Bitter Weather Brings Layoffs, Fuel Shortages

VANCOUVER (CP) — The sixth straight day of freezing temperatures brought mass layoffs in the British Columbia lumber industry Friday.

The cold weather also caused shortages of sawdust used as fuel.

Nearly 3000 were out of work on the Lower Mainland and Fraser Valley. Hardest hit was New Westminster, where more than 1000 workers were idle due to a shutdown of mills caused by ice in the Fraser River.

The Vancouver Plywood Division of MacMillan and Bloedell Ltd., in nearby Marpole, will not open Monday if freezing temperatures continue. About 1000 men would be affected.

A spokesman for the firm said sap is freezing inside the logs floating in the north arm of the Fraser and it is impossible to shave off veneers for plywood. Logs were blasted from the river ice this week.

Employment service officials at Mission City, 50 miles east of here reported all up-valley mills closed with the exception of one small shingle mill.

Bridge River Lumber Co., mill on Mitchell Island, near here, closed Thursday night forcing 100 men out of work. Earlier this month 300 workers at the B. C. manufacturing plant on nearby Lulu Island were laid off because of depressed winter market conditions.

The plywood division of Pacific Veneer Co., closed, making 1000 idle. Mount Baker Plywood laid off 45 employees.

The temperature dropped to 8.4 here Thursday night, coldest in Vancouver since Feb. 15 last year when it was 8.2.

Delivery of fuel sawdust came almost to a standstill, most dealers reporting they had none left. The shortage came in the wake of the closedown of Fraser River sawmills.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals offered free food to anyone who could distribute it to birds and animals unable to forage because of the cold.

All seaplane operations at Vancouver's Sea Island airport were halted because of ice in the Fraser river. Some planes became frozen in the ice.

Several tugs were frozen in on False Creek here. Others had to force their way through ice in the river.

From Ground Up

LIVERPOOL, Eng. (Reuters) — Britain's new postmaster General Ernest Marples rose before dawn Friday and delivered the mail for one hour here on a reuglar door-to-door route.

He explained: "I am determined to learn my new job right the way through from the bottom to the top."

Parliament Friday

By The Canadian Press

Immigration Minister Pickersgill said Canada now is committed to take in 25,000 to 28,000 Hungarian refugees, 9,913 already have arrived.

Davie Fulton (PC - Kamploops) urged the government to accept more responsibility for reception, settlement and education of the Hungarians.

Clarie Gillis (CCF-Cape Breton South) questioned the advisability of dumping so many Hungarians on the Canadian labor market at once.

F. D. Shaw (SC - Red Deer) said his party fully supports the government's program for Hungarians.

Transport Minister Marler announced an inquiry into the seven-death sinking of a pilot boat near Saint John, N.B., will open Feb. 6.

Defence Minister Campney confirmed that two battalions in the Regiment of Canadian Guards will be disbanded to make way for a third armored regiment.

Budget Surplus Melts as Spending Soars

$26,480,000 December Deficit Cuts Surplus to $361,121,000

OTTAWA (CP) — The government, with a huge surplus on its hands, went into the red in December as spending began to climb.

The deficit of $26,480,000 in December, however, was just about half the $49,507,000 deficit in the same month a year ago, the monthly treasury statement showed Friday.

It pared the surplus for the first nine months of the current fiscal year to $361,121,000. This was still seven times as great as the $56,147,000 surplus in the first nine months of 1955-56.

The fiscal year ends March 31 and usually bills pile up in the final months. The government ended the last fiscal year with a deficit of $51,000,000. This year Finance Minister Harris has forecast a surplus of $113,000,000 but he may actually have a surplus of $300,000,000.

In December, the take from taxes and other revenue sources rose to $414,612,000, a gain of $42,000,000 over the previous year.

SPENDING CLIMBS

But spending rose to $441,092,000, up $19,000,000 from December a year ago. Major increases were in payments to provinces, veterans and for transport.

For the nine months, revenues climbed to $3,639,539,000, up by about $600,000,000 from the previous year. Government spending increased by about $250,000,000 to $3,278,418,000.

December brought a continuing rise in tax collections. Personal income taxes increased to $109,933,000, some $15,000,000 higher than December, 1955.

Corporation income tax increased by about $4,000,000 to $87,870,000.

Taxes in goods appeared to have reached some sort of plateau. Import duties, $35,961,000 were virtually unchanged from December, 1955. Excise duties slipped by about $300,000 to $22,032,000 while sales taxes edged up to $56,034,000 from $54,000,000 in the previous year.

Quake Shakes Seattle Area

SEATTLE (AP) — A sharp, short, jolting earthquake hit the Puget Sound region at 5:16 p.m. Friday but no damage was reported immediately.

The shock was reported by startled residents of an area extending from south of Olympia, the state capitol, to north of Everett, a distance of approximately 100 miles.

The quake was also felt in Victoria, B.C. and reports of the tremor came also from the lower mainland of British Columbia.

British Ferret Out Terrorists

NICOSIA, Cyprus (Reuters) — One Briton was killed and another wounded Friday as Greek Cypriot terrorists broke a 10-day lull in anti-British violence.

Strikes spread through this British Mediterranean colony as British troops continued their biggest-ever operation against EOKA terrorist organization leaders who seek to unite Cyprus with Greece.

The dead Briton, an employee of the war department, was found with four bullet holes in the back on a highway. He was the 98th Briton killed since violence started 22 months ago.

The anti-terrorist sweep, dubbed Operation Black Mac, already has netted half of the "hard core" EOKA leaders, the British say.

UN Votes for Private Talks on Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) —The United Nations General Assembly's political committee sidestepping a public showdown on disarmament, voted unanimously Friday night for a Soviet-Western compromise plan to refer the issue to big-power private talks.

The committee adopted a 12-nation resolution and sent it to the full assembly where final approval is certain.

The vote climaxed a two-week debate during which the compromise was worked out in private negotiations. The proposal was the first on disarmament since 1954 with joint American-Russian sponsorship.

The resolution recommended that the 12-nation disarmament commission and its five-nation sub-committee "give prompt attention" to pending disarmament proposals from Canada, Japan, Norway, Britain, France, the United States, the Soviet Union, India and Yugoslavia.

The three-year-old sub-committee consists of Britain, Canada, France, the Soviet Union and the United States. The resolution asked the commission to report back by Aug. 1.

The proposal recommended that both bodies "give continued consideration" to the Eisenhower open-skies aerial - inspection plan and the Bulganin control - post-ground-inspection plan of 1955.

Dulles Sees White Paper As Blow to Britain, France

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dulles fought back against his Democratic critics on Friday, saying the Middle East "white paper" they demanded would "irreparably damage" relations with Britain and France.

Republicans backing Dulles charged that his opponents were trying to destroy him "politically and personally."

Senator J. William Fulbright (Dem. Ark), calling Dulles' policies "disastrous" to U. S. allies, asked on Thursday that Dulles submit a white paper giving a detailed explanation of Middle East events and the administration's handling of them.

Fulbright contended this was necessary before the Senate votes on the administration's resolution, which would empower President Eisenhower to give more economic aid to Middle East countries and to fight if necessary to stop any Communist aggression.

But Dulles testified that this would 'reopen all the old wounds' involved in American differences with Britain and France.

"I can't think of anything that would more irreparably damage our relations," he said.

WON'T INSIST ON PAPER

Signs arose that Congress would not demand such a white paper at this time.

Senator Lyndon Johnson (Dem.-Texas), said:

"Undoubtedly some mistakes have been made" by Dulles and other policy makers. However, he said, "I am not in a position to say I could suggest a course that would be better"

Quick approval of the resolution by the House of Representatives is forecast.

Britain Planning Super Jet Airliner

By R. B. MacLURKIN

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain Friday night announced plans for a supersonic jet airliner in the continuing battle with the United States for commercial air supremacy.

The supply ministry said it has embarked on a research project for developing the plane in conjunction with Britain's aircraft industry and airline corporations.

"Details of the project are not at present being disclosed," a spokesman said.

He identified firms working with the government as Avro, Bristol, De Havilland, Handley-Page, Rolls-Royce, Short Brothers and Harland, and Vickers-Armstrong.

Plans call for production of the plane by early 1960s.

Some experts say the target is an aircraft that will cruise at about 1000 miles an hour linking London and New York in under four hours.

Reginald Maudling, supply minister in Sir Anthony Eden's late government, told the House of Commons last June an outline specification for a long-range passenger jet airliner was prepared by his department in conjunction with the British Overseas Airways Corporation.

The minister spoke not long after the government caused widespread dismay by abandoning the project for the Vickers 1000 jetliner.

The dropping of this aircraft when the prototype was nearing completion left Britain without an answer to the United States Boeing 707 and Douglas DC-8, both jetliners.

Comet four, being built both for British and American customers, is expected to be in service before the American jetliners.

Noted Japanese Diplomat Dies

TOKYO (Saturday) (AP) —Mamoru Shigemitsu, the one-legged diplomat who carried Japan's surrender to the deck of the battleship Missouri, died Friday at 69.

He went to prison as a war criminal—at Russian insistence—but helped spearhead his country's post-war comeback.

Shigemitsu died of a heart attack at his seaside villa 60 miles southwest of Tokyo.

He had been foreign minister under Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama until the latter was succeeded by Tanzan Ishibashi Dec. 21. He was at the United Nations last month when Japan was admitted as its 80th member.

He was dapper, favoring butterfly bow-ties and light colored suits.

Japanese warlords called him "snobbish bureaucrat" and "dapper fool," but they called on his talents during the Second World War as foreign minister.

Shigemitsu was minister to China in 1932. He was addressing a rally in Shanghai when a Korean extremist, agitating for independence from Japan, tossed a bomb that cost Shigemitsu his right leg.

Boys Surrender For Drug Cure

HAMILTON (CP) — Several teen-aged Hamilton boys are reported to have surrendered to police and volunteered to undergo hospital treatment to cure their drug addiction.

Police, inquiring into reports that a man has been supplying local youths with a narcotic, questioned two other youths about the situation. They were later released.

Police also visited several central Hamilton homes seeking more information.

One 18-year-old boy was reported picked up in the downtown area, desperately ill. It is believed he had been unable to acquire a supply of the drug because of recent police investigations.

None of the boys involved are students. Most have been in and out of work for some time, it was reported. All had been in previous trouble with police.

Nurses Order Serves 60 Years

OTTAWA (CP)—The Victorian Order of Nurses today marks the beginning of its 60th year.

Now an indispensable part of Canada's health services, the part-time home nursing order has 117 branches with 592 qualified nurses working across Canada.

Its blue-uniformed members, who are "everyone's nurses" serve more than 30 per cent of the scattered population, giving nursing care in the home under a physician's direction.

VON officials at national headquarters here annually record some 120,000 cases and nursing visits to 50,000,000 persons young and old.

VON services include maternity and child care and instruction, and visiting of Canada's aged and chronically ill who are confined to their homes.

Christine Livingstone, VON director since 1949, said the order's diamond jubilee will be marked here with the official opening of new headquarters during an annual meeting May 8-9.

Help of Retired Teachers Sought

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — The Kelowna school district is to be canvassed for retired school teachers to help out in the teacher shortage in B.C.

Trustees of School District 23 gave School Inspector G. Johnson the green light Thursday night to canvass the district seeking retired teachers who would be willing to return to teaching during the present shortage.

UN Ponders Next Move as Strict Adherence to 1949 Armistice Urged

By LLOYD McDONALD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (CP) — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold called on the General Assembly Friday to renew its efforts for a long-term solution of the Middle East crisis.

He said he was unable to report a complete Israeli withdrawal but left the way open for new action by the assembly to reach at least preliminary agreement on the dispute.

Hammarskjold said numerous political and legal barriers prevent the UN from accepting Israel's terms for evacuating territory disputed by Egypt. He called for strict adherence by the two powers to their 1949 armistice agreement as a starting point for restoring peace.

Both sides have long ignored the 1949 agreement. It now appears up to the assembly to act.

Hammarskjold's report was ordered last week by the assembly. Some anti-Israeli factions wanted the UN to order an unconditional withdrawal of Israeli troops; but others felt that the Jewish state was entitled to some form of guarantee that such a withdrawal would not leave her open to new Egyptian aggression.

RESTATED OLD AIMS

The final resolution merely reaffirmed earlier UN calls for a withdrawal and asked the secretary-general to report.

Hammarskjold said: "It is essential that forthcoming efforts, aimed at continued progress, should concentrate on concrete issues . . . This will require from the parties a willingness to co-operate with the UN toward objectives transcending the immediate issues at stake.

"Practically all these issues are complicated and delicate. They might develop into serious stumbling blocks if they are not approached in a constructive spirit seeking essentials.

"Progress will not be possible if temporary complications of narrow scope are permitted to divert attention from solutions of wide significance."

Thus Hammarskjold threw back to the assembly the task of deciding the next move. The delegates, anticipating his findings have been engaged in a hurried series of private talks aimed at a new resolution empowering the secretary-general to take further steps towards a settlement.

3 ALLEGED SPIES SEIZED

Immigrants Charged With Spying for Russ

NEW YORK (CP)—The FBI arrested three immigrants Friday including a married couple with business interests in Montreal, on charges of spying for Russia.

Soviet officials may be involved in the charges which involve prying into United States defence secrets, the FBI said.

Arrested were Jack Soble, 53, and his Russian-born wife Myra, 52, and Jacob Albam, 64, refugees from Lithuania.

The FBI said Soble was the Kingpin of the espionage ring that operated for years. Detectives said they were about to flee when they were nabbed in their Manhattan apartments.

It was the first major espionage arrest in the U.S. since Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were seized in 1950. The Rosenbergs were put to death in 1953 for stealing atomic secrets for Russia.

The Sobles and Albam were arrested on less important charges but the final complaint is to be drawn up by a New York federal grand jury.

Copper Mountain Mine To Close

PRINCETON, B.C. (CP) — Falling copper prices will force closure of the once-rich Copper Mountain mine about March 31, an official of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company said Friday.

The mine, 160 miles east of Vancouver, employs 530 men.

Jack Ross, Granby general manager, said operations would cease within the next three months unless the copper market improves.

"The only thing that would change the picture is if copper prices went from 33 cents a pound to 40 or 45 cents within the next few weeks," he said.

Mr. Ross said Granby will maintain an exploration department at Allenby, near Princeton, where the ore from copper mountain is reduced to concentrates.

The exploration department, which will employ 50 men, will search for new ore bodies. Granby operates several other mining properties in B.C.

Mr. Ross said the shutdown of the mine, predicted some time ago, will leave large quantities of low-grade ore at Copper Mountain.

Still Probing For Fire Victims

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The slow search for bodies went forward Friday in the blackened rubble where a four-storey factory stood until swept by flames.

Four women died Thursday in the fire, stuck on a fire escape that jammed instead of lowering automatically to the ground.

Firemen found a man's body Friday.

Two men and two women are missing. Officials are certain their bodies are in the ruins.

Brick walls threatening to topple had to be removed for safety.

Beside the nine known or presumed to be dead, 31 of the 112 men and women in the building were injured, 10 critically.

Six manufacturing establishments occupied the 85 - year - old building in a run - down section. Some of them made dresses and slippers. Two were machine shops.

Newsman Jailed 6 Months, Fined

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert Shelton, New York newspaperman, was sentenced Friday to six months in jail and fined $500 for contempt of Congress. His lawyer served notice of appeal.

Shelton, a copyreader, was convicted a week ago on two counts of a three-count indictment growing out of his refusal to answer questions when he appeared before the Senate internal security sub-committee in January, 1956.

Sandys to Discuss Military Policy

LONDON (Reuters) — Defence Minister Duncan Sandys said Friday night he will make a two-day visit to Ottawa in addition to consultations with United States officials on military policy and planning.

The new defence minister told reporters before boarding a plane for New York that during his trip to Washington he will "exchange views with American defence authorities on wider questions of military policy and strategic planning."

"I shall also be paying a two-day visit to Ottawa to renew my contacts with the Canadian government."

He made his remarks as reports circulated throughout Britain that the government is aiming to reduce the £1,500,000,000 annual military budget by from £350,000,000 to £500,000,000.

"There is no doubt that defence now is costing a good deal more than we can afford," he said. "It is equally true that we are not getting full value for money in terms of military power.

"For the sake of both economy and efficiency the time has clearly come to make changes in the size and composition of our armed forces.

Gov't Accused Of Picking Public Pocket

OTTAWA (CP) — John Diefenbaker accused the Liberal administration Friday night of picking the Canadian taxpayer's pocket far beyond the needs of government.

"To put it bluntly," the national leader of the Progressive Conservative party said, "the government is careless with your money."

In a speech on the CBC free-time political broadcast The Nation's Business, he said that by the end of November, every man, woman and child in Canada had been over-taxed by $24 beyond what was required by the government.

"In effect, it picked your pockets far beyond the needs of government."

9913 Hungarians Arrived So Far

OTTAWA (CP)—A total of 9913 Hungarians had arrived in Canada up to Friday, Immigration Minister Pickersgill reported to the Commons.

He gave this breakdown of their distribution: Atlantic provinces 118; Quebec 3099; Ontario 3382; Manitoba, 1013; Saskatchewan 307; Alberta 684; British Columbia 1310.

DETROIT (AP)—James Coil is in jail because the stray dog he trained as a lookout failed him during a burglary.

Coil told police he had trained the dog to bark if he saw a policeman. Instead the dog just wagged his tail as two officers approached a gas station which Coil admitted he was robbing.

Coil had $9 from the cash register in his pocket. He was held for investigation.

DETROIT (CP)—Charlie Henderson spotted a fellow motorist in trouble at the curb.

He wheeled over and obligingly started to push.

Half a block or so along, the other fellow's car jumped the curb and ran into a mail-box.

Charlie figured he should check and climbed out.

There was nobody in the other car.

Seems the driver had gone to phone for help.

BRANTFORD, Ont. (CP)—Ten cows marooned in four feet of icy water were finally rescued Thursday by firemen using ropes and a bulldozer.

The animals had been in the water all day and were so numbed they couldn't stand after they were pulled out.

Firemen rigged hoists and held each cow up until the blood circulation was restored. Several were cut by the sharp ice.

DUNCAN, B.C. (CP)—A middle-aged man cut his hand to spite Elvis Presley.

Apparently enraged at a succession of the singer's recordings from the juke box in a cafe here, the patron smashed the glass front of the machine with his fist, suffering a bad cut. He was given first aid and taken to hospital.

VICTORIA (CP)—Trial of a man charged with selling liquor illegally was adjourned in police court Thursday after defence counsel said he couldn't find his client because he was "out on a drunk."

DETROIT (CP)—A tipsy bandit staggered into a restaurant waved a gun at a waitress, helped himself to $101 in the till and then made a date with the waitress.

Police kept the date and an hour later William Cooper, 26, was arrested.

FIVE YEAR TERM AFTER FATALITY

TORONTO (CP)—Chief Justice J. C. McRuer Friday sentenced Richard E. Duckworth, 32, to five years in prison and suspended his driver's licence for life because of his part in a fatal accident Oct. 18.

Duckworth's father, Samuel Duckworth, 72, was killed when his son's car collided head-on with another.

Police said the younger Duckworth was "in a near - drunken condition" and was driving while his licence was suspended because of an earlier drunk-driving conviction.

An Assize Court jury convicted Duckworth of criminal negligence last week.

MASSEY TO LAY CORNERSTONE

STRATFORD, Ont. (CP)—Governor-General Massey is due here Saturday to place the cornerstone of the Stratford Shakespearean Festival's $1,500,000 circular theatre.

He will put in place a Quebec granite stone which says: "This stone was laid by His Excellency, the Right Honorable Vincent Massey, Governor General of Canada, January 26, 1956."

Trail Warned Conserve Water

TRAIL — Citizens have been warned to conserve water in the event of a water shortage after ice particles jammed Sunningdale reservoir pumping station Friday night. If not cleared, officials said the pumps will freeze, causing a serious water shortage. The reservoir was about half full.

MARLENE IN SEMI-FINALS

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Marlene Stewart, petite Fonthill, Ont., golfer, fought to the semi-finals of the Helen Lee Doherty amateur tournament Friday with an 18-hole, 1-up victory over Betty Kerby of Akron, Ohio.

She used wood shots to pull from behind to win the match.

Miss Stewart meets Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., in a virtual rematch of their national women's amateur tournament semi - final won by Miss Stewart in 1956. Miss Quast defeated Terry Logan of Newark, N.J., 5 and 4 to win the semi-final post.

Friday was the first in which Miss Stewart had to play all 18 holes in this match tournament.

Two down with six holes to play, she rallied and won with superior long shots.

Sick Men Need Woman's Touch

LONDON (Reuters)—Seriously ill men should be nursed in hospitals by women and never by male nurses, a doctor said Friday. Dr. R. L. Kitching, writing in the British Medical Journal, said:

Minister Puts Stress on Home Evangelism

"The best missionaries of a church are are members of the congregation," declared Rev. J.N. Allan in making his report to the congregational meeting of First Presbyterian Church Friday evening.

Therefore he was going to stress that great importance must be placed in the coming year on "home evangelism" where members of the congregation visited at homes of adherents who were not steady church-goers to encourage people to attend church regularly.

Financial report read to the meeting showed "an encouraging prospect" for the coming year, although help from the presbytery would be needed to build a new church hall it was stated. The present church hall has been condemned and must be torn down after June 30, 1957 when a six-month extension granted Dec. 31, 1956 terminates.

Mr. Allan praised the work of the active women's organizations, but saw a need for more group work with the young people and men of the congregation.

Elected to the board of managers were Mrs. F. H. Selby, Mrs. W. D. Grainger and F. H. Selby, who were enpowered to appoint the five remaining members of the board from the congregation.

Ferries Force Way Through Ice

KELOWNA (CP)—Ferries operating between Kelowna and Westbank are struggling to keep a passageway open on ice-coated Okanagan Lake.

A narrow 50-foot channel is all that is open in the one-mile crossing between the two points.

Temperatures the last three three nights have dropped to 20 below in some valley points and if the cold spell continues the northern and southern ends of the lake will be frozen solid.

CPR and CNR lake barge service has been temporarily suspended.

DAYLINER IN TWO MISHAPS

DUNCAN (CP)—The Dayliner-Budd car, replacing the train on the E & N between Victoria and Courtney, has been involved in two accidents in the last two days at level crossings in the Westholme-Cowichan district.

Friday, a Heaney cartage and storage truck from Victoria ran into the Dayliner. While considerable damage was sustained by the truck, the driver, unidentified, was unhurt.

Thursday, a car driven by Johnny Scragg, Duncan, crashed into the side of the Dayliner. Scragg, and his girl companion, escaped injury but the front of his car was demolished.

Police attribute the accidents to icy road conditions.

24 in European Davis Cup Play

MELBOURNE (AP) — Thirty-two countries seek to enter the 1957 European zone Davis Cup competition and 24 have been accepted.

The other eight were granted the privilege of entering in the American zone. Venezuela indicated it would.

Others rejected were Communist China, Egypt, Finland, Israel Monaco, Pakistan and Turkey.

None appears to have the team strength to justify a long and expensive trip to North America to compete. American zone entries close Feb. 15.

Jubilee Committee Starts Organization

V. C. Owen of the British Columbia Telephone Co. has been appointed to head a nucleus committee planning Nelson's Diamond Jubilee celebrations this year, and the City's part in the B.C. Centennial celebrations in 1958.

Inaugural meeting of the committee was held Friday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce building. Mr. Owen replaces H. D. Harrison who resigned recently. Mr. Harrison said, "I was sorry I had to come to that decision," but it was prompted by business and other reasons. He will remain a committee member.

Vice-chairman has not been chosen, because others may possibly join the committee. Honorary secretary-treasurer is E. J. Leveque. Committee agreed it may be necessary to hire someone in future.

Mayor Joseph Kary, who had called the meeting, said he was "very anxious to see you as a committee get started and get organized. Separate Jubilee and Centennial committees would, he thought, be "straight duplication."

Mayor Kary noted the City's birthday falls in March this year, and said he has "verbally" asked for a grant from the B.C. Government to help with jubilee celebrations. His Worship also offered full co-operation from City council.

"I want this diamond jubilee to be a tremendous success," Mayor Kary added. He hoped the planning and work will involve a great many citizens.

Money for the 1947 celebrations marking the City's 50th birthday was contributed largely by merchants and businessmen. About $1200 was left over and given to the West Kootenay Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition Association. T. S. Shorthouse, chairman of a committee behind the 1947 affair, is also on the Diamond Jubilee and Centennial Committee.

K. D. McDae took notes of the meeting. In order to get started quickly, the committee will meet every Friday afternoon until further notice. First meetings will be specifically towards Jubilee celebrations.

TO ASK GRANT

The secretary - treasurer was authorized to write council asking for an interim grant. No specific amount was mentioned. Signing officers will be the chairman, secretary - treasurer and vice - chairman when appointed. To eliminate misunderstanding, separate stationery will be printed for the jubilee and for the centennial.

It was noted that several groups are planning events here this year. Groups having projects in mind which the committee might help with will be asked to submit them in writing for the committee's consideration.

Per capita grants of 40 cents and 60 cents are available from Victoria to help with centennial celebrations. Mr. Harrison said there are "no strings attached" to the 40 cent grant. Communities must match the 60-cent grant for some project.

Ald. W. S. Ramsay was asked to investigate possibility of obtaining banners for one of two new City buses he will be driving here from Windsor next week. He leaves Tuesday. Driver of the other bus has not yet been announced.

A suggestion was made that date of the Mid-Summer Bonspiel be featured on the banner if possible, also that similar banners be made up for present Nelson Transit System buses. Mayor Kary suggested that banners and flags could be hung on the streets, and urged the committee to "start the ball rolling". This matter will be taken up when the committee meets next Friday.

Court registrar K. D. McRae said B.C. Centennial stickers are being given out with new licences. A motion asking the government for funds was tabled until the next meeting, when Mr. Harirson has promised to bring some of the centennial material he had received.

Arthur Foster has been appointed representative on the Mid-Summer Bonspiel committee.

NO PAGEANT

Focal point of Nelson's 50th birthday was a huge pageant. However, the committee thought it best not to have one for the Diamond Jubilee, as provincial authorities are planning a "travelling pageant" that will visit all sections of the province in 1958.

Since he will not be in town next Friday, Ald. Ramsay, chairman of parks for the city, mentioned several project ideas. He noted plans to develop Sportsman's Park. The Game Department has agreed to provide animals, which could be put in cages at the Park. Mayor Kary spoke of the B. C. Government's extensive plans to renovate the park next year.

In a further attempt to entice visitors here and make them welcome, the city has ordered three large "welcome" signs, that will be placed at entry points.

Ald. Ramsay thought it would be a good idea to "push our own area" during the jubilee, which is "sort of a family affair." Next year the committee would then "go along with the rest of the province" in celebrating B. C.'s 100th birthday.

DAME FLORA REFUSED ENTRY

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—A Canadian immigration official said Friday night that Dame Flora MacLeod, chief of the Clan MacLeod, was refused entry to Canada because "she would have had a rough time getting back into the United States again."

Dame MacLeod arrived here for a press conference but neglected to bring any credentials.

Immigration officials said it was "for her own protection" that she was not allowed to enter Canada.

Last Rites Held For James Bichan

Funeral services for James Bichan, 68, who died in Kootenay Lake General Hospital Jan. 22 were held in Thompson Funeral Home Friday afternoon. Rev. J. N. Allan of First Presbyterian Church officiated.

"The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" were hymns sung. Organist was Mrs. W. A. Manson.

Honorary pallbearers were Con Cummings, William Marr, Donald McDonald, Fred Robinson, Dave Marshal and George Stevens.

Active pallbearers were A. W. Jeffrey, E. J. Elliott, I. E. Kraft, R. H. Riddell, R. F. Romano and J. F. Brinley.

Cremation followed.

WOULD RETURN

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Hungarian Football Association said Friday soccer ace Sandor Kocsis wants to leave the defected Honved team and return to Hungary. The Honved club now is touring Latin America.

The Weather

Arctic air continues to cover the whole province. Only two or three weather stations recorded afternoon temperatures above freezing while a large number of the interior points remained well below zero all Friday. There is no indication of any change in the present picture so that almost clear skies and very low temperatures will continue for Saturday and Sunday.

Odds . . . and Ends . . . by M. D. B.

At present we are tasting and smelling the aroma of wood filler and linoleum cement. I wish I could tell you we were moving downstairs soon but when we will is anybody's guess. A while back the city editor and I laid a bet on when we would. I said February 2 and he said February 9. But we could both be wrong as we look at it now.

• • •

The commercial office is shaping up well with the new linoleum laid and finishing of the mahogany panelling under way. But it's the ceilings that seem so blessed slow. I've been dying to see them up because they'll make such a difference to the whole effect. As it is now you look up at the strangest conglomeration of pipes and framing — it looks something like I imagine we would without our skin and muscles.

• • •

They have got the ceilings on in the press room and composing room and the bindery is next, then, joy of joys, the commercial office and the editorial room. Meanwhile our publisher is cooking up ideas for our grand opening or at home or open house or whatever it's to be called, then we'll be seeing you.

• • •

Did you hear on the radio about the man who cut his hand when he put his fist through the glass front of a juke box that was playing Elvis ad infinitum. I imagine this was a case where pain was sweet. Can you imagine the amount of satisfaction that man must have received from such an act. Damages he'll have to pay and cut hand would be small price to pay in comparison.

• • •

I imagine the "old guard" wept or saw red when the radio announcer was talking about Looteant-Governor Ross and Flight Lootenant so-and-so. It was bound to come sooner or later, it is just another Canadianism or Britishism that we have lost or are losing to the Americans.

• • •

I noticed a while back that Prime Minister Macmillan was ticked off by the tailors on his dress at his first cabinet meeting. Such is the price one has to pay for being a notable. It used to be that only the ladies had to worry about such important matters as what to wear with what, where and at what time. Seems to me though, that when the poor man is just closeting himself up with his cabinet—a man among men so to speak, he should be able to wear pretty much what he pleases and not be criticized if he wears a soft collar. Perhaps they figure a hard collar would stiffen up foreign policy.

LEONARD 3RD

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Stan Leonard of Lachute, Que., was only two strokes off the leaders Friday after completing the second round of the $15,000 Thunderbird invitational golf tournament.

Leonard fired a 68 to match the 68 he got Thursday, but he now is tied with Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N.Y., for third spot with six other professionals ahead of him.

Tied for first with 36-hole 134's are, in order of their finish Friday:

Art Wall, Jr., Julius Boros and Billy Maxwell, each with second successive 67's; Doug Ford, who fashioned the finest score of the day, a sparkling 32-32-64, and Ken Venturi, who added a 68 to the pace-setting 66 he had Thursday.

New Summer 'Spiel Committee Formed

A committee to stage 1957's Nelson Mid-Summer Bonspiel has been formed and its first meeting is slated for Thursday.

The new committee expressed the intention to work in close co-operation with the city's Diamond Jubilee and Centennial committees. A member of City Council is yet to be named to the new committee. The committee also expressed the hope that plans outlined by Nelson Junior Chamber of Commerce, whose steering committee under chairman A. R. Ramsden arranged the forming of the 1957 bonspiel committee, "will give the impetus to make this year's summer curling event a special Jubilee atmosphere."

The bonspiel committee includes two Jaycees, Warren Ferguson and Kenneth Frederickson. Other members are Dr. T. H. Bourque, Stanley Morris, W. C. Wicken, William Stern, Albert Maida, R. L. McKirby, P. D. Zacharias, Arthur, Waters, Fire Chief E. S. Owens, D'Arcy Hughes, A. B. Gilker, Duncan Jamieson, Don Marshall, George Barefoot and the city council representatives. Others have indicated willingness to serve on the committee but were approached only a few hours prior to the committee's first get-together Friday night, and have not yet given a definite indication.

Members of the committee able to meet, began the first steps towards carrying out of summer bonspiel work. Ernie McLachlan is preparing new entry forms to be sent out next week. A new poster to go to curling clubs is also planned for immediate mailing. Some 1500 pieces of mail are expected to be on their way within 10 days. First entries already on hand will receive notification of dates. The 1957 Bonspiel will be held the week of July 7.

The new committee will meet with the Civic Centre Commission next week to arrange ice rentals and discuss other matters relative to staging the 1957 summer bonspiel.

Small Crowd Enjoys "Patience"

Sprightly music and sly humor of Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "Patience," was presented by the Rossland Light Opera Players in co-operation with the Nelson Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Capitol Theatre Friday night.

The half-full house rollicked to many delightful melodies played by a 15-piece orchestra under musical director Morey Block. Scene of the opera was Castle Bunthorne, home of Reginald Bunthorne, an aesthetic poet (John Roberts) who has earned the admiration of 20 lovely maids. But he loves Patience (Jean Ellison) a simple dairy maid.

Engaged to members of the 35th Dragoon Guards a year ago, the ladies have now forgotten their former loves. The men, particularly Col. Calverley, (George Bourchier) Maj. Murgatroyd (Larry Gasena) and Lieut., the Duke of Dunstable (Barry Fairbridge) are disturbed.

Bunthorne upsets Patience by endeavoring to make love to her. Archibald Grosvenor (John Bloss) then comes on the scene. He is an idyllic poet and Patience discovered she loved him when they were young. She finds however that she cannot love him now.

On his solicitor's advice, Bunthorne prepared to raffle himself off to one of the 20 ladies. Just as comedian Lady Jane, (Pat Cross) who remained true to Bunthorne after the others became attracted to Grosvenor, is about to draw a ticket, Patience announces her willingness to accept his love.

Col. Calverley then announces he is about to choose a wife. After asking the most beautiful girls to come to him, he takes the massive and homely Lady Jane. All but Bunthorne are happily paired off and the aesthetic poet accepts his lot to live a single life.

Crowd Expected at Ski Hill Over Weekend

If previous figures mean anything, a huge crowd can be expected at the Silver King Ski Club hill today and Sunday, for it is reported snow conditions are excellent and the ski hill is in fine shape.

Classes, sponsored by The Daily News, are to start at 11 a.m. Saturday running on through the afternoon and at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Sunday. Once again the bus to accommodate skiers will leave the Greyhound depot Sunday at 9:30 and 12:30. For those with cars there is parking at the foot of the hill and the cabin will be open for warming and snacking.

New beginner classes are to start again and junior competitors will have their special jam session at 10 a.m., Sunday, when they will be prepared to compete in the tourney to be held in Kimberley. Ski classes will prepare themselves under ski instructors for the big test being planned for early in February. Club competition, to determine club champion, is to be held either at the end of February or early March.

Work on the T-bar lift will be carried on again with the club hoping for a trial run late Sunday afternoon.

Adjoining buildings were saved, but were damaged by smoke and water.—Townsman photo.

Rich Pembina Tops Spectacular Sales

By PAUL CABOURIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

EDMONTON (CP)—Oil-rich Alberta's coffers swelled by $16,268,918 Thursday night in the province's first 1957 sale of petroleum and natural gas leases.

This brought the province's income from oil since the discovery of the Leduc well which started Alberta's boom in 1948 to more than $605,600,000.

Sold Thursday were 34 parcels in the proven oil fields of Pembina Benutley, Fenn-Big Valley, Joarcam, Joffre and Sturgeon Lake South for $11,005,380; six parcels in the Alhambra, Cynthia and Clear Hills provincial reserves of central and northwest Alberta for $4,017,560; and 21 parcels of Wildcat Lands for $1,245,978.

Bids on six parcels in Pembina, two in Fenn-Big Valley, and one each in Bentley and Sturgeon Lake South were rejected by the provincial government.

IMPERIAL BID TOPS

Highest individual bid came from Imperial Oil, Ltd., which paid $1,758,279 for a 98,586-acre area in the Clear Hills provincial reserve, about 300 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Thursday's sales total was the highest since the May, 1956, take of $33,283,000. A sale in October, 1956, brought $14,518,311.

The rich Pembina field west of Edmonton, western Canada's leading producer for several months, again led all other areas in total sales, bringing in $8,118,000 for leases on 23 parcels of land.

In last year's sales, the Pembina field brought more than $31,116,000 and its total take since it was discovered in 1953 now is $98,924,000.

Biggest buyer at this year's sale was Imperial Oil, Ltd., which paid a tootal of $3,543,354 for rights on 188,506 acres in the Clear Hills area, a 320-acre parcel in the Bentley field of west-central Alberta and a 160-acre lot in the Fenn-Big Valley field of east-central Alberta.

STRIKE VOTE TO BE TAKEN AT REMAC TUESDAY

SALMO — Strike vote will be taken Tuesday among employees of the Reeves MacDonald Mines Ltd., at Remac, members of local 901, Nelson and District Mine and Mill Workers' Union, union business agent W. Rudychuk of Salmo announced Friday.

Action follows breakdown in negotiations between union and management on a protracted severance pay issue. About 110 employees are involved.

East Kootenay Jaycees to Meet at Creston

CRANBROOK — Regional East Kootenay director of Jaycees, William Jewitt Jr., of Kimberley outlined to Cranbrook Jaycees this week plans for the East Kootenay Regional meeting here on February 2 and 3 of Creston, Kimberley and Cranbrook clubs. Leading program item will be the effective speaking competition among representatives of the three groups for the Filipelli Trophy and (Flip) Filipelli, national past president will be present at the meeting.

Other guests at the meeting were national vice-president D. F. (Bud) O'Sullivan, who spoke on Jaycee international affairs work, and Alderman Sam McLeary who discussed city affairs informally.

PACIFIC DOMINATION

The two main islands of New Zealand were visited and charted by Captain Cook in 1769.

Robert Frame was named general chairman of the committee which will arrange for the second Teen-Age Road-eo to take place here in May, winner to continue to the provincial finals toward national competition under Jaycee sponsorship and scholarship awards.

Jaycees have named David Wallinger and Glen McLaren as their official representatives on the Cranbrook Commission for Industrial Development and Expension. Two additional members named by the senior Chamber of Commerce and the city council and mayor will make up the commission authorized established early in January.

George Pelton has been named a new director. Former director Don Kidd was named new Jaycee recording secretary to succeed Cli Voyer who has been transferred by the Royal Bank to Red Deer effective next month.

PREDATOR HUNTER TRACKS DOWN, KILLS 7 "CATS"

CASTLEGAR — Seven cougars have fallen this season before the guns of John Kandal, predatory animal hunter with the B. C. game department, stationed at Castlegar.

Four of the "cats" were bagged within a week in the Pend d'Oreille country just north of the International Boundry, and the other three were tracked down in a single day in the Edgewood area.

On the Pend O'dreille hunts, Kandal and his dogs kept up an untiring chase. Accompanied by Pete Ewart, game warden at Castlegar, he followed one cougar by flashlight from 11 p.m. until 5 a.m. before moving in for the kill. He had been hunting the previous day as well.

During the current cold spell Mr. Kandal has virtually abandoned cougar hunting. The cold is too tough on the dogs, it was explained.

MALVERN, England (CP) — A municipal official proposed the council hide pound notes in the surrounding Malvern Hills, and then hold a treasure hunt, as an idea for attracting more tourists to this Worcestershire town.

CRANBROOK '56 FIRE LOSS $1.50 PER CAPITA

CRANBROOK — Fire loss in Cranbrook in 1956 totalled $7245, a per capita loss of $1.50 Fire Chief James Gordon reported to the city council. This compared with $11,830 total for 1955, and $2.36 per capita loss. Property at risk in 1956's six fires with loss was valued at $43,000 and insurance carried on it was $19,500. Two losses of life by fire during the year were in separate extra-municipal fires. The department responded to 54 alarms during the year, nine of them outside city limits.

Cranbrook District Ambulance, with headquarters at the fire hall, dispatched 148 calls during the year.

Extra service by the department included weekly summer washing of downtown streets, and raising of thousands of bedding plants in its greenhouses for use in city parks and gardens.

GREEN SOCIETY SLATES ANNUAL

CRANBROOK — Third annual meeting of the Dr. F. W. Green Memorial Home Society, chartered under the provincial Societies' Act to raise funds and operate a permanent home for elderly people of the district, has been rescheduled for Friday, February 8 at the Canadian Legion hall.

Preliminary meeting of the executive shows the completed third year of the organization its most successful so far. Total funds raised during the year were $14,388.35 bringing the total of donations since chartering to $25,521.16. Expenditures so far on architect's design, property and operations have been $1217. Clear title to the site on Seventeenth Avenue is held by the Society. Balance in bank accounts and bonds now stands at $24,701.14 toward the local objective of $50,000 for the home.

F. R. Rotter Heads Salmo Chamber

SALMO — F. R. Rotter, Salmo district lumberman, will head the Salmo District Chamber of Commerce in 1957.

Other officers, recommended by the nominating committee and approved at the annual meeting, are J. C. MacLean, vice-president, and D. W. Powers, secretary-treasurer. The nominating committee also submitted recommendations for various committee chairmen. These appointments will be made at the next general meeting.

Discussion took place on two resolutions on the problem of livestock on B.C. highways, presented by the Windermere and Kimberley Boards. The Salmo group endorsed the Windermere resolution, and while in complete sympathy with Kimberley's, was more in favor of an expanded resolution.

A letter will be sent to the department of highways complimenting the department on the condition of highways in this district.

ROBERT BURNS, whose birth was celebrated the world over Friday, was original owner of this table which now belongs to A. B. Macrone of South Slocan and in whose family it has been handed down. On top are a portrait of Burns and scenes illustrating some of his poems.

Robbie Burns' Table In South Slocan Home

SOUTH SLOCAN — A circular table on a pedestal base, which once belonged to poet Robert Burns, the Immortal Bard whose memory Scotsmen honored yesterday, occupies a corner of A. B. Macrone's living room at the West Kootenay Power and Light Company No. 3 plant here.

On the top are eight scenes depicting several of his poems, centred by a painting of Burns, framed and linked by gilt scroll work. The surface is protected by glass.

Estimated to be 175 years old when the Macrones received it six years ago, the table is said to have been given by Robert Burns to a family named King who did the art work. The Kings presented the table to Mr. Macrone's grandparents as a wedding gift. Since that time it has been passed down in the family.

When they received it, the Macrones, seeing that the table was dusty from the trip, took it apart to clean it. Behind the pictures they found two newspapers dated in the late 1700s and early 1800s.

Increased Pensions Due Aged

There are indications that the matter of an increase in the pensions paid to old age pensioners will be brought before the House in this session of Parliament. While government spokesmen talk evasively, there is no doubt that members on both sides of the House will urge that increases be made.

The old age pensioners, along with those with fixed incomes, are in the unhappy position of seeing the incomes of others steadily rising while theirs remain stationary. To the old age pensioner their income seems the lowest of possible lows, while boys and laborers receive five times what they do.

In this province, to its credit, the forty dollars from the Federal government is supplemented by an allowance from the provincial government of up to twenty dollars, but this is hedged about with restrictions which make it anything but a free gift. It is an allowance only to those who have no other source of income.

In the main, old age pensioners are the victims of our inflationary economy. Even with their best management, prices have risen far beyond their ability to live reasonably well. The greatest cost to the pensioner is accommodation. There are literally thousands of old people doing their cooking and living in one room. For what can only be described as poorly heated and inadequate accommodation they are lucky if they do not have to pay more than thirty-five dollars a month.

This leaves them perhaps twenty-five dollars to care for their other needs, including food. It is not true that old people need little food. Those in well provided homes eat well and enjoy their food. It is noteworthy, in fact, that with the aged good food is their one great pleasure, but many of the old age pensioners living alone have far too little food for their needs.

Raising the scale of old age pensions recognizes that inflation exists; it can hardly be said that they cause it. At the same time, it is interesting to note that pension plans which have been established for years and which formerly barely paid their way are now, due to the increase in salaries, bursting at the seams with money. Consideration is now being given to the payment of higher pensions, not only to the pensioners of the future, but to those who are already receiving them.

The national income has risen greatly, and it is therefore safe to say that the government is in the same position with its pension fund. If not, it still has the increased tax revenue to call upon. It will not be a matter of magnanimity on the part of the nation or self sacrifice on the part of the nation if pensions are raised. Higher pensions have now become an acute need of the aged.

Patronage for the Thief

There are many Canadians who incline to deprecate their government's hurried official action in dissociating itself from Britain and France in the still current dispute with the most recently emerged dictator of the Hitler-Mussolini school, President Nasser of Egypt. They are equally uncertain over the hurried aligning of this country with the rather nebulous foreign policy of the United States. These at least will be pleased to know that even acros the border there are many who agree with them.

Mr. Henry Hazlitt, economist and columnist of "Newsweek," is one of these.

"Suppose," he writes, "a friend stood by while a thug snatched your bankroll; then urged you to negotiate a compromise with the thief; next called a policeman only to restrain you after you had seized the thief to get your money back, and finally offered to share your losses himself if you would promise to stop threatening the thief. What would you think of your friend's friendship —or of his mental balance?"

It is a cogent question, and the more so because this turning the other cheek to the thief does not seem to have brought him to his senses, any more than we seem to have come to our senses ourselves. We have seen another and somewhat less intelligent Munich pattern, a pattern that Colonel Nasser is following with persistency. He is seeing how far he can go by refusals, concessions and re-refusals. There is every evidence that was hand in glove with Moscow and there is little doubt that had Russia's situation been happier at the moment the association would have been still closer. Perhaps the only thing that delayed it was the evidence that some at least of the Western allies had been pushed to their limit. Now, having been negotiated out of that show of strength, how much more tractable has the thief become, now that he knows that we propose to placate at all costs even if we ourselves must make good his depredations?

We have seen how signally that thinking failed once before, how the dream of peace at any price beclouded men's thinking so that the thief was assured an overwhelming advantage before the desperate realization came that to concede more was to concede everything.

The thief has no respect for law, only for the power of the law. When it is shorn of power, is it reasonable to expect penitence from the thief or respect from his friends?

—By Joseph Lister Rutledge

Cromwell's Curse

"Upon all of us," says Sir Winston Churchill in the second volume of his 'History of the English-Speaking Peoples', "there still lies 'the curse of Cromwell'." And indeed, were it not for the Lord Protector's ruthless, Puritanical treatment of Irish Catholics in the 17th Century, there would probably be no Irish Republican Army now, and perhaps no partition of Ireland.

Yet even a curse may grow weaker with time. It is something that the latest outbreak of IRA terrorism has been officially condemned by the government of Eire, or Southern Ireland, and that some of the IRA's members have been convicted and imprisoned for their attempts to bring about union with the North by force has not lessened their objections to partition. But it may help to create the sort of climate under which partition will eventually be abolished, either by the accession of the South to the United Kingdom, or, more probably, by the establishment of a united Ireland as an independent country with Commonwealth ties. That day, however, is still far off.—Lethbridge Herald.

Senators of Purpose

In naming four new senators Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent doesn't seem to follow the pattern of appointments to the Upper House. Normally, political background, racial or religious affiliations, geographic representation, ability to raise campaign funds, etc., are factors involved in appointments.

Some of these elements may have entered into the present selection, but there is an added feature. All four are associated with agriculture. Three are farmers (one being a former minister of agriculture in New Brunswick) while the other has agricultural interests. Mr. St. Laurent evidently picked them with a purpose.

The Prime Minister is serious about a study of land use in Canada, to remove from agricultural sub-marginal lands which provide only a poor living for those on them. He thinks the Senate could investigate the problem. Farmers, rather than city slickers, know most about land, and the Senate doesn't have to be a dirt farmer.

Key to Future

The importance of the Middle East comes not only from the oil that it is supplying at the present time. The Middle East is even more important for the oil it may supply in the future.

The figures for the world's proven oil reserves (as they appeared in a recent booklet put out by the Bank of Nova Scotia) are rather startling. Here is the table of the amount and location of these reserves:

Middle East	133,202 million barrels
United States	30,250 million barrels
L. American	16,551 million barrels
Canada	3,000 million barrels

According to present knowledge it is the Middle East that will decide the future of the world, since the world, more and more, is moving on oil. Inasmuch as Russia has always planned the domination of the world, what better or quicker way to attain that objective than to extend influence among the Middle Eastern nations?

Marlin Blamed For Hospital Building Delay

COWICHAN LAKE, B.C. (CP) —Health Minister Eric Martin's failure to give his support was blamed in a statement by the Hospital Association here for the impasse in new hospital construction in this area.

Trustees of the district of Cowichan Lake Hospital Association decided to continue their efforts to win approval of their proposed hospital despite report of the research division of the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service.

On the basis of this report the minister has held that a new hospital must be built at Duncan before one at Lake Cowichan can be considered.

The trustees, holding pledges of $134,000, claimed that the report was impracticable because it omitted reference to the ability of ratepayers to pay for the new Duncan hospital. Opinion of the experts should not prevail over local decisions, said the trustees.

They said that the cult of bigness in hospitals would deny community facilities. The proposed 50-bed hospital for Cowichan Lake could handle 90 per cent of local cases and the 10 per cent requiring special treatment would not find those facilities in the proposed 165-bed unit at Duncan. They would still have to be referred to a large city hospital.

Urge Harris To Ease Medical Expense Tax

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Harris now preparing his 1957-58 budget, was urged Friday to provide more generous tax deductions for medical expenses and to ease the tax load on working couples.

These were included among more than 25 taxe changes proposed by the Canaditn Institute of Chartered Accountants and the Canadian Bar Association in their annual joint submission to the minister.

Some were of a technical nature, aimed at simplifying the tax structure. Others touched on estates of farmers and fishermen and charitable donations by industries. The net effect of most of them would be to ease the taxpayers' burden.

WOULD RAISE EXEMPTION

Tax allowance for medical expenses are currently too limited in scope and fall short of Parliament's original intentions, the bodies maintained. They suggested the ceiling on allowable expenses —$1500 for a single person and up to $4000 for a married person with family—should be eliminated altogether. No reference was made to the present allowance floor—three per cent of taxable income.

Husbands whose wives earn more than $250 a year and less than $1000 have their basic exemption of $2000 reduced by the amount of the wives' earnings over $250. The groups suggested the basic exemption of $250 should be raised to $750, maintaining that dependents of single persons can earn up to that latter amount before the single person's personal exemption is affected.

As matters stood now, they said, a single person with a dependent, had a tax advantage over a married person.

Other recommendations:

1. Corporations and persons making charitable donations in excess of the permitted ceiling for tax purposes should be allowed to deduct the excess in any of the five succeeding years. Currently, individuals may deduct up to 10 per cent of their incomes on donations to charity; corporations may deduct up to five per cent.

2. The federal government should negotiate with the Quebec administration to iron our differences in corportaion tax rules.

3. Fishermen and farmers currently are allowed to average out their incomes over a five-year period for tax purposes, but the permission lapses if they die before the five-year period is up. This could affect their estates. Averaging for the remaining period less than five years should be allowed.

4. All bona fide business expenses should be allowed.

West Germany Readies Bid For Lost Arabian Markets

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—West Germany is preparing to make a powerful bid for the Middle East market virtually lost by Britain and France after the Suez crisis.

West Germany is the only Western country whose trade with this area shows an upward trend. It evidently is the only European country which has the economic capacity to fill any "vacuum" in the Middle East.

A concerted move to boost business with the Arab countries is due in March with a large German industrial exhibition in Cairo. Although scheduled ofr more than a year, the fair could not have been timed better for the Germans.

German technicians who continued to build bridges, a steel mill and other projects in Egypt even during the most critical days of the November invasion have helped much to promote this goodwill.

But much of the current German poularity is from the war. Veteran observers say probably the most popular German name among the Arabs is that of the late Field Marshal Erwin Rommel. Because his Afrika Korps almost drove the British back to aCiro, Rommel is a military idol to anti-British Egyptians.

"Rommel has become one of the best promoters of German trade with the Arab countries," a West German industrialist said recently.

The major obstacle to German expansion in the area is Egypt's chronic shortage of capital and foreign currency. German importers have only a limited interest in Egyptian cotton at market rates as long as the Soviet satellites—which got Egyptian cotton on a barter basis—are offering it at dumping prices.

DISLIKE BARTER

Egyptian suggestions of a barter agreement also have failed to stir German enthusiasm. Most West German exporters talk about a long-term, low-interest credit from the Bonn government for Cairo.

President Eisenhower's citizens advisory committee on foreign aid, headed by former U. S. Steel president Benjamin Fairless, is reported to have inquired about the possibility of American-German co-operation in the Middle East during its visit to Bonn. Some newspapers foresaw a possibility of American dollars paying for German sales to the Arabs.

Will Use Grant For Telescope

VICTORIA (CP) — A $150,000 federal grant to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory here will be used to further three projects planned for the near future, Dr. R. M. Petrie said Thursday.

Dr. Petrie, head of the observatory, said the three projects were the construction of a new telescope and dome on Little Saanich Mountain, construction of a machine shop, and modernization of the electric controls to the present telescope and dome.

"The amount of the grant will undoubtedly be spread over the three projects," he said.

The new telescope will take about three years to build and will be used for the study of star spectra, brightness and color.

Dr. Petrie, retiring president of the Royal Astronomical Society, will leave next week for the annual meeting of the Society in Toronto.

UBC Students Ask B.C. Gov't. For Extra $5 Million Grant

VICTORIA (CP) — A delegation of three University of B.C. student officials met with Premier Bennett and the provincial Cabinet Friday to ask an increase of $5,000,000 to the $10,000,000 capital grant already allocated to the university.

The delegation is led by law student Ben Trevino and includes Alma Mater Society President Don Jabour and Treasurer Al Thackery.

A brief presented to the cabinet by the students also asked "that $5,000,000 be added to the capital grant already allocated, making a total of $15,000,000 for 10 years, but that $10,000,000 of that sum be authorized for expenditure in the next five years."

The grant now restricts expenditure at the rate of $1,000,000 a year.

The students said in their brief that at this rate of spending "only two new buildings will have appeared on the campus by 1961, whereas in that period enrolment will increase by 4000 students."

The capital construction grant was made in 1955 and 433 acres added to university lands.

ENROLMENT INCREASED

Despite these contributions, the brief said, "the enrolment of the university is growing so rapidly that demands for more money from the provincial government have to be made."

It was suggested by the students that the operating grant in future years be calculated on the basis of total government revenue, the per capita enrolment of the university and the purchasing power of the dollar "in real terms."

The brief said the operating grant should contain a provision that additions to the curriculum, such as the proposed schools of dentistry and physio-therapy, would be considered in the grant and an according increase made.

Increase in present and future grants is "imperative if the university is to keep pace with enrolment and increasing demand for university graduates."

"It should be noted that these are still the minimum needs," the brief said.

"The federal government," the brief said, "has recognized the developing crisis and has asked Parliament for $50,000,000 for capital construction among Canadian universities.

"The University of British Columbia's capital needs over the next 10 years are estimated at $25,000,000, which would enable it to barely keep pace with the growing enrolment and expand its curriculum to a small degree."

CNIB To Ask Living Allowance For Blind

VICTORIA (CP)—Federal government will be asked this session to provide an "expense of living" allowance for close to 15,000 blind residents of Canada.

The allowance would cover extra expenses incurred by the blind, said Capt. M. C. Robinson of Vancouver, national director for Western Canada of the Canadian National Institute of the Blind.

No set sum is being sought because the CNIB feels "the government should determine themselves what is a fair amount to give" he said in an interview Thursday.

GIVEN TO VETS

The allowance is at present given to war-blinded veterans but not to civilians. Capt. Robinson said the extra allowance on a veteran's pension amounted to about 40 per cent.

"It costs a blind person substantially more to live than the average just through loss of his sight" Capt. Robinson said.

In B.C., where there would be some 1600 eligible for the expense allowance, blind people receive a $40 basic allowance and a $20 provincial cost of living bonus.

The expense of living allowance would be used to cover the cost of extra clothing because of tears or snags frequent taxis for transportation shoe repairs because of scuffing and dragging cleaning bills domestic assistance for blind women and a telephone.

He said such an allowance would enable many blind people to emerge from total dependency to near financial independence.

Capt. Robinson blinded in the First World War, said a brief would be submitted to Ottawa next month.

SANDHURST, England (CP) — A roll of honor in memory of Commonwealth officers who gave their lives in the Second World War, including the names of 1,653 Canadians, has been dedicated at the memorial chapel of the Royal Military College here.

Attlee's Talk Cancelled at Massey Hall

CLEVELAND (CP)—Earl Attlee is apparently continuing his journey to Toronto Friday although his scheduled lecture there has been cancelled.

His booking agent, Mrs. Estelle Craig, reported that a scheduled speech by Attlee in Toronto Friday was cancelled because not enough people made bookings.

TOO SMALL AUDIENCE

Toronto's "Massey Hall holds 2757 persons," she said. "There wouldn't have been enough people there to fill more than half a dozen rows."

Toronto was the last scheduled stop in Atlee's three-week lecture tour. A tour official said Attlee left Pittsburgh for Cleveland and it was understood he would continue to Toronto by train or car. He added that the Labor peer, former British prime minister "missed" a telegram from Toronto informing him of the cancellation.

Fruit Growers Decide To Study N.Z. Method

PENTICTON (CP) — The B.C. Fruit Growers Association, hoping to pare at least $500,000 from annual production costs, have decided to send a delegation to study fruit-picking methods in New Zealand.

The Association was told about the advantages of New Zealand methods at the close of a three-day convention here by Dr. James Marshall, an official of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Summerland.

Dr. Marshall, who visited New Zealand last summer, said New Zealand growers employ 50-bushel containers instead of the single bushel boxes.

"Bushel bins will reduce picking costs by one third," he said and estimated the annual saving would be at least $500,000.

He said the New Zealand method eliminated excessive handling and would reduce losses through the theft of picked fruit left overnight in the orchard.

UNANIMOUS APPROVAL

The Association gave unanimous approval to Dr. Marshall's recommendation that a delegation be sent to New Zealand.

Growers also approved a resolution calling for the amalgamation of packinghouses in an effort to reduce packing costs.

Seek Legislation To Compel Back Yard Orchardists To Spray Trees

PENTICTON (CP) — The provincial government will be asked to enact legislation making it compulsory for "back yard" fruit growers to remove the trees unless they are adequately sprayed to kill insects and diseases.

An East Kelowna fruit grower, Claude Taylor, told delegates at the closing session of the British Columbia Fruit Growers Association convention that San Jose scale is being spread throughout the area by birds who carry the disease to non-affected trees.

Mr. Taylor singled out Kelowna, where, he said, he has made representations to Mayor J. J. Ladd to make it compulsory for all trees to be properly sprayed.

He said starlings flit from one tree to another carrying the disease. Mr. Taylor suggested that if adequate measures are not taken by the "back yard" orchardists, the trees should be removed. Delegates unanimously approved the suggestion that the B.C. government change present legislation to make it compulsory to carry out reasonable insect and disease control.

Dick Penson of Creston said the same situation existed in the Kootenays, but these were trees in neglected orchards.

Delegates also went on record in favor of the importation of labor from Mexico or the Philippines for seasonal agricultural employment. A resolution asked the B.C. Department of Agriculture to take the necessary steps. It was emphasized the Mexicans would not work in packinghouses.

T. C. McLaughlin said it will be necessary to amend federal regulations to permit the importation of Mexicans.

Our Father's Business

One never really begins to understand the work and nature of the Church until he is willing to do something for it. People never really learn the finest living until they learn to give.

"Service," so we are told, "is the highest self." It is not money about which one would speak but service. What work can I do in the Church, in the Kingdom of God. How can I best serve my fellow creatures with Christ at the centre. Who said: "I am among you as one that serveth."

Let us clear away certain misconceptions which promptly arise at this point. The chief of these is typified by the question: "Why call on me?" I have a lot to do; why not get somebody who is doing nothing. So the argument goes. Surely it is not in the latent ability of man that his successful service consists, but in his relationship to Christ and his fellow men. This is fundamental. Get someone who is not so busy.

Before we go further let us make this frank statement. Christ never calls a lazy man, or a lazy woman. Lazy people are always looking for someone else to do something for them. But busy people want to do things. It has long since become an axiom that if you want something done, call a busy person.

Not so long ago someone made a survey of 1000 successful men. This is what was found: 300 started as farmers' sons, 200 started as messenger boys, 200 started as news boys, 100 started as printers' apprentices, 100 started as manufacturers' apprentices, 50 started at the bottom of railroad work, 50 had well-to-do parents to give them a start.

So 50 had a push because of wealthy parents and the rest had to start from the bottom. It is further reported that some 67 per cent of a nation's leaders in Church, state, commerce and leading professions are the products of the manse and rectory, places not renowned for wealth or luxuries.

A lazy boy did not invent the telephone. A lazy boy did not learn how to control steam or invent the steam boiler. A lazy boy did not discover the power of gasoline, or learn how to harness the falls of Niagara. Grenfell of Labrador, Dr. Schweitzer, the great microbe hunters, musicians, leaders in the arts — these people by the score — they were not lazy individuals. Examine the Bible and consider folk whom God called to work for Him. Moses at Horeb. Gideon busy with his wheat. Saul with his father's beasts. David tending his father's flocks. Elisha, Amos, Peter, Andrew, James, John.

When the Master sought workers He went to the busy markets of trade and toil. Whether in the field of the Church, the social sciences, education, medicine, commerce and industry, no person can sit idly by and hope to achieve anything.

Neither will the Church and work for the Kingdom of God achieve anything if people sit idly by while leaving George to bare the brunt of the burden.

Canon Silverwood.

Spring Hats To Be Small, Easy to Wear

By CAROLYN WILLETT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—That old urge to buy a new spring hat is again nipping at Canadian women.

Evelyn Patenaude, buyer and millinery expert for a department store (Morgan) here, says that for a time women seemed to be slightly ignoring the spring hat-buying tradition.

But judging by demands for hats last fall and during the winter, "it's definitely going to be a good spring for hats," Miss Patenaude said in an interview.

What will the spring hat be?

The "softly for spring" look, of course, in style, fabric and color, to complement the softer, more feminine look in spring clothes, says Miss Patenaude.

EASIER TO WEAR

Surrounded by samples of the latest in spring millinery, she said she recently returned from New York and a look at new styles and fabrics.

"Spring hats will be easier to wear," she says. "They'll be small hats with high crowns for height, with simply draped fabrics around linen-line straws or alpacas for the soft effect."

Hats to wear with suits will have casual brims — some softly rippled at the brim—or be shirred and bloused at the base of the crown.

Flowers, traditionally a part of spring hats, deck the crown or brim or, fashioend over a wire hat shape, become the whole hat.

Miss Patenaude, who has been buying hats for more than 25 years, says there's evidence of a return to the 1930 look—with profile hats rolled softly off the face.

McNAUGHTON'S SON TO WED HELEN CLAXTON

OTTAWA (CP) — Hon. Brooke Claxton and Mrs. Claxton Friday announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen Jane, to Lt.-Col. Edward M. D. Leslie, son of wartime army chief Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton and Mrs. McNaughton.

The daughter of the former defence minister and Col. Leslie, 38-year-old general staff officer at army headquarters here, will be married at the Rockcliffe RCAF station chapel Feb. 16.

Lt.-Col. Leslie changed his surname from McNaughton to meet conditions of an aunt's will which made him heir to her estate.

Cooking Entire Meal In Oven Saves Time

By MARGARET CARR

One way of preparing meals that has continued to win favor over the years is that of cooking everything in the oven.

Sometimes even the next day's dessert or meat course is included in order to save time and to make full use of the ovean heat.

The one thing with oven meals is to remember that they should be timed in such a way that every thing will be cooked to perfection at serving time.

Date-Nut Pudding

HERB-BRAISED STEAK

2 pounds round steak, cut ½-inch thick.
2 beaten eggs
2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon marjoram
½ teaspoon thyme
Dash pepper
Dash cayenne
1 cup fine crack crumbs
1/3 cup fat

With meat pounder, pound steak thoroughly on lightly floured board. Cut steak in serving pieces Combine eggs, milk and seasonings. Dip meat into egg mixture, then into cracker crumbs. Handle carefully so all the coating stays on. Brown steak on both sides in hot fat. Add two tablespoons water and any remaining egg mixture. Cover tightly. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 45 minutes; uncover and bake 15 minutes longer. Makes six servings.

HORSE-RADISH BEETS

2 cups canned julienne-style or diced beets
3 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons horseradish
1 tablespoon butter or margarine.

Drain beets, reserving liquid. Place beets in greased one-quart casserole. In small saucepan, blend sugar, cornstarch, and salt; stir in ¾ cup beet liquid and the vinegar; add remaining ingredients. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly. Pour sauce over beets. Cover. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 45 to 60 minutes. Makes six servings.

BAKED FROZEN CORN

2 10-ounce packages frozen corn
½ cup light cream
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
¼ cup butter or margarine.

Place corn, cream, salt and pepper in 1½ quart casserole. Dot with butter; cover. Baker in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) about one hour. Makes six to eight servings.

DATE-NUT PUDDING

¼ cup sugar
3 beaten eggs
¼ cup sifted pastry flour
1 teapsoon baking flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup broken walnuts

Add sugar gradually to eggs, beating until thick and light. Sift dry ingredients together; fold into egg mixture. Fold in dates and nuts. Turn into greased eight-inch square pan and bake in moderate overn (350 deg. F.) one hour. Cut in squares. Serve warm, topped with whipped cream. Makes eight servings.

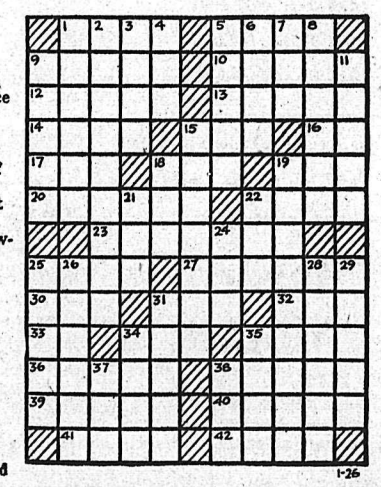
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Lumber Booming In Nova Scotia

HALIFAX (CP)— Nova Scotia's lumber business is booming this winter and the only hitch is a shortage of woods labor.

But despite this, forestry officials are happy about market conditions. R. A. Webb, a member of the Maritime Lumber Bureau, says producers can sell everything they cut. Fifty-per cent of the producers have sold lumber before they had it cut, he says.

Mr. Webb describes the local market as "extremely good" and the United Kingdom market "steady." Prices are about $80 for 1,000 feet of rough material.

The only really competitive market apparently is in Ontario where, because of freight rates, lumber from the West can be taken in at a cheaper price. As a result local lumbermen are selling to Ontario buyers at prices lower than they receive on the local market.

Russian Logging Methods Waste Manpower Says Coast Lumberman

VICTORIA (CP) — Russian logging operations, conducted on a large mechanically efficient scale, waste a terrific amount of manpower a Vancouver Island lumberman said here.

Speaker was H. S. Stone, president of the Hillcrest Lumber Ltd., who recently toured the Soviet Union. Mr. Stone was speaking to the Victoria branches of the Professional Engineers of B.C. and the Engineering Institute of Canada.

He said he was impressed by the mechanical development of logging in Russia, where the industry had been almost non-mechanical before the Second World War.

A case in point was a huge bundling and sorting machine which would take in a great flow of logs from a river, sort and bundle them into lengths and sizes, and strap the bundles into large booms for further transportation.

A mill at Archangel, at the Arctic Circle, employs 2000 persons on three shifts and most of them, even the boom crews, are women, he said. The port loads 350 ships yearly, during the three short summer months when it is ice-free.

Example of the manpower waste was a pulp mill Mr. Stone visited, the same size as the Harmac pulp mill on Vancouver Island, which employs 3700 people. The Harmac mill employs 370.

Chou Favors Friendly Relations With U.S.

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China said Friday that China wants friendly relations with the United States but will not bargain the case of the American prisoners for better understanding.

He was commenting on a statement President Eisenhower made at a press conference this week that U. S. China policy will not be changed while Americans are held by the Chinese.

"American prisoners who committed offenses against Chinese law," the Chinese leader said. "These are two separate matters."

Chou was speaking to reporters at the airport before his departure for Katmandu, Nepal, after a one-day visit here—his third since he began an Asian tour last month—for talks with Prime Minister Nehru.

"We want to be friendly with the American people and we will stick to this policy," he said.

Nehru saw Chou off at the airport. The two had a three-hour talk Thursday night.

Chou arrived in New Delhi from Afghanistan on his way home from talks in Moscow, Warsaw and Budapest. He discussed with Nehru the Hungarian question, Eisenhower's Middle East doctrine and disarmament.

The SHORT CIRCUIT

By JOHN SHORT
Sports Editor

Ed Robins is no longer a member of the officiating staff of the Western International Hockey League. And without expressing my opinion of the calibre of his work, I say his resignation (?) is probably a good thing.

Robins was in the press box at Civic Arena Wednesday night bleating like a wounded calf over his resignation. Let it be explained here that his resignation came only after the WIHL executive had handed him two-weeks' notice.

His complaints are many and varied . . . and, if you like that sort of thing, interesting. But he has changed his tack so often that one wonders exactly which way the wind is blowing.

Robins said Wednesday that the WIHL attempted to break his contract, but added that he would not let them.

League president Dr. Joe Vingo of Nelson said Robins had agreed to work a reduced number of games because the angular official had a job in Trail, but had started to complain only when he decided once again to rely entirely upon refereeing for his livelihood.

Robins told the press-box congregation Wednesday—when Nelson Maple Leafs, who play Trail Smoke Eaters here tonight in search of REVENGE, dumped Spokane Flyers 5-2—that Dr. Vingo and Nelson representative vice-president Art Godfrey "had it in for him."

He also accused Dr. Vingo of listening exclusively to demands from Spokane, who, he said: "runs the league."

* * *

Dr. Vingo makes errors. But as far as is known to your agent, he does not allow any single group to run the league. Nor is he likely to start within the short time remaining before this season becomes last season.

This reporter is not attempting to discredit Robins' testimony. Perhaps from where he sits, he sees certain aspects of the case that are not evident to those less well-acquainted with the ins-and-outs of the affair.

But perhaps as he reads this, Robins will realize that his entire series of outbursts has done little to endear him to hockey followers. He may also know at this stage that his threat to "be like (Blair) Peters" means little.

Peters resigned earlier this season, after being notified that his services were no longer needed.

Peters, too, raised a fuss.

Upon his retirement, audible sighs of pleasure were heard throughout the WIHL.

Who can say that after Robins has departed and the stigma of "unfairness" has been lifted from the collective head of the ruling body of the WIHL, the same sighs will not be heard . . . from some of the same people?

Short's Briefs: Figure skaters are active nearly every day at Civic Arena preparing for the annual skating extravaganza put on by Nelson Figure Skating Club. Judging from a quick look at some of the costumes and remembering the pleasant evening enjoyed by the crowd last year, it is safe to say that this year's show will draw a larger crowd . . . maybe I should have said "deserves to" draw a larger crowd.

Kimberley, Trail Rinks In Women's 'Spiel Semis

CRESTON — Two rinks apiece from Kimberley and Trail qualified Thursday to enter the semi-finals of the primary event of the West Kootenay Women's Bonspiel, which will be played today.

The Jones rink clipped a crew skipped by M. Martello of Creston 7-5; the Ink rink stopped the Telford aggregation of Creston 7-3; the Mackie squad won 8-6 over the Sutcliffe squad of Creston, and Hanson's aggregation registered a 12-0 shutout over the Montpellier rink of Creston.

A banquet was held Thursday to welcome the curlers, with a group of Creston women — all dressed in the styles of the 1920's —providing a large portion of the entertainment. Mrs. Don Archibald directed the group which attempted in a small way to revive the days of the "flappers."

Mrs. D. Gardiner of Creston welcomed the curlers, extending the hospitality of the valley. Mrs. Hanson of Kimberley, skip of one of the semi-final entries, commented upon the enjoyment of renewing acquaintances with old curling friends and the pleasure of meeting new addicts to the "roaring game."

Rinks from Kimberley, Nelson, Trail and Cranbrook added to the enjoyment. Kimberley presented a skit, Trail and Cranbrook sang separate songs about curling, and Nelson reminded onlookers that next year's West Kootenay Women's Bonspiel will be held in Nelson.

DeGirolamo Rink Wins Bonspiel

Mrs. M. DeGirolamo's rink won the stay-at-home bonspiel at Nelson Women's Curling Club, defeating Mrs. A. J. Hesse's crew 12-7 Friday.

Curling with the winning skip were Mrs. P. Kuntz, Mrs. G. Davis and Mrs. D. Winlaw. Mrs. Hesse's mates were Mrs. R. Hale, Mrs. C. Isaakson and Mrs. J. Steadman.

Next games scheduled in Sharpe Cup play:

Monday: Mrs. M. L. Craig vs Mrs. DeGirolamo, Mrs. R. Chandler vs Mrs. O. G. Macintyre.

Tuesday: Mrs. Hesse vs Mrs. Macintyre, Mrs. M. Kubin vs Mrs Chandler.

JOE LOUIS FUND PROCEEDS

CHICAGO (AP)—Efforts to rescue former heavyweight champion Joe Louis from his heavy income tax troubles proceeded on two fronts Friday.

Arthur Wilson, a certified public accountant representing Louis, said a compromise offer to resolve Joe's $1,120,000 tax indebtedness was filed with income tax officials here.

He said the offer estimated Louis' potential earnings power at $25,000 or $30,000 yearly from which must come current taxes and support money in an agreement with his former wife.

"We hope that some substantial token can be made—perhaps from the Joe Louis fund being raised by outside sources," said Wilson, "and that maybe Joe can also pay $3,000 or $4,000 yearly for the next five years or so. So far as I know, Joe has no other assets with which to make an offer."

Meanwhile, the Joe Louis Fund Inc., released figures showing Louis has paid or is asked to pay taxes, interest and penalties amounting to $50,000 more than he ever earned in the ring. Fund spokesman pointed out the drive, with which Louis has no connection, has had trouble "getting off the ground." It was started Jan. 16.

Scots Lose

HAMILTON (CP) — Touring Scots curlers dropped a close five-game, 55-51 decision to Ontario rinks Friday and fell further behind in their quest for the Strathcona Cup.

The final tally left the Scots far in arrears, 949-714, with only four matches remaining.

POMPEY KOs HECHT

BERLIN (AP) — Yolande Pompey, the Trinidad terror, knocked out Germany's Gerhard Hecht, the European light-heavyweight champion, in the second round of their 10-round, non-title fight Friday.

Pompey, 27, weighed 167 pounds. Hecht, 33, weighed 174.

WITH STANE AND BESOM

No curling will be done at Nelson Curling Club Friday night of next week as ice-makers will be busy preparing the five curling sheets for the expected onslaught of curlers for the B.C. Bonspiel which begins here Monday, Feb. 4.

The Nelson Business Girls' Curling Club will be active only once, occupying three sheets of ice for Wednesday's 7 p.m. draw.

The week's draw follows:

Monday: 7 p.m. — R. Palmer vs H. Farenholtz; R. Chandler vs W. Triggs; N. Jennejohn vs E. Ramsbottom; L. J. Maurer vs N. Lutkiwich; A. Reid vs H. Moore.

9 p.m. — W. Gold vs D. Meakins; A. Ronmark vs E. C. Hunt; F. Carmichael vs W. Marr; E. Leeming vs J. R. Bailey; R. F. Wallace vs L. McEachern.

Tuesday: 7 p.m. — A. Waters vs N. Sardich; W. Tozer vs R. Bruce; D. Cathcart vs J. Sutherland; J. Thom vs R. F. Wallace; R. Carmichael vs W. Tickner.

9 p.m. — H. Hinnit vs J. McMurchy; J. Harvey vs M. B. Ryalls; A. Vansacker vs J. Haines; W. Duckworth vs J. Leeming; L. Peerless vs H. Ronmark.

Wednesday: 7 p.m. — W. Triggs vs E. Leeming; J. R. Bailey vs W. Marr.

9 p.m. — A. Reid vs L. J. Maurer; D. Meakins vs E. Ramsbottom; H. Moore vs R. Palmer; F. Carmichael vs W. Gold; R. Chandled vs N. Jennejohn.

Thursday: 7 p.m. — L. McEachern vs J. Thom; J. Sutherland vs N. Sardich; J. Leeming vs A. Ronmark; A. Waters vs M. S. Ryalls; W. Duckworth vs A. Vansacker.

9 p.m. — D. Cathcart vs F. Carmichael; H. Ronmark vs W. Tickner; E. C. Hunt vs R. Bruce; W. Tozer vs J. McMurchy; H. Farenholtz vs N. Lutkiwich.

Maple Leafs After Revenge From Smokies

Nelson Maple Leafs want revenge tonight.

And if they play as well as they played at Civic Arena Wednesday night when they slapped Spokane's (high)-Flyers 5-2, they may get it.

On the other hand, if they play as poorly as reports indicate they did Thursday night when Trail Smoke Eaters cruised to a 9-1 triumph, they may get it, too—in the neck.

More likely than not, it will be an exciting game. Leafs and Smokies love to hate one another and on occasion, their "hate" — a profitable one for each club — overflows into a friendly type of disagreement, one sometimes accompanied by swinging fists and bony elbows.

Leafs will make no changes from the one that played so well Wednesday and so ineffectively Thursday.

The reason is simple. They have no other players.

B.C. 'Spiel Entries Being Received

Entries are starting to come in for the British Columbia bonspiel here Feb. 4-9 with rinks entered from Penticton, Kimberley, Cranbrook and Creston.

Of the eight rinks coming to represent their respective zones in competition for provincial honors and a trip to Kingston for the dominion finals, four have forwarded their entries: E. Croft of Summerland, representing Okanagan; Trail's Reg Stone, West Kootenay champs; E. Coates of Vancouver's Capilano Club, and Vancouver Island representative T. Folk of Duncan.

Few local entries have been received yet but it is understood Nelson rinks who competed for zone honors, are breaking up in order to swell the number of entries and to allow more club members an opportunity to curl in the Jubilee 'spiel, who might otherwise not get on a rink.

The closing date for entries, formerly set for Jan. 26, has been extended to Jan. 31, postmarked date.

Entertainment plans are well under way and rinks taking part in the bonspiel are assured of a good time, officials stated.

MACHEN DECISIONS MAXIM

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Eddie Machen, a powerful young heavyweight comer from California, battered his way to an easy unanimous decision over former light heavyweight champion Joey Maxim in the 10-round main event Friday night at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

The 24-year-old Machen, third-ranking contender for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title, dropped Maxim for a nine count in the ninth round and Joey had to hang on desperately to keep from going down for good.

Maxim, pudgy around the middle, but still one of the ring's master boxers, held Machen off for six rounds.

New Brunswickers Win Montreal Curling Event

By ARCH MacKENZIE

MONTREAL (CP)—Unheralded New Brunswick Friday captured the Duke of Edinburgh badges with a 14-11 victory over Northern Ontario in the finals of the three-country 16-rink main feature of Royal Montreal Curling Club's birthday celebration bonspiel.

Gord Malcolm of Saint John, unplaced in pre-spiel predictions, hung on to beat Jimmy Guy of Kenora, Ont., who fell short in a rousing comeback after trailing 12-5 at the half-way mark in the 12-end match.

About 2000 persons watched in Montreal's Forum as Guy's rink, misfiring from first man to skip, gathered itself to nip Malcolm's margin to 12-9 at one point and later 13-11. Guy lost the game on last rock when an all-or-nothing shot failed to get a well-guarded New Brunswick counter.

In the first flight of the consolations, R.H. Jones' Truro rink, representing Nova Scotia, edged Alberta, led by Frank Wolfe of Edmonton, 13-11. Saskatchewan's Campbell brothers from Avonlea battered Hal Fellows of Royal Montreal 18-7 in the second flight and the Midwest Curling Association, represented by Bob Spain's entry from Minot, N. D., nipped Claude Hall of St. John's Nfld., 12-10 in the third.

Sidelined were a Scottish rink representing the Royal Caledonia Curling Club, Manitoba, another Royal Montreal rink, the Grand National Curling Club of America, Ontario, British Columbia, Prince Edward Island and Quebec.

Rotary Club Defends Curling Honors

Rotary Club, winners of last year's inter-service club bonspiel at Nelson Curling Club, seek to defend their honors tonight as representatives of Associated Canadian Travellers, Gyro Club, Kiwanis Club, Kinsmen Club, Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce challenge them for the service-club curling supremacy of Nelson.

Winner also gets the privilege—albeit a rather doubtful one, some feel — of putting on the affair the following year, in keeping with custom.

Nine matches will be played, four at 6 p.m. and five two hours later. The total accumulated by each club's representatives will be divided by the number of teams each club sends.

The draw:

6 p.m. — Collett, ACT, vs Peerless, Rotary; Shringley, ACT, vs Melville, Gyro; McDonald, ACT, vs Nicholson, Kiwanis; Jack, Kinsmen, vs Coleman, Jaycees.

8 p.m. — Wah, Lions, vs Kopecki, Kiwanis; Carmichael, Lions, vs Wilson, Jaycees; Sample, Lions, vs Balderson, Kiwanis; Hartridge, Lions, vs Peacock, Rotary; Gilker, Rotary vs Freeman, Gyro.

Minor Hockey Schedule

Monday, 5-6—Pee Wee Rep practice.

Saturday, 1-2—Bantam Pool.

2-3—Rangers vs Hawk Pee Wees.

3-4—Canadiens vs Bruin Pee Wees.

Mosienko Honored

WINNIPEG (CP) — Billy Mosienko, speedy forward with Winnipeg Warriors of the Western Hockey League, Thursday night was named Manitoba Athlete of the Year for 1956, and became the first holder of the Ches McCance memorial trophy.

Mosienko received the trophy at the second annual Sportsmen's Night, sponsored by the Winnipeg Sportswriters and Sportscasters' Association, which made the selection.

HURRICANE BLOWING HARD

NEW YORK (AP)—On the surface everything was sweet and peaceful at the annual dinner of the Boxing Writers Association Thursday night.

Heavyweight champion Flyod Patterson and sports columnist Frank Graham of the New York Journal - American received the main awards. Even Julius Helfand chairman of the New York state athletic commission, was content just to hand Patterson the Edward J. Neil plaque as "fighter of the year" without putting the rap on anyone or anything.

But in a far corner of the hotel ballroom, a tall-broad-shouldered fellow sat and burned.

"I'll get him the next time. I'll show him. I'll chop him up something awful. You wait and see."

NO FRIEND NOW

The words came slowly at first, then in a torrent from Tommy Jackson, the fighter they call the Hurrican of the Rockaways.

"He was my friend," said Tommy, "but he ain't any more. I'll get him in June. That's my next fight. Him and me for the title."

What was it that was upsetting him?

"I beat him the last time and he knows it," replied the Hurricane. "I made the fight. He didn't do nothing to me. He only fought a couple of seconds each round. So he got the decision and he got to fight Archie Moore and he won the title. It should have been me. But I'll get him. He ain't my friend any more. I ain't been mad at anyone before but now I'm mad. I'm goona chop him up like a piece of steak."

Jackson stopped. The anger went out of his eyes.

"I guess I better go over and say something nice to him," he said. He strode over to where Patterson, holding the Neil plaque, was shaking hands with well-wishers.

"Nice going, Floyd," Jackson muttered.

LOPATA SIGNS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Stan Lopata, who led all major league catchers in hitting home runs last season, Friday signed his 1957 contract with Philadelphia Phillies for a substantial increase.

President Bob Carpenter of the Phillies, sticking with his policy of not disclosing player salaries, said "Lopata received a substantial increase in salary."
