BRITAIN STILL RULES THE WAVES SAYS TWEEDMOUTH

First Lord of the Admiralty Condems Pessimist Talk About the Naval Programme—Dreadnought's Satisfactory Trials.

Sheffield, Eng., Oct. 18. — Baron Tweedmouth, first lord of the admiralty delivered a speech here to-night which, on account of recent attacks on the movement for alleged cheeseparing in the navy, had been anticipated with considerable interest.

After a brief reference to the great success attending the battleship Dreadnaught's gunnery trials, he justified the government in its policy of reasonable economy, ridiculed the idea that the admiralty board would consent to proposals endangering the efficiency of the navy when its members knew such a course would imperil their reputation. On the contrary, the admiralty thoroughly accepted the view that economy must not clash with the fighting efficiency of the navy.

The prophets who were denouncing reductions on the navy assumed, continued Baron Tweedmouth, that the extended programmes of foreign powers would inevitably be carried into effect. These extended programmes, however, had not been realized in the past, and the policy of the British admiralty was not to make a long drawn programme, but year by year to form a programme in accordance with the necessities of that year, and also in accordance with the examt amount of work carried out by foreign rivals. Great Britain's naval strength at the present moment, the speaker concluded, was greater than any combination that could be brought against her.

Portsmouth, Eng., Oct. 18.—The British battleship Dreadnaught carried out her gun trials in the open sea to-day with the most satisfactory results. Officers of the highest rank and experience in ordnance matters were present. After the tests of the lighter guns had been concluded, the Dreadnaught fired her 10 and 12-inch guns first singly, then in pairs, and finally all eight of them, composing her broadside, simultaneously. Each gun was loaded to the full service charge of 265 pounds of cordite and 850-pound projectile. The vessel stood the strain of the full broadside splendidly. There was not the slightest disturbance to her structure, and only slight damage to the lighter fittings of her superstructure. Admiralty officials are most pleased with the outcome of the trials.

Pythian Consolidation.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 19.—The Pythian convention decided to consolidate the Pythian sisterhood, having a membership of 7,000, and the Rathbone Sisters, which has 125,000 membership.

NEW WESTMINSTER WINS

Yesterday, at the Richmond ranges, Lieut. T. Cunningham scored a victory which recalls the old-time supremacy of New Westminster in rifle shooting. Three prizes were competed for and Mr. Cunningham captured them all.

There were two matches, open to all members of the militia in New Westminster and Vancouver. The attendance of competitors was very good.

Mr. Cunningham's scores were: For the silver medal of the Dominion Rifle Association, 200, 500 and 600 yards, 32, 35, 29---a total of 96; for the Trorey cup, 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, 29, 30 and 26---a total of 85; for Col. Whyte's regimental cup, highest aggregate score, 181. Sergt. Perry, G. M., was second for the aggregate, with a score of 165.

Council Discusses Routine Business

All sorts of unsavory matters were up for discussion by the city council at the adjourned meeting held on Wednesday, and the evening was spent in discussing sewers, refuse, garbage and other rubbish. The dump on Lulu island came in for its share of attention, and also for some strong condemnation at the hands of Ald. Garrett; but although several new ways of disposing of rubbish were discussed, no tangible result was reached, and the Lulu island nuisance was again referred to the committee appointed to look into the matter some time ago, it being granted further time to consider what steps shall be taken towards either securing a new site, or otherwise disposing of the rubbish.

Ald. Garrett introduced the subject, and as soon as he prefaced his remarks by saying that there was something to which he wished to call the attention of the council, all present knew intuitively that he was going to talk rubbish, because he has been doing this regularly for a couple of months now, and the other councillors are getting used to it. The following is his usual prologue:

"There is another thing to which I wish to call the attention of the members of this council. I refer to the state of affairs on Lulu island, where the merchants have been dumping their rubbish for some time. I was there this afternoon, and I can assure you that no money could tempt me to live anywhere in the vicinity of that dump. The road leading to this dump is almost impassable, and it is not safe for a team to be driven over certain parts of it. I think it is up to the council to do something to remedy this state of affairs, and a suitable place should be provided for the merchants of the city. The rubbish should be burned; that is the only way to dispose of it. I have exhausted my mind to find a satisfactory solution to this problem, and I now leave it in the hands of the council."

Ald. Henley had been selected to act with Ald. Garrett with a view to alleviate the nuisance, but apparently the attractions of the pheasant shooting season had proven too much for him, and there was no record of any work done. Ald. Garrett stated that if he had been a pheasant, Ald. Henley would have found him during the past week, but pheasants did not abound in the vicinity of the dump. A suggestion was also made by Ald. Garrett that the old power house should be used as an incinerator, or that a contract should be entered into with the Small & Bucklin Mills Co., who were about to build a burner to dispose of their waste product. He thought that satisfactory arrangements could be entered into with that firm.

Ald. Adams supported Ald. Garrett, and said that the condition of the road leading to the dump was such that no teamster would drive his horses along there if he could help it. He was of opinion that a suitable place should be provided for the merchants by the corporation.

Mayor Keary could not understand why the city should have to provide a place for the site to be used as a dumping ground by the merchants, and even Ald. Adams' emphatic assertion that all other cities did this did not seem to carry any weight with his worship.

A lot more talk followed, during the course of which Ald. Howay indulged in an execrable pun, much to the discomfiture of his colleagues. He said: "This rubbish business is certainly a burning question." Everybody else strongly disapproved of this, but Ald. Howay seemed quite happy.

Some time since there had been a discussion in the council with reference to a wharf which was to be built at the foot of Eighth street. Ald. Garrett enquired whether this had been lost sight of, as nothing seemed to have been done about it since it was first mooted.

City Clerk Duncan, replying to an enquiry from the mayor, stated that the matter was now in the hands of the city solicitor, and that the plans of the new wharf would be sent to Ottawa as soon as possible. The clerk was instructed to take whatever steps were necessary in the matter.

On the motion of Ald. Howay, the Fourth street sewer by-law for 1906 was read a first time.

Ald. Garrett complained that there was a house on Harvey street, Sapperton, where there was no sewer. In consequence of this there was an accumulation of filth under the house. Typhoid fever had broken out in this place, and he thought that something ought to be done.

Ald. Henley explained that the owner of this house had dug a hole under his house lower than the culvert under the street, and that the city could not always be lowering sewers to suit him. He promised, however, to call the attention of the foreman of the board of works to this nuisance, and very likely something will be done to alleviate the evil.

Adl. Howay reported that a purchaser had been found for the pound-keeper's horse. As the horse will not be wanted again until next spring, he thought that they should accept the $60 offered for the animal. Everybody agreed to this, and the pound-keeper's charger will be sold.

On behalf of the police committee, Ald. Howay asked that R. H. Batt be recommended to the city council of 1907 for the position of pound keeper, which he had occupied this year. This was approved by all present, and the clerk was instructed to act accordingly.

A claim for compensation came from the widow of the late John Follis, who died in the Royal Columbian hospital as the result of injuries received at the exhibition grounds on Thursday, Oct. 5, while he was in the employ of the city. The communication was read, but no comments were passed upon it. The matter was merely referred to the finance committee, with instructions to report at a later meeting.

LIVELY TIMES COME ONCE MORE TO OLD LILLOOET

Successful Mining Operations and the Outfitting of Big Game Hunters Recall to the Town of Lillooet the Busy Days of Old.

Lillooet, Oct. 13.—The past two months have seen Lillooet enjoying more prosperity than she has done since the Golden Cache boom of ten years ago, and from the present outlook this promises to be a boom that will not die.

At the present time the teamsters are having all the freight they can haul in the way of hydraulic piping for Alexander creek, Bridge river, and the getting of this into Bridge promises to be an all winter's work. The pipe is 24 inches in diameter. The freighters deliver it at the lower end of Seton lake, whence it is taken up the lake for twelve miles by steam, and then over a mountain trail to its destination. They are going to take it over the last stage on sleighs over the snow.

At present about thirty men are digging a ditch five miles long in order to get additional water for the plant, which, when installed, will be one of the largest in this part of the province, and promises to be a paying proposition, as Alexander creek has been one of the richest on the Bridge river. A number of Cincinnati capitalists who are interested in this proposition visited it last week and were very well pleased with the outlook.

A strike was made about two weeks ago, within two miles of town, which promises to eclipse anything ever found here before. The discoverer of the Golden Cache, Mrs. Copeland, found a piece of very rich float a few months ago, and after following up the mountain, found the ledge out of which it came. The ledge is very wide, and free gold can be seen all through it. Work will be commenced been doing very well, and for the last been doing very well, and for the ast month has been running twenty-three and a half hours out of the twenty-four. At last they have perfected the machinery, and at this rate it should not be long before a big dividend is paid.

Another dredge is under construction further up the river, and as soon as they perfect the working parts, dredges will be seen every few miles along the Fraser river.

In quartz mining the Lorne shows up well, the clean-ups being as large as ever.

This has been Lillooet's record year for hunting parties in quest of rams. Already 26 game licenses have been issued at the game warden's office, and more parties are coming in later on in the season. All report seeing lots of game, and already some very nice bags of sheep (big horn), goats, bears and deer have been brought out.

Parties who have been here in former years can see that the game wardens have done good work by preventing the Indians from slaughtering game as they used to do in the past.

Grouse are very scarce this season.

Dr Clarke, who has been here for some years, left last week, and Lillooet is therefore without a doctor. This should be a good opening for some good practitioner, as there are two government subsidies, which will no doubt be given to the first man on the ground. One is from the Dominion government for Indian work and the other from the provincial government. They amount to $780 per annum This with the practice should be a good thing for any man.

Dr. Clarke was not a surgeon, and anyone wanting surgical work done had to go to Ashcroft, a distance of 60 miles, or get a doctor in. Last year there must have been a dozen such cases, and now that the mines are working we are in greater need of a surgeon than ever.

The Seton lake hatchery has been very unfortunate this year. The heavy rains caused a huge land slide at the head of Seton lake, which completely blocked the outlet of Anderson lake for two days, where they were spawning sockeyes. When the dam broke it took all the traps, etc., and let the fish out into Anderson lake, so that they could not be caught again.

C. W. Renard, of Spokane, came on to-day's stage, and is interested in the big undertaking on Cayoosh creek. It is very likely work will go on all winter on their claims.

BAPTISTS YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD ANNUAL RALLY

Provincial Union Holds Successful Convention in Vancouver.

The annual rally of the Provincial Baptist Young People's union was held yesterday and on Wednesday in the Mount Pleasant Baptist church, Vancouver. There was a large delegation present both from the island and the mainland, and New Westminster contributed largely to the number.

The officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Rev. E. Leroy Dakin, Victoria; vice-president, S. Clarke, Vancouver; secretary, F. A. Perry, Victoria; treasurer, W. Turnbull, New Westminster; junior secretary, A. Huggett, Victoria. Executive committee—Messrs. Hacking and LeFauvre, Vancouver; E. D. Lennie, New Westminster; Rev. F. Letts, Nanaimo.

After a considerable amount of discussion, it was decided to amalgamate the Provincial B. Y. P. U. with the provincial interdenominational Young People's society on certain conditions.

At the close of the afternoon session the young people of the Mount Pleasant Baptist church entertained the delegates to a thanksgiving dinner in the lecture room of the church. The closing session, which took place last night, Rev. J. Willard Litch, of Vancouver, gave a spirited address on the theme of "Hunting." He took as his text, "And Nimrod was a mighty hunter before the Lord."

On Wednesday evening two excellent addresses were given, the first by Rev. Leroy Dakin on "A Young Man's Religion," and the second by Rev. M. L. Rugg, D.D., on "The Value of a Man."

Condemn Opium and Liquor.

Boston, Oct. 18.—The triennial convention of the World's W.C.T.U. to-day passed a resolution asking for an international treaty of the great powers to prevent the sale of opium and intoxicating liquor to uncivilized peoples.

Kid Sullivan Knocked Out.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 19.—Amby McCue, of New York, to-night knocked out Kid Sullivan, of Washington, in the fourth round.

THE "WEATHER KING" IS SAFELY LAUNCHED

Messrs. Bayne & Symcock's handsome new tug boat was successfully launched on Wednesday evening and christened the Weather King instead of the Blain, as was at one time intended. When the eventful moment came and the impediments were removed, the hull slid slowly and majestically down the ways and into the water almost without a splash. Mr. Blain, one of the proprietors, broke a bottle of champagne over the bows and named the vessel.

The hull is 90 feet long with a 19-foot beam and a 10-foot hold, and the machinery has been the particular care of Mr. Blain. He has built the boiler himself, and it is of a capacity sufficient to supply the engines with all the steam they can stand and a little more if necessary. The boiler is 8 feet 8 inches in diameter and 10 feet 4 inches in length, and will carry 350 lbs. of steam. The engines will develop 240 horse power. There were a considerable number present at the launching, and a cheer arose as the vessel struck the water. The hull will be towed around to Vancouver by the Belle, where the machinery will be placed aboard. It is expected that the Weather King will be ready for service in about a month.

Mignon Duke.

To-night, in St. Patrick's hall, Miss Mignon Duke and Mr. L. H. J. Minehan will give a recital which all the music lovers of New Westminster should attend. Miss Duke is a Vancouver girl who sang in this city some four years ago, and since that time has studied under some of the leading vocal teachers of London, Eng. During the last year of Miss Duke's stay in London she sang at many concerts, churches and private functions, appearing on two occasions before Princess Henry of Battenburg and other members of the royal family. Miss Duke will give a recital in the Victoria opera house, Victoria, next week, after which she will start upon an extended concert tour of all the principal cities of Canada.

Bishop Consecrated.

Portland, Me., Oct. 18.—Rev. Dr. Lewis Walsh, of Salem, Mass., was consecrated to-day as fourth Roman Catholic bishop of Portland.

CONDENSED STORIES.

How a Celebrated Statesman Was Treated to a Surprise.

Famous men are sometimes just like other men in the eyes of children. One day the celebrated Edward Everett was riding along a road in Massachusetts. At Lynn a bright and pretty girl got into the cars and took the vacant seat by his side. He entered into conversation

When the train was entering Boston he determined to give her a pleasant surprise and so said blandly:

"Now, would you like to know who it is with whom you have been talking?"

The statesman smiled benignantly.

"I am Mr. Everett—Mr. Edward Everett."

The girl stared at him vacantly.

He smiled again, for the mortifying thought that his name could be unknown to her had not yet taken form in his serene mind.

The pause became oppressive. Finally the girl bethought herself.

"Do you," she said desperately—"do you live in Lynn?"

An Interesting Experiment.

Take an ordinary glass filled with water and put in as much soda as the water will take up. Tie one end of a string to a common bean and the other end to a wire which is laid across the top of the glass, thus submerging the bean. In a very few minutes the bean will begin to be covered with little spines, and in a short time it will resemble a tiny porcupine. The reason of this is easily explained. The bean is quite porous and soaks up a good deal of water, but the soda cannot enter the bean and therefore attaches itself to the outside.

Choosing the Right.

One evening when little Howard's mother was suffering with rheumatism she said to him:

"Howard, dear, run upstairs in a hurry and get mother the slipper for her right foot."

The boy ran upstairs quickly, but did not come down for many minutes.

At last he called over the stairs:

"Mother, which slipper do you want?"

There was another wait, and then the little fellow called:

"Mother, which way are you sitting?"

Condemned to Slavery.

Two hundred years ago, when men and women were condemned to death for trivial offenses, it was the custom in Scotland to commute the death sentence into perpetual servitude to specified masters. In other words, the condemned person became a slave. It was further ordained that he should wear a metal collar round his neck recording his sentence and punishment The Society of Scottish Antiquaries owns one of these collars, fished out of the Forth above Alloa. It is brass with this inscription: "Alexander Stewart, found guilty of death for theft at Perth, 5th December, 1701, and gifted by the Justiciars as a perpetual servant to Sir John Aresken of Alva."—Collectors' Magazine.

Truthful.

"My dear," said a vain old man to his wife, "these friends here won't believe that I'm only forty-five years old. You know I speak the truth, don't you?"

"Well," answered the simple wife, "I suppose I must believe it, John, as you've stuck to it for fifteen years."—Exchange.

Cold Blooded.

A Statue of Washington.

You would not expect to find a statue of Washington in Caracas, the chief city of Venezuela, would you? Well, one is there in a park—a big bronze statue of our George Washington. Near it is one of Simon Bolivar, the hero of the South Americans. He was their Washington and organized the movement which resulted in the independence of Venezuela, Colombia and Peru and was founder of Bolivia.

He Raised on the Doctor.

While I was a student in the medical college I had a patient, an Irishman, with a broken leg. When the plaster bandage was removed and a lighter one put on in its place I noticed that one of the pins went in with great difficulty, and I could not understand it. A week afterward what was my astonishment to find that the pin had been run through the skin twice instead of through the cloth.

"Why, Pat," said I, "didn't you know the pin was sticking in you?"

"To be sure I did," replied Pat, "but I thought you knew your business, so I hilt me tongue."

The Difficulty.

Two Irishmen driving through the country noticed that many of the barns had weathervanes in the shape of huge roosters.

"Pat," said one man to the other, "can you tell me why they always have a rooster and niver a hen on the top iv thim barns?"

"Sure," replied Pat, "an' it must be because av the difficulty they'd have in collecting the eggs."—Chicago News.

THE BATTLE GROUND.

Whether or not the government will dissolve at once and go to the country on the "better terms" issue, is a question that must be answered by the government; but that they have looked forward to doing so for months past, and that the general line of Mr. McBride's course at Ottawa was laid out in advance, with the object of creating an "issue," there can be no doubt. It is equally certain, also, that Mr. McBride himself, when he bounced out of that committee room the other day and banged the door after him, was simply carrying out the programme, and imagined that he was doing it well. What his colleagues and the other party advisers will think of it, however, is another question. Quite possibly they may consider that it will be well to hold off the elections as long as possible, and trust to the chapter of accidents to turn up something which will help to offset the Ottawa fiasco.

Be that as it may, however, it appears certain that the "better terms" question will be the battle ground in chief in provincial politics during the interval between this time and the closing of the polls on the day of the general election, be that interval long or short. The government cannot avoid the subject, and the opposition will not wish to avoid it. Mr. McBride, of course, will not acknowledge that he has made a deplorable muddle of the whole business, and his political friends will be compelled for their own sake to support him. Having allowed him to lead them into the mess, they must now make the best of it.

And what a mess it is! Despite his glaring unfitness for the position which he holds, despite the blundering incompetence which has marked his administration, Mr. McBride, a week ago, had a chance to largely redeem himself—a chance to "dish the Grits"—such as comes to few men in politics. Had he borne himself like a man in that committee room; had he, even after he bounced out of it, yielded to Mr. Fielding's kindly persuasion and returned, there is little doubt that he would have been acclaimed to-day as the man who had settled honorably and well a long-standing controversy; the man who had at once obtained substantial advantage for his province and at the same time had given it the right to claim that it had foregone something for the sake of promoting the harmony of the Dominion, and thereby contributing to the strength of Canada as a united nation.

But he could neither grasp the situation nor rise to the occasion; and now he is the laughing stock of the country, the despair of his political friends, the discredited leader of a faction in a disorganized party. One can imagine how bitterly the men of ability in that party will now curse the folly which led them to accept his leadership for the sake of grasping power and office; but the regret comes too late in this case, as such regret generally does.

It will be some time before full particulars as to all the points involved are available; but enough is now known to enable us to form a clear opinion as to the conduct of the British Columbia representative, and also as to the manner in which the claims of the province were treated by the Dominion government, and these are the chief points for present consideration. By and by will come the discussion of the steps to be taken to secure the Province against permanent loss from the blundering of the premier; but that time is not yet.

It must not be forgotten that Mr. McBride had two questions to deal with—(1) the general request of all the provinces for a readjustment of the subsidies—"better terms"; and (2) the claim of British Columbia for special consideration, or in other words, for a grant of money, either in a lump sum or by way of an annual payment, in addition to, and independent of, anything granted under the first head.

Under the first head, the request of the provinces for increase of the subsidies has been granted. Under this, British Columbia receives $115,000 per annum additional. The request for a grant in aid of the administration of criminal justice was refused. In these matters all the provinces are on the same footing, and the settlement appears to have been accepted by all. That matter is now out of the field of controversy. Further, the fact that British Columbia has a special claim—is entitled to preferential treatment—has been admitted by the other provinces, and also by the Dominion government, although the admission is in that case informal or unofficial. There remains, therefore, only the question as to the amount which the Province should receive in satisfaction of that claim. This point Mr. McBride failed to bring to an issue. We have his sliding scale proposal and we have Mr. Whitney's million dollar resolution, which the other premiers unanimously adopted after Mr. McBride had left the room; but neither of these has been pronounced upon by the Dominion government, so far as we are aware. It is true that an effort will be made to import into the controversy the silly demand for arbitration which our government put forward. No sensible person can support that. Mr. McBride could not find a single supporter among the assembled premiers. There is nothing to arbitrate. The claim of British Columbia is admitted; but it is a moral, not a legal, claim.

It will be seen, therefore, that Mr. McBride did just enough with regard to the special claim of the Province to prejudice our case and leave it in a worse position than he found it. There is good evidence that the assembled premiers would have been willing to go beyond the million dollar proposal; there is good evidence that the Dominion government would have consented to go beyond it; but Mr. McBride preferred to bounce out, and by so doing he has fixed, for the present at least, a million in ten yearly payments, as the extreme extra allowance which the Dominion, in the opinion of the provinces, would be justified in giving to British Columbia.

Discussing the attitude of the Dominion government, it will be well to refer to the editorial article (largely quoted from the Mail and Empire) which appeared in the Columbian of Tuesday. Its argument, briefly, is that there was a plot, in which the six Liberal premiers at the conference wre parties, to play a "shabby trick" upon the Conservative premiers and the provinces they represented. Just what the shabby trick was; just how it was to be played; just how the provinces represented by the Liberal premiers were to be compensated for the effect of the shabby trick upon them—since they, of course, would get the same treatment as the other provinces—and just how these Liberal premiers were brought to consent to a course which would put weapons in the hands of their political opponents—these are details which the mighty intellects of the Mail and Columbian do not condescend to explain. We are told, however, that the plotters were foiled; the shabby trick failed to come off. And the reason? Can anyone ask! What could such poor things as those Liberal premiers and Sir Wilfrid do when pitted against the mighty intellect of a McBride. The Columbian's article deserves a high place as a contribution to the gaiety of nations; but as this is, after all, a rather serious matter, we should like to ask:

If the Columbian is aware that a hearty vote of thanks to Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues for the manner in which they had treated the conference was moved by the Hon. Mr. Whitney, the Conservative premier of Ontario, and carried unanimously?

If the Columbian is aware that the resolution which Mr. McBride treated as an insult, and on the moving of which he bounced out of the room, was also moved by Mr. Whiteny, the Conservative premier of Ontario?

If the Columbian is aware that all the premiers, including the Conservatives, Messrs. Whitney and Roblin, voted in condemnation of Mr. McBride's arbitration proposal?

If the Columbian has heard that Mr. Whitney, the Conservative premier of Ontario, condemned Mr. McBride's conduct in express words?

And finally, how it happens that, if the three Conservative premiers were banded together to defeat, and did, by their united efforts, defeat, the "shabby trick" which Sir Wilfrid attempted to play, Messrs. Whitney and Roblin not only abandoned Mr. McBride and voted against him, but moved and supported a hearty vote of thanks to Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues?

The fact of the matter is, if we may drop into slang for a moment, that "there is no kick coming" from any of the other provinces about the result of the conference, or the attitude of the Dominion ministers towards the provincial premiers. British Columbia stands alone — condemned by the worse than blundering of the first minister to an isolation which is anything but "splendid."

THE CINNAMON TREE.

How the Bark Is Gathered and Prepared For Use.

The cinnamon tree grows to a height of from twenty to thirty feet and is sometimes eighteen inches in thickness. The leaves are from four to six inches in length, oval shaped and marked with three principal nerves. They taste very much like cloves. Cinnamon flowers are of a beautiful silky gray on the outside and a light yellow on the inside. The fruit is a small acorn shaped drupe, and when ripe it is quite brown.

It is, however, the bark of the cinnamon tree that makes it valuable. The finest comes from the island of Ceylon, where they have two seasons of cinnamon harvest. The first season begins in April and the last in November. The branches of three to five years' growth are cut down, and the epidermis is carefully scraped away. Then the bark is ripped up lengthwise with a knife and gradually loosened until it may be easily removed.

The slices of bark are then placed in the sun to dry, and as they dry they curl up into quills. The next thing is to examine and arrange the cinnamon according to its quality. The persons whose work it is to examine the cinnamon are obliged for this purpose to taste and chew it, although in a short time it produces a very painful effect on their mouths and tongues.

As the cinnamon quills are examined the smaller ones are inserted into the larger, and the whole is then tied up in bundles weighing about eighty-eight pounds each.

In Ceylon the oil of cinnamon is usually prepared by grinding the coarsest pieces of bark, soaking this powder in sea water for two or three days and then distilling. Two oils pass over, one lighter the other heavier than water.

Don't Scowl.

Don't scowl. It spoils faces. Before you know it your forehead will resemble a small railroad map. There is a grand trunk line from your cowlick to the bridge of your nose, intersected by parallel lines running east and west, with curves arching your eyebrows, and, oh, how much older you look for it! Scowling is a habit that steals upon us unawares. We frown when the light is too strong and when it is too weak. We tie our brows into a knot when we are thinking and knit them even more tightly when we cannot think. There is no denying there are plenty of things to scowl about.

Messrs. Gilley Bros. yesterday shipped a carload of coal to the G. N. R. Co., Vancouver.

Don't fail to attend Miss Mignon Duke's recital at St. Patrick's hall tonight. Admission 50c.

The McCullough, of Vancouver, was brought into port by Capt. Judges yesterday, and coaled up at Gilley Bros.' wharf.

The city police force will shortly be supplied with flashlight electric lamps which are to replace the lanterns at present in use by the local stalwarts.

Watch for and be sure to read carefully Wm. Johnston's advertisement in Saturday morning's Daily News. New boots, new fashions, latest styles, easy fitting, perfect lasts.

Dr. Smith brought in a fine bag of pheasants from the Ladner district yesterday. A number of sportsmen traversed the Delta country, and nearly all who could shoot straight were well satisfied with their trip.

The building known as the Henderson block, and which is located just east of the B. C. E. R. depot, has changed ownership. The building has been purchased by W. G. McQuarrie, barrister, through McQuarrie & Co. The building is valued at $4,000.

W. J. Kerr will sell by auction at Brantford street, on Saturday, Oct. 30, at 10.30 o'clock in the morning, the contents of Mrs. Blair's house, consisting of dining, bedroom and kitchen furniture, pictures and effects. Bargains for everybody.

A bunch of boys came in from Vancouver yesterday afternoon on board a big red auto. They were very hilarious and yelled like Apaches as they raced along Columbia street. The strong breath of the auto was modified by the odor from the breath of the passengers.

For having been drunk and disorderly on the public street, J. McDonald was arrested by the city police on Wednesday evening. After being allowed to sober up in the lock-up, he was released on $10 bail, with the understanding that he is to appear in court this morning, when the usual corrective will be administered to him.

An old Chinaman who prefers the English sounding name of Joe to his native patronymic was arrested on Wednesday evening by the city police for acting in a manner calculated to excite the risible faculties of lovers of vulgarism. The charge against Joe is one of indecent exposure, and his case will come up for hearing before the police magistrate this morning.

The pantry of the Cosmopolitan hotel was raided on Wednesday night, and as a result thanksgiving fare was scarce around the festive board at dinner yesterday. The vandal, whoever he or she might be, waltzed off with two elegant turkeys and an unsurpassable goose. They looked so nice in their uncooked state that they attracted somebody's cupidity, and the question the proprietor would like to have decided is, Who was the varmint?

While coming into port towing a big boom of logs for the Fraser River mills a couple of days ago, the Robert Dunsmuir's propeller struck against a snag of some description and broke off one of the blades. The boat continued its journey at considerable disadvantage, and after delivering the boom was immediately taken to Emerson's dry dock, where a new propeller is being installed.

The annual thanksgiving service which was held yesterday forenoon in Queen's avenue Methodist church was well attended and was presided over by Rev. W. H. Barraclough. The various city pastors assisted throughout the service, and an excellent sermon was preached by Rev. A. de B. Owen, rector of St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church. The collection in aid of the Royal Columbian hospital amounted to $27.

The Rithet came into port yesterday after having assisted the passengers who were on board the Princess Victoria safely off that steamer after she had struck, and conveying them to Victoria. The tugs Lorne and Salver assisted the Princess out of its uncomfortable berth and towed it round to Esquimalt, where it will be placed in dry dock for repairs. The Rithet brought in a mixed cargo, including a heavy shipment of Delta hay for the Brackman-Ker Milling Co.

The attention of the chief of police was yesterday afternoon called to the antics of a Vancouver man who was ambling along Columbia street in a somewhat inebriated condition. The chief escorted the visitor as far as the tram office, where he was placed on board the Vancouver car, and left in the conductor's care. The departing guest was very profuse in his thanks to the chief for his kindness, and promised to come here again next Thanksgiving day.

An American newspaper man goes down into Mexico on an important mission. There he meets with a beautiful senorita, a rich-blooded Castilian, of the best family, handsome, full of fire, magnificent. He wooes and wins her, but not until he has passed through many stirring advantures, which make A Royal Slave, at the opera house Monday evening, the most stirring play of the day.

The game at the Cambic grounds between the Shamrocks and the Celtics of Vancouver resulted in a victory for the Shamrocks, the score being 1 to 0. Several goals were scored by both sides during the game, but were disallowed by the referee, who gave the ball as out of bounds. The winning goal was scored during the last few minutes of the game. A preliminary game between the Y.M.C.A. and the Shamrock intermediates was won by the Y.M.C.A. with a score of 3 to 1 in their favor.

Bears seem to be plentiful around Burnaby and district, and an adventure which happened last night to J. Smith, the well-known horse dealer, is getting to be unpleasantly common. Mr. Smith was driving along the Burnaby road, when suddenly his horse reared and refused to advance. Looking ahead to discover the cause of the equine's sudden display of insubordination, Mr. Smith saw a big brown bear peaceably squatting in the center of the road, and showing no inclination to move. While devoting all his energies to controlling his restive horse, Mr. Smith failed to concentrate his attention on the obstacle in the path, and, affronted at this slight, bruin got up and sulked away, for which Mr. Smith was truly thankful.

After a hard fought struggle on the football field at Westham island yesterday afternoon, the New Westminster Rovers went down to defeat before the rurals by a score of one goal to nothing. The field was in anything but first-class condition, and it was only with difficulty that the players could maintain their footing. Shooting was difficult under these conditions, and many goals were missed through the forwards slipping at the critical moment. The football boys are getting in good shape by this time, and after a few more practices they will deliver the goods in first-class shape. A few of the players seem to lack confidence at the critical moment, but this is by no means confined to the Rovers, as all the teams are still in some measure feeling their way at this stage. The next game in which the locals will figure is to be played against the Shamrocks on Oct. 27. The game will be played on Moody square.

TOO MUCH OF A JOKE.

What marriage would endure after a practical joke, especially upon the husband? A St. Louis man, victim of a merry jest, is suing his wife for divorce. The pair went to a masked ball. The husband was somewhat jealous of a German actor. The wife disappeared in the throng, and after a long search the husband grew suspicious of a pair in black dominoes who appeared much interested in each other. The other women at the ball insinuated that the pair were the wife and the actor. The husband gave the female black domino a severe lecture, when, lo, his wife appeared wearing no mask except an expression of innocence! Everybody laughed, as the whole farce-comedy had been arranged in advance. The husband's sense of humor would not stand the strain. He seeks relief from the practical joker.

Stealing Time.

Did you ever meet the woman who keeps her clock half an hour fast for the purpose of fooling all those who regulate their appetites and their trains by her time foundry?

Of course you have, because you have certainly met the average woman. She does not succeed in fooling anybody by her little subterfuge because the first thing she tells them is that the clock is half an hour fast.

Doubtless she gets some satisfaction out of it, but we never could see the benefits of it unless it is that it stimulates the members of the family in useful mental arithmetic exercises.

We should think, however, that the young ladies would take exception to this plan, for it always makes them appear half an hour older than they really are.

Fitting Name.

"If the man with two wives is a bigamist, I suppose you would call the man who married three women a trigamist?"

"No. I would call him a blithering idiot."

Several Ways.

"She seems to be all wrapped up in her profession."

"I heard some of her dearest friends discussing her, and she certainly was well rapped up."

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon Territory.

COAL—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of ten cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

QUARTZ—Persons of eighteen years and over and joint stock companies holding free miners' certificates may obtain entry for a mining location.

A free miner's certificate is granted for one or more years, not exceeding five, upon payment in advance of $7.50 per annum for an individual, and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company, according to capital.

A free miner, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1500x1500 feet by marking out the same with two legal posts, bearing location notices, one at each end of the line of the lode, or vein.

The claim shall be recorded within fifteen days if ocated within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one additional day allowed for every additional ten miles or fraction. The fee for recording a claim is $5.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof. When $500 has been expended or paid, the locator may, upon having a survey made and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1.00 an acre.

Permission may be granted by the Minister of the Interior to locate claims containing iron and mica, also copper, in the Yukon Territory, of an area not exceeding 160 acres.

The patent for a mining location shall provide for the payment of a Royalty of 2½ per cent. of the sales of the products of the location.

PLACER MINING—Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory: Placer mining claims generally are 100 feet square, entry fee $5, renewable yearly. On the North Saskatchewan River claims are either bar or bench, the former being 100 feet long and extending between high and low water mark. The latter includes bar diggings, but extends back to the base of the hill or bank, not exceeding 1000 feet. Where steam power is used claims 200 feet wide may be obtained.

Dredging in the Rivers of Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory—A free miner may obtain only two leases of five miles each for a term of twenty years, renewable in the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged beds or bars of the river below any low water mark, and subfor first year and $10 per mile for each subsequent year. Royalty same as placer mining.

Placer mining in the Yukon Territory—Creek, gulch, river and hill claims shall not exceed 250 feet in length, measured on the base line or general direction of the creek or gulch, the width being from 1000 to 2000 feet. All other placer claims shall be 250 feet square.

Claims are marked by two legal posts, one at each end, bearing notices. Entry must be obtained within ten days if the claim is within ten miles of the mining recorder's office. One extra day allowed for each additional ten miles or fraction.

The person or company staking a claim must hold a free miner's certificate.

The discoverer of a new mine is entitled to a claim of 1000 feet in length, aand if the party consists of two, 1500 feet altogether, on the output on which no royalty shall be charged the rest of the party ordinary claims only.

Entry fee $10. Royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent. on the value of the gold shipped from the ject to the rights of all persons who have, or who may receive entries for bar diggings or bench claims, except on the Saskatchewan River, where the lessee can dredge to high-water mark on each alternative leasehold.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles but where a person or company has obtained more than one lease one dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction thereof is sufficient. Rental, $10 per annum for each mile of river leased. Royalty at the rate of two and a half per cent. collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

Dredging in the Yukon Territory—Six leases of five miles each may be granted to a free miner for a term of 20 years; also renewable.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bar or bars in the river below low water mark, that boundary to be fixed by its position on the 1st day of August in the year of the date of the lease.

The lessee shall have one dredge in operation within two years from the date of the lease, and one dredge for each five miles within six years from such date. Rental $100 per mile Yukon Territory to be paid to the comptroller.

No free miner shall receive a grant of more than one mining claim on each separate river, creek or gulch, but the same miner may hold any number of claims by purchase, and free miners may work their claims in partnership by filing notice and paying fee of $2. A claim may be abandoned and another obtained on the same creek, gulch or river, by giving notice and paying a fee.

Work must be done on a claim each year to the value of at least $200.

A certificate that work has been abandoned, anad open to occupation and entry by a free miner.

Berths on their sleepers are longer, higher and wider than in similar cars on any other line. They protect their trains by the Block System.

The boundaries of a claim may be defined absolutely by having a survey made and publishing notices in the Yukon Official Gazette.

Petroleum—All unappropiated Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and within the Yukon Territory, are open to prospecting for petroleum, and the minister may reserve for an individual or company having machinery on the land to be prospected, an area of 1920 acres for such period as he may decide, the length of which shall not exceed three times the breadth. Should the prospector discover oil in paying quantities, and satisfactorily establish such discovery, an area not exceeding 640 acres, including the oil well, will be sold to the prospector at the rate of $1 an acre, and the remainder of the tract reserved, namely, 1280 acres, will be sold at the rate of $3 an acre, subject to royalty at such rate as may be specified by Order in Council.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

Richmond Council.

The monthly meeting of the council was held at the town hall, Eburne, on Saturday, Oct. 6.

Present: The acting reeve, Councillor Twigg, and Councillors Williamson, Gordon and Tilton.

The minutes of the previous meeting were adopted. None of the communications was of public interest, except one from the chief commissioner of land and works, stating that the matter of the length of time required to unlock the draws of the Eburne bridges was receiving attention.

The acting reeve reported that he had let a contract for cutting the brush on both sides of No. 17 road for a distance of two and a half miles at the rate of 25 cents per rod. His action was confirmed.

Tilton—Williamson: Resolved, that Ah Wah's contract re ditch on No. 20 road be referred to a special committee composed of Councillors Williamson and Twigg, to report at the next regular meeting of this council. Carried.

Tilton—Williamson: Resolved, that Councillor Twigg is hereby empowered to have the fence on the north side of No. 20 road, east of the B. C. E. R. track, to No. 4 road, removed. Carried.

The reports of the chief of police and the road overseer were received and filed.

The clerk was instructed to draw the attention of the B. C. E. R. Co. to the condition of the crossings at Roads Nos. 2, 3 and 9, and request that they be put in proper condition.

Councillor Gordon reported that he had arranged for eight cords of puncheon at $5.25 laid down on No. 8 road. He also recommended that a temporary bridge be laid across the road ditch at the junction of the west end of No. 8 road and east road ditch of No. 1 road.

Report adopted, and the road overseer instructed to procure necessary stringers and plank for bridge at once, also to attend to laying the puncheon.

Councillor Twigg reported that he had let a contract to J. Walton to cut one mile of brush along the canal east of No. 7 road at the rate of 20 cents per rod. Report adopted.

A petition signed by 40 property holders of Steveston was presented, praying that the town site be included in the Lulu island west dyking district. The petitioners stated that unless this were done the town site would be in danger from flood should a break occur in the front dyke, which was in imperfect condition.

It was arranged to invite the commissioners of the Lulu island west dyking district to attend a special meeting of the council at 2 p.m. on the 9th inst. to consider the petition.

A petition was presented by A. Houstown praying for the construction of ditches, the opening up and grading of No. 8 road between No. 1 road and the B. C. E. R. track, a distance of half a mile. This petition was covered by Councillor Gordon's report.

A petition signed by 22 residents of Steveston was presented, praying for supply of plank to finish the sidewalk from Broadway to Chatham street, via Third avenue. Laid over.

A petition signed by 28 ratepayers of Steveston stated that some twenty head of cattle were straying about the town site, causing considerable damage to private property, filling in the ditches, and being a source of danger to children and others who require the footpaths. The road overseer was instructed to have all the cattle and horses found on the streets of Steveston impounded, and the clerk was directed to call the attention of the pound keeper to the provisions of the pound by-law.

The reeve and clerk were appointed to represent the council at the court of revision of the Lulu island west dyking district.

The finance committee presented accounts to the amount of $2,407.31, and recommended payment. The report of the committee was adopted and payment of the accounts ordered.

Collinson, $36; Fred Potts, $13.60; Richard Toop, $45; D. Nichol, $71.50; H. Ford, $10.10; Alex. Murray, $42.25; Jas. Bailey, $40; total, $492.40. Report adopted.

The council then adjourned.

His Working Clothes.

Lord Ellenborough once reproved a bricklayer for coming to be sworn in his usual habiliments. "When you have to appear before this court it is your bounden duty to be clean and decent in your appearance." "Upon my life, if it comes to that," said the bricklayer, "I'm every bit as well dressed as your lordship." "How do you mean, sir?" exclaimed the chief justice angrily. "Well, it's just this. You come here in your working clothes, and I come in mine."

Working for a living and earning a living are not necessarily synonymous propositions.

MR. SOUTH PRESENTS CLAIMS OF CHILDREN

An audience, representative rather than large, assembled in St. Andrew's school house Wednesday night to hear C J. South describe the work of the Children's Aid society. Rev. J. S. Henderson was in the chair, and Rev. Messrs. Owen and Barraclough conducted the opening exercises. Mr. South hailed the increased attendance as an evidence of deepening interest. He said that the society had now under its care 109 children, whom it was teaching cleanliness, both physical and moral. Of these, eight had come from New Westminster, and except for a few private subscriptions and the small sum paid by the father of one child, the society had received practically nothing towards their support. Mr. South related many pathetic stories, and at the conclusion of his address a motion was unanimously carried expressing the thanks of the meeting and its appreciation of the work done by the society. Upon the motion of T. R. Pearson, it was decided to organize a committee, consisting of two from each congregation in the city, to assist in the work of the society. In the discussion some strong opinions were expressed as to the pittance which had hitherto displayed New Westminster's interest in its own neglected children.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Allen was the hostess at a very enjoyable enchre party on Wednesday afternoon. The first and second prizes were won by Mrs. Dockerill and Mrs. Youngling, and the consolation prize by Miss Cotton. Among those present were Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. E. M. N. Woods (Atlin), Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Leamy, Mrs. Gaynor, Mrs. T. J. Armstrong, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Coulthard, Mrs. Malins, Mrs. Dockerill, Mrs. Youngling, Mrs. English, Mrs. Charleson, Mrs. Bole, Mrs. J. P. H. Bole, Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Worsfold, Mrs. Diamond, Mrs. L. A. Lewis, Mrs. Griffin, Miss Cotton, Miss Brymner, Miss Corbould, Miss Alma Corbould, Miss Charleson, Miss Pittendrigh, Miss Peele, Miss Leamy, Miss Alma Leamy, Miss Kemp (Los Angeles) and Miss Lewis.

Mr. Ardagh, of the Bank of Montreal staff, Vancouver, is the guest of G. E. Corbould.

Mrs. Huntley Gordon gave a small bridge party last week in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Hannington. There were present Mrs. Holt, Mrs. De Wolf Smith, Mrs. Gaynor, Mrs. Coulthard, Mrs. Malins and Mrs. Graeme.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the excellent performance of Parsifal in the opera house on Monday evening. New Westminster is indeed to be congratulated that the management of the opera house is displaying such energy this year in securing so many really good productions, and it is to be hoped that well filled houses will stimulate them to still greater efforts next year. The city and its vicinity should be easily able to support one opera house.

Miss Armstrong entertained a number of her friends at afternoon tea on Monday. Among those present were Mrs. Davidson, Miss Davidson, Mrs. C. E. Woods, Mrs. E. M. N. Woods (Atlin), Miss Phillips, Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. T. J. Armstrong, Miss Freese, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Beattie.

Mrs. and Miss Neville Smith, of Chilliwack, are the guests of Mrs. Herbert Neville Smith.

Mrs. Calder, of Vancouver, who has been visiting for a short time in the Langley district, returned home yesterday on board the Beaver.

Mrs. Huff, of Agnes street, has sold her boarding house to Mrs. Macdonnel, of this city, and Mrs. Macdonnel has taken possession, while Mrs. Huff has left for Kamloops. On Wednesday night a very pleasant party was held at the boarding house under the management of the new proprietress. Mrs. Bagnall, late of England, was present and sang a number of solos very acceptably, as also did Miss Card, of this city. R. Campbell sang and also gave a number of enjoyable violin selections. The balance of the evening was pleasantly spent in games of various descriptions, and refreshments were served.

Economy

SARGENT'S Gem Food Chopper is an economical addition to any kitchen. It saves time and lessens labor, and thus economizes the housekeeper's time and strength. With it many attractive and appetizing dishes can be made from what might be wasted if it were not for the Gem.

It chops food of all kinds—meats, vegetables, fruits, bread, crackers, etc. It does not mash, squeeze, tear or grind, but chops the food as you want it—fine, coarse or medium. Easy to operate, self-sharpening. No kitchen complete without it.

ANDERSON & LUSBY

The B. C. Manufacturing Co., per Messrs. Whiteside & Edmonds, asked for a renewal of their lease, and enclosed six months' rent in advance. On motion of Ald. Howay, this was received and the lease renewed for five years.

D. McKinnon wrote claiming $10 wages for five days' service on the police force during the month of July. He claimed that he had to leave the force on account of illness in his family. This was referred to the police committee to report.

Mr. Austin Explains.

To the Editor of the Daily News:

Sir,—There has been a wrong impression given the public as to a fire on the Blue Mountain road last summer. It was reported by parties, with design, I presume, that Mr. Lafayette Smith's house was burned by a fire from R. W. Hawthorne's donkey engine. Now, I want to say that there is not the least possible proof for such a statement, and that I can prove such to any unbiassed mind, as also Mr. Smith knows, too, that there were two distinct fires from two separate sources. Such fires often occur with no one to blame, even after reasonable precaution has been exercised, if such a wind and heat come as on that day, when fires may start from sources comparatively safe.

That the public may learn some lessons from such a costly experience as Mr. Smith had in the loss of his good house, the best in that settlement, I might say that there were two mistakes. One was that there was not within reach even water enough to drink, which was surely a want of preparation for what was likely to come, the burning of the old logging camp; and second, the men on hand—and I think there were enough on hand to save the house if there was water—I say the men all rushed to the roof at once, all but one, and he had not noticed the fire in time which caught on the other side of the house, down on the ground, so getting headway before being attended to. I was working at a neighbor's house where the fire was right up close to, at the time, and saw their mistake. So if we can all learn some lessons from the loss of our neighbors, it may teach us to be more prepared and to act with more presence of mind on such occasions, if we should have similar ones to deal with. As one who took an active part in all that took place, and witnessed the whole situation, I am, yours sincerely,

W. R. AUSTIN.
