Curfew Lifted In Kowloon

500 Suspects, 90 Others Seized After Two Days' Violence in Hong Kong

By DAVID ROADS

HONG KONG (CP)—Acting Governor E. D. David Friday lifted the rigid curfew imposed on the Kowloon business district after two days of bloody rioting.

At 10 a.m. residents of the area were permitted to leave their homes for the first time since 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Chinese Triad secret societies and underground criminal organizations were blamed by police for this British colony's worst outbreak of violence in a century.

The curfew had been imposed on Kowloon, the mainland secion of Hong Kong, while police sought to track down and arrest the culprits. Nearly 500 suspects and 90 known criminals were seized.

Officials revised earlier casualty figures downward. They said 26 persons were killed and 176 were injured since the violence erupted Wednesday in the mainland suburb of Kowloon.

The rioting tapered off early Friday after almost contiuous street fighting for 48 hours. There were only scattered incidents later, officials said.

VIOLENCE PLANNED

Hong Kong island itself, the main business centre, was not affected. Fighting occurred in Kowloon and adjacent centres on the mainland where refugees from Communist China are crowded into settlements.

An announcement said police investigation showed "violence had been planned and directed by Triad societies and similar criminal organizations."

No mention was made of either pro-Communist or pro-Nationalist groups which blamed each other for the outbreak Wednesday on an anniversary of the Chinese Nationalists.

The Triads enroll their members at secret ceremonies and exert their control through physical violence. In Hong Kong their protection rackets control many facets of Chinese economic life.

To maintain their grip, one Triad often comes to blows with another Triad trying to "muscle in" on its area.

In the biggest raid today, some 500 troops and police swooped on a six-floor resettlement centre which accommodates 40,000 Chinese refugees. They combed the building, arrested 460 suspects.

Among those arrested were persons found with tell-tale scratches on their hands, indicating, police said, that they probably had been throwing stones or broken bottles.

Triad societies were secret brotherhoods or societies formed in the early days of China's history and have played an important part in the overthrow of some Chinese dynasties. They have existed under every dynasty and government in China with a religious-mystic ritual.

When the Reds overran the mainland, hundreds of thousands of Triad members fled to Hong Kong and turned to racketeering and extortion among the squalid refugee camps.

OTTAWA (CP) — About 200 Canadians resident in Hong Kong have been reported safe following bloody riots at the British island colony.

YOUTH ASKS DEATH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 17-year-old boy charged with murder has told officials he will ask for the death penalty. Charles Elms said Thursday: "I can't see any future in jail. It's kind of hard to straighten out now." Police say Elms has admitted stabbing the 20-year-old sister of one of his pals when she resisted his advances.

Wrong Jones Boy Released

VANCOUVER (CP) — R. Jones was released from Oakalla Prison Farm in suburban Burnaby at 9:30 a.m. Friday, and two hours later officials found they had released the wrong R. Jones.

Police across British Columbia's lower mainland now are searching for Roland Jones, 25, who wasn't due for release until Dec. 29.

To get out, he signed as Richard Jones, due for release Friday after a 30-day term.

"Richard — the real Richard — didn't complain about not being released until 11:30 a.m.," said Warden Hugh Christie. "That's when the records office realized what had happened."

Both men are about 5½ feet tall and weigh in the 160s. Each has black hair, brown eyes and a copper complexion.

IRENE PYSANCZN went to court, was fined, but came away saying the judge was a very kind man. The reason is: he paid her fine. She appeared in Toronto magistrate's court to save the life of her dog, Zena, a German shepherd, who had bitten a man and a boy. The judge threw out the case presented by the man, but imposed the $1 fine in the case of the boy.

HOPES FADE FOR 59 LIVES

100 Search Planes Find No Trace of Missing Transport

LONDON (AP) — Hope ebbed Friday night for finding a U.S. transport plane missing for two days with 59 men aboard, but 100 planes from three continents still *criss-crossed the Atlantic in con*tinuing search.

The number of planes in the air made the search one of the greatest in aviation history and was sparked by an air force report that a lone SOS signal had been picked up early Friday.

The plane—a C-118 Liftmaster—vanished Wednesday with 50 air force men and nine naval crew members aboard while on a flight from Lakenheath, England, to the United States. The air force men had been on duty in Britain.

After the last message from the Liftmaster Wednesday night off the Azores, there was silence until 2:15 a.m., Friday when, the air force said, a Pan American passenger plane picked up a distress signal believed to have come from a radio on a survival raft, of which the plane carried four.

Little Tatania Detained in U.K.

LONDON (AP) — By British court order, Philadelphia-born Tatiana Chwastov, 2½, was taken off a Soviet-bound ship Friday to await a decision on whether she will grow up American or Russian.

The court stalled for the present her father's plan to take her to Russia and thereby nullify any claim of American citizenship for her.

Little Tatiana, carrying a ragdoll, was the least concerned of all in the stir at the pier and on shipboard over her future.

Her mother, Mrs. Helena Dieczok of Detroit, brought about a last-minute stop order. On her petition, the high court ruled the girl must be detained in Britain until a hearing is conducted.

Says Delinquency Fault of Parents

VANCOUVER (CP) — Delinquency amongst juveniles is principally the fault of the parents, Commissioner Edgar Dibden, international chief of staff for the Salvation Army, said Friday.

"Juvenile self - expression is a great thing," he said. "But it must be controlled and channeled into the right path.

"Responsibility for that control lies with the parents."

Near 8000 Ballots Wasted Says Paper

VANCOUVER (CP) — The province says an estimated 7500 to 8000 B. C. voters "were wasting their time casting special ballots" in the provincial election Sept. 19.

"The individual, sealed envelopes bearing their sworn affidavits and containing their votes were never opened," the newspaper says in a full-page analysis of the election. "Their secret ballots will remain forever secret."

The Province says the blame lies in many cases with the voters themselves, but most of all in the B. C. Election Act.

"Main complaint of returning officers concerned the heavy absentee vote, the large number of wrong ballots used by absentees, the large number not found on voters' lists, the confusion and delay in transferring the ballots to their proper home-riding.

"Cariboo returning officer E. G. Woodland called it the worst mix up ever with absentee votes. In Vancouver Burrard, returning officer James W. Wardrop reported 223 out of 607 ballots rejected came from absentees."

The Province quoted Mr. Wardrop as saying many absentee voters cast ballots in the wrong constituencies and "in a lot of cases the wrong ballots were used."

The newspaper adds that despite record advance polls and other indications of heavy voting, "the turnout was only an approximate 66.29 per cent of the 778,742 eligibles on the voters' list. That is the smallest percentage vote since 1945 when only 65.29 per cent voted."

"Eight returning officers, including two with multi-member constituencies, were unable to provide their unopened (ballot) counts.

"But based on returns from the other 34 ridings, there were as many ballots unopened as the total vote which elected seven MLAs—those in Atlin, Columbia, Fernie, Grand Forks-Greenwood, Kaslo-Slocan, North Peace and Yale."

Turning to methods of rectifying the situation, the Province says an "analysis of what happened Sept 19 suggests three changes, all of them advocated in the past and all likely to be sought in the legislature again next spring."

It suggested a system of perpetual registration, as in Britain, under which qualified and newly-qualified voters would be registered continually by permanent election staffs between elections.

The reduction in 1953's election act to 38 days from 59 was "probably too drastic" and should be revised upward while machinery to allow non-listed persons to vote should be simplified, it said.

Finally the newspaper said that there should be consideration of voting machines or else more careful selection of election staffs.

Sommers Files Appeal Against Bank Inspection

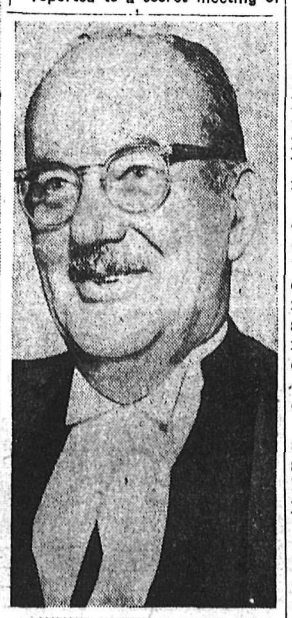
VANCOUVER (CP) — An appeal has been filed by former Lands and Forests Minister Robert Sommers from an order giving David Sturdy, Vancouver lawyer, a limited inspection of certain bank books and records.

The order was given by Mr. Justice H. J. Sullivan to Mr. Sturdy for the purpose of defending himself against a slander action by Mr. Sommers.

Mr. Sommers is taking slander action against Mr. Sturdy as a result of statements made by Mr. Sturdy to the Sloan Forestry Commission, accusing Mr. Sommers of corruption in connection with the issuing of forest management licences.

France, Britain, Egypt Agree on Six Principles

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The foreign ministers of Britain, France and Egypt reported to a secret meeting of the UN Security Council Friday night that they had agreed on a set of six principles as a basis for further negotiations on the Suez problem.



WHEN IRENE found she had only 75 cents and the fine was $1, Magistrate McKeown, who imposed the fine, said, "Never mind; I'll pay it."

The agreement was the result of six private meetings of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi with UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold.

Informed quarters said the principles dealt with freedom of access, the sovereignty of Egypt, the right to fare tolls, arbitration of disputes, funds for improvement and development, and insulation of the vital waterway from the national politics of individual countries.

Pineau told reporters after the council meeting:

"Great progress has been achieved. We have agreed on the six principles which should be the basis of the settlement of the problem."

The British, French and Egyptian foreign ministers will meet with Hammarskjold today to complete action on a document for council action on the negotiating plans.

The council will hold a public session at 2 p.m. today.

State Secretary Dulles was reported highly pleased that the suggestion for insulation of the waterway from national politics was included in the principles. He had plugged for this idea throughout the Suez talks here and in London.

Meanwhile, Britain, France and Egypt were reported in diplomatic circles to be planning more Suez talks in the UN in late October. Persons familiar with the course of the secret sessions in Hammarskjold's office said there was "real promise" of an eventual settlement.

On her return to Canada she was appointed general staff officer, grade 1, in charge of all CWAC training. She attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel. In 1944 Col. Kennedy was posted to the branch of the master - general of ordnance where she helped in organizing the Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers.

B.C., Saskatchewan Members Let Names Stand for PC Leadership

Pays Tribute To Service of George Drew

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP)—John G. Diefenbaker said Friday night he will let his name stand as a candidate for the national leadership of the Progressive Conservative party if it is the wish of "Canadians generally."

Mr. Diefenbaker, 61-year-old lawyer and member of Parliament for Prince Albert, made the statement at a social gathering of 200 Conservative party supporters here.

He said "I shall not seek the high honor of leadership, but if Canadians generally believe that I have a contribution to make and if it is their wish that I let my name stand at the leadership convention I am willing."

Mr. Diefenbaker's announcement came a few hours after Davie Fulton had announced at Kamloops, B.C., that he is a leadership candidate.

The announcement by Mr. Diefenbaker makes him a leading contender as successor to Hon. George Drew, who resigned last month because of ill health.

TRIBUTE TO DREW

A national convention is to pick Mr. Drew's successor in Ottawa during the week of Dec. 10.

In a statement read at 9 p.m. MST, Mr. Diefenbaker paid tribute to Mr. Drew, who defeated the Prince Albert member for the leadership in 1948.

"Again I want to express my deep admiration for the courage, the devotion to duty and for the magnificent service to Canada, given for so long by the Hon. George Drew," Mr. Diefenbaker said.

ENCOURAGED BY SUPPORT

Mr. Diefenbaker said that in recent weeks, he was "deeply moved and encouraged by the messages that have come to me from many of my colleagues in the House of Commons, from the multitude of people in all walks of life, and from one end of Canada to the other, asking that I allow my name to be put in nomination."

He drew immediate support from George Hees, 46-year-old Commons member for Toronto Broadview, who until last week had been a strong possible rival.

CREATED KING'S COUNSEL

A native of Grey County, Ont., John George Diefenbaker is a direct descendant of the 1812 Selkirk settlers. He studied law at the University of Saskatchewan and is a member of the Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia bars. He was created King's Counsel in 1929.

During the First World War he served overseas 1916-17 but was wounded and invalided home.

Mr. Diefenbaker's entry into politics consisted of unsuccessful attempts to gain election to the Commons in the general elections of 1925 and 1926.

From 1937 to 1940 he was leader of the Conservative party in Saskatchewan. In 1940 he was elected to the federal House and reelected again in 1945 and 1949 as member for Lake Centre. In the 1953 election he successfully contested the Prince Albert constituency.

During his parliamentary career, Mr. Diefenbaker has acquired a reputation as his party's expert in foreign affairs.

Favor Retaining Death Penalty

By FRASER WIGHTON

LLANDUDNO, Wales (Reuters) —The Conservative party Friday voted overwhelmingly in favor of retaining the death penalty for murder.

The vote at the party's annual conference here was in direct conflict with the verdict of the House of Commons, which recently supported in a free vote a bill to abolish hanging.

The members who voted for the convention resolution also asked that the murder laws in Britain be amended to eliminate the chance of error involved in the death verdict.

Earlier, the 4000 delegates applauded wildly after Chancellor of the Exchequer Harold Macmillan told them: "After the United States, we are the richest country in the world."

". . . Task of Leadership Vital Today"

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP)—E. Davie Fulton, member of Parliament for Kamloops, late Friday announced he will let his name stand for the leadership of the Progressive Conservative party.

"I have decided to accept the urgings of my friends and colleagues and to allow my name to stand," said Mr. Fulton in a statement announcing his decision.

Mr. Fulton was first elected to the Commons in the general election of 1945 and he was re-elected in 1949 and 1953.

Kamloops born, he is 40 years old, and comes from a family prominent in both the federal and provincial political fields. He is a lawyer.

URGED BY SUPPORTERS

In his statement, Mr. Fulton said: "During the time since George Drew resigned as our leader, friends and supporters in every walk of life across Canada have urged me to let my name stand for the leadership of the party.

"The decision has not been an easy one. The task of leadership of our party is a vital one in Canada today. It is the highest honor to which any Conservative can be called. It is an enormous undertaking. To answer the challenge requires most careful and honest self-examination as to one's own personal experience and qualifications for such service to colleagues, to the party, and to Canada as a whole.

"I have given the matter the most careful consideration. After taking into account the responsibilities of the position, and in the light of my own experience and service in the House of Commons and elsewhere, and of the duty of every Canadian to serve his country in whatever position he may be called upon to fill, I have decided to accept the urgings of my friends and colleagues and to allow my name to stand.

"In making the decision, I am fully conscious of the responsibilities involved. If called upon to serve, I shall do so to the utmost. Whatever the outcome of the convention, my desire will be, as a citizen of Canada, to continue to serve Canada and the Conservative party."

Mr. Fulton before his election to Parliament was active in party organizations and 10 years ago was president of the Young Progressive Conservatives Association. His father was a cabinet minister in the provincial government of Sir Richard McBride, who held office from 1901 to 1909, and from 1917 to 1921 was a member of Parliament for Cariboo as a Conservatvie Unionist. His grandfather, A. E. B. Davie, and his great uncle, Theodore Davie were premiers of British Columbia.

A Rhodes scholar, Mr. Fulton is a member of the Senate of the University of British Columbia. He served overseas in the Second World War as a member of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada and with headquarters of the 1st Canadian Division.

LONDON (Reuters) — The Cunard White Star Line has decided to withdraw the 20,341-ton Franconia and the 14,440-ton Ascania from service this year. Both liners, now on the North Atlantic run between Britain and New York and Canada, probably will be dismantled.

Nina and Hats Issue Settled

By LEONARD LEDDINGTON

LONDON (AP)—A British court Friday convicted Nina Ponomareva of shoplifting — then let the Soviet woman discus champion go home on payment of three guineas ($8.82).

Her court appearance was a triumph for the British stand that the government could not stop the process of the courts. The Russians had said the charge she stole five cheap hats was a vile and trumped up "provocation" and had asked the foreign office to have the case dropped.

The 168-pound, 27-year-old athlete, who had been in hiding 44 days in the Soviet Embassy, emerged unexpectedly this afternoon and stood trial at Marlborough Street magistrate's court. She pleaded not guilty, saying she bought the hats.

But Magistrate Clyde Wilson found the case against her proved. Peering over his spectacles, he told her she could be released on payment of the costs. A Soviet Embassy representative paid the guineas in her behalf and she slipped out through a side door, eluding several hundred curious bystanders.

Nina boarded the Soviet steamship Vyacheslaff Molotov Friday night for her six-day voyage back to Russia.

BRITAIN ASSERTS WILL ABIDE BY 1948 TREATY

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain will abide by the terms of the 1948 Anglo-Jordan mutual defence treaty, a foreign office spokesman announced Friday.

The treaty provides that either government should go to the aid of the other in the event of war.

British envoys made this announcement in Tel Aviv and Amman following the Israeli attack on a Jordan fort at Qalqulya Wednesday night.

The British spokesman said:

"Both the Israel government and the Jordan government have been made aware that there is no doubt whatever about our intention to fulfil the Anglo-Jordan treaty."

Replying to a question whether his statement implied British assistance for Jordan in the event of an attack by Israel, the spokesman said, "I think that is quite plain."

Officials were unwilling to comment on reported plans to send Iraqi troops to Jordan.

But usually well-informed quarters here said an arrangement for the stationing of Iraqi troops in Jordan would be viewed favorably as a contribution to the stability of the area.

$40 MILLION AIR BASE UNVEILED

COLD LAKE, Alta. (CP) — The RCAF has unveiled its $40,000,000 Cold Lake air base, 145 miles northeast of Edmonton, for the first time since it went into operation in 1954.

The wraps were taken off long enough to show reporters one of the newest links — still partially secret—in the chain of Canada's defence network.

The reporters toured the installations at Cold Lake, where CF-100 crews are trained for "collision-course" combat in the 600-mile-an-hour class all-weather fighters, and watched as the big jets blasted the peaceful quiet of Primrose Lake, 25 miles north, with full volleys of thundering rockets.

And in This Corner...

TOKYO (AP)—A pair of army socks has reunited two brothers separated for many months.

The reunion came after Pte. Gary L. Fonseca of Cambridge, Mass., asked the supply sergeant at Camp Zama for his issue of new black socks.

"You've already drawn yours," the sergeant replied. "And here's the signed order to prove it."

The paper bore a Fonseca signature, but it was Pte. Walter J. Fonseca, a brother whom he hadn't seen for 18 months. Neither knew the other was in the Far East.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—When firemen from station No. 6 dashed off to fight a brush fire someone left the shower running. It caused more excitement than the fire.

In response to calls police sloshed through water at the flooded station to turn off the shower.

CHILDREN SENT TO NEW DENVER

Four Sons of Freedom Doukhobor children were placed in the Dormitory School at New Denver by Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans in Nelson provincial court Friday.

RCMP apprehended the children Sept. 28 at Perry's Siding under the Protection of Children Act. Evidence by police and school officials was that none had attended classes this term.

Only 13 Attend Scout Adult Course

Only 13 persons attended the Boy Scout adult training meeting at the Scout Hall, conducted this week by J. V. Scrivener of Penticton, field commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association of British Columbia.

Disappointed officials said that district association executive members formed about half the group. The period was designed to help adults in dealing with problems and responsibilities of group committees.

Free Publicity for City . . .

Pictures of Nelson On Two Coast Ferries

Coast ferry travellers—an inestimable number of them—know more about Nelson because the Chamber of Commerce was quick to seize an opportunity for publicity.

Early this summer, R J. Fraser, special representative of Black Ball Ferries Ltd, of Horseshoe Bay, called at the local office to offer the Chamber free advertising space on the ferries.

Tourist and publicity chairman B. B. Clark and other members got busy, and several large color pictures of Nelson and district were mounted in a 60x36 inch picture frame with suitable lettering. This was shipped to the Black Ball Ferries company. The total cost amounted to $61.

Several hundred new Nelson pamphlets were also sent, and were made available for tourists on the ferries.

On both the MV Chinook and MV Kahloke, the display silently told its story of Nelson's attractions to travellers between Horseshoe Bay and Nanaimo.

Now the framed picture has been returned to the Chamber with a letter from Mr. Fraser's company stating: "I would like to thank you for your co-operation in sending such a fine display. It was by far the best received."

The Chamber points out that many people are not fully acquainted with the work done by the Chamber or how its funds are spent.

Salvation Army Drive Nears Goal

Lieut. G. C. Grice of the Nelson Salvation Army corps announced Friday that the organization has collected about $3100 for its 1956 Red Shield campaign. Official dates of the drive were Sept. 18 to Oct. 12, but money is still coming in, and officials are hopeful of achieving the $3900 objective within a few weeks.

About 12 volunteers assisted Lieut. and Mrs. Grice in the city, and others canvassed outside areas.

Lieut. Grice said he is "extremely grateful to the people of Nelson and district for their kind support of the drive."

Old Ideas Fade Fast in Orient

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—Ideas of fellow students that Baghdad is still the mysterious city of the east, where women go around in veils, have been shattered by Mary Stuart, who came from Iraq to study at the Macdonald Institute here.

Mary, whose own wardrobe consists of smart dresses and suits, says educated women in Baghdad are very clothes-conscious, although modern village women still wear long robes and veils. Modern tiled kitchens, refrigerators and stove are to be seen in many city homes.

NO "DATING"

But, she adds, some ancient customs remain. Marriages still are usually arranged and dates consist of young people in groups, never in couples.

Her course at Macdonald is being sponsored by the United Nations food and agriculture organization. She already has a bachelor of science degree.

Her decision to come to Canada was encouraged by Dr. Jessie Brodie of Toronto, who established the home economics department at the Queen Aliya College in Baghdad where Mary plans to teach.

AOTS CLUBS MEET AT TRAIL

TRAIL — The new national secretary, Syl Spence, who is visiting clubs throughout Canada, addressed the annual district meeting of AOTS clubs in East Trail United Church Hall Friday.

Fifty members from Rossland, Trail, Castlegar and Fruitvale attended.

Mr. Spence spoke on the development of AOTS and outlined methods of improving local groups. Following a banquet, each organization contributed to the evening's entertainment. John Dalziel of Castlegar, president of the district council, presided at the meeting.

Bishop McCarthy Guest Speaker at Vancouver Meeting

Most Rev. T. J. McCarthy, Bishop of Nelson, will be a guest speaker at the sixth annual convention of the B.C. Catholic Education Association in Vancouver Sunday. Other guest speaker will be Rev. J. A. MacLellan, provincial secretary of the Alberta Catholic Education Association.

Duhamel to Appear In County Court

Clifford Arthur Duhamel, 33, former Vancouver cafe operator who was committed to the Nelson fall Assizes Court Sept. 17 by Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans for possession of goods worth more than $50 "knowing that the same were obtained by an offence which is indictable in Canada", has re-elected for trial by judge.

Defence counsel G. B. Arnesen said Friday that the case is scheduled to come before His Honor Judge Eric P. Dawson in county court on Nov. 6.

The charge was laid in connection with a theft from the Canadian Legion at Castlegar on Aug. 5.

FARMERS TO MEET HERE IN NOVEMBER

L. W. Johnson, Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, is making a special trip from Victoria to attend the annual meeting of the West Kootenay-Boundary Central Farmers' Institute, November 3, in the Nelson Chamber of Commerce board room. Meeting will include discussion of farmers' problems with Mr. Johnson, presentation of the financial statement, and election of officers for the coming year.

Kenneth Wallace of Boswell, secretary, suggests "this will be a wonderful opportunity for farmers to discuss problems and make representations to Hon. W. R. T. Chetwynd, newly-appointed B.C. Minister of Agriculture."

The Advisory Board of Farmers' Institutes will probably meet at Victoria soon after the annual meeting.

VANDALS ENTER CHURCH HALL

Vandals who were apparently bent on making a mess rather than stealing, broke into the Parish hall at the Church of the Redeemer in Fairview Thursday night or Friday morning.

Mrs. T. C. Lambert, property convener for the parish service club, discovered the damage just after noon Friday when she entered the hall with tablecloths for the clergy and lay dinner that was held that night in connection with deanery meetings.

The intruders had jimmied the windows, opened several cartons of soft drinks, and spilled the contents over the floor, and had forced cupboard locks. No money is kept on the premises. Several glass tumblers are missing. There was no extensive loss, according to church officials, but they described the place as "a shambles."

Opening of Bridge Special Occasion

CHILLIWACK (CP) — Chilliwack council has turned down a request to make Oct. 31 a civic holiday to mark the opening of the Agassiz-Rosedale bridge.

Members of the board of trade suggested that both the city and township councils proclaim a full holiday to commemorate the occasion.

Free public dancing, fireworks and prizes for motorists using the new bridge on opening day are being discussed by council.

LIQUOR CASE REMANDED

Mrs. Mary Sofonoff of Ymir Road was remanded to next month when she appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans in provincial court Friday, charged with keeping liquor for sale.

RCMP reportedly seized the liquor at her home on Sept. 27, and laid the charge Sept. 28.

Dean Scarfe Speaks To Teachers

CASTLEGAR — Dean Neville Scarfe of the new College of Education at the University of British Columbia was guest speaker at the annual fall convention of the West Kootenay-Boundary Teachers' Association at Castlegar Friday night. His topic was "Is B.C.'s Education System Meeting the Challenge of the Times?"

Theme of the two-day convention which continues today is "A Time for Reassessment". Some 448 teachers are attending.

Registration at Stanley Humphries High School was followed by sectional meetings with special speakers at morning and afternoon sessions. Local women's organizations catered to a luncheon and dinner held in the Twin Rivers Hall, St. Alban's Hall, Kinnaird and Robson Hall and Castlegar Legion Hall. Addresses were heard from special speakers at each of these gatherings.

Books and teaching material and pupils' arts and crafts work are being displayed at the Twin Rivers School.

The convention will wind up with a banquet and dance tonight.

Rev. Canon W. J. Silverwood of Nelson, rural Dean of West Kootenay, will address the teachers today.

URGES TRUCKS, RAILS TO "SHARE THE BUSINESS"

VANCOUVER (CP) — W. C. Norris of Ottawa, president of the Automotive Transport Association of Canada, called Friday for an end to "carping and competing" between the nation's railroads and trucking industries so they can get on with the job of moving the goods to develop the country.

Mr. Norris, here to attend the annual meeting of the ATA's B. C. division, said in an interview the "trucking industry is being hard pushed to keep up with the demands of business and industry and the railroads are operating at a higher capacity."

The competition is healthy to keep rates down, but there is certainly a good deal of room for more co-operation," Mr. Norris said.

What is hurting the truckers, he said, "is the new investment in trucks and handling equipment we have been forced to make in the boom of the last few years."

"Most trucking firms are independent and privately financed. Some firms feel they are being overextended because of the race to keep goods moving I think we should share the business instead of fighting over it. There's too much to go around."

Woolls Recovering From Illness

Walter A. (Blondy) Woolls, retired Canadian Pacific Railway engineer, now living in Victoria, is "recovering nicely" from a heart attack he suffered about two months ago, Nelson friends have been advised.

Mr. Woolls, who retired in 1954, is well known throughout the district. He is a past president of the Canadian Legion. Mr. and Mrs. Woolls reside at 512 Francis Avenue in Victoria.

Firemen's Ball Held

The 1956 edition of the Firemen's Ball was held Friday night at the Civic Centre.

The event was a windup of National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to 13. Other events of the week, which is designed to bring emphasis to people the full effect of fire, and how to deal with it, were a campaign of distributing booklets throughout the schools and dropping leaflets from an airplane.

ANOTHER PHASE of Fire Prevention Week in Nelson this week was dropping of leaflets over city Thursday from a plane. Above, Fire Chief E. S. Owens watches children running for the leaflets, dropped in the vicinity of the Civic Centre, and prepares to drop another bundle from the window of the plane. —Daily News photo.

Vernon Seeking Highway Bypass

VERNON (CP) — Hugh Shantz, North Okanagan MLA said Friday that he will ask the highways minister for a detailed survey on the feasibility of a highway bypass north and south and west of that section of Highway 97 which runs through the city of Vernon. Mr. Shantz said he hopes to have the results of this survey next year.

Vernon Jubilee Hospital administrator Joe Dale stated that the hospital board has asked the city for its support in pressing for such a highway bypass, to be used by heavy trucks and other through-traffic. Grinding brakes, and noise from the heavy vehicles, particularly at night, disturb the patients, and are the despair of doctors and nurses, he said.

Town planning commission chairman Donald D. Harris said the commission recommended such a bypass when highway 97 was being constructed through Vernon a few years ago. Mayor Frank Becker said the city is working in cooperation with the town planning commission, also the department of national defence, through whose property presumably such a highway will go.

COSSACKS HERE TUESDAY

Members of the General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers will visit Nelson Tuesday, giving one performance under Kiwanis Club auspices at the L. V. Rogers High School.

These musicians are widely known for their distinctive treatment of stirring folk melodies and religious and folk music. The 25 members are headed by Nicholas Kostrukoff, who has acted simultaneously as chorus leader and administrator since the Don Cossacks started in 1927.

Among the more spectacular dances which the Cossacks have performed around the globe are the hair-raising dagger dance, done by G. Soloduhin, the spectacular Lesginka, where a dancer juggles 10 knives for forehead, shoulders and clenched teeth, and the exciting Kozatchok. In this latter dance, a dozen of the men vie with each other in spectacular leaps and whirls, while others egg them on with shouting and clapping.

Truck Keys Missing

Nelson Police Chief Robert Harshaw suspects that juveniles were responsible for removing 13 sets of truck keys Friday.

Fifteen of the sets vanished from B.C. Department of Public Works trucks at the Front Street garage, and the other three were reported missing from three Palm Dairies' trucks near the plant on Baker Street.

Motorcyclist Pleaded Not Guilty

William Kichard, Nelson motorcyclist who was fined $20 and costs in city court Thursday when Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans found him guilty on a speeding charge, pleaded not guilty. The Daily News was in error in Friday's issue in stating that Kichard pleaded guilty.

Nakusp High School Being Built Rapidly

NAKUSP — Fine fall weather is helping David Howrie Ltd., of Vancouver to speed ahead with construction of the new junior-senior high school at Nakusp.

The firm started work on the building in August, immediately after acceptance of its tender of $163,023.

About 50 men were employed in pouring cement. Walls are being constructed at present.

The school will probably be ready for occupancy the first of the year.

Commercial TV Opens Second Year in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Britain's noisiest baby — commercial television — has entered its second year, adored by many, hated by some but ignored by few.

Motion picture theatres seem to have been hard hit but the big surprise is the popularity of wrestling — the grunt and groan type — over cricket.

Commercial television made its debut in Britain Sept. 22, 1955. Before that date Britons could see only those TV programs aired by the government-owned and strictly non-commercial British Broadcasting Corporation.

A common complaint was that most BBC programs were staid. In its first year, that's one charge that not even the most bitter critic has leveled against the newcomer.

THRIVING NEWCOMER

Commercial TV finished its first year without showing a profit, but it made a big splash in a lot of other ways and its spokesmen say the baby's future health should be good. They claim the commercial audience is twice as big as that of the BBC among viewers who have a choice of channels.

The biggest losers appears to have been the British motion picture industry. The J. Arthur Rank organization recently announced plans for closing 79 theatres because of poor attendance.

"With the impact of commercial television during the past year," it said, "it is not surprising that cinema attendances have declined and that profits from exhibition are lower."

CWAC Organizer Dies at Victoria

VICTORIA (CP) — Joan Kennedy, 52, organizer of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, during the Second World War, died suddenly at her home here on Thursday.

Funeral services will be conducted from St Barnabas church here Tuesday. It is expected that military honors will be accorded her.

J. Stace-Smith Of Creston Dies

CRESTON — John Stace-Smith, 64, longtime-resident of the Creston district, was found dead at his home at Alice Siding on Thursday afternoon. He was believed to have been dead for 24 hours. He had been ailing for some time.

Mr. Stace-Smith was born at Salmon Arm and came to Creston with his parents in 1906. He was engaged in farming and logging industries. He was a keen hunter and sportsman, a crack rifle shot and boxer. His father was at one time a sparring partner for Bob Fitzsimmons. Mr. Stace-Smith joined the 16th Battalion Canadian Scottish in 1914. He was wounded on Somme in 1916. As a result of his wounds his leg was amputated.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Fred Taylor and Mrs. Ivan O'Niell of Creston and Mrs. Jack Kalmas of Newport, Washington, and three brothers, Ronald, Richard and Gordon of Creston.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon from the St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church, Creston. Last post services will be held at Forest Lawn Cemetery, Erickson.

72-Seat Aircraft To Serve North B.C.

VANCOUVER — Canadian Pacific Airlines will introduce four-engined 72-seat inter-continental aircraft on scheduled feeder-line routes for the first time in Canada, said CPA president G. W. G. McConachie here Friday.

Super DC-6B Empress airliners now flying between five continents on CPA's overseas routes, will go into domestic service initially in British Columbia next summer on the Vancouver-Terrace (Kitimat) and Vancouver-Whitehorse routes — as soon as the proposed government airport is completed, the aircraft will also fly into Prince Rupert.

Whooping Crane Always Rare, Dead Or Alive

EDMONTON (CP)—Even when dead, the whooping crane is a rare bird.

The mounted specimen in the Edmonton living room of Mrs. W. C. Barrie is considered the best of the four such exhibits in Canada. The others are in the Alberta legislative building here, and at Winnipeg and Regina.

The specimen in Mrs. Barrie's home last year served as the model for a whooping crane design on a Canadian postage stamp It stands four feet, three inches tall, and has a wingspread of more than eight feet.

OFFER BIG PRICES

The bird was shot in 1913 by Mrs. Barrie's late husband. He saw a flight of cranes approaching, fired, and the great white bird fell from the pack. Mrs. Barrie says the Field Museum in Chicago and other places have bid as high as $1500 for the specimen, but she will not part with it, mainly for sentimental reasons.

The trophy is in excellent condition after 43 years. It gets regular cleanings that leave the plumage gleaming white.

At last count only 31 whooping cranes were known to be living and hunting them now is prohibited. Hunters every year are warned not to shoot at the whoopers on their migratory flights. It may be a long time before such a trophy as Mrs. Barrie's comes along again.

Italians Break Up White Slave Gang

ROME (AP) — A white slave gang which employed pretty young Italians as dancing girls and then forced them into prostitution in the Middle East was broken up by police here.

Police announced the arrest of a former vaudeville acrobat, and said he headed the gang. They said other arrests would follow. Police said young girls were hired as chorus girls for troupes going to Athens and then on to the Middle East. Once abroad the girls found they were expected to date patrons of nightclubs.

A recent Vienna meeting of Interpol, the international police organization, heard reports that this type of white slave trade between Europe and the Middle East was widespread.

Convention Told . . .

College of Education Will Up Training Costs

FERNIE — The annual convention of the East Kootenay Teachers' Association opened Thursday with 285 teachers registered. School districts represented are Fernie, Cranbrook, Creston, Kimberley, Windermere and Golden.

Stanley Evans, assistant general secretary of the B.C. Teachers' Federation, opened the convention with a demonstration of the techniques of group dynamics and their application to specific subjects.

In her address to the elementary teachers, Miss Grace Dolmage, assistant Professor of Education at the University of British Columbia, outlined the four areas of growth in a pupil. These were physical, intellectual, social and emotional. Three of the needs of a child were love and security, praise for effort or work accomplished and consistency of treatment.

The induction of 62 new Federation members was carried out by Ian Boyd, president of the B.C. Teachers' Federation. The inductees were either new teachers or teachers from other parts of Canada and the Commonwealth who are teaching for the first time in British Columbia. Addressing the new members, Mr. Boyd described the services available by membership in the BCTF. Some of these are pensions, teachers' aids, salary indemnity fund, Medical Services Association, credit union and benevolent fund.

"With the establishment of the College of Education at the University of British Columbia this fall, students taking teacher training are faced with increased costs for tuition, board and room," F. C. Boyes, director of student teaching at the College, told the public meeting of the convention Thursday night. Mr. Boyes estimated the increase at $500 per year.

Adding to the student's financial difficulty was the university Saturday morning session which made it impossible for students to accept weekend jobs. This had resulted in fewer men taking teacher training. The Department of Education appreciated the situation. It was hoped some action to alleviate it would be taken. Mr. Boyes stated the prestige of teachers was growing due to the increase in the number of good teachers who were masters not only in teaching subjects but also in understanding pupils.

OUTLINES REPORTS

The history of report cards was outlined by Mr. Boyes at Friday morning's session. Any type of report, the old percentage, the letter grade or the new alphabetical type was good for the good teacher. It took courage to mark report cards honestly. The report should reflect what the child is doing as compared with his ability.

The panel consisting of Inspector Eric Dunn of Cranbrook, Inspector J. G. Kirk of Kimberley, Inspector Abbott of Creston, Miss Muriel Baxter, teacher consultant for the Fernie and Cranbrook school districts, Mr. Boyes and Miss Dolmage, explained the characteristics of the "atypical child". The gifted child required challenging work and an enlarged program of work to keep the child working up to ability. For the slower learner the personality and patience of the teacher had to be outstanding. The teaching had to be more concrete, the use of all senses was desirable and the development of hand skills stressed.

Opportunity classes for weaker pupils were producing remarkable results. Such classes had of necessity to be small, the selection of the teacher was of utmost importance, the class was not a dumping ground for pupils which teachers did not want, and the full co-operation of parents and press were of vital importance.

Radium To Get Outdoors Resort

INVERMERE — A new enterprise for the Windermere District is the Radium Hot Springs Golf and Country Club now being organized by R. A. Wassman of Radium, owner and operator.

Situated two miles south of Radium Hot Springs junction on Highway 95, it will provide a nine-hole golf course, swimming pool, tennis court and horseback riding over 20 miles of woodland tarils. There is a club house on the property.

Membership for local residents is on a family basis and there are teeter-totters, swings and a sand box for the youngsters while their parents are engaged in more active sports. There is an outdoor barbecue and there will be dancing on the patio.

The pool is so designed that the spring water will run first into a sun-warmed trough and thence into the pool. Fairways are being worked now for spring seeding.

Rossland Players To Stage 'Patience'

ROSSLAND — The Rossland Light Opera Players held their opening rehearsal this week of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience." or as it is sometimes known, "Bunthorne's Bride." It is hoped that the principals will be cast next week.

This operetta is quite light and funny, and a little shorter than last year's production. Plans are to present the show some time in January, about a month earlier than usual to avoid clashing with the dates of other concerts in the district.

A new musical director is handling this production, Dr. Mory Block, musical director on the staff of J. Lloyd Crowe High school.

John Roberts continues as stage director.

Salesmen Cover Smaller Areas

VANCOUVER (CP) — The place of the travelling salesman in Canadian industry is undergoing many changes, says a veteran commercial traveller.

Today's salesman is younger and more specialized, and has a smaller territory which he covers more often, says S. J. (Syd) Harbinson, president of the 10,500-member North West Commercial Travellers' Association.

"Selling habits have changed because salesmen today are functioning in a buyers market," he said in an interview. "Increasing competition and demands for improved service have placed greater pressure than ever on the commercial traveller."

PROFESSIONALLY TRAINED

There is a gradual emergence of the specialty salesman, often a professionally-trained man, says Mr. Harbinson.

Such travellers are making rounds swiftly and frequently to keep in touch with their customers and are making use of improved travel facilities, including air transportation.

They are given detailed training by their companies and are finding selling now is a stepping stone to higher executive posts, he said.

Helping the Handicapped Children

The annual meeting of the Nelson Branch of the Kootenay Society for Handicapped Children shows that the same enthusiasm which initiated the movement to provide education for handicapped children still prevails and that the work on behalf of such children is becoming effective.

In the four years since they began their work the committee has succeeded in establishing a day school for handicapped children, largely by voluntary efforts and the kindness of individuals. It is only recently that they have received any assistance from the provincial government, and this has been forthcoming because the society was able to demonstrate to the government that such work was not only necessary but could be carried out on a reasonable basis of expenditure.

Governments are always reluctant to initiate social reforms of any nature and the success of the Society is an illustration of the importance of democratic bodies in leading the way.

Handicapped children suffer from some degree of affliction which prevents them from following a normal life. This may be either mental or physical, or both, and it is obvious that the care of such children is expensive. The fact that the government now pays a grant of $250 for each child that is mentally retarded is helpful to the Society and is encouraging to those who have such children, but it is difficult to see why physically handicapped children who are not mentally deficient should be ineligible for such grants. There must be many such who are unable to attend the public schools but whose learning ability is more than average. Something should be done for these children too.

A Job Well Done

Even to the newspaper man the days when the newspaper does not appear are dull and to the average reader the holidays lack spice because there is no paper on the doorstep. When it happens, as it does on rare occasions, that the carrier is late, nothing can equal the disappointment of the frustrated reader. The carrier is the last in a long chain of those engaged in the important work of providing news from around the world to the general public, but he is not the least important. Indeed, when the paper is late or missing he becomes very important to the irate subscriber.

It is interesting, and gratifying, therefore to find that three Nelson boys have received awards from the Canadian Circulation Managers Association for the quality of their service. All the boys are expected as a matter of course to deliver their papers on time despite the hazards of extreme weather, to collect their monies, and to pay their accounts promptly, and they are expected, if possible, to get new subscribers. In this way boys are trained in that foundation of all human endeavors, thoroughness. That these boys have been singled out for awards is an indication of the value of that training.

There is nothing so satisfying to the individual as a job well done and nothing more worthy of admiration than a high quality of craftsmanship.

It may seem a small thing in these days to do the simple job of delivering papers but we are apt to forget that even the simplest jobs to be well done require effort. Not only that but the way a small job is carried out is an indication of the innate honesty of purpose of the individual and that this quality will be reflected in larger undertakings. Through conscientious attention to his job, the paper carrier can lay the foundations of a successful adult life.

Opportunity In Building

We're heading for a breathing space in the race to provide housing for Canada's growing population. For the economy this can be a great opportunity.

The construction industry is today at least five times as big as in 1945. Its workers have increased from 146,000 to 649,000, its annual wage bill from $234 million to $2 billion. The emphasis in the last decade has been on dwellings. Other building jobs that badly need doing have had to be postponed. Schools haven't been going up fast enough. Roads are behind schedule. Public and office buildings are bursting at the seams. Urban redevelopment has been the subject of much talk but little action.

Now it seems likely that the demand for new houses will slacken. Canadians born in the 1920s, when the birth rate was high, are married and settled down. Children of the 1930s, now at the marrying age, are less numerous. The rate of family formation is likely to slow down — but only for a decade or so. By the late 1960's there will be another upsurge in the demand for homes.

Fortunately, there's no need to let construction lag during the ten years ahead. The business world is ready to take up much of the slack. Investment in plant and equipment rose 38 per cent in the first half of this year, by comparison with 1955, even before the housing demand began to fall off.

Apart from business, there's a pressing need for new schools and university buildings. Almost every city in Canada needs a new city hall. Every province needs more and better roads. Every airport needs improved terminal facilities.

The country has perhaps ten years to get these things done before the housing balloon goes up again. The public and the industry should grasp the opportunity. — Financial Post.

M. O., Silverton—Will you please publish in your column the value (if any) of a $20 bill dated February 17, 1864?

This bill may be worth more than its face value. Your best plan would be to write to Neil Carmichael Publications asking for their catalogue, and stating why you wish to have a copy. There is a small charge for the book which contains a list of coins and bills, and also gives their values.

C. C., Fernie—Will you please give me the address of the Catholic Chinese Mission in Vancouver?

Catholic Chinese Mission, 568 East Georgia, Vancouver, B.C.

Reader, Nelson—How would I go about joining one of the freight boats going out from Vancouver?

Write to the Personnel Department of the Furness-Withy Line, Marine Building, Vancouver; Holland-Amerika Line, 591 Burrard, Vancouver; Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Vancouver; Cunard Shipping Company, 628 West Pender, Vancouver. Give age, school grades, and any other information likely to be required.

Old-Timer, Fort Steele—To settle an argument, will you please let us know where the site of the old Bartlett House was, a saloon in Nelson in the old days?

The Bartlett House stood on Josephine Street, between Baker Street and Victoria Street.

Over-Crowded Highways

The following is a quotation from an address by William A. Wecker, president and general manager, General Motors of Canada Limited, at the directors luncheon, Canadian National Exhibition, on August 28, 1956.

"Parked bumper to bumper, the number of passenger cars we expect to see registered in Canada in 1965 reach for about 13,600 miles. Then there are 1.6 million trucks and buses to find road space for, and some of them are 60 feet long. In other words, if, at the same time, we put all the vehicles we expect to have in 1965 on the paved highway system we have now, there would be less than two car lengths between any two drivers in the country.

"And if we continue to add paved highways at no better than our present rate, that distance between cars will increase by no more than 23 feet. The blunt truth is that we are being crowded off our inadequate road system."—Canadian Chamber of Commerce Newsletter.

Extending the Vote

City Council, it is to be hoped, will endorse the Civic Legislation Committee's recommendation that the people be asked next December if they are in favor of extending the municipal franchise to persons who are now denied the vote because they occupy only one room.

The intention is to give the vote — on all matters except money bylaws — not only to one-roomers with at least a six months' residency qualification, but also to close relatives, such as sons and daughters of eligible age who reside with their parents.

The Telegram believes that this is a right step in civic development. It would enfranchise people who are now denied the vote on the somewhat archaic theory that property alone is the predominant and determining factor. By giving them a voice and encouraging mining qualification to participate in civic affairs. Such persons obviously are as much a part of the community as their neighbors. them to participate in community affairs, the inevitable result will be the development of a greater sense of civic responsibility. The more people there are who feel they have a stake in the community the better.—Toronto Telegram.

It's Been Said

Do today's duty, fight today's temptation; do not weaken and distract yourself by looking forward to things you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw them.—Charles Kingsley.

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT

Woe unto him that giveth his his neighbor drink.—Habakkuk 2:15.

There are few neighborhoods free from alcoholics. Some have prayed for strength to live recent, happy lives but think their prayers have not been answered. Tell them to use the strength God has given them and He will give them more strength.

. . . F. B. PEARCE

It seems to me that a new school of thought is arising about retirement and that we are heading towards the time when everyone can be expected to keep on working till he draws his last failing breath.

Dr. Ian Mackenzie, guest speaker at the B.C. division of the Canadian Medical Association, says that compulsory retirement is not biologically sound and that if a person can still work after the age of 65 he should be permitted to do what his capacity will allow.

That sounds very kind and considerate, but I fear it will not be long before us old fellows will have to keep away from Baker Street to avoid those who say, "Aren't you working now?" in accents full of sorrow for our backsliding. And some of us are sensitive and the reproaches of our friends would hurt us deeply.

Of course there are some who are not happy when they have to stop work, but they are like the milkman's horse, so used to the daily round that they do it automatically. Others are like race horses, who when they are turned out to pasture kick up their heels and enjoy life. If a man cannot find anything to do in his retirement it is because he has never exercised his brains outside his daily job, for there are all sorts of things to do if he cares to do them.

ALLOW ME!

Dr. MacDonald, however, has something when he says there is a great tendency among the young to treat the old as infants. I have spent the past two months building a wall of old concrete chimney blocks, 12 feet long and eight feet high. Such a lot of people who passed by thought I should not lift those heavy blocks and others would offer to help.

Still, the wall is finished and I am sorry, I no longer have the wish to get things done but rather to enjoy the doing. It was nice to look forward to doing a little each day, but my young friends amuse me. They would not let me drive a nail. They would be only too glad to do it for me, but though their intentions are good they have the pleasure and not me.

Youth can be over solicitous. For some time I have been admonished by my boys about driving too fast and now my two-year-old grandson has joined in the chorus. Only last week he spoke up from the back seat and said, "Granddad, don't drive so fast." He has only been speaking for the last three months and he comes out with that.

"Impossible restrictions are put on old people by well-meaning but misguided relatives," says the doctor. The answer to that is to live as far away from relatives as possible and to live in a tiny home where they can't come and stay. And by no means allow yourself to be persuaded to live with sons or daughters. Nice people, no doubt, but they can become pretty bossy. Of course they love you very much, but, as the doctor says, they try to keep old people either in cotton wool or in a home.

RETURN TO CHILDHOOD

What, Dr. MacDonald says, everyone should remember is that old people are not in their second childhood though that is the way they are often treated. In a sense, retirement is a return to childhood, for in childhood the young have no responsibilities, each day brings something new and life is full of sunshine.

With those who have reached retirement age the responsibilities of their working days are gone, they are freed from the worry of bringing up children and in this sense they no longer have the restrictions of their adult life. All the things which used to cloud their happiness are gone. Like the children they can take each day as it comes and be unconcerned about national problems or of rumors of war.

In its carefree aspect it is a return to childhood, but one where the adult powers of decision and reasoning remain. That they are so often in conflict with the young means only, in many cases that they have a new sense of values and a determination to order the rest of their lives in their own way.

Finance Firms Have Second Talk With Bank

OTTAWA (CP)—The Bank of Canada Friday opened a second round of talks with major sales financing corporations with a view to restraining the flow of credit used in the purchase of automobiles and other goods.

As in the case of the preliminary Oct. 1 discussions, the meeting was shrouded in secrecy. There were no official announcements from either side.

However, one delegate, G. E. Wemp of Montreal, president of Industrial Acceptance Corporation, said the talks are being held "so that we can get on the same wave length as the bank."

Five finance corporations were represented at the Oct. 1 meeting and it is understood the number represented at the new talks was stepped up to make sure of a wide measure of understanding and agreement among the institutions on means of holding the credit line.

Just how far the central bank will go in its demands for credit restraints was not made clear. But it appeared likely the bank will ask the corporations to volunteer to hold the credit line at a certain level as a move against inflation.

Similar agreement was reached with the stock exchanges a month ago. The exchanges agreed that it would not be in Canada's best interests to have loans used in the purchase of stocks rise above a certain level.

Investment Opportunity Easy for Everyone—C.S.B.

"The very fact that Canada Savings Bonds are going on sale this month for the eleventh consecutive year is surely sufficient reason for everyone—even youngsters with a modest income—to take advantage of this government-guaranteed investment." So says Archie Burnie, B of M manager at Nelson, who believes that this year's CSB's are the best bonds of their kind to date.

"First," says Mr. Burnie, "they are absolutely safe, because you can redeem them any time at full face value, plus interest.

"Second, at a yield of 3.76 per cent, if held to maturity, they have the highest return of any savings bonds to date.

"Third, they are the easiest-to-buy of all investments, because for just five per cent down—you can purchase a bond, and pay the balance in easy monthly instalments over a year. Just $2.50 down for a $50 bond—and less than a dollar a week pays the balance."

Mr. Burnie is urging everyone in Nelson who may be considering this "investment opportunity of the year" to act without delay. He says you can buy CSB's without any fuss or bother. You just fill out a simple application form at his office, make your 5 per cent down-payment, and the B of M does the rest.

Acne Sufferers Should Avoid Certain Foods

By Dr. Herman N. Bundesen

It's important for those of you with acne to avoid certain foods.

While an individual diet should be prescribed by your personal physician, there are some foods which generally should be excluded entirely or eaten only in moderate amounts.

Chocolate probably is the chief offender. Most doctors routinely insist that their acne patients refrain from eating chocolate in any form, including cocoa.

FOUNTAIN DRINKS

Usually, it's also a good idea to avoid certain soda fountain drinks, alcoholic beverages, rich cream, homogenized milk, peanut butter, nuts, greasy and fatty foods and thick gravies.

Don't drink tea or coffee excessively, either.

Eat only moderate amounts of bread, butter, cheese, ice cream, pastries and starch foods.

It's all right to eat eggs, potatoes and all fruits and vegetables.

You can have almost any kind of meat except pork and sausage. You may eat fish and seafoods except those that are rich in iodines such as oysters and shrimp.

Iodines, you see, usually aggravate a case of acne.

For this reason, you probably should not use iodized salt while trying to clear up a siege of acne. Don't use bromides either.

REGULAR HABITS

In addition to eating the right foods and taking proper care of your skin, you should strive to maintain regular bowel habits. Don't rely upon laxatives.

Get up a little earlier than you normally do and set aside a specific time every morning for nature's call. If you go for a full day without a movement, don't worry about it.

Former Nelson Girl Married in Vancouver

A Thanksgiving Day wedding united Louisa Langton Pentland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gerald Pentland, of Vancouver, formerly of Nelson, and James William Sharpe, son of William Lloyd Sharpe, of Vancouver.

Rev. W. R. Henderson performed the double-ring ceremony in the afternoon at Uinon College Chapel.

The bride chose a beautiful gown of ivory satin with lace insets and wide V neckline. The fitted bodice flared out into a full skirt. Her matching satin cap held her chapel veil and she carried a lace handkerchief which her great grandmother had carried at her wedding.

Maid of honor was the bride's twin sister, Miss Trudy Pentland. Miss Joan Buker was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of jewel-toned green velveteen in ballerina length with lowered waistline and full skirts. Matching caps of autumn colored feathers were attractive complement.

Mr. Charles Sears was best man and ushers were Mr. Brian Cox and Mr. George Picha.

Both principals attended the University of B. C.

At the reception at the home of the brides parents, Mr. Charles H. Hamilton of Nelson proposed the toast to the bride. Among out of town guests were the groom's parents and sister from Weyburn, Sask. Assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. James Barber, Miss Sunnie June Sharpe, Miss Robena Robinson and Miss Mitzi Montgomery.

Bride and groom will live in Vancouver following a honeymoon to the Interior.

Our Father's Business

The Psalmist has rightly said that "the heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork." (Ps. 19: 1). As we look in amazement at the breathless beauty of the hills, lakes, mountains, valleys, trees and flowers of the colorful Kootenays, we are impressed by the handiwork of God. The hills are splashed in myriads of colors, from the golden yellow maple leaves to the eye-catching red berries of the mountain ash. Truly no shade of color is missing.

The magnificent autumn weather has greatly helped the farmers and the home gardeners to reap the harvest of tomatoes, carrots, onions, apples, pears, etc. Of all the people on this earth, we have been most fortunate in material blessing. It would almost seem that God has bestowed His special blessing upon us.

Granted, everything has not been perfect. Some have been laid aside by illness, by loss of limb, and by the misfortune of accidents. Some have lost loved ones. Some have grown weary and old. These are the tests of life which we all face from time to time; they are not a reflection on the character of God, for He is the same yesterday, today and forever. We can meet these tests and difficulties with quiet confidence and with hope, if we have walked with our Creator in the days of fair weather, bountiful harvest, and perfect health.

The great Helen Keller, though she was born blind learned how to look out on a world full of beauty, hope and possibility; through she was born deaf learned how to listen to the symphonic melodies of God's music. She overcame her problems with faith and trust in God.

Meet God this sunny Sunday and He will be your power on blue Monday.

Women's Club Planning Supper

GRAY CREEK — There was a splendid turnout for the October meeting of Gray Creek Women's Club at Mrs. George Botham's home. Arrangements were made to hold a pot luck supper in aid of Christmas party funds on November 2. Members of the club will provide light refreshments at the conclusion of the annual school meeting next Thursday.

Mrs. Botham announced that the hall trustees and Recreation Commission will hold a "clean up" day at the Hall on October 21. The next club meeting will be at Mrs. Oscar Wirsig's home November 8.

Mrs. Norman Anderson entertained with an account of her month's visit to California. She had reached Los Angeles in 48 hours and was at once struck by the low buildings and was told this was on account of earthquakes. Mrs. Anderson told of the excitements and amusements of Disneyland. A record which she had received since her return was played. It reproduced her conversation with an announcer in a soft drink sing-song. Then there was the astounding development of Knott's Berry Farm from a small wayside stall to an enormous many-sided business catering for two thousand at a sitting.

San Diego and Roseito Beach, Mexico were included in Mrs. Anderson's itinerary. Some enlarged photographs showing Mrs. Anderson and her relatives in all these places illustrated the talk.

Save To Serve Sandwiches At Any Kind of Gathering

By MARGARET CARR

Give them sandwiches and they'll be pleased! Whether it's a female gathering you're serving, a group of hungry men, or a "rock 'n roll" meeting of the teen-agers you'll satisfy their appetites with meaty sandwiches. Especially for the feminine contingent is this Meat Sandwich in the Round, for it holds a variety of fillings, cuts easily into pie-shaped wedges for serving, and is ideal fork food.

Hot and hearty and with plenty of tang—that's the way men like sandwiches. Place a platter of sausage sizzlers in front of the hungry group and watch the bubbling combinations disappear.

Let the teen-aged hostess prepare her own party food, if you like, for the Ham Hot Rods may be assembled several hours before serving, then refrigerated 'til baking time. The foil-wrapped sandwiches are baked and served in their silvery covering.

Hypnosis Useful In Some Surgery

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Hypnosis is proving helpful in surgery, enabling some patients to undergo major operations without anesthesia, the American Society of Anesthesiologists has been told.

When used with drugs "hypnosis improves the conduct of any anesthetic by enlisting the patient as a partner in reducing apprehension," Dr. Vincent Vaughin of the University of Iowa told the convention.

Vaughn termed hypnosis a "natural power" inherent in man, like sleep or day-dreaming. All the doctor applies is common sense instillation of confidence.

Hypnosis does not supplant the need for drugs in anesthesia, despite the few patients who have undergone surgery under hypnosis alone, but enables lighter doses, which means less danger and quicker recovery.

Index Prices Up in Western Cities

OTTAWA (CP) — Consumer prices indexes were lower in six eastern cities but higher in four western cities between August and September. The bureau of statistics said changes in the food indexes accounted for most moves in the total indexes.

Total indexes by cities in August and September, based on the 1949 figure equalling 100 and with September figures in brackets: St. John's 110.2 (107.3); Halifax 117.6 (117.2); Saint John 120.3 (119.6); Montreal 118.9 (118.8); Ottawa 120.4 (120.0); Toronto 122.0 (121.7); Winnipeg 117.0 (117.5); Saskatoon-Regina 116.2 (116.8); Edmonton-Calgary 116.1 (116.8); Vancouver 119.6 (120.5).

Lower Suez Risks

LONDON (AP)—The Institute of London Underwriters, representing British insurance firms, announced Friday that risk rates on shipping cargoes going through the Suez Canal and in Egyptian ports have been reduced to levels prevailing before the Suez dispute started.

The through-Suez rate now is at a minimum of ninepence a £100 of valuation.

NAME DAVIS CUP TEAM FOR U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — U. S. hopes of regaining the Davis Cup from Australia have been put up officially to two veterans and three promising youths.

The U. S. selection committee Thursday named Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Sam Giammalva of Houston, Myron Frank of Los Angeles and Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., to make the trip to Australia. Billy Talbert is the non-playing captain.

Leafs Oppose Newcomers In First Game of Season

Nelson Maple Leafs officially open their Western International Hockey League here tonight. Rossland Warriors, bolstered by ex-Leafs Vic Lofvendahl and Bud Andrews, will provide the opposition, playing their first contest since entering the four-team league to replace the defunct Kimberley Dynamiters.

Two new players dropped in at the Leaf camp Friday night as Playing-Coach Pat Egan — who probably won't dress this evening — shoved his charges through a light session.

The players were Billy Yanchuck, a cocky forward who played in what he called "an Outlaw League" last year, and Jim Beskal, a tall defenceman just out of Junior.

Yanchuck showed the effects of not having skated for sometime, while Beskal threw at least one solid body-check at an opposing attacker.

Gerry Koehle, youngest of three brothers who have played locally recently, showed well in the nets during the scrimmage sessions, although he was obviously handicapped by poor equipment.

PADS FALL APART

His pads, admittedly decrepit, were weakened further when one of the rolls of padding came undone. Leaf officials professed concern over the possibility of either having Koehle's pads repaired or another set imported before game time.

Marsh Severyn, Ernie Gare and Murray Parker all received minor hurts, with Parker's the most evident. The stalwart ex-professional received a cut on the left eyebrow after a collision with Egan, but returned after trainer Bob McDonald had patched him up.

Severyn and Gare, both of whom have looked effective during workouts, received bruises on the ankle and thigh respectively from wayward pucks but neither was expected to be handicapped by the injuries.

Lee Hyssop, entering the season in hopes of adding his third WIHL scoring title to his already fine senior career, showed signs Friday of regaining the form that carried him to the scoring leadership last season. Working on a line with Fritz Koehle and Wendy Keller, Hyssop was skating harder and faster than at any time previously this year.

Caught by the camera as their gaze wanders temporarily from the playing surface are the three Joyal brothers—Dave, Pete and Frank, from left to right—who entered the camp of Nelson Maple Leafs earlier this week. Dave and Frank have impressed railbirds with their speed and hustle. Pete, the youngest, aggravated a minor knee injury he had incurred playing football and is an unlikely starter for tonight's hockey opener.—Daily News photo.

MOSIENKO SCORES THREE AS WARRIORS STOP REGALS 3-0

WINNIPEG (CP)—A three-goal performance by veteran Billy Mosienko gave Winnipeg Warriors a 3-0 victory over Brandon Regals in a Western Hockey League game here Friday night before 2699 fans.

It was Warriors' first win in two starts and Regals' first loss after two wins over Calgary.

Mosienko scored his first goal at 1:28 of the first period while Regals' Murray Wilkie was serving a high-sticking penalty. Skippy Burchell drew an assist. The second came on a three-way passing play at 12:08 in the same period with Burchell and Hugh Barlow setting up the wingman.

Mosienko completed the scoring early in the second period with a hard shot into the top righthand corner of the net after a scramble near the crease. Burchell and Jimmy Logan were credited with assists.

In earning his first shutout of his brief professional career, rookie goaltender Ed Johnson, last year with Montreal Junior Canadiens, turned away 27 Brandon shots.

Brandon's Lucien Dechene also turned in a solid performance, blocking 28 shots. He had little chance on the three goals that got by him.

The Brandon attack was ragged for most of the game and missed many scoring opportunities by poor shooting.

Scheffing To Coach Cubs

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Scheffing, a rangy ex-catcher whose mild personality belies his nickname of Grump, Friday was named field manager of the bedraggled Chicago Cubs with a one-year contract.

Scheffing last season led Los Angeles to the Pacific Coast League pennant.

The 41 - year - old Scheffing wasted little time acting like head man requesting new general manager John Holland to ask the three coaches of deposed manager Stan Hack to submit resignations.

The coaching trio of Hack, who resigned Thursday in a sweeping Cub shakeup, includes Ray Blades, Pepper Martin and Dutch Leonard.

Scheffing has not selected his own coaches yet.

Scheffing's expected appointment was announced at a press conference by Holland, who along with Charlie Grimm, was named a Cub vice-president Thursday as two former top level executives, personnel director Mid Matthews and business manager Jim Gallagher, resigned.

Scheffing plans to bring up the *entire outfield from the Los An*geles team which won the PCL pennant by 16 games, including Jim Bolger, Gale Wade and Bob Speake.

Fan Gets Thanks From President

BROOKLYN (AP)—A Brooklyn Dodger fan who yielded his box seats so that President Eisenhower and his party could attend the opening game of the world series at Ebbets Field had his reward Friday — a thank-you note from the president.

The happy recipient was Samuel M. Abrams, *president of a Brook*lyn shoe polish firm, and a rabid Dodger fan. He gave up his company's eight-seat box location at the request of Brooklyn president Walter O'Malley.

Phils Sell Hurler

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia Phillies announced Friday the sale of relief pitcher Duane Phillette to San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League.

Appoint Irvin Ambassador For Hockey

Irvin will boost hockey in general and the NHL in particular. Dependent upon his health, Irvin will likely make public speeches, appear on television and radio and conduct schools for coaches throughout Canada.

Irvin's retirement as an active coach was announced Sept. 30 from the training camp of Chicago Black Hawks. It marked the end of 46 years in hockey. He served 30 consecutive seasons in the NHL, 26 as a coach.

Irvin said he is highly pleased and grateful to the NHL for an opportunity to continue in hockey.

The decision to appoint him was reached by the NHL governors, and NHL President Clarence Campbell said he was "pleased the governors instructed me to hire Irvin."

Rangers Blank Black Hawks

CHICAGO (CP) — The smooth-skating New York Ranger youth movement rolled to an impressive 3-0 victory over Chicago Black Hawks in the Rangers' National Hockey League debut Friday night.

Lorne Worsley hung up the first shutout of the NHL season, stopping 32 shots as his teammates gave him a goal to work on in the opening period and added their remaining pair in the second frame. Rollins stopped 26 shots.

The Hawks, beaten 3-1 by Detroit Red Wings in their first start Thursday night, had no better luck in their home opener.

A first-period penalty to defenceman Benny Woit gates for the Rangers and Ab Hebenton, a 24-goal man last season, made the most of the opportunity, firing home a relay from linemates Danny Lewicki and Bronco Horvath.

Rangers broke through again on successive line changes late in the second frame.

Little Camille Henry, promoted after a 50-goal year with Providence Reds of the American Hockey League, banged one home at 14:23 on passes from Guy Gendron and Dave Creighton. Then Larry Popein, combining with Dean Prentice and Andy Bathgate, produced the final tally at 17:33.

Chicago play was ragged and unsure throughout while the Rangers, who finished third last season, displayed sharp skating and a sound defence.

It was the Hawks' fourth straight loss to the Rangers in home openers.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Future Immigrants Want Nudist Camp

OTTAWA (CP)—A young married couple, considering moving to Canada from Britain, won't come unless they can spend part of every year at a nudist camp.

The federal travel bureau reported it has received a letter from the husband, a 22-year-old engineer, inquiring about moving to Canada. It read in part:

"One condition on which both my wife and I insist is that we are able to join a nudist summer camp and go there every year, as we have been accustomed to do here in England."

The bureau sent him a list of 17 nudist camps in British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, Ontario and New Brunswick.

British Left-Wing MP After Brief Tour Expresses Views on Canada

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Seen through the eyes of a left-wing intellectual, Canada is an underdeveloped country, with a one-class society obtained at the price of economic domination by the United States.

The description comes from R. H. S. (Dick) Crossman, Labor member of Parliament recently returned from a Canadian tour. Referring at one point specifically to western Canada, Crossman writes in the New Statesman and Nation:

NO BELT-TIGHTENING

"In western Canada everybody is middle-class and a home-owner, or aspires to be so; and this means that the machine must take the place of cheap labor. . . . it also means that the industrial revolution must be financed by foreign capital, since no Canadian dreams of tightening his belt or exercising wage restraint to provide the capital . . . the price of this one-class society is economic domination by the United States."

Crossman's article adds that the provincial governments are showing skill in getting a "fair share of the golden eggs" without scaring the American geese away. In this atmosphere, Canadian socialism unwilling to frighten possible investors by talk of nationalization, was doing some drastic rethinking.

Two ways in which it could develop a distinctively socialist policy, Crossman suggests, would be by demanding government planning to conserve resources, direct capital and curb the power of the corporations, and by proposing "socialist programs" for expenditure of the increasing revenues pouring into provincial exchequers.

HEALTH PLAN URGED

Specifically, he suggests a national health service.

Crossman, 48, was educated at Winchester and Oxford. Long one of Labor's leading intellectuals, he has sometimes been regarded as a possible foreign secretary. Since 1938 he has been assistant editor of the New Statesman, a left-wing magazines popular among schoolteachers, scientists and journalists.

Odds . . . and Ends . . . by M. D. B.

Was on a bit of a jaunt up around Mount St. Francis and Notre Dame College. The view from the end of Tenth Street is breathtaking at this time of year with trees sending up puffs of yellow and red in the mosaic of roofs, and the lake is that startling blue of autumn. The ferry chugs its way back and forth and the bridge piers stand out in sharp relief to the rest of the landscape. Out in the middle of the lake can be seen the bridge operations continuing and in the distance Kokanee peaks lord it over the northern horizon.

* * *

Was amazed to see how swiftly the Notre Dame Chapel had come along. I found the huge clear varnished beams that extend from the high peak of the roof down and out through the side of the building, bracing themselves on big cement blocks, an architectural oddity. Steep roof and colorful stone add to its interesting design. Light enters the chapel through a huge window at one end and two rows of small glass brick windows set into the stone work on either side of the building. The wavy surface gives a distorted glimpse of the furnishings within. (I peeked). I didn't enter the chapel, but thought perhaps another day I might get permission to do so, for I should like to see if it is as inspiring within as is its exterior view.

* * *

Found several ladies sitting on the sunny lawn at the infirmary and one or two men off in another corner enjoying the pleasant Fall weather. It was so lovely out I almost hated to go indoors and with a pang I realized how many there are who never get out to enjoy the fresh air and scents of autumn.

* * *

One lady was telling me how she missed Rev. Dixon. "He was always so bright and cheerful," she mused. I remarked on how fresh her room looked and she told me all the rooms had been freshly painted this Summer. In another room I found two ladies visiting together. "My room is pink," the lady from Rossland told me, "they let us choose our own colors."

* * *

She was a wee wisp of a person who had gained ten pounds in the year she had been there. "They certainly look after you well here," she said, "and they have a real good cook." I learned she had been a newspaperwoman and had written a column for the Rossland Miner for several years. She seemed happy there in a place where happiness within a person counts for so much.

Edmonton Leading Community Chests

By The Canadian Press

Edmonton led Western Canadian cities Friday in the race to fill 1956 community chests with Regina a close second.

The Alberta capital has collected $193,668, or 49.3 per cent of its objective. Regina, with $70,820 in its chest, stands at 45.7 per cent.

Coast cities trail slightly. Vancouver has collected $886,656 or 38.8 per cent. Victoria, having collected $71,784, has 33 per cent of its total.

Winnipeg has 37.3 per cent and Thursday, Saskatoon stood at 36.5.

Mayor William Hawrelak of Edmonton bet his hat against mayors of other western cities that Edmonton would reach its objective first.

Church Sacraments Decision Delayed

LONDON (Reuters)—The Canterbury district convocation, lower house of the district ruling body of the Church of England, has postponed until next May a decision on whether to permit divorced persons who re-marry to receive the sacraments of the church.

The house of bishops, upper house of the district, previously had tentatively approved a proposal that remarried persons who wish to be baptized or confirmed or to take part in communion be permitted to refer their case to their local clergyman who, in turn, would refer it to the bishop of the diocese.

The upper house also recommended that the clergy might, at their discretion, say prayers with and for remarried persons, subject to the bishop's approval and providing there was "no public service and no publicity."
