Search Continues For Tornado Victims

37 Killed, 200 Injured, Damage Estimated Between $10, $20 Million

By ED CAMPBELL

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A brick-by-brick search of shattered homes and stores was under way Tuesday night for more possible victims of a radar-tracked tornado that killed at least 37 and injured more than 200 in a slash through Kansas City suburbs.

The hunt was ordered in the Ruskin Heights subdivision where the Monday night storm dealt its heaviest blow, crushing a busy shopping centre and an estimated 100 homes besides damaging hundreds of other residences.

The Kansas City Star estimated damage would range between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000.

Authorities at mid - afternoon still were struggling to clarify casualty lists. An error in the coroner's office at one time brought the total dead to 44, but this was revised within an hour.

The best available tabulation showed 31 dead in the various suburban areas of Jackson County, Mo., including the adjacent communities of Ruskin Heights and Hickman Mills; four at Spring Hill, Kan., and two at Ottawa, Kan.

WARNING GIVEN

The tornado, with one main and several accompanying funnels, started its death-dealing at Ottawa. Advance warning had been given by the Kansas City weather bureau and when the first twister formed and began moving northeastward toward Kansas City, the bureau poured out a steady stream of radar tracking reports.

These bulletins were broadcast and telecast by Kansas City radio and TV stations along with advice on what precautions persons living in the projected path of the storm should take to ensure safety. Many persons rescued from cellars and other shelters credited the warnings with saving them from harm.

The main tornado veered crazily as it twisted out of the rolling countryside of Eastern Kansas. It was at its peak as it smashed full force into the Hickman Mills-Ruskin Heights area.

Ruskin Heights is only five years old, a development planned for 1,757 single-family dwellings in the $9,000-to-$12,000 class. Its modern shopping centre of steel and concrete was opened less than three years ago. The block-long structure housed 16 stores, including a supermarket. Some of the stores had closed for the day but the market was open as usual to accommodate commuters.

LOOTING COMMON

Zooming back skyward, the storm funnel passed over Kansas City's eastern outskirts, missing Independence, Mo., the home town of former president Harry Truman, and dissipated itself near Liberty, Mo.

Help was en route to the stricken area within minutes after the storm struck. But police were plagued throughout the long night by sightseers, and there were looters prowling the ruins before the police could move in.

Rivers Data Exchanged

WASHINGTON (CP) — Canada and the United States Tuesday wound up a two-day meeting devoted to study of problems arising from the use of waterpower from rivers flowing across the international boundary.

A brief state department announcement said the meeting, the second of a series expected to extend over a year or more, made provision "for the continuing exchange of engineering, economic and other information" about such rivers as the Columbia, the Yukon and the St. John.

It indicated the current session discussed papers presented by the 10-man Canadian delegation, headed by Northern Affairs Minister Lesage, and the 13-man U.S. group led by J. W. Jones, of the state department's European and Commonwealth division.

The American paper, it said, contained analyses of "the effects both beneficial and adverse, of actions relating to waters crossing the international boundary which might be taken in either country affecting the other."

The Canadian delegation presented a list of some 150 streams which cross the boundary "with analyses of their international aspects."

Second Baby Whooper Born

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The world's 29th whooping crane emerged from its shell Tuesday with a bit of help from Mama Jo. Officials of the Audubon Park zoo breathed a sigh of relief.

When Papa Crip got up from the nest at 3:48 p.m. CST the egg was broken in half and the chick was trying to fight its way out. Jo pushed her mate aside and pecked off the part of the shell still clinging to the chick.

Congress Slashes $2.5 Billion Off Defence Appropriations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Congressional committee cut defence appropriations by $2,586,775,000 Tuesday, saying the military threat to the West appears "somewhat abated" even though Russia is "closing the gap" between Soviet and United States strength.

The House of Representatives appropriations committee recommended $33,541,225,000 in new appropriations for the army, navy and air force for the fiscal year beginning July 1. That was seven per cent less than the $36,128,000,000 President Eisenhower asked.

Eisenhower has said repeatedly that any substantial cut in the defence budget would endanger U.S. security. But the committee insisted it was "particularly cautious in seeking not in the slightest to jeopardize the projected increase in military striking power, in particular, or the national security, in general."

The committee recommended against new reduction in army troop strength, approved all Eisenhower asked for buying 1515 new air force planes, and gave him about what he wanted for new warships, including a start on a $300,000,000 nuclear-powered aircraft carrier.

82 Die on Weekend

By The Canadian Press

Eighty-two persons who set out to observe the Victoria Day weekend were dead before it ended.

A Canadian Press survey of the holiday accident toll climbed past the four-score mark by midafternoon Tuesday as late reports drifted in from the more remote parts of the country. The survey covered the period from 6 p.m. local time Friday to midnight Monday.

The slaughter on the highways took 50 lives, almost double the 27 predicted by the Canadian Highway Safety Council before the weekend began. Six of the 50 died in a single, three - car smashup near Sudbury, Ont.

Ontario had 28 deaths to top the list by provinces. Quebec had 25. There were 10 deaths in Nova Scotia, seven in Alberta, six in Saskatchewan, three in New Brunswick, and one each in Newfoundland, British Columbia and Manitoba.

Odd Crew Seeks Treasure

By JACK HARTZMAN

LONDON (Reuters) — Clairvoyants, water diviners and archaeologists joined forces Tuesday in a search for a 17th-century blackmailer's hidden treasure, reputedly worth as much as £750,000 ($2,000,000).

Site of the treasure hunt — renewed for the first time in 300 years—is in the heart of the Tower of London, forbidding 11th Century fortress on the left bank of the Thames.

A fortune in gold coins was believed stored in earthenware tubs by Sir John Barkstead, a jeweller who became governor of the tower during England's 17th Century military dictatorship of Oliver Cromwell.

CAYUGA CREW GIVES BLOOD

SAN FRANSISCO (AP)—Ninety-two crew members of the Canadian Destroyer HMCS Cayuga, here on a goodwill mission, lined up at the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank today and each contributed a pint of blood.

The Canadians had taken note of an appeal from Fort Miley veterans hospital which said San Fransisco had given only 37 of the needed 1,000 pints of blood during "Blood for Veterans Week."

Socreds Seeking Federal Seats

VICTORIA (CP) — Empty chairs around British Columbia's Cabinet table Tuesday were evidence of Social Credit designs on seats in the next House of Commons.

Absent from the Cabinet Session were eight provincial ministers who are campaigning in Ontario, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Also absent was Education Minister Les Peterson, who is opening schools.

Only members present were Premier Bennett and Recreation Minister Earle Westwood.

Egypt Takes Over British Company

CAIRO (AP) — The Egyptian government today took over the mainly British - owned Marconi and Eastern - International Telegraph and cable companies.

Communications Minister Mustapha Khalil announced the companies are being "Egyptianized and annexed to ministry for communications, giving them the name 'foreign communications department'."

They had been sequestered since the Anglo-French attack on Egypt last November.

Khalil said banks had been instructed to transfer the companies' assets in the name of the ministry of communication into the central bank, both at Cairo and Alexandria.

Khalil said the government took this step because the companies' concession to operate here expired last January.

British- and French - owned banks and insurance companies already have been Egyptianized. Banks and insurance houses with other foreign interests have been given five years grace.

$3 Million Asked For Parking Plan

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Board of Trade has urged immediate provision of $3,000,000 for a civic parking scheme and a further $1,500,000 for acquisition of additional sites for later use.

A committee of the board which has been examining the parking problem criticizes as "inadequate in both amount and timing" a suggestion of the city's technical planning board that $3,000,000 be made available for such a scheme over a five-year period.

Teenagers Find New-Born Baby

MONTREAL (CP)—Three teenagers playing in an east-end lane Tuesday night found a live newborn girl in a garbage can.

The child was rushed to hospital and is given a good chance to survive.

Police later detained a 19-year-old girl in a St. Lawrence Boulevard rooming house.

The baby was discovered in the trash can in a lane off St. Dominique Street by Jean Paul Lepage, 14, who was playing with Guy Ayotte, 16, and Andre Ouimet, 15.

Lepage told police he heard a noise that sounded "like a bunch of kittens crying."

He looked into the garbage can and found the baby, bundled in a piece of cloth.

Men on Raft Reported Safe

PARIS (Reuters) — Five men on board the bamboo raft Tahiti Nui in the Pacific radioed Tuesday that they are safe and enjoying their first rest after being battered by heavy seas for three days.

A storm which had threatened to smash their flimsy craft has abated, they said in a radio message picked up here.

Lost Girl Found

CAMPBELL RIVER (CP)—Moments before a special plane was to take off with volunteer searchers, news reached here Tuesday of a happy ending to a 24-hour search on nearby Cortes Island for nine-year-old Wendy Hansen.

The little girl, reported missing since Monday afternoon, was found by neighbors about a mile from her parent's home on the island.

WOMAN, REFUSED ENTRY, TO UNDERGO SURGERY

VANCOUVER (CP) — A woman refused admittance to General Hospital last week because she was "not acutely ill," will undergo surgery for cancer this week.

Mrs. Rose Simard was brought to Vancouver from Ashcroft, 250 miles northeast of here, early Friday, but not admitted to hospital until Saturday. She was brought here under police escort

Mr. Simard said: "Our doctor in Ashcroft came to the house about 11 p.m. Thursday to give her a hypo so the pain wouldn't be so intense for her. The police escorted me into Vancouver so we could get there before the morphine wore off."

An Ashcroft doctor said Mrs. Simard has cancer and suffers much pain.

Hospital officials said the woman was not admitted early Friday because she "wasn't acutely ill and there was no reason for her to come to hospital. We don't know if they were trying to beat a speeding rap or not."

RCMP at Hope, where the police escort began, said there had been some mention made of public mischief charges after Mr. Simard was given police escort.

TOKYO (Reuters)—Dr. Sadao Omura Tuesday night claimed to be the first surgeon to remove his own appendix without an anesthetic.

Dr. Omura described his operation:

"I plunged the knife into my abdomen and felt a sharp pain. By looking into a mirror, I saw my diseased appendix and cut it out."

Dr. Omura said the operation took 35 minutes as "I had to work myself into an advantageous position."

Omura is doing well and is expected to resume work within a few days.

Klingbell Remanded

VANCOUVER (CP) — Calvin Henry Klingbell, 23, of Kelowna, today was remanded one week when he appeared in magistrate's court charged with the knife-slaying of West-side grocer Lee Yick Yung, 53.

Police said Yung, found in his store Saturday with three stab wounds in his throat, apparently died during a holdup attempt. They said a man was standing nearby holding a knife in his hand when they arrived.

Nurses' Pay Increase Recommended

VICTORIA (CP) — A recommendation that nurses salaries at three B.C. hospitals be increased to $260 from $240 a month is contained in a concilliation board majority decision announced Tuesday.

The report, which covers Royal Columbian and St. Mary's Hospitals in New Westminster and St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver, suggests four annual increments of five per cent and recommends payment of $25 a month extra for graduates of university supervisory courses.

Guy Mollet Loses Vote of Confidence

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS (AP) — Socialist Premier Guy Mollet handed in his resignation Tuesday night after losing a confidence vote in the National Assembly.

President Rene Coty seized on a technical point to delay acceptance. Coty said he will consult with assembly leaders and decide today whether to ask Mollet to stay on.

Coty's point was that Mollet's opposition failed to muster an absolute majority—currently 298 votes—as required under the constitution to force a premier to quit.

Beaten on his "beat the rebel" fiscal program of belt tightening Mollet said he will insist on quitting.

Emerging from Elysee Palace, Mollet told reporters that if Coty asks him to continue he will refuse.

The president faces the task of trying to replace a regime that was the most stable France has had in post-war years.

Mollet and his cabinet were applauded as they filed out of the assembly that had turned them out by a vote of 250 to 213. They drafted the letter of resignation and Mollet left for the presidential palace.

The point at issue was Mollet's belt - tightening program of new taxes and reductions in non-military expenditures to pay for France's campaign against Moslem nationalists in Algeria.

But pre - ballot debate widened the question to a parliamentary referendum on all of Mollet's policies.

In theory, the result did not oblige Mollet to quit since an absolute majority of 313 negative votes is required to oust a government. But in practice a premier resigns when outvoted on a formal demand for confidence.

POST-WAR RECORD

Mollet, a Socialist, had been in office for 16 months, a post-war record. The decision by many of the right - of - centre Independent Republicans to vote against him accounted for his defeat and the rejection of his fiscal program.

The vote came as Foreign Minister Christian Pineau was representing France in a United Nations Security Council debate on Suez. He flew to New York during the weekend in an attempt to replace Egypt's Suez Canal memorandum with an international accord reaffirming the UN six principles on liberty of access to the waterway for all shipping.

The result shears Pineau of any real authority, and leaves him as only acting minister. As such he can only handle current affairs, and is not in a position to make policy decisions.

The ballot also undermines the French position in war - torn Algeria where Resident - Minister Robert Lacoste has been endeavoring to clamp down on the 30-month nationalist revolt.

Other results of Mollet's collapse include:

1. President Coty's official visit to the United States will probably be cancelled or at least postponed. Coty was due to leave the end of this month for Washington.

The French constitution requires his presence here to designate a successor to Mollet. Under present conditions this may be a long and complicated task.

2. France's position on the European economic union and atomic energy—Euratom—treaties is undermined. Mollet had planned to bring the accords up for ratification on a formal confidence basis.

3. The country is plunged into what will probably be a long period of political turmoil. The divisions within the assembly are such that finding a new governmental combination will be next to impossible. Almost any combination will require Socialist support to win office.

The ballot marked the 34th time Mollet asked for parliamentary confidence since taking office last Feb. 1.

Bennett Asks Extension In Kaiser Dam Project

VICTORIA (CP) — Extension of the terms of the proposed Kaiser Dam deal for the complete Columbia river hydro development was called for Tuesday by Premier Bennett.

If the Federal Government would accept that agreement, then the province was prepared to tackle the Columbia as a public power project, the Premier said.

"But they won't accept it," the Premier added.

In an interview, Mr. Bennett outlined again his government's stand on Columbia river:

In exchange for downstream benefits, the U S. should pay for all dams built on the Canadian side of the Columbia also send back 20 per cent of the additional power generated on the U. S. side.

This was what the Kaiser aluminum interests had agreed to for a storage dam across the Arrow Lake near Castlegar and the principle should be extended to the whole of the Columbia, the Premier said.

(The Kaiser deal was blocked by the federal government through the International Rivers Act, which gives Ottawa control over rivers such as the Columbia.)

Mr. Bennett said U. S. interests would agree to the proposal for other dams on the Columbia, including one at Mica Creek.

Paid for by U. S. money, the dams would be turned over to the provincial government and would "automatically become a public power operation," the Premier said.

The power might be sold to private companies for distribution

"This way we would have the dams and 2,000,000 horsepower," Mr. Bennett said.

The Premier accused the federal government of "interfering" in the matter

"The federal boys have stepped into the picture now," he said, "and if they can't get a better deal they will stand condemned."

Speaking at a political meeting in Powell River Friday night, the Premier said the provincial government had made the same proposal in a "secret" offer to federal resources minister Jean Lesage some time ago, but it had been rejected.

The whole matter of downstream benefits is under discussion today at a conference in Washington, D. C., between top government leaders of the U. S. and the federal government.

Indians' Ways Were Good, Says Bill Reid

CALGARY (CP) — Bill Reid of Vancouver, CBC announcer whose Canadian ancestry dates back before the era of the white man, says he is not too sure the white man's civilization was an advance from the days of his material ancestors, the Haida Indians.

A delegate to a conference of the national commission on the Canadian Indian here during the weekend, he said in an interview Monday:

"I have a great deal of respect for the old people and the old way of life. They lived in harmony with their environment. I deplore the North American habit of gripping the heart out of everything and laying waste the forests and game paradise."

Mr. Reid said the Haida had one of the highest Indian cultures and their art today is represented in totem poles on display in Victoria. Beauty and aesthetic value were an integral part of the band.

The white man on the other hand had exploited his environment and failed to live in harmony with it. As an example, Mr. Reid cited Vancouver which he described as an ugly city in a beautiful setting.

POLICE CHARGED WITH SAFE-CRACKING

HIGH WYCOMBE, England (Reuters) — Mrs. Grace Reading, this London suburb's first woman mayor, was weighed Monday night in her robes of office and then roundly booed by a watching crowd.

The boos were prompted because she put on weight during her term of office. The townspeople believe their local dignitaries should lose weight through hard work.

Mayors and councillors who lose weight while in office are cheered by the crowd as an indication that they have served the town well.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP) — Something new in signs sprouted Tuesday on the lawn of Jim Babcock's home.

The sign said: "Robin nesting — please use the back door."

The robin's nest is above the front door.

Legion's Boys' Town Project To Proceed

CRANBROOK (CP — The Boy's Town project of the Canadian Legion in B.C. will go ahead immediately.

Delegates to the 23rd convention of the B.C. and Northwestern States Commnand in session here Tuesday lined up 100 per cent to put the special project in motion.

First step will be the purchase of property available in the Roberts Creek area of New Westminster at a cost not to exceed $10,000. A further $10.000 is authorized for improving the site to make it suitable for the scheme.

All branches and members throughout B.C. will be asked to contribute funds and letters will be sent out to industries and individuals outlining the plan and requesting financial aid in implementing it.

Initially, the Legion will meet expenses from the B.C. Command funds. The provincial government has recognized the need for the project and has indicated it may assist with operating costs. A certain amount of assistance is also expected from the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Before the delegates approved the plan, the convention heard Bert Fiddes, recently-retired manager of the Central City Mission in Vancouver, tell of the need for such a project.

Mr. Fiddes, who has spent more than 50 years in welfare work, has offered his services to help the Legion set the Boys' Town in operation.

He told the veterans there are thousands of boys wandering around Canada without care and guidance. All are potential criminals, he said, and the cost of keeping them in a prison at some future date would be considerable.

"They are mixed-up youths thrown into a chaotic and often idiotic world. The chance you offer to straighten them out is big. You did a man's job in two World Wars. Now you are offered another man's job. I do not know of any greater challenge that will give you greater satisfaction than to build boys' characters."

The Boys' Town plan had its beginnings two years ago. Realizing that the future of the Canadian Legion rested on getting members more interested in service to the country and the community, President Ralph Gibson set up a special committee to study suitable projects.

this fell through several months ago.

Since then numerous sites have been inspected and all eliminated except the proposed Roberts Creek property. Formerly used as a girls camp, it has several buildings which can be renovated at reasonable cost.

The Roberts Creek Branch is prepared to carry out most of the work on a voluntary basis.

SETTLED ON HOME

The committee finally settled on a home the Legion could establish to give education and the ideals of good citizenship to boys who might otherwise develop into anti-social individuals.

Similar projects are the Sir John Hugh McDonald Memorial Hostel in Winnipeg, the Protestant Children's Village in Ottawa and the well-known Boys Town in Missouri.

It had been hoped to use the former Fairbridge Farm Society property on Vancouver Island but

Alberta Man Faces Charge Of Negligence

Story of a trip from Alberta by some young people to attend a wedding in Creston last year was unfolded in Assize Court Tuesday before Mr. Justice A. E. Lord of Vancouver.

The party travelled in cars driven by A. J. Ewashen and A. J. Semenoff, both of Alberta. About three miles east of Creston, Ewashen's car is said to have gone off the road, resulting in the death of Helen Parakin, one of the two passengers. The Crown alleges criminal negligence on the part of Ewashen. He pleaded not guilty.

The trial, first case in the 1957 Spring Assizes, opened Tuesday morning. Crown prosecutor is A. Graham of Cranbrook, and B. K. Arlidge of Nelson is counsel for the defendant.

Selection of the all-male jury took a short time, with only two objections by Mr. Arkridge. Foreman is R. T. Petty of Nelson, and other members are O. C. Odegard, G. J. Milne, G. H. Mooney, C. K. Senger, and F. S. Aikins of Nelson, along with L. Rota of Creston, P. Troseth of Montrose, A. K. Gairns of Trail, J. Atwell of Tadanac, T. E. Greene of Kinnaird, and H. Hesketh of Castlegar.

CHANGED CARS

Outlining Crown evidence, Mr. Graham said the party left Lundbreck, Alberta, on December 26, travelling by Cranbrook and Yahk. At Yahk passengers changed cars. About 3.8 miles east of Creston, Ewashen's car is said to have skidded and gone over the bank.

FiFrst witness was Miss Mary C. Semenoff of Lundbreck, sister of A. J. Semenoff, who was to have been married December 27 to a Creston girl, and cousin of the accused. Miss Semenoff is a student teacher in Calgary. She testified as to road conditions, speed of travel.

Miss Semenoff and Ewashen stopped a car driven by William Cowley of Arrow Creek, who said he was en route to Erickson about 6:30 p.m He went to Erickson, got two helpers, took them to the scene, by which time RCMP had arrived and went to Creston for a wrecker. Mr. Cowley also testified.

Mr. Graham called several witnesses for cross-examination by Mr. Arlidge only. They included A. J. Seminoff of Pincher Creek, driver of the other car; R. L. Ewashen, accused's brother, Peter Laren of Cowley, Alta., Dr. J. V. Murray of Creston, who was called to the scene of the accident and J. C Lochhead, mechanic of Creston who viewed the car after it was brought to Creston.

About half the afternoon was taken up with evidence from Constable Ernest Boechler of Creston RCMP, who, with other officers investigated the mishap, taking pictures and measurements.

Glenmerry To Be Protected As Residential Area, Delegation Told

TRAIL—Clarification and satisfactory answers were given by City Council Tuesday to a group of Glenmerry businessmen who will now take their brief to P. B. McCarthy, provincial public works engineer, and the Provincial Government.

C. Rodden, manager of Kay Motors, said the delegation was "very pleased" to hear council's clarification on eliminating access roads to the new highway through the new subdivision and also that an opening to the old road would be maintained.

Alderman F. E. DeVito emphasized that Glenmerry would be protected as a first class residential area and application for licences on the new highway not already zoned as business would be rejected.

Another question raised by the delegation was the dumping of fill on property previously purchased by Kootenay Distributors Ltd. making it of considerable value if an access permit and business licence are granted. The delegation was under the impression that Mr. McCarthy had discussed the problem with a committee of City Council and that the access problem had been eliminated.

CONGRATULATIONS

A letter of congratulations was received by city council from Deputy Minister of Municipalities for "good stewardship" in guiding the city's affairs and bringing it out of a deficit and establishing a substantial working surplus and for the "excellent showing" made during 1956.

A letter from the town planning commission extended thanks and appreciation to all who assisted in planting trees and grass throughout the city over the past number of years.

Council endorsed a motion to obtain the services of Professor Oberlander in making a plan and study of West Trail for the purpose of future development.

Replacing KLGH X-Ray Equipment Recommended

Recommendation that consideration be given to replacement of the X-ray equipment at Kootenay Lake General Hospital was made to the board of directors Tuesday night.

Hospital administrator R. H. Procter, who made the recommendation to the board's general meeting, pointed out that the equipment had given service for over two decades, and should be replaced by more powerful equipment that could meet the demands of today's radiology and patient care needs

Approximate cost of the machine and equipment would be in the neighborhood of $15,000 to $16,000. There was more expensive equipment on the market, it was said but it was believed the intermediate range was more in keeping with the community's needs.

The hospital would be required to put up 40 per cent of the cost, the remaining 60 per cent provided by provincial and federal grants. The recommendation was referred to the finance and planning committees for study.

Presentations from four X-ray suppliers have been studied in planning equipment for the new hospital and these studies will be available to the two committees.

Actually, purchase of the equipment was planned for the new hospital but progressive steps in the development of patient service has created the need for earlier decisions, it was said.

A new patient reference and filing system has been introduced into the X-ray department, and a radiologist office established.

Meanwhile, burned-out tube in the present machine would have to be replaced at an approximate cost of $700, Mr. Procter told the meeting.

Lots of Interest in Ski Hill Say Members

"In fact, we know that there is considerable interest in Nelson and surprise has been expressed that we may have believed otherwise," two members commented.

They were referring to a report in Tuesday's paper in which Helmuth Mayrhofer and Dr. W. C. Murphy were said to have told the Kiwanis Club that there was apathy towards the scheme.

They had not intended to indicate there was such apathy in speaking to the Kiwanians, they said. Instead, they were attempting to point out the danger that would arise if the community did not rally around the project.

"We don't want to train tourists for other resorts," said Mr. Mayrhofer.

If, he said, the club is forced to go ahead on its own without support for the type of tourist project members are planning, the persons being taught to ski with present facilities would soon reach the point where they travel to the big ski resorts and spend their dollars there, instead of here.

A great opportunity lay in the proposed year-round venture and it was this fact the club wished to emphasize.

To show Nelson businessmen that they had great faith in the project, members had raised $3000 to start the drive. Response to the "Ski Lifter" campaign was not expected to be immediate, although one businessman had stepped forward to give the amount required to clear one of the 25 acres to be cleared—a little over $200.

Distribution of the Ski Lifter certificates was to be followed up by personal visits to those who had received them during the campaign, conducted so far among service clubs.

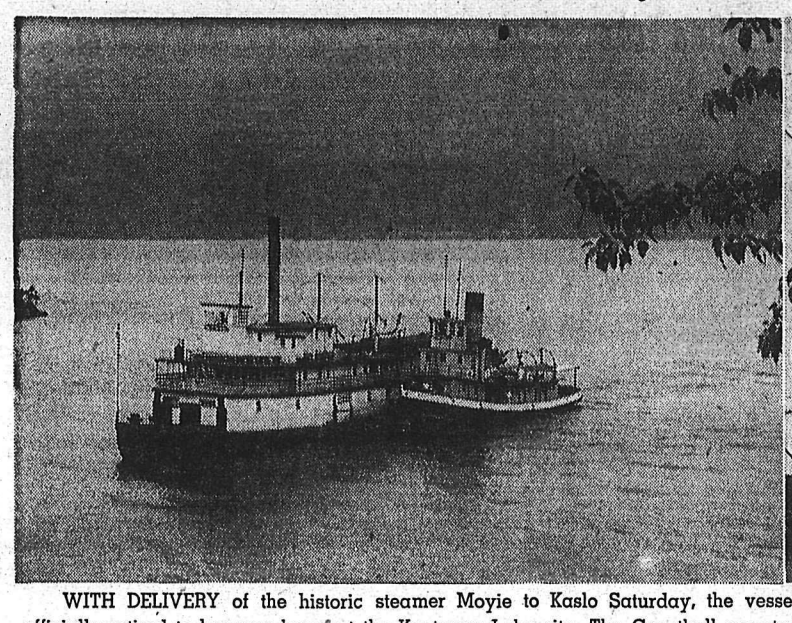
Last of Sternwheelers Now Belongs to Kaslo



WITH DELIVERY of the historic steamer Moyie to Kaslo Saturday, the vessel officially retired to her new home at the Kootenay Lake city. The Granthall escorted the colorful old paddlewheeler into her temporary berth. Purchase from CPR was made for the nominal sum of $1.

A PICTURE showing Moyie on her last trip in service of CPR April 27 was presented to her last skipper, Captain Norman MacLeod. Kaslo's Mayor Roy Green and Aldermen H. Carlson and Jack Morris formed welcoming party.

WILLING HANDS reached out to help secure Moyie with cable and heavy rope when she glided into temporary berth Saturday. Kaslo and Historical Society have done extensive planning for preservation of the steamer, and financial support is building up, bolstered by provincial government's contribution of $7500.

Ex-Kimberley Dancer Organizes Coming Highland Games, Spokane

Mrs. Robert Wallace of 705 South Bowdish, Spokane (nee Viola Campbell), is in charge of the First Annual Scottish Highland Games to be held on the Greenacres Junior High Athletic Field Saturday.

The Saint Andrew Society of the Inland Empire, sponsor of the all-day event, has invited participants from all over the Northwest, and registrations are being received daily from such cities as Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Nelson and Trail. It is also indicated that the Kimberley Scots will be in attendance with pipers, dancers and entertainers.

With more than 20 dancing events and upward of 10 individual piping contests listed in the program, it is also planned to have pipe band competition to round out the day. Following the day's competition, the hosts will afford relaxation and a social hour with dancing at the Opportunity Township Hall in the Spokane Valley, Mrs. Wallace said.

Now in its second year as a Scottish Society, the Saint Andrew Society has taken a great part in promoting the furtherance and teaching of highland dancing and piping under the direction of Pipe Major George Mars, who, incidentally, will be one of the pipers appearing with the dancers in the games. The Angus Scott Pipe Band is named in memory of the late Angus Scott of Kimberley.

Judging the piping will be Bruce MacGaffey of Pasco, an accomplished piper, while Mrs. Irene Henneford of Yakima will rule on the dancing events.

MALE QUARTET SINGS AT SALMO BIBLE INSTITUTE

SALMO — The Hillcrest Pentecostal Church in Salmo was visited by the Senior Male Quartet of the B.C. Bible Institute recently.

Rev. C. W. Lynn, chairman of the Institute's board of directors accompanied the quartet and gave a short message entitled "New Testament Christianity."

The congregation was delighted with the harmony and message of the songs sung by the quartet. The four young men are members of this year's graduating class and anticipate entering the Gospel ministry in the near future. In all, 22 graduated this year, having completed the three-year theology course.

Since 1941 the B.C. Bible Institute has been operated in the interests of training young people for positions of leadership in the Christian Church. Some of its graduates have entered missionary service in foreign lands, others are at work in home mission posts in B.C. and the Yukon. Upwards of 80 are engaged in Gospel work in B.C. The quartet is making a tour of churches in the Kootenays presenting the Institute and outlining the advantages of its course of training for Christian service.

Kootenays Need More Camp, Picnic Sites.

The British Columbia Travel Bureau has issued an excellent road map of the province which shows, among other things, all the newly built picnic and camping sites in British Columbia.

Too much credit cannot be given to the Forestry Department under whose auspices these camps were developed. In general they are well located and well serviced. Those along the Okanagan Valley, where conditions for their creation are ideal, are numerous and capable of handling large parties, but there are still large areas which are not well cared for.

On one side of the sheet there are interesting sections describing different sections of the province. Very little is said of the West Kootenay, and Nelson is put in the East Kootenay. The only West Kootenay listed item is the Kokanee Creek picnic site. On the face of the map, however, Kokanee Glacier Provincial Park is legibly shown.

As it is at present, this park as a tourist attraction is entirely useless. The road is in poor condition and there is no accommodation for visitors. It is more than regrettable that there has been nothing done to make this more accessible to visitors.

There are whole areas of the Kootenays which need attention in the matter of camp and picnic sites. It is true that in many of these areas the roads are poor, but experience has shown that tourists will brave indifferent roads if they can be sure of accommodation.

Both Kaslo-Lardeau area and the Slocan Valley need camping and picnic sites. Their scenery and their lakes are among the most beautiful in the province. The development of campsites in these areas would justify the need for good roads.

Everywhere, too, there is a need for more roadside stopping places where families can stay for a short time to eat a meal. There is a need for a search for more places where tourists can see points of interest. These are not always views—Verigin's tomb is a case in point.

But having given the Travel Bureau and the Forestry Department all the credit they deserve, it is nevertheless a fact that the boards of trade throughout the Kootenays should be alert to suggest new places which should receive the attention of the newly formed Department of Recreation. Only in this way can the Kootenay exploit all its possibilities as a tourist centre.

Aid for the West Indies

Leaders of the emerging Caribbean Federation will doubtless be disappointed by Britain's rejection of their request for a loan of £200,000,000 to help establish the Federation on a sound economic basis. The British Cabinet, however, had no option in the matter. The United Kingdom has enough financial problems already; it cannot undertake this enormous additional commitment. In fact, Britain's contributions to the islands' development have been remarkably generous in recent years, and the limit of what is possible has been approached.

At the same time, it must be admitted that the new Dominion is badly in need of help. Most of the islands making up the Federation are overpopulated and underdeveloped, and suffer from excessive dependence on sugar cultivation .Their greatest need is capital to develop a more diversified economy.

At this point, the question naturally arises: Why should Britain be expected to bear the burden alone? The establishment of the Caribbean Federation and the other dominions now taking form in Africa and Asia was approved by the whole Commonwealth. Why should not all its members assist in getting the new nations off to a good start? A Commonwealth investment fund might well be the answer to the problem.

In any such arrangement, Canada could reasonably be expected to take a particular interest in the Caribbean Federation. This country has had an extensive trade with the West Indies since sailing-ship days; many Canadian banks and other firms have branches in the islands; and there are a considerable number of Canadians with first-hand knowledge of local problems. Canada is thus an obvious source of capital and technical help.

A program of this kind should not be thought of as a matter of charity. The West Indies are an excellent prospect for long-term investment. Though small in area, the islands are fertile and well-watered. They can grow virtually any type of tropical and semi-tropical produce. There is no reason why, in the course of time, they cannot replace the United States as our main supplier of citrus fruits, pineapples and winter vegetables, thus eliminating a substantial part of our annual trade deficit with the U.S. In addition, Jamaica has important bauxite deposits—needed for our growing aluminum industry—and Trinidad has oil fields.

The Canadian and West Indian economies are, in fact, complementary to a remarkable degree. A systematic program of development financed by loans from Ottawa and by private investment—perhaps in some cases with government guarantees—should greatly benefit both countries. Here is an opportunity for statesmanlike action which the government of Canada should not overlook.—Toronto Globe and Mail.

Digging in Deeper

Thrift appears to be an out-worn ideal insofar as most Canadians are concerned. This is shown by the fact they increased their debts by $57,000,000 in 1956, bringing the total to the fantastic sum of $982,000,000, or $61 for every man, woman and child in the country.

This doesn't include mortgage debts, which must amount to other hundreds of millions. And, to put the picture more clearly, many Canadians, with ample cash to meet their expenditures, don't have to go in debt. Thus the per capita debt is really more than it appears, for those who are in debt.

Another aspect of this is that Canadians are paying far more than they should for what they buy. They are paying interest on these debts, usually high interest. Thus they are adding very appreciably to their own costs of living. —Windsor Star.

Making It Easy

If soldiers ever have to go to war again, they will find that at least one chore has been made far less burdensome than in the past. A trench-digging machine has been devised which can dig 20 four-foot-deep trenches in less than a minute. A foxhole can be prepared in 30 seconds.

—Charlottetown Guardian.

When Most Men Attain Greatness

In many cases, there is a "crying injustice" in forcing into idleness a vigorous man of sixty-five. It continues with these questions: Should such a worker be compelled to be idle? Should he be condemned to virtual immobilization, when he is in a position to render to society tremendous services and when, very often, he has not reached the point where he has given the best of what he has? It is forgotten that at sixty-five a number of men are enjoying still their full physical vigor, and that they are free from certain responsibilities which weighed on them between thirty and forty years of age: family anxieties, financial worries, etc.

The Atlanta Constitution has made researches into some 400 names famous in history: statesmen, painters, soldiers, poets, writers, etc. Out of this number, 35 per cent reached the peak of their career between sixty and seventy years; 23 per cent between seventy and eighty, and 8 per cent between eighty and later. In other words, 66 per cent of great men have reached the most brilliant stage of their career, as well as the most profitable, after attaining sixty years.

These figures make us reflect, but is it not enough to take a look around us, in the direction of the country's affairs and in the field of business, to note that sexagenarians, septuagenarians, and even octogenarians give evidence of having more physical and intellectual vitality than many younger people?

—Montreal Matin.

The Crippler

The affliction known as multiple sclerosis (called MS for short) is a crippling disorder of the central nervous system, the cause of which is at present a mystery, according to a release received by the Health League of Canada from the Multiple Sclerosis Society. Victims, largely in the productive age group 20-45, are subjected to a patchy destruction of the coating of the nerve controlling the part of the body affected. Replacement of live nerve coating by scar tissue impedes and, as the scar tissue becomes denser, ultimately prevents entirely the passage of nerve impulses.

Multiple Sclerosis is one of mankind's most vicious enemies today. With cause and control completely known, MS—the crippler—is devastating in its effects.

The medical profession has known this disease for a long time, yet today it remains perhaps the most important of the completely unsolved problems in neurology. Research on MS is still in the "trial and error" stage, but there is every reason to believe that modern scientific research will prove able to fit together the bits and pieces of its cause and control.

While the disease dates back over a hundred years, supported medical research is a recent development, and in Canada dates back only to 1948, when the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada received its charter from the Dominion Government.

Since its inception in 1948, the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada has contributed $120,000 to research, and, as a result, much more is known about the disease today.

Recently, two new research projects received support from the Society, one at the University of Toronto, and one at McGill University. A third project, which has received enthusiastic recommendation by the Medical Advisory Board, will be undertaken soon at the Banting Institute at Toronto.

In order to make more and better trained scientists available for research, a Fellowship program has been inaugurated by the Society. This will result in a number of Fellowships being made available to selected prospective scientists in our universities at various stages of their careers.

Public recognition of the work of the Society is shown by its steadily expanding membership and the formation of new chapters across the nation. The vital importance of MS research has also been recognized by the Department of National Health and Welfare.

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT

The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed is the name of the Lord. Job 1:21.

The book of Job may be one of the oldest books of the Bible, it is probable that it was repeated by story tellers for hundreds of years by desert camp fires before it appeared in a printed book. In any event scholars regard it as one of the finest bits of literature in the world, and it taught a faith and understanding unsurprassed.

Girls and My New Car

. . . F. B. PEARCE

I see that the Chief of Police is warning the students of the high school of their pernicious habit of walking all over the road. They are an awfully dumb bunch if they can't remember a simple thing like that.

Why only yesterday when I was floating along in my nice new car I overtook a bunch of seven girls strung out across the road, and as I came up they bunched and one of them shouted to me, "Are you going to town?" and I flung back a resounding "No!"

My wife thought that was pretty mean of me, and said that the girls did have a long way to go. That may be so, but it will do them good to walk after wriggling in their desks all day. Besides, it will develop the muscles of their legs and give them the desirable contours.

But the plain fact was that I did not want them in the car. Seven pretty, attractively dressed, lively girls in the car with me? Why, it would be like being smothered to death by butterflies.

I always used to look forward to spring when we lived near the Junior High school, not because of the flowers, but to see the gay kaleidoscope of girls in the rosebud stage of their development. Many of them no doubt would not win beauty prizes, but they all have an undefinable aura of life and happiness about them.

BEAUTY SHINES

At that age their beauty seems to shine better when they are in groups. They seem to take a vivacity and sparkle from one another which is very pleasant to the beholder. It is an age which passes quickly, but fortunately there is always another generation to take their places.

The Chief tells me that he is afraid he will have to bring some of those young delinquents up in court, but I am willing to bet it will not be girls. I defy him to be so hard-hearted.

As one man said, it is surprising how the English-made cars get slightly bigger and better all the time. The early Devon was a nice little car with a top speed of 50 miles per hour, though I have often sent the speedometer much beyond that. The Somerset was slightly bigger and better, and now there is the A55. This seems to me to have reached the peak of efficiency in small four-cylinder cars. It has just enough power and no surplus. It runs like a watch, and has good road stability at high speed.

What I like about the English cars is the high standard of workmanship throughout. The interior is marvellously attractive, and its leather upholstery does not wear, and needs so seat covers. The slightly increased size has made it just as comfortable to ride in the back as in the front, and I find the front seats make long distance riding much more comfortable than in our Canadian cars.

OUTSTANDING MODEL

I always used to think when I was over-driving the A40—and what punishment those engines took—that an over-drive would be a great advantage, and this car of mine has an over-drive. That should mean the suppression of a great deal of noise, which is important when one uses a hearing aid. It should also mean an increase of mileage per gallon. How much gas it uses I do not know, but I am going to the Okanagan during the weekend, which should help me to find out.

But so far I believe that this model is outstanding for small cars, though there is a new German car which takes my fancy very much, though it is in a higher price range.

Pineau, Dulles Said To Agree On Suez Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — French Foreign Minister Crhstian Pineau reported Tuesday he and U.S. State Secretary Dulles are in "entire agreement" on methods of handling the Suez Canal problem in the United Nations.

Pineau told reporters he and Dulles agreed on "a concrete plan" in a 45-minute conference. He declined to reveal what it would be, saying it depends on the views of other UN Security Council members, including Russia.

Informed diplomats said that as a result of the Dulles meeting Pineau has decided not to press for a Security Council resolution condemning Egypt for its plan to operate the Suez Canal single-handed.

Instead, they said, the French will seek what was termed a "consensus of view" of Security Council members which would have the effect of calling on Egypt to amend its plan.

But this "consensus" would not be in the form of a Resolution and thus, it is believed, not subject to Russian veto.

Actors Face Special Problems In Edmonton's New Auditorium

By DON HANRIGHT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

EDMONTON (CP)—Adjudicator Ronald Speaight minced no words Monday night in criticizing the Vancouver Little Tehatre Association's first-night Anastasia at the Dominion Drama Festival.

He termed the direction "terribly slow—awfully monotonous." Audibility was poor. It was "difficult to imagine a production more unsatisfactory visually." And through all this, "the capacities of the cast were stretched on the whole further than they could reach."

However, the London author and director did praise "the real festival quality" of performances by two of the women in the Vancouver cast of 13—Edith Dean in the leading role as Anna Broun, and Rae Brown as the dowager empress of Russia. A third actress, Dolores Robinson, was lauded for her short role as a charwoman.

He conceded that all eight groups in the festival have a special problem in that "they find themselves in one of the largest theatres on this continent, producing plays they have performed in much smaller theatres."

Sitting in the sixth row, he found it difficult to hear most of the Vancouver players—Miss Dean included, despite her fone performance."

AUDITORIUM "SUPERB"

The players had the task of projecting themselves into an auditorium that stretches 185 feet from the stage to the rear wall of the second balcony. Officials had predicted earlier that while professional actors would have no trouble making themselves heard in the new $4,500,000 auditorium, amateur teams might have trouble.

"This is a superb auditorium," Mr. Speaight said. "In all the world I have seen nothing to equal it. But we shall have to wait until the week's end to see how good it is as a theatre."

Earlier indications that others were waiting, too, were not borne out Monday night when 900 box-office ticket sales helped fill all but about 700 of the 2,700 seats.

A full house was assured for Tuesday night's Stalag 17 by Medicine Hat Civic Theatre, although sales for most of the remaining six productions have been going slowly.

Nurse Gives Evidence At Adams Hearing

EASTBOURNE, England (Reuters)—A nurse testified Tuesday she heard Dr. John Bodkin Adams remind an elderly male patient of a promise to remember him in his will.

Nurse Gladys Miller was testifying at a hearing to determine whether the 58-year old family doctor should stand trial on 15 charges involving falsification of medical documents. Adams was acquitted last month on a charge of murdering a woman for financial gain.

At the start of the hearing Monday, Crown counsel Malcolm Morris said Adams talked to James Downs, 88, about his will two months before Downs' death in May, 1955. Morris said Adams was left £1000.

Tuesday Miss Miller said she heard the portly bachelor doctor tell Downs he had looked after him for many years and expected to gain from his will.

The nurse said a lawyer was summoned to prepare a new will. She said Adams gave the nurse a "pep" pill to give to Downs so that he would be mentally alert for the signing.

"It made him quite perky," she told the court.

Lawyer James Heath testified that he amended Downs' will by request to include the £1000 legacy for Adams.

Under British law, a physician signing a cremation certificate must declare that he has no financial interest in the fortune of the deceased.

The Crown charges that Adams falsified the cremation certificate applying to Downs and to two other persons from whose wills he allegedly made financial gains.

Ike Cuts Down Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower formally submitted a trimmed-down $3,865,000,000 foreign aid program Tuesday and told Congress the only sound way to get a substantial tax cut is "to succeed in waging peace."

Eisenhower told congressmen they face a grave responsibility to maintain foreign aid "at a level dictated by the dangers we face."

"The safety of our country, the preservation and strengthening of world peace, the minimizing of risk to American lives and resources in future years," Eisenhower said, "all imperatively demand that we hold fast in our world-wide collective security effort."

Steelworkers Warned Strike To Be Long

MURDOCHVILLE, Que. (CP)—Leaders of the United Steelworkers of America warned striking members of the union that no early settlement is in sight in their dispute with Gaspe Copper Mines Limited.

Roger Bedard, USWA spokesman, said about 500 of the men who have been on strike since March 11 attended a meeting here Monday night. They were told to "prepare for a long struggle" but to remember that "when a struggle is long, victory is sweet."

The meeting was held following the Monday gathering of strikers to collect pay. Of the 1,000 who walked out about 200 have left to find other jobs, 300 live in town and the rest live in other parts of the district.

A company writ of prohibition against the Quebec labor relations board kept the board from ruling on a USWA petition for certification and set the stage for the strike. The union is asking for a contract granting wage increases but the company maintains the strike is illegal since the union is not certified.

Desserts Have Changed Since Grandma's Day

In grandmother's day — or at least in great-grandmother's, the correct spelling for dessert was D-E-S-E-R-T. In that era, dessert was served after the table had been cleared or "deserted" of everything else.

Needless to say, the picture has changed today. The kind of dessert has changed, too. The method of preparation has advanced along with it. The long hours of mixing and blending, cooking and steaming have given way to many, many time-saving devices: The instant puddings — cake and pastry mixes —jelly powders—miniature marshmallows — chocolate chips, and of course, evaporated milk, famous for richness and creaminess.

When evaporated milk is used in puddings and sponges, custards or marlows, cake batters, cream pies, you get a special creaminess of flavor and texture.

Take today's two "desert" suggestions for instance. Our Chocolate Velvet Custard is luxurious enough to grace a company dinner table, yet it is both economical and easy to make. Bright as a daffodil, Pineapple Angel Fluff brings fresh flavor to spring and early summer meals. Although it is a luxurious dessert that can be served with pride to guests, yet, made with evaporated milk, it is very economical.

CHOCOLATE VELVET CUSTARD

Two squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, 1 large can undiluted vaporated milk, 1 cup water, 4 eggs, ½ cup sugar, 1-3 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Place chocolate in upper part of double boiler. Add undiluted evaported milk and water and heat, stirring occasionally, until chocolate melts. Beat with rotary beater until blended.

Beat eggs slightly with sugar, salt and vanilla. Stir in evaporated milk mixture. Strain into custard cups. Set custard cups in pan of hot water and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) about 45 minutes, until a knife inserted in the centre comes out clean. Chill. Unmould and garnish if desired with chilled canned apricot halves.

PINEAPPLE ANGEL FLUFF

One package lemon pie filling, 1 10-ounce can crushed pineapple, water (see instructions for amount) 1 cup undiluted evaported milk.

Follow the directions on the package for making the lemon pie filling, but reduce water by ¼ cup. Cool mixture, stirring often.

Drain pineapple. (The pineapple juice may be used instead of part of the water in making the filling.)

Meantime, chill the undiluted evaporated milk in the freezing tray until soft crystals form through the milk. Whip the chilled evaporated milk until stiff. Gradually whip in the cooled lemon mixture, then the drained pineapple. Pile into dessert glasses and chill.

Changed Attitude Key to Slimming

By IDA JEAN KAIN

What does it take to stay with day to day slimming? The formula consists of two parts, both of equal importance — the right attitude and the right diet. Ironically, however, with a preponderance of excess poundage, the spirit as well as the body is apt to be bogged down. When this is true, a change of attitude can make the difference.

This letter from a disheartened young mother, determined to make a last ditch stand against the pounds, is a case in point.

"I am a mother of four children, have been married 18 years, and have a wonderful husband — but he is getting a little disgusted with me. I really don't blame him, for I am disgusted with myself. Here is the trouble . . .

"I am 33 years old, 5' 3", and weigh 204 pounds. When I was first married I weighed 120. After my third child was born, 13 years ago, I weighed 145 pounds. Now I weigh 204 pounds!

"I have gone on a number of diets and lost up to 25 pounds, and then gained it all back again. My doctor tells me I should lose weight, for my overweight is going to affect my heart, but still I haven't got what it takes to stay on a diet.

"Would you send me all the diet leaflets you have — just maybe they will help."

For the moment, let's forget about the diet leaflets — for until you get on the right beam psychologically, all the diets in the world wouldn't be of any real help to you.

You weigh 204 pounds, with 84 pounds to lose. True, that's a sizable amount to reduce, but the 84 pounds is not the hurdle. Once your attitude is right, the number of pounds to be lost is of relatively little importance, and matters only with regard to the length of time it will require to reach normal weight.

The blunt fact is this — as long as you think you haven't got what it takes to stay on a diet, your mind will be working against you and you won't stay with it, as past experience has proved.

Do an about face in your thinking. Think in terms of what you want . . . to be free of the burden of fat. Get this thought fixed in mind and it will subtly influence your attitude. Constructive thoughts are a powerful help — use them to be the person you want to be. Think rightly, imagine and picture rightly — see yourself at healthy normal weight. Then, as if by magic, will power strengthens. You'll find yourself eager to follow a scientifically planned diet. On the right diet you will feel vitally alive as you eat for ideal weight.

Ballet Training Benefits Noted

SASKATOON (CP) — Parents should know the value of ballet training for children, says Mary Rose, examiner for the Royal Academy of Dancing at London, Eng.

Touring Canada to see how young ballet students are coming along, Miss Rose said in an interview that youngsters are not taught ballet with the object of becoming ballerinas, but for its benefits in attaining grace, rhythm, poise and posture.

Parents, she said, should give their children opportunities to see ballet performances on stage, in movies or through student recitals. Thus they would be able to see that the early studies they are given are all part of the actual ballet.

GOOD PROGRESS

Miss Rose said there is no lack of enthusiasm for ballet in Canada and she thought the progress of the art in Canada compares well with what is being done in Britain. The number taking examinations here was surprisingly large.

Castlegar Fair Plans Advance

If they are available, the board hopes to obtain the services of the same judges as last year.

Toronto Conference To Cover Varied Subjects From Old Age To Housing

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Problems of growing old will be discussed at a four-day conference at the University of Toronto starting May 31.

The meeting will be called the "first Ontario conference on aging," and is expected to draw attention from country-wide organizations concerned with the subject. It follows a similar conference held recently in British Columbia.

Dr. L. F. Koyl of Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto, chairman of the conference's executive committee, says:

"Essentially the purpose is to evaluate where we now stand, what are the unsolved problems of aging, and how we go about finding solutions."

IMPORTANT PROBLEM

Dr. J. D. Griffin, conference chairman, comments:

"One of the most important subjects is how to create opportunities for older people to help themselves, for their own and society's benefit. A substantial increase in the nation's productivity as well as the solution of many problems of aging will follow the satisfactory answering of this question."

Another purpose will be to provide opportunity for those now working in the field to learn about each other's activities and to discuss future co-operation; and a further purpose will be to discuss the responsibilities of various organizations and governments.

Discussion topics will include:

Cost of living, and retirement income; housing and living arrangements—including such accommodation as new bungalows and apartments, and boarding homes; community services; employment—including such questions as society's attitude towards the older worker, and the effect on him of automation; and care, treatment and rehabilitation in hospitals and homes.

One day of the conference will be set aside as "senior citizens' day," when older citizens will be invited to speak, take charge of panels and give their views on aging.

STRESS IMPORTANCE OF DIAMOND DRILLS

The Canadian Diamond Drilling Association will hold its annual convention in Toronto May 30-June 1.

In an advance statement, the association says it is estimated that between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000 was spent in 1956 in all branches of the diamond-drilling industry, including labor, machines, diamonds and transportation.

"It is a fact," the association adds, "that hundreds of millions of dollars are being risked on development of mineral deposits on the evidence of diamond drills.

"A few years ago it was the custom to place one or two machines on a mining prospect but, with the increase in the tempo of exploration, as many as 10 to 16 drills are placed on a property.

"This is partly accounted for by the modern practice of drilling through the ice to test lake bottoms during the winter season. Another factor is that time is an element in financing and the soon an ore-body is outlined the more quickly the company can find its development funds."

To investigate the depth of "permafrost" in far-north localities where settlements are proposed; to test glaciers for their depth over suspected orebodies; for foundation work for buildings; and for dam sites and hydro-electric work, such as in the St. Lawrence Seaway and power project.

SET CONFERENCE DATE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) The new International Atomic Energy Agency will hold its first general conference in Vienna beginning Oct. 1. The agency's preparatory commission announced the date after a closed meeting Monday. It was decided to postpone the meeting from a tentative date of Aug. 19 to give governments more time to get ready. The leading atomic powers, including Canada, have not ratified the agency's statute.

McBride Confuses Issue With Unanimous Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—The heavyweight situation is getting more like a comic opera every day.

The champion, Floyd Patterson, is chasing the challenger, Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, and now Archie McBride has come out of nowhere to challenge the challenger and Willie Pastrano for good measure.

Archie leaped into the limelight by decisively defeating Germany's Willi Besmanoff on a unanimous decision at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night. He hadn't won since May 11, 1955, when he outpointed Bob Satterfield.

WIN STREAK SNAPPED

Besmanoff had a winning streak of 13 snapped. The pudgy, 24-year-old German had beaten Calvin Wilson and big Bob Baker in his two American fights to be ranked ninth.

While Archie was pulling his upset, Patterson's manager, Cus d'Amato was busy in the back of the arena conferring separately with New York promoter Emil Lence and Jack Hurley, Seattle manager and promoter. D'Amato has appointed Lence to promote Patterson's title bout, and Hurley to put on another title fight in the Pacific Northwest.

Lence couldn't get to first base with Lippe Breidbart, Jackson's manager. Hurley is just looking right now. He said he had no opponent lined up yet.

Procter Wins Inter-School Cup In West Arm Schools Sports Day

PROCTER — Nickie Seminoff of Willow Point was the star of the West Arm Schools meet at Procter, rolling up a perfect score of 30 for six firsts as well as a first in the relay for which there were only school points awarded.

Ideal weather, co-operation between teachers and parents, along with sportsmanship of the participants, contributed to one of the most successful sports days to date. Willow Point took top honors for the best boy and girl athlete. Procter won the inter-school cup for the first time and Balfour came a close second. Willow Point has won the trophy for four consecutive years.

Runnersup to Nickie were Martin Heuston of Balfour with 23 and Jerry MacKinnon of Procter tied with Peter Kapak of Balfour for third place with 14 each. Highest point scorer of the girls was Janet Armstrong of Willow Point in the beginners' group with a total of 24. The runnersup were twins Germaine and Lorraine Sicotte of Procter with scores of 22 and 16 respectively. Germaine is the winner of the Flashlight individual trophy given yearly to the top scorer in the Harrop or Procter schools. Lorraine wins a crest as second.

Official starters were W. A. Henke and Mrs. A. H. MacLean. Field judge was Gordon Sargent. The Procter PTA staffed the refreshment booth, with Mrs. E. Shannon for Willow Point, Mrs. C. H. Oakley for Balfour and Mrs. Alec Maclean for Procter and Harrop recording names and points for the winners and giving out ribbons. Teachers aiding Mrs. MacLean and Mr. Henke were Mr. Ackert, Mrs. Munch, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Price. B. J. Fitchett was official announcer.

Special feature in the lunchtime break was a parade with each of the four schools, Willow Point, Harrop, Procter and Balfour carrying banners in their school colors, wearing school colors and shouting school yells. The schools are designated in the race results by the letters WP, P, H and B. The enrolment in that order is 61, 44, 13 and 22. The committee devised a system whereby school points are added and divided by the enrolment, giving Procter 4.590; Balfour 4.404; Willow Point 3.623, and Harrop 1.384.

PCL Officials Pull Several Player Deals

By The Associated Press

Rains that drowned out Pacific Coast League action on the diamond apparently promoted it in the front offices Monday.

San Francisco announced the release of righthand pitchers Duane Pillette and Bob Thollander.

Pillette, 34, was released outright.

"Surprised? I was shocked," declared the hurler, who had notched a record of four triumphs against one loss and a 2.89 earned run average although failing to finish his last three starts.

Thollander, 27, went to Oklahoma City of the Texas League. He had a 2-2 record an era of 3.52. Infielder Grady Hatton came off the [illegible] disabled list to round out the 21-player limit.

The Sacramento Solons, 14 games down in the PCL cellar, announced the purchase of infielders Artie Wilson and Leo Righetti from Seattle and the sale of infielder-outfielder Russ Rosburg to Little Rock in the Southern Association.

The Rainiers obtained utility infielder Lyle Luttrell, 27, from the Washington Senators on option as a replacement for Righetti. Luttrell hit .324 for Chattanooga in the Southern Association last year.

Los Angeles sold outfielder Bob Borkowski to Portland. The Angels bought outfielder Bert Hamric from Montreal.

San Francisco's Frank Kellert adn Seattle's Joe Taylor top the League's batting on the basis of figures compiled through Sunday. Kellert has 51 hits and .359 mark. Taylor .328 leads in runs batted in, 344, and homers, 10.

Dominating the pitching are two righthanders, Dic Hanlon of Los Angeles and Ben Daniels of Hollywood. Hanlon boasts a 5-0 record and the lowest earned run average in the league, 1.54. Daniels has posted six victories without a loss.

Outlaws Cop Annual New Denver Tourney

NEW DENVER — Nelson Outlaws Monday whipped New Denver-Silverton 6-2 and followed up with an 11-1 victory over Nakusp to win the annual Victoria Day baseball tournament. Nakusp qualified for the final with a 14-8 victory over Fruitvale.

Feature of the second game was the pitching of lanky righthander Walt Avis, who restricted Nakusp to two hits—singles in the first and sixth. The game ended after 5½ innings when Nakusp conceded.

Outlaws scored twice in the first, three times in the second, twice in the fourth and four times in the fifth. In the opener, they overcame a 4-0 first-inning deficit to win easily. Stan Grill, with Les Hufty working in emergencies, won the game.

Big blow in the first game was Don Hoffman's two - run double in the sixth on a 3-2 pitch. Ken White drove home two runs in the four-run third with a booming triple. He scored when Bo Gillis doubled.

White picked up two hits in each game. Nobody else on the Nelson squad earned more than two for the day.

Robbie Closer To Title Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson has agreed "in principle" to a title defence against welterweight king Carmen Basilio in September, the International Boxing Club said Tuesday.

Robinson, accompanied by several members of his brain trust, conferred with James D. Norris president of the IBC, Tuesday afternoon. Terms have not been settled, an IBC spokesman said.

Financial terms and other details will be discussed later when Basilio and his managers return from the Pacific Coast, the spokesman said.

Billy Pierce Shackles New York; Tigers Go 16 to Squeeze Past Birds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago White Sox gained their first victory of the season against New York Tuesday night, increased their winning streak to eight straight and boosted their first-place American League lead over the Yankees to three games.

Billy Pierce, Chicago's ace southpaw, pitched a four-hitter for his sixth triumph as the White Sox humbled the Yankees 3-1 before 28,059 Yankee Stadium spectators.

The triumph enabled the White Sox to maintain their two-game bulge over Cleveland Indians, who broke their second-place tie with New York by defeating Boston Red Sox 8-2.

Detroit defeated Kansas City 2-1 in 16 innings.

TIE FOR SECOND

Brooklyn defeated Cincinnati 6-1 to climb into a second-place tie with Milwaukee, a game and a half behind the National League leading Redlegs. Rain ended the Braves - Philadelphia game with the score tied at 1-1 at the end of 5½ innings. The entire game will be replayed at a future date.

Chicago scored two unearned runs in the ninth inning to come from behind and defeat the New York Giants 4-3. Rain postponed the Pittsburgh-St. Louis game.

Pierce permitted the world champions only four hits and struck out eight to atone for a previous loss to New York. The southpaw did not permit a hit after the fourth inning. He retired the last 16 batters he faced.

Whitey Ford, making his first start since he was injured on May 4, was the loser. The Yankee southpaw was clipped for all Chicago's six hits before he was knocked out of the box in the seventh.

YANK ERROR COSTLY

Trailing 1-0, the White Sox scored three runs in the sixth on a pair of singles, a walk, a sacrifice bunt and a damaging Yankee error. After Larry Doby drew a one-out walk, Jim Landis was safe on Bobby Richardson's error and Jim Rivera promptly tied the score with a run-scoring single. Bubba Phillips' perfect squeeze bunt scored Landis and Pierce added an insurance run with a single that scored Rivera.

Lou Berberet's home run in the sixth spoiled Rine Duren's bid for a perfect game and started the rookie Kansas City righthander to his third defeat without a victory. Washington added single runs in the seventh and eighth to chase Duren.

Chicago Carrasquel's grand slam home run featured Cleveland's 12-hit attack against three Boston pitchers. A five-error Red Sox defense, four of them coming in one inning, also helped the Indians. The victory went to Early Wynn, who spaced seven hits for his fifth victory against three defeats.

HOMERS HELP PODRES

Red Sox shortstop Billy Klaus, who committed three errors in a wild sixth inning, was hit in the face by a grounder off the bat of Al Smith in the seventh, and left the game. No estimates were made on how long he would be out.

Home runs by Pee Wee Reese and Sandy Amoros backed up Johnny Podres' nine-hit pitching as the Dodgers ran their winning streak to five games. Catcher Ed Bailey's home run prevented a shutout for Cincinnati. Hal Jeffcoat was the loser.

Two infield errors plus singles by Jack Littrell and Cal Neeman after two out in the ninth gave the Cubs their tying and winning runs and enabled them to win their first home game in nine starts this season. Turk Lown, who relieved starter Dick Drott in the ninth, was the winner. The loss was charged to Stu Miller, who gave up only four hits and struck out seven.

EASY VICTORIES PROPEL CRESTON TO TOURNEY WIN

CRESTON — Creston's entry in the East Kootenay Baseball League proved to the satisfaction of local viewers over the weekend that they will be a force to be reckoned with during the season which starts next Sunday.

Defeating Cranbrook and Kimberley Hobos in successive games by decisive margins, Creston won the first Creston Blossom Festival Baseball tournament although hampered by rain and chilly weather.

Creston supported Melvin Folkman's fine hurling for a 7-1 victory in the first game, then stopped Kimberley 5-0 in a rain-shortened final. Kimberley qualified for the final with a 6-3 win over Fernie.

CARD RESERVE IN HOSPITAL

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Tom Alston, reserve first baseman and first Negro ever to wear a St. Louis Cardinal uniform, was in Jewish hospital Tuesday for tests to determine why he has lost 15 pounds since spring training.

The club moved to put him on the disabled list, which would permit them to bring up another player, but baseball commissioner Ford Frick awaited a physician's report before acting on the request.

When the Cardinals put out $100,000 in cash and players for Alston after the 1953 season, his weight was listed at 210. He weighed 191 at the end of spring training and is now down to 176.

Former Cup Stars Assume Top Spots

MONTREAL (CP)— Three former Davis Cup players have been appointed to administrative posts in the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, it was announced Tuesday.

Lorne Main of Toronto is first vice - president, Jim Macken of Vancouver second vice - president and Jack Spencer of Montreal chairman of the Davis Cup selections and national ranking committees.

One of Those Days!

BOSTON (AP)—Shortstop Billy Klaus was lost by the Boston Red Sox indefinitely Tuesday as the result of a facial injury which climaxed an afternoon he would rather forget.

Klaus committed three errors in one inning—one shy of the all-time record — and banged into a rally-killing double play with the bases loaded before he was hurt.

PATTY, GIL SHEA TOPS IN PARIS

PARIS (AP) — Budge Patty and Gil Shea, a pair of Californians, advanced through opening matches Tuesday but a scrawny young Queenslander stole the opening show in the French international tennis championships.

Malcolm Anderson, a 21-year-old sub on the Australian Davis Cup team, scored the first major upset when he eliminated Nicola Pietrangeli, Italy's No. 1 player, 6-4, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4. Pietrangeli, rated most improved player in Europe, was seeded third behind Australia's Lew Hoad and Ashley Cooper.

Patty, from Los Angeles but a resident of Paris in recent years, played spasmodically in eliminating Francis Nys of France 7 - 5, 6-0, 1-6, 6-1 after receiving an opening bye. Shea, a crew-cut stylist also from Los Angeles, gained a default from Giorgio Fachini of Italy.

Three U. S. women prevailed in the opening round. Dorothy Head Knode of Alameda, Calif., won over Henriette Siary of France 6-2, 6-3. Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., beat Hungary's Georgi Erdodi 6-1, 6-2. Carol Liguori of Brooklyn advanced over Mrs. Jeanne Traut of France 6-1, 6-2.

Early Play Ragged For Lawn Bowlers

Practice games were played Monday morning and afternoon by approximately 24 members as Lakeside Lawn Bowling Club officially opened the 1957 season. A long layoff contributed to a slight lack of form, but all expressed the opinion that after a few more games they would be ready for competitive bowling.

Park superintendent Frank Holt said the greens would require at least two weeks of preparation before first-class condition would be attained. In the meantime, practices will be continued.

Ti-Cats Covet Harry Lampman

HAMILTON (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four said Tuesday night they have offered several players to Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union for Harry Lampman, Canadian end.

Club president Jake Gaudaur said he hasn't yet received a definite answer.

Lampman has expressed interest in playing here. The former Queen's University star was put on the Montreal Alouettes draft list when he graduated in 1954 but was signed by Saskatchewan since the western league was not in the draft at the time.

Tiger-Cats agreed to give up their No. 1 college draft choice for 1958 to Montreal for the right to negotiate with Saskatchewan for Lampman's services.

Boxing Match In Commons No. Decision

LONDON (Reuters)—Slim Dr. Edith Summerskill and burly Mrs. Bessie Braddock Tuesday night fought another round in the House of Commons in their periodic battle over whether boxing should be banned.

Contending that it should, Laborite Summerskill said Parliament should sympathize with those who felt that "unscrupulous promoters and managers are exploiting young men in the business of prize fighting."

Experts said that after 50 fights the "softening up process" set in, she said. The fighter was unable to time his blows and he eventually got knocked out because his brain was damaged.

Laborite Braddock replied that Dr. Summerskill sometimes got things "a little mixed up." Professional boxers resented her attacks.

"Many people in the country like to watch boxing," she said, adding: "I do. It is only the voting in this House that prevents me going regularly."

Veteran Kennedy Joins Brooklyn

CINCINNATI (AP) — Brooklyn Dodgers signed Bob Kennedy, veteran American Leaguer, for pinch hitting purposes and sent Cuban pitcher Rene Valdes to Montreal Royals on option.

Kennedy, 37, a third baseman and outfielder who played with Cleveland, Detroit, Baltimore and Chicago in the American League, was unconditionally released by the White Sox May 14. Kennedy batted .264 with Baltimore and Chicago last year.

Valdes was signed to a Brooklyn contract after a good showing in spring training. But the Dodgers, pleased with the work of their young pitchers, sent Valdes to their International League farm club for the season. He had a 1-1 record in relief.

He won 22 games with Portland Oregon, of the Pacific Coast League last season, striking out 148 men and walking only 69 in 254 innings.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Lord Cherwell Criticizes Pope

LONDON (AP) — Lord Cherwell, former scientific adviser to the British government, said Tuesday Pope Pius is establishing a "dangerous precedent" by taking sides in expert disputes over the possible danger to humanity from H-bomb tests.

Cherwell told the House of Lords May 8 that the Pope, in coming out against such tests, had been "taken in" by followers of the Communist party line. Cherwell's statement was sharply criticized two days later by the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano.

In a letter to The Times today, Cherwell comments:

"The Osservatore Romano apparent objects strongly to my having expressed regret that the Pope had seen fit to support the views of the people agitating to stop our tests on health grounds.

"Nobody would challenge his right to state his views on moral or ethical matters. But it does seem to me a dangerous precedent for the head of the Roman Church ever to appear to adjudicate on a scientific question in dispute."

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police say Ruben Ortiz, 20, used his 10-months-old son as a club to swing at a relative during a family brawl. They booked him for assault with intent to commit murder. Officers said Ortiz seized the baby by the head Monday and atruck at Joan Maestaes, a sister-in-law. Mrs. Maestaes seized the child from him before it suffered serious injury.

U.K. Plans Series Of H-Bomb Tests

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Macmillan said Tuesday Britain's nuclear explosion in the central Pacific last week made "a notable advance in the development of our deterrent power."

In a statement to the Commons on the hydrogen bomb test at Christmas Island, he said he is satisfied the blast will add only a "negligible" amount to worldwide radioactivity.

Macmillan said Britain will go ahead with its planned series of H-bomb tests, which have been severely criticized in Japan and at home.

Radioactive fallout from last week's blast was insignificant and a survey after a few hours showed very little contamination even below the point of burst.

NO DETAILS GIVEN

Macmillan pleaded reasons of security in declining details of the test blast.

"I can state, however, that this explosion makes a notable advance in the development of our deterrent power."

He also declined to say how "it depends partly on the collection of the scientific data as a result of this one."

TOKYO (Reuters) — More than 13 meteorological observatories reported that radioactive rain was falling throughout most of Japan's 19 prefectures.

A spokesman said there was no indication that the radioactivity resulted from the recent British nuclear test at Christmas Island, although the wind was blowing from that direction.

GENEVA (AP) — The United Nations World Health Organization has decided to conduct a world study of the causes of cancer and related diseases. It will be the most extensive ever undertaken in this field, officials said.

Not a Shot Fired When Army Takes Over Haiti

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) The army took over control of Haiti today "to save the nation from anarchy."

Brig. - Gen. Leon Cantave, the army chief of staff in this turbulent Negro republic, signed a proclamation declaring that the army would enforce military rule until a provisional president is elected who can guarantee "free and honest elections."

Cantave defied an order from the seven-man executive council Monday ousting him as chief of staff.

Not a shot was fired as the army rebelled against the council, which had been ruling by dictatorial decree pending presidential elections set for next month.

The army move had been anticipated following defiance of the council by many segments of the population, and charges that the council was "rigging" the elections for favored candidates.

At Cap Haitien, 85 miles north of the capital, a "committee of public safety" declared it was in control of all northern Haiti. A similar rebel group ruled in St. Marc, 50 miles northwest of Port au Prince.

It was believed these groups would yield to the army.

This country of 4,000,000 persons has been in near-chaos repeatedly since December, when strikes and demonstrations whipped up by leading presidential candidates forced out President Mag-Magloire when he tried to prolong his time as chief of state unconstitutionally. Two succeeding provisional presidents were brought down by feuding among the candidates.

Leaders among the 10 candidates got together in April long enough to set up the ruling executive council but split soon after. The council now is made up mostly of supporters of two candidates — Louis Dejoie and Daniel Fignole—and has been ruling in near-dictatorial fashion.

Voters' List Revision Court This Week

The Court of Revision to revise the federal election voters' list for Nelson will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week, with G. H. Kirby revising officer.

"Notices of revision" have been posted in public buildings in the riding by instruction of F. J. Flester, returning officer for the Kootenay West. The notice outlines the procedure to follow for any qualified elector in the constituency whose name has been omitted from the preliminary voters' list.

Any person who believes he or she is qualified to vote in the federal election June 10 may appear before the revising officer in person or he may have an agent present his sworn statement to the officer to have his name entered on the revised list. At the same time, a person can apply to have corrections entered on the list as to his name, adress or occupation.

The part of the city of Nelson in Revision District I is formed from polling divisions 110 to 125, being the urban section of the city where enumeration was made by geographic divisions. Rural polling divisions only may make a sworn statement of elegibility to vote before the deputy returning officer on the day of the election.

Revising officer for Rossland will be C. Harold Clegg, and he will hold the court of revision for Rossland polling divisions 126 to 134 in the Bank of Commerce Chambers on the same date. Revising officer for Trail will be D. M. MacDonald, meeting in the curling rink lounge, Cominco Arena, for polling divisions 135 to 163.

The prelliminary lists were posted in prominent locations in the polling divisions when made several weeks ago, and the printed lists have now been delivered to all candidates running in the election. Further information or assistance is available from committee rooms of the various political parties.

Says Russia Less Anxious To Start War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia's "immediate capability or desire" to start a war appears to be lessening, the House of Representatives appropriations committee said Tuesday.

That statement, the committee said in a report accompanying the U.S defence department's 1958 appropriation bill, is based on military intelligence information which, it conceded, is "never fully accurate or adequate."

But on the basis of weeks of closed-door meetings with military and civilian heads of the defence department, the committee said flatly that the "nature and extent of a military threat against the United States and its Allies appears, in certain respects, to have somewhat abated."

However, it cautioned, "all available information makes it clear that there is no room for complacency among our people in the consideration of our defence program."

The committee listed unrest in satellite countries among "weakening influences on Soviet capabilities."

Jet Follows Lindbergh's Atlantic Trail

MCGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP) — The U.S. Air Force said today its Spirit of St. Louis II, a jet flying the Atlantic on the anniversary of the famed Lindbergh flight, landed in Paris after a record trip.

An air force spokesman said the modern version of Charles A. Lindberh's craft covered 4,002 statute miles in an unofficial time of six hours and 37 minutes.

The pilot was Maj. Robinson Risner, a 32-year-old Korean War ace from Tulsa, Okla.

Lindbergh's time was 33½ hours.

The air force said Risner averaged 613 miles an hour unofficially during his hop.

English Fills Beck's Spot On Council

WASHINGTON (AP)—John F. English, general secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters union, Tuesday was reported elected to the AFL-CIO executive council spot from which Dave Beck was ousted Monday.

English, who had been opposing Beck's activities within the Teamsters organization for several years, is a 67-year-old veteran and respected leader in the giant truck union.

Beck, teamsters union president who invoked constitutional protection against possible self-incrimination when questioned by the Senate rackets committee about spending of union funds, was ousted as an AFL-CIO vice-president and executive council member.

The reported selection of English to replace him is regarded as an implicit vote of confidence by the AFL-CIO's officials in English's efforts to clean up irregularities in the teamsters organization.

Reports mounted meanwhile that the teamsters executive board was preparing to oust Beck from the teamsters union presidency.

English was reported as receptive to the selection of John T. (Sandy) O'Brien of Chicago, a teamsters union vice - president, to succeed Beck.

Mankind Needs Christian Guidance Says Massey

WOLFVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Only the Christian tradition can guide man in the use of the terrible power he has acquired in this age, Governor - General Massey said Tuesday.

But there is a challenge, especially for the young, he suggested, to revivify that tradition so that its force may be fully felt.

For, he said in the convocation address at Acadia University here, "In our day mere tradition is no longer sufficient sanction for morals and religion."

"Moral and religious teaching alike must come to terms with the intellectual demands of an age confronted with vast areas of new knowledge and of the new and terrifying power that goes with it."

It was impossible to operate a modern state — whether dictatorship or democracy—without "giving to many men great power over their fellows."

"And to refuse to exercise this power is not democratic—it is a betrayal of democracy."

But this power was given in order to be exercised with justice, discretion and skill.

Mr. Massey received an honorary doctor of civil laws degree.

Swedish Minister's Bow To Visiting

STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — A Swedish woman cabinet minister Tuesday bowed, not curtsied to visiting Queen Juliana of The Netherlands and was booed by spectators.

All of the ministers' wives and other women presented to Juliana curtsied when presented. But Mrs. Ulla Lindstrom, minister for home and family affairs, only bowed.

Mrs. Lindstrom was criticized by some Swedish newspapers last year when she refused to curtsy to Queen Elizabeth.

Before Juliana arrived today Dutch officials preparing for her visit said that she did not want women to curtsy to her.

Juliana and Prince Bernhard drove with King Gustaf Adolf and Queen Louise in open carriages through the crowd-lined streets of Stockholmm to the royal palace.

Suggests Keeping Four Whoopers In Captivity To Increase Species

By DION HENDERSON

NEW YORK (CP)—The whooping crane maternity watch at the Audubon Park zoo in New Orleans the past few days calls timely attention to the proposal of a Canadian authority on the birds: Should four of the remaining 24 wild whoopers be captured in an effort to perpetuate the species in captivity?

At New Orleans, Crip and Jo hatched out one chick Saturday. Their second egg is due to hatch today or Wednesday.

For those migratory bird experts who have just about given up on the chances of saving the whooping crane as a wild bird but think they ought to have a chance to save it by pen breeding, this is an opportune time to state their case.

Whether the crane could be saved as a captive species is one question, and better debated by experts.

URGES CAPTIVE FLOCK

But whether it should be is another, and one that anyone can get in on. There is good company on both sides.

Dr. Fred G. Bard, director of the Saskatchewan Museum of Natural History, believes that saving a live, remnant flock of the giant travellers for as long as possible is worth the time and trouble.

Dr. Bard first put forth the idea of capturing two pairs of whoopers for captive management some time ago, and thus brought on a considerable international discussion over the relative merits of "relics" alive in a pen or stuffed in a museum.

On the basis of the latest complete tabulation of the world's last remaining whoopers, Dr. Bard has renewed his proposal in letters to observers along the "whooper network," the 2,000 - mile stretch from Northern Canada to Aransas refuge on the Texas gulf coast that makes up the birds' migration route.

WANTS ONLY FOUR

On the way south last year, Dr. Bard points out, four of the 28 wild whoopers were lost.

"The whoopers must be given some new lease on life, if we expect to lift them out of this critical situation," Dr. Bard says. "Conditions through which they travel are not improving, but quite the reverse.

"My urging for support of a management program is not to wing clip our migrant birds, but extract four from this flock. Four is what we lost last year."

Those four, he adds, would have been "all we needed on which to base our hopes for the crane's future."

The world population of grown birds now stands at 27. Of these, the wild flock now on the nesting grounds in the Great Slave Lake country number 24, one wayfarer weary of travel is in the San Santonio, Texas, zoo, and the Audubon Park zoo has Jo and Crip, who've tried their best the last couple of years to hatch out some support for the captive supporters. So far, though, they haven't raised a child past childhood.

Haggard Workers Find Man's Body

LYKENS, Pa. (AP) — Some 82 hours of digging, praying and hoping ended late Monday night when haggard rescue workers found the body of David Snyder, 34-year-old coal miner who was buried last Friday 400 feet below the surface in a central Pennsylvania coal mine.

The body of the father of three children was discoveered by one of eight teams of five men each who had worked in the recesses of the mine since the victim was trapped by a coal slide early Friday. Snyder was working the mine with his brother, Leroy, and Mark Sponic, 65. The three owned the diggings together.

Dr. Samuel E. Herrold, a deputy coroner and one of the five stripped-to-the waist rescuers who came upon the body, said death was caused by suffocation. He said he had not determined when Snyder died.

The victim had not been heard from since five hours after the slide. He was trapped in a passageway of the South Mountain mine.

At that time mine inspectors heard tappings from a wall and believed them to be from Snyder banging a hammer. A rumble in the mine a few hours after the last tappings were heard indicated that a second slide had occurred. Rescue workers believe it was the second slide which trapped Snyder in a section in which his air finally petered out.

1200 Communities Adding Fluorides

SEATTLE (AP) — Upwards of 1200 communities in the United States with 32,000,000 population now add fluorides to drinking water to help fight tooth decay, Dr. John W. Knutson, president of the American Public Health Association, said here.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two squalling baby bears squeezed through the bars of their cage at Brooklyn's Prospect Park Zoo Monday for a look at the outside world. Policemen swiftly lassoed the two while mama bear watched nervously. But the excitement finally proved too much for the 300-pound mother. She collapsed and died.

Unemployment Increase Shown In Latest Report

OTTAWA (CP) — The government reported Tuesday that since January there has been a gradual increase in unemployment compared with a year ago.

A joint monthly statement issued by the bureau of statistics and the labor department said this was caused "because the growth in the labor force was particularly strong while the increase in employment was moderated by weaknesses in the forestry and construction industries."

The bureau said an estimated 5,442,000 persons had jobs at April 20, up 69,000 from the previous month and 116,000 from the corresponding period in 1956.

On the same date 306,000 persons were without jobs and seeking work, about 37,000 fewer than in the previous month but 49,000 more than in April of last year. The April 20 figure for this year, however, was more than 20,000 below the total for April, 1955.

"The latest available information for April shows that the expansion in total employment now underway is not markedly different from that of previous years," the statement said.

"This year the increase from March to April occurred in both agricultural and non-agricultural jobs. Last year there was no in ricultural industries during this period."

A decline in registrations for employment between mid - March and mid-April was common in all regions. They were down by 11,000 in the Pacific area, and by 6,000 in the prairie region.

Total unfilled National Employment Service job applications for Western regions at April 18, 1957, with figures for March 14, 1957, and April 19, 1956, in brackets:

Prairie region, 74,285 (80,284 and 74,882); Pacific region, 51,500 (62,542 and 40,525).

Black Predicts Socred Victory In Ontario

MINDEN, Ont. (CP)—Municipal Affairs Minister W. D. Black of British Columbia says the Social Credit sweep in British Columbia can be repeated in Ontario.

Speaking Monday night in this community 60 miles northeast of Peterborough on behalf of Rev. Albert McPhail, a Social Credit candidate for Victoria riding in the federal election, Mr. Black reviewed his party's rise to power in B.C.

Social Credit is a conviction and not just another political philosophy, the B.C. cabinet minister said. It was built on high moral principles, and those principles needed to be maintained if it was to survive.

Case Adjourned

Case of Bud W. Lewis of Nelson was adjourned to May 27 when he appeared in city court on charges of obtaining money fraudulently from a former employer. The further remand was given so that Magistrate R. S. Nelson can obtain further information about Lewis.

Lewis pleaded guilty to the charge May 9. He was picked up in Port Arthur on this charge and one laid by Trail police, obtaining a car by false pretences. Lewis is now serving a six-month jail sentence on the latter count.

Both alleged offences occurred two years ago. While a salesman for a local sewing machine company, Lewis is alleged to have sold a machine in Creston for about $250, and not turned the money back to his employers.

Quebec Legion Submits Urgent Resolutions To Federal Gov't.

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Legion's Quebec Command Monday passed in revised form a resolution which had claimed Hungarian refugees are getting free Canadian military hospital treatment.

It had urged the federal government to provide refugee aid in "other ways and means" that would leave hospital facilities open to veterans.

A second resolution submitted to the command's convention claimed veterans were compelled to pay for treatment granted free to Hungarian refugees. But all mention of Hungarian refugees was struck out by the convention in passing the resolutions.

Also passed were resolutions dealing with the regulations for widows' allowances, the "indignity of the means test" for veterans qualifying for old age pensions and former Nazi general Kurt Meyer.

In a fresh attack on the convicted war criminal who has been released, the Dominion Command was asked to approach the federal government about a Meyer autobiography published in Canada so that "the bereaved relatives of our murdered comrades are not left in any doubt as to the correct facts." The resolution described the autobiography as inaccurate.

Gov.-General's Train Rams Empty Truck

OTTAWA (CP)—A train carrying Governor - General Massey rammed into a stalled truck on a level crossing about 31 miles west of Marathon, Ont., Friday.

Government House said Tuesday that no one was injured. Mr. Massey stepped from his private car of the CPR passenger train to talk to truck driver John Berridge and then continued on an hour late for a brief "whistle stop" at White River.

FORMER MAYOR GETS PRINTING CONTRACTS

TORONTO (CP)—The Star says Hiram McCallum, general manager of the Canadian National Exhibition, is reported to hold the printing contract for this year's edition of Toronto's municipal handbook, scheduled for issue Tuesday.

The paper adds that Mr. McCallum also was given the contract to print a Metropolitan Toronto brochure earlier this year.

Mr. McCallum, a former mayor of Toronto, is vice-chairman of the Metropolitan Toronto planning board.

Officials said both contracts were awarded on the basis of "quotations" submitted. No formal tenders were called.

Mr. McCallum's bid of $5,698 for printing 10,000 copies of the 275-page handbook was $640 lower than any other quotation, an official said.
