VOL. 21. NELSON, B. C., MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 20, 1922 No.183

DE VALERA THREATENS REPRISALS

Asserts British Government Has Ordered Execution of Erskine Childers

DUBLIN SUFFERING ATTACK OF NERVES

Soldiers' Volley Provokes Panic; Three Civilians Wounded

DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—Dublin is suffering an acute attack of the nerves, partly owing to Eamonn de Valera's threat of reprisals if Erskine Childers, convicted of carrying arms, is executed and partly through the horror of the Inchichore explosion and other happenings. One incident today testified to the state of tension.

When a loaded lorry with Free State soldiers passed slowly through a crowd holding a meeting of protest regarding the hunger strike of Mary MacSwiney and her sister, many in the crowd hooted and shouted abusive epithets. A shot was fired by someone in the crowd and the soldiers replied with a volley in the air, which provoked a panic. This was followed by machine gun fire and three civilians were reported to have been wounded.

Maintains Vigil Outside Jail

Annie MacSwiney is maintaining her vigil outside Mount Joy prison, where Mary MacSwiney has been fasting since November 6.

De Valera, in a message to the people of Ireland today, asserts that the British government has given orders for the execution of Erskine Childers and declares that "such a crime will make the men and women of our race hang their heads in shame."

"If this order is carried out," he continues, "not all the blood that will flow as a consequence will expiate our national guilt. We shall be called a nation of slaves and the slaves of slaves, and we shall not be left with an answer."

Declaring that Childers remained incorruptible when many became corrupt, he concludes:

Sacrifice to Churchill's Hate

"If it is not the people's will that a faithful, and loyal servant should be sacrificed to any of Churchill's hate, then within an hour you will rise up and fling from the positions they have usurped and dishonored those who would dare to blacken forever the fair name of this nation."

The court which tried Childers consisted of two high officers and a legal member and its proceedings were private. Childers was defended by three eminent lawyers who submitted a series of seven objections to the charge that the prisoner had an automatic pistol on his person when taken into custody. The court overruled those objections and the counsel withdrew them. The Republicans maintain the contention that Eamonn de Valera's "government" has the right to authorize the carrying of arms, but the Free State government does not recognize the Irregulars as "proper belligerents."

Unlikely to Be Shot

As it was not denied that Childers had a revolver when arrested his conviction is regarded as a certainty, but the general belief is that he will not be shot, the explanation being made that the death sentence probably will be pronounced and Richard Mulcahy, as minister of defense, will commute it to penal servitude.

French to Increase Customs Duties on Number of Articles

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Information that an increase in the French customs duties on many articles will go into effect the first of next year, has been communicated to the commercial attache of the United States embassy by the French customs services. The increases will affect virtually all imports from the United States, but will apply alike to all countries except those that have special treaties with France.

The customs officials explained that France had definitely decided not to retaliate against the new United States tariff and the fact that the new schedule would be applicable to many other countries, was regarded as showing there was no intent to discriminate.

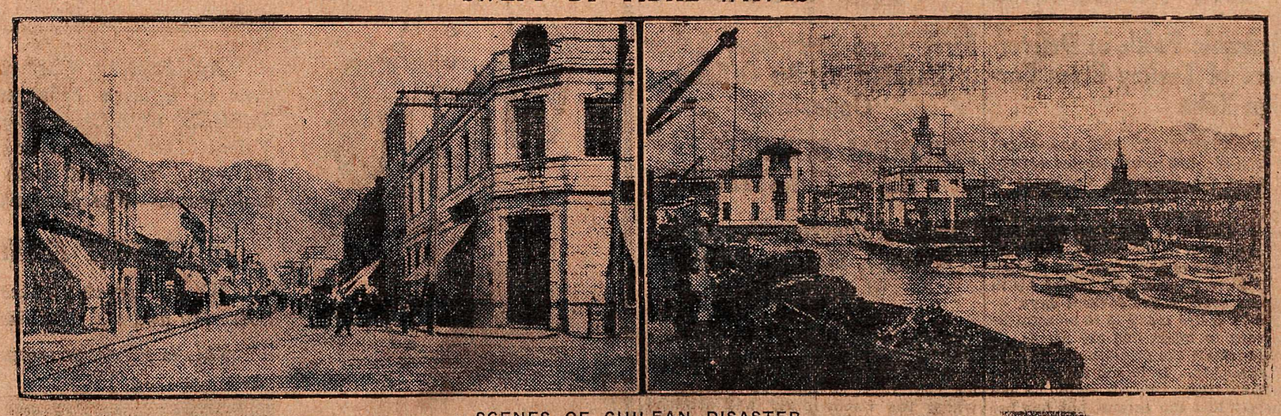
The new tariffs will not be announced until January.

CONFERENCE SPECIAL LEAVES FOR LAUSANNE

PARIS, Nov. 19.—"The conference special," bound for Lausanne, having Premier Poincare of France and Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, and most of the members of the French and British staffs on board, left this morning for the Swiss town, where it is hoped that the situation in the near east will be clarified.

Hooked on the rear of the train was a coach filled with newspaper men. The door to this coach was closed so that the writers could not invade the compartments of the diplomats.

SWEPT BY TIDAL WAVES



SCENES OF CHILEAN DISASTER

Where five great tidal waves followed earthquake.—Antofugasta, in the northern boundary of the earthquake zone in Chile, was swept by five great tidal waves during the great unheaval on Saturday, November 11. Above are scenes in the city and on the waterfront.

EXPECT THREE SEATS WILL BE UNCONTESTED

Federal Byelection Nominations Close; Will Fight at Lanark and Halifax

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press).—Nominations of candidates for election of five vacancies in the federal parliament will be held tomorrow. In these cases where nominations of more than one candidate necessitates a contest, voting will take place two weeks later, on December 4. Present indications are that at least three of the constituencies will return Liberals by acclamation. These are Jacques Cartier and Megantic, Quebec, and Gloucester, N. B.

Preston versus Findlay

In the case of Lanark, Ont., made vacant by the death of Hon. J. A. Stewart, minister of railways and canals in the Meighen government, Dr. R. F. Preston, of Carlton Place, the Conservative candidate, will be opposed by David Findlay of the same town, the Liberal choice. This constituency returned Mr. Stewart by a majority of 2,365 over his Liberal opponent in the general election of 1921.

Labor Will Probably Enter

Indications are that there will be a three-cornered fight in Halifax, formerly represented by the late Dr. Edward Blackadder, Liberal. Two Liberals, one of them Hon. R. E. Finn of the Nova Scotia legislature, are understood to be seeking nomination, while a representative of the Labor party is also expected to enter the fight. Dr. Blackadder's majority at the last election was over 5000.

Liberal candidates for whom acclamations are practically assured are E. Roberge, Megantic; T. Rheaume, K.C., Jacques Cartier; and J. G. Robichaud, M.P.P., Gloucester.

Russell, Westerville, Ohio. Imperial Bank Accounts Show a Large Profit

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—Profits of $688,003.09 for the six months ended October 31 will be shown in the annual statement to be presented to the meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada here next Wednesday. The statement covers a period of only six months, due to the fact that at the last annual meeting it was decided to change the terminal of the fiscal year from April 29 to October 31.

The profits for the past six months, therefore, taken in conjunction with the balance of $1,175,178.24 brought forward as at April 29 last, gave a total of $1,813,181.33 for distribution.

Of this amount, $445,000 was paid out by way of dividends and bonus; $1250 was made as contribution to the officers' guarantee fund; $20,000 was contributed to the officers' pension fund; $250,000 was reserved for contingencies; $80,000 was paid in taxes and a balance of $1,006,931.33 was carried forward to the new account.

Cardinal Mercier Is Suffering From Influenza Attack

BRUSSELS, Nov. 19. — Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, is ill. He is suffering from a bad case of influenza which, in itself, is not considered by the attending physicians as alarming, but there is some fear by them of complications, which, on account of the advanced age of the prelate, might give his case a more serious turn.

The cardinal caught a cold at the ceremony of entombing Belgium's unknown soldiers on November 11 and was forced to take to bed the following day.

CRESTON GIRL MEETS TRAGIC END IN STATES

Alice Bolton Murdered by Jealous Finlander at Hoquiam

SECOND TRAGEDY TO VISIT FAMILY

Father Was Found Dead in Shack Two Years Ago in the North

CRESTON, Nov. 19.—Word reached Mrs. Bolton here Saturday morning by wire that her daughter, Alice, was dead at Hoquiam, Wash., and asking for instructions as to the disposal of the remains. No further light was cast on the incident until Saturday's Nelson Daily News came to hand, and a dispatch in it from Hoquiam, Wash., indicates that the girl came to a sudden end, due to being stabbed by a Finlander by the name of Anderson, who, in a jealous rage, aggravated by heavy indulgence in moonshine, not only fatally stabbed the Bolton girl, but also shot and killed a Mrs. Johnson, a rooming house keeper in that town, and completed the tragedy by shooting and killing himself.

Address on Money Orders.

The address of Mrs. Bolton was, apparently, ascertained by finding some money orders among the effects of the dead girl, which she was sending to her mother in Creston.

The murdered girl was the fourth daughter of a family of eight children, the mother and the younger members of the family coming to Creston about six years ago from Blairmore, Alta., to reside with Mrs. Bolton's mother, Mrs. Remington, who about that time had bought a home here at the upper end of Victoria avenue.

Was Waitress at Creston.

Deceased was a girl of 19 years, and of a bright and attractive appearance. She left Creston about four months ago, going from here to Cranbrook and later to Nelson, and thence to the coast. Before her departure from Creston she was employed as waitress at both the Commercial and Creston hotels for several months.

Her father passed away a couple of years ago, his body having been found in a shack in northern British Columbia, where he was either trapping or prospecting.

The body of the dead girl will be taken to Blairmore, the old home, for burial.

AUSTRALIAN POLITICS IN UNSETTLED STATE

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19.—Australian politics are in an unsettled state and the formation of a Farmers' party there introduces an element of uncertainty into the forthcoming general elections in the commonwealth. Interviewed on his arrival here on board the Canadian Australian liner Niagara today, Hon. Digby F. Denham, ex-premier of Queensland, said that while present indications are that Premier Hughes will be returned to power on December 16, the alignment of parties in the new house will be almost certainly changed.

"Rebirth of the Liberals under Alexander Watt also complicates the situation," Mr. Denham said.

Mr. and Mrs. Denham are on their way to visit in Ottawa a married daughter, Mrs. Richard Stacey.

Primarily summoned to establish peace between victorious Turkey and defeated Greece, the conference possesses vast importance to all Europe as well as America. It must settle the various problems that have grown out of the Turks' return to the continent from which they were expelled after the great war, as well as the all-dominant question of the freedom of the Dardanelles.

The conference must lay down Turkey's new frontiers and take up the delicate questions of Turkey's capitulations or concessions.

Rand Communists Seek to Spread Propaganda Among School Children

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press Cable, via Reuters)—The latest development of the Communist propaganda on the Rand is an attempt to extend operations to the schools. MANY FAMILIES DEPENDENT ON PATRIOTIC FUND

Deserted Wives Are Greatest Responsibility; Widows Run Next

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press). — A report received from Phillip H. Morris, the executive secretary of the Canadian Patriotic fund, shows that there are now no less than 1223 families in receipt of regular monthly allowances from that fund. Of these, 434 are deserted wives, whose husbands, in a great majority of cases, remained in Europe at the cessation of hostilities, and refused to contribute to the support of their legal dependents in Canada. In the maintenance of these deserted wives and their children, the fund is spending approximately $295,000 per annum.

Next to the deserted wives, the heaviest responsibility of the fund are the widows who are not eligible for federal pension since their husbands died subsequent to the armistice and from causes not attributable to their war service. There are 408 of these widows on the books of the fund at an expense of $181,000 per annum.

Helps Ex-Service Men

There are also a large number of ex-service men suffering from disabilities that prevent their earning a livelihood for their families, but for which they cannot receive the federal pension. Consequently, 206 families are costing the fund $162,000 per annum.

Dependent parents to the number of 141 whose sons, their former support, have, for some reason or other, ceased that support, are being assisted by the fund at an expense of $64,000 a year; while 83 families in receipt of small pensions from the imperial or some other European government, receive supplementary allowances to the amount of $33,000 per annum. There are also 51 cases in which a dependent of an ex-soldier is suffering from some chronic illness which is a source of constant expense, and in this direction the fund is spending $19,000 per annum.

Additional to Emergency Grants

This expenditure is, of course, in addition to the emergency grants made by the fund to meet the expense of operations and similiar contingencies. During the last three months, this emergency expenditure has not exceeded $50,000 a month. The total for the year is somewhere between $800,000 and $900,000.

BLACKSHIRT DIPLOMACY SUCCESSFUL

French and British Delegates Bow to Mussolini's Will

CORDIAL FRIENDSHIP AND ALLIED EQUALITY

Italy's Fascisti Premier in Full Accord With Curzon and Poincare

TERRITET, Switzerland, Nov. 19.—Mussolini, Italy's Fascisti premier, this afternoon flatly refused the request of Premier Poincare and Lord Curzon, which reached him here by telephone to proceed to Lausanne and confer there with the French and British statesmen and perforce, M. Poincare and Lord Curzon, who had alighted from their special train at Lausanne, got aboard again and came to Territet.

They dined with Mussolini at the Grand Hotel des Alpes and later, over their coffee, discussed the entente's program for the near east conference.

Arrangements had been made to serve this entente dinner in Lord Curzon's apartment at the Hotel Beau Rivage at Ouchy on the lakeside near Lausanne. Mussolini declined, replying that that was impossible.

Demonstrates Independence

It was Mussolini's first demonstration of Italian independence and the French and British leaders bowed to it. The story also went around that Mussolini disliked to travel in Switzerland, since the day he was expelled from that country. The ban of expulsion was officially lifted only the week before the Fascisti leader became premier.

Tonight's conference aimed at securing unity of front and it indicated that Italy insists upon complete equality with France and Great Britain. The dinner was so informal that somebody labelled it "black shirt diplomacy."

Mussolini met Poincare and Curzon at the station and welcomed them cordially.

Details to Be Arranged

The first interview between Premier Poincare and Mussolini and Lord Curzon was entirely satisfactory in all that concerned the entente attitude at the near east conference, opening tomorrow. The three ministers are understood to have adopted a common resolution to treat all questions to be submitted to the conference on a basis of most cordial friendship and perfect allied equality.

An accord between France, Great Britain and Italy was reached in principle, but details have yet to be worked out, and to that end another meeting of the three statesmen will be held at Ouchy tomorrow morning.

NEW CALIPH GIVES PRESS HIS MESSAGE

Unshakable Faith in Deliverance of Turkey From Foreign Yoke

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.—Abdul Medji Effendi, the newly elected caliph, today gave the following statement to the Associated Press:

"I feel deeply the confidence my people have placed in me. My life had unshakable faith in the progress of Turkey and her deliverance from the foreign yoke. I have been closely bound up in my people even in the darkest days.

"My sole desire today is to be a faithful servant to Islam and my people. I will approve all the decisions of the national assembly. It is sad to speak of the sultan's flight. By his action he has not merely lost the throne, but has become an outcast from our family. Let us look to the future and forget the past."

Socialists Reject Chancellor Cuno's Free Hand Policy

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—A bourgeoise transitional ministry, composed of members of the middle parties or nonepartisan experts, and an early dissolution of the reichstag, tonight suggest themselves as the inevitable outcome of the ministerial crisis after the united Socialists' executive party board voted today to repect Chancellor Cuno's "free hand policy," in which Cuno is supported by President Ebert and the middle party.

The Socialists today eliminated themselves from all further consideration by Herr Cuno.

The two letters which follow clearly show the broad field covered by this well-known medicine. Women from every section—you know some in your own neighborhood—praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a wonderful medicine for troubles women often have.

From Prince Edward's Island—East

Miscouche, P. E. I.—"I had female troubles for two years. I always had a headache and a pain in my side and sometimes I felt so weak that I could not do my work. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken six bottles of it. It has done me a lot of good and I am still taking it. I will tell my friends of your medicine and hope they will try it."—Mrs. Camille Des Roche, Miscouche, P. E. I.

From Saskatchewan—West

Wadena, Sackatchewan.—"A friend in Rose Valley recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and it has been a great help to me. I recommend it and you can use this letter as a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. Peter Norden, Wadena, Saskatchewan.

PARLIAMENT PRESENTING ONE NOVELTY

First Time in History Labor Entitled to Be Official Opposition

PRINCIPAL BUSINESS IRISH CONSTITUTION

Clynes' Reelection Uncertain; Ramsay, MacDonald and Webb Named

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The new parliament which will assemble tomorrow will possess one novelty. It will be the first British parliament in which the Labor party has attained dimensions entitling it to be recognized as the "official opposition" with the certain prescriptive privileges in the amenities of the house attached to that position.

There are three possible claimants to the position of the leader of the opposition, Hon. H. H. Asquith, Lloyd George and J. R. Clynes, supposing that the latter, as is expected, is reelected chairman of the Labor party. It is anticipated that the speaker of the house will decide that Labor shall be the official opposition, as the Labor party far outweighs in strength the Asquith or Lloyd George parties.

Formalities First

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be occupied in the formalities of electing a new speaker and swearing in the new members. The latter is a somewhat tedious task and will occupy two days.

The doors of the commons will be open very early tomorrow morning and there is likely to be the customary scramble of members to secure the rights to certain advantageous seats. The actual opening hour fixed for both houses of parliament is 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when the quaint formalities attending the election of the speaker will take place.

T. P. O'Connor, "father of the house," will propose the reelection of the present speaker, Rt. Hon. J. H. Whitley, and his motion is expected to be carried unanimously. The leaders of the different parties having congratulated the new speaker, the house will proceed to swearing in the members and the other necessary formalities.

Ceremonial Opening Thursday

The formal opening of parliament by King George with state ceremonial will take place Thursday, when the King will deliver a brief royal speech in which he will announce the assembly of the new parliament and intimate that its principal business will be the ratifying of the Irish constitution, which must be accepted by December 6, or otherwise the Anglo-Irish treaty will lapse.

For this reason, much less time than is usual will be occupied in debate on the address in the reply to the King's speech.

Parliament will adjourn early in December to reassemble in February, when the real business of legislation will begin.

Labor's Chairman Open

It is not yet certain whether Mr. Clynes will secure reelection as chairman of the Labor party. The names of J. R. MacDonald and Sidney Webb are now mentioned for that position, but if Mr. Clynes is chosen Mr. MacDonald probably will become the party's choice of the whip.

It is already evident that of the the government's first difficulties will be the unemployment questions. Many thousands of unemployed gathered in Trafalgar square again today and although quite orderly, displayed a firm determination to insist that Premier Bonar Law personally receive their deputation.

FRACTURES SPINE BUT MAY RECOVER

CALGARY, Nov. 19.—Miss Elsie Schoelscker, a waitress employed at the Noble hotel, was admitted to the general hospital at an early hour Saturday morning, suffering from a fracture of the spine, received when an automobile in which she was riding turned a complete somersault 20 miles north of Drumheller Friday afternoon. The car, which was driven by A. E. Krauss of Carbon, threw a wheel while passing over a bad piece of road.

Miss Schoelscker was brought to Calgary. Dr. Dean stated tonight that despite the fact that she is completely paralyzed, she has a fairly good chance of recovery.

LIVER TROUBLE

Pains in Stomach

Most of the misery and ill-health that humanity is burdened with arise from disorders of the liver, stomach or bowels.

If you are feeling out of sorts, have pains in the stomach, especially after eating, sour stomach, bilious spells, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, etc., you should take a few doses of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. Mr. T. C. Hallman, Highgate, Ont., writes:—"I have had liver trouble and pains in the stomach for a long time. I started to use your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and in a short time I noticed they were helping me. Now I would not be without them and cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DENIES OFFER OF ANY BRIBE

Manitoba Attorney-General Says Rev. Gordon Misinterpreted

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—Hon. R. W. Craig, attorney-general, on his return from Ottawa tonight, issued a statement denying the statement made by Rev. Dr. C. W. Gordon at the Presbyterian synod here last week that Mr. Craig had been offered $50,000 to "let up on the enforcement of the Temperanc act," and also denied that he had confirmed the report at Ottawa. Such an offer was not made to him, directly or indirectly, by any one, he said, and Dr. Gordon had evidently drawn an "unwarranted inference" from a "personal reference" he used as an illustration in private conversation with Dr. Gordon.

Mr. Craig's statement follows:

"Since my return to the city I have read the statements in the press relative to the alleged $50,000 bribe said to have been offered me. As these statements have been given wide publicity and as many of them are inaccurate or misleading, I now take this first opportunity of stating the facts.

No Such Offer Made

"I understand the Rev. Dr. Gordon made a public speech to the effect that as attorney-general I had been offered $50,000 by respectable men of this city if I would let up on the enforcement of the Temperance act and it has been reported that I had confirmed his statement. Such an offer was not made to me directly or indirectly by any one, nor have I at any time confirmed such a statement. Dr. Gordon appears to have drawn a conclusion from what I regarded as a private conversation, though what I said could have been said by me anywhere, during which we discussed the difficulties of enforcing liquor laws. In that conversation I referred to the temptations and pitfalls in any way of the officers whose duty it was to enforce laws, the violation of which yielded large profits to law breakers.

Gives Illustration

"I illustrated this by a personal reference to a stament made to me by a respectable citizen to the effect that he had been asked his opinion as to whether the attorney-general could be influenced to let up on the enforcement of the Temperance act if he were offered $50,000 to do so.

Unwarranted Inference

"Dr. Gordon evidently drew an unwarranted inference from that conversation. His statement, to which so much publicity has been given, was made without any confirmation or authority from me and without any further particulars than above.

"As a matter of fact the gentleman in question did not bribe or attempt to bribe me either himself or as representing anyone else. He had come to see me privately on an entirely different matter. There was nothing said by him which might not have ben said by anybody. He told me that his reply had been a declaration that, knowing me as he had for many years, both as a friend and a client, neither $50,000 nor the value of all the hotels and breweries in the country would influence me in the slightest.

"I expressed emphatically my feelings on such a matter, having ever been a subject of any discussion. Nothing was said then, nor has anything been said to me since that would justify any prosecution of any person or persons."

Radio Reports Tidal Wave at Hawaiian Island

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—A radio message picked up at the San Diego station of the naval wireless system and relayed here, purporting to come from Hilo, Hawaii, told of an earthquake and tidal wave there tonight. Efforts to communicate with the Hilo radio station operated by a private concern later were unsuccessful, but radio men declared it was not unusual for that station to communicate direct with the mainland stations.

Beatty Denies Railway Exerts Political Pull

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—Emphatic denial was made by E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, at a luncheon given by Lieut.-Gov. Col. Harry Cockshutt in government house yesterday, that the C. P. R. seeks or tries to exert any influence in politics, either civic or Dominion.

Mr. Beatty said that "in the heat of controversy" an intimation had been made that the C. P. R. had a financial interest in certain newspapers.

"I don't know who owns your newspapers and I can't say that I care much," said Mr. Beatty. "But the C. P. R. has no interest in them and not a bit of influence can or will be used to influence them on behalf of the C. P. R.

Intrigue Not C. P. R. Method.

"Political intrigue and machinations are not our methods of doing things. We are in the business of selling transportation."

Mr. Beatty claimed that C. P. R. rates were the lowest in the world. "Our rate on grain to Fort William is 34 per cent lower than the rates in the United States for a similar distance. Railways cannot be blamed for business depression. We have sought to bring our rates down as early as possible, but as uniformly as possible. Mr. Hanna will agree with me on that. We hope to reduce the rates still further, but that depends on the ability to reduce the costs," he said.

Women on Jury to Try Breach of Promise Case

RED DEER, Alta., Nov. 19.—Women were empannelled on a jury case in the supreme court here last week for the first time in the history of Canada. A recent amendment to the jury act of Alberta allows women to sit on a jury in a case where a woman is concerned. The case before Mr. Justice M. C. McCarthy is a breach of promise case from Clive, Alta., Staub vs. Larkin. Counsel for the defendant contended that the plaintiff herself must make application to have women empannelled on the jury, not her solicitor, but the judge overruled the objection. When the jurors were being sworn in one of the women objected to kissing the court Bible for sanitary reasons. She was allowed to affirm her oath. The jury returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $4000, covering both charges.

WIN CABINET UPON SCHOOLS SAYS M'HARDY

Government Cordial but Refers Municipalities Men to House Committee

PROMISES ALL AID POSSIBLE

Deputation Also Meets Municipal Committee Upon Many Matters

Met with equal cordiality by the cabinet, with Premier Oliver at its head, and the municipal committee of the legislature, the representatives of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, in their conference at the parliament buildings a week ago, found the cabinet receptive of the views of the union upon such outstanding questions as those of school control and taxation, and the house committee considerate of the union's views upon pending legislation, Mayor C. F. McHardy reported last night. The mayor, who is president of the union, returned to the city Saturday night, coming up from Spokane.

The first of the conferences was with the municipal committee, which took place on the morning of Friday, and at this conference the union delegation expressed specific views upon pending legislation, or asked for specific changes in legislation. At the conference with the provincial cabinet one day later, subjects of policy were discussed.

Take Over Schools or Give More Taxes

"We urged the government as strongly as we could, to agree to take over the cost of maintenance of the schools of the province, a policy we have consistently urged for years," said the mayor, last night. "If this were done the biggest problem of the municipalities would be solved.

"If the government could not see its way to do that, we asked it to give us additional revenue to be applied to school purposes, suggesting that this could be secured by removing the exemptions under the provincial income tax. Many families enjoy joint incomes that are above the exception limit for indivduals. By removing the exemptions, the smaller incomes could be taxed, and the larger ones higher proportionately through a graduated scale. Possibly the poll and road taxes could be given up, to make this easier on those with small incomes.

"While on the subject of schools, we asked the government to arrange, either that the school boards should levy or collect their town taxes, and thereby become directly responsible to the taxpayers, or that the control of school expenditures should reside in the municipal councils, which alone are responsible to the citizens for the tax rates.

"On behalf of the municipalities we opposed the request of the school trustees' body for a permanent levy of one mill on lands to provide a fund for school buildings, taking the ground that the lands now bear too heavy a burden as it is, and also that the people should have the opportunity to vote on such expenditures.

"The government received our suggestions favorably, and practically unanimously, the only dissentment being Hon. J. D. MacLean on some of the points, Dr. MacLean favoring the one mill levy. The government referred us to the municipal committee of the house, and suggested that we secure its support and that of private members, for our proposals.

"Also, I should say, the government promised to do everything in its power for the municipalities, giving us generally a receptive hearing."

Formulate Group Cooperation

Among the other matters taken up with the government by the deputation at this conference, was a request that the government formulate a plan for group administration of various classes of public service by municipalities so situated that they could act together, as in matters of police, hospitals, education, water supply, sewerage, cemeteries and relief.

The deputation also asked the government:

To urge the Dominion government to relieve municipal councils and school boards, as governing bodies, from the stamp tax;

To urge the Dominion government to enact that soldier lands, once occupied, should remain taxable, even if reverted to the crown;

To arrange a uniform system of municipal accounting, in order to facilitate comparative statements for western municipalities;

To reduce the penalty of $100 fine or 60 days in jail under the Liquor act, to $10 or 10 days in jail;

To abolish the dole system of relief and in its place extend aid to the municipalities in providing work;

To urge the Dominion government to assume the entire burden of relief for unemployed returned soldiers;

And to make provision, either monetary, or by finding work, for men discharged from jail, their maintenance now falling upon the municipalities in which the jails are situated.

Oppose Arbitrary Powers

Some of the most important work of the deputation, in its conference with the municipal committee of the house, was in opposing legislation of which notice had been given.

The Fire Marshals act, the deputation contended, was stringent enough as it stood, without giving the fire marshals additional powers, such as ordering municipalities to buy apparatus or make other large expenditures out of hand. It asked that any additional powers given the fire marshals should only be operative where councils accepted them.

Similarly, in regard to the Electrical Energy and Inspection act, the deputation asked that further powers to be given the inspector be not operative except with the consent of the councils.

While agreeing in principle with the Town Planning act, the deputation, through the union's parliament agent, F. A. McDiarmid, K.C., pointed out that there were no controls in the proposed measure that could not now be exercising under the Municipal Clauses act, and asked that this also be subject to the consent of the councils interested.

Equity Basis for Appeal

In its suggestions for new legislation, the deputation requested:

Restricting an assessment appeal to the point of whether the assessment was equitable, and shutting out appeal on the ground of the assessment being above the cash value;

Requiring a year's residence, instead of 30 days, before destitute are eligible to relief or hospital treatment at the expense of the municipality;

Redefining the poll and road taxes, to make it clear that no man may have to pay them more than once in any year, and that if a man has paid them in one municipality, another may not collect from him;

Enabling municipalities to get title to blocks of land bought at tax sale, as acreage, the streets to not be interfered with;

Permitting the sale of several plots as one parcel at tax sale, where such are occupied by one building;

Requiring that a frontage tax bylaw approved by a municipal council must have the further approval of the inspector of municipalities, who should have the right to order the submission of such bylaw to vote of the property owners if he sees fit;

Extending exemption from poll and road taxes to the owner of improvements along, in addition to the owner of land;

Giving councils power to appoint a substitute commissioner for taking affidavits in the necessary absence of the municipal clerk;

Exempt Hospitals From Taxes

Exempting public hospitals, with their grounds up to 20 acres, from payment of taxes;

And providing that noxious weeds notices may be legally served through the mails, by registering to the addressee's last address.

The municipal committee complimented the deputation on its presentation of its case, and expressed agreement with many of its suggestions.

GET SIXTY-ONE SPECIALS FOR POULTRY SHOW

Committee Allots an Unusual Proportion to the Utility Classes

Sixty-one specials have been secured to supplement the regular prize money at the district poultry show in Nelson, December 19 to 21, by the executive of the West Kootenay Poultry and Pet Stock association, 13 of them being contributed by Grand Forks.

The committee has just finished allotting them to the various classes, the allocations to the utility classes being more generous than ever before. For the best utility pen in each variety, there is a special prize, on the same lines as for the best exhibition pen in each variety. The best individual utility birds will also have their share of specials. In addition to the specials for the utility pens by varieties, there are three general specials, respectively for the best utility pen in the show, for the best utility heavyweight pen, and for the best utility lightweight pen.

Already several fanciers have written in to Secretary A. Wallach, stating their yards will be represented. As it is a month tomorrow from the date of the opening of the show, this early interest is taken to indicate that the fanciers of the district intend to make the coming show thoroughly representative.

Archbold Touring Kootenay Against Social Diseases

Rev. H. T. Archbold, executive secretary of the provincial council for social hygiene, and a member of the executive committee of the national council, was in the city on Saturday, having visited points in this district in connection with a drive to aid the governments, both dominion and provincial, in the extinction and cure of social diseases.

"It is the object of the provincial council to back up the efforts of the provincial government, in conjunction with the federal government, in efforts to deal with the problem presented by these diseases," said Mr. Archbold. "While the governments have established means of free treatment for those affected, it was felt that voluntary organizations should be formed to educate the public as to means which may be taken to prevent the further spread of these diseases.

Will Study the Home

"The policy of the provincial council is to make known as widely as possible, in the first place, what means may be taken for the treatment of these diseases, and to rouse the public to the widespreading consequence of these diseases in physical suffering and in economic loss to the community, but more particularly is it the aim of the council to study the causes that work in our social conditions, which tend to make possible the extent of these diseases, and see what may be done to lessen those causes and to arrive at true methods of prevention. This necessarily will call for a study of the home, methods of education, and social and moral standard generally."

Mr. Archbold, who is an Anglican minister at Victoria, has spent the last week or so in this territory addressing meetings. A great deal of interest has been aroused in the subject, Mr. Archbold states, and in every case practical steps have been taken to continue the work in the various localities. The points at which he has spoken are Kaslo, Creston, Cranbrook, Fernie and Trail.

EXPRESS CONFIDENCE IN RETIRING CHIEF

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—Assurance of their "continued confidence and support," was given Hon. T. A. Crerar, member of parliament for Marquette, in a resolution passed unanimously by the delegates to the annual convention of the Marquette district United Farmers of Manitoba.

The resolution expressed appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr. Crerar as leader of the Progressive party and regret at his resignation from that position.

Speaks Tomorrow

Dr. W. J. Hindley, executive and educational director of the Washington State Retailers' association, who is to speak at the banquet at the Strathcona hotel tomorrow evening, is a former mayor of Spokane, and also a former minister. He is stated to be not only a forceful speaker, but a sound one.

"While his oratory, at first impression, may appear to be his strong card, W. J. Hindley has demonstrated that he understands both the retailer's problems and the consumer's viewpoint. Two years of incessant travel, visiting every section of Washington and part of Oregon and British Columbia, thus acquiring first-hand information, coupled with intensive study of retailing and business methods in general, have provided him with excellent material for his speeches and he is therefore listened to with great interest by his audiences," says a citizen.

"The test of a pudding is in the second helping, just so the proof of a speaker's worth is his ability to come back—to repeat. Many communities have sought Dr. Hindley's presence, as the leading speaker for their affairs, just as eagerly the second and third time, within a year, as they have the first time."

Cannot Understand Flight of Sultan; Asks for Details

LONDON, Nov. 19.—In a message to Rafet Pasha, Nationalist governor of Constantinople, the Angora government expresses its inability to understand the reason for the sultan's flight, inasmuch as the great national assembly of Turkey, while voting for the abolition of his temporal power, continued to recognize him as caliph until the election of a successor. The Angora message, as outlined in a Constantinople dispatch, instructs Rafet Pasha to supply details of the flight.

On Friday, in Spokane, he attended a luncheon of the retail merchants' bureau, and spoke upon the Ymir road, describing its progress, and inviting his audience up to the big picnic proposed for the opening of the Spokane-Nelson highway next summer. This invitation was vociferously accepted.

While at Victoria the mayor took up the water commission matters in connection with the city's water records.

He also took up with the departments of lands matters respecting the city's foreshore rights.

Loyal Orange Lodge Entertains Sons of England at 'At-Home'

Well over 200 people were present at the "at-home" staged by the Loyal Orange lodge in the Knight's of Pythias hall on Friday evening. Among the guests were the members of the Sons of England and their friends.

A very pleasing evening was spent, as an excellent program of speeches and music was supplied. An orchestra composed of Miss Sylvia Scott, George Joy and Wilbur Blanchard rendered music throughout the evening.

Rev. J. P. Westman spoke on the welfare of the lodge, and extolled the good work accomplished. Field Secretary W. T. Jago and other speakers gave addresses on kindred topics and patriotism. Mrs. J. Barr Stirling rendered a song, as did Charles Choyce. Ernest Keatley gave a recitation.

New Zealand's Ideal

THE election manifesto of Mr. Massey, the New Zealand prime minister, includes a paragraph of imperial obligations. Mr. Massey advocates:

"The consistent encouragement of practical patriotism, love of country, appreciation of British citizenship and pride in Britain's record in peace and war, and the determination to make New Zealand a model British community."

Mr. Massey expresses in a nutshell a policy which patriotism, tradition and material consideration combine to perpetuate in the British dominions.

The Seven Stones

"WE are in the morning hour of renaissance."

That golden phrase is from the lips of Glenn Frank, editor of Century Magazine, and it was uttered in a recent address before the Boston chamber of commerce.

No futile and shallow-minded preacher of optimism is this editor. He sees the blackness of the night the world is in, and he does not lie about it. But he sees, too, the promise of the dawn.

On seven stones, he believes, the future of civilization can be securely laid. And he tersely describes them as follows:

1. Cultural nationalization.
2. Economic internationalism.
3. Rationalized politics.
4. Democratized industry.
5. Humanized education.
6. Socialized religion.
7. A well-bred race.

Perhaps this is the Moses who will lead us out of our wilderness. At all events, he is clearly thinking about the world's troubles.

Possible, but Improbable

AN airplane with wings that flap is reported to the under constrution in Russia, and certain Frenchmen, returned thence, with or without competence to judge the machine, seem to have taken it rather seriously.

To say that they are wrong, that no such machine ever will navigate the air successfully, would be an dangerous as—well, as dangerous as aviation with planes with rigid wings unfortunately continues to be. The birds and innumerable tribes of insects do fly on wings that beat the air. That is, "nature's" way, and her only way, of solving the flight problem. Strangely few of "nature's" ways of solving problems, however, are imitable by human beings, and when they try to imitate her too closely they usually fall.

None of our means of transportation more than remotely follows the great exemplar. None of our vehicles is carried along on legs, and though our ships are pushed through the water by propellers that utilize the same principle exemplified in the fish's tail, it is done in a manner wholly different. In all these tasks, as in so many others, men use the wheel—a disk turning on an axle—something that in all "nature" there is not and cannot ever be until men put it there.

Man-made wings of the flapping sort, if moved with the speed and force required for carrying through the air a heavy weight, would be subjected to enormous strains and these would be especially severe at the weakest points—those of attachment to the body of the machine. Remembering the terrible mistake made by a great scientist, Simon Newcomb, when he said that out of no known material could there be constructed a rigid plane strong enough and light enough to fly on, it is the part of caution not to say the same thing about movable wings for airplanes.

CABBAGE IN THE DINNER MENU

Last week I spoke about the economy of serving the less expensive vegetables for dinner. Today I am going to suggest two attractive ways of serving that moderately-priced vegetable, cabbage.

Hamburg Steak Meat Balls
Baked Potatoes
Cabbage au Gratin
Coffee Orange Custard

Cabbage au Gratin—Chop boiled cabbage finely by hand. There should be two cups of it when chopped. Season this lightly with salt and pepper. Now make a white sauce from one cup of milk heated and thickened with one tablespoon of flour; add one tablespoon of butter to this sauce and stir till butter is melted. Put the chopped cabbage into a buttered baking dish with alternate layers of thehot white sauce and mild cheese which has been either grated or finely chopped (use about one-half pound of the cheese in making this dish). Cover all with buttered bread crumbs, sprinkle more grated cheese lightly on top, and bake till well browned in a moderate oven.

Veal Cutlet with Brown Gravy
Mashed Potatoes
Braised Cabbage
Coffee Lemon Pie

Braised Cabbage—One cabbage, two large onions, one-fourth cup of butter, one-fourth teaspoon of pepper, three cloves, two green apples, one tablespoon of salt, one-half cup of vinegar, one cup of water. Melt the butter and add the chopped onions and apples. Cook these for three minutes, then add the cabbage shredded, and all the other ingredients. Cover the saucepan and let simmer for two and one-half hours. This is delicious although, of course, because of the vinegar, children may not like it.

To cook the veal cutlet—For the sake of the young housekeeper, I will tell how to cook the veal cutlet. Wash it .you will need about one pound of it for two or three people), and dip it into flour, then into egg, then into flour again. Now fry it in any good grease (bacon fat is especially good), but do not use too much grease. When seared on both sides (turn it over when it is seared well on one side), and pour enough boiling water into the pan to cover the meat. Put a cover on the pan and let the water boil up around the meat for about one hour. By that time the cutlet should be tender and done. Lift it out into a platter and set in a warm place. Make a brown gravy in the frying pan by adding a little more boiling water (if the pan is almost dry) then add a flour-and-water paste, strring this well into the pan liquor. For a large sized frying pan you will need about one-half cup of the flour and water paste. Season the brown gravy and pour it over the meat on the platter.

Tomorrow—Answered Letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and province.—The Editor.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF THEFT FROM HOSPITAL

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Nov. 19. — After a quantity of groceries, stolen from the store room of the Ontario hospital for the insane some nights ago, had been discovered in their home, three Elizabeth town young men, Denis Burns, James Burns and Oscar Adams, were arrested by provincial police and remanded for police court.

Styles

BY LENORE

When a particular motif finds itself introduced into the fashions, it is not long before the idea is seized upon and developed in a variety of ways. This season Paris had definitely favored the circular movement in skirts, and already there are a dozen or more different expressions of this theme.

In the gown illustrated, the wide circular skirt is accentuated by a point that hangs longer in front. This line is further emphasized by a border of colorful embroidered galloon which, with the long line of the shawl collar, give the gown the much sought after look of slenderness. Tobacco brown crepe has been used for this model.

Frozen Strawberries in Small Packages Is Latest Wrinkle

"A new market is being developed for the surplus fresh berries of western Washington, which is fraught with great possibilities for the advancement and future prosperity of the berry growing industry in this district," says the Seattle Produce News.

"For the past two or three years the surplus strawberries have been put up and frozen in 400-lb barrels, but it was not until this season that Frank Grossman, sales manager for the North Pacific Cooperative Berry Growers, conceived the idea to put up all varieties of berries in small containers suitable for the bakery trade.

"An initial pack was put up and placed in cold storage, and a short time ago the frozen fruit was introduced to the local bakery trade through Grossman Bros. The success of the venture was instantaneous, as the bakers declared that the fruit was just the same as fresh and made the most delicious filling for pies and other pastry. The local manager of the Northern Pacific dining car service was enthusiastic over the first order delivered, and will suggest that the fruit be used over the entire system.

"All the fruits are solid pack and are put up two in one—two pounds of berries to one of sugar. Loganberries, blackberries and raspberries are packed in five-gallon tins and the strawberries in 10-gallon kegs. The tins weigh about 45 pounds and the kegs 90 pounds net. Blackberries are quoted at 10 cents, loganberries 12 cents, raspberries 15 cents, and strawberries 15 cents, to the bakery trade."

Again Attacks Grand Trunk as a Swindle

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—The announcement of the privy council's reasons for its dismissal of the Grand Trunk shareholders' appeal against the award of the board of arbitration moves the London Outlook to make another attack on what it calls "a swindle." The only statement this journal makes is that the stockholders were "tricked into arbitration, legally tricked and legally told that their securities were of no value." The article concludes with the customary hint about the reputation that Canadian finance will enjoy here henceforth.

CANADIAN INFERNO

There is a veritable "hell on earth" up in the Canadian wilds, reports a government agent who has returned from Fort Norman on the Mackenzie river. He went there to investigate the new oil discoveries and found in many places enormous quantities of burning coal and shale. The air is full of sulphur and burning coal. At night along the river great cliffs of sizzling molten clay may be seen.

This sounds very Dantesque, but its probability cannot be denied. It is well known that the fantastic and highly-colored "bad lands" formations of the state of South Dakota owe their origin and condtions to just such a happening. In fact, some of the beds of coal in that region are still burning. Similar phenomena are known in other parts of the world.

Some may marvel that coal and oil are found so far north, even within the Arctice Circle, since coal, especially, is known to be derived from plant life which flourished in a tropical or mild climate. The coal beds of the Mackenzie river region, however, are several million years old. At the time they were formed the climatic conditions of the earth were very different from now. It is not only conceivable, but certain, that tropical conditions in the relatively recent geologic past have existed at both the north and south polar regions.

As to how the fire started one can only surmise. It may have been from lightning, or most likely from spontaneous combustion such as takes place in the coal storage bins quite frequently. This little local "hell on earth" probably has been burning for countless thousands of years and it will continue until burned out or until the air can no longer reach the burning material to supply the necessary oxygen for combustion.

Debate Question of Holding Fall Fair Next Year

CRANBROOK, Nov. 16.—A well attended meeting was held in the city hall on Tuesday evening to discuss the advisability of continuing to hold a fall fair. There were close upon 50 present.

The general opinion was that the fair had been handicapped this year from the fact that the grounds were not altogether the most suitable, but even at that it had just about broken even financially. W. E. Worden, the president, was in the chair, and J. P. Fink acted as secretary for the occasion. It was not found possible to elect a president at this meeting, so it was decided to elect nine directors who would later organize among themselves and appoint their own officers.

The upshot of the meeting was that a resolution was passed favoring the holding of a fair again next year, provided suitable grounds can be provided for the event. It is probable that the matter of purchase of the original fair grounds will be taken up again with the present holder, who is now in Montreal. Many divergent opinions were expressed as to the fair, and its value in the community life, all agreeing that more united interest must be shown in the undertaking to make it a real success.

DAUGHTERS AT FERNIE REVIEW GREAT DECADE

Three Successive Regents Recount the Chapter's Accomplishments

WORKED ALIKE IN WAR AND PEACE

Enviable Record Is Unfolded at the Regent's Anniversary Tea

FERNIE, Nov. 17.—In honor of the 10th anniversary of Mount Fernie chapter, I. O. D. E., Mrs. A. B. Trites, regent, entertained the members on a recent afternoon to a delightful tea. An interesting review of the work performed by the chapter since its inception was submitted by respective former officers, while a very pleasing musical program was added to an otherwise highly enjoyable function.

First Regent Sketches Start.

The first regent of the chapter, Mrs. N. E. Suddaby, gave a very vivid sketch of progress of the organization during her term of office. She stated it would have been very encouraging could those then engaged in the work have had such assurance of its permanent success as was evident today. Of the 26 charter members there are now but 11 residing in Fernie, and only 10 of whom were still members. The loss of an organization's membership to the extent of 50 per cent might, and very often did, result in failure, but in Fernie chapter the places had been taken by others and the numbers increased so that today it could justly be proud of its membership.

The motto, "Our Country First," did not begin to hold the true significance until 1914. The educational work among the school children had broadened with the advance of time and has been most commendable. "Our meetings," said the speaker, "allotted three-quarters of an hour to the discussion of matters of business, and the remaining time was occupied in hearing essays on subjects of 'Empire Biographies,' 'Canadian Heroines,' 'Current Events' and musical numbers. But the war entirely changed our plans, and when this dread news reached us our first war measures decided by the national executive was to supply a hospital ship to the British admiralty. Our whole membership took active part in this campaign, and we were able to send from our chapter almost $1000. It was a big achievement, and we were very proud to render such immediate aid to our country.

Helped the Contingents.

"When our first contingent left Fernie for Valcartier, our chapter supplied foodstuffs for emergency rations on the journey. When the second contingent and Imperial reservists departed, we were able to do the same, and also supply knitted comforts. A contribution of $200 was made to the Belgian relief fund,' she stated. "A great deal of the material for the chapter was donated by the members, but no one at that time realized the demand would be unending.

"The patriotic fund committee enabled us to carry on our work on a larger scale, and on August 31, 1914, it was resolved that the Red Cross work should be followed to help our country in its crisis.

"Our chapter has always met with harmonious cooperation, and at all times cheerfully assumed the duties which lay nearest to hand. In all its endeavors it has staunchly adhered to the motto, 'Our Country First.'"

The regent, Mrs. Trites, on behalf of the chapter, expressed grateful appreciation for the services rendered by Mrs. Suddaby during her term as chief executive, and also as an active member. Accompanying this encomium was a beautiful bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums, the gift of the charter members and the executive.

Second Regent Reviews War Work.

Mrs. G. G. Moffatt, as regent of the chapter for four years, presented the splendid record of achievements during the war, stating that it would be impossible for her to do the chapter justice, as it was beyond her ability to find expressions sufficiently praiseworthy. It was all war work—specialization in Red Cross and soldiers' comforts, with side issues incidental to war conditions. It was only due to the loyal and untiring efforts of the faithful members, assisted by the cordial cooperation from fraternal societies, both locally and in adjacent districts, that the high degree of success was attained. The Red Cross activities expanded so rapidly that it was necessary at an early date to take over larger quarters, open daily, and regular weekly shipments made.

As the days and months slipped by appeals came from every quarter—prisoners of war, Belgian relief, British Columbia hospital ship in France, the sanitariums at Balfour and Frank.

The educational work was faithfully carried on during these years, and it was gratifying to note that the chapter had appointed an educational secretary. The creation of this office had been of tremendous benefit in this important branch of the work. In conclusion, Mrs. Moffatt said: "This is a very halting and inadequate expression of the excellent work which combined to make us the banner chapter of British Columbia for these four years ,and we were among the first to complete our full national war memorial obligation."

Third One on Post-War Deeds.

Mrs. A. I. Fisher, who held office of regent for a term following the conclusion of hostilities, said that there was a decided tendency toward relaxation from activities such as had been carried out under the tension of the world war. Nevertheless, the chapter had continued to make its donations to the local memorial fund, St. Dunstain's, the sanitariums, to soldiers' wives, and many other charitable causes. The Red Cross supplies received final disposition by being sent to the French relief. A contribution of $500 was made to the national memorial.

During this term Mrs. Moffatt had been presented with a life membership for her untiring efforts as regent during the strenuous war days. It was also in this year that the chapter had adopted the Coal Creek school. Willing assistance had been given for sports days, Navy league, reconstruction, and many other similar commendable institutions. The year was concluded by making three members life members in the national chapter in recognition for their devotion to war work and work of the order.

Mrs. A. C. Cummings read an interesting paper on "Canadian Authors."

The sentiment expressed by the concluding speakers was that of gratification that, after a decade of activities, there was no indication of slackening of pace. This was evidenced by the energies now being directed toward the great educational movement—the national war memorial. By this accomplishment it was felt "a bridge of passage" will have been made for greater and better work, because it will enable the young men and young women of the fallen heroes to develop learning and culture. It behooved the members of Fernie chapter as Daughters of the Empire to continue with unabated energy until they had fully demonstrated their gratitude to the men who flung aside every personal consideration, sacrificed their prospects, abandoned their careers, and broke up their homes, so that "our lives and our country" might be spared the ravages of the enemy.

The rainbow tea which took place Saturday afternoon in the parlor of the Methodist church, under the auspices of the young girls of the young people's society of the Methodist church, was in more than one way a success. A huge rainbow most cleverly designed and colored and diagonally placed across the room was, of course, the main decoration. Miss Elva Hanna and Miss Enid Etter were the artists responsible. Miss Ina Steed was general convener of the affair. Mrs. Nevil, Mrs. Clifford Irving, Mrs. W. B. Steed and Mrs. C. H. Chatfield shared the honors of the afternoon at the tea table, which was prettily centered with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Cutting the ices were Mrs. Alexander Meston and Miss Enid Etter. At the Christmas gift novelty table, where many useful and ornamental articles were displayed, Miss F. Brunswick Hume and Miss Eva Doherty proved to be clever salesladies. The attractive candy booth, which had a miniature rainbow as a center and dainty baskets of candy for sale, was under the supervision of Miss Mamie Croll, who was assisted during the afternoon in disposing of the sweets by Miss Jennie Stanfield and Miss Alice Ryan. Others assisting in serving at the individual tea tables were Miss Jeannette Higginbotham, Mrs. Clyde E. Emory, Miss Thelma Neelin, Mrs. Douglas Nagle, Miss Lottie Annable, Mrs. Edward Murphy, Miss Norma Irving, Miss Laurene Dunham, Miss Louise Ryan, Miss E. Randall and Miss Elaine Coles. Public Health Nurse Speaks at Longbeach

LONGBEACH, Nov. 19.—A meeting of those interested was held at the home of Mrs. Horsfield Thursday to introduce Miss Corbett, the public health nurse for the district.

Mrs. Burrard Smith, chairman, made a short speech of welcome to Miss Corbett and Mrs. Rutherford, who accompanied her.

Mrs. Rutherford spoke on the imporance of the work of the nurse, especially among the children, the prevention of illness being of paramount importance. She described the places they had visited, where in all cases they had left enthusiasm behind them; and in one, Crawford Bay, the good work was already begun by the discovery and treatment of several cases calling for slight operations.

Funds for Six Months.

Mrs. Rutherford then stated that there was money in hand for a six months' trial of the nurse scheme, and that it would only be necessary, during the regular circuit, for each district to find transportation funds.

In the case, however, of an emergency call, a small charge would be made in addition. After mentioning those districts which had come forward with subscriptions, Mrs. Rutherford outlined the nurse's regular circuit, which would commence in time to complete the round once before the Christmas holidays. With the headquarters at Procter, the first week was planned to be spent between Procter and Queens Bay; the second, Crawford Bay and Gray Creek; the third, Balfour and Harrop; the fourth, Longbeach and Willow Point.

Describes Conditions.

Miss Corbet,t after paying a warm tribute to the active support and helpful arrangements of Mrs. Rutherford, went on to describe the growth of conditions which had led, through the medical school inspector of 1900 in England, to the public health nurse of today. Passing on, she outlined her plans with regard to adult patients. School children were to be her chief objective, but her duty there being done, the genral health of the community would claim her attention.

Not many questions were asked by the audience, those prepared being, in some cases, fully covered by the speeches made.

Mr. Hudson, however, made some inquiries into finances and figures, and Mrs. Leggatt stated her doubts, which were set at rest by Miss Corbett.

Mrs. Horsfield then served tea and the party left to be motored to Balfour and Queens Bay by Mr. Rutherford, as these two ditsricts had yet to be visited.

Blockade Impossible With Modern Planes and the Submarine

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—The extreme significance of the submarine and the airplane in future warfare was stressed by Rear-Admiral Sims, retired, of the United States navy, who addressed the Canadian club here at luncheon Saturday. He laid emphasis upon the fact that the blockade of enemy ports would be a physical impossibility in future wars, owing to the use of these modern weapons.

"The coast of the United States could not be blockaded by all the navies in the world, if we had a sufficient number of submarines to operate against them," he said.

Admiral Sims was accorded a splendid reception by a large audience, which included Baron Byng, governor-general of Canada; Premier Mackenzie King and many other prominent statesmen and citizens.

Admiral Sims addressed the women's club in the afternoon and he and Mrs. Sims were the guests of honor at a reception.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 19.—Yeggmen, equipped with a complete blowing outfit and obviously experienced hands at safe cracking, forced two safes early Sunday morning and failed in an attempt to drill a third, when the premises of the Maple Leaf Milling company and the W. A. Freeman company were visited. For their night's work they received less than $25.

ALLIES REFUSE TO RELINQUISH THEIR CONTROL

Turkish Governor of Constantinople Seeks to Clip Allied Authority

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.—On the eve of the peace conference at Lausanne, Rafet Pasha, governor of Constantinople, has renewed his demands for control of the police, the magisterial courts, the telegraphs, passports and other branches of the civil administration. Rafet insists that the Turkish police shall exercise control over all nationalities, while the allied gendarmerie shall limit its jurisdiction to its own soldiers and sailors.

Rafet Pasha has asked the allies to suppress all foreign post offices in Constantinople. He has requested also that proposed British, French and United States colleges be placed under the Angora government's regulations.

The allies decline to relinquish their present control over foreign residents.

Fail to Agree but Leave Door Open on Natural Resources

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—"While we failed to reach an agreement, a better understanding was arrived at and the door was left open for further negotiations, which we shall certainly continue until we get a better deal," declared Premier John Bracken tonight, on his return from the natural resources conference at Ottawa.

With Premier Bracken, R. W. Craig, K. C., attorney-general, and Professor Chester Martin, who also attended the conference, returned.

Liability Rather Than Asset

Commenting on a new dispatch stating that while both Manitoba and Saskatchewan had demanded resources and subsidies, their representatives found, after going into the cost of administration, they were not so certain that the provinces might not be as well off if they did not get the lands but awaited the day when the subsidy in lieu of them amounted to over $1,000,000 a year for all time. Premier Bracken pointed out that in the meantime the natural resources are a liability rather than an asset, although in time they may become a valuable asset.

GOVERNMENT WILL HELP HAILEYBURY

HAILEYBURY, Ont., Nov. 19.—Premier Drury, addressing a party of mayors and presidents of boards of trades here tonight, said the government will aid Haileybury to the extent of taking over its debenture payments for the period of three years, which will be at a cost of $100,000.

The government will restore the schools under an arrangement with the municipality and will also rebuild the government buildings. The plan allows the town three years to get on its feet before assuming any liabilities.

Seventeen Years With the Indians Finds Way Home

SASKATOON, Nov. 19.—Lost among the Indians of the north country for 17 years, Archie Brighton, now 33 years of age, found his way back to civilization and his old home at Battleford last week. According to his story he left for the Yukon with some miners in 1905, was taken north by them and finally abandoned among the Indians. Since then until he finally found his way back he had never seen a newspaper and lived the life of the aborigines, knowing neither where he was nor the passage of time.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—Delegates from a number of points throughout the Dominion gathered here today and formed the National Association of Unemployed. The organization meeting was called by the Manitoba Association of Unemployed.

It is understood that an effort will be made to fix the responsibility for unemployment conditions on the federal government and that the newly formed organizations will endeavor to have a policy of "work or adequate maintenance" enacted into law.

PUBLIC LOSES CONFIDENCE IN THE HOTSPURS

Old Country Football Disappointing; Chelsea Out of Luck

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—Yesterday was not very favorable to football. Gate receipts again showed a tendency to drop. Arsenal, with a weak team, brought off a big surprise by drawing with Sunderland.

The Tottenham Hotspurs' crash at home again leads to the conclusion that they must seriously set about the work of reconstruction. Loss of public confidence after three brillant seasons is attributed in some quarters to the unfortunate decision of the Football association, threatening to close the Hotspurs' grounds if there was any more rowdyism at the games.

Chelsea ought to have won from Burnley but their luck was dead out. Thain actually put the ball in the net, but the referee ruled that he was offside when he headed it in.

EDMONTON ESKIMOS BEAT VARSITY TEAM

EDMONTON, Nov. 19.—Edmonton Eskimos defeated the University of Alberta rugby team 21 to 9 on a snow covered field here Saturday. At half time varsity was leading 9 to 4, but in the second half brilliant work by Dorman and Fraser resulted in three touchdowns.

DUNDAS DEFEATS TIGERS

HAMILTON, Nov. 19.—Dundas won the intermediate Ontario rugby football union group championship yesterday afternoon by defeating the Tigers 7 to 5.

Annual Dog Derby Will Be Run Over Same Course Again

THE PAS, Man., Nov. 19.—The annual dog derby of 200 miles for a purse of $2500 will be held this winter on February 22, it was decided last night at a meeting of The Pas Dog Derby association. The course will be the same as last year, from The Pas to The Pas Lumber company's camps on the Carrot river, and return.

Entries are expected from St. Paul, Minn., northern Ontario and Vermont, while a team of Labrador huskies also is a possibility.

Lighter toboggans and sleds, lighter harness and feed cached at intervals along the route, all give promise of making the race a record breaking one. Additional interest is attached to the race this year because Charles B. Morgan, who won in 1921 and 1922, will be out for his third successive victory and permanent possession of the Burns cup.

GIBSON SIGNS ON FOR TIGERS

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—It was announced here tonight that Jimmy Gibson, star forward of last year's Brandon team, has signed up with the Calgary Tigers for the coming season.

Calgary has been dickering for Johnny Sheppard of the Selkirk team, but so far has been unsuccessful.

ESKIMOS REQUIRE GUARANTEE

EDMONTON, Nov. 19.—The Eskimo Rugby club states that it requires a guarantee of at least $4000 to cover expenses of a trip to eastern Canada. It is very doubtful if the team will be able to make the trip unless that amount is forthcoming.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 19.—The British high commissioner at Constantinople, Sir Horace Rumbold, and Lady Rumbold, arrived here yesterday. Sir Adam Block, British financial expert, was among the other arrivals.

Parkdales Lose Out to Argos on Heavy Field

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—For the second year in succession, the Argonaut Rowing club, interprovincial champions, eliminated the Parkdale Canoe club, Ontario union champions, from the Canadian championship rugby series, and in defeating the paddlers on Saturday afternoon by 20 to 1, the oarsmen demonstrated that on a heavy field at least, they are a better team than Parkdale, although the big margin in the score does not do the losers justice. The Argos will meet Queens in the eastern final next Saturday and a week later the winners of this game will tackle Deacon White's Edmonton twelve, who cleaned up in the west, for Dominion honors.

Argos Have the Breaks

The Argonauts had the breaks of the game, but, while they helped the double blue cause, they were not responsible for the victory. The interprovincial champions were the better team. It was in line play where they were supposed to be inferior to the west enders that there was the greatest difference in th strength of the two teams. So far this season the Argonaut line has been considered weak and much of the credit for the position of the 1921 champions has been given to Conacher. That may be true, but on Saturday the scullers' line produced football that was satisfactory to the most severe critics.

Field Slippery

With the field very slippery from the steady drizzle that commenced early in the morning and the ball wet and very hard to handle, both teams soon adopted a kicking and plunging game. It was expected that the Argos, through Conacher, would have a slight edge in this first method of advancing the ball, and the paddlers were expected to make up for this by the way they would gain on line plunges; but this was not the case.

Conacher outbooted De Grouchy, Douglas, Munro and Goddard on practically every exchange. Argos made yards 21 times during the game and Parkdale 11 times. Argos were guilty of holding and being offside seven times during the game and lost 105 yards in this manner, while the paddlers lost but 15 yards.

SASKATOON, Nov. 19.—The western Canada junior rugby football championship came to Saskatoon on Saturday when the Saskwanis team defeated Calgary Y.M.C.A. on a snow covered field, 17 to 8.

QUEENS WREST RUGBY HONORS FROM TORONTO

Overtake Heavy Lead; Fighting Spirit Sweeps Tricolor to Victory

MONTREAL, Nov. 19.—Queens university's long quest for intercollegiate rugby honors ended on McGill's neutral gridiron Saturday afternoon, when the tricolor triumphed over the blue and white of the University of Toronto in the play-off to decide the 1922 title. Queens emerging victors from one of the most dramatic football struggles witnessed locally in many years, by a score of 12 to 6.

Start Badly

Hoplessly outclassed by varsity the week previous, the Queens' twelve went onto the fe'd at the Molson stadium for the deciding battle imbued with a fighting spirit that could not be checked. The misfortunes that befell the ultimate victors in the first half were severe setbacks to the tricolor players. To give away six points and the lead on a fumble behind the line by Batstone in the first quarter and then to see a touchdown go uncounted when the umpire penalized the team "for no yards" in the second quarter, was sufficient to test the determination of the best team. Despite such checks, Queens fought on valiantly against strong opposition and gradually drew even with varsity and in the latter stages assumed a lead which they would not give up, but slowly added to it.

Fine Work by Wings

True it is that Harry Hobbs and Snyder failed to show the brilliant form displayed in other contests, but this was in a great measure due to the excellent work of the Queens wings and the deadly kicking of Leadley.

Varsity was slow to start but in the second half they put their all into the game to break the tie and assume the lead, but they were outdone by the Queens' players, the tricolor backs being superior to the blue and white rear guard, while Queens' line, which had ripped up the blue and white in the first half, managed to stave off the danger threatened by the steady gains of Snyder and Duncan through the wings.

Leadley, Batstone and Evans were irresistable, but it is to Captain McKelvey, of Queens, that the greatest praise is due. In the dying moments of the third quarters, Snyder's terrific return of a kick by Leadley put Queens on the defensive on their own 10-yard line and it looked certain that varsity would cut down the tricolor's short lead.

McKelvey Shines

McKelvey, who had previously shone through his heavy line plunging, broke through the blue and white defense to block an attempted drop kick by Somerville and thus relieved the danger. Later he tore through the varsity line for 35 yards before being downed by Somerville. The play, however, put Queens again on the offensive and finished Toronto's last dangerous movements.

Queens great offensive entitled the tricolor to a bigger margin, but the gods of chance did not favor the Kingston team in the first half when they gave away the six points gained by varsity on a fumble behind the line, lost a touchdown when Walker was called for not giving yards to Snyder, who fumbled a punt from Leadley, and left the ball open for Thomas to scoop up and cross the line only to be called back.

Miners' Conference Chances Remote on the Edmonton Field

CALGARY, Nov. 19.—No ward has been received by officials of district No. 18, United Mine Workers of America, from the operators in the Edmonton field regarding the conference which the miners asked for with them on November 20. Robert Peacock, district secretary, said tonight that possibilities of holding the conference in Edmonton today were remote, although if the miners receive word from the operators agreeing to the conference tomorrow morning, they will leave immediately for the north.

More miners in the Edmonton field were organized in Edmonton Sunday. Up to the present 75 per cent of the miners in this field have become organized, since the organization campaign was inaugurated in this field a wek ago, union officials say.

According to recommendations recently passed by the directors of the U. M. W. A., district No. 18, the union miners in the Edmonton field will be called out on strike if the operators refuse their demands.

Everygirl Proves an Entertaining Musical Comedy

"Everygirl," as presented by Tom McKnight and his company, at the Opera house Saturday night, proved an entertaining musical comedy, with no more plot than the law allowed, but with many facical situations, good singing, and some exquisite dancing.

Pat Rafferty, known to Nelson audiences for his work with the Maple Leafs, was of course, a wonder in his comedy roles.

Only three mere males were in the cast, which specialized in "Everygirls" of many kinds, most of them delectable. These might be classified as 'teen age, debutants and merry widows.

Babs Mackay, as danseuse, was very pretty and effective, and her younger sister, Dorothy, had several effective roles.

Pretty Bubble Scene

There were some very effective specialties, one of which was a song and dance medley requiring the entire company with Dorothy Mackay the central figure, the background being a cataract of bubbles, reflecting heliotrope and other hues. Another was Dorothy's impersonation of Al Plunkett singing "Kiss Me Again," every verse of the fetching song, fetchingly sung, being demanded through sundry encores. A third was the duet "Everygirl," Billy Patterson, at his typewriter clicking off the message he was singing to the girl of his heart, at one corner of the stage, the said missive being handed to a dainty danseuse, who, in the spotlight, after various pretty evolutions, delivered it to Mayme Bell, who, on a similar typewriter, expressed and sang the sentiments of her heart.

Sixteen scenes made up the interesting menu, through which a vein of allegory was supposed to run, "Everygirl" being depicted in many situations and many guises, from that of a stage-struck flapper from the farm, to that of a determined patron of the Heartbreakers Matrimonial Agency.
