NEW INDUSTRY.

Interlocking Bricks Will Be Manufactured at Sapperton.

The Tacoma Construction company, of Tacoma and Seattle, will shortly commence the manufacture of their patent interlocking bricks in this city, they having secured a suitable site at Sapperton, where work will be commenced in a short time. Experienced workmen will be brought over to supervise the work, and employment for a large number of men will be found.

Details for the new industry are not yet completed, but it is stated on the authority of the vicepresident of the company, A. P. Gillies, that his firm will erect a large plant at Sapperton and within twelve months turn out enough bricks to supply the whole city and a large number of the Vancouver contractors.

DUPONT BLOCK SALE TOOK PLACE YESTERDAY

The final details in conection with the sale of the Dupont block to a syndicate of Los Angeles people were consumated yesterday afternoon, and the papers are now ready to be signed by the parties. The deal has been under consideration for some time, and on Saturday the News announced that the property would probably change hands on that day. That the block was on the point of changing hands was denied energetically by the evening paper.

Dr. R. E. Walker, who was part owner of the Dupont block, informed the News yesterday that the price paid by the Los Angeles people was in the neighbourhood of $63,000, this being a substantial advance on the price paid for the block less than a year ago. James Anderson of the St. Mungo cannery and E. A. Greame, of Malins, Coulthard & Co., were joint owners of the block with Dr. Walker.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES WANT ANOTHER SITE

Proposal to Transfer West End School to Moody Square Coldly Received.

A proposition to change the location of the West End public school to some more advantageous locality was advanced by a committee from the board of school trustees before the city council in committee last evening. Trustees Curtis, Peebles and Thornbur waited on the council and outlined their scheme to that body. Trustee Curtis stated that the present location on Twelfth street was deemed faulty because of the fact that it is not situated centrally, and is so near to the tram that the attention of pupils is taken from their studies by the noise. Trustee Peebles pointed out that the buildings were old, and new ones would be required within the next year or two anyway, and while the question of accommodation was being considered a satisfactory site should be secured. It was the intention of the board to ask for money enough to construct a new school building next year and with that object in view they had decided to take time by the forelock and have the matter of a site settled as early as possible. The committee had therefore come to the council to ask for authority to sell the present site and purchase another one in vicinity of Moody square.

In reply to the trustees, Mayor Keary stated that as the present site had been purchased for school purposes, the property could not be disposed of without a by-law going before the taxpayers. His worship suggested that a portion of the unimproved section of Moody square be used as the new site. Ald. Henley announced at this stage that he would strenuously oppose any move to cut down the acreage now used in the city for park purposes. He considered that recreation grounds were a necessity and the present grounds should not be cut up for school purposes. Ald. Smith expressed the opinion that no notice should be taken of the request of the trustees as they had advanced nothing that the council could act on. He thought that the trustees should first seek a buyer for the old property before thinking of purchasing a new one.

After some further discussion, during which Ald. Smith said things to Trustee Peebles and Trustee Peebles replied warmly regarding repairs to school buildings, all of which was irrelevant to the matter in hand, Ald. Shiles and Ald. Jardine were appointed to act in conjunction with a committee representing the board in gathering all information necessary to a proper consideration of the site question.

Lacrosse Match Thursday.

Thursday's lacrosse match between the New Westminster Intermediate teams promises to be one of the best contested games of the season, as upon the result depends whether the Reginas can stand a chance of winning the championship this year. If the Reginas lose, they stand a chance of tieing the Westend boys, providing they win every game in the future. Should they win Thursday's game, they can still be reckoned in the running. As neither team can depend upon finding its best players available during the remainder of the season, the strongest possible lineup will be mustered on both sides, and the boys will stickhandle to the best of their ability. The Westend lineup will be as follows: Munn, Marshall, Galbraith, W. Warwick, Eastman, W. Sangster, Bartlett, R. Sangster, Em. Warwick, Hal Johnston, Swanson, McPhaden, Spare, G. Odin.

Raisuli is Captured.

Tangier, Aug. 12.—Raisuli has been captured by rival tribesman, according to dispatches from Alcazar, and both the rebel chief and Caid Sir Harry Maclean, whom Raisuli held prisoner, have been taken. The report says that a band of 400 natives headed by their chief, stormed Raisuli's camp on Monday and took him and his English prisoner captives.

The whole tribe gathered, and it is understood that they intend to negotiate for the surrender of the prisoners to the Moorish foreign officials.

EIGHT BARNS BURNED.

Lightning Causes Heavy Loss in Kingston District.

Kingston, Ont., Aug. 12.—Yesterday afternoon an electric storm passed over the country, and eight barns are reported burned. A schoolhouse, two miles from Sydenham was also struck and totally destroyed. The barns of J. E. Freeman, of Hartington; Frank Clark, of Bellrock and Days, of Loughboro, were among those burned. A. Glassford lost a mare and colt, and Lyman Lyons had a fine heifer killed by lightning. William Bruce, Thomas Edwards, Robert Allison, John Arthurs, Robert Dickson and others report that their grain, roots and garden products were almost totally destroyed. William Hanley, Battersea, had a colt killed.

Jail Breaking is Epidemic.

Kamloops, Aug. 12.—Allan Edward, an Indian serving a six months' sentence for horse stealing, made a break for liberty Friday night. He was a "trusty" employed in work at the provincial home, and took advantage of the absence of the guard to skip. C. J. Bunbury, who has always been successful in rounding up would-be escapes, was put on the track of the Indian, and after a long and hard chase which lasted until Tuesday afternoon, he succeeded in placing his man again under arrest. The Indian had stolen a horse from the reservation and, although he had turned the animal loose before he was apprehended, he will have to answer to the double charge of gaol breaking and horse stealing.

Found Drowned.

Trail, Aug. 12.—The body of the late David Noble, who was drowned near Thrums last Sunday afternoon, was found in the Columbia river near Trail this morning at 8 o'clock. It will be shipped east tonight for burial at Ottawa.

INDIAN TRACKERS FOLLOW BILL MINER

Escaped Criminal Seen at Mission by Old Acquaintances—No Expense Spared

Indian trackers are following closely on the trail of Bill Miner in the neighborhood of Mission, and there is a probability that the aged lawbreaker will be captured before many hours have passed. That the police are at last on the right scent is the opinion of almost everyone in the neighborhood of Mission, as Miner has been seen by a number of people who knew him in the palmy days when as George Edwards he rusticated as a retired farmer while formulating his plans for another daring train robbery.

So far as is known, Miner has not spoken to anyone since Friday, when he is said to have been seen at Sapperton. He is keeping out of sight, and has not been out of the bush. The Indians who are following him are acting under instructions from the provincial police, who are sparing no expense in the attempt to capture the notorious criminal.

A report reached the city yesterday that convicts answering the description of Woods and Clarke had been seen near Woodwards slough on Lulu island, and a posse was immediately sent in pursuit. Up to the time of going to press, no result had followed their search. McCluskey, who hit the trail for Vancouver, has not yet been captured, but he will most likely be the first one to fall into the clutches of the law, as all his old haunts are being watched.

Three penitentiary guards are at present at Mission, while five others are stationed near Woodward's slough. As none of the men had returned up to the time of going to press, it is evident that no capture has yet been made.

Joachin is Dying.

Berlin, Aug. 12.—Joseph Joachin, the celebrated violinist, is dying in his home in this city. For a long time he has suffered from asthma, and recently he experienced a severe attack of the ailment and his condition grew steadily worse until last night it was announced that he probably would not survive until morning.

HOTEL PROJECT IS NOW ASSURED

Legislative Library.

Columbia Street Ravine Site of Interlocking Brick Hostelry -Theatre Connected.

Having a frontage of 132 feet on Columbia street, and running back for 66 feet, three stories high, and equipped with all modern conveniences, a new hotel is about to be built on two lots opposite the Bank of Montreal, over the ravine on the west half of the property adjoining the Burr block. Construction will commence within a couple of weeks.

The building will be put up by the Tacoma Construction company of Tacoma, of which H. Hewitt, jr., is president, and A. P. Gillies, vice president and manager, and P. C. Forrester, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Gillies was in the city yesterday completing plans for the erection of the building details of which were furnished to a News man.

The new hotel will be built of the new patent interlocking bricks, recently placed on the market by the firm represented by Mr. Gillies. There will be about one hundred bedrooms, in addition to all the other apartments. Everything will be of the most modern and up-to-date description, and no expenses will be spared to make it a strictly first-class hotel. Adjoining the hotel proper, Mr. Gillies intends to build a theatre, capable of accommodating several hundred persons. The plays brought over will be managed by Sullivan and Considine, of Chicago, the well known talent providers.

E. J. Crean, proprietor of the Guichon hotel, is at present entering into an arrangement with Mr. Gillies, for the taking over of the new hotel as soon as it is completed. The plans of the hostelry will be submitted to him, and any changes which he desires will be made by Architect Houghton, who is to draw up the plans.

Seen yesterday Mr. Crean, although reticent, admitted that he would transfer his business to the new hotel as soon as it was built. He would call the place the Guichon, and would take it only on a twenty year lease, as a short lease arrangement was never satisfactory in the hotel business. Mr. Crean's lease on the premises at present occupied by him expires in two years.

BELLINGHAM YOUNG MEN EXTEND THE GLAD HAND

The citizen's committee completed all details connected with the running of the excursion to Bellingham at a meeting held in the board of trade room last evening. All committees were represented, and reports were received which were of a very satisfactory nature.

The secretary read a letter from Secretary E. D. Kenyon of the Young Men's Commercial club of Bellingham, which stated that the members of the club would make it a point to arrange for meals and accommodation for the excursionists on Wednesday. He further stated that they would be on hand to welcome the visitors at the wharf.

D. E. McKenzie was authorized to receive applications for state-rooms during today and a committee was appointed to secure and sell badges to the excursionists which will be of attractive appearance. Arrangements were made to allow Owen Burdett to conduct a refreshment booth on the boat during the trip.

Laborers Desert Nome.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—Nome is being deserted by miners and other laborers, according to officers of the steamship Victoria, which reached port early yesterday morning from the north. Since the properties of the big mining camp have fallen into the hands of corporations wages have steadily decreased until strikes are the rule and not the exception. The Victoria brought down 600 passengers and a small cargo of miscellaneous freight. Officers of the Olympia, which arrived in port an hour ahead of the Victoria, bring similar tales of labor troubles. When the Olympia left Nome there were hundreds of laborers who will leave for the States on the first boat.

HILL IS TOUCHY.

Railroad Question Needs Rest Cure.

Chicago, August 12.—J. J. Hill called unheralded Saturday night at he Chicago office of the C. B. & Q. railroad and remained in seclusion there until he took a train for St. Paul. Personally Mr. Hill showed no outward evidence of an encounter with F. H. McGuigan, until yesterday vice president of the Great Northern road.

Asked to say something touching on the general railroad situation, Mr. Hill replied:

"I have nothing to say." Then he added with emphasis and with eyes snapping: "The railroad question in its relations to the general public needs the rest cure and needs it badly."

Mr. Hill refused to say anything as to the truth or falsity of the reported encounter with McGuigan.

The death of Mrs. Priscillia Pusey, of Esquimault, took place in this city on Sunday afternoon. The deceased was eighty eight years of age, and had been a resident of Esquimault for over thirty-one years, coming from Devonshire, England. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Emily Young, and a number of grandchildren. The body has been shipped to the island, where the funeral will take place.

Gored by a Bull.

Kingston, Aug. 12.—Thomas Shannon, a well known farmer, living near Sunbury, was fatally gored by a bull yesterday morning on the farm of his brother Robert. He went with a dog to shut the animal up, and shortly afterward was found lying on the ground in a dying condition. The injured man said that the bull had attacked and rolled him. When found the dog was keeping the angry animal at bay. Mr. Shannon breathed his last while receiving medical attention in the house.

BROTHERLY LOVE HAS TURNED TO COLD HATE

Frank Rockefeller Speaks of Bald Brother as "The Other Fellow."

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 12—Frank Rockefeller, brother of John D. Rockefeller, denied that he had given a New York newspaper an interview saying he would expose the oil king and force him into exile in foreign lands. He was seen in his home Lakeland, in Wycliffe, a village east of Cleveland. His attitude was one of suppressed excitement when the matter was broached to him. Excerpts from the New York papers were read to him and made him nervous. He rocked to and fro in his big arm chair, tapping nervously on the porch floor with his slippers. When the reading had been concluded he evidently had made up his mind as to his reply. Turning suddenly he said:

"I did not give that interview to the paper and anybody that says I did lies. I did not give that interview to anybody, and the paper publishes it upon its own responsibility."

"Does the interview explain your sentiments, no matter how it was obtained?"

Mr. Rockefeller was silent fully a minute. Then turning to his questioner, he remarked: "I will not discuss that phase of the interview!" A few moments later he referred to John D. Rockefeller as "the other fellow."

The whereabouts of Wm. A. Rockefeller, father of John D., William and Frank is a mystery. Dr. E. D. Burton, formerly John D. Rockefeller's physician, said today that he met the senior Rockefeller in Forest Hill eight years ago.

C. A. Welsh, now on business in the east, wired Mayor Keary yesterday from Toronto to the effect that he had signed a contract with the Tecumseh lacrosse team to play in the lacrosse tournament in this city during exhibition week. The telegram read as follows: Most satisfactory contract signed today with Tecumsehs. They leave here via C. P. R. Sept. 23, contract will follow tomorrow. Will write you fully. Saw game today. They are very fast. C. A. Welsh.

B.C.E.R. PREPARES TO DOUBLE POWER

Extra Supply to Be Available by Nov. 1 — Much Rock Work Done.

By the first of November next, the available supply of power will be doubled by the B. C. Electric Railway Company, unless something quite unforseen happens. The new pipes are now being laid to convey water to the power house on the North Arm of the inlet from Lake Buntzen. A tunnel 300 feet long is being bored, and a new transformer building of reinforced concrete is being built, 200 men in all being now at work. The total cost of the improvements will this year amount to nearly $300,000.

Details of the work being done and its results were given yesterday morning by Superintendent Milne. The two new pipes will require to be carried through the three hundred foot tunnel now being made by Ironsides, Rannie & Campbell. There is a great deal of rock work, which is proceeding slowly on account of its proximtiy to the power house, and the care required in blasting.

The work in progress means that 10,000 horse power will be added by November the first to the 12,000 horse power in all. The company can increase this, with the fall and watershed it posseses to 42,000 horse power whenever the needs of the city and district call for it.

DOG ATTACKS HORSE

Baldur Farmer Has Unplesent Experience With Fierce Brute.

Baldur, Aug. 12.—C. A. Hamilton has just had a nasty and dangerous experience. While out cutting hay with his mower (which was in gear through the whole of the experience) a St. Bernard, which he was temporarily taking care of for Mr. C. Kent, of Belmont, suddenly attacked one of the horses—seizing it by the throat and throwing it to the ground. Mr. Hamilton managed to kick the dog off and secured a hold of the horses' bridles when the brute attacked them in the rear—getting such severe kicks that it had to desist. Mr. Hamilton then unhitched the horses and started for the house, but hadn't gone far before the savage brute again attacked the horses—scaring them so that they ran away. When he reached home he found the dog there before him with one of the horses lying on its back with a gaping wound in its neck, exposing the windpipe, which had later to be sewed up with seven stitches.

BYSTANDER BULLETED

Italians Quarrel, Use Revolvers, and Woman Gets Hit.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—A pistol duel on the streer this evening resulted in the fatal wounding of one of the principals, the serious shooting of the other and the wouding of a woman.

Leopold Bertuccelli and Giuseppi Passaglia, Italians, were partners in a macaroni business over a year ago, but quarreled.

Today as Passaglia was entering a grocery store Bertuccelli came up behind him, cursed him, and fired a bullet at his former partner. The bullet struck Mrs. Mary Mullins, a bystander in the elbow. A moment later both men were firing at one another. Passaglia fell with a bullet in his brain and he will die.

Cured at the Shrine.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—George Neary, a eight-year-old boy of Lost National, Ia., threw away the braces that had supported his legs since childhood and walked barefooted from the Church of St. Anne, at St. Anne, Ill. Several other wonderful cures or miracles are reported. One girl who has been paralyzed for four years walked alone from the shrine. Great excitement prevails and crowds around the church are so great that a force of policemen is necessary to prevent disorder and a large number of priests are kept busy from 5 o'clock in the morning. Reports of at least a half a dozen remarkable cures appear to be well authenticated.

Prohibit Dance Halls.

Dawson, Y. T., Aug. 11.—A bill was introduced in the Yukon legislature today to prohibit liquor at the dance halls. If carried this will do away with Dawson's notorious dance halls and put an end to the gilded side of Klodike life.

Chief Justice Dugas introduced the bill. It it believed it will pass with an amendment compelling all dance or music resorts to be situated at least 100 yards from a saloon.

TREMENDOUS CAVE-IN AT BROOKLYN MINE

Three Hundred and Fifty Feet of Track Collapsed On Saturday Last.

Grand Forks, B. C., Aug. 12.—A tremendous cave-in at the Brooklyn mine in Phoenix camp occurred about 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The ore bunkers and all below for three hundred and fifty feet wide fell in taking the tramway track as well as some mining machinery.

This cave-in will put the Brooklyn mine out of business for some months. The cause is reported to be that work has been carried on too close to the surface. Fortunately no one was hurt by the accident, although one miner working on the ore bunkers had a narrow escape. The damage done will be many thousands of dollars. It is generally thought that the recent wet weather had something to do with the cave-in.

Hour of Expansion at Hand.

An interesting letter has been received by a friend in Victoria from ex-Mayor Charles Hayward, who, with A. B. Fraser, sr., has been touring the old country. Writing from the Imperial hotel, Dublin, under date of July 24, Mr. Hayward says: "The Canadian exhibit is far ahead of our most sanguine expectations, both of us gladly writing our names in the visitors' book, and recording our expressions of cangratulation to those whose energies brought it about. It is a wonderful advertising agency, and cannot fail to produce satisfactory results. Outside of the splendid exhibits of the products of the country, most admirably arranged, there are writen on every available space the opinions of those who have visited us, and of prominent men amongst us, including Earl Grey, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lord Strathcona, Sir John A. MacDonald and others, all of the most encouraging and optimistic character. In fact, as I left the large building devoted to Canada, I regretted that I had parted with a single foot of my real estate. Some of us may not be spared to see it, but as sure as the rising sun the immediate and immense expansion of Canada is assured, and our own Victoria must participate in it."

McGuigan Resigns.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 12.—Frank F. McGuigan, first vice president of the Great Northern railroad, has resigned. His resignation has been handed in and is worded so that it will take place at once. No official explanation has been given of the cause. McGuigan has been with the Great Northern only four months and came from the Grand Trunk, of which road he was fourth vice president for several years. The Great Northern has become notorious for the number of first vice presidents that it has had in the last ten years, very few of them remaining with the company more than a few months.

Trouble With the Road Gang.

Nanaimo, Aug. 12.—There has been cosiderable trouble lately among those interested in the road work in the Newcastle District. The situation appears to be that the men claim they were hired at $3 per day, and after working some time they learned that the government pays only $2.75 for this class of work, when both gangs quit and have not been working since. The men have refused to accept paymet at $2.75 for the last month claiming they were hired at $3 and to continue work they demand $3.

Opium Dens All Closed.

Canton, China, Aug. 12.—In accordance with the imperial decree issued, all the opium dens in Canton were closed today without disturbances. The new departure caused general rejoicing throughout the city, the streets were decorated and a number of processions headed by bands of music playing lively airs marched through the main thoroughfares.

Mr. and Mrs. Stockson Bonds are inveterate bridge whist players, and their home is the meeting place of bridge players of all grades. On one evening in every week they are "at home" to any of their friends who wish to play, and on other evenings they entertain parties of their own selection for games which range from a cent a point to a much higher figure. Recently, long after the house had been closed, a noise was heard downstairs, and, regardless of his wife's protests, Stockson Bonds went below to ascertain the cause. The noise continued and grew louder, but no answer came to the wife's calls from above. She became alarmed, opened the window, saw a policeman, and he made a rush for the basement door. A few minutes later the husband appeared before his panic stricken wife and told her he had found the servants playing bridge and wrangling over the propriety of a certain play.

"Did you send the whole party away?" asked the wife.

"Why, no. I took a hand and decided the question before I realized where I was."—New York Tribune.

He Held On.

"In a town back in Vermont one time," said a doctor, "a big, husky lumberman entered the office of a dentist I knew and showed the doctor a bad tooth. The dentist decided that the tooth should be pulled.

"'All right,' said the lumberman 'But listen now. If I tell you to stop, you stop pulling or I'll beat you up.'

"The dentist agreed, and the lumberman got in the chair. The dentist took hold of the tooth and began pulling. Almost immediately the lumberman yelled, 'Hold on!'

"The dentist continued to pull. 'Hold on!' yelled the lumberman. The dentist kept pulling, and the tooth came out. Then the lumberman jumped from the chair mad.

"'Why didn't you stop when I told you to?' he asked fiercely.

"'You didn't tell me to stop,' said the dentist.

"'I did too! I yelled "Hold on!" twice.'

"'Oh,' said the dentist innocently, 'I thought you meant to keep hold of it.'

"The lumberman believed him and cooled off."—Denver Post.

THE ERRATIC SOCKEYE.

While it is quite true that the sockeye run of the present year, up to the time of writing, has disappointed the hopes of those engaged in the fishing business, it should be remembered that, so far as the Fraser run is concerned, the difference between anticipation and realization has not been very great. The authorities agree that the sockeye running in any given year come from the eggs deposited four years previously, so that the fish of this year come from the eggs of 1903. Now any one who will take the trouble to look up the sessional papers of the province for the year 1904 will find on the first page of the official report of the fisheries for 1903, the statement that practically no eggs at all were deposited on the spawning grounds above the great canyon. In that year (1903) the big hatcheries now operating at Harrison lake and Birkenhead river were not in existence, and we had only the Bon Accord and Granite Creek hatcheries, and the provincial hatchery at Seton lake, and their total output of sockeye fry was put at a little over thirteen million, whereas the output from last season's operations was put at about thirty-five million, with a much better seeding of the natural spawning beds.

People who study the subject knew that there was no reason to look for a better run this year than we had last year; indeed, the reasonable expectation was that the run would be smaller. It must be remembered also that there is a factor in the problem of which we know practically nothing, and of which we shall probably continue to be ignorant, to wit, the conditions governing the life of the sockeye during the years he spends in the open sea. The run of fish in the rivers north of us is said to have been much less than was expected this year, and we also heard that some at least of the sockeye taken in the Fraser were not up to the usual standard of plumpness; and these facts would seem to indicate that the sockeye now running in the river have been subject to unfavorable conditions in the open sea. When the biological station which the Dominion is about to establish has been at work for a few years, we may possibly get a little light on these points, although, as we have said, we cannot expect to learn very much about them, still less to be able to control or modify in any way the conditions to which the fish are subject from the time they leave our rivers until they return.

Aside from these open sea conditions, however, a great deal can be done to maintain and increase the run of fish; and on the Fraser a great deal has been done. A few years ago the average annual hatchery output of sockeye fry on the Fraser was a bare five million. This season it was about thirty-five million, and would have been much more but for abnormally bad weather conditions during the egg-gathering time. When the future of sockeye fishing on the Fraser is talked of, let it not be forgotten that 1910 is the first "small run" year in which the full work of the hatcheries now in operation will show, and that the hatcheries at present in course of construction cannot effect any run of fish before 1911. It will be time enough to indulge in pessimistic talk about the future of salmon-canning industry on the Fraser if and when the experience of those years justifies it.

Quebec Forester Surprises Fellow Delegates to St. Paul Convention.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 12.—At today's convention of Catholic Foresters, William Lalonde, aged 46, a prosperous merchant of Quebec informed his fellow delegates, much to their surprise, that he was the father of eighteen children, all of whom are alive and well. F. X. Bilodeau, secretary of the provincial court of the province of Quebec, told the convention that he was one of four brothers, citizens of Montreal, and that each had twelve children, and all well. Though rather shamed and disheartened by the splendid achievement of their Canadian brothers, the American Foresters gave three rousing cheers for Quebec and Montreal and all the young Lalondes and Bilodeaus.

POUNDING OF MOTORS FRIGHTENS SOCKEYES

Captain Peele has advanced an heretofore unheard of reason for the apparent scarcity of sockeyes in the river this year. He has come to the conclusion that the motor boats are responsible for the slight catch, and this is the way he figures it out. Fish are very sensitive to sound or any commotion in the water, and water as is well known is an excellent conductor of sounds and vibrations. This fact is so generally known that the government was obliged to pass a law some years ago prohibiting fishermen from discharging dynamite in the water, a method which was once in vogue for stunning fish and bringing them to the surface.

A good fly fisherman knows that if the water is disturbed to any noticeable extent the fish head for the bottom without delay. This instinct, Captain Peele holds, is also peculiar to the sockeye. Tha vibrations caused in the water by the pounding of the motors scares the fish to the bottom of the river and they escape the nets by swimming along under them. He is willing to state his reputation as a prophet that if the motor boats are withdrawn from the river there will be fish in plenty.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN HUG AND KISS HAYWOOD

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Fifty thousand men, women and children filled Luna park yesterday afternoon and evening to do honor to William D. Haywood, recently released from prison at Boise, after one of the most sensational trials in the history of courts.

The demonstration was one of the most remarkable given a labor leader in Chicago. Women and children threw their arms about the miner from Denver and kissed him again and again.

So great was the demonstration that Haywood was almost overcome and had to be literally carried from the speakers' stand to a concession building. This was immediately after he had finished his speech in the afternoon.

Weak and suffering from heat and strain, Haywood was finally smuggled from the grounds and taken to a house nearby, where he soon recovered and for more than three hours was kept busy shaking hands and receiving congratulations from labor men from all parts of the country.

Haywood presented a striking figure as he faced the great crowd which had gathered about the speakers' stand, despite the intense heat.

Haywood attacked President Roosevelt for the famous message in which he characterized Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone as undesirable citizens.

Gov. Buchtel, of Colorado, who was in Chicago today, also received attention from Haywood.

Guggenheims Buy Island Mines.

Alberni, Aug. 12.—It is reported that the Guggenheims have obtained an option on the Big Interior group of claims, situated about twenty miles north of here. The claims are copper properties and are said to be some of the most promising on the west coast of the island.

The Big Interior is at the head of Great Central lake, and is owned by Drinkwater and Nicholls of Alberni. Tae claims lie in a valley at the foot of a glacier and assays taken by Provincial Assayer Carmichael have shown large values in copper, silver and gold.

Trouble With the Road Gang.

Nanaimo, Aug. 12.—There has been cosiderable trouble lately among those interested in the road work in the Newcastle District. The situation appears to be that the men claim they were hired at $3 per day, and after working some time they learned that the government pays only $2.75 for this class of work, when both gangs quit and have not been working since. The men have refused to accept paymet at $2.75 for the last month claiming they were hired at $3 and to continue work they demand $3.

A small fire broke out yesterday in a small shack belonging to Mr. Newton, blacksmith, situated at the end of the Lulu Island bridge, close to the Small & Bucklin mills. The only damage done was a hole in the roof, the fire brigade being on the spot before the flames had secured much headway. The steam roller, which was at work in the neighborhood, is supposed to have been responsible for the outbreak.

Lewis A. Elliott, advance agent of the Richards and Pringle minstrels, arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of making arrangement for the reception of the company of twenty colored persons which is to follow him. The bill board decorators also descended upon the city, and left many glaring promises behind them.

Copies of the recently revised fishing regulations have not yet arrived from Ottawa and the cases in which nine fishermen are involved are still pending. The men were caught fishing with sockeye nets in the river above the bridge one week ago Sunday night, contrary to the close season regulations. The informations have been laid and the cases will be heard by Inspector Sword within the next week.

G. Farrant, steward of the Westminster club, and Dr. Hoggan, V. S., had a narrow escape from suffering injury on Sunday afternoon while out in a boat on Deer lake. Some irresponsible party in the woods began firing in their direction, and one of the bullets struck their boat. The pair made a quick race for the shore, and just as they were stepping off the boat on a log, another bullet struck their foothold. The matter has been laid before the provincial police, who will investigate.

Captain Ackerman of the Fraser River patrol service reports that there were no violations of the close season regulations above the bridge on Sunday night. The steamer Swan and two launches were kept patroling the river between Hammond and the bridge nearly all night, and only spring salmon nets were encountered. Yesterday's catch was at low ebb and the canneries will be almost idle today as a result. The boats did not average a dozen sockeyes, and many of them got none at all.

The Chilliwack Progress has again made its appearance in the valley town. Some months ago, W. T. Jackman, proprietor of the Progress, sold out his business to J. Burtt Morgan, who superannuated the Progress and started a weekly known as the Fraser River Advance, published in the interests of the Conservative party. Mr. Morgan's methods of campaigning failed to meet with the approval of the Chilliwack people, and he decided to retire from the field. Since then Mr. Jackman has published one issue of the paper, independent in politics. It is understood that the paper will be again issued as a Conservative organ this week, with the name of J. D. Taylor as editor and manager.

Life, Not Death.

There is much difference in the psychological effect of the two ideas "life" and "death." This was illustrated, says the writer of "Letters From a Surgeon," in the case of General Frank Bartlett, who was wounded on the Fredericksburg pike in 1864. General Bartlett was brought to the surgeon bleeding profusely from a wound in his head. He was unconcious and white as death. The surgeon called his name, but could not rouse him. Passing his finger into the wound, he found the ball had not penetrated the bone, but had simply cut an artery in the scalp. This the surgeon bound with a ligature. He laid the general on the ground and completed dressing the wound.

"No harm done, old boy!" he shouted. "This is only a flesh wound. You will be all right when I take a stitch or two."

The good news seemed to bring General Bartlett to consciousness. He rallied completely.

"I thought I was done for," he said. "Well, if I'm all right, here goes." Before the surgeon could stop him he was in the saddle and riding at the best gait of his horse back to the front again.

The Ways of the Moonshiner.

The ways of the moonshiner are pretty much the same everywhere. A suitable location consists of a secluded spot with water in abundance. It is important, should he ever be called upon to defend a case in court, for the question of the ownership of the land upon which the still is located, to be involved in doubt; hence the moonshiner gets as near the line of his own land or the land he controls as possible. The stills are primitive affairs and are often made complete in the neighborhood in which they are operated. With two or three square yards of sheet copper the still maker requires but a few hours to make the "b'iler." Home-made hogsheads are usually used as fermenters, and the only thing that the illicit distiller has to send "off yander arter" is the worm. Being difficult to secure, the moonshiner prizes his "worm" highly, and that part of the distillery is usually taken away when the operator leaves.—David A. Gates in Metropolitan Magazine.

Origin of "Bluestockings."

Burke, apropos of "Evelina," paid Fanny Burney this high compliment: "We have had an age for statesmen, an age for heroes, an age for poets, an age for artists, but this"—with a gallant bow to Fanny—"is the age for women." The name "bluestockings," given to these distinguished women, arose, according to Fanny Burney in her "Memoirs of Her Father," from an apology made by Mr. Stillingfleet in declining an invitation of Mrs. Vesey's to a literary meeting at her house. "I am not properly dressed for such a party," he pleaded. "Pho, pho," she cried, taking him and his dress all in at a glance, "don't mind dress! Come in your blue stockings." This he did, and "those words ever after were fixed in playful stigma upon Mrs. Vesey's associations."—T. P.'s London Weekly.

What We Stand On.

The density of the earth as a whole has been estimated, with close agreement among the scientists who have made the determination by different methods, to be about 5.5, or five and a half times as heavy as an equivalent sphere of water. On the other hand, the average density of the materials forming the accessible parts of the earth's crust is between 2.5 and 3, so that the mean density of the whole globe is about twice that of its outer part. This indicates that the central part of the earth is composed of heavier materials and may even be metallic, which condition, says the Engineering and Mining Journal, would accord perfectly with the nebuiar hypothesis.

Nature and Broken Bones.

In the splicing of broken bones nature can give the best surgeon pointers. When a bone is broken the splintered ends are surrounded with cartilage until they are firmly held in position. Then gradually a layer of bone is placed between them and soldered together. All the physician has to do is to bring the two ends of the bones together so that the point will be smooth and even. Nature's little agents do the rest.—New York Tribune.

Taste Governs Spelling.

Shakespeare spelled his own name in sixteen different ways which have survived, and it is evident that Elizabethan spelling "depends upon the taste and fancy of the speller." It is the printing press which made spelling by stereotyping it, and it is, after all, on the printer's reader more than on the professor that the spelling of the future depends.—London Star.

Napoleon's Name.

The name Napoleon written in Greek characters will form seven different words by dropping the final letter of each in succession. When read, these words form a complete sentence, meaning, "Napoleon, the destroyer of whole cities, was the lion of his people."

Wrong.

"There is a word of one syllable in the English language that is always spelled wrong, even by the most educated people."

"What is that?"

"The word 'wrong.'"

Obviously.

"Let me see," mused the sporting editor. "What is an incubator?"

"An incubator," replied the agricultural editor, "is an egg plant."

Discouragement is but disenchanted egotism.—Mazzini.

SEATTLE SLEUTHS HOT ON THE SCENT

Bill Miner Recognized in Sound City Suburb---Police In Hot Pursuit.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—Bill Miner, the escaped convict from the New Westminster penitentiary, is either in Seattle or in this vicinity, according to information in the hands of the Seattle police. Yesterday evening a squad of detectives and a sergeant were sent out on a rush call to South Seattle where Miner was believed to be at that time. Before they arrived the man had disappeared, although he was traced through several sections of the country about South Seattle and Georgetown.

That Miner is here is the firm belief of the police and every effort is being put forth to get him. Lost night the patrol officers that went on duty at 8 o'clock were given the best description available of the man. However, the officers of the New Westminster penitentiary have neglected to send the Seattle police either an accurate description or a late photograph of the convict. The description of Miner in the hands of the police has been obtained principally from the newspapers.

Miner was recognized on the road just north of Georgetown yesterday afternoon by a woman who says she knows him well. The woman would not give her name to the police. She was riding in an automobile from Georgetown to Seattle and saw Miner, at a point near Georgetown where an old house is being moved. As soon as she arrived in Seattle she stopped Sergt. of Police Frank Bryant and informed him of her discovery.

Sergt. Bryant at once reported to headquarters and Detectives Tom Ryan, Jeff McClurg and Frank Clark were detailed. The officers took a street car to Georgetown and went to the place where Miner is reported to have been seen. They found that he had stopped at a residence on the road leading from Georgetown in South Seattle and had secured a drink of water.

From there he went to South Seattle. He was seen there, but no further trace of him could be found. That he is making an attempt to get to Seattle to connect with someone who may give him a gun is the belief of the police.

It was ascertained yesterday that the convict's coat found at Smith's cove does not belong to Miner. The coat was found there two weeks ago, before Miner made his escape. It was thrown away, it is believed, by one of the Walla Walla convicts who made his escape lately. Several short-term men have made their escape from the rock quarry gangs.

Provincial Constable Wilkie accompanied by assistants left for Hazelton on Saturday evening to renew the chase for Gun-a-noot, the alleged murderer of two white men near Hazelton in June 1906. The two men who accompanied him from this city were W. Huntley and Mr. Murgetroyd, formerly conductor for the B. C. Electric railway company.

CONVICT CAPTURED IN EARLY MORNING

Counterfeiter Enjoys Two Days' Liberty—Famished When Rounded Up.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—Herman Wendt, the counterfeiter who escaped for the second time from the United States penitentiary on McNeill's island at noon Friday, was captured at the extreme western end of the island yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock by Deputy Sheriff Henry Rief of King county and Guard Smith of the prison. It was Smith who caught the convict after his former escape.

Wendt was returned to the prison, the irons which had been removed from him a short time before his escape, were replaced and he was placed in solitary confinement.

That Wendt had made all preparations to get off the island by means of a raft is evidenced by the fact that when captured he had an axe, a crosscut saw, a pocket full of nails and an augur with which to construct the float. He had made his way to the western end of the island and was at the western end of the island and was at the point where the strip of water between the mainland and the island is the narrowest.

During the time Wendt has been away from the prison he has eaten nothing but berries and wheat. The berries at this time of the year are very plentiful on the island and the wheat he secured from farm houses. He had stolen the tools.

Smith and Rief were walking down a trail near the west end when they say the convict. Upon being commanded to throw up his hands, he halted and did as he was told. Regarding his movements he would say nothing. He remained silent and walked sullenly back to the prison with his captors.

Long Term.

New York, Aug. 12.—August Van Fahrig, the convicted leader of a gang of burglars who terrorized Nassau county residents for nearly six months, was today sent to Sing Sing prison for a term of forty years at hard labor by County Judge Jackson, of Mineola, L. I.
