British T[illegible]s Unbeaten When Obliged To Retreat

Kitchener's Second Army of 100,000 Men About Recruited —"A Call to Arms! Enlist for the War Only."

London, Aug. 26.—The reports in regard to the battle in Belgium where the falling back of the French forces also compelled the retirement of the British, show from all accounts that the English behaved with the utmost gallantry. They were unbeaten when the general situation necessitated General Joffre's order for a retirement all along the line. England has received the news of the loss of 2,000 men calmly, although it is her greatest loss in one battle since the Crimea. The list of casualties has still not been published, leaving many thousands of relatives and friends worrying.

When the lists are published they are likely to have the effect of fully arousing the British lion. Earl Kitchener's army of 100,000 men is now practically recruited, but thousands of more men are needed and a vigorous campaign to obtain recruits is being instituted. The latest effort is the posting of flaming posters in the taxicabs. They are "A call to arms, enlist for the war only."

Germans Lost Three to One.

London, Aug. 26.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Express says that it is estimated that in the three days' battle the Germans lost in the proportion of three to one of those of the allied troops.

French Confident of Victory.

Paris, Aug. 26.—The tenseness and uncertainty that has dominated the population was relieved tonight by the very frankness of the newspapers in admitting the turn if the three days' battle.

"At last we know where we are," is the common remark of one person to another, but doubt of ultimate success has never entered the mind of any one.

The Journale Des Bates says:

"It is a check. In the Lorraines we have resorted to defensive measures on account of being outnumbered."

NAMUR FORTS STILL DEFY EFFORTS OF GERMANS

London, Aug. 26, 12 midnight—The following official announcement has been issued at Antwerp, according to the Reuter correspondent there:

"The Belgian operations have succeeded in the double object of diminishing the German entrenchments and drawing the German troops on the line between Malines and Brussels and thus reducing the pressure on the French positions. They have compelled the fourth German division, which was advancing southward, to retrace its steps. The fourth Belgian division at Namur has fulfilled its task, arresting the German column and allowing the Belgians to retire on the French lines.

"The Namur forts are still holding out."

DEAD BODIES LITTER ROADS IN VICINITY OF BRUSSELS

Amsterdam, Aug. 26.—Via London, 11:35 p. m.—The Telegraaf's Antwerp correspondent wires that fighting was resumed this morning in the vicinity of Malines, where the Belgians have been engaged daily with German advance troops.

"The road from Malines toward Vilvoorden, six miles northeast of Brussels," the correspondent adds, "is littered with bodies of men and horses, while in the fields pasturing cattle have been killed by shrapnel. The Belgians captured one field gun.

"Everything in Brussels is going on the same as before the German occupation."

The correspondent says that it is reported that it is the Duke of Brunswick who has occupied the royal palace at Lycken. The Duke of Brunswick married Princess Victoria Luise of Hohenzollern, daughter of the emperor of Germany.

PRINCE DIED LIKE A MAN

Frederick William of Lippe Shot at Head of His Men Before Liege.

Rome, Aug. 26.—How Prince Frederick William of Lippe died in the fighting before Liege is described tersely in a despatch received here today from the headquarters of the German army. The prince's infantry regiment was surrounded by the Belgians under the walls of Liege and he was struck by two bullets while standing in front of his men. The bullets took effect in the prince's neck and chest and he died immediately.

French Guns Most Deadly

Secret of Manufacture Kept Tightly Locked From Prying Eyes.

Washington, Aug. 26.—When the news came that the kaiser's Uhlans had been mowed down by French machine guns in the skirmish at Saint Croix, some of the United States army officers watching the European situation exclaimed: "I told you so."

The eyes of every artillery officer in the world are today following the French artillery, on which is pinned the hope of France to whip the Germans.

Will the French artillery, admittedly the best in the world, wreak the havoc in the German ranks that has been predicted? Will the new pieces of the French repeat the awful slaughter for which their old pieces were responsible in the Balkan war of a little more than a year ago? At that time the Servians, in particular, were armed with the murderous French guns and swept from the field the opposing Turks armed with German guns.

If the French artillery refuses in this war to meet the expectations of France, then every nation in the world, which has been copying it will begin to work on new lines, for, it is predicted, a failure of the artillery will mean the defeat of the French.

The French since the time of Napoleon have specialized in artillery, and their guns of today, with their handling, form the backbone of the army.

Guns Made in Secret.

The guns are manufactured in secret, such is the value placed on them. The famous Dreyfus affair of fifteen years ago, grew, in part, out of the suspicion that the secret of their manufacture had been sold to Germany. Friendly as France is to her Russian ally, she has never even lent to Russia any of her newer models.

French Repulse.

London, Aug. 26.—German forces delivered an attack on the French frontier Tuesday. They were repulsed and retired all along the line.

DECORATIONS NOW BARRED

Russia Positively Forbids Officers to Wear Enemy's Decorations.

London, Aug. 26.—The St. Petersbrug correspondent of the Times says:

"Military circles are much impressed by an order dismissing the German and Austrian sovereigns and princes from the honorary colonelships in Russian regiments and depriving them of Russian decorations.

"This has never been done in any war. The emperor has positively forbidden Russian officers to wear German or Austrian decorations. These extreme measures are due to the alleged inhuman treatment of Russian subjects by Germans and Austrians and to the indignities said to have been inflicted on members of the Russian imperial family."

FATAL COLLISION NEAR SEATTLE

Steamer Princess Victoria Rams and Sinks the Admiral Sampson.

Accident Due to Fog and Smoke—Eleven Lives Lost—Capt. Moore Goes Down with Ship

Seattle, Aug. 26.—Eleven lives were lost when the steel passenger steamer Admiral Sampson, of the Pacific Alaska Navigation company, was rammed and sunk by the Canadian Pacific passenger steamship Princess Victoria off Point-No-Point, 20 miles north of Seattle, at 6:30 o'clock this morning, during fog and thick smoke from forest fires. The Princess Victoria brought the survivors to Seattle. Eight of the lost were members of the crew, and three passengers. The dead among the crew are:

Captain Z. S. Moore, Third Cook L. Cabnas, First Wireless Operator W. E. Ricker, Stewardess Miss Campbell, Seaman C. Marquette, Watchman A. Sater, Chief Engineer Allen J. Noon, Mess Boy J. B. Williams.

When the collision took place the oil tank on the Sampson exploded and A. L. Button, a tourist of New York city, was covered with flames. He was rescued alive, but died just as the Princess Victoria reached Seattle. The other passengers drowned were G. W. Bryant, a painter, bound for Seward, Alaska, and Mrs. Ruby Banbury, wife of George Banbury, clerk for the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamship company, Seattle.

On the Princess Victoria the Sampson's purser called the roll of passengers as made up by him and six persons did not respond. However, the list may have been inaccurate, or persons who bought tickets may not have boarded the boat.

The Princess Victoria took most of the passengers from the Sampson off while still locked with the Alaska boat after the collision. The Princess Victoria did not pull loose until the Sampson was about to go down. The Victoria hit the Sampson abaft of the bow at about a quarter angle. The Victoria on arrival here showed a large hole in her bow, being split back about twenty feet and choked with wreckage from the Sampson.

After the collision Captain Moore handled the crew of his ship admirably, directing the rescue of the passengers. The Sampson dived to the bottom head foremost. Captain Moore ran to the stern and waved his hand as he was carried down with the ship. Many of the passengers of the Sampson were asleep at the time of the accident; some were rescued only partly clad.

Death Warrant of Defenders

Kaiser's Orders to Germans at Tsing Tau Means Annihilation.

Peking, Aug. 25.—A letter received here from an American at Tsingtau, the seaport of the German territory of Kiau Chau, says it is considered there that Emperor William's cablegram to the garrison to resist to the uttermost is virtually the death warrant of every member of the force.

The Germans are detaining by force a large number of coolies, evidently for military labor, in and about Tsingtau.

The writer of this letter says furthermore that Horace Remillard, American vice-consul at Tsingtau, who left before railroad communication was broken, took with him the archives of the American, British and Russian consulates.

Peking has no information of the landing of Japanese forces at Kiau Chau. The British and French regiments, which supposedly are to take part in the land operations against Kiau Chau, are still at Tien Tsin.

The Japanese minister to China visited the foreign office yesterday and requested the removal of the limitation to thirty miles on the fighting area around Tsintau, which had been fixed by the Chinese. The foreign office declined his request.

CHARGE OF MURDER AGAINST WM. COLE

The first murder trial for the fall criminal assizes has been marked on the docket with the committal of William Cole at Steveston on Tuesday on a charge of fatally shooting Frank Harper last Friday night. Magistrate McKee conducted the preliminary hearing, the accused not being represented by counsel and reserved his defence until the assize court opens. George Cassady, of the law firm of McQuarrie, Martin & Cassady, appeared for the attorney general at the hearing.

MONTANA MINERS LOOK FOR TROUBLE

Butte, Mont., Aug. 26.—More than one thousand insurgent miners have marched to the mines with announced purposes of preventing any Western Federation of Miners descending to work. A mysterious killing occurred late this afternoon in the headquarters of the insurgent miners. Serious trouble is feared.

German Cruiser Leipzig West of Vancouver Island

Cruisers Rainbow, Montcalm and Idzuma Have Been Notified and Started a Systematic Search of the Pacific.

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—Word has been received that the German cruiser Leipzig is cruising in the Pacific ocean west of Vancouver island. It is thought probable that the enemy is in the track of vessels going and returning from the Orient with the hopes of picking up a rich prize.

The authorities at Esquimalt have been notified and the Rainbow, belonging to the Canadian navy, the protected cruiser Montcalm, and the Japanese cruiser Idzuma have been communicated with and have started to run down the German cruiser.

It is also considered possible that the Leipzig may make an attempt to bombard one of the cities on the British Columbia coast and replenish her supply of coal. All coast cities have been notified and every precaution taken to prevent any damage being done or the enemy securing a further supply of coal.

INDIGNITIES TO AMERICANS

Terrible Tales Are Told by Returning Americans of Insults.

London, Aug. 25—Stories of German indignities to American women were told today by a number of Americans who returned from the continent.

Blame for such treatment was placed on the civil authorities. In one instance it was said by a member of a party of Chicago people that at a place near Aix-La-Chapelle, several women were stripped by order of the officials, while the men in the party were unaware of what was happening except in the case of one young woman. In this case the woman, after being escorted to a room, was there stripped in the presence of an official, who is said to have been a count, known in Washington and other American cities some years ago. Word had reached the men by this time of the indignities to the other women, and they rushed to the door and flung it open, finding the woman hysterical. A serious encounter was almost precipitated. While blows were averted, the American told the German that he would use the last ounce of energy in his body to bring about a reckoning. Some day, he said, he would hunt him out and settle with him personally. He said he would lay the matter before the American government. While they were unwilling to have the names of the insulted women known publicly, several members of the party said today to American friends that they were not averse to having the indignities known.

Dr. B. G. Collins, of Pasadena, Cal., who was a member of the party of ninety-two members, told the story of the women of the party being brutally thrown from a German train at a station near the Belgian border.

"It was enough to make an American's blood boil to see women so roughly handled. In some instances they were ejected so forcibly from the train that they were thrown flat on their backs."

Lauds Loyalty of Welsh Miners

Personal Considerations Are Dropped at Outbreak of War.

Victoria, Aug. 26.—As showing the splendid spirit of the unselfishness and loyalty in which the industrial workers of the British Isles are facing the present crisis, the conduct of the Welsh coal miners stands out strikingly. Griffith R. Hughes, a local business man, who has returned from a visit to his home in Wales, made this point very clear in summing up his impressions of the situation in the old country consequent upon the outbreak of war.

"As you know," said Mr. Hughes in an interview, "there was at one time some fear of a strike among the coal miners of Wales owing to the cancellation of holidays by the government. The expressions of discontent that gave rise to this, however, emanated almost entirely from the officials of the miners' union and not from the men. If there was any discontent among the men, it was instantly and completely dissipated when the situation became critical and it was realized that Great Britain must go to war. Then the response of the miners was splendid.

Local Troubles Forgot.

Personal considerations and petty local troubles were forgotten. Not only did they forego without question the two holidays set for August 3 and 4, to which they had been looking forward, but those of them who were not attached to military corps went about their work so energetically as almost to make up for the shortage of hands resulting from the call to arms. More than this, every man of them voluntarily agreed to contribute two pence every day for the assistance of the wives and families of the soldiers who would be killed in the war.

Plenty of Fuel.

"No, we need have no fear that the British navy will lack for coal. The present output of the mines in Wales, together with the store that was laid by previous to the declaration of war, will be more than sufficient to meet the demand."

Mr. Hughes drew a parallel between the conduct of the Welsh miners and that of the factious parties in Ireland, who had not hesitated to sink their differences in the time of national danger.

Mr. Hughes was in London when

100,000 MEN FROM CANADA

Expected That the Dominion Will Furnish England a Fine Army.

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—It is stated that just as soon as the first army division leaves Valcartier for service abroad, which will probably be about the end of the first week in September, the work of recruiting a second contingent will begin. It is believed that recruiting will continue until 100,000 men have been provided, and perhaps until the close of the war, in order that the Canadian forces at the front may be kept up to full strength.

The first Canadian contingent will form part of an overseas force of 100,000 men. Australia will send 30,000, from India 40,000 will be withdrawn from the army, New Zealand's force will be over 8000, and South Africa will add 10,000 veterans.

Russian Hordes Advance Through Eastern Prussia

Onward Sweep of Cossacks Cannot Be Stayed and Many Cities Are Occupied—Opposed by Three Austrian Army Corps.

London, Aug. 26.—11:55 p.m.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Reuter Telegram company says that the Russian troops in Eastern Prussia have occupied the towns of Nordenburg, Sensburg and Bischofsburg and the railway station at Rothfliess, and adds that the Russian advance continues.

FRENCH MINISTRY HAS RESIGNED WILL FORM ANOTHER AT ONCE

Paris, Aug. 26.—11:30 p.m.—The ministry of Premier Viciani has resigned. Another will be formed immediately.

Premier Viviani visited Elysee palace at 10:15 o'clock this evening and notified President Poincare that the members of the cabinet decided to resign collectively. He said that he and his colleagues had come to the conclusion that in the circumstances through which the country was passing the machinery should have a wider scope and comprise all the best men in all the republican groupe.

President Poincare charged M. Viviani with the task of organizing a new cabinet, which the premier accomplished. He returned to Elysee about an hour later and made known to the president the composition of the new ministry.

Canadian Overseas Contingent Will Depart on Scheduled Time

Owing to European Situation There Will Be No Delay in the Boys Going to the Front Soon as Possible—Twenty Ships Required.

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—There is every likelihood that the Canadian contingent will be sent overseas earlier than was originally expected. The schedule date of departure will be adhered to, but in view of the situation in Europe, every endeavor will be made to avoid delay. There will be no unnecessary waiting. The men will leave Canada as early as possible.

Six thousand volunteers are proceeding in fifteen special trains from western points, to the Valcartier camp. By the end of the week, it is expected that the majority of the recruits will be in camp.

Arrangements are now being made for the transport of the troops to Europe. Twenty vessels at least will be required to convey the men across the Atlantic. They will be convoyed by British cruisers. The Valcartier camp will be maintained at any rate during the continuance of the war.

ALLIES GAIN MORE GROUND

Satisfactory Gains Made Between Nancy and Vosges Mountains.

Paris, Aug. 26.—11:50 p.m.—The official statement issued by the war department says:

"In the north the Franco-British lines have been moved back a short distance.

"In a general way, our offense between Nancy and Vosges makes headway. Our right, however, has been obliged to fall back slightly in the region of St. Die."

Torpedo Boats Engage in Fight

German Casualties Not Known, But British Lose Eleven Men.

Peking, Aug. 26.—Up to noon today the only engagement reported to have occurred near Tsing Tau, capital of the German protectorate of Kiao Chow, was an encounter between a German torpedo boat and a British torpedo boat, on Sunday or Monday last. The British torpedo boat returned to Wei-Hai-Wei, with a loss of eleven men killed and wounded.

The German casualties are not known.

SOX FOR THE SOLDIERS.

The ladies who provided socks for the New Westminster overseas contingent wish to carry on the work and offers to that end are solicited. Any person willing to knit socks or mitts will be provided with wool and those who cannot knit may materially aid by giving something towards the purchase of wool for the workers. The socks are to be of grey Scotch fingering, with white heels and toes. The mitts are to be of a heather mixture, fashioned with a trigger finger. Anyone who wishes to volunteer for work or desires to assist in any way may telephone No. 628, or send a post card with name and address to P. O. Box 781, City.

Rode the Guns Over Comrades

German Battery Used Dead and Dying Comrades for a Bridge.

London, Aug. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail describes a visit among the French who were wounded in the battles of the Vosges and have been brought to Vichy, whose palatial hotels have been transformed into hospitals.

"I talked with many of these wounded," he said. "Three men who fought side by side, said:

"'It is probably our own fault that we are here. Our major fell at the first volley and then all the other officers at succeeding volley. When we found ourselves without officers we, not bothering about what was going on at the front, rear or flank, fixed bayonets at 1200 yards and went at them, singing all the way. We were just fifty yards from the enemy when we were downed.'

"In an adjoining cot was a sturdy peasant, who told me this story:

"'At Circy a shell fell full on my knapsack, sending me sprawling, face downwards. I did not stir, expecting every moment to be blown to atoms. After what seemed a half hour, seeing that the shell had not exploded, I hunched up my shoulders and the shell gently rolled off. It is a pity it was so big, as otherwise I should have brought it back as a trinket for my sweetheart.'

"A wounded artilleryman contributed the following:

"'I witnessed one horrible scene. The Germans were shooting from the deep trenches among which our artillery was doing terrible work. But as fast as one German dropped another took his place until bodies of the Germans were on a level with the surface of the earthworks. At this moment a German battery was ordered to advance. The heavy wheels sank in the trench, but the drivers furiously lashed their horses and finally dragged the guns across the human bridge.'"

King George Patron of Canadian Fund

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—It is announced tonight that His Majesty the King has graciously consented to become patron of the Canadian patriotic fund.

WAR COURAGE.

Many a man in Canada, willing to go a-warring across the seas, is unwilling to fight at home—against the shadowy foes of bad times or business depression.

This is a time in Canada when Canadian business men should fight—fight to capture new trade and to hold old trade. To stop one's advertising is to withdraw a powerful offensive and defensive force, and to expose one's business without a guard.

If the courage of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers—the generals and captains of trade and industry—fails the courage of the nation will ebb.

Keep Up Your Courage!

IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY.

It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go;
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know.

Goodby, Picadilly;
Farewell, Leicester Square;
It's a long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.

The British soldiers, leaving England's shores, pushing to the front through France and engaging the Germans in Belgium all are singing the marching song of the army, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," whose words and very feeling reflect back from the army the spirit of its great director and chief, Earl Kitchener.

The most practical and most highly trained leader of the day, Great Britain's secretary for war, said at the outset of this struggle that it would be a "long way to go," and he has laid his plans and made his preparations accordingly. Kitchener has proved himself a great military commander: Omdurman and South Africa tell that tale. As an organizer he has shown that he is without an equal in the Empire and perhaps in the world. Egypt and India bear witness to that fact. Kitchener talks as little as possible, but Kitchener knows.

When Kitchener says "It's a long way to go," we may take that for granted, but that he never doubts we will get there also may be assumed.

It may be a long way to go, "But," as Tommy Atkins puts it, "my heart's right there," and while the boys in khaki are singing this jilt at the front as they swing the bayonets and point the guns, we who have been left at home can do our part in a loyal and common sense fashion to shorten the "long way to Tipperary."

WAGE QUESTION IS SATISFACTORY

Trades and Labor Committee Compliments R. C. Hospital Directors.

Careful Investigation Shows that Institution is Excellently Managed —Help Well Treated.

Exoneration of the Royal Columbian hospital of all charges levelled against the institution in respect to wages paid the white help employed, was made last night at the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor council following the report made by a special committee of investigation.

The matter was brought up some four weeks ago when it was alleged that the white help were getting lower wages than that paid to Chinese formerly employed, and also that the hours of labor were excessive. In the meantime a request for information had been made to the hospital board which was met with a desire for a special committee to meet the president, directors, lady superintendent and secretary.

Last night the committee journeyed out to Sapperton where it was shown over the entire building and statistics placed in their hands from which they could base a report.

D. S. Cameron, as chairman of the committee, reported that present conditions were very satisfactory indeed. In fact the new institution was a credit to the city and district and that few similar institutions he had visited in other parts compared with that being operated by the city of New Westminster.

Everything Very Satisfactory.

The committee had found that since the dismissal of Oriental labor, the white help, with the moving from the old to the new buildings, had been forced to work fairly hard, but now that the labor had got into routine, nothing wrong could be found with the system. The hours of the maids was such that they could get away every afternoon for two and a half hours, and also a half day each week. The kitchen help had every afternoon to themselves if they desired to take it. In respect to wages, the minimum was at present being paid, but this would be advanced later when the help became more proficient. The hospital, Mr. Cameron stated, was working under financial difficulties.

In adopting the report of the committee, the secretary was instructed to write the hospital board thanking them for the courtesy shown the special committee.

Wage Cutting Not Approved.

The action of certain lumber mills in this vicinity in cutting down wages was not looked upon with favor by the delegates and after considerable discussion, the matter was left to the executive to go further into the matter and take up with the provincial or Dominion governments, or both, the enforcement of the law in this respect, could the charges be founded on truth.

Considerable discussion was had on the statements that the harbor committee of the city council had allowed outside firms, especially iron foundries, to tender on contracts without giving local concerns a chance. The matter was left to the municipal committee. The same committee will discuss with the city council a project for the closing of barber shops at specified hours.

Socialistic Protest.

Sympathizers of the Socialist movement claimed a biased report had appeared in a Vancouver paper following the last meeting regarding a Socialistic protest against the present war, which communication was thrown in the wastepaper basket. A motion to seek redress and bar the correspondent out of all meetings until same was made, was carried by a small majority even though Delegates Stoney, Cameron and Maiden claimed that all meetings were open to the general public and reporters could have general access to all sessions.

WILL NOT CONFISCATE HOLDINGS OF GERMANS

Premier McBride States that Provincial Government Will Not Seize Property of Aliens.

Victoria, Aug. 26.—The provincial government has not, as yet, in the remotest degree considered the question of the confiscation of the holdings of Germans resident in British Columbia. This announcement was made by Sir Richard McBride, and is aprops of a story which has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that some such action had been determined upon.

"We have not even considered the matter of the confiscation of property held by residents in this province who are citizens of nations at war with the British empire," said Sir Richard. Peacefully-disposed non-combatants who may find themselves domiciled in this province are assured of being accorded that measure of British fair play which is the keystone of British liberty throughout the world.

Will Not Embarras Aliens.

"The government has no intention nor desire to place any embarrassments in the way of these Germans and Austro-Hungarians who have acquired interests in British Columbia. It is too much to expect that they should be at all sympathetic to Great Britain in her present struggle, but we do expect and shall insist upon receiving at their hands at this time that consideration for our own loyalty which their own good taste, will, I am sure, suggest.

"I have said that it is not the intention of the government to take any steps which might result in the confiscation of the holdings in British Columbia of Germans or Austro Hungarians. This is the situation at the present moment. But there can be no doubt that the people of British Columbia, and the government of which I am leader, will adopt every measure which may be necessary to help to ensure the safety of the British empire. Time alone can show what these measures must be."

ALVO VON ALVENSLEBEN TO REMAIN IN SEATTLE

New York, Aug. 26—The Italian line steamer Ancona, which sailed from New York to Naples with a handful of German reservists, mostly officers, aboard, was stopped by the British at Gibraltar and 24 Germans and Austrians were taken off, according to a cable message received here today by the line. The Ancona then proceeded to her destination.

Among those on board the Ancona was Count Werner von Bernstorff, a lieutenant in the Sixteenth Prussian lancers. Count von Bernstorff is not related to the German ambassador to the United States, although he bears the same name. Another nobleman on the Ancona was Baron Kurt von Larsner.

Another passenger was Bode von Alvensleben, a resident of Victoria, B. C., and a former officer in the German army. He was trying to get home to join his regiment. He was accompanied by Von Roon, a Vancouver broker, also on his way home to Germany.

Mr. Alvo von Alvensleben, of Vancouver, is stated to be in Seattle, having left Berlin for home the day after war was declared and arriving at New York a week ago. It is understood that for the present Mr. von Alvensleben intends to remain in Seattle.

TREASURY BILLS OVER SUBSCRIBED

Issue of 15,000,000 Pounds Proved Great Success and All Taken by Banks at Once.

London, Aug. 26—4:45 p.m.—The second issue of £15,000,000 ($75,000,000) in treasury bills has been another success. The total applications, which were principally from banks, amounted to more than £40,000,000. Those who made application at a fraction over £98 will get their allotments in full. The interest works out at slightly more than 3 3-4 per cent.

Bills were taken rather freely on the market today at late rates.

ARRESTS MADE FOR DYNAMITE OUTRAGES

Victoria, Aug. 26.—After a chase lasting upwards of a year, the provincial police have made two arrests of men alleged to have been responsible for the dynamite outrages which occurred at the time of the labor troubles in Nanaimo. One has been arrested in Nanaimo, and a second in Washington state, and has returned here for trial.

One of the two is charged with the throwing of the bomb into the home of John Mackinnon, while the other is alleged to be the man who blew up the Temperance Hotel, also at Ladysmith. The attorney-general's department has been long and carefully looking up both cases.

WAR ENCYCLOPEDIA

MONS.—The British forces underwent their first baptism of fire in the vicinity of this Belgian town, which is the capital of the province of Hainault and lies twenty-seven miles southeast of Tournai. Mons possesses five gates which must be passed to effect an entrance and is commanded by a castle, the Chateau Lien, but its strong forts have been dismantled. The town possesses many handsome buildings. Its manufacturing trade is considerable and its factories produce linen, woolen and cotton fabrics, fire arms, cutlery, musical instruments and sugar. It also carries on an active trade in coal, timber, building stone and grain, the transportation of which is facilitated by canals. Mons is situated in the heart of the Baringe coal fields, which have an annual output of twelve million tons. The town was founded in the eighth century and three hundred years later became the residence of the counts of Hainault. In 1425 Jean IV., Duke of Brabant, aided by Phillip the Good, Duke of Burgundy, besieged and took the town. It afterwards sustained several sieges and was alternately in the hands of the Austrians, Spaniards and French till, in 1794 it fell to the latter and was retained by them until 1814. The population of Mons is about thirty thousand.

SHIRMECK.—A German town on the road through the Vosges mountains from St. Die, France, to Strassburg, Germany, in the neighborhood of which heavy French forces have been operating and from which they are about to retire to join the French army attempting to block the Germans along the Meuse river in Belgium. Schirmeck lies on one side of the Bruche river and the town of Vorbruck on the other. The valley of the Bruche is a busy industrial region and numerous towns are situated in it. Schirmeck is only twenty-seven miles by rail from Strassburg. It guards one of the three main passes through the Vosges.

POLA.—This is the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic sea on the Gulf of Venice side of the Kustenland peninsula. It lies at the head of the Bay of Pola and possesses a safe, commodious and almost land-locked harbor. An extensive system of fortifications has been built on the hills enclosing the harbor to guard the entrance. The manufacture of naval stores is the chief industry of the town. Pola is famous for its ruins dating back to Septimus Servius and Caracalla and even earlier. The outer walls of the old Roman ampitheatre, which could seat twenty thousand people, are still standing. Austria selected Pola as its principal naval base in 1848.

ROCHEFORT.—A small Belgian town with a large summer colony about twenty-eight miles southeast of Namur, which has suffered heavily in recent fighting. Rochefort lies on a tributary of the Leese river and is famous for its grottos. Three miles from the town the Lesse river passes through Boeme hill by a subterranean passage, the exploration of which has led to the discovery of some wonderful grottos, consisting of no less than fifteen separate halls and containing many exceptionally beautiful stalactite formations.

LANDEN.—One of the smaller Belgian towns occupied by the Germans since the fall of Liege, lies between Liege and Louvain, about twenty-four miles northwest of the first named point. Landen was the birthplace of the first Pippin, distinguished as Pippin of Landen from his grandson, Pippin of Herstal. At Landen the French defeated the Anglo-Dutch army in 1693 and the Austrians defeated the French there in 1793, one hundred years later.

LAKE NYASA.—This large body of water separates Southern German East Africa from British Central Africa, including Nyasal, and Northern Portuguese East Africa from British Central Africa. Nyasa is third in size of the great lakes of Central Africa and lies at an altitude of 1,650 feet above the sea. Its shores are divided between Great Britain, Poartugal and Germany, Great Britain holding the west coast, the south coast and the lower east coast through its protectorate of Nyasal; Germany, the northern half of the east coast and all of the north coast and Portugal the middle section of the east coast.

CHARLEROI.—This town in southern Belgium on the Sambre river has seen some of the heaviest fighting to date between the French and Germans. It lies about twenty miles from Namur. It is the centre of the iron district of Belgium and has water communication into France as well as across Belgium. It was ceded to France soon after it was founded and was fortified by the famous Vauban so strongly that it twice held out against the attacks of William of Orange. The fortifications later were destroyed, but again in 1815 the city was refortified by the order of the Duke of Wellington. These fortifications finally were dismantled in 1859, and any means of defence which it has had during the present campaign have been purely temporary and of an emergency nature.

MAASTRICHT.—The capital of the Dutch state of Limburg, where the Germans first violated Dutch neutrality, is situated on the left bank of the Meuse river. It originally belonged to the Franklin kings, several of whom resided there. In 1599 it was taken by the Spanish, who plundered the place and put eight thousand to the sword. Prince Frederick Henry of Orange captured it in 1632, while the French took it three times by assault, in 1673, 1748 and 1798. In 1830 it was the only town in South Holland that held out against the Belgians. At present Maastricht is unfortified except by recently erected emergency works.

SPORTS

SPORT CHATTER

(By the Potter.)

Eastern experts predict the Boston pitching staff to crack beneath the strain before another week is out.

McGraw's most radiant dream is that of four straight conquests. This is a goal that no club in forty years has ever reached.

Panning Mugsy has been a widespread pastime for a good many years, but one has to hand it to him. How many managers are there now in action who could have won three pennants with the material he has driven, and set the pace for the fourth?

The Vancouver and district Rugby clubs have suffered severely through the enlistment for the overseas forces. It looks as if the Vancouver league will be down to four teams this winter.

After attempting to put Victoria on the baseball map, Joshua Kingdon has found it too expensive and threatens to pull out before this week is ended. The league schedule is due to close two weeks earlier than first arranged, so that efforts will probably be made to have the Victoria boss remain as president of the club until the finish.

Report has it that "Shorty" Hughes, president of the Northwestern league, will have to quit his job as sporting editor of the Seattle Times next spring or else quit as league proxy. Seattle will lose a valuable sport writer should be decide to head the league.

Football players and fans are going to attend tonight's meeting of the Westminster United club, the newly organized aggregation which will uphold the Royal City in the Vancouver first division. The gathering will take place at the Kings hotel.

Baseball at Millside.

Arrangements have been made by the Fraser Mills baseball nine to entertain the Point Grey Red Sox at the mills next Sunday. The municipal nine are reputed to have a classy outfit and cut quite a figure in Vancouver and district circles last season. It is probable they will gather an all-star nine for the occasion so that a good game will ensue.

REPRIEVE EXPECTED FOR BAVACQUA

Sentenced to Be Hanged Tuesday Morning Leniency May Be Shown by Authorities.

Up to last night Sheriff Armstrong had received no word from Ottawa regarding the hanging of Frank Bavacqua, which is scheduled to take place at the provincial jail on Tuesday morning next, September 1. While no official intimation has been given, it is almost certain that a reprieve will be granted by Minister of Justice Doherty before Tuesday, the evidence against the man and the testimony given in favor of him being such as to lead the jury to recommend in their verdict a strong plea for mercy.

Then again it is argued that except in extreme cases, the government, during these war times, will allow a little leniency to persons under sentence of death.

At the Theatres

EDISON THEATRE
TODAY AND FRIDAY

"A Million Bid," in five parts, will be staged at the Edison theatre today and Friday. The story concerns a mercenary and managing mother and her daughter, Agnes. The young lady loves a youthful doctor, but a match is frustrated by the mother, who seeks to marry the daughter to the highest bidder. The mother's extravagance ruins the father, who, being in ill health, succumbs to heart failure.

With poverty staring them in the face, the mother takes Agnes abroad, finally forcing her into a marriage with an Australian millionaire. To do so, the mother intercepts all letters between Agnes and the young doctor, with the result that each feels that the other has ceased to care.

The millionaire and his young wife, while on their honeymoon on his yacht, are shipwrecked. He is dealt a terrible blow on the head, and it completely destroys his memory. The young wife is saved and returns to America, while her husband is picked up by a French fisherman. His memory gone, he does not recall his previous existence.

In America, Agnes and the doctor renew their love affair and finally marry, excellent proof having been furnished that her former husband had drowned in the shipwreck. There is no opposition to the marriage now, as the mother also had perished in the catastrophe.

Five years later, the young doctor has become a famous brain specialist. To him, Agnes' former husband comes for an operation in the hope of restoring his lost memory. The two men, never having met, fail to learn they are both married to the same woman. She discovers it, however, and with her happiness at stake, does not tell her surgeon-husband the truth, but attempts to dissuade him from operating on her first husband, fearful that the operation will prove successful and her first husband regain his lost memory and recognize her as his wife.

The humanity in the surgeon surmounts his wife's pleas, but the patient fails to withstand the operation and Agnes' happiness is assured, despite the terrible situations which confronted her.

The cast includes Anita Stewart, Julia Swayne Gordon, Harry Morey, Charles Kent and E. K. Lincoln.

ROYAL THEATRE.

Miss Betty Nansen, the distinguished actress, in a four part powerful drama, "Princess Elena's Prisoner," was well received last night at the Royal theatre. Miss Nansen's work in motion pictures places her with the select stars of the silent drama, her acting is flawless and compelling. Her portrayal of the Princess reveals a character given much to introspection and suppressed emotions. The story, which is of the romantic kind, is developed logically and evenly and holding interest throughout to the last heart rending scene. The play is well mounted and the settings both interior and exterior deserves high praise and is of rare photographic and scenic beauty. An old castle used in this feature was built by King Christian IV over 200 years ago. It is a fine structure and forms an appropriate setting for this picture. "Our Mutual Girl" is of deep interest to the women folks as she reviews quite a number of the latest imported frocks. A couple of good comedies complete a high class bill and a splendid night's entertainment. The above bill will be repeated tonight.

Harbor Filling Progresses

Operations of the government dredge Fruhling were delayed somewhat yesterday on account of difficulty in moving the discharge pipes to the locations where the sand is required. The dredge has completed the filling as far east as the C. P. N. wharf and is keeping closely on the heels of the pile driver and rock scows.

The city owned dredge John A. Lee has been brought up stream in order to assist in unloading the rock scows and dumping the material back of the piling along the harbor front. A pretty but quiet wedding took place in North Vancouver on Monday evening when Miss Florence Broughton became the bride of Color Sergeant F. J. Simpson, of the 104th regiment of this city. The ceremony was performed in St. Agnes church in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. Miss Vera Broughton, sister of the bride, performed the duties of bridesmaid, while Sergeant Thompson, of the local regiment, acted as best man. Owing to the regiment being under mobilization, only three days leave could be obtained by the groom. He reported for duty yesterday afternoon.

WAR FAILS TO STOP VANCOUVER EXHIBITION

War and the prospects of a long drawn out struggle with the war lords of Europe do not seem to cool the ardor of British Columbia's manufacturers to make, display and advertise as many of their goods as they possibly can.

One of the departments of exhibits at the forthcoming exhibition to be held in Vancouver September 3 to September 12, and one of the most important departments, is the department of British Columbia manufacturers' exhibits.

These exhibits will be every bit as numerous, as large and as interesting as those of last year and in addition to the many displays made last year several new industries with their products will be exhibited.

Right at the start of hostilities, the hostilities in Europe are referred to because all is peace, quiet and hustle in the exhibition offices, three manufacturers cancelled their proposed exhibits in the big industrial building at the Vancouver exhibition.

And just about twenty-four hours after they announced their determination not to show this year these three exhibits were replaced by three others so that the show has really suffered nothing because of the war.

It will be a liberal education to walk through the industrial building during fair times. A trip through the aisles and passages in that big structure will reveal some idea of the wonderful expansion and growth which British Columbia's manufacturing enterprises have enjoyed even in 1913, the year which most people choose to think of as a calamity year.

Vancouver manufacturing men will make splendid displays there and their own exhibits will be supplemented by others from points more or less farther away from the exhibition grounds.

MORE RESERVISTS ARE UNDER ARREST

Two More Alien Fighters Placed in Custody Yesterday When Attempting to Cross Line

Before another week is out the provincial jail off Eighth street will bear all the resemblance of a military prison, should the capture of German and Austrian reservists continue.

Two more were added to the roster yesterday, both being caught at White Rock attempting to work their way into the United States where they would entrain for New York in the hopes of boarding a steamer for Europe. One man brought in by Provincial Constable Hibben yesterday, when searched was found to have $123 concealed in his shoes. According to the authorities there are scores of men on this side of the international boundary who are attempting to pass the authorities. The woods in the vicinity of White Rock appear to be the favorite haunts where they stay until the chances look good for them to cross the line. No charge is laid against these men, as they were picked up as prisoners of war.

TENDERS CALLED FOR SAPPERTON SEWER

Bids Must Be in the Hands of Civic Authorities by Friday Noon of Next Week.

Following action taken at Monday night's council meeting, City Clerk Brown yesterday morning advertised for new tenders for the Sapperton sewer. This was caused by the proposal of L. A. Lewis, of the Brunette Sawmills company, to divert the main trunk along Columbia street instead of going through the company's property.

The tenders must be in the hands of the civic authorities accompanied by the usual certified check before noon of Friday, September 4. It is expected that the board of works will consider the bids at the meeting to be held Monday afternoon, September 7, so that a report can be made to the council that same evening.

Great Britain declared war against Germany and also on the Sunday of the two cabinet meetings at which was formulated the ultimatum issued to the German empire. "That Sunday," he said, "will be writ large in history. Never before has so pressing a contingency arisen as to make necessary a Sunday session. The day was one of intense, suppressed excitement among the millions of London's inhabitants. Everything else was forgotten in the anxiety of awaiting the decision of the ministers, and yet there was no sign of misgiving, nor were there demonstrations of any kind.

Everyone Impressed.

The gravity of the situation seemed to have impressed itself upon young and old alike, and in all the dense multitude that thronged Downing street and prevented access to the parliament buildings for blocks and blocks, there was less noise than, according to my information, was made on the streets of Victoria on the same occasion. This same attitude, which may be described as one of quiet, almost grim, determination and inflexible trust in the soundness of Great Britain's position, was maintained up to the time I left, and undoubtedly still prevails. Even after war was declared and the soldiers were mustering and marching on board the transports, there was no manifestations of overwrought feelings. There were some wet faces among the womenfolk as their sons or husbands bade them goodby, no outbursts of grief, a calm firmness of spirit was evidenced all along the line."

One of the most visible effects in England of the war was the paucity of men on the farms and in the grain fields. The places of the vast majority of them had been taken by the women.
