

CAPITALS PROPOSE TO VISIT EXPOSITION

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Fair Would Like Salmon Bellies to Play Exhibition Game With Ottawas in Fall.

QUINCY, Dec. 22.—Although it is rather early for lacrosse talk, the men interested in the great national game are not by any means idle, and within the next few weeks there will likely be closed a contract, by which the Capitals will take another trip to the Pacific coast.

The annual Seattle Exposition which is patronized by thousands of Canadians, has decided to include lacrosse in its programme and will ask the Vancouver and New Westminster clubs to send their teams down to it just fall. They want the New Westminster and eastern team to play a series of games and Capitals are likely to be chosen as the eastern team. The Capitals have many friends among the western clubs and have been a long time in coming to the west.

Mr. Mulligan of the Capital club manager of the proposed trip, and whom he says nothing definite has been decided upon, he has told the press that in the event of the team making a good showing in the N.L.U. next year, they will again travel across the continent. A bona fide Capital team will be taken along.

VENEZUELA WILL MAKE PEACE WITH HOLLAND

Willemstad, Curacao, Dec. 22.—The new Venezuelan administration has revoked the decree prohibiting the transshipment at Willemstad of goods destined for Venezuelan ports. The measure in question has been the principal difficulty between Venezuela and Holland.

Capitalists Visit City.

George Foots, of Seattle, and F. C. Bower, of Tacoma, were in the city yesterday making investigations with a view possibly of entering into negotiations for the acquisition of a large part of the stock of the Royal City Gas Improvement company. They had a talk with the manager, W. Thomas, but without their decision for the present. Both gentlemen take great interest in the development of this district, and Mr. Foots, who resided here in the summer after many years' absence, finds here many attractions for a business man thinking of settling in this community.

MAN RESCUED FROM WATERS OF FRASER

Employee on Vulcan Taken in Unconscious State from River—Condition Serious.

It is alleged that C. Dolan, who fell into the Fraser river from a tug near the Brunette mill yesterday afternoon was attempting to commit suicide. Whatever the cause, he owes his life to the pluck of some Japanese working on the boom, and the energetic measures of Detective Bradshaw in hurrying him to the Royal Columbian hospital.

The man was engaged on the tug Vulcan as second engineer, and yesterday appeared to have been drinking. A boy named Schreiber says that Dolan jumped off from the stern end, into the river about 2:30 p.m. A board was thrown to him to cling to, but he did not take hold of it. He would have drowned but for the boommen who came alongside and rescued him with difficulty. Dr. Rothwell rendered first aid and the man was taken on a dory to the hospital, where he recovered consciousness some hours later.

Little is known of the man in the city. His name was not given. He was taken occasionally on the tug Vulcan.

ROVERS HAVE GOOD TEAM FOR FRIDAY

Great interest is being taken in the football match on Christmas Day when the Rovers entertain the Shamrocks at Moody park. The team will be: Goal, Watson; backs, Bruce and King; halves, Craig or Turnbull, Sawyer and Carse; forwards, Hayes, Shawcross, McGowan, Caydon, and Lamsden; reserves, Leamy and Rea. There seems some fear at the present time that Shawcross may not be able to play against his old team, as he strained a muscle on Saturday. Mr. Phillips will referee. A great game is assured. Kick-off at 2:30 p.m.

Funeral of Christopher Brown.

In spite of the bad weather yesterday there was a large gathering at the funeral of the late Christopher Brown of Mud Bay, whose tragic death at the age of 35 took place on Saturday.

CHILDREN'S CANTATA VERY SUCCESSFUL

Sunday School of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church Shows Careful Training—Parts Well Taken.

A very successful Christmas cantata was given last evening by the children attending Queen's Avenue Methodist church Sunday schools. They have been training for the occasion for some time, and the result reflects great credit on the teachers and others responsible for the production. "Around the World with Santa Claus" was the cantata selected, the libretto being from the pen of J. M. Scott Taylor, and the music by T. Martin Towne.

The platform represented a ship, trimmed out with Christmas decorations, and small flags in every possible place. It was the good ship "Santa Claus," and the idea was to show children of different nationalities garbed in the dress of their own country. The songs and choruses were very well taken, the principal parts being carefully apportioned. Miss Helen Burnett as a Roman Girl took the solo in "In Honor of Our King" with ability. Miss Besse White was the soloist in the anthem "Mighty God," while W. E. Fales looked the traditional Santa Claus. Lawrence Johnston acted as captain of the ship, and the captains of the Irish Guard were A. Oxenbury and Gerrie Diamond. The arrangements generally were in the capable hands of F. O. Canfield. About 70 children took part. Congratulations should be extended to the ladies responsible for designing the costumes, and to the children for the creditable manner in which they acted their parts.

The presentation depended to a large extent on the music, the orchestra being ably led by Herbert D. MacInnes. At the close of the performance, which was witnessed by a large number of visitors, Santa Claus distributed gifts to the children.

After considerable correspondence between Publicity Commissioner A. W. McLeod and a leading business man of Toronto, arrangements are now almost completed for the purchase of an established business here by the eastern merchant, who will be on the coast early in the new year to personally investigate the proposition before finally deciding to buy. The names of the interested parties are being kept private for the present.

Between $40,000 and $50,000 will be required to buy out the local business man, who has been established here many years and who would, in the event of the deal being put through, elect to remain a resident of this city, where he would invest the money realized by the sale.

PANAMA CANAL TO BE OPENED IN 1915

Isthmian Project is Proceeding Slowly—Statistical Information From Secretary

San Francisco, Dec. 22.—The Panama Canal will be opened January 1, 1915, according to an official communication received yesterday by the California promotion committee from Joseph Buell Bishop, secretary of the canal commission. The statement in part is as follows:

"There has been excavated from the line of the canal since the Americans took control about 56,000,000 cubic yards. This is as near as can be calculated at the present time, and is about one-third of the entire excavation necessary to complete the work. Of this 56,000,000 cubic yards about 55,000,000 have been removed during the past three years. Active work was not begun until January, 1905. In 1904 only about 243,000 cubic yards were removed, all from the Cut-ting out. In 1905 there were removed from this cut 914,000 cubic yards. In 1906, from all points along the line of the canal, 5,332,470 cubic yards were removed; in 1907 15,764,095 cubic yards; in 1908, down to November 1, nearly 31,000,000 cubic yards, and the total for this year will not be far from 37,000,000 cubic yards. This will bring the grand total of American excavation to about 60,000,000 cubic yards. As practically all of this will have been accomplished within three years, the average rate is between 30,000,000 and 42,000,000 cubic yards a year."

DIAMOND MINES SAID TO EXIST IN ARKANSAS

Murfreesboro, Ark., Dec. 22.—Tests just completed in the new diamond field recently discovered near here indicate, according to prospectors, just returned, that a rich diamond mine exists in Arkansas. A $1,500,000 company is being organized to develop the property.

The tests show pits, one tract 2,000 feet wide and much longer, containing strong traces of the presence of drillings. From the drillings already done, it appears that both the Mauney and Riley tracts form one immense pipe covering 160 acres. The largest diamond mine in Africa covers only eighty acres.

In all, 86,000 acres are under control of the Ozark Diamond Mining company, and this property will be developed.

Kangaroo on Bill of Fare.

New York, Dec. 22.—Kangaroo meat is to be served in New York hotels, a local dealer having arranged for the importation of 200 of the animals for use as food. The tail is considered the great delicacy, but almost every cut is said to be good eating by those who have sampled it. The dealer who hopes to meet with success in his new venture says he thinks New Yorkers will soon take to kangaroo meat in the same way that Europeans like American specialties such as wild turkey and quail.

Italian Girl's Revenge.

Rome, Dec. 22.—A terrible tragedy has been enacted in a hospital in this city, where an author, named Carbut, was being treated. Carbut, a married man, had abandoned Anna Pancellini, a sixteen-year-old girl, after winning her affections. The girl sought him in the hospital, and plunged a dagger in his left shoulder. Ill and stricken as he was, the man removed the dagger from the wound and plunged it several times into the girl's body.

SMALL TOWN WIT AND WISDOM PLEASES PATRONS

Cohan's "Fifty Miles from Boston" Receives Hearty Reception—Local Girl in Cast.

A representative audience greeted the rise of the curtain last night when George M. Cohan's rural musical play, "Fifty Miles from Boston," held the boards. The play certainly deserved the repeated and hearty applause which greeted the different situations and several of the musical numbers. "Fifty Miles from Boston" in all its three acts sets forth the good hearty fun and frolic, as well as the various idiosyncrasies of "Small Town" girls and boys, business men, widows, maiden aunts, etc., as were and are living today in the lesser New England cities. The little postmistress (Hazel Lowry) and her lover the Harvard hero (W. D. Stevenson) were the centre of attraction, but the interest was not so great as to overshadow the acting of the other characters.

The musical numbers were well rendered and though in a measure disappointing in their catchiness, they were tuneful and pretty. "Jack and Jill," "Auntie Awful," and "Harrigan" were the most favored by recalls, and it must be stated that Suzanne L. Westford made the most of her role of Mrs. Tifford. "Aunt Kate" (Kathryn R. Perry, alias Jessie Martin, a one-time Westminister girl) was another attractive character, especially in her song, "Auntie Awful." The play possibly appealed more to the ladies in the audience for though by no means of a sickly sentimental style, it was full of such points that usually tell more with the ladies than with men.

"Fifty Miles from Boston" is, however, a healthy, jolly sort of production and as such it was received last night. The orchestra carried by the company did some good work and their selections were thoroughly enjoyed.

Babes in Toyland.

There are twenty-two stage pictures in "Babes in Toyland," which comes to the opera house tomorrow evening, showing fairyland, and every one is the acme of art, the work of the celebrated scenic artist, John Young. These pictures are all so lovely and intricate in design that to decide which is the most gorgeous one must judge for one's self.

VIOLENT OUTBREAK AGAINST FOREIGNERS DAILY EXPECTED

Portuguese Watchman Kicks Chinese Man in Canton; Serious Trouble Results—Ships Boycotted.

Hongkong, Dec. 22.—It is feared that the anti-foreign movement at Canton, originally caused by the death of a coolie on the steamer Fat-shan, who is alleged to have been brutally kicked by a Portuguese watchman on the vessel, will culminate in a violent outbreak against all foreigners. So serious is the situation regarded that the British torpedo destroyer Hart has been sent to Canton.

The British Steamers Moorhen and Canton, two of the ships which are being boycotted, have been recalled from Wuchow. All Chinese vessels and their passengers are closely scrutinized upon their arrival. The native press continues to foment the agitation against foreigners.

LIBERALS ANXIOUS TO ABOLISH UPPER HOUSE

English Election to Be Fought
With End of Class Representation as Issue.

London, Dec. 22.—Leaders of the British Liberal party will probably make their present control of the government early next year on their ability virtually to abolish the House of Lords.

The decision to act against the peers has not been quite definitely reached—so far, at least, as anyone outside the cabinet knows—but the matter is under careful consideration, with a majority of the ministers openly in favor of an early start on the campaign.

The difference of opinion is mainly as to the extent to which it will be wise to go. The more radical members of the ministry are for complete extinction of the principle of hereditary legislation and the creation, in the lords' place, of a house chosen in some such manner as the United States senate.

The more moderate ministers favor making the upper branch a kind of advisory board with practically no legislative powers. The really conservative Liberals believe it will be sufficient to arrange for the passage of laws through the Commons over the lords' veto, in cases where two-thirds or three-fourths majorities can be secured. Whichever of these plans is adopted will be submitted in the form of a bill when Parliament re-assembles after the Christmas recess.

It is considered a foregone conclusion that the lords will reject it.

Then the Liberal cabinet proposes to resign.

A general election of members of parliament will follow, and the issue will be abolition of the upper house.

Premier Asquith is known to have opposed resignation for some time on the ground that it would be a hardship for the Liberal members of parliament to be put to campaign expenses for re-election.

So much Liberal legislation has recently been thrown out in the house of lords after passage by the Liberal commons that he has finally, however declared that the situation is intolerable.

The lords are trying to reform themselves by providing against the admission of any member of the upper branch purely as a hereditary legislator.

The idea of a committee of their own members, which recently submitted a report on the subject, is to have the body consist of a limited number of peers elected from the entire group of nobility and of "life peers" chosen in reward for high public services.

The Liberals are not paying the least attention to these proposals. They say the lords are frightened and want to compromise. They don't propose to give them the chance. They don't want them reformed but completely abolished, or at least deprived of all power.

BASE INGRATITUDE.

Once again has Premier McBride forgotten to recognize the claims to cabinet position of the one man who made it possible for him to have the opportunity to seize the leadership of the Opposition, and be the person whom the Lieutenant-Governor had constitutionally to call upon to form a ministry. He has scorned the rounds of the ladder by which he ascended to the position he holds. Mr. Thomas Gifford, member for this city, is the first person entitled to the portfolio of Minister of Works created at the last session of the legislature, but he has not been self-seeking and has held that ministers should be called to the cabinet by the Premier. This constituency was made to suffer by the ministry of the day for returning our member in the first instance and the memorable utterance of Col. Prior will go down in history as showing how bitterly Mr. Gifford's return was resented at Victoria. Now when the opportunity arose (and there have been many such opportunities) when the Premier, who personally benefitted more than any one else, could have made the amende honorable, he casts it aside in favor of one who has been importunate in his demands for recognition. Such will be the case to the end of the chapter with Premier McBride, whose strong failing is that he forgets his friends.

MUST HAVE CLOSURE.

As the time for another session approaches, the question of its length naturally arises. Last year the House convened in November, this year it will probably be called together about the second week in January. The government will have some useful legislation to submit to the House, and no time should be lost in disposing of public business. The government would do well at the very earliest moment to revise the rules of the House for the prevention of obstruction. Something upon the lines of the English closure would meet the difficulty.

Upon this point there is little difference of opinion. The people were probably aroused at the great expense entailed on the country by the inordinate length of the last session, and the government will be sustained in any action which will make this sort of thing impossible for the future. Some of the men who wasted hours of the public time last session are no longer in the House, but some will be there who must quickly be suppressed in the public interest. Parliament can transact all its business in five months, if unnecessary discussion is eliminated. Politicians must understand that parliament is not to be the airing place for their personal grievances, but rather the forum for the transaction of public business. The government would be well advised to give early attention to the question of limiting the debates, and the solution of this has been pointed out by the Mother of Parliaments, and it is described as closure.

A few days ago it was said that the Conservatives of Ontario are not satisfied with their leader and that Mr. Borden would be asked to give place to Sir Charles Tupper or Sir James Whitney. Now we have a Quebec Conservative saying that they would not submit to a leader from the West, and suggesting the name of Mr. F. D. Monk as the man who would lead them out of the wilderness.

Many changes occur in politics within a few months. A short time ago the leader of the Quebec Conservatives was Mr. Bergeron, and this gentleman accompanied Mr. Borden on his last tour through the West. Now Mr. Bergeron is even without a seat in the House, and Mr. Monk is the man whose name is on the lips of the good Conservatives from Quebec.

The difficulty is that Mr. Foster covets the position for himself, but unfortunately he would not be acceptable either in Ontario or Quebec. The small personal following he had in the House last session were rejected by the people at the polls, and it would have been infinitely better for the party had Mr. Foster been dropped before the campaign commenced.

This is the unfortunate position then of the Conservative party—a leader who appears to have lost his influence, and no man in sight who could secure the united support of the two large provinces, many new men in the House to whom politics is an almost unknown quantity, and the greater part of the old-time fighting force retired to political obscurity, for the present at all events.

LIPTON ABANDONS CHALLENGE FOR CUP

Glasgow, Dec. 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton declared today that he would not challenge the holders of the America cup because he had been unable to agree with the New York Yacht club on conditions of the race to be run. He who fears a sparrow will never see a hawk.
 An untried friend is like an uncracked nut.
 When you die even your tomb shall be comfortable.

 He who is on horseback no longer knows his own father.
 Man carries his superiority inside, animals theirs outside.
 The nobleman is always in the right when the peasant sues.
 If the thunder is not loud the peasant forgets to cross himself.
 One whip is enough for a good horse, for a bad one not a thousand.—Milwankee Sentinel.

The Greek Figure.
 Greek figures of men appear taller and more graceful than those of moderns. Modern artists make the upright figure seven and one-half times the length of the head. The Greeks made it eight times, lengthening the shin, and the longer sweep from knee to heel gave the figure increased grace and dignity. The same plan was frequently adopted by Lord Leighton, in whose paintings the same effect is obtained.—New York American.

Made a Difference.
 Teacher—If one servant girl could clean two rooms in two hours, how long would it take two servant girls to do it? Little Girl—Four hours.
 Teacher—Wrong. It would only take one hour. Little Girl—Oh, I didn't know you was talking about servant girls that wasn't on speaking terms—London Tit-Bits.

WOULD GIVE EAST INDIANS SHARE IN ADMINISTRATION

London, Dec. 22.—The King yesterday put an end to the present session of the British parliament. Only a small number of members were present to attend the brief prorogation ceremonies.

Referring to the conclusion of several important agreements which are affording causes of celebration and tend to the consolidation of peace, the King said:

"Among these may be mentioned
the treaties with the United States for general arbitration and for regulating certain questions between the United States and Canada, and an agreement for the maintenance of the existing territorial status of the regions bordering on the North Sea."

Referring to the events in the Balkan, "calculated to disturb the provisions of the treaty of Berlin," the speech said:

"There is reason to hope that wise and conciliatory counsels will prevail and that an amicable settlement will be reached with the consent of the powers who are parties to the treaty."

In a paragraph on India, deep regret is expressed at "a conspiracy of evil disposed persons against the lives of my officers and the continuance of British rule," and the earnest wish set forth that the measures to enlarge the share of the Indians in the administration of the country will be received in the spirit of goodwill and goodwill in which they are received."

In a short speech given by the Prince of Wales at all classes during his presence in Canada on the occasion of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of Quebec received especially cordial greetings.
