LABORITES BACK BUT NOT STRONG

Australian Returns, Incomplete, Show Government Returned.

Majority in House Reduced—Three Women Are Defeated—Sir J. Symon Loses Out.

London, June 1—The Sydney correspondent of the Times telegraphs regarding the federal elections yesterday that, although the results in the country constituencies are still incomplete, it is already certain that the Labor party will return to power with a slightly reduced majority.

In New South Wales the Liberals are likely to get in four seats net, but this will be counterbalanced by Labor gains in other states. Victoria shows heavy polling and Sir J. Quick, the Liberal member for Bendigo, has been defeated.

All the federal ministers have been reported returned, except Premier Fisher, who is thought to be fairly safe, and Mon. Mr. King, of Malley, minister of home affairs, who has possibly been defeated.

For the senate, the Labor candidates are at present leading in every state. It is probable that the Labor party will win every seat in Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia. Sir J. Symon, Independent Liberal, has certainly been defeated and he is a great loss to the senate.

The Chronicle says Premier Fisher Jos Cook, Liberal leader; Hon. F. J. Ludor, minister of trade and commerce; Hon. W. M. Hughes, attorney general, and Senator Pearce have all been re-elected.

Reduced Majority.

Melbourne, June 1.—While the returns of the federal elections held Saturday are still far from being complete, the Argus estimates the house of representatives as follows: Laborites, 39; Liberals, 35; independent, 1.

In the election of 1912 the returns were: Laborites, 44; Fusionists, 29; Independent Liberals, 2. Estimates show a Liberal gain of 11 and a Labor gain of seven.

The returns are arriving slowly because the counting was suspended from midnight until Monday morning.

While the Labor government will have a decreased majority in the house of representatives, indications point to a gain in the senate.

So far as can be told from the returns, the three women candidates were unsuccessful. Miss Goldstein, independent Liberal in one of the Victoria districts, polled 10,000 against 16,000 polled by her opponent.

ITS WARM BUT IT MIGHT BE WORSE

While St. Louis and other American cities yesterday were sweltering in a temperature of a hundred or so, citizens of New Westminster enjoyed or tolerated a temperature of 82.2 degrees, the highest mark yet touched this year. For the west it was hot and then some. All day long people could be seen seeking shady nooks of a veranda, or park, while scores took a change by going on trips up or down the river in the growing mosquito fleet that makes its headquarters in New Westminster.

Beginning last Thursday, the mercury commenced to rise, the dust began to gather in thicker quantities on the macadam roads and the soft drink men were in their element doling out their wares to the thirsty public. Queen's Park, Moody Park, Albert Crescent were the chief centres where the afternoon crowd gathered.

White Rock, Crescent Beach and Boundary Bay were well patronized during the week.

Automobiles were out by the hundreds, practically every car in the city being used in the exodus while the inter-city traffic between here and Vancouver was double that of any Sunday this year.

H. A. Wilson, the local meteorologist, informed The News later in the day of the result of Mr. Mercury's doings.

The weather report for New Westminster for the month of May is as follows: Maximum temperature observed 77.2, on the 31st; minimum temperature 40, on the 17th; mean temperature for the month, 53.33; rainfall 5.03 inches; hail on the 11th and 12th; fog on the 17th; thunder and lightning on the 15th.

McCarty Buried.

Piqua, Ohio, June 1.—Funeral services over the body of Luther McCarty, who was killed a week ago in a prize fight with Arthur Pelkey, at Calgary, Alberta, were held here yesterday.

Moose Jaw Building.

Moose Jaw, June 2.—Building permits for the month of May were $338,885. A quarter of a million of this is for houses and the balance is the new armory hall.

PROTEST AGAINST YEAR'S TAX RATE

Burnaby Ratepayers Will Register Kick at Weekly Council Meeting Tonight.

Edmonds, June 1.—Protests from a deputation of ratepayers against what they claim is excessive taxation will likely be made to the Burnaby council on Monday evening, following the striking of a tax rate of 20 and 40 mills for improved and wild lands, respectively.

While many of the residents and taxpayers realize that heavy improvements have been carried on and are to be carried out during the coming year, complaints are not few in number as to the high rate which will have to be paid this year.

Whether the council will adjourn after a short session remains to be seen, but it is significant that the invitation to attend the Conservative gathering in New Westminster the same evening was accepted by the board last week.

WINDOW JUDGING IS ON FOR TODAY

Coming through with a final spurt on Saturday morning the merchants of New Westminster entered heartily into the idea of the "Buy B. C. Products" campaign, with the result that today the citizens and the hundreds of visitors who are expected to invade the city in connection with the great political gathering tonight will have a chance to see what really is manufactured in New Westminster and B.C. and what really is grown in the Fraser valley.

The demonstration is not confined to Columbia street alone. Far from it. The merchants of Sixth, Front and Twelfth streets have taken up the idea with the same vim as those on the main thoroughfare and all are feeling well pleased with their labors.

Out at Sapperton the merchants on Columbia street east are by no means behind in the race and some of these are confident they will be in the running whn the time comes for a showdown in the way of prizes.

The Mandeville block on Twelfth street holds its own, C. A. Welsh, Ltd., and A. R. Edmondson having their stores dressed with B. C. manufactured goods and produce.

On Sixth street the groceries are well to the front. Matheson and Jacobson being especially fine, with a two-color effect, while that of A. Barron is also tasteful.

The judging committee will go the rounds this morning and it is expected that the result of their deliberations will be announced sometime today.

HIGHEST IN LAND HONOR THE DEAD

President and Army and Navy Officers Pay Tribute to Nation's War Heroes.

Washington, June 1.—President Wilson and members of his cabinet, high officers of the army and navy and many other national figures were in a great throng which gathered at Cathedral Close, Mount Saint Alban today to attend the annual memorial services for those who lost their lives in the Spanish-American war. The United Spanish war veterans conducted the exercises and the principal addresses were made by Chaplain G. L. Bayard, U. S. N., and Right Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington.

HAS A WASH-UP BEFORE ARREST

San Francisco, June 1.—James H. Reed, a retired property owner of this city, was shot and killed by his neighbor, William Couey, in the latter's back yard this afternoon, after a quarrel over property rights.

After fatally wounding his neighbor, Couey walked into his house, dressed and shaved himself and then surrendered himself to a police officer.

Better 'Phone Service.

Port Coquitlam, June 1.—On Saturday night a 24-hour a day telephone service was inaugurated in this city. Hitherto, during week days, the telephone office opened about 6 o'clock in the morning and closed at 10 o'clock at night.

MILITANTS TALK BEHIND CUDGELS

Mere Men Armed With Clubs Guard Gentler Sex.

Mobs Get Surprise When They Try to Rush Female Orators—Police Look on from a Distance.

London, June 1.—Defying the police order closing Hyde Park to their meetings, the Women's Social and Political union sent speakers today, who held forth there for a long time under the protection of male sympathizers armed with clubs.

When the comparatively peaceful non-militant organizations, which are still permitted to use the park, finished their customary small demonstrations, flags of the Women's Social and Political union were raised at 12 different points and as many speakers harangued the crowds.

Mobs of men and boys started to rush the speakers, but, much to their amazement, found themselves menaced by disciplined bodyguards wielding stout clubs. The crowds had to content themselves with hooting and singing while the police looked on without attempting to check the speakers.

CONVENTION WAS BEST IN YEARS

"We've had conventions, we've had talkfests and we've had more conventions, but during the 25 years that I have taken an interest in the Liberal party I do not know of a more successful meeting than that just concluded at Revelstoke."

Such was the enthusiastic statement of John Reid, who returned to the city last evening, the last New Westminster delegate back from Revelstoke.

Mr. Reid said that there was probably a better attendance than at any of the Liberal conventions in years. The discussions were clear and concise, the members showed a revived interest and the outlook for the future was bright.

As stated in The News on Saturday, H. C. Brewster was elected leader of the party in British Columbia. The younger element in the party was responsible for his election. Led by S. S. Taylor, of Vancouver, the younger members conducted a four hours' discussion which did not conclude until midnight on Friday. It was the original intention of the stampeding section to elect M. A. Macdonald, despite the efforts of John Oliver, of Delta, to delay the election of a leader. Mr. Oliver's amendment to the motion by Mr. Taylor was defeated, however, and the motion to elect a leader was carried.

Mr. Oliver, in the course of a speech claimed the leadership as vested in himself, but took the opportunity to resign the position.

After a strong appeal by a Vancouver delegate, it was decided to pick a leader "here and tonight."

New Westminster will be represented on the executive committee by the following gentlemen: William George, John Oliver, D. B. Martyn, John Reid and H. M. Fraser.

The following compose the executive committee with the New Westminster representatives: W. Maxwell Smith F. R. McD. Russell, C. W. Enright, J. Nelles, G. A. McCrossan, Vancouver; Victoria: A. B. Fraser, P. W. Dempster, Arthur Wilson, H. W. Davis, H. H. Shandlel; Kootenay: Edward Ferguson, R. A. Kimpton, C. R. McDonald, Dr. Thorn; A. I. Fisher; Nanaimo: Alex. Forrester, Wm. Fraser, J. N. Campbell, William Mowat, Alf. H. Nunn; Cariboo. Dr. K. C. McDonald, N. A. McGill, H. P. Horen, Dr. McLean, Isaac Eastwood; Prince Rupert, H. S. Macrea: Skeena, Duncan Ross; Richmond, Capt. Stewart: Alberni, W. H. R. Prescott; Comox-Atlin, H. McPhee.

Sues His Royal Nibs.

Brussels, June 1.—The Duchess of Orleans has begun suit for separation in the first civil court against her husband, Prince Louis Phillippe, Duke of Orleans, the French pretender. Yearly alimony of 80,000 francs ($16,000) is asked for, as well as the restitution of 170,000 francs she is alleged to have advanced the duke.

Senator Palmer Dead.

Detroit, June 1.—Former United States Senator Thomas Witherall Palmer, of Detroit, died today after a long illness. He was elected to the United States senate in 1883 and, after serving one term, was appointed United States minister to Spain. Upon his return from Spain he was appointed president of the world's Columbian exposition, held in Chicago in 1893.

Fatal Ball Playing.

Anacortes, Wash., June 1.—Harris Smith, an 18 year old high school student, who was hit on the head by a baseball while playing in a match game, died yesterday in the hospital. Milo Stock, aged 23, who was struck by a pitched ball in the same game, suffered the loss of an eye and may die.

ARRAY OF TALENT TO CHOOSE FROM

Portland, Ore., June 1.—With an array of 88 candidates from which to select, the voters of Portland will choose tomorrow a mayor, auditor and four commissioners. Besides this, they will pass upon 14 initiative or referendum ordinances and amendments to the charter. The election will be the first under Portland's new commission charter and the first experiment in Oregon with the non-primary preferential system of balloting.

The large crop of candidates, there being five for mayor, four for auditor and 78 for commissioners, has proposed such a complicated situation that it promises to be two and perhaps three days after the election before the officials will be able to untangle matters so as to tell who has been elected.

AT HORSE SHOW ARENA TONIGHT

Thousands of people from all parts of the province are expected to gather this evening in the horse show arena at Queen's Park to join in the celebration of the tenth anniversary of party government in British Columbia. This will be the first big meeting to be held in the arena and is the first time that the Royal City has been able to accommodate and seat 12,000 people in an indoor auditorium. The building has been elaborately decorated for the occasion and workmen have been busy for some time on the seating accommodation. Special seats have been reserved for ladies and their escorts.

Nels. Nelson, president of the New Westminster Conservative association, will act as chairman of the meeting and will start proceedings promptly at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge have requested that the public arrive early at the arena so that all may be seated before the program is commenced. M. J. nKight will sing "Oh Canada" verse by verse and after each verse will repeat and the audience will sing with him. During the evening Mrs. Byron Renshaw will sing "The Maple Leaf" and A. G. Williams, "Rule Britannia."

The speakers of the evening will be Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands; Hon. W. J. Bowser, attorney general, and Sir Richard McBride, premier, in the order named. Word has been received from Victoria that eevry member of the provincial cabinet will be present at the meeting. Hon. Thomas Taylor, minister of public works, has delayed his departure for England in order to attend this history-making celebration.

Word has been received by Secretary Hansford from all parts of the Fraser valley that large delegations are planning to attend this mass meeting. Vancouver Conservatives have arranged for six special decorated cars to carry the Terminal City contingent to New Westminster. These cars will run direct to Queen's Park by way of Edmonds. From Victoria, various parts of Vancouver island and from many sections of the upper country delegations are coming for the celebration. It is expected that the citizens of New Westminster will turn out en masse to hear the premier and members of the cabinet and to join in the celebration of the completion of a decade of government under the McBride administration.

Sir Richard McBride and the members of his cabinet will arrive in the Royal City some time this afternoon. They will be met by the reception commttiee of the Conservative association and by other prominent citizens and be driven over the city and otherwise suitably entertained until time for the evening meeting.

Drowned While Swimming.

Selkirk, Man., June 1.—While bathing in the river just north of Red River park at noon today, Sigurdeur Sveinson, a native of Iceland, and a late arrival in the country, was drowned. Sveinson appeared to be a strong swimmer and started to swim to the opposite shore. About a quarter of a mile away, when in midstream, he disappeared and was drowned.

Investigates Grasshoppers.

WAR EAGLE ON FIRE.

Rossland, B.C., June 1.—The shaft of the War Eagle mine here caught fire yesterday afternoon from an unknown cause and is still burning fiercely. The shaft house has been destroyed.

SHOULD BE ABLE TO WIN OUT NOW

Mexican Government Raises Wind to Extent of Hundred Millions.

Probably Death Knell of Rebels—Old Enemies Join Huerta to Crush Insurgents.

El Paso, Tex., June 1—Generals Antonio Rabago and Pascual Orozco, Jr., who met as enemies in the Madero rebellion, together will conduct the campaign against the Zapata rebels in Southern Mexico. General Rabago, recently appointed military governor of Chihuahua state, departed from here today on his way to Mexico City.

Once commanders of opposing forces, Rabago and Orozco will meet at the national capital to plan operations against the stubborn leader of Morelos. Rabago and Orozco have been chosen by President Huerta to undertake the suppression of Zapata who has been in almost continuous insurgency.

Their removal to the south will leave the northern situation in the hands of General Tellez in coahuila, General Mercedo in Chihuahua, and General Ojeda in Sonora. All virtually are new men in Northern campaigns.

General Rabago leaves Mercedo a difficult situation in Chihuahua, where the entire southern portion of the state is controlled by the constitutionalists, with only the state capital and Juarez held by the federals. Ojeda is threatened with attack at Guayamas, alone held by the federals in Sonora. Tellez is undertaking the campaign against the Carranza insurgents in Coahuila, so unsuccessfully waged by Trucy Aubert, who is said to have been removed to Mexico City.

The Sinews of War.

New York, June 1.—Negotiations by the Mexican government of a foreign loan of approximately $100,000,000 for governmental purposes and on account of the national railways of Mexico having been completed, local bankers interested in the matter announced tonight that the issue of $10,000,000 two-year notes of the new railways of Mexico, maturing tomorrow, will be paid. Conferences among banking interests here yesterday, at which ways and means for meeting the maturing railway notes were discussed, was followed late last night by an announcement from Mexico City that the loan pending in Paris, through which it was hoped the problem of railroad financing would be solved, had been successfully negotiated.

The railroads' finances are closely interlocked with those of the Mexican government itself, as the national railways are state owned.

The Mexican government loan, it was stated by bankers here tonight, is $75,000,000, and the National Railways of Mexico, about $27,000,000.

TRAINMEN TURN INTO LAST LAP

Brotherhood in Session in San Francisco Will Close Meetings This Week.

San Francisco, June 1.—With the major portion of important business disposed of, the delegates to the biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, now in session here, will settle down to their third and last week of work tomorrow.

One of the first matters to be taken up is the report of the committees on appeals and salary. The delegates will next take up the task of electing officers and the selection of a convention city where they will convene three years hence, the decision of holding their convention triennially instead of biennially having been adopted last week. President W. G. Lee is so far the only candidate for the head of the brotherhood.

After the election of officers the delegates will select a city for the convention. Among the places mentioned are Detroit, Houston, St. Louis, Cleveland, St. Paul and Sacramento.

Drowned Near Fort George.

Fort George, B.C., June 1.—Messrs. Fred Lucas and Odo Chamberlain, preemptors employed by Green Bros. & Burden, in a survey party, were both drowned last week while attempting to navigate the Fraser in a canoe from Willow river to this place. The Fort George people are sending out a notice warning all prospective settlers against attempting to come into the new country in rafts or roughly constructed boats by way of the Fraser river.

Will Cool Off.

Washington, June 1.—Temperatures near the seasonable average throughout the country were predicted tonight by the weather bureau. Generally fair weather is looked for, conditions indicating only local precipitation.

Parade Among the 400.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—About 3000 advocates of equal suffrage took part in a spectacular pageant that passed through the aristocratic residential section of the city yesterday afternoon.

NOT SATISFIED WITH ONE WAR

Balkan Allies Don't Seem to Have Had Enough in Their Affair With Turkey.

Saloniki, June 1.—Although Greek headquarters have strictly enjoined all commanders to avoid engagements, the Bulgarians are trying to push back the Greek forces and several encounters have ensued.

The Greek minister at Sofia has been ordered to protest and to inform the Bulgarian government that the Greek government declines responsibility for the results of Bulgarian provocation.

A long conference has been held by the Greek minister at Belgrade, the Servian minister at Athens and several Servian officers with M. Venizelos, the Greek premier.

Still Have Hopes.

Sofia, June 1.—The Bulgarian and Servian premiers met on the frontier tonight and hopes are entertained that they will reach a settlement on the questions in dispute between the two countries.

UP TO DATE SHOW HOUSE FOR CITY

Will Start as Picture Theatre and May Be Expected to Increase Scope Later.

Within the next week a start will be made tearing down the building at present occupied by S. F. Mark and Bacchus & Co. to make room for a new theatre to be built by the Westminster Amusements, Limited, a New Westminster company backed by local capital.

Yesterday a News representative was informed by one of the members of the company that the plans for the new theatre will be about completed by Messrs. Gardiner & Mercer at the end of the week and just as soon as the present building on the site is razed, building operations will commence on one of the finest amusement houses of its kind in the northwest.

The theatre will have a capacity of 800, this including the ground floor and a balcony.

The location is such as will permit two rear exits, one on Alexander street and the other to Begbie street.

The company has recently been incorporated and is allowed to go into all kinds of amusements as the name would imply, but for the present they will confine their efforts to a moving picture house, showing the best films and having the best accommodation to be found anywhere in this section of the continent.

Ventilation will be a material factor and the architects have been instructed to prepare plans for one of the best systems obtainable.

The franchise for the operating of a Vanoscope picture machine was secured last week, the special feature of this contrivance being the elimination of the flickering on the canvas. It also permits the operation of colored reels.

HAS A NEW WAY TO REGULATE IT

Senator Dillingham Will Introduce Immigration Novelties in Washington.

Washington, June 1.—An attempt to limit immigration from southern Europe and Asiatic countries, without the use of the "literary test" upon which President Taft placed his disapproval in the last session of congress, is embodied in a bill to be introduced in the senate tomorrow by Senator Dillingham of the immigration commission.

Senator Dillingham's bill will place a restriction on the number of immigrants from any country, to be fixed at 10 per cent of any persons of similar nationality, who were shown to be residents of the United States at the time of the last census The senator estimates that his new method of regulating immigration would greatly reduce the influx of immigrants from Italy, Hungary, Greece, Austria and Turkey and at the same time would allow an increase in the number of immigrants who might enter from Germany, Great Britain, Sweden, Norway and all countries of northern and western Europe.

Advise Patience.

Sacramento, Cal., June 1.—Counselling patience, urging that nothing be done that might result in conflict, and expressing a belief that peace and harmony will follow negotiations now proceeding between Japan and the American government regarding the enactment of the anti-alien land law, the Japanese envoys, recently arrived in Sacramento, talked to 1500 of their countrymen on the lawn of the Buddhist temple here last night.

TORONTO FULL OF PRESBYTERIANS

Opening of Great Convention Well Attended Yesterday Morning.

One Thousand Elders to Administer Communion—No Printed Program Prepared for Gathering.

Toronto, June 1.—Massey Hall was thrown open at 8 o'clock this morning for the first time to the delegates of the great Presbyterian convention. The meeting began at 9 o'clock and at that early hour the attendance was remarkable. The seats on the ground floor and in the gallery were well filled, practically all those present wearing the red badges of delegates. Rev. Dr. Gandier, principal of Knox college, spoke for an hour, telling the story of the history of the assembly of Scotland of 1596, which was followed by one of the great religious revivals of history. He read the statement of the proceedings of that body written at the time, in which the action of the assembly was recorded. It was begun with a full and complete acknowledgement of sin, first, the sin of the ministry; afterward, a catalogue of the sin of the government and of the people, which, as the document of the day put it, was "easy to be made up." Comparing the theological conceptions of that day with those of the present, the principal made the statement that the hard Calvinistic theory was considered by some to have taken away moral freedom from mankind.

Evening Crowds.

A crowd estimated at between 3000 and 4000 heard the services in Massey Hall this evening. Services were held in Cook's church during the afternoon, the speakers being Rev. D. G. McQueen, of Edmonton, the retiring moderator of the General Assembly, and Rev. John Cosman, of Harris, Ont.

The real work of the assembly will commence at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Special arrangements have been made to accommodate the delegates and the general public will not be admitted to the hall until 8:55, while at 9:15 the doors will be closed.

A remarkable feature of the assembly is the fact that no printed program is on hand, the committee in charge being allowed power to call meetings and arrange gatherings just when they see fit.

Overflow meetings will be held in Cook's church and St. James' Square church on Monday evening.

This afternoon 1000 elders from all parts of Canada were appointed to assist in the administering of the communion on Wednesday morning, when it is expected that over 4000 will be present.

FOR FIRST TIME THIS SESSION

Parliament Gets Through Business Quickly on Estimates—Questions and Answers.

Ottawa, June 1.—At the afternoon sitting of the house yesterday the estimates went through in rapid fire fashion. There was an understanding that all the main estimates should go through before adjournment and nobody wanted to talk, consequently discussion was confined to pointed questions and brief answers.

Hon. Robert Rogers told Hon. Frank Oliver that it was expected that the two new postal stations in Winnipeg would each cost $80,000 to $100,000. The cost of the site would be additional. The votes this year for the two buildings total $175,000.

When the item for the Quebec battlefields commission was under consideration Hon. L. P. Pelletier informed Mr. Lemieux that the work of the commission is still being carried on under the guidance of Sir George Garneau. He said that good progress was being made with the task of turning the Plains of Abraham into a national park.

Mr. Lemieux expressed the hope that the unsightly Ross rifle factory would soon be removed and Mr. Pelletier intimated that something was being done with regard to this matter.

When the estimates of the interior department were taken up an interesting discussion developed in reference to immigration matters. Hon. T. W. Crothers, the acting minister, said that the increase in the estimates was due to the rapidly growing volume of immigration. For the month of April there was an increase of 16 per cent., as compared with April, 1912.

Donald Sutherland, of South Oxford, protested against the annual practice of the railways in offering a fare of $10 for the purpose of inducing Ontario people to go west to help with the harvest. He thought the railways should not be allowed to do this.

Shot While Playing.

Moose Jaw, June 1.—Tressie Pasco, the 15 year old daughter of Mayor Pasco, was shot while playing south of the city on Saturday afternoon. She and other girl guides in charge of the Rev. Dr. Salton were playing at baseball when, standing on third base, the girl cried out, "I am shot," and ran to Dr. Salton. She was hurried to the city for treatment. No clue to the shooting can be found.

TEN YEARS OF SIGNIFICANCE.

All the roads lead to New Westminster today, and, in welcoming Sir Richard McBride and the members of the government executive of British Columbia, together with the thousands of people from far and near who are coming here to greet them with us, we cannot but feel that the selection of New Westminster for the venue of so interesting a celebration as that of ten years of party government is of the happiest.

It is fifty-five years—and one week to be exact—since the royal proclamation which conferred the dignity of capital of British Columbia upon Victoria was issued, and, while the effect of that ordinance was scarcely beneficial to New Westminster, the evolution of government from the executive council of pre-Confederation days down to this present time, when, for a decade government upon party lines has directed the fortunes of the country, has nowhere been watched with greater interest than in the Royal City.

Many of Westminster's citizens have played prominent parts in the governing of British Columbia, and today while we celebrate the termination of ten years of successful administration under the guidance of a native son of New Westminster, we can also spare a thought for those early fathers of their country whose homes were in our midst; pioneer legislators, the majority of whom have passed to the beyond.

Ten years in the life of any province in the Dominion is a long way to look back when the enormous strides in the development of any one of them are considered, but we believe that in no province has growth been so remarkable as here upon the Pacific slope.

Improved transportation is everywhere the main co-ordinating factor which has resulted in this progress. At the present time there are within this province two thousand five hundred miles of new railway building or contracted for, involving an outlay of more than $100,000,000. This is one of the important themes upon which the participators in this evening's gathering will doubtless be further enlightened.

To what Westminster's share may have been or will be in the great onward movement that is upon us, is of no consideration beside the fact that unprecedented development has been assured to the whole province during the past ten eventful years.

INDUSTRIES IN VALLEY.

Sometimes we may not realize it, but it is nevertheless true that every penny of new capital invested in the town or valley means further progress for the Fraser valley. Sometimes we have difficulty in persuading ourselves that a new store, a new farmer, a new business of any kind, however small, is another link in the chain that is pulling us up and onward, for we are not always able to appreciate the part this new venture or that plays in the general scheme of things.

We may realize it a little more when we jog our memories with the reflection that wherever small capital goes big capital is soon to be found. The small venturer breaks the ice for the larger investor, paving the way and developing the territory for those who are able to command more funds. It works both ways, small investments following large as well as large investments following small, and the entrance of one into a community indicates the other is soon to follow.

Large and small industries mean much for the valley. It fills the vacant store in the village and starts others in business. The more prosperous the rancher the more the valley progresses. It may not mean, and we do not want it, a whirlwind of a boom, but the constant, steady growth that makes for stability is what is wanted. The prospects for the Fraser valley towns and districts are better this year than they have ever been before.

The small towns of the Fraser valley have another point on which to congratulate themselves, and that is upon the availability and price of our factory sites. We hear the wail of the coast cities about the high price of factory sites and the consequent deterrent effect this has upon the acquisition of new industries; the same conditions prevail on the American side of the line. As cheap sites play an important factor in the development of a town, one cannot blame the large cities for the lament over a slow payroll increase.

Factory sites are cheap in the Fraser valley today. Instead of paying enormous prices, it is a well known fact that in many places free sites at the present time can be secured under proper conditions. The taxes are low, living conditions are excellent, transportation facilities are of the best and every advantage is apparently to be secured for the location of industries. If these conditions are kept so, the central Fraser valley will have many industries located in our prosperous communities within the next five years.—Fraser Valley Record.

TEST OF MODERN WARFARE.

That warfare now makes a severer demand upon the nerve and intelligence of the soldier than it did fifty years ago is maintained by so great an authority as Lord Roberts, who said recently:

"In my first campaign in India the soldiers were armed with exactly the same weapon as was used at Waterloo, under Wellington, except that we had the cap instead of the old flint. It was a ridiculous weapon compared with what we have now, but then we were all close together—colonels, majors, captains, subalterns—we were in close order. I myself was an artilleryman. We went up to the breach at Delhi within 400 yards of the city walls.

"I myself breached the Kashmir bastion. The thing now would be an impossibility. The infantry would go up then and commence firing at forty or fifty yards. Now you are fighting at 2,000 yards. The strain upon the individual man under the present system is something I cannot describe. There is no man alongside of him, he is separated from his comrade by ten to fifty paces; he lies in the open alone for hours together, creeping along, and the strain is something extraordinary.

"It does not matter to men what the country or the enemy is like, a man is by himself, he hardly sees his officers at all; he believes they are doing their best for him, but he has got to depend upon himself practically"

What might be called the infection of courage is absent, and a moral courage of the purest moral quality is demanded in modern warfare. In a regiment of soldiers rushing shoulder to shoulder to the attack in former days there might be some cowards, but they would be rushed forward in the mass, and, once grappling with the foe, would fight as desperately as any.

Nowadays, the individual soldier must rely a great deal upon himself, and to teach this self-reliance long training is necessary.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

IN CANADA'S STORY

Just a century ago today Canadians won an important naval victory on the Richelieu or Sorol river, the outlet of Lake Champlain. The American sloops-of-war Growler and Eagle manned by 112 men, under Lieutenant Joseph Smith, had entered the Canadian river from the lake in pursuit of three small British gunboats.

The chase was continued for some distance, when three armed row-galleys, manned by stalwart Canadians, appeared on the scene and quickly turned the tide of battle. They opened on the sloops with long 24-pounders. At the same time a Canadian land force, on either side of the river, poured volleys of musketry upon the American vessels.

The invaders answered by grape and canister, but soon turned and sought safety in flight. With the pursuit thus reversed, a hot running fight was kept up for four hours, when a heavy shot struck the Eagle below the water line, tearing off a plank, and causing her to sink immediately. The Growler, disabled, ran ashore.

The crews of both vessels were made prisoners. Nearly a hundred British were killed or wounded, while the American loss was twenty. The Eagle went down in shallow water and was easily raised, and both of the captured sloops were refitted, renamed the Finch and the Chubb, and hoisted the British colors.

They were engaged in the battle off Plattsburg the following year, when they were recaptured by the Americans.

First Provincial Parliament.

The first session of the provincial parliament held in York (Toronto) was convened 116 years ago yesterday, June 1, 1797, the legislators having assembled in the rude village in response to a royal proclamation to "meet us in our provincial parliament in our town of York."

The first parliament of Upper Canada had held its second session in the village of Newark, at the mouth of the Niagara, in May, 1793, but in the following August the seat of government had been transferred to Toronto, to which General Simcoe gave the name of York, in honor of the Duke of York, the second son of George III. The site for the town was surveyed in 1793 by Surveyor-General Bouchette, under the instruction of General Simcoe, the lieutenant-governor, and in his account of the survey Bouchette describes the wild aspect of the embryo metropolis, then composed of a group of wigwams of a small band of Mississaga redskins.

When the first legislature was convened in the rude parliament buildings, York had a population of only a few hundreds, including the soldiers who manned the two block houses which had been built to guard the entrance to the harbor. Sixteen years after the opening of the first parliament, when York was captured by the Americans, who burned the legislative buildings the town had a population of less than 500.

On the restoration of peace the work of building a capital for Upper Canada had well nigh to begin anew With the general progress and development of the surrounding country York prospered. The name of the city was changed to Toronto in 1834.

Joseph Howe, the great Nova Scotia statesman, died forty years ago yesterday. He had been the leader in the movement for the repeal of the union, and carried the fight to London. Failing, he became reconciled to the Dominion, and shortly before his death accepted the lieutenant-governorship of Nova Scotia.

George Henry Hubbard, eminent Congregational clergyman and author of many religious works, was born at Barnston, P. Q., fifty-six years ago today.

BRITAIN BOOMING

East Birmingham Has Forgotten Tariff Reform Scheme

Winnipeg, June 1.—Even Birmingham is forgetting to talk tariff reform owing to the astonishing activity of British trade just now, according to James Robson, of that city, who is visiting here.

He represents Tangyes, a big firm of machinery manufacturers, whose specialty is the economical utilization of fuels.

"It is impossible to talk about free trade injuring Birmingham," Mr. Robson said last night, "when orders are pouring in far faster than they can be filled. Indeed, so great is the volume of trade at present, that manufacturers are finding it almost an embarrassment. Every industry in the city—the bedstead, nail, electrical machinery, jewelry, gun and other trade—is bounding ahead.

Orders are coming in from abroad, and from the Canadian market, especially, come indications of growing interests in British manufacturers. Sir Lincoln Tangye, of our firm, made a long tour through Canada last fall, and went back to England with a strong conviction that the superior qualities of English goods will win them a secure place here.

In all the branches of machine-making the same effort to gain a better foothold in the Canadian market is being made. English machinery manufacturers believe that they are not getting as much business here as they might; and they are out after it."

Lots of Bear Here.

Castlegar, B. C., June 1.—Around here there is a big increase in the number of bears this spring. A large black bear and cub are daily to be seen behind George King's residence here. At Blueberry creek, a few miles south of here, the work train crew in charge of Conductor Alexander Sutherland, report seeing three or four every day for the past week, and Seth Owens was frightened by a large brown one, which crossed the wagon road near Pass creek when he was on his way to Robson.

MUNICIPAL SAVINGS BANK IDEA COMING

Toronto Sets Example—Winnipeg Now Anxious to Follow—Would Benefit City.

Winnipeg, Man., June 1.—Controller Widwinter is urging members of the city council to apply for Dominion legislation looking to the establishment of a municipal savings bank in Winnipeg. Five years ago he made the same suggestion, but it was not favorably considered at the time.

Recently the council of the city of Toronto decided unanimously to go in for the scheme, in response to an urgent demand from the citizens and other Canadian cities are thinking seriously of following Toronto's example.

"I see no reason in the world why we should not have a municipal savings bank in this city," declared the controller at the meeting of the board this morning. "It would be an excellent thing not only for the city, which could then finance its own improvements on the citizens' own money, but also would be in a position to pay a five per cent, interest rate.

"As a corporation, we are paying far too much to the banks for the accommodation they give us. In 1907, when the Bank of Commerce refused to handle our account because we insisted on going on with the construction of the civic power plant, I suggested that we should establish a municipal savings bank, but for some reason the members of the council did not see eye to eye with me, and no application for Dominion legislation was made. I suppose the banks would oppose the granting of legislation for municipal savings banks, but that is to be expected, as they would lose a large number of depositors.

"I intend to discuss the proposal with the members of the council and if I find them favorably disposed to the scheme I will bring it up at a meeting of the council."

Information is now being received from Toronto and other cities which are taking up the proposal. In some European cities municipal savings banks have long been operated successfully. City Treasurer Thompson, who is now on his way to Europe on leave of absence, will probably make an examination of the workings of the municipal savings banks on the continent.

Eighty-two Per Cent. Victoria's Bond Issue Left With Underwriters.

London, June 1.—Underwriters of the city of Victoria £452,876 4½ per cent stock at 95 will have to take up 82 per cent., only 18 per cent. having been subscribed by the investing public. In comparison with other recent issues this is not unsatisfactory.

The underwriters have been left about 80 per cent of the Canadian Northern railway 5 per cent. debentures and 72 per cent. of the Royal Mail company issue. Nothing yet has been decided regarding the new Alberta provincial loan.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

COAL MINING rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and is unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee will be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

CITY MOURNS FOR BRAVE CONSTABLE

Vancouver, June 1.—Amid scenes of public grief everywhere apparent the long cortege following the body of murdered constable Archibald wound its length to the cemetery this afternoon. Practically the whole city was in mourning for the man who died in the performance of public duty. The Sons of England annual church parade which was to have been held today was postponed in deference to the funeral.

The funeral left the Harron Bros. parlors on Granville street at 2 o'clock and proceeded to the First Presbyterian church on Hastings street. After the last rites had been performed, the procession, consisting of the funeral cortege, some two hundred Vancouver policemen in uniform and with white gloves, the South Vancouver police, led by Chief Jackson, a detachment of the 72nd Highlanders, the Sixth Regiment and a group of the Salvation Army, passed through crowded streets to South Vancouver.

Clean the Lots

Practically no new facts concerning the murder were brought to light at the inquest held on the body of the murdered man. The verdict returned was:

"James Archibald came to his death at the hands of some unknown men in the 1300 block on Powell street, on May 28, by revolver shots, and that we return a verdict of wilful murder by party or parties unknown. We recommend that the city officials see that all the lots have the brush cleared off, also the waterfront cleared of shacks. We also recommend that sufficient police be provided to have two men on all dangerous beats at night."

C. P. R. Farm System

According to Mr. Thomas S. Rankin, of the C. P. R. natural resources department, the C. P. R. is extending its ready made farm system to British Columbia. Already there are several farms ready at Morrison, on the Crowsnest pass branch between Wardner and Cranbrook. These farms have houses and barns and are all ready for occupancy. They are between ten and twenty acres in area and are sold on the twenty-year payment principle with loans to assist settlers if they are needed.

Similar farms are now being laid out at Golden, near the Swiss village, and in the Columbia valley along the line of the Kootenay Central. These farms will be sold on the same terms as those in Alberta.

Another Unfortunate

With a .38 calibre revolver clutched in his right hand, the badly decomposed body of a man, apparently a suicide, has been found near the southwest end of coal harbor in Stanley park. No papers were found on him, and although the clothes in which he was dressed were those of a laborer, a silver Elgin watch with an English sovereign attached, lend mystery to his identity.

Militia Go Into Camp

The 18th Field Ambulance, under Major F. C. McTavish, about 100 strong, and the Army Service Corps, under Major Moore, about 90 strong, left last night for Vernon cavalry camp for the annual militia training.

Coal King Here

One of the greatest of the coal mine operators of Great Britain is in Vancouver in Mr. David Alfred Thomas, M. P. for Cardiff, who is on a tour of inspection of the coal resources of British Columbia in company with Mr. V. Lloyd Owen, of Vancouver, who was instrumental in his visit.

Second Beach Bathing

The bath house at Second Beach was thrown open yesterday for the use of women and children. The building was erected last year. No fees are charged and it is the desire of the park commissioners to keep the beach for family use. The board intends to erect a similar building for men at the other side of Second Beach at some future date.

President on Tour

Dr. F. F. Wesbrook, president of the university of British Columbia left Saturday for a visit to Minneapolis, Toronto and Montreal. Mr. F. Carter-Cotton, chancellor of the university, is to join Dr. Wesbrook on his trip after Dr. Wesbrook has attended the convocation proceedings at the university of Minnesota. Dr. Wesbrook, upon his return in July, will take up his permanent residence in Vancouver.

King's Birthday

As Tuesday is King George's birthday the schools of the city will be closed, and the term will end on June 27, instead of June 31 as usual.

CHANGING NAME.

Chesiakee Alters Appearance—Oil Burners Being Installed.

Victoria, June 1.—When the Chesiakee resumes service again in the interests of the Union Steamship company of British Columbia, she will probably be known by a new title. The name has already appeared in print, but is entirely unofficial till the necessary license is issued from Ottawa.

The steamship when she finally emerges from the yards of the British Columbia Marine Railway will present a very different appearance from that which she did when she left the wharf at Van Anda, prior to the accident early in the year.

With the lengthening, alterations and the instalaltion of oil burners, the red funnel steamer will be almost unrecognizable, and the determination has been reached to take this opportunity of changing the old name in favor of the name of another reserve of the Indian aborigines.

The tests for oil burners will be made in a few days, probably early next week, and it is hoped to turn her over to her owners as early as possible now that the summer trade is opening up. The company is anxious to have the boat available as soon as the necessary inspection has been made.

CONTRACT OR DAY LABOR RECEIVED

The following is quoted from a leading article in the Contract Record and Engineering Review, Toronto, of 21 May, 1913, which treats of the day labor versus contract systems from a contractor's point of view:

According to information received from one of our western offices, the city of New Westminster is contemplating the abolition of the contract system. The reason adduced is that the council are persuaded that the substitution of the day labor system will eliminate the contractor's profit and that such profit can be applied towards the purchase of civic plant.

It is argued that a larger number of citizens will find employment than heretofore. We are told—with the delightful naivety with which statements of serious portent are often made—that the city is impressed with the economic possibilities of the plan. The intimation continues that while the day labor plan will entail the purchase of plant it is not the intention of the city to incur any large financial expense. There will only be a small outlay at the beginning.

Gives Some Advice.

It is difficult to believe that in a year so far advanced as 1913 a live western city can seriously contemplate entering the contract business in a small way with the stunted equipment available from a careful outlay and hope to save money by it. We would refer New Westminster to the investigation made a few years ago by the Boston finance commission.

This throws considerable light upon the relative efficiency and economy of the day labor and contract systems. The effort was made in this investigation to ascertain as nearly as possible to actual figures, thus eliminating opinions. Without entering into the report extensively, it having already been published in the columns of this journal, we will quote as a single instance the cost of sewer construction which was shown to be 35 per cent. greater by day labor than by contract.

The investigators in a comparison of the work done by both methods in the city of Boston express the opinion that had the work done by day labor been carried out by contract the reduction in the cost of labor would have amounted to over 62 per cent.

The investigation carried out on such thorough lines effectively disposes of such arguments as "saving contractor's profits," "better work," "avoidance of law suits," "employment of local labor," "adaptability to change in plans,' 'etc., that the advocates of day labor advance.

It is not difficult to knock the bottom out of any of these argument, e. g. —the alleged adaptability of the engineer's forces to changes in plans. Is it not more reasonable to suppose that the more careful preliminary study that the engineer will have to make ofthe work when he knows that contracts are to be awarded, and that subsequent changes will increase the cost of production, will lead to utilmate saving in cost and greater efficiency? Is not the flexibility in respect of the day labor system an encouragement to hasty and careless preliminary study?

Against Day Labor.

One of the strongest arguments against the system of day labor is the low average efficiency of the men hired by the departments. It is part of the contractor's busines to pick out the best men and he invariably does so, pays them a little more than the city and gets more and far better work out of them than the city can hope to do. The contractor pays the best men good wages, while they are working for him and during this period only. He allows his men the minimum of holidays and does not carry on his working force out of sentiment or through any influence brought to bear upon him.

Can the city say the same?

A Final Dig.

An equally forcible point against day labor is that it excludes competition. Other arguments are that the city officials have not the business training or the peculiar experience of the contractor and that their main incentive is to make a good showing and hold their jobs.

The inability of the city to make a success of contract work is a poor advertisement for its administration. The greatest constructional enterprises that have been carried out in the Dominion of Canada are monuments to the ability and integrity of our leading firms and in some cases they have been carried out at a cost which compared with day labor would reduce that system to an economic absurdity.

Goat River in Flood.

Creston, B. C., June 1.—Goat river is overflowing near the Great Northern railway bridge and doing considable damage to the roadway and some of the ranches. Daniel O'Neill moved out of his home on Sunday morning and the water is now up to the lower windows. If the warm weather continues exceptionally high water is feared.

CELEBRATED NAVAL DUEL CENTURY OLD

How Chesapeake Sailed Out of Boston Harbor and Was Beaten by the Shannon.

Toronto, June 1.—A naval duel unique in history was fought off Boston harbor just a century ago, June 1, 1813, between the United States frigate Chesapeake, Captain Lawrence, and the British frigate Shannon, Captain Philip Vere Broke, in which the latter was victorious. The story of that historic conflict will be treasured as long as men glory in tales of war.

At the close of May the Shannon appeared off Boston harbor, and Captain Broke wrote a formal challenge to a naval duel and dispatched it to Captain Lawrence. He challenged the American to meet him, "ship to ship, to try the fortunes of our respective flags." He added that Lawrence could not take the Chesapeake out of Boston harbor without risk of being "crushed by the superior force of the British squadron,' and gallantly proposed that they meet in single combat, without the interference of other vessels

Accepting the challenge and pairing Lieutenant Augustus Ludlow as second in command, Captain Lawrence in the Chesapeake sailed out from Boston harbor at midday on that first of June a century ago. At five o'clock in the afternoon the Shannon came up, and the duel commenced.

Shannon Was First.

The vessels had been engaged only about twelve minutes when the Shannon had so seriously injured the rigging and spars of the Chesapeake that the latter became unmanageable. Lawrence had planned to take the wind out of the sails of the Shannon, shoot ahead, lay across her bows and rake her with his guns. Captain Broke had an equally good plan and he "got his lick in fust."

The rigging of the two vessels became entangled and the Chesapeake was held in such a position that she was swept with terrible effect by the volleys of the British vessel. Lawrence ordered his boarders to charge but there was some delay, and before the order could be put into effect a musket ball struck and mortally wounded the gallant young American commander.

As he was carried below he said: "Thell the men to fire faster, and not to give up the ship; fight her till she sinks." These words, paraphrased to "Don't give up the ship," afterward became the battlecry of the Americans.

It was Broke's boarders who first got into action, and they swarmed onto the deck of Cheseapeake and carried all before them. Lieutenant Ludlow, who assumed command of the American ship, was mortally wounded by a sabre cut. Deprived of both commanders, the defenders of the Chesapeake fought doggedly on, but in the end had to succumb.

What It Cost.

The American loss in killed and wounded was 146, while the Shannon's loss was eighty-four. Broke himself immediately sailed with his prize for Halifax. The gallant English commander was himself seriously wounded, and his first lieutenant was killed. Lawrence, wrapped in the Chesapeake's flag, died shortly before reaching Halifax. The remains of Lawrence and Ludlow were afterward conveyed from Halifax to Salem, Mass., where funeral honors were paid to them.

Lieutenant Wallis, a young English officer who assumed comamnd of the Shannon and the Chesapeake after the action, declared that both Lawrence and Ludlow were "perfectly composed" and died like heroes. Ludlow survived Lawrence several days, and Wallis quotes him as saying:

"Well, I must say it was a glorious, fair, stand-up fight. I fully expected a different result; the day, however, contrary to expectation, was nobly won by yourselves, and now behold how different is our lot; nevertheless, I hope to live, and should like to try it again."

Lieutenant Wallis, in his account, adds an element of grim humor to the tragedy by saying that the Chesapeake had several hundred handcuffs on deck "in readiness for us, so we ornamented the Americans with their own jewelery."

GOLDEN POST OFFICE ROBBED; SUSPECT CAUGHT

Golden, B. C., June 1.—At an early hour on Tuesday the Golden postoffice was entered and cash and stamp drawers rifled. Entrance was gained through a window in the rear of the building after a rock had been thrown through it.

J. A. Buckham, postman, notified the provincial police and through good sleuth work on the part of Constable A. Dunbar, a man giving his name as David Anderson, recently of Kananaskis, is in the cells. In his possession when arrested were stamps of the following denominations: 98 twos, 50 ones, 24 fives and a book of twos. He had also three Canadian $1 bills, one American $1 and $2.15 in silver.

The number of stamps and bills missed is identical, but the silver is $7.40 short.

STRUCK FORT GARRY WITH DONALD SMITH

Old Fur Trader Recalls Days When Edmonton Post Was "Last House in World."

Edmonton, June 1.—Lean Pare, fur trader, bonanza wheat rancher, and pioneer farmer of the Duhamel district in Central Alberta, who left Montreal on May 3, 1873, with Donald Smith, now Lord Strathcona, high commissioner for Canada in London, traveling by ox team from St. Paul, Minn., to Fort Garry, as Winnipeg was formerly known, has gone to his old home, after an absence of 40 years to visit his brothers, two of whom he has never seen. He will return to Edmonton in July and re-engage in mixed farming, in which industry he has made a fortune during the last ten years.

"There were more Indians than white people at Fort Garry, now the thriving city of Winnipeg, when Donald Smith, governor of the Hudson's Bay, and I arrived there in the summer of 1873," Pare said, in an interview. "We had travelled by train from Montreal to St. Paul by way of Chicago, and the overland stage trip from the Mississippi river to the company's post at Fort Garry was anything but pleasant. We had a rather rough time of it, but to me the novelty offset the hardships. Then, too, I recalled that Smith had walked alone from Fort Garry to Montreal and return. Traveling in a stage coach, of course, was easier than walking."

Pare remained at Fort Garry six months, and entered upon five years of service for the Hudson's Bay company at Fort Qu'Appelle and Carleton. From the Indians who came to trade at Fort Qu'Appelle he heard of the large fur catch on the Battle river, and was told of the opportunities for making money. He severed his connection with the company in 1878 and became a trader, with headquarters near Camrose.

Overland to Winnipeg.

From Duhamel Pare made three trips overland to Winnipeg, travelling in a Red River ox cart. He would leave in the early spring with a load of furs and return late in the fall. On one of his return trips he was accompanied by Frank Oliver, who was afterward secretary of the interior in the Laurier cabinet and now represents Edmonton in the Dominion house, from Winnipeg to Edmonton. Oliver brought in a press, upon which Edmonton's first paper, the Bulletin, was printed.

At Duhamel, Pare had an exciting time during the Riel rebellion. One night his little trading post was surrounded by Indians and halfbreeds who told him that all the white men had to be killed. As pare was the only white man for miles around, it would not take them long to finish the job. They wanted Pare to open his store. When he refused they forced it open, using a big log as a battering ram.

The old Hudson's Bay lock was so strong that the frame broke before the door and by carrying the door away, entrance was gained. The invaders took all the goods in the store and departed. A few days later they returned for more goods, saying he was deceiving them. The succeeded in locating the catch of furs and carried them off as well. This was the end of the disturbance, as the Indians were summoned to help Riel at Batoche.

"After I quit trading," Pare said, "I took up ranching in the Duhamel district. It was a wilderness, the only other white man in the territory being Father Bellevaire, who looked after the Indians. Later I went in for mixed farming and made lots of money. I also lost some, but not enough to worry about.

"I have a four hundred acre farm which is rented this season. I intend to run it this year. There is more money in mixed farming than there ever was in wheat growing, as everything we can raise finds a ready market in Calgary or Edmonton.

"Neither Calgary nor Edmonton could boast of more than a handful of people when I first saw them. Today they are well built cities with large and growing populations. There was not much at Calgary when I first went in with a catch of furs on the first train sent out over the Canadian Pacific railway.

"The Hudson's Bay Company's trading post in Edmonton was then known as 'the last house in the world.' Big changes have taken place since then. Land in the business district now valued at from $3000 to $3250 a front foot, could have been had for the mere asking less than 25 years ago."

WOMAN POLICE JUSTICE

Unique Departure in England—Powers, However, Limited

London, May 31.—A woman is at last, about to be invested, though only in a restricted way with the powers of a justice of the peace in England.

Miss Enid C. Duncan, chairman of the Westham board of guardians, has been specially authorized by the lord chancellor to act as a justice of the peace for the purpose of certifying lunitics.

Chairmen of county councils, mayors of boroughs and chairmen or urban and rural councils act ex-officio as magistrates, but only if they are men. When Lady Dockrill a few years ago, was elected chairman of the Black Rock council, there was a discussion as to whether she was entitled to sit on the ministerial bench and it was decided that, as a woman, she was disqualified by an act of parliament of 1907.

The ex-officio issue does not arise in the case of Miss Duncan, as the magistral privilege does not attach to the position as chairman of a board of guardians, but it is now a question whether the lord chancellor having granted part of the powers of a justice of the peace to a woman, has jurisdiction to grant full powers.

NEW SUMMER SERVICE IS BEGUN ON C. P. R.

At 24:01 o'clock on June 1, that is directly after midnight Saturday, the C. P. R. summer train schedule went into effect. The first trains of the extra service to be put into operation to cope with the increased travel on C. P. R. lines, left Vancouver and Montreal respectively yesterday on their initial runs across the continent.

The train which inaugurates the augmented service out from Montreal will arive a week from today, and after that date four daily trains will leave for and arrive from the east. Connections will be made with the Victoria boats on arrival at Vancouver and with New Westminster at Westminster Junction.

GREATEST PERIL IN GREAT WEST

Covetousness, Says Mr. Lewis, Is Besetting Sin—Riches to Be Accepted in Fear.

In the Olivet Baptist church Rev. A. S. Lewis preached an impressive sermon last night on the danger of covetousness, which, in his opinion, was the greatest peril in Western Canada.

He said the desire for gain might develop into becoming the ruling, dominant passion, and he warned his audience in earnest words against allowing it to obtain the mastery over their souls. Illustrating his subject from the text in St. Luke, "Keep yourselves from all covetousness," the preacher declared they were all born with an innate desire to accumulate. Preachers themselves were not exempt from it, and he instanced an American minister who had accepted $150,000 as a bribe to keep his mouth closed upon a certain scandal in a certain city, but, to the credit of the church with which he was connected, he was disqualified from preaching when the fact came out.

Four months' observation had led the speaker to believe that the people of Western Canada were in great danger of letting this passion for gain become the strongest factor in their minds. He quoted the Wall Street Journal, New York, a journal devoted to high finance, as writing that there was nothing on earth that looked good, that was so dangerous for men, as "quick, easy, big money." It took a finer heroism to willingly be poor in America than to charge earthquakes in Manchuria, said that journal. What was true in America was true in Western Canada. All over Canada there were men who had grown rich in a night, who now hardly knew what it was to do a hard day's toil. Their abnormal gain had put a fever into the blood of the body politic of Western Canada. Yet, despite the perils and danger of wealth, there were precious few of them who would be unwilling to take the chances of being rich. When this passion for gain became the overmastering desire it led to a false view of life, as man was apt to measure all things by the value of his possessions. The soul that gave was the soul that lived.

A New York millionaire had declared in a letter that "the world sets such a load on my mind that it has effaced almost every trace of the image of God." That millionaire admitted he was poor in God's sight, admitted that the world had thrown a saddle over his back and ridden him to a spiritual hell. The passion for gain if it became the one passion of his life, took out of existence the one thing worth while—God—and left in its place the danger of losing one's immortal soul. Let them commend their souls first to God and, if wealth came, accept it with fear and trembling.

HARK TO LURE OF GOLDEN NORTH

Annual Spring Rush Starts to Rich Fields of Seward Peninsula

Four Boats.

Seattle, June 1.—The annual spring rush to the Seward peninsula gold field began today when the steamship Senator, the first of the regular liners to sail for Behring sea this season, departed for Nome, Alaska, with 380 passengers and a full cargo of mining machinery, provisions and supplies. The scene at the wharf when the Senator sailed was reminiscent of Klondike days. The pier was crowded with Alaskans and friends of those aboard the Senator and when the liner swung into the stream and headed for the north she was given cheer after cheef by the people on shore, while the passengers who thronged the rail responded in like manner.

The Senator will be followed tomorrow by four steamships bound for the same port. The liner Victoria will carry 668 passengers and a full cargo, while the freighters St. Helens, Seward and Mackinaw will take big shipments of provisions, mining supplies, hay, grain, live chickens, cattle and general merchandise for Nome and the adjacent mining camps.

Music for Vernon.

Vernon, June 1.—The council has granted $600 to the Vernon fire birgade band for the season, on the understanding that the band provide music in the park every Thursday evening henceforward until the evenings become too cool and provided that if the weather on any Thursday should prove unfavorable or any other cause should prevent the band playing on Thursday, music should be provided on some other evening during the week.

Rails for Vancouver.

Twenty tons of the steel rails which were brought to Port Mann a few weeks ago by the steamer Strathtay, will be loaded on flat cars this week and taken to Vancouver where they will be used on the new Georgia-Harris bridge being built by the city authorities. The rails were sold by the Canadian Northern to the city officials so that there will be no delay in starting the work.

B. C. E. R. Show Room.

With a view to demonstrating the use of electricity in more ways than one, the B. C. E. R. will erect a show room and office for its light and power department at Abbotsford, tenders for which are now being called. The building will be 23x25 feet in size, the show room being located on a level with the station platform, while an office and store room will be located for the company's representative.

MUFTI RIFLEMEN TRIM SOLDIERS

Civilian Sharpshooters and Militiamen Met on Saturday on Brownsville Ranges.

Perfect weather with little breeze and everything in the way of clear sighting on Saturday brought out the largest turnout seen this season on the Brownsville rifle ranges, the event of the day being the victory of the civilian rifle team over the 104th regiment by 20 points. This was the first competition of its kind pulled off between the two associations and the keenest interest was shown.

The following are the scores, including the regular weekly shoots of both the 104th and the N.W.C.R.A.:

Westminster Cricketers Keep Up Good Work.

The New Westminster cricket club continued its victorious career Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the Vancouver Moths by four wickets and 43 runs.

Perfect weather favored good batting on the asylum grounds, but, with the exception of Guild with 34, Kaye 27 and Woodward 19, none seemed able to withstand the bowling of Rose and Hebron, the former having secured no less than 18 wickets during the past three games.

Five of the seven batsmen of the Royals reached double figures, Miller with 44 not out, Judd 33 not out and Rev. E. R. Bartlett being especially brilliant in punishing the bowling.

The following are the scores:

THE COMMAND OF THE 104th

New Colonel May Take Charge Immediately.

When the 104th regiment goes into camp at Sydney, Vancouver island, the latter part of this month a new officer, either J. D. Taylor, M.P., or Captain Adjutant P. H. Smith, will be in command, vice Lieut.-Col Johnston who has tendered his resignation to the militia department.

In the majority of cases, the transfer of the command of a regiment and the gazetting of a new officer take anywhere from one to two months but in the case of Mr. Taylor, who has seen service with other regiments, it is likely that, should he choose to take command immediately, the department at Ottawa would arrange for this to be done.

Should Mr. Taylor, who is expected home the latter part of this week, decide not to take command until the return of the regiment from camp the duties of commanding officer will fall on the shoulders of Captain Smith. Last week Captain Moore, D.S.A., arrived in the city from Victoria and made transfer of the stores to Adjutant Smith. During the interim of Col. Johnston's resignation being accepted by the department and the gazetting of Mr. Taylor as C.O., Captain Smith will have charge of the militia stores.

ST. CATHERINES RESTORES ITS HISTORIC CHURCH

St. Catherines, Ont., June 1.—Historic old St. George's Anglican church the cornerstone of which was laid in 1855, and the building of which was interferred with by the Mackenzie rebellion of 1837, has been thoroughly rejuvenated inside and presents the appearance of a new interior with panelled oak ceiling and new wall decorations, together with memorial windows.

On Sunday Rev. W. R. Clark, lord bishop of Niagara, dedicated the church upon its reopening, also the fine new church organ, a gift of the late Mrs. S. D. Woodruff.

BOMBARDIER WELLS STAYED FOUR ROUNDS

Ghent, Belgium, June 1.—George Carpentier, the French heavyweight pugilist, today won the heavyweight championship of Europe by knocking out Bombardier Wells, the British champion, in the fourth round. Carpentier himself took the count of nine in the first round and was again sent to the floor in the second.

In the third round the Frenchman discovered Bombardier's weak stomach and showering blows in the midsection, crumpled up the Englishman. He ended the fight with a right hand punch to the solar plexus just before the end of the fourth.

The bout was scheduled for 20 rounds. Carpentier is a lightweight, who only recently was middleweight champion of Europe and previous to that welterweight champion of Europe. The Englishman had a considerable advantage in weight and height.

GREENHEART WOOD.

When Used In Water It Will Outlast Iron and Steel.

A wood which, according to the Department of Agriculture, outlasts iron and steel when placed in water is British Guiana greenheart. It is used in ship and dock building, trestles, bridges, shipping platforms, flooring and for all purposes involving great wear and tear. The woods of two species of West African trees have been introduced into English markets as substitutes for greenheart under the name of African greenheart, but both are inferior to the South American tree.

All the gates, piers and jetties of the Liverpool docks and practically all the lock gates of the Bridgewater canal are of greenheart. It furnished the material also for the fifty pairs of lock gates in the Manchester (Eng.) ship canal. When the greenheart dock gates in the Mersey harbor at Liverpool were removed in order that the channel might be deepened and widened the same wood was again employed in building the enlarged gates, and wood placed in the gates of the Canada dock in 1856 was used again in its reconstruction in 1894. The use of greenheart has been specified for sills and fenders in the lock gates of the Panama canal. Nansen's ship, the Fram, and the Antarctic ship Discovery were built of greenheart. In addition to its use as timber, great quantities of the wood are made into charcoal.

Though it grows in parts of British, French and Dutch Guiana, Venezuela, Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Trinidad, Jamaica and Santo Domingo, it is being cut only in British Guiana, where it is found along the seacoast and water courses, seldom extending more than fifty miles inland. Greenheart used to bring $1 per cubic foot at the point of shipment, but the present price is considerably less. Constant drain for more than 100 years upon the most accessible stands of greenheart in British Guiana has stripped the forest of its best material, and the wood now obtained is of inferior quality. Tracts are now being cut over in some places for the third time. Only the heartwood of the tree possesses the peculiar durability desired, and the best wood is found in old trees.

Recessional MSS. Sold For $120.

A sheet of notepaper covered with neatly-written verse, was sold for $120 at Sotheby's recently. The writer was Rldyard Kipling, and the poem was the famous "Recessional"—

"God of our fathers known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle-line."

An interesting reference to the poem is made in a letter in which Mr. Kipling says:

"Glad you like the 'Recessional.' These things come not for fasting or prayer. They arrive by themselves somehow. Evidently the idea must have been in the air, or men would not have taken to the rhymed expression of it so kindly."

The sum of $400 was paid for a letter written by Lord Nelson to Lady Hamilton from the George Inn, Portsmouth, on Sept. 14, 1805, just before the admiral went on board the Victory. Six letters written by Lord Byron realized $605.

A collection of autograph letters by Charles Lamb, Coleridge and Southey from the correspondence of John Rickman, the originator of the Census, and for thirty-eight years an official of the House of Commons, was sold for $4,750.

An Ancient Rectory.

London, it is stated, is to lose another interesting relic of old days—the rectory-house situated at the back of St. Michael's, Cornhill, a church that itself stands upon a site worth a large fortune. The old rectory-house, it is believed, was erected soon after the Great Fire, and until about half a century ago it served its original purpose. Then it was let out in suites of offices. The great charm of the building is its quietude. From the hum of the traffic in Cornhill one passes under an archway into a little oasis where all is serenely silent. Financiers and solicitors favor this quiet retreat. From their windows they overlook all that is left of St. Michael's Churchyard, a pleasant green spot, with but one tombstone left in unspeakable loneliness. It is understood that modern buildings will supersede the old rectory-house, and that the solitary tombstone will remain to indicate to City men that once people not only lived but died under the shadow of handsome St. Michael's.

At the Theatres

AT THE ROYAL.

The admission prices at the Royal theatre from now on will be 10 and 20 cents at all performances.

There will be a program of exceptional features for the first part of this week, starting with this afternoon's performance. The headliner is a sensational railway scenic offering, entitled the T. U. T. Limited. This attraction has played the biggest theatres in America and it ought to be a tremendous drawing card in Westminster. Manager Gillis says that it will have every consideration, such as the necessary stage hands, etc., to make it show up in all its splendor.

Doranto is the real prince of Chinese impersonators and musicians. He is a man that has studied the Chinese since childhood and he now has their lingo down to a tee.

Mercy Morrison is a cute little singing comedienne, who knows how to sing and dance in a pleasing manner. She makes several changes of costume during her act.

Everyone wants to know what the Keystone comedy will be, well here it is: "That Rag Time Band," wherein the rag time band quarrels over pretty Mable, but they finally agree to appear on the stage at an amateur night. Vegetables and eggs come their way and the leader, Krause, gets the fire hose behind the scenes and turns it on the audience. The result cannot be described and must be seen to be enjoyed.

The Broncho company will present a thrilling three-part film entitled "A Southern Cinderella," in which a pretty Southern girl has an experience similar to the fabled Cinderella.

PUGILISTIC ANNALS.

1904—Jack Johnson defeated Frank Childs in a six round bout on this date in Chicago. Childs was to make him a world's champion. In that same year Johnson knocked out "Denver Ed" Martin in the second round and stopped Sam McVey in 20 rounds. McVey, Jeanette, Young Peter Jackson and Black Bill were then John's principal meal tickets.

Yesterday's Anniversaries.

1900—Jack Bonner gave Kid McCoy one of the tussles of his career on this date in New York, although the Hoosier middleweight finally won out in the 13th inning, when Bonner's seconds tossed up the sponge. In the early rounds Bonner was fast and strong, and once knocked the Kid down and almost out. McCoy was at that time matched for a battle with Sharkey, and the showing he made was very disappointing to the New York fans.

1909—Tommy Murphy defeated Matty Baldwin in 12 rounds at Boston.

SPORTOGRAPHY.

(By "Gravy.")

One of the "grand old men" of the ring is Prof. Mike Donovan, who for nearly 30 years has been instructor of boxing at the wealthy New York Athletic club. The grizzled veteran of arena and battlefield—for, as a lad, he fought through the civil war—the man who Colonel Roosevelt and other famous men have been proud to claim as friend—the man who defended the middleweight title against all the world and retired the undefeated champion, and who twice outpointed John L. Sullivan in short bouts when the Old Roman was in his prime—will celebrate Monday the forty-seventh anniversary of his first professional ring battle.

Nowadays when a youngster decides to make a living with his clenched fists he puts on a pair of pillows and engages in a preliminary of from three to six rounds with another lad similarly equipped with small featherbeds on his hands. There was nothing like that in Prof. Donovan's debut in the ring, which took place in St. Louis on June 2, 1866. Bill Crowley, an experienced pugilist, was Donovan's adversary.

The bout was fought with bare fists, and went 96 rounds. They might have been fighting yet if Mike hadn't accidentally committed a foul, and so lost the decision.

Prof. Donovan is a native of Chicago, and is now in his 66th year. He was only 15 when he enlisted in the army. After the war he kept on fighting, but with his fists instead of guns, and in eight years had whipped all the middleweights who would meet him and claimed the title.

He held the championship until 1882, when he retired. He returned to the ring in 1888, however, to fight Jack Dempsey, the "Nonpareil," who was then middleweight champion of the world. Mike was then past 40, and the great crowd of fans who assembled in Brooklyn to see the affair expected that Dempsey would "make a monkey" of the old veteran. Nothing like that happened. At the end of six rounds the bout was called a draw, but the professor had exhibited superior class and cleverness throughout.

Nor was this due to any leniency on Dempsey's part, for it was a grudge fight, and both men were there to do their best. Twice in the early eighties Donovan met John L. Sullivan in exhibition bouts in Boston, and on both occasions he shaded the big fellow.

In all Prof. Mike has over 500 battles to his credit. He has a son Arthur, whom he hopes to develop into a middleweight champion.

Blue Bonnets is now the mecca of the followers of the gee-gees, and the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey club promises to be quite up to past standards. The stakes to be run during the session beginning tomorrow include the Jacques Cartier, the Windsor Hotel cup and the Connaught cup, each having an added value of $1200; the Prince of Wales steeplechase, with $1500 added, and the Kindergarten stakes.

Ottawa and Hamilton will also have meets during June, and in the United States there will be continuous racing during the month at Louisville and Latonia, the latter track opening on the 9th. England will witness three great races this week at Epson, including the Derby, that greatest of all turf classics; the Oaks, and the Coronation cup.

WHATINSAMHILL WAS THE MATTER ?

Two times four are eight; or two times four is eight. It dosen't make an awful lot of never-minds, for eight is twice as much as four, but judging from the noise that came from the Vancouver side of the boundary line at Saturday's pro. lacrosse match in Hastings Park, an unbiased onlooker might have been pardoned had he jumped to the erroneous conclusion that twice four came to something in the neighborhood of a couple of hundred and seventeen.

Viewed from the standpoint of a Fraser river sockeye, it would be immensely preferrable to ignore Saturday's lacrosse at Hastings Park, but such a suchness cannot be, so here goes.

Concerning Spots.

The game was a good one—in spots, four spots to be exact, those spots being located at irregular intervals along the line of action and indicated on the score sheet by such remarks as, Wintemute, 4:31; L. Turnbull, 4:45; Feeney, 3:55; W. Turnbull, :16.

From a Vancouver standpoint the game was a peach in at least eight spots.

That just goes to show what a difference there is in choosing your viewpoint.

The Westminster home was as dashing as ever. They kept on making dashes, one after the other, just like this:

— — — — — — — — — — — —

but unfortunately, the Vancouver defence seemed to be at work on Saturday making a lot of full stops, just like this:

Oh What a Crowd.

There must have been ten thousand people out to see that game, just imagine ten thousand people. Think of it, hundreds and hundreds of the rooters, all togged out in their best $18.50 fashion graft, light grey summer suits, tan shoes, etc., etc., to match, with their ladies fair—and dark on their arms; and all to see the Minto cup champs disappearing from notice like the dust on the curtains going down a vacuum cleaner.

Oh, rodents!

Eight to four. It sounds like the witching hour set for a summer hanging.

"It was a fine exhibition of the national game," opined one grand stand seat warmer as the hoy polly filed through the gate after the shambles. Well, if the national game consists in having a defence dressed in red and blue letting a home dolled out in green and white amble through like a bucket of hot water into a snowbank, just as often as the bucket—no the home sees fit, then it was a fine exhibition. Otherwise it was rotten. Come to think of it, it was rotten anyway.

So there! (business of sticking out your tongue.)

And Rough Work.

There was very little rough work, meaning that nobody tried to make the seance a species of Chinese wholesale execution. Technically speaking, some of the play was unspeakably rough—on the spectators. The spectators referred to were the ones from this fresh water port, but truth to tell, they didn't feel much like spectating along towards five p.m.

The people have been assured that before the end of the season Hastings Park will have one of the best lacrosse ovals in the Dominion. Wonder what season is meant. It should make a good rink after Saturday's cold snap.

The most minute inspection of the tally card will fail to reveal anything thereon that could be construed into an indication that Grumpy Spring scored. Now, what could you expect after that?

Consolation, Nil.

In fact, a minute inspection of that tally card doesn't bring to light anything that would go far towards consoling the backers from this seat of learning and other things. Of course there were those four goals that were garnered in, but what's the use of four goals when the other bunch manages to capswallow eight. Certainly, distinctly, absolutely, the boys dressed, or undressed, in navy blue and brilliant scarlet overlooked one home product on Saturday, viz. goals.

Now what was the matter?

Search me: do you know?

No.

Correct, sit down.

P.S.—Owing to a typographical error in the above—typographical error being a good excuse, for it's always safe to blame things on the merry printer—well then owing to a typographical error, no mention was made of the fact that there will be another game of lacrosse played in this city next Saturday afternoon, the locality being on the greensward at Queen's Park, the time about 3 of the afternoon and the contestants the same as during last Saturday's moving picture show.

No Boasts—But.

No rash promises are being made—no idle boasts are being indulged in—no bombastic threatenings are being breathed, but, by thunder and the seven times, double-distilled beard of the old Siwash who invented lacrosse, there's going to be something done to shine up that Minto cup so that you'll be able to see the reflection of a score with the long end hanging to the belts of the Salmonstomachs.

P.P.S.—By the way, the following list of harrowing details may be of some help in arriving at a conclusion anent the misfortune of the week-end:

Three Out of Five.

Three wins out of five inter-city games was the result on Saturday, although the double defeat of the lacrosse teams rather clouded the sun. While the professional and amateur lacrosse teams were getting licked in Vancouver, the baseball nine were nosing out a win over Port Coquitlam, the first cricket eleven won their game over the Vancouver Moths, while the second string of willow wielders won their game in Vancouver over Britannia high school. Taking into consideration the fact that four of the five games were played outside the city, the outcome can be regarded as satisfactory from a local viewpoint.

Red and Blue Amateurs Lose to Vancouver Holders of the Mann Cup.

Standing of Teams.

Vancouver	2	0

After holding their own for two periods and tying the score in the third, the Westminster amateur lacrosse team were defeated by the V. A. C. at Athletic park in Vancouver on Saturday afternoon.

The final score was nine goals to three, but the tally does not indicate the play. Manager Alex Turnbull has a good bunch of youngsters who will be heard from before many more games are played. The home was fast and the defence was good, but was too light to withstand the attacks of the heavier V. A. C. team for the whole game.

Stoddart, in goal, played a brilliant game and he picked out shots from all angles that looked like sure tallies. He was good when called on to come out of the nets and in the last two periods saved New Westminster from a worse defeat.

A noticeable and pleasing feature of the game was the determination of the Red Shirts to play until the final whistle, even after there was not a chance of snatching a victory.

There were only two penalties handed during the entire performance, these being in the second period for minor offences.

The first spasm found the teams even with two each to their credit. In the second period Crookal added one for the Terminals and the quarter ended with Westminster a little behind.

Feeney, for the Red Shirts, evened the score with a nice shot in the third, but after that there was no hope and the V. A. C. trebled the score.

LOCAL BOYS IN FRONT.

St. Louis College and Y. M. C. A. Lads in Inter-City Sports.

St. Louis College, making their first entry in Inter-city sports came through with a great showing in Vancouver Saturday at the annual sports of the Y.M.C.A. harriers, taking down no less than two firsts and one second, while at the same time they won the school relay race against Vancouver teams. The trophy at stake in the latter event was a handsome cup which will now adorn the halls of St. Louis college.

The boys from the Westminster Y.M.C.A. also acquitted themselves well. R. C. McDonald got first in the shot put, E. Lewis third place in the 100 yard dash, and O. Gordon pulled down second place in the half mile senior.

The following are the events and winners of St. Louis college: 100 yard dash won by L. McMillan; 220 yard dash won by A. Guichon; 440 yards, second place, H. Cunningham. Schools relay race won by St. Louis. The team, A. Guichon, A. Swenciski, G. Darling and L. McMillan.

Principal McIsaac, of St. Louis college, when seen last evening, felt highly pleased with the success made by the boys.

Golf Notes.

The tie between Miss J. Peele and Mrs. T. D. Sherriff for second place in the ladies' competition held on May 24 was played off on Friday afternoon on the Vancouver Golf and Country club links and resulted in a win for Miss Peele. The members of the Vancouver club were selected for the team to represent the province against a team from the northwest states in Victoria on Saturday afternoon.

Victoria Forfeits.

The special committee appointed to investigate the charges laid by Victoria in the recent game with the V. A. C. handed down a decision Saturday evening allowing the game to stand as a win for the Mann cup-holders. Victoria's chances of winning a protest flickered out when they left the field with only one minute to play.

SECOND ELEVEN COME IN AHEAD

Number Two Cricketers Win From Britannia High School by 98 Runs to 72.

The second 11 won a closely fought cricket game from the Brittania high school in Vancouver Saturday afternoon, the final scores being 98 to 72.

J. Annandale came to the front as a batsman, punishing the bowlers to the extent of 42 runs. Of these only six were singles so that the home fielders were kept on the move during his stay at the wickets. A. B. Tigar helped out considerably with 28. For the Vancouver team, Mr. Dunning, the head master of the school, saved his team from a bad defeat by making a creditable 21 not out. The scores are as follows:

SCHOOL LACROSSE

Two First Class Games Played on Saturday.

The schools lacrosse league, which is the commencement of a revival of the Canadian summer pastime in the Royal City, got away to a good start on Saturday morning, two games being played between twelves from the different schools.

On Moody park the West End No. 3 firehall boys team defeated the Maple Leafs bya score 8 to 3, while the Richard McBride scholars slipped one over the Lord Kelvin aggregation on the Queens park grounds to the tune of 10 to 2. Both of these games were well contested.

The line-up of the Richard McBride-Lord Kelvin game was as follows:

Richard McBride—Little, W. Chambers, L. Barry, G. Runacres, H. Garrett, W. McKenzie, McQuarrie, F. Doyle, E. Troutman, W. Saint, N. House, J. Rennie.

SPORT CHATTER.

(By the Potter.)

Fred Taylor may be some hockey star, but he failed to show anything extraordinary on Saturday and Con got so disgusted that he pulled him out in the last quarter.

Joe Gorman made a good showing and followed up his stunt with the Tecumsehs last season, notching a pretty goal, the first in the game, and the first for Joe on the coast.

Billy West is playing a phenominal game this season and is giving Tulip Turnbull no little trouble on the scoring line.

The way in which Grumpy Spring upset Griffith in the last quarter was one of the comical incidents of the afternoon. They way in which Griffith retaliated was one of the disgusting events of the afternoon.

Con Jones' new $40,000 park which he told the eastern magnates about looked pretty good, although, for the benefit of the westerners, let it be known that Mister Jones simply has a lease of eight Saturdays for the year 1913.

And after Saturday's game Vancouver money will begin to pour into the city. Many of the backers of the green shirts are likely to be stung on this risky business.

The defeat is attributed to the celebration the evening previous, when the boys helped Hughie Gifford realize the fact that he was 21 years of age. Manager Gifford comes through with the remark that hereafter any more birthdays will have to be celebrated during the winter months.

Nay, nay, Pauline, the Minto cup is still resting in the Carnegie library with plenty of offers to renew the insurance policy.

Guess the amateurs threw a shock into the Mann cuppers when they tied up the score in the third period. A little strengthening of the defence and Manager Turnbull will make them take the count for the rest of the season. The team is the youngest and lightest that has yet represented the Royal City in the amateur league and tells the tale of what can be done with a practically raw aggregation as faced Dad Turnbull when he lined them up three weeks ago.

St. Louis college track team showed the Vancouver schools the way to win a relay race on Saturday afternoon. This is not the first time that this institution has won distinction on the athletic field.

New Westminster will soon hold its own as a real cricket centre, unless the local teams take an awful slump. Five straight wins for the first eleven and an even break for the "A" team is going some.

Dangle a collection of medals in front of a bunch of school boys and, no matter what sport it is, they will fall for it. The schools lacrosse league got away to a good start Saturday and every aggregation entered is after the Joe Lally cup and medallions.

THEY HEAVED 'EM WILD

Ball Players from City Have Hard Times.

Port Coquitlam, June 1.—The Westminster baseball nine took the local team into camp yesterday afternoon to the tune of 7 to 6. The game was a series of errors on both sides, no less than 17 frenzied chucks wending their way into the nine innings.

Old Bill Sayce engaged to do the twirling for the Royals and was lucky to get away with a win, for no less than 16 hits were garnered from his offerings. Ruyle, of Coquitlam, lasted three stanzas and then gave way to Kennedy, who pitched steady ball until the seventh when he passed four men and a wild throw resulted in four runs. Kennedy lost the game in the ninth when he did the Merkle stunt by failing to touch third, stretching a two bagger into a home run when Mallen lost the ball.

The score:	R.	H.	E
Westminster	7	7	9
Coquitlam	6	16	8

Batteries: Sayce and Gentry; Ruyle, Kennedy and Imming.

At Fraser Mills.

The Royals were pounded all over the lot at Fraser Mills yesterday, the lumber shovers coming through with 10 tallies to the locals' 2.

The failure of several of the players selected to turn up accounted for the poor showing. No less than seven errors made their appearance on the score card against the Royals.

Sayce lasted six innings, giving way to Silver, who pitched good ball, but was given poor support.

MONTREAL FIGHTS FOR GRAIN TRADE

Nearly Half of Canada's Wheat Has Been Flowing Through American Channels.

Montreal, June 1.—Statistics published during the last year showing that nearly 44 per cent of Canadian wheat found its way to Europe via Buffalo, the Erie canal and New York, startled Canadian shipipng men and aroused them to put forth special efforts for the retaining of the grain export business.

As a result of their efforts the new transfer terminal elevator in Montreal was pushed to completion and additions built to the existing elevators, which practically doubled the grain handling capacity of the port. As a result of these and other improvements, the exports of grain in 1912 showed an increase of 14,500,000 bushels over the corresponding figures for the previous year.

The present harbor commissioners are busily engaged in carrying to completion the many schemes started by their predecessors in office. At the opening of navigation, they announced several important improvements which they hope to rush to completion during the present year.

While, in a sense, these have to do with such prosaic things as the building of additional docks, wharves, the turning aside of the channel, the building of additional railway lines, etc., etc., the improvements will mean much to the efficiency of the port and will greatly increase the handling capacity of the elevators.

Diverting Current.

The first important work to be completed this year is the diverting of the St. Mary's current, which will be done through the building of guard piers. Following this diversion of the current, the wharfage space between sections 2 and 35 will be completed and new docks and sheds erected. The Alexandra, King Edward and Jacques Cartier piers will be extended by the building of 250 feet additional which will enable two of the largest vessels to dock along each side of these piers.

In adidtion a 500-foot wharf is to be built at Point aux Trembles and other minor improvements made to existing piers along the river front from Montreal to Maisonneuve. Insofar as the grain busines is concerned, the chief improvement will be the addition of 1,'500,000 bushels to the capacity of elevator No. 1 and the building of additional conveyor galleries in connection with elevator No. 2.

The harbor commissioners expect that these improvements to the docks and the increase in elevator capacity, will enable them to handle several million bushels more than was possible a year ago.

New Lines Coming.

Last year the number of sea-going vessels that arrived in Montreal was 415 with a tonnage of 1,790,518, as compared with 398 vessels of 1,178,354 tons in 1911. This year it is expected that the number of vessels entering the port will exceed those of last year and consequently the tonnage will be largely increased.

One new line, the French line, is coming to Montreal this year for the first time, while some of the old lines are increasing the number of their boats coming into the harbor. In addition, the installation of a floating drydock in Montreal coupled with the years of agitation for a lower insurance rate, is gradually bearing fruit.

While no actual reduction in insurance rates has been accomplished to date, the fact that a drydock capable of making repairs is located here, has given owners of tramp steamers additional confidence in the route, and as a result more of this class of boats are coming to Montreal than was the case a year ago. As they are the greatest carriers of grain and other commodities, their presence is greatly desired by shippers.

Want It All.

Altogether the long years of improvements, which resulted in some $38,000,000 being expended on the St. Lawrence channel and on the port of Montreal, are bearing fruit. The route has had to contend with many obstacles and live down an unenviable reputation among shipping men.

This is gradually being accomplished and every year sees more vessels come to the port and more business being handled. The business men of the country, however, will not rest content until practically all the grain from western Canada finds its outlet to the old country via Montreal instead of allowing, as heretofore, nearly 44 per cent. to go through American channels.

JURY DISAGREES IN TRIAL OF SPINTLUM

Vernon, B. C., June 1.—Following a splendid address by the solicitor for the defense in the Paul Spintlum case, in which Spintlum, an Indian, is charged with the murder of Provincial Constable Kindness, which occurred on May 3 of last year, the case went to the jury.

After being out seven hours and three minutes, the jurors returned to the court room and the foreman declared that they had been unable to agree. They were then discharged.

NELSON WILL HOLD BIG ROSE FESTIVAL.

Nelson, June 1.—A rose festival, the first of the kind to be held in Canada, will be the feature of the proposed flower show.

It has been decided by the Nelson Improvement association that 50 cents shall be charged for membership to the Nelson rose festival, which will include the privilege of exhibiting and admission to the show.

Where the head of a family is a member of the festival it was decided that children would be allowed to make exhibits free of charge.

DEMAND SAME RIGHTS AS AMERICAN SISTERS

London, May 31.—The question of the right of English women to plead in the courts enjoying the same privilege as their American sisters, is to be put to the test in an important case to be argued here shortly.

Miss Gwynette Marjorie Bebb, a graduate of Girton College, is suing the incorporated law society, which bars her entrance to the legal profession as a solicitor. The woman's movement is taking great interest in the case, urging that as twenty thousand women lawyers are practicing in the United States, the time is ripe for the same right to be extended to English women.

New Mill Equipping.

Castlegar, B. C., June 1.—The new machinery from Hamilton for the Edgewood Lumber company is being installed as rapidly as possible and it is expected to be working to full capacity within the week. A large gang of carpenters has been busy for three or four weeks erecting new planing mill buildings. When all new work is completed this mill will have a greatly increased output and will be the most up-to-date mill in the interior.

South Pole Heroes' Relics.

London, June 1.—The two Union Jacks that swathed the body of Dr. Wilson, Captain Scott's comrade, when found by the search party in the Antarctic, have been presented by his widow to Gloucester cathedral, where they will be hung among other historical memorials.

ANOTHER SEALER GOES

San Francisco Interests Acquire Markland for Mexican Trade

Victoria, June 1.—Another deal has been completed by the Victoria Sealing company, resulting in the disposal of the famous schooner Markland. It was announced yesterday by Mr. Frank Adams, director of the company, that the Markland had been sold to Messrs. W. Loiza & Co., of San Francisco, who acquired the vessel with a view to converting her into a trading boat to be operated between ports on the Mexican coast.

The transfer figure was between $5000 and $6000. The Markland, which is one of the few old sealers that were not disposed of at the Point Ellice sale, is practically as sound as when she was built, and as she is a beamy vessel will make a good carrier for the trade off the South American coast.

The deal was completed yesterday. It is the intention of the company to fit out the vessel immediately and dispatch her to San Francisco under her own sail. Before the Markland continues her run to Mexico she will have power installed. This work will be carried on at the Golden Gate port under the direction of her new owners. Other sales are now pending and it is expected that within a short time the disposal of the sealing schooners Lady Mine, Diam and Teressa will be effected.

KITCHEN SHOWER.

Household Articles Masquerading In Many Amusing Disguises.

A kitchen shower may be lifted out of the commonplace and be made interesting, even artistic and certainly amusing by dressing up each article given until it looks like something else.

The costuming needed for such masquerading is plenty of crape paper, bolts of cheap baby ribbon and a paper of pins.

A clotheshorse, two or three ply, could be hung on each side with brown paper to resemble a screen of hard wood. Even more amusing would be a decorated screen with caricatures drawn or pasted to the flat paper surface.

The rolling pin may be rolled with blue or pink paper tied on the handles with fluffy bows and have a veil neatly fastened round it to represent a veil roll.

Clothesline can be rolled round and round and woven into place with baby ribbon until it looks like one of the woven mats used for front steps.

Decorate buckets and wooden pails with paper, frills and paper flowers until they resemble gay trash baskets.

Get a half dozen flat wire egg beaters, tie the handles of two together with light wire and make a wire hook to resemble a coat hanger. Wind the entire framework with strips of crape paper and tie on a huge tissue paper bow. Give a set of three of the hangers.

Fashion a jardiniere made from the lid of a wooden box, in which put, point down, a fence of paring knives with the handles up. Weave in strips of crape paper in several colors and leave only the tips of the handles showing as a border. Fill the center with a potted plant.

Egg beaters and potato mashers make amusing dolls, with heads made from potatoes, apples or painted rags and a body made, so the utensil will stand, from rolls of cardboard. Dress in tissue paper hat and gown.

Clothespins may be turned into amusing dolls with crape paper, using marshmallows for heads, each decorated with features in black ink. To present these dolls erect fill a long baking dish with moss or sand and stick the pins into it. Drape the pan with double frills of neutral tinted paper, so as not to detract from the gayety of the dolls.

It adds to the fun if the hostess gives prizes for the best disguise, the most artistic and the most grotesque; also prizes for those of her guests who get greatest and the second greatest list of utensils before the masquerade is revealed.

"Futurist" Hats Latest In Paris.

One of the striking features of spring millinery, says a Paris rumor, will be "futurist" hats. The futurist painters have succeeded in covering themselves with ridicule, but Parisian milliners believe that better luck is in store for futurist hats.

These will be of no particular shape or form, but some of the promised color combinations are almost too daring to believe. For instance, with a hat made of picot straw, leghorn or horsehair will be seen bright blue, cerise, indigo and emerald combined with Spanish yellow. One creation shows red, violet, green and yellow. Among the favorite shades will be bishop's purple, bright yellow and letter box red.

INDIAN PRINCESS MODEL.

Fruit and flowers will come back to favor as trimmings, and the apple in all shades of green, red and yellow will be held in special honor. A chic spring model is a black hat with two apples, one green and the other yellow. Plums, cherries and peaches will also be used by milliners.

Ribbons, which were banned in women's hats last year at the same time as flowers, will come into their own again for decorative purposes.

The smart spring turban in the cut rises to a peak at the front or shoots out into a propeller at the back. This hat of the former type is in the Indian princess style, with a high question mark trimming placed directly in the front of the hat.

For the Fireside.

Nothing is more useful as a fireside log basket than one made of willow. These baskets are especially attractive, inasmuch as they can be stained to suit one's room.

The strike of the employees of the Halifax electric tramway was ended on the acceptance of the offer of the company to increase the rate of pay.

Of nine boys arrested on a charge of stealing from the Intercolonial railway at Moncton, N. B., five pleaded guilty, and were remanded. It was stated that they had a club, and used a Bible to swear in new members.

TALL ADVERTISING.

Sign a Mile Long Should Help Hamilton's Publicity.

Hamilton, June 1.—Hamilton may soon enjoy the fame of possessing an electric sign one mile long and 100 feet high on the mountain brow. Such a unique advertising scheme was discussed this morning by Controller Morris and Engineer Sifton, and both are impressed with its possibilities.

In fact, they have no hesitation in saying that the plan is entirely feasible, and that as an advertisement to Hamilton, in owning the largest sign in the world, it would receive widespread recognition. The intention is to place the proposed sign either on the mountain brow or along the face. It would be built of steel, with letters 100 feet high, and would extend from Sherman avenue to Wellington street, which is one mile.

The proposal is to have these words on it: "Hamilton, Cheap Power." It could be seen for a long distance, and Controller Morris announced that the question would be considered by the hydro board on Wednesday.

An expert in steel construction estimates the cost of such a sign at not less than $100,000. e says that the steel would have to be heavy to stand the strain at such a dizzy height of 100 feet, and points out that the cost of maintenance would be very heavy.

PLAN BIG IMPROVEMENT AT LUCKY JIM MINE

Nelosn, June 1.—Plans for leasing and remodelling a concentrating mill of 100 tons daily capacity at a cost of $10,000 for remodelling is being considered by the directors of the Lucky Jim Zinc Mines, Limited, according to a statement received by Spokane stockholders from T. G. Proctor, the managing director.

This, it is caiculated, will release for profit ore of a milling grade above the fifth level estimated to have a net value of $217,060 to the company after the duty had been paid. If the duty is removed upwards of $40,000 may be added to the profits.

Testing Rossland Cattle.

Rossland June 1.—B. R. Isley, provincial veterinary inspector, has been here from Victoria for several days past. He is inspecting all the cattle of the dairies in Rossland vicinity for possible tuberculosis. There are some sixty dairies in Rossland and vicinity, and it will take him about ten days to finish the inspection. Before coming here he had tested about 1,200 dairy cattle on Vancouver Island. Mr. Isley's home is at Vernon.

Rubber Boots His Doom.

Leamington, Ont., June 1.—Dennis Lidwell, a boatman, and son of the keeper of the lighthouse at Pelee Island, was returning from the Pelee Island fishing grounds with a party of two Americans when the launch was overturned in a heavy sea. The two Americans were saved by the crew of the Alfred Clark, but owing to Lidwell wearing heavy rubber boots he was unable to rise and was lost.

Goes to U. S. University.

Toronto, June 1.—Rev. Dr. Kerr Duncan McMillan, associate professor in church history in Princeton university theological seminary, has been appointed president of Wells' college, Auburn, N. Y., and will assume his duties in September. Dr. McMillan is a son-in-law of Z. A. Nash, K. C. He was born in Mount Forest, Ont., and was educated at Upper Canada college and Toronto university. He obtained his theological training at Princeton. During his college course here Dr. McMillan was prominent in athletics and in the university societies.

LAW FOR LAW'S SAKE

H. M. LUDWIG HAS NO USE FOR BUSINESS-BARRISTERS.

The New President of the Ontario Bar Association Thinks the Mixture of Law and Business Will Have a Deteriorating Effect on the Bar In Ontario, and Urges Strongly Against It.

"In my opinion—law is a profession and not a side-line to a business. A lawyer has no business in real estate or company management, at the expense of his legal work. If this kind of thing keeps up, where are we going to get our real leaders of the bar?"

The opinions with the question tagged on were given by Mr. H. M. Ludwig, who has been made president of the Ontario Bar Association. He takes the place of Mr. Nickel, K.C., of Belleville, last year's president. Mr. Ludwig is as well known as any lawyer in Ontario to members of the honorable profession. He has held all the positions which a barrister may fill who gives attention to the broader aspects of law.

He observes degenerating tendencies in the mixture of law and business, which, if unchecked, may do away with really impressive arguments in the courts. His view of the law is that of an artist—law for the law's sake. Great pictures are not painted nor great books written by men engaged in side lines; nor should legal interpretations of weight be the work of lawyers distracted by remote interests.

MR. H. M. LUDWIG, K.C.

President Ludwig is one of the most distinguished graduates of Osgoode Hall Law School. He won the medal in every year of his course, and graduated with the gold medal. In 1892 he was president of the Osgoode Legal and Literary Society, in days when an election at the school was the event of the year. During 1892-3-4 he was examiner of the Law Society. In 1910 he was made K.C. Mr. Ludwig, for twenty-six years, has been of the firm of Ritchie, Ludwig and Ballantyne.

Commons Howlers.

The Lower House in England is more prolific in quantity, if not in quality, in its stock of howlers than the Lords, seeing that it has so many more opportunities.

Capt. Craig, the fiery Ulsterman, cooked the following oratorical stew. "The naked sword is drawn for the fight, and never again will the black smoke of the Nationalists' tar barrels drift on the Home Rule wind to darken the hearts of Englishmen." If anything could kill Home Rule, one would think that would.

A Nationalist member, upon a recent occasion, was pouring ridicule upon the fact that farms from which both tenants and live stock had been evicted were under police protection. "What foolishness!" he said. "when all the beasts on it are the sea-gulls that fly over it!"

Sir W. Hart Dyke was criticizing the Standing Order forbidding peers from speaking during general elections. Someone had quoted Lord Halsbury as doing so, and Sir William solemnly said: "I must admit that the honorable gentleman has gone to the top of the tree and caught a very large fish."

Diner's Wanderings.

One of the latest West End characters in London is the perambulating diner. The person in question, an elderly man, entered a restaurant in Soho, and in a moment was supplied with a dish of five oysters and a glass of water. The diner, who had not said a word, ate the oysters thoughtfully emptied the glass, paid the waiter, and in five minutes had left. "He's off to ——'s for the soup," said the waiter. "He never has more than one course at any place. With the soup he will have half a bottle of white wine and some toast. Then he will go to a third place for the fish, and to a fourth for something from the grill. With this he will have half a bottle of burgundy. He never has any sweets or cheese, but finishes at a fifth restaurant, where he gets the best coffee. He told me one evening that he found out five restaurants in Soho each of which excelled in a certain dish. He says the little walk between each course helps his digestion. A dinner takes him about two hours."

The Difference.

A good story against himself is told by the Archbishop of Canterbury. When he was a curate at Thirlford he conducted a Sunday school class in a neighboring parish. The subject was King Solomon, and after the lesson he catechised the children. "Tell me, boys," he said, "what was the difference between Solomon and other men?" There was no answer. "Come, come," said the future primate, "was there any difference, for instance, between King Solomon and myself?" A small hand went up and a tiny voice replied, "Please, sir, Solomon was wise."

WAR ON HATPINS.

Seattle Passes Stringent By-law—Follows Australian Lead.

Seattle, June 1.—The deadly hatpin ordinance was recommended for passage by the public safety committee yesterday. Inasmuch as it requires but five votes for passage and Councilman Max Wardall is the only unmarried member of the executive body, the bill probably will receive not fewer than eight of the nine votes in the council.

Section one of the bill as as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person to wear or use in the city of Seattle any hatpin or other instrument for the fastening or securing of hats or other head coverings so that the sharp end of such hatpin or other instrument shall project more than one and one-quarter inches from the crown of such hat or covering; or so that the same shall extend beyond the rim of such hat or covering, or so that the shall shall extend or project in any manner from such hat or head covering as to be likely to, or in such manner as might wound any person or thing or endanger life or property."

Section two of the bill fixes a maximum penalty of a fine of $100 or thirty days in jail, or both, for violation of the regulation.

TRUE TILL DEATH.

Aged Millwright Loses His Life Fighting Fire at Mill.

Cochrane, Junet 1.—Henry Laduc, 68 years of age, and for the past three years millwright at the Boivin Lumber company, gave his life on Thursday night in a heroic attempt to extinguish a fire which started from some unknown cause and for a time threatened to burn the $25,000 mill and lumber valued at about $75,000.

With two other men he was working overtime and was the first to discover the blaze. In the excitement of running for water his heart was affected and he fell dead in a pile of burning shavings, after he had emptied the bucket on the fire. His workmates rushed to the prostrate body, but the old man was passed human assistance.

After his body had been removed to a place of safety the manager put out the fire. But for the aged millwright's first thought of saving his employer's property there is no telling what the loss might have been. Laduc is survived by a wife in Ottawa.

LITTLE MARY'S BILL

Hour's Lovemaking Over Phone Cost Her Sweetheart $1 Per Minute

Bethleham, Pa., June 1.—Mary Smak a pretty Hungarian domestic, not knowing what the rules or regulations of the telephone company were, decided to call her sweetheart on the telephone at Cleveland. She went into the booth in Gottlief Huebner's candy store today and called the operators and after a short delay was connected with Cleveland.

Fifty-eight minutes she remained there in what has proved to be the new long distance love making record in eastern Pennsylvania. After she was through Mr. Huebner went into the phone office to get the amount of the toll, and to his consternation he was told that the bill was $58. He informed the pretty girl, who fainted. She earns only $2.50 a week and Huebner will have to foot the bill and trust to her paying him in driblets.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. ¶ The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. ¶ It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. ¶ This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. ¶ You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

THROWN FROM CAR

Miss G. Simpson Injured on Sapperton Line.

A serious accident occurred on the Sapperton hill last evening when Miss G. Simpson, of this city, was thrown from a Sapperton car with enough violence to make it imperative for her to be removed to the Royal Columbian hospital.

Miss Simpson was traveling on the car from the Columbia street depot and, according to eyewitnesses, gave the signal to stop opposite the penitentiary gates. For some yet unknown reason, it is said, the car failed to pull up and in making the curve at the foot of the hill, Miss Simpson, who was standing in the vestibule, was thrown to the street. She was picked up and taken at once to the hospital where it was found that, although no bones had been broken, she had sustained severe bruises which necessitated her being kept in the institution overnight.

Meeting Postponed.

Owing to the Conservative convention in the arena, Queens park, this evening, the meeting of Coquitlam ratepayers called for tonight, at the Burquitlam agricultural hall, with the object of protesting against the establishment of the municipal hall in Maillardville, has been postponed until tomorrow (Tuesday) night.

OBITUARY.

GALBRAITH—One of New Westminster's well known young men passed away suddenly on Saturday, when Herbert Galbraith died at the family residence, 131 Eighth street.

Deceased was 30 years of age and was born in New Brunswick. He came with his parents to this city 28 years ago and has lived here ever since. His parents predeceased him.

Mr. Galbraith was for some years a star player on the old West End lacrosse team and also played with the senior amateurs for some time. He retired from the game a few years ago.

Six brothers are left to mourn his loss, James, Jack, Dave, Barlow, Charlie and Robert.

Eldon and Miss Cooper are nephew and niece of deceased.

Mr. Galbraith took sick last Thursday, but it was not thought that he was seriously ill. He grew worse on Saturday and, despite the efforts of several physicians, succumbed early in the evening.

The funeral will be held from the residence this afternoon. The following will act as pall-bearers: Elsworth Munn, Bert Gilley, George Grimston, Walker Sangster and Sandy Gray.

SINCLAIR—The remains of baby Sinclair, infant son of Dr. and Mrs Sinclair, of Cloverdale, were shipped to Cloverdale on Saturday by S. Bowell.

SMITH—William T. Smith, aged 56 years, died in New Westminster on Friday evening. Deceased was formerly of Vancouver and Victoria and has lived in the province for a number of years. The funeral arrangements are in charge of S. Bowell.

ANGUS—The death occurred on Saturday of Winnifred Beatrice Angus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus, of Jubilee. Deceased was ten years of age. The funeral wil lbe held today from the family residence. Rev. Mr Dunn will officiate.

CRAWFORD—William Reid, two year old son of James and Mrs. Crawford, of Gifford, died suddenly on Saturday afternoon of diphtheria. The boy was brought to this city for treatment and an operation was found necessary. He died a short time after the operation. The funeral was held yesterday.

CAMPBELL—The funeral of the late Archibald D. Campbell took place on Saturday from Bowell's undertaking parlors, Rev. J. G. Bowell officiating.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Meeting This Afternoon Will Arrange Details.

A special meeting of all members of the W. C. T. U. has been called for this afternoon at 3 o'clock to complete arrangements for the convention to be held the third week in June. The meeting will be held in the Queens Avenue Methodist church.

June 16 to 19 are the dates set for the convention, which will sit in St. Patrick's hall. The second day will be the big one and Rev. W. B. Hinson, of Portland, will be the chief speaker on that occasion.

The details in connection with the program and the arrangements for the entertainment of delegates will be worked out at the meeting today.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY.

Next Saturday Citizens Will Have a Chance to Contribute.

Next Saturday it is expected that every citizen will be seen wearing a little silk badge and, as there is a lacrosse game at Queens park it is expected that many visitors will be similarly decorated. The badges will indicate that the person has donated at least ten cents towards furnishing the new Royal Columbian hospital. Whether he donates ten cents or ten dollars the badges are the same and on one will be completely in style until he does the necessary and acquires the latest.

The scheme is being undertaken by the women's auxiliary of the hospital and will be in charge of Mrs. R. Sutherland, Mrs. D. Walker, Miss Wright, Miss S. F. Armstrong, Mrs. J. E. Insley, Mrs. Manchester, Mrs. C. W. Houghton, Mrs. A. H. Gordon and Mrs. W. Elson.

"GET THE HABIT"

COLUMBIA

Graphophones and Grafonolas are without a peer in the musical world. They are capable of reproducing not merely one class of instrumental music, but every class of instrumental music with a fidelity that is no less than flawless—the violin, the 'cello, the harp, the flute, the clarinet, the cornet—all the wind instruments, all the instruments of bands and orchestras—all the instrumental music of all the world.

Not only this, but the human voice is now so perfectly recorded and so flawlessly reproduced that the home without a COLUMBIA has become as incomplete as a piano without a keyboard. "HEARING IS BELIEVING."

Hornless Machines from $18.00 each to $650.00 each.
