Khrushchev To Revamp Economy

Says Too Many Supervisors in System; West Comments Draw Leader's Wrath

By TOM OCHILTREE

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev lashed out at Soviet bureaucracy Tuesday in asking the Supreme Soviet to approve his plan to "transfer the centre of gravity" of the Russian economy.

"There are entirely too many supervisors employed by every factory," the Communist party first secretary declared.

"Our job is to encourage the quality of production to the point where a worker does not have to have a supervisor standing behind him checking his work."

He estimated the bureaucrats at 850,000 and promised a reduction. At one point he observed:

"We have so many supervisors checking the output of neckties that the quality of our neckties is still pretty inferior."

The Supreme Soviet is Russia's equivalent of a parliament. It is certain to approve Khrushchev's economic plan, which calls for 20 large industrial ministries in Moscow to be abolished, with their economic enterprises transferred to 92 new regional economic councils.

Khrushchev asserted the plan must be put into effect "in the interest of further development of the economy."

At one point in his speech, Khrushchev indicated annoyance with Western commentaries on his program. He denied that the program reflects any "crisis in the Soviet economy."

"How can there be a crisis in the Soviet economy?" he asked.

"It is a planned socialist economy, with no built-in contradictions such as the capitalist economies are afflicted with."

Khrushchev was loud and vehement in his denunciations of Western comments, which he appeared to be quoting freely.

He seemed particularly nettled at criticisms of the Soviet government's action in freezing 260,000,000,000 rubles in bonds borrowed from the Soviet people. The Western press has said this amounted to confiscation of the borrowed money. Khrushchev roared:

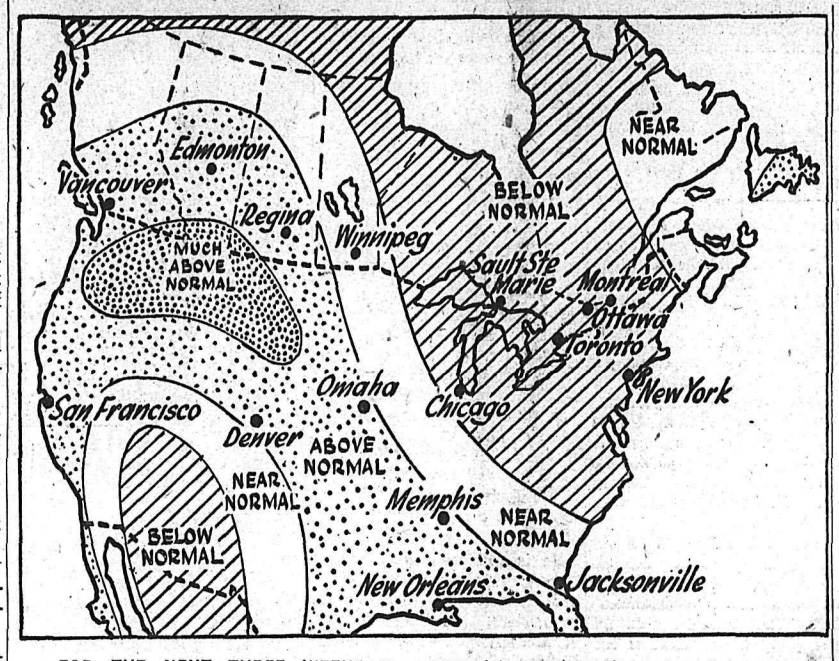
"The bourgeois peoples cannot understand that Soviet peoples, reared with a Communist conscience, give to their government of their own free will because they know it is for their own good."

He was greeted with applause when he proposed that ministries not to be totally abolished be moved out of Moscow closer to centres of production.

Soviet officials who reside in Moscow are not joyful over the prospect of being moved to cities where life is more spartan.

Khrushchev laid down a general scheme for decentralization of economic administration. But he made plain that certain large sectors of the economy, particularly armaments and related industries will remain under centralized direction from Moscow.

Adenauer, Macmillan in Close Agreement



FOR THE NEXT THREE WEEKS the weatherman will smile on Western Canada but will frown on the East. West from the tip of Lake Superior he forecasts normal or above-normal temperatures, but anyone living east of that point can be prepared for chilly weather. Rainfall is expected to be light.

WARNS FORESTS TINDER DRY

VICTORIA (CP)—Continued hot weather will make B.C. forests tinder dry by the end of the month and could lead to serious forest fires, B.C. Forest Service officials warned Tuesday.

The official fire season opened May 1.

"Nothing too serious has occurred yet," said an official, "but the long range forecast for May looks as if the situation will be a little tougher than we thought."

Provincial forests, particularly in the interior, are drying quickly in the continued hot and dry weather.

Five fires were reported in the Vancouver forest district Tuesday, with 32 men fighting them.

Expect "Unity" Conference To Strengthen Free World

By JOHN EARLE

BONN (Reuters) — British Prime Minister Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, split in their defence concepts, met Tuesday in a "unity conference."

"We shall discuss many questions in a true spirit of unity," Macmillan said, "for I am convinced it is only on the spirit of the unity of Europe that we can achieve our high purpose."

Adenauer said the prime minister is "a guest with whom I shall discuss problems in the greatest mutual confidence as the interests of our two countries run on the same lines."

He added: "I am convinced that our conversations will bear fruit in strengthening the free world."

Conference sources said the two heads of government reached "a considerable harmony of views" in their discussions on defence and disarmament. A communique on the conference will be issued when the talks end today.

Tuesday night, the 81-year-old Adenauer gave a dinner and reception in honor of Macmillan at the Palais Schaumburg, the chancellor's official residence.

Despite the statements, the two countries approach many problems—military and economic — from different angles.

Germany is worried about British defence policy, particularly the cutback of troops stationed in Germany. Britain plans this year to reduce the army here by 13,500 men to about 50,000 and hopes to slash its forces further next year.

Britain's new concept of defence relies on nuclear weapons as a deterrent to aggression.

But German leaders hold that conventional weapons still are urgently needed and fear that British army cuts will lead to a general weakening of the defence barrier provided by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

And while Britain plans to end conscription of young men within the next few years, West Germany has just started compulsory military service.

Another problem is economic integration. West Germany is a partner in the common market which eventually will link the economies of six western European countries, and in the European Atomic Pool.

Britain, not a partner in the designs, has suggested a "grand design" to merge present European institutions—such as NATO, the Western European Union, the coal and steel community—into one organization.

To West Germans, the British promotion of the "grand design" may make it more difficult to get parliaments to ratify the common market and "Euratom" treaties.

Adenauer is expected to ask Macmillan to go easy on the market and Euratom plans are ratified.

Macmillan's visit to Bonn is the first by a British prime minister since the West German Federal Republic was formed in 1949. However, Macmillan was in Bonn three years ago when he was minister of housing. He will leave for home Thursday.

Divorce Ruling Questioned

OTTAWA (CP) — A Vancouver lawyer said Tuesday the British Columbia legislature invaded federal jurisdiction in 1938 by making operative a two-months provincial ban on remarriage for divorced persons.

J. M. Boucher, lawyer for Andrew William Densmore, argued before the Supreme Court of Canada that the legislature in effect established an "impediment" to remarriage for divorced persons, thus encroaching on federal jurisdiction over marriage and divorce.

The argument results from the application of Emmy Gudrun Densmore of Vancouver to the B.C. supreme court for a declaration that her marriage to Andrew William Densmore, performed in Edmonton, Jan. 19, 1949, was null and void.

She based her petition for an annulment on the fact she was divorced in Cranbrook, B.C., less than two months earlier, Nov. 27, 1948, from Albert Robert Douglas Hellens.

The B.C. supreme court dismissed her application and the judgment was upheld in a 3-to-2 ruling by the B.C. Court of Appeal.

KOOTENAI MAY REACH 29 FEET

BONNER'S FERRY, Idaho (AP) —The always - threatening Kootenai River was expected to reach 29 feet Wednesday and then level off about a half a foot higher, but well below flood stage.

The reading Tuesday was 27½ feet.

The U.S. weather bureau predicted readings of 29 feet Wednesday, 29.6 feet Thursday and back down to 29 feet Friday.

A level of 31 feet is considered bank-full or official flood stage, but dirt dikes are built to withstand crests of as high as 37 feet.

Soviet Ousts 5th U.S. Envoy

MOSCOW (Reuters) — The Soviet foreign ministry informed the United States Embassy in Moscow Tuesday that Martin S. Bowe, a second secretary at the embassy, is persona non grata. He is the fifth American diplomat to be asked to leave the Soviet Union this year.

The Soviet ministry accused Bowe of activities unbecoming a diplomat, but omitted specific details.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia expelled an American diplomat from Moscow Tuesday, possibly in retaliation for the recent ouster of a Soviet official from Washington.

Health Plan Not To Be Costly Says Coldwell

OTTAWA (CP) — CCF Leader Coldwell said Tuesday night in a television broadcast that introduction of a comprehensive national health insurance program in Canada won't mean the expenditure of vast new sums of money.

"The difference between the total cost and what we are spending now on health care will not be a vast sum," he said.

Mr. Coldwell said a national health insurance plan giving overall coverage to all Canadians can not be provided through private or voluntary insurance schemes.

"It can only be done on the initiative of the federal government," he said.

Bakers Union to Be Investigated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organized labor's own clean-up squad sifted corruption charges Tuesday against officials of the Bakery Workers Union. This is a matter due to get attention soon at hearings before Senate rackets investigators.

Honduras Claims Nicaragua Attack

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—Honduras charged that Nicaraguan soldiers struck across the border Tuesday with machineguns and hand grenades but were thrown back.

A statement from the military junta governing Honduras said Nicaraguan national guardsmen in undisclosed strength attacked a Honduran garrison on a hill north of Cifuentes at 5 a. m.

"Our troops drove them back without a single casualty on our side," the communique said.

Uncle Charged With Attempt Murder of Six

TORONTO (CP) — Six children ranging in age from two to 13 narrowly escaped death and police charged their uncle early Tuesday with attempting to murder them by turning on a gas burner before quitting the house.

William A. Wood, the 31 - year-old uncle, was remanded to May 14 when he appeared on the attempted murder charge before Magistrate W. W. McKeown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wray Annis, the parents, were on a trip to Oshawa, 30 miles east of here, when Wood's brother - in - law phoned police and reported a man told him the Annis home was filled with gas and on the verge of blowing up.

Three constables raced to the spot. One turned off the hissing gas burner — which sat on a lighted coal stove—while the other two policemen rounded up the children and bundled them into the street.

When Annis and his wife returned from Oshawa early Tuesday they found a note pinned to the door of their rundown, two-storey brick home. It read: "Family is O. K. Contact No. 3 police re children."

Mrs. Annis broke down.

Assembly Splits As Violence Rocks Bogota

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—New violence erupted Tuesday over a move by Gen. Gustavo Rojas Pinilla's hand-picked national constituent assembly to give him four more years as president.

Police broke up demonstrations by protesting students, spraying them with dyed red and blue water. Hundreds of students were reported arrested.

The assembly itself was split wide open. Assembly president Lucio Pabon, a Conservative and former interior minister withdrew along with 20 of his followers. No reason was given.

COSTELLO JAILED FOR REFUSAL TO EXPLAIN NOTE

NEW YORK (AP)—Rackateer Frank Costello was sentenced Tuesday to 30 days in the workhouse for contempt in refusing to tell a grand jury the meaning of a cryptic note found on him.

The note was in his pocket when Costello was creased by a bullet Thursday night. It apparently referred to a six-figure gambling transaction.

Brought before a grand jury probing the attempted killing of Costello, the gambler refused to talk about the note on the grounds that his answers might incriminate him.

The note read:

"Gross Casino wins as of 4-26-57 $651,284. Casino wins less markers $434,695. Lost wins $62,844. Markers $153,745. Mike $150 per week. Jake $100 per week. L$30,000. H$9,000."

Police claim Costello lied when he said he didn't know who attacked him or why.

LEE TUNG DAI, 79-year-old U.S.-born Chinese is helped down plane ramp by his sons on arrival at San Francisco airport. The elderly man painted a brutal picture of imprisonment, torture and extortion in Communist China. He told reporters he and his wife were first arrested by the Chinese Communists six years ago on charges they were "bourgeoise capitalists." Subsequently he was seized and jailed 19 times and was released each time only after he gave the Communists additional portions of his life savings which he had accumulated as a laundry operator in the U.S. He said his wife died in Hong Kong last year of what was diagnosed as "natural causes," but he believed the effects of her ordeal at the hands of the Reds contributed to her death. His release came last October as a result of state department efforts in response to pleas by his youngest son, Lee Wai Thyn, 42.

115 Evacuated In Hospital Fire

By TOM MITCHELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — Fire swept through a wing of the Hotel Dieu Hospital Tuesday, forcing evacuation of 115 patients, many of them stretcher cases.

Crews of police, army, Red Cross and hospital workers carried or helped the patients to waiting buses, ambulances and private cars, hastily recruited when the blaze broke out at the top of the seven-storey wing.

Hospital authorities said there were no fatalities or injuries. The cause of the blaze was unknown.

As some of the more serious stretcher cases were carried to safety, hospital workers followed, carrying oxygen tanks. A mother who gave birth to a child earlier Tuesday walked pale and unsteadily, a nurse at her elbow carrying the infant wrapped in an overcoat.

300 YEARS OLD

The institution is one of the most historic in ancient Quebec. It was established in 1639. The wing where the fire started was built only 26 years ago, however.

Fire damage was restricted to the roof area but water damage was reported heavy on the top floors. There was no immediate estimate of loss.

Patients, wearing topcoats over their hospital shirts, were outwardly calm.

The only incident occurred in the staircase of the wing when a man who said his son was in the hospital tried to reach one of the top floors. A hospital attendant firmly blocked his way and assured him there was no danger.

PM Promises To Do Best For Farmers

By HAROLD MORRISON

REGINA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent raised the question Tuesday night of whether there is much use in Canada farmers producing more than they can sell.

In the concluding speech of a 12-day western election campaign the prime minister said the Liberal government has held fruitful meetings with farm groups concerning farm policy.

"Sometimes we disagree, as for instance in the question of establishing a clear-cut system of parity prices for agricultural products.

"I can understand that it would be very satisfying for a farmer to be assured of a fixed price for his produce. But all that glitters is not gold. Is there much use in the farmer producing more than can be sold in the markets?"

Mr. St. Laurent said that if his party is re-elected in the June 10 election it will continue to do its best to keep Canadian agriculture prosperous. But it would not impose any rigid controls or tell farmers how to operate their farms.

IMMIGRATION POLICIES SCORED BY LOW

By RUSSELL ELMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

ESTEVAN, Sask. (CP) — Social Credit leader Solon Low said Tuesday the Liberal government has "tied itself up with its own lasso" through its "half-hearted" immigration policies.

He told a political rally in this oil city, 210 miles southeast of Regina, the government's "tight money" policy has cut down new housing, creating a serious problem for the 200,000 immigrants expected in Canada this year.

About 45 persons turned up in the 400-seat Memorial Hall to hear him. Party organizers for Moose Mountain constituency attributed the sparse attendance at the afternoon meeting to warm weather, which kept farmers in the fields with spring seeding.

Mr. Low, who flew to Estevan from Regina after flying from Vancouver earlier in the day, said people, leadership and capital are necessary if the Canadian economy is to develop fully.

"We must have more people to build up an internal market," he said. "Why should we go on year after year being the hewers of wood and drawers of water for other countries?"

DOLLAR LOWER

NEW YORK (CP) — The Canadian dollar was 1-16 lower at a premium of 4 9-16 in terms of U.S. funds; a week ago 4 13-32 per cent premium. The pound sterling 1-16 lower at $2.79 5-16.

Squamish Development Reported Under Way

VANCOUVER (CP) — Preliminary work is in full swing on a multi-million dollar development of Squamish, at the head of Howe Sound, into an industrial centre and seaport, it was announced Tuesday.

Einar M. Gunderson, executive-vice-president of Pacific Great Eastern Railway, which is the principal developer, released a report indicating:

1. Aerial surveys of the Squamish River valley and delta are complete.

2. Detailed mapping of the valley is in progress.

3. The first of a series of exploratory drill holes was begun Tuesday to help complete development plans.

4. Stream flow studies will be made from models of the river constructed at the site.

5. Accommodation for large railway yards is under study as to site.

The report stresses that little if any change will be necessary in the present commercial and residential areas of Squamish.

The project, which will be undertaken during a 25-year period, envisions a population of 25,000 compared with the present village population of 3000.

In addition to becoming a seaport and industrial centre as a satellite to Vancouver, Squamish would be used as the gateway to the provincial Garibaldi Park and its recreational facilities.

VERNON OKAYS $959,420 BUDGET

VERNON (CP) — City council approved a total budget of $959,420 Monday night, an increase of $87,673 over 1956.

The budget calls for a general tax increase of approximately 3 mills over last-year's total of 52.75. The amount to be raised by taxation is $498,922.

"We have eliminated all frills," commented Mayor Frank Becker. "We have put first things first, namely water and roads."

Ald. J. S. Monk, bringing down the budget, set taxation for school purposes at 18.55 mills, against 16.75 in 1956, and 36.50 for municipal purposes, against 36 in 1956.

Premiers Meet

HALIFAX (CP) — Power, trade and transportation problems in Canada's Atlantic region get a going over at a conference of provincial premiers here today.

Some Schools May Not Open Says Peterson

VICTORIA (CP) — Education minister Leslie Peterson said Tuesday there was "a very great danger" that some B.C. schools would not be able to open next September because of the teacher shortage.

The minister said about 2000 teachers — over and above those known to be available in September—are needed to bring the province's teaching staff requirements to full strength.

He expected the situation would be eased somewhat by the hiring of U.S. and English teachers.

Until school boards announce their requirements and the number of teachers available for next September it is impossible to say which and how many are in danger of being closed, he said.

Diefenbaker Raps Gov't Lumber Policy

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

KAZABAZUA, Que. (CP) — In a twin appeal to farmers and lumbermen, John Diefenbaker charged Tuesday the Liberal government has given agriculture a ride and has "struck a deadly blow" to the lumber industry.

Agriculture had been hurt by heavy imports from the United States of farm products such as grown in Canada, the Progressive Conservative leader said.

The government's tight - money policy had reduced house building and lumber surpluses were building up.

The government had been asked in Parliament what it would do about agriculture. Trade Minister Howe wouldn't say, Agriculture Minister Gardiner merely had said the farmers were well off, and Prime Minister St. Laurent had spoken of riding a golf cart last fall with President Eisenhower when the president had expressed surprise at Canada's adverse trade balance with the U.S.

"The ride the Canadian farmers are getting from this government is nothing like the ride Mr. St. Laurent got at the hands of President Eisenhower," Mr. Diefenbaker said.

Hees Blames Howe For Wheat Surplus

LLOYDMINSTER, Sask. (CP)—George Hees, former president of the Progressive Conservative Association, said Tuesday night Canada's wheat surplus results from Trade Minister Howe's "arrogant take-it-or-leave-it attitude."

Machine Failed as Cupid

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Cupid's arrow fired by the mechanical brain, Univac, failed to stick in its target.

Barbara Smith, 23-year-old switchboard operator, said Tuesday her romance with a 28-year-old advertising manager, John Caran, is ended.

Barbara was busy on her switchboard and couldn't take time to go into detail about the broken engagement.

Caran would say only:

"I'm not free to make any comment."

It all started last October when Art Linkletter of NBC's People are Funny television show advertised for single persons who wanted to get married. More than 1000 responded. They filled out questionnaires about their personal lives and preferences.

Attractive Barbara caught the show director's eyes. They decided to ask Univac to turn up a suitable prospective husband.

Digesting the information on the questionnaires of hundreds of marriage-minded men, Univac popped up with Caran's name. The information on his card indicated he was "Mr. Right" for Barbara.

Barbara and John were introduced on the Oct. 27 show and hit it off immediately. On the fourth show they announced their engagement.

But Barbara has wiped out a honeymoon trip to Paris and shattered Univac's reputation as a cupid.

Three Candidates Present Platforms

By Staff Writer

NEW DENVER — Speakers from three political parties presented platforms in the forthcoming Dominion election to a meeting in the Bosun Hall Tuesday night sponsored by the Slocan District Board of Trade.

Speakers were H. W. Herridge, MP for Kootenay West, CCF candidate; Dr. C. H. Wright, Progressive Conservative candidate, and Liberal candidate W. J. McLoughlin. Social Credit candidate D. L. Brothers was not present.

Dr. Wright spoke of the "great resurgence" of the Progressive Conservative party under John Diefenbaker, under the slogan, "The Switch Is On, Go With John."

He said the forthcoming election was important because of the "critical situation in the history of Canada at the present time." Dr. Wright thought a "change of government is necessary for democratic countries." He pointed out that confederation, completion of the first Trans-Canada railway, setting up of the Canadian Wheat Board and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation were among features developed by the Conservative party. The Liberals, he said, were showing "clear evidence" of one-party symptoms.

Dr. Wright also referred to the upper Columbia River and the development of power. He said the water power resources of southeastern B.C., particularly the Columbia, Kootenay and Pend d'Oreille rivers "have been recognized for many years." He said also that a decision must be made "as soon as possible" for maximum development of power and water control on the upper Columbia and its tributaries "to the optimum and lasting benefit of the people of the Kootenays and of British Columbia."

Both Dr. Wright and Mr. Herridge spoke in favor of more CBC radio booster stations in the Kootenays.

B.C.'s CENTURY

Mr. McLoughlin mentioned the achievements of the Liberal party, "a party of the people", which had served Canada for 22 years. He said "the century of British Columbia" is coming to fulfillment here in the Kootenays. The Liberal government, he said, has had the "rare courage" to say bluntly "what was best for the country."

Canada had a deficit two years ago, he said; but this was changed to a surplus in 1957. Mr. McLoughlin said this surplus was "used to the best interests of the people of this country." He also thought "winning the fight against inflation" had been an important job of the Liberal government.

British Columbia last year had paid out $293,000,000 to the federal government, he said, but stood to receive more than $300,000,000 from Ottawa to help build the Mica dam. He listed provision of Salk vaccine and advancements toward a national health scheme as being among other achievements of his party. The Kootenays, he said, faced an "unparalleled" future. The Liberals were the "only party with a national outlook."

ALTERNATIVE PARTY

Mr. Herridge said the CCF was an "alternative party with an alternative policy." Their beliefs were, he said, based on conservation and development of human and natural resources.

He also spoke of the need for a "mixed economy" featuring a combination of public and private ownership. The CCF, he said, were "delighted" at the government program in connection with Mica dam.

On the international sphere, Mr. Herridge advocated "united and strong support to the United Nations" with all nations being admitted. "Strengthening of the ties of the Commonwealth" and increased aid for technical assistance to underdeveloped countries.

He said the inflationary trend was due to the "excessive rate of capital investment" combined with an "exceptional rate of profit" to large Canadian corporations in the last five years.

Mr. Herridge advocated a "capital gains tax" similar to those imposed in United States and Britain, fair distribution of taxation, "selective credit controls," planned immigration policy, study of automation problems, national industrial pension plan, national crop insurance scheme and raising the old age pension to $75 a month with no means test.

In the field of veterans affairs, he said the CCF party had supported presentations made to the government by the Canadian Legion and the National Council of Veterans. Mr. Herridge called the CCF an "international party," not a "splinter group." He said it was the "party of the future in the international sphere."

Chairman was Clifford Uphill of New Denver. About 200 attended.

Sinclair Speaks Here Today

Hon. James Sinclair, minister of fisheries, will speak in Nelson today at a noon luncheon at the Legion Hall. W. J. McLoughlin of Trail, Kootenay West Liberal Candidate will also attend.

Following the luncheon, Mr. Sinclair will travel to Trail for the official opening of the new federal building in the afternoon and will speak at public meeting there tonight.

E. A. Grant 64, Dies at Creston

CRESTON — Eugene Atwood Grant, 64, of Creston died in Creston Valley Hospital on Monday.

He was born in Millstream, N.S., in 1893, and had resided in Creston for the past five years. He also resided in Alberni Valley for five years where Mr. Grant was employed by Bloedel, Dewitt and Welsh Lumber Co. He married Beulah Lillian Patton of Nova Scotia in 1942 at Vancouver. He came to the Kootenays in 1948 where he worked as a scaler and first aid attendant.

He is survived by his wife, Beulah; twin daughters, Eleanor and Charlotte. Dail and Robert: two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Muir of Windsor, N.S., and Mrs. Jessie McLean of Halifax. A brother, James, predeceased him several years ago.

Funeral services will be held Thursday in Trinity United Church, Creston.

Fewer Accidents In Safety Week

Safety Week has paid off for the first two days it has been held in Nelson.

Apparently the extra caution engendered by the campaign now being conducted by safety organizations has persuaded people to exercise an extra degree of caution that has made the difference. Fewer accidents had been reported up to 4 p.m. Tuesday than has been the average for previous two-day periods; no statistics have been kept during previous campaigns so comparisons cannot be made.

There had been three industrial accidents during the first two days of the "week," one involving time lost from regular employment for the worker involved. Probably there were others of a minor nature, but no record is possible for such accidents treated at home, R. L. Kidd, president of the Nelson chapter of the West Kootenay Safety Association, noted.

There were seven domestic accidents, one being a badly-sprained ankle which will mean the man losing some time from his job. There were no traffic accidents involving injuries.

A check of the Medical Clinic by safety officials revealed there had been fewer patients getting treatment for accidents Monday and Tuesday than usual.

14 of 82 Cars Pass Test

City police issued a report Tuesday on Friday's Nelson Lions' Club-RCMP-city police surprise car check on the 700 block Baker Street.

During the two-hour check, 82 vehicles, including some from out-of-town, were given a rigid inspection similar to tests given regularly to cars in larger cities. Only 14 passed. Officers said some of the 68 cars which did not pass were failed on minor points.

The check was the starting feature of "Safety Week", being observed in Nelson this week. Cars which passed got a "passed" sticker. Those which did not pass got rejection slips and orders to have work done at a garage. Deadline for the work to be done is today. Police said Tuesday some of the "rejected" slips had already been replaced by "passed" stickers.

Officers thought this test showed necessity for motorists to be more careful about their vehicles, and also indicated a need for regular motor vehicle tests here.

Nelson Police Department Tuesday expressed appreciation for assistance given them by West Kootenay Safety Association, RCMP and Lions Club in carrying out the test.

CCF Campaign Heads Named

Mrs. G. Mackay has been named party representative in Nelson for Herbert W. Herridge, CCF candidate in Kootenay West.

George Koehle of Castlegar is official agent for Mr. Herridge in the forthcoming federal election June 10. Mr. Herridge was member for the Kootenay West riding when parliament was dissolved in April.

Other party workers appointed to organize the campaign were R. N. Hambly of Silverton, to supervise the CCF drive in the Kaslo-Slocan area, and James Bannister who will organize the Rossland-Trail area. Mrs. Betty Donaldson, office manager, opened headquarters for the party in Trail Monday.

Mr. Herridge was returned with a majority of 4996 in the 1953 federal election. He polled 48.6 per cent of the 8990 votes cast—second highest in B.C.

Mill Rate Upped At Fruitvale

FRUITVALE — Village commissioners have set the 1957 mill rate at 27.05, an increase of 2.48 mills over 1956.

The new rate includes 10 mills for municipal needs, the same as for the past two years; 14.6 mills for education, an increase; and 2.79 mills for fire and water protection, down slightly.

High School Band Going To Kelowna

L. V. Rogers High School Band leaves today for the School Band Festival to be held at Kelowna. They will return home Sunday.

E. Baravalle and Miss Sadie Makinen will accompany the band. Castlegar, Rossland and other West Kootenay centres will be represented at the festival, with about 1600 students expected to participate.

L. V. Rogers will be sponsoring the appearance of the Lewiston band and orchestra here later this month. About 90 pupils are expected to attend, with the proceeds from the concert going toward paying the expenses of the L. V. Rogers band trip to Kelowna.

GIRLS OVER 16 ELIGIBLE FOR JUBILEE QUEEN

Girls over the age of 16 are eligible for entry in the Jubilee Queen contest, E. T. Bodard, chairman of the organizing Bonspiel Committee, said Tuesday.

To represent a city at the Pacific National Exhibition Miss P.N.E. competition, candidates must be between the ages of 18 and 21. This means that in the event that the winner of the Jubilee Queen contest is in this age group, city council will give consideration to sending her to the P.N.E. as Miss Nelson.

Otherwise, all girls over 16 and single have the qualifications in the all-Nelson diamond jubilee queen contest.

Merchants Agree On Store Hours

OLIVER (CP) —Merchants here have decided on a standardization of store hours.

Eighteen merchants met Monday as a section of the Oliver board of trade and decided to have Mondays as a half or whole day closing, with a 6 p.m. closing deadline on the other five days of the week, except Saturday night when closing time was set at 9 p.m.

MINOR ACCIDENT

A minor accident occurred at 4:25 Tuesday in the 300 block of Baker Street.

Slight fender damage was caused when the car driven by Jim Wong of Nelson reportedly scraped the car driven by R. Davis of Nelson in pulling out from the curb.

Rt. Rev. Philip R. Beattie, Bishop of Kootenay, will administer the rite of confirmation here today to candidates presented by the vicar of Grand Forks, Rev. E. C. Somers.

$21 Million Compensation Paid in '56

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia Workmen's Compensation Board paid out a record $21,207,594 last year in compensation awards, the board announced Tuesday.

The total reflected an increase of 15½ per cent in the number of accidents reported compared with the previous year. Of the 95,562 accidents, 324 were fatal, an increase of 40 per cent.

Of the amount paid out, the board said, $8,221,964 went for lost-time compensation, $4,161,178 for medical care to injured workers, $6,546,335 in permanent disability awards and $2,278,117 to survivors of workmen killed on the job.

Civic Workers Strike Threatens At Rossland

TRAIL (CP) — Officials of the Civic Workers Union at Rossland said Tuesday their members will go on strike if a conciliation board does not agree to raise the wages of City of Rossland employees to the level of those received by the Trail City workers.

A. E. Underwood, vice-president of the Trail and District Civic Workers Union, the parent body, said Rossland workers would receive "full moral and financial support in case of a strike."

"We do not want to inconvenience the public with a strike, but the time has come to end this injustice," Mr. Underwood said. "There is no valid reason for the fact that Rossland civic workers are underpaid in relation to Trail civic workers."

The conciliation hearings are expected to be held within a few days. A chairman has not been appointed yet.

Trail barrister David Lunn will represent the city of Rossland. Jack Phillips, secretary of the Vancouver Civic Employees Union will represent Rossland employees.

Bob Shypitka Winning Driver

CRANBROOK — Bob Shypitka was declared winner of the Jaycee-sponsored Teen-Age Road-E-O at Baker Park here. He will continue to the provincial Road-E-O at Vancouver June 1, winner of which goes to the national finals in Ontario. National awrds are substantial scholarships.

Second prize was taken by Roger Gregoire and third by Wayne Haddad. Twenty-five teen-agers entered the competition which included written work concerning highway and driving regulations, then a demonstration of skill in practical driving problems on an obstacle coruse set up at the park. The new cars used were loaned by local garages. Judges were D. T. Vosper, Don Neale, Cpl. D. H. Pye and Constables G. E. Tetzloff and J. O. Cochrane

RCMP Sgt. G. A. Brabazon will present the prizes to the winners following the Jaycee dinner meeting this evening at which they will be special guests.

30-DAY SENTENCE ON LIQUOR CHARGE

J. M. Thompson of Nelson was sentenced Monday to 30 days in jail Tuesday by Magistrate R. S. Nelson on charges of being an interdicted person under the government Liquor Act.

City police apprehended Thompson on April 24 with a bottle of liquor in his possession illegally. He appeared in court shortly after the incident, pleaded guilty, and was remanded to Tuesday for sentence.

Natal To Finance Fire Equipment

NATAL — The Natal Fire Department, organized last year, has done exceptionally well in its first year of operation.

Under Fire Chief Mike Slemko the volunteer fire brigade had its first open fire drill recently when all hoses, nozzles and fire hydrants were checked throughout Natal. In all, five fire hydrants proved in working order while two hydrants were out of order and needed repairing.

Last year the town was canvassed for funds, the response enabling the department to purchase seven new lengths of hose, nozzles and an extension ladder. In addition, five lengths of hose were salvaged from the town's fire-fighting equipment on hand. It was stated that another seven lengths of new hose were required along with extinguishing bottles, five new fire hydrants or stand pipes, which could fill the required needs at the present time, and a small truck for carrying the necessary fire-fighting equipment.

In an effort to start a fund campaign again whereby the required equipment could be bought, a public meeting has been called for Sunday.

Donald Barker Speech Finalist

TRAIL—Donald Barker, a grade 9 student from Salmo high school, won the Knights of Pythias public speaking contest district final in Trail. Gail Seaton of Castlegar was runnerup.

Donald will now go on to the provincial finals, which are to be held this year in Powell River, May 17.

The competition, which had its finals in the junior high school auditorium was on the theme, "Youth Looks to the Future."

Creston Queen Candidate Votes Helps Start Ambulance Service

CRESTON—People in East and West Kootenay are being invited to a weekend of fun and festivities at Creston's annual Blossom Festival May 16, 17 and 18.

The three-day carnival which publicizes the Valley's lush agriculture industry will open with ceremony on Thursday, May 16.

Miss Creston Valley will be crowned in Civic Centre that night after the queen show. Five attractive girls are competing for the honor. They are Rae McKelvey, Corrine MacDonald, Kay Fajnor, Pauline Pereverzoff and Joan Anderson.

Entire proceeds of the queen show have been pledged to the purchase of an ambulance to serve the district. Each queen ticket gives the purchaser a vote for his favorite candidate, a membership in the Creston Valley Ambulance Association and admission to the queen show.

SPORT BUTTONS

The queen will be selected according to the number of Ambulance Association membership tickets sold, and on personal talent, on a 50-50 basis. Ticket count will be made at a local bank May 15, to determine the winnership of the membership sale contest. Sales are going well, it is reported, and ambulance membership buttons proclaiming "I Have Mine, C.V.A.A." are being proudly worn by many Valley residents.

The queen show shapes up as one of the best ever held here. The candiadtes will parade in evening gowns and sports wear, in addition to presenting to their audience vocal, instrumental and dance numbers. Oustanding local talent will also take part in the performance. Prominent people from Bonners Ferry, Cranbrook and Kimberley will be judges.

Miss Creston Valley will preside over all activities of the Blossom Festival, which will include a giant parade, boxing shows, folk and square dancing, midway and circus, car bingo and possibly a baseball tournament.

Canal Flat Baby Dies

CRANBROOK — William Walter Richard Bennett, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, died suddenly at the home of his parents at Canal Flat. He was born there February 2. His parents and sister survive him. Rev. F. D. Wyatt officiated at the funeral Monday afternoon at McPherson Funeral Chapel, and burial was in the Cranbrook General Cemetery.

Radio as Lively as Ever

It was almost inevitable, that with the increasing number of "weeks" we should have three on our hands at once and now we find that not only is it Safety Week but Radio Week and Family Week as well. There is a dim suspicion, too, that there is another week we have forgotten about but that does not matter, there will be others we shall overlook.

Last week it was National Cat Week. A most important week. It would have been so nice to have been able to dilate upon the importance of this delightful animal in a world which seems to be dog minded, and to have spoken of the grace and beauty of this charming companion of the home, but it was forgotten.

It now seems as if the time has come when some American efficiency expert should come to the rescue of harrassed writers and provide them with a calendar of the coming weeks. Diffidently we suggest the title, "The 'Weeks' Ahead". Then, if we did not lose the calendar, we should be able to deal with each successive week.

But we have strayed a long way from our purpose which was to speak a word or two on Radio Week. With all the echoes of the battle of the private broadcasting companies only just dying in the distance, it may seem that radio has had its share of publicity. With the coming of television it may seem that radio is destined to die a quiet death.

Such is not the case. The battle is by no means over and radio is not due to die. In fact it is as lively as ever and if sales mean anything even is actually growing.

This is just as well. Most people will admit a peculiar fondness for radio. It is so satisfactory to turn a knob and have music in the air while one reads or listen to a program which does not need one's eyes glued to a screen. Somehow despite the worst some announcers can do, radio is a much quieter medium than television.

So it is delightful to be able to say a few kind words for radio to express our gratitude to the many who have done so much for it and to all those in the stations who have given so much of their best to keep us interested and well-informed. It is to be hoped that they will continue to please as they always have and we are quite sure radio listeners all have a warm spot in their hearts for them.

Man Has More Than Five Senses

Man has at least four and probably nine more senses than the well-known five—sight, smell, taste, hearing and touch, according to an American Medical Association publication, received by the Health League of Canada.

Writing in Today's Health, the A.M.A. consumer publication, D. W. Foerster, an Oklahoma City writer, named four more senses and pointed out that touch itself is not a single sense, but five—pressure, heat, cold, pain and crude touch.

In addition to helping a person perceive his environment, these extra senses are of great value in diagnosing diseases, especially those of the brain, spinal cord, or nerves. Malfunctioning of one of these senses may tell just what part of the nervous system is affected. They are also helpful in medical research, such as testing the effectiveness of new anaesthetics.

Perhaps the most prominent of the body's additional senses is equilibrium, the ability to maintain balance even though the ears are clogged and the eyes closed, Foerster said. The equilibrium receptors, which lie close to those of hearing in the outer wall of the skull, consist of three, U-shaped, fluid-filled tubes, each lying in a different plane. Tilting the head or the body disturbs the fluid, setting up nerve impulses that tell a person he is leaning to one side.

Closely allied to equilibrium is the "sense of proprioception", or position sense. This enables a person to know just exactly where each part of the body is in relation to all others. For instance, a person closing his eyes and slowly lifting his arm feels no touch sensation. Nevertheless, he senses his arm's changing position in relation to the rest of the body. The receptors for this sense lie deep in the muscles and tendons.

Two other senses which are related to position sense are "vibratory sense" and "two-point discrimination sense". The first is the ability to perceive a vibrating object held to a bone near the skin, such as the shin bone. The receptors are believed to be in the bone itself.

Two-point discrimination sense is the ability to distinguish two simultaneous points of equal intensity touched to the skin. Without this sense, the two points would blend together and feel like one. If the two points are not of equal sharpness, they can be distinguished by the sense of touch as two degrees of sharpness.

Foerster explained that touch is actually five separate senses—pressure, heat, cold, pain, and crude touch—because each of these has "its own receptor cells to receive impressions of the outside world, and its own nerve pathways in the spinal cord."

"Crude touch" is the ability to distinguish the general shape of objects. Ordinarily when a person feels an object, he brings into play three or four of these senses. For instance, when he touches a hot stove he experiences heat, pain, crude touch, and perhaps pressure. The impulses from all these senses are integrated by the brain in some unknown manner, resulting in a more or less unified sensation called "touching a hot stove."

Through this same integration, such complex sensations as texture, quality, and softness are experienced. Tickling sensations appear to be due to the stimulation of pain and crude touch receptors.

Still No Cure

When Benjamin Franklin asserted that comets cause colds, he showed that as a diagnostician he was a good diplomat. Closer to the truth, it seems, were those old-timers who casually ascribed colds to "a change in the weather."

The latest word from scientific medicine, as Dr. H. N. Bundesen related in his column in this paper the other day, is that storm fronts apparently have a bearing on colds. Daily sales of cold nostrums have indicated that, and research by a pharmaceutical firm strengthens the presumption.

A mild spell is followed by a sharp fall in temperature, along with dampness and cold and a wide spread between night and day thermometer readings. That's sniffles weather. But as Dr. Bundesen relates, it enables weather bureaus to "predict fairly well in advance the likelihood of an outbreak of colds in specific areas."

The sufferer with the sneezes and stuffed up head isn't going to be taken in by those findings, however. "Telling me how I got my cold proves nothing," he'll say. "Where's the cure for it?"—Windsor Star.

Recognizing Red China

Would Western recognition for Red China and a seat in the United Nations make her more friendly to the West and less friendly to Russia?

Would China's millions, captives of a Red tyranny, rise against their captors if Chiang Kai-shek were able to make a successful landing on the mainland?

The answer to both of these questions popular throughout the Western world is a flat no, Blair Fraser writes in Maclean's magazine.

"No one here has any loyalty to Chiang Kai-shek," Fraser quotes a Roman Catholic priest in a report from China. "People may oppose the present regime, some because they have lost money and some for reasons of faith. But their wish is to have the Communists out, not the Kuomintang back."

Not all the six hundred million Chinese have become Communists in eight years, says Fraser, "but there are enough Communists among the few million literate men who must and do operate any government of China . . . And these believers of Marxism are convinced the Fascist-imperialist West too must go through its Communist revolution. A nation committed to that belief is not likely to change sides merely because it is recognized by the Western enemy."

The new government of China, however, "is a fact of life," says Fraser, "and the sooner we accept it the better." But he warns against exchanging one set of illusions for another — "Whether we recognize her or whether we don't, China will not be friendly —not for a long time."

Press Comment

New homes in Regina presently range in cost from $13,000 upward, with down payments in the neighborhood of $4000. On the basis of the formula that the house payments, taxes and heating costs should not exceed about 25 per cent of a person's income, this means that only those with annual incomes of $5000 or more are able to acquire new homes. Thus, those with lower incomes, the great majority of the people, presently are barred from financing new dwellings.
—Regina Leader-Post.

Young people are criticized for wanting security. But it's not that we didn't want it in our day, it's just that it never occured to us there was such a thing.—Winnipeg Tribune.

Brazil figures Moscow has deliberately snubbed her. She had been left off the list of nations which Russia is threatening to "annihilate."—Washington (D.C.) Star.

The new federal building in Toronto, supposed to cost $10,000,000, is expected to cost $15,000,000, but as usual nobody knows what it will cost! And in this big spending era does anyone care?—Ottawa Citizen.

Last Laugh

Any lingering doubts about this being a woman's world, and of man's inability to win even after he leaves it, are surely dispelled by this true story (from New York, of course).

An advertisement appearing in the "used cars for sale" columns of a city newspaper offered a 1955 Cadillac for sale, brand new condition, for $50.

After it had run for several days, apparently unanswered by hard-boiled cynics suspicious of a gimmick or a misprint, an enterprising reporter followed it up. Here's what he found.

The automobile was part of the estate of a recently-deceased business man. His will directed that it be sold on his death, "the proceeds" to go to his secretary.

His widow, as executor, duly complied with his wishes. Well, anyway, she acted strictly within the terms of the will.

Thus it came about that the reporter bought the Cadillac, the secretary got her $50 from the sale thereof, and the advertiser drank deeply of the cup of satisfaction.
—Industry.

Electronic Farming

The agriculture industry is becoming more modern but also a trifle more complicated for old-time farmers.

The latest device for soil research is the electron beam that can sterilize soil, presumably without changing its chemical or nutritional qualities. Such things are hard for the pioneer to believe, yet Associate Professor A. Douglas McLaren of the University of California says that radiation has used a high-intensity electron beam of nine million volts to kill all bacteria and fungi in a sample soil. Such soil lends itself readily to study with pure cultures of plant pathogens, nitrogen fixers, soil-born viruses and other factors.

Home Rule For Wessex

... F. B. PEARCE

As a columnist I find it entertaining to read the stuff by others in the same line of business. They have something very special in Vancouver in the person of no less than a baronet, and for the benefit of our democratic friends who do not know what a baronet is it is an hereditary knight and this one's name is Sir Michael Bruce. He is of course Scotch or I should say Scots, and for the benefit of those who were not born north of the border only whisky is Scotch.

While our family came over with the Phoenicians at a time when the Scots were running around without their kilts it has always been rather obscure. The only noteworthy member of the family was the unfortunate who was shipped off to the Indies after the battle of Edgemoor. At that he was lucky. He might easily have been hanged. From all this you can well imagine that the writer, estimable as no doubt he is, never mixed with the great nor consorted with peers, princes nor prelates nor basked in the effulgence of the oppulant. A very common person indeed.

Nevertheless I thoroughly enjoy Sir Michael. He is so thoroughly Scotchly Scots. One can imagine him with the Lion Banner of Scotland in one hand and his trusty claymore in the other holding off the bands of Sassenachs, the sole survivors of a gallant race.

KNOW HISTORY

One thing I admire in the Scots is the way they know their history. About all that the English know of their history is perhaps the battle of Waterloo but certainly not Bannockburn or Flodden, but the Scots know much more than that. "Today" says Sir Michael, meaning May 1st, "is one of the black days in Scottish history according to many of her sons. It is the anniversary of the day when the union of Scotland and England took place in 1707 in the reign of Queen Anne."

You would think that after all these years they would have forgotten about, but not them. According to Sir Mike it was very much of a shotgun marriage with skulduggery on the part of some one called Queensbury.

There are still many people who want home rule for Scotland but are afraid to ask for it because so much of the country has been taken over by the English and Irish immigrants who would be against it.

I am all for the Scots having home rule. I think they would make a much better job of it than the English. Why the English cannot even rule themselves but have to call on people like Macmillan to form a government. To quote the Scots, the English are "puir feckless bodies."

THE WELSH TOO

Then there are those wonderful people the Welsh. They also should have home rule and be allowed to cultivate their leeks as they choose.

One of the dearest desires of mine is to make enough money to retire to England and initiate a campaign to restore the ancient glories and the independence of the Kingdom of Wessex. It is quite likely you have never heard of the Kingdom of Wessex but that only goes to show the deplorable way history is taught in this country.

Wessex was the kingdom which King Alfred ruled and its capital, Winchester is the Camelot where Arthur and his knights held sway. The Round Table hangs in its Great Hall and the magic of Merlin still lingers.

It is a wonderful country now, alas, sadly polluted by an influx of foreigners from other countries. Oh to raise the dragon flag over the Castle of Winchester and proclaim home rule for Wessex!

Safety Week -- May 6 to 11

Your Individual HOROSCOPE

By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars,

For Thursday, May 9, 1957

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) —Those engaged in travel, water activities, shipping, dealings in liquids, oils and chemicals have especially good rays. Despite some irritations, all should try their best, however.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) —Friendly Neptune vibrations indicate generous rewards where you least expect them. Everything worthwhile is worth striving for.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) —This day should be a quietly progressive one even though you may not have as many bright ideas as usual or net big returns. Study, mark time, make plans that will be fruitful in the future.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) —Fine indications. Avoid excitement and worry by keeping intelligently busy. This does not mean to overtax yourself. Plan, think, work, study; relax, too.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) —Diplomacy, kindliness, especially with co-workers and those interested in you, are important. Some personal desires may have to give place to more urgent matters.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — There is a tendency toward indifference today, but it may be avoided by reasoning and intelligent study. Make no hasty decisions or snap judgments.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Today can be interesting and challenging if you feel up to it. Meet troubles as well as pleasures with serenity, and know that good work will always bring reward.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — A steady, unhurried pace will bring best returns. Serenity and thoughtfulness should be valuable aid today; hard work and patience are useful implements, too. Strive and you can win success.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius) — Economy of time as well as money stressed. Don't seek the unreasonable, but apply yourself eagerly to your work and you should gain. Artistic and personal matters favored.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — Your Saturn's auspicious aspect augurs for personal achievement beyond the ordinary. Mechanics, railroading, building, dealing in tools, leather, lumber, mining among day's sponsored activities.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — Fairly good rays for written matters, mental work, for originality. But the day is not entirely promising. You may have to strive harder for attainment in other matters.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 Pisces) — YOUR day! Don't let it go by without making some gain in occupational interests, adding to credits in other ways. Hard work, tedious details won't annoy you if you are your cheery, dependable self.

YOU BORN TODAY are strong in character, yet gentle in demeanor, firm in principles and decisions. The Taurus-born is known for courage and graciousness; is a thoughtful, dependable type. You make wonderful physicians, nurses, able organization builders; are creative, yet can take others' ideas or projects and improve them to a point where they become your own. You must control a desire for too much ease of living, extravagance, extremes. Don't keep troubles, worry to yourself. It relieves the mind, frees one from harmful anxiety to confide in loved ones, wise counsellors. Birthdate: Sir James Barrie, noted novelist, dramatist; John Brown, Amer. abolitionist.

"Mummy, The Mounties"

LONDON (CP) — A pale-faced boy of eight and his sister, just five, jumped up and down excitedly Tuesday as a band of scarlet-coated horsemen rode by with pennants flying and their black steeds prancing to the music of a mounted band.

"It is mummy, it is—it's the Mounties," yelled Bobby Thomas as the RCMP musical ride rode past his position on the embankment. Sister Sandra said never a word—she just beamed.

The youngsters were among thousands of Londoners who waved a welcome to Canada's Mounties as they officially opened their five-month visit to London by parading to Mansion House for a reception given by Sir Cullum Welch, lord mayor of London.

Grilled, Baked Onions Delectable Vegetable

By ALICE DENHOFF

It's become the fashion, these days, to give almost every item a special day, so why not pay tribute to the onion? It is a healthful food and is indispensible to the flavor of so many dishes.

As a main vegetable dish, the onion can be baked, creamed, boiled, broiled, steamed, fried, french fried or roasted. In each case, whether in a supporting role or as the star of the production, it develops different and interesting nuances without ever losing the distinctive individuality of its own flavor.

Happily, it is a low-calorie food—only 49 calories to a good-sized onion—so it can even be dressed up a bit with cream sauce, cheese crumbles or melted butter and still remain on the reducer's menu.

It is also credited with health-giving properties. The onion is a source of all-important ascorbic acid, calcium and vitamin A.

Here's how to bake onions.

To serve 4, select 8 whole onions. Onions may be baked in their skins, so just wipe them and, without peeling, bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes or until tender.

Remove from oven and peel. Season with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon salt and ⅛ teaspoon black pepper.

For a piquant flavor, sprinkle with grated cheese, curry powder, chili powder, whole thyme leaves or any other desired spices or herbs.

To prepare grilled onions to serve 6, peel and wash 3 Bermuda onions or other very large onions. Cut in crosswise slices, ¼-inch thick, being careful not to separate into rings. Arrange in shallow baking dish or pan.

WATER AND SALT

Mix ½ cup boiling water with ½ teaspoon salt and pour over onions. Cover.

Bake in preheated moderate oven 20 to 25 minutes or until partially tender.

Drain off water. Add ⅛ teaspoon black pepper to 1-3 cup butter or margarine, melted. Spoon over onions.

Place under broiler with heat control set to 350 degrees F. Broil 10 minutes or until brown. Turn with a pancake turner.

Brush with remaining melted butter and broil 10 minutes.

Serve hot from baking dish.

Suspects Color Can Cause Car Accidents

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Sgt. Wilfred Henrich, head of the Kitchener police traffic squad, believes some drivers may be risking trouble even if their cars are the latest models with every safety device in the book.

Since Jan. 1 a record has been kept of the colors of cars involved in accidents involving right-of-way at intersections. During one month 57 per cent of cars hit at intersections were light grey or sand in color.

Black cars or ones with light-colored tops were almost as often reported. By contrast, only one red car was involved in an accident during a month while other statistics showed that light green cars figured in many early-morning crashes and light blue cars in accidents at dusk.

"These colors seem to blend into the surroundings, making the cars difficult for other motorists to see," the police officer said.

The study being made by Sgt. Henrich is being watched with interest by the Ontario Attorney-General's Department, which has charge of police affairs in the province.

Woman Captain On U.K. Airline

By SYLVIA HACK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—A slight, dark-haired woman, who took up flying as an act of bravado when only 16, holds a place in British aviation history as the first woman captain on a scheduled airline.

Dolores Moggridge, a 36-year-old South African known as "Jackie" to her colleagues, is a familiar sight to her neighbors at Taunton, Somerset, in her chic navy uniform of jacket, trousers and peaked cap trimmed with gold braid.

"I think I look like a musical-comedy admiral in this get-up," she said, "but it's appropriate for a flier's job."

She decided to call herself "Jackie" 20 years ago. "Whoever heard of a pilot called Dolores?" she asks.

At 17 she came to Britain from Pretoria to gain her professional flying licence and she has spent most of her time in and around aircraft despite being a housewife and mother of an 11-year-old daughter.

WARTIME SERVICE

During the war she served as a radar operator with the Women's Auxiliary Air Force and later ferried planes in the Air Transport Auxiliary, flying bombers from factories to airdromes. She was awarded the King's commendation for services in the air for her work.

"There aren't many planes I can't fly," she acknowledges under questioning. "I flew 65 different types of bombers during the war and I've even flown Meteor jets."

LISTER — Twenty-one members of the Kaslo-Huscroft Women's Institute were guests of the Boundary County Homemakers' Clubs of America at their Spring Festival, held at the North Bench Orange Hall.

A pot luck dinner was served cafeteria style, followed by a program which was enjoyed by all. Highlights of the program were the introduction address by Mrs. Chisholm, president of the Boundary County Home Demonstration Council; a one-act play, "Americanism", by the Valley View School students; a paper on the International Peace Garden by Mrs. Richard Starks and picture slides with commentary on "Life in Colombia" by David Youman, who has been an exchange student from Coeur d'Alene to the republic of Colombia. Mrs. Ernst sang folk songs and played the vita-harp.

Mrs. May Helme of Lister gave a talk on the founding and aims of the Women's Institutes.

TWINS GOING STRONG AT 94

EASTVILLE, N.S. (CP) — Believed by their families to be perhaps Canada's oldest twins, Mrs. Samuel Cox and Mrs. Rupert Archibald, now 94, have lived on adjoining farms here for 67 years.

They were born in New Annan, N.S., and their family moved to this northern Nova Scotia village in 1887. Mrs. Archibald was married in 1889, and her sister married a year later.

The twins attribute their longevity to "clean living and hard work." They helped with the farm chores for more than half a century, and still work around their homes. They attend church when the weather is fine.

They agree that the younger generation has an easier time of it these days. But both think that the modern generation is "too much of this world."

Israel Reports Soviet Planes Over Mid-East

TEL AVIV, Israel (Reuters) — The Israeli newspaper Maariv said Tuesday fast Soviet aircraft are making regular flights over the Middle East area.

The paper says aircraft flying at 70,000 feet have been observed over a number of Middle East countries, including Israel. The planes apparently were engaged in air photography, it adds.

Maariv says no Middle East country has aircraft capable of climbing to 70,000 feet.

U.S. Proposes Internation Arms Control

LONDON (Reuters) — The United States Tuesday proposed international control of the supply of arms by one country to another as part of a disarmament agreement.

Informed quarters said U.S. delegate Harold E. Stassen made the proposal to the five-power United Nations disarmament sub - committee meeting here. He said the export and import of armaments had "caused friction" in the past, but did not give examples.

Majors arms export deals include the supply of Czech and Soviet arms to Egypt last year. The West has supplied Iraq, Jordan and several other Middle East countries with arms under defence agreements.

To Investigate Immigrant Report

WINNIPEG (CP) — The Manitoba government will investigate a report by a prospective British immigrant that he was advised by federal government officials in London to go to Toronto before Winnipeg.

Deputy Commerce Minister Rex Grose announced the investigation today in releasing details of a letter to Manitoba officials in which the man asked for information on prospects of finding employment in Winnipeg.

In his letter, P. J. Quinton of Upper Tooting, London, said he and his wife would like to come to Winnipeg where he hoped to find employment in the sales office of a meat packing firm. The letter added:

"We were advised by Canada House in London that even though we wanted to obtain employment in Winnipeg we should at first go to Toronto."

Mr. Grose said he will have Murray Armstrong, Manitoba agent - general in London, check with Canada House officials for an explanation.

The deputy minister said he had found no evidence during a recent three-week trip to the United Kingdom and Europe that such advice was being given by the federal government agency in London. He said the investigation would be made because it was most important that prospective immigrants for Manitoba not be misled.

The department would also investigate reports that United Kingdom immigrants were by-passing Manitoba in preference to Ontario and British Columbia.

Formosa To Get U.S. Missiles

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The United States will bolster the Chinese Nationalist bastion of Formosa with Matador guided missiles capable of carrying nuclear warheads, the U.S. Embassy said Tuesday.

The announcement said that for months the Chinese Communists, who have vowed to take Formosa, have been building up their mainland offensive capabilities opposite the island.

This will bring the Matador within striking distance of some of Red China's biggest air bases, notably the installation at Lukiao, in Chekiang province.

Legion Credit Union Gets Charter; McNabb President

R. L. McNabb was elected president at the charter meeting Monday night of the 34-member Queen City Credit Union, formed by members of Canadian Legion Branch 51 and the Ladies' Auxiliary. Vice-president is D. C. Coen, and treasurer W. H. Burns, Legion secretary-manager. Signing officers are Mr. McNabb and Mr. Burns, with Mr. Coen as alternative.

Board of directors also includes Mrs. B. Jones, Mrs. E. E. Brown, Miss M. Porteous, N. G. MacLeod, and C. R. Higgens. Fred Walton, Branch president S. J. Newell and Frank Day were elected to the credit committee, and the supervisory committee will consist of G. J. Verkerk, S. Cameron and N. A. Brown.

Charter was presented by Ace Bailey of Trail, president of West Kootenay Chapter, B.C. Credit Union League, who chaired the meeting. Another guest was Daniel Burnett of Rossland.

Mr. Bailey invited the union to be represented at a meeting of the 18-member West Kootenay Chapter in Salmo on Thursday night.

Mr. Burnett, head of the Rossland union, explained some of the credit union organizations.

M. A. Martyn of Nelson is now at a convention of the International Credit Union National Association in Omaha, Nebraska.

Also welcoming the new organization was George Turner, president of the Nelson Railwaymen's Credit Union.

Japan To Use Nuclear Arms

TOKYO (Reuters)—Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi Tuesday told the Diet (parliament) it is permissible under the constitution "for Japan to possess nuclear weapons for the self-defence of the country."

His statement produced an uproar. Socialist party members banged their desks and called on the government to resign.

The prime minister shouted above the noise that he did not mean the government is planning to arm Japan's defence forces with nuclear weapons in the near future. He also denied suggestions that he is ready to permit the stationing of United States atomic tast forces in Japan.

Why Object to A Dog's Life?

READING, Pa. (AP)—Bobby, a *four-year-old mutt who has no con*ception of the meaning of pedigree and doesn't care, Tuesday was the richest dog in Pennsylvania, and possibly one of the richest in the world.

Bobby was named principal—and practically sole—beneficiary of the estate of his late mistress, Mrs. Ruth A. Maurer. The estate was filed for probate here and its value estimated at $50,800.

Mrs. Maurer directed that all of the money be left to provide for the care of the mongrel dog she picked up from the local humane society when it was a pup.

Bobby will have a practical nurse to look after him. Mrs. Maurer directed that Bobby sleep in his own bed in the air-conditioned bedroom once occupied by his mistress. He is to have full run of Mrs. Maurer's three-room apartment, and every morning and evening is to be taken for a walk.

He won't do badly at chow time either. The bequest specifies Bobby is to receive "the best food a dog can have."

Beavers Tire of Country Life

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A family of beavers, apparently fed up with life in the suburbs, has taken up residence in the heart of downtown Rochester.

Home is a drain pipe that runs out of the bank of the Genessee River and beside a debris-strewn vacant lot.

While life downtown may have its attractions, the beavers aren't too good at it.

Louis K. Sharp, whose company office adjoins the vacant lot, reports he started watching them two weeks ago when the beavers decided to dam the Genessee.

For two weeks, working in relays, the family assaulted a 40-foot poplar tree stand in the lot. The idea, eventually, was to get the tree to fall into the river to create a high way level and protect the underwater entrance to their home.

Monday, its 18 — inch trunk gnawed through, the poplar fell. But only the topmost branches went over the water.

Sharp says the family is still there in spite of this stunning miscalculation.

Marine Starts Near Riot In Indonesia

The U.S. Embassy said Tuesday it apologized to the foreign office and ordered the Marine, whose name is being withheld by officials of all sides, to leave the country. The Marine was a member of the embassy's armed guard.

Western diplomatic sources said they feared the Communist press would blow the incident into a major insult against Voroshilov. They said the Marine actually was guilty only of a "drunken prank" which had no political implications.

TAKE ACTION

The embassy said "strong disciplinary action has been taken against the employee."

Voroshilov was given a mixed reception among Indonesians themselves at the start of his 12-day visit here.

A near-riot developed outside the presidential palace where demonstrators threatened to mob the Russian leader.

"Better go home than give this man a hearty welcome," shouted members of the crowd. Posters bearing Voroshilov's picture were torn down. Police were rushed in to retore order. Voroshilov came here from a tour of Communist China.

Firemen Save Three Hanging From Sills

MONTREAL (CP)—Three persons, hanging by their fingertips three storeys above the pavement after they tried to escape from an apartment block next to a blazing penny arcade, were plucked to safety by firemen early Tuesday.

The trio, who were not identified, climbed through the windows of their apartments when smoke from the blazing one-storey arcade poured into the block. Four other families were evacuated. No one was injured.

The arcade was destroyed and the block of suites was damaged by smoke and water.

Swedish Princess Decides To Defy Royal Opposition

LONDON (AP) — The Daily Mail says it has learned that Sweden's Princess Margaretha plans to defy her family and marry her British suitor of noble lineage but moderate income.

he Mail says the beautiful, 22-year - old princess and Robin Douglas-Home have agreed, however, to wait two years. A 25-year-old nephew of the Earl of Home, he writes advertising copy by day and plays the piano for a hotel cocktail hour.

The advertising agency pays him £15 a week, the hotel twice as much. Friends of Douglas-Home say the romance is still alive despite opposition of the Scandinavian royal family, which recoiled at the thought of having a son-in-law who plays piano for money in a cocktail bar.

The romance hit the papers during the weekend. A spokesman for the Swedish royal house announced that Margaretha's family had rejected the Briton's proposal as "unthinkable."

Douglas - Home said Monday night: "It is not my place to say anything. As far as I am concerned this is a purely personal matter between two people."

FLOWERED DURING VISIT

The romance flowered during a visit Princess Margaretha made to London last winter to improve her English. Douglas-Home wrote the Swedish royal family asking for her hand.

He confirmed that he received a written refusal from Margaretha's mother, Princess Sibylla, but declined to disclose what it said.

"I am the only person in the world who has seen that letter and it will remain that way," Douglas-Home told a reporter.

The Daily Express says: "What matters is that young people, royal or commoner, have a right to take their own risks and seek happiness along a path of their own choosing. And it is wrong and mistaken to obstruct them."

FATAL JUMP

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (Reuters) — Exhibition parachute jumping has been banned in New Zealand, and parachutes will be used only in cases of emergency. The ruling followed the death of a 19-year-old youth who plunged into the harbor when his parachute failed to open during an air show.

Priest Lauds McCarthy at Funeral Rites

APPLETON, Wis. (AP) — The altar and the flag were described Tuesday as the "epitome of the life" of the late Senator Joseph R. McCarthy.

Rev. Adam Grill, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, made the statement in a sermon at the third and final funeral service for the Wisconsin Republican who died last Thursday of a liver ailment.

McCarthy's body was flown to Wisconsin Monday following church services in Washington and a funeral service in the United States Senate.

"There are enemies from within and from without," Father Grill said. "Of all the great men in our country, no one recognized this more completely than Senator McCarthy.

"If you loved, remember him in your prayers. No man is perfect. Senator McCarthy had faults, and I am sure he would be the first to admit this. Pray God to forgive him. Pray God daily that he has met a merciful divine judge. Pray for him."

Woman Knifed To Death By Algerians

ALGIERS (AP) — Nationalist rebels struck in five areas across Algeria in the last 24 hours, shooting civilians, attacking farms and burning property. At least nine persons were killed.

In Tebessa, a hand grenade pitched in a packed movie theatre killed one person and wounded nine. Four Moslems were killed and three others were injured in attacks in the Chelif region.

In the Oran region terrorists attacked Moslem villages and burned and sacked farms. Two Europeans were killed and three were injured.

A baker's wife was knifed to death in Algiers by one of her husband's helpers. A government employee was slain north of Orleansville.

Report Students Arrested, Bogata

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Many students were reported under arrest Tuesday after a fresh outbreak of anti - government demonstrations in Bogota, a general business slowdown and continuing student strikes throughout Colombia.

Police again moved in with tear gas and streams of dyed water to break up the rioting late Monday. They were said to have seized and jailed "many" students from among the crowds.

In a radio-television address, President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla said three persons had been killed in Cali and two in Bogota in the current surge of unrest in this South American republic. Two students killed in Sunday's rioting in Bogota were buried Monday.

The president described the situation as a conflict between vested employer interests and the workers. He pledged that the army would stand with the workers—"united unto death" if necessary—and that business activity would be maintained. He said workers in Bogota had offered to help put down the demonstrations.

Travelling Gavel Here Third Time

An engraved, black walnut "travelling gavel" is now in the custody of the Nelson branch, No. 51, of the Canadian Legion after being presented to S. J. Newell by a delegation from the Trail branch headed by J. C. Russell, Trail branch president, at the Nelson branch's May meeting.

Also turned over to the local branch was the log book containing minutes of meetings held at all times when the gavel was handed to another branch of the Legion in the West Kootenay Zone. The idea of starting a gavel "travelling" through the zone was originated by the Fruitvale branch in 1950. It was intended to foster a "deep sense of comradeship among Legion members and to weld a stronger organization in the zone."

A second gavel was started travelling at New Denver in June, 1951, with the district split into two sections. Kaslo, Arrow Lakes, Slocan City, New Denver, Edgewood and Nelson form one section, with Trail, Rossland, Grand Forks, Salmo, Fruitvale and Castlegar in the other.

The gavels have name plates containing the name and number of the branches. Nelson received the gavel in June, 1952, Jan., 1955, and May of this year. It was also presented to Northport Post No. 158 of the American Legion in June 1956, by the Rossland branch.

TRY THIS FABULOUS NEW RECIPE!

Here's a new kind of cheeseburger—hamburger patty, cheese slice and half a bun all broiled together. No wasted juices, no messy broiler or frying pan!

(Recipe makes 6 servings)

"BUNBURGER" RECIPE

⅔ cup (small can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1 egg
1½ pounds ground beef
½ cup fine cracker crumbs
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard
¼ cup finely chopped onion
½ cup finely chopped green pepper

Blend all ingredients together until well-mixed. Form meat mixture into 12 thin patties (about ⅓ cup each). Place each patty on half hamburger bun, covering completely. Place Bunburgers on broiler pan, broil about 5 minutes with broiler pan 6-7 inches from heat. Top each Bunburger with a cheese slice, broil until cheese bubbles (2 minutes longer). Serve.

FERNIE'S ERWIN MITCHELL SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS TITLE

CRANBROOK — East Kootenay amateur welterweight boxing crown won by Erwin Mitchell of Fernie at 146½ pounds last year was successfully defended by him Saturday as the feature event of a Cranbrook Boxing Association fight card at Mount Baker school. Challenger was Mike Moore of Creston, at 155 pounds, and the fight went the scheduled four rounds. Judges Lt.-Cmdr. Clem Pattit, Bennie Redisky and Earl Browell unanimously scored Mitchell the winner.

The semi-windup event was a split decision when D. Martin of Cranbrook at 130 pounds got the nod of two judges over M. Hockley of Kimberley at 135 pounds. Exhibition fight between V. Monroe and Dwayne Johnson, both of Cranbrook was a crowd-pleaser.

In the three-round preliminary events Lalonde of Creston, a Golden Gloves winner, beat Kerr of Kimberley in the opener. In 80-pound class J. Hanson of Cranbrook won over V. Monroe of Cranbrook; 90-pound class B. Romano of Creston beat E. Bennett of Kimberley; catchweight W. Langlois of Creston beat Chub Leiman of Cranbrook and J. Bresenham of Cranbrook beat John Poweska of Cranbrook. In bantam class D. Crawford of Creston beat G. Nakahara of Cranbrook.

In middleweight class Vaughan of Creston beat B. Marcer of Cranbrook. In the only technical knockout of the card Bob Gee Won of Cranbrook beat Roller of Creston in the lightweight division. In the welterweight class Fred Ryckman of Kimberley beat G. Bens of Creston.

Len Truscott was ring announcer, Bill Atkinson timekeeper; Sam McLeary knockdown timekeeper and Tony Holder and Jackie Adams referees. Coaching the entries were Commissioner Herb Stanton of Kimberley, Mike Moore and Jack Pidgeon of Creston and Joe Rennie and Ray Murrell of Cranbrook.

Pendergast Signs For Third Season

CALGARY (CP) — Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union Monday night announced the signing of six-foot four-inch John Prendergast, former University of Toronto centre and Edmonton Eskimo, for his third season.

Last year he suffered a knee injury in training at Nelson and was used sparingly as offensive end, centre and linebacker.

Active Season Lined Up for Baseballers

NEW DENVER — At a meeting last week of the New Denver-Silverton baseball club, Tom Leask was returned as president. R. Peachey and L. R. Campbell were elected to share the vice-presidency, and Carol LePage was appointed secretary.

Honorary presidents are John Taylor, long a baseball booster, James Draper and Seamon Dennis.

Walt Thring, who has coached the club for the past five seasons, resigned as field boss but will continue in his capacity as manager. Another field manager is being sought.

A junior club will be sponsored by the senior team, with equipment and coaching part of the arrangements. New Denver Kinsmen will sponsor a midget club, and the Canadian Legion will sponsor Silverton Midgets.

A three-team midget loop has been formed, including, New Denver, Silverton and the New Denver school. Winner of the league title will receive the Grenan Cup.

Youngsters of peewee age have also been given an opportunity to play baseball, with a three-team league having been organized for children of that age-bracket. Teams from the three centres named above will compete in the league, which opens tomorrow.

Practices began Sunday in preparation for the Victoria Day tournament, at which it is hoped Nakusp and Nelson Outlaws will compete with New Denver - Silverton for the prize money.

Culmone Wins Three at Pimlico

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Monpelier Stable's Nahodah provided jockey Joe Culmone with his third winner of the day in the $10,000 Baltimore Spring Handicap on opening day at Pimlico Monday.

Nahodah, winner of his last four starts last year, breezed to the front on the last turn and then coasted to the finish 1½ lengths in front of George W. Parker's Sand Boy, a rank outsider in the eight-horse field.

Third was Mrs. Colin Macleod's Obair.

The winner was clocked in 1.12 1-5 and paid $4.

Jockey Clarence Meaux rushed F. and W. Haynes' Arracado up from next-to-last place to score an easy 2½ length victory in the $5000 Midwestern Handicap at Sportsman's Park, Chicago.

Attempt was second and Cynthia Sue third.

Arracado paid $27 and ran the 1⅛ miles in 1:54 2-5.

G. S. Killpatrick's Mr. Fantastic withstood a last-minute try by Betsy T. and captured Churchill Downs' $4000 feature race for four-year-olds at Louisville, Ky.

Dressen Out, Lavagetto in As New Senator Field Boss

DETROIT (AP)—The Washington Senators changed managers Tuesday, ousting Chuck Dressen and naming Harry (Cookie) Lavagetto — the man Dressen picked as his chief coach and sideick seven years ago—to replace him.

After the last - place Senators dropped their eighth straight game Monday and their 16th in 20 starts, President Calvin Griffith sped to Detroit to move the 44 - year - old Lavagetto into command and offer Dressen a front office job.

Lavagetto, a coach under Dressen for seven seasons in three different leagues, is getting his first change to manage. He agreed to complete the current season and was given an option to sign a one-year pact at the end of the campaign.

Dressen, the personable 58-year-old skipper who engineered the Brooklyn Dodgers to National League championships in 1952 and 1953, was asked to fill a new position of co-ordinator of player personnel.

There was no assurance that Dressen, just beginning his third year at the Washington helm, would accept Griffith's offer.

Griffith, who said the managerial change "is no attempt to kick him (Dressen) upstairs or run out his contract," described the move as one that will strengthen the entire Washington organization.

STAYED WITH DRESSEN

Dressen demanded full authority with personnel, at least a three-year contract, and enough money and spending power to construct a better farm and scouting system.

Lavagetto was nearing the end of his 18 - year playing career when Dressen, as manager of the Oakland club in the Pacific Coast League in 1950, picked the one-time World Series star as his aide.

When Dressen took over at Brooklyn the following year, Lavagetto went along and subsequently turned down chances to manage in the high minors to stay with Dressen. Lavagetto came to the Senators' manager in 1955.

Dressen watched Tuesday's Detroit - Washington game from the press box while Lavagetto removed himself from the coaching lines and ran the club from the dugout. Lavagetto had little to say about his club, except that, "it faces a major but certainly not impossible rebuilding job."

Aces Edge Regals 4-3 To Take 4-1 Lead

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec Aces blew a 3-0 lead Tuesday night but came back in overtime to down Brandon Royals 4-3 and take a 4-1 lead in the best-of-nine series for the Edinburgh Trophy.

The winning goal was scored by centre Skip Teal after 14 minutes, 24 seconds of the extra session.

The goal was scored when defenceman Joe Crozier fired a screened slap shot from just inside the Brandon blue line. The puck caromed past Goalie Lucien Dechene off Teal's leg.

Orval Tessier gave the Aces a 2-0 lead when he triggered two goals within 69 seconds near the middle of the first period. They were his seventh and eighth counters of the series.

REGALS FIGHT BACK

Marcel Bonin made it 3-0 near the mid-point of the game on passes from Crozier and Tessier but the Regals roared back with three quick goals early in the third.

Elliott Chorley scored at 2:17, Les Colwill added another at 3:53 and Les Lilley fired the equalizer at 6:59.

An estimated 4000 fans saw the Aces move to within one game of their first Edinburgh Trophy. The Quebec Hockey League champions missed out three years ago when they were beaten in the West by Calgary Stampeders. The sixth game will be played here Thursday.

Tuesday night's game was the second in the series won by Quebec in overtime. Tessier scored an overtime goal in Montreal last Thursday to give Aces a 7-6 win.

Chuck Congdon Halfway Leader In Oregon Open

PORTLAND (AP)—Chuck Congdon, Tacoma professional, took a two-stroke lead at the half-way mark in the Oregon Open golf tournament here Tuesday.

He shot a three-under-par 69 to go with a first-round 70 for a 36-hole total of 139.

Next came Ocky Ellason, northwest open champion from Tacoma, and Bob Duden, twice an Oregon open titlist now playing out of Redondo Beach, Calif. Each had 70-71—141.

The first-day leader, Bill Mawhinney of Vancouver, had 68-74—142.

The field was cut to 60, who will play 36 holes on the final day today. It took 155 or lower to qualify.

Didn't See the Ball, Says Score

CLEVELAND (AP) — Pitcher Herb Score, his right eye gashed by a line drive in the first inning of Tuesday night's Cleveland-New York game, said he "didn't see the ball until it got a foot or two from my face."

"Then I saw too much of it," the Indian's southpaw star added wryly.

Dr. Don Kelly, Tribe physician, said Score "has light perception but we can't do anything until the hemorrhaging has stopped."

"He could be perfectly all right, but we just won't know for two or three days," Kelly said. An eye specialist, Dr. Charles Thomas, has been called in.

STAYED CONSCIOUS

Score bled badly from the cut and from the nose and mouth as he was carried off the field.

"I never did lose consciousness as I fell to the ground," the 28-year-old strikeout king said at Lakeside Hospital where he listened to a radio account of the Indians' 2-1 victory.

"I knew I was on the ground and I could feel the blood. Then people seemed to come at me from all sides."

Gil McDougald, who slashed the ball that felled Score, was in tears in the Yankee dressing room after the game. He sat in a corner with a towel covering his eyes as other players dressed. He asked for Dr. Kelly's telephone number and said he hoped he could visit Score at the hospital.

JOKES IN HOSPITAL

The pitch McDougald hit was only the 12th of the night for Score.

"The pitch was right down the middle — maybe a little low," Score said. "It probably was straight as a string, and it came back that way.

"Everybode started shoving towels at me, and one even got in my mouth. I almost choked on it," Score said.

The pitcher said he could have touched the liner with his glove.

"I may be wrong, but I think it just ticked the edge. Not enough to deflect it though. It hit me solid."

Orioles Pitcher Sent to Mounties

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore Orioles sent pitcher Charley Beamon to Vancouver Mounties of the Pacific Coast League Tuesday on 24-hour recall and assigned outfielder Carl Powis to the same club.

The move cut the team's roster to 26 and paved the way for the return of Tito Francona, called up from the same team Monday.

Powis, who hit .330 in 148 games at San Antonio last year, failed to come up to big league expectations. The 29 - year - old right-hander hit .187 in 37 times at bat in the current season. Beamon, 22 had not completed a game with the Orioles this season. In 8 2-3 innings he struck out five, walked eight and gave up eight hits and six runs.

British Cricket

LONDON (Reuters)—Results in Tuesday's cricket matches in Britain:

Lancashire 329 and 45 for 3, Somerset 153 and 220. Lancashire wins by 7 wickets.

Mounties Drop 6-0 Lead, Fall to Seals

VANCOUVER (AP)—San Francisco Seals outlasted six Vancouver pitchers to score a 9-8 victory in a wild Pacific Coast League baseball game here Tuesday night.

Owners of a 6-0 lead in the fourth, San Francisco had to hang on for the victory as the Mounties came charging back but never quite caught up.

The two clubs banged out a total of 31 hits, including a home run by Vancouver's Joe Frazier. Frazier also had a triple and a double as he batted in five runs for the losers.

BASSEY-HAMIA BOUT IN LINE

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Boxing Club began negotiations Tuesday for a Hogan (Kid) Bassey-Cherif Hamia featherweight championship fight at Syracuse, N. Y., June 7 to replace the doubtful light heavyweight title fuss between Archie Moore and Tony Anthony.

Harry Markson, IBC managing director, said he had received no word from Moore, the 175-pound champion who is in Germany, and that he couldn't wait any longer.

He came to terms with Bassey's manager George Biddell, by telephone Tuesday and dispatched a representative to France to talk to Hamia.

Red Disc Planned For Churchill Downs

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bill Corum, president of Louisville's Churchill Downs, said Tuesday a red disc will be hung over the track at the finish line before next year's Kentucky Derby.

The disc would eliminate any confusion such as last Saturday, when jockey Willie Shoemaker misjudged the finish line and momentarily eased up Gallant Man which finished second to Iron Liege in a photo finish. Shoemaker was suspended for 15 days by Churchill Downs.

Willie Mays Ill

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays, New York Giant outfielder, went to hospital Tuesday for an examination after "three days of feeling lousy."

He is believed suffering from a mild case of virus and is not expected to return to the lineup for two days.

Reds Mark Up Eighth in Row

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Cincinnati won its eighth in succession, Washington dropped its ninth in a row and Cleveland snapped the New York Yankees' winning streak at six.

All this was overshadowed, however, by an injury to the Indians' prize southpaw, Herb Score, struck in the right eye by a hard-hit liner.

A line drive by the Yankees, Gil McDougald in the first inning felled Score. He was carried off the field on a stretcher, bleeding profusely. He was later taken to a hospital where it was announced that it will be "several days" before full extent of the damage will be known.

FORCED RUN

Bob Lemon took over and held the Yankees to six hits as the Indians edged the world champions 2-1. A walk by Tom Sturdivant to Rocky Colavito with the bases full in the eighth forced home the winning run.

Cincinnati pounded three Brooklyn pitchers for 14 hits, including a pair of run-producing doubles by Don Hoak, to defeat the Dodgers 9-2 and move within a half game of second place. Hal Jeffcoat hurled a six-hitter to win his first game at Ebbetts Field.

Robin Roberts hurled a six-hitter as Philadelphia drubbed Milwaukee 8-4 to hand Warren Spahn his first defeat of the season. Granny Hamner, playing second base for the first time this season, walloped a home run and single for the winners.

Ray Katt drove in three runs with a double and two singles to lead the New York Giants to an 8-5 triumph over St. Louis. A brilliant two-hit relief performance through five scoreless innings by Allen Worthington earned him his first victory.

Ted Williams drove in three runs with his sixth homer and a single to support Tom Brewer's three-hit pitching as the Boston Red Sox nipped the Chicago White Sox 4-3.

Two-run homers by Frank Bolling and Frank House were the most productive blows in Detroit's 5-3 victory over the Senators to spoil Cookie Lavagetto's managerial debut at Washington. Paul Foytack won his second game with a three-hitter.

Vic Power slammed two home runs, his second coming in the 10th inning to give Kansas City a 3-2 victory over Baltimore, Virgil Trucks, in relief, won his fourth game without a defeat.

The Chicago Cubs scored four runs in the 14th inning and hung on to defeat Pittsburgh 10-8 and shove the Pirates into the National League basement. Dale Long, ex-Pirate, drove in what proved to be the winning run. Pittsburgh had tied the score with two runs in the ninth. It was the fourth time in eight days that the Pirates had come from behind to tie the score in the ninth only to lose in extra innings.

Frick Foresees 3 Major Leagues

HOUSTON (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said Tuesday the major leagues "must be extended from coast to coast, north to south."

Frick said no reorganization is imminent, but that he expects to see more major league cities in his lifetime.

"I don't know when it will be or what form it will take, but I have a hunch we will see three major leagues," Frick told a luncheon group honoring Harry Walker, manager of the Texas League Houston Buffs.

"If baseball is to continue to grow we must be aware that things have changed in 50 years. The nation's centre of population now is far west of the Mississippi River.

"My main hope is that baseball will accept this change."

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco will make another bid for major league baseball Thursday when Mayor George Christopher flies to New York to meet Brooklyn Dodger president Walter O'Malley.

Christopher declined to speculate on a 10-team National League, a two-division league or shifting of franchise. He said O'Malley "has something in mind that is brand new."

Masks for Players

TORONTO (CP) — Hamilton Tigers of the Ontario Lacrosse Association plan to outfit players with plexiglass masks and helmets next season, and if the experiment is successful, it is hoped the practice will be made mandatory in Canada.

MIDGET WINNERS

TORONTO (CP) — Nine farm boys wearing an assortment of unmatched uniforms fell one goal short Tuesday night of spiriting away the midget hockey championship of metropolitan Toronto.

The Pickering Midgets, an unsponsored team from nearby Pickering Township, were stopped 1-0 by Marlboro Minors, a midget team sponsored by Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League.

POOLE, England (AP)—Robert F. Crouch, Conservative member of Parliament, died today. He was 53. His death increased the Commons vacancies to three.

Canada Recalls Commissioner To Australia

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—Canada's high commissioner to New Zealand, K. P. Kirkwood, has been recalled to Ottawa for government consultations, it was learned Tuesday. He leaves by air Friday.

C. E. McGaughey, who arrived recently from New Delhi as first secretary here, will be acting high commissioner during Kirkwood's absence.

PASSENGER CAR OUTPUT DROPPED DURING APRIL

OTTAWA (CP)—Production of passenger cars and commercial vehicles in April dropped to 49,895 from 59,594 in the corresponding month a year ago. Output in the first four months of the year was up 177,420 units from 165,970 in the January-April period of 1956.

The bureau of statistics said today production of passenger cars declined to 41,763 units from 47,775, while production of commercial vehicles slipped to 8,132 from 11,819.

Factory shipments of Canadian-made vehicles rose in March to a 12-month high of 58,031 units, up from 46,664 in March, 1956.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Says Homes for Aged Becoming Imperative

TORONTO (CP) — A University of Toronto architect says the Canadian population is getting progressively older and if the problem of accommodating old folks isn't conquered soon it may reach "impossible" proportions.

W. S. Goulding of the University School of Architecture, spoke before the gerontology committee of the Health League of Canada. Gerontology is the science of aging.

"Twenty years ago one person in 18 was over 65," he said. "Now it is one person in 13 and the trend is continuing.

"Community life in Canada is going to have to adjust to an increasing number of older people in our midst, in terms of employment practices, health and recreation programs and the provision of suitable housing."

Find Third Skeleton In Ladner District

LADNER, B.C. (CP) — A third skeleton has been unearthed in the diggings at Beach Grove Midden near here, as well as more than 60 artifacts.

The skeleton is lying alone in the fully flexed burial position, similar to that of two others found last week and similar to the findings in the Marpole Midden, which sets their age at 2000 years.

Among the artifacts are a double-headed harpoon, a maul of granite and a well-carved and preserved eagle head pendant. Many of the artifacts are carved from elk horns.

Hardware Men Meet Here Today

A planning board meeting of Marshall-Wells stores is being held in Nelson today under the chairmanship of John Ewart of Princeton, planning board member for Marshall-Wells Stores of B. C.

Also here for the conference is W. C. Busby of Vancouver, formerly of Trail and Nelson, who is branch manager for the stores division in B. C.

Stores throughout the Kootenays will be represented by Charles Horrey of Nakusp, Donald and Glen Manly of Grand Forks, Gerry Townsend, Alex Miller and Charles King, all of Trail; Norman Reid of Rossland, Jack Horswill of Nelson, Norman F. Brookes of Kaslo, Donald Truscott of Rion-

Archbishop Fined, Licence Suspended

ESQUIMALT (CP)—Archbishop Joseph Charbonneau was fined $40 and his licence suspended Monday when he entered a plea of guilty to a careless driving charge.

The archbishop was driver of a car in collision with another auto April 9 when he and two other priests were seriously injured.

Total damage to the cars was estimated by police at $2400.

Lawyer Joseph McKenna told the court his client had a momentary blackout immediately prior to the accident.

He said Archbishop Charbonneau was prepared to give up driving permanently.

Civic Heating Tenders Higher Than Expected

Plans will be prepared for a less expensive heating system for the Civic Centre. Tenders submitted were more than the amount which has been allowed for the project.

This was decided at a special meeting of the Civic Centre Commission Monday afternoon in the Centre office. Bids were received of $93,830 from Kootenay Plumbin gand Heating, with no completion date; $76,936.79 from Ferguson Brothers, completion in 16 weeks; and $74,120 from Pacific Pipe and Flume of Penticton, completion in 12 weeks,

Architects for the project, Heat and Power Engineering of Vancouver, recommended against accepting any tender, and promised to send an engineer here soon so a start can be made on designing a cheaper system.

The Commission is committed to install the plant under a rental agreement with Famous Players Theatre on the Civic Theatre. Promised redecoration of the theatre will not start until after the plant is installed, Commission members said.

Present were Chairman Laurie Legeaux, secretary J. B. Morgan, Ald. Elizabeth Wallach, and W. C. Hancock.

Remanded for Report of Probation Officer

John Campbell Ross of Nelson was remanded to May 13 for probation officer's report when His Honor Judge E. P. Dawson found him guilty Monday in county court of breaking and entering the offices of Dr. N. R. Jennejohn on Baker Street April 13.

Ross pleaded not guilty. G. B. Arnesen was defence counsel, with prosecutor R. B. Allen.

City police reported they apprehended him in the office at 3 a.m. April 13. He appeared before Magistrate R. S. Nelson in city court later that morning, and elected trial by him. Adjournment to Monday was granted, when Ross appeared with his counsel, and re-elected for county court trial.

Nothing was reported missing from the dentist's office.

Const. F. J. Vecchio told of arresting Ross in the building after the incident, and Dr. Jennejohn described the condition of his office. No defence witnesses appeared.

9 Motorists Fined

Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans had a busy day in provincial court Monday on his return from a B.C. Magistrate's Convention in Harrison Hot Springs. He levied nine fines for traffic violations.

Fined were A. A. Renwick of Nelson, speeding $15 and costs; Rev. E. D. Jones of Nelson, speeding $15 and costs; R. O. Donaldson of Nelson, speeding $25 and costs; C. W. E. Rhodes of Trail, speeding in South Slocan, $20 and costs.

H. N. Preseraestegaard, of Taghum hill, $15 and costs; Nelson juvenile, speeding on the North Shore, $20, licence suspended six months; A. McGowan of Salmo, crossing double line on Taghum hill, $10 and costs; E. J. Poohachoff of Slocan Park, driving while his licence was under suspension, $100 and costs; driving without proper licence plates, $25 and costs; and John Golick of Nelson, failing to stop at a "stop" sign, $10 and costs.

All pleaded guilty. F. Samsonoff of Shoreacres was granted an adjournment to May 16 on a speeding charge. No plea was taken.

FINED $50

A. Watson of Nelson was fined $50 and costs Saturday when he pleaded guilty to wilfully damaging property at the Victor Hotel on Friday night. He appeared before Acting Police Magistrate William Evans.

Sentenced at Trail, Faces 2nd Charge Here

Object of a long search by RCMP, Bud W. Lewis of Nelson is now serving a six-month sentence in the provincial jail here.

Lewis was wanted by Nelson city police and by Trail RCMP detachment. He was apprehended recently in Port Arthur, Ontario.

Police Magistrate Parker Williams of Trail ordered the jail sentence Monday when he found Lewis guilty of obtaining a motor vehicle from the Motor Inn, a Trail automobile firm, on December 28, 1955, with a worthless cheque. Lewis pleaded not guilty.

Nelson police charged Lewis with obtaining $225 from his former employers, Custom Sewing Centre, by selling one of their machines in Creston between January 20 and 24, 1956, but not returning the $225 to the Company. He pleaded guilty to an indictable offence Tuesday before Magistrate R. S. Nelson in City police court, and was remanded to Thursday for sentence.

Norway Airs Views On Russ Naval Shift

OSLO (AP)—Authoritative Norwegian sources say Russia is shifting warships from the Baltic Sea because it fears the vessels could be bottled up there easily in the event of war.

The Reds also are said to feel their big Baltic naval bases might be too vulnerable to bombers. The informants, who refused to be identified, gave this summary of the Russian naval position:

The Russian Navy is made up of four main fleets—the Pacific, the Black Sea, the Arctic and the Baltic fleet.

Recently there have been indications that ships from the Baltic, and probably the Arctic fleet, are being moved to the Pacific.

The reported moves appear based on Soviet belief that the Pacific would be the main battle area in any war with the United States, and that blocking of the Danish Straits and Kattegat area between Denmark and Sweden would seal off the Baltic.

The Russians recently had seven cruisers, 80 destroyers, 150 submarines, 300 minesweepers, 250 motor torpedo boats and 400 auxiliary vessels in the Baltic. At least one cruiser and probably a number of other ships have been moved out.

Pharmacists Attend "College" Here

Pharmacists from all parts of the District met in Nelson Monday for a 'capsule college', at which lectures were given by prominent members of the profession from Vancouver.

Professors Terence Brown and Gordon Groves of the pharmaceutical faculty at UBC, gave lectures on the tranquillizing drugs. new oil diabetic drugs and new compounding methods.

Gibb Henderson, B. C. pharmaceutical inspector, spoke on new legislation concerning restrictions on new drugs. Another speaker was J. W. Cookes, head of the education committee of the B. C. Pharmaceutical Association.

The panel was introduced by D. M. Sample, acting for P. D. Zacharias, councillor for this area on the B. C. Pharmaceutical Association.

Pharmacists came from Kaslo, New Denver, Nakusp, Rossland, Trail, Castlegar, Fruitvale, and Salmo. All the Nelson pharmacists were present.

The session was held in the Chamber of Commerce building. Afterwards, the group went to the Roundup Room for light refreshments.

$165,000 for TV Equipment

PENTICTON (CP) — Okanagan Valley Television announced that a contract for more than $165,000 has been awarded to RCA Victor Company for television equipment for a forthcoming television station in the Okanagan.

Shipments will begin immediately and final installation should be completed and the station in operation by September.

Regular Therapist To Take Over Here

At a meeting Monday of the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, it was announced that a regular physiotherapist will be engaged at the CARS clinic here in two weeks. She will replace former therapist Miss Beryl Kirkham, now in Europe.

UBCM OFFICIAL HERE TO PLAN CONVENTION

T. R. B. Adams of New Westminster, executive director of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, left for Kamloops after meeting with Mayor Joseph Kary, Ald. G. E. Mermet, and Ald C. F. Blakeman on Monday to discuss plans for annual UBCM convention here in September.

Mr. Adams will attend the meeting of the Okanagan Municipal Association in Kamloops this week. He was guest at the Spring convention Saturday of the Association of Kootenay Municipalities in Warfield, Montrose and Fruitvale.

Miss Holliday Wins Award

Miss Vera Holliday, who is in charge of the claims pay section of the local Unemployment Insurance Commission, has won an award from the Dominion Government Civil Service suggestion committee. It is the first such award to be made to an employee of the department in Nelson.

She submitted a suggestion that has resulted in improvement in a certain procedure in Commission operations.

Her prize, a brocade evening bag, was presented by D. M. Disney, manager, at a recent staff get-together. A letter of commendation was received from Leo J. Curry, executive director of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, Ottawa.

Cost $12,048,146

OTTAWA (CP) — Contracts valued at $12,048,146 were issued by Defence Construction (1951) Limited and the defence production department during the first half of April. Okanagan Helicopters Ltd., Vancouver, received a $619,200 order for the charter of helicopers.

Nip Prison Revolt

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP) — More than 200 inmates armed with axes and an acetylene torch barricaded themselves inside a North Dakota State Penitentiary cell block on Tuesday but officers broke the revolt by driving the convicts back to their cells with tear gas.

The uprising, which started during a smoke break, this morning, ended five hours later when city police filled the cell block with the choking gas. No one was injured.

New Way Relieves Arthritic, Rheumatic Pain Without Pills
Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep; speeds flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas; helps drive away pain-causing pressure.
Toronto, Ont. (Special)—Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring hours and hours of relief from pains of arthritis and rheumatism—without the need of taking pills and other medicines that may upset the system.
Rubbed gently into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep it actually vanishes into the skin. It speeds the flow of fresh, rich blood into sore muscles, joints. Actually helps drive away pain-causing pressure and congestion.
Used by doctors in England, France and the U.S.A., this remarkable cream is now available without prescription at drug stores everywhere. Ask for InfraRUB*. Only $1.39 a large tube. InfraRUB is guaranteed to give comforting relief from arthritis-rheumatism pains or your money back. *Reg. T.M.
