Pineau Asks Reopen Canal Talks

Says Present System "Temporary" Measure

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) — Foreign Minister Christian Pineau of France urged the Security Council Monday to arrange new negotiations with Egypt for a permanent settlement of the Suez Canal controversy.

In a speech to the 11-member council, Pineau assailed the present system of operation of the canal as "amibguous" and "temporary." He said a definite settlement should be worked out on the basis of six principles approved unanimously by the council last Oct. 13.

Pineau appeared before the council as the representative of the lone government still boycotting the Suez Canal. Noting that major canal users recently decided to permit use of the canal with reservations, he quoted a French proverb: "Nothing lasts longer than the temporary."

The French consider the United States and Britain let them down by deciding to use the canal with reservations.

Pinneau spoke after Arkady A. Sobolev, Soviet delegate, objected to bringing up the Suez case again. Sobolev said the canal is operating and there is no necessity of reopening the case. However, the French move was put in the agenda with a 10 to 0 vote. Sobolev abstained instead of voting against the agenda.

In Paris, Premier Guy Mollet prepared for another vote of confidence today in the National Assembly over more taxes to pay the cost of fighting rebellion in Algeria. He is expected to win, since the assembly likely would not bring down the government while it is debating in the council here.

The issue of sending an Israeli ship through the canal bobbed up in London. Cmdr. Allan Noble, minister of state for foreign affairs, turned down a suggestion that Britain try to dissuade Israel from sending a test ship to the Suez. He told questioners in the House of Commons it is up to Israel to decide whether to undertake a test voyage.

RUSSIA CHARGES U.S..

In Moscow, Pravda charged that the United States is egging Israel on to send a test ship in the hope of provoking a new war in the Middle East. However, in Jerusalem, a foreign ministry spokesman reiterated that Israel will delay until after the council debate any decision on sending a test ship. The spokesman said Israel wants to hear the French views and see what France will do about its own shipping.

Beck Found Guilty By Union Chiefs

Find Former AFL-CIO Vice-President Misused Union Funds, Ouster Follows

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fellow union chiefs Monday found Dave Beck guilty of "gross misuses of union funds entrusted to his care" and virtually read him out of the labor movement.

The AFL-CIO executive council, organized Labor's highest tribunal in the United States, removed Beck permanently as an AFL-CIO vice-president and council member on charges levelled by a Senate rackets investigating committee.

For the pudgy, 62-year-old Beck the unanimous action was a heavy blow. His own Teamsters Union is reported taking steps to oust him as president, even though these moves are slow in taking shape.

Chairman John McClellan (Dem. Ark.) of the Senate rackets investigating committee applauded Beck's ouster as "more than justified" and said "all good union people and good citizens everywhere will heartily approve."

The AFL-CIO council acted on Senate committee charges that Beck had used more than $320,000 in union funds to advance his personal fortunes and then refused to tell about it when questioned by Senate investigators.

PORCEEDINGS ILLEGAL

Beck, claiming the AFL-CIO proceedings against him were illegal, also refused Monday morning to answer queries on the Senate charges put by his fellow AFL-CIO union chieftains.

The council acted swiftly and unanimously against Beck after he fled to the basement of the AFL-CIO headquarters and sped away in an automobile to avoid facing reporters and photographers.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, who had taken a stern stand against Beck from the outset of the Senate committee disclosures, met with reporters shortly thereafter. He said:

"The executive council finds that vice-president Beck has been guilty of gross misuse of union funds entrusted to his care.

"Whether he has violated any laws, state or federal, dealing with theft, misappropriation or embezzlement, is not for us to consider or determine.

COMPLETELY GUILTY

"There is not the faintest question in our minds, however, that he is completely guilty of violating the basic trade union law that union funds are a sacred trust, belonging to the members and to be protected and safeguarded for the interests of the members.

"Whether Beck stole the funds or borrowed them, the record shows he took advantage of his position as a trade union official to use money belonging to dues-paying members for his own personal gain and profit."

Beck showed up for the hearing on time but was kept cooling his heels while Meany reviewed the resolution for council members. Brought before the council, Beck heard a general summary of the charges from Meany and got a general dressing-down.

As Meany put it later: "I told him what I thought of his actions."

16 KILLED BY TORNADO

100 Injured As Twister Hits Shopping Centres

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A tornado struck metropolitan Kansas City at dusk Monday night, smashing two suburban shopping centres. At least 16 were dead and more than 100 injured.

The massive storm at first aimed at Kansas City but then veered southeast to the outskirts.

The Ruskin Heights shopping centre was ripped apart, a new high school was torn open and a large number of residences destroyed or damaged.

Two bodies were recovered at Ruskin Heights and rescue workers were digging for other victims.

A dead woman and 15 injured persons were taken from wreckage of a supermarket at the centre. Another body was found at the Presbyterian Church.

The Martin City business district, also south of the city, was destroyed. Many were injured there.

Klingbell Faces Murder Charge

VANCOUVER (CP) — Calvin Henry Klingbell, 23, has been charged with murder in the death of an elderly Chinese operator of a corner confectionery who died early Saturday of stab wounds in the throat.

Police said they believe Lee Yick Yung, about 63, was resisting a holdup attempt when bludgeoned over the head with a tin of tomato juice, then stabbed in the throat three times with a hunting knife.

First police to reach the scene said a young man was standing in the store with a knife in his hand when they arrived.

Police classified the slaying as "attempted holdup and murder." They said $100 was found in the store. They are holding a hunting knife with a six-inch blade found in the store.

Refugees Treated Better Than Veterans, Legion Complaint

CRANBROOK (CP) —Delegates to the provincial convention of the Canadian Legion here Monday criticized the Federal Government for paying bigger allowances to Hungarian refugees than to veterans.

Adam Williams, chairman of the pension committee, said Legionnaires want to know why Ottawa pays $3 a day board and room allowance to Hungarian refugees while a single war veteran who cannot support himself gets only $60 a month.

Mr. Williams told the 23rd convention of the B. C and Northwestern States command that the $3 payment to Hungarians is an acknowledgment by the government that war veterans allowances are not enough to live on.

The convention was told that a Hungarian family — husband, wife, and two children— would receive $360 a month. Yet, a married veteran could draw only $120 a month with no allowance for dependent children.

Delegates passed a resolution asking the Dominion Command of the Legion to bring the situation to the attention of the government immediately after the June 10 election.

Still dealing with pensions, the convention welcomed the $6 old age pension increase to become effective July 1. It recommended, however, that the amount be increased by 33 1-3 per cent, as asked by the Legion in November. The July 1 increase gives a maximum boost of only 20 per cent.

Other resolutions called for a health and medical scheme for all Canadians, and asked that widows, and others with an income under $75 a month, should be spared the cost of co-insurance and special drugs in case of sickness or injury.

The convention was addressed by Dominion President David L. Burgess and by Alan MacDonald, vice chairman of the Dominion command and Edmonton city solicitor. The opening day was topped off with an open air beef barbecue, with corn on the cob flown in from Mexico.

C. C. Merritt, VC, a member of Vancouver's Mount Pleasant branch, said growth of the Legion is due mainly "to the efforts of First World War veterans."

He said the younger veteran was too preoccupied in raising a family and establishing himself in civilian life to devote much time to the veterans' organization.

But he added: "Probably in the next 10 years most of them will come in. The Legion has to make sure the ideals of two world wars are not lost in the shuffle for dollars and jobs."

Convention business sessions continue until Wednesday.

Seven-year-old Benny Hooper says he feels better and wants to go fishing.

But first, his doctors said Monday, he'll need another week or 10 days to shake off respiratory ills.

Benny was trapped almost 24 hours in sand after he fell to the bottom of a narrow well in his backyard Thursday. Rescuers pulled him from the 24-foot pit Friday evening.

Three doctors gave the boy a thorough examination Sunday.

"He's in no danger as far as we can see," said Dr. Joseph H. Kris, "He has a simple inflammation of the right lung, a simple inflammation of the bronchial tubes leading to that lung and a simple inflammation of the sinuses."

ROME (AP)—A new one-party Italian government was sworn into office Monday night by President Giovanni Gronchi. How long it would last was anybody's guess and a popular guess was" "not long."

In an impressive ceremony at the Quirinale Palace, courtly 69-year-old Adone Zoli, the new premier, presented his 20 ministers from the Christian Democrat party. Gronchi shook hands with each, then read out the oath of office.

The new step is for Zoli to get the cabinet approved by Parliament. The Christian Democrats, although Italy's strongest party, have only 262 of the 590 seats in Parliament.

Haiti Army May Take Over Gov't

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's ruling council ordered Brig.-Gen. Leon Cantave ousted as army chief Monday but he defied the order. The army backed him up and an army take-over of the government was predicted.

Cantave announced last week he recognized the governing authority of the seven-man emergency council. But he refused to accept its order to turn his job over to Col. Pierre Armand, chief of police.

The army numbers 2500 men with reserves of 3000.

The newspaper Le Jour announced that "the army supports Gen. Cantave and controls the situation."

It predicted a proclamation would emerge saying the army is taking over the government.

Troops guarded all entrances to the presidential palace and army headquarters.

He was a voluminous writer on Greek literature, Greek civilization and foreign policy.

1000 Doukhobor Names Added to Voters List

TRAIL (CP) — The addition of 1000 Doukhobor names has helped raise the number of eligible West Kootenay voters in the forthcoming federal election to a reord high, returning officer Fred J. Plester said Saturday.

"Preliminary figures show 27,096 have been registered by enumerators," Mr. Plester said, "topping the final mark of 26,960 who were eligible to vote in the 1953 federal elections."

The 1957 figures were expected to get even higher once courts of revision are completed at Trail, Rossland and Nelson this week.

The returning officer attributed the increase of Doukhobor voters to easing of restrictions. He said in 1953 only a "handful" voted because they had to be citizens with military service. Now, he said, as long as they are citizens, have resided here 12 months and will be 21 on or before June 10, they can vote.

Most of the 1000 Doukhobors who have their names on the polling lists are from the Brilliant-Thrums-Tarrys region.

He will visit Burma, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Thailand and Nationalist China to explore "ways and means to attain mutual prosperity."

1. To build his prestige as a major spokesman for Asia prior to travelling to Washington next month for a review of American-Japanese relations.

2. To rebuild the Asian trade ties Japan needs to feed her crowded population. Kishi wants to sound out leaders on combining Japanese technique and machinery with U.S. capital and southeast Asian resources in a triangular aid program.

The letter followed similar notes to Britain, Denmark, Norway and West Germany during the last two months.

Result of the House Musicale have been given. House D came out on top with 185 points, House A followed with 175 points, House C with 160, and House B with 150 points.

There are some patriotic city feelings even up at L. V. Rogers High School. Some students are growing mustaches and beards, but many without success.

Press Club got together this week to make plans for the big issue of the year.

Many members of the Lewiston Band came to the school on Friday to meet students and look through our halls and rooms.

Oh, by the way, several people have been asking what has happened to the High School's huge parade accompanying each yearly track meet. This is the first year we have not had a parade, but it will definitely be continued next year.

Approximately 125 students, parents, guests and alumni attended the annual commencement banquet at Notre Dame College Saturday night.

Forty five first and second year students completed the college year by writing examinations last week. Those staying on are continuing studies for their Senior Matriculation examinations to be held next month.

Most. Rev. T. J. McCarthy, Bishop of Nelson, gave the opening blessing.

Main speaker was Robert Weir, president of the Student Union who called upon the students to review the highlights of the past year.

He mentioned "studying, working and in general living together has been instrumental in molding the students into a very compact unit . . . in fact, a very large family."

Awards were presented to E. Harp, a gold lighter, from Colin Bell on behalf of the students for being "both a teacher and friend," to Jeff Craig, a gold framed picture of the basketball team, for his "commendable work" as basketball coach. In turn, Mr. Craig presented the most valuable player trophy to Mario Bertuzzi for his outstanding playing and sportmanship.

Bishop McCarthy spoke to the students on the advantage of education in living with others. He said "We learn to live with others by living with them."

A dance in the students lounge completed the event.

Guests included James Byrne of Kimberley, who is seeking re-election as MP for Kootenay East; and C. W. Ramsden, general manager of The Nelson Daily News.

Mrs. Buckley, Trail, Dies Here

A district oldtimer, Mrs. Anna Buckley, late of Trail, died Monday morning in Mount St. Francis Infirmary in Nelson. Born in Clausthal, Germany, in 1876, she came to Canada as a bride in 1903, living for about a year on a Manitoba farm. Her first permanent Canadian home was a small cottage in Silverton, where her husband, the late Hugh J. Buckley, worked in the mines.

After two or three years' homesteading in the Slocan Lake country, the family took up land at Waneta in June, 1911. From 1938 to 1951, Mrs. Buckley lived at Birchbank, near Trail, where her husband and son had a dairy farm. Mr. Buckley died in 1940.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. H. W. (Ada) Waite of Trail, Mrs. H. G. (Grace) McLean of Hope; three sons, Arthur of Fruitvale, Percy of Nelson, and Fred of Trail; 31 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Bus Delayed

An eastbound Greyhound bus was delayed three hours when the heavy vehicle sank up to its axle in sand near Christina Lake. The bus was due at 10:50 p.m. Saturday, but arrived at 2:50 a.m. Sunday. Bus officials said they believed underground water had softened the earth. Passengers had to get out of the bus while it was towed out of the sand.

MINOR ACCIDENT

A three-car accident about 3 p.m. Saturday in the 500 block Josephine Street involved cars driven by Mrs. I. Rollick, W. Chow and E. Hunt, all of Nelson. Minor damages were reported, mostly to Mr. Hunt's car.

Police said Mrs. Rollick's car nudged Chow's car, which was parked behind her. Chow was not in his car at the time, and it rolled across the street, striking Hunt's car, which was travelling south on Josephine.

ViolaMac Shows $253,000 Profit

NEW DENVER — In the past year Violamac Mines Limited has profitably operated its Victor mine reporting a net profit of $253,038, and has done limited exploration work on the Lone Bachelor mine in the same area.

North Shore Group Petitions For Classroom

A public meeting of North Shore residents was held at the home of Gordon Sutherland to plan a centennial celebration and discuss the possibility of having a classroom on the North Shore.

Nominated to the executive at the second meeting of the Community Association were R. Wallace, Dick Spurway, A. R. Arnot, Mrs. P H. Amsden, R. McCallum, Mrs. David Fairbank and Mrs. Arne Heibey. Until the officers can be elected at the next meeting this week Dennis Coleman is acting chairman and Mrs. Heibey acting secretary of the new association.

Several suggestions for a centennial project have been made but no decision made. The association estimates there are about 300 persons living on the North Shore between Ridgeway sub-division and Burns' Point. Interested residents are asked to attend future meetings of the group.

Also discussed at the meeting was the possibility of having a classroom for Grades 1 and 2 in the North Shore community hall and church. A survey has shown that about 40 children will be attending school this fall term. A petition is presently being circulated in support of the proposal.

Day, Herridge Speak at Creston

CRESTON — In a campaign address directed at conditions in Kootenay East, Howard Day, CCF candidate in the coming federal election touched on problems of coal miners, cattlemen and the lumber industry at a meeting here.

Lumbering, he said, is being hit by the "tight money policy" which is "a direct result of the Liberal government's inability to handle money,"

The meeting, which drew a fair attendance, was also addressed by H. W. Herridge.

Mr. Herridge said that the CCF had been active in the development of the Columbia River basin since 1945 and that since then the Liberal government had spent some six million dollars in surveying this basin.

In regards to immigration, more thought should be given to planned immigration, he said.

In regard to the fruit farmer, he felt that federal and provincial support is needed to guarantee the farmer a price on his produce with a national crop insurance program such as extension of the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation.

Herridge Interested In Gray Creek Project

GRAY CREEK— H. W. Herridge, visiting Gray Creek en route from Creston to Riondel, expressed interest in the suggested marking of Rose's Cabin here as an historical site.

Mr. and Mrs. Herridge now live on the property north of Nakusp which was owned by Henry Rose at the time of the fatal brawl that ended in Rose's hanging. Mr Herridge's mother cared for the only survivor, Nels Demars, after the incident. The cabin is a fair-sized log building which Mr. Herridge uses as his office when he has spare time at home.

Optometrists Elect Officers

TRAIL — Ivan Laughton was elected president of the Kootenay Optometric Association and councillor for the ensuing year at the Association's semi-annual meeting here. Donald E. Hunter of Nelson was elected secretary-treasurer.

Successful Exhibition Ahead

From the enthusiasms and energy being displayed by the various committees of the Diamond Jubilee Celebration and the advanced state of their program it is possible to forecast that it should be a resounding success, but in all the preparations for our Mid-Summer festival we have forgotten Nelson's great annual event — the West Kootenay Exhibition.

This will be the closing affair of our year of celebrations and it, too, should be better than ever. The West Kootenay Agricultural and Industrial Association has, despite the setback of last year, determined to excell previous exhibitions. It has formed strong committees to deal with the various branches of its committees and already it has lined up entertainment for the public of the highest quality.

It is a matter of congratulation to the committee members that they have undertaken their task with so much resolution and courage. The whole of the district will join in wishing them the best of luck in their endeavors to make the Diamond Jubilee Exhibition a great success.

Competition Bulwark of Capitalism

The Supreme Court of Canada has made a decision, affecting the Combines Act, of great import to this country. It has ruled it isn't necessary to prove a combine is working against the public interest. It is enough, to secure a conviction, to prove a combine exists, states the Windsor Star.

Quite apart from the technicalities of the law, the decision makes sense. It perhaps would not always be easy to prove beyond a doubt that a combine is actually operating against the public interest. But the fact that a combine does exist is sufficient proof that it could be operated against the public interest.

It stands to reason that big firms which enter into combines, with price-fixing and other arrangements, do so primarily for their own benefit, else they wouldn't do it. And what is to the advantage of such private combines isn't necessarily, or even usually, to the public interest. A combine is unlikely for example, to fix prices so low to the advantage of the purchasing public that these would endanger their profit prospects! Rather the temptation certainly exists to have the prices high enough to protect, or promote, the profits.

Apart from this, combines are a danger to an industrial country. Self-protective devices can contribute to inefficient operations. Some economists claim an important factor in the comparative decline of the United Kingdom industrially has been due to practices of cartels and combines. Able to hide behind fixes prices, there wasn't sufficient emphasis on efficiency. Competition still is a bulwark of capitalism. Combines are a negation of competition.

"Some Day...the Final Answer

Since formation ten years ago, the National Cancer Institute has become the second largest granting body to medical research funds in Canada.

"Our main purpose is to defeat cancer through research," Dr. J. A. MacFarlane, Institute president and dean of medicine at University of Toronto, said recently.

"This is no easy task. In fact, it is the biggest challenge facing the medical world today."

Each year the extent of this research increases. In 1947 only about $20,000 was being spent on cancer research in Canada. There was a lack of properly trained men to do the work and a lack of funds to provide them with equipment, experimental animals and laboratory assistants.

So the Institute produced a plan for granting research fellowships enabling young men and women to study at Oxford, the Graduate School in London, the Sloan-Kettering Institute in New York, and other leading research centres.

These young people returned to Canada and started research projects of their own in universities and hospitals. The Institute then established a system of grants-in-aid for promising projects.

As a result of this programme, Canadian scientists are playing a prominent role in world-wide cancer research.

This year the National Cancer Institute has taken another step forward with the establishment of a Cancer Research Institute at University of Saskatchewan.

But research remains a slow and painstaking job that leads up many blind alleys.

"It is important not to become too optimistic or too pessimistic about our progress," said Dr. MacFarlane.

"Many brilliant men all over the world are devoting their best interest to the task. But we are dealing with the secrets of life itself, and they may yet long elude us. All we can do is continue in the best manner we know, with the assurance that some day the final answer will be found and we will control this disease."

—Canadian Cancer Society News.

Back to Prairies

"Join the Navy and See the World," said the oldtime recruiting posters. And many an inland youth responded to the call of the sea. It was quite a transition from the prairies to the coasts of Canada and thence, after shore training, by ship to the seven seas.

Things seem to have gotten somewhat mixed up, however, in recent years. The air force began to give eager youths a quick opportunity to see distant points on the globe in comparatively rapid succession. And now the navy is sending its modern fighter squadrons back to the prairies for training in army ground support.

A recent navy announcement discloses that No. 870 and No. 871 fighter squadrons, equipped with all-weather Banshees, will proceed to Rivers, Man., for a month each at the Canadian Joint Air Training Command this spring. No. 870 is earmarked for service aboard HMCS Bonaventure when the new Canadian carrier arrives later this year from the United Kingdom.—Saint John Telegraph-Journal.

Civil Defence Help Asked to Restore Arrow Lakes Radio

To the Editor:

Sir: — I should like to congratulate you on your editorial recently on "Radio as Lively as Ever," and also to learn it was "Radio Week." I fully appreciate the importance of radio both as a relaxation, also as a means of communication in civil defence or any other emergency.

You will therefore understand our disappointment on losing our former splendid radio reception in the Arrow Lakes district since the B.C. Power Commission installed their lines through here.

Now we rarely get any radio reception either night or day, we cannot get the news, weather, or any of our old favorite programs and many people in the district are losing interest even to tune in.

Apparently this is due to faulty installation of the power lines. Some of these defects were pointed out to me by our district radio inspector when he visited this district last October. Complaints have gone into the B.C. Power Commission from the district Boards of Trade, also from the Women's and Farmers' Institutes as well as private persons, but no notice has ever been taken of any of this by the B.C. Power Commission.

As radio is the only means to be used in civil defence or other emergencies I wonder if something could be done by your civil defence officer Mr. J. R. Bailey to rectify this condition — and earn the gratitude of the Arrow Lake residents.

Your Individual HOROSCOPE

By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars,

For Wednesday, May 22, 1957

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) —Start the day with purpose, enthusiasm. Be alert for available opportunities. Introduce new and progressive methods into your work. Develop greater interest in current events.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)— Maintain a tempo consistent with demands. In free hours, replenish depleted energies for great activity later in the week. Don't let petty annoyances throw you off your stride. Be cheery !

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)— Decisive moves should be made only after careful analysis. Competition may determine the amount and quality of your efforts. Laudable objectives and adequate incentive are your best allies.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)— Be factual, specific and make use of all talents in those fields where you excel. Don't back a losing proposition or a worthless program. Day favors those who are energetic and ingenious.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)— Note Taurus. Give each activity the attention it deserves according to its importance. Sidestep unpleasant situations unless a principle is involved, then stand your ground.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Virgoans are noted for their endurance, but avoid a tendency to overstrain. Emphasize your fine intelligence and versatility in shaping a pleasant and productive program.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Avoid delays, confused action, carelessness. Don't listen to get-rich-quick schemes, either. Rather build your future on a firm foundation.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — Use your keen judgment and shrewd thinking to attain the top results you can have now. Waste no time on worthless propositions; instill in others the courage and confidence which are innately yours.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius) — Bickering and dissension may be prevalent now. You've time to make plans to counteract them and proceed with a smooth, factual performance. Your innate sense of humor, diplomacy and tact should help you.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — A dignified approach is your "ace in the hole" now. While others argue, you can advance quietly, consistently. Make friends; help them in their problems.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — A lackadaisical attitude could ruin this fine day. While it may be difficult to apply yourself assiduously to tasks, you'll feel better if you "Do It Now."

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — Scorpio notations also pertain to you, today. Be ready to snare the elusive opportunity and make it work for you. Discretion needed, however.

YOU BORN TODAY are of the voltaile, vigorous and versatile Sign Gemini — always ready to go and do. You are often too demanding — of yourself as well as others. Be less restlessly active. Throw yourself sincerely into your life's work, yes, but also know when and how to relax, and permit others to do the same. Travel stimulates your mind, and you seem to have almost inexhaustible energy at this and other interests. Just be sure you do not scatter your gifts, then toward middle life find yourself with no definite trend, but adrift. The elderly of this birth sector often make remarkable new strides. Pray: practice tolerance, control emotions. Birthdate of Sir Arthur Conon Doyle, famous writer.

Make Fresh Attempt To Find NW Passage

BRISTOL, R.I. (AP) — The United States Coast Guard cutter Spar sailed Sunday for what is to be another attempt to find a northwest passage through the Arctic to link the Pacific and Atlantic oceans.

Two other cutters will join the Spar when it leaves Seattle with hopes of returning next fall through the North Atlantic.

The Coast Guard said the Spar will resupply 50 radar outposts which are ice-locked except for short periods in the summer. The operation will be expanded to search out a usable passage eastward out of the Arctic that could be used if the ice pack ever closes in early on Point Barrow, Alaska.

The cutter carries a box of earth from Bristol to be dropped at the northernmost point of the trip.

Charge Dr. Adams In Forgery Cases

EASTBOURNE, England (AP) The Crown charged Monday that Dr. John Bodkin Adams received £2500 in the wills of three patients but did not mention the inheritance when he asked for permission to cremate them.

Crown Counsel Malcolm Morris told a magistrate's court that after the death of each of the three patients, the doctor did not indicate he knew he was going to benefit under the wills, as required by law. Two legacies of £1,000 each and one of £500 were left to him by the patients, the Crown said.

The court began hearings, expected to last three days, on 15 charges against the chubby society doctor.

Eight charges were brought under the Forgery Act, one under the Larceny Act, three under the Cremation Act and three under the Dangerous Drugs Act.

DROPS ONE CHARGE

Earlier the Crown dropped a charge against Adams of making false representations to procure the cremation of Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, a wealthy widow patient.

Three of the four magistrates hearing the charges were those who committed Dr. Adams for trial on a charge of murdering Mrs. Morrell to benefit under her will. The chubby, bespectacled doctor was acquitted of murder April 9.

Emigration Boom Slows Down In Gt. Britain

LONDON (CP) — The boom in British emigration to Canada is showing signs of easing, officials said Monday.

The number of applications is still heavy compared with other years, but the tremendous rush of the last four months is tapering off. Officials expect a reversion to the postwar pattern, customarily marked by a summer drop in applications.

For the British Isles as a whole applications this month will probably total about 17,000, compared with 22,000-odd in April and a peak of 27,000 in March.

The immigration boom of late 1956 and early 1957 will probably result in a total of about 80,000 Britons ultimately making their way to Canada this year—highest since 1913 when immigrants from all sources totalled 400,000. The 80,000 figure compares with the total of 51,319 Britons who entered Canada in 1956.

Canadian immigration officers feel that the Suez crisis and gasoline rationing played only a small part in stimulating the exodus of Britons.

They say interest in Canada has been building up for the last few years and came to a head last fall and winter, the time of year when most people start thinking of greener pastures.

Prince Philip's TV Lecture Released

LONDON (Reuters) — Copyright has already been cleared for showing a telerecording in Canada of Prince Philip's television lecture last Friday of his recent world tour, the BBC said today.

The talk, entitled Round the World in 40 Minutes (it actually ran 55 minutes), was hailed by the British press as the TV event of the year.

Unfriendly Dog Saves Master

FAIRPLAY, Colo. (AP) — Several weeks ago, 75-year-old Andrew McGregor was told by friends that the irritable dog that shared his mountain home would be the death of him.

The pensioner is alive now because of the dog. McGregor was reported holding his own after spending four days in his remote cabin without food or water.

He suffered a stroke last Wednesday. He waited for somone to stop by until Friday, then called on his faithful pet.

McGregor pinned this note to his collar: "I can't walk. Help me. McGregor." He then told the dog, "find somebody."

The animal trotted four miles to town, but everyone thought him too wild to pet.

On Saturday, 14-year-old Dick Dinsmore called to the dog in a friendly fashion.

The shaggy black and white dog allowed Dick to pet him. Then the boy noticed the note. Police found McGregor slumped in his rocking chair.

They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT

I am the way, the truth and the life, No man cometh unto the father but by Me. John 14:6.

In ancient days men developed the idea of Pillar Saints. They would sit on top of pillars and expect admirers to feed them. They endured the heat of mid-day and the cold of winter and of night. Mans efforts to approach the infinite have been childish in the extreme. Christ did indeed show us how to find the way of truth and life.

Heirloom Ring Used At Mason-Bush Rites

A wedding ring more than two hundred years old, which had belonged to her great great great grandmother, was placed on the finger of the former Edith Maureen Bush at her marriage in St. Paul's-Trinity United Church to Richard Edmund Mason.

Rev. E. Donovan Jones officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar beautifully decorated with a profusion of lilies.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bush, Fell Street, and the groom is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mason, Mill Street.

The petite brunette bride was lovely in a full length bouffant gown of net and lace featuring a long sleved bolero with Peter Pan collar. A chapel veil was held in place by a pearl and sequin tiara. Her cascade bouquet was of red rosebuds.

As maid of honor for her sister, Miss Carol Bush wore a sky blue net strapless gown with stole and headdress en tone, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. Bridesmaid Miss Beryl Mason, sister of the groom, wore a coral gown of net in similar style and her bouquet was of blue tinted carnations.

Best man was the groom's brother, Mr. Harry Mason, and ushers were two other brothers, Mr. Earl Mason and Mr. Ernie Mason. During signing of the register, Mr. Jerry Pickering sang, "O Perfect Love."

At the reception in Hume Silver Room following the wedding, Mr. J. L. McMath, a longtime friend and teacher of both bride and groom, proposed the bridal toast.

Receiving the guests, Mrs. Bush wore a blue silk sheath dress with pink accessories and corsage, while Mrs. Mason chose a dusty rose silk dress with white accessories and corsage.

THREE-TIER CAKE

The three-tiered cake on the bride's table was enhanced with a decor of lilies and pink and white wedding bells.

Fischer, Doby Collaborate As Chisox Boost AL Lead

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Staff Writer

Rookie Bill Fischer and Larry Doby helped the Chicago White Sox boost their American League lead to two full games Sunday with a 6-2 victory at Boston while the New York Yankees moved into a second-place tie with Cleveland by trimming the Indians 6-3.

Cincinnati also opened up a two-game lead in the National League by taking a pair from Pittsburgh 8-7 and 5-4 while Milwaukee was losing. George Crowe's single in the ninth won the opener after the Pirates scored five to tie. Homers by Smoky Burgess, Bob Thurman and Wally Post enabled the Redlegs to come from behind in the second.

The New York Giants left the door open for Cincinnati to gain ground when the Giants knocked off Milwaukee 6-3 on Ray Katt's two - run single with the bases loaded in the eighth. Don Newcombe won his 10th straight from St. Louis when Brooklyn scored seven runs in the ninth for a 10-3 triumph. The Philadelphia at Chicago doubleheader was r a i n e d out.

MAAS WINS

Detroit climbed past Boston into fourth place in the American, 4½ games off the pace, as Duke Maas won his sixth of the year 6-1 with a five-hitter at Washington. The defeat was Chuck Stobbs' eighth of the season and his 13th in succession over a two - year span.

Tito Francona hit two homers and George Kell once in Baltimore's 10 - 2 romp over Kansas City in the first game of a doubleheader although Billy Loes gave the A's 10 hits. The second game was called by rain after 5½ innings with no score.

The SHORT CIRCUIT

By JOHN SHORT
Sports Editor

Although dull to some who know little of its processes, a track meet has a type of pageantry and natural color that no other sport can match, with the possible exception of football with its attendant pomp and ceremony.

Spectators and participants at Civic Recreation Grounds Friday afternoon must realize the truth of a statement such as the one above when they think back at what went on all around them.

Here a member of the L. V. Rogers High School faculty was lining up a group of sprinters; there, a teacher was supervising the high-jumping eliminations, while all through the infield students stood and relived the events just past or looked forward to those that were scheduled to come.

In the grandstand, a band played spasmodically, whenever, it appeared, the spirit moved them. Circulating around the grounds and talking to whoever they recognized were the students who had no particular interest in the meet but had no place else to go.

But, surprisingly enough, when the call for the mile came from the recorders' bench, everyone watched. Occasionally, a yell for one or another of the milers could be heard all over the grounds.

Running the mile is an arduous task. It is done for the challenge it presents. To finish a mile is to be in the mind's eye much better than the man who only finished a half-mile.

Gord Kleef reacted quickly to the starting gun and moved into the lead. He held it easily, lifting his knees high and moving like a man engaged in calisthenics.

At the halfway point, he was far ahead of his rivals . . . and his lead continued to grow. But Don Holmes and Warren Jarvis were back in the pack and beginning to move.

Slowly at first, and then with increasing speed, the pair closed in on the long-time leader. Kleef's stride became more labored, his breathing became forced. But with less than 220 yards to go he was still in front.

Jarvis passed him first. And then Holmes sped by and threatened Jarvis. Holmes swung wide on the curve and pumped as hard as he could in an attempt to pass. Within 25 feet of the tape, Don gave a final attempt . . . but didn't succeed.

That the race was run in the relatively slow time of six minutes and four seconds was unimportant. For the entire period, nobody took his eyes from the track. And he saw what he wanted to see, a race that, although slow, must rate with the most thrilling high school mile in this region in many years.

Bold Ruler Cops Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bold Ruler Wheatley, Stable colt, humbled Calumet Farm's favored Iron Liege in Maryland's great three-year-old classic, the Preakness.

Eddie Arcaro, Sunny Jimmy Fitzsimmons and company thus got partially even for the licking Iron Liege handed them two weeks ago in the Kentucky Derby. Not since 1948 has a derby winner won the Preakness.

A crowd of 32,856 screamed with excitement as Bold Ruler took the lead going into the backstretch and led the parade home by two length over Willie Hartack and Iron Liege in the $113,800 gallop.

In fact, Iron Liege almost didn't save second money of $25,000, as a 50-to-1 shot, Inside Tract, closed with a rush and finished third only a neck away from Iron Liege. It was 2¼ length back to the fourth horse, Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Promised Land, in the field of seven three-year-olds.

FIRST TRY

Inside Tract, a fugitive from the claiming races, had never started in a stake race before. But he hauled down $15,000 for the D. and M. Stable of Raymond de Brino of Valatie, N. Y., and Joseph Marino of Hudson, N.Y.

This was the s i x t h Preakness victory for Arcaro, the fourth for the 82-year-old Sunny Jim and the first for Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps of New York and P a l m Beach, Fla.

Saturday, Bold Ruler had a 1½-length edge after the mile in the mile and three-sixteenths affair, and showed no signs of giving up the ghost as Hartack flailed Iron Liege's flanks with his whip in second place.

It did no good, and as they zoomed down the home stretch with about an eighth of a mile to go it was apparent that nothing was going to catch Bold Ruler.

Tennis Teams Advance To Davis Cup Semis

By The Canadian Press

Belgium, Denmark, Poland and Italy won the last four berths in the quarter-final lineup of the European zone Davis Cup tennis tournament Sunday.

The four nations will join Mexico, Britain, France and Sweden —each of whom qualified Saturday—in the European part of the competition to determine a challenger to the trophy held by Australia.

At Manila, eastern zone eliminations ended with Philippines winner over Japan. The Philippines will face the American zone champion — probably the United States—with the subsequent winner playing the best of Europe.

Bernard (Tut) Bartzen and Grant Golden won the closing singles Sunday as the United States' Davis Cup tennis team completed a 5-0 sweep of the British West Indies at Port of Spain, Trinidad.

WIN CLINCHED

The U.S. clinched the best-of-five series by winning the opening singles Friday and the doubles Saturday.

The Americans thus qualified for a zone semi-final series with Venezuela, beginning at Caracas next Friday.

Italy, defending European zone champion, won a doubles match from the Netherlands at The Hague to take a 3-0 clinching lead. The Italian squad next plays Poland, which wound up a 3-2 winner over Chile at Warsaw Sunday.

At Copenhagen, Denmark's Torben Ulrich and Kurt Nielsen won the last two singles matches to post a 4-1 decision over South Africa.

At Cologne, Mexico took a clinching 3-0 lead over West Germany with Mario Lamas and Francisco C o n t r e r a s defeating Germany's Ernst Buchholz and Horst Herrmann, 8-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, Saturday.

BRITAIN ADVANCES

Belgium finished with a 4-1 victory over Hungary at Brussels and France made it 3-0 over Czecholslovakia at Lyons Saturday.

Britain, already assured of advancement, wound up its set with New Zealand with singles victories.

In quarter-final matches which must be completed by June 11, Belgium plays Mexico, France plays Britain, Denmark meets Sweden and Poland plays Italy.

Felicisimo Ampon clinched the Philippines' victory over Japan by defeating Japan's Kosei Kamo 6-1, 4-6, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1. That made it 3-1 in the best-of-five series.

The fifth match, between Japan's Asushi Miyagi and Eddie Dungo, was suspended by darkness with Miyagi leading two sets to one. It will be completed today.

Dave Sime Equals World Dash Mark

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — Duke University's Dave Sime equalled his world record in the 100-yard dash for the second time in less than a year in a college track meet Saturday.

Sime's 9.3 was run in perfect weather—no wind and fairly cool. One of the official timers had him clocked at 9.2. He finished well ahead of Vance Robinson of North Carolina College, clocked at 9.6.

Disney, Jamieson Gain Wilson Trophy Finals

Doug Disney meets Dunc Jamieson next Sunday in the final round of the T. R. Wilson Trophy handicap-match play tournament at Nelson Golf and Country Club.

Each of the finalists battled past favored opponents and against unpredictable playing conditions in winning two matches Sunday and winding up with a pair of victories Sunday.

All four semi-final matches, including the two played in the consolation fight, went to the limit. Disney edged Vern Miller on the 19th while Jamieson was forced to par the 20th to squeeze past Carl Locatelli.

En route to his berth in next week's windup, Jamieson ousted Bruce Latremouille, Mickey Maglio and Leo Atwell. Disney battled past Bill Wicken, Terry Panton and Curly Garland in his three earlier-round contests.

Latremouille reached his quarter-finals slot by lambasting favored Arnold Sherwood 6 and 4, and Latremouille thus assumed the favorite's role. But Jamieson, who was chased to the utmost by Maglio, took advantage of his 10-stroke advantage to advance past Latremouille to the semis.

Longest match of the weekend was that in which Bill Wicken halted John Morey after 22 holes of second-round competition.

The two consolation semi-finals went to the 18th green before a decision was reached. Bernie Clarkson overcame a five-down deficit to edge Bill Haldane and George Barefoot unleashed a fine second to par the hole as he defeated Harold Mayo.

Finals in each classification will be played next Sunday.

BOB KIDD B. C. TITLIST

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bob Kidd, former Willington Cup player, turned in steady golf on a wet course Monday to defeat Frank Proctor 7 and 5 in the final of the British Columbia amateur golf tournament.

Kidd, playing out of Vancouver's Marine Drive club, grabbed a 1-up lead on the second hole of the 36-hole playoff and worked efficiently the rest of the way to wear down his opponent at the suburman Burquitlam course of the Vancouver Golf Club.

Hurricane Turns Down Patterson

NEW YORK (AP) — Promoter Emil Lence was rebuffed Monday in his attempt to sign Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, top-ranking contender, for a title fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Lence, who has Patterson lined up for the title defence, said he offered Jackson 20 per cent of "everything"—gate, television or theatre-television — but Jackson's manager, Lippe Breidbart, insisted on a guarantee of $150,000 plus $25,000 for training expenses.

"Whoever heard of a challenger demanding a guarantee for a chance at the title," said Lence.

Breidbart confirmed that $150,000 was the asking price for Jackson in a title fight, adding "that goes for any promoter anywhere in the country."

"The television people want Jackson," said Breidbart. "He's the big attraction. I told Lence we'll take $150,000 guarantee, plus $25,000 expenses against the guarantee on the line.

"I asked Lence if he had the date, site and television deal set up and he told me he couldn't tell me about that. So I said this is no offer and I would have to get the $150,000 guarantee."

Lence said he didn't know what his next move will be.

Dodgers on Heels of Braves After Trouncing Cards 10-4

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers ran their winning streak to four Monday night, drubbing the St. Louis Cardinals 10-4 to climb within a half game of second place Milwaukee, and 2½ behind the National League leading Cincinnati Redlegs.

With rain cutting the American League schedule in half, Washington defeated Detroit 2-1 and Baltimore blanked Kansas City 2-0 in the only games played. The scheduled games between Chicago and Boston and Cleveland and New York were postponed.

The Dodger-Card game was the only one scheduled in the National League.

THREE HOMERS

Brooklyn pounded three St. Louis pitchers for 11 hits, including home runs by Duke Snider, Sandy Amoros and Carl Furillo, in sweeping the two-game series from the Cards. Young Don Drysdale racked up his third win without a defeat but needed help from Clem Labine when the Redbirds twice filled the bases in the eighth inning, but were able to get only two runs out of it. The loser was Herm Wehmeier, whose won-lost record dipped to 2-3.

The Cards also collected 11 hits, three by Wally Moon, but they left 10 runners stranded. Moon rapped two doubles and a single to extend his hitting streak through 15 consecutive games.

Ed Fitzgerald's pinch single with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth scored Pete Runnels and enabled Washington to snap its five-game losing streak. Pedro Ramos permitted only four hits in winning his third game in five decisions. The loser was Frank Lary, Detroit's 21-game winner in 1956, whose record now is 2-5.

SINGLE STARTS IT

Runnels' single set the winning rally in motion. A hit batter, a sacrifice by Herb Plews and an intentional pass set the stage for Fitzgerald, who got the hit off Al Aber, Lary's replacement.

Connie Johnson hurled a two-hitter for Baltimore's sweep of the two-game series with the Athletics. He permitted a double by Billy Hunter and a single by Harry Simpson as he faced only 29 batters and set the A's down in eight of the nine innings.

The Orioles clipped starter Ned Garver and Virgil Trucks for eight hits. With two out in the sixth, Bob Nieman doubled and scored on a single by Gus Triandos. The other came in the eighth on a walk to Bob Boyd, a wild pitch by Trucks and a single by Tito Francona.

The victory put the Orioles into a virtual tie for sixth place with Kansas City although the Athletics lead in percentage points, .419 to .407.

KOKANEES SEE ACTION SOON

Lacrosse starts here this week as Nelson Kokanees start another season. Practices will resume Tuesday night, and there will be practice sessions Tuesday and Wednesday, with light practice Thursday.

First game will be played Friday in Rossland against Rossland Juniors, and the Rossland club will return for a game Saturday night in Nelson. The Kokanees hope to have a full lineup Saturday, including about nine rookies, and it is hoped that most of last year's players will be in action this year.

Spectator Hurt in Soap Box Derby

NANAIMO (CP) — A young driver careened off the race track into a crowd of spectators at the annual Vancouver Island soap box derby here Monday and a spectator was slightly injured.

Clare Morrison of Nanaimo was taken to hospital and released after treatment for bruises. He was struck by a car driven by Harry Southern of Chemainus.

Harvey Thien of Nanaimo won the senior event. He won the Grand Challenge Cup and will represent Vancouver Island at British Columbia finals at Mission later this year.

East, West Share In Boxing Titles

CAMROSE, Alta. (CP) — East and West shared equally in the 10 open titles and Alberta and B. C. split the junior crowns Saturday night as the Canadian amateur boxing championships ended in a flurry of action filled fights.

A crowd of 2500 turned out for the third and final card of the two-day competition and saw three open titles go to Quebec fighters, two to Canadian army entries of eastern Canada, two to Vancouver boys and three to Albertans.

McBride Upsets German Fighter

NEW YORK (AP) — Archie McBride of Trenton, N.J., scored his first victory in two years Monday night with an upset, 10-round decision over Germany's Willie Besmanoff at St. Nicholas Arena. The loss snapped the favored German's win streak at 13.

A 13-to-5 underdog, McBride spotted Besmanoff nine pounds—195 to 186—and beat him decisively to earn the unanimous verdict.

LIONS TAKE KIWANIANS

Dayton Klein pitched a full game for the Lions, getting stronger as the game went on Monday, winning a Little League baseball game 10-7 over Kiwanis.

Only home runs were by Lions players Earl Sept and McQuair.

Lions' shutout came in the last three innings, although Kiwanis had built up a 7-1 lead. Earl Moisey pitched a strong game for the Kiwanis for three innings, but was replaced by several pitchers who failed to hold the lead.

Crepello Favorite In Epsom Derby

LONDON (AP) — Britain's leading bookmakers Monday made Crepello a 13-8 betting favorite for the 1½-mile Epsom Derby June 5, establishing him as one of the shortest-priced entries in the 176-year-old race

Crepello owned by Sir Victor Sassoon, was 6-4 at last Friday's betting call-over. The bookies again clipped the colt's odds after Sunday's running of the French 2000 Guineas at Longchamp.

Tyrone, owned by Frenchman J. Puerari, won the French classic from Franc Luron and the Aga Khan's Prince Taj. Tyron was fourth in the English 2000 Guineas, seven lengths behind winner Crepello.

Prince Taj moved into the Epsom Derby betting after French trainer Alec Head announced his colt was a definite starter. The bookies made the French-trained colt a 100-6 shot.

'Spurs Edge Celtics

NEW YORK (AP) — Tottenham Hotspurs of London came from behind Sunday to defeat Glasgow Celtics 4-3 in an international soccer game before a crowd of 12,342.

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's national soccer team defeated Wales 2-1 Sunday in a world championship elimination game.

Drivers Launch Safety Plan

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Ten leading automobile racing drivers on the European circuit Monday banded together in an association to work for their own safety during races.

They said they have the support of seven of their colleagues who could not be present at the meeting.

Louis Chiron of Monaco, a retired driver, was elected president of the new association which will be called the International Union of Professional Pilots.

Chiron said the organization would have representatives in each country where major races are held to counsel race organizers on the steps which should be taken for the protection of the drivers.

He made no mention of any sanctions to be taken in case their advice is not heeded.

Sentiment for some kind of a drivers' association seems to have been much stronger since the Mille Miglia race in Italy eight days ago in which Marquis Alfonso de Portago and his American co-driver, Eddy Nelson, were killed, together with 11 spectators.

Chiron said previous efforts to get the drivers together in recent years had been unsuccessful.

Monday's meeting was held in the wake of the Grand Prix de Monaco, won Sunday by Juan Fangio. During the race, four drivers had accidents at a dangerous zigzag in the course, but all escaped injury.

Membership in the association will be limited to drivers who have participated and finished three Grand Prix races or won once.

Hoad Beats Drobny Barnes Outpointed

VIENNA (AP) — Australian ace Lew Hoad won the Austrian international tennis championship by beating Jaroslav Drobny, of Egypt 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Hoad's wife, Jennifer, lost to Vera Puzejova of Czechoslovakia 6-4, 6-1, in the women's final.

CHUCK DRESSEN STARTS SHUFFLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charley Dressen looked back to his old National League stamping grounds Monday for the first player shuffle in his new talent-scouting post with the Washington Senators.

The manoeuvre brought infielder Rocky Bridges, Cincinnati castoff, to Washington via the waiver route. To make space on the roster for the 29-year-old Bridges, the Senators dispatched shortstop Lyle Luttrell to Seattle in the Pacific Coast League.

The Senators announced the transaction while Dressen was still in New York on the first player expedition in his job as assistant to club president Calvin Griffith. Dressen reportedly was talking with officials of both the Yankees and Cleveland Indians.

Bridges played under Dressen at Brooklyn in 1951-52. A Dodger coach at the same time as Cookie Lavagetto, he replaced Dressen as manager of the Senators two weeks ago.

Cincinnati dropped Bridges from its active list to get down to the 25-player limit last week.

Houtteman Sold

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians sold pitcher Art Houtteman to the Baltimore Orioles Monday for an undisclosed amount and signed first baseman Eddie Robinson, who was released by the Detroit Tigers a week ago.

Robinson, 36, will be used as a pinch-hitter. He first came to the major leagues as an Indian in 1947 and was first baseman on the Cleveland world championship team of 1948. He hit .204 in 101 games with the New York Yankees and Kansas City Athletics last season, including seven home runs.

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Cubs purchased Frank Ernaga, 36-year-old outfielder from their Portland, Ore., farm club Monday and optioned outfielder Bobby Del Greco to Montreal of the International League.

Lack of Engineers Serious for Canada

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

If Canada's present rate of economic growth is to continue, the number of its engineers and scientists must be quadrupled and the number of technicians increased 10 times.

This is the conclusion of S. F. Deeks, executive director of the Industrial Foundation on Education, the organization formed as a result of last September's conference in St. Andrews, N.B., which was called to consider Canada's shortage of engineers and scientists.

The estimate of future needs, Mr. Deeks said in a recent address, is considered to be conservative and is based on a formula used by both Britain and the United States.

WILL FALL SHORT

"There seems to be little possibility," he added, "of providing this number, based on our present performance and future plans.

"Present enrolment in engineering if it continues at this level, will provide about one-third of the requirements.

"Proposed increases in enrolment for the next 10 years will provide only half of the increased enrolment considered necessary, and the existing capacity for training technicians will satisfy about one - twentieth of the estimated requirements.

"The deficiency that will inevitably occur will undoubtedly blunt the forward thrust of our economy with the result that all areas of society will be adversely affected."

Mr. Deeks said history had shown a definite relation between increased production and the number of scientists, engineers and technicians.

For instance, in the 25 years ending in 1955, the number of engineers and scientists in the Canadian labor force increased 10 times from 6,000 to 60,000, and the amount of goods per man hour by about 2½ times.

MUST CHANGE TREND

Two factors had helped the situation in Canada since 1945. One was the large numbers of engineers—about 10,000 — who arrived from Europe. The other was the rise in numbers resulting from enrolment of veterans.

Both these influences were sharply-declining ones and, at the same time, some 25 to 35 per cent of graduates were going to the United States.

Available figures show, Mr. Deeks said, that while Russia enrols 313 engineers for each 100,000 of its population and the United States 139, Canada enrols about 88.

"If," said Mr. Deeks, "we accept the fact that progress and survival are dependent upon the adequate development of our engineers and scientists, it is obvious that catastrophe is indeed bound up in these statistics unless some very determined and enterprising action is taken to change the trend.

"It has become increasingly obvious that the nation or nations who become supreme in science and technology will direct the future course of civilization. . .

"If the free world is able to preserve its lead, and Canada fails to keep pace, catastrophe for us as a nation is not completely avoided. Serious consequences can result from losing our competitive position in world markets."

Syrian Prelate Suggests Joint Palestine Group

TORONTO (CP) — Metropolitan Antony Bashir, archbishop of New York City and North America for the Syrian Orthodox Church, said here Israel should be replaced by a "republic of Palestine" containing both Arabs and Jews.

Otherwise, he said in an interview, the state of Israel would be "wiped out" eventually.

"The Arabs will never accept the hated name of Israel," said the archbishop.

The main cause of the Middle East problem was the presence of "1,000,000 miserable, desperate Arab refugees." The solution is to permit them to return to their homes and farms and create a republic of Palestine, he said. The Jews would still rule indirectly because of their business acumen and genius.

Archbishop Bashir was in Toronto for the fourth annual convention of the Syrian Orthodox Youth Organization.

Raft Survives Fierce Storm

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The raft Tahiti Nui radioed Sunday it had survived a raging storm that almost wrecked it and had reached the Juan Fernandez islands, only 400 miles short of its Chilean goal.

The churning seas, high winds and drenching rains knocked down one mast and seriously damaged the 14-foot by 40-foot bamboo raft, the five men aboard reported.

Sharks surrounded them and countless mollusks clinging to the raft made navigation difficult, they said.

From the islands it is 400 miles east to Valparaiso, Chile, the coast for which they have been sailing for months. The islands should protect the raft from the storm that has been howling along Chile's Pacific coast.

APPEALED FOR HELP

The storm forced them to appeal earlier in the day for help. Ham radio operators as far away as France and Switzerland heard their calls.

But Ricardo Vivado, president of the Inter-American Broadcasting Society, said here that the crew reported reaching the islands unaided after appealing for a Chilean vessel to tow them.

Four Frenchmen and a Chilean are in the crew trying to make in reverse the 102-day voyage made in 1947 by Thor Heyerdahl and his crew on the Kon Tiki from Peru to the South Pacific.

The Tahiti Nui, skippered by veteran explorer Eric de Bisschop, left Tahiti Nov. 6 and has been floating east for 194 days.

De Bisschop asked that Chilean naval authorities be prepared to rescue the raft if it is again in trouble.

Weekend Bomb-Scare Calls Baffle Toronto's Police

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto police are baffled by a series of telephoned 'bomb scare' calls No bombs have been found yet.

The latest call sent squads of police searching through the stands at Maple Leaf Stadium midway through a Toronto-Buffalo International League baseball game Sunday afternoon. Few of the 2,427 fans were aware police were searching for the bomb, which the caller said was set to go off "before 4 p.m."

It was the third call of the weekend. Officers estimate between 20 and 30 calls have been received since April 27, when a suburban cigar store was threatened.

Saturday 400 persons at the Ukrainian National Federation hall here were evacuated during the federation's $50-a-plate 25th anniversary celebration. Federal Health Minister Paul Martin and senators William Wall and David Croll were among the guests. An hour later a call to police sparked a fruitless search in a downtown house.

There seems to be no pattern to the calls, and it is obvious more than one person is involved, officers say. The calls began shortly after a television program about a mad bomber who ended a series of bomb scares with an attempt to blow up the house in which he was rooming.

French Recall Chief Intelligence Officer

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—Col. Marcel Mercier, chief of French intelligence services in Switzerland, has been ordered home at the Swiss government's request.

Mercier was accused of buying secret recordings of Egyptian Embassy telephone conversations from Max Ulrich, Swiss police inspector, now under arrest.

The information thus obtained is believed to have led to the arrest of numerous Algerian nationalist leaders in Algeria and France. Attorney - General Rene Dubois committed suicide March 23, after his department was implicated in the dealings with Mercier.

Prince Charles Finds Pen Pal

LONDON (AP)—Maureen Vernon, eight-year-old daughter of a London hospital porter, was busy this weekend writing a letter to a new pen pal—Prince Charles.

Maureen opened her blue eyes wide last week when she received a letter from Buckingham Palace. It was signed "To Maureen, Love from Charles."

Her father, Jack Vernon, is employed by a London children's hospital. Last week he was sent to dismantle some equipment at the palace, where the eight-year-old prince is recuperating after having his tonsils removed.

"Hello," said Prince Charles as Vernon was shown into his bedroom. "Have you any children?"

"MAY I WRITE"?

The porter told him he had two —Jimmy, 14, and Maureen, just the same age as the prince.

"May I write a note to Maureen?" Prince Charles asked

Vernon replied he was sure Maureen would be delighted. When he came back to the room a few minutes later the prince handed him a letter, with the palace crest embossed on the envelope.

"Be sure Maureen gets it," he said. "Goodbye."

Sunday night Maureen was thinking out what to write in reply.

"I shall say 'Dear Prince Charles, thank you for your letter'," she said. "Then I'll tell him all about myself and my school. I shall ask him if he likes Davy Crockett, too."

Macmillan Explains Lack of Warning On Bomb Explosion

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (Reuters) Prime Minister Macmillan of Britain has written to New Zealand's Prime Minister Sidney Holland expressing regret that New Zealand should feel she was not given proper warning of Britain's H-bomb test last week.

Holland disclosed Monday that Macmillan had said the precise date and time of the test could be settled only by the on-the-spot operational commander, taking into account the weather and other factors.

ELGIN, Ill. (AP) — For the second time in [illegible] years a deer wandered into downtown Elgin Saturday, was pursued by police, and leaped through the window of a department store — the same window in the same store.

Try Bee Sting Cure For Hemophilia

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—A 14-year-old boy is being stung by bees in wholesale lots.

Dr. Vernon L. Hagan prescribed the bee stings for Jackie McAllister in the hope of curing or checking hemophilia. This disease makes him bleed easily and makes it hard to stop the bleeding.

Hagan says it is too early to make any positive statements about the treatment, but a bleeding of the kidneys stopped within 48 hours of the first use of beestings, and there has been no further bleeding since the first treatment six weeks ago.

The use of bee stings is reported to be an old-fashioned remedy for such bleeding. Hagan decided to try it.

David Phillips, a bee breeder, supplied the bees. He takes them from a hive one at a time, then presses them against Jackie's arm or leg until it stings. This is done 10 or 15 times a treatment. The treatments are three weeks apart.

Jack's head is covered with a veil to keep stray bees from stinging his face.

Dr. Hagan has no theory on how or why the bee stings work.

Flashing Buoy Not Explained

LONDON (AP) — British and Dutch ships searched the surface and floor of the North Sea Saturday but failed to find any solution to the mystery of the flashing buoy.

The ships hurried to the Dogger Bank where a smoking, flashing marker was reported sighted Friday night. They radioed they had found nothing. British and American naval authorities said none of their submarines was missing. The Soviet naval attache in London said "there is no comment to make" when asked if a Russian sub was in trouble.

The search began when the crew of the Danish freighter, Mary North, reported sighting a conical buoy with a flashing light which sent out smoke signals. They said they presumed a submarine was in distress.

But the Dutch destroyer Utrecht searched the area with asdic (anti-submarine detector) and located a "submerged object" but said it was able to determine quickly that it was not a submarine. The Dutch vessel reported the object appeared to be an abandoned oil drum and stopped the search.

Italy Divided Between Itself

ROME (Reuters) — Nearly 10 years after the unification of Italy, traditional barriers still separate the poor, agricultural south from the prosperious, industrial north.

A survey by a Rome weekly newspaper showed that southerners are eager to share in the north's superior standard of living, while the northerners, suspicious of southern infiltration, feel closer bonds with Northern Europeans rather than with their own countrymen from Naples and Sicily.

Southern Italians resent the fact that when Italy, formerly a patchwork of independent states, became a united nation in 1860, the political, fiscal and administrative structure of a small state in the north, Piedmont, should have been imposed on the whole country.

SOUTH BITTER

Neapolitans, Calabrians and Sicilians all consider that the progress of the north has been achid at the expense of their poor peasant economy, while the taxes which they have paid to the central government for the last 97 years have gone into the pockets of the successful industrialists of the north.

Preoccupied by the 20,000 people who emigrate each year to the city of Turin alone from the poverty-stricken areas of the south, and the fact that entire towns on the Ligurian Riviera now are inhabited by Italians from the "toe" of Italy, many northerners questioned in the survey said: "I feel nearer to a Frenchman than to a Sicilian."

LONG DISPUTED

"The southern question" is one which has occupied Italian politicians since 1860. At the beginning of the Fascist regime, Benito Mussolini, in a determined attempt to weld Italy into a cohesive nation, forbade official use of the words "the southern question."

Since 1950, a special southern development fund has been set up by the government. This is used to build roads, start reforestation and irrigation projects, and generally assist the local economy, which politicians of all parties agree is as much as 80 years behind the social and industrial development of the north.

Price of Steel May Rise When Sunday Pay Advances

By JOHN MOODY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The steel industry in the United States will make a second payment July 1 on its three-year labor contract and there's speculation that it will signal a rise in the price of steel

The contract, signed last August after a 34-day strike, calls for a seven-cent hourly wage increase, a rise of two-tenths of a cent between each of 31 job classifications and an increase in Sunday premiums.

Steelworkers now earn a minimum base wage of $1.82 an hour. They get 10 per cent premium pay for Sunday work. After July 1 the Sunday premium pay will advance for 20 per cent of the base pay.

C. M. White, chairman of Republic Steel Corp., recently estimated the union gains "will boost the company's labor costs more than 19 cents" an hour for each production worker. He said:

"We firmly believe that these higher costs justify a price increase considerably in excess of the inadequate price increase which followed the labor cost increase incurred last August when new labor contracts became effective."

ROUGH RULE OF THUMB

The steel industry has a rough rule of thumb that says the price of steel should advance 40 cents a ton for each cent granted in wages.

The rule hasn't been applied too closely in recent years and best estimates—from a few steel men and some of their customers—are that steel prices will move up about $5 or $6 a ton in July.

It could be higher because the labor contract also provides for a cost of living adjustment pegged to the government's cost of living index.

Last January the steelworkers got a three-cent hourly cost of living pay increase. They could be eligible for another such boost in July if the government index rises again.

After the wage increases were put into effect at the end of the strike, steel firms increased the basic price of steel by $8.50 a ton. The composite price of finished steel now is estimated at $140 a ton.

Since the basic price increase many of the steel firms have announced, what they call "adjustments in price extras." That means the charges for steels of specific qualities have been increased.

It's a Chick At the Cranes'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The world's 28th whooping crane was hatched shortly before midnight, Saturday.

George Douglass, superintendent of the Audubon Park zoo, made the announcement early Sunday after hours of watching.

The tiny chick started pecking its way out of the 4½-inch shell at 9 a.m. MDT Saturday and the hatching was completed at 11:58 p.m.

A second egg, laid three days after the first, showed no sign of activity. The two brown eggs lay together in a nest guarded by Josephine and Crip, the only pair of whooping cranes in captivity.

Besides Crip and Jo, there had been only 25 other whoopers in the world. One is at the San Antonio, Tex., zoo, 23 at their secret nesting grounds in the Aransas range, Texas.

Jo and Crip have made several other attempts to hatch a whooper in captivity. No chick of theirs lived longer than last year's whooper, which died of a fungus disease 45 days after he was hatched.

Indians Using Money for Better Living

LETHBRIDGE (CP) — The Bloods of southwestern Alberta, easily the wealthiest Indians in Canada, are putting their money to work on what is becoming a gleaming new reserve community.

Latest step announced recently is construction of power lines into the 353,000-acre reserve—the biggest in Canada—to extend electricity to about 150 new houses. The scheme will cost about $250,000 over the next five years.

The Blood Indians can well afford the program. Their revenues as a band of 2,500 persons are averaging roughly $1,000,000 a year, or about $400 each for every man, woman and child.

Most of the money comes from agricultural leases which earn the band $475,000 annually and petroleum leases which bring in another $350,000. This and other revenue is kept in trust by the federal government where it earns five-per-cent interest.

The total trust fund for the band now totals $1,400,000.

Market Trends

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market had heavy going Monday as it nudged to another 1957 high despite profit-taking that gave the list a highly irregular look.

It was a day of selective gains and losses in most major divisions. Among pivotal issues the range of gains and losses was from fractions to around a point.

Ross Puts Wreath On Grave of Capt. Vancouver

PETERSHAM, Eng (Reuters)—British Columbia's Lieutenant-Governor Frank M. Ross placed a wreath Sunday on the grave of Capt. George Vancouver in St. Peter's Churchyard, Petersham, Surrey.

Ross placed the wreath on behalf of the city of Vancouver, following a service in the little church commemorating the 200th anniversary of the navigator's birth.

Councillor E. A. Anderson, mayor of King's Lynn, Norfolk, where Capt. Vancouver was born, also placed a wreath on behalf of his communities.

The Lord Mayor of London, Sir Cullum Welch, and the mayor of Richmond, Surrey, read the lessons at the annual service.

Ross said in a short address that Capt. Vancouver, who died at the age of 40, lived a strenuous and hard life but contributed much. His name still shines as brightly today as when he was born and will continue to do so for another 200 years, Ross added.

Nelson Musician's Performance At Sudbury Lauded

Ron Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chandler of 610 Silica Street, was guest clarinetist at the annual spring concert of Sudbury High School of Sudbury, Ont., recently.

A third year student at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, Mr. Chandler, 23, was featured on the program playing classical, semi-classical and modern compositions. The review in the Sudbury Daily Sun reported that he "was given a warm reception and added greatly to the program with his playing of a particularly fine-toned clarinet.

"His tonal quality was exceptional, and agile fingering, delicate tone and flawlessness of the scale and arpeggio passages were brilliant."

Mr. Chandler will be remembered in Nelson as a member of the High School band here and as a member of the Kitsilano Boys Band of Vancouver which spent four months touring the United Kingdom in 1953. The band enjoyed a six-day holiday in Paris before returning home to Canada. At the time Mr. Chandler was attending UBC.

Mr. Chandler has won a part scholarship which will enable him to attend summer school of music at Marlborough School in Vermont this summer.

Thirty Years Ago With Lindberg at Controls

Editor's note: The year 1927 was exceptional in many ways —one of reckless abandon and remarkable accomplishment. In the U.S., Babe Ruth, Al Capone, Gene Tunney, Al Jolson and Calvin Coolidge were big names in the news. But the man who outshone them all was Charles A. Lindbergh.

By SAUL PETT

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirty years ago tonight, Charles A. Lindbergh looked out grimly at the steady drizzle over Long Island. But turning back to the weather forecasts, his boyish face brightened. He made his decision.

The next day he would go. The next day he went. It was perfect timing—a perfect harmony of a man, an event and an age.

People were just a little weary of flagpole sitters, marathon dancers and fliers who set endurance records flying over one place.

The year had the Al Capone mob grossing $100,000,000 a year from bootlegging and other rackets. It had Babe Ruth hitting 60 homers; Al Jolson performing The Jazz Singer, the first talking picture with its own sound track; riots all over the world the day Sacco and Vanzetti were executed; Tunney licking Dempsey in the "long-count" fight, as 10 people died of heart failure listening in on their crystal sets.

CHARLESTON RAGE

Sinclair Lewis lashed Babbitt, H. L. Mencken thundered at the "bilge of idealism" as well as hypocrisy, Mussolini and his black shirts strutted in Rome and Calvin Coolidge caught seven trout with worms for bait.

The unwary were warned against taking any wooden nickels, people sang Old Man River or Blue Skies or Sometimes I'm Happy, the literati read The Bridge of San Luis Rey, women in short skirts and flat-chested figures danced the Charleston, and the churches were losing out to the automobile and the golf course, where no self-respecting player would turn up without his plus-fours and socks with diamond-shaped plaids.

A Hoover commission endorsed in that year of 1927 a project called the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Ruth Snyder and Judd Gray, two inept conspirators, were convicted of murdering her husband.

Producer Earl Carroll went to jail for a wild party in which a naked chorus girl bathed in a tub of champagne.

President Coolidge said, "I do not choose to run," and a television demonstration of the day carried a picture two by 2½ inches.

Against this backdrop Lindbergh simply said "So long" and took off on the misty morning of May 20, 1927. It was perfect casting; he was tall, slim, boyish, shy, simple and real.

Others were waiting in bigger planes to fly to Paris for a $25,000 prize. Lindbergh went alone, in a single-engine plane. Others had flown the Atlantic before, but Lindbergh was the first to call his shot, the first to fly all the way from New York to Paris and the first to do it alone.

Heavy with gas, the "Spirit of St. Louis" barely lifted its shiny nose over the trees bordering Roosevelt Field. Lindbergh headed northeast and the long vigil was on. The prayers of millions went with him. Bulletins on his progress interrupted the showing of movies. That night, at the Sharkey-Malone fight in Yankee Stadium, 23,000 fans pocketed their hip flasks and rose to wish him well.

Finally, after 33 hours and 29 minutes, he landed in Paris. More than 30,000 Frenchmen closed in on him hysterically. Later, in London, more than 150,000 Britons blew their normally reserved tops when Lindy arrived. He was presented to royalty, including a tiny princess named Elizabeth.

In New York, Lindy was greeted by 10,000 troops, planes overhead, screaming harbor whistles, millions along Broadway and 1,800 tons of confetti (The armistice in 1918 rated only 155 tons).

Odds . . . and Ends

by M. D. B.

Nelson is a city of lights these nights and the lamp lighter goes around late in the day to set them winking in the dark at places where roads are impassable because of gas pipe installation. Having a new bus schedule is bad enough but with the buses changing course (also because of pipeline) as well, a person doesn't know whether he is coming or going.

The air these days is laden with the scent of lilacs. All winter long we breathe air that has little or no smell, except from that of coal smoke. But come Spring, we no longer breathe plain sterile ozone, but the heady fragrance that surrounds a beautiful woman. Old dame nature goes absolutely hog wild with her perfume bottles.

The vine on the courthouse is showing its new green and the chestnut trees have put on their conical clusters of blossoms, so that every tree looks as though it had hundreds of little castles sitting among its foliage. Evergreens have added their lighter green needles at the end of every branch, much the way a lady would paint her fingernails. The two shades of green make the trees look quite festive, as though they might have dressed for a party.

A young mother was telling us how she noticed something rather odd about the shirt pocket of her small son and on peering in to see what he was hoarding discovered it to be full of worms. He exclaimed, "Those are dangleworms" and put his hand protectively over the pocket. Why mothers go grey or shall we say how the worms got in the washing machine.

We around the News have felt pretty disgusted over our weekend. As you know we get Saturday and Sunday off and come back to work Monday when everyone else is holidaying. This would not be too bad if we'd had any sort of weather Saturday and Sunday, but I didn't even get the grass cut it was so wet and it does tickle your kneecaps when you walk through it when it is wet. No, it wasn't quite that long but the rain we've had lately has certainly made it shoot up.

Did manage to get a bit of transplanting done, though—fine weather for that if nothing else. Some of the seeds I planted have come up—I know it is plants and not weeds because they are growing in a row but I can't remember if those are the carnations, the mignonette or something else. My garden is going to have to go without weeding for a while for sure as guns I'd weed the plants out and leave the weeds.

Ski Hill Builders Say Interest Lagging

More than $3000 has been raised to date in Silver King Ski Club's campaign for funds for development of the ski hill on Ymir Road, but apathy of businessmen towards the project has members concerned.

Helmuth Mayrhofer and Dr. W. C. Murphy, who have been showing movies and explaining the club's plans for a year-round venture to various city groups, gave this information to the Kiwanis Club Thursday night at the Hume.

All but a little more than $200 has come from club members, it was stated later.

The speakers distributed "Ski Lifters", certificates of pledges to support of proposed extension of the ski hill, installation of a lift and building of a suitable lodge. The pledges are interest-free loans to be repaid from revenue derived from operation of the hill and lift.

The lift would make the hill a drawing card for tourists in Summer as well as Winter, the speakers said. They pointed out that many of the thousands of tourists who visited Banff were attracted by the thrill obtained in climbing Mount Norquay by chair lift. The scenery was no more thrilling than that to be seem from the top of the Nelson hill, they said.

SKI LIFTS MONEY MAKERS

Thousands more were drawn to Banff by the winter carnival an event which could be staged in Nelson, too. Ski lifts were money makers, it had also been proven at Rossland's Red Mountain, and by Nelson's brief experience of the past winter with the T-bar lift.

"We will go only far as the money we have, and pay it back when the hill starts paying," they explained. The sum of $15,000 would enable the club to clear 25 acres, install a 4200-foot lift and build a suitable lodge. This would mean that the present lift would be extended to three times its present length—from 750 feet to 2100 feet. Only 10 per cent of the 25 acres has been cleared so far, and this with the help of men who had donated time and machinery to the cause.

Mr. Mayrhofer, who once taught skiing to British occupation troops in Europe, said an average of 150 children and adults turned out each weekend last winter, against an expected 50 or 60 and forced immediate recruiting of more instructors. Next year 200 or 250 beginners were expected to register. While the hill drew hundreds from the city and district, when developed to its full potential it would pull in thousands from across the border.

WELCOME ESSENTIAL

The city would benefit, but not until the citizens had shown they were ready to receive these visitors, who would come seeking relaxation, recreation and good accommodation. They must feel they are welcome.

But with the best in facilities to offer visitors, the citizens must get fully behind the project if its full potential was to be realized. He urged his listeners to spread the word about a development that could put the city on the map "on the profit side."

Another guest at the meeting was Charles Banner, who came here recently from Penticton to be manager of the uptown Safeway store.

No News On Queen's Visit To Washington

WASHINGTON (Reuters) — A White House spokesman said Monday President Eisenhower, Mrs. Eisenhower and "every American" would be delighted to have Queen Elizabeth visit the United States.

But, he added, the U.S. so far has received no definite word from Britain on such a visit.

A British foreign office spokesman said in London that a visit is "under consideration but no decision has yet been reached."

Translate Letter To Mollet From Bulganin

PARIS (AP) — France disclosed Monday that Russian Premier Bulganin has sent a 23-page letter to Premier Guy Mollet.

Aides at Mollet's official residence said the letter would be made public when the official translation was completed.

Speculation was that Bulganin was repeating to the French what he has already said to several other European countries which are members of the Atlantic alliance — that they should not allow the United States to establish nuclear guided missile bases on their territory.
