NEGRO SUSPECT IS CAUGHT IN VANCOUVER

Man Accused of Most Brutal Crime Now Behind Prison Bars---Other Arrests.

Roger Vinetto, the colored man suspected of the brutal murder of little Clementina Nahu at North Vancouver on Saturday, was arrested yesterday evening at a negro club on Dupont street, Vancouver. The man was hurried to the police station before the news of his arrest was allowed to leak out.

Several arrests have been made previously in connection with the murder, but none of the suspects exactly answered the description of the negro wanted. Telegraphic dispatches were sent all over the coast on Tuesday evening immediately after the discovery of the body, and since that time an army of officers had been on the lookout for the murderer.

Provincial Constable Hutchison at Blaine wired to Sheriff Armstrong yesterday morning that he had intercepted a negro, filling the description, as he was about to cross the international boundary line. The officer was ordered to bring him to New Westminster.

The officer arrived here at 3 o'clock with his man and took him to Vancouver. Chief McIntosh and other officers who saw the suspect were of the opinion that he was not the proper party.

SUBMARINES SCHEDULED TO COME TO PACIFIC

Washington, Nov. 13.—If a proportion of assignment of ships stated today by Secretary Metcalf of the navy holds out as a policy, the Pacific coast will always have at least half of the submarines built, building or to be built by the government.

Four of the new submarine vessels will be sent to the Pacific. Two of these will go to San Francisco and the other two to the Philippines and undoubtedly to Subig bay. This statement of facts is of importance, as it seems to be now a settled policy to get and to keep a large navy in the Pacific and a large navy nowadays must be backed up by submarine construction, just as the army is moving rapidly in the matter of airship equipment.

High Prices in Portland.

Portland, Nov. 13.—High prices still prevail for fuel, good grades of coal selling for $10 and $10.50 a ton, while the best retails at $14. Householders must pay $4.75 a load for slab-wood and for dry sawed fir $7.50 is asked. Indications are that prices will go still higher.

PRESS PUBLICITY IS ASSURED FOR FUTURE

Heroic Efforts to Exclude Reporters From Board of Trade Meetings Results in Defeat of Resolution---Arguments Advanced for Star-chamber Sessions Remarkably Weak.

The resolution moved by J. A. Lee and seconded by George Small, of which notice was given one month ago, to exclude representatives of the press from the meetings of the board of trade, was lost on a deciding vote of seven to ten at the regular meeting of the board last evening. The discussing of the subject was participated in by most of the members present and many views expressed pro and con as to why the meetings should be private.

J. A. Lee led off with a vigorous speech in favor of the resolution. He stated that he had been led to take the step because of the action of one of the local newspapers in reporting a certain discussion some time ago which the reporters had been asked to keep out of print, and also because he had heard a number of members state that they would not attend the meetings of the board so long as the reporters were admitted. He also felt that the presence of reporters interferred with the free and open discussion of subjects.

Business First.

Speaking for himself, he felt that he could not express himself as freely as he would like because his remarks would be reported, and his business arrangements would be interferred with. Mr. Lee stated that as members of the board of trade they were not amenable to the public for what they did. They paid for their privileges and had their rights, and as a board were in no way responsible to the public. They were not to consider reporters or newspapers in the matter, but to act in a manner that would best serve the interests of the board of trade. When Mr. Lee had concluded, President Gilley remarked that the speaker had voiced his sentiments.

Five Fear Publicity.

D. S. Curtis asked Mr. Lee how many persons he had heard give as their reason for remaining away from the board meetings, that they would not attend while the newspapers were represented, to which Mr. Lee replied that five business men had offered that excuse.

Some Funny Business.

Horace Dorer stated that in other cities he had visited, reporters were admitted to the meetings of the board of trade, and he could not understand why New Westminster should adopt such an unusual course. New Westminster had done things in the past that other cities had laughed at, and he was of the opinion that by excluding the press the board of trade would be taking another funny step.

Secretary's Remarkable Statement.

Rev. J. S. Henderson pointed out that there are already two or more newspaper men among the members and he wished to know what it was proposed to do with them, to which A. E. White, bursting with sardonic wit, rejoined that even newspaper men had some sense of their obligations as members.

A Retrograde Step.

A. W. McLeod spoke in favor of admitting the reporters, and should any abuses of the privilege occur in future, he would advise excluding the offending reporter until a guarantee should be forthcoming from his paper that the offence would not be repeated. He felt that it would be a backward movement to exclude the representatives of the press.

Here's the Right Idea.

James Anderson pointed out that in case the newspapers refused to accept the secretary's report of the meeting, the board would be left without an advertising medium.

Mr. Goulet remarked upon the incongruity of the proceedings, inasmuch as they had taken up an hour and a half discussing advertising schemes, and were then about to cut off an advertising medium. The speaker expressed the opinion that they were there to discuss methods of increasing the volume of trade, and he could see no reason why the newspapers should not report the proceedings.

Press Has Sinned Twice.

D. S. Curtis stated that he could recall only two instances where the newspapers had acted against the wishes of the board. He was ready to condemn their action in those instances, but he felt that the board would be adopting a retrograde step in closing the meetings to the press. The board needed the newspapers to inform the world that New Westminster had a board of trade. With regard to Mr. Lee's statement that the publicity given their discussions interferred with their business, the speaker was able to state that he did as much talking at the meetings as any other member with the exception of Mr. Lee, and nothing had ever appeared in the papers as coming from him that had injured his business. On the contrary, his busines was steadily growing. He had never been afraid to express his opinions on public questions, and had always done so in a manner devoid of personalities and he felt that when the members of the board learned to confine their remarks to business, there would be no reason for uneasiness.

Cruel Blow from Small.

George Small seconded the resolution because, as he stated, the members would feel freer to express their opinions with the reporters absent. In their anxiety to get "scoops" the reporters were in the habit of distorting and exaggerating the facts.

Marshall Sinclair felt that the board would be making a mistake by excluding the reporters. The newspapers kept things stirred up.

True in Many Cases.

Mr. Lusby gave as his reason for supporting the resolution that members did not want their remarks distorted. The long reports given by the newspapers were not justified by the importance of the proceedings, and the reporters should be asked to cut down their reports so as to eliminate the distorted appearance and in case they refused, to ask them to withdraw.

W. E. Vanstone stated that the proceedings were often used for political purposes by the papers, and he thought that the board should not lend itself to such results.

Churchman is Not Afraid.

Rev. J. S. Henderson spoke against the resolution. His solution of the difficulty was for the committees to to come to the board meeting with their business well in hand and resolutions prepared. They had been in the habit in the past of leaving everything to be transacted at the meeting, with the result that much unnecessary discussion took place.

Lee's Final Effort.

J. A. Lee closed the debate by reviewing some of his former arguments. The question then went to a vote and lost as stated.

For Future Guidance.

Mr. Curtis then moved that in future requests from individuals during the course of debate that they be not reported, be observed by the reporters unless the wish is overruled by the board. This motion also carried.

Monroe's Pointed Suggestion.

Vancouver, Nov. 13.—Dr. Monro, Dominion immigration officer at this port, has suggested to Commissioner King that all the money collected for Chinese head tax should be used for immigration purposes. Commissioner King will lay the suggestion before the Dominion authorities. Personally he is in accord with the idea, but there is the difficulty that just how much money the head tax will produce cannot be told definitely when appropriations are being made.

vertising contract. The board was favorably impressed with the idea of advertising the city throughout the prairie country, and instructed the advertising committee to investigate.

Among the communications was a petition from the residents of Annacis island, asking the board to use its influence in support of the proposition to have a bridge constructed across the neck of water which divides the island from Lulu island and the city. President W. R. Gilley pointed out that the island contained valuable land and that it should be brought into touch with the city. The petition was referred to the roads and bridges committee.

A communication was received from the Vancouver board of trade, asking the New Westminster board to endorse a resolution, of which a copy was enclosed, favoring the establishment of an "Inter-Imperial News Agency." It was pointed out that nearly all the Associated Press news received in B. C. filters into Canada from the United States; that the greater part of it was uninteresting to Canadians. On motion, the action of the Vancouver board was endorsed.

The question of admitting representatives of the press to the meetings was dealt with, a report of which proceedings appear in another column.

The meeting then adjourned.

The following members were present:

W. R. Gilley, in the chair; J. A. Cunningham, D. S. Curtis, M. Sinclair, John Peck, James Anderson, W. E. Vanstone, C. S. Richmond, H. T. Thrift, H. Dorer, L. B. Lusby, J. A. Lee, E. Goulet, George Small, Rev. J. S. Henderson, George E. Martin, A. W. McLeod, W. J. Kerr, and A. E. White, secretary.

PREACHERS DEPLORE ERASION OF MOTTO

"In God We Trust" Should Never be Effaced From Coins, Declare Divines.

New York, Nov. 13.—The condemnation by the Presbyterian ministers in their meeting yesterday of the omission of the motto, "In God We Trust," from the new issue of $10 gold pieces is heartily indorsed by the clergymen of all denominations, and such a manifestation of public feeling in the matter is predicted as will cause those responsible to reflect on what they have done and rectify what for the moment is charitably accepted as a "mistake."

"The motto, 'In God We Trust,' on our coins," said the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stirres, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church, Fifth avenue and Forty-third street, "stands for religion and patriotism and there should be mighty weighty reasons for its withdrawal. In fact, I do not see that any reason could be advanced for removing it from the coins of our country.

"My stand is: There can be no reason for the removal of the motto which for Americans has been sound religion and sound patriotism, and which stood to us well in our hour of need.

"I must confess when I heard of the matter I was surprised. I could not understand it and I wondered if we were going to cast off all our sheet anchors. We have parted with too much already and surely we are not going to efface the very name of God.

"It is something after all to be cherished very dearly in this materialistic age to have the name of God on the country's coin. In the awful struggle for the dollar, in which men are likely to forget, it is well, even if it be in spite of ourselves, that God's name come before them."

IMMENSE BOOMS READY FOR MARKET

Big Drive is Brought Successfully Down Nimkish River ---Millions Under Way.

After one year's steady work without any returns, the big drive on the Nimkish river, Vancouver island, is now on the move. E. J. Fader, who is the backer of the enterprise, received word yesterday to the effect that over one and a half million feet of logs had come through safely and had been boomed at Beaver creek.

There is upwards of eight million more feet of logs to come down the river. Mr Fader started these camps over a year ago under most difficult circumstances, the engines and donkeys having to be hauled six miles across country to Nimkish lake, while a steamer had also to be taken over the road to the lake. Over $50,000 was spent on the work, which now gives returns for the first time.

Over one and half miles of standing booms were erected four weeks ago, Mr. Fader personally supervising the work. In spite of the expressed opinion of many millmen that booms could never be taken out of the Nimkish river, the result of Mr. Fader's efforts have proved the contrary to be the case. Upon the success of his enterprise depended the commencement of immense industries in which wealthy easterners are interested. These will now be proceeded with.

Several million feet of logs have been sold by contract, and these will be delivered immediately, but the remainder will not be placed on the market until the present financial stringency has passed over, when a better price can be got for the article. Two steamers, the Linda and the Water Lilly, are already at the Nimkish towing the booms, while a third, the Newington, will be sent north this week. Captain Jack Kenman will be in charge.

Chicago Anarchists Celebrate.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—In a hall flaming with Anarchistic decorations, 1,000 men and women today celebrated the anniversary of the famous "Haymarket riots." Laborers killed in that riot were designated "martyrs" and the police were reviled.

INSURANCE MEN WILL FORMALLY ORGANIZE

Legislative Library.

General Discussion of Matters of Interest Will Result in Association.

A meeting of the several fire insurance agents in this city was held on Tuesday evening in the office of Malins & Coulthard. The following were present, representing their different firms: E. A. Graeme, of Malins & Coulthard; E. H. Sands, of White & Shiles; Prof. Barbaree, of the Dominion Trust Co.; J. J. Johnston, of F. J. Hart & Co.; Mr. Hodgson, of Bell & Hodgson; Mr. Diamond, of Diamond & Corbould; W. J. Kerr and H. Cochrane, of W. J. Kerr.

J. J. Johnston acted as secretary of the meeting. A delegation from Vancouver was present and consisted of the following: C. H. Macaulay, of Macaulay & Nicholls; A. C. McCreery, of H. Bell Irving & Co.; J. V. Bodwell, of Richards & Akroyd; J. J. Banfield and A. W. Ross, secretary of the Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters.

J. J. Banfield presided over the meeting. A general discussion took place on matters affecting the properly carrying on of the insurance business in this city and Vancouver. Each of the Vancouver delegates spoke at length upon the subject under discussion. Nothing definite, however, was done. A copy of the proposed constitution and bylaws which will likely govern the committee to be shortly formed, was presented to each agent present. These will be carefully read over and at a meeting to be held next Tuesday evening in the office of Malins & Coulthard, will probably be adopted.

To Relieve Car Shortage.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13.—As a result of a conference held yesterday between Second Vice-president William Whyte, of the C. P. R., Hon. W. R. Motherwell, of Regina, and R. C. Sanderson, secretary of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' association, steps will be taken to immediately relieve the car shortage which is fairly prevalent throughout Saskatchewan. Seventeen engines are being immediately removed from double tracking work on the line between Winnipeg and Fort William and more will be taken off from other lines to meet the requirements, even at the expense of the company's work.

Second Hoch Sentenced.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Nov. 13.—Albert Bates, believed to be a second "Hoch," was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for bigamy. He confesses to many previous marriages.

MILLION OFFERED FOR METHODIST MISSIONS

Large Sum of Money Set Aside for Use in Foreign Fields.

Seattle, Nov. 13.—The Methodist bishops of the board of foreign missions at a late hour yesterday afternoon decided to place $1,632,448 for 1908 at the disposal of the denomination's missionaries who are engaged in converting the heathens in various parts of the world. Of this sum $198,550 was set aside for miscellaneous uses. The appropriation is less than that of 1907, but the amounts divided among the various missionary agents for work in their respective fields shows an increase of $13,906. A decrease was made in the miscellaneous appropriation. This year the miscellaneous appropriation was considerably more than $200,000.

The various missionary headquarters were voted appropriations as follows: Eastern Asia received the largest field appropriation. It was given a $7,000 increase over 1907, and a total of $248,515 to carry on the work for the coming year. Southern Asia was a close second and was given $230,836, representing an increase of $2,906. The appropriation for Africa was placed at $45,642, or the same amount as was received this year. South America and Mexico received an increase of $4,000 on a total of $156,459. Europe was granted $152,446, or a sum equivalent to its 1907 appropriation.

CORRESPONDENCE

Inefficiency of White Men .

To Editor, Daily News,

Sir:—In your issue of Daily News, November 8, is an article headed "A White Man's Views." Whether the writer be white all the way through I am not so sure; but as he has the honesty to sign his name in full we must respect that so far.

Now, Mr. Editor, I wish this published over my signature as one who has the daring at least, if not the courage, to say those statements published are, to say the least, misleading, and as a man who continuously employs both white, yellow and dark laborers. There has not been a time within the last three years when any intelligent, capable and industrious man should tramp the past three weeks in the United States and British Columbia in search of work, except as I once heard a man who did not wish to work fairly, say "a man must travel a lot in this country to keep in work." I think the real truth is so many tramp to keep out of work. I have considerable opportunities to know the facts. I came to the coast as a laboring man and the same conditions then existed in California and I said to my co-laborers, Now, if you can make a living with your habits of life, I should make mine and save some too. I tried and did it and know of what I speak. I went through every step of it and though a little man, comparatively, now pay out some thousands annually on running expenses and so now I venture to say in the face of published opinion expressed to the contrary, that this agitation is far wrong.

There are good and capable men dealing with this matter who have spoken quite contrary to my views. While I respect the true man who differs with me; I will say what I think of the trouble and continue this respect to former writers and speakers

It is not the outward conditions that are the real cause; but the habits of the laborers are at the foundation of the difficulty. Come down town with me and see the trade and lounging by the bars, see our youths sapping their vitality with cigarette and tobacco in many forms, see into, if you can, the opium dens of this city and Vancouver look through the lower part of the city with its social evil. Then consider how we need to be at our best for the struggle of life and ask whether the persons who support those traffics in alcholic poisons, in narcotic and vice; can be capable and trustworthy. We answer, no, without fear of contradiction. Look at those young men as you meet them on the streets and in the business of life and read those pitiful faces of lost or destroyed manhood. The best business man of all ages said: "Let nothing be lost." But, Oh, how much is lost in the men who are (I say generally) looking for employment, and the man is not there, if he is, Mr. Editor, the real man need not look long for employment for as soon as he is known he is much wanted.

Now I am aware that there may be occasionally a good man seeking employment and some difficulty in getting it. For I am aware that employers of labor are quite embittered because of the others who do not deal faithfully with them, and seem to look on all as unworthy of trust and likely to simply look out for their own interests and handle men as they would other animals. Now for the remedy. Remove the sources of temptation to ensnare young men and destroy manhood. Make quite unpopular the vile habits that debase, and let our men be real and genuine men, and I venture that in a short time our men of this stamp can dictate to employers, or at least to co-operate with them. Now I flatly venture to contradict Mr. Edgar's statement that there is capitalistic discrimination against the white races of the two English speaking countries; it is rather that we can the more depend on the Asiatic being at his work regularly and steadily. I am aware too that laborers whose habits are such as I have described are not satisfied to deal faithfully with their employer, and in many cases have more for their labor than their work would justify and quite often more than their employer has for an equal amount of energy spent by him.

It is now fully understood by naval and military authorities that the weakness and inefficiency of the British soldier in the Boer war was the under mining habits of the soldier, who was not so good a man as the British soldier used to be.

It is also found as a certainty that the British mechanic is not so good and the British powers are alarmed about it, because thoroughness and efficiency are so necessary to the superior equipment demanded and needed by a power holding the grand distinction that Britain does

The German nation is quite disturbed over the well known fact that the laborer and mechanic as well as the soldier is not what that nation's men used to be and it is certainly attributed mostly to the beer drinking habits of that sturdy people, and there is a public move on foot to reform and return to better living—to be, in short better men.

I am quite aware of the seriousness of the position I have ventured on, in publicly through the Daily News and the Weekly News, throwing these hints abroad. I expect a storm, but then I am used to it and carry stormproof outfit along. Besides, I am not aspiring to any political honors and would prefer being a statesman to simply a politician.

WAR BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR COMING

Clash Between Representative Interests Expected Almost Any Day.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 13.—That there will be war to the knife between American Federation of Labor and the National Association of Manufacturers was evidenced today at the session of the Federation of Labor here. The federation has already taken the aggressive by looking to the establishment of a fund to fight manufacturers, through its executive council. The cry is that undue pressure is being brought to bear by the manufacturers of the country against organized labor, to the detriment of the latter, it is claimed.

The manufacturers combat this in a statement issued today by James Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, in which he holds that the object of his association is to put unions on a basis whereby they may be held responsible for their contracts. As an instance he calls attention to the pending suit in New York of the Typothetae against the pressmen, alleging the breaking of contracts by the pressmen.

Death of John Connell.

The Minnedosa (Man.) Tribune of the 7th inst. has the following notice of the death of a former resident of New Westminster:

"One of the oldest settlers in the Westhope district, John Connell, passed away suddenly on Wednesday afternoon, October 30th. He was a bachelor, living on his farm on 15, 15 and 17 in a house separate from that of his farm superintendent, R. Bruce. He had been seen about during the afternoon, but had gone into the house and was not seen again for some time. Mrs. Bruce became uneasy, and asked her husband to go and see if anything was wrong, which he did, finding Mr. Connell lying on the bed dead. He had been a resident of the district for over twenty years, coming there from New Westminster, British Columbia, and was highly respected by all who knew him. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Friday to St. Andrew's church, Westhope, in the graveyard of which the remains were interred, the burial service being conducted by the Rev. M. LaTouche Thompson. A beautiful floral emblem surmounted the coffin. The deceased leaves two brothers, Henry, of Springhill, and Kenah, of Victoria, B. C., and their father was Henry Connell, of Bridgefield, Castle Martyr, County Cork, Ireland, and nephews of the late General Sir Thomas Kenah of the British army, a Waterloo veteran. The late John Connell was for 16 years assistant colonial secretary in British Columbia prior to confederation with the Dominion."

BENEFICENT LAW.

The theory is that law is always beneficent, a terror to evil doers and a praise to them that do well, but in practice it has not always worked out just that way. The bandage which Justice wears over her eyes is supposed to secure her against being unduly influenced by fear, favor, or affection, and thus enable her the more easily to preserve her impartiality; but as a matter of fact it has frequently resulted in causing her to get off the track, and to become tangled up in subtilties of legal chicane.

Mr. Justice Riddell, of the high court of justice of Ontario, has been giving examples recently of the beneficent use of law. He evidently believes that the legal machinery of the country is intended for the protection of the right and the punishment of the wrong. He is the man who imposed the fine of $25,000 on the Michigan Central as a punishment for the acknowledged carelessness which caused the Essex disaster, and he further expressed his regret that no responsible officer of the country was within his jurisdiction—a regret which one may be quite certain, the said officers do not share.

The Daily News has already referred to this matter, and mentions it again because it finds that the action of Mr. Justice Riddell in this case and in some other cases of railway "accidents," is very highly commended by papers of standing and influence in the United States, which speak as if they would welcome the presence of a few such judges in the courts of the republic. The moral effect of such decisions as that referred to is a thing, fortunately, which is not affected by hostile tariffs. Canada and the United States have been mutually helpful in that way in recent times, and it is to be hoped will continue to help each other by such examples of the beneficent operation of law as shall quicken and strengthen the healthy public opinion of both countries.

Twenty years ago, a brilliant young professor, standing in the pulpit of Regent-square church, in London, cried "There never yet was a tyrant except in a nation of slaves." During the past few years events have awakened the people of both Canada and the United States to the realization of the fact that they had allowed themselves to be reduced to a slavish condition by certain very ugly and very unscrupulous tyrants, who (or which) had neither bodies to be kicked nor souls to be condemned. They have, however, pocketbooks to be "sweated," and Mr. Justice Riddell and others like him, by bringing the machinery of the law to bear upon that vulnerable point, are showing us how we may break our fetters.

If we recollect rightly, the purification of political life is one of the planks in Mr. Borden's platform. We think it therefore but a proper act of neighborly kindness to point out to Mr. Borden's organ here that it is "making a monkey" (if that is the proper slang) of its leader by the course it is pursuing. For example, within the past few days it has stated, in editorial articles which are not marked "joke" or anything of that sort, but appear intended to be taken seriously, that the recent Liberal convention, held in Vancouver, "elevated" John Oliver, M. P. P., to the position of Liberal leader in this province; and that the Ottawa government has "presented" some hundred million dollars to a few millionaires, for the personal use and benefit of the said millionaires. Now everybody who knows the facts knows that neither of these statements has the slightest foundation in fact; and everybody who is not a fool also knows that we cannot hope for clean politics so long as politicians and their organs continue to make, for the purpose of discrediting their opponents, statements which they know to be false. Remembering the dictum of the philosopher who remarked "There's a deal of human nature in man," one can make allowances for the strained interpretations and colored versions of prejudice and partizanship, and one can also allow something for the heat of battle; but the cold-blooded, calculated false statement is another matter. That comes within the scope of the old moral (as well as legal) axiom, which wraps up in Latin the blunt truth that deliberate falsehood is a symptom of moral rottenness.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

Saskatoon Man Placed Under Arrest on a Serious Charge.

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 13.—W. L. Ent, who, up to a short time ago, conducted a meat business on Avenue C, Riversdale, was arrested here this afternoon on a charge of fraud in falsifying the books of George Clark, a meat merchant at Hague. Some weeks ago Clark assigned, and his liabilities were fixed at some hundreds of dollars. Since that time Clark had disappeared and his present whereabouts are unknown. It is stated that Mr. Ent was interested in the Clark concern.

The warrent charges him with falsifying the books to the amount of some $360. This afternoon Sergt. Loggin located Ent, and placed him under arrest on the charge.

WILKESON MINERS WALK OUT AND PLANT CLOSES

Tacoma, Nov. 13.—Over 400 coal miners, of Wilkeson, employed by the Wilkeson Coal & Coke company in its mines, struck today. In addition, there are probably 300 men outside of the mines thrown out of employment, their work depending on the operations of the mines. The coke ovens of the company have not yet closed down, and will continue in operation for a few days, until all the coal on hand for them has been disposed of.

"The Sunny Side of Broadway.

Murray and Mack, the famous originals, were offered a large and tempting offer the past summer for forty weeks in the principal vaudeville theatres this season, but they preferred to remain at the head of their own company and are presenting this year a new musical production called "The Sunny Side of Broadway," which will be seen at the New Westminster Opera house Friday, November 15, fresh from a run in New York, and which has scored the greatest success these popular comedians have ever appeared in. The book of the piece is by Charles A. Murray and Eugene Walter, while Boyle Woolfolk is responsible for the music and lyrics.

Affected Troops Cannot Travel.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Hereafter when troops are ordered to prepare for service beyond sea, company commanders and medical officers will be directed to see that those who have any infectious or contagious diseases are reported for discharge or transfer to other commands. Persons so affected will not be taken on transports. All troops enroute for the Philippines or Cuba will before their departure be required to provide themselves with certificates showing that they have been inspected and are protected against smallpox.

London, Nov. 13.—Said to have been the oldest policeman, Isaac Rake has died at Exmouth, aged 92. He was on duty in Westminster Abbey at Queen Victoria's coronation.

AMATEURS SHOWING GREAT INTEREST

Cast of "Don't Tell My Wife" is Selected by J. W. Evans.

"Don't Tell My Wife" is nearly ready for its premier presentation in New Westminster, although the dates are Thursday and Friday, November 21 and 22, a full week away.

The cast has been working hard, determined to make a big success of the local talent's most recent entrance into the field of farce-comedy, and it is certain that Sidney Grundy's capital play will receive a capital presentation at the Opera house on these dates.

The cast and their parts are as follows:

Mrs. Featherstone....Jeannette Peele
Ethel Granger .....Margaret Lewis
Penelope .....Minnie Johnson
Felix Featherstone .....J. W. Evans
Uncle John Tommycraft..C. D. Peele
Harry Granger .....Harry J. Davis
Saunders .....Frank Bilodeau

The time of the first act is 11:30 at night, and as all return from the theatre. The second is the next morning at breakfast, and the fourth act takes place on the afternoon of the same day. The plot is extremely interesting and of a highly amusing character and quite up to the usual standard of Grundy's best works.

"So Long, Mary," sung by Miss Lewis, with chorus, will be interpolated after the first act, and "Wouldn't You Like to Have Me for a Sweetheart?" after the second.

The Woman's auxiliary of the Royal Columbian hospital, for whom the performance will be given, have tickets for sale.

EASTERN DOCTORS AGREE TO GRADE THEIR CHARGES

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 12.—Following the example of the Toronto doctors, Hamilton medical men have decided to increase their rates, and hereafter will grade them according to the income of patients. The charge per call to house where the income is not more than $1,000 a year will be $1.50. From $1,000 to $2,000 the charge will be $2. From $2,000 to $4,000, $2.50. Where the income exceeds $4,000 the doctor will make whatever charge he sees fit. Charges for examinations will be graded according to ability of patients to pay; and for office advice the minimum charge will be fifty cents. The same charge will be made for advice given over the phone.

G. N. R. Moving.

Grand Forks, Nov. 12.—Word reached here today from Midway that Chief Engineer Kennedy and staff of the Great Northern railway are now moving to Keremeos, which place they will make their headquarters for the next twelve months. By that time the rails of the Great Northern will be very near the Pacific coast.

Ex-Policeman Quirk May Die.

Calgary, Nov. 12.—Quirk, the ex-policeman, who was sentenced to a fairly long term at the barracks for the theft of articles from D.J. Young's store during the fire last spring, has been ill of typhoid fever at the general hospital for some time past. He is very low now, and no hopes are held out for his recovery.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or subagency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is rejuired to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

WHITE COOKS WORK AT J. M. KENNY'S NOW

J. M. Kenny, the well known local caterer, has fallen in line with the exclusionist idea, and yesterday informed the News that in future he would employ white labor only in his kitchen. With one exception, the help employed by Mr. Kenny at the present time is white, and the only Chinaman employed in the kitchen will leave before the end of the week.

Mr. Kenny announces that he has disposed of the services of the Chinamen without any persuasion being brought to bear on him by any outside parties, and that he would have done the same thing long ago had he been able to secure the services of white cooks, but this was impossible. The wages paid the white help are somewhat higher than that paid the Chinamen, but he considers that it will be worth the extra money in the end, especially in view of the large number of White Canada buttons being promiscuously worn at the present time. Kenny's cooks are paid at the rate of $18, $15 and $13 a week, including board.

PROVINCIAL POLICE TO CONTROL LICENSES

Victoria, Nov. 13.—The Provincial government has issued an order cancelling practically all the licensing districts north of the 50th parallel of latitude, with the exception of Atlin. Licenses will in future be issued by the superintendent of Provincial police under terms of the act. This decision has been arrived at owing to the influx of settlers in the northern country and the commencement of work by the G. T. P. With power to grant or revoke licenses it will be much easier for the Provincial police to enforce the law in these districts. By this order the licenses in Prince Rupert and Port Simpson will be controlled from here, removing the issuing of them from local influence.

RATHER RESIGN THAN BE BLOWN SKY-HIGH

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 13.—The Rev. Joseph Yankola, pastor of St. Joseph's Slavish church, of Hazelton, near here, has resigned, following an attempt to kill him by dynamiting his house. Through Father Yankola's efforts one of the finest churches in this part if the state was erected and he built up a large congregation, but dissension among his parishoners arose and he has decided to go to Bridgeport, Conn.

Ruling on Profanity.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 13.—The supreme court by unanimous vote has handed down a decision stating that the expression, "Go to H——," is not profanity.

Discovered Mammoth Lottery.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—A morning paper says today: The biggest lottery in operation in the United States which has been running for more than twenty years, with headquarters in Chicago, is claimed to have been exposed last night by arrests in this and other cities. The United States secret service men assert that the promoters of the system have made millions of dollars and there are big men behind the scheme who will be reached.

Capture the Chinamen

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Six Chinamen were captured in the woods near here today while attempting to smuggle themselves in the United States from Canada. The government officers found the Chinmen suffering from exposure in the storm which raged while they were crossing the St Lawrence river last night. The Chinamen had their queues cut off and wore American clothes. They were taken to jail to await a hearing.
