21 Feared Lost In Airline Crash

Burning Wreckage Floating on Sea Only Evidence; One Body Recovered

AMSTERDAM (CP) — A Royal Dutch KLM airliner with at least 21 persons aboard plunged into the North sea Monday and only one body — that of a small boy — had been recovered before darkness interrupted search operations.

The plane, a Super Constellation on the New York run, was flying to Amsterdam when it crashed off the murky Dutch coastline only a few minutes from its home airport.

KLM said he was a most able airman who last year was given the honor of flying KLM's first super Constellation from New York to Amsterdam. He was married but had no children.

The airline said the four-engined Douglas DC-6B Willem Bontekoe went down through the clouds less than 30 miles northwest of Amsterdam, its goal. The KLM office in New York said the plane was an extra because the regular flight, which arrived earlier, was booked up.

DEBRIS ON SEA

Burning wreckage, lifebelts, cushions, an oil stain and other flotsam marked the site of the crash.

Discovery of debris by a pilot boat about 16 miles northwest of Ymuden, Amsterdam's seaport, led to the conclusion that the plane had "met with an accident," KLM said. The spokesman said rescue operations by boats and a helicopter were continuing, but the pilot boat Belatrix had not sighted any survivors.

The airliner had taken off from New York with 21 passengers and a crew of nine. Nine passengers were to leave the plane at Shannon and two come on board.

A search by air and sea began shortly after the plane was reported overdue.

Amsterdam airfield asked the Scheveningen radio to alert all ships in the area when the plane did not appear on schedule. Dutch and British navy planes took off to join in the search.

It was the fifth postwar KLM plane crash. The previous were near Prestwick, Scotland, Oct. 23, 1948, with 41 killed; near Bari off the Italian coast, June 23, 1945, with 32 killed; near Bombay, India, June 11, 1949, with 44 killed and near Frankfurt, Germany, March 22, 1952, with 47 killed.

Churchill Pledges Aid In Salvaging EDC Plan

Britain, France Remain Agreed On Need For Western Cooperation

By STANLEY PRIDDLE

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain and France have agreed on the need for "early practical steps" to maintain Western unity despite the collapse of European army treaty negotiations in Brussels.

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France flew to England Monday and conferred urgently for five hours with Prime Minister Churchill and foreign secretary Eden. The three statesmen met over the lunch table at Chartwell, Kent, Churchill's country home.

A brief statement issued before Mendes-France flew home said "a general discussion" was held on the unresolved differences at Brussels between France and the other five countries of the proposed European Defence Community.

Speculation on the Chartwell talks centred on two themes:

1. France may have tried to talk Britain into agreeing to another Big Four conference on German reunification before approving the arming of West Germany.

2. Mendes-France may have made an 11th-hour attempt at gaining British participation in EDC. Britain has pledged full support for the project but has declined membership on the grounds that it would interfere with her Commonwealth commitments.

As Churchill said farewell to the French premier, he said: "I will do all I can to help you."

Later, Mendes-France told reporters in English: "We were all agreed on continuing the co-operation of the Western countries, and especially our two nations, toward our common ends and ideals."

REJECTED FRENCH CHANGES

Mendes-France flew to England direct from Brussels after Germany, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and Italy had rejected his sweeping amendments to the EDC treaty.

The premier had proposed the amendments in an effort to make the treaty more acceptable to the French parliament.

Mendes-France's failure to gain acceptance of his drastic treaty amendments at the Brussels conference of six EDC foreign ministers.

Mendes-France flew to Normandy Monday night for a meeting with President Rene Coty after a five-hour conference in England with Britain's Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Eden.

No Need for Gloom Says Eisenhower

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower saluted Monday night what he called the "hard work and effective accomplishments' of the 83rd Congress and told the American people not to be "too discouraged' over peace prospects in Europe.

Speaking over country-wide radio and television networks, Eisenhower looked back over the record of Congress and ahead toward the November congressional election. He said Congress cooperated with him in giving the United States "a new era of fair play, to treat everybody alike, to have no favored classes."

Eisenhower worked in a swat at Democrats who have been talking about recession by declaring that the lie has been given to prophets of "gloom and doom."

The gloom and doom phrase has been an old Republican party battle cry.

There was a new note when the president referred to what he termed gloomy talk in the press about the outlook for peace in Europe as a result of the crisis over the European Defence Community.

"Dont be too discouraged," he counselled the country. Great statesmen, he added, are working on a solution of Europe's problems and aren't licked yet. Neither is the United States, he said.

He said much remains to be done and much will be done, to get a better understanding with the United States free world neighbors and to take positive action for peace.

Pilot Steers Away From Villages

PICKERING, Ont. (CP)—One of Canada's top test pilots remained at the controls of a CF-100 jet fighter when it exploded Monday and bailed out safely after he had guided it away from two villages. But his observer was killed in the crash.

The jet crashed into a farmer's field near this village 22 miles east of Toronto seconds after pilot Jan Zurakowski of Toronto bailed out at 2000 feet.

The victim was identified by A. V. Roe Canada Ltd., officials as John Hiebert, 28, of Toronto, a flight test observer. Hiebert is survived by his widow in Toronto and parents in Winnipeg.

Zurakowski, Polish-born ace of the battle of Britain in the second world war and a test pilot for Avroe, suffered a broken leg when he landed less than 300 yards from the jet's scattered wreckage. An ejection seat-parachute escape was credited with saving his life.

Motorman Trapped 7 Hours After Crash, Loses Foot

NEW YORK (AP)—A minor subway crash in The Bronx Monday trapped a motorman for seven hours inside a cab no bigger than a telephone booth.

Motorman David Moclair, 52, was finally cut out of the telescoped steel of his forward car at the cost of his left foot. It was amputated to free him. His condition is critical.

The empty subway train crashed through a track end, entombing the motorman in a rigid vise of crushed steel. For hours he withstood agonizing pain, able to move only a hand.

"How long will it be" Moclair pleaded at intervals, as 35 rescue workers cut toward him with acetylene torches. Water was played over the car to cut down the heat.

Moclair's face was contorted with pain. Perspiration bathed his face as his torture extended hour upon hour.

His wife, Mary, arrived at the scene and burst into tears when she perceived his ordeal. One of his four children, John, 16, was allowed close enough to pass words of encouragement to Moclair.

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain faces an acute shortage of dentists and the British Dental Association asked Health Minister Iain MacLeod to hold "an urgent inquiry into the problem."

Communion Rite Picketed

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Leaders of 163 Christian denominations worked to create a platform of unity Monday at the World Council of Churches assembly despite picketing of a solemn rite of spiritual brotherhood

An unusual open communion service of the Anglican church was picketed by three persons who passed out leaflets deploring what they termed a "violation" of the Episcopal church sacrament.

The demonstration was given little apparent heed by persons attending the service, but some council leaders commented later that it illustrated the difficulty of the assembly's undertaking.

The picket demonstration was prompted by a wing of Episcopalianism which stresses retention of pre-Reformation "Catholic" practices, including the requirement that careful spiritual preparation be made under church ritual before a worshipper may achieve the sacrament of communion.

Disease . . . What's That?

No Such Thing on Soviet Farms, Canadians Told

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — Four Canadian government farm experts, making their first visit to Moscow, were impressed with the quality of products on display at the Red capital's agricultural exhibition.

But they could learn little or nothing about Russian acreage yields, of the number of bushels of grain produced, of the manpower employed, or of the cost of production.

And they learned even less about Russian animal and plant diseases. One of the visitors, Dr. W. F. Hanna, the government's botany and plant pathology chief, said Monday he inquired about disease problems and was informed by the Russians that the Soviet did not have such problems.

He inquired also about mortality rates among Russian livestock and was told Russia had very few deaths. It all sounded "sort of fantastic," he said in an interview, until he studied that reply against the basic facts of Russian life — that labor is dirt cheap and that the government exercises rigid controls over the movement of animals and humans.

RIGID CONTROL

"They can do things over there that we cannot do in our country," Dr. Hanna said. "They have thousands of veterinarians. And you can't move animals from one farm to another without a government certificate. There are no lengths to which they cannot go to control disease."

Russia also had a lot of cheap farm help. At the exhibition, Dr. Hanna noticed that one of the women looking after livestock gave the animals as much care as a mother would give a child.

VOTERS AT PEAK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The census bureau, in a new estimate for the November elections, says that this year for the first time the U. S. will have over 100,000,000 persons of voting age. This is exclusive of 2,500,000 voters in the armed forces.

Brazil President Has Army Support

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Embattled Brazilian President Getulio Vargas sat tight Monday, supported by the army in the face of air force demands he resign.

The long drawn-out controversy over the killing of air force Maj. Ruben Vaz, in which members of the presidential palace guard were allegedly implicated, flared up into what looked like a showdown. Vaz was apparently accidentally shot down in an unsuccessful attempt on the life of Carlos Lacerda, a newspaper editor who opposes Vargas' regime.

The crisis developed Sunday after a meeting of air force general officers led by Lt.-Gen. Euardo Gomes, titular head of the National Democratic Union, the chief political opposition to Vargas. Gomes was twice an unsuccessful presidential candidate.

Radio Nacional reported an air force note was delivered to Vargas — proposing he quit.

The radio quoted Vargas as saying: "I will not resign. I was elected by the people for five years and I will fulfill my constitutional duties to the end."

EMERGENCY FLIGHT

VANCOUVER (CP) — Robert Stevenson, 9, of Prince George, B. C., flown here for an emergency operation, was in good condition on Sunday.

Robert swallowed a cone-shaped piece of plastic July 27.

The plastic stuck in his windpipe but Prince George doctors were unable to locate it. The boy became seriously ill Friday and Saturday Vancouver Red Cross officials arranged with the RCAF to fly Robert and his parents here.

They Want To Pay Income Tax!

COPENHAGEN (CP) — Greenlanders want to pay income tax.

They pay no direct taxes at present, but they have asked for their exemption to be waived.

The Greenland council, which rules over a total population of 22,000, considers that since the world's largest island is now constitutionally a part of Denmark and sends two deputies to the Danish parliament, it should be treated like the rest of the kingdom.

Council members feel that paying income tax would increase their feeling of independence and provide more money to improve local conditions.

2nd Aluminum Plant For B.C. Under Study

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver Sun says discussions are under way for construction of a second huge aluminum plant in British Columbia.

The newspaper says the proposed project would rival in size the multi-million dollar Aluminum Company of Canada development at Kitimat and would be built under Reynolds Metals Company of New York and Northwest Power Industries Ltd., a Canadian firm. Northwest power was granted a conditional water licence earlier this month by both B.C. and federal government authorities for a gigantic power development in the Atlin lake region of northern B.C. The company is a subsidiary of Quebec Metallurgical Industries and Frobisher Ltd., which in turn are subsidiaries of Ventures Ltd., holding company for a large number of Canadian mining firms.

The Sun says Reynolds Metals "appears to be assuming a 50-per-cent interest in ownership of Northwest Power."

In announcing granting of a conditional water licence to Northwest Power Aug. 2, B.C. Lands Minister R. E. Sommers said Reynolds had signed for 30 per cent of the hydro-electric power developed by Northwest Power.

Both Richard Reynolds, president of the New York firm, and Thayer Lindsley, head of North west Power, are in Victoria.

The Sun says Reynolds Metals will concentrate on the aluminum side of the new venture and that Northwest Power will handle refining of other metals.

Northwest Power has posted a performance bond of $2,500,000 with the B.C. government as evidence of its good faith and preparedness to go ahead with the Atlin development.

SHOW POLIO VIRUS

ROME (Reuters) — The biggest picture ever seen of the living virus of poliomyelitis will be flashed on a movie screen here when 800 doctors and scientists meet for the third international polio conference from Sept. 6 to 10. The doctors will hear and discuss 25 papers covering research into the disease since the second conference at Copenhagen in 1951.

Bengough Warns Unions Against Political Ties

By JOHN LeBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

REGINA (CP) — The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada was told by its chief Monday to steer clear of political alliances.

The advice to Canada's largest labor body — 580,000 members — came from 71-year-old Percy R. Bengough as he delivered his 12th presidential address to the TLC's annual convention preparatory to retiring.

The admonition was given in the midst of moves for closer ties between the TLC and the rival Canadian Congress of Labor, which is allied with the CCF party.

A no-raiding pact between the two congresses is to be submitted to the congress later for ratification with the endorsation of the TLC executive, and some labor quarters see it as a possible forerunner of eventual organic unity between the congresses that would amalgamate close to 1,000,000 workers.

Mr. Bengough's statement was an evident parting suggestion to the older congress not to foresake its traditional stand of political neutrality even in the event of a merger with the CCL.

President A. R. Mosher of the CCL, a strong advocate of unification of the two congresses, had indicated previously his belief that the CCL perhaps might not let the political tieup override the fusing of the congresses.

DEPRIVED OF FREEDOM

Railway workers have been deprived of an elementary freedom in submitting their contract dispute with the railways to arbitration, union leader Frank H. Hall of Montreal told the convention.

He said the rail settlement procedure worked out at Ottawa last week may be the thin end of the wedge for many thousands of workers apart from the 145,000 rail union men directly affected.

The companies and the unions agreed at Ottawa Wednesday to place their disputes over fringe benefits in arbitration. Hall, chairman of the union negotiating committee, said Monday the unions agreed only after it had been made plain Parliament would legislate for compulsory arbitration if they did not call off strike plans.

Closer working relationships between farm and labor groups were urged by J. L. Phelps of Saskatoon, president of the Inter-provincial Farm Union Council. "We must realize that the welfare of one is the welfare of the other."

LIQUOR BOARD DROPS PRICES

VICTORIA (CP) — A general reduction of from five to 50 cents in the retail price of about 60 brands of wine, liqueur and liquor was announced by the Liquor Control Board here Monday.

Decision to cut the prices came in order-in-council. The order also approved sale of a number of popular brands of Scotch whiskey in 13-ounce bottles. Until now, only a limited number of brands were available in anything except 26-ounce bottles.

BEAUMONT RETIRES

MONTRTAL — Prominent in world shipping circles for the last half century, H. B. Beaumont of Montreal, steamship passenger traffic manager for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company since 1904 will retire on pension August 31. The announcement was made by Mr. C. E. Jefferson, vice-president in charge of traffic.

Bus-Truck Crash Kills Richmond Man

VANCOUVER (CP) — Michal Stec, 52-year-old Richmond man, was killed and a neighbor injured Monday in a spectacular crash between a bus and a half-ton truck at a Lulu Island intersection.

Stanley Bana, about 55, driver of the truck in which Stec was riding, was reported in "very poor" condition in Vancouver General Hospital with a fractured skull and fractured shoulder.

Bus passengers escaped with a shaking up.

FLOWN TO COAST IN "LUNG"

VANCOUVER (CP) — A Royal Canadian Air Force Dakota equipped with an iron lung landed in Vancouver Monday afternoon bearing an 18-year-old Kelowna girl ill with polio. The girl is identified as Nancy Drake. The plane left Sea Island with medical personnel aboard after Kelowna hospital officials requested the flight.

Duchess Chats With Vets At New Veterans Hospital

By TOM McCUSKER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — The Duchess of Kent breezed through a series of receptions and visits here Monday with a charm and poise that won the hearts of French-speaking Quebecers.

The tall handsome duchess and her daughter, 17-year-old Princess Alexandra, called on Premier Duplessis at the legislature buildings and visited city hall where a crowd of 600 applauded them.

In perfect French, the duchess made her first speech at the city hall where she recalled the 1941 visit of her husband, the late Duke of Kent, who died in an airplane accident in England in 1942.

Speaking in French and English she said the duke was so enthusiastic about his Canadian visit she feels "already familiar with Canada."

The duchess, who spent the war years in London as a volunteer nurse, toured the massive new veterans hospital at nearby Ste. Foy and chatted with veterans of five wars.

Princess Alexandra remained at the Citadel and played tennis during the late afternoon visit.

The duchess walked through the corridors of the five-storey 400-bed hospital and chatted with at least 70 of the 300 patients, including a 90-year-old veteran of three wars.

And Sgt.-Maj. Louis Leclerc, who fought in the 1886 Louis Riel rebellion with the Canadian Army, and later in the Boer war and the First World War, said he would do it all over again for the handshake he received from the duchess.

Western Students Speak Up at Moscow

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Canadian and British students have attacked the International Union of Students from a Moscow platform as a body whose only criterion is "the policy set up by the Communist party."

Speaking as observers at a council meeting of the IUS in Moscow's huge new university building Monday, the leaders of the Canadian and British delegations described the organization as "biased, unrepresentative and partisan." They declared that the present meeting is unconstitutional.

The president of the National Federation of Canadian University Students, Tony Enriquez, a Mexican studying in Canada, said the Western protest about membership "has been represented by unprincipled individuals to be an attempt to exclude certain colonial or underdeveloped countries."

This is le and a base and wilful, mali s move to obscure the real issue."

ONLY NON-REDS CRITICIZED

He declared that the International Union invariably follows the line "set up by the Communist party and affiliated bodies." Its criticisms are "directed exclusively against non-Communist countries, while Communist countries are mentioned only with unreserved praise."

Frank Copplestone, president-elect of the British National Union of Students said: "We still believe the IUS to be principally a Communist body working among students.

GRAVE OF FATHER JEAN DE BREBEUF, martyred by Indians 300 years ago, is believed to be this site, marked with stakes after it was found by Jesuit archaeologists. Jim Hood of Midland, Ont., near the site of the martyrdom of the priests, holds a shovel while he ponders the problem of further digging with friends Carol Murray and Murray Manson. A plaque was found, three or four feet below the surface of the ground, inscribed with the words "Pere Jean de Brebeuf."

BAGILT, Wales (AP) — Jock the sheepdog was a failure — he had a pure white coat and the sheep just didn't give a baa for him.

So George Pugh, his owner, dyed the dog black. The result: Jock won the driving contest at the Welsh national sheep dog trials here.

NEW YORK (AP) — Patrick Hastings 29, thought it would be a wonderful joke to handcuff his friend Pte. James Speer to Speer's bride of a few hours, Joan and then mail the keys to Alaska.

So he bought a pair of heavy-duty handcuffs for $15 and took them along to the wedding reception Saturday night at Brooklyn hotel.

But Speer and his new wife ducked out early, and there were the handcuffs, sitting in their box. So . . .

At 4 a.m. after two emergency squad policemen had worked 90 minutes to clip off the manacles, Hastings didn't think the joke was so funny.

Somebody at the party had handcuffed Hastings to his own wife.

HALIFAX, England (Reuters) — Swarthy, turbaned door-to-door salesmen are making plenty of sales by threatening to put the evil eye on any housewife who doesn't buy their goods.

Police say they would like to put the evil eye on a few of the salesmen.

WYNESBORO, Pa. (AP) — Fire broke out in a lobby sofa of the Anthony Wayne Hotel at 4 a.m. Saturday.

The convention was the 53rd annual meeting of the Cumberland valley volunteer firemen's association with headquarters at the hotel.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (CP) — A 15-year-old boy fell into the Skeena river and drowned Sunday near Port Essington, B.C., but RCMP, who disclosed the death Monday, declined to release his name until relatives could be notified.

The youth fell from the Cassiar Cannery packer Sunbeam, police said. His body was recovered Sunday night by gillnet fisherman Ed Bolton.

Infirmary Road Paving Finished

A surfacing job of importance to uphill Fairview has just been completed by the provincial public works department as part of its 1954 program.

Hot plant mix paving has been laid from the city boundary at the intersection of Davies and Sixth Streets to Mount St. Francis infirmary, a distance of half a mile. Heretofore it has been a gravel road. With the infirmary, the new Notre Dame College and the residential area which has sprung up there in recent years, traffic is heavy and has been increasing yearly.

A primer coat has been laid on the North Shore road West of Nelson ferry landing, a dirt road on which there is considerable traffic. It has been laid first and foremost to settle the dust.

Bride of Two Days Dies In Accident Near Trail

Her husband, Warren Frank Gillingham, was in "fairly serious" condition in hospital here.

They were married Saturday in the United States.

RCMP said the accident occurred when the couple's car hit loose gravel and rolled 25 feet down an embankment before overturning against heavy boulders.

Mrs. Gillingham was believed on her way to work at Trail-Tadanac Hospital.

Police had not determined whether Mrs. Gillingham was driving the car or was a passenger.

The car hit a washout four miles North of Trail on the Trail-Fruitvale highway.

Mrs. Gillingham is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernecoff of Fruitvale, and her two brothers, Mike of Salmo and Pete of Fruitvale.

THIEF LEAVES APOLOGIES IN NELSON THEFT

An apologetic thief broke into Mae's Snack Bar on Vernon Street early Monday morning and lifted cigarets, candy and a small amount of cash.

"Dear Mae," a note left by the thief said, "Sorry to have to break into your snack bar, but I'm broke and have no job." The note went on to list the number of packages of cigarets and amounts of candy that had been taken. It included "42 pennies."

Entry was made through a basement door on the West side of the building.

City police are investigating.

STOCKHOLM (CP) — All available policemen have been ordered to take part in a nation-wide traffic safety campaign in an effort to check the growing number of road accidents in highly-motorized Sweden. During July 87 persons died as a result of traffic accidents.

Carlson, 1008 Observatory Street, was one of the youngest passengers to travel aboard the Canadian Pacific Railway's new, streamlined, stainless steel units that pulled out of Windsor Station bound for Winnipeg to inaugurate in Canada regular service of the new equipment. Scenic dome lounge and "Chateau" type sleeping cars were the first to be placed in service. Sally is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. # Laymen Playing Leading Role In U.S. Churches, Rotary Club Told

There is a spiritual awakening among men in the United States in the work of the Protestant churches, Dean Paul Wheeler of Newport Beach, Calif., son of the late Frederick Wheeler of Nelson, told Rotary Club at its Monday luncheon in the Hume.

"They are going to church not because they have to, or because it is the right thing to do, but because they want to," Dean Wheeler told his audience.

More than that, laymen are shouldering a tremendous load in actual operation of the church. Business men especially, with their knowledge of real estate and coming commercial enterprises, are giving advice in policy matters and in church building.

Although speaking as a member of the Episcopal church (he is not a strict middle-of-the-road adherent), Dean Wheeler said his words were equally applicable to other Protestant denominations.

For instance, a new movement that has sprung up in the States, a movement which was crossing denominational lines, was that of laymen meeting voluntarily to discuss religion. They meet in mornings at breakfast, a portion of Scripture is read, and one of the gathering will tell what the passage read means to him. The sessions open and close with prayers.

In the same way, men were taking a prominent part in the Council of Churches, to the extent now that "when the Council of Churches speaks, the community listens."

The reason more men were taking an active part in church affairs was that they were being given positions of responsibility within the structure of the church, Dean Wheeler believed.

The Episcopalian clergyman livened his address with remarks half in jest, half deadly earnest. He has been holidaying here with his family, and has been in the pulpit at St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral. Both Very Rev. T. L. Leadbeater, Dean of Kootenay, and Rt. Rev. F. P. Clark, Bishop of Kootenay, have preached in his St. James Church.

G. A. Hoover thanked Dean Wheeler for his talk on Rotarians' behalf.

Six Drivers Pay $200 In Fines

Six district drivers paid fines and costs totalling well over $200 when they appeared in provincial court Monday before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans. All pleaded guilty to various charges under the Motor Vehicle Act and the Highway Act regulations.

Lawrence Koslancic of Crescent Valley was fined $75 and costs on a charge resulting from an accident early Sunday when his truck left the road, turned over and landed on its roof 150 feet from the roadside a mile and a half West of Balfour. No one was injured.

Richard Moore of Nelson and John James Lebedoff of Shoreacres were fined $35 each for exceeding the 85 miles per hour speed limit on the North Shore August 10 and 12, respectively.

George Stefanac pleaded guilty to crossing a single solid line to pass a bus on a hill between Crescent Bay and Crescent Beach Aug. 12. He was fined $20 and costs.

John Shoustoff of Salmo was fined $25 and costs for passing a line of oncoming traffic from Balfour, crossing a solid double line near Frasers Landing Sunday afternoon.

Edward James Vulcano of Nelson paid a $25 fine for carrying a load of logs at a height of 14 feet. Legal height is 12 feet six inches from the ground to the top of the load.

Bills marked "PLEASE REMIT"

Most people have had a bill sometime, bearing the words, "Please remit by return mail". And many of us have not always been able to send payment by return mail. A large unplanned bill, or a lot of little ones, can often cause this to happen. Most people don't realize that all they need to clear away their debts is time; yes, time to spread the payments into future pay envelopes. A friendly loan gets you a lump sum of money, with which to pay your bills. You then have time to repay, with payments you can handle more easily. It's a simple way to get back on your feet. Friendly loans up to $1500 from Niagara are life-insured at no extra cost to you. Besides, on many friendly loans, the rates are lower. If you need money why don't you give yourself time to pay by arranging a Niagara loan. We'll be glad to see you . . . so just drop in.

Storm Strikes Trail, Causes $7000 Damage

TRAIL — An early morning storm struck this city Monday, washed out two city streets and caused damage estimated at $7000.

Close to two inches of rain fell on the city, flooding a number of dwellings when storm sewers were unable to handle the runoff. The deluge of water washed out Reservoir Road and Wilmes Lane and weakened several other streets.

The storm also caused slides on the Trail-Rossland highway and on the Trail-Castlegar road.

Public works officials said traffic was still moving on both highways although slowed by the slides.

Weather officials said the 1.86 inches of rain recorded here was believed to be a record fall for Trail.

Homes and businesses in the downtown area reported flooding and silt damage. Most extensive damage was at the home of Alfonso Monaldi of Ceccanti Street where a storm culvert broke and flooded his basement with six feet of sand, mud and water. The Monaldi lawn is covered to an estimated depth of two feet with silt. A car parked in the yard is buried up to its windows in mud.

Mr. Monaldi evacuated his two children at 5 a.m. The family said the flood of mud happened "all at once" and the house shook. They saw mud pouring in the basement windows. Homes on Byers Lane and Daniel Street received extensive damage.

There were washouts on the Fifth Avenue Road to Shavers Bench which was badly eroded and closed to traffic.

The sewer problem was the most critical reported the city engineer's department, with stoppage to storm drains in the Glover Road area.

About 50 city employees are at work repairing damage.

Campfire held in the lodge saw the presentation of teepees for camp attendance and the awarding of the big blue "K's", emblem of cabin championship, to Cabin 3.

DRIVER UNHURT IN SUMMIT ACCIDENT

GRAND FORKS — Bertram Elwood of Vancouver escaped with minor scratches, although his car became a total wreck, when it left the road at mile three on the Cascade-Rossland highway, about 17 miles from Grand Forks. The accident occurred at 5:55 p.m. Sunday.

It is believed that the driver struck a soft shoulder of the summit road, which sent his car hurtling 60 yards down the embankment. It landed in an upside-down position.

The car, a 1949 model, is estimated as a total loss, with damage at about $1000. The driver left later for the Coast. He was on a holiday trip.

East Kootenay Free of Polio

KIMBERLEY — No news has been good news insofar as the poliomyelitis picture is concerned this year in East Kootenay.

Not a single case of the dreaded polio has been reported in the area served by the East Kootenay health unit this Summer, and the only case this year is believed to be a mild one at Golden several months ago.

Two years ago Kimberley district, and especially Chapman Camp, was gripped by the worst epidemic in its history and became one of the hardest-hit areas in Canada. There were more than 50 cases and a heavy death toll.

Last year there were only a few cases and in all instances, were of a milder type. There were no deaths.

James Mason Leaves Festival To 'Bravo' Cheers

STRATFORD, Ont. (CP)—James Mason left the Stratford Shakespearian Festival with the blowing of a kiss and to the cheers of "bravo!"

The screen star took a final bow Saturday night after his last performance in "Measure for Measure," the play in which he took the lead role for six weeks.

When the performance was over there were cries of "bravo!" as the cast streamed across the stage for their bows. When Mr. Mason went out for a solo curtain call, he received great applause.

He was visibly moved. He looked as if he were going to speak but with a sudden gesture raised his hand to his mouth and blew a kiss to the house; first to one side, then to the other.

As he went along the boardwalk toward the gate, he shook hands with the actors who played with him. The supporting actors sang: "Will Ye No Come Back Again?"

Mr. Mason was driven to London, Ont., where he rejoined his wife. They left by plane for Hollywood.

DIFFICULT AFTER SCREEN

Herbert Whittaker, drama critic for the Toronto Globe and Mail, wrote:

"It had been a very difficult time for the successful film actor. He had ventured back to the stage after nearly 20 years absence from it, and to a very strange stage indeed. He had tackled two difficult roles Angelo in 'Measure for Measure' and Oedipus in 'Oedipus Rex,' one which deprived him of his stock in trade, the famous face, and made ferocious demands on his equally famous voice when he accepted its ancient convention of masks . . .

"The actor's inability to o'erleap the two decades of inactivity on stage brought heavy criticism down on his head. In public print and by word of mouth, the news went forward that James Mason had failed at Stratford.

"But James Mason did not fail as a man at Stratford. His untiring effort to improve his performances, his unfailing simplicity and sympathy won him a very firm friendship with the entire company of his fellow actors . . . "

Horse-shoes by TIFFANY'S

AROUND THE END of the last century, when aluminum was practically a precious metal, a famous racing stable had one of its thoroughbreds shod with racing plates of the weight-saving material. They were made at Tiffany's, the famous New York jewellery house.

Nowadays it is standard practice for race horses to run on aluminum shoes. Since the turn of the century the price of aluminum has been reduced to the point where it is now one of the most economical of all materials, extensively used for things like barns and boats and bus bodies. Where your voice gets a lift along the line

Shown on this map is the route followed through B.C. by trans-Canada telephone calls. The calls are "boosted" along the way at repeater stations to ensure clear transmission. The stars on the map mark the location of these stations. Many long distance toll circuits have a system of repeaters similar to that outlined here.

This is the repeater station in Manning Park on the Hope-Princeton Highway. It is finished to blend with the natural surroundings of the park but, apart from this, it is generally typical of the stations serving the various long distance toll circuits in B.C.—the trans-Canada circuits as well as those reaching into Vancouver Island and the interior.

In lonely little repeater stations, long distance telephone conversations are refreshed. They take on new strength for the distant journeys they must travel.

At these stations the current that carries telephone messages is boosted so that it can continue with a strong signal from one station to the next. The stations, packed with electronic equipment, are located along cross-country telephone lines, often in isolated places.

In efficient, unattended silence they carry out the job of speeding clearly audible long distance telephone conversations across the province. Their performance and steady operation are closely watched by telephone men at toll centres along the way. A system of signals and automatic warning devices keeps these men constantly in touch with stations that are sometimes more than a hundred miles away. These carefully engineered and costly units are important in providing you with clear, certain long distance service. When you have important matters to discuss with someone in another community, learn to rely on a long distance telephone call.

Thacker Skating School A Seasonal Asset

Soon the Summer skaters will be leaving Nelson for their homes in far and near centres in Canada and the United States. They are part of a large company who for the last six years have lent color to the Summer scene and helped to spread Nelson's name far. Whether the Summer skaters come back for a seventh year apparently hinges on the outcome of contract negotiations being conducted between the Civic Centre Commission and the skating school management.

The Summer Skating School has been of undoubted benefit to Nelson. It has brought here skaters of international reputation as well as tyros. It is high on the list of this centre's seasonal attractions, and from a publicity viewpoint has a real value. Moreover, it is one of those things that adds intangibly to the air or atmosphere of a community; it gives the civc centre a difference from other such recreation centres. The Mary Rose Thacker skating school has been, in many ways, sound business for Nelson.

Ike's Tariff Move Hurts Even Republicans

In hoisting American watch duties 50 per cent, President Eisenhower may have gained a few votes in the three small industrial centres where virtually all U.S. watches are manufactured, but he has lost standing at home and abroad.

The move is directly contrary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), an agreement to which the United States subscribes. Even within the United States, however, there is criticism.

Barron's weekly, supporter of U.S. Republicanism, says:

"The trouble with the President's directive (as with the timorous and compromising Randall Report on foreign trade policy) is that it opens the door to every hungry claimant for special favors. In so doing it saps rather than nourishes the real sinews of American strength.

"The highroad to prosperity and to military security in this country lies not in isolation, but rather in drawing on the resources and skills of others in return for products which the U.S. can advantageously make through greater efficiency and high capital investment. Possessed of nearly 50 per cent of the world's industrial resources, but less than 7 per cent of its population, the United States simply cannot afford to go it alone either militarily or economically speaking.

"From this point of view the President's decision in the case of watches, while admittedly a small thing, is a portent of weakness. It bilks the consumer; it should disturb the military; and to the rest of the world it is a sign that once again the U.S. has failed to be true to its own pretensions or even, for that matter, its own self-interest."

Harris Successor To St. Laurent?

The choice of the federal cabinet for a successor to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent is not any of the well known Liberal leaders, but 50-year-old Walter Edgar Harris, who recently became Canada's Minister of Finance, Ottawa editor Blair Fraser says in Maclean's Magazine.

"Canadians are likely to hear a lot more about Harris in the immediate future," Fraser says, "for the problem of the Liberal succession is no longer academic." St. Laurent, Fraser explains, recently suffered "what could almost be called a collapse—and onset of physical and nervous exhaustion." Leading Liberals will not be surprised if the Prime Minister announces his retirement some time this autumn or winter and calls a party convention for 1955.

Harris, an Ontario Baptist, is the politicians' choice for the Liberal leadership, Fraser says, because he is primarily a politician and a man both Liberals and Conservatives trust. The qualities that make him a good politician, however, have kept him out of the limelight. "The average voter never heard of him," Fraser says, "and even the Liberals, with their formidable machinery for building a man up, despair of making a public figure out of Walter Harris."

Harris is the Liberal member for Grey Bruce, and has held the seat since he defeated the late Agnes MacPhail in 1940. He served in the army overseas, was wounded, and returned to Canada in 1944. In 1950 he was appointed Minister of Immigration, the portfolio he gave up to become Minister of Finance.

Though popular with his colleagues, many have questioned his ability to carry Quebec, Fraser says. Harris is a Baptist, a Mason, and does not speak French. As Minister of Immigration he did almost too good a job. "Immigration," Fraser says, "has never been popular in Quebec, where it is regarded as an unfair device the English to match the higher birth rate of Canadians."

On Thin Ice

Barbara Ann Scott, Canada's talented and glamorous gift to the ice show business, came out recently with some surprising advice to her fellow "career girls".

When marriage comes to her, she says, her skating career will go out the window. "All this stuff about women being equal is a lot of nonsense," she says. She subscribes to the "European theory" that the man is head of the household.

Shades of Emily Pankhurst! What a blow to the great twentieth century emancipation of women! What a denial of the North American "way of life" so well demonstrated in our comic strips, movies, radio and TV shows, in which "father" is a sort of amiable, lovable goof who plugs down to "the job" every day to make sure to earn enough money to provide a fully-equipped suburban home, complete with children. According to this concept, mother definitely runs the show, with father merely playing the role of a larger and more awkward child.

Just recently two efficient American researchers, making a survey of the situation, found that 60 per cent of wives under forty years of age never cook their husband's breakfasts. The poor guy gets up and gets his own breakfasts, then rushes off to the daily wagemill, so that he can keep his spouse supplied with the last word in home labor-saving gadgets. (To be short a couple of gadgets immediately earmarks him as "poor provider".)

The payoff, of course, is that the poor guy drops dead at the age of about fifty-five, while his widow goes along for another twenty years or so to play her part in the great North American matriarchy.

Now Barbara Ann would throw a monkey wrench into this enlightened way of life by advocating a return to the old "European" setup, where the husband is the head of the house. Tut! Tut!

Barbara Ann had better get her defence ready—before the vast hordes of emancipated members of her sex turn upon her. She's going to find out that when she tries to reverse the triumphant march of North American womanhood she's skating along on about the thinnest ice she's been on in her championship career.—The Vancouver Province.

Learning From History

(Brantford Expositor)

Some commentators are busily engaged in writing about the "experience" in Indo-China from which the non-Communist world should learn. Frederick the Great asked his generals: "What is the good of experience if you do not reflect?" We could set that off, of course, by another quotation, not from the Prussian king: "We learn from history that we learn nothing from history." Must it be ever thus?

Industry hath annexed thereto the fairest fruits and the richest rewards.
—Isaac Barrow.

Reader, Kimberley—Please print race horse owners' names and addresses in B.C. and Alberta.

Watch this column for answer.

B. C., Trail—What is the price of bird of paradise plumes in Canada?

The price varies. Your best plan would be to write to the Coast company that handles them: Charles Stern and Co., 305 Water Street, Vancouver, B.C.

W. H. C., Creston—Could you please tell me something about "grey trout" over which there is so much discussion in the Okanagan? Where do they originate? What are their habits?

The "grey trout" is a char, native to East and Northern North America. It spawns in the Fall and unlike other trout spawns on lake shores, not in creeks. It frequents large lakes and deep water and eats a lot of smaller fish. It is also known as the Great Lakes trout, lake char, mackinaw trout.

S. H., Harrop—Would you please give me the address of the nearest music company that reconditions and resilvers saxophones?

Send it to Ben Sutherland's Music Store, 645 Baker Street, Nelson, B.C.

W. B., Riondel—Where can plans for building a jet-propelled cabin trailer (trailer mounted on a truck) be obtained?

Write to the K. W. Dixon Company, 305 Baker Street, Nelson.

O. B., Sanca—Are you familiar with a poem starting "When Greeks and Romans still wore tails"?

Quoting strictly from memory:

"When the Greeks and Romans still wore tails
And Scotchmen lived on bugs and snails,
Who lived like kings in lovely vales
The Irish?"

Lockhart Wine Barrels and the Trail Desert

. . . F. B. Pearce

Raise up on yore laigs Old-Timers and howl with lafter for a reporter from the great city has came this way and this is what he has to say!

"One of the newest campsites in the province lies 15 miles south of the Kootenay Bay Ferry at Lockhart Beach." Much he knows, I'm only a junior old-timer but back there 25 years ago, before, there was a road, Lockhart Beach and camp were there. That was the time when I was teaching at Boswell and a friend and I used to take the trail over the bluffs to Lockhart during the weekend. The camp was in charge of Bob Yuill, a picturesque old-timer, but for that matter all old-timers are picturesque. I have a suspicion that they all left home because they were frustrated, not that they knew the meaning of the term, and felt it necessary to be different. They certainly were.

Old Bob had been in the gold camps and worked in the ship-yards of San Francisco before becoming caretaker of the camp. He was very hospitable and was always anxious that we should sample his different brands of homemade wines. These were left to mature buried in the sand near the creek. I have often wondered what happened to his barrels when he came to Nelson just before he died. No doubt some heartless person with no appreciation of their value dug them up and disposed of them. But for the information of wandering newspaper men from Vancouver there should be a tablet in the camp to the memory of Bob.

SILENCE

How these Coast papers can deflate our egos. No doubt all you Nelsonites believe that to see Nelson is to love it, but this is all it gets in this article. "And an early rise with a lingering breakfast will get you to the ferry in time for the first crossing which takes 40 minutes and lands you a few miles north east of Nelson! Not a word, you will notice, of the marvellous scenery of Kootenay Lake or the great natural beauty of the Queen City of the Kootenays. Not a word. My guess is that the two kids were raising Cain in the back seat and he had no time to admire beauty.

Of late it has been the fashion to complain that geography is not taught in the schools, but it certainly does seem as if some of these reporters make their own. I wonder if Ray is the Munro I taught back around 1930. He would be 12 then. That would make him around 36 now. And his eldest is 11. That would make him 24 when he was married. Yes, it is quite possible. My Ray was a nice boy, but . . . Well one should not reveal professional secrets.

But to continue: "It is a leisurely three-day trip home to Vancouver from Lockhart Beach and you pass through the desert at Trail, over 4½ miles of twisting mountain highway to Rossland." But why have the Trail people been so secretive about this? Why should it remain for a traveller from the famed Barbarous Coast to discover this desert? Long ago signs should have been erected saying, "You are now about to enter the great Trail Desert, refill water bottles, adjust gas masks and proceed with caution." Strangers should be warned of the dangers of the desert and told the sad story of the aged prospector whose mummified body was found with the bony hand still clutching an empty bottle of Kootenay Lager.

Now, it is not for us in Nelson to be critical of our neighbors but we do think they should have told us they were moving. Maybe you are tired of one another, Rossland and Trail, but 40 miles is too far after being only seven miles apart all these years.

ATTEMPTING TO BRING BAKERY STRIKE TO HEAD

VANCOUVER (CP)—A new bid to end the seven-week strike-lockout of six major Vancouver and Nanaimo bakeries was still in the works Monday and the men behind it were still remaining silent.

Rod Millar, president of the Bakery Salesmen's Union said: "We are attempting to bring things to a head. It would be very detrimental to say anything at this stage."

Last week the salesmen's executive warned the union to get the strike settled by Monday or face "drastic consequences."

Safe, $3000 Stolen

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — A 500-pound safe containing nearly $3000 was stolen from the Eagles Club here during the weekend, it was reported today.

Club manager William McBroom said the heavy safe was dragged 50 feet across the bar-room, down a steep flight of stairs, and apparently was hauled away by a truck.

Mr. McBroom said the thieves must have been "very familiar" with the premises. Entry was gained by kicking out a panel in a small door leading down from the attic.

Ninth Savings Bond Will Bear Lower Interest

OTTAWA (CP)—The ninth series of Canada savings bonds will go on sale Oct. 18, but will bear a lower interest rate than the one a year ago.

Finance Minister Harris announced today the bonds will pay 3¼ per cent interest annually. The eighth series floated last year had an interest rate of 3¾ per cent.

Bank of Canada officials explained that the drop in rate is in line with current bond market trends. Bond buyers have been bidding up prices and yields have been declining.

The government raised about $900,000,000 in the eighth Canada savings bonds drive last year and officials expect to raise a like amount this year.

The new bonds, to be sold in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1000 and $5000, will be dated Nov. 1 and will mature in 12 years. They will be offered for sale at 100 per cent up to Nov. 15. The maximum that can be held in any one name is $5000 of this issue.

HEAVY REFINANCING

The new bond drive opens at a time when the government has to do some heavy refinancing. It has to pay off a $200,000,000 short-term loan floated earlier this year and to pay off the fourth victory loan series called for redemption Oct. 1 three years before maturity.

The fourth victory loan involves about $1,111,000,000.

The ninth series of Canada savings bonds will retain some familiar features, including the privilege of redemption at full face value plus interest. The bonds can be cashed at 100 per cent plus earned interest at any time at any bank in Canada.

The bonds are registered in the buyer's name. Interest is to be paid annually, with each bond carrying 12 annual interest coupons.

Bonds which are coupon-registered and those which are fully registered, can be interchanged at any time.

Meeting for Major Freight Rate Parties

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. W. F. A Turgeon, heading a royal commission to investigate the operation of "agreed charge" contracts between the railways and shippers, today called a one-day, pre-conference session for Sept. 13.

The meeting will be open to all major parties interested in the freight rate study and likely will include representatives of the railways, provinces and Canada's trucking industry.

Main reason of the pre-conference meeting is to get the views of groups to appear before the royal commission as to the general subject matter of the inquiry and arrangements for holding hearings in Ottawa and regional points.

The royal commission was established last May, following claims by the province of Alberta that the "one-and-one-third rule" on transcontinental shipments should apply to agreed charges on shipments between the East and the Prairies.

The one-and-one-third rule provides that railrates between the East and the Prairies should not be more than 1 1-3 of the low, competitive transcontinental rates set by the rails to meet ocean competition.

Lumber Strike Enters 64th Day

PORTLAND (AP)—The Pacific Northwest lumber strike entered its 164th day Monday with Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. negotiations attracting major interest.

The firm, which employs about 8000, offered a 2½-cent hourly increase last week to striking AFL Lumber and Sawmill Workers and CIO Woodworkers.

A number of AFL workers indicated they would accept the offer which would bring their minimum wage to $1.90 an hour.

The CIO, however, turned down the offer which later was withdrawn by Weyerhaeuser negotiators. The company Sunday cancelled a negotiation session tentatively scheduled for Tuesday and announced that it now has no settlement offer before the CIO union.

Weyerhaeuser was paying five cents more than other major Douglas fir operators in the Pacific Northwest when the two unions began their strike June 21 to back up demands for a 12½-cent hourly pay increase.

Capital Memo

BY JAMES K. NESBITT

VICTORIA—Noel J. Murphy, president of the B.C. Social Credit League writes to this column explaining that a Social Credit bulletin, on which there was some comment here a few weeks back, is not published by the Social Credit League.

This comes as a great surprise to this column. The bulletin in question certainly deals with Social Credit; it's headed Social Credit Research. One would naturally assume such a bulletin to have the full blessing of the Social Credit League. However, Mr. Murphy says it has nothing to do with the League, and he should know.

And, truth to tell, this bulletin doesn't say anything about the League. Mr. Murphy says: "I can assure you, we would not be ashamed to sign with the League's full name, any publication for which we were responsible."

You may recall the bulletin; it started out: "Among the worst enemies of Social Credit are those within the movement, who, by presenting utterly fantastic estimates of the deficiency of purchasing-power and the amount of new money which can be issued, repeatedly put us into the hands of the enemy without."

And the bulletin then went along to take a whack at Alberta's attorney-general Lucien Maynard.

The extraordinary part about this anonymous Social Credit bulletin, which has nothing to do with the Social Credit League, is that it says: "Criticism and/or cash donations be sent to 2124 West 39th Avenue, Vancouver." Mr. Murphy says this is the address of William Rose.

It seems strange, doesn't it, that the Social Credit League permits someone other than the League to collect money for Social Credit?

Mr. Murphy is not perturbed in the least because this bulletin is published; he is only distressed because its publication was attributed in this column to the Social Credit League.

He writes, and quite reasonably: "That there should be differences of opinion amongst those who subscribe to Social Credit ideas, is very normal and natural. These same differences exist, as to the solution of our economic problems, amongst orthodox economists, who in many instances were trained in the same universities, by the same professors and used the same textbooks."

NO MACHINE

Mr. Murphy encloses a copy of the latest British Columbia Social Credit League Bulletin, of which Denis Grant is editor and H. Linton Eccles associate editor. An editorial takes a dig at the Johnny-come-latelys to Social Credit: "A new phase is now in progress. This is one known as the 'inside track.' Members from our opponents' ranks are here and there proclaiming suddenly that they have seen the light. Then they promptly take out a Social Credit membership, and go hustling around to see if they cannot get a peek at the inner gears of the machine, and maybe toss in a spanner or two.

"And then comes the surprise. Because there's no machine! It's just tens of thousands of individual people, all having much the same ideas about what government should be."

It's a lively little bulletin of Social Credit propaganda — this OFFICIAL Social Credit League Bulletin. It's easier to understand than the UNOFFICIAL Social Credit bulletin.

But, ah, the mystery and confusion of it—two Social Credit bulletins, one official and one not.

This column is grateful to Mr. Murphy for so courteously pointing out this intriguing rivalry in the ranks of one political party.

President Kills Federal Workers Pay Increase

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower today killed a five per cent pay increase voted by Congress for 1,500,000 federal workers.

In a statement at his vacation headquarters, the president said he was announcing his veto of the legislation "in order that federal workers may not have to undergo a period of uncertainty as to my action."

Congress passed the bill and sent it to the White House last Friday, just before it closed shop on legislative matters.

"This measure," the president said, "because it ignores the administration's recommendations for postal rate increases, would add $112,000,000 to the cost of operating the post office department which is operating at a deficit of $400,000,000 this year.

"It is well to remember that since 1945 the accumulated postal deficit has reached the staggering total of $4,000,000,000. Likewise, this measure would add more than $200,000,000 to civil service pay without providing any revenue to meet it."

1000 Guardsmen Fighting Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (Reuters)—One thousand home guardsmen, with troops and police, Friday were reported fighting a battle with Mau Mau terrorists at Githunguri, 21 miles north of Nairobi, a government spokesman announced.

At the same time, police announced that Mau Mau "General" Nyaga Ayubu was shot and killed here by a native policeman Sunday night.

A third announcement said six Mau Mau leaders belonging to a "passive wing committee" were arrested before dawn for supplying arms and food to terrorists hiding out in the jungles.

Royal Visitors Extended Warm Welcome By Quebec

By BERTRAND THIBAULT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — The Duchess of Kent and her daughter Princess Alexandra called on Premier Duplessis at the Quebec legislature Monday and were guests at a brief reception.

The 64-year-old premier met the royal visitors at the "Indian's door" of the massive legislature building beneath a royal blue marquee and invited them to the legislative council where they signed the golden visitors' book and were introduced to dignitaries.

The duchess, elegant in a trim rose pink taffeta dress and a small pink feather hat, arrived from Quebec Citadel with her daughter in an open automobile.

Princess Alexandra wore a white crepe nylon dress and a broad-brimmed blue hat and white open-toe high heels.

CROWD APPLAUDS

A crowd of about 200 persons applauded the two handsome visitors as they stepped out of their car and shook hands with Mr. Duplessis and Finance Minister Gagnon on the second day of their visit here at the start of a Canadian tour.

In the council room clusters of roses and multicolored gladioli garnished the massive oak table of the clerk where the duchess and her daughter signed the visitors' book.

They signed beneath the signatures of Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh who visited the legislature during their 1951 tour of Canada.

Mr. Duplessis then invited the duchess and the princess to a private Louis XV-style salon adjoining the council where they chatted privately with invited guests during a champagne reception.

SIPS WINE

The duchess sipped from a cup of the bubbling French wine and smoked a cigaret while she chatted easily in French and English, guests said later.

Following the reception Premier Duplessis told reporters the Duchess speaks "impeccable French."

The royal visitors are guests of Governor-General Vincent Massey.

Both the 47-year-old duchess and her 17-year-old daughter, have taken particular interest in hospitals and nursing work.

During the Second World War the duchess trained as a nurse at University College Hospital in London and worked there during the daylight air raids of 1940. She was also the first to volunteer at the outbreak of the war for service at the Iver and Denham general hospitals at Coppins, their home outside London.

The royal visitors remain here until Wednesday when they leave by train for Toronto where the duchess will open the Canadian National Exhibition Aug. 27, and then tour Ontario and the Maritimes.

Newlyweds On Honeymoon Go to Banff

ROSSLAND — Banff and Lake Louise were the honeymoon destinations of Jean Marie Jensen and Kenneth William Gresley-Jones, who were married recently before Rev. A. J. Lawton.

The church was decorated with varied colored gladioli for the marriage of the daughter of Mrs. E. A. Jensen and the late Mr. Jensen, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gresley-Jones. Mrs. L. Keir was organist.

The bride chose a formal gown of white net over taffeta with a bouffant skirt topped by a nylon tulle overskirt banded with patterned lace inset in petal points. The fitted bodice had short sleeves with scalloped edges and a small wing collar. It was buttoned down the back to the waistline, and the nylon tulle shoulder yoke was outlined by a scalloped lace edge over the taffeta bodice.

The bride's fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a beaded coronet, and tiny clusters of beads ornamented the scalloped edge of the veil. She wore fingerless lace mittens and her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Doratti, sister of the groom, wore a yellow ballerina-length gown of net over taffeta, also with a bouffant skirt. Over the strapless, lace bodice she wore a lace jacket-styled with an Elizabethan collar and bracelet length sleeves.

Miss Gwyneth Jones, the bridesmaid, was in a ballerina-length gown of Delft blue embroidered net over taffeta, with a strapless bodice topped by a bolero jacket with cap sleeves and a tiny collar, and the full skirt featured tiny ruffles extending from waist to hemline in an apron effect. Both wore coronet headdresses of white nylon tulle flowered petals centred with yellow and blue to match their dresses. The brid's mother had made their hand-crocheted wrist-length white gloves, and both carried Colonial bouquets of pastel sweetpeas.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Thomas Gresley-Jones, and Mr. Peter Jensen and Mr. Albert Doratti ushered.

At the reception in IOOF hall for 90 guests, Mr. Arthur Chambers proposed the toast to the bride. The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of white nylon with a printed motif, black and white accessories and a corsage of red roses, while the groom's mother was in a navy and white checked dress with navy accessories and a red rose corsage.

The couple will live in Rossland.

Fruitvale, Trail Interest in Rites

FRUITVALE — Trail and Fruitvale families were linked with the marriage in St. Paul's United Church of Netta Shirley Campbell and Roland Racette.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Campbell of Fruitvale, and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Racette of Trail. Rev. T. M. Karpoff performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bridal gown was fashioned of white nylon net over satin in ankle-length style, with the bodice embroidered with seed pearls and sequins and featuring long sleeves. Her floor-length veil was caught by a halo headdress, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The attendants, Mrs. Tony Wuitchik, the bride's sister, as matron of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Genevieve Nelson and Miss Joyce Fraser, were in gowns of nylon net over taffeta in yellow, pale green and mauve respectively. They wore chapel veils and carried yellow gladioli.

Mr. Ted Campbell, the bride's brother, was best man, and Mr. Tony Wuitchik, Mr. Carlo Persatto, Mr. George Baerg and Mr. Joe Boisvert were the ushers.

The service was held by the soft glow of candlelight, and amid a profusion of gladioli. Miss Beverley Nelson was organist, and Mr. Wilfred Maze, soloist.

Parents of the couple assisted in receiving the guests at a reception in Memorial Hall, the bride's mother wearing a navy nylon dress with pink lace trim, a hat of navy and pink trim, navy shoes and a pink rose corsage, while the groom's mother chose a navy two-piece suit, a wine hat and navy shoes, and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Karpoff proposed the toast to the bridal couple. Mr. Hubert Redding was master of ceremonies.

The bride's table, covered with a Madiera cloth, held a three-tiered cake topped by a bell figurine and placed on a cake plate used by the bride's grandmother. It was embedded in white tulle and red roses, and was flanked by white tapers in low holders. Mrs. Mabel MacKenzie and Mrs. F. M. Peitzsche cut the cake.

Before leaving on a trip to Banff and way points en route to Moose Jaw RCAF base, the bride changed to a light blue gabardine suit with navy and white accessories. The groom, who is stationed there in the Air Force, will report for duty September 18.

Humes Take Game Lead Defeat Salmo 10-7

The Humes of the Nelson and District Fastball League took a one-game lead in the finals Monday night with a 10-7 win over Salmo in a seven-inning game shortened because of darkness.

The game ended in somewhat of a hubbub as in the first of the eighth, the Salmo crew tied up the game, but with darkness descending fast the umpires called the game with the score reverting to the seventh. The umpires stuck by their decision despite protests.

George Barefoot, after relieving Phil Gorkoff in the fourth, was the winning pitcher as the Humes captured what many believe to be the big game of the best-of-five final for the right to travel to the Coast where they will enter the Senior B playdowns early next month.

Humes, after being down four runs in the first, came back in their half to score three and then added three more in the second. After counting one in the third they found themselves even again in the fourth when Salmo counted three runs. In the final three frames the Humes added one run an inning while Barefoot held Salmo off the score sheet.

Al Koenig and Harold Mayo led the 12-hit attack by the Humes, garnering two hits each, while for the Salmo crew Taylor, St. Denis and Burns each collected two hits.

Burns had the longest hit of the night when in the first frame he blasted a homer that sent Salmo into their early lead. Four doubles were hit in the game with Al Thiessen, Bob Koehle and Al Koenig connecting for the Humes and Dixon hitting one for Salmo.

The second game of the series will be played Wednesday in Salmo with the third scheduled for Nelson Friday.

Nelson Outlaws Stage Comeback

Nelson Outlaws came from behind to win over their arch rivals, the Nakusp All-Stars 9-4 Sunday. The game was called in the seventh inning as threatening skies opened up.

The Outlaws scored first as Tom Marshall, Ron Nash and Ron Brown got on base with Marshall scoring on a single by Alex Abrosimo.

This was soon overcome by Nakusp who went to work on Stan Grill, Outlaw chucker, putting together two singles and a home run by Jack James to score three runs. Ron Brown was called in to retire the side, but Grill came back to start the second inning, going the rest of the way with some masterful chucking.

Buster Patterson, on the mound for the All-Stars, pitched good ball except for a tendency to wildness with men on base, as the Outlaws' board of strategy went to work. He issued three walks in the sixth and threatened Outlaw squeeze plays walked in two runs, followed by a bases-loaded triple by Ron Brown off relief chucker Jack James

The All-Stars bounced right back in their half and proceeded to load the bases after two men were out with singles by Buster Patterson and Baron Yashido. The Nash and Grill battery decided to walk Otto Yanagasawa, bringing up James.

Although the large crowd cheered for James to slash another homer, his towering fly ball was tucked safely away, with all runners heading around the bases.

The Outlaws were led at the plate by Ron Brown, Alex Abrosimo and Storgard, each with three hits.

Nelson Little League activity came to a close Monday night when two games were played at Queen Elizabeth Park.

In the playoff game for first place the Rotarians, with Jim Carter on the mound, downed the Lions 4-1. Cain was the losing chucker. The two teams are shown as tied in the final league standings, however.

In the other game Hugh Hooker pitched shutout ball as the Kiwanians defeated the Kinsmen 8-0.

Hooker allowed but three hits as he whiffed 10 and walked nine. Dick Gelinas pitched for the losers and allowed four hits, struck out five and walked two.

The first four teams in the standing will now meet in a playoff for the city title.

Riders Take Second Straight

REGINA (CP) — Triple threat Larry Isbell came to life in the second half Monday night, directing Saskatchewan Roughriders to a stunning 11-7 victory over Calgary Stampeders in a Western Interprovincial Football Union game.

The win was the second straight for Riders in the 1954 season. They upset Edmonton 21-13 Saturday night.

Calgary, reputed to be the team to watch this year, were tripped 17-5 by Winnipeg Blue Bombers in their first game of the year.

BOOTS FIVE SINGLES

Isbell, the Baylor University grad who deserted a Boston Red Sox baseball job to lineup with Riders, spelled defeat for Stampeders with a series of booming kicks. Five of his punts were good for single points.

Calgary and Saskatchewan split on converted touchdowns. Rupe Andrews, 27-year-old half from Stanford University, counted for Stamps on a 67-yard run. Glen Christian converted.

B. C. Track Team to CNE

VANCOUVER (CP) — Names of 10 athletes to represent British Columbia in the Olympic track and field training plan at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto were announced here Saturday night.

The team is without such established stars as Terry Tobacco, Harry Nelson and Bruce Springbett, who represented Canada at the British Empire Games, but has a strong junior representation.

Lloyd Swindells, president of the B.C. Track and Field Association, explained that the above three were unable to make the trip because they couldn't afford time off from their jobs.

Named as manager-coach for the team was Harry Mitchell of Victoria, former B.C. sprint champion.

Making the trip will be seven men and three women. They are:

Bill Gelling and Joe Haeort, sensational 15-year-old 440-yard runners, both from Victoria; Peter Harris, Gerry Moulds, Ray Fletcher and Don Steen, all of Vancouver; and Don Routley, Chilliwack; womens discus star Marie Depree, who won a bronze medal in the games here this month, Ann Reid and Rhoda Hughes all of Vancouver.

Charles Aims at Early Knockout

MONTICELLP, N.Y. (AP) — Ezzard Charles said Monday he hopes to catch heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano in the early rounds and shoot for a knockout.

"Hes a slow starter," said the ex-champion from Cincinnati before he worked out. "Marciano showed that against Walcott, LaStarza and me in the last fight. If I have him in trouble as I believe I did in the fourth round in June, I'll go right after him for the kill.'

Charles meets Marciano again at Yankee Stadium Sept. 15.

At nearby Grossinger, N.Y., Marciano took things easy, posing for television shots, and playing with his 20-month-old daughter — Mary Ann.

Konstanty Leaves Phillies for Yanks

BOSTON (AP) — New York Yankees Sunday purchased Jim Konstanty, 37-year-old righthander, from Philadelphia Phillies.

It was a straight cash deal with Konstanty being waived on by seven National League clubs and the six below New York in the American League standing.

Konstanty has a 2-3 record this year. Last season he won 14 and lost 10. In 1950 he worked in 74 National League games, a record, and was voted the most valuable player in the league.

Leafs, Smokies Clash Tonight

Nelson Maple Leafs will travel to Trail tonight for a game with the Trail Smoke Eaters — if the weather man decides to give them a break.

The Leafs will use the same lineup as was used Sunday, when the Smokies topped them 2-0 in a well played game at the Civic recreation grounds.

On hand for catching chores will be Al Larsen and Ed Isackson with either Les Hufty, Don McKinnon or Marsh Severyn taking the mound.

Harry Wassick will be at first with coach Bob McNabb stationed at second and Ernie Gare at third. Dunc Kennedy will play shortstop with the outfield duties being chosen from Frank Hufty, Ken White, Jimmy Todd and Frank Elsner.

With several games this season having to be held up because of travel the team will leave from the Civic Centre at 6 p.m. The game is due to start two hours later under the lights at Butler Park in Trail.

Busby, Yost in Thick of Things

By The Canadian Press

Eddie Yost and Jim Busby tormented their favorite American League "cousins," Philadelphia Athletics, Monday as Washington Senators swept a doubleheader 8-5 and 10-3.

Busby and Yost drove in five runs and Yost scored twice in the opener as Chuck Stobbs outlasted four Athletic hurlers to pick up his eighth win.

In the nightcap, Yost came up with a couple of hits and he and Busby were in the thick of a five-run Senators seventh inning rally which blew open a nip-and-tuck duel where the lead changed hands five times.

Plans Forming For W. Kootenay Baseball Playoff

President Frank Hufty stated Monday that it is hoped to hold a West Kootenay baseball playoff with four teams, Trail, Rossland, Fruitvale and Nelson, all playing a double round robin series. Each team would play a home and home series, with the first and second place clubs playing off for the title and the right to meet Kimberley Dynamos in an East-West Kootenay playoff.

Members of the Kimberley executive had been hoping for such an arrangement this year, said Mr. Hufty, for they, along with the rest of the baseball executives throughout the Kootenay, are striving to make the game more popular.

The idea for the West Kootenay playoff came by way of Trail as Hugo DiBasio, manager of the Smokies, thought that a playoff of some sort should be held.

Further news on the Leafs came from Hufty when he announced that they have had invitations from both Fernie and Kamloops to play on Labor Day. As yet it has not been decided whether the Leafs would be able to make either trip due to players having to work.

Rain Halts Trail, Nelson Match; Naramata Next

Although prospects for a cricket match were not too good Sunday, the Nelson team travelled to Tadanac to meet with the Trail Club, and it was found possible to start play about 2.30 p.m. with Nelson going to bat first. Runs came slowly at first with Nelson batsmen finding difficulty in forcing the ball through heavy grass due to recent fertilization of the area, and it was Clive Horwood with some good hard high hitting for the total of 33 who provided the basis for a reasonable score. He and Dick Mulloy put on 22 runs for the fifth wicket stand, and Horwood with Ken Adcock added 23 runs for the sixth wicket. The Nelson team was all out for a total of 68 runs.

Play continued, accompanied by intermittent showers, and within a matter of minutes the ball became greasy and the Nelson bowlers found trouble in controlling the ball and to avoid sliding at the delivery. Bouchier and Evans were both out when the Trail score had reached 17, but Markland and Bowen were playing some good cricket when the rain started to fall heavily, and had taken the score to 51 runs for 2 wickets. Ten minutes later the players were compelled to leave the field, and subsequently as the weather showed no signs of clearing the game was abandoned as a tie. The general opinion was that the clubs had been fortunate to get in three hours of play

At the close of play the scoreboard read:

Rain Halts Play For Second Time Women's Playoff

For the second straight time the second game of the best-of-five fastball series for the West Kootenay women's fastball crown and the Sparling Trophy was cancelled due to rain.

Scheduled to play Sunday in Fruitvale the Nelson Royals and the Shavers Bench team were on hand but a heavy downpour of rain made it impossible to start the game. Again it was scheduled for Trail Monday night but continued rains throughout the day halted any action. At press time Monday it was still undetermined when the game would be played but it is scheduled for Trail.

Shavers Bench hold a one-game lead as they took the measure of the Royals a week ago by a 17-8 score.

Bombers Down Eskimos 7-3

WINNIPEG (CP) — Despite a tremendous one-man performance by Edmonton's Rollie Miles, Winnipeg Blue Bombers hung on for a 7-3 victory over the Eskimos in a Western Interprovincial Football Union game Monday night before 17,385 fans at Winnipeg Stadium.

The win was the second straight for Bombers who share the lead with Saskatchewan Roughriders. Edmonton and Calgary Stampeders have lost their first two starts.

Miles turned into a one man gang as he passed, kicked and ran all over the field after regular quarterback Claude Arnold was added to the already long list of Eskimo casualties. A second-half mishap dealt last year's league winners another blow as import end and tackle Leon Manley suffered a broken arm.

Arnold suffered a leg injury to go into the sick bay with such stars as Jackie Parker, Bernie Faloney, Rod Pantages, Normie Kwong and Mike King.

Bombers were out-passed, outrushed and out-gamed but managed to salvage a win built up in the first quarter when veteran quarterback Jack Jacobs went over from two yards on a sneak.

Kaslo, Clayton Split Double Bill

KASLO — Kaslo and Clayton, Wash., split a doubleheader fastball bill in the American town recently.

In the first game, Kaslo blanked the Clayton team 11-0. Ray Norberg on the mound for Kaslo, with Dave Shunter behind the plate, pitched a no-hit, no-run game with 18 struck out. The heavy batters for Kaslo were Douglas Cunningham, Ray Norberg, Sonny Norberg, and Lefty Turner. While Sunningham passed up nothing in the right field, Clayton put across a neat double play from second to first.

In the second game, Clayton came to life and trimmed Kaslo 10-5.

Sonny Norberg was on the mound for Kaslo and Lefty Turner behind the bat.

The Clayton line-up — Tobect, Baldwin, W. Firor, R. Firor, Casta, C. Van Slyke, S. Berry, S. Van Slyke, Frank and Tex

Kaslo line up — D. Shunter, T. Carpenter, R. Norberg, S. Norberg, Lefty Turner, L. McHardy, M. Moody, D. Cunningham, G. Lemontagne and W. Waters.

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia Lions have hopes of having star tackle Laurie Niemi in strip for their first Western Interprovincial football Union League game here Saturday night, when they meet Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Niemi, served with a surprise injunction during the week-end by his former employees, the Washington Redskins, has been legally restrained from playing or practising with Lions.

Edmonton Ties Vancouver 1-1

EDMONTON (CP) — Edmonton North Side Legion scored on a penalty shot Monday night to tie Vancouver North Shore 1-1 and force a deciding fourth game tonight in the Canadian soccer semi-finals.

With Edmonton trailing 1-0 and 18 minutes left veteran Dave Jillings booted the crucial goal past Joe Travis and brought the Legion back on even terms.

Each team has won a game in the originally scheduled best-of-three series and the winner of tonight's game meets Winnipeg Army, Navy, Scottish in the Canadian final.

Vancouver held the edge in first half play but faltered before a fighting Legion squad in the last half. Vancouver's goal was scored by Bob Swinton at the five-minute mark.

Report Power Gains as high as 15%

In the engines of most cars on the road today, there is a reservoir of power never used—power locked in by carbon and lead deposits.

But now, according to scientists at the Shell Oil Company, a new gasoline additive, blended into Shell Gasolines and sold under the trademark TCP, is neutralizing these deposits and giving power gains up to 15%.

Two-way Power Loss

In combustion chambers these deposits glow red hot and set off the gasoline-air mixture before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Engineers call this pre-ignition. Power is held captive—the full power of the engine is never realized.

These same deposits—the engineers say—also form on spark plugs, where they cause the spark plugs to short-circuit and misfire. They point out that this pair of power-wasters, pre-ignition and spark plug misfiring, is the greatest cause of power loss today.

TCP Frees Captive Power

Shell Gasolines with TCP, Shell engineers report, put this captive power back to work, boosting engine power as much as 15%. Shell engineers explain it this way:

"TCP additive keeps deposits from becoming red hot—and therefore stops pre-ignition. It also makes the deposits non-conductive and ends spark plug misfiring."

The engineers say that Shell Gasolines with TCP act so quickly that a motorist will feel that his engine has had a tune-up before he's finished the second tankful. But Shell warns that since deposits constantly accumulate, there is only one way to maintain the increase in power—continued use of TCP. They call TCP the greatest gasoline development in 31 years. Shell Premium and Regular gasolines with TCP are available only at Shell Dealers.

Re-Opening of Mercury Property At Pinchi Lake Studied by Cominco

Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Trail is considering the possibility of reopening its war-famous mercury property at Pinchi Lake, 80 miles north of Prince George.

After post-war years of a very quiet market, the U. S. government has suddenly decided to stockpile a substantial amount of mercury, offering a guaranteed price of $225 per flask.

This unit weighs about 75 pounds, is held in a steel container and looks something like a quart milk bottle.

On the day recently when the U. S. government announcement was made, current price were as high as $280 for a single flask, with very small dealings in the New York market.

Pinchi Lake was a large producer during the later years of the Second World War. It is a low-grade property and to justify reopening now Consolidated would have to ge a substantial guarantee over an operation period of a couple of years.

The old buildings at Pinchi have been looked after by a watchman during recent years and the plant would require a fairly large investment for rehabilitation.

There is a substantial duty on mercury entering the U. S. and an additional handicap would be the present exchange rate of three per cent against shipments from Canada. No decision is likely to be quickly made by Cominco.

Blow to Jaw Caused Death

QUEBEC (CP) — Provincial police said unofficially Monday that the death of the English-born scientist engaged in some of Canada's secret defence work apparently resulted from a cerebral haemorrhage caused by a hard blow to the lower part of the jaw.

Police said there will be no immediate report on the autopsy performed Monday on the body of Allen Paul Richards, 36, who never regained consciousness after he was found on the grounds of the lieutenant-governor's home last Wednesday.

The scientist, employed by Canadair Limited of Montreal, had been on loan to Canada's armament development and research establishment at nearby Valcartier. He died Saturday.

Provincial police said unofficially that the cause of death appeared to be a cerebral haemorrhage caused by a hard blow to the lower part of the jaw. The jaw was fractured.

Only witness at the inquest before a six-man coroner's court presided over by D. V. Foy, will be G. W. Mylett, personnel manager of the armament establishment who will identify Richards.

The inquest will then be adjourned as police try to find an answer to the baffling death.

Police are looking into the possibility Richards was murdered. On the other hand, police said, there is a possibility Richards was the victim of an accident.

FIVE CHILDREN PERISH IN FIRE

WATERVILLE, Me. (AP)—Five young brothers and sisters perished in their bedrooms today as fire swept a small dwelling in this textile city's most heavily-populated district.

The mother of the children, who returned home from work at a mill to find her home ablaze, fought firemen who prevented her from climbing a ladder to the second floor of the blazing structure.

The dead, children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vachon, were: Patricia, 7, Daniel, 6, Judith, 4 Stephen 3 and Annie, 15 months.

Firemen said they believed the fire started on the second floor from defective electrical wiring.

Western Europe Conditions Much Improved —Drew

LONDON (CP)—Canadian Opposition Leader George Drew today arrived back in London from a fact-finding tour of Western Europe, and said that notwithstanding problems existing at the diplomatic level, "the general atmosphere is very encouraging as far as the people themselves are concerned."

Drew, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter, arrived from France, completing a circuit through Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Germany and other countries, some of it by automobile.

"I have talked with government figures and ordinary folk," said the Progressive Conservative leader. "My main impression is, of course, how much things have improved, especially in Germany, since I last visited Europe in 1951."

He said he found a "very high level of agricultural production" in France, and noted that most countries were paying "particular attention" to new industrial designs and consumer goods. These measures were bound to stimulate trade.

Drew, who left London in early July, said he plans to stay here about a week before going home, and expects to "renew old acquaintances" with members of the government.

McCarthy-Army Verdict Agreed, Not Disclosed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Karl Mundt (Rep.—S.D.) said Monday the Republican four-man majority of the Senate investigations sub-committee has agreed on a verdict in the McCarthy-army dispute—but he gave no clue to its nature.

The long-waited verdict consists of some 3500 words of findings and recommendations signed by Mundt, as hearing chairman, and Senators Charles Potter (Rep.—Mich.) Everett Dirksen (Rep.—Ill.) and Henry Dworshak (Rep.—Idaho).

The sub-committee's three Democrats are expected to file a separate minority report.

Mundt said the majority report will be filed today to be kept a closely guarded secret until after the Aug. 30 deadline set for members to report their findings on the McCarthy-army row.

"Thrill Killers" May Be Charged With Murder

NEW YORK (AP)—The state today will ask a Brooklyn grand jury to indict for first degree murder four teen-age terrorists who allegedly tortured and battered harmless people just for thrills.

Police said two of their victims were killed by this senseless violence.

The shocking reports of the foursome's wanton brutality brought new vigor to a police campaign already started against "undesirables."

During the weekend more than 600 persons were rounded up by police on the lookout for hoodlums and toughs.

Police also had their eyes open for any would-be imitators of the kill-for-thrill gang.

BEATEN BY THREE

One alleged band of imitators was caught only after its victim Joel Ewen, a 19-year-old student, stumbled into a police station with his face covered with blood. Ewen reported he was set upon by three youths, the leader of whom yelled at his victim:

"I'm Koslow, the thrill killer."

He referred to Jack Koslow, 18, already jailed as the alleged leader of the four who police say prowled Brooklyn parks, viciously beating and killing helpless men and, in one case, horsewhipping two young girls.

Koslow now is being held for assault. His three buddies, Melvin Mittman, 17; Jerome Lieberman, 17 and Robert Trachtenberg, 15, are under indictment for homicide in the death of one of the victims.

LCB CUTS PRICES

VICTORIA (CP)—An order-in-council today approved price drops in some 60 varieties of ryes, brandies, liqueurs and gins sold in B. C. liquor control board stores.

The same order approved bringing the 13⅓-ounce bottle of scotch back to store shelves for the first time since the Second World War.

Liquor board chairman Col. Donald McGugan said the price cuts follow similar cuts to the LCB.

Indo-Chinese Don't Go for Red Indoctrination; Many May Leave

HANOI, Indo-China (AP)—Vietminh efforts to indoctrinate the North Viet Namese in the Communist way of life are backfiring, a top French official says. The Indo-Chinese don't go for hours of Red lectures after a hard day's work.

As a result, Jacques Compain, French delegate general to North Viet Nam, has doubled his estimate of the number of North Viet Namese he expects to seek evacuation to anti-Communist South Viet Nam.

Compain said 60,000 Viet Namese already had been evacuated from Hanoi and Haiphong to Saigon, Tourane and Dalat.

Eight per cent of the evacuees so far have been Catholic refugees from the Son Tay, Bac Ninh, Thai Binh and Bui Chu areas.

About 160,000 Viet Namese have collected at Hanoi, Haiphong and Haiduong to wait evacuation, the official reported. In addition, 30,000 Chinese from the Mon Cayres, along the China border, are waiting at Hon Gay.

Compain said the French have chartered 10 planes from Claire Chennault's Hong Kong-based Civil Air Transport to swell the 80 planes airlift they already are operating.

U. S. Navy ships began moving out 2000 a day Aug. 16 and will step that up to 4000 a day this week, Compain reported.

"Thousands are changing their minds about staying and now are seeking evacuation to South Viet Nam to escape the Communists," he reported.

Two Arrested in East for Holdups In Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police said Friday that two men have been arrested at Windsor, Ont., in connection with two bank holdups in the Great Vancouver area.

The men are wanted for questioning concerning the holdup of the Arbutus street branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here last Wednesday when two armed bandits escaped with $7500.

Police also are investigating the possibility the same men were involved in the April 29 robbery of a branch of the same bank in New Westminster when three men escaped with $22,000.

Police said serial numbers of the stolen bills will be wired to Windsor today.

Found Dead in Bed

LADNER, B.C. (CP)—Municipal police today were investigating the death of Victoria Woo, 40, who was found dead in bed Sunday at Ladner Dyke. Police Chief Melvin McKay said "there was no evidence of foul play."

ATTEMPTING TO SWIM CHANNEL UNESCORTED

CAP GRIS NEZ France (Reuters) —French naval authorities today alerted ships in the English channel to try to stop a 44-year-old Briton who is attempting to become the first man to swim the channel unescorted.

The swimmer, Edward J. May, left this French coastal resort for England at 4:30 this morning, towing behind him an old motorcycle tire tube containing food to sustain him on his 21-mile trip. He went alone, without the boatload of supporters which accompanies most Channel swimmers.

French authorities tried in vain to persuade May, father of nine children, to abandon his plan. When he went right ahead with it, they asked any vessels that spot him to escort him to the English coast if he refuses to get out of the water.

Before he set out this morning burly May gave his manager, L. U. Scott, a sheet of paper on which he had written hastily:

"I am undertaking at my own responsibility to swim the English channel from Cap Gris Nez to Dover without the escort of a boat."

May expected to reach Dover, on the English coast, late today.

Former District Residents Like North Despite High Costs, Cold

Living costs are about double those here and the climate is much cooler in Northern British Columbia, but a former Kootenay resident likes it fine.

James Ryley, formerly of Nelson and Creston, in an interview while holidaying here told about life in the mining centre where he has been government agent since 1951. For one thing, fishing and hunting are "excellent."

Transportation difficulties contribute mainly to the high cost of living, Mr. Ryley said. Goods to supply Atlin's 250 persons are shipped by boat from Southern B.C. ports to Skagway, Alaska, then over a narrow gauge railway to Carcross, Alaska, and from there by truck to Atlin. Or they may come from the East over the Alaska Highway and truck from Whitehorse, the Yukon capital, about a three-hour drive over a good gravel road.

ONCE HIT 72 BELOW

Atlin's climate is cooler than here with the temperature going to as low as 50 degrees below zero in the winter and with 80 above being considered extremely hot in the Summer. Years ago the Winter temperature was known to have been as low as 72. Summer is actually about the same length as here with Spring being somewhat later. Good gardens can be grown although the season is too short for plants such as tomatoes. Frost came as early as August sometimes.

Atlin is the centre of the proposed Frobisher power project area which will likely mean an influx of population into the area. Frobisher plans call for an eventual raise of about 25 feet in the level of Atlin Lake and it is still unknown what will happen to Atlin as this raise will almost completely obliterate the village. The actual powerhouse for the project will be about 40 miles from Atlin.

In 1953 a uranium discovery was made and is being diamond drilled this Summer with "good results."

PLACER DISTRICT

Atlin's principal industries now are placer mining and logging. Over $35 million worth of gold has been removed from the surrounding creeks since 1899. In that year Atlin's population was nearly 10,000, but has decreased, especially in World War II when the price of gold decreased, Mr. Ryley related.

Being government agent at this point is quite a task, Mr. Ryley has 23 appointments, including mining recorder (gold commissioner), stipendiary magistrate, coroner, etc. The area for which he is government agent is vast. The nearest government offices are at Pouce Coupe, just out of Dawson Creek, which is 930 miles southeast of Atlin, or three days travel by rail and boat to Prince Rupert in the southwest. Government office duties are handled by Mr. Ryley and one clerk.

The village of Atlin, though only having a population of 250, offers a variety of services. It has three groceries, a weekly movie, weekly square dancing, an RCMP one-man detachment, a government liquor store, post office, Canadian National Telegraph office, three service stations, Anglican and Roman Catholic churches, an elementary school, four eating establishments, tourist cabins and a beer parlor ten miles out of town.

The Alaska highway and other district roads are generally well maintained. Quite a few tourists visit the district yearly from almost every state in the union. Another service is a hospital which the Red Cross is instituting at Atlin this Summer. Mail service from Nelson to Atlin takes about a week.

The surrounding country is mountainous, similar to the Kootenay district.

The Kootenay Hotel in Atlin is named because of the influx of people from the Kootenay district during the hotel's construction.

Regarding Nelson, his former home, Mr. Ryley said it "looks progressive" and "more dressed up" in that several old buildings have been renovated in the last few years.

Jim Ryley was born at Ainsworth and lived most of his life in the Kootenay. He was reporter for the Nelson Daily News for three years, and after that was employed in the government agent's office here until 1946. He was then transferred to Creston as government sub-agent and after five years there was sent to Atlin as government agent. He is married and has a daughter aged four and a son, two.

Their 10-week holiday, first vacation in three years, began June 26 when they headed East via the Alaska Highway to Dawson Creek and Edmonton and on to Saskatoon to visit Mrs. Ryley's relatives. From there they came to Nelson via Crow's Nest. The Ryleys left Monday morning for the Coast and go from there to Prince George, Dawson Creek and back home via the Alaska Highway again. In all they will travel by car about 7000 miles.

Mr. Ryley recalled that John Cartmel, who was government agent at Nelson for many years, retiring in 1944, began his government career in 1907 as mining recorder at Atlin. He is retired in Vancouver now.

Body Recovered

NEW WESTMINSTER, (CP)—Body of Martin Rosell, Steveston, B.C., taxi driver who fell from a launch during a fishing trip last week, was recovered from the waters of Boundary Bay by Blaine, Wash., police officers during the weekend.

RELYING ON GOD FOR GUIDANCE STRESSED

The importance of relying wholeheartedly on God, divine Mind, for guidance was stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The lesson-sermon entitled "Mind" included the following passage from the King James version of the Bible (Proverbs 3: 5, 6): "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct thy paths."

The practical availability of spiritual guidance was also stressed in the following passage from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we wait patiently on God and seek truth righteously, He directs our path."

The Golden Text was from Daniel (2: 20, 21): "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are His . . . He giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding."

U.S. To Furnish Aid To Pakistan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Pakistan Monday signed an emergency assistant agreement which will furnish U.S. aid to flood-ravaged East Pakistan.

After signing with U.S. assistant state secretary Henry A. Byroade, Pakistan ambassador Syed Amjad Ali said he was "simply overwhelmed" by the kindness displayed by the U.S.

Some 10,000,000 persons were hit by the raging Brahma Putra River floods, which inundated almost 20,000 square miles of East Pakistan's most fertile land.

Climber Found Dead on Peak

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (AP) — A mountain climber trapped in a crevasse by his own heroism was found dead late Sunday night on towering Mt. Olympus.

Doctors said Dr. Anthony Levy, 30, a University of California research biochemist from Berkeley had been dead about nine hours before his body was reached.

He had been trapped deep in a crevasse at the top of the 7954-foot peak which stands in the centre of Olympic national park.

Twenty-three national park service employees, including two doctors, fought their way up the jagged sides of Olympus in a desperate bid to save Levy from an icy death in the crevasse.

Levy, with four others, were climbing the mountain Saturday when one of the party, Dick Neal of Seattle, slipped into the crevasse, breaking a leg in the fall. Levy rescued Neal but, exhausted by his efforts, could not get out himself and attempts by the other three to bring him to the surface failed.

VICTORIA, B.C. (CP) — British Columbia families are growing larger. Family allowance statistics show an average of two children a household compared to a previous high of 1.9.

5000 Enter B. C. Hospitals Weekly

The Hospital Insurance Service reports that approximately 5000 people are going to hospital every week. Just over $2,000,000 is paid each month by the Service for eligible accounts.

Recent policy changes made "residence" the determining factor for eligibility, and it is the hospital's responsibility to confirm the patient's status by verification of the information stated on the admission form.

Accounts for payment of hospitalization incurred outside of British Columbia total some 300 monthly from such sources as the United States, South Africa, Australia, the British Isles, France, Germany, Italy, China, Singapore, Finland and Egypt, as well as all parts of Canada.

Brass Workers Strike

BUTTE, Mont. (AP) — Fifteen thousand copper and brass workers struck in three states today for a 25 cent-an-hour raise. They are in addition to 10,000 already on strike in Utah and Arizona.

Indo-China Team Begins Making Preparations

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP) —Some 70 officers of the Canadian armed forces named recently as members of the military component of the international supervisory commission for Indo-China, today began preparing for their new jobs.

They are attending briefings that will last for four days at the Royal Canadian Mechanical and Electrical Engineers school here. They will be given a survey of the general background of Indo-China, an outline of the war and the present military situation there.

They will also be told of the Geneva conference at which the Indo-China cease-fire agreement was reached and Canada's relation to that conference and her agreement to serve as a supervisory power. Most of the group are army officers but the Royal Canadian Navy and the RCAF also are represented.

The first group will leave Kingston for Indo-China Aug. 27.

11 Countries at Nudists' Congress

VIENNA (AP) — Undoubtedly, only the bare facts will be dicussed by an international congress of nudists scheduled for a Danube river island here later this month.

An announcement today by the Vienna "society for spiritual interests of free body culture" said nudists from 11 countries, including Canada, have been invited for the congress Aug. 27 to 29.

The congress will be the fourth of the "international federation of naturalists", which is the label preferred by the nudists.

No nudists, if there are any, are scheduled to attend from Communist countries.
