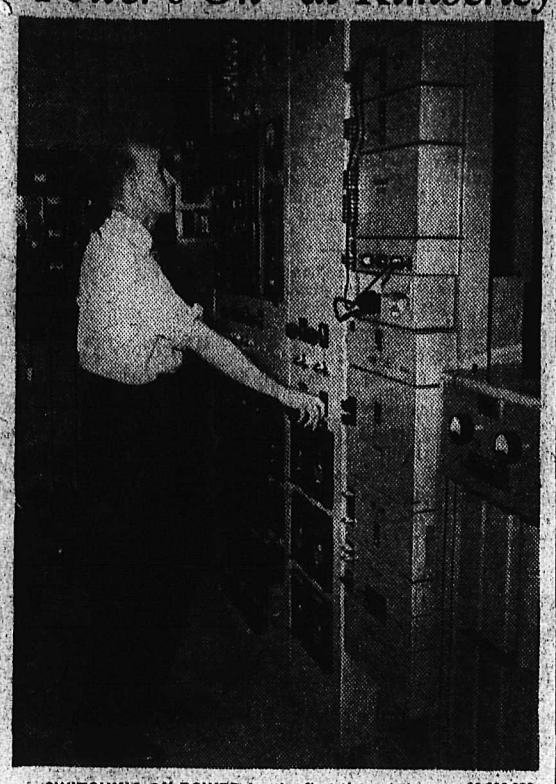
"Power's On" at Kimberley



SWITCHING ON POWER for the first time at the new $9,000,000 addition to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company's chemical fertilizer operation at Kimberley is J. D. Mitchell, maintenance superintendent at the Kimberley fertilizer department. The plant, which will be completed in late Summer, will produce about 70,000 tons of ammonium phosphate fertilizer annually, the bulk of which will be marketed on the Prairies. The power, controlled at the panel Mr. Mitchell faces, is generated at Cominco's plants on the Kootenay River. An 86-mile transmission line from these plants, finished in December, carries power to a new substation in Kimberley where it will be distributed to the Sullivan mine and mill and the Kimberley fertilizer department. The advent of power marked an important step in preparing the Kimberley fertilizer department for production. Most of the buildings are structurally complete or nearing completion. Some equipment remains to be installed and tests will be made in the near future before full production starts. The power necessary to operate the esuipment is now fully available for the commencement of test runs.

Freedom of the Press

What precisely is meant by that familiar phrase, 'freedom of the press'?

Fundamentally it is not a special privilege reserved for newspaper publishers. It is rather a phase of a much larger freedom—the freedom of all men to speak their minds openly and without fear. The press claims no right which should not belong to every citizen in a democracy. But freedom of the press is an all-important part of this larger freedom because, under modern conditions, the press is the principal agency by which the ordinary man receives the information he needs to judge the actions of his rulers and make up his mind on public affairs. Without newspapers, or with only gagged and blindfolded ones, he is in the dark, and helpless. An unfettered press is therefore one of the essential bulwarks of a democratic nation.

If any proof be needed, it is supplied by the record of the totalitarian dictatorships which have darkened the twentieth century. Rigid control of all sources of public information, and especially of newspapers, was the cornerstone on which all these regimes—Nazi, Fascist and Communist alike—were founded. Without it, they could hardly have lasted for more than a few months. With it, they could keep their peoples in blinkers and drive them on any course they chose. The calamities of our age, its fear and insecurity, stem in no small measure from the simple fact that, at critical periods, great sections of the earth's population have been prevented by their rulers from learning the real news of the world.

These examples should provide a warning against any attempt, by governments or by private interests, to restrict the essential freedom of the press. A free people must stand on guard not only against direct censorship, but also against more insidious encroachments. Nominal freedom is not enough. The only truly free press is one which can record the news faithfully and comment on it frankly, without fear of direct or indirect punishment. Neither the press nor the public is safe with anything less than this.

All liberty, of course, involves obligations. That of a free newspaper is to be truly free. It must strive to be thorough, accurate and unbiassed in its reporting, sincere and thoughtful in its editorials, and resistant to all outside pressure. It must be both cautious and bold—cautious until it knows all the facts, bold when it is sure of its ground. It must, above all, be inspired by devotion to the public welfare as its staff understand it.

Such a newspaper is worthy of the privileges which the free peoples of the world have traditionally granted to their press. Such a newspaper is also the best guardian of the liberties of the people.

Clark Says Sign Truce, Ignore Rhee Protest

Robertson to Hold Fifth Meeting; Says Clark's Letter Means Allies Going Ahead on Truce Signing

By SAM SUMMERLIN

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark walked out of another session Monday with balky Syngman Rhee and sent the Reds a letter urging that the warring sides get on at once with signing a truce.

The United Nations Far East commander, emphasizing that he doesn't control the South Korean government but does command its army, proposed a cease-fire under conditions the Reds still may find bitter to swallow.

Rhee retired to his mansion and declined comment, but his subordinates expressed resentment over the Clark letter.

President Eisenhower's special truce envoy, Walter S. Robertson, who was joined by Clark in Monday's meeting with Rhee, planned a fifth session today. This strongly suggested that Rhee still has not been brought back in line since he upset the truce by freeing anti-Red Korean prisoners.

Clark's action in sending the letter before Rhee's objections were overcome indicated either that he expects Rhee to be brought into line soon or that a truce can be signed while Rhee still objects.

Clark made dispatch of his letter the first order of business after emerging Monday from Rhee's mansion along with Robertson, the United States Ambassador, Ellis O. Briggs, and Clark's political adviser, Robert Murphy.

Clark took a plane to Munsan, base camp of the UN truce team, and there told the chief UN truce delegate, Lt.-Gen. William K. Harrison, to have the letter sped by courier to the Reds at Panmunjom.

Robertson, assistant U. S. secretary of state, further fanned the fires of speculation by telling newspaper men: 1. He had seen Clark's letter "many times". 2. "Yes" it meant the Allies were going ahead with signing a truce. 3. But he was "still in conference" with Rhee.

Robertson, who previously had expressed optimism, replied to questions as to whether the talks were snagged by saying "I can't say they aren't." Rhee wants most of all a military security pact with the U. S.

South Korea's signature is not required on a truce, but its co-operation is vital to make one work.

MEET WITHOUT CHURCHILL SUGGESTED

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — Britain has moved to arrange an early meeting with the United States and France on world problems demanding urgent attention.

There was immediate speculation Monday night that the proposed ministerial-level talks will replace, rather than precede, the thrice-postponed Bermuda conference of Churchill, President Eisenhower and the new French premier, Joseph Laniel. A foreign office spokesman said, however, that the three still plan to get together later.

The Big Three conference was postponed twice because France had no premier and the third time, last Friday, because Churchill's doctors said the 78-year-old prime minister was too tired to carry on the heavy duties of government, and needed a long rest.

The chancellor of the exchequer, R. A. Butler, heading the administration while Churchill convalesces, told Parliament Britain he has negotiated with Washington and Paris for an interim meeting to discuss "certain urgent problems of common concern."

He said Britain would be represented by Lord Salisbury, Lord President of the Council, whom Churchill late Monday appointed as acting foreign secretary during the absence of Anthony Eden, convalescing in the U.S. from a third gall-bladder operation.

Sports Events To Hold Sway Dominion Day

Kootenay-Boundary centres will celebrate the Dominion Day holiday Wednesday with crowded sports programs and dances.

From tiny Perry Siding in the Lower Slocan, which plans a fete, to the largest centres in East and West Kootenay, merry-making is planned for young and old.

At Nelson, there will be no sports program for the kiddies, but men's and women's golf tournaments will be staged at Nelson Golf and Country Club and Trail, Fruitvale and Nelson will engage in a three-way baseball tourney at Civic Recreation grounds.

Many district citizens are planning to take in a big sports program at Salmo, where a full day of events is scheduled.

Socreds Would Improve Country's Financial Status

OTTAWA (CP) — Solon Low, national Social Credit leader, charged the Liberal government Monday night with financial "mismanagement" and said his party will dedicate itself to the job of "restoring the purchasing value of the Canadian dollar" if elected to power.

The Liberals' plan of family allowances was a good thing, said Mr. Low, but through "its mismanagement of the financial part of our Canadian economy, the Liberal government had allowed the purchasing power of the Canadian dollar to decline so seriously that every child by 1952-53 was suffering confiscation of purchasing power to the extent of $32.17 per year."

Mr. Low said a Social Credit government would introduce an "economic system to finance consumption." This would be done through the issuance of purchasing power that would "help balance production and consumption." This would help solve the economic problems of those who received it and at the same time "improve the financial condition of the country."

Nelson-Creston Count Resumes At Nelson Today

Tabulation of results of the June 9 election will be conducted in the Courthouse jury room by H. H. Hiniitt, Nelson-Creston returning officer, Tuesday.

Mr. Hiniitt was unable to say Monday night whether he would recount the first choices as is being done in some ridings. He said that if formal request was made this morning, then the first choices would be recounted.

Hon. W. D. Black, Social Credit candidate, led the poll June 9, but did not obtain the majority of votes required to win, thus, a second count is necessary. The candidate with the lowest vote, T. E. Mountford of Wynndel, Labor Progressive, will be dropped and his votes distributed among the other candidates—Mr. Black, R. G. Simms, CCF; and Fraser Tees, Liberal.

Totals for the candidates election night were: Black, 3246; Simms, 2481; Tees, 1653, Mountford, 95.

After distribution of Mr. Mountford's votes, hardly likely to change the picture, a third count will follow, with distribution of Mr. Tees' second choices. Under the alternative voting system, this continues until one candidate has a majority.

Counting begins at 9 a.m. and continues each day until 7 p.m. There will be no holiday for returning officers Wednesday, Dominion Day.

FLYWHISKS FOR ROYALTY

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (CP)—Tribesmen of this British trusteeship territory have given the government two flywhisks to be sent to the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh. The fly-swatters are made from the tails of wildebeestes — gnus— and have hand-carved ivory handles.

RICHARD AUSTEN BUTLER, (above) Britain's budget chief, has taken over the reins of the Conservative government while Premier Winston Churchill takes a complete rest on orders of his physicians. The 78-year-old Churchill will be out of action for at least a month, forcing another postponement of the Big Three Bermuda conference which had been scheduled to get under way July 8th.—AP Wirephoto.

REDS EXPANSIVE . . .

Rioters Released Food Costs Eased

Striking, Demonstrations Not Crimes Say Appeasing Communists

BERLIN (CP)—East German Justice Minister Max Fechner announced Monday night that most East Germans arrested for their part in the "June revolt" two weeks ago have been released.

The releases were granted, the minister said, because Communists do not believe in "revenge" nor do they regard striking and demonstrations as crimes.

His statement came hand-in-hand with a promise by the East German government that sauerkraut, spinach, lettuce and other consumer goods will be cheaper.

It came as communists threw open long-hoarded supplies of food to quiet the rumblings of new unrest among the sullen East German workers whose rebellion June 17 brought Soviet martial law.

Despite stern measures enforced by Red army troops and armor since they quelled the rebellion—there were several attempted demonstrations for more food late last week.

Communist bosses moved fast, and on Monday the Red press claimed they had whipped the crisis.

Public larders were opened and food reserves long denied hungry workers were distributed. Food stocks were rushed to critical areas. Imports from other Soviet satellites were increased. As food supplies improved, strikers resumed work.

LIBERALS CAN'T SOLVE HOUSING SAYS DREW

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VICTORIA (CP) — Hon. George Drew said Monday night that the Liberal government is incapable of solving Canada's housing problem and is crushing municipal taxpayers by a "tax grab."

The Progressive Conservative leader referred to a newly-opened housing project here, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club for elderly people, where rents average $20 a month.

He said the project shows "that by co-operation between the federal, provincial and municipal authorities, housing units can be constructed at purchase or rental prices far below those now generally prevailing."

Tenzing to Go To Britain

NEW DELHI (Reuters) — Tenzing, the Sherpa tribesman who reached the summit of Mt. Everest with Sir Edmund Hillary, has decided to accompany other members of the British expedition to Britain later this week.

He said Monday that if he did not fly to London with the others "I would be failing in my duty."

Hillary said he and Tenzing ate sugar, jam, lollipops and mint cake on the summit. The top of the world is a "rounded cone, quite roomy," he said. "There is room for several persons to stand on the top."

No Court Appeal In Christie Case

LONDON (Reuters)—John Christie, confessed slayer of seven women, does not intend to lodge a court appeal against the death sentence passed on him last week, his legal advisers said today.

But Home Secretary Sir David Maxwell Fyfe will be asked to recommend to the Queen that she exercise the royal prerogative of mercy to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment.

Christie, 55, discussed the matter this morning with his lawyer in a small room adjoining "Death Row" in London's Pentville prison.

Christie, mass-murderer of women in a squalid back-street tenement was sentenced to death at the Old Bailey, London's central criminal court, last Thursday. Though he confessed that he killed seven women, he was actually tried and convicted only for the murder of his middle-aged wife.

40,000 Workers In Labor Dispute

VANCOUVER (CP) — Two of B. C.'s biggest labor disputes involving close to 40,000 workers in the lumber and mining industries are before conciliation boards.

The first involves 32,000 coast woodworkers, members of CIO International Woodworkers of America, who completed their arguments for a 15-cent hourly wage hike and other concessions before a three-man board June 19.

A second conciliation board hearing at Trail Friday and Saturday involved more than 6000 Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company workers who are members of International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.)

Trail dispute centres around a Mine-Mill request for improved pension plans which company directors rejected as too costly.

Recommendations of the conciliation board are expected in about 10 days.

SAY RHEE PLANS NEW RELEASES

LONDON (AP) — The Red Chinese radio charged Monday night that South Korean President Syngman Rhee—encouraged by the success of his release of North Korean war prisoners—is planning to free Chinese prisoners in United Nations prison camps.

Majority Gov't for B.C. Forecast; Count Today

VANCOUVER (CP)—Re-establishment of majority government in British Columbia appears in the making.

The final decision whether it will be Social Credit or CCF may be known this week.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett and his Social Credit party, who held office from last August until late in March as a minority government, appear to be on top following the June 9 election.

But Tuesday under the alternative voting system the counting of second choices starts. It may take several days, especially in the big city ridings.

The first count, made election night, showed Social Credit far in the lead with Premier Bennett and three of his cabinet ministers elected. The CCF elected only two, the new leader, Arnold Webster, and the veteran E. E. Winch, long a member for Burnaby.

But Social Credit was leading in 26 ridings as against CCF's 15.

The electors blew the Liberals and Progressive Conservatives right out of the picture. One Labor member was leading.

In the 1952 election, with the exception of six, all candidates who were leading on the first count were elected in the final tally.

For the 48-seat house the first-count standing this year showed:

Social Credit elected four, CCF two, Leading—Social Credit, 26; CCF 15; Labor, one.

For an over-all majority the winning party will require 25 seats.

Under the alternative voting system, which gives the elector a choice of candidates, marking his ballot, 1, 2, 3, etc., a candidate must have a majority of votes to win.

When a majority is not obtainable, the candidate with the fewest number of votes is dropped on second count and his ballots distributed among the other candidates. Three or more counts may be necessary to elect a candidate.

DELAY

The three-week delay in ballot counting was to enable ballots to be distributed to their own ridings.

How will the second choice votes go? Political exeprts say the result hinges on what Liberal party voters did with their second choices.

The Liberals can't elect a government—it would have to be a miracle—but their second choices will ,to a large extent decide whether the Social Crediters or CCF will form the next government.

When the second count starts, the Liberals, lower in total as first choices, will be eliminated and their second choices distributed among remaining candidates.

Returning officers will start the count at 9 a.m. Tuesday and continue each day until 7 p.m. until completion of the job.

And there will be no holiday for them Dominion Day.

111-Year-Old Dies

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis. (AP)—"Uncle Mike" O'Connor, who had a party to celebrate his 111th birthday last April 11, died in his sleep Sunday. The old-timer had lived at the county infirmary for 22 years but had been in failing health only recently. When he was 100 years old he made daily trips downtown to sell his home-made leather belts and suspenders. At 104 he swung Indian clubs every morning for 15 minutes before climbing into an ice-cold shower.

BATTLE POLIO WITH VACCINE

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Doctors, nurses and anxious parent-teacher volunteers are working feverishly to get ready for the first mass gamma globulin vaccination of children in a polio-stricken community.

An estimated 30,000 boys and girls will be given precious shots of the polio-arresting serum in a desperate effort to stem an outbreak that has stricken 80 victims in the last few weeks. Three children have died.

GARSON CRITICAL OF CCF, PC PROMISES

DAUPHIN, Man. (CP) — Hon. Stuart Garson, minister of justice, Monday quoted from an English publication which said Canadian economic affairs under the Liberal government "have been handled wit ha skill unexampled throughout the world."

Speaking at a public meeting here, Mr. Garson was referring to the Economist, an English publication which he termed as "the greatest economic journal in the English language."

"Let the Conservative and CCF parties produce from any source whatsoever an appraisal of their achievements which will match this," said Mr. Garson.

In his attack on the Progressive Conservatives, Mr. Garson said "George Drew is unwittingly deceiving no one but himself in his promise to reduce taxes and increase expenditures."

The justice minister said he would not go so far as CCF leader Coldwell, who said Mr. Drew's promise is "the most calculated piece of deceit" since William Aberhart promised the people of Alberta a free pension of $25 a month in the name of the Social Credit.

"To give Mr. Coldwell his due, he is much more honest than some other public men in admitting that his proposals will add substantially to our tax burdens," Mr. Garson said.

"Mr. Drew, with his usually masterly vagueness, is promising much of what Mr. Coldwell promises, but at the same time is including a $500-millian-per-year tax cut."

Mr. Garson said he agreed with Mr. Coldwell that "this is worse than nonsense."

DIEFENBAKER SAYS 18 YEARS TOO LONG

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP) — John Diefenbaker has challenged Prime Minister St. Laurent to announce whether he will retire as federal Liberal party leader after the Aug. 10 general election.

In a speech prepared for delivery Monday night over a CBC national network, Mr. Diefenbaker said there has been "an apparent, concerted effort to indulge in personal attacks" on Progressive Conservative leader George Drew.

Declaring the Liberals are describing themselves as the "men who cannot be replaced," Mr. Diefenbaker said if that were so, "we would have achieved a virtual dictatorship in Canada."

"The present government in Ottawa has all but achieved absolute power. It can control every avenue of life in Canada under the Emergency Powers Act and put themselves above the constitution . . .

"Eighteen years of power by any party demands a change in the interests of good government."

NANAIMO (CP) — Inquest into the deaths in Parksville Friday night of Mrs. Mary Jane Edwards, 44, and her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Marie Brenton, 22, was adjourned here Monday until July 10.

A weeping husband, Patrick Edwards, identified the bodies of "my daughter and my wife."

And in This Corner . . .

BATHURST, N.B. (CP)—Wilfred Poirier of Gaspe, Que., had a mighty fast car that walked away from an RCMP highway patrol at 90 miles an hour. He overlooked one thing, though, and the police caught up. His gas tank was empty. Sequel—$100 or three months.

EDMONTON (CP)—Mrs. S. Hopping of Edmonton had plenty of reason to celebrate last week. Her father, 79-year-old Arthur Langton, arrived in Edmonton with an old friend from Leicester, England, 83-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Northwood, just in time for the wedding of her youngest son, Ernest W. Hopping. Two days later, the older couple were married too.

MELBOURNE (Reuters)—Farmers in the Victoria wheat belt, working around the clock to get their seed down, have fitted radios to their tractors to listen to the play-by-play account of the Australia-England cricket Test match in London.

PEACE DALE, R.I. (CP)—Ellis Norman, 49, has been having severe headaches off and on for 23 years, ever since he fell on his head. Sunday he found what he believes was the cause. He ran his hand through his hair, felt a splinter and pulled it out. It was a pine splinter about three inches long and Norman believes it had been there all the time.

YARMOUTH, N.S. (CP) — The granddaddy of all lobsters is dead. The giant 24-pounder with a carapace measurement of 23½ inches, caught last week by Art Cosman of Yarmouth, died unexpectedly Saturday in a local lobster pond. The "body" has been put on ice while the department of fisheries and various museums decide how to preserve for posterity the largest lobster ever taken on this part of the coast.

Record Classes Anticipated For Summer Skating School

Again they're here — from as far away as Wisconsin, California and Winnipeg—bladesters with dreams of world championship shining in their eyes and a summer of hard work ahead of them.

They're here and they turned out early Monday morning in polished white skates, eager for their first morning of classes.

Mary Rose Thacker's Summer Skating School is under way and the trim professional skater with 70 already registered, anticipates a busy summer as more come from Canada and the United States to make this Summer the biggest the school has yet known. Most entrants are from the Pacific Northwest.

Mary Rose is entering her fifth year of teaching at Nelson, and conducting her eighth Summer School. Her first two were held in Vancouver Forum in Exhibition Park and the third at Bremerton, Wash.

Assisting her with the promising young skaters are two of last year's three instructresses, Miss Evelyn Olson of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Shirley Ingham of Spokane. Miss Ingham last Winter conducted skating classes here during the first part of the season before leaving to take a position at Superior, Wis.

Mary Rose returned to Nelson from Victoria Figure Skating Club at Memorial Arena where she taught last Winter.

Classes will continue for six weeks climaxed by exams the end of August and a break July 25 for the annual ice show, expected this year to be "bigger and better than ever."

Jeane Matthews, Ice Cycles star on North American and European tours, is here for the school. Possibility of leading U. S. skaters attending is also seen by the skating pro.

All Beliefs Part of Great Circle Of Religion, Dr. Bach Tells Rotary

"Life takes on interest when we interest ourselves in others," said Dr. Marcus Bach, professor of Religion at the State University of Iowa, as he addressed about 150 Rotarians, their wives, and guests at the Hume Silver Room Monday night.

"I put myself in the place of people who do not worship as I do," and "I have tried in the last 16 years to look on religion from the other fellow's point of view," said Dr. Bach, who completely captivated his audience with his "personal opinions" of religions he has seen in touring the world. This is the noted educator's ninth public appearance here.

The world of belief and tradition, old and new, the thrilling story of men who live and worship off the beaten path are Dr. Bach's special field of study.

The title of Dr. Bach's talk was "This I Believe." He took his audience with him through a visit to Therese Neumann, whose hands and feet bleed on Good Friday, and who exists, as far as science has been able to prove, on the Wafer and Wine that constitutes the Sacraments of the Catholic Church.

His meeting with Shoghi Effendi, Persian-born head of the Baha'i movement, in Haifi, Israel, took hold of the imagination of his audience as he described the power of the religious leader of that sect, and the impact of his personality.

He told of his Papal audience with Pius XII, and his trip from Johannesburg into the heart of French Equatorial Africa where he met Albert Schweitzer, that strange man who has dedicated his life to the needs of the diseased people of that region.

BELIEFS ARE ARCS

Dr. Bach began his strangely moving, but gripping discussion of religions he had lived among by saying that "Religion, like truth, is a circle, and beliefs are arcs in that circle. "And," he went on, "no one belief has a corner on that circle." In his talk, which might have been called "To Each His Own," he said there is no such a thing as heresy to a heretic.

Dr. Bach's talk, after he had described the four great religious personalities in turn, returned each time to a theme which summarized in Bach's belief, the influence of "The Man of Nazareth" as the individual in question "crossed His Path".

He said that "Theresa had told him she was suffering a penance, and he believed that some day the phenomenum of west Germany's Theresa would be explained as "sentimental suffering". In explaining the great devotion of Theresa Neumann to the "Man of Nazareth" he said that Theresa found a "sentiment" and a spiritual love.

GOD'S WILL

Shoghi Effendi, he said, believes that nothing in this world happens unless it is God's will. "Not a sparrow falls, not a hair drops" unless it is the will of God. The Effendi compares civilization to a growing child. "God, the Effendi told him, "will see to it that the world reaches maturity. Why worry about your wars?" Bach said there was a time when te paths of the Effendi and The Man of Nazareth crossed, and the Effendi now looks on Him as a Prophet. "When we begin to understand religious beliefs, we begin to understand people," Bach pointed out.

He told of his Papal audience with the man who is one of "the richest and yet the poorest in the world." A man, he said, who fasts when he could feast, and who sleeps on a simple cot when he could have the most luxurious of sleeping quarters." Bach described vividly and in all its detail, his trip through the Vatican and his encounters with the Swiss Guards who respected so highly the "magic paper" he carried which was his official "passport" to the Papal audience.

He contrasted the splendor of the Pope's public appearance to the simplicity of the man during the Papal audience, and said he appeared as a "sad and humble figure, but wise and strong". He remarked on the Pope's ability to converse with the audience in several languages.

When the Man of Nazareth crossed this man's path, he said, there was founded the belief in the singleness of spiritual leadership.

The figure of D. Albert Schweitzer, German philosopher, musician, and physician, was especially intriguing to Bach. This great man he said, with his back against the jungle, giving his talents and abilities to the natives, crossed paths with The Man of Nazareth and for Schweigler He became a way of life.

Here in the rot and filth and disease ridden jungle, working with lepers and natives who stole from him Schweitzer who would kill nothing, not even the rats that infested the premises, had found a happiness few could understand.

"We all have our varying degrees of capacity and influence," Bach said, "and the greatest challenge we can have is to use to the greatest capacity the potential that God gave us."

Nelson Writer's Story of Kaslo Accepted by CBC

People across Canada will be given a close-up picture of one of the Kootenay's most picturesque cities on August 16.

"Mines and Cherries," a half-hour story of Kaslo's history written by David Scott of Nelson, has been accepted by CBC and will be broadcast between 10,30 and 11 p.m. August 16.

The script, Mr. Scott explains, is unusual as it only has two characters. They tell the story of characters who may have lived in the city during different periods of its history.

Raymont Whitehouse will produce the play over CBC.

Much of the information for the story came from the writings of Mrs. E. G. Ringheim of Kaslo which will be published during Kaslo's Diamond Jubilee under the title "A History of Kaslo."

Mr. Scott also wrote "Loki Speaking," a two-hour pageant on Kaslo's history to be enacted during the jubilee. Story's title is from the peak across Kootenay Lake from Kaslo named after a Norse God of Mischief.

CBC script was written this Spring, Mr. Scott explained, and the story for the Jubilee during the past six weeks.

Okanagan Guards Against Raiders

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP)—RCMP issued a warning today on possible Sons of Freedom raids in the South Okanagan fruit belt after a weekend of violence that saw 10 homes destroyed in the Kootenays.

Main developments were:

1. RCMP warned residents to guard all schools and businesses in the South Okanagan against possible attack by Freedomites who are among fruit pickers miles from their usual habitat.

2. A report that non-Doukhobor residents in the troubled area plan to answer any Freedomite raids with vigilante reprisals.

RCMP said "We are putting extra night patrols on and have advised extra guard and floodlights for schools, packing plants and other buildings."

Teachers and students guarded schools here during the weekend as a precaution against possible burnings.

Remains of a huge fortified camp near Dorchester, England, are believed 4000 years old.

NAKUSP CLERIC TO PREACH IN SASKATCHEWAN

NAKUSP—Rev. Thomas Mitchell has left for a family reunion and advance celebration for his 40th wedding anniversary in North Battleford, Sask., and has "exchanged" parishes temporarily with the rector of North Battleford.

While Mr. Mitchell preaches in St. Paul's Church there, Rev. P. H. Jordan will preach here July 12 and July 19 and at other Arrow Lakes points on the regular schedule. Each will take six services in the other's parish.

Mrs. Jordan and their three children will accompany the rector, who will arrive by bus July 9 unless he decides to drive. They will reside in the vicarage.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will meet their children and their families in North Battleford, two of their children coming from Toronto and Hamilton. They will stay with their eldest son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Neville Mitchell at North Battleford, and may spend part of the time at Meota Lake, North of Battleford. They will return about July 23 as they will be taking charge of the senior camp at Camp Galilee, Anglican Church youth camp.

THE B. C. TELEPHONE COMPANY'S $24,000 rivision of the Salmo telephone system is now complete, and by the end of June installers will have placed more than 110 new telephones in Salmo homes. One of the new subscribers is Mrs. James Dodds, Main Street, shown here giving her new telephone a "trial spin".

By the end of the month, when the present program of installations is complete, telephone service will be provided for almost all present applicants in Salmo. At that time, the number of telephones in service in the area will be over 130. Less than one year ago, when the telephone company purchased the Salmo exchange, there were about 20 telephones here.

Decrease Predicted In Cherry Production

A decrease in cherry production in the Kootenay and Arrow Lakes and Creston districts is predicted.

The department of agriculture's latest horticultural news letter foresees drops in production in most stone fruits in this part of B. C.

In Kootenay and Arrow Lakes sector, cherry production is expected to rise from the 1952 crate total of 20,697 to 17,400, and in Creston area, from 1952's 34,409 crates to 26,400.

In peaches, Kootenay and Arrow Lakes produced 9220 crates; this year 9000 crates are on the estimate list. In Creston area, this year's crop is expected to fall about 600 crates short of the 1952 total of 2000.

A rise is seen in apricot crop in Kootenay and Arrow Lakes, from last year's 1367 to 1500 crates. But Creston area may produce only one-half of its 1200 crates of last year.

In 1952, Kootenay and Arrow Lakes turned out 5168 crates of plums, and the Creston district 11,430 crates. This year the estimates are 6000 and 11,000, respectively.

Prune out put is expected to gain from 1933 to 2000 crates in Kootenay and Arrow Lakes, and from 3888 to 5000 in Grand Forks. The Creston estimate is 30,000, compared with last year's actual figure of 36,911.

In Kootenay, Arrow Lakes and Creston, strawberry harvest has begun but ripening is very slow. In many fields the fruit is not sizing normally and at this time it appears that the final yield probably will be below previous estimates. Apparently the failure of the fruit to size can be attributed to frost injury in some instances. Mildew hit a few fields where control sprays were not applied and is also affecting fruit size.

SIZING WELL

Peach and apricot thinning is almost completed and growers are now busy thinning pears. All tree fruits are sizing well Considerable apple scab is showing up in a few orchards, particularly in those that one or more recommended sprays were omitted. This will reduce the final apple crop but it is difficult to estimate to what extent at the present time. A change to warmer dry weather could change the outlook somewhat.

Most vegetable crops are making satisfactory growth, but some crops, such as beans, corn, tomatoes and vine crops have been retarded by the cool weather. Seed peas are making good growth.

In the Grand Forks district, potatoes have made slow growth, but earlies are coming in bud while the gems vary from just through the ground to one foot in height. Vegetables are progressing nicely. Very little trouble is experienced from cutworms, maggots or thrips but the thrips are appearing on onions. Asparagus cutting is finishing off.

Seed crops are growing splendidly with no serious diseases or insect pests reported.

Carrots are bushing out well and making strong growth. Onions are vigorous and starting to burst seed heads. Radish is beginning to flower. Bush beans are six inches high while broad beans are over two feet and setting pods quite well. Early lettuce fields are beginning to bolt to seed stalks.

Apple, pear and prune set is still very good and sizing is satisfactory.

Raspberries are still blossoming freely and making lush new growth. First strawberry picking is under way. This crop appears heavy and sizing excellently. Gooseberries being picked and currants starting to color.

Movie Gossip

By BOB THOMAS

HOOLYWOOD (AP) —The most sensational movie menace in many years, Jack Palance, wants to give up scaring people.

The squarely-built coal miner's son and former prize fighter made a solid impression with film fans when he played a murderous game of hide and seek with Richard Widmark in "Panic in the Streets". He landed an Oscar nomination for trying to bump off Joan Crawford in "Sudden Fear." He's a hit now in his role of attempting the same for Alan Ladd in "Shane."

"I want to get away from sadistic killers," he said. "When I go home at night, I get the feeling that people are following me."

"I don't want to get typed as a sadistic killer. I like being an actor and I know you have to get varied roles to stay in business."

He says his fan mail supports his theory. He gets a lot of letters to the effect of "don't let them type you in the pictures." Right now he is geting his wish. He has Joan Fontaine and Corinne Calvert clamoring for him in "Flight to Tangier."

Palance's career is following the pattern established by a number of film greats. Humphrey Bogart started in films as the gangster Duke Mantee in "Petrified Forest" and spent years trying to get on the right side of the law. He finally made it, Clark Gable also started as a dame-slapping bad guy, then mellowed into leading man parts.

Palance appears less menacing in person than he does in films. He is handsome, his face being more rugged and not as severe-looking as in his pictures.

Palance interrupted his college studies at University of North Carolina to enter the ring as a professional boxer. His promising ring career, 20 fights, 18 wins, was in turn interrupted by the air force. When he got out of the service, he returned to school, this time at Stanford. That's when he turned actor.

Arrest Follows Fire Outbreak

A Son of Freedom was arrested at his home in Krestova Sunday. The police action followed a few hours after latest outbreak of ifncendiarism in Kootenay-Boundary district.

Ten homes, three of them at Krestova, were destroyed by fire early Sunday a revised count showed Monday.

Nick Evdokimoff appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans and was given an eight-day remand. His arrest came during the course of investigations into the weekend fires. RCMP did not reveal the nature of the charge and said it may be revised when investigations are complete.

Homes burned at Krestova were those of John Fominoff, Fred Davidoff and Fred Saliken. The roof was burned on the home of William Stoopnikoff and an unsuccessful attempt was made on the home of Mike Legebokoff.

Tomfoolery Or Arson?

VANCOUVER — The government-sponsored Consultative Committee on the Doukhobor Question is keeping a "watching brief" of violent incidents.

Prof. G. C. Andrew, of Vancouver, vice-chairman of the committee, said he was seeking a full report on the latest burnings at Gilpin and in Slocan centres from the RCMP.

"Sometimes it is difficult to tell whether it is arson or just tomfoolery," he said Monday. "We often don't know whether it's arson or a case of the Freedomites burning their own homes, which, of course, isn't arson if the homes aren't insured."

He said the committee had no new proposals for the solution of the problem, but is "standing quietly by" on its previous recommendations.

The Weather

Synpsis — In spite of generally cloudy skies there were occasional sunny periods in most regions of British Columbia today. Temperatures were somewhat warmer than for the past few days. Here are a few maximums; Vancouver 70, Lytton 73, Quesnel 75 and Revelstoke 65. Tomorrow promises to be another fine day in the interior with only a few showers along the mountains. On the coast cloudiness is increasing with the approach of another in the long series of storms which has been crossing this area. Indications are that another two or three days of cool unsettled weather can be expected in most regions of the province.

"I Am a Canadian"

On July 1, 86 years ago, Canadian leaders, supported by men of enkindling patriotism and love of their land, put their hands to the documents of confederation and our young nation was born. Today and tomorrow, later by the span of a long lifetime, we can see evidences to support the faith of their vision.

Already we have a national ledger marked high with achievements, with deeds of courage, with pioneering in arts, industry and sciences, yet one of our mysteries is why we take so little pride in our citizenship. It is a wonderful thing to be able to say, "I am a Canadian." For it means you are saying, "I am a member of one of the finest nations, a nation generous to the needy, loyal to its friends, helpful to its neighbors, strong and growing, free and Christian."

We do not advocate nationalism; but we do advocate love of country. We think it a part of those real things such as holding to the values of family, school and church. We are a people woven from the threads of many lands, and with a heritage to fill our hearts with pride. It is well that on the day of confederation we remember these things.

What Difference Does It Make?

The driver who speeds to get to his destination—what difference does it make whether he arrives 10 or 20 minutes later?

The youth who attempts to swim the lake too soon after a meal—what is gained by not waiting?

The father who cannot deny his children the "pleasure" of fireworks—what pleasure will the child derive from injured eyes?

Motor vehicle accidents lead the list of holiday hazards. In recent years many holidays have brought such a high accident toll that they assume the proportions of a national catastrophe. And this carnage need not occur. Accidents are not always acts of fate. They are acts of humans who foolishly bet their lives for dubious rewards.

Fly the Flag

Tomorrow is Canada's Day—Fly the ensign.

Your Horoscope

Be tactful and good natured, use your own good sense, and a fair measure of success should be yours. A keenly sensitive personality is likely for the child born under these auspices, and a fair measure of success seems assured.

FOR WEDNESDAY, JULY 1: Work will bring you success and satisfaction, and benefits are foreseen. Today's child may need a good sound bringing up to guarantee a successful life, as ambition is likely to dominate the character.

Equipment and worth are the only true and certain means of advancement and permanent success.—Anonymous.

Verse

A Soliloquy

"I've heard it said the world's a dismal place.
But I know better . . .

for I have seen the dawn, and walked in the splendor of a morning's sun . . . blinked at the brilliance of the dew, and beheld the gold and crimson of an autumn landscape.

"I've heard it said the world is sad.
I can't agree . . .

for I have heard the cheerful songs of feathered masters . . . heard the low laughter of the leaves, and the everlasting chuckle of a mountain brook.

"I've heard it said the world's a musty, sordid thing.
It can't be true . . .

for I have seen the rain . . . watched it bathe
the earth, the very air . . . and I have seen the sky, newly scrubbed and spotless, blue from end to end . . .
and I've watched the Winter's snow drape tree and bush,
to look like Nature's freshly laundered linen hung to dry.

"I've even heard the world is evil.
But they are wrong . . .

for I have known its people . . . watched them die to save a freedom, bleed to save a life . . . spend of themselves to stem disaster, of their wealth to ease distress . . . and I have watched them live, love, and labor . . . watched them

But I would disagree . . .

because, for every shadow, I have seen a hundred rays

Unionized King

Oscar Levant played straight man instead of the piano yesterday. Glumly, the usually glib pianist swallowed chunks of pride as he endured a verbal spanking by James C. Petrillo, head of the American Federation of Musicians (AFL).

Cheerfully, Mr. Petrillo explained that he would "throw out the window" charges that the pianist had failed to keep concert engagements because Mr. Levant had promised to be a good boy in the future. Mr. Levant nodded agreement and thanked the union president.

Mr. Levant had been under union suspension since April 18 and had not played publicly since then, he admitted in the presence of his wife in Mr. Petrillo's skyscraper office at 570 Lexington Avenue.

Just to make certain Mr. Levant would remember the way of the union transgressor, Mr. Petrillo cited other artists who had thought an artist could not be governed by union regulations.

"There was Menuhin," he recalled. "He used to talk about his art and his God and his fiddle. Then one day when he was supposed to play in Philly, we told the musicians he didn't hold a union card and they walked out. So now him and his God and his fiddle, they're in the San Francisco local."

Pointedly, Mr. Petrillo looked across the carpeted office at the squirming Mr. Levant, and then turned to his own bright future. He was, said Mr. Petrillo, getting ready to visit Sweden to deliver a speech before representatives of 53,000,000 unionists from 63 countries.

"While I'm in Europe," he said, "I'll run over to Denmark and talk to the King. He's something of a musician. He takes off his coat and starts conducting musicians, making records, getting on sponsored radio programs in the United States. Maybe I'll talk to him about getting a union card, too. We got the lowest dues in the country."—The New York Times.

Press Comment

In Canada today, one person out of every 18 has come to this country since the end of the Second Great War, points out the Regina Leader-Post. "It is the responsibility of all of us, who have been here for a much longer period—perhaps all our life—to see that these new citizens have every chance of becoming good Canadians."

Latin

Is Latin un-American?

That isn't quite the way the Teachers of Classics in New England asked the question they sent to the administrators of 92 of America's leading colleges and universities. But it might serve as a waggish translation of their actual query: "Is the study of Latin in school a valuable preparation for the student who later will attend your institution?"

To their happy astonishment, the answer was a virtually unanimous roar of "Yes!"—even from the technical schools. The reasons adduced were many, but perhaps the most common was the training Latin gives in exact, structural, rich, and even loving use of the English language. The educators well know the correlation between a vivid, wide-ranging intelligence and a vivid, wide-ranging vocabulary.—Christian Science Monitor.

Season with the salt of experience, the pepper of animation, the oil of sympathy, and a dash of humor.

A farmer's wife, suddenly clothes-conscious, went to New York and indulged in an orgy of buying. One of the fripperies she wore home was a fancy hat, replete with ribbons, fruits and feathers. Before she could retrieve it, the hired man had fired at it twice, and the dog buried it back of the kennel.

Austria Needs Tourist Industry

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Austria needs tourists' money and the tourists may see at moderate cost one of the world's famous cities, Vienna, and a country of mingled pastoral and mountain beauty.

The delegates to the May Congress in Vienna of the International Chamber of Commerce found the city and country so delightful that probably each one of them came away determined to pass the word along.

I asked Burgomaster Jonas of Vienna if he had any special word for Canada. He said, through an interpreter:

"We would like our friends abroad to know that even if, in Vienna, one is near the Iron Curtain, they can safely come here."

NEED MORAL SUPPORT

"We do not want to be written off the books of other democracies . . . We need the moral backing of democratic countries. If our friends do not come to visit us, then the Viennese will feel that they have been forgotten. It will be a heavy loss, also, for the democracies.

"That is why we asked the International Chamber of Commerce to come here, so that our friends may learn about us for themselves."

This statement of the Burgomaster draws attention to the hesitation felt by some would-be visitors because of the presence of Russian soldiers.

Vienna and Austria are occupied by four countries — Britain, the United States, France, and Russia. But, in Vienna, one comes and goes as one pleases and virtually forgets that the occupation exists.

In Vienna one will note the big Red Star over the Imperial hotel, and Russian soldiers at the doors of both the Imperial and Grand hotel, which have been taken over by the Russians. But these soldiers look bored, although, one is told, they will expose your film or seize your camera if you snap a picture.

And one may occasionally see the four-power jeep, carrying a soldier of each country, which patrols the city, or even pass the time of night with its occupants as one passes them in a taxi or car.

NEED PASS

Entering or leaving Vienna by train or car a "grey card" is needed to pass through the Russian zone, but the card is easily obtained unless one is on the Russian's blacklist.

The city's store windows are a delight to the shopper, and probably especially interesting to the feminine shopper.

For the most part the Viennese are well-fed and well-dressed, and, outwardly at least, seem to put up with the occupation with a fair degree of resignation. Vienna's traditional gaiety and grace, although undoubtedly more subdued than in its grand imperial days, is still there in abundance.

Berida's Name Not On Top 12 List

LONDON (Reuters) — Lavrenti P. Berida, who became the No. 2 man in the Kremlin hierarchy on Stalin's death, was the subject of speculation Sunday as Moscow released a list of 12 top men which did not include his name.

Prime Minister Malenkov and 11 other Soviet leaders went to the Bolshoi theatre in Moscow Friday night to see a new opera. The 11 names comprised all the full membership of the party praesidium (top direction) except Berida, who is secret police chief and interior minister.

Korean Soldiers Find Bodies of 2 Van Doos

By BILL BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

IN KOREA (CP)—The bodies of two Van Doos missing since a patrol the night of May 19 have been recovered from the bank of a stream in no-man's-land.

The bodies are those of 21-year-old Sgt. J. A. G. Desjardins of Winnipeg, and Pte. H. J. Moreau of Penetanguishene, Ont.

Desjardins led an 11-man patrol from the 3rd battalion, Royal 22nd Regiment, trying to intercept and capture a prisoner.

FOUR ALIVE

Only four of his men returned, bringing with them a story of a patrol that criss-crossed all night through no man's land looking for the enemy, finally moving to a point 1500 yards south of its assigned area.

There it was trapped between a Chinese outpost and a Chinese patrol trailing behind. When last seen Desjardins was shooting it out, a pistol in his right and, a sten gun in his left.

TAKEN FOR SANDBAGS

It had been hoped that the missing had been captured.

This appeared strengthened when two outlines in the stream, at first thought to be bodies, were declared by soldiers who patrolled near them to be sandbags that had floated downstream.

During recent rains, however, the objects were raised again to the view of observers who constantly watch no man's land and enemy territory through high-powered binoculars.

They again appeared to be bodies. Lt.-Col. Antonie Poulin, the CO, sent out a small patrol to check. They were bodies, apparently now washed onto the bank.

Suspecting that the Chinese might have placed them there and booby-trapped them, Poulin ordered the bodies watched and had the area carefully gone over.

Finally the night of June 13 a strong patrol under 2nd Lieut. J. B. Riffow of Cap des Rosiers, Que., was sent out to bring them in.

UNDER 21 . . . BUT THEY CAN VOTE

OTTAWA (CP)—A handful of Canadians will be able quite legally to wink at the law which says no civilian can vote in the Aug. 10 general election unless he or she has reached the age of 21.

They will be able to vote even though they are not yet 21.

The law provides that anyone who is or has been a member of the armed forces on active service since September, 1950, is entitled to cast a ballot. This includes men who have served their hitch and been discharged and now are civilians.

An unknown number of them are still under 21.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lt.-Col. Mary Gilks, 86, who entered Salvation Army work in London in 1890 and became known as "The Angel of Devil's Mile," died Saturday at her home here. During the early part of her long career with the religious group Mrs. Gilks worked in a notorious stretch of taverns and brothels in London's slums. She was credited with persuading many women in the area to give up prostitution.

Johnson's Landing Girl Is Married

KASLO—In a quiet ceremony in St. Mark's Anglican Church here, Rev. W. S. Beames heard Colleen Ethel Lake, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Lake of Johnson's Landing, exchange vows with Wilfred Broconier of Medicine Hat.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue-tailored suit with matching accessories and corsage of red roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Doreen Lake, who wore a grey tailored suit and corsage.

The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Alvin Lake. After the ceremony, a party of 20 guests were entertained at luncheon at the King George Hotel. Mr. Beames proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride, a native daughter of Johnson's Landing, is well known in the Lardeau and Howser districts and the groom has resided in Lardeau for the past few years. They will live in Arrowwood, Alta.

WE WONDER how much finer you can get than the aluminum wire used in delicate apparatus which records the earth's tremors. Drawn out almost to the vanishing point, it is about one-twelfth the diameter of a human hair. One pound of aluminum would make enough of this unbelievably fine wire to stretch 20,000 miles!

We know no more striking example of the way people make use of the lightness and strength of aluminum for all sorts of jobs. Recipes . . .

Three Tempting Dishes Imported From Spain

By ALICE DENHOFF

A friend of ours is just back after having accompanied her husband all over the world during his diplomatic career. Everywhere she went she collected recipes and here are some culled from her European sojourns.

The egg dishes and the salads in Spain she particularly enjoyed, and often serves them now at home. For the salads, she prepares a Spanish dressing, a variation of French dressing.

Dissolve ½ tsp. salt in one tbsp. vinegar. Put 3 tbsp. olive oil into a small bowl and gradually add ½ tsp. pepper, freshly ground, and a finely-minced garlic clove. Then add the vinegar, a few drops at a time, beating continually for two minutes until thoroughly blended.

String Bean Salad offers a nice change, especially when prepared this way.

Chill 3 cups cooked string beans. Marinate them in Spanish dressing, and garnish with small cucumber pickles and thin triangles of lemon.

Asparagus in the style of Andalusia is quite a concoction. A bit of an effort to prepare, but worth it.

Cook 2 bunches asparagus in slightly salted boiling water until tender. Roast 2 sweet red peppers on top of stove or under broiler until skins and core can be easily removed.

Fry a minced garlic clove with the peppers in 2 tbsp. olive oil until tender, then mash into the oil, adding pepper to taste and a tablespoon of asparagus water.

Pass peppers through a sieve, take out the asparagus when cooked, drain and place on hot platter. Cover with the sauce.

Break six eggs into the hot asparagus water to poach. Remove when set and place on the platter with the asparagus. Season and sprinkle with drops of vinegar about a tbsp. in all.

The Basques, living in the lofty Pyrenees, are colorful, proud of their very ancient heritage and history. Occupying the borderline between France and Spain, they maintain a cuisine that is entirely their own, with allegiance to neither of their neighbors. The food is superb and simple yet rich, perhaps because the Basque dairy products are so rich.

BASQUE SOUP

For the national soup, potatoes, beans, and garlic to taste are boiled together Slices of dry bread are spread with mashed potatoes and thickly dusted with grated cheese. These are placed in big soup plates and the potato and bean puree poured over. Then a fistful of pitted olives is sprinkled over all.

Eggs done Basque fashion make a good luncheon or supper dish.

To serve 4, parboil 4 large green peppers for 5 minutes. Drain, remove skin, cut off stem end and remove seeds and membrane. Place each pepper in a buttered cup, cut side up. In each, drop an egg and sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Place cups in pan of hot water and bake at 350 F. until eggs are set—about 10 minutes. When done, remove peppers and place in nests of cooked rice—takes 2 cups in all. Surround wit htomato sauce, or a cream sauce or brown gravy.

Bodies of 20 Africans Found

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique (AP) — Rescue workers today recovered the bodies of 20 African workers suffocated in the 7730 ton Belgian steamer Steenstraete after gasoline caught fire on the water in the harbor of Beira.

First reports Sunday said that the flames spread after the Danish tanker Fenheim blew up while unloading gasoline. Latest advices from Beira, about 450 miles northeast of Lourenco Marques, said the Fenheim was undamaged.

About 40 natives were in hospital with severe burns. The flames had caused damage also to four other ships and their cargo in the harbor —second largest port city in this Portuguese colony on the east African coast.

Indian birch-bark canoes used in Canada's early fur trade could carry up to 900 pounds, plus four passengers.

Laws Relaxed But Red Fear Remains

By DORIAN FALK

VIENNA (AP)—Soviet gestures toward Austria have brought happiness to the Austrians, but have failed so far to reduce the distrust and the fear which most Austrians have of everybody and everything connected with the Russians.

The Soviets recently relaxed traffic controls in their zone, dropped Austrian Communist police chiefs who have been disloyal to their government, and granted other minor concessions. There were festivals, in some places dancing in the streets, and many tore up their four-language identification cards.

But the Austrians, most of whom are anti-Communist Socialists or Catholic Conservatives, still feel the pressure of eight years of Soviet rule in East Austria. They continue to avoid Soviet soldiers and are paralyzed by fear and defenceless as ever in front of Red army personnel or Soviet civilian agents.

CREATE FEAR

The atmosphere is such that even a man posing as a Russian can strike fear into Austrian hearts. In the small village of Purgstall in the Soviet zone a young civilian entered the inn one recent evening and demanded to be led to the next telephone so he might ring up the Soviet Kommandantura in nearby Scheibbs.

Speaking in broken German, he identified himself as an agent of the Russian secret police and ordered two husky Austrians to show him the way to the next village as there was no telephone in Purgstall. After they had left the inn he told them they were his prisoners. Obeying his order without protest, the two men stood back to back so he could tie them together with a rope.

ORDERED TO MARCH

Then he ordered them to march, swearing, kicking and beating them as they stumbled along the dark and deserted road. But when he untied them after several miles and told them they were free, they thanked him and offered to show him how to proceed.

Soon they came upon a farm house. Suddenly he changed his mind, told the two Austrians they were again arrested and tied them again. Then he entered the house, told the farmer he had just arrested two dangerous "snipers" in the neighborhood. The terrorized farmer willingly served him liquor and his family helped set out the dishes.

Then the "commissar" arrested the farmer's son-in-law, despite the protests of his wife, and took his three prisoners on the road again to Scheibbs. En route he suddenly let the young farmer go, unfettered the other two but ordered them to follow him to a small village nearby.

There he entered an inn, declared everybody under arrest and demanded food and drink for himself and his two earlier captives. For several hours nobody dared leave the inn.

JUST A BUTCHER

Then a passing night patrol of Austrian police came through the village and were led to the inn. They quickly recognized the man, who had a long police record for violence, and arrested him. To the relief of all concerned, the mysterious agent who had kept two villages in cold fear turned out to be an Austrian butcher in Scheibbs, who had no connections with the Russians.

New U.S. Wheat Program Announced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $7,500,000 stop-gap wheat export subsidy program was announced today by the U. S. agriculture department.

Agriculture Secretary Benson said in a statement that is is designed to avoid a break in the export movement of U. S. wheat to traditional foreign markets.

The program becomes effective Tuesday and will remain in effect pending official ratification of the renewed International Wheat Agreement and the enactment of legislation needed to carry out U. S. obligations under it.

The renewed agreement, scheduled to go into effect Aug. 1, has not been ratified by the Senate.

Under the temporary export program, the agriculture department will make up the difference between the price provided in the new IWA and the support price for wheat. The new agreement calls for a maximum of $2.05 a bushel, while the national support price is $2.21 a bushel.

Mrs. Rockefeller In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Barbara (Bobo) Rockefeller seized her estranged husband's Park Avenue apartment during the weekend after suddenly arriving here from an Indiana farm.

With her were their four-year-old son and an unidentified woman friend.

Mrs. Rockefeller, blonde daughter of a coal miner, moved into the apartment while her husband, Winthrop Rockefeller, heir to standard oil millions, was in Little Rock, Ark.

She talked briefly with newspaper men by telephone Sunday night, indicating she was not impressed by a $1,000,000 trust fund being set up by Rockefeller for her.

The 36-year-old Mrs. Rockefeller and the oil heir were married five years ago. They were estranged shortly after the birth of the son, Winthrop Paul, who has since been in the exclusive custody of the mother.

NO SIGN OF SIGHTED PLANE

SEATTLE (AP)—A report that a plane with two men on the wing was sighted through binoculars on the water off the Oregon coast set off a wide but fruitless search Sunday.

District coast guard headquarters said the case was marked off as groundless after no evidence could be found to support it and no plane or persons were reported missing.

The headquarters was advised that two men were found fishing from a rubber raft in the area and that their presence may have set off the report.

Two coast guard planes and two boats and an air force plane joined in a search between Tillamook bay and Falcon rock. The search extended five miles out.

Truman May Be Asked for List Of Atomic Spies

WASHINGTON (CP) — Former president Truman may be called before a senate committee to tell about a list of U. S. atomic spies he is said to have received in 1945 from the late Canadian prime minister Mackenzie King.

This was disclosed today by Senator Joseph McCarthy who said Truman may be asked to appear before his Senate investigations sub-committee in a new probe of suspected atomic spying in the U. S.

McCarthy announced he is asking the justice department for a report "on whether it ever received from Truman a list of American members of an alleged atomic spy ring" which he said Truman received in 1945 from the Canadian government.

Alfred Kohlberg, New York City importer and publisher, reported nearly three years ago that such a list had been given to Truman by King. Kohlberg asked in a July 2, 1950, letter to Representative Vera Buchanan (Dem. Pa.) that an investigation be started.

Korean Truce Will Be Military One

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, UN commander, said today in a letter to the Communists a Korean truce would be a "military armistice" and told them the UN command "does not exercise authority over the Republic of Korea."

Replying to an angry Red protest over President Syngman Rhee's release of 27,000 anti-Red war prisoners, Clark said:

"I believe you realize the armistice which both of us seek is a military armistice between the military commanders of both sides."

In a full-dress meeting June 19, the Communists demanded recapture of the prisoners and assurances the UN command would control South Korea if an armistice were signed.

The South Korean government has threatened to continue the war if the UN command signs an armistice on present terms, which it has resisted stubbornly.

Rhee's arbitrary release of the Korean prisoners froze the truce talks just short of signing.

Clark held to earlier UN command statements that the prisoners "escaped" as far as the UNC was concerned.

Typhoid Epidemic Strikes Sweden

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The death of four patients Sunday night brought the number of Sweden's typhoid fever victims to 22, with more than 6000 in hospital, many in serious condition, it was reported today.

Children, so far less vulnerable, are now reported in the danger zone.

The disease is spread mainly through sewers and the current heat wave has multiplied germs in sewers and pools of stagnant waters.

Kramer, Segura Retains Lead As 1200 Spectators Look on TRAIL—An enthusiastic crowd of 1200 in Cominco arena here Monday night watched Jack Kramer and Pancho Segura retain their leads in Kramer's International Tennis Tour.

Fans from Trail and district were not disappointed as they watched the top professionals turn in stellar performances such as they have been giving spectators across Canada and the United States.

The four top professionals are playing for $100,000 top money on the international tour.

In the singles match Kramer downed Frank Sedgman 6-4 to take a 56-41 lead in games played so far.

Kramer, who is world professional champion and holder of many world records, battled on even terms with Sedgman in the opening games, the lead in the fourth with beautiful placement shots that caught five foot three Sedgman flat footed and lost him the game 45-love.

Sedgman, with his powerful drives, came back strong to even the score. In the ninth game of the last set, Kramer finally broke Sedgman's service and went on to win the match 6-4.

Pancho Segura of Equador, who at one time had infantile paralysis thrilled the crowd with his two-fisted shots and his showmanship as he downed the tall Australian Ken McGregor 6-3.

First game played in this set went to three deuces before Segura broke through.

In the nine games played in the set, three went to deuces before a winner was declared.

UP 75-21

McGregor, in the eight game, showed the crowd many of his sizzling shots, an won with service shots that completely eluded Segura. The set gave Segura a 75-21 lead over McGregor in the tour.

In the doubles McGregor and Sedgman came back strong to win both sets against Segura and Kramer and take a slim 53-52 lead in sets as they won 8-6 and 6-3.

In the first set McGregor broke through the service of Kramer in the fourth game to take a 3-1 lead which they held until the seventh. Kramer and Segura finally broke through the service to claim a 4-3 lead. However they dropped in the tenth to Sedgman and McGregor, evening the games 5-5.

In the 13th game Sedgman, still displaying his earlier powerful drives, broke the service once again gaining a 7-6 lead and the pair finished the set in a flurry completely baffling their opponents.

In the second set McGregor and Sedgman showed complete mastery and walked off with a 6-3 verdict.

In an exhibition Walt Stolberg, outstanding Trail player, alongside Segura, tackled Kramer and McGregor. Although going down to defeat 6-3, Stolberg, who turned pro only last Summer in his first professional match, put up a good show. He proved to the fans he still has not forgotten his tennis days on the Davis cup team for Canada.

Both Kramer and McGregor, showing much more power on their drives, outmatched Stolberg and Segura time after time.

Segura, showman that he is, and Stolberg drew heavy applause from the crowd.

Three-Way Ball Play Here July 1

Ball fans will see three of the district's top teams in action in Nelson Dominion Day.

Fruitvale and Trail nines will be here for the tournament for which Nelson Maple Leafs are hosts. First game will be at 2 p.m. with the winner playing the third team in the early evening.

The "little tournament" will provide a warm-up for the big event slated for Summer Bonspiel week.

NEW CURLING RINK

RED DEER, Alta. (CP) — A new $90,000 curling rink equipped with artificial ice will be built here in time for the next season. The rink will have eight sheets of ice.

Red Deer curling officials announced that artificial ice will also be installed in the adjacent hockey arena which was opened last year.

Rosewall, Hoad Fallen Stars

By STERLING SLAPPEY

WIMBLEDON (AP) — Australia, reigning power in the world tennis the last three years, lost two of its stars in quarter-final round matches of the Wimbledon tournament Monday. Defeat of top-seeded Ken Rosewall was a shocker.

The 18-year-old big gun of Australia's powerhouse team was whipped in a five-set match by Kurt Nielsen, 23-year-old Dane, an in-and-out player, by scores of 7-5, 4-6, 6-8, 6-0, 6-2.

Lewis Hoad, the other 18-year-old Australian, seeded No. 5 in this tournament, was spilled 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 1-6, 9-7 by Vic Seixas of Philadelphia. This couldn't be classified as an upset—Seixas is seeded No. 3—although Hoad had been playing some of the best tennis on display here this year.

In the other quarter-final matches Mervyn Rose, third member of Australia's youthful trio, eliminated Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., former United States champion, 6-3, 6-3, 16-14. Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, still weary from last week's exhausting play, used just enough of his energy to defeat Sven Davidson of Sweden 7-5, 6-4, 6-0.

Wednesday's semi-final round pairings will pit Seixas against Rose and Drobny against Nielsen. The title will be decided Friday.

The defeats of Rosewall and Hoad boosted U.S. Davis Cup hopes. For three years Australia has held the cup and it was the general belief she would control the huge international trophy for some time to come with her army of youngsters. Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor had turned professional but Australia still appeared supreme.

Now all has changed. Harry Hopman, the Australian non-playing captain, said inexperience brought about Hoad's defeat and that Rosewall was suffering from an upset stomach.

REVIVED LEGIONS WHIP LISTER

CRESTON — The hustling "new look" Legion team cashed in on errors to wallop Lister 12-2 in a regular league game.

In a complete about face, the recently revamped Legionnaires showed plenty of spirit to come up with the big win to vault into a first place tie with Kiwanis. Walter Osterikov was the winner.

Only a few short weeks ago even the most stolid Legion supporters were singing the blues as the team floundered helplessly. Their entry is not only still in the league but their 7 win and 5 loss record is good enough to share top spot with the Kiwanians who have a six and four record. Lister has five wins against seven losses while Riondel find themselves on the wrong side of a four and six record.

Bonspiel Baseball Tourney Touch And Go as Tickets Selling Slow

Fritz Farenholtz, chairman of the Mid-Summer Bonspiel Committee, said Monday it is possible the baseball tournament, slated for the last three days of the summer 'spiel may have to be called off. Ticket sales are going "very slowly."

To make a go of the tournament enough tickets to help cover the cost will have to be sold, said Farenholtz. Unless this is accomplished by Friday the event will be called off.

The Nelson Senior Baseball Club is hoping for the best, for five outside clubs from Penticton, Kamloops, Kimberley, Fruitvale and Trail have already sent in entries for the tourney.

The Leafs will get another game in tonight when they travel to Trail to take on the Smoke Eaters in Butler Park under the lights.

54 RINKS

In other bonspiel news, Jack Morgan confirmed the entry of still another rink from Saskatoon. That swells the entries for the curling event to 54 rinks with 48 coming from other provinces.

When the annual hockey game is staged Penticton will be bolstered by Ray Powell of the American Hockey League and Tony Leswick of the National League New York Ranger Club. Both these men have previously appeared here in the annual classic which takes place on the final day of the bonspiel.

With both Penticton and Nelson having the same colored sweaters, Nelson will use Kimberley Dynamiter colors for this game. Kimberley executive will be sending the dress to Nelson within the next few days.

Aussie Victory Almost Assured

LONDON (Reuters) — England, left to get 343 runs at an average 50 an hour, faces almost certain defeat on the last day of the second test match against Australia Tuesday.

Australian bowlers Monday dismissed Don Kenyon, Len Hutton and Tom Graveney in one disastrous half-hour and left England 322 runs behind with seven wickets in hand at the close of the day.

Australia, helped by Keith Miller's 109, had carried its second innings total to 368 when England went into bat for the second time.

England gained a slight lead in the first innings, sending British hopes soaring over the weekend. They made 372 runs in reply to Australia's 346.

Fast bowler Ray Lindwall started the English slide in the second innings, getting Kenyon and Hutton, caught out for a total six runs. Bill Johnston dismissed Graveney at the wicket and three of England's top batsmen were out of the game for only 12 runs.

Denis Compton and Willie Watson played carefully and were still battling at the close. But the chances of England snatching victory out of imminent defeat are remote. The pitch is already dusty and may deteriorate still more in the bowlers' favor overnight.

Miller, with his third test century against England, and Arthur Morris, who hit 89, put Australia on the road to victory with a second wicket stand of 165 runs in 201 minutes.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Babe Zaharias was back on her home course Monday, but it will be several days before the queen of golfers does any shooting.

Runners on Base When Fairview Slops Fruitvale

FRUITVALE—Fruitvale baseball fans witnessed a close, exciting ball game on the local diamond as the visiting Fairview Juniors from Nelson edged out the Fruitvale Juniors 3-1 Sunday afternoon.

The Nelson Club tallied all three of their runs in the second inning with the home squad coming through with their lone run in a last-ditch rally in the ninth. In that inning they nicked the visitors' hurler, Al Dawson, for three hits and had the tying runs on bases only to have Ferraro go down swinging.

Both teams displayed some nice fielding with each club pulling off a double play. Dawson, Sherwood and Elsner hit a double each for Nelson while Shorting and Anderson drove out the extra base blows for Fruitvale. Coach Jimmy Burrows sent out Tom Wood to chuck opening three innings and then sent in big Jack Duncan for the last six frames. Wood gave up three runs, struck out two, walked one and gave up three hits. Duncan held the visitors scoreless for the remainder of the game. He retired seven batters via the strikeout route, gave two free passes and yielded three hits. Al Dawson went the full way for Nelson, giving up six hits, striking out nine batters, walking one and hitting two.

Dawson, Marshall and Elsner scored tht Nelson runs with Anderson scoring Fruitvale's.

Giants May Visit Japan

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time an entire big league baseball team, New York Giants, may visit Japan next Fall to play a series of exhibitions against that nation's strongest club, Tokyo Giants.

President Horace Stoneham, of the National League club said Monday he had tentatively accepted an invitation to make the trip if permission can be obtained.

It first will be necessary to obtain the approval of commissioner Ford Frick, Stoneham explained and then the other clubs in the major league will have to waive the rule which forbids more than three players from a single team to play in a post-season exhibition game.

Minner Pitches Cubs To 6-2 Win Over Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Big Paul Minner, usually tough for the St. Louis Cardinals, limited the Redbirds to six hits—only two in the first seven innings—as he pitched Chicago Cubs to a 6-2 victory here Monday night. The National League clash was Monday's only major-league action.

The Cubs shelled three Cardinal pitchers for 10 hits, including homeruns by Frankie Baumholtz and Eddie Miksis. Miksis also lined a triple off the left-field wall. Ray Jablonski found the range for the Cardinals, dumping his 11th homer of the season into the left-field bleachers in the eighth to break through Minner's mastery. The Cub southpaw, who claimed his fourth victory in 12 decisions, retired 14 Card batters in order before Jablonski homered.

It took the Cubs three innings before they finally got to starter Joe Presko. Then Miksis and Baumholtz homered.

Presko, a righthander suffering his eighth defeat, left the game in the sixth as the Cubs came back for two more.

Red Schoendienst, leading the major league hitters, became the first to get 100 hits this season with a first-inning single. He got two for four for the night, padding his average to .346.

Kiwanians Score Rotary Victory

Bleachers were almost filled by fans at Little League Stadium Monday night out to see Kiwanians defeat Rotarians in a close 4-3 game.

Kiwanian pitcher Vern Goldsbury was on his toes pitching 10 strikeouts before being relieved by Arnold Sjoberg at the fifth inning. Rotarian Jim Carter stuck the game out striking out seven.

Only home run was scored by Larry Simpson for the Kiwanians in the third inning.

Simpson, David Grundy and Arnold Sjoberg scored Kiwanis runs and Jim Carter, Jerry Peerless and Waren Jarvis, Rotary counters.

Williams Not Expected To Play This Season

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Marine Corps said Monday Ted Williams will come back from Korea Wednesday but he probably won't play any baseball this season.

Williams, a captain in the First Marine Air Wing, will receive treatment for an ear and nose ailment that impairs his usefulness as a jet pilot. There has been no indication whether the ailment would hamper him on the baseball diamond.

Lou Boudreau, manager of Boston Red Sox, said he is convinced the slugging outfielder will get back into the lineup if he is released from active duty before the end of the season.

The 35-year-old Williams has been with the Red Sox since 1939 except for hitches with the Marine Corps in the Second World War and his service in Korea. He was called back to duty in May, 1952. A Marine Corps spokesman said until October when the baseball season will be over, and "it's most unlikely Williams will be released from active duty before then."

Surgeons in Korea described Williams' ailment as "lack of ventilation in the ear and nose that causes interference with jet flying."

If Williams sees no baseball action this year, he'll return to the Red Sox next season a 36-year-old.

Williams, who hit .318 in his last full season in 1951, has let it be known he believes he has a couple of good seasons left.

Lethbridge Downs Fernie 6-2 To Lead Series

John Ewaneck, Fernie centre forward, scored the only goal of the first half. Stan Smith put Fernie two up early in the second half. Lethbridge struck back with a terrific attack to score six times without a further reply from the United.

Centre forward Adam Rath led the attack with three goals, outside right John Wensveen got two and inside right Guy Wensveen got the other.

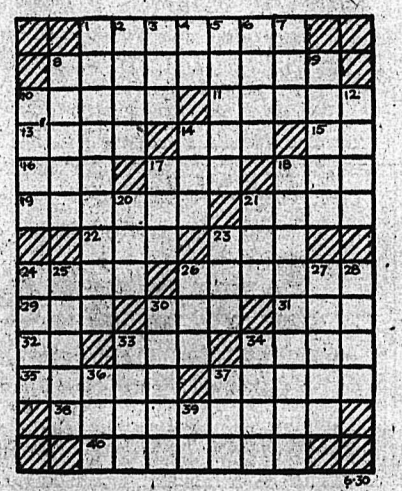
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

L R G E M R U P I B M P J R N S I I U L M G M
C B U J D G L I C Y F W S E L S S Y R E G O S Y
G Y B B G D E R ? — M R G H S M K S G D R.

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: LET LIFE BURN DOWN, AND DREAM IT IS NOT DEATH — SWINBURNE.

Lumbermen Say Freight Rate Boost Part of "Bargain"

OTTAWA (CP) — Council for the British Columbia lumber industry charged today that the railways boosted freight rates on B. C. lumber as part of a "bargain" with Pacific Northwest Railway interests in the United States.

C. W. Brazier of Vancouver, counsel for the B. C. Lumber Manufacturers Association and other Western lumber groups, made the charge as he appealed to the board of transport commissioners to eliminate the rate change which allegedly boosts west coast freight tolls by more than $1,000,000 a year.

The raet change, which the railways brought into effect last May 1, has been suspended by the board, pending the outcome of the current appeal.

Under the change, west-coast lumber, transported to Canadian points east of Port Arthur, came under the railways' "competitive" rates and are removed from the benefits of the $7,000,000-a-year "bridge" subsidy granted by the federal government on hauls between the West and Ontario.

Mr. Brazier, in cross-examining C. L. McCoy, CNR freight traffic manager, suggested the change resulted from a "bargain" between Canadian and American railway interests following U. S. Pacific lumbermen's protests against a proposed higher American freight rate.

The American lumbermen had long complained that the Canadian rate on lumber between Vancouver and Toronto and Montreal was much lower than the American rate between Seattle and eastern American points. This, they claimed, gave the Canadian lumbermen a marketing advantage in the East. The Canadian May 1 rate change restores parity between these specific Canadian and American rates for the first time since 1924.

Mr. McCoy denied that there had been any "bargaining" with the American railroads. He said the railways simply had discovered that they had made a "mistake" in including Western lumber under the "bridge" subsidy and that it should be properly classified under the competitive rates.

However, he made clear that some American lines have it in their "power" to cut American traffic over Canadian routes if they feel they had received no co-operation from Canada.

The U. S. North Pacific Coast lines could cancel "overhead routes" through Canada by "cancelling concurrences," if the Canadian lines did not place rates from B. C. coast points to Eastern Canada on a parity with American rates, Mr. McCoy said.

Such a cancellation had taken place in 1926 on the Cotton Belt Line with the result there was loss of railway business at some Ontario points.

Volcano Threatens Australian Natives

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—A violent volcanic eruption in the Pacific four miles off Baluan Island in the Admiralty group is threatening 2000 natives on nearby Lou Island.

Baluan is 20 miles south of Manus Island, where Australia's main northern naval base is located.

The eruption began Sunday and since then continuous explosions have disturbed a wide area of sea. Clouds of steam were rising today from a muddy, pumice-covered ocean.

Two Men Plead Guilty to Liquor Theft

TRAIL — Two Nelson men pleaded guilty to charges of breaking, entering and theft in Trail Provincial Court Monday, following completion of investigations into a liquor theft from the Kaslo liquor store.

William Saunders and Earle Matchett were remanded to July 7 for sentence by Magistrate Parker Williams. The men were charged with theft of $1772 worth of liquor from the B.C. liquor commission premises at Kaslo June 4.

Three persons have been charged with possession of stolen goods and a fourth was arrested at Vancouver Monday. He will be brought to Nelson for trial.

Drillers Testing B. C. Oil Find

During and testing is continuing on the Buick Creek No. 2 well in Northeastern British Columbia where an oil discovery was reported Friday.

Socony-Vacuum Oil Company Inc. one of four companies drilling the well, said that it is now at a depth of around 3700 feet.

A rise of 800 feet of oil was announced in one test and an earlier test got a gas flow of 2.3 million cubic feet a day, Socony said.

USED CANOES

The discovery came after two years of exploration work by the four companies which Socony said included geophysical surveys, surface geology and airborn magnetometer surveys taken by use of helicopters and canoes to pierce the rugged country.

Buick Creek No. 2 is a mile and a quarter west of Buick Creek No. 1, which flowed gas at the rate of 4.9 million cubic feet a day in one test and 3.8 million cubic feet of gas with a spray of 36-gravity oil in another test.

NOW TESTING

The No. 1 well, Socony said, was drilled to a total depth of 11,382 feet and plugged back to 3732 feet, where it is now being tested for possible completion as a gas well.

Buick Creek No. 2, about 40 miles northwest of Fort St. John, is on a permit of 241,920 acres held in equal shares by Socony, Texaco, Canadian Gulf and Shell.

Police Agent Found Stabbed

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—In Budapest's Pipacs night club, crowded with girls who are police spies and waiters who are informers, an agent of the secret police recently was found dead in a washroom.

He had been stabbed eight times. The newspapers of the Communist regime did not mention it. They never report crimes of passion. The management claimed it was suicide, without explaining how that was possible.

Western diplomats in Budapest say there is little doubt that 90 per cent of Hungary's 9,000,000 population would like to wreak similar vengeance.

But there is no organized resistance. There is only a smouldering resentment that finds its expression in negligence, inefficiency, minor corruption, swindling and theft, and in criticism when it is safe to express it.

The Hungarians express their resentment in subtle forms. Farmers ignore warnings to weed their crops. Workers produce shoddy goods. A few cigarets to a clerk in a state grocery store will ensure you get butter and meat when there is insufficient to go around. Newspapers complain that milk is watered.

3 MONTHS FOR ATTEMPT ROBBERY

SASKATOON (CP) — Two 19-year-old Vancouver youths pleaded guilty today to an attempted theatre robbery here and were sentenced to three months in Regina jail.

Frederick Ramsell and David Simpsoa were told by Magistrate B. M. Wakeling thet they were being treated "very leniently."

The pair were picked up last Monday after their attempt to rob theatre cashier Mrs. Ella Gerrand was foiled by the arrival of theatre manager Bill Winterton. Seconds before he arrived, the youths had passed a note to the cashier demanding the money from her till.

Hotel Workers Win 40-Hour Work Week

VANCOUVER (CP) — Some 600 workers in 31 Vancouver hotels have won a 40-hour work week, wage differentials on night shifts and two additional statutory holidays in a wage agreement signed today between B. C. Hotels' Association and AFL Hotel and Restaurant Employees' Union.

Included in the agreement are about 180 employees of the Georgia Hotel who are the object of a jurisdictional battle between the AFL union and the rival CCL Hotel Employees' Union.

The CCL group applied to Victoria for certification of the Georgia workers in May, but the labor relations board has delayed a vote among the workers pending outcome of a "test case" in the B. C. Supreme Court.

Canon and Mrs. W.J. Silverwood Honored on 25th Anniversary Here

Close friends gathered Sunday evening to honor Canon and Mrs. W. J. Silverwood on their 25th wedding anniversary.

Friends made in 23 years of service at Church of the Redeemer joined in an informal evening at the home of the Silverwoods. About 40 invited guests were present.

Evening, arranged by close friends, was climaxed with presentation of a miniature gasoline can containing money to be spent for gas on their vacation in July and cutting of an anniversary cake.

Roses and peonies, sent by well-wishers, decorated the living room.

Toast to the bride and groom of 25 years ago was made by John Applewhaite, vicar's warden and lay reader for Church of the Redeemer.

Among guests were friends who attended the couple's wedding in St. Matthew's Church at South Slocan a quarter century ago. They were Miss Nancy Lee, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Jack Corner, and Mrs. Thomas Halsey.

Among telegrams and cards of congratulation received was one from Ven. Archdeacon F. H. Graham of Trail who assisted the late Bishop A. J. Doull in performing the wedding ceremony. Organist for the wedding was Rev. N. D. B. Learmonth, then vicar of Church of the Redeemer. The late Dr. D. W. when Canon Silverwood married McKay of Nelson was best man the former Mary Wallace, a graduate nurse of Kootenay Lake General Hospital.

Canon Silverwood first came to the district in 1925 to do missionary work at Bonnington, Fruitvale, South Slocan and other points. After an appointment to Grand Forks in 1928, he was transferred to Nelson four years later as Vicar of Church of the Redeemer. He was made rural dean of West Kootenay in 1945 and Canon of Diocese of Kootenay in 1949.

DISEASE STRIKES SWEDISH PEOPLE

STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — All swimming pools and public baths were closed today to prevent the spread of the parathyphus epidemic which has been sweeping the country for the last seven days. Latest health ministry reports said that 3000 persons are being treated at home for the disease and another 900 in hospitals.

Finland's Premier Resigns Position

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — The coalition government of Premier Urho Kekkonen resigned today, and the Socialists were expected to make a bid to take over.

CHARGED WITH DISTURBANCE

Alex Nazeroff of Krestova was charged Monday with creating a disturbance on a Krestova street. No plea was taken when he appeared in Provincial Court before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans Monday. He was given an eight-day remand. Nazeroff was arrested by RCMP early Sunday morning.

PCs Would Ban Communist Activities Says Drew

VICTORIA (CP) — George Drew charged Monday that known Communists are employed in vital Canadian industries and in some agencies of government.

He repeated at a press conference that if a Progressive Conservative government came to power in the Aug. 10 election it would ban Communist activities under the Criminal Code.

The Progressive Conservative leader charged that the Liberal government, while making no attempt to define communism under law, took "arbitrary action" against employing some people on that ground and employed "those of well-known Communist record in other agencies of the same government."

The government was "aware" of who such employees were and the name of one of them was given in a return tabled in the Commons during the last session. Mr. Drew said he could not recall offhand the employee's name.

In reply to questions, Mr. Drew indicated his party will not seek Social Credit support if the Progressive Conservatives are not returned with majority.

He also said a royal commission satisfactory to both the federal and British Colubia governments should be appointed to inquire into B.C.'s Doukhobor problem.

Liberal government members had criticized the Progressive Conservative stand on Communists on the grounds that a law against Communist activities would drive Reds underground.

"The most dangerous Communists are all underground now."

Communist activities could be defined under the Criminal Code without attempting to ban communism by name.

"During the last few years some of the most highly-trained Communists have been sent to Canada to organize plans for sabotage in the event of the outbreak of hostilities which involved Russia itself.

"The extent to which Communist organizers have established themselves in plants taking any part in the production of atomic products suggests that the time for action in this country is long overdue."

There would be "no trouble at all" to define and enforce a law "which defines" activities which are associated with the world Communist conspiracy."

The presence of trained saboteurs in many power-generating plants was known and there should be laws to deal with them "before it is too late."

The present law dealt only with actual acts of sabotage and these was no way to deal with Communists until they had committed sabotage.

The government should not deny employment to suspected Communists unless it was prepared to apply some legal definition and test of communism.

Experiments Produce "Autos for Tomorrow"

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry probably now is spending more money on engineering research than it has at any time in the last quarter-century.

If you are inclined to question this you need only to check over the number of "cars of tomorrow" and other experimental units that have been hand-built by the various companies and the many items of refinement under test.

There is scarcely a car manufacturer who has not built one of the "dreamcars" Most of these of course, never will reach the assembly lines. But many of their components will eventually get into production jobs.

Examples of the cars that will yield something to the assembly line models of the future are General Motors' Le Sabre; Chrysler's d'Elegance and Ford's experimental XL-500. All are strictly "idea" cars, designed to try out engineering principles and theories. Generally the ideas are too costly to have any popular appeal, although they excite curiosity and the urge to own the best possible car.

Le Sabre has such future potentialities as aluminum body and fibre glass fenders; a 335-horse-power engine; disappearing headlights and built-in automatic wheel jacks.

Ford's XL-500 has a scarlet fibreglass body with a roof of glare-proof glass and three separate bumpers, one horizontal and two vertical, to protect the rear section.

Chrysler's d'Elegance has such things as an hydraulically-operated spare-tire mount, flush-type pull-out door handles and other such conceits.

Saunderson Is Ammunition Chief

OTTAWA (CP) — Production Minister Howe today announced the appointment of Dr. H. H. Saunderson as director of the department's ammunition division to replace H. R. Malley who is resigning to devote full time to his position as president of Crown Assets Disposal Corporation.

Mr. Howe announced also that three divisions of the department, the non-ferrous metals, priorities and steel divisions, will be combined in a new materials division to be headed by J. P. C. Gauthier, present director of priorities.

N. B. Davis, present head of the non-ferrous metals division, will continue with the department as consultant on non-ferrous metals problems and J. S. Harris will return to private business as a consultant.

Death Toll 409 In Japan Floods

TOKYO (AP) — A great flood that left more than 2500 persons dead, missing or hurt and 1,000,000 homeless receded today on the southern Japan island of Kyushu but dark rain clouds posed an ominous new threat.

Seven days of torrential rains turned much of the northern part of Kyushu, an area about three times the size of Prince Edward Island, into a vast lake. The hapless Japanese residents fled to any high ground they could find.

The known death toll stood at 409 late today. It was expected to rise when those missing, now numbered at 1178, are accounted for.

Police said several villages were washed away and 350,000 homes were destroyed or damaged.

Relief was rushed to countless stricken villages and cities. The United States Air Force dropped food and clothing to isolated groups of refugees scattered on islets of high ground jutting from the flood.

Fukuoka, the island's largest city with 392,649 population and near-by Moji, with 124,399, were almost ghost cities; their residents evacuated before the surging flood.

Some of the dead and missing were drowned in the swollen rivers. Others died as landslides crushed their flimsey homes.

The cloudburst and floods paralyzed Kyushu. Communications and industry lay quiet.

Damage was expected to run into the millions of dollars.

U. S. troops struggled beside Japanese workers to bring relief to the stricken families.

U. S. army camps in the stricken area are supplying food, clothing, blankets and medical supplies and all available engineer and transportation equipment for relief and repair of highways.

Emergency airlifts of water purification equipment and sanitation supplies were speeded.

Sentence Reduced To Manslaughter

VANCOUVER (CP) — Court of Appeal reduced to manslaughter Monday the verdict against Glen Donald Smith, 22-year-old Army deserter who had been sentenced to be hanged for murder in Whitehorse, Y. T.

The appeal court sentenced Smith to 15 years in penitentiary in the case arising from the shooting death of Ralph Caruso, Whitehorse taxi driver, last Aug. 11.

Defence counsel was Mayor John M. Cuelenaere of Prince Albert, Sask., who today withdrew all his grounds for appeal for Smith, except the application for reduction of the charge to manslaughter. He pleadcd for a sentence of from seven to 10 years on the ground that Smith had no criminal record.

Chief Justice Gordon Sloan said Smith's sentence will be subject to review from time to time and he may be released before the end of his sentence if his conduct warrants it.

Study New Air Route

VANCOUVER (CP)—Pioneering the first air service between Canada and South America, a group of Canadian Pacific Airlines officials took off from here Sunday for Mexico, Peru and Brazil.

For nearly three weeks, the group will study the 7500-mile air route to Rio de Janeiro in preparation for a weekly passenger service planned for late September.

The new leg will increase CPA's mileage from 25,000 to 32,500 miles.
