ARMAS HEADS 3-MAN JUNTA

By CARLOS R. ESCUDERO

GUATEMALA CITY (AP)—Col. Carlos Castillo Armas emerged Thursday as the head man of a three-man junta ruling Guatemala.

The leader of the recent anti-Communist revolt was elected to the junta's presidency Wednesday night but the action was announced only Thursday by the junta secretary, Rodrigo Robles. Col. Elfego Monzon, head man of a five-man junta since last week, remains a member of the ruling committee along with Maj. Enrique Oliva.

Two members were dropped — Lt.-Col. Mauricio Dubois and Lt.-Col. Jose Luis Cruz. Robles said both resigned after Castillo Armas' election and refused to reconsider their action after being urged to do so. They were given a vote of recognition for their services since the junta was formed last Friday.

Baby Drowns in Flooded Cellar

BRANDON (CP) — The swollen Assiniboine river slowed its rise Thursday.

Crest of the flood, which has swamped all but one section of Brandon city's emergency diking system, was expected to be reached Thursday night or early this morning.

A 12-month-old baby girl Adele May Fraser of Oak Lake, was the first victim directly or indirectly attributed to the flood. She was drowned in the water-filled basement of her home, 34 miles west of Brandon. While the town is near the flooded Assiniboine river areas, the water in the cellar was due to recent heavy rains and not caused by high river levels.

The river's level here around noon, stood at 22 feet two inches above normal, only eight inches below the peak of the 1948 flood, but weary workers were heartened by the fact that it had risen only one inch in nine hours.

The Assiniboine already has flooded more than 120 acres of residential and market garden property, forcing the evacuation of about 60 families.

DUTCH SISTERS OPEN HOSPITAL

TORONTO (CP) — When St. Bernard's Convalescent Hospital opens its doors next week it will be due to the determination and faith of nine Dutch missionary Sisters of the Precious Blood.

Three years ago the Dutch sisters came to Canada to take charge of a hospital only to find they were not wanted. Friendless and disappointed they began teaching and nursing and eventually bought a residence.

Two years later Sister Superior Mary Ethelberta said the sisters decided to build a hospital. They first planned on a new building but when estimates ran over $300,000 they abandoned it.

The sisters prayed for help and almost overnight were told Shadow Brook was up for sale. They paid $77,000 for the 19-acre estate and went into debt. But the estate is such a perfect location they didn't mind.

At present the hospital will be run on a paying basis. Eventually the sisters aim at a convalescent hospital for those who need care but can't afford regular hospitals.

Spidermen To Rout Red Terrorists

Troops Parachuted in After Heavy Bombing

SINGAPORE (Reuters). — Heavily-armed British "spidermen" slid down silken ropes Thursday into a Communist jungle lair in a bold bid to eliminate the mastermind of the six-year Malayan terrorist campaign.

The 180 soldiers were inaugurating a new technique in their assault on what is thought to be the Malayan Communist party headquarters site. They parachuted into the thick jungle after the area had been blasted with heavy bombs, and slid down long silk ropes from their landing spots in the 200-foot-high trees.

British officers, including Lt.-Gen. Geoffrey Bourne, director of anti-Communist operations, watched the assault and expressed satisfaction with its smoothness. It was the biggest air-ground operation yet carried out in Malaya.

Because of the remoteness of the target, a valley lying in rugged terrain near Ipoh, northern Malaya, no word was yet available o nthe success of the operation.

But there was optimism here that it may have dealt a major blow at word was yet available on the suspoken, limping Chin Peng, terrorist mastermind and secretary-gen- the hidden headquarters of the soft- eral of the Malayan Communist Party.

The spidermen's quick follow-up of the aerial bombardment was hailed as evidence that the weapon of tactical surprise was at last shifted from the elusive Communists to the security forces.

STRICT SECRECY

Up to now whatever advantage is gained by bombing of terrorist jungle camps has been lost because of the long hours it took for ground troops to move in against the target. A "living radar screen" of runners maintained by the Communists also protects them against surprise.

Thursday's operation was planned in the strictest secrecy. It began when four-engined Lincoln bombers dropped 75 tons of high explosives into the jungle target.

The spidermen jumped from a height of 700 feet. Landing in the giant trees, they uncoiled their ropes and slid silently down toward the jungle floor.

REBEL FORMER HERO

All 180 are members of the special air services, highly trained in jungle fighting and survival techniques.

There was no official disclosure of the target. But observers believed it was the lair of Chin, British-decorated underground hero of the Second World War who now has a price of £9,000 on his head.

Chin is about 30 years old and has been described as an organizing genius. He aided many Britons to escape from the Japanese during the Pacific war, but turned against the British when the Communist terrorist campaign started in 1948.

Fraser Rising

VANCOUVER (CP) — British Columbia's major rivers continued their slow but relentless climb Thursday, adding to the mounting fears of a repetition of the disastrous 1948 floods.

Along the Fraser river dikes maintained their staunch defence against the surging waters. The water level at Mission inched up to 20.06 feet Thursday, an increase of .02 feet in 24 hours. The normal level at this time of year is about 14 feet.

Jock L. MacDonald, provincial diking commissioner, said dikes along the Fraser were "saturated but not soft or soupy" and "seepage is reported in the usual districts but nothing alarming."

The seepage reports were from Matsqui, West Nicomen island, Sumas and Mission City.

Mr. MacDonald and deputy works minister Evan Jones conducted an inspection tour of the area as ordered by Works Minister P. A. Gaglardi.

Smelter Closes

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The lead-zinc reduction plant of the International Smelting and Refining Co. will close next week. General manager F. A. Wardlaw Jr. said the length of the shutdown is indefinite "because of the uncertainty of metal market prices." Five hundred workers are affected.

. . . But He Was Glad He Was Found

VANCOUVER (CP) — It's fun to be lost, little Victor Wight, aged 8, told police here Thursday.

"But I'm glad I was found," he added, pausing in the middle of a hearty meal.

Victor disappeared from his South Vancouver foster home Sunday.

Despite the good fun playing cowboys and Indians and watching the monkeys in the city's Stanley Park, he was awfully tired and hungry.

Popcorn and potato chips was the only food he had for four days. And he slept standing up in the doorways of downtown buildings.

Police found him Wednesday night near the Stanley Park penguin pool.

450 AFFECTED BY STRIKE

Bread Mix in Demand as Bread Supplies Disappear

VANCOUVER (CP) —Half a million people in Vancouver and Nanaimo were cut off Thursday from regular bread supplies.

Bakers started a strike in one Vancouver plant and six other bakeries locked out their workers. Two bakeries enforced lockouts in Nanaimo. Affected were 459 union workers.

The daily output of the bakeries was 350,000 loaves. The small and independent bakeries turn out less than 100,000 daily.

The strike-lockout will directly affect the jobs of 200 driver-salesmen. Clerical staffs may also be laid off.

Deputy Minister of Labor William Sands said here Thursday night the provincial government's conciliation service is working "around the clock" in efforts to settle the strike.

STANDARDIZATION FOR HARDWOOD FLOORING

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canadian Lumbermen's Association has established standards for hardwood flooring and will guarantee grades of flooring sold under its registered trade mark.

The CLA announced today that its Canadian hardwood bureau has established the standards for the trade as part of the association's campaign for grade standardization of lumber and lumber by-products and as a protection to the public.

DEPOSITS DOWN

OTTAWA (CP)—Dominion government deposits decreased by $53,133,000 during the week ended June 30 to $55,688,000, the Bank of Canada reported in its weekly statement Thursday.

Chartered bank deposits decreased $10,582,000 to $613,795, 000, while notes in circulation increased $11,294,000 to $1,564,807,000.

Geneva Talks Have Air of Optimism

By ALEX VALENTINE

GENEVA (Reuters) — The fast-approaching climax to nine weeks of cease-fire negotiations in Indo-China produced a cautious but mounting optimism among the nine delegations here Thursday night.

There were several straws in the wind to show the chief negotiators anticipate success when they gather here in the next few days for the showdown talks.

A smiling, buoyant Vyacheslav Molotov returned from Moscow Thursday amid a surprising lack of usual security precautions. He praised the work done in the last two weeks by the foreign ministers' deputies toward "positive results" in Indo-China.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, co-chairman of the conference with Molotov, will arrive here Monday, it was announced in London. A Chinese Communist spokesman said here that Premier Chou En-lai will return from Peiping "soon."

But the key figure at the resumed negotiations will be Pierre Mendes-France, premier and foreign minister of France, who is due here Saturday or Sunday.

It will be the first appearance at the conference table of the 47-year-old Frenchman who became premier June 18 on a pledge to secure an end to the Indo-China war by July 20 or resign. Mendes-France's arrival during the weekend will enable him to confer behind the scenes with Molotov before the sessions resume.

RECORD CROWD

CALGARY (CP) — For the third straight day Thursday attendance records were set at Calgary's 69th Exhibition and Stampede as the turnstiles clicked 66,542 persons through the gates.

It was an increase of 8881 over the previous high last year and brought total attendance for the first four days of the show to 288,220, compared to 276,583 in the first four days last year.

Jubilant Stampede officials Thursday night were predicting total attendance for the six days would top last year's all-time record of 451,637.

Ghosting Effective

VICTORIA (AP) — Highway traffic offenders are liable to prosecution if checked by RCMP's new ghost patrol, said a spokesman Friday.

Up to this time, action has taken the form of warnings when violators are checked, and power to prosecute has always been in effect but as this is a new field of operation, ghost patrol men have been using greater discretion in estimating the seriousness of an offence.

"Insofar as prevention of fatalities and accidents is concerned," the officer said, "ghost car patrols are proving effective. After all, that is the general purpose of them."

Three PCs Turn Social Credit

VANCOUVER (CP) — Three members of the Progressive Conservative party today announced they had joined the Social Credit Party.

Don Brown, former Progressive Conservative member of the legislature, his wife, Buda Brown, Vancouver's Park Commissioner, and Arvid Lundell, former Progressive Conservative member for Revelstoke.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Lundell are old friends, and Mrs. Brown said:

"They just made up their minds at the same time. Don and I decided to go over as a family."

Mrs. Brown was a Progressive Conservative candidate in the last provincial election but was unsuccessful.

The Browns have no plans to run for office, Mrs. Brown said.

"I think—and Don does too — that the Social Credit government is doing a good job and we're going to support them."

Mr. Lundell is editor of the Revelstoke Review.

Austria Suffers Flood

VIENNA, Austria (Reuters) — July snowstorms crashed down on Austria, Yugoslavia and Germany Thursday, bringing warnings of an avalanche danger in the Bavarian Alps.

The freak summer brought Iceland its heaviest downpour of rain in years and there is serious flooding in Austria.

Lower Austria had a record summer rainfall of 1.8 inches in 12 hours. Boats rescued persons and cattle in many flooded villages, and local authorities reported "the worst is yet to come."

The Vienna-Salsburg highway is flooded, the Danube is rising and many bridges are closed for fear they may collapse.

All shipping on the Danube was suspended.

BIG NATURAL GAS DISCOVERY

New B.C. Well In Peace River Canada's Largest

VANCOUVER (CP) — Pacific Petroleums Limited announced here Thursday discovery of what was termed one of the largest natural gas wells ever drilled in Canada.

It is in the Peace River District of British Columbia near Fort St. John, where the first B. C. oil well discovery was announced 10 days ago.

The new gas well, Pacific Fort St. John No. 23, is located 2¼ miles south and east of the northern town.

It flowed at the rate of 71,000,080 cubic feet a day on open flow tests a spokesman for Pacific Petroleums said.

"It is by far the largest gas well ever located in the Peace River area and is considered as great as anything else found in Canada," he said.

"This same well has had large gas flows in eight other stratas and the new flow is from the ninth. The flow came from the permo-Pennsylvania level (horizon) at a depth of 6300 feet. It flowed from a 60-foot pay zone."

Clan Gathers To Search River For Lost Girl

STEINBACH, Man. (CP)—More than 1000 descendants of Klaas Reimer, who founded the Kleine Gemeinde, (small church) religious sect in Russia, gathered Thursday at Blumenort, four miles north of here, for a family reunion. From all over the U. S. and Canada they came, in response to almost 4000 invitations issued.

OTTAWA (CP) — External Affairs Minister Pearson and Krishna Menon, India's delegate to the United Nations, talked over the Asian situation Thursday. Neither was available for comment after their get-together but an official said they also discussed matters likely to come before the UN General Assembly in September.

In This Corner . . .

FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP) — When Tin Flute and Blue Music teamed for the $146 daily double at the Fort Erie race track Wednesday, one of those who cashed in was a Buffalo girl who gave her name as "Miss Bell."

Asked how she came to pick those horses, she said:

"I'm a music teacher and the names caught my fancy."

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto police blinked their eyes then stopped an old 1928 car they saw chugging along streets here with British Columbia licence plates.

"The police can't believe such an old car made that long trip," said Harry Reid, owner of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid and their four young children of Vancouver, made the 3,000-mile journey for a family reunion at Ceylon, Ont., about 50 miles northeast of Stratford.

Mr. Reid said suspicious constables had the idea the plates were stolen from a newer car and put on my "old reliable."

Bought for $70, the car made the trip with only one mishap: A flat tire as it entered Toronto.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Not being one to be caught short at the start of the city's bakery strike, a thief Wednesday night made off with three blueberry pies and a chocolate cake from a bakery truck.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police are still trying to figure this one out:

A woman visitor from Prince George, reporting the theft of her purse containg $16 Wednesday night, couldn't spell her name.

"It's on a card in the stolen purse," she explained.

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Rosalyn Becker, 35, was believed to have established a record in Chicago when she filed a suit asking her third divorce from the same man. The suit accused her husband, Louis, 36, of cruelty, the same ground on which she obtained two previous divorces.

GERALDTON, Ont. (CP) — Millionaire Roy Barker isn't going to use any of his money to buy a car.

"Cars are for the middle class, the ones who are in a hurry chasing the dollar," said the town councillor and former carpenter. "The poor can't afford them and when you have money you don't need one."

Barker, one of three men who became millionaires when they recently discovered the Geco base metal property at Lake Manitouwadge, uses taxis.

He now is busy supervising the building of his new home.

It will include a two-car garage—for guests.

Russians Say Canada Copying Low-Class Culture of Neighbor

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (AP) — Canada would a nice enough place if Canadians uld only listen to their "progres- people" and "throw off the e of that phony low-class culture m the United States that is ngling the country."

hat's the view brought back by oup of Soviet artists who toured ada during April and May and have published their impresns in the newspaper Soviet Cul-hese artists included Sophia ovkina, Bolshoi Theatre ballet cer, Violinist L. Kogan, Elene ydar, Ukrainian singer and ious others.

Especially in art and culture did observe the close and evil inence of the United States on ada. Hollywood films are shown everywhere. We saw some of them — naked women, men with slick hair, pistols, knives, faces twisted with horror flashing over the screens. In the film 'Take Me' we counted 50 slaps in the face. . . .

"'Americanism' is felt most of all in music. Radio broadcasts shriek jazz. We were surprised to hear they were going to broadcast the 'Polovetskie Dances' by Borodin. But our joy was very short-lived. Speeding up the tempo of the music, they interrupted it with foxtrot tunes and saxophones began to moan in the orchestra. It was bitterly painful to hear such an outrage committed with the immortal music of this great composer."

They charged:

"Certain newspapers tried to create a conspiracy of silence about our visit. . . ."

The Soviet artists quoted the Montreal Gazette as stating that some Canadian papers wanted to hush up the Russians' visit because they did not want to get themselves into trouble.

They especially attacked the Toronto Telegram, claiming that this paper "did not show even elementary objectiveness toward us . . . when the public liked our concerts, this paper said the public was uneducated in the rules of good behavior and loudly criticized the public."

"However we are glad that a certain part of the Canadian intelligentsia is striving to throw off the yoke of low class and phony United States culture which is strangling Canada and that they are going to found their own national art and culture. . . ."

Puerto Ricans Draw Long Terms for House Shooting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Puerto Rican terrorists drew the maximum sentence Thursday for what a federal judge called the "atrocious" crime of shooting up the House of Representatives March 1.

The three involved each were sentenced to serve from 25 to 75 years in prison, while fiery Lolita Lebron, 34-year-old brunette was given a term ranging from 10 years and eight months to 50 years.

The four insisted they were patriots, acting for the freedom of Puerto Rico but U. S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff declared their foray was "so heinous, so infamous, so atrocious "as to justify the severest possible penalty."

"But for the grace of God," said U. S. Attorney Leo A. Rover, the Puerto Ricans would be in court to hear the imposition of death sentences.

Five House members were felled by bullets fired by the Puerto Rican nationalists from the visitors' gallery. All have recovered and resumed their seats.

Because a jury last month convicted her only on five charges of assault with a dangerous weapon, Mrs. Lebron got the lightest sentence. Her male companions were convicted on five charges each of assault with intent to kill, as well as the lesser charges of assault with a dangerous weapon.

54 Men's Rinks, 14 Ladies' Entered For Tenth Annual Curling Spiel

When the rocks start sliding down the ice lanes at Nelson Curling Club Monday to set the Tenth Annual Mid-Summer Bonspiel into action, 54 rinks from five Canadian provinces and two States from America will be vying for the world's mid-summer curling crown presently held by E. B. Olson of Edmonton.

Besides these men's rinks, 14 women's rinks will be striving to skip their rinks to the women's title which was won last summer by the Alice Porter rink from Chilliwack, B.C.

Although the entries for the men have been closed off, it is expected that a possible 10 more ladies rinks will be made up after the curlers and their wives arrive in the city over the weekend.

This year will mark the fourth anniversary for the women's event and should more than three more rinks enter into the competition, a new record for ladies rinks will be set.

25 FROM ALBERTA

Leading the entry list for the men is Alberta with 25 entries, followed by British Columbia with 20. Saskatchewan has five entries with singletons coming from Ontario, Manitoba, Minnesota and Wisconsin in the States.

Portage, Wisc. will for the tenth straight year be represented by Jim Taylor, a curler who has not only taken the curling to heart but the city of Nelson also. Taylor, along with Bill Good, CBC sportscaster, and Ivan Staples of Creston will join several Nelson curlers in making this their tenth straight spiel.

With the program for the week long classic drawn up, the various committee members are hurriedly completing the small details that will set the spiel in motion Monday.

Secretary Jack Morgan said Thursday that already he has had enquiries about tickets for the Saturday night hockey game between the Nelson Maple Leafs and the Vernon Canadians. One enquiry was from Prince George and the other from Quesnel. Morgan stated that season ticket holders will be given priority and will have until Wednesday to pick up their tickets.

Kiwanians to Back Athletic Round Table

Kiwanis Club saw films of the World Series of 1953 at the Hume Thursday night, and also decided to assist the membership campaign of the Athletic Round Table of British Columbia.

P. F. McIntyre, area commissioner for the Kootenays for the Round Table, said the organization was dedicated to the youth of the province and sought to develop athletes for sports events such as the British Empire Games, the Olympic Games and other events of the future.

The brainchild of Eric Whitehead, sports writer of Vancouver and president of the group, its first objective was to give all possible help to the Empire Games committee; its long term objective was dedicated to the youth of B.C., and its all out objective was to make its activities province-wide.

Mr. McIntyre, who is personnel manager for Cominco at Trail, has been on the B.C. finance committee for the Empire Games and Olympics for about nine years, and had agreed to be area commissioner on the Round Table for a year or two.

It was hoped to "pull the province together" and replace the finance committee, operation of which had not been satisfactory. It was hoped to supply coaches in seeking to better the calibre of B.C. athletes and to see that they got to the big sports events and reasonably looked after at the events.

BOY TO SEE BEG

Present aim was to send a boy from each zone to the Empire Games. In seeking a 14 or 15 year old boy in the Kootenays, he had asked school inspectors to choose a boy from each school district. Of the six chosen, one would be drawn from the hat, but it was hoped the other five might be sent to see the mile championship August 5.

In the membership drive, a quiz contest was being conducted, and the Kiwanis Club assured Mr. McIntyre it would conduct the drive in Nelson.

A maximum of 51 per cent of funds raised will go to the Empire Games, he said, and the balance will be retained by the Round Table. In the Fall, a province-wide meeting will be held to develop future policy.

R. L. Denison of Nelson Film Council was projectionist for the baseball films.

16-Trip Ferry Service Begins on Main Lake

Sixteen-trip daily ferry service on Kootenay Lake is now a reality. The new ferry, MV Balfour, went into service Thursday, and with the MV Anscomb it is expected to end the travel bottleneck on the Southern Transprovincial Highway.

The Balfour carried 22 cars on its first trip Wednesday and the car having the distinction of being the first to travel its decks belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kuban and family of Bellevue, Alberta. For this honor they travelled free.

The complete 16-trip service is as follows (all times Pacific Daylight Time):

Herridge Home From Session

H. W. Herridge, member of parliament for West Kootenay, has returned to the district from Ottawa after attending the first session of the 22nd Parliament. It prorogued June 26.

Mr. Herridge arrived in Nelson Wednesday night and will go on to Trail and Rossland today, and later to his home near Nakusp. Taken ill at Ottawa in January, he was later able to return to his seat in the House of Commons.

Natal Notes

Mrs. A. Bombino and daughters, accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Prettyman of Spokane, were weekend visitors at Natal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Anselmo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bedry and family of Salmo were Michel visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cardarelli.

School Program Tenders Opened

CASTLEGAR — Tenders for construction of more elementary school accommodation at Castlegar, Kinnaird and Robson, another part of the $616,000 school expansion program approved by district ratepayers last Fall, was opened by the Castlegar school board Thursday immediately following the deadline for their submission. The tenders are now being referred to the architect for his recommendation.

For construction of a new two room school on the Dumont subdivision in Kinnaird there were seven tenders: Guy Guibo, $29,990; Fame Brick, $32,645; Castlegar Building Supply, $29,900; Kootenay Builders, $32,000; Barton Construction, $34,390.71; Columbia Builders, $33,019.91; Oglow Brothers, $37,500.

Five tenders were submitted for new construction at the Robson school: Castlegar Building Supply, $18,700; Kootenay Builders, $21,400; Barton Construction, $22,788.20; Columbia Builders, $23,164; Oglow Brothers, $23,500.

For new construction at Castlegar there were four tenders: Castlegar Building Supply, $9,850; Kootenay Builders, $9,900; Columbia Builders,

Minister to Unveil New Trail Hospital Plaque at Opening

TRAIL — Hon. Eric Martin, minister of health and welfare, will unveil the plaque at the official opening of the new Trail-Tadanac two million dollar hospital July 17.

At a special meeting Thursday night to work out plans for the opening occasion, members of the hospital board approved of a special tour to be held at 10 o'clock in the morning for officials and out of town guests. A special dedication ceremony will be held in the afternoon between two and five with Mr. Martin as principal speaker. Civic, provincial and federal officials are expected to be present.

The Canadian Legion Band and the Trail Symphonette Orchestra will be present. Following the ceremony, visitors will tour through the four floor hospital and at the conclusion will be served refreshments. The hospital will again be open to visitors in the evening between seven and nine.

Actual moving of patients to the new hospital is expected to be made about 10 days after the official opening.

M. L. Landucci, member of the board, is chairman of the moving committee, and Don Gray, assistant administrator, is vice chairman.

Some discussion took place by the board on the most suitable place to hang paintings by Ella Evans, donated by the Women's Music Club and the Hospital Women's Auxiliary. At 9 o'clock the meeting adjourned to visit the hospital to decide the most appropriate location.

Chamber Favors Toll Bridge For Castlegar

CASTLEGAR — Castlegar and district Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting Thursday night went on record as favoring construction of a toll bridge over the Columbia River at Castlegar. A committee is being organized to "proceed with whatever action is deemed necessary to promote the project."

The meeting attended by 20 members passed the toll bridge resolution with two dissenting votes. After general agreement had been reached that Castlegar's chances for a free bridge are slim now that a toll bridge at Nelson is assured, most members agreed it is a question of whether the Castlegar district wants a toll bridge at all.

John Waldie of Robson and E. M. McGauley of Castlegar were named to head the bridge promotion committee. Two other members will be added to this group which will proceed immediately to draw up a petition in favor of a toll bridge and arrange for its distribution among Castlegar residents.

SEEK INCORPORATION

R. Hunter advised that a petition is now being circulated among residents of the unorganized area between Castlegar and the railway crossing North of Kinnaird favoring incorporation of this area into the village of Castlegar. Mr. Hunter suggested that such a move would not be to the advantage of the village and thought the petition circulation should have been generally publicized beforehand. The matter was referred to the Chamber's civic affairs committee for further investigation.

A complaint that some business telephones in Castlegar are connected to party lines, causing inconvenience to the businesses was referred to the business and industry committee.

Victor Jenks, chairman of the Castlegar village commissioners, appeared at the meeting to advise that trouble had developed in the village water system as a result of which it is necessary to pump water directly from the river into the water mains. Residents are asked to boil the water before using and to do no sprinkling till the source of trouble has been located and repaired.

Oldtime Soccer Players Enjoy Reunion Here

Yarns were spun late into the night when nine of the surviving members of the Nelson Football Club which won the West Kootenay League championship in 1920 got together Wednesday night.

The occasion was sparked by visit here of Charles A. Bernard of Rochester, New York, member of the team. He is here with Mrs. Bernard to visit his sister, Mrs. A. G. Ritchie, and Mrs. Ritchie's son James of Edmonton also took part in the gathering.

The "session" took place at the home of one of the team members, R. B. Morris, Terrace Apartments.

Mr. Bernard is assistant foreman, quality control, for Eastman Kodak Company, his department dealing with sensitized papers. With Mrs. Bernard, he lived in Nelson during the years 1919 to 1922. Mr. Bernard then was employed by Philip Rahal, blacksmith. Later he assisted in building two miles of the highway on the summit between Rossland and Cascade.

He visited Nelson in 1952 for a week and this year will spend a little over two weeks here. Visiting the Mid-Summer Bonspiel is among his plans.

Old team pctures and Daily News clippings of oldtime football activity in Nelson were studied and highlights of those years recalled by Jack Wood, Ivie Speirs, Norman B. Bradley, George Talbot, Vic Graves, A. V. (Bert) Rowley, Jack Draper, Hector Mackenzie, Mr Bernard and Mr. Morris. James Ball was unable to be present.

Mr. Draper, who refereed football games in West Kootenay, and who was a professional referee in the Old Country, thanked the host.

Nelson S-Sgt. Goes to School

Policemen from throughout the British Commonwealth go to school at least two times a year at Regina.

They study, under the RCMP, everything from sword drill to Forensic Pathology . . . to the Legal Basis of Personal Freedom in Canadian democracy.

According to S/Sgt. J. L. Smith, second in command of Nelson RCMP Subdivision, the college touches most anything that touches crime.

He attended the three-month course this Spring along with Supt A. B. S. Safdar, MSc from the police service, Pakistan, Supt. J. E. Marrett of the Jamaica Constabulary, C. P. S., Sgt. N. H. Hamilton, State Police, Augusta, Maine, U.S.A. and many others like himself who are officers in the RCMP.

The three-month course at the Canadian Police College deals with counterfeiting, map reading, arson and man management, to mention only a few.

DRIVES OFF ROAD

Victoria Percival of Nelson who drove a vehicle off Granite Road Wednesday night was fined $20 and $5.50 costs in provincial court here Thursday.

She pleaded guilty to driving without due care and attention.

Municipal Tax Deadline July 15

The deadline for municipal taxes in Nelson is July 15, and tax payments are coming in "very well," City Hall officials report. Payments are "a little better" than last year in that more money has been taken in now, than at this date last year.

BABY CLINICS IN SELKIRK OFFICES

Baby clinics, formerly held in Memorial Hall, will be held in the Selkirk Health Unit Office, 305 Baker street July 13 and 27.

Columbia 1½ Feet Below 1948 Peak At Castlegar; Kootenay Lake Rising

Temperatures in the 80s continue in the Kootenays and swelled the Columbia River to 39.63 feet at Trail and 30.5 at Castlegar Thursday.

Night ferry service across the Columbia at Castlegar has been cut sharply and searchlights probed the swirling water as driftwood swept downstream past the Castlegar and Robson ferry landings. The river must rise another 1½ feet before the suspension of service becomes a reality.

Public Works department in Rossland announced that if the Columbia river continues to rise at its present rate it is most unlikely that Castlegar ferry will operate on Saturday and subsequent date depending upon the water level. An emergency boat service will be provided for local residents at Robson if the ferry service is discontinued. Announcement will be made if and when ferry service is dropped.

At Nelson, West Arm waters were creeping up to levels in excess of those of 1949 and nearing the flood peak of 1948. The 1949 peak was 17.55 feet above low water.

Portions of the Nelson city wharf were under water and a few drivers splashed their cars through to the floating dock. Most, however, preferred to park at the head of the wharf.

GARBAGE FLOATS

City disposal grounds are a far-from-fragrant place as garbage floated on the high water. Pit disposal method has raised the eastern edge of the waterfront airstrip above the waterline. However, the entire westerly portion is under water.

Creek fishermen despaired of an early start on their sport. Warm days have raised the level of creeks and done away with the shallows and pools that are the game trouts' lurking spots.

Curlers to Get Chance to Bowl As Greens to Open Saturday

Bonspiel visitors will have another added attraction while in the city of Nelson next week as will residents. After an absence of some seven years lawn bowling will get under way once again.

Jack Draper of Nelson has in the past few weeks been busily organizing a lawn bowling club for the city. Three greens will be officially opened Saturday afternoon at Lakeside Park.

It is expected that the mayor and council members will be on hand for the opening.

The greens will be open every afternoon and evening for anyone wanting to play the popular sport. The club has 20 sets of bowls on hand.

In past years many fine players participated throughout the Kootenay with championships being played between the East and West Kootenay by teams of Trail, Nelson, Kimberley and Cranbrook.

Ratepayers Owe Kimberley $174,000

KIMBERLEY — In a further effort to alleviate a parking space problem on city streets, council was advised city bus service that from July 31, no parking stalls will be available for buses. Passengers must be picked up and discharged at intersections. Previously, the local taxi company had been ordered to give up its parking stall on Spokane Street.

A total of $174,000 is owed the city in outstanding taxes, council was advised Tuesday evening. This includes over $16,000 on the 1953 levy and $6339 on the 1952 assessment. Authority was given to borrow $30,000 from the bank to meet current demands. Anticipated revenue for July includes $40,000 from provincial sales tax, $15,000 from the motor vehicles tax, $4000 in trades licenses for the second half of the year, and $12,000 in revenue from utilities.

Seven trades licenses totalling $208 were issued in June, bringing revenue from this source for the first six months of the year to $5638.

Council authorized purchase of a 1952, five ton tractor truck and low boy for $2650.

THREE FIRES

Three fires during the month of June resulted in $250 property damage and cost the city $69.

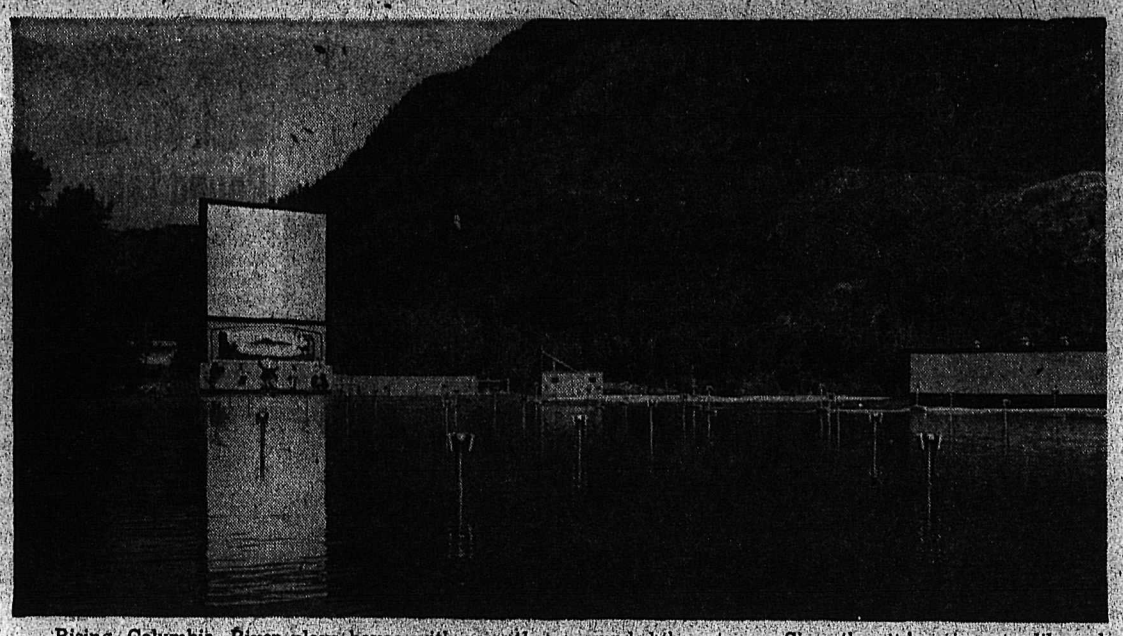
Insurance rates are expected to benefit from increased volume due to laying of new six inch mains on Howard and Boundary streets. To date a total of 1331 feet of six inch main and 60 feet of four inch have been laid in this section.

A full report is expected shortly on cost of installing "stop and go" lights on the Wallinger and Ross Street intersection, these first to be installed in the city, would come from electrical department profits.

The city will write again to the Crown Assets Disposal Corporation in an effort to obtain the old post office building for a public library, court room, and other uses. Should the city's bid of $1 per capita (approximately $6000) be sufficient, a further offer could be made subject to approval of ratepayers.

Further emphasis on the need for a new public hospital was given in the provincial sanitarian's report that kitchen equipment in the present building is antiquated and obsolete. Hospital staff was complimented on the service they give with such out-moded equipment. British Columbia Hospital Insurance Service has set the capacity of the present hospital at 44 beds and seven new-born cribs. Arrangements will have to be made to alleviate the over-crowded nursery.

A petition against construction of a concrete sidewalk on the East side of Wallinger Avenue, in Upper Blarchmont gained only 11 out of 23 possible signatures so work will proceed.



Rising Columbia River plays havoc with recently opened Elk Drive-In Theatre. The theatre, which opened June 17, was forced to close last Saturday as water surrounded the entrance. Since then it has risen steadily and is now almost to the top of the speaker posts in some places.—Pettitt photo.

CONCRETE SIDEWALK FOR KASLO HARDWARE

KASLO—A tender of the Kaslo Hardware Electric for construction of 1325 lineal feet of concrete sidewalk as per specifications at the approximate cost of $2558, was also granted. A building permit was granted to W. C. Cleave.

Welcome "Smartest Band" From Calgary Stampede

CRANBROOK — Tremendous informal ovation was extended the Mount Baker Shook Girls Bugle Band on its triumphant return to Cranbrook with the T. Eaton trophy for smartest band in the Calgary Stampede opening parade. It was their third consecutive win, this time in competition with 25 bands from Alberta, British Columbia and Montana, and gives them peranent possession of the trophy and prize money of $200.

Formal welcome at Baker Park was hastily arranged by the city council for 8 p.m., but bus trouble delayed arrival of the girls and when they reached the city outskirts fire sirens and locomotives signaled their approach. They marched to their music from the city gate to the park through streets lined with cheering spectators to the park which was jammed with people and cars and were given the official welcome there.

Their adventures were recounted over a loudspeaker by their business manager, William Busch and their founder and director for the parade, Charles "Pop" Price. To win the event they paraded in searing heat for over two hours, then presented a drill in the afternoon after announcement of the award.

Appearance of the smart outfit in the parade captivated citizens interest and strong efforts were made by the Edmonton Stampede committee to have the band appear at their show. Ladies who accompanied the party as chaperones were presented with flowers and the men in charge of the trip with billfolds. After the ceremonies lunch was served on the park terrace to the returning heroines.

NEW EMPLOYMENT MANAGER FOR CRANBROOK

CRANBROOK — Manager of the National Employment Service office here for the past several years, W. S. Johnston reaches superannuation in mid-August. He will be succeeded by D. M. Disney who was born here when his father was locomotive engineer at Cranbrook.

Mr. Disney has been promoted to the post from the position of employment officer at Kelowna. He grew up in Revelstoke, served the Canadian Army in the Second World War with the rank of captain, is an expert golfer and skier and Scout Master in Kelowna. He is married and has two children.

A number of other staff changes are pending in the NES office here.

CROWS NEST COAL STILL DOWN

FERNIE — Coal production of the collieries of the Crows Nest Pass Coal Co. Ltd. for the month of June amounted to 83,956 tons. This was a reduction of 10,004 tons below the 93,960 tons produced in June of 1953. Chief drop in production was at the Michel Collieries where 11,253 fewer tons were mined this June than a year ago. The Michel tonnage figures are 57,936 tons in June 1954 as compared to 69,189 tons last June.

The Elk River Colliery showed an increased tonnage of 1249 tons. 26,020 tons were mined last month as compared to 24,771 tons in June of last year.

Coke production amounted to 12,098 tons, a drop of 2222 tons below the 14,320 tons produced a year ago. All coke is produced at the Michel by-product plant.

Complete tonnage figures follow with June 1954 and June 1953 shown respectively:

Coal production:
Elk River	26,020	24,771
Michel	57,936	69,189
Total	83,956	93,960
Coke production:
By-Product	10,941	13,009
B.P. Breeze	1,157	1,311
Total	12,098	14,320

$1000 to Trail, Kimberley Men

TRAIL—Over $1000 in suggestion awards were earned recently by employees of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company. At Trail and Kimberley, 74 men received checks ranging from $5 to $200 for on-the-job ideas approved by Cominco's suggestion plan committee.

TRAIL AWARDS

George Bishop, a machine shop employee, earned the top award of $200. He suggested the brakes on certain electric cranes be changed from band to shoe type. Better braking and lower mainteriance costs resulted.

M. M. Angerilli and G. L. Christie, electrolytic ammonia maintenance men, earned $100 and $50 respectively for suggested improvements to bearings on a pump at the plant. A. J. Kelly, zinc plant machine shop, earned $60 for suggesting a way to eliminate corner braces on certain types of filter frames. T. Watmough, car repair shop, suggested a special installation which lessened damage to lead anode car frames and cross braces. He earned $50.

Other award winners at Trail are O. Anderson, S. Martin, E. Thorne, E. A. Nelson, J. J. Densky, T. T. Huttema, T. E. Ross, H. N. Redding, A. W. Andrews, N. Lucht, J. F. Munch, J. Hill, L. R. Campbell, B. D. Lukenbill, E. Mussio, W. W. Biker, M. Gallagher, L. P. Goetz, P. J. Kennedy, T. G. Milne, J. Lawson, R. Croteau, G. F. Heney, J. W. Butler, R. Peebles, I. Buchignani, A. Jenkins, W. Douglas, L. Gasena, J. C. Comeau, W. Fields, A. V. Frie, C. Dougan, A. Talarico, C. W. Evans, R. C. Stott, G. E. Bradley, N. Couch J. Y. Simpson, J. C. Bucknell, F. L. Olson, F. Failey, J. Onyschak, J. D. Ianson, F. Hemmerling, L. Greenwood, E. J. Ennis and I. M. Kissock.

KIMBERLEY AWARDS

S. P. Kendrick earned the top award of $25 at Cominco's Sullivan concentrator. He suggested a telephone link between the sink and float plant and one of the feed bins. This improved feed tonnage control.

Other concentrator award winners were J. Taralson, M. E. Peterson, J. Crossley, A. D. Pearson, B. Brenton, D. B. Stewart, B. Streich, J. Lowcay, H. Bergquist and G. L. Smith.

Top Sullivan mine award went to A. M. Livingstone. He earned $15 for suggesting the use of a swinging nozzle on the hopper which feeds flux to an automatic wheel welding machine. Better job method and indirect savings resulted.

Other mine award winners were F. Skribe, J. H. Stanyer, R. Chatterson, S. Calles, H. Brown, H. S. Lindquist, G. J. Smith, H. S. Christian and J. C. Soden.

YOUNG COUGAR SHOT AT PROCTER

PROCTER—A cougar was killed by Peter Gretchen on his father's farm just east of Procter, ending the skepticism with which reports of the presence of these animals in the district have been met. This one, a young one nearly full grown was sighted among the cattle in the pasture in full view of the house. The family dog treed the cougar and Peter got it with one shot, between the eyes. During the past four years reports of cougar have come in from M. Radulovich, a neighbor of Gretchen's, and from A. Dosenberger and A. Maclean at Sunshine Bay. Track crews have seen the odd one, and the latest report came in about a month ago when trainmen on No. 68 saw a cat at the flag station at Sunshine Bay.

In each case the cougar sighted was thought to be an old one, but the youth of this one makes the existence of a family believable. Deer are particularly numerous this year and may be the attraction. They are damaging gardens in the village and on the surrounding farms.

Sunspots were discovered by the astronomer Galileo in 1610, two years after the telescope was invented.

Martin To Open $2 Million Building

2000 Anticipated At Hospital Opening

TRAIL — A sparkling new $2,000,000 hospital will be opened here July 17 by Minister of Health and Welfare Hon. Eric Martin.

Second guest at the official opening ceremonies of the new Trail-Tadanac Hospital will be MP for Kootenay West, H. W. Herridge.

Plans for the gala opening are being carefully laid by Hospital Board members L. M. DeLong and Les Read in anticipation that 2000 will attend.

Key to the impressive 150-bed hospital which overlooks Trail, will be handed over to Administrator Miss Vera B. Eidt by architects and the building to the hospital board by contractors Bennet and White Construction Company.

Special guests will be Trail Mayor E. G. Fletcher, Tadanac Reeve George Wilson and others.

Official ceremonies at 2 p.m. will be followed by conducted tours of the hospital.

The hospital became necessary when the present building in downtown Trail became overcrowded and inadequate.

Tea will be served at the new hospital in the afternoon by either the Hospital Ladies Auxiliary or the nurses.

Later, at 6:30 a cocktail party, sponsored by the hospital board, will be held for special guests followed by a dinner.

Roadside Location Of Willow Point School Calls For Safety Measures

Summer vacation period should provide School District No. 7 trustees with the opportunity to have the safety factor at Willow Point school improved. The roadside location of the rural school demands that more than ordinary precautions be taken to prevent injury to pupils.

The fact is the best solution would be a new location for the school off the Southern Transprovincial Highway. Until that is feasible, good fencing, prominent signs and adequate road markings should at least be provided. Under present conditions only a pipe railing separates the grounds from a roads junction, and it is no stop at all for rolling balls or playing children.

The school is located on a curve, and even good signs would not be warning enough for motorists that they are in a school zone. This is substantiated during school days by the large number of drivers who maintain their pace unaware that they have entered a restricted speed zone. Orange painted stripes on the highway surface would give drivers a better warning.

The situation as it exists is a definite hazard to both children and drivers. There have been a number of near accidents. The board and public works department should do what they can at least to see that for the new term the condition is made as safe as possible.

Beautiful Cities Grow Only With Thought

If comparisons are odious, they still have to be made.

A Canadian we know who has travelled a lot and is particularly devoted to his country, claims that nowhere on earth are there so many permanently impermanent homes and buildings, more overhead wires and more unsightly streets.

And this isn't because of a pioneer hurry or lack of funds, as Canada ranks second only to the U.S. in per capita wealth. It is—must be—because as a people we don't care. Our cities, with the splendid exception of Quebec, are only now beginning to sense the need of some architectural pattern and regulation—or at least some check on defacement.

Most European towns and cities, building for lasting charm in environment rather than hurrying to put up any old thing as quickly as possible, refuse to tolerate any new structure that will not blend with the atmosphere and appearance of the place.

How Is Community Chest Money Distributed?

To the Editor:

Sir—I was delighted to see that the Community Chest was a success. However, just how much is being distributed to each of the beneficiary organizations? It may be a little too early for the Chest to know this, but it will have a responsibility to let the public know as early as possible what disposal is made of their charity donations. In the meantime, long may the Chest prosper, for if it does the charity and youth groups will benefit more than ever.

Rank and File To Make Decision in Riondel Strike Issue

To the Editor:

Sir—Kindly allow me space in your paper to bring to light important facts pertaining to the strike which is now in its third week at the C M & S Bluebell Mine, at Riondel, B. C.

Firstly, one would never know that there was a strike going as far as the press and radio are concerned, as there has been very little mention of the Bluebell situation and what the issues involved really are. I wish to inform the public that the statements in the Nelson News regarding the strike were not quite accurate, when they first announced that the strke was on, so to keep the record straight let us first establish the exact number of people involved. (Editor's note—A June 17 report said "about 260" employees were involved in the strike.)

The bargaining agent for the workers here is the Bluebell Sub-Local No. 1 of Local 651, Kimberley Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union, and the bargaining agency is comprised of 273 workers, which excludes the supervisory staff. On the day we went on strike exactly 273 workers were involved, and from this group the Company and the union agreed to have approximately 27 people to remain working in order to maintain pumps, hoists, etc., as many of the people who we talked to are not aware that the law provides that property must be maintained during a strike.

The second question is this: Why are we at Bluebell out on strike? To this question there is only one answer, and this answer was given to the Company by a government-conducted secret strike vote whereby the workers at Bluebell voted 240 to 10 in favor of going on strike. The main issue is "discrimination". We at Bluebell are employees of The Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company, like our fellow workers in Trail and Kimberley; we do exactly the same type of work, yet we in Bluebell receive from 14 to 27 cents per hour less wages. We did not take strike action in a hasty manner; we sat down and bargained with the C M & S Co. for nine months, and only after long discussions at packed membership meetings did we finally vote to call for a Government-supervised strike vote.

The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers is the union of the workers in the mining industry in Canada. . . . Under our democratic constitution the rank and file members run our own affairs, we decide when we go on strike, and again it will be the rank and file who decide when and on what terms we go back to work. No top officer or international representative can sign a back door deal and undermine our just cause. . . .

Regarding our activities since the strike, everything we have done has been an action of and by responsible people. There has been no violence, intimidation or bitterness, everyone has been treated on an equal basis. We issued our first strike relief last week, and we know that no one in this camp will starve during this strike. Our brothers in Trail and Kimberley have assessed themselves $5 per member per month in order to see that we in Bluebell are looked after. For us people here involved in the strike, it gives a great feeling of pride in our fellow men at Trail and Kimberley on receiving such unstinted aid and support. This should clearly show the public what unionism really is.

As of this date the membership at the Yale Lead and Zinc Mine at Ainsworth have also assessed themselves $5 per month per member for the strike fund of the Bluebell miners.

As working men and women we at Bluebell are always ready to meet the Company and listen to their reasons as to why this discriminatory wage gap exists, and if those reasons are legitimate and honestly put to our people they will be given every consideration by the rank and file of this union, who decide all and every principal question.

Interested, Nelson—To settle an argument, must an engagement ring to be binding be a half-hoop of diamonds?

It is just as fashionable for the young man to find out his girl's favorite stones and choose a ring in which they figure. There s no question of diamonds making an engagement ring "binding". In these days it is purely a symbol to the world at large of an approaching marriage.

Visitor, Calgary—Would like to know if it is the custom in Canada to tip a maid in the house where I am staying?

Some hostesses approve of the custom, others do not. It would be a good idea to ask your hostess and to abide by what she advises.

Reader, Castlegar—I am planning to get a shower for a friend who is soon to be married. Would it be too much trouble for you to suggest articles I could ask the guests to bring?

A kitchen shower includes china, spice jars, knife sharpener, can opener, egg timer, towels, bowls, slicers, even small pans—nothing should be large and expensive as most of the guests will possibly also be invited to the wedding. If you decide on a silver shower insist on only small articles being given, such as a thimble, tiny individual salt and pepper set, a jam spoon, little ash trays. The recipe shower is always popular. The hostess should provide a recipe box and into it each guest must put a card on which a favorite recipe has been written. This is a gift that lasts a lifetime and always revives pleasant memories. And then, of course, there is always the ever welcome cup-and-saucer shower. No bride ever has too many cups and saucers.

Press Comment

It is not enough for Ottawa to turn over road transportation responsibility to the provinces, thinks the Calgary Herald. "The next step is for the provincial trucking authorities to get together and agree on a common schedule of weights and other restrictions which will apply to interprovincial trucks in all provinces equally."

Life and A Mouse Trap

F. B. Pearce

Once, long ago, there dwelt in the western part of Uniniania a farmer and his three children. When at last, after years of unremitting toil, he lay dying he called his children to him and informed them that apart from the farm he had nothing to leave them save this pearl of wisdom, "If a man can build a better mousetrap, the world will beat a path to his door." With his last breath he exorted them to remember this and then expired.

Suitably impressed by his dying father's words, the eldest son determined that he would devote his life to the production of a super de lux model of a mouse trap.

The second son was a scholar. He said that, for his part, he believed that his father was speaking metaphorically. Far from wasting his time on a mousetrap he intended to attain eminence through a literary career.

As for the daughter, who was blonde and beautiful, she said that she was tired of the farm and intended to go to the city and study opera. So, having atended the last sad obsequies of their dear departed parent they went their separate ways.

The eldest son spent his days in unceasing toil on the farm and his nights in the search for the perfect mousetrap. Each night saw a new model and each morning it was consigned to the flames of the kitchen stove. At last consumed by his quest he began to neglect the farm. Weeds grew in the fields and a thicket enclosed the house. There was no thunder of hurrying feet beating a path to his door, only the soft voices of quiet neighbors who found him lying dead on the floor. In his hand was the last and perfect mousetrap.

ATTIC DWELLER

Now the second son had taken what little money he had and hastened to the city. There, according to the ancient tradition, he established himself in an attic. He was determined to achieve honor and glory as well as money by his pen. So he wrote. He wrote a novel which no publisher wanted, he wrote articles which editors did not read and all his dreams of being a syndicated columnist came to naught. At last, after innumerable rejection slips, he received a packet from his old home town. Full of excitement he opened it. In it was a letter telling of his brother's unfortunate demise and the last and perfect mousetrap. He spared no sorrow for his brother, but holding the trap in his hand he recalled the words of his dying father; that if a man could make a better mousetrap the world would beat a path to his door. "This is the perfect mousetrap," he said "and if no one will beat a path to my door, I will beat a path to theirs." So he set forth on his quest. He visited manufacturers who treated him with contumely, merchants who treated him with scorn and agents who made promise they did not keep. At length, worn out by toil and privation, he retired to his garret. There he spent his last hours composing a letter to his sister, to whom he bequeathed the wonderful mousetrap.

INSPIRATION

The sister, when she left the farm had also made her way to the city. What little money she had was soon spent but her hopes of being the star of Metropolitan Opera faded. She was, at last, reduced to singing in cheap cafes and night clubs. Then, one day, when she was in the lowest depths of despair, the letter from her brother and the mousetrap were delivered to her. She read the letter with sisterly emotion. "He must have been nuts, the poor guy," she said, for in moving words he had written the story of how the mousetrap had crushed the lives of the two brothers. Idly she poked the trap with her finger and said, "I caught a mouse with my little trap," her eyes widened and she said, that would make a swell song. I believe this mouse trap will bring me luck."

A kind friend wrote the words and an equally kind friend, beguiled by her blue eyes, the music. Other friends found themselves entertaining her to dinner and wherever she went, mousetrap in hand, she sang her little song, "I caught a mouse with my little trap." There were people who said that the kind of mouse she wished to catch had only two legs, but by the time the song had become somewhat stale she had consented to become the bride of a wealthy oilman, who to please her formed a company to make and sell the mousetrap.

In their stately home the mousetrap reposes on a pedestal on which is carved the words. "It is better to be born lucky than rich."

Govt. Questions And Answers Go Into Storage

OTTAWA (CP)—The government is carefully preserving for posterity the concise, intimate details concerning some 9,000,000 Canadians.

These are the housewives and farmers, storekeepers and ditch-diggers, bankers and clerks and the hosts of other Canadians caught up in the country's great recording of humans in the national registration of wartime 1940.

Do you recall being asked whether you could drive a truck, a tractor? Whether you can milk a cow? The replies to these and dozens of other questions are being permanently inscribed on microfilm and stored in steel vaults for future reference.

INFORMATION STOREHOUSE

The big, $50,000-microfilming job, being carried out by a Dominion Bureau of Statistics staff of 21, is principally for the purpose of providing proof of age for old age applicants who cannot present birth certificates.

Every month there are about 2600 requests from pensions officials for a search of records to help establish applicants' ages.

But there also are other uses. The RCMP, for example, is making increasing use of the 9,000,000 master cards to obtain information speeding up investigations of suspected persons.

And in the event of another mobilization, the vault of biographies will provide a rich storehouse of information on the characteristics and capabilities of a cross-section of Canadian people.

Yugoslav Consul Objects To Charges

TORONTO (CP) — Kole Casule, Yugoslavian consul in Toronto, said Thursday that Greek children living as refugees in his country have done so under Red Cross supervision and in good conditions.

Mr. Casule's statement was prompted by news stories concerning the reunion of Greek children with their parents in Canada. In particular he took exception to descriptive lines accompanying a Canadian Press picture May 4. The cutlines decsribed certain children as "kidnapped by Communist guerrillas in 1948 and neglected in a Yugoslav prison camp almost six years."

Mr. Casule said the children were kept in "schools and homes, under constant supervision by the International Red Cross," not concentration camps.

"With cash prizes," a woman added. "The men have formed a pool. They're going to swim down to the Anderson dock, below here. There's a prize for women, too." The speaker grabbed Mrs. Pattersons' arm and pulled her to her feet.

Elsie was an excellent hostess. Instantly she fitted her mood to theirs. She got up laughing and protesting. "I'm not a good enough swimmer. Really."

"Then you can help judge. Some of us are going to sit in boats and hold flashlights, so the swimmers can see the course."

With Elsie in tow, they stormed across the patio looking for more entries. One woman and her partner stared directly at me, and the woman cried, "Hey! Look at HIM. With a build like that he ought to carry off first prize!"

The man said, "All right. He's our entry. I'll put ten on his nose."

There was no eluding them. I said, "I look cute without trunks."

The fellow who had elected to promote me said, "You don't get off that easy, mister. There's trunks full of shorts up stairs in Sheldon's bedroom. Come on!"

A carnival atmosphere reigned on the lake front. Those who couldn't swim held flashlights and were getting into rowboats. Someone had even located lanterns. The finish line—the dock of another estate down the lake—was merely a part of the outer rim of blackness that was the night.

The lad who had elected himself my manager had more good luck than sense. "I've got three hundred on you, Morgan. You win and we split."

"I'll try," I promised.

I saw Louella. She was wearing a swim suit and robe, and I wondered if she was in this crazy thing, too. Then some people surged around and I lost her again.

Then the cockeyed race was won. The women went first. Flashlight beams revealed their moving legs and arms, but soon they were lost out there in the darkness. Out of the gloom the thin white pencils of light jerked here and there like tiny beacons gone haywire.

After a while you could hear yells from up the lake, and apparently the women's race was over.

Then the men were under way. There were six of us. We soon were separated, because the rowboats now spread out all over half the lake.

Before plunging into the water I'd taken a line on the goal down there in the blackness. I hoped I was heading straight for it.

That's how I won the screwy race. I wasn't any better than anyone else. Just soberer. Two men who had been posted at the goal hauled me up on the stringpiece. The women swimmers had disappeared toward the Patterson place to dress.

Another contestant arrived behind me, but the others were all off course. We held flashlights and tried to guide them.

Then all you could hear was a woman's shrill, keening, terrified scream. It came out of the night like a slash of lightning.

"My God!" breathed one of the fellows on the narrow dock beside me.

A boat leaped into a white cone of light. It was tilted crazily as a woman, on hands and knees, bent over the gunwale. She seemed to be tugging at something in the water. She was trying vainly to haul it into the boat.

"Oh, my God!" the man beside me repeated.

I was diving off the dock when he was still saying it. No more than two minutes were required to reach the boat. The woman knelt in gin the bottom, tugging at a figure in the water, was half hysterical. I'd met her, but I didn't remember her name. I went up over the stern of the rowboat, so that I wouldn't till completely over, dived toward the woman and pushed her aside.

"Get your weight on the other side so we won't tip over!" I snapped, trying to jar her into coherent thinking. I held a fistful of hair as she released the figure in the water. While she balanced the rocking boat, I bent low over the gunwale and hauled the figure overside.

It was Elsie Patterson. Her eyes were closed. Being slender, she was fairly easy to handle, though any one who is limp, dead weight is easy to manage. I started working over her while the other women tried desperately to handle the oars.

Almost instantly other boats were arriving. A man piled in with us and took over the oars. "Get us to the rock," I ordered. "Hurry!"

Blankets were spread out on the dock by the time we arrived there. A few moments later. Mrs. Patterson had not yet stirred.

I laid her flat on her stomach and started artificial respiration.

Elsie was dead. She had drowned. There seemed no doubt about that. And long before the local coroner arrived, and allowed the body to be moved, I had noticed something about Elsie's too-thin figure. I was positive she had been murdered.

"A horrible accident," Chief of Police Botts was saying with the right note of sympathy.

Yes, he was there, giving me that half cynical look he had used at headquarters. I was dressed now. With him were a couple of cops from town. They didn't look very smart.

"Accident, hell!" I said.

We were gathered in the big library of the Patterson home. Elsie lay on a leather divan, a blanket covering her, even her face. There were maybe a dozen people in the room. The others had been shut off by the closed doors.

They were watching me intently. Lovely Louella was in the group. I'd learned she hadn't been one of the contestants in the women's race, though she wore a suit and bathing cap. She'd been in one of the rowboats, serving as a guard for the swimmers. Now she stared at me and gasped: "Steve! You don't mean that?"

I nodded.

Chief Botts pushed his fat body in front of me. "You'd better explain that remark, sir."

"She wasn't a very good swimmer," I said. "I saw her this morning."

Today's Bible Thought

The Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun.—Jos. 1:1.

When Moses, the incomparable leader, died, Israel was in great need of wise guidance. Joshua was an heroic figure possessed of the daring, dashing qualities that the times required. God was not dependent on one man. His plan went on.

I want everything down in black and white. Cousin Ben is honest, but anybody is apt to think an agreement is like he wishes it was.

Honeymoon Destination Texas For Procter Newlyweds

PROCTER — A beautiful arch fashioned at the head of the aisle and interwoven with peonies and roses made a lovely setting for the bridal couple at the afternoon wedding in Procter United Church, solemnized by Rev. G. W. Payne when Rose Renzie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Renzie Sr. became the bride of James Ernest Donaldson, only son of J. H. Donaldson and the late Mrs. Donaldson, all of Procter. The couple exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony, John Renzie Jr., brother of the bride was best man.

The petite bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of nylon net over taffeta, worn with redingote of white chantilly lace fastened with covered buttons to the throat, with a stand-up collar and lace lily-point sleeves.

She wore a three-strand necklace of pearls, gift of the groom and for something blue, a satin garter made by the groom's sister, Mrs. Hilton Hagyard. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white carnations. Her long veil was held by train bearer, little Kenneth Sutherland, nephew of the groom, and his little brother James Sutherland was ring bearer.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and was attended by her matron of honor, Mrs. G. Sutherland, sister of the groom, and bridesmaid Mrs. George H. Donaldson, wife of the groom's cousin and a bride of a month. Both attendants wore ballerina length gowns in bouffant style topped with little shoulder capes. Mrs. Sutherland's was of flaming tinted chantilly lace over taffeta, and Mrs. Donaldson's of ice blue nylon sheer over taffeta. Their headdresses matched their gowns in color and materials and were pleated halos set with pearls. Each wore a gold chain with a gold cross pendant, gifts of the groom, and each carried a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The tiny flower girl, Lynda Hagyard, niece of the groom, was in a primrose yellow bouffant gown of nylon and chantilly lace, with matching pleated headdress worn like a halo on her blonde curls, and carried a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Donald MacLeod ushered the guests from their cars to the church with an umbrella in each hand to shelter them from the pouring rain, and Hilton Hagyard, brother-in-law of the groom, and Peter Gretchen showed the wedding guests to their pews which were marked with satin bows and flowers The groom's gifts to the three ushers and the best man were gold tie clips. His gift to the flower girl was a gold chain and cross pendant with matching bracelet.

Mrs. Renzie chose a two piece navy blue crepe afternoon frock for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The organist was Miss Norene Friesen. The little church was filled despite the weather. During the signing of the register Misses Norene and Violet Friesen sang Showers of Blessing, with Norene also playing the accompaniment.

Happy is the bride the sun shines on, and the sun obligingly shone briefly while the wedding party travelled by car to the photographers in Nelson. The reception took place in the evening in the Procter community hall which was profusely decorated with large vases of lovely summer flowers. The wedding party was seated at the bride's table centered with a three tier wedding cake. The cake was baked by the bride's mother but was professionally decorated with lattice pattern and roses of white frosting. Each layer was supported by four pillars and the cake was topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch. D. J. Fitchett proposed the toast to the bride and the groom responded. John Renzie Jr. best man and brother of the bride, proposed the toast to the attendants. Around 400 guests had been invited and Mrs. John MacLeod, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Mrs. Stan Bryan, Mrs. J. W. Riley, Mrs. C. A. Brady, Mrs. P. A. Ritchie and Mrs. N. Shkwarok were in charge of the wedding supper served buffet style.

The bride and groom together cut the cake with a silver knife tied with a blue satin bow and it was served by the matron of honor and the bridesmaid. Wedding gifts were on display on the stage amid the flowers. A beautiful white wicker basket held the bride's bouquet during the reception, the basket hand-woven by the groom's late grandmother. Later the bride presented her bouquet to Mrs. Hagyard, sister of the groom, and friends of the young couple who grew up in Procter took photo-flash pictures throughout the evening. The bridal party led off the dancing.

For her going away costume the bride chose a blue linen suit worn with a close fitting white straw hat, white shoes, gloves and handbag. Her corsage was white carnations. The young couple left for a honeymoon trip by car with destination Texas, and plan to visit the Calgary Stampede on the return journey. They will make their home in Nelson.

Among the wedding guests were the groom's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Bittlecomb of Kimberley, Mr. and Mrs. D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. C. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Almoney, Mrs. A. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutherland and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hagyard and Lynda, Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson, Mr. Stanley Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Donaldson all of Nelson. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. LePage and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. LePage and son of Cranbrook. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. Redmile of Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. R. Driffle of Creston; Mr. and Mrs. G. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Crispin, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Salsiccioli, Misses Doreen and Jaqueline Salsiccioli, Mr. and Mrs. Spigarillo, all of Trail; Ian MacLeod of Slocan City, Mrs. A. Cronmack of Steeprock Iron Mines, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Batchelor, Miss Kathleen Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bialkowski, Mr. Ted Bialkowski, the Misses Eileen Doubt, Lois Wells, Joan Lind, Winnifred Bonderoff all of Nelson, and many others from Nelson and intermediate points.

Trail Girl Queen of Church Carnival

Miss Mary Chubanty of Trail was crowned queen of the Ukrainian Catholic Carnival by Mayor Joseph Kary in an impressive ceremony in the Cathedral Hall at Nelson.

The carnival, an annual event, is sponsored by the Ukrainian parishes of Nelson, Trail, Rossland, Creston and Grand Forks.

Princesses, Miss Caroline Piotrofski of Nelson and Miss Emwilie Skokinzuk of Trail, were crowned by Rev. Father Hurko.

Carnival king was Frieddie Fedorak of Grand Forks.

The queen, dressed in a scarlet velvet gown with ermine collar and sleeve bands and an elaborate train, was presented with a bouquet by Mrs. J. Ludwig and a bracelet by Rev. Father Hurko.

Each of the princesses were presented with necklace and earring sets.

Little train bearers, Dianne Bachynski and Priscilla Bachynski, were dressed in colorful Ukrainian costumes.

The ceremonies of the march past and the crowning were followed by a dance which was under master of ceremonies A. H. Smith. Music was provided by Mr. Bachynski and Mr. Ratkowski.

Refreshments were convened by Mrs. J. Storey and featured coffee and hot dogs. Mrs. F. Hunter of Vancouver told fortunes.

A banquet was held the next day in the Sacred Heart Ukrainian parish hall with a large number in attendance to conclude carnival festivities for the year.

Boundary Interest in Summer Wedding

GREENWOOD — Sacred Heart Church at Greenwood was the scene of a lovely summer wedding July 3 when Lucy Martha, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Takemoto, of Greenwood and John Kishi, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Kishi, of Cascade, B.C., were united in marriage by Rev. Father Myles Muller. Carnations and snapdragons graced the altar and the guest pews were marked with bows of satin ribbon.

The bride chose a floor length strapless gown of embroidered net over satin, with diamonds scattered over the skirt and across the top of the bodice. A jacket, featuring a low scalloped neckline and lily point sleeves, topped the gown. Her scalloped edge fingertip veil fell from a coronet of pearls and diamonds, and a string of pearls with matching earrings completed her ensemble. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and white carnations.

Miss Kimiko Kishi of Cascade, sister of the groom, was the bride's attendant and was daintily attired in blue taffeta floor length model. Her chapel veil fell from a coronet of blue flowers and elbow length blue gloves completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Little Miss Katrina Izumi, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer, and was daintily attired in yellow silk organdy, floor length model with matching accessories.

Mr. Eli Takemoto, of Vancouver, brother of the bride, supported the groom, and the ushers were E. Hamagishi of Greenwood, and A. Kishi of Spokane, Wash., brother of the groom.

Special music was provided by the Sisters of Atonement.

The reception was held in the WI hall where nearly 100 guests were received by the wedding party. Many of the guests came from outside points: Cascade, Grand Forks, Spokane, Vancouver, Princeton and Steveston. The Greenwood Women's Institute and the Girl Guide Association catered for the reception.

The bride's mother was attired in a grey-blue afternoon dress, with white accessories and her corsage of pale pink carnations completed her ensemble.

Mr. Ken Hamanishi acted as master of ceremonies.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Muller, to which the groom responded.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a blue-grey two piece suit, with a picture hat of white straw and white accessories. A corsage of white gardenia and white carnations completed her ensemble. After visiting United States points and Banff, the young couple will make their home in Grand Forks.

Third Reading For Water, Streets, Sewer Bylaws

CRANBROOK — Third reading has been given by city council to three bylaws totalling $115,500 which would extend water, sewers and streets to the southwest corner of the city newly added last December. Bylaws now go to the provincial department of municipalities for approval before they can be given final reading and come up for plebiscite by ratepayers.

Voting date in August is tentatively planned.

The bylaws would ask voters to endorse debenture issues totalling this amount, to be repaid at 4½ per cent over a period of 20 years. Though the bylaws for the three purposes would be separate, to be practical in extending these city services to this newly acquired subdivision, all three would have to be endorsed. The facilities will serve the area built up over recent years just outside former city limits and could be extended as further parts are built up.

Noisemaker to Tour Canada

By RON EVANS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP) — "I have the lungs of the lion, the elephant and the mosquito," roared Altaf Ahmad Onan Niazi, 37-year-old Pakistan timber merchant who plans to motorcycle across Canada this Fall.

Niazi, billed on his business card as "zoological linguist and world tourist on motorcycle," arrived in London in May with his cycle chauffeur, Khabid Ibrahim Khan, 43-year-old farmer, after a 13,000-mile trip from lahore.

Throughout the seven-month trip, the burly, smiling traveller, who blends east and west in a grey business suit and $30 wool hat, has been gathering noises.

"You see," he explained in an interview at a quiet east end tea room, "I love studying noises and then making them myself. I can speak with animals."

He threw back his head and demonstrated with the bellow of an Indian cow, rattling both tea cups and diners.

"It took me 5½ years to perfect the roar of a lion and seven months to get the whistle of a train guard. Altogether I can imitate more than 300 noises."

DAY-OLD CHICKEN

Other sounds in his repertoire include a cat-fight, a female mosquito, a busy typewriter, an automobile crash and a day-old chicken.

"I have been making noises for 31 years and I have given more than 3000 performances, mostly for educational institutions," he continued.

Khan, handsome, moustachioed veteran of four years with the British army and 12 with the Indian police, is both pilot of the 10-year-old green motorcycle with sidecar and keeper of the accousts.

After touring Canada and the United States, Niazi and Khan will sail to Australia and then back to Lahore, capital of Punjab, sometime in 1956. There Niazi will again see his wife and four-year-old son, who has been making noises since he was two.

DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY FOR JEDE-KRIESE

CRESTON — At a double-ring ceremony under a floral arch Alma Jede, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jede of Wynndel and Ernest Hugo Kriese of Lister, son of Mr. Olga Kriese in Germany, were married in Creston Christ Lutheran Church in a setting of poenies. Rev. Crojten officiated.

The young bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. B. Riehl. Her wedding gown was floor length white chantilly lace and net over taffeta, featuring lace bodice, with baby puff sleeves and net yoke. The full net skirt had panels of lace. Her embroidered veil fell from a pearl tiara and formed a train. Her bouquet was of red roses, lily of the valley and fern. Gertrude Jede carried the veil and John Kriese was ring bearer.

Miss Anita Riehl as maid of-honor chose a floor length gown of rose net over taffeta, featuring a strapless bodice and net bolero. Her colonial bouquet was of blue buds, lily of the valley and fern and she wore a matching bandeau of flowers in her hair. Miss Evelyn Andestad as bridesmaid wore a gown of pink chantilly lace and net over taffeta, pink rose buds formed her hair bandeau and pink roses, lily of the valley and fern formed her bouquet. George Creulich of Riondel was the best man and B. Wocknit acted as usher.

A reception was held at the home of the bride. The brides table covered with a hand crocheted cloth centred the three-tier wedding cake topped with bride and groom motif.

G. Greulich proposed the toast to the bride and the groom responded. A dance followed in the evening.

For her honeymoon in Spokane, Wash., the bride changed to a wine suit with white nylon blouse and white accessories.

On their return they will reside in Riondel where the groom is employed.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. Riehl, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kriese, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rother, Mr. and Mrs. E. Meier, all of Lister.

The Swiss guard at Vatican City was formed in 1505 as the Pope's personal bodyguard.

Mrs. Alec Spence, 657 Ward Street, represents one of the four generations of her family shown here. Mrs. Spence went to Vancouver to represent the fourth generation at the christening of four-month-old Kelly Stephen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilles, in Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver. Holding the baby is his grandmother and godmother, Mrs. James Kelly. Mrs. Gilles is at left.

Guests Play Piano Selections

Mrs. H. C. Armstrong, 215 Chatham Street, entertained for her daughter Diana's 14th birthday at a supper-party for 12.

The evening was spent in games, sing-song, and contests, the highlight bein ga number of piano solos, each guest playing an examination, festival or recital piece.

Coast Vandals Slash Usherettes' Clothes

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vandals broke into the usherettes' dressing room during the Theatre Under the Stars performance causing more than $700 damage when they slashed the women's clothing. Stanley Park police said holes were cut in 14 suits and dressed with a sharp instrument.

BROWNIES WIND UP WITH WEINER ROAST

District Commissioner Miss Greta Curwen, was guest of honor as Brownies of the Third Nelson Pack held their wind-up for the season at Mrs. Lust's picnic grounds. The girls built a fire and roasted weiners and marshmallows.

Girls' Auxiliary Presents Guest Book To Salmo Church

SALMO — Emerald Mill Girls' Auxiliary, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Hall, presented a leather-bound, gold inscribed guest book to the Salmo Community Church. As they are disbanding, they wished to use their funds for such a presentation.

In addition, a gift of money, designated for the purchase of brass altar vases, with the remainder to start a trust fund for a stained-glass window, was made.

In the absence of Auxiliary president, Emma MacLean, vice-president Pauline Dawson made the presentation, accepted by Mrs. Fred Middleton, president of Salmo Ladies' Aid.

Codling Moth Brings Spray Advice

Codling moth is still active in the Creston Valley and it is recommended that growers in the Kootenay-Arrow Lakes and Creston districts who have not sprayed for control of this insect within the past two weeks apply a spray immediately. If much apple scab is showing up in the orchard, it would be advisable to add ferbam to this spray at the rate of five pounds per acre in concentrate sprays or one pound per 100 gallons in dilute sprays. Ferbam may be mixed with DDT or cryolite, but is not compatible with calcium arsenate.

Wynndel Notes

WYNNDEL — Lac. G. Habart of Penhold, Alta. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Habart.

Miss Ann Komar of Vernon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Komar.

Last Minute Efforts Fail to Halt Major Coast Bakeries Shutdown

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bread baking halted Thursday in Vancouver's major bakeries.

Workers at McGavin Bakeries Ltd., went on strike and plants of six other firms in Vancouver and two bakeries in Nanaimo closed at noon as operators enforced a lock-out.

The big West Broadway plant of McGavins was picketed, the pickets carrying placards bearing the single word "strike."

A 35-hour work week and certain fringe benefits are sought by the Workers. The present work week is 38 hours. No pay boost is sought by the employees, members of the B kery and Confectionery Worke Union.

HOSPITALS SUPPLIED

Hospitals and institutions will supplied bread during the stri walk-out by a non-union store w its own baking facilities.

Upper Vancouver Island deliv les were made, using bread bak Wednesday.

Union bakers in Victoria annou ced plans to block any effo made there to ship bread to Vanco ver and other mainland points.

The B. C. Labor Relations Boa made a last minute effort to h the strike, but met with failure.

Acting labor minister Kenne Kiernan attempted to bring bo parties together.

"Results of our attempts to bri management and labor togeth were unfavorable," he said.

There was no comment from t managament spokesman.

Co-op Store Robbed Of $1000 Goods

CRESTON — A robbery in the Creston Valley Co-Operative Association store resulted in over a $1000 haul of merchandise by an unknown thief or thieves.

Gaining admittance to the store by piling egg crates pyramid fashion the intruders entered the butcher shop window at the rear of the store and stole 24 pairs of trousers, 10 pairs of men's shoes, seven topcoats, 11 sport coats, dress socks, dress shirts, sport shirts, weaters, T-hirts, and six suitcases.

In an interview with store officials it was learned the loss was fully covered by insurance. During the past few months the board of diretcors re-appraised the entire insurance coverage for store and contents and following the appraisal additional insurance was effected covering such hazards as robbery and other losses.

Police were notified Friday morning and a full scale investigation is under way.

Body of 4-Year-Old Found

LADNER, B.C. (CP)—The body of a four-year-old Ladner boy, missing from his river-side home for two months, was found Wednesday in the Fraser river.

The body of David Krutow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krutow was taken from the river by two Steveston fishermen, Patrick George and Ray Jackson. The child disappeared on an errand to a corner grocery.

SAYS B.C.E. MADE $875,000 IN OPTIONS

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Vancouver Sun says that during the last seven months 58 British Columbia Electric Company executives have made about $875,000 in stock options.

The Sun said that the officials accepted options on 135,000 shares of B.C. Power Corporation, parent company, last Dec. 4 at a price of $16.25 a share. The market price was $17.75, and now is $22.50.

Sentence Siemens to $2000 Fine Plus Costs or 23 Months in Jail

HULL, Que. (CP)—Allan Siemens, 21-year-old British Columbia truck driver who confessed to a murder which never happened, Thursday was fined $2,000 and costs or 23 months in jail on a public mischief charge.

Siemens changed his plea from not guilty to guilty when he appeared before Judge Victor Chabot. He was given until Wednesday to try to raise the money to pay the fine and several hundreds of dollars in costs.

Siemens started a cross-country chase by Quebec provincial police when he "confessed" to Calgary police that he had "murdered" a youth named "Clyde" by beating him with a stick and shoving the body in the Gatineau river near here.

BODY EXHUMED

The body of Claude Pare, 19, of Hull was taken from the river June 21. Death was found to have been caused by drowning. This was confirmed after the body was exhumed.

Quebec police travelled to Calgary, Banff, Alta., Vancouver and Abbotsford, B.C., to question Siemens and hunt for clues. Lieut. Ubalt Legault said Siemens was picking strawberries at Abbotsford, his home town, June 21 and it would have been impossible for him to have been in Hull at the time Pare disappeared. He said Siemens had read in Calgary about the finding of Pare's body. Siemens claimed in court earlier this week that he was under the influence of alcohol when he made his "confession" to Calgary police.

Canadian Delegate Leaves Conference

OTAWA (CP) — Canada has pulled out of the Geneva Conference.

John W. Holmes, assistant deputy external affairs minister, Canada's last remaining delegate to the conference on Korea and Indo-China, now is on his way home by sea. He is expected here next week.

After collapse of the Korean part of the conference, Canada had no vital interest in the meeting because it was not a party to the Indo-China talks.

$10,000 Fine For False Tax Return

VANCOUVER (CP)—The J. and M. Mills Limited of New Westminster was fined $10,000 in police court here Wednesday for making a false income tax return.

F. A. Sheppard, counsel for the income tax department, told Magistrate Thomas Dohm a total of $63,968 was involved in the false return, made in 1947.

A plea of guilty was entered and the firm was given a week to make payment.

Hillary to Try Makalu Again

CALCUTTA (Reuters) — The Nepalese government has granted Sir Edmund Hillary, co-conqueror of Mount Everest, permission to make a new attempt on unconquered Mount Makalu it was announced.

Hillary had to give up his attempt on the 23,500-foot peak because he was injured in a fall.

The New Zealander returned here from Katmandu and said his expedition to the Barun and Hongu valleys had failed to achieve its main objective, the scaling of 24,-012-foot Chamlang peak.

HALIFAX (CP) — The pigeons in Halifax's public gardens are pretty tame, but they don't like helicopters. When one of the machines flew over the gardens every pigeon in sight took to the air for safety.

Magazine Tells Of Secret Mass

LONDON (AP) —A Roman Catholic magazine disclosed Thursday the secret, kept for more than 30 years, that a requiem mass was said in France over the body of Britain's Unknown Soldier of the First World War.

The Unknown Soldier's grave lies in the nave of one of the Church of England's most hallowed places, Westminster Abbey.

The Catholic publication, the Westminster Cathedral Chronicle, said the mass was arranged by Major S. G. Hammack, a member of the party bringing the body from France, and himself a Roman Catholic. Said the article:

"It occurred to him that the dead man might very well have been a Catholic. While the remains were waiting in a church before being taken to Dover, he arranged with a priest for a Requiem Mass to be said. Only he and the priest were present in the church."

STRIKE BREAKS AT GOODYEAR PLANTS

CINCINNATI (AP) — A breakdown in contract negotiations today brought the first strike in eight years to plants of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

The CIO United Rubber Workers called on its 23,000 members in Goodyear plants to quit work in 10 U. S. cities at midnight Wednesday night.

The negotiations over a new contract broke up here after both sides refused to yield in a dispute over a wage increase. The company held fast to its offer of a pay boost of five cents an hour. The union insisted that was not sufficient and did not make corrections sought in wage differentials in "low-paid plants."

The union never has disclosed the exact terms of its demands on the company.

OTTAWA (CP)—Federal government plans for a royal commission to investigate coastal shipping have been put off until the conclusion of coming negotiations between Canada and the United States on the St. Lawrence seaway.

The negotiations for a joint construction job on St. Lawrence river deep waterway facilities are expected to start this month. Informants said the three-man royal commission likely will be set up shortly after they end.

To Investigate A-Energy Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday named a three-member fact-finding board to investigate the strike of 4500 atomic energy plant workers. The board began its inquiry at once.

Appointment of the board, headed by former atomic energy commissioner Thomas Keither Glennan, is a major step toward ending walkouts at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky., plants which threaten production of the vital ingredient for atomic and hydrogen bombs.

The government can apply for a court order halting the walkout as soon as the board makes its report.

TO OPEN ORE LINE

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — A new 350-mile privately-owned railway in Labrador and Quebec will be officially opened July 31 by Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland and Premier Duplessis of Quebec, Mr. Smallwood said Wednesday. The rail line was built by the Iron Ore Company of Canada at a cost of about $225,000,000.

Grand Old Man Tackles Heckler

LONDON (Reuters) — Prime Minister Churchill refused Thursday to reject further aid from the United States and said he had never felt ashamed of Britain for receiving it.

A Labor member, Desmond Donnelly, suggested in the House of Commons that the U. S. should be thanked for past aid and Britain should decline to accept any more.

The prime minister replied that he was ready at all times to express the thanks of Britain for the "massive aid" America had given.

He added, "For the future, most of the aid we expect to receive will be in the form of military equipment. The government will accept and put to good use this contribution to the common defence of the free world."

The prime minister also denied that he had announced Foreign Secretary Eden will be his successor as prime minister.

The issue arose from a question by a Labor member, R. T. Paget, who asked Churchill if he would "introduce legislation to amend the constitution by authorizing the prime minister to appoint his successor."

The point of Paget's question became clear when he rose again to allege that while in the U. S., Churchill had announced the foreign secretary would be his successor.

He asserted the prime minister had been guilty of "an infringement of the royal prerogative."

Churchill answered: "I certainly do not recall ever having said anything of the kind . . . I certainly would not presume to commit such a constitutional error as that."

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS
by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, July 8th—I don't want to spend the best years of my life preparing potatoes and thank goodness I don't have to ...now that I've found out about FRENCH'S INSTANT POTATO.

All the delicate flavour of the finest potatoes—the fluffiest mashed potatoes you ever tasted—all ready in just one minute . . . tops casserole dishes a delicate brown . . . makes foods like hamburger, hash, or meat loaf "go further" . . . and taste better too! French's Instant Potato makes the creamiest white sauces or soups; coats croquettes, fish, or cutlets a golden brown and makes poultry stuffing that's super-delicious! And here's my sensational recipe for Stuffed Frankfurters . . . an oh-so-good supper dish to delight family and friends.

2 cups French's Mashed Potato
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
French's Prepared Mustard
6 Frankfurters
¾ cup chopped parsley
¼ cup minced onion
1 tablespoon chopped pimento
⅛ teaspoon black pepper

Prepare mashed potato using French's Instant Potato powder. Add parsley, onion, pimento, pepper. Cover frankfurters with boiling water and allow to stand 8 minutes. Split frankfurters lengthwise, spread with mustard. Stuff frankfurters with first mixture. Brush with melted butter. Place on broiler rack. Broil 10 minutes or until delicately browned.

Incidentally French's Instant Potato is exceptionally handy at the summer cottage. Gives you complete meals with less cooking time. . . . So more time for you to enjoy your holiday!

It's A Dream Come True! Haven't you longed, these hot days, for a homemade ice cream that you could make in a jiffy? With ROYAL INSTANT PUDDING . . . believe me . . . you have creamy, delicious ice cream—nutritious too!—and it takes only 1 minute of your time to prepare! Just add 1 package of Royal Instant Pudding to a bowl containing 1½ cups of chilled milk and ½ cup of table cream. Beat with rotary egg beater until smooth—1 minute. Put in freezing compartment of 'frig until firm. That's all! There's no secondary beating! For the quickest, easiest ice cream ever—with a delightful flavor and texture—use Royal Instant Pudding!

Better Living is a practical ambition you can attain with careful planning, through the IAC MERIT PLAN. Day after day for instance, Canadian families are learning about this friendly, helpful service in the automobile showrooms of the country. When they buy a good car for essential transportation they also enjoy the satisfaction it adds to their family life. These men and women know that buying-out-of-income is the proven way to higher standards of service and comfort. When you buy a car through the IAC Merit Plan there are many special protective and other services included which makes it the most economical method of financing those important items, so essential to good living.

It's Sad how many women will fuss over their hairdo and complexion . . . spend a lot on clothes . . . then pay little attention to the most important attribute of good looks—immaculate freshness! But I have good news for you—it's new, FRESH CREAM DEODORANT. Because at last, here is a deodorant that really keeps underarms dry—stops odor if you use it every day. New, gentle Fresh has the exclusive "Moisture-Shield" formula that keeps underarms so dry—there's no possible danger of offense. And what's so wonderful, too, you can trust your loveliest clothes to Fresh Cream Deodorant!

"That's Why I Like It So Much!" smiled my neighbour, the other day . . . as she picked up a tumbler her little boy had knocked to the floor. "It's POLYTHENE—and so it doesn't break or chip when it falls!" Yes—polythene housewares are practically unbreakable — wonderfully safe for children's use. Polythene is soft and warm to the touch—flexible—even at the coldest temperatures! You'll find mixing bowls, covered canisters, fruit juice containers—many, many household articles made of C-I-L polythene. They come in delicate pastel shades that will blend beautifully with any colour scheme you have. You'll find them very economical to buy.

One Of The Lovely Luxuries of life—which every one of us can enjoy is a tall glass of iced CHASE & SANBORN INSTANT COFFEE. It's a luxury to live with day by day—because you save up to 40c a pound on Instant Chase & Sanborn over ground coffee. You can have your iced coffee just the way you want it—mild, medium or strong. . . . So order a jar of it today and see for yourself what full-bodied, flavorful coffee you can have at a real saving for your food budget. See how the granules melt like magic the moment boiling water touches them into delicious, fragrant coffee!

What'll We Eat Tonight? Don't you think a vegetable salad and hot biscuits would make the family happy? And do use BLUE BONNET MARGARINE, first to make the biscuits . . . then slip a pat inside each one. Blue Bonnet is made from pure vegetable oils and pasteurized skim milk—that's what gives it that country-fresh flavor so pleasant to the taste. You'll find that Blue Bonnet spreads easily and smoothly for sandwiches . . . melts through your hot vegetables to make them extra good, and still more nourishing. I think you'll find the individually wrapped quarters very convenient and the package marked for the amount you need for recipes is a very helpful idea. Do order it today!

Money For You Alone . . . easily available . . . yet safe from theft. That's what it means when you carry Travellers Cheques sold by the BANK OF MONTREAL. B of M. Travellers Cheques are essential for a truly care-free holiday. They're easy to carry, easy to cash at hotels, banks and stores—but until countersigned by you, they are valueless. They are the perfect insurance against loss or theft, for in either case your money will be refunded. They are for you alone. So don't risk spoiling your precious holiday by having money mishap. Before you leave on your vacation, go to your nearest B of M branch and change your funds into Travellers Cheques. Then—a happy, care-free holiday to you!

In Spite Of Everyone's Good Advice . . . it's hard not to get burned with the sun or wind. Days are so lovely in the world of summer! But I'm glad to tell you that you can relieve the misery of sun and wind burn if you keep MENTHOLATUM on hand. Spread in liberally over the burned areas. Or put some on a clean cloth and lay it gently on the affected parts. Soon you'll feel the cooling, soothing; comforting relief that gentle Mentholatum brings. Do get a jar or tube, today, and see for yourself why it's so popular. Or write me at Confidentially Yours, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, for a GENEROUS, FREE SAMPLE of Mentholatum. You'll be glad you did!

Not Withdrawal, Veto — Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Dulles said Thursday the United States would use its veto, if necessary, to keep Red China out of the United Nations Security Council.

Dulles said he is confident Red China will be unable to gain admittance at the fall session to any of the principal UN organizations, including the assembly.

But Dulles said firmly, in answer to questions at a press conference, he does not believe there will be any occasion for the U. S. to withdraw from the UN if Red China is admitted as Senator William Knowland (Rep. Calif.) has proposed.

Congress Leery Of Withdrawal

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Eisenhower appeared Thursday to have warded off any early Senate action to put Congress on record with formal notice of U. S. withdrawal if the United Nations admitted Red China.

Senator Walter George of Georgia senior Democrat on the Senate foreign relations committee, said in an interview he does not now expect such a proposal to be offered. If one is, he said, he will oppose it because any such move "might deprive us of action at a critical time."

NOT LIQUIDATION

George said he agrees with Senator William Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, that the U. S. must do everything possible to keep the Chinese Communists out of the world organization. But George added he doesn't want the U. S. cast in advance in the role of "being willing to preside at the liquidation of the United Nations."

Chess Masters Undefeated

MONTREAL (CP) — Russia's chess masters swept all before them Wednesday night when they took on 30 of Montreal's leading players and emerged undefeated.

Igor Bondarevsky, playing 25 opponents simultaneously, ran up 21 wins and drew four games while his partner, Alexander Kotov won all five of his matches.

Philippe Brunet, president of the Montreal Chess League, said two singles games due to be played today, likely will be called off as both the Russians pleaded weariness.

BAMFORD, England (CP) — The bronze medal of the National Canine Defence League has been awarded to Tip, a collie who stayed 15 weeks on the lonely Devonshire moors beside the body of her dead master.

Special Wards Urged for Alcoholic Cases

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Manitoba liquor inquiry commission, headed by one-time premier John Bracken, heard a strong plea for establishment of special wards in major Winnipeg hospitals for treatment of alcoholics.

Dr. M. S. Lougheed, medical health officer for Winnipeg, made the request and suggested that 'alcoholism is something we should treat as we do tuberculosis."

The commission was conducting a two-day hearing here at which civic officials and welfare agency representatives are giving evidence.

Dr. Lougheed said it was impossible for hospitals to take care of alcoholics for any length of time due to the lack of facilities. He said alcoholics should be treated for a disease "and not as if they were bums."

Another speaker, Judge Hamilton, recommended closing of beer parlors between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m. to prevent men going to them after work and staying so long the families were neglected.

PARIS DECIDES ON DAUPHIN'S FATE

PARIS (AP)—Paris' court of appeals rules that France's famous Lost Dauphin, the son of King Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette, died at the age of 10 in Temple prison during the French Revolution. The decision ended a 104-year-old lawsuit. The court ruled that the story usually told in history books is correct.

Little Louis Charles never lived to become Louis XVII. Nor was he Karl Wilhelm Naundorff, a watchmaker in Delft, Holland, who claimed to be the Lost Dauphin.

HEIRS START STORY

Naundorff's heirs started their suit in 1851 against the then ruling family of Bourbon-Parma. That was six years after his death. They claimed the prince had been spirited away from prison as a favor to Josephine de Bauharnais, first wife of Napoleon Bonaparte, and turned up in The Netherlands as a grown man.

Men who had seen both had testified that there was a remarkable resemblance between Naundorff and Louis XVI. The court, however, was not convinced.

Ferguson Shares Not Sold To Company

TORONTO (CP) — The 1,805,500 shares of Massey-Harris-Ferguson Limited held by Harry G. Ferguson have been sold but the purchaser has not been announced.

The Canadian Press, in reporting the resignation of Mr. Ferguson from the company Wednesday, erroneously said the shares had been sold to the company.

A spokesman for the Massey-Harris-Ferguson Company said Thursday that the identity of the purchaser of the shares, worth some $14,000,000 at current market value, is not known here.

Car Victims Not Yet Identified

LYTTON, B.C. (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police here said Thursday it may be several weeks before identification is made of the passengers of a car which plunged into the Thompson river near here July 1.

RCMP said a strong current and high water have so far prevented divers from reaching the automobile, believed to contain the bodies of three persons.

Flood waters of the Thompson river may prevent divers from making positive identification for another few weeks, police said.

Witnesses said the car went out of control down a steep road and plunged down a 100-foot bank into 30 feet of water, about 140 miles northeast of Vancouver, B.C.

The Dominion of Ceylon is an island in the Indian ocean with an area of 25,300 square miles.

Guards Threatened to Shoot If Mrs. Petrov Tried to Get Away

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP) — Mrs. Evdokia Petrov said Thursday she was warned armed Russian guards escorting her back to Moscow might "use their weapons" if she tried to escape them.

This warning, she said, came from Russian ambassador Nikolai Generalov shortly before she left Sydney by plane for Moscow amid a violent mob scene at the airport.

Another, different warning came from Kovalenov, the embassy official who replaced her husband, Vladimir, as local secret police chief after he defected to Australian authorities, she said.

He told her that concentration camps "and possibly execution" awaited her in Russia because of her husband's defection.

Testifying before Australia's royal commission on espionage, Mrs. Petrov Thursday gave her first full testimony on her frame of mind during the anti-Communist demonstrations which marked her departure and on the flight northward to Darwin. Australian authorities had sought to solve the puzzle of her intentions during the flight which culminated in her decision at Darwin to join her husband.

TORN BY STRUGGLE

The 40-year-old blonde said that throughout the flight she was torn by an internal struggle between fear of what might happen to her in Russia and the desire to see her home and parents.

She said she cried all the way to the airport in Sydney after leaving the embassy but still could not make up her mind when shouting East European emigrants there urged her to stay behind.

The struggle ended when Australian authorities at Darwin persuaded her to talk to her husband by telephone. He told her bluntly:

"If you go you will never cross the threshold of your home. You will never see your parents."

She then told Australian officials "I am staying."

HEARINGS DELAYED

The commission, investigating Petrov's charges of widespread Russian espionage in Australia, had to delay Thursday's session to deal with legal objections from Rupert Lockwood, Australian journalist named in the hearing.

Lockwood has filed a libel suit against W. J. V. Windeyer for calling him the author of "document J" a report alleged to contain "criminal libel" against prominent Australians and said to have been written in the Russian embassy.

Mrs. Petrov Thursday testified that Lockwood had spent three days typing out the documents at the embassy.

Duke To Drop In On Canadian Marksmen

LONDON (CP) — The Duke of Edinburgh will drop in by helicopter at Bisley Camp to meet Canadian and other cadets shooting it out on the rifle ranges Friday.

The duke will fly direct from Buckingham Palace to the Surrey range, where he will lunch with visiting Commonwealth marksmen and present medals to the winners of a Canadian-British cadet team shoot.

Lunching with the duke will be Lt.-Col. Neil Dow of Windsor, Ont., in charge of the 10-cadet Canadian party and Commissioner L. H. Nicholson of the RCMP, commandant of Canada's senior Bisley team which starts official action Monday.

To Call First PGE Tenders

VICTORIA (CP) — Einar Gunderson, vice-president of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, said that tenders would be called Friday for construction of the first link of the Squamish-Vancouver southern extension.

Would Ban First Use

LONDON (Reuters)—The British Methodist conference Wednesday passed a resolution calling on the governments of the world, particularly the United States and Russia, to declare "that in no circumstances would they henceforth first use any atomic weapon in any war."

Six Months Hard Labor for Threat, Robbery

TRAIL — Following threats and robbery of $54 and a $61 CPR check Karl Heinz Rosenfeld was given a six-month hard labor sentence in Nelson Provincial Goal.

Accused was tried in Trail Police Court before Magistrate Parker Williams, the charge laid as a result of a complaint made by CPR employer Charles Flamand of Brilliant.

Flamand told the court the accused had entered his sleeping quarters twice on the night of July 2. The first time he demanded the money be given to him, and upon being refused, left. Entering again later, he had a metal instrument in his hand which he raised, threatening the complainant. At this, Flamand said he allowed him to take the money and check from his wallet, calling RCMP at Castlegar immediately after Rosenfeld had left.

RCMP at Castlegar put out a call for the accused, who was brought in by Nelson RCMP later the same night. He had hitchhiked to Nelson.

As Much As 15% of The Power Your Engine Could Develop Is Being Held Captive

TCP, blended into Shell Premium Gasoline, releases this power— by neutralizing lead and carbon deposits

Lead and carbon deposits which are responsible for the greatest power loss in today's cars, can now be neutralized by the newly discovered additive TCP.

How these deposits steal power

These deposits build up in combustion chambers and glow red-hot when you step on the accelerator to pass a car or make a hill. These "hot spots" set off the fuel charge before the piston is ready for its power stroke. This is called pre-ignition: power works against you instead of for you.

Lead and carbon deposits also accumulate on the tips of spark plugs and prevent the spark from doing its job. The deposits actually divert electricity from the electrodes and keep the plug from firing. This is called misfiring. It results in wasted fuel and power.

The greatest Gasoline development in 31 years.

That's the way power is held captive in your car, but now this captive power can be unlocked by Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP.

TCP additive changes the character of the deposits. Instead of glowing red-hot in combustion chambers, the deposits are fireproofed and become harmless.

Pre-ignition is prevented, and power works for you. Morever, the deposits can no longer divert electricity away from the electrodes. The spark goes back to work—turning fuel into power! With continued use of Shell Premium with TCP, you get up to 2½ times longer spark plug life.

A tune-up without tools

In a nutshell, TCP additive lets your engine have all the knock-suppressing benefits of modern fuel without its power wasting side effects. That's why you'll feel your engine's had a tune-up by the time the second tankful is consumed.

Because today's gasolines are always building up deposits, the only way to keep these deposits harmless—to always get full performance from your engine—is to use Shell Premium with TCP. You'll find it now at all Shell Dealers—the only place it's available.

Spence Has One-Stroke Lead for British Title

SOUTHPORT, England (AP) — Chain-smoking Bill Spence of England fired a one-under-par 72 Thursday to take a one-stroke lead at the halfway mark of the British open golf championship but several other contenders were hot on his heels.

The long-driving, 42-year-old Kent pro ended the day with a 141 total at the 6837-yard Royal Birkdale seaside course. He shot a 69 Wednesday.

Close behind Spence came Antonio Cerda of Argentina who shot a 71 for the second day running for a 36-hole total of 142. Sam King of England, Peter Thomson of Australia, Syd Scott of England and Dai Rees of Wales followed with 143.

Scott, a 40-year-old Cumberlander who had been sidelined two months this spring with a bad leg, broke the course record by two strokes with scintillating 34-33 — 67. He had a 76 Wednesday.

Two Americans, Jimmy Demaret of Klamesha Lake, N.Y., and Jim Turnesa of Briarcliff, N.Y., finished the day tied with three other contenders at 144.

Bobby Locke of South Africa, three-time winner of the open and pre-tourney favorite, was in contention with a 145 score, six less than required to qualify for today's doubles round.

Australia's Peter Toogood was the low amateur at 147, one better than Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.

LARGE BILLS And How to pay them

Most people spend large sums of money only when they know where the money is coming from. But there are some bills that you just can't plan for. For instance, car smash-ups, unexpected medical expenses, fires, thefts and anything completely out of your control; bills . . . that hit you like a bolt out of the blue. These large bills are often a serious concern to a family. That's when a Niagara loan can really be of help. At any rate there are a lot of letters in our office which were written by people who certainly think our service was a mighty fine answer to this difficult kind of problem. You'll find if you inquire, that friendly loans at Niagara Finance often have lower rates. Another point about Niagara, loans to $1500 are life-insured at no extra cost to you. If you have a large unexpected bill which you can't handle why not drop in or phone; we'll be glad to see you.

Madden	1	10	.091

The Passmore entry in the Nelson and District Fastball League is in the league top spot after a 9-0 whitewashing of the Maddens at South Slocan. Previous to the win the Passmore team was in a three-way tie with Hume and Transfer for the top.

P. Stoochnoff allowed the last place Maddens just two hits while his teammates were collecting ten off Madden pitcher Hamakawa. Voykin and Stoochnoff were top Passmore batsmen with two doubles each and Osachoff got a single and a double. Seven of the Passmore hits were two-baggers.

Only three games remain in the first half schedule of the league.

Kaslo Ball Team To Silverton Sunday

NEW DENVER — The New Denver-Silverton baseball team fresh from a close 2-0 win over the strong Nakusp nine take on the Kaslo seniors in a Sunday game at Dewis Memorial Park in Silverton.

The Kaslo club, probably the strongest ever to wear Kaslo colors, boasts one of the finest southpaws in the district in Ray Norberg. The little fellow has a terrific strikeout total in games against American teams.

Ken Gordon, who has had a great year both on the mound and at bat will do the pitching for the New Denver-Silverton squad, with Nobby Hayashi catching, Andy Avison at first, Bud Leask at second, Dave Crellin at short, and Barry Morrison at third. Wayne Morrison, Kenje Hayashi, Keith Wilson and Art Kurbis will cover the outfield.

Nobby Hayashi still leads the team in hitting with a .546 mark, followed by Ken Gordon with .350. Barry Morrison with .333, Kenje Hayashi, Wayne Morrison and Dave Crellin all with .250. Nobby Hayashi still leads in stolen bases with 12.

REPRESENT JAMAICA

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP) — A 13-man team, including nine track athletes, three weightlifters, and a swimmer, will represent Jamaica at the British Empire and Commonwealth games in Vancouver this month.

George Rhoden, world and Olympic 400 metres champion, heads the track list.

Giants Down Dodgers Sixth Straight Game

By the Canadian Press

The New York Giants continued their phenomenal pace in the National League Thursday as they defeated Brooklyn for the sixth straight time and stretched their lead over the Dodgers to 6½ games with a 11-2 victory.

The Giants, paced by spectacular Willie Mays, collected 16 hits off four Brooklyn hurlers while Reuben Gomez hurled shutout ball after being touched for two unearned runs in the first inning.

Mays was the big noise. He hit his 29th and 30th home runs and drove in five tallies. Whitey Lockman hammered a pair of doubles and his 12th homer and Monte Irvin hit his 14th homer. Don Mueller boosted his batting average to .358 with three singles and a double before rookie Pete Wojey finally got him out in the eighth.

Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson returned to the Dodgers' lineup but were unable to right the slumping champions. Reese got hits and Jackie finally broke a string of 19 hitless trips with a scratch single in the eighth.

The Cleveland Indians took advantage of the Yankees' day off to move four games out in front of the world champions in the American League, defeating the Baltimore Orioles 4-1. The Detroit Tigers struck a blow against the Chicago White Sox' pennant hopes with a 2-0 triumph and the Chicago Cubs snapped a five-game losing streak with a 9-8, 14-inning victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

Jim Hegan and Wally Westlake paced the Indians to victory as Bob Feller hung up his fifth straight pitching victory against one defeat. Bob struck out six and was in trouble only in the seventh when the Orioles scored their lone run.

Steve Gromek scattered seven hits in beatting the White Sox for his 10th victory of the season and his first shuout since the opening day. The defeat dropped the Sox seven games off the pace.

END LOSING STREAK

Randy Jackson's single with two out in the 14th decided the Cubs-Braves issue. There were five homers in the game — three by the Cubs and two by the Braves — as Chicago finally shattered a string of seven straight losses to Milwaukee at Wrigley Field.

The Chicago homers were hit by Jackson, Gene Baker and Walker Cooper. The Milwaukee home runs came off the bats of Hank Aaron and Del Crandall.

OUTLAWS TO PLAY UNDER LIGHTS AT NEWPORT TONIGHT

Nelson Outlaws will make a fast trip across the line where they will meet the Newport club under the lights tonight.

The Outlaws will be leaving the city right after work and will be ready to play in the evening before making a rush trip back to get across the line.

Coach Ron Nash said Thursday night that Newport have a good team and have been playing regularly in a league with Sandpoint and Bonners.

Just who will be making the trip is not known, but Nash said he would have one of three chuckers, Denny Kraft, Johnny Misuraca or Roy Driver ready for mound duty. Kraft, a short time ago, pitched remarkably well against Bonners and could well be the pitcher to start.

The Outlaws, unable to get many Sunday games this season, have gone all out to get mid-week games against the American clubs and thus far have succeeded in winning their share of games against them.

On Sunday the Outlaws will travel to Fruitvale where they will meet the Fruitvale Seniors in an exhibition game.

OVER 30 ENTER CPGA TOURNEY

EDMONTON (CP) — Some $3000 in prizes will be on the line today when Dick Borthwick of Hamilton Ancaster leads 30-odd entrants off the tee to open the two-day annual Canadian Professional Golfers Association tournament over Edmonton's plush Mayfair course.

The play-for-fun phase ended Thursday when the country's big-name golfers got in their last practise licks, many waiting until the final afternoon.

In tune-up rounds so far over the par-70 course, three-time CPGA champion Stan Horne of Montreal Islemere has hit 68. The 1953 Alberta Open champion Frank Willey of Edmonton Riverside and young Buddy Loftus of Calgary Regal, who won the provincial open a few years ago when only 19, both fired 69s. Defending CPGA titlist Henry Martell of Edmonton Highlands equalled par.

British Cricket

LONDON (Reuters) — Cricket close-of-play scores in Britain Thursday.

Pakistan 317 and 17 for no wicket, Derbyshire 176.

Glamorgan 95 and 217, Surrey 126 and seven for one.

Essex 188 and 96 for four Leicestershire 243.

Nottinghamshire 166 and 78, Gloucestershire 289. Gloucestershire won by an innings and 45 runs.

Somerset 188 and 80, Sussex 241 and 28 for two. Sussex won by eight wickets.

Warwickshire 95 and 53 for four. Lancashire 165. No play before tea interval because of rain.

Worcestershire 352 for three declared, Hampshire 156 and 33 for no wicket.

Yorkshire 293 for nine declared, Northamptonshire 90 and 127 for five.

DROBNY TO SEMIS

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. (AP) — Wimbledon champion Jaroslav Drobny had to use all his tennis tricks Thursday to defeat Australia's 17-year-old Roy Emerson and enter the semi-finals of the Midland counties tournament.

Drobny won 6-4, 6-1 and now meets South Africa's Abe Segal. The other semi-final will be between Britain's Roger Becker and the Australian Lew Hoad who trounced South Africa's Owen Williams 6-2, 6-2.

Castlegar Cubs Quit District Fastball League

CASTLEGAR — The Castlegar Cubs Fastball Team has decided to withdraw from the Trail and District Fastball League.

A part of the three-team league since its organization, the Cubs claim they are being discriminated against in the League schedule of games and are considering entry into an International League playoff at Cranbrook instead.

Unbeaten so far this season, the Cubs have played five games, two of which were home games.

A resolution to withdraw from the league was passed at a meeting of the Cub executive and later endorsed by the players.

It said the Cubs are convinced they have been discriminated against in the Trail City Fastball schedule, and, "this discrimination, because it permits too many away games and not enough Sunday home games, creates a lack of Castlegar fan interest in the Cubs and too great an expense for trips into Trail."

The Cubs now understand they are, as members of the Trail League, ineligible for B.C. playdowns, and "are interested in entering the American playdowns at Cranbrook."

The resolution was sent to Glen Cummings, president of the Trail City Fastball League.

CANADIAN CRICKETERS TO BRITAIN

TORONTO (CP) — Fifteen Canadian cricketers leave for England Monday for exhibition games against top teams in the British Isles.

The 43-day trip was arranged at the invitation of the Marylebone Cricket Club, which toured Canada last year. The Marylebone club will pay all travelling expenses for the Canadians, who will play such teams as Essex, Middlesex, Yorkshire and Warwickshire.

RED SOX WIN DOUBLEHEADER FROM KIMBERLEY

NATAL — Natal-Michel Red Sox of B.C.-Montana Baseball League swept both ends of a double-header by 6-4 and 11-7 scores against the Kimberley Juniors in well played exhibition games here.

In the first game both teams collected only six hits each with Whittaker and Lefty Sadlish combining to hold the visitors while Dixon for Kimberley hurled the full distance. Rookie R. Joyce led the Red Sox attack, getting half the entire hits fith a home run, triple and double.

The second game saw Whalley Krall go the route for the Red Sox as he limited the opposition to eight hits while striking out 11 batters. In the meantime the Red Sox batters collected a total of 13 hits off the combined hurling of Brown and Dixon, the latter coming in a relief role in the seventh inning.

The games were umpired by T. Krall and N. Rocchio of Natal. Next Sunday will see the Eureka nine from Montana play the Red Sox in a regular B.C.-Montana Baseball League game.

Heavy Seas Swamp Winnie

AVALON, Calif. (AP)—The attempt by Canada's Winnie Roach Leuzler to master the tough Santa Catalina channel ended after an hour and 50 minutes early Thursday when unusually heavy seas threatened to sweep her out of sight of her little pilot boat.

The attractive 28-year-old matron from St. Thomas, Ont., was pulled from the water at 4:49 a.m. PDT by her father-coach, Edward Roach of Toronto, and her navigator, Capt. Tinch Maricich.

The conqueror of the English channel in 1952 found the 21-mile Catalina-California channel too obstreperous to handle, at least this dismal morning.

300-POUNDER SIGNED

NEW YORK (AP) — Earl Putman, a 300-pound tackle candidate who formerly played for Tempe, Ariz., State, came to terms with New York Giants of the National Football League Wednesday.

Putnam is the biggest man ever signed by Giants. He will be used on the defensive line.

Seattle Bombers May Reenter Western Hockey League—Dotten

SEATTLE (AP) — Hockey may get a new lease on life, in Seattle.

Frank Dotten, general manager of the Western Hockey League team that folded after the 1953-54 season, is stirring the coals.

He indicated Thursday there is a possibility of Seattle getting back into the WHL on a subsidy basis from the league. If not, he said, he plans to try to line up a four-team semi-pro circuit. He mentioned Spokane, Nanaimo, New Westminster and Trail as possibilities, along with a Seattle team.

The Seattle Times said an ice arena lease for Sunday nights had been negotiated by a man representing Dotten, with an option retained for possibly adding a week night.

Dotten acknowledged that the WHL has offered to underwrite a Seattle club for $18,000 to keep it in the league. He said the league wants to keep Seattle operating because of the prospects of a Portland franchise for 1955-56 when the Rose City will have a new rink.

Dotten said the offer was attractive but he would not commit himself until he was assured the well-heeled Canadian prairie clubs will operate within a reasonable budget to keep the league from becoming lopsided from the standpoint of playing talent.

Seattle's loss on last season's operations has been reported at $46,000.

Dotten said he had turned down an offer of coaching for New Westminster's WHL entry.

Trabert Upset by Swedish Champ

BAASTAD, Sweden (AP)—Sven Davidson of Sweden, U. S. indoor champion, scored the second upset victory in the Swedish international tennis championships Thursday as he defeated Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2 in the quarter-finals.

Budge Patty of Los Angeles eliminated Staffan Stockenberg, Sweden, 6-3, 6-2, 6-1.

In the mixed doubles, Ken Rosewall and Rex Hartwig, Australia, defeated Stockenberg and Torsten Johansson of Sweden 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

Teamed up for doubles Trabert and Patty swept to an easy 6-1, 6-3, 6-4 win over Davidson and Lennart Bergelin, Sweden.

Kaslo Splits Two With Colville

KASLO — Kaslo fastball team played host to a team from Colville, Washington, and in two close ball games each team came up with a victory. Colville took the first game 3-1 and Kaslo the second 2-1, at Vimy Park.

Kaslo's lone run in the first game came on a homer by Lind. Hope homered for Colville. Ray Norberg pitched for Kaslo in the first game and Sunny Norberg hurled the second contest.

DON PIRIE WITHDRAWS

LONDON (AP) — Gordon Pirie, Britain's distance ace, withdrew today from the national track and field championships because of an injured left foot.

The Amateur Athletic Association three-mile and six-mile champion was entered first in the six mile race Friday night at White City Stadium.

The three miles will be run Saturday.

Buys British Turbo Generator

REGINA (CP)—The Saskatchewan Power Corporation has placed orders for more than $1,600,000 worth of British electrical equipment, general manager J. W. Tomlinson announced Thursday.

He said the utility has ordered a 33,000-kilowatt turbo generator for the Saskatoon generating station from C. A. Parsons and Co., Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, at an approximate cost of $886,000. A tentative order for a similar generator was given the Metropolitan Vickers Ltd. of Manchester, England, for a power plant at Estevan in southeastern Saskatchewan.

Mr. Tomlinson said total cost of extensions at the two plants will be about $8,000,000. The Saskatoon plant will be increased in capacity to 108,000 kilowatts from 75,000, making it the largest in the province. The Estevan plant will be boosted to 72,000 kilowatts from 42,000.

Tenders will be called later for boiler equipment and building construction.

Market Trends

NEW YORK (AP)—Trading went through a lot of irregularity, with the tone lower, but the pace of business was moderate in the late afternoon.

Higher Canadian stocks included McIntyre, up one point, and Dome Mines, ahead. Lower were Distillers Seagram, Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker, each off. International Nickel was unchanged.

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials were the only strong section in light trading.

The industrial index was up almost three-quarters of a point, with strength in all groups except constructions and liquors.

Senior base metals were down minor fractions. Juniors were off pennies.

MONTREAL (CP)—Prices moved ahead in moderately active trading.

Papers, utilities, senior metals and banks leaned forward, while beverages and senior oils were narrowly weaker. A mixed tone ruled the miscellaneous industrial and steel sections. Carriers were mainly steady.

LONDON (Reuters) — Another long list of gains was registered.

Demand for industrials continued unchecked. Motors, aircrafts and electrical equipment scored good gains, as did textiles and newsprints.

Russian Secret Weapons Made By German PoWs

BONN (Reuters) — Forty German scientists in a prison camp near Moscow are making the special weapons used by Russian secret police all over the world, says a report issued by the West German Social Democratic Party.

The report, based on statements from German prisoners who have been recently repatriated, says the scientists are watched day and night by 200 members of the MVD. They are given especially good treatment as an inducement to use their skill.

Equipment manufactured for use by the secret police is said by the returning prisoners to include:

Tape recorders small enough to be carried by MVD agents.

Trip wires to protect Soviet embassies with special warning signals operated by infra-red rays.

Special miniature radar direction finding equipment.

Apparatus to stun victims by electro-narcosis.

Tear and vomit gases.

COMFORTABLE PRISON

The Germans at Kuchino are said to be men who once volunteered for work in Russia under contract but were later sentenced to long terms for "sabotage" to allow the MVD to exploit their skill.

Kuchino is different from other Soviet prisons, the report says, because the prisoners are comfortably housed and well-fed. Their treatment varies according to the importance and secrecy of their job.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Wiggles a Sure Sign of Boredom

NEW YORK (CP) — Wiggles speak louder than words in expressing a child's opinion of a movie.

On that principle, the children's film library of the Motion Picture Association of America applies the "wiggle test" in deciding which picture to select for the children's Saturday matinees at neighborhood movie houses.

Ask a child if he liked the picture and he'll probably say yes, whether he did or not. But the library's observers watch a selected juvenile audience for wiggles, indicating restlessness when the film isn't getting across.

"For years," said Mrs. Marjorie Granger Dawson, chairman of the library, "adult groups tried by themselves to decide which pictures children would enjoy. That just didn't work. Now we let the boys and girls have the last word. Unaware of what they're there for, they come to a preview and do the final picking."

UNMISTAKEABLE REACTIONS

Mrs. Dawson had just come from a little movie house on Broadway where 80 public school children, 8 to 13, had raised the roof because they didn't like a picture.

As the kids shouted to their hearts' content, two adult observers watched and listened carefully, drawing zig-zag lines on charts. The charts list the varying degrees of interest — active participation, close attention; interest, passive acceptance, boredom, restlessness and open revolt.

"No pictures are produced especially for children," Mrs. Dawson said. "Children are bored with passionate love-making or talky scenes. They like adventure, action, scenes of lively happening. Movies must move—and fast — for children."

N.S. Archivist Offers Best Theory on Cabot

By IRVING C. WHYNOT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX (CP) — When John Cabot sailed to North America in 1497 he touched off a historical argument that has been tossed for centuries.

But now a Nova Scotia archivist says that on the basis of present knowledge the best theory is that he landed on Cape Breton Island and then doubled back along the coast of Newfoundland.

The main dispute is whether Cabot's landfall was in Newfoundland or Cape Breton, the island that forms the northeast part of Nova Scotia.

LACK PROPER RECORD

There even are some side issues: Cape Bretoners can't agree which part of the island he hit, if he landed there at all; and some claim that his landing spot actually was St. Pierre and Miquelon, the French islands south of Newfoundland.

C. B. Ferguson, assistant archivist of the public archies of Nova Scotia, writing in the Dalhousie Review, says the dispute is clouded because of lack of proper records of Cabot's voyage.

As far back as the end of the 19th century a committee of the Royal Society of Canada looked into the records and said all evidence indicated Cabot's landfall was on the most easterly cape of Cape Breton island.

But they decided that an 1897 celebration of the voyage "would not committ the society as a whole to the definite acceptance of that theory." The celebration was held in Halifax, neutral ground in the landfall dispute.

ROOM FOR SPECULATION

Although the records are not complete, some accounts of the voyage exist. A map by John Cabot's son Sebastian compiled in 1544 indicates that the landfall was on Cape Breton.

But of these records Mr. Fergusson says: "Nevertheless, the fact that Cabot's journal is not available, together with the vagueness of at least the verbal evidence regarding the landfall, provided room for speculation."

Cape Bretoners and Newfoundlanders will continue the argument.

And to remind them of the dispute there is the Cabot strait separating Cape Breton and Newfoundland; the Cabot trail, a picturesque drive through the highlands of Cape Breton; and the Cabot tower on Signal hill overlooking the harbor at St. John's, Nfld.

Vernon Street Lots Return $8000

Lots on which Liberty Food Store's super-market will be built were purchased for a total of $8000.

The City of Nelson, from whom the Liberty principals purchased the lots, accepted George Kaiway's bid of $3000 for lot 13, block 67, the corner lot. Offer of Joe D. Hingwing of $2500 each for lots 14 and 15, the inside lots was also accepted by the City, it was reported at City Hall Thursday.

On these three Vernon Street lots Liberty will build a three-level building at an estimated cost of $130,000.

With the Canadians in Korea is a Nelson soldier, L/Cpl. Edward LeRoi McDonough, 19, above, serving with 2nd. Bn. Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, who was among a group of 90 soldiers from various Commonwealth Armies to graduate from a six week Junior NCO course recently at the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade's NCO school in Korea.

L/Cpl. McDonough, who has been serving in the Canadian Army for 10 months, has been in Korea for the last three months. His mother lives at 508 Robson Street, Nelson. He was among 28 Canadian soldiers who successfully completed the specialized training, comprising extensive class-room instruction and day and night manoeuvres over the hilly terrain bounding the Canadian NCO School.

ALBERTA MAKES $1,500,000 SALE

EDMONTON (CP) — The Alberta government rang up more than $1,500,000 Wednesday in its first sale of "drilling reservations" of petroleum and natural gas rights on six tracts of unproven land in central and southern Alberta.

The purchasing companies obtain drilling reservation rights to qualify for regular gas-oil leases. They select locations for test wells and on completion of them have the right to lease a predetermined number of quarter-sections from the reservation spread.

Dream Trains To Be Ready In August

VANCOUVER—The first coaches of Canada's dream trains will be in operation early in August on the CPR transcontinental route, Ian Warren, of Montreal, passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, said here Thursday.

Mr. Warren, who was in Philadelphia recently, when the CPR took delivery of the first coach of an order of 155 cars, described the eventual new trains as easily the finest on the continent. He said scenic dome cars and the new sleeping cars will be the first in operation. It is understood the $40,000,000 order will be completed next April when completely new trains will be on the transcontinental routes. Mr. Warren is on a business trip throughout the Pacific northwest.

Nominate Gaitskell Labor Treasurer

LONDON (Reuters) — Two major British trade unions, the coalminers and the engineers, wrecked Aneurin Bevan's chances of becoming treasurer of the Labor party.

Both unions voted to nominate Hugh Gaitskell, chancellor of the exchequer under Clement Attlee's Labor government, for the vacant post in preference to the leader of the party's left wing.

Talent Aplenty At Camp Koolaree

Tuesday night was talent night at Camp Koolaree as the campers gathered around the campfire to hear 22 boys perform.

The talent program was arranged by cabins with each scribe acting as master of ceremonies. Cabin 2, Okanagans, started off the program with Frank Nixon at the organ. Hector Stewart was next, playing his flutotone. Arnold Bates and Donald Gellatly entertained with "How Much is that Doggie in the Window" and Martin Harts had the campers puzzled as he sang in Dutch.

Scribe Barry Wilson of the cabin 3 Chinooks started out their portion of the program with Mike Bennett singing and later impersonating famous singers. Donald Daly sang "Vengeance Song", his own lyrics. A duet of Peter Young and Kenny Gustafsen brought a hearty round of applause and an organ solo by Bob Rogers revealed some careful fingering.

Cabin 4 Polecats, had Bob Van and David Dickenson performing "Bits of Shortnin' Bread" and Dick Fraser playing "Carnival in Venice" on his trumpet.

Cabin 5 served the cmpers with a Retzelbromo and then proceeded as the camp "Elgar Choristers" sang "Down by the Riverside" and "Cruising Down the River." Bill Gibbon wound up the effort with a trumpet solo, "Home on the Range."

Alan Young, the entertaining scribe of the cabin N Brutes, started their portion of the program off by whistling "Just Three Notes." Art Moore was next on the talent parade with a mouth organ solo. A 10-act comedy was presented by Alan Young, the lone actor, "The Last Part of Copper Young."

Climax of the talent show was the quintette of D. Stanley, D. Drew, W. Van, J. German and A. More.

Camp leaders of cabin 8 also took part in the program and formed a quartette of staff members.

Hiking again highlighted the activities as the cabin 4 Polecats took the rowboats to Harrop, visiting at Camp Lourdes along the way, and stopping at Camp Busk for lunch.

Cabins 2 and 3 went on the canyon hike and the Brutes elected to walk the tracks to a poitn above the narrows where the Pop Smiley had deposited the Retzelbromos for the return hike.

Lloyd Atwell landed a 14-inch trout Tuesday, which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robins, camp supervisors.

Law Expert Is Air Transport Head

OTTAWA (CP) — A legal specialist in the government service was named to head the federal Air Transport Board that regulates Canada's $80,000,000-a-year commercial aviation business.

The $3500-a-year job went to W. J. Matthews, 54, chief law expert of the transport department who for the last five years has been director of the department's administration and legal services branch.

A. G. HARVEY, well known Nelson man, has replaced E. W. Musgrove, who was transferred to Chilliwack, as employment supervisor at the Nelson Unemployment Commission office.

Dismisses Two Lattimore Counts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals Thursday upheld the dismissal of two perjury charges against Owen Lattimore, including the key count, but ordered two other counts reinstated.

The Court of Appeals agreed with U. S. District Judge Luther W. Youngdahl by an 8-to-1 vote that the key count, charging Lattimore swore falsely when he said he was not a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Communist causes, was invalid.

In explaining the majority's dismissal of the key count, Judge E. Barrett Prettyman wrote:

"The word 'sympathizer' is not of sufficiently certain meaning to sustain a charge of perjury . . . . There is no definition of the term 'sympathizer' or any concrete specification of its content either in the indictment or in the statue."

OTHER CHARGES

The vote to reinstate the other two charges was 5 to 4. The counts were based on this testimony by Lattimore:

That he didn't know that "Asiaticus," a writer for "Pacific Affairs," a magazine of the Institute of Pacific Relations which Lattimore edited, was a Communist. Asiaticus is alleged to be a German Communist, Hans Mueller.

Also that he never published articles in IPR magazines by persons he knew to be Communists, other than from Russian contributors.

Retail Sales Down 5 Per Cent

VICTORIA (CP) — Retail sales in British Columbia declined five per cent during April compared to the same month last year, a statement from Trade Minister Ralph Chetwynd said Wednesday.

Volume of retail sales during the month this year was $98,691,000.

Tourist Industry Expects "Good Month" in July

The Nelson tourist business expects July to be a "good month" after some recession in the business in May and June compared to those months last year.

In May business was down about one-third from May of 1953, T. D. Rosling estimated. This was attributed mainly to poor holidaying weather in that month. Although an accurate check has not been made of June business yet, it is thought that it was "about average," the Kootenay Auto Court and Resort Owners Association president said.

July and August are usually the principal tourist business months and a trade equal to or better than in previous years is looked for. Last year's tourist spending in Kootenay-Boundary was estimated at $15 million.

CRESTON — It is reported more tourists have come through Creston (to date) than in many years past. This indication was given by garages, motels and eating places in Creston.

Merchants also report that a brisk trade has been noticed during the past week. However, it was reported most of this was from prairie cars enroute west to the coast.

Mother of Nelsonite Passes

Funeral services were held in Vancouver Tuesday for Agnes Gertrude Sing, mother of Nelson resident, Mrs. Martin T. Harris. Mrs. Sing died in Vancouver Saturday at the age of 87.

Besides her daughter in Nelson, Mrs. Sing is survived by two sons, H. Carman Sing of Chicago, Ill., John Richards Sing of Victoria, B.C.; one daughter, Miss Marjorie B. Sing of Vancouver; one sister, Mrs. H. M. Forbes of Toronto, Ont., and three grandchildren. Mrs. Forbes was predeceased by her husband Charles R. Sing.

Interment was in Victoria.

Bakers To Strike

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bread vanished from grocers shelves and housewives leafed through cook books Wednesday night as the deadline neared for a work stoppage in seven Vancouver and Nanaimo bakeries.

Operators have served notice they will lock out some 450 bakery workers at noon Thursday if 70 employees of the McGavin Bread Company strike as scheduled at 5 a.m.

There was no sign of settlement late Wednesday. A spokesman for a government conciliation board said attempts still were being made to bring operators and employees together but "so far, we have nothing to report."
