents into the Miners' Welfare Fund for every ton of coal mined. He claimed some companies had not made this payment since June 30, and that their action constituted a violation of the agreement.

Women Delegates Toss Back Russ Charges

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 16 (CP)—Two women delegates from Britain and Canada Saturday vehemently tossed back Russian bloc charges in the United Nations that their countries are abusing immigrants and using slave labor.

Senator Cairine Wilson of Ottawa and Barbara Castle, youthful British Member of Parliament, spoke in the U.N. Assembly's 59-member Social Committee during a debate which grew out of a Polish resolution submitted Friday.

The resolution was aimed at the United States, France, Belgium and unnamed South American countries for alleged mistreatment of immigrant workers.

Alexander Panyushkin, Russia's Ambassador to Britain, told the committee Britain is "forcefully recruiting" displaced persons in Germany, "forwarding them to England" and keeping them in "continuation of the slavery begun under Hitler."

Replying for Britain, Mrs. Castle accused Russia of genocide, forced migration and the use of slave labor. Genocide is defined as mass destruction of a race or people.

Senator Wilson answered the accusations of Ivan P. Demtchenko of the Soviet Ukraine who said refugee labor in the Dominion is subject to discrimination.

The working conditions of displaced persons in Canada are comparable to those enjoyed by Canadian citizens, Senator Wilson said.

Dangers in inconsiderate use of firecrackers was pointed up when smouldering crackers caused at least two fires in Nelson Sunday at noon.

A fire at 12:30 Sunday, at the Williams Van Lines Ltd. building, caused small damage, approximately $5. Had it not been promptly reported, much more damage could have resulted, authorities said.

Cause of the fire was a firecracker, dropped in the doorway of the Ward Street building, which ignited sacking. The fire spread from the sacking into a case of furniture.

A second fire, 13 minutes afterwards, was started by firecracker in the awnings above Waite News, in the Fink Block on Baker Street. Damage was estimated at about $40.

Ideas on Drama, Red Cross, P.E. Heard in Teachers Discussions

ROSSLAND, B.C., Oct. 16—The thoughts and plans of teachers who handle youngsters' projects and sports were heard Saturday morning at a round table conference of the West Kootenay and Boundary Teachers convention here.

Under Chairman Gerald Lee, Principal of Nelson High School, teachers of drama, physical education, junior red cross and other activities outlined their ideas in a discussion on "The Teacher and the Co-Curricular Program."

Junior Red Cross was an international association, taking in the interests of children the world over, said Miss B. Smithson, Field Representative of the Provincial Junior Red Cross. She gave suggestions for Red Cross work—making of toys for spastic children, knitting for nurseries, candy sales, and mending clothes for overseas.

"In this way the youngsters understand the importance of their handiwork. A girl learns unselfishness, making a dress for a needy child overseas, rather than for herself.

One of the aims of drama was to have students go out into the community and take part in this "very worthwhile pastime," said H. S. Hurn, Director of School and Community Drama, Department of Education.

ACCESS TO CREDITS

Mr. Hurn believed, however, that the inclusion of drama in the curriculum "sometimes becomes just an access to credits." There was a movement under way to make the high school drama course a four-year one.

"There is a definite trend in English - speaking countries, toward drama," Mr. Hurn remarked. "The movie industry knows this and knows its limits. It's taking stock of itself, but it's a pity we have to see pictures planned for the lowest intellect."

A drama course was "invaluable," said Miss G. Reid, of the drama department, Trail High School. Miss Reid described the studies she had taken in London, England, Banff and the University of British Columbia, and said the enthusiasm in Trail High School was "tremendous."

Ideas behind physical education had changed in the last few years, W. W. Baldy, of Rossland High School explained.

It was no longer physical training to see how many pushups a student could do each day. "Now it's education and as such is a combination of mind and body to produce results. And it's results that are important."

Physical education period should definitely be one of teaching, Mr. Baldry said. Too many teachers threw a ball at the class and told it to play.

"They make teams out of the best fitted, ignoring the ones who really need training."

Some youngsters did not have the proper coordination for group games; "they are the ones who need help."

"Are these activities co-curricular or extra-curricular?", asked Floyd L. Irwin, Principal of the Nelson Junior High.

A few years ago they were considered outside the regular curriculum, but there had been a change of philosophy until they were "part and parcel of the school, students and teachers."

DEVELOP ALL FIELDS

Shortening of school hours and the squeezing out of some activities, had caused these activities to suffer, Mr. Irwin felt. He believed educators should refresh their minds to the basic philosophy that they must accept the responsibility of giving a child development in fields other than academic.

Saturday morning teachers also attended a display and discussion on non-projected visual aids. They saw displays of sand tables, murals, collections, decorated windows and Junior Red Cross work. Chairman of this section was W. Fromson, Principal of James L. Webster School at Warfield.

Finds "Opportunity" for Career Girls in North

By H. DENT HODGSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP) — Career girls might take a leaf from the notebook of Joan Witney, a Saskatoon girl who follows the "go North, yong woman" technique.

Back from her third Summer of nursing in the North, this charming, red-haired enthusiast is starting her third year in medicine at Queen's University, Kingston. She said in an interview during a visit here, that the North offers a "wonderful opportunity" for anyone interested in the life and people.

Joan ought to know. After graduating as a nurse in Saskatoon, she spent a full year as matron at the 20-bed Indian hospital at Norway House, on the Northern tip of Lake Winnipeg.

In the Summer of 1948, she worked for the Saskatchewan Government, relieving nurses for holidays at various Northern Saskatchewan nursing stations; Cumberland House Buffalo Narrows and Stoney Rapids.

Last Summer she joined the Federal Indian Health Service. Her boss was Dr. B. H. Harper, the Health Department's permanent doctor at Moose Factory. Her job involved moving around to various centres in the James Bay area—Albany, Attawapiskat, Moosonee and Rupert's House.

She and other nurses worked through the area, each on her own, holding inoculation clinics, making tent-to-tent visits, giving treatment, advice and medicine where necessary, and trying to encourage a more cleanliness and public health practices among the Indians.

The nurses travelled by plane or mission boats and stayed at Mission Houses, Hudson's Bay Company posts, or "wherever they can put us up."

Joan hopes to work with the Indian Health Service in future Summers until her medical course is completed. Then, armed with an M.D. after her name, she wants to go into the deep North. So far she has worked entirely among Indians, and she wants experience working with the Eskimos.

Any particular part of the North land she's interested in?

Just "East or West," says Joan, "as long as it's North."

Canada Building Continues Rise

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Building in Canada continues to run ahead of the record year 1948.

MacLean Building Reports, Ltd., gives total construction contracts for the first nine months of this year at $812,080,200, an increase of $67,-840,200 over the same period last year.

September's total was $103,317,900, or $23,588,700 ahead of September, 1948, and reversing sharply the slight downward trend of August.

MacLean Building Reports comments:

"With three months still to go in the year, and assuming volume in that period to be at least equal to that of last year, it is assured that contracts will exceed $1,000,000,000 for the first time since the inception of these statistics in 1913."

Last year's record total was $954,-082,400.

Housing again led in September, with business building and engineering contruction also up. Industrial construction declined slightly. The figures, with September, 1948, in brackets:

Residential $50,810,800 ($34,105,-400); business $35,907,800 ($29,787,-400); industrial $7,109,700 ($7,902,-100); engineering $9,489,600 ($7,934,-300).

Maritimes $6,038,900, down $2,000,-000; Quebec $42,198,700, up $13,400,-000; Ontario $30,839,700, up $10,250,-000; West $24,240,000, up $1,900,000.

Fruitvale to Deepen Creek

FRUITVALE, B.C., Oct. 16—The Fall meeting of the Fruitvale Ratepayers Association heard the Dumping Committee report that the dumping site approved by the Health Authorities had since been condemned, principle objectors being the promotors of the Montrose Subdivision. The Committee also reported that an alternative site had been purchased by Mr. Simmons on the O. Seifrit's property and would be operated by private parties. A protest against this site was handed the Secretary, bearing 20 signatures, all residents of the area around the Seifrit site, although not members of the Ratepayers Association. The Secretary was instructed to turn this over to the proper authorities, retaining a copy for the files. Mr. Stephenson was also present and spoke on the dumping problem.

As the Treasurer had tendered her resignation, Mrs. Rozelle Webster was elected by acclamation to finish her term, Mrs. F. Varseveld was appointed auditor.

The members present approved of steps being taken to have the Beaver Creek bed straightened and deepened, as the Spring rush of water is gradually wearing away valuable land.

The Secretary was appointed to interview the Bus Company to secure better bus service between here and Trail on Sunday nights.

The members also approved the recommendation of the Executive to assume the affairs of the Fruitvale Cemetery Company. A work party is to collect an accumulation of brush and rocks at the cemetery.

Caverns Under Ottawa Streets Lined With Gold

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP). — Deep lined with close to a billion dollars lined with colse to a billion dollars worth of pure gold.

Under close watch I was permitted to walk through these treasure caves of the Bank of Canada — 10 steel, electrically controlled and guarded cells.

Thousands of neat, glistening bricks of gold, each weighing 100 ounces and worth $3500 in U. S. currency, are stacked from floor to ceiling.

Not all of it belongs to Canada. Some of the yellow smooth-surfaced bricks are the property of foreign countries being stored in Canada for safekeeping.

Canada's share, it was estimated, would be close to $450,000,000—enough to cover all of the coutnry's imports from the U. S. for at least a three-month period.

The gold is piled on both sides of each cell, 36 bars to a steel shelf, 14 shelves to a tier, eight tiers to a wall.

Officers said once in a while armored cars pull up before the bank, load canvas bags of the gold and speed them to New York where American officials weigh and store the precious metal.

Thus Canada pays for what she some times owes the U. S. for buying more from that country than she sells.

Russia Reports Good Harvest

MOSCOW, Oct. 16 (AP) — The Soviet Government said today that Russia this year had reaped a record grain harvest, more than the nearly 130,000,000 tons cut in 1948 and 1940.

Those had previously been the record years.

(The amount of this year's production was not given.)

The Government also said that industrial production in the Soviet Union during the third quarter of 1949 was 17 per cent more than production during the same period in 1948.

The report said Soviet industry during the third quarter this year alsi had exceeded by two per cent goals previously set for it, but in a list of 22 Ministries operating industries, five had failed to fulfil their goals.

The Fish Ministry showed the biggest margin of failure—nine per cent under its quota. This Ministry has failed before to meet plans set for it.

Finds Too Much American Flag Waving in Canada

VANCOUVER, Oct. 16 (CP)—Is there too much waving of the Stars and Stripes in Canada?

"Yes," says the Vancouver Tourist Association.

After listening to mutterings about the United States flag being displayed in hardware stores, hamburger stands and haberdasher shops, Association Manager R. H. Baker said today the complaints are justified.

"We might as well just display a dollar sign," he said. "People here have the misguided notion that by showing an American flag, they're pleasing American tourists.

"They're not."

He said excessive American flag waving in Canada "rubs tourists the wrong way."

Potatoes, Pea Crops Lower, Beets Rise

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP) — Canada's 1949 potato crop is estimated at 49,600,000 hundredweight compared with last year's crop of 55,-300,000 hundredweight, the Bureau of Statistics reported today in new revised estimates.

The estimate, well below the 1948 crop compared favorably with the 10-year average of 43,800,000 hundredweight for 1938-49.

This was reported in the October estimates for late-sown crops. The report showed the output of dry peas, turnips and mangles and mixed grains is lower than last year while output of dried beans will be up slightly.

Production of shelled corn is expected to be the largest since 1942, but the buckwheat yield may be lowest since 1908.

Acreage seeded to dry peas was sharply lower for the second successive year, and average yields per acre also were lower than alst year. This means that current production is placed at only 900,000 bushels. Compared with the 1948 output of 1,500,000.

Higher yields of dried beans in Ontario, the principal growing Province, is expected to bring 1949 production to 1,700,000 bushels, compared with the 1948 output of 1,500,000.

Higher yields of dried beans in Ontario, the principal growing Province, is expected to bring 1949 production to 1,700,000 bushels, compared with 1,600,000 last year. Despite a reduction in acreage from last year, the soy bean crop is estimated at a record level of 2,000,000 bushesl.

A record Canadian production of 876,000 tons of sugar beets is forecast, with a substantial rise in acreage the principal factor in the indicated increase over lase year's 629,-100 tons. The all-Canada outturn of alfalfa is placed at 2,700,000 tons and fodder corn at 5,200,000. Production in 1948 of these crops was 3,000,000 and 5,100,000 tons, respectively.

Redeployment Means More Work More Money for British Mills

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 16 (CP). — Lancashire's cotton-weaving industry, warned that it must "redeploy or perish," prudently decided on survival.

As a result, formal agreement is expected soon on a new wages system in which piece rates will be related to the amount of effort required.

In effect, this will mean that many of the 300,000 workers in one of Britain's oldest industries will work more looms and draw more wages. Production of textiles for Canada and other dollar countries will be speeded.

R. Moelwyn Hughes, Chairman of the Commission, said that under redeployment wages for weavers will range from £6 to £7 10s, a week. New methods would bring the industry up to North American standards.

Products of Lancashire mills are an important factor in British efforts to sell more in Canada and the United States. British sales in Canada, however, dropped sharply last July when a Canadian tariff, temporarily waived as an aid to British exporters, came back into effect.

WHITE FATHERS SELL ANTIQUES TO TOURISTS AT DIME-STORE PRICES

By NADEANE WALKER

CARTHAGE, Tunisia, Oct. 16 (AP)—Tourists with a taste for real antiquities now can buy little pottery treasures at dime-store prices in the ruins of ancient Carthage.

The authenticity of their early Christian or even B. C. origins is vouched for by the learned Roman Catholic White Fathers in charge of excavations.

Their sale, taking place for the first time this year, is due to the enterprising fathers. In the last 70 years they have dug up more than their museum, the best of its kind in Africa, can hold.

COSMETICS BOTTLE

For 100 francs (about 28 cents) you can buy a little round pottery perfume bottle: 500 francs will buy a slender tube of irridescent glass used by fourth century beauties to hold their scents.

The museum curator, Pere Jean Ferron, a friendly, blue-eyed little Breton from Rennes, is the White Father who got the idea that visitors to Carthage might like to take away simple souvenirs at modest prices.

The small pieces sold now are less valuable duplicates of objects already found in such profusion that even the White Fathers have been surprised.

Carthage, great metropolis of ancient times, is supposed to have been founded by the Tyrian Princess Dido about 850 B.C.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 16 (AP) — A leading expert on mental health called Britain's sensational Sunday newspapers chambers of horrors.

"Such newspapers are read by people possessing morbid emotions and second-rate and uninteresting minds," said Dr. J. R. Rees, Director and former President of the World Federation for Mental Health.

Rees, a London psychiatrist, told the annual meeting of the Scottish Association for Mental Hygiene:

"You must improve the mental health of the community to such an extent as to put these publications out of business.

"Looking through one of the more popular Sunday journals last week I found 30 headlines which dealt with crime, assault, pregnancies of small children, and other matters which showed abnormality among the people of this country."

If a Canadian scientist needs a collection of world wide species he must beg it from other countries that have botanic gardens, Dr. Gussow said.

Tedder Regards Canada As Training Ground

MONTREAL, Oct. 16 (CP)—Lord Tedder, Marshal of the Royal Air Force, in an interview today said flight training in England is becoming difficult because of radar screens, and discussions have taken place regarding training areas outside Britain.

Lord Teder, who has made a brief tour of Canadian training bases, thought it "highly probable" that Canada may become a training ground for the defensive forces to be raised by nations which signed the Atlantic Pact.

Scottish Industrial Projects Take Part In U. K. Export Drive

By ROBERT BROWN

GLASGOW, Oct. 16 (Reuters) — One of the greatest replanning projects of modern times is creating in Scotland a mighty industrial power which is taking an increasing part in the British export drive.

Important new industries have been opened up by British, Canadian and American concerns. Bold new plans are afoot to open to commerce big areas of hitherto barren mountain and moor by means of huge hydro-electric schemes.

A new scientific balance and distribution of industry is being achieved and tens of thousands of people are likely to be involved in big population moves from Glasgow, Clydebank and the Lanarkshire coalfields — until now, the focal points of Scottish industry.

PLYMOUTH, England (CP) — Widland Lumpy, believed to be the oldest bull of the South Devon dairy breed, has been slaughtered at the age of 15½ years.

Love Problems

By JANE ATKINSON

Beware of Mistaking Infatuation For Love, You Won't Be Happy

It isn't always easy to distinguish between love and infatuation.

The thing that is really surprising, however, is when someone is in no uncertainty whatever about the character of a romance, yet with eyes wide open, deliberately chooses, or considers choosing, the wrong way.

Take for example, the girl who writes a letter like this:

"I am in my early twenties, and very much in love with a man close to 30. He wants me as much as I want him, but he feels marriage can never be for him.

"Recently, he told me that we would have to stop seeing each other, and when I asked him why, he said because he was learning to like me too much and I was too good for him. He said being around me was too great a temptation, and that he would be better off not to see me. He told me about the wild life he had been leading before meeting me and said it's the only way for him.

"I was surprised to hear all these things, but it didn't change my feeling for him. I told him how much I cared for him and practically begged him to keep things as they were between us. He said he definitely couldn't go on that way, and he definitely didn't ever intend to marry.

"I love him so terribly that I am surprised how tempted I am to ask him to come back on his own terms.

NOT LOVE

Although this girl talks about "loving" this man so much, she is perfectly aware, I am quite sure, that it isn't realy love at all, but mere infatuation. Love requires something real in the way of good qualities to bring it into being, and I cannot see that this man has anything sound in his nature to inspire love.

Obviously, the girl is of good character, since she let him go away rather than agree to join him in his kind of life. Curiously enough, girls of this type are quite apt to be fascinated by men like this. They become infatuated with the carefree attitude that goes with irresponsibility, and because this feeling is different from anything they've ever had before, they think it must be love.

There is no need of telling my correspondent that she would make the mistake of her life if she yielded to temptation and asked the man to come back. She konws that already herself. I think that all she is really looking for from me is the assurance that she will get over her infatuation eventually and find someone else with whom she can be really happy.

I can assure her that there is practically no doubt whatever that this will happen if she will hold to the decision to let this man go his own way while she goes hers.

Science of Slimnastics Can Help To Make a Bad Day a Better One

A little exercise goes a long way toward streamlining. If you knew for sure that a bit of stretching each day would help you recapture a slim, supple waist, and restore that snug, controlled feeling through the midsection, would you take just six precious minutes in the morning to get in trim?

"Slimnastics," as they have been happily termed, can do all that and more. They can help make it a good day.

Lie down on the floor. Flex right knee and place right foot flat on the floor. This puts you in the safety position which prevents strain. The exercise is simply to stretch all along the left side, pushing down with the foot and up with the fingertips and pulling s-l-i-m through the middle. Make sure the small of the back is smack against the floor, that's an important part of this streamliner. Then pull along right side.

BOTH FEET ON FLOOR

Now flex both knees and keep both feet on floor. Pull up strongly with the girdle muscles, press back smack against floor and, holding the up-and-in pull, contract hip muscles strongly which raises hips just slightly off floor. Repeat six times, slowly. This tones the long front muscles.

Finally, from a standing position arch arms above head, pull slim through the middle and bend gently to one side, back to centre and bend to the other side. Don't try to bend too far at first—as you become more supple, increase the bend. If you're rusty on exercise, start with six counts only and gradually work up to 12 or more.

Certainly it's worth it! In 10 days you will have a noticeably slimmer waistline, and you'll feel slimmer too.

Desperate Measure Saves Man's Life

OLUSTEE, Okla., Oct. 16 (AP)—A farmer was alive today because, his doctor said, he had the courage to push his bleeding and amputated legs into a fire.

C. B. Hughes, 33, lost both legs yesteday when he tried to free his arm pinned in a hay baler.

He attracted his wife's attention two hours later by setting fire to a bale of hay.

Doctors described his condition last night as "fair." They said his arm will be amputated later.

Hughes' wife said he pushed his legs—severed below the knees—into the flame to stop their bleeding and relieve the pain.

Mothers, Train Your Children So That You Are Not a Cowering Slave

Often when I see a group of high school students, I wonder how many take reasonable responsibility for the care of their own clothes. I wonder how many of the boys press their own trousers, how many of the girls wash their own hose and iron their washable garments. I wonder how many of the mothers represented in this school are the tailors and laundresses for these youths. I imagine I can see some weary mothers of the best dressed girls bending over a wash tub or hot iron or sitting up late at night mending the son's or daughter's garments.

SHOULD NOT SLAVE

I can even imagine seeing a boy about getting ready to go out on a date, rushing to his busy mother saying, "I would like these pants pressed," probably not even saying "please." I imagine hearing a daughter scolding her mother for not having mended the daughter's blouse or for not having ironed it better.

It even may not enter the child's mind or the mother's that she should not thus slave for her adolescent children. She had always waited on them hand and foot and jumped at their beck and call. Nor can I quite see why a father would stand by in silence and let his older children so impose upon their mother.

OUTWIT THE FATHER

Of course, some fathers do try to do something about the matter but the children, working on the mother's loving kindness and human frailties will outwit the father. But this father shouldn't put such heavy blame on the mother.

To mothers of young children: Begin now to train your children so you won't be their cowering slaves when they are in their teens.

Russia Returns Lend-Lease Ships

YOKOSUKA, Japan, Oct. 16 (AP)—Russian crews brought nine Soviet frigates into this United States Naval base. The vessels were the first lend-lease ships to be returned by the Soviets. The frigates, lent to Russia during the war, are patrol-type craft of 1430 tons.

IS SHE A VAMP?

LONDON, Oct. 16 (CP)—Dumbo, baby elephant at London Zoo, has become a woman-hater.

In care of male keepers, Dumbo's a honey. But once handed over to girl assistants in the children's section, she starts jostling.

"Dumbo weighs 400 pounds," said one of the girls. "A push from her can be painful."

The Doctor

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Not Always Necessary to Operate On Hemmorrhoids or on Fistula

In any part of the body which is liberally supplied with nerves, even slight irritation or injury can produce pin out of all proportion to the severity of the cause. This is markedly true of a number of disorders affecting the lower opening of the bowel which, though not serious in themselves, are capable of causing the most excruciating pain.

This is due not only to the large groups of nerves which supply this area, but to the constantly repeated injury of already diseased tissue by the passage of large, dry bowel movements, or by those which are chemically irritating.

CAUSE SYMPTOMS

Hemorrhoids or piles, although quite common, cause symptoms only when they are aggravated by injury as the result of diarrhea or constipation. When pain develops, it results from the formation of a blood clot in the dilated vein. Quick relief may be obtained in these cases by cutting out the swollen mass responsible for the pain.

If the amount of pain produced is not great, operation may not be needed. Wet dressings applied constantly and particularly overnight, will help in relieving the symptoms and speeding up the absorption of the blood clot. A daily enema or injection into the lower bowel may be advisable so that bowel movements can occur without straining.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

J.K.M: I have a fairly long nose and have heard that electric treatments can be used to make the nose shorter. Are these treatments in any way harmful?

Ans.—I know of no treatment which would make the nose shorter. If the deformity of the nose greatly interferes with the appearance, plastic surgery would probably be advisable.

New Bag for V.O.N.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP) — The "little" black bag — trade-mark of the Victorian Order Nurse for more than a quarter century — soon will give 'way to a shoulder-strap model as up-to-date as dame fashion's latest hat.

Word of the change was made known today at the close of a four-day conference of V.O.N. district superintendents and national supervisors.

Style was not the reason for the change. The new bag is more convenient to carry. The bag is of black leather and fastens by zipper.

60 YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

1889 1949

In place of the old wooden tub, wash-board and wringer the modern washing machine and the commercial laundry have come to the assistance of the housewife of today. "Monel," an alloy composed of 2/3 Nickel and 1/3 Copper, is today in general use for washing machine tubs, and for washers and other equipment in modern laundries. Being rust-proof and corrosion resistant, it eliminates trouble from stains and verdigris. Its hard, glass-smooth surface removes all danger of injury even to the most delicate fabrics. Because it is strong and tough as steel, "Monel" equipment is unusually durable.

Canadian Nickel sold Abroad brings in U.S. Dollars

Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.

These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways, to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.

These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.

AIMS OF GUIDING HEARD AT FRUITVALE MEET

FRUITVALE, B. C., Oct. 16—Fruitvale Women's Institute entertained at luncheon a delegation of high officials of the Guide and Brownie Associations along with members of the local packs and companies and interested mothers.

The gathering heard Miss Grace Nichols, Eagle Owl of the Brownies and Brownie Leader Trainer from Vernon, give a clear picture of the aims and of the place the Brownie and Guide groups play in a girl's life. To be a good Brownie or Guide, the girl must have an interested and understanding mother, she said.

"Our aim is to train our girls to be better citizens, training them in intelligence, health, service to others and handicrafts. It is the mother's task to carry on what the Brownie or Guide Leader has started. A child can be clever but may not always be useful. A Brownie must make full use of her talents, be always polite to all people, and help other people gracefully and happily.

Miss Nichols outlined the first class tests for the Golden Hand and showed how it caried out the four points outlined to make a good and useful citizen.

With Miss Nichols were Mrs. D. Munday of North Vancouver, the Provincial Wood Craft Advisor, who showed interesting pictures of many of her camping trips; Mrs. J. D. Pearson, Trail, Divisional Commissioner for the area Trail-Rossland-Castlegar, and Mrs. A. E. Calvert, Trail, Divisional Commissioner for the newly-formed district of East-Trail and District. Representing the Fruitvale companies were Miss Eileen Endersby, whose appointment as Lieutenant Captain of the Guides was approved by the Commissioners, and leader of the First Fruitvale W. I. Company, Mrs. Rozella Webster, Acting Brown Owl of the Fruitvale Pact.

Mrs. Charles Mawer, President of the W. I., which sponsors the Guide movement here, presided.

Gray Creek Club Elects Officers

GRAY CREEK, B. C., Oct. 17 — The annual meeting of the Gray Creek Porcupine Club was held at the home of Mrs. Feenie, when Mrs. Anderson gave the financial report for the year. Club funds now stand at $98. She gave a resume of the year's work.

Gray Creek school and pre-school children had been taken to the dentist and their teeth fully attended to. It was felt that children went more eagerly to the dentist when a general outing was made of it.

A Christmas Tree with presents for the children and a Christmas party for the community had been provided by the Club. A talk on Credit Unions by C. C. Feenie had been sponsored and drew full attendance. Three memberships in the Women's Institute had been paid for by the Club and funeral flowers had been sent for a regretted member. Seven dollars had been collected for the V.E.F.B. aid to Britain.

The Club had sponsored the Red Cross canvass which was undertaken by Mrs. Lymbery and Mrs. Clark, and had given five dollars towards it. Wedding presents had been given to Mrs. Gunther, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Smith. Members had taken part in the musical-theatrical show at Crawford Bay.

The Hall trustees had paid the Club $5 for Spring-cleaning the Hall.

Boswell ladies had been entertained by the Club in June at the home of Mrs. Clark and in September the Crawford Bay Women's Institute had held their meeting in Gray Creek Hall, to which Boswell had been invited. Tea and a stall of needlework and home-cooking provided by members had netted over $30.

The Travelling Library had been sponsored and re-ordered from Victoria for the coming Winter, Mrs. Grant acting as librarian.

The Club also sponsored the travelling Government films until a Film Committee was properly organized to take charge of the matter. A surprise morning visit to Mrs. Gunther of Kootenay Bay, formerly Miss Romary Peters, was organized in September. Lunch was taken and a happy time was passed inspecting the house and ranch. Members served the chicken lunch, buffet style, and Mr. and Mrs. Gunther were the honor guests. A quilt was made by Mrs. Grant and quilted by the Club for presentation to Mrs. Gunther as a token of esteem.

After the year's report, Mrs. Anderson was prevailed upon to take the office of President and Miss Margaret Clark was elected as Secretary.

It was decided that as all members are likewise members of the W. I., that the Club should pay 25 cents annually towards each subscription, rather than award Institute memberships in turn, as had been done hitherto. The money saved by Porcupine members in refraining from sending superflous local Christmas cards was paid. It will be used to send copies of "Happy Hours for Boys and Girls" by Bob Main and Ingram Rogers to prairie and other hospitals for children.

Mrs. Lymbery read the prize-winning essay contributed by Pemberton W. I. "Our Institute Takes a Forward Look."

Tea was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Grant.

DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT LESSON SERMON SUBJECT

"Doctrine of Atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon included the following passage from the Bible: "Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground." Isaiah 53: 1, 2.

Among the selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, was the following: "He to whom the arm of the Lord is revealed will believe our report, and rise into newness of life with regeneration. This is having part in the atonement; this is the understanding, in which Jesus suffered and triumphed."

CAKE TALK
by Frances Barton

● Our cake recipes always give the right temperature and time for baking. With Swans Down Cake Flour, if the oven temperature and the size of the pan are the same as specified in the recipe, the cake should be done in the time given.

If you are not sure of temperature, or have to use a different size of pan, here are some helpful tests:

1. The cake should have a delicately browned crust.
2. Insert a cake tester or toothpick. It should come out clean.
3. Cake (except sponge cakes) should have shrunk away slightly from sides of pan.
4. The top when pressed lightly should spring back.

(For chocolate or very rich cakes, use test 1 or 3.)

CAKE SERVING

Our recipe for Tropical Spice Cake can be cut to serve as many as 20 people. Here is how to do it.

Cut the cake in six in one direction.

Cut diagonally from corner to corner, as in dotted line.

Make 2 diagonal cuts on each side of the first diagonal. You'll cut 15 diamond shaped pieces — and some grand corners for someone!

The Farmer's Key

In an effort to improve farmer-sportsman relationships, the B. C. Fish and Game Council has issued a reminder to the Province's anglers and hunters — particularly hunters — that the key to good hunting can be found in the pocket of the farmer.

The farmer is the keeper of the key to good hunting, declares the Council. True, all wild game belongs to the State, but the control of most of its habitat is vested in the owner or tenant of the land. The farmer can lock the door to all hunting on his land, or he can, as he usually does, be exceedingly generous with his hospitality.

There is an easy approach to the free use of the farmer's magic key. This is simply through the use of common courtesy. The farmer is a busy and peace-loving man. It is no pleasure for him to stop in the midst of his work and force a trespassing hunting party to retire from his land. More often than not he suffers the insult—for that is what trespass really is — in silence rather than have unpleasantness. But he does not forget. He knows his rights, and "No Hunting" signs soon appear on the boundaries of his lands.

The farmer is generally a sociable fellow, who likes courteous and friendly company. He resents being "talked-down-to" by self-styled "big shots" from the city who have very little knowledge of his problems and care nothing about them. He'll generally meet friendly overtures more than half way. But he'll stand just so much high-hatting and then . . . "Click!" the key is turned in the lock to hunting privileges.

There are some easy ways to make friends with the farmer. They could be called the Ten Commandments of Country Courtesy:

1. Always drive in to the farmer's yard and ask permission to hunt.
2. Hunt only in the areas he designates. Never go on ground he wishes to keep inviolate.
3. Respect his fences. If necessary to climb them, climb over by a post. Use gates if possible, closing them behind you. Always replace lowered bars.
4. Never shoot near houses, barns or livestock.
5. Leave his fruit and other crops alone. If you want some, buy it from him.
6. Go around fields where people are working. Do not walk on seeded ground. Don't walk through standing grain.
7. Shoot crows and predators that do damage to his crops and livestock.
8. Share your game with him.
9. On your next trip, bring his wife or children some little gift or token of friendship.
10. After you've become well acquainted, suggest a planting program to better game habitat, offering to finance it or help him with it, thereby showing genuine interest in his affairs.

These are simple little rules of common courtesy that any sportsman can practice to the benefit and pleasure of all concerned. They are really keys to the key to better hunting.

Why Annual Licence Plates?

Highway officials in British Columbia are investigating the proposal to use permanent automobile licence plates. Most motorists will hope that action follows.

The move would save a substantial sum of money for the taxpayer and for the car owner the messy annual job of struggling with rusty bolts and discarding a set of perfectly good plates and replacing with another.

In the neighboring State of Washington, an annual saving of $200,000 has been reported from the use of semi-permanent plates.

If there is aany good reason for maintaining the policy of annual changing, the secret has been kept well. Car thives like it, but the honest motorist does not. As for giving work to our reformatories, which make the plates in certain Procinces, surely there are more useful tasks waiting for these institutions.

It should be no more difficult for the highway authorities to keep tab on the annual tax paid by the motorists in this way, than it is for municipal officials to make sure that the taxes are paid on real estate. Under the present system a car owner hardly gets to the stage where he can remember the number which has been assigned to his vehicle before it is necessary to secure another.

National Problem

The home chosen as the official residence for Canada's Prime Ministers bears the Welsh name "Gorphwysfa". At a time when the people are just learning how to pronounce "St. Laurent", this is going to make a lot of them throw in the towel.

Outdoor "Laboratory" Speeds Woods Research

A unique laboratory with surveyor's lines for walls and stumps for workbenches is being developed in a 9600-acre forest tract near Haney by the University of British Columbia through a $120,000 grant by the B. C. Loggers' Association.

Established on a 21-year lease in 1943, this forest area had already been put to use before it became, in 1949, U.B.C. property under a Crown grant from the B. C. Government. Funds have made possible the building of suitable accommodation and study facilities. A camp for the accommodation of students and staff is almost complete. The area is now a permanent "campus" for all students who can benefit from practical instruction under actual forest conditions.

Already the area is being used by students in learning the technique of forestry and forest research which will be put to practical use in the lumbering industry of British Columbia. Development of the area will provide students in ecology, zoology, entomology, soils, and other allied fields with an outdoor laboratory in which problems may be studied under field conditions.

Among the first projects to be undertaken by students is a program of experimental thinning and pruning in selected areas. Primary and secondary roads are planned to remove products of thinning. These will be marketed for use as telephone and hop poles, piling, fence posts, and grape stakes. The project provides forest engineers in training with practical work in surveying and the construction of roads, bridges and culverts.

An inventory of different timber types in the forest will also be completed by students in the next few years. The work will give them training and practical experience in timber-cruising, mapping and classifications of sites. When completed, this inventory will show which area should be cut for immediate use and which should be left for further growth.

Chinese Red Victories Only a Mirage Fascinating, Intangible, Elusive

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

The fortunes fo the Chinese Nationalists continue to ebb.

The great Southern seaport of Canton—until recently emergency capital of the harrassed Nationalist Government—has bee nabandoned by Chiang Kai-shek's forces in face of the on-sweeping Red military machine from the North. The gates of this metropolis of 1,000,000 inhabitants are open to the troops of the newly-proclaimed Communist Government at Peiping.

The Nationalists once more have moved their Government to the ancient city of Chungking. This is, in a manner of speaking, the last outpost of the retreating regime.

Chungking is the capital which the Nationalists occupied in the dark days of the Second World War. A few miles further West is the mist-shrouded hump which caps the towering mountain barrier between China and Burma—the hump, of evil memories for British and American airmen.

PREDICT REVOLUTIONS

How much longer can the Nationalists hold out in face of such misfortune? Over in Bucharest, Romania, the Cominform Journal called developments in China the 'greatest defeat for world reaction and imperialism.' This journal, which is the mouthpiece of the political organization which links all Communist countries, predicts that the Red victory in China will promote revolutions in India, Burma, Indonesia and other Asiatic countries.

Well, Communist victory in China certainly would have momentous effects not only in Asia but around the golbe. But let's not be hasty in reaching a conclusion. What will constitute victory in China?

WEARY TIME

Victory means not only the smashin gof the enemy military strength but the establishment of a Government which really can govern. That means a Government which has the cooperation of China's 500,000,000 people, for you can't handle that many folk without their cooperation.

On that basis the Communists have a wery way to march before they even get a glimpse of success. What they see now is a mirage—fascinating but intangible.

J. R. White Tells Mining Institute 20th Century Belongs to Canada

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP).—Alberta oil is pouring energy into Canadian life with the compelling force of five Niagaras.

This vivid comparison was given today by John R. White, Vice President of Imperial Oil, Ltd., in an address to the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy and the Engineering Institute of Canada. He arrived at it this way:

The energy from 18,400 barrels of petroleum is about equal to the energy that is drawn off from Niagara Falls in a day. The Alberta fields will, it is estimated, be capable of producing 100,000 barrels daily by the end of the year. Thus, five Niagaras.

LARGE TANKER

Mr. White announced that as part of the program to bring Western crude oil to Eastern Canada, the largest oil tanker ever to be built in a Canadian shipyard will be constructed.

It will be 620 feet in length with a speed of 13 knots and a carrying capacity of 115,000 barrels. During a navigation season it will be able to move more than 5,000,000 barrels from the projected pipeline terminal on Lake Superior to the refinery at Sarnia, Ont., making the round trip in five days.

It will be ready for service with Imperial in 1951, and will be built in Canada, but the contract has not yet been awarded.

The resources of the West, said Mr. White, lend themselves to the development of almost every modern form of industrial activity, but he added that resources alone do not spell industrial growth and development.

Already there are many concrete developments.

"For 1948 alone, Premier Manning of Alberta reports the establishment of 32 new industrial enterprises representing a total capital of more than $31,000,000 and employing more than 1200 people.

"Separate tabulations— obviously using a different basis of classification— report 68 new enterprises for Edmonton and 42 for Calgary . . .

"Perhaps one of the best examples of the general health of the Province is the fact that Calgary has become perhaps the leading centre of prefabricating housing in Canada."

Midwestern States Overflowing With Corn, New Industry in Storage Bins

By WILLIAM FERRIS

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)— The midwestern United States has a new crop this year—storage bins. Wooden bins, steel bins, aluminum bins, all kinds and types of bins, have sprouted up from the corn belt earth.

The bins are needed to store corn. Unless corn is stored in a bin, farmers can't get a loan from the Government on their grain. And the price for corr. at markets is much less than the Government will loan on it.

In addition to building new bins, farmers are emptying out old ones. These bins have stored 1948 crop corn. Now, farmers are turning that corn over to the Government for housing the 1949 crop.

BURSTING WITH CORN

The Midwest is bursting with corn. There never has been so much. This year's crop is only slightly less than last year's record breaker. In addition, there's far more corn left from the previous crop than there was last year.

About two-thirds—or 556,000,000 bushels—of the corn left over from last year is now owned by the Government. It must find space to put this corn.

Almost anything which is available and useable has been brought into play. In Indiana, unused canning factories now are storing corn. Four of seven buildings at the Sioux City, Iowa, airport now are corn elevators.

Hollywood Declares War on Criminal Publicity About Motion Picture Life

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 16 (AP) — The motion picture industry has declared war on criminal elements in the film capital. And it is planning to steer newcomers to the movies on a straight moral course.

The recently-formed Motion Picture Industry Council, comprising nine major Hollywood guild, labor and management groups, representing some 35,000 individuals, announced the new program today.

It was outlined at a recent meeting, held under the chairmanship of Ronald Reagan, President of the Screen Actors' Guild. Others present included producer Cecil B. De Mille, President George Marshall of the Screen Directors' Guild, and producer Dore Schary.

The Council adopted a resolution asserting "the Hollywood area long has been made a special target of extortionists, shakedown artists and other criminal elements, who seek to entrap and prey upon the unwary and the unwise."

The Council was organized eight months ago with the announced purpose of taking measures to counteract unfavorable publicity about the motion picture industry and its personnel.

No More 'Tall Stories' to Tourists By Windsor Castle Official Guides

By NORMAN CRIBBENS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WINDSOR, England, Oct. 16 (CP)—Guides at Royal Windsor Castle have been accused of telling "tall stories" to tourists—particularly to tourists from North America.

To combat this tendency, Castle officials have issued a new official guidebook to which guides must adhere strictly.

ESTABLISHED FACTS

The new book deals solely with established historical facts, unadorned by romantic or fictitious legends.

"If guides obey their instructions it will mean an end to all these fanciful and amusing stories that were once so popular with guides and public alike," said J. S. Lesbie, Windsor historian.

Old-time visitors to the Castle view this tendency with regret. They remember how the ancient ramparts used to ring to the laughter of visitors enjoying off-the-record tales of Henry VIII and his wives.

NO NELL GWYNN

Reference to the amorous adventures of Nell Gwynn, whose house stood opposite the Castle gate, will also be taboo. And no more saucy tales will be told about Queen Anne Boleyn and her Tudor window in the Dean's cloister.

How do the guides themselves react to the change?

"Tours will not be nearly so interesting," said one. "Visitors come here for pleasure as much as enlightenment. We regarded it as part of our job to entertain them, and most visitors enjoyed our jokes."

"I can't imagine why anyone should object to a little harmless fun," said another. "Our anecdotes were usually legends, like the origin of the Order of the Garter.

"What's wrong with telling visitors that it was instituted by King Edward III after he had retrieved the garter of Joan, Countess of Salisbury? It slipped down, you know, while she was dancing at a ball in the Castle. Many historians say it is true, so why ban it?"

Another sore point with guides is that tipping has been banned, and any breach of the rule will mean "instant dismissal".

Henceforth their average wage will be about £5 ($15) a week. Previously they often made as much as that in one day's tips.

Industry Wins More Than Modern Wars

CANBERRA, Australia, Oct. 16—(Reuters)—United States industrial power, and not her supply of atomic bombs, will prevent any major war within the next four, five, or possibly 10 years, Defence Minister John Dedman said in Parliament today.

"It is industrial strength that wins modern wars, not masses of men," he said.

"If there is no great war within 10 years, people living behind the Iron Curtain may by then have realized there is no point in making war against the rest of the world."

Dedman's statement followed yesterday's speech by the retiring Chief of Australian General Staff, Lt.-Gen. V. A. H. Sturdee, in which he said war between the Western Powers and Russia was inevitable, but it was impossible to say when.

In this speech Gen. Sturdee also said the United States must take the leadership of the Western Allies and the British Empire must get used to being "second fiddle".

Collectors Ready For New Stamps

OTTAWA, Oct. 16 (CP) — Five new stamps, bearing new pictures of King George, will go on sale Nov. 15, the Post Office Department announced today.

The stamps, in denominations of one to five cents, will be the same size as stamps now being issued and will be the same color excent for the two-cent stamp which will be a darker shade of brown.

The Department said first-day covers of the new issues will be handled only by the Postmaster at Ottawa and will be mailed from Ottawa.

The stamps are revised designs of a new issue announced in June which was recalled when it was discovered the word "postage" was missing from the stamps. Plates were then revised to add the word "postage."

The imperfect June issue will go on sale sometime next January and will remain on sale until the supply is exhausted. Orders for these stamps will be accepted by the philatelic section of the Post Office after Jan .1, 1950, the Department said, but no first-day covers will be serviced.

Smokies Tie Leafs With Seconds To Go

By CLIVE FLEMING

Nelson's first game of the 1949-50 season resulted in a rugged 3-3 deadlock at the Civic Arena Saturday. Only 28 seconds were remaining when Trail's new defenceman, Danny McDougall, fired the puck from close in to tie the score 3-3, after Nelson had led 2-0, and 3-1. Don Anderson, bespectacled Trail left winger, did the main damage of the game, scoring twice, while Nelson's goals were scored by F. Koehle, Vickers and Fargher.

Bruising checks were handed out through the game, especially by Nelson's George Barefoot. Neil McKenaghan was cut badly on his foot, when a skate pierced his boot, and may be sidelined for some time.

Play was rugged right from the start, with George Barefoot's blow, which sent Wylie for a loop, the first offence, and a parade of four penalties within three minutes followed. Although play was in both ends, Nelson didn't get a shot on Bartlett till after the halfway mark of the period, and then Bartlett stole the spotlight by robbing Roy Allen of a goal.

KOEHLE, VICKERS SCORE

Fritz Koehle opened the scoring at 14:38 when he flipped Nestor Raun's rebound over Bartlett, with Clarence Tatchell figuring in the play. With Palmer serving a hooking penalty, Bill Vickers took a double pass from Fargher and Allan and flipped it past Bartlett, at 19:59, putting Nelson ahead 2-0 in the first period.

With play disorganized, Don Anderson picked up a loose puck, raced in on Barefoot and slipped it home to make the score 2-1 at 7:42 of the period.

Right off a face-off in the Trail zone, Johnny Fargher backhanded the puck to catch the lower left end corner, giving Bartlett no chance, a minute and a half later. Towards the end of the period, Trail took advantage of two Nelson penalties to apply the pressure full force, and Don Anderson finally scored on a pass out from Frank Currik, at 16:44, with Nelson a man short.

With time slowly dying away, Johnny McDougall drove a low screened shot from close in to tie the score 3-3, with only 28 seconds to go.

PENALTIES PILE UP

No sooner had overtime started than Ron Collings and Lui Corrado were high sticking, and were banished together. In that time, Bill Vickers got the puck right in front of Bartlett, and pulled him out, but the puck dribbled off the end of his stick just as he was going to shove it in.

With less than five minutes left in the overtime period, Fritz Koehle and Lui Corrado engaged in a battle, which several others were ready to join, and the two were given five minute terms.

Trail came close in a scramble in front of Barefoot, when the puck was rolling towards the goal, and Barefoot couldn't see it till it was almost in the net.

The three star selection by an anonymous follower was Don Anderson, George Barefoot and Bill Vickers.

Fruitvale Plans Skating Rink

FRUITVALE, B.C., Oct. 16—The first Fall meeting of the Fruitvale Recreation Association in the Institute Hall was attended by members. The skating rink was discussed, and the meeting approved the plan to construct a rink, 185 feet by 85 feet on the present site.

As the policy of free lighting has been suspended by the West Kootenay Power and Light Company, the F.R.A. will find it necessary to make a charge for skating this year. It will enable them also to employ a full-time caretaker for the rink. A committee of two members, Verne Succee and Fred Peitzsche, was appointed to investigate cost of putting up a six foot wall around the rink. This would help ot keep the ice clear of drifting snow.

The well is to be re-cribbd, Dennis Miller and Arthur Crawford volunteering for the job. The pump and engine are to be put in first class shape so all can be ready to make ice when the Weatherman permits. To make it possible to have music at the rink for skating, a P.A. system may be bought.

The members decided a quorum for all meetings would be 25 per cent of all paid-up members.

Impressed With U.K. Atomic Research

REGINA, Oct. 16 (CP) — The extent of the "fundamental atomic research" going on in the United Kingdom is impressive, Dr. J. W. T. Spinks of the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, told members of the North and South Saskatchewan sections of the Chemical Institute of Canada Saturday.

Dr. Spinks, head of the University's Chemistry Department and dean of gradaute studies, said the centre of British atomic research at Harwell, England, is manufacturing many radioactive isotopes for commercial use. These are underselling American isotopes in Europe.

British Parliament Back to Work Tuesday

LONDON, Oct. 16 (CP)—Parliament goes back to work this week much in the mood of a schoolboy after the Summer holidays.

For once, a Parliamentary session will come as an anti-climax to tumultous events in the recess. As they return Tuesday, Members will still be thinking about devaluation, the sudden collapse of election speculation and about party prospects for next year.

It is bound to be a ragged session. The business of the Commons and the Lords will take a back seat when the Labor Government announces the economy measures which Attlee has promised "within a few days"—a subject the public is vitally interested in.

Market Trends

MONTREAL (CP)—Business was near a standstill on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb Market today as prices failed to establish any definite trend.

Industrial volume in the first hour of this three-hour Saturday session amounted to 6400 shares while mines had a turnover of 20,000 shares.

TORONTO (CP)—Golds marked up some good gains in very dull trading in today's short session on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Industrials also brightened from early weakness and base metals reflected the stronger gold list. Western oils opened stronger but losses were wiped out towards the close. Volume was about 550,000 shares.

NEW YORK (AP) — Radio-television issues gathered the major share of demand today in an otherwise quiet stock market.

These stocks were fractions to more than a point higher while others made modest gains or dropped behind.

It was decided to send a Christmas parcel to the Guild's adopted family in England. This was to consist of gifts for the family rather than the food parcels which the Guild has been sending. It was also decided to add a few tables of crib, to the whist nights.

Tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. Nyberg ,assisted by Mrs. C. Linn.

FUNERAL FOR FRUITVALE MAN

FRUITVALE, B. C., Oct. 16 — Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon in the St. Paul's United Church in Fruitvale for Charles Frederick Wood, who died on a train enroute home from a holiday at Winnipeg Oct. 9. Born in London, Eng., in 1861, the late Mr. Wood emigrated to Canada 50 years ago and settled on a farm at Foxwarren, Man. His wife, Lena, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. L. Leavens, were with him a tthe time of his death. Besides his wife and daughter, he is survived by a son, Clifford at Winnipeg, a sister and two brothers, Pearl, Samuel and Sydney in England and a sister, Mrs. Fenhan of Foxwarren, Man.

There was a profusion of flowers banked around the altar, for Mr. Wood had made many friends during the short time he was resident here. Pallbearers were J. Pargeter, John Ford, Harvey Dilling, Robert Davis, C. Jones, and R. Thompson.

11 Kid Hockey Squads Set for New Season

Eleven kid hockey teams are slated to see action this coming season under the Nelson Amateur Hockey Association, it was disclosed after an executive meeting by Association President Sam Brown.

Most important question brought up at the meeting was the retention of the Dodger Bantam Hockey Club as a unit for the coming season. It was the general opinion that sufficient bantam teams must be kept going in order to provide material for Midget teams. The Dodger Midgets with insufficient players for this season would be disbanded and their players would become free agents for this season, but would revert back to the Dodger organization for the next season. The Dodger Juveniles were also disbanded due to insufficient player strength and its members are free agents to join any of the other teams.

These moves reduced the Midget League to three teams and the Juvenile League remains at its former three-team strength.

President Brown also disclosed that the Association's Rep team practices would begin earlier than in the last two previous years. He also disclosed that an application by the Castlegar Midget Hockey Club for entry in hte local Midget League was turned down, but exhibition games may be played when time permits.

A large number of adults were lined up for possible coaching duties for teams who have been having trouble in getting coaches down for practices and games. Those who have offered their services are George Barefoot who is Chairman of the Coach Committee; Sam Brown, Bob Kidd, Walter Martin, Jack Morgan, Don Porteous, Roy Allen, Moose McNaughton, Dick Wallace, Swede Larsen, Gordie Smith, Stewie Paterson, Fred Carmichael, Bill Twells and George Benwell. Present at the executive meeting besides the Executive were Archie Birse and Jack Morgan of the Civic Centre Commission, Ty Culley and also representatives of the Fairview Athletic Club, Ron Brown, Gilbert Johnson, Wilf Marquis and Nils Sjoberg.

Puck Pourri

By CLIVE FLEMING

When asked if he could score more goals in the game Saturday night, than he did last year, Fritz Koehle answered; "That would be easy." The husky red head played only part of last season, but was very valuable because of his fight.

Well, Nelson's first goal was scored by said Koehle, when he flipped a rebound past Bobby Bartlett, who was spectacular in the Trail nets in the 3-3 deadlock.

This year's squad must be Nelson's roughest in a long time. Almost every player is hitting. George Barefoot and Mike Fischer handed out some bruising body checks, and another Leaf defenceman, Moose McNaughton can hit hard as well.

Harry Barefoot, Nelson's goalie, often had the pressure on him, and he kicked out several labeled shots.

The Nelson forward lines weren't clicking with their passes, but they were going at a fast clip. Tis to be hoped that more polish will be added to that speed shortly. Bill Vickers did several nice stickhandling jobs, scored one goal, assisted on another, and was robbed of another when the puck dribbled off the end of his stick when he was right on top of the goal.

Don Appleton looked great on his line, and should prove to be among the better rookies of the year. He set up a few plays, but they weren't finished, and the centreman broke up a few Trail plays with his forechecking.

Johnny Fargher scored a nice goal, with a backhand shot that caught the lower left corner. He also had two points, with an assist on Vickers' goal.

GOALIE GOOD

Trail goaltender Bobby Bartlett, whom Nelson would have had had Harry Barefoot not signed, was a bundle of trouble for Nelson. Bobby has a nice pair of hands, and is quick with his legs. The three that did get past him gave him no chance.

Danny McDougall, 22-year-old defenceman, and Zeke Clements were good on the Trail defence, and McDougall was the character who fired home the tying goal.

Russ Wylie, who apparently looked so well at the Smokie workouts, was good in the first part of the first period, but didn't show so brightly after George Barefoot knocked him for a loop.

Don Anderson, bespectacled Trail left winger, who is dynamite around the goal, beat Harry Barefoot twice in the second period. The first goal was during one of Nelson's most ragged spots.

FIRST INJURED

Neil McClenaghan was the first casualty of the season. In a little scrap, the blade of Jimmy Mailey's skate went through McClenaghan's skate boot, and two veins in his foot. His sock had a tear in it, and was soaked with blood.

About my 6-2 score (blush): It was going right in the first half, when Nelson was ahead 3-1. That was half of it, but they let me down in the last half of the second, and the third. My 4-1 score of the Spokane-Kimberley game was closer. Dinny McManus got the first shutout of the 1949-50 season, 3-0.

Junior hockey is really being boosted in Lethbridge now. Probably receiving the most praise are two Nelson boys, Lee and Norm Hyssop. Friday, the Lethbridge first line, Fielder-Hyssop-Hyssop was pictured, and Saturday, Norm and Lee were in a Herald picture with a few others. I have a strong hunch htat Lee will set a hot pace in the Prairie junior circuit this year.

Moose McNaughton, Leaf rearguard, says he played along with Guyle Fielder in Prince Albert when the centreman was only 16, playing junior hockey.

"He's really good," said the Nelson defenceman.

He entered the Fernie Elks Club contest for a car. Came the Thanksgiving Day and the winner was Ira J. Brown who proudly took his "hunting weekend" trophy back to Calgary on the hoof.

Oct. 16—A new bus schedule for the Interior Stages to Nelson via Salmo has been started, the first bus passing through Fruitvale at 6:15 a.m. to connect with the Nelway bus at Salmo, thus allowing a passenger a 4½ hour stay in Spokane or a 6 hour stay in Nelson. The returning bus from Nelson leaves at 4:46 p.m. and arrives at Trail at 10 p.m. Another through bus to Nelson via Salmo from Trail leaves the Trail depot at 1:45 p.m. In the new schedule both Salmo and Fruitvale will have a few extra buses per week to Trail, but on Sunday evening, still lack a bus to come from Trail.

Fruitvale Institute Hears Reports

FRUITVALE, B.C., Oct. 16—At the October meeting, the members of the Fruitvale Women's Institute heard an interesting report of the W.I. Convention held in Nelson in September, when they met in the Institute Hall. There were twelve members present and Mrs. Mawer was in the Chair. Mrs. Webster also gave a brief description of her experiences as judge at the Nelson Fair and compared it with the local fair.

Further discussion was held on possibility of holding some of the Institute meetings in the evening but no decision was reached.

Russo-German Alliance Threat To Peace of Europe and World

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Prime Minister Stalin has sent a message of congratulations to the leaders of the new Soviet-dominated East German Republic in which he characterizes the advent of this regime as a "turning point in the history of Europe."

That sweeping statement may be window dressing for a formal occasion, but it's one which we shouldn't dismiss as just another bit of political propaganda. It is a shrewd observation by one of the world's shrewdest minds. It certainly could be an accurate forecast for it is within the range of possibility though it may not be probable.

SIGNIFICANT

The significance of the Communist chief's appraisal, as I see it, rests in a point which this column has been emphasizing—that Germany is the heart of European continental developments. That was true before the war, and it will be true again.

Germany is the key which will unlock the door to peaceful development or the door to trouble. It isn't just a freak of fortune that the cold war has revolved about the fallen Reich.

So if one may be permitted to try to read Stalin's mind, he is figuring on the ultimate unity of the now Red East-German Republic and the Democratic Western Republic which recently was formed from the zones occupied by Britain, the United States and France. He thinks that the unified Germany will be Communistic.

RUSSO-GERMANS

Well, it's safe to bet that there will be a combination of the two parts of Germany. Whether the union will be Communistic or Democratic remains to be determined. However, let's assume for the sake of argument that he is right. Then where do we stand?

The start of the Second World War gave us a brief preview of what a Russo-German alliance could mean. Moscow and Berlin signed the non-aggression pact which enabled Hitler to send his military steam-roller across Western Poland while Russia, by agreement, marched in and annexed the Eastern portion. It happened that the two fell out and a universal conflagration followed, but that didn't detract from the exhibition of efficiency displayed by the Russo-German combine while it lasted.
