French Draftees Off to Morocco

Assassination of Eyraud, Riotings Bring Tension as Reprisals Feared

CASABLANCA (Reuters)—The French government nounced Thursday night that 4000 draftees are being shed to Morocco where a fresh wave of terrorism has ought tension to near boiling point.

Heavily armed French and African soldiers patrolled e streets of Casablanca following Wednesday's daylight ssassination of Emile Eyraud, official spokesman of the ench settlers in Morocco and director of the newspaper gie Marocaine.

The murder roused fierce indigtion among the French inhabits of the protectorate and authities feared severe reprisals, parularly by French war veterans, ainst the Moroccans.

Resident General Francois Laste appealed to the leaders of the ttlers' organization to keep their mbers in check.

The local Socialist party called calm while the Radical party oled the government in Paris deanding police reinforcements and ingent security measures.

RE ON MOROCCANS

Only retaliation so far reported s the machine-gunning of three oroccans in a shop in the Arab arter of the city Wednesday night. One Moroccan was killed and the others seriously wounded by gunmen operating from a black sedan.

The 4000 troops, due to arrive within a few days, were newly called to the colors.

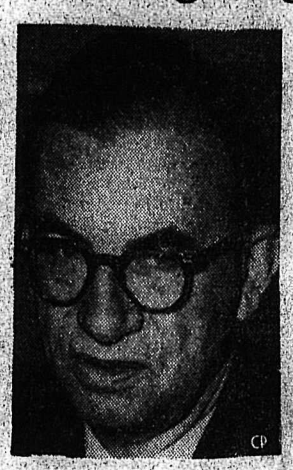
Lacoste is expected to be summoned to Paris shortly for consultations with Premier Pierre Mendes-Franee, who heads a new French government.

There has been a sharp increase in the activities of both individual terrorists and groups of bandits (fellaghas) operating under the flag of the "Tunisian liberation army."

Adrien Rifon, a 70-year-old baker who with five other French people was wounded Tuesday night in a terrorist attack at Tebourba, 15 miles west of Tunis, died from his wounds.

Ottawa Loses 3 Cabinet Ministers

Resigning Cabinet Ministers



HON. BROOKE CLAXTON . . . leaves defence ministry to become vice-president of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

HON. DOUGLAS ABBOTT . . . former finance minister, will become Mr. Justice Abbott of the Supreme Court of Canada.

HON. LIONEL CHEVRIER . . . leaves the transport ministry to become Canadian chairman of the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority.

Resignations of Abbott, Claxton Chevrier Spark Cabinet Reshuffle

OTTAWA (CP) — The cabinet Thursday lost three workhorses with the retirement of Defence Minister Claxton, Finance Minister Abbott and Transport Minister Chevrier.

The gaps were immediately filled by Prime Minister St. Laurent, who announced the changes after a Dominion Day cabinet meeting.

Ralph Campney, 56, becomes defence minister; Walter Harris, 50, finance minister, and George Marler, 52, transport minister.

All three are leaving their $27,000-a-year government posts at the same time. Mr. Abbott will receive $20,000 as a Supreme Court justice and Mr. Chevrier $25,000 as chairman of the seaway authority. Mr. Claxton's salary as vice-president of the insurance firm is not known but it probably is considerably more than $27,000.

Mr. Campney has been associate defence minister and that post now is left vacant for the time being. Mr. Harris has been immigration minister and government house leader. He will keep control of the National Film Board. Mr. Marler is a former Liberal leader in Quebec. He has resigned his Quebec seat.

By-elections for the five vacant Commons seats will not be held before this Fall. The other two vacancies were caused by the deaths this Spring of Rodney Adamson, Progressive Conservative member for York West, and Lionel Conacher, Liberal member for Toronto Trinity.

TO BUSINESS POST

Mr. Claxton, 55, member for Montreal St. Lawrence-St. George since 1940, will become vice-president of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York and general manager of its Canadian operations Aug. 1.

He said in his letter of resignation that he expected to remain in Parliament only for the duration of the war.

"Now that the build-up of our forces to their planned strength is well in sight, I feel that the time has now come when I can properly take up private life again . . ." Mr. Claxton wrote. He has been defence minister since December, 1946. He was an artillery sergeant-major in the First World War.

In a letter to the armed forces and to members of the defence department and his personal staff, Mr. Claxton said he is leaving his post "with the greatest possible regret."

He recently told a reporter: "I have the best job in the world."

TO SUPREME COURT

Mr. Abbott, 55, member for Montreal St. Antoine-Westmount, becomes Mr. Justice Abbott of the Supreme Court of Canada. The nonchalant, affable Mr. Abbott has been finance minister since December, 1946. He was also an artilleryman in the ranks in the First World War and became defence minister in 1945.

In all, he brought down 10 budgets, the last ones in the neighborhood of $4,500,000,000.

Mr. Chevrier, 51, member for Stormont since 1935, becomes Canadian chairman of the St. Lawrence Seaway authority. He has been transport minister since April, 1945.

In his steaming-hot office in the East block of the Parliament buildings, Mr. St. Lawrence announced these other appointments:

1. Patrick Kerwin as chief justice of the Supreme Court, succeeding Thibaudeau Rinfret, who retired last month on his 75th birthday.

2. J. W. Pickersgill, 50, state secretary since June, 1953, as minister of citizenship and immigration.

3. Roch Pinard, 43, Parliamentary assistant to External Affairs Minister Pearson since last October, as state secretary.

4. Jules Leger, 41, ambassador to Mexico, as deputy minister of external affairs.

5. D. A. MacKay, 60, acting deputy minister of external affairs, as associate deputy minister of external affairs.

6. Charles Gavsie, 45, deputy minister of national revenue for taxation, as member of the seaway authority.

7. Charles W. West, 64, senior deputy minister for transport, as member of the seaway authority.

8. John R. Baldwin, deputy minister for air services in the transport department, as senior deputy minister for transport.

9. Hon. Herbert William Davey, Judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, as appeal justice of the B. C. Court of Appeal, effective Sept. 1.

10. Harold W. McInnes, QC, of Penticton, B. C., as a judge of the B. C. Supreme Court, effective Sept. 1.

11. M. M. Porter, QC, of Calgary as a judge of the appellate division of the Alberta Supreme Court, effective Sept. 1.

12. Neil Primrose, QC, of Edmonton, as a judge of the trial division of the Alberta Supreme Court, effective Sept. 1.

No appointments to fill the 18 vacancies in the Senate were announced. Neither was there any announcement of new parliamentary assistants or successors for Mr. Leger, Mr. Gavsie or Mr. Baldwin.

It was the biggest cabinet shuffle in the post-war years.

CANADA RECEIVES U.S. GREETINGS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday sent "heartiest congratulations" to the people of Canada on Dominion Day. A message addressed to Governor-General Vincent Massey said: "I am happy to convey to Your Excellency and to the people of Canada the heartiest congratulations and good wishes of the people of the United States on this anniversary of the Canadian national day." The message was released by the state department.

Three Named to Seaway Authority

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister St. Laurent Thursday named the triumvirate which will direct Canada's part in the St. Lawrence seaway development, naming his transport minister, Lionel Chevrier, to head the group.

He dipped into the public service to appoint two senior deputy ministers as members of the seaway authority. They are Charles Gavsie, 45-year-old deputy revenue minister, and Charles W. West, 64, senior deputy transport minister.

The act, passed by Parliament in 1951 establishing the three-man seaway authority, was proclaimed Thursday, Mr. St. Laurent said. The act gives the seaway authority to build and operate the seaway canals and establish the tolls which will pay for construction during a 50-year period.

Mr. St. Laurent also announced that John R. Baldwin, deputy transport minister for air services and chairman of the Air Transport Board, will succeed Mr. West as senior deputy transport minister.

Mr. St. Laurent said Mr. Chevrier and Mr. Gavsie have been appointed for the maximum 10-year terms to the seaway authority. Mr. Gavsie will act as deputy to Mr. Chevrier.

Mr. West, the third member of the authority, will hold his appointment for a three-year term.

SOUTH TEXAS DISASTER AREA

90 Missing, 55 Dead as Rio Grande Runs Riot

EAGLE PASS, Tex. (AP) — The South Texas borderland where 55 are known dead and 90 are missing in the greatest Rio Grande flood in history was declared a major disaster area Thursday.

The count of the dead and missing continued in the crumbled desolation that once was Piedras Negras, Mexico, a city of 35,000 across the river, while the crest of the Rio Grande rolled on 150 miles downstream.

The surgeon-general of the Mexican Army, Lt.-Col. Salvador Hernandez Vela, said the death count at Piedras Negras alone still stood officially at 38, and 90 were known to be missing—and still there was no way of knowing how many bodies floated down the river.

Maj. Rojelio Montemayor of the Mexican Army said there could be as many as 400 missing because many Mexican farm laborers were at the border waiting to get jobs in Texas.

Damage ran high into the millions, but no one in authority would offer an estimate. The cost of five bridges wrecked at Laredo, Eagle Pass and Del Rio alone exceeded $5,000,000.

Woman Killed In Fall From Car

BELLINGHAM, Wash. (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Wilson, 76, White Rock, B.C., was killed Thursday when she fell out of a car on heavily travelled U.S. Highway 99 near Ferndale.

Mrs. Wilson fell when the car swerved after a door flew open and hit a bridge railing. Her husband, Robert Wilson, 76, was the driver.

U. S. Phone Workers Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Seventeen thousand workers who install and maintain telephone equipment were called on strike across the United States Thursday but a delay in picketing eased any immediate threat of crippled phone communications.

In previous strikes, failure of long distance telephone operators to cross picket lines has caused difficulties.

However, dial phones and automatic equipment can continue to operate for some time before needing attention or repairs.

The Communication Workers Union (CIO) called the strike after a breakdown in negotiations between the CWA's District 10, and the Western Electric Co., which is the manufacturing arm of the American Telephone and Telegraph system.

GUNS ROAR IN JERUSALEM

Boats on Sea of Galilee Said Fired On

JERUSALEM (Reuters) — Casualties mounted rapidly in strife-torn Jerusalem Thursday night, despite a cease-fire ordered by both Israeli and Jordan delegates to the United Nations mixed armistice commission.

The casualty toll on both sides reached three dead and at least 48 injured.

The commission—with Israel attending for the first time in 3½ months — called for an "unconditional and sincere cease-fire" in the two-day conflict, which erupted again early Thursday after a United Nations order stilled it late Wednesday night.

The cease-fire was to begin at 6:30 p.m. local time. Two hours later, rifle, machine-gun and mortar fire was still heard throughout the divided holy city, and both Arab and Jewish citizens in the half-deserted streets moved warily for fear of a sniper's bullet.

Prime Minister Moshe Sharett accused Jordan of "wantonly violating the peace of Jerusalem" and said Israel will complain to the United Nations Security Council.

Jordan countered that Israel was responsible for "heavy attacks" Wednesday and Thursday, which were part of an "organized plan."

New Arab-Israel tension exploded on the Sea of Galilee.

Syrian shore batteries, which allegedly fired on an Israeli police launch Wednesday, are reported to have fired on two other launches and an Israeli plane Thursday.

SHE'S 105

WALLACEBURG, Ont. (CP) — Mrs. Susan Smith, believed to be the oldest person in Western Ontario, celebrated her 105th birthday at her home Thursday. Bedridden for several months, Mrs. Smith Wednesday night received a small delegation headed by Mayor W. J. Collins to congratulate her on her birthday.

Says French Lost Most of Delta

Tight censorship prevails in Indo-China. Larry Allen, who has been covering the Indo-China fighting for two years on the spot, is in Singapore free of censorship.

By LARRY ALLEN

SINGAPORE (AP) — French troops have abandoned a major portion of the Red River delta, in Indo-China. Completion of their withdrawal will leave 60 per cent of the rice-rich delta in the hands of the Communist-led Vietminh and put 4,000,000 additional Viet Namese under Red control.

With abandonment of the southern sectors of the delta, including four major French posts, the end of the war after almost eight years appeared not far off. This could come either by military defeat or a negotiated cease-fire.

A French army spokesman in Hanoi, key point in the delta's defence, said Thursday the giving up of thousands of square miles of the richest rice lands in Indo-China without a fight was directed by defence needs.

He said the withdrawing troops were needed in the northern and central delta zones to protect Hanoi and the vital Hanoi-Haiphong rail and highway supply lines from possible attack by "six Vietminh divisions massed on the delta borders." These are in addition to 100,000 Vietminh which have already infiltrated the delta.

This situation could presage a "Dunkerque" at the northern seaport of Haiphong if the French are unable to hold Hanoi.

Rocky to Lead First Infantry

OTTAWA (CP)—Brig. John M. (Rocky) Rockingham, DSO, 42, of Vancouver will be promoted to major-general and given command of the 1st Canadian Infantry Division.

Rockingham, now commander of the 3rd Canadian Infantry Brigade at Gagetown, N.B., will assume his new appointment Sept. 1.

The division is Canada's first peacetime division and was formed recently.

Brig. Jean Victor Allard, DSO and two bars, 41, of Nicolet, Que., who returned last week from Korea where he commanded the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade, will succeed Rockingham as commander of the 3rd Brigade.

U. S. Diplomat Aids in Guatemala Settlement

By CARLOS R. ESCUDERO

SAN SALVIDOR, El Salvador (AP) — There were indications Thursday night that U. S. ambassador John E. Peurifoy had patched up the differences between the two rival, anti-Communist regimes of Guatemala.

The ambassador flew here from Guatemala in the role of peacemaker between Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, leader of the short anti-Communist invasion, and Col. elfego Monzon, head of the new military junto who are trying to agree on a new government—the fourth in a week.

After conferring separately with the two colonels, Peurifoy announced they would issue a joint statement shortly.

It was announced that he would talk with them together, with Papal nuncio Gennaro Verolino participating in the meeting.

Peurifoy flew from Guatemala Thursday to join the talks.

The 46-year-old diplomat has been credited with a key role in negotiations leading to the Sunday ouster of Communist-backed Guatemalan President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

Believes Collaboration Could End Black Market in Unwanted Babies

TORONTO (CP)—Lack of collaboration between child welfare agencies in different parts of North America has fostered the growth of a "black market" in babies across the international border, a Montreal welfare worker says.

Interviewed after a meeting — closed to the press—at the International Conference of Social Work, Mrs. Muriel McCrea of the Montreal Children's Service Centre said social workers are aware of "a great deal of private trafficking in children."

She said that every year, 3000 unwanted Catholic children in Quebec province await adoption. Usually, homes are found for only half this number.

Yet in many areas of the United States there are Catholic homes without children. Would-be foster parents search in vain for babies to adopt.

"The public often accuses social workers of trying to make adoption harder," Mrs. McCrea added. "But all we are trying to do is to make it safer and to find the right homes for the children."

Churchill Urges Canadians Remember "the Old Land"

OTTAWA (CP) — Sir Winston Churchill predicted that Canada one day will take its place among the first ranks of sovereign communities. But he appealed to Canadians never to forget the "old land."

The British prime minister, in a farewell radio speech carried over the CBC's trans-Canada network, said Canadians are the architects of a "mighty structure." But when Canadians achieve their hopes and glories, "Do not forget the old land, do not forget that little island lost among the northern mists which played so great a part in your early days and now regards you with admiration and pride."

The British statesman, ending a 28-hour visit to this capital, spoke of his previous trips to Canada, of his desire to have had the time to visit other parts of the expanding domain and of this friendship and respect for the Canadian leaders he has come to know in the last half-century.

BRITAIN RECOVERING

Britain, he said, is gradually recovering from the great losses of the Second World War, but "very great continuing exertions will be needed from all classes in our country if we are to keep the high position we still hold in the world."

"We do not fear the future while we advance hand in hand together and in company with the United States. We are resolved to do our duty, whatever it may cost and we believe that we shall not fail."

"Let us move forward," he said, "bound together by those enduring ties of language, literature and low and by those principles of parliamentary government and the rights of the individual which are the characteristics of our civilization in every part of the world where it has been established."

He spoke of the million immigrants who came to Canada from the British Isles since the end of the Second World War, and recalled to French-speaking Canadians that the bitter quarrels between France and Britain have passed into history.

The two countries have shared "our other perils and sufferings as friends and allies in this fearful 20th century of strife."

LONDON (Reuters)—Some doctors tell their patients to see a specialist.

Mrs. Cecilia Hatcher says her doctor told her to see a mouse.

The 30-year-old radio actress with a "Tallulah Bankhead" voice told a courtroom she lost her stock-in-trade when doctors at a London hospital removed part of her thyroid gland.

Mrs. Hatcher, speaking in a low, barely audible voice, said the doctor who performed the operation advised her, "you should see a mouse. That will frighten you and bring your voice back."

She is suing the doctors and the hospital for alleged negligence during the operation.

CONGERS, N.Y. (AP)—When marauding birds depleted Niles Davies' cherry crop, he first became annoyed.

Then he became ingenious.

Davies recovered some old electric fans from his barn and installed them in strategic spots in his cherry trees.

At daybreak, when the birds came, he turned on the fans. They hummed, rustled the leaves and the birds left without breakfast.

Mrs. J. A. Gilker Laid to Rest

Many friends gathered to pay tribute to one of Nelson's foremost pioneers, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilker, at a funeral service conducted at the Thompson Funeral Home Wednesday.

There were many floral tributes at the service which was conducted by Mrs. E. H. Paterson under the auspices of the First Church of Christ Scientist.

The Nelson Rotary Club in a body attended the service. Two hymns were played by organist Mrs. W. A. Manson, "Shepherd, Show Me How" and "Abide With Me."

Pallbearers were J. C. Gilker, M. J. Boyes, A. M. Noxon, R. W. Dill, J. H. Coventry and J. W. Graham.

Interment was in the IOOF plot of the Nelson Memorial Park.

Mrs. Gilker, who died at her home at 217 Victoria Street, Monday at the age of 87, was the wife of the late J. A. Gilker, founder of Gilker's Ltd., men's furnishings store in Nelson.

Two Injured In Truck Accident

Two Port Crawford men are in Kootenay Lake General Hospital following an accident on the hill East of Longbeach Wednesday night when their light delivery truck travelled for about 150 feet on soft gravel along the edge of the road, left the road and rolled about 70 feet down the bank.

One of the men, Frank Draper, was reported in "serious" condition while the other, Russel Riley, driver of the vehicle, is less seriously hurt. Both, however, were reported to be "doing fine". A third man in the truck, Duncan MacPherson, also of Port Crawford, was unhurt.

The truck was parctically demolished, RCMP believed. The front axle was broken off. The truck was facing towards Balfour when the truck stopped. The men were on their way to Balfour to catch the ferry, RCMP thought.

The injured were brought to Nelson in an ambulance, escorted by an RCMP car.

The town and district of Parry Sound, Ont., was named after Sir William Parry, English Arctic explorer who died in 1855.

OLDTIMER OF NAKUSP PASSES

Mrs. Grietje van der Reyden, Nakusp resident for 46 years, died at Mount St. Francis Infirmary Wednesday after a lengthy illness. Mrs. van der Reyden was in her 93rd year.

Born at Amorsfoort, Holland, she came to Canada and Nakusp in 1908 where her husband worked as a carpenter. She was predeceased by her husband, William, in 1936.

Mrs. van der Reyden is survived by two sons: William of Nelson and Jack of Nakusp; one daughter, Marie of Seattle, Wash.; our grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Nelson with interment in the Nakusp cemetery.

Lumber Worker Found Dead

CRANBROOK — Felix Dion, 76, widely known East Kootenay lumber worker for more than 40 years, was found dead in the mill pond on the Cedar Creek sawmill operation of the Cranbrook Sash and Door Co. Ltd., Wednesday morning.

He was foreman of the operation and had started the shift as usual and had not been missed by the rest of the crew until a member noticed his hat in the mill pohd. The body was found immediately.

Mr. Dion had started lumber work as a teamster and had been with the Sash and Door as barn boss and foreman for 35 years in mills at Yahk, Kitchener, New Lake, Baker Mountain, Perry Creek and Canal Flats.

An inquest will take place at Kimberley. Mr. Dion had no relatives in this district.

Golden Lumber Worker Drowns

CRANBROOK — George Durand, 24, employee of the Canadian Pacific Lumber Company at Blueberry River near Golden, was drowned when attempting to drag a cable across the flooded river walking on a log jam which collapsed under him.

He had been to a show in Golden and found on his return that the car bridge had been washed out. He left his car and crossed the jam safely on the logs to get a tractor and crew to make a temporary bridge with the jammed logs and was drowned in his efforts to recross to his car.

He had come from France to Canada in 1951, had worked in Golden district for a year, and is survived by his mother and sister at Aix Les Bains, France.

D. M. Miller, Well Known In District, Dies

Kootenay resident for 28 years and foreman of the B. C. Telephone Company at Nelson, Donald McDonald Miller, died at Kootenay Lake General Hospital Wednesday at the age of 60.

Mr. Miller, a resident of Cranbrook for 21 years, has been with the B. C. Telephone Company at Nelson, Fernie and Cranbrook.

Born in Kirkwall, Scotland, Donald McDonald Miller came to Canada at the age of 17 and worked at various localities across Canada. He was employed with the Alberta Government Telephone service for a short time and later came to British Columbia and Nelson to join the B. C. Telephone Company in 1926. After working in Kootenay centres, Mr. Miller returned to Nelson in 1951 and has resided here since.

Having served with the Royal Canadian Engineers in World War I, Mr. Miller was a life member of the Canadian Legion, and was past president of the Cranbrook Canadian Legion and Nelson member. He was also a life member of the Kirkwall, Scotland, Masonic Lodge and member of Lodge No. 34 AF & AM at Cranbrook. Mr. Miller was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Andrew Donald of Vancouver; two daughters, Mrs. D. S. Cook of Victoria, Mrs. D. R. Morrison of Nelson; one brother, James of Kirkwall, Scotland; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Ross, Mrs. Jean Rosie and Mrs. Katherine Flett, all of Kirkwall, Scotland; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Nelson.

Mrs. E. McCuaig, Pioneer, Passes

Pioneer Nelson resident, Mrs. Elsie Lucina McCuaig, died at Mount St. Francis Infirmary Thursday at the age of 74.

Mrs. McCuaig was born in Springfield, Mass., and came to Nelson in 1906 where her husband was employed by the city and has resided here since.

She was predeceased by he husband in 1934.

Mrs. McCuaig is survived by three sons: Duncan of Blackpool, B.C., Dewett and John of Nelson; three daughters: Mrs. J. F. Perasso of Nelson, Mrs. H. R. Norris of Edmonton, and Mrs. W. D. Poole of Trail; one sister, Mrs. S. L. Guess of Edgewater, Col.; 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Vancouver Junior Band Pleases Large Crowd With Lively Concert

Forty-three smart young musicians, the Vancouver Junior Band, pleased a crowd of about 800 with a lively concert at the Civic Centre Grounds Wednesday night.

Now on an eight-week tour, the band, dressed in red, white, blue and gold and under the direction of Bandmaster Gordon C. Olson, began with "O Canada" and followed with the well known march "Anchors Aweigh."

Second number on the program was popular, a baton twirling duet with Honey Munson and Joy McCall, two of the 10 girls in the band. Following this the band played an overture, another march, and then "Finlandia." A trumpet trio came next.

An interesting item was "Night Beat," a composition with various times and volumes. Another well received number was "The Bells of St. Mary's."

What was to have been the last item on the program was another baton twirling performance by Honey Munson. Miss Munson, 14, who has been with the Band for five years received much applause throughout this number, enough that the band replied with a lively tune, "Red Rhythm Valley," a modernized version of "Red River Valley." Then, "God Save the Queen", just before the rain which had been threatening all evening began to fall.

PICNIC

The band arrived in Nelson Tuesday night by bus from Osoyoos where they gave a concert Monday. Saturday and Sunday they were in Penticton. They were billeted in Nelson at homes of various Chamber of Commerce members' homes. The Chamber sponsored their stay here, arrangements being handled by entertainment committee chairman J. G. Watson. Wednesday morning they paraded on Baker Street and then were taken to South Slocan for a tour of the West Kootenay Power and Light Company's plant and a picnic.

Miss Doris Olson, in charge of the band's public relations spoke to the crowd briefly mentioning the success of the tour to date and thanked the crowd for turning out in the uncertain weather.

Chamber of Commerce President, V. C. Owen, welcomed the band and Conductor Olson to Nelson. Mayor Joseph Kary also welcomed "these young ambassadors" and on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and the City of Nelson presented Mr. Olson with a picture of the city.

There was no admission charged for the performance although a silver collection was taken up. The band is a self-supporting organization. Their Women's Auxiliary raised $6000 for this tour which will take them to five Canadian provinces and 12 American states. Band members range from 12 to 17 years of age and many of them first began to play under Mr. Olson. Some have been with the band for as long as nine years and some only six months, average time is three years. On their present tour they expect to play to some crowds as large as 80,000 people. They left Nelson early Thursday morning via bus.

Weather Competition Curtails Holiday Plans; Kin Show Substitutes

Decorated bicycles, costumed pets and model airplanes were left undisplayed on Dominion Day as the enthusiasm of Nelson kiddies was dampened by the rainy weather.

News of the cancellation of the morning and afternoon sports program, sponsored by the Nelson Kinsmen Club, was a disappointment for the children who had planned to take part in the bicycle races, foot races, parade and pet show and model airplane demonstration. But in place of the outdoor program, the Kinsmen Club substituted a free matinee for the kiddies under 12 and opened games in the Civic Centre Badminton Hall.

Plans for the pet and bicycle show to be held in the near future are being made by the Kinsmen Club.

Three Children Die As Fife Home Burns

GRAND FORKS — Funeral services will be held here Friday for three children who burned to death in a fire which swept their two-storey log home at Fife early Wednesday morning. Fife is 16 miles northeast of here, near Christina Lake.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mix—Linda, four; Roger, seven and Davina 10, lost their lives.

In Grand Forks Community Hospital is the children's mother, age 30, with extensive burns on her back, her arms, face and right foot. Her youngest daughter, 16-month-old Louise, is also in hospital with burns on her right leg and left thigh.

Mr. Mix was at Nelson, where he is employed by Canadian Pacific Railway.

Mrs. Mix was able to rescue Louise, and her 11-year-old son Ralph. Two other sons, Rodney, 14, and Ronald 18, were away from home at the time.

The fire is believed to have started on the ground floor shortly after midnight and took only a few minutes to engulf the 50-year-old home. Mrs. Mix and the children were sleeping upstairs at the time it broke out. Their home was destroyed in about half an hour.

Mrs. Mix and Louise were taken to hospital by Rico Maccocchi shortly after they escaped from the house.

Owner of the house was Mrs. O. Fornelli, 417 Second Street, Nelson.

Services were held from Manly and Miller Funeral Chapel, and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

70 Guests Enjoy Kaslo Graduation Banquet, Dance

KASLO — The annual High School graduation banquet was held in the school auditorium when over 70 guests enjoyed a delicious supper served by the Parent-Teachers Association with Mrs. G. Armstrong as convener.

The hall was beautifully decorated in school colors of yellow and green, with baskets of cut flowers on the stage. The table decorations carried the same color scheme. An interesting program was conducted by Ted Carpenter, President of the Students Council, as chairman. Grace was offered by Rev. Father Berigan and supper then served. The toast to the Queen was given by Harumi Shinmoto.

Mayor W V. Drayton extended greetings from the City of Kaslo, and Principal G. J. Dickson proposed a toast to the graduates. A gift was presented to Mr. Dickson from the graduates. A duet by D. Kay and D. Bruce accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Halleran received hearty applause.

A toast to the School Board of Trustees was offered by James Garrett and responded to by Trustee R. Gilker in the absence of Chairman J. Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Yoxall then entertained the party, accompanied by Mrs. Halleran. Elaine Gaskell offered a toast to the teachers to which Mr. D. Kay replied.

The guest speaker of the evening was Dr. A. M. Barrera.

A dance followed the banquet with over 150 in attendance. Several novelty dances were enjoyed when prizes were awarded to Jack Leighton, Gloria Greensword and Jim MacFadden; Miss Csepe and W. V. Drayton, Jeanette Cousins and James Garrett, and Miss Csepe and Buck Higashi.

The graduation girls, looking lovely in floor-length formal gowns in pastel shades, were Miss Betty Aldous, Miss Eleaine Gasekll, Miss Barbara Gripich of Lardeau and Harumi Shinmoto.

Boys graduating were Ted Carpenter, James Garrett, Donald Bedwell, Tadashi Kitagawa and Frank Tyers.

DIPLOMAS GIVEN AT PICNIC

KASLO — St. Mark's Anglican Church Sunday School was entertained at a picnic in Vimy Park, under the supervision of Rev. W. S. Beamer and Sunday School teachers, Mrs. W. F. Tyers and the Misses Janice Gilker, Kay Cunningham, Mary Ann Murphy, Miss Grace Pye and Patricia Armstrong.

The program opened with a peanut scramble for kiddies of six years and under, followed by a general peanut scramble.

There were straight races, pebble races nad sack races after which a luncheon was served by Mrs. M. C. Murphy and Mrs. W. J. D. Walker of the Church Guild, which included ice cream and pop.

Diplomas were presented to all pupils who had completed the catechism prescribed. The successful party ended with a tug-o'-war.

Built By Volunteers, New Warfield Hall Will Be Centre of Recreation

By LOUIS FRYLING

A community recreational centre in the heart of the Village of Warfield, a dream of many years, is about to become a practical reality.

"Is it true that your plans include a swimming pool?"

Ron Service, president of the Warfield Recreational Society, flashed a smile of deep satisfaction and pleasure as he answered the question. "We intend to start on the pool next year. Dressing room provision is being made in the basement of the hall. The community hall will serve as a hub for our recreational centre. The equipment for those tennis courts over there will be stored in the basement during winter months during which time the courts will be converted into a skating rink. Provision for lighting has been made and will be extended from the hall. Change and rest rooms will be in the basement.

Passing through the main floor entrance, the foyer of which included checking, ticket-taking facilities and refreshment booth, we found ourselves in the main hall, with a floor area of about 30 by 60 feet. A stairway led down to the basement floor which will provide quarters for a caretaker, dressing rooms, washroom facilities, committee room and furnace area.

"We are going to make an all-out effort this Summer," said Ron, "and expect to have the hall in operation by Fall. Work was started on it last year. For many years the people here have hoped to have their own community hall, but they now have much more than that.

"Here you see the building which will serve as a hub for our recreational centre and will provide the facilities and conveniences that go to make such outdoor sports as swimming, tennis and skating practical and enjoyable."

The Warfield Community Hall is being built by voluntary labor under the sponsorship and with financial assistance from the Trail and District Recreational Projects Society. Its value will be approximately $50,000.

E. Soligo has volunteered to do the stuccoing; F. Collingwood is looking after electrical work and A. Turner will be responsible for plumbing.

MRS. DERBYSHIRE BLUEBELL PTA PRESIDENT

RIONDEL — A new slate of officers was elected by the Bluebell Parent-Teacher Association. New president is Mrs. Nancy Derbyshire, with Mrs. Lila Taylor becoming past president. Vic Gendion is vice-president, Mrs. Ken Munro, secretary; Randy Louer, treasurer; Mrs. Phil Louer, program; Mrs. M. Gendion, publicity; Mrs. Dot Schultz, membership; Mrs. Frank Dawning, social; Gordon Hurry, ways and means; and H. Dobbs, community influence.

The bylaws were read and accepted. The secretary read the letter which accompanied the long overdue charter.

J. G. B. Swigart Is Laid to Rest

NAKUSP—Funeral service for J. G. Blaine Swigart of Nakusp was held from the United Church. Rev. D. R. Stone was in charge of the service and interment followed in Nakusp Cemetery. Pallbearers were Graham Elder, Staff Wells, George Battershall, Emil Newbrand, John Grigg and J. W. Bailey.

Mr. Swigart died in hospital after being an inmate for about a week. He had been in ill health for about a month.

Born in Logansville, Ind., Aug. 21 1885, he was nearly 69 years old. Before coming to Nakusp in 1950 to set up a poultry farm on the F. Fellows farm, he had been a grain buyer for the Alberta Wheat Pool for 20 years, residing at Wetaskiwin, Alta. Previous to that time he had been a farmer at Nightingale, Alta., for 35 years. He had come to Alberta in 1907 and was joined two years later by his wife, the late Hattie Kline. Mrs. Swigart predeceased him at Nakusp two years ago.

He is survived by one daughter, Bernice, at Nakusp; three sons, Leonard of North Vancouver; John of Three Hills, Alta.; Robert of Nakusp and four grandchildren.

Rev. and Mrs. Stone Honored at Final Service

ARROW PARK—Rev. D .R. Stone who is leaving for East Trail, gave a farewell address to the people of the Arrow Park congregation. At his final service, he christened the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Carleton. Mr. Gibson was accepted on profession of faith.

At the close of the services, Mr. Duckworth, on behalf of the Arrow Park and Grahams Landing people presented Mr. and Mrs. Stone with two blankets as a token of their love and esteem. Mrs. Stone asked all present to sign the farewell card which accompanied the gift.

Bonnington Pupils Enjoy Weiner Roast

BONNINGTON — The parents and children of Bonnington School celebrated the close of the term with a bonfire party and weiner roast. Hot dogs, marshmallows and lemonade were enjoyed by all.

Highlight of the evening was a softball game when Corra Lynn triumphed over Bonnington. The evening closed with coffee and cake for the parents and ice cream for the children.

The party was sponsored by the local PTA under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. MacDonald.

Minister Has Bridge Message For Castlegar

Reason why the building of a West Arm bridge has become a certainty while a bridge at Castlegar has not been agreed upon by the Provincial Government was given by Public Works Minister Hon. P. A. Gagliardi when in the district this week.

Mr. Gaglardi explained that the proposed West Arm bridge is to be a toll bridge and that fact is "the only reason" its construction has been okayed so soon. The government would like all bridges to be free ones, but cannot meet that wish financially. A toll bridge is "no drain on the department," the Minister explained. West Arm bridge at Nelson has been authorized "because of the way they went for it," he concluded, referring to the two surveys conducted in 1951 and 1953 that indicated heavy public approval for a toll bridge.

Authorizing of building of the West Arm bridge did not mean that it was being given priority over the Castlegar bridge or any other, he said. The need for the bridge was established and the readiness of the people to support it had been received.

While Mr. Gaglardi did not definitely advise the Castlegar area to take steps similar to those taken by Nelson area, he did imply that they do so.

These remarks were included in an address by the Minister to the Nelson Chamber of Commerce.

Jumbo Pass Reconnaissance May Start August

INVERMERE — A top location man to make a reconnaissance survey of the Jumbo Pass in the Purcell's has been promised by Hon. P. A. Gaglardi in a letter to R. O. Newton, MLA for Columbia Riding.

Windermere District Board of Trade members feel that if the pass is given a fair survey in comparison with other proposed routes for the Trans-Canada they will be content to have it stand or fall on its own merits.

The Jumbo Pass has a number of advantages, among them being a shorter distance, lesser snowfall and easier terrain except for one short area near the summit.

The location man will be in the district the first week in August.

Communication Men's Visit Recalls Service of Late Walter Clough

SLOCAN CITY—The CPT hasn't forgotten a colorful troubleshooter on Slocan Lake of some years back.

Walter Clough with his little tug became known the length of the Slocan Lake for his ability to find the trouble spot in the CP telegraph wires. Before the Slocan-New Denver road was built and after, he travelled through snow, rain and wind, in summer and winter when called to fix a line, and the CPT maintains he didn't let them down.

He became known to boatmen on the SS Slocan and later SS Rosebery who would watch for him fixing wires along the lake shore and, either lend a hand or give him a lift back home, whichever he needed most. Once he was picked up by a boat crew nearly drowned when a squall came out of nowhere but it didn't dampen his enthusiasm and he held his job until retirement when he bought a farm at Slocan City.

He retired about ten years ago and died a year or so later but Communication Superintendent P. G. McLean of Winnipeg hasn't forgotten the jovial troubleshooter.

Mr. McLean returned to Slocan this week with District Inspector C. W. Bailey and agent Harold Lupton to visit the old-timer's wife, Mrs. Ada Clough, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cooper.

Rotary Year's Projects Finished

NAKUSP—At Rotary Club, Don Pye, retiring president, said projects of the year were now finished. They included series of five-minute talks by members on countries of the world; $100 donation to junior ball club and the annual district picnic.

The meeting decided to wire the Portland club, asking them to have their sick visiting committee visit Garth Morehouse, who will undergo an operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

A letter and circular from the Rotary Club of Wilmslow, Alderley Edge, Cheshire, England, was read by the president. On June 1st they drank a toast to the Nakusp Club and wished members of the club success and good health. They also sent a card signed by all 25 members and a visitor.

In the attendance contest, Nakusp tied for seventh place with Castlegar, with an attendance of 94 per cent.

B. M. Donaldson of Nelson of the B. C. Hospital Insurance Commission, was a guest.

Watch For Children

The holiday season gives children greater freedom to roam and throws greater responsibility on drivers. Motorists will need to exercise care to avoid hurting children on streets and roads.

Student patrols keep a fairly firm hand on children's pedestrian habits during the school term, but for the next two months the youngster will not be confined to cross-walks.

Playground activity will also increase, and with school yards more and more becoming play centres as established recreation fields overflow, drivers are called on to make allowance for greater youthful activity and exuberance that goes with the holiday season.

The Men Who Give Government Continuity

At least five deputy ministers will leave the British Columbia government service this year and eight others will retire within the next five years.

By a coincidence without parallel in B. C. history, almost all the top administrative officials will reach retirement age of 65 at almost the same time.

Only three are slated to last beyond five years, but in all other departments Social Credit has got or will get new deputies to carry out its policies.

Deputy ministers who will be retired this year are Charles Hopper, lands; E. W. Griffith, welfare; B. C. Bracewell, municipalities; H. W. H. Robertson, agriculture, and E. G. Rowebottom, trade and industry.

Scheduled to reach retirement age within the next five years are Col. Eric Pepler, Attorney General; J. V. Fisher, finance; Evan Jones, public works; J. F. Walker, mines; R. A. Pennington, Provincial Secretary; Dr. C. D. Orchard, forests; George J. Alexander, fisheries, and H. L. Campbell, education.

Only three under 60 are Dr. G. F. Amyot, health; William Sands, labor, and J. S. Broadbent, railways. Mr. Broadbent, appointed in April this year, is the youngest of all deputies at 37. Mr. Hopper, who will leave in July, has the longest service with the government. He began as a messenger 51 years ago in the premier's office, and transferred to the Lands and Works department in 1905.

Both Mr. Griffith and Mr. Robertson, who has already retired, worked for the government for 42 years. Mr. Rowebottom came into the government as deputy 21 years ago. Mr. Bracewell, who has had long service in municipal work, is a relative newcomer. He's only been with the civil service for 16 years.

The deputy ministers are vital cogs in the machinery of government. They are the practical men who give continuity to the operation of various departments while the cabinet ministers may come and go depending upon their fate at elections. They are advisers to the ministers, and in every particular valuable men to the ministers and to the taxpayers they serve.

Fire Fighting In Suburbs

City Council, in its wisdom, has decided that Toronto fire-fighting apparatus will not be sent into any suburb unless that suburb has agreed to pay the city $250 for the first hour, and $200 for each succeeding hour, that each piece of equipment is needed. This forthright stand should teach the suburbs not to have fires they cannot control with their own fire-engines. It may also be the means of persuading the suburbs to bring their fire-fighting services more nearly to the Toronto standard.

Or it may, more likely, result in a series of mutual aid agreements between the suburbs. It will not, however, tend to produce peace, harmony and good-will between the city and the suburbs in the course of their dealings with each other in the Metropolitan Corporation. The more belligerent members of City Council brushed aside recommendations that there should be consultations with the Metropolitan Council before any final (and possibly inflammatory) decision was made.

There are many neighborhoods in the suburbs that are as closely built and as densely populated as their adjacent neighborhoods in the city, and they should have the same standards of fire protection. The speediest method of providing uniform standards of fire protection in the metropolitan area would be amalgamation of the existing fire departments, and this is the end toward which the Metropolitan Corporation should be working. When it is achieved, there will be no quibbling about sending the most efficient piece of apparatus to a fire. And the fire hazards of municipal debate—belligerence, recrimination and vituperation—will be appreciably reduced at the same time.—Toronto Globe and Mail.

Life in Ottawa

Mr. HANSELL: "I have a book here that I bought at the newsstand because the title was quite an innocent title and rather intrigued me. I thought there might be something in there of some educational value. I am not going to mention the name of the book, because I would only advertise it.

"I am going to pass this book over to the minister. I have put a little slip of paper in one page, and have marked an 'X' against one particular paragraph I want the minister (Mr. Garson) to read. I dare not read, Mr. Chairman. I do not want the minister to get up and read it out aloud. I just want him to look at that one paragraph. Hon. members can watch the expression on the minister's face to see whether or not he thinks—"

Mr. NESBITT: "It is not fair to let just the minister see it."

Mr. HANSELL: "Well, you can borrow it from the minister afterwards, if you wish. I think we have paused long enough for the minister to read that paragraph."

Mr. FLEMING: "He has read it three times now."

The CHAIRMAN: "I am wondering whether or not the rules of the House are being transgressed."

—From the Commons Hansard.

Competition Needed

Canada has saddled itself with a high-cost economy to match a standard of living for higher than the size of its population warrants. This has been all very nice during the period when anybody could sell anything for any price. But times are changing, even if it cannot be said that they are exactly normal, and there is more genuine competition in industry now than at any time since the war. Canadian industry is not in a good condition to compete.

Hardly anybody who buys anything in Canada needs to be told that Canadian prices, especially on manufactured goods, are too high. It is the general belief that this is because production costs and mark-ups are too high, and the people on both sides of this picture might take a good hard look at it all if they are interested in the continued survival of Canadian industry.

We would like to see Canadian goods competitive abroad. But for a start, we would like to see them competitive even at home.

—Calgary Herald.

Senate Hansard

Hon. Mr. Euler: "Honorable senators, perhaps it is hardly worth while for me to say what I'm about to say."

Hon. Mr. Crerar: "Hear, hear."

Hon. Mr. Euler: "I may say to my friend from Churchill (Hon. Mr. Crerar) that the feeling is entirely mutual."

J. T., Trail—Where can I buy "ice-box flowers"?

Mrs. McMullin, 2145 Riverside Avenue, Trail, makes these for sale.

T. T., Natal—I have a pup tent, and due to use, folding and unfolding, the coating is worn and cracked. I wonder if there is some coating that I can apply to make this tent waterproof again? I do not think the material is oiled silk, but it is somewhat similar.

Most hardware stores sell a liquid waterproof that is effective on clothing, tents, materials and other fabrics.

Mrs. A., Trail—I would like address of Wearever sales people—I mean those who give demonstrations in homes, not in stores.

J. S. Schleppe, 2059 Sixth Avenue, Trail, is your nearest Wearever representative.

W. F. V., Nelson—I would like to chrome pieces of metal on my car. Would you tell me how to make chromium and how to apply it?

One requires special training to do this kind of work. It is not done in this district. Send the pieces to the Cascade Plating Works, Vancouver, who will do the job for you at a reasonable rate.

K. S., Kaslo—Can you please tell me where—preferably in B. C.—I may obtain sport catalogues featuring baseball gloves of the following companies; Wilson, Nokona, Rawlings, MacGregor?

Harold Wilson Company, 299 Yonge Street, is the only address we have been able to obtain. Can other readers help?

Interested, Nelson—Please print recipe for potato cake.

One egg, two tablespoons butter or other fat, half teaspoon salt, quarter teaspoon paprika, two tablespoons chopped mint leaves, two cups hot riced potatoes, sifted breadcrumbs. Add egg yolk, butter, seasonings and mint to potatoes. Shape into cakes, dip into slightly beaten egg white, which has been diluted with two tablespoons water, roll in crumbs and fry in deep fat until brown.

Joe and Nye

(Hamilton Spectator)

Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin and Aneurin Bevan of Wales, the reactionary and the radical, look about as antithetic as men could be. They detest each other. And yet if you consider them dispassionately they have a remarkable lot in common. Both are men of overwhelming ambition; both are ruthless in pursuit of that ambition; both are cynics; both have exploited the discovery that if you sling enough mud some of it will stick; there is fundametally no difference between McCarthy smearing the Democrats as "the party of treason" and Bevan branding the Conservatives as "the war party".

Each is today openly striving for the leadership of his party and, through it, of his country. It is possible to work up a particularly nasty nightmare just by visualizing a world in which both have succeeded.

Historian, Nelson and District Oldtimers Association

Mrs. J. A. Gilker, who died at her home in Nelson Monday, was highly respected by pioneers of the Kootenay.

I first met her at the Phair Hotel, now known as the Strathcona Hotel.

It was April, 1893, just over 61 years ago. The last time we had a chat was at the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wasson's golden wedding anniversary where I met a few of the pioneers whom I knew as babies and who are now men and women.

Mrs. Gilker was very kind to the young green Englishman who came in contact with the late E. Phair with whom I was a friend until his demise.

I was in the humble capacity of second chef and owing to the silver panic of 1893 I graduatetd as a dishwasher which was a tough job owing to the scarcety of hot water.

One day I was sweeping the pantry and Miss Walker (Mrs. Gilker) remarked, "A good sweep is almost as good as a scrubbing." In the course of my sweeping I found a valuable ring, I told Miss Walker and she answered, "Let me see it." I said, "please describe it first." She did and I handed her the ring.

The lady was very grateful for it was her engagement ring that she had lost and in a short time she was married to J. A. Gilker, postmaster and merchant of Nelson, also one of the first aldermen when the first mayors were elected. Years later when her late husband was ill, I visited him and we chatted about the old days. Mrs. Gilker was within hearing and later told me she enjoyed the conversation very much. Said she, "It was one of the best and brought pleasure to my husband."

Mrs. Gilker lived a long life, four-score years and seven and one may quote "well done thou good and faithful servant."

Moncton Choir Leads Winners

WINNIPEG (CP) — The annual Federation of Canadian Music Festivals has selected choirs from Moncton, N. B. and Winnipeg as the top junior and senior choral groups in the Dominion for 1954.

Richard W. Cooke, secretary of the Manitoba and Canadian Associations said the four British adjudicators had awarded the Lincoln trophy for the best performance by an adult choral group to College Notre Dame d' Acadie of Moncton.

It is the second consecutive year that the Moncton choir has captured the trophy and the third time in the last five years that the award has gone to New Brunswick.

The Daniel McIntyre Collegiate girls' choir captured the George Mathieson trophy as the top Canadian junior school choir.

The English adjudicators, who toured Canada a few months ago judging various Canadian singing groups, were the late Frank Odell, Ronald Biggs, Guy Johnson and Jan Van Der Guchet.

The winners are not announced until the annual sessions of the FCMF.

Sommers Interested In Columbia Dam

VICTORIA (CP) — An agreement to discourage the Kaiser-Aluminum Co., to explore the possibilities of building a dam on the Columbia river in B. C., now is being prepared, states Lands Minister R. E. Sommers.

The U. S. firm is "very anxious" to construct a power dam in Canada to supply electricity to a plant on the American side of the border, the minister said.

CHAPTER III

The day was Saturday, and it was shortly past nine o'clock in the morning. My watch told me the time. The calendar on the wall outside my cell told me the other. My head felt as though it had been worked over thoroughly with a riveting machine.

I sat up on the hard metal bunk. My clothes looked as if I had slept in them. I had. How many hours? Well, it was sometime around midnight when Tony Valenti had had explained to me how he didn't like Velma going out with strange men. After that he must have called the police and given them a tale of woe. He must be the town's leading citizen to get such fine service.

There was an interlude—it came back to me hazily—when I had awakened for a moment some time after Valenti had sapped me. Someone had given me a glass of water. It was George, the dull-eyed bruiser with the bashed-in face. He'd slipped me a mild Mickey, to keep me quiet for a few hours.

"How's it?" said the voice casually. A cop was standing outside the bars. He was hatless, so he was probably the jailer.

I said, "Can the condemned have a cup of coffee before they go to the gallows?"

"Sure, pal," he said. He went away.

I sat there trying to figure out why I was in jail. Tony Valenti, of course, was the man Louella had so accurately described. Valenti was, in her opinion, one of the last persons to see her husband before Dave Townley had disappeared. She'd mentioned an argument about gambling. Velma herself had said that Townley came there often. There must be some connection between Valenti and Townley's disappearance. Yet Valenti had not known that I was connected in any way with Townley. The gambler didn't even know me. Certainly he wouldn't have stuck his neck out by having me thrown in the local jail.

The jailer came back with a thick white mug of coffee. He held it in through the bars. I took the cup and sipped the hot fluid. It was strong enough to eat its way through leather. But that was all right. At least I could taste it. I eyed the jailer as I drank.

"What happened?"

The man shook his head sadly. "Pal, you get yourself involved. You slug a cop. You break our speed laws. You drive while drunk. You disturb the peace. You try assault and battery on a leading citizen—"

"How about spitting on the sidewalk?"

"Now you're just kidding me, pal."

"I was just kidding when I did all those things they charge me with. Or maybe I was walking and driving in my sleep."

"Unh-unh. We got some witnesses."

"So that's the way it is, copper." He nodded. "That's the way it is."

"When do I come up for trial?"

I drained the mug and handed it back to him. He said, "Soon's the chief comes down to the office, he'll talk to you."

"Does he bother to come down before lunch?"

"Usually about ten."

I sat down and waited.

It was 10:30 when the jailer finally took me upstairs. He led the way as far as a heavy oak door on which was lettered neatly in gold:

"Wm. B. Bots." Underneath this: "Chief of Police."

"You go right in," he said.

The chief was seated behind a big desk across the big airy room. He was a fat man, looking well-fed and well-kept behind the wide desk. He was a little bald.

I was halfway across the big room when I knew I had seen him before, just a few hours ago. The unruffled fellow who had sat in Tony Valenti's office and calmly fixed his fingernails while the boys worked me over.

"Feel better?" His eyes went back to finish some item in the paper, then he laid the paper aside, placing it neatly on a corner of the large desk. He looked at me again. We studied each other without making any fuss about it.

"How much bail do I have to raise?" I asked.

He waved a soft hand, as if such matters were trivial. "It might not be necessary. Tell me, sir, why are you here in town?"

I wondered if he was needling me. Obviously Tony Valenti was paying plenty for protection, and the chief was just a guy who took the orders.

I shrugged. "Just picking up old threads," I told him. "I haven't visited here in several years."

He smiled softly. "Of course. You were in the service, were you not, sir?"

So they'd gone through my wallet while I was temporarily out of circulation. I nodded.

"We have some pretty serious charges against you, sir. But I've considered your war record. That photostat of your discharge papers, you know." He studied his fingernails to make certain they needed no further trimming. "We're not going to hold you. We will say that last night's incident was—ah—the result of a little misunderstanding."

Strike Averted at Portland Shipyard

PORTLAND (AP) — A strike-averting agreement for 14,000 West Coast shipyard workers was announced here by Thomas A. Rotell, San Francisco, secretary of the AFL Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council.

After Rotell announced the agreement had been reached, negotiators went back into a night session to work out final, written details.

B. C. Goes Ahead On Assessment

VICTORIA (CP)—The provincial government has rejected appeals that it delay introducing equalized assessments for one year.

Passed at the fall session of the legislature, the assessment will make industrial and commercial machinery, land, and buildings taxable for school purposes.

Business men and industrialists associated with the Vancouver Board of Trade had asked for postponement to avoid discrimination in preparing the new assessment roll by the end of the year. They said six months did not allow enough time to switch from the old to the new.

"We need the new assessment for the new school formula," said Premier Bennett. "It would also be very unfair to the homeowner to delay."

For 1955, assessors will value machinery, land and structures at not less than 50 per cent of the 1953 replacement cost.

Bride Wears Mother's 30-Year-Old Wedding Gift From the Groom

ROSSLAND — Sacred Heart Church in Rossland was the scene of a pretty wedding when Msgr. A. K. McIntyre united in marriage Mary Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. MacIntyre and John Daniel, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown. The senior choir was in attendance, while Dr. R. Bourchier presided at the organ.

Given in marriage by Thomas Stevens, the bride chose for her wedding a waltz-length gown of ice-white nylon net over taffeta, with fitted lace bodice, sweetheart neckline and petit point sleeves featuring a scalloped cap-sleeve of lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Dutch cap effect cornet, banded with seed pearls. For jewelry she wore a pendant, which her mother had received from her father on their wedding day 30 years earlier and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. E. J. Watkinson, matron of honor and Miss Kathleen Brown bridemaid, chose identically styled gowns of daffodil yellow and pale blue respectively. These featured a double net skirt over taffeta with strapless lace bodice topped by bolero type jackets with three-quarter length sleeves and tiny stand-up collars. They wore coronets with embroidered ruffles to match their costumes, and carried fan-shaped bouquets of sweetheart roses, marguerites and sweet peas.

C. Lester Brown officiated as best man, with Eugene K. Brown and Gordon Borkes as ushers.

150 GUESTS

The reception was held at the Oddfellow's hall where the young couple were assisted in receiving the 150 guests by the bride's mother and the groom's parents.

Mrs. MacIntyre chose for the occasion on afternoon dress of Bemberg crepe over tafefta in delphinium blue tones, with white accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Brown wore a dress of delft blue crepe featuring lace sleeves and lace inserts in the skirt, with white accessories, while en corsage she wore sweetheart roses.

The bride's table was centred with a beautiful bouquet of flowers in a silver bowl flanked by four white tapers in silver sconces. The three-tier wedding cake, topped with triple wedding bells and tiny swans and surrounded by yellow rosebuds and a white trellis fence graced a separate table. The white linen cloth covering the tea table, formerly belong to the bride's great grandmother.

Assisting as serviteurs were Miss Shirley Michaely, Miss Nina Leonarduzzi, Mrs. A. Chapdelaine, Miss Jean Donaldson, Miss Ruth Eek, Miss Marilyn Turner, Miss Sheila Singer, and Mrs. R. Hancock. The cake was cut by Mrs. F. J. Thompson, while Mrs. Thomas Stevens and Mrs. Ethel Turner poured. D. A. McCoy of Edmonton proposed the toast to the bride.

The newlyweds left on a motor trip to California, for which the bride changed into navy wool gabardine suit, with jewel trim and navy and white accessories, while her corsage was of white gladioli and pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Rossland on their return.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McCoy and Mrs. J. Kirker of Edmonton, Mrs. P. Head of Dishman, Wash., Mrs. Earl Perdue of Cashmere, Wash. and Mrs. W. D. Willson of Vancouver.

The Doctor . . . Many Goiters Not Poisonous

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

A swelling of the neck in adults is not always a sign of mumps or cancer. When the thyroid gland, situated in the neck, becomes enlarged, it is known as a goiter.

Many goiters are quite unsightly, because the neck becomes swollen and the gland protrudes. However, the majority of goiters are not poisonous, or toxic, to the system.

VICTIM IS NERVOUS

The thyroid gland gives off a hormone that regulates the speed of the normal body processes. When there is too much thyroid secretion, the person becomes nervous, has a rapid pulse, eats excessively, has a great loss of weight and may even have an extreme bulging of the eyes. However, it is the rare goiter that will cause these disturbances.

The common goiter may only cause disturbance, for the most part, by its unsightly appearance, and by the fact that the enlargement may encroach upon the other tissues.

IODINE USED

It has been found that many of these enlargements do not have to be removed surgically, but will respond to the simple medication of iodine, given by mouth under a physician's direction. A metabolism test may well be made in all goiter cases which will help determine whether or not the goiter is a toxic one.

Giving the thyroid hormone by mouth also decreases the amount that the gland must produce. Therefore, the size of the gland is decreased and the goiter situation eliminated.

This treatment was effective in a great many cases, no matter what the age of the patient and the duration of the goiter. However, a physician would be the best judge of whether this treatment would be of value in any particular case. Some of the cases that do not respond to this method must be treated surgically.

Community Shower for Procter Couple

PROCTER—Nearly a hundred residents attended the pre-nuptial miscellaneous community shower for Miss Rose Renzie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Renzie, and James Donaldson, only son of B. Donaldson and the late Mrs. Donaldson. The event followed the now traditional pattern of a military whist drive followed by the presentation of gifts, lunch and dancing. This is the seventh shower in the past year and the fourth in which both the bride-to-be and the groom-elect were both Procterites. Miss Renzie has lived here all her life and her fiance came here at an early age.

The shower was planned and arranged by Mrs. Jack MacLeod, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Mrs. C. A. Brady, Mrs. F. Bonacci and Mrs. J. Dvorak. C. Fergusen was master of ceremonies and players at the winning table with the flags of 'Nakusp' were Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutherland of Nelson, Miss Rose Renzie and J. Donaldson.

After cards, lunch was served and the guests of honor sat with relatives at the head table which was decorated in pink and white and centered with twin heart-shaped cakes frosted in white and dotted with tiny pink candy roses. One bore the name ROSE and the other JIM in pink icing.

B. J. Fitchett introduced the young couple whose marriage is announced for early July. He presented the gifts that were brought in piled in a high decorated wagon flanked by four little girls, Susan Bonacci, Beth Ogden, Rosaleen Solecki and Peggy Ferguson. The packages were opened and put on display on the stage which was beautifully decorated with vases of lupins, phlox and larkspur in pastel mauves and pinks. Pink fluted crepe paper along the edge and white bridal wreath of spires formed a border to make a lovely setting for the gifts.

Procter Notes

PROCTER—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Whybark of Corvallis, Ore., have returned to the U. S. after visiting Mrs. Whybark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grant. Their daughter, Miss Vivian Whybark, will spend part of her summer vacation with ther grandparents, and will accompany them on a trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Martinelli of Natal spent five days in Procter, guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. Persello. Mrs. Martinelli and Mrs. Persello are sisters.

Newlyweds Return to Rossland in the Fall

ROSSLAND—St. George's Anglican Church in Rossland, decorated with baskets of white peonies, bridal wreath and pink pyrethrum, was the setting chosen for the marriage of Shirley Marcon, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Desmond Crowder, 2555 LeRoi Ave., Rossland and Rev. Lawrence Dudley Ritchie of Sorrento, B. C., son of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Ritchie of "Brome Woods", Knowlton, P.Q. White satin bows centred with pink nosegays marked the guest pews for the occasion. Rt. Rev. F. P. Clark, Lord Bishop of Kootenay, performed the ceremony, with Mrs. W. Inkster presiding at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a floor-length nylon marquisette gown, slightly en train, originally designed by Samuel Sherkin, delicately cut and embroidered with bateau neckline and close-fitting bodice. The yards of filmy skirt, posed over crinoline, fell into graceful folds. Her chapel length French illusion veil was held in place by a satin banded headdress, embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer-book under a cascading bouquet of baby white orchids and lily of the valley. Her only jewelry was a pearl bracelet with a rhinestone clasp, the gift of the groom.

Miss Betty Crowder, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, Mrs. William Gregorak as brides matron and Miss Monica Langley of Vancouver as bridesmaid were gowned in floor-length dresses of crisp white organdy, finely detailed and fashioned to complement the bride's gown, with appliqued daisies outlining the bateau necklines.

Completing their costumes, the attendants wore braids of white organdy, dotted with seed pearls, white daisy earrings, the gift of the bride, and they carried cascade bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Fred N. Ritchie of Montreal, brother of the groom officiated as groomsman, whiel Dr. William Gregorak and Colin Turner acted as ushers.

A reception for about 100 people was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bridal couple's parents assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. Crowder chose for the occasion a black and white linen dress with white picture hat and white accessories, and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Ritchie was frocked in a cinnamon-colored afternoon dress of noisette sheer with matching floral hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride's table, covered with a white Chinese embroidered cloth, was centred with a gladioli floral arrangement, flanked by white tapers in silver sconces. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature vase of lily of the valley, gracing a separate table, where it was embedded in white tulle on a white cut-work cloth.

Pourers were Mrs. J. E. Barrett, Mrs. J. W. Young and Mrs. Hugh Tooker of Calgary, Ed Barrett proposed the toast to the bride.

For her honeymoon trip through the northern States, the bride changed to a printed white linen dress, topped by a lime linen duster coat, and a small white hat, white accessories and a baby orchid corsage.

Rev. and Mrs. Ritchie will spend the summer at Sorrento, and will take up residence in Rossland in the fall.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Col. and Mrs. C. F. Ritchie and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ritchie of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Patton of Aberdeen, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Holden of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tooker of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Parsons of Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bertram and Mrs. K. Briscall of Oliver.

Grant B. C. Fruit Company Right To Appeal Excess Profits Taxes

OTTAWA (CP)—Mr. Justice J. T. Thorson, president of the Exchequer Court ruled that Canadian Fruit Distributors Ltd. of British Columbia cannot be assessed for incom or excess profits taxes for the 1947 and 1948 taxation years.

The ruling is contained in a judgment granting an appeal by the company against a decision of the income or excess profits taxes for board previously upheld a decision of the revenue department ordering the company to pay income and excess profits taxes for the two years.

The department assessed the company for income and excess profits taxes on an income of $6218 for 1947 and $34,393 for 1948. However, Mr. Justice Thorson ruled the company had no income subject to tax for the two years.

Canadian Fruit Distributors Ltd. is a subsidiary of B. C. Tree Fruits Ltd., a non-profit central selling agency composed of fruit growers in the Okanagan and Kootenay valleys. It acts as a broker for the sale of British Columbia fruit and fruit from other sources, including the United States.

NO PROFIT

The judgment said the revenue department did not suggest the company should be taxed on income received from B. C. Tree Fruits Ltd. However, the company was held liable to tax on the net income it received from outside business.

Mr. Justice Thorson ruled an agreement between the companies provided that tax could only be applied if its receipts rom outside business exceeded its operating expenses. He said that in 1947 and 1948 receipts exactly equalled the company's operating expenses leaving it with no net income for the year.

Mr. Justice Thorson said the company subimtted that "in each of the years for which it was assessed it had no taxable income but broke exactly even in its operations neither sustaining a loss nor making a profit. I have come to the conclusion that this submission is well-founded and that the assessments appealed against cannot stand."

BANFF, Alta. (CP)—The Canadian Rockies will again be invaded by Hollywood movie-makers this summer, without the highly-publicized stare. This year the animals of the surrounding territory will star in a wild-life film to be produced by the Disney organization.

Division Engineer Moved to Calgary

VANCOUVER — R. H. Swanson, division engineer for the Canadian Pacific Railway here since 1951, has been appointed assistant district engineer for the company at Calgary, it was announced.

Mr. Swanson, who commenced his service with the CPA at Phippen, Sask., as a sectionman in 1934, is the son of August Swanson, who retired from the post of roadmaster for the railway company at Fort William this year. He is a veteran of World War II, and was division engineer for the railway at Regina for four years before being posted to Vancouver in 1951.

Eclipse Viewers Frustrated By Cloud Curtain

By JOHN LeBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MATTICE, Ont. (CP) — The heavens' most spectacular show—a full eclipse of the sun—played behind a curtain of cloud in northern Ontario.

Scientists planted along the early-morning path of darkness created by the moon crossing the sun saw nothing but the bottom of a low-hanging cloud layer blackened by the swing of the moon across the sun's face.

None of them—here and in two other spots along the line of totality in this area—found it worthwhile snapping a shutter of the huge cameras that had been set up to pick off shots of the sun in this first eclipse in nine years for Canada.

It was frustration for the sun-gazers—professional and amateur who had come here from all over Canada, from the United States and from South America.

PLANES CARRY OBSERVERS

Observers in two RCAF planes flying over northern Quebec had better success. A C-119 Flying Boxcar with three Ottawa reporters aboard, missed the shadow of total eclipse by about 40 miles but they saw the sun about 98 per cent blacked out.

The other plane, bearing scientists from the Dominion observatory, had even better luck.

Dr. P. M. Millman, chief of stellar physics at the observatory in Ottawa, was elated with the results.

Viewers along the 8000-mile eclipse path from Nebraska to northern India ran into varying luck. Many on both sides of the Iron Curtain saw nature's act in ideal weather. Others missed the show through dense cloud formations.

Abbotsford Camp for Western Air Cadets

ABBOTSFORD, B. C. (CP) — Some 2000 air cadets from all parts of Western Canada will attend the summer camp at the RCAF station here this month.

The first group of 1000 arrives this weekend. The cadets will undergo an extensive familiarization program, following a syllabus laid down by the RCAF.

Ranging in age from 14 to 18, the boys will be under constant supervision by their own squadron officers, under the command of Wing Cmdr. W. Leslie from No. 9 Wing, Edmonton.

Petrov Names Agents In Espionage Evidence Before Royal Commission

MELBOURNE (Reuters)—Vladimire Petrov told Australia's royal commission on espionage that every correspondent of the official Soviet news agency Tass abroad was an officer of the Russian secret police.

The former Russian diplomat was describing the workings of the far-flung Soviet spy network in his second appearance before the commission.

He first told the commission it was common practice for Tass men in foreign countries to be officers ofthe MVD (secret police). Under questioning he declared that the Tass correspondent in every country, including the agency's former representative in Australia, was an MDV officer. It is the Tass correspondent's job, he added, to make other journalists regard him as an ordinary newspaper man.

Petrov was third secretary of the Russian embassy in Canberra and head of the Soviet spy network in Australia when he sought political asylum here in April. His testimony dealt with many phases of Soviet intelligence activities, including those of the MGB—Soviet department dealing with political intelligence abroad.

Petrov revealed that a former military attache in Canberra named Zabotin had been sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment because he left the diplomatic service.

He said that the attache had been sent here with orders to mix with Latvian migrants and "plant" agents among people coming to Australia.

Petrov said a man named Kukin, formerly headed the London spy centre and another chief, Raina, was in charge of the atomic spying section. Both have since been removed from their posts, he said.

Speaking English in a soft, unemotional voice, Petrov described his own rise through the Soviet espionage hierarchy from his beginning as an uneducated peasant. He became secret police lieutenant colonel in charge of all Russian espionage in Australia, he said.

He denied Russian charges that he stole embassy funds as "filthy lie and a slander."

One Australian, newspaper man Rupert Lockwood, was named in the hearing as author of "Document J," a report said to have been written in the Russian embassy and allegedly containing criminally libelous reports on a number of Australians.

DOCTORS SAY LET CHILDREN KNOW

TORONTO (CP) — Children of unmarried mothers should be told of their illegitimacy as early as five years of age, Dr. H. M. Stark, president of the Dutch committee of social service, told social workers here.

If they know the facts before they start school, they are not so apt to be hurt by the unkind things other children may say to them," he said.

Speaking before a workshop of the international conference of social work, Dr. Stark said his country has an adoption system that places only 20 children a year because the government believes the best place for a child is with its mother, whether she is married or not. The majority of the two or three thousand girls in The Netherlands who have illegitimate babies each year do keep them, he said.

Canadians in London Celebrate Dominion Day With Pomp and Gaiety

By RON EVANS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Canadian citizens and servicemen abroad celebrated their 87th national birthday Thursday with a rally, a reception and two formal dinners.

Biggest blowout was for members, dependents and guests of the 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade Group stationed at Soest, Germany.

More than 5000 troops and 2000 dependents gathered in a 40,000-seat stadium at Dortmund for an outdoor rally.

Square dances were performed by members of the Second Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry and a group of French-Canadian ex-lumberjacks from the Second Battalion, Royal 22nd Regiment staged a log-cutting display.

One hundred white stetsons, flown from Calgary for the occasion and specially prepared hot dogs, hamburgers and flap jacks added to the rally's home-grown atmosphere. Dana Wilgress, Canada's permanent delegate to the NATO council, was the guest of honor.

RECEPTION IN LONDON

In London, high commissioner Norman Robertson and Mrs. Robertson played host to visiting Canadians at a strawberries-and-cream reception in Canada House. All Canadian government offices were closed for the day.

Some 400 guests heard Peter Thorneycroft, president of the British Board of Trade, speak at a Canada Club dinner in the evening. Thorneycroft recently returned from a three-week tour of Canada.

The wives of five former governors-general of Canada were among 150 guests at a Canadian Woman's Club dinner. They were Viscountess Willingdon, Countess Bessborough, Lady Tweedsmuir, Countess Athlone and Countess Alexander. Countess Alexander is club chairman and Mrs. George Mosley of Montreal president.

Authorize Loan For PGE Work

VICTORIA (CP) — The Pacific Great Eastern Railway was authorized to borrow $400,000 for construction and other work.

It is the first loan of a $30,000,000 borrowing power granted the railway by the last session of the legislature.

Tenders for construction of the first seven miles of the 40-mile Squamish-Vancouver link of the railway will be called within a week, said Vice-President Einar Gunderson.

Premier Bennett said he still has had no word from Ottawa on his bid for a 50-50 split on costs of the extension. He said there has been "a great silence from Ottawa."

WIN WAGE HIKE

FERRARA, Italy (Reuters) — Italy's biggest and bitterest agricultural strike since the war ended Thursday night with victory for 120,000 farm hands as negotiations in Rome brought them substantial wage increases.

The result was considered a triumph for Communist party union organization among north Italy's farm workers, who had stopped work completely for a month and staged nuisance strikes for two months.

Fixed-rate workers will get a minimum increase of 21,000 lire (about $34) a year, and piece-worker an 11 lire (about five cents) hourly raise.

Farmers held out against wage increase demands for most of June while they watched their first hay crop go to waste, unharvested, and thousands of cattle lose weight.

Average wages for a farm laborer in Ferrara province before the increases were estimated at $168 a year. Most laborers work only about 120 days a year.

Astronomers Seek Answer to "Blue Clearing" on Planet Mars

By RENNIE TAYLOR

MOUNT HAMILTON, Calif. (AP) —Some of the astronomers who will train their telescopes on Mars tonight will try to find out whether the earth sometimes exerts a mysterious effect on the sunlight reaching that planet.

This new aspect of planetary research is disclosed in a leaflet published by the Astronomical Society of the Pacific. The leaflet was prepared by Dr. E. C. Slipher and A. G. Wilson of Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Normally, pictures of Mars taken with a blue filter do not show surface markings on the planet. Details do show up on pictures taken in red and yellow light.

But when Mars is near "opposition" as it is now, there is a mysterious "blue clearing," says Slipher, and the misty aspect of the planet in blue light disappears.

Since "opposition" in this case means that the earth is between Mars and the sun, astronomers are theorizing that maybe our planet has something to do with the phenomenon.

If the earth were big enough, this opposition would cause an eclipse on Mars. But the earth is too small for that. It does however, produce a long, thin cone of diffused light which does not dim the brilliance of the sun on Mars but probably interferes with the flow of solid particles from the sun to the neighbor planet.

These particles are protons, the cores of hydrogen atoms, and alpha particles, or the cores of helium atoms. Travelling at high speed they produce cosmic rays and sometimes other curious effect on earth, for example, the northern lights.

Possibly it is the blocking effect of the earth on these particles that produces the "blue clearing."

At least 18 observatories in 10 different countries will be turning their big instruments on Mars, and some of them will be seeking information on the "blue clearing."

NEW TECHNIQUES

With new photo techniques developed since the last close approach of the red planet, other observatories will seek to settle the mystery of the Martian canals.

These are straight lines which are seen on the planet's face occasionally and only fleetingly. They never have been successfully photographed.

Some astronomers think the lines are merely the result of tricks played by the earth's atmosphere. Also there is a long-standing idea that they are water canals, made by thinking beings.

Tonight Mars will be only 39,750,000 miles away. Soon it will start moving away again.

Speeding Austin Made for Duke

TORONTO (CP) — The Austin Motor Co. of Canada Ltd. says a car stopped in Michigan earlier this week for speeding is a standard production car and is being driven to the West coast for the use of the Duke of Edinburgh or his party.

A company spokesman said the car is the first one in Canada of a new model of the "Princess" line.

It is being made available for use of the duke at the British Empire Games and will be returned here "for use of VIPs" afterward.

Driver of the car was fined $10 for speeding at Lapeer, Mich.

The car is limousine type with chauffeur compartment and can carry nine people.

Nakusp Program Moves Indoors; Queen Crowned

NAKUSP — In spite of heavy rain, Nakusp celebrated July 1 in curtailed ceremonies that saw Frances Urban crowned Dominion Day queen.

The queen's attendants were Helen Sidek and Judy Hascarl; flower girls were Bonnie Mishanara and Barbara Carter. Coronation took place in the Legion Hall.

Brownies and cubs were in attendance as guard of honor and gifts were presented to the royal party. Outgoing queen Patsy Yano crowned the queen.

Dances were held during the afternoon and a flag drill was given by the small children. Concessions were set up in the hall, with ice cream, hot dogs and other refreshments sold.

Foot section of the parade was held in the hall and winners were, decorated bicycles, Barry Johnson, first; Mildred Fulcko and Marlene Wilson, second; decorated baby buggy, Mrs. A. Butt; child's wagon, Jackie Johnstone; decorated tricycle, Elaine Cowan, first; James Henke, second; decorated doll buggy, Wanstall children; specials, Carol Fulcko, Donald Daoust; fancy costume, Charmaine Roberts! Joy.

Vehicle parade was held in the evening, winners being Shell Oil, or novelty truck decoration; Legion Ladies' Auxiliary, best decorated float, first; hospital staff, second; A. B. S. Stanley, trailer, Alan Stanley, comic vehicle; Brouse Improvement Society, best decorated car.

A variety show was held in the hall, consisting of a "Jack Benny Show", primary dances; monologue by Mrs. Rose Wright, and a play, "The Daughters of the Sea," by two members of Nakusp Drama Club, Nesta Clark and Lillian Cargill.

A dance wound up the evening.

Baseball club from Kamloops flew as far as Sicamous before their plane was grounded. A game would have been impossible, however, because of the downpour.

Prepare to Evacuate Britons From Red Delta

LONDON (Reuters) — An emergency plan to evacuate British Commonwealth citizens by air from the Communist-threatened Red river delta in Indo-China has been prepared, it was learned here Thursday.

A foreign office spokesman said, however, that new French withdrawals in the delta do not warrant the issue of a second evacuation warning. The spokesman disclosed Wednesday that British citizens in Hanoi had received a "provicional warning" to be ready to leave if the military situation deteriorated.

The British consulate in Hanoi is responsible for 150 Commonwealth citizens including about 20 Britons.

It is understood British or Australian air force transports will be flown from Singapore for the evacuation if necesary.

ANYONE who ever visited London knows Piccadilly Circus, and the famous statue of Eros, God of Love, poised above its central fountain. This statue has taken a lot of punishment during the past sixty years, from both practical jokers and London smog. But because the sculptor cast it in aluminum — it was the first large statue to be cast in the "new metal" — it has come safely through the years. When it was cleaned up for the Coronation, it gleamed as freshly as ever. The enduring beauty of aluminum has meanwhile made it a favorite of modern architects, furniture designers, decorators too. Giants Up League Lead to 4 Games

By The Associated Press

New York Giants swept their series with the second place Brooklyn Dodgers Thursday and extended their widening lead in the National League to four games.

The Giants produced a carbon copy of Wednesday's score, 5-2, and used a carbon copy of the hit that won them the first of the three-game set—a bases-loaded single by pinchhitter Dusty Rhodes just to the right of second base.

Rhodes' hit came in the eighth with the score tied 2-2. New York grabbed a two-run lead only to have Brooklyn catch up in the seventh on back-to-back home runs by Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo. A single, a sacrifice, a throwing error by Campanella and an intentional walk set the stage for Rhodes.

Only two other games were scheduled in the major league Thursday.

New York Yankees moved within 3½ games of the top in the American League by outlasting Boston Red Sox 8-7. Fine relief pitching by Johnny Sain through the last three innings stopped the Red Sox after they had trailed at one point by seven runs. Mickey Mantle, Andy Carey and Hank Bauer homered for New York.

HOME RUN BARRAGE

They sprayed home runs in Milwaukee, too, as St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Braves 9-2. Joe Cunningham, who hit a home run in his major league debut Wednesday night, added two more Thursday and Stan Musial snapped a batting slump with his 25th and 26th home runs.

Harvey Haddix, top winner in the league, was hit on the leg by a line drive by Joe Adcock in the fourth inning and was carried from the field on a stretcher. Hospital reports, however, said the Cardinal lefthander was not seriously injured.

CHADWICK TRIES STRAIT WATERS

VICTORIA (CP)—Florence Chadwick tried the chill waters of Juan de Fuca Strait for the first time Thursday as she began serious training for her August attempt to be the first to swim from Victoria to Port Angeles, Wash.

After two miles the world's champion endurance swimmer emerged onto the beach with the comment: "It's cold—but I'm looking forward to trying the swim."

U. S. Team Aims at Thames Challenge Cup

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP)—The Massachusetts Institute of Technology rowing eight moved up a length Thursday in its campaign to take one of Britain's brightest regatta trophies, the Thames Challenge Cup, back to the United States.

The light but sturdy MIT eight won another heat in the Thames challenge event at the Royal Henley regatta, defeating the Reading University crew of Britain.

The Massachusetts crew, only American representative left in this regatta program, finished 3½ lengths in front, covering the mile and 550-yard course in seven minutes, 19 seconds.

Holder of the trophy is the RAF crew, which has gone through its preliminaries with ease.

Interest now is concentrated on the performance of the Russian oarsmen here.

One powerful Russian outfit, the eight of the Krylia Soviet Club, decisively won its heat in the Grand Challenge Cup. The Russians finished 3½ lengths ahead of the Kvik Club of Copenhagen with a time of seven minutes, two seconds.

A Russian pair, Ivan Duldakov and Victor Ivanov of Khimik Club, won easily over the Antwerp Sculling Club's V. von der Steen and L. Baetens in the Silver Goblet event. But the London Rowing Club scullers, A. J. Marsden and T. A. Fox, outrowed the Russians, G. Zhilin and I. Emehuk of the Nauka Club, in the Double Sculls Challenge Cup.

CHAIN REACTION CLAIMS 4TH WIN

TORONTO (CP) — Mrs. J. Tomlinson's Chain Reaction chalked up his fourth stakes victory of the season Thursday when he captured the 1⅛-mile $7,500 Dominion Day stakes, highlighting the final program of the Woodbine Park spring meeting. The son of Chop Chop was timed in 1:50 to equal the track record.

NEW YORK (AP) — Brooklyn Dodgers Thursday recalled infielder Don Zimmer from their St. Paul farm club in the American Association.

Zimmer, batting .291 with 17 home runs, is being brought up to fill in at shortstop while Peewee Reese, the Dodger captain, remains on the sidelines with a pulled muscle in his left thigh.

Noted Strongman, Decare Dies

MONTREAL (CP) — Hector Decare, one of Canada's near-legendary strongmen, died Wednesday at his home here after a long illness. He was 74.

During his career he set weightlifting records in international tournaments and was one of the fabled Louis Cyr's most formidable opponents. In 1912, Decare hoisted 317½ pounds over his head, then a world record and his best lift.

He and Cyr staged a competition here in 1906 that ended in a draw. Decare beat Cyr in the barbell trials by lifting 220 pounds overhead and holding it for three seconds while Cyr could hoist and hold only 210 pounds. Decare also lifted a 151-pound dumbell to his shoulder five times with one hand. Cyr gave up after four.

However, Cyr crouched under a platform loaded with 2879 pounds of iron weights and stood up with the platform on his shoulders.

Decare couldn't budge the platform in three tries.

Rain Cancels Golf Tourney

Rain Thursday forced postponement of the two golf tournaments to have been played at the Nelson Golf and Country Club. Tournaments will be held Sunday when the men will play for the CIL Cup and women members for the Blanche Pollard Cup.

Anyone unable to enter the Thursday contest may enter for Sunday play. Entries will be accepted until Saturday night, Leo Atwell stated. Any entered for Thursday play who cannot play Sunday are asked to contact the match committee.

NATAL YANKEES EDGE INDIANS

NATAL — A home run by Kenney Tappay in the last inning enabled the Natal Yankees to score a close 7-6 win over the Natal Indians in a Little League baseball game Sunday before a fair crowd. The win was the third straight for the youthful Yankees which proved to be the closest of the three game series.

Marlene Loses Title To British Golfer

GANTON, England (CP) — Frances Stephens of England, a former champion, won the British women's golf championship Thursday by beating another English girl, Elisabeth Price, 4 and 3 in the 36-hole final.

Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ont., who won the title last year, was beaten on the 22nd hole in the semi-final Wednesday by Miss Stephens. Miss Stephens was champion in 1949 and has twice since been runner-up.

The long struggle in which the Canadian titleholder was eliminated is described as just about the best in years.

"One of the great matches in the history of the women's golf championship," says the London Daily Mail's Fred Pignon.

"A stupendous struggle," says Enid Wilson of the London Daily Telegraph. "A memorable match," says The Times.

"Perhaps the greatest and most stirring golf match one has ever seen," says Pat Ward-Thomas of the Manchester Guardian.

The tributes to the four-hour battle between Marlene and Frances (Bunty) Stephens, golfing daughter of an English professional, indicated that the Fonthill, Ont., girl added to her immense prestige in this country even in defeat.

Britons just can't get over her game.

It looks "a good 10 years older than her 20 years," says The Times, calling Marlene an "emotionless Miss."

Said the Guardian:

"Not only is Miss Stewart a great stroke player, one of the finest of all women's golf, with a short game in the highest class, but she has self-possession, control and judgment which are almost unbelievable in a girl of 20."

Royals, Shavers To Battle Again

Once defeated Nelson Royals will be out to avenge a 9-8 defeat at the hands of Shavers Bench last Monday night when they take on the Trail girls Sunday afternoon.

The Royals who are not active in league play this season are planning to participate in as many exhibition games as possible.

Tentative lineup will remain the same as in Trail Monday night with Verda Pratt, Helen Kanigan, Chris Chapman, Pat Ozey, Mary Bing, Donalda Ure, Flo Kelly, Olive Swihart, Blackie Kanigan, Marie Stangherlin, Myrna Cain, Dixie Barrett, Don Edwards, Geordie Procter, Mary McGinn.

Trabert, Seixas Take Semi-Finals

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — The erratic U. S. Davis Cup doubles team of power-hitting Tony Trabert and slicing Vic Seixas had one of its good days Thursday and whipped the Australian tennis twins, Ken Rosewall and Lew Hoad in the semi-finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

The Americans won 6-3, 7-5, 3-6, 4-6, 8-6, in the highlight of the day's play before 15,000 tennis fans on the centre court.

In the other men's doubles semi-final, Aussies Rex Hartwig and Mervyn Rose defeated Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1. Both Americans looked tired and played as if they were saving their strength. Once in the final set, 40-year-old Mulloy, who had been mistiming his shots badly, solemnly put on a pair of spectacles.

Maureen Connolly of San Diego, Calif., easily beat Mrs. Betty Pratt of South Orange, N.J., 6-1, 6-1, in one of the women's singles semi-finals while Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., upset Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., 2-6, 6-3, 6-3 in the other semi-final.

Miss Brough's victory was something of a surprise because Miss Hart was runner-up last year and had won in 1950. The women's final will be held Saturday.

NIAGARA LOANS
For Farmers

Farmers have unusual money problems. In the spring, money is needed for seed and for equipment, yet, his "payday" doesn't come until his crop is harvested and sold. Most people have regular salaries and paydays but farmers . . . no sir, they have a very different problem. That's why Niagara loans for farmers, take into account the farmer's seasonal needs and income. Money borrowed in the spring can be repaid when crop monies come in. Niagara loans to $1500 are life-insured at no extra cost . . . a peace-of-mind feature which farmers appreciate. And if you check you'll find our rates are often lower. We do a lot of business with farmers and we'd certainly like to see you if you feel our services would be of value to you. Just drop in for full information.

Two Studies At Koolaree

"Co-operation towards the closest possible harmony in cabin life and throughout the camp" was the text of the chapel talk of Koolaree Big Chief to the campers Sunday morning.

"Trails That Lead to God" and "Some Choices and What Became of Them," are the two study books in use in the camp. Sports, handicrafts, hiking, howing and special camp fire programs are also keeping the boys busy.

The camp sports schedule is well under way with the intermediate section of cabin two Chinooks making things hot for cabin three Okanagans. Michael Bennett, of the Chinooks, struck out three after the bases were loaded and went on to win 5-1. Runs were scored by Bennett, Gates, Daly, Wilson and C. Towson. McLean was the scorer for the Okanagans.

Cabin five Retzelbromos defeated the Lonesome Polecats 5-4 in a close game that saw pitcher McClelland come through with the win and pitcher Standidge take the loss. McClelland, John, Draper and Atwell brought in the runs for the victors while Bob Van, Standidge and Hamson were the Polecat scorers.

THREE PROJECTS

Three main projects which are keeping the boys actively engaged are the rifle target shooting, cord belts and plastic belts and lanyards. Bob Gray and Ken Ridenour are in charge of the rifle target shooting with Norm McLuckie looking after the handicrafts. Indian masks will be made later.

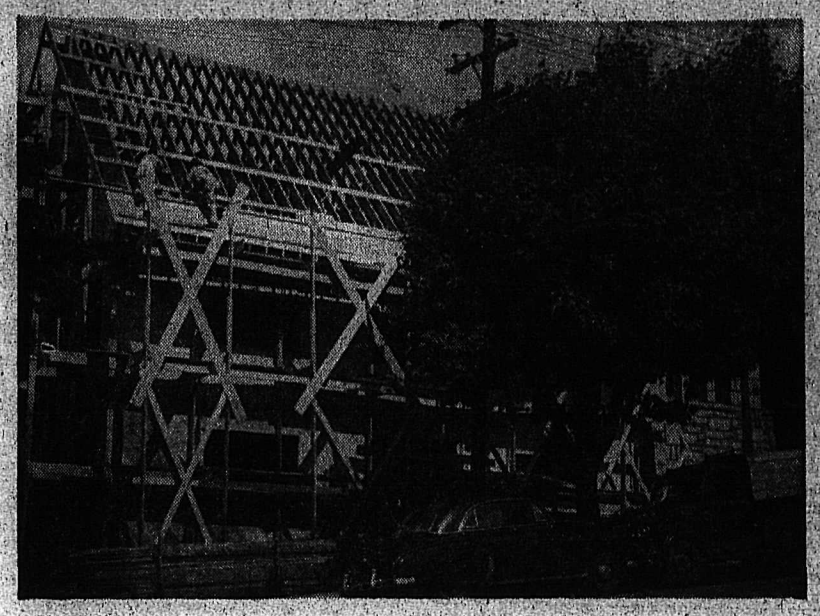
Bob Gray and Allan Little led their group of seniors in the hike to the cairn while Bob Vallance and Ken Ridenour followed with their company. The mission was accomplished when the party had replaced the records, established in 1936, which had been damaged last year. On the descent the order was reversed and Bob Vallance and Ridenour brought their section down in a new record of 17 minutes.

The intermediate campers hiked and rowed to Ferguson's Point.

At campfire time Bob Vallance took the major part in the sing song which was punctuated with scribe reports full of humor by Robert McLean, Barry Wilson, Don Daly, Dick Fraser, Alan Young and Derek Fraser.

Cabin two Okanagans presented a skit entitled "The Up-to-the-Minute Newspaper Office," with Dick Derbyshire as editor and Daly, Matthews, Harts and Gellatly, reporters.

The camp songs, "Koolaree I Love You" and "Trees" brought the campfire to a close as the boys formed their friendship circle to sing "Abide With Me" and "Taps."



BUILDING OF AN ADDITION to St. Saviour's Memorial Hall is progressing well. When the above picture was taken, the rafters for the roof were being nailed in place. Since then the roof has been laid. Much of the labor building the addition is volunteer. The project will cost about $25,000.—Daily News photo.

BUSY INTERSECTION of Vernon and Ward Streets was resting place for this load of 32-foot cedar logs for over an hour Monday night when the reach or tongue which guides the trailer snapped. A more or less minor mishap in the woods, it presented a big problem in the city. Woodsmen said the load would have been "just dropped" in the bush, then picked up later. Heavy equipment was brought up to tow the load away.—Daily News photo.

Royal Bank Offers New Share Issue

MONTREAL (CP) — The Royal Bank of Canada announces its first issue of capital stock since 1928.

The bank said it is offering 700,000 shares at $30 a share in Canadian funds to persons who were shareholders according to company's books June 30, 1954. One share will be issued for every five shares held.

President James Muir said the purpose of the offer is "to bring the shareholders' equity more in line with the volume of business transacted and the total assets and liabilities of the bank."

He said total assets have more than tripled since 1928.

Shares would not be registered under the United States Security Act of 1933 and would not be offered to shareholders with American addresses. Such shareholders, however, could transfer their subscription rights to others.

Doctors Announce Truman Improving

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Improvement in the condition of former President Truman was reported by his doctors.

A hospital spokesman said there had been a progressive improvement in his entertitis (intestinal inflamation), and that he had not received any anti-biotics for the last 36 hours.

The former president underwent an operation for removal of his gallbladder and appendix June 20.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

WASHINGTON MILL RAISE PRICES

SPOKANE (AP)—Spokane area sawmills have raised prices on some lumber from 10 to 18 per cent since the start of the strike in the West Coast fir industry 10 days ago, a survey Wednesday showed.

Retail dealers said sawmill prices have risen on common dimension fir, inland larch boards and shiplap. Some dealers say there has been no increase in their prices yet, however.

Demand for lumber for the East since shipments of fir lumber and plywood from Coast plants have been cut off was blamed for the higher prices.

CARS COLLIDE ON PARK ROAD

T. L. Ratcliffe pleaded guilty in City Police Court Tuesday to a charge of driving without due care and attention and was fined $35 by Magistrate William Brown.

A collision between his car and one driven by Bert Blackwell on Gyro Park road Saturday night resulted in several hundred dollars damage to both cars.

Ratcliffe, driving northeast, allegedly on the wrong side of the road, collided with the other car which was travelling in the opposite direction.

A juvenile tried Wednesday was found guilty of being a juvenile delinquent when charged with entering a beer parlor without lawful excuse and was fined $10 in juvenile court.

Baha'i Unity Makes Denominational Competition Dwindle, Crowd Told

The Baha'i Faith, a faith whose principles are unity—between men, in religion and in government — was explained in detail to a group who listened to a talk by Mrs. B. Liddell, chairman of the Vancouver Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'i World Faith.

The word "Baha'i" comes from the name of the founder of the Faith, Baha'u'llah ("the Glory of God"). Baha'i simply means "a follower of Baha'u'llah."

Baha'is live in more than 105 countries of the world, said Mrs. Liddell. She told of how they had formerly been people of different and conflicting religious backgrounds—Buddhists, Jews, Moslems, Zoroastrians, Hindus, Protestants, Catholics, or without any religion, and how they found in the Baha'is Faith a basis of unity that makes the competition of sects and denominations seem unimportant to them.

She explained that Baha'is are people of different economic and social classes but that through a common devotion, rich and poor mingle as equals and work together to establish a world order for all men and women.

The principle of the Faith is that people of all races find equality with each other because they are equal before God.

In explaining world-mindedness, Mrs. Liddell read two well-known Baha'i quotations: "Let your vision be world embracing, rather than confined to your own selves." . . . "That one indeed is a man who, today, dedicateth himself to the service of the entire human race."

Mrs. Liddell explained that Baha'is believe in one God, even though men have called Him by different names. They believe that true religion is the real basis of civilized life.

PROGRESSIVE REVELATION

"This is the basis of Baha'i belief," said Mrs. Liddell. "One God has given men one Faith through progressive revelations of His will in each age of history, and Baha'u'llah reveals the Will of God for men and women of the present age. This basic belief enables Baha'is to unite and work together in spite of different religious backgrounds."

Mrs. Liddell outlined certain principles emphasized by Baha'u'llah to help bind people together in a united world:

Men must seek for truth in spite of custom, prejudice, and tradition.

Men and women must have equal opportunities, rights and privileges.

The nations must choose an international language to be used along with the mother tongue.

All children must receive a basic education.

Men must make a systematic effort to wipe out all those prejudices which divide people.

Men must recognize that religion should go hand-in-hand with science.

Men must work to abolish extreme wealth and extreme poverty.

Flying Objects Sighted Near British Plane

LONDON (AP)—The crew of a British airliner reports their plane was followed for 80 miles by seven weird flying black objects near Goose Bay, Labrador.

Capt. James Howard, pilot of the New York-to-London airliner, said the mysterious escort vanished when a U. S. Air Force fighter plane came up to investigate.

The British Overseas Airways Corporation Stratocruiser was at a height of 19,000 feet and about 150 miles southwest of Goose Bay early Wednesday when the objects appeared.

"They flashed into sight suddenly and were obviously not aircraft as we know them," Howard said. "All appeared black, and I will swear they were solid. They might have been five miles away. They stayed with us 18 minutes.

All 10 members of the airliner's crew agreed with Howard's description, as did those of the 51 passengers who were awake at the time of sighting.

OSLO (CP) — Reports from Greenland show the 200 Norwegian reindeer shipped there 18 months ago, are doing well. Including the calves born this spring, the herd has grown to about 400.

Seaway Unlikely to Help Fort William

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — Doubts that the St. Lawrence seaway will make a big city of Fort William were expressed by Senator N. M. Paterson.

"The lakehead seems to have set its heart on the seaway but no man who owned a steamboat was ever consulted about the project," he said in an interview.

The project as presently outlined will not give heavy-draft ocean-going vessels access to lakehead ports, he said.

50 Senior Boys At Camp Koolaree

Fifty senior boys and their leaders followed the Chapel trail for the traditional opening of Camp Koolaree Monday.

Campers from Nelson, Trail, Creston and Wynndel attended the opening ceremonies of the 10-day camp as the cairn was opened and the records from last year were read by long-term campers Derek Fraser and Alex McClelland. A rousing sing-song was conducted by Jack Steed.

Mrs. A. Van, Mrs. W. Riley and Gwen Davies make up the kitchen staff and were assisted over the weekend by Art Van, Bill Riley, Charlene Miller, Bev Nelson and Joan Landucci. Camp nurse is Mrs. Richard Tyson. In charge of the camp are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robins

Five cabins of boys have been organized and names for each have been chosen. Cabin names, leaders and crews are:
