FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF WRECK VICTIMS

Universal Sympathy at the Burial of Motormen—Comrades and Societies Parade

The funerals of the victims of the accident on the interurban on Saturday night were the cause of widespread interest and sympathy in the city yesterday, and it is said that never before has there such a large and representative procession as was seen on the streets following the remains of Norman Murdock McDonald to their last resting place at the Odd Fellows' cemetery. As the body of Motorman [illegible] had also to be escorted from his late home at Sapperton, the proceedings were naturally prolonged. Special arrangements had been made by the B. C. E. company to permit as many of their employees as possible to attend, so the work and traffic cars were suspended during the afternoon, and the car shops employing in one sphere nearly 200 employees of the B. C. E. R. attended. Over half from Vancouver, from which place two special cars conveyed them. The service for Mr. McDonald was held in the Orange hall, where the remains had lain over night. It was conducted by the Rev. T. R. Peacock, of Central Park Presbyterian church, of which deceased had been a member. The lodge room was crowded to overflow, and the hymn "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung. After the service there was a solemn procession of the various societies attending behind the coffin.

In the course of his address Mr. Peacock said that in the presence of death he would like to remind them that they were running, as their brother through life as in a fog. There were many railwaymen along the line, all conductors too and might they be given wisdom. Would that he might say, it seemed, responsible for this awful accident had been given a share of wisdom. They thought of him with kindly sympathy, and each one [illegible] someone was to blame, and was sure that man had been charged with that sense of responsibility with flippancy, for there was no room for flippancy in this sad affair which would have prevented it. Might there come out from that experience with a new zeal for faithfulness in duty and humanity. Might the hearts of the bereaved ones be comforted that day, and the hearts be cheered by the thought that the absent still have life.

A procession was then formed, headed by the street railwaymen, followed by the two local lodges of the Knights of Pythias, No. 6 and No. 16, and of the two lodges of Orangemen, No. 1158 and 1582. Then came the funeral vehicles. The procession marched down Sixth street from the Orange hall to Royal avenue, and was joined by the funeral seen in the city. At the cemetery, with the committal services of the Orangemen, read by Brother White, and of the Knights of Pythias, read by Rev. T. Wardlaw Taylor, the body was laid to rest on the hillside, surrounded by a large concourse of persons.

Leaving the open grave and the assembled throng the procession slowly reformed, and marched on to escort the body of the other victim, then lying at his home at Keary street.

The pallbearers were W. W. Forrester, Neil Matheson, Neil McDonald, Chas. Ellis, D. Cattron and J. A. Miller. The principal mourners were D. McKenzie, Mrs. McGillivray and Mrs. Fitzgerald, cousins. Deceased was a member of California lodge, Glace Bay, N.S., of the Orange order, and a visitor at the local lodges.

Representing the B. C. E. R. were R. H. Sperling, general manager; F. R. Glover, assistant general manager; W. Woodruffe, general superintendent; D. J. Stewart, local manager of the Sapperton line; W. Whitney, assistant traffic manager, Vancouver; D. J. McQuarrie, local manager; W. E. Dunlop, traffic superintendent; T. Driscoll, superintendent of the car shops, and R. Hughes, master mechanic.

Mayor Keary was at the Orange hall, but official business prevented him from going to the cemetery.

The following societies were represented as follows:

Orangemen—Lodge 1158, W. M. R. Robinson and members. Lodge 1582, W. H. F. W. Cook and members.

BISHOP DONTENWILL IS COMING FOR FINAL VISIT

New Superior General of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate Will Name Archbishop of Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 11.—Father Welch, pastor of the Roman Catholic church, has received official advices from Rome that the See of New Westminster will be transferred to this city which has been raised to the dignity of an Archbishopric. It is likely that Bishop Dontenwill will have the chief voice in naming the new incumbent, as canon law giving the clergy the right to make nominations does not prevail in this province.

Bishop Dontenwill, who was recently elected superior-general of the Oblate order, with permanent headquarters in Rome, is expected to reach here shortly in order to close up his affairs. Until he reaches Vancouver no official advices of the choice of the Holy See in regard to the position of Archbishop will likely be made, whether [illegible] has yet been considered.

PORTUGUESE DEPUTY PREFERS SUICIDE TO KILLING KING

Lisbon, Nov. 10.—Alberto Costa, a former member of the Chamber of Deputies, and one of the most prominent Republican leaders, committed suicide here today. His act has created a tremendnous sensation.

Senhor Costa was a member of the Black Cross Society, which was involved in the assassination last February of King Carlos and his son. It is believed that this society selected Costa by lot to kill the present King, Manuel, and that Costa preferred to kill himself to committing this deed.

Costa was in prison at the time of the assassination of King Carlos, having been confined because of alleged connection with the plot against His Majesty. He fought several political duels in recent months, in one of which he was wounded. Last summer he demanded the impeachment of the members of the Franco cabinet on charges of complicity in the assassination of King Carlos.

TO BE GOVERNMENT MILITARY EXPERT

Ottawa, Nov. 11—Major-General Sir Percy Lake, in deciding to remain in Canada instead of rejoining the imperial army this fall, has given up in doing so, an offer which was given him of appointment as quartermaster-general under Lord Kitchener in India.

Sir Percy Lake is an exceptionally capable soldier and the Canadian authorities were most anxious for him to remain. The appointment he now holds of inspector-general of the Canadian forces will probably be changed in such a way as to make him expert adviser to the government in military matters with a seat at the militia council.

PROBLEM IN WIVES SETTLED BY OTTAWA

Victoria, Nov. 11.—That Chinese women, wives of Englishmen, are free to enter the Dominion without the payment of the $500 head tax is the decision handed down at Ottawa in response to a situation created on the arrival of the Empress of India at Victoria last Saturday. Among the passengers were two British engineers who had been working on the Canton-Kowloon road. They brought their Chinese wives with them and held that the women had taken their husband's nationality and should not be amendable to the tax.

HEAD TAX WILL BE MADE PROHIBITIVE

Nelson, Nov. 11.—Speaking in support of Smith Curtis last night, Hon. Frank Oliver declared that if the five hundred dollar head tax would not exclude Chinese, the government would raise it as fast as Chinaman's wages had lately been raised. Similarly he pointed out, Hindus, although they were British subjects, were not admitted unless they had two hundred dollars. This was meant to be prohibitive and if the amount was not sufficient to be prohibitive, it would be made so.

PROPERTY OWNERS ASK FOR CEMENT SIDEWALKS AND SEWER

Several Wealthy Residents Object to Paying Share of Cost of Paving Columbia Street, But Favor Other Projects—Improvement of Main Thoroughfare Left to City Council.

Strong opposition to the paving of Columbia street was manifested at a meeting of ratepayers held yesterday afternoon in the city hall, the chief objection being that the cost would have to be partly borne by a few property owners instead of by the corporation as a whole. The question was finally shelved by being left entirely in the hands of the city council.

With regard to the cement sidewalk and sewer propositions, more unanimity of opinion prevailed, all interested parties endorsing the schemes within certain limitations. As a result of the meeting, the building of the sewer is assured, and cement sidewalks are within the range of possibility, but the transforming of Columbia street into a thoroughfare worthy of being classed as a city business street still seems as distant as ever.

On being voted to the chair, Mayor Keary explained the reasons for the calling of the meeting, the object of which was to determine whether three needed improvements, on Columbia street, cement sidewalks, a sewerage system, and the proper paving of the street should be undertaken under the local improvement plan or not. Having referred to the representative assembly present, and to the urgency of the work under consideration, the mayor called upon City Clerk Duncan to read the figures covering the estimated cost of the improvements.

Cost of the Work.

Mr. Duncan then quoted figures as follows: Cost of cement sidewalk $27,937.95; sewer, $9137.50; street paving, cedar blocks, $40,000; concrete, $50,000; vitrified brick, $56,000; a total of, in round numbers, from $73,000 to $89,000, according to the paving decided upon.

D. S. Curtis pointed out that most of the business men were strongly in favor of the sidewalk and sewer proposition, but that it was hardly fair that they should be asked to contribute to the improving of the street; the city should bear the entire cost. According to an estimate which he had made, the paving of the street would cost $20 per lineal foot, which would mean $10 per foot frontage for each property owner. In his case he would have to pay $330 for the paving, while the sidewalk and sewer would bring his expenditure to $450 which, spread over a twenty year term, would mean an annual outlay of $25. He was quite prepared to pay his share of the improvement.

B. C. E. R. Will Assist.

In reply to a question by Ald. Gray, Ald. Henley, chairman of the board of works, stated that he had been given to understand that the B. C. E. R. was prepared to pave seventeen feet in the centre of the roadway, this taking in both street car tracks (when the double tracking of Columbia street is completed) with a liberal margin. This would to some extent reduce the cost of the work.

At this stage an adjournment was called to permit all present to make a study of the plans of the proposed work prepared by Engineer Brice, the different maps and charts being spread on the table for inspection.

On resuming, the chairman improved on a previous sugestion made by Mr. Curtis that the work should commence at Sixth street. In the speaker's opinion, the work should be started at the Bank of Montreal.

In order to bring the discussion to a head, T. J. Trapp moved that the different improvements be taken up and discussed separately. He made a motion that cement sidewalks be constructed from McNeeley street to Church street, and, if thought advisable, the Fourth street. The construction of the sidewalk on the south side of the street from Sixth street east to be postponed indefinitely if necessary.

In seconding the motion, T. H. Smith mentioned that he believed the improvement of Columbia street was one of the best investments the business men of the city could make.

All Willing to Contribute.

After lengthy discussions, the motion that cement sidewalks be built was finally carried unanimously, all ratepayers present expressing their willingness to contribute towards the cost of the work. Those property owners who have built cement walks in front of their premises will contribute towards the cost of altering their sidewalks to suit the new grade.

Road Improvements.

Mr. Trapp, opening the debate on the street paving controversy, expressed the opinion that macadamized street was good enough for the present, as he understood that it would be torn up next year for the purpose of laying down gas mains.

J. C. Armstrong wished to know whether property owners would be taxed extra for Columbia street improvements. He was informed that such was the intention.

No New Mains on Columbia.

Ald. Gray informed the meeting that the manager of the new gas works had made known to him his intention of putting mains on Front and Clarkson streets, and not on Columbia.

A question as to whether property owners on the north side of Columbia street would be expected to pay the entire cost of the sewer was voiced by George Adams. He thought that residents of Agnes and other streets benefitting from the sewer should contribute. That all residents using the sewer would be assessed was the tenor of a reply made to Mr. Adams by Mayor Keary.

T. R. Pearson questioned Engineer Brice as to whether the sewer was to be paid for pro rata by the property owners. In reply Mr. Brice informed Mr. Pearson that the pro rata had not been taken into consideration in making out an estimate of the cost of the work.

Individual expressions of opinion were exchanged for some time without much enlightenment being thrown on the subject under discussion. Finally D. S. Curtis introduced a resolution that "All property owners here assembled agree to assume their share of the cost of concrete sidewalks and sewer, but that the paving of Columbia street be left to the corporation."

There was no seconder to the motion.

"Paying for a Play Ground."

A. G. Major was strongly of the opinion that the people were not in favor of a sewer; he doubted if the south side property owners would be willing to contribute to the cost. Everybody appeared to be in favor of better sidewalks. Speaking of the paving of the street, Mr. Major protested against a few ratepayers paying for the building of a play ground for the entire city.

Engineer Brice, replying to a question, stated that it would be advisable to build the sewer first, sidewalk next, and then proceed with the paving of the street. Storm water would be carried away down the sewer, which would be low enough to drain basements east of Begbie street. West of this point, flooded basements would have to be pumped dry. The double pipe system, one conveying sewerage and the other storm water, had been abandoned in all large cities as obsolete.

After some further discussion, Mr. Curtis moved that the city council be requested to proceed with the construction of the sewer at as early a date as possible. This was carried unanimously.

Left to the Council.

With regard to the macadamizing of the street, a suggestion was made that the work be undertaken at the entire expense of the corporation.

Mayor Keary pointed out that no funds were available for that purpose at the present time.

Finally a motion by T. J. Trapp, seconded by C. G. Major, that the macadamizing of Columbia street be left to the corporation to deal with was carried unanimously.

Those present at the meeting were Mayor W. H. Keary, Ald. J. J. Johnston, Capt. Preston, Ald. E. J. Fader, T. Furness, Ald. J. Henley, P. T. Bowler, H. L. Edmonds, Ald. Garrett, T. R. Pearson, J. M. Kenny, Ald. A. W. Gray, H. R. Davidson, D. S. Curtis, Ald. J. Jardine, L. L. Gardhouse, T. H. Smith, James Cunningham, Ald. B. W. Shiles, C. G. Major, J. C. Armstrong, T. Owens, W. S. Collister, W. R. Gilley, F. J. Hart, J. A. Lee, T. J. Trapp, J. Daniels and Engineer Brice.

DISABLED RAMONA BEACHED UP RIVER

Mishap Causes Vessel to Settle—Boats Were Lowered to Land Passengers.

The voyage of the Ramona down river yesterday from Chilliwack was marked by an occurrence which might easily have led to a serious wreck. She was heavily loaded, with about 50 tons of freight, mostly oats, hay and potatoes, and carried eighteen passengers. About 1:30 p.m., when near Glen Valley wharf, twenty miles from this city, the vessel gave a list to port, and as it was anticipated that something was wrong with the distribution of the cargo, an examination was made, and it was found that one of the valves of the siphon hose had become misplaced. In order to avoid further danger the vessel was beached near the shore, and she then listed to starboard, the passengers being removed as soon as the boats could be lowered. They were taken across the river to Whonnock, and came on to the city by the Seattle train, the Western Steamboat company paying their fares.

The passenger list consisted of three women, nine white men, one Hindu, two Japanese, and three Chinese, and included Mrs. Hemphill, the wife of the well known contractor, who was ill at the time. Her transfer to the boats was effected without difficulty. The Brunette Sawmills company's tug Brunette was passing, and rendered considerable assistance. On it came down some of the crew, including Purser Whitmore.

The position at the present time is that the boat is in fairly shallow water, heeled to starboard, with the stern almost out of water and the bow at a lower level in about six feet of water. Comparative little damage has been done to the cargo, except to the lower tiers of fodded. Today the freight will be transferred to a scow, and she will be floated off with the high tide, and brought into town by Gilley Bros.' tug, the "Charlie Gilley."

The Ramona has been in use on the river for some years, and belongs to the Western Steamboat company, an organization of Westminster merchants.

POLITICAL CRIMES TERRORIZE CITIZENS

Calcutta, Nov. 11.This city is terrorized by an outbreak of political crimes. The attempt made three days ago on the life of Sir Andrew H. L. Fraser, the lieutenant-governor of Bengal, was followed by a murder last evening. A Bengal detective who had been active in trailing the revolutionists, was shot down on a crowded street by three men, who riddled his body with bullets.

The people fear to give information concerning the criminals lest vengeance will be visited upon them. The police are powerless.

One of the natives who was found guilty of killing a man named Gossans last summer, was hanged today. Gossans was a native who turned state's evidence against a number of conspirators and was killed in a cell of the Alipur jail by two fellow prisoners. All the police reserves of the city have been ordered on duty to prevent sympathetic demonstrations.

CARLETON WILL ASK TUPPER TO TAKE SEAT

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—A petition is in circulation in Carleton county in which Sir Charles Tupper is asked to accept the representation for that constituency in Parliament. At the recent general election Hon. R. L. Borden was elected both for Carleton county and for Halifax, but it is expected he will decide to sit for the latter, which means the holding of a bye-election in Carleton. That county is perfectly safe for whoever the Conservatives select as their standard-bearer.

YOUNG LIBERALS ARE GIVEN SOUND ADVICE

Value of Organization Impressed on Junior Association in Vancouver.

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the Young Liberals last night, and lively, cheery spirit of optimism pervaded the gathering. E. E. Teetzel, retiring president, presided, with W. H. Waddell as secretary. The following officers were elected:

Honorary president—J. A. Macdonald, K.C., M.L.A.

President—G. E. McCrossan.

Honorary vice-president—Mr. Davidson.

Second vice-president—L. F. Robertson.

Treasurer—A. R. Creagh.

Secretary—B. Brown.

Executive—Messrs. A. M. Pound, W. H. Clark, E. E. Teetzel, W. C. Brown, J. E. Norcross, Neil Buchanan, W. H. Waddell, William Savage, William Kilroy, R. J. Deachman, J. W. DeB. Farris, C. W. Brydone-Jack.

Apart from mere routine, the event of the evening was a speech by W. W. B. McInnes, in which the Liberal candidate spoke with his accustomed fire and measured deliberation. The cordiality of his reception was one of the best features of the evening.

"Billy's" Advice.

Mr. McInnes began by thanking the Young Liberals for the strong and hearty support which they gave to him personally, and to the Liberal party in the late election. He assured them that he appreciated that very much.

Talking about the election," he continued, I consider that it has given us a great deal of food for thought, and there are a great many lessons which we, as a party, can draw from that occurrence, on all of which I do not intend to dwell. It has taught us again the necessity for continued and systematic organization, and I think it has dissipated once for all the idea that we can jump into an election a few weeks before it takes place and, by spasmodic effort, win. It has taught us the necessity of better association among ourselves, of better fellowship among all classes of Liberals.

Preach Liberalism.

"Among the things it has taught us, two things stand out most prominently, one of which is that it is absolutely essential to the success of the Liberal party and this western country that we keep continually before the electors the fundamental principles of true Liberalism. We should impress those principles upon the public, irrespective of what we may call party policy. Liberalism is something greater in its nature than partyism. In this western country, where thought is free and impulses are large, we should lose no opportunity of keeping the ideals of Liberalism to the front, even if to do so is not in accordance, at times, with partyism.

Get Busy Now.

"The second lesson is that it is up to us to do more aggressive fighting between elections. We are too much inclined to feel that the real fight is on just at election time. The game of politics, if you want to call it that, is always on (cheers), and we have got to be playing the game from the day that the polls close till the day they open again.

"Taking along this line suggests that there is no body, no section of the Liberal party, which can do more real political work than the Young Liberals. In the nature of things, youth is enthusiastic and aggressive, and it is up to the Young Liberals to lead the way in getting into the fight just now, and staying in it persistently and conscientiously till the next election is fought and won. (Cheers.)

Responsibility of City.

"While this city has seen fit, in its wisdom, or in the temporary lack of wisdom, to vote against the government, the great electorate of Canada has seen fit to give Sir Wilfrid Laurier the biggest majority that he has ever had. (Cheers.) While it would have been an advantage to the party and to the city if the city of Vancouver had returned a supporter of the government who would have advised in an intimate way with the government as to the needs of the

New Minister's Hard Row.

"There is another reason why a member of the opposition is of less value to his constituents than a supporter of the government. Even admitting what is not the fact—that an opposition member has the same access to the government party nothing he advised or suggested would have the force, which the same advice or suggestion would have coming from a friend. That was natural to everyone. For instance, if the head of a department receives a suggestion from a supporter of the government and he knows it is a friendly advice, and reacts it as such. On the other hand, if the advice comes from a man who is a rank political opponent, he is immediately on his guard. He does not know how far he is to accept it as in the interests of the constituency as a whole, and how far as in the interests of his political opponents in the constituency. The most he can do in such circumstances is to go to some friend of the government party more or less conversant with conditions in the district affected, and ascertain from him how far it is correct.

"For these reasons I said on the night of the election that Mr. Cowan could not serve the city as well as a government supporter could have served it, and I repeat the statement now and I do so without bitterness."

Continuing, the speaker repeated and emphasized his conception that it is the duty of the Liberal party in the constituency to press strongly on the government the claims of this district. "We can best serve the Liberal party," he declared, "by looking well after the interests of Vancouver." He repeated the expression of his appreciation of the support given him by the Young Liberals, and said he would be at all times anxious to have their advice on all matters pertaining to the patronage, and so far as in him lay, he would be prepared to act on that advice.

Mr. McCrossan, the newly-elected president, made a short speech, in which he spoke of the election as having been lost and won on the point of organization.

A resolution was unanimously agreed to, voicing continued loyalty to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and felicitating him on the result of the election.

It was agreed to arrange for a series of debates, in which such subjects will be dealt with as local option, woman's suffrage, and popularly elected licensing boards.

Whisky Jelly Latest.

North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 11.—Whisky jelly made its appearance in North Yakima yesterday, being recommended by a representative of a Kentucky distillery as a panacea for local option laws. The "drinkless drink" comes in the form of tablets or of stick candy and can be chewed or dissolved in water, its effect being sufficiently like the "real stuff" to convince of its power.

THE SLOUGH OF DESPOND!

is good, and in its miry depths the bad politicians of the east will wallow for the next 20 years, but we of the more favoured west and youngest of all in the family of confederated provinces have been forgiven, and even though we have been awfully naughty let us climb out of it, for do we not hear the Great Liberal Chieftain's cheery voice promising us absolution, and stating that he intends carrying out his program of developing the great west in spite of the fact that we have not been very good to him. So, there, with three cheers for let us get into the game again. Our prosperity is assured in spite of what the croakers predict, and this great country must continue to grow by leaps and bounds for years to come.

OURS IS POSITIVELY the only sub-division on the market through which the Chilliwack tram runs. Others are advertised as fronting on the tram, etc., and in one case, it is said, their proprietors even went so far as to try to persuade a surveyor to plant stakes across his sub-division, marked to represent the B. C. Electric tram line. This is about the limit, and such criminal attempts at misrepresentation should be severely punished.

We have our reputation for honest and fair dealing to sustain, and when we state that we believe there is no better chance to make money than by investing right here, we bear that fact in mind.

The work of placing ties along the line is being pushed ahead and in a short time the rails will be laid throughout the first section to Cloverdale. We have a number of choice blocks left in our 900 acre sub-division at South Westminster, and now is the right time to secure one, or better still, two of them.

When cars commence running prices must jump right up, and at no point along the whole route to Chilliwack will such marked advances be noticeable as at this end, where our principals practically control the situation. When this splendid subdivision is sold out, which cannot be long at the rate the 5-acre blocks are now going, they will subdivide and put on the market another 1000 acres. The prices, however, will be more than double what they are at present, so don't put off, or one of the chances, which only come occasionally in a lifetime, will pass by.

You will readily understand what it will mean to have about 2000 acres of good land, which up to the present has lain idle, practically in sight of New Westminster, subdivided and settled on by hundreds of prosperous and happy families.

Why, prices simply must climb right up, and almost before we are aware of it, reach the same level as at Central Park, on the Vancouver and Westminster line, viz., $1,000 per acre.

Stop! Think!! Act!!!

Our carriages go over every day. Any hour will suit us. It only takes half an hour to drive over.

POOR FELLOWS.

The trio, Messrs. Barnard, Cowan and Taylor, marooned as they are on the iceberg of opposition, have a chilly prospect before them. Shut off as they are from supply, with only a communication by wireless to tell of their distress, their position is not an enviable one. The "pack of wolves" offer them no pleasant company as they snap and snarl at each other in the icy recesses of the Opposition benches. Even their cries for pity and means of rescue to be used at the first coming of open sea four years hence will be snuffed out by the closure. They are lean now, what will they be four or five years from now? Even the crows will not find a picking on any one of them. If all is wreckage in their sight now, what hope have they for the next parliament, if their prophesies to the people became fact? They are in this dilemma. If the country goes ahead as the Liberal Government believes it will their prophesies will be shown to have been unreliable; on the other hand, if their prophesies prove true, things will be in a much worse state than they now say exist, they could not ask for control then, in the face of their expressed joy at not being required by the country to gather together the wreckage now.

Whatever way one looks at the position of these unfortunates, the conclusion is that they are hopelessly marooned.

NEW FACES.

There will be many new faces in the next parliament. One cannot with accuracy give all of them at this moment, but the list is formidable, even now. The fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier retains his hold on the people with so many new representatives from both sides is additional evidence of the popularity of the Premier.

The following is a list of new faces to be seen in the House next session and while not complete is none the less interesting:

SAPPERTON SITES ATTRACT CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION

Advantages of Suburb Now Being More Fully Recognized—Several Industries Projected.

Up to quite a recent date the claims of Sapperton both as a residential suburb and also as a site for important industries, have to all appearance been ignored: now, however, it is noticeable that the home seeker is casting inquiring eyes in that direction and the number of small villas and more pretentious dwelling houses that are daily being erected shows that the comparatively low price of lots, the lovely situation and the industrial future of the district is being more widely appreciated by those who are on the lookout both for home comforts and also for profit margins on their investments. There is no doubt of the fact that at no very distant date Sapperton will be the industrial end of the city of New Westminster. Already many of the later industries, such as the new gas works proposition, have purchased properties in that district, and there are many other projects on the way which are expected to locate their works somewhere in that direction.

Dr. A. B. Buchanan, brother of S. B. Buchanan, Sapperton, is expected to arrive in the city about the end of this month. Dr. Buchanan has leased his extensive business in Detroit, Mich., for three years, and fully intends to make Sapperton or New Westminster his permanent headquarters.

Dr. Coleman Smith, of London, Ont., who visited S. B. Buchanan, of Sapperton, last year was so pleased with the prospects and outlook of this district that he is now selling out his farming properties near London and has notified his intention of seeking a location in the Fraser valley, somewhere in the neighborhood of Sapperton preferred.

George Buchanan, who is now in Detroit, will pay New Westminster another visit early next spring.

COLLEGE LITS. CHALLENGED BY VANCOUVER METHODISTS

Debate Will Be Interesting Feature of Joint Program—Teams in Junior League Working Into Shape.

Columbian College Literary society has received a challenge from the Wesley Methodist church, of Vancouver, for a debate. The challenge has been accepted, but no date has yet been set, nor the subject for argument decided upon. A trial debate will be held at the college, before the team to represent the school is picked.

High hopes are entertained by the students for the team which the college has entered in the junior league, as it is the best junior bunch the school has ever collected together. Next Saturday the intermediate team of the college plays the V. A. C. in this city. This team has no defeat marked against it yet, but it is at present in a very weak condition, and little interest seems to be taken in it. The exponents of the two varieties of football, rugby and soccer have at last settled their difficulties, the rugby men being granted permission to organize a team under the auspices of the C. C. A. A. At the beginning of the season the soccer enthusiastics endeavored to work a squeeze play and shut out the supporters of rugby from playing their game, but at the last two meetings of the Athletic association they have been outvoted.

Interest in basketball is being sustained and although at present the junior team is not very strong, the outlook is that before the season closes a stronger team than the star aggregation of last year will be produced. Only two players of the team of last year are back at school this term, and the new material is taking some time to work into shape. Yesterday afternoon the first year arts team won easily in a game in the inter-class series from the theologues.

Next Saturday evening the intermediates and matrics, and the science and the faculty will play.

The schedule for the junior teams in the Vancouver District Soccer league has been made out and is as follows:

Nov. 14.—Eburne vs. Nationals.

Nov. 28.—Columbian college vs. Westminster.

Dec. 5.—Nationals vs. Westminster.

Dec. 12.—Columbian college vs. Eburne.

Dec. 25.—Eburne vs. Nationals.

Jan. 1.—Eburne vs. Westminster.

Jan. 30.—Nationals vs. Columbian college.

Feb. 6.—Columbian college vs. Westminster.

Feb. 20.—Columbian college vs. Nationals.

Feb. 27.—Eburne vs. Westminster.

March 13.—Columbian college vs. Eburne.

The Road to Wealth

IT IS THE FIRST THOUSAND THAT COUNTS—SAVE THAT AND YOU'RE ON THE WAY.

There is really nothing like financial independence or like having a few dollars some money laid by. Then if you want money you've got it. You don't have to go to your friends to borrow and take the risk of being refused. You would then be compelled to go without what you need. If you have money in The Royal Bank of Canada you can go there and get it without any delay. There might come a time when you would need money for your family or for yourself very much, and it's a grand thing to have it when you can get it.

There is nothing mean about being saving and accumulating money; on the contrary it is every man's duty to make himself financially independent.

HAVE YOU EVER NOTICED how changed a man becomes after he has saved his first $1000?

START A SAVINGS ACCOUNT TODAY, and you will certainly be surprised how fascinating the habit becomes.

HINDUS WILLING TO GO TO HONDURAS

Scheme of Deportation of Indigent East Indians Favored by Fellow Natives.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—The Hindu delegates will report favorably on the proposition to transport their fellow-countrymen of British Columbia to British Honduras. This is the advice received by cable from Mr. J. B. Harkin, private secretary to the minister of the interior, who is now in Belize, the capital of the Central American colony.

It is understood that Mr. Harkin and the East Indians will leave next week for Vancouver. On their return there the Hindus will present many reasons why the offer of the Imperial government to locate them in British Honduras should be accepted. The cost of their passage from British Columbia to the colony will probably be borne jointly by the Ottawa and Imperial authorities. The Hindus will be employed on railway construction work and on the sugar plantations at a rate not exceeding one dollar a day. It is expected that ninety-five per cent. of the East Indians resident in British Columbia will accept the liberal terms respecting employment guaranteed by the governor of British Honduras. Those who refuse to emigrate and who are found out of work during the winter months will be deported to Hong Kong.

THE STAGE

"We Are King."

"We Are King" with Edmund Carrell in the leading role is a three act comedy by Lieut. Gowan Kean, author of "The Magic Melody" and was used by Mr. Walker Whiteside for three seasons as a starring vehicle.

The action is in Kahnburg, a small principality in Germany, and deals with the complication in trying to dethrone King Hector, a despot who has run his kingdom into debt and ground down his subjects. Gustavus Venner, correspondent for the London Record, a light hearted fellow, wanders into Kahnburg in search of news. He is arrested as a spy. The Prime Minister and his followers who are plotting to rid the kingdom of Hector, are so impressed with Venner's marvellous resemblance to the King, that they induce Venner to impersonate the King, who is away on a secret mission.

Venner under the impression that he is rendering the King and the court a favor, and seeing "good copy," consents. Hector returns unexpectedly and is dragged away to prison as a spy, while Venner costumed as the king lowers the taxes, throws the palace open to the common people and gets into all sorts of ludicrous complications through his ignorance of court affairs.

"We Are King" will be the attraction at the Opera House tonight.

"The Montana Limited."

"The Montana Limited," with its superb scenic effects, its absorbing story of love which prompts a man to offer his life to save that of an erring brother upon whose head a price has been set in expiation of his crimes, which include a sensational train robbery, is a notable contribution to the American stage. Produced in lavish fashion by the Klimt and Gazzolo Amusement company, it is today the most brilliant offering at the popular priced house now on the stage. Opera House tomorrow night.

Brandon, Nov. 11.—Judge Cumberland has granted an official recount in the matter of the poll at the Sifton-Daly election which will open today.

Melbourne, Nov. 11.—Mr Fisher, one of the radical Labor leaders of Australia, will form the new Australian cabinet. The House defeated the premier, Alfred Deakin, on the division. The Laborites withdrew their support because the government has not pushed labor measures radical enough to suit them.

This will be the second time the labor party has been in power in the Australian federal parliament. J. C. Watson, another of the Labor leaders was premier for a short time in 1904.

SUNSET

Bright dipping Orb in the glorious west,
All radient with slumber seeking sun:
Though artists have painted its colorings best,
Yet never with brush true victory won.

Orange, and azure, and crimson, and grey,
In richest of hues, in colorings bright,
In rainbow tints of ceaseless changing ray,
A presage of gloom, yet promising light.

The vision soon ends, but age after age,
Man seeks its embrace so feelingly made,
Fresh courage taking from its message gay,
To his work returns ere the hoar flakes fade.

For many a year, in blend of beauty,
The Orb has looked down from its lofty height,
On gallant heroes, doing their duty,
Till the great Day of Everlasting Light.
