Noted American Musicians Will Visit in December—Object is to Provide Science Laboratory.

A [illegible] it is assured the [illegible] on December 7, when the famous Schubert Symphony club will play at the Opera House in this city. The object of their appearance is one that [illegible] commend itself to all, the idea [illegible] after meeting the expenses, to [illegible] a chemical and physical labaratory at the High School.

A [illegible] means of teaching the [illegible] students at the high school the practice as well as the theory of [illegible] and chemistry has long been [illegible] by the teachers, and if the public rally to the support of such an [illegible] object, there can be no [illegible] that the school will soon have [illegible] necessary laboratory. Such equipment as is urgently needed will not [illegible] a very costly investment.

With regard to the concert itself, the price of seats will be fixed at $1 and 50 cents, and as for the entertainment, it has been praised in every city and town where presented. Among the most important features of the program will be selections by the Ladies' Quartette and Symphony [illegible], most of the items being from classical composers. The brilliant [illegible] Thomas Valentine Purcell, a [illegible] of the famous organist of Westminster Abbey in the seventeenth century, will play selections on both mandolin and violin, including [illegible] "Fantasie Caprice" (Vieux Temps). All the members of the quartette will contribute individually, and the concert will conclude with a grand finale in which the voices and instruments of the company will be brought into harmonious [illegible].

Another feature of the evening will be the presentation of the medals and certificates won by the pupils in the examinations last summer.

WIDOW OF HUNTER'S VICTIM GRANTED ANNUITY OF $100

Matsqui Municipal Council and Welsh Brothers Will Contribute Equal Share of Indemnity to Widow.

The members of the Matsqui district municipal council, at their last regular meeting, had to consider an unusual proposition. This was a matter of how much should be paid to the widow of [illegible] Some little time ago [illegible] was out shooting in the vicinity of Mission, and, mistaking Mr Prasiloski for a wild animal, shot him. Mr. Welsh, in the legal proceedings which followed, was acquitted of any intent. The widow of the dead man has been anxious to know what relief was to be afforded her and brought the matter before the Matsqui council.

Paul R. Welsh was cited to appear and was present, as was also his brother, A. F. Welsh. The latter stated that it was the earnest desire of himself and his brother to do whatever they could and he pressed upon the council that none regretted the accident more than they did. He also reminded the council, however, that he personally had met with a great deal of persecution at the hands of the deceased's brother, and this must stop or he would take legal proceedings. He had assisted the family with provisions from time to time and he stood ready to make a monetary contribution.

The reeve stated that any further trouble arising from Vincent Prasiloski would be met with the utmost severity the law would allow. It was mutually agreed that the sum of $100 a year, for three years, be provided for the widow and orphans. Of this sum the council furnishes $150 and Messrs. A. F. and Paul R. Welsh the other half. This sum is to be paid out in the shape of a fixed monthly allowance and an agreement is to be drawn up and entered into between the council, the Welsh brothers and the bereaved widow.

JAPAN TO REDUCE MILITANT EXPENDITURE

Tokio, Nov. 10.—The financial department today announced the budget for the next year, aggregating $258,560,000. This means that the curtailment of funds for military, naval and civil enterprises is $84,090,000. The reduction is in line with the general policy of the new cabinet, which is making every endeavor to save money and carry the nation over the period of financial depression. There is still some objection to this policy, but the conservative element strongly supports the government.

Supreme Court Cases.

Ottawa, Nov 10.—In the supreme court of Canada today judgment was rendered in two Western cases. In the British Columbia appeal of Bridgeman versus Hepburn, the appeal was dismissed with costs. In the Alberta case of Hayes versus Day the appeal was allowed with costs, Chief Justice Fitzpatrick and Sir Louis Davies dissenting.

Montreal Editor Knighted.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—There has been considerable talk in the city over the conferring of knighthood upon Mr. H. Graham. It is denied that the honor was in any way a recompense for the attitude of the Montreal star during the recent election campaign, but a recognition of its cordial support of the Quebec Tercentenary.

Commits Suicide.

J. Archibald Pink, a young man who was for some time drug clerk at H. Ryall's pharmacy, committed suicide in Ottawa on Oct. 19 by shooting himself. No reason is assigned for the rash act. Pink came originally from Ontario, and had spent four years in this province, mainly in New Westminster and Vancouver. He returned to Ottawa last September.

Regina Is Dry Town.

Regina, Sask., Nov. 10.—For the first time in the history of Regina 48 hours of a dry town found not a single drunk arrested and not a case of disorderly conduct reported. Bars were closed Sunday and again yesterday under the provisions of the new act, and citizens were given a sample of what local option would mean here.

SWITCHMAN ELLIS HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Man Alleged to Be Responsible for Interurban Wreck Found by the Police.

The latest news in the interurban car accident is that W. Ellis, the switchman who is supposed to be responsible for sending the Central park car on to the single line at Gladstone hill, which led to the catastrophe on Saturday evening, has been arrested in Vancouver by Detective Munro of the city police and Provincial Constable Smith, thus disposing of the surmise that he had committed suicide. The arrest was made at two o'clock yesterday afternoon and the man was detained at the provincial police station.

The coroner, Dr. Jeffs, empanelled a jury on Monday afternoon, and they visited the scene of the accident at Beaconsfield, the switchman's position at Cedar Cottage, and also examined the wrecked cars in the shops. The working of the cars according to the schedule was also explained to the jury, of which Matt Barr is foreman. A. E. Beck, solicitor and claims agent of the B. C. E. R., also accompanied the party. After the bodies had been viewed to permit of burial, the inquest was adjourned until the conductors, who are the principal witnesses, are able to attend. W. E. Burns will represent the authorities at the subsequent inquiries, and what indictment may be laid against Ellis will depend on the evidence then given.

Most of the injured are still in the General hospital, Vancouver, there being 17 whites and 2 Chinamen. Three members of the Farquharson family are still in the hospital, where the injured are progressing satisfactorily.

WOMAN RACES TO ESCAPE DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA

Minneapolis, Minn. Nov. 10.—In a race with death from dreaded hydrophobia, Mrs. D. Lawrence of Langham, Saskatchewan, arrived in Minneapolis this morning to take the Pasteur treatment. Over a week ago Mrs. Lawrence was bitten by a strange dog. Shortly afterward it was learned the animal was rabid, but Mrs. Lawrence did not hear of it until Saturday. As her wound was apparently dangerous, she was hurried here as quickly as possible in a hope that her life may be saved. Owing to the fact that the wound is deep and that seven days have elapsed since she was bitten her case is serious. She received her first treatment today, but it will be more than two weeks before the outcome can be determined.

BOARD OF MISSIONS DIVIDES WORKING FUND

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—The general committee for foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday so divided the mission fund of $829,906 for the year 1909 among the various mission fields as follows:

China, $157,500; Japan, $58,300; Korea, $32,065; India, $184,556; Malaysia, $21,380; Philippines, $25,900; Liberia, $15,576; East Central Africa, $16,065; Western Central Africa, $14,201; South America, $96,565; Mexico, $58,900; Europe, $158,446.

These appropriations are practically the same as those for the current year, except in the case of Korea, where an increase of $10,000 was made.

Chinese Emperor Awfully Ill.

Peking, Nov. 10.—The emperor of China, who has been suffering from an intestinal disorder, is worse today. His majesty refuses foreign medical aid or to take foreign medicine. He is awfully weak. Yuan Shai Kai is pessimistic over the emperor's condition. Public business has been suspended on account of the indisposition of the dowager empress.

Saskatchewan Town Burned Out.

Kelliher, Sask., Nov. 10.—The new town of Kelliher on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway suffered severely from fire on Sunday. The whole business section was wiped out. The loss is about $50,000.

SPURNS LEFT HAND OF DUC D'ABBRUZZI

Senator Elkins Would Not Countenance Morganatic Marriage of His Daughter

London, Nov. 10.—The Daily Express asserts that the wedding of the duke of Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins will take place in Rome or Turin some time in 1909. The Express claims to have authority to state that the king and members of the royal family wish the marriage to be solemnized in Italy with state ceremonies so that the nation may participate, as it is among the Italian people that the bride will spend her life.

According to the Express the wedding probably will take place early in 1909, though possibly not before Lent. Difficulties arose through Senator Elkins' refusal to sanction a morganatic marriage and because of the opposition of the queen mother who had other matrimonial views for the duke. The king's consent, however, has been obtained and the bride will be fully recognized as a royal princess. Queen Helena has been a strong supporter of Miss Elkins throughout.

ONE HUNDRED HURT IN BRAWL AMONG STUDENTS

Vienna, Nov. 10.—An encounter between two warring factions of students attending the university of Vienna resulted this morning in injury to about 100 of the young men. The cause of the conflict is to be found in the smouldering antagonism between the Pan-German and the Jewish students. This bitter feeling broke out today and led to a sanguinary encounter.

Three hundred of the Hebrews blockaded one of the main staircases. Apprised of the situation, the Pan-Germans gathered in force and stormed the staircase which leads to the balcony. The fighting for a few moments was fierce, but in the midst of it a portion of the balcony crashed to the ground and over 100 students went with it. Most of them were injured and some seriously.

OWNERSHIP OF ROADS ISSUE IN ELECTIONS

Berne, Switzerland, Nov. 10.—The unfavorable results of the state ownership of railroads in Switzerland promises to be a leading issue in the coming electoral campaign. The confederation has $240,000,000 invested in railways, having issued that amount of interest-bearing bonds. Although the receipts for the state-operated roads have steadily increased from 1902 to 1907, the cost of operation has increased more rapidly still, and the coefficient of railroad operating expenses is now the largest in Europe. The deficit this year will be between $1,000,000 and $1,100,000. The nationalization of the roads, therefore, this year, costs the taxpayers the deficit for operation in addition to the interest on the state capital invested.

ROME TO CELEBRATE JUBILEE OF POPE

Rome, Nov. 10.—Great preparations are being made here to celebrate on November 16 the fiftieth anniversary of the entrance of the Pope into the priesthood. On this day the Pontiff will celebrate mass at St. Peter's in the presence of many thousands of persons, including special delegations from all countries that have diplomatic relations with the Vatican and scores of bishops from all parts of the world.

STATE OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS DISASTROUS

Brussels, Nov. 10.—In Belgium as in Switzerland the ownership of railroads by the state is proving rather a disastrous experiment.

The situation is so bad that the administration which has already decided on raising the prices on fortnightly and monthly passes so well known to tourists, is now considering the question of a big all-round increase in passenger and freight rates.

ENGINEER SCHUYLER COMES TO FURTHER SUMAS SCHEME

Will Give Expert Attention to Reclamation Scheme—Need of New Dam.

The drying up of Sumas lake so as to allow the B. C. E. R. company to run its Chilliwack extension through the centre of the lake, besides recovering twelve thousand acres of some of the most fertile land in the province, is now included in the big reclamation scheme at Sumas. Besides this, at least another 20,000 acres will be reclaimed in the vicinity of Sumas lake, and the work will necessitate the building of dykes along the Fraser and Sumas rivers, aggregating in length about thirty miles, the highest point of the dykes to be twenty feet.

At least two pumping plants will be installed, the entire work to cost close to a million dollars.

Surveyors and engineers have been preparing plans under the direction of the well known engineer, J. Francis LeBaron, of Iowa. It is the intention of the company who will be given the contract by the dyking commissioners to proceed with active work at once and yesterday Mr. J. D. Schuyler, consulting engineer of San Francisco, arrived in Vancouver to assist in the furthering of the scheme.

Mr. Schuyler will also prepare a report on the construction of a new dam at Coquitlam to cost probably $200,000.

G. N. R. WORK TRAIN DERAILED AT SAPPERTON

The traffic on the Great Northern main line to Vancouver was badly tied up yesterday in consequence of a work train with locomotive No. 450 leaving the track at the derail switch opposite the penitentiary gates, close to the signal tower at Sapperton at 11:15 a.m. In some way unknown the locomotive left the track, followed by the tender and ledgerwood hoist. Little damage was done to the equipment, but it was nearly five o'clock before the line was cleared, and all traffic northbound and southbound was tied up. In all about 60 feet of track was torn up, and a wrecking gang was soon at work putting in new steel, and ballasting the damaged section. No one was injured. Engineer Mahoney was in charge of the engine.

Capt. John Cox Dead.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 10.—Capt. John Graham Cox, Lloyds agent, and one of the best known shipping men of the Northwest, died yesterday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, following an operation for appendicitis. He was a member of the ship chandlery firm of E. B. Marvin & Co. Born in Nova Scotia in 1843, he went to sea on his father's ships when 10 years old, and was master and owner of many vessels in the younger days, when, for a time, he was a trader in South America. Of late years he was engaged in sealing and owned a number of schooners. He was considered one of the best posted men on marine law and business matters on the Pacific coast.

Calve With the Grip.

Petersburg, Nov. 10.—Mme. Emma Calve, the grand opera star, is prostrated by illness in this city, with prospects that she will be confined to her room for ten days or more. The noted singer came here from Erie, Pa., at the opening of the season of the Pittsburg orchestra. She has been suffering from grip, to which her collapse is attributed.

Fog Delays Traffic.

The fog caused considerable delay to transportation of all kinds yesterday, the trains being in almost every case late, and the interurban car service, which is usually so punctual, was also disorganized. This was especially the case with the night cars. The work train derailment on the G. N. R. had also a bad effect on the trains keeping to time.

Want Pacific Fleet.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—A set of resolutions asking that the Pacific fleet be retained in the Pacific ocean and that it be augmented by the Atlantic fleet, was forwarded to President-elect Taft today by the officers of the California branch of the American Red Cross society.

FRASER RIVER MILLS CHARTER MANY SHIPS

Large Export Trade to South America Will Mean Much to This City.

On Wednesday, Nov. 25, the Chilian barque Ivanhoe, 1000 tons burden, is due at Fraser Mills, where it will be loaded with lumber for Valparaiso, South America.

The Ivanhoe is to be the first of a large number of vessels which are to load at Fraser Mills during the coming month. Seven or eight large ships have been chartered for carrying lumber between Westminster and South American ports, three or four being due to leave here every month, according to the cargo carrying capacity of the different vessels.

The chartered boats have been mostly picked up at different ports along the Puget Sound, there being a large number of boats available at the present time, as this is the slackest season of the year in shipping circles. Arrangements are now being made with regard to the pilotage of the different boats up the Fraser river.

The securing of the large boats for the transporting of lumber to South American and probably Australian ports, is a healthy sign for this city. The making of this port the headquarters for twenty or thirty ocean going vessels will tend to bring Westminster prominently before the eyes of the shipping men, and will assuredly be the means of bringing more trade to this city. The victualling of these ships, which will have to be done here, will also be an item of considerable importance to local merchants.

STREET LETTER BOXES DUE TO ARRIVE TODAY

Work of Placing Mail Receptables in Position Throughout City Will Be Immediately Pushed.

Forty-three street letter boxes are due to arrive today from the East for use in this city, where they will be placed at locations already designated and approved of. The mail receptables are of regulation size, with an approved drop arrangement designed to protect the contents of the boxes from the elements at all times. The boxes are painted red, each being designated by a number. The hours of collection will be indicated on a slip on the front of the box.

The work of placing the boxes will be proceeded with immediately, plans for the speedy consummation of a long felt want having been completed some time ago.

The name of the successful tenderer for the collecting of the mail will be announced in the course of the next few days, an official announcement being expected from Ottawa before the end of this week. A large number of tenders were put in by local and outside parties, the present mail carrier, A. Rae, being among the tenderers.

Hurts His Literary Reputation.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—William Dawson Le Sueur of Ottawa was allowed to amend the statement of claim by the master in chambers this morning in his suit against Morang & Co. He says he was engaged to write the life of William Lyon MacKenzie, that he delivered the manuscript and was paid for it, but defendants refuse to publish it, which he claims affects his literary reputation. The defence is not yet filed.

Largest German Ship Launched.

Stettin, Nov. 10.—The steamer George Washington of the German Lloyd line was successfully launched at Bredow, a suburb of this city, today and christened by Dr. David Jayne Hill, the American Ambassador to Germany. The George Washington is of 27,000 tons gross, 722 feet long and is the largest German built and owned steamer in the world.

Alex. Turnbull and George Rennie, the two members of the Westminster Lacrosse team who distinguished themselves at the Olympic games in England, are expected to return home this week.

WILHELM ATTACKED IN OPEN DEBATE

Stinging Speeches of Criticism Directed at Emperor Startle All Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Demanding that Chancellor Von Buelow introduce a bill limiting the kaiser's personal power, and reciting a long list of what he termed indiscretions on the part of the emperor, Herr Wasserman, leader of the National Liberals, today made a sensational attack on the monarch of Germany during a sitting of the Reichstag. He declared that the reactionary forces were at work in the German empire that made the country more benighted in many ways than Turkey or Russia. When Wasserman had finished, Herr Weimer followed with a harsh criticism of the emperor and Paul Singer, leader of the Socialists followed him with an attack in similar vein.

There was the wildest excitement when the speakers denounced Wilhelm, and the Reichstag applauded again and again. The government ministers regard the situation as critical and fear that a ministerial government similar to that of England, will follow the agitation aroused in the German parliament.

When the Reichstag resumed its sittings this morning there was an air of intense excitement because reports that Chancellor Von Buelow would be called upon to make an explanation of his attitude regarding the famous London Telegraph interview. The Socialists had announced twenty-six meetings about the city for the purpose of protesting against what they termed "the kaiser's absolutism" and the visitors' galleries of the Reichstag were crowded with people.

Wasserman opened the debate for the national Liberals. He was applauded loudly when he arose, and the audience listened to his remarks with intense interest.

"We want to state plainly and publicly to the world," cried Herr Wasserman, "that we are not afraid of yellow perils or any other perils, but the danger from an international policy based on the sudden moods of the kaiser is incalculable.

"Germany's fate must no longer depend upon one man's impulsive temperament. The idea of personal absolutism is undermining our national security."

This statement was greeted with a storm of applause, and some hissing.

Herr Wasserman declared that the kaiser's reign had been characterized by a number of unwise and regrettable acts which would have been prevented if the emperor had submitted to the control of responsible ministers. He recited a lengthy list of utterances of the emperor which he termed indiscreet and stated that they had been injurious to Germany.

Wasserman concluded his remarkable speech with the declaration that the emperor's acts were stimulating the growth of the Republicans throughout the empire.

"The kaiser's last indiscretion had aroused the German nation until the people are boiling over with indignation at his personal regime," he said. "Germany must cease to be a stronghold of reaction that is more benighted than that found in Russia or Turkey," he declared.

Wasserman ended by demanding that Chancellor Von Buelow give the Reichstag a definite guarantee that the emperor will henceforth remain more in the background in international affairs, and demanded that Von Buelow introduce a bill limiting by legislation the personal power of the emperor.

When Wasserman sat down the crowd went wild with applause. Herr Wiemer's attack on the emperor was similar to that of Wasserman. He spoke harshly against what he termed the "personal rule of the emperor."

Paul Singer, Socialist leader, received as great a demonstration when he attacked the emperor.

AFRICAN SLAVERY FAR FROM EXTINCT

General Joubert Makes Strong Allegations Against Portuguese Government.

New York, Nov. 10.—Coming to the United States to try to interest President Roosevelt and the American people in his crusade against slavery and kindred atrocities in the Portugese colony of Angola in West Africa, lieutenant general Francois Joubert-Pienaar, a former Boer leader, but now a subject of King Edward VII, is in this city. He will seek an audience with President Roosevelt within a few days.

According to the general, conditions in the Portuguese possessions are far worse than those of the Congo region. For a time he lived in Loanago, Angola and he tells of little boy slaves being sold and given away in the province. He says the weak are overpowered by slave traders and that men, women and children are captured and turned over to the traders for arms and ammunition. Taken to the Cocoa Islands, they never return.

"I have visited the islands," said the general. "The condition of the poor negroes is unspeakable. They are forced to work from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day. Now and then they get a few coppers with which to buy a drink. They are never paid the stipulated wages and they are treated like beasts."

The general said he could furnish proof of cases where women owners had had women slaves deliberately whipped to death and no punishment thought of. He could prove the existence he said, of farms where slaves are bred and reared like cattle. He was prepared to show, he said, the system by which raids are made and murder calmly practiced in order that women and children slaves may be obtained. He had proof further, he said, that the "indenture" system was the thinnest of disguises for absolute slavery.

"These things are done with the connivance, if not approval of the Portuguese government," said the general.

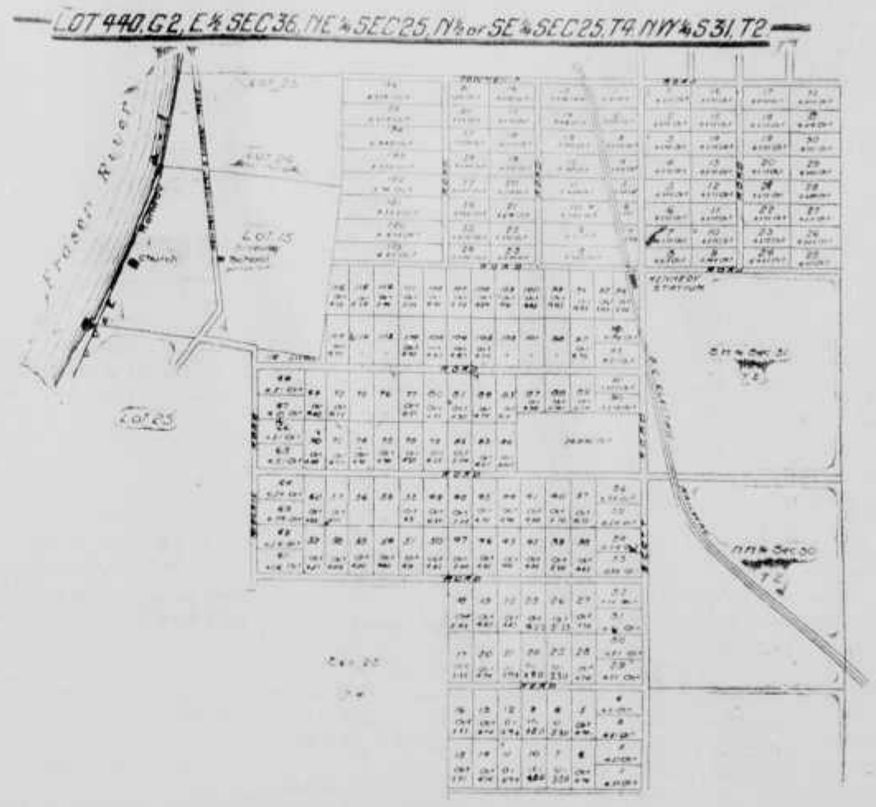
—LOT 440, G2, E½ SEC 36, NE¼ SEC 25, N½ of SE¼ SEC 25, T4, NW¼ S 31, T2—



THE SLOUGH OF DESPOND!

Is good, and in its miry depths the bad politicians of the east will wallow for the next 20 years, but we of the more favoured west and youngest of all in the family of confederated provinces have been forgiven, and even though we have been awfully naughty let us climb out of it, for do we not hear the Great Liberal Chieftain's cheery voice promising us absolution, and stating that he intends carrying out his program of developing the great west in spite of the fact that we have not been very good to him. So, there, with three cheers for let us get into the game again. Our prosperity is assured in spite of what the croakers predict, and this great country must continue to grow by leaps and bounds for years to come.

OURS IS POSITIVELY the only sub-division on the market through which the Chilliwack tram runs. Others are advertised as fronting on the tram, etc., and in one case, it is said, their proprietors even went so far as to try to persuade a surveyor to plant stakes across his sub-division, marked to represent the B. C. Electric tram line. This is about the limit, and such criminal attempts at misrepresentation should be severely punished.

We have our reputation for honest and fair dealing to sustain, and when we state that we believe there is no better chance to make money than by investing right here, we bear that fact in mind.

The work of placing ties along the line is being pushed ahead and in a short time the rails will be laid throughout the first section to Cloverdale. We have a number of choice blocks left in our 900 acre sub-division at South Westminster, and now is the right time to secure one, or better still, two of them.

When cars commence running prices must jump right up, and at no point along the whole route to Chilliwack will such marked advances be noticeable as at this end, where our principals practically control the situation. When this splendid subdivision is sold out, which cannot be long at the rate the 5-acre blocks are now going, they will subdivide and put on the market another 1000 acres. The prices, however, will be more than double what they are at present, so don't put off, or one of the chances, which only come occasionally in a lifetime, will pass by.

You will readily understand what it will mean to have about 2000 acres of good land, which up to the present has lain idle, practically in sight of New Westminster, subdivided and settled on by hundreds of prosperous and happy families.

Why, prices simply must climb right up, and almost before we are aware of it, reach the same level as at Central Park, on the Vancouver and Westminster line, viz., $1,000 per acre.

Stop! Think!! Act!!!

Our carriages go over every day. Any hour will suit us. It only takes half an hour to drive over.

CALM RETROSPECT.

In the quietude that follows the battle we can calmly review the campaign, and draw deductions. It is very interesting to trace events that led up to the final political struggle which had its greatest battleground in Ontario.

Session after session a section of the Opposition, led by George Eulus Foster, carried on a system of obstruction to the public weal, by introducing into the house long arguments, supporting the contention that certain transactions of the government were detrimental to the interests of the people, and moreover scandalous, in that public men were claimed to be involved in collusive dealings with officials of the government. Charge after charge was met by evidence most convincing and conclusive, and as the light of truth bore in upon these so-called scandals, so far as parliament was concerned, they died a natural death. But as the struggle in the open field was approaching, these skeletons were assembled and garbed with the appearance of life as campaign material. They were made to appear as life-like as on their first appearance in parliament, in that not one word of rebuttal accompanied them on their tricky mission in the field.

The main battle ground as we have said was in Ontario. In that province the Conservatives gathered their great guns in the persons of Premiers Hazen, Roblin and Whitney with the great Napoleon Bowser, to strengthen their leader, Mr. Borden. Sir Wilfrid fought them practically single handed and his metaphor of the scene will live as long as the human race exists. "Wolves go in packs, lions fight alone." Recognizing the impossibility of the slanderbunden fighting material carrying the day, Sir Wilfrid religiously ignored it, and as shot after shot exploded around him, he stood in his fearless manhood and unfolded the mighty issues that confronted the people in their great march of progress.

It was not long before the leaders of the slanderbund were compelled to assume the defensive from the records of the departments during the time the Tories were in power, and so convincing were these silent records that Fowler, Lefurgy, Bennett, Pope and Cockshutt sought cover, and when the battleground was cleared only Mr. Foster remained to tell the tale. It might not be unwise for the defeated party to note that Mr Foster was never found on the same platform with Mr. Borden throughout the campaign, showing that while the leader utilized his services, he declined to be associated with him. The hurried manner in which the great guns were spiked and sent home is also worthy of note. Sir Wilfrid Laurier gave a decidedly dignified tone to the campaign, with his well considered concrete arguments based upon indisputable facts. His wisdom, courage and practical statesmanship as he pointed to new duties, new responsibilities and new departures, resulted in the new mandate that he and his associates go on and finish the work he had outlined. Sir Wilfrid is to be congratulated that he has now an open sea in which to navigate the ship of state into that future of brighter and better prospect and greater glory that awaits her. It must be a satisfaction to him to know that the electorate has so emphatically pronounced against the slanderbund, and its methods of obstruction so costly to the country, and he and his followers should at the earliest possible moment so amend the rules of the house that organized obstruction may be stopped immediately it becomes apparent, so that the time of parliament may be used for the purpose of building the greater Canadian nation upon the solid foundation which Sir Wilfrid Laurier has laid for it.

An important meeting of the city council will be held this afternoon at 3 p. m. to met the property owners on Columbia street, and discuss with them the long-needed improvements of the street. Unfortunately the time clashes somewhat with the funerals of the victims of the interurban disaster, which are sure to be largely attended, but probably the proceedings will be started a little late, in order that the attendance of those interested may not be prevented.

The funerals of the two victims of the Gladstone Hill car wreck on the interurban line on Saturday night take place this afternoon. The Knights of Pythias will attend the funerals of the two men, both of whom were members of the lodges, and the Orangemen will take part in the funeral of Motorman McDonald. This morning both men received notices asking for their resignations, which are to take effect at the end of the present month. This is the end of the deliberations yesterday of the committee, which is composed of the commissioners and Aldermen Garleps and Armstrong. With reference to the appointment of a chief of police, it has been decided to leave the matter open for the present and appoint the senior officer, Sergeant Tidsbury, as acting chief.

COUNCIL MEETING

SURREY COUNCIL NOTES.

Council met in the Town hall, Surrey Centre, November 7, the Reeve and all members being present. Minutes of previous meeting were read and confirmed. Communications were received and dealt with as follow:

From T. F. Patterson saying he expected compensation for the improvements if not for the land taken for the River road, that he would object to the water from above being drained through his property, also that he had water rights on a small spring and would like a small culvert left in the road at the East line of his property so that the spring water could get into his inside ditch. Received, Clerk replied that the Engineer had been instructed to take the back water directly down the road to an outlet and and not allow it to escape on his property and also to leave a culvert as requested.

From F. R. Glover, Assistant Manager of the B. C. E. R., saying he had instructed the Engineer to put in a permanent crossing on the Liverpool road, also saying temporary crossings would be kept in as passable condition as possible and that as soon as their track was laid and ballasted the crossings would be made permanent and planked. Received.

From R. A. Renwick, Deputy Commissioner of Lands and Works, re application for grant of street ends terminating on the water front, requesting that a map be forwarded showing the streets and roads and the name of the same. Received.

From F. C. Gamble, Public Works Engineer, re the request that the Government Gazette the road around Brownsville Hill to the Yale road, pointing out that the gazetting of a road properly belongs to the Municipality in which it is situated, but that if he was furnished with a proper description of the road, made by Mr. Hill, he would bring the matter to the attention of the Honorable the Chief Commissioner. Received.

From S. H. Farmer, asking the council for a refund of $50 paid by him for straightening the Hjorth road, also asking that the ditches on the Hjorth road be cleaned out as the roads were flooded by reason of the water being unable to get away. Received and referred to Councillor Inglis.

From W. H. Farrer, et al, saying that the Serpentine Lumber company, by hauling heavy loads on the C. M. road, made it impassable and they had split green Cedar logs round side up and eight or nine feet long on the road making it so narrow that two wagons could not pass and very rough to travel over. Received. Clerk instructed to notify the Serpentine Lumber company to sink the poles level with the grade of the road and cover with available material, otherwise the poles will be thrown off.

On motion Councillor Keary was empowered to have the Campbell river road repaired.

The Surrey Highway By-law passed its second and third readings.

On motion the Reeve was authorized to deal with the matter of the release of agreement covering the portion of the N.W. 1-4 of Sec. 5, Tp. 8, taken by the V. V. & E. Ry. company for right-of-way.

The clerk was instructed to write Mr. F. Sinclair, Engineer of B. C. E. railway to fix a date when he could meet a committee on the Coast Meridian road to discuss the matter of the culvert located there.

The balance of the estimate for school purposes, $450, was placed to the credit of the school account and bills amounting to $1627 were passed and ordered paid.

Council then adjourned to meet on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 1 o'clock, p.m.

You can buy Shares AT PAR in the great GAS Company for New Westminster City now being organized

The manufactures of gas from coal or other carboniferous products has proven to be a universal success, both from a commercial and financial aspect.

The stock in various gas companies in Canada, although placed on the market at a premium, sold readily.

Look up the record of any gas company operating in Canada today and you will find the market value of the shares 25 to 100 per cent. above par and a record of handsome annual dividends since the inception of the corporation.

The future success of the Royal City Gas Improvement Company, Ltd., of New Westminster, a company recently incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia, with an authorized capital of $150,000, divided into 1500 shares of $100 each, is practically assured, inasmuch as the Coporation of the City of New Westminster has been pleased to grant a broad and perpetual franchise, which embraces the right for this company to operate a gas plant and to manufacture gas for light, heat and power purposes within the city limits.

There are over two thousand three hundred and fifty homes in the City of New Westminster proper, and if we add the suburbs, Millside and Sapperton, the grand total will be about three thousand houses and business buildings, which, of course, affords an excellent market for gas for heating and lighting purposes.

W. Thomas, the expert gas engineer, of Vancouver, conservatively estimates the annual profits of the Royal City Gas Improvement Company, Ltd., at 20 per cent. on a capitalization of $150,000. A copy of Mr. Thomas' letter is reproduced herewith:

Vancouver, B. C., July, 1908.

Royal City Gas Improvement Co., Ltd.,
New Westminster, B. C.

Gentlemen.—I have been asked to state from an engineer's standpoint, my opinion as to what may reasonably be expected from an up-to-date gas plant in your city, and I submit what I regard as a conservative estimate of results under proper management.

With the present population of the city it will easily afford 100,000 feet per day. This calculating on a low average of $1.25 per 1000, will be $125.00 per day.

With an advantageous site on the river, I will, with coal fuel, be willing to put gas in the holder for 25 cents per 1000.

I submit the following as a generous estimate of costs:

Manufacturing, including all labor at the works and deducting by-products	.25 per M.
Administration, two men, office ex., inc., per day	.10 per M.
Taxes, insurance, etc.	.05 per M.
Total cost per 1000	.40 per M.
100,000 feet per day	$125.00
Less cost	40.00
Profit per day	$ 85.00

or $30,000 per annum, equal to 20 per cent. on a capitalization of $150,000.

Yours truly,

(Signed.) W. THOMAS.

Although the shares of the Royal City Gas Improvement Company, Ltd., have been on the market but a few days, $35,000 of stock has already been subscribed. This, in itself, is sufficient evidence of the popularity of gas stock in a corporation identified with the City of New Westminster.

New Westminster is not a "boom" town, but rather the center of and the market for the great Fraser valley agricultural constituency. It is the seat of the Provincial Asylum and the Penitentiary. One of the largest sawmills on the Pacific coast is situated at New Westminster. Canneries, a tannery, shingle mills, a brewery, a distillery, three large machine works, car shops, and many other industries are located in New Westminster and assure this gas company a constant and increasing market for a great portion of their gas output.

"BONDS AND MORTGAGES," one of the leading financial journals of America, and considered as the most reliable authority on all matters of investment, says in a recent issue: "Of the 877 gas companies having a stock and bond issue of $575,000,000, less than 1 per cent. have failed to pay, thus justifying the sense of security felt in gas enterprises."

The City of New Westminster is destined to be the great fresh-water port of the Province of British Columbia. The new thirty-foot channel from New Westminster to the Gulf will admit to the wharves of New Westminster the largest ocean-going craft.

We will see in the near future many new industries and a marked increase in population in New Westminster City. With the growth of the City of New Westminster, the Royal City Gas Improvment Company, Ltd., will advance gradually and steadily, and will eventually become of the greatest commercial and financial institutions in British Columbia, and, incidentally, one of the greatest gas-producing plants in the Dominion of Canada.

The shares have been placed on the market at par, $100 each, and the terms of payments are exceptionally easy. 10 per cent. payable with application, 15 per cent. payable on allotment, and the balance in installments of 10 per cent. at intervals of one month. The company has issued a clear and comprehensive prospectus, a copy of which will be furnished on application to

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS

THE STAGE

We Are King.

The story of "We Are Kings" is told by the office boy with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"In the land of the free and the home of the brave, and where every man is a sovereign, there is nothing so well liked as a play with a king in it. Dukes and Earls will do well, but a king is the thing. Politically speaking we have a profound contempt for titles, and particularly do we scorn 'a tawdry crown,' but at the play we like either an old style king who wears a sort of bathrobe edged with ermine and has a red nose and a royal appetite for wine, women and song, or an up-to-date athletic young kinglet who wears a red coat, patent top boots and white trousers, and hunts foxes and other varmints in a little principality not big enough to hold the entire fox hunt.

"We Are King" is a comedy, in which one of the latter-day monarchs is presented. He is King of Kahnburg, which he explains as an American tourist who galloped around one day because he did not have a passport and could not cross the frontier. Hector, he's the king, although Hector doesn't sound a bit like a king's name, has gotten the kingdom of Kahnburg in debt about as deeply as a Yale freshman, from Pittsburg gets, before he dares to tell his millionaire 'Gun'ner.'

Revolution is eminent. A newspaper correspondent, the double of Hector, strays into Kahnburg and plotters imprison the king and put the newspaperman upon the throne. To the lay mind making a newspaper reporter king would not necessarily and inevitably get the kingdom out of debt, but the kingmakers of Kahnburg had probably known few reporters.

The newspaper reporter no sooner gets to be king than he reduces the taxes, makes a pact with the common people and begins to make love to the Princess Olivia of Berenia, who wears the crown in an adjoining principality.

It developes that Hector was not the real king but a substitute of peasant stock, who had been sneaked into the palace and that the reporter is really the sprig of royalty who ought to have been wearing the crown. The wedding is therefore quietly solemnized with only the inhabitants of the two principalities present."

Mr. Carroll in the double role of Gustavus Venner and Hector, King of Kahnburg, is a capable actor. Mr. Cross has a capable company supporting Mr. Carroll and they will be seen at the Opera House tomorrow night.

The Great Train Robbery.

"The Montana Limited," which will be seen at the Opera House on Friday, tells a beautiful story of the love of a man for a noble woman and for an erring twin brother. The brothers are identical in appearance, but one is a man of honor, the other a stage robber. This brings about complications which form the basis of this absorbing drama. A realistic train robbery by one of the brothers results in the arrest of the innocent twin for the crime. The mutual love of the brothers is the instrument by which the guilt is lodged where it belongs, and the wavering love of a trusting woman regained. The scenic effects, coupled with the heart interest of the story, make "The Montana Limited" indubitably one of the finest melodramas now before the public.

HOW MUCH NUISANCE MAY DOG CAUSE NEIGHBORS?

Question Was Before County Court and Adjourned for Authorities —Many Cases Later.

The following cases were before his honor Judge Howay in the county court yesterday:

A. H. Barker, vs. W. J. Ware. This was an action for $250 to recover loss of a dog shot by defendant. The defence was that it was shot because of the annoyance caused by its howling and barking from time to time. Twice it had been chased away but the third time death came from defendant's gun. The evidence having been closed, an adjournment was taken for the counsel to submit legal rulings on how far a man may go to abate a nuisance, and if in doing so the shooting of a dog under these circumstances was justifiable. C. Kilburn appeared for the plaintiff, and C. S. Arnold, of Bowser, Reid and Wallbridge, for the defendant.

Schaake Machine Works vs. Selkirk & Ainslee, H. L. Edmonds for plaintiff, A. C. Brydone-Jack for the defendant. Adjourned till next court.

Hanford vs Heaps Timber Co., Ltd. set for Judge Grant on Nov. 19. A. Wheeler for plaintiff, A. H. Wallbridge for defendant.

W. F. Page vs. W. Ellis. G. E. Corbould for plaintiff. Trial set for Nov. 30th

Vanstone Heating & Plumbing Co. vs. Kwong Man Tai and Brymner. Set for December court. H. L. Edmonds for plaintiff, G. E. Corbould for Mr. Brymner.

R. H. Quaggan vs J. Cooper. Referred to registrar to take account. W. Norman Bole, K. C., for plaintiff, H. L. Edmonds for defendant.

DeLaval Separator Co. vs. J. R. Morrison. Mr. Edmonds for plaintiff and W. G. McQuarrie for defendant. December 1 was fixed as day of trial.

W. T. Cooksley vs. City of New Westminster. A. Wheeler for plaintiff, W. G. McQuarrie for defendant's. Set for day to be fixed, also similarly for F. F. Cooksley vs. City.

Geo. Browse vs. George Moody, G. E. Corbould for plaintiff, W. G. McQuarrie for defendant. Adjourned till Nov. 16 to fix day of trial.

Harrington et al., vs. Harrington. Mr. Donaghy for plaintiff, Mr. McQuarrie for defendant. Next court.

Maple Grove Lumber Co. vs. H. V. Tucker. G. E. Corbould for plaintiff, H. B. Walkem for defendant. Next court.

P. Murphy vs. W. S. Rose and Rose & Co., J. D. Kennedy for plaintiff, W. F. Hansford for defendant. Stands generally.

W. F. Hansford vs. W. J. Kerr. Mr. Walkem for plaintiff, H. L. Edmonds for defendant. Adjourned for a week to fix day of trial.
