BOTH TEAMS MANAGE TO WARD OFF FATE

Cellar Championship of B.C. Lacrosse Association Still Undecided---Score 4 All.

The Vancouver and Maple Leaf lacrose teams played a tie game yesterday afternoon at Queen's park, the score at the end of the play being four-four. The match was the third in the provincial exhibition tournament and was to decide the occupants of third and fourth position in the tournament. As it is both teams may claim third position and the cellar apartments can go hang. The prizes of $400 and $300 offered by the R.A. & I. society for the tams winning third and fourth positions respectively will be divided evenly.

Yesterday's match was a poor exhibition of lacrosse taken altogether. The wet gras rendered the players insecure on their feet and much wild throwing resulted, but there were a number of poor plays which the weather cannot be held responsible for.

The match was rough all through, probably the roughest that has taken place in the city for many years. Three or four men were off the field several times and on one occasion there were five men lined up against the fence. The water pail was in good demand to revive knocked out players, and just a few minutes before the end of the game the services of a doctor was called to replace Ralph Ravey's shoulder in its socket.

The score being a tie at the end of the time, the referees insisted upon the match being continued until the isue should be decided, but C. A. Welsh, of the R.A. & I. society being appealed to by the Vancouver players, decided that the teams need not continue unles they felt disposed. He stated that the society was agreeable to an equal division of the prize money.

The referees were A. W. Gray and W. Gifford.

was cited as a probable result of a wholesale immigration of Orientals.

Chairman Johnston explained the working of the B. C. Fruit and Produce association, which aims to distribute the products of the land for the farmers, and it was decided to have Mr. Johnston visit the various districts and go into the matter fully with the growers and endeavor to have them all join the association.

THOUSANDS BRAVE RAIN TO ATTEND BIG FAIR

Inclement Weather Caused Immense Crowds to Gather in Industrial and Agricultural Buildings Throughout the Day, and Exhibitors Were Kept Busy Explaining Things

Notwithstanding the very inclement state of the weather, the Provincial fair at Queen's park was patronized by no less than 11,618 persons yesterday, Vancouver day.

The gate money is exactly $2,000 short of the sum paid in on the corresponding day last year for admission. Yesterday's weather was, however, even more depressing in its influence than on the third day of the last fair, the rain falling longer and more persistently than on that occasion.

The various sections of the exhibition awakened a keen interest among the crowds of visitors, and throughout the day stall-keepers were kept busy with enquiries and orders. In Sockeye Row, showmen of all kinds were doing a roaring trade.

Some of the most important portions of the judging were carried out during the day, the pigs, dogs and some of the cattle exhibits being adjudicated upon.

One of the earliest of the day's special attractions was the parade of the prize winning stock,horses and teams, to witness which an enormous crowd was assembled. Following this came the lacrosse match between the Vancouver and Maple Leaf teams.

In the evening a highly successful instrumental concert was given by the band of the Sixth regiment, Vancouver, and an exceedingly interesting and popular feature was the presentation of the Royal Humane society's vellum certificate for bravery to Miss Sutherland.

Today the most notable item will perhaps be the contest for the jiu jitsu championship. Given fine weather there is certain to be a very large attendance of the public. The great day will, however, be tomorrow, when the New Westminster boys will oppose the Tecumseh team in the contest for the premier honors in the lacrosse tournament.

STOCK COMPANY NOW HAS STRONG CAST

Gowan MacGowan appointed Manager---Several Good Attractions Coming Here.

Gowan MacGowan was yesterday appointed manager of the newly organized Marjorie Rambeau and Henry Esmond stock company, which has taken over the lease of the local opera house formerly held by the Rambeau stock company, and which will produce in this city twice a week, also appearing in Vancouver and Victoria two nights each week. Alternately there will be produced in the local house a series of strictly first clas attractions, of which "In the Bishop's Carriage," "The Time, the Place and the Girl," and "The Mayor of Tokyo" are only the forerunners.

Mr. MacGowan, who has now assumed charge of al the arrangements connected with the business, has for many years held the office of treasurer of the local opera house, and was for the past few weeks temporary manager during the absence of Mr. Esmond in Seattle, where the latter went for the purpose of securing talent to replace the performers released some two weeks ago.

Among those who have accepted positions with the new company, and who wil arrive in the city in the course of the next few days are A. F. Rayner, formerly with David Belasco's companies in Los Angeles; Miss Adele Yeagin, late with Ethel Barrymore, Chicago; Pery Hunting, of New York, and Wiliam Harris, of the well known Baker stock company, of Portland, Ore. The company will open next week with "Young Mrs. Winthrop."

DRIVERS RETURN TO WORK IN NANAIMO MINES

Nanaimo, B. C., Oct. 3.—(Special)—The little difficulty existing between the drivers in Nanaimo mines and the company as a result of which the mines had been closed since Monday, has now been amicably settled, and a long cheery blast from the big whistle at the mines tonight intimated that they would be worked tomorrow. A two-year agreement has been made between the miners and owners, by which the company makes the ten per cent bonus recently granted by them permanent.

A mass meeting of all underground employees held tonight decided to go to work tomorrow under the new agreement. Nanaimo mines are now turning out the largest amount of coal in their history, and the pay roll is the largest it has ever had. Business in all lines is brisk, and with general development on Vancouver island, prospects for Nanaimo are very bright.

WARDEN WHYTE WANTS TO RESIGN FROM PEN

It is reported that Col. J. C. Whyte, warden of the penitentiary, has resigned on account of ill-health. Nothing has been announced as yet with regard to the appointment of a successor, but it is understood that Inspector of Penitentiaries Foster will come out from Ottawa to take charge of the position pending the naming of a permanent warden.

Col. Whyte has been very ill for months, and it is stated that only through absolute relief from duties of every kind, has he any hope of winning out against the disease.

Eleven thousand six hundred and eighteen persons passed the turnstiles before ten o'clock last night.

YOUNG HEROINE IS SUITABLY REWARDED

Humane Society's Vellum Presented to Miss Sutherland by Premier McBride.

Just at an hour when the Industrial building at Queen's park was in its most crowded state last night, Mayor Keary stepped upon the bandstand in the centre, accompanied by Premier McBride, the Rev. Dr. Taylor, escorting Miss Sutherland, C. J. South, the B. C. representative of the Royal Humane society, London, Eng. The occasion was the presentation to Miss Sutherland of the greatly esteemed vellum certificate of the Royal Humane society.

Mayor Keary having briefly indicated the object of the moment, called upon C. J. South to inform the vast assembly of the circumstances.

C. J. South said the heroic action of Miss Sutherland in January last had brought honor not only to New Westminster, but to British Columbia and the whole of Canada. This lady was brave enough and cool enough, when she saw a young fellow fall through the ice and heard his cries for help, to go at once and save him by laying flat upon the treacherous ice and catch his hands in her own, thus saving his life. (Applause.) It was for this act of bravery that the Royal Humane society had awarded her their vellum certificate, an honor that was only granted in cases of great heroism. He was sure Miss Sutherland and her friends would be proud of this certificate which bore the signature of the Prince of Wales.

Premier McBride said he regarded this occasion as a very great honor for the Royal City of New Westminster. His experience was that the boys and girls of New Westminster were always noted for their pluck, and now in Miss Sutherland, they had a splendid type of their heroic youth. He was proud that this lady was a pupil of his old school, the High school, the head of which, his friend H. M. Stramberg, was known as one of the cleverest men in Canada. All honor to Miss Sutherland to whom he had now the pleasure of persenting the Royal Humane society's certificate, and might she live long to enjoy the honor she had so nobly won. (Loud applause).

Miss Margaret Watson and Miss Briggs presented Miss Sutherland with a handsome bouquet on behalf of the pupils of the High school which, Miss

BIG LACROSSE MATCH EXCITES INTEREST

New Westminster Sports Back Local Team Against Tecumsehs With Real $$.

More people will see the New Westminster-Tecumseh match at Queen's park on Saturday than has viewed any lacrosse match on the coast in years. This assumption is borne out by the wide interest which the match is creating in this city and Vancouver. One has only to listen to the conversations that may be heard from one end of the town to the other to learn that it is the most generally discussed topic of the day. The splendid showing made by the Toronto team against the Vancouvers on Wednesday proved that the Indians could deliver the goods, and they are now considered a good match for the New Westminster bunch. Whatever the result of Saturday's game may be, there is no doubt but that the match will be one of the best that Westrners will have the privilege of seeing for a long time to come.

The outcome of the game is, of course, problematical, especially as the Tecumsehs showed unmistakable signs of reserve energy in their match with the Vancouvers on Wednesday There are more people in New Westminster and Vancouver who believe that the New Westminster team will win, a fact which is evidenced by the great amount of New Westminster money which is offering, some of it at odds. One of the best students of the game on the coast bet $35 yesterday that the New Westminster team will score more times in two quarters than the Tecumsehs will in four, reserving the privilege of choosing the best two quarters. Other bets were made at five to four on the New Westminsters. That this confidence in the Royal City bunch is merely sentiment and loyalty is hardly probable. It is omre than reasonable to suppose that New Westminster's backers are situated by their knowledge of the local team and their observations of the visitors' style of play at Wednesday's game.

In the meantime, ordinary individuals, who claim no merit as prophets, want to see the Tecumseh defence withstand the rushes and shots of the New Westminster home before they will believe that the Red Shirts will take second place.

JUDGING OF CATTLE DONE UNDER COVER

Dr. Rutherford Gives Reason For His Selections of Winners in Dairy Class.

Owing to the wet weather yesterday morning, the judging of the dairy breeds was continued under cover in one of the cattle sheds, and although the space was decidedly limited, good progress was made in the judging, the judge frequently remarking on the general excellence of the cattle brought before him.

In the Jersey class, Bishop and Clark, of Victoria, succeeded in carrying off the championship for bulls, while Quick Bros., of Victoria, were the lucky owners of the championship cow.

In the Ayreshire class the champion bull is owned by J. Thompson, of Sardis, and the champion cow by A. C. Wells, of Chilliwack. In the Holstein class, H. Bonsall, of Chemainus, took first honors with his bull and J. M. Steves, of Steveston, for the champion cow.

At the conclusion of the judging of class 154, champion female dairy breed, the judge, Dr. Rutherford, addressed a few remarks to the exhibitors, stating why and how he arrived at his decision. He mentioned the necessity of breeding to one particular type, whether beef or dairy, and the certain points that required to be considered in each breed, as it happened the contest lay between these breeds—the Ayreshire, the Jersey and the Holstein. The judge remarked that they were first class representatives of their breeds, and would stand well in any show he has ever judged. Dr. Rutherford is a man of large experience in judging cattle, and his words carry weight. The Jersey he said, was of a perfect type, but had passed her prime, although still perfect in shape, form and temperament, the Ayreshire was as perfect a picture of her type as it was possible to get, but she was too nervous a disposition, and showed a tendency to put flesh upon herself instead of turning the feed into milk; tre Holstein again was a perfect type of animal and had just the two extra points in her favor which her competitors needed, and so he awarded her the championship, thus adding another honor to the long list that the herd of J. M. Steves, of Steveston, has acquired.

The concluding of the judging will take place today, and if the weather is fine, there will be one of the biggest and best displays of dairy cattle ever seen in this province, and fit to compete in any show in the Dominion of Canada.

IBSEN'S PARADOX.

And the Intimate Relation of Science to Society.

Ibsen, my great compatriot, has in one of his works formulated the paradox that the man is strongest who stands most alone. There is certainly some truth in this—nay, there is much truth in it so far as science is concerned. The man who in the search for truth goes his way independently of other men and of other considerations is certainly the man who is apt to find the greatest and most valuable truth. On the other hand, it is also true that science more than most other things in life depends on co-operation, on the help of one's fellow beings, and this becomes more and more true every day. Many people are apt to forget what science actually is and what they owe to science, for it is through science that modern society actually exists, and the development of society as it is today would be impossible if science were eliminated. Humanity is growing; but, if science and the means created by science are not growing, humanity will have to look forward to a very miserable future. Therefore the nation that wishes to be cared for must support science and those who carry on scientific work. Science will live her own life and has done so ever since the days when Prometheus made his fatal expedition to the gods and stole the fire which is more or less burning in every one of us and cannot be extinguished. There is something sublime in this everlasting fire of science. Generation after generation disappears. The individual is nothing, but always "watchful in the tower man shall remain in sleepless contemplation."—Dr. Nansen.

PRINCE RUPERT LOTS FOR SALE NEXT SPRING

Railway Company Hastens Work at Site of Future Metropolis of the North.

James Carruthers, head of the grain forwarding firm of James Carruthers & Sons, Montreal, a director of the Dominion bank, and president of the United Supply company which has been doing a considerable amount of work for the Grand Trunk Pacific at Prince Rupert, is in the city visiting the provincial exhibition.

Mr. Carrruthers accompanied President Hays and General Manager Morse of the new transcontinental railway on their trip of inspection to the proposed terminus of the railway in the north nad expressed himself as greatly pleased with the results which have been achieved in Prince Rupert.

The hotel which the United Supply company has been building for the G. T. P. will be finished within two months. The roof is on and most of the plastering has been done, but it will require the additional time to install the heating apparatus. The hotel will be completed and ready for business by December 1. It has over 40 rooms.

The water supply from Hay's creek will also be in operation by that time and a sewerage system installed. Water to supply the town will ultimately be derived from Shawatians lake, a body of fresh water, some three miles away from the city, which is capable of providing a supply for a centre of 200,000 inhabitants.

Mr. Carruthers states that it is the intention of the G. T. P. officials to put the town lots at Prince Rupert upon the market next spring. The survey parties are completing thier work.

At the present time the railway company has just about completed a wharf about 1,500 feet long, and a warehouse upon it, capable of housing the bulk of the freight for Prince Rupert and the Skeena. A subsidiary company is arranging to acquire the steamer Caledonia and freight for the Skeena will be landed at Rupert and transhipped.

The company has received permission from the railway commission to accept freight over the section from Portage La Prairie west, and as an indication of the character of the work which has been done, Mr. Carruthers stated thata train was run over 60 miles an hour over this section the other day.

Computing Scales.

Housewives are keeping G. E. M. Gray busily engaged in answering enquiries respecting the computing scale which he has on view in the manufacturers' building. It is not surprising that a clever invention like this excites the interest of the careful housewife,for by its means the weight of a joint, or any other article for household consumption, is automatically registered and gives at the same time its value and cost in plain figures. The scale is, of course, no less valuable to tradesmen and store keepers, for the accuracy and rapidity of registration saves hours of time and dollars of value in the course of a week. The computing scale is manufactured in various forms for different trades.

The sideboard is made inthe regular fashion out of pine wood and covered with inlaid vaneering made of walnut basewood and cherry. It took first prize on two occasions at the Toronto exhibition as an art curio. The sideboard is owned b ythe builder's son-in-law, John Harnett, of Vancouver.

PROGRESS.

At the meeting of the Manufacturers' association in Toronto, a statistical paper was read which showed that this Canada of ours was going ahead by leaps and bounds. As Sir Wilfrid Laurier put it in his speech at the banquet, "The hour and the moment, the moment and the opportunity, have come at last to Canada. Canada is no longer obscured and eclipsed by her powerful neighbor. Canada has at last emerged in the full flood of her light. The great American star is no longer the great attraction to the world."

What is true of all Canada is true also of British Columbia and of that section of British Columbia which is more particularly and fully represented at Queen's park today. We have and are delighted to have exhibits from distant parts of the province and from outside the province; but the main body of the exhibits tells the story of the great progress of New Westminster—the lower Fraser valley.

That the exhibition has largely contributed to the progress which it exemplifies is beyond doubt. British Columbia needs only to be known. It can afford to invite inspection of what it has to offer, and the Provincial fair at New Westminster, year after year, has afforded the best opportuniey for that inspection.

There could be no better testimony to the excellence of the display at Queen's park than the fact that so masy people braved yesterday's unpleasant weather in order to see it.

The Tory barrel organs are grinding away at a double-barrelled tune. "Abolish graft," they shout, and then they turn the other crank and we hear "Give us a high protective tariff." This protection is not for farmers, not for working men, not for clerks, but for manufacturers, and not even for all of them. That is to say, if the party is put in power it will abolish graft by so manipulating the tariff that certain favored people shall have the biggest kind of a graft at the expense of the general community, and by building up a system of high protection which, political economists tell us, is a most fruitful source of political corruption. After that, it is not to be wondered at that they want to make this a "white man's country" by abolishing the Chinese head tax.

Fraser River Tannery.

"There's nothing like leather," says the old aphorism, and the truth of this is enforced by the many fine specimens of supple skins exhibited by the Fraser River tannery in the Industrial hall. Here are specimens of harness, lace, skirting and collar leather, latigo and the modern perfection of footwear material known as chrome. From this the well known Leckie shoes are manufactured, whilst the popular saddles of the Great West Saddlery Co., Calgary, are wrought of the Fraser River tannery hides.

Watson said, was a small token of their regard and in recognition of her splendid bravery.

Rev. Dr. Taylor expressed on behalf of the recipient, her thanks to the Royal Humane society and the local council of women, for securing her this honor, and to the two ladies for their gift from the High school.

Mayor Keary called for three cheers for the heroine, which were warmly given and the band of the 6th regiment, Vancouver, struck up a lively heroic tune as the actors in the interesting scene left the platform.

Miss Sutherland, who is only about seventeen years of age, accepted the public recognition of her act in a graceful manner gowned in a Sutherland Tartan dress, which became her exceedingly well.

The wording of the certificate awarded to Miss Sutherland ran as follows:

Royal Humane Society. Instituted 1774.

Patron—His Majesty the King.

Vice-Patron—H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, K. G.

President—H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, K. G.

It was unanimously resolved that Miss Marion P. Sutherland is justly entitled to the honorary testimonial of this society inscribed in vellum,which is hereby awarded her for having on the 28th January, 1907, gone to the rescue of C. R. Mannering, who was in imminent danger of drowning in the Fraser river, British Columbia, and whose life she courageously saved.

(Sgd.) GEORGE P., President.
(Sgd.) HORACE MONTAGUE, Chairman.
F. A. C. Claughton, Secretary.

Miss Sutherland is the eighth person to receive recognition for acts of bravery in B. C.

The nightwatchman at Schaake's machine works snatched W. Gillies from a watery grave about ten o'clock yesterday evening, Mr. Gillies having wandered off the wharf opposite Schaake's into the Fraser river. His cries fo rhelp brought the nightwatchman to the spot, and he was rescued without too much difficulty. As he had no room of friends in the city, having just arrived to take in the big fair, he was accommodated with a bunk at the police station, where he recognized J. L. McInnes, the lockup keeper, as being an old friend of his from Pictou, N. S. The two had not met for twenty years.

"Thorns and Orange Blossoms," a typical melodrama of the old school, delighted a large audience at the Opera house yesterday evening, the assemblage showing its appreciation of the final triumph of virtue over vice by loudly cheering the triumphant heroine at the conclusion of the last act. Tommy Swift, as the breezy, witty Ameriacn drummer with a sunbeam mission, easily proved himself to be the best of the male members of the company. Miss Flora Fairfield, in the leading feminine role, captivated the sympathies of the audience. The play will be repeated this evening.

That is the proper order of things in considering a purchase of jewelry or precious stones. The Sleeping Sickness.

The famous bacteriologist, Professor Robert Koch, who last spring went to Africa to study the somnolency disease, has established that the plague, raging principally in British Uganda, on the northern shore of the Victoria Nyanza, carried away more than 200,000 people. Not only the natives, as first assumed, but also Europeans fall victims to the disease. The germ of the disease is transmitted by a stinging fly. Prevention of the disease is, according to Dr. Koch, only possible through extermination of the flies.

Our Cotton.

Only 44 per cent of the southern farms now derive their principal income from cotton. Still cotton production has steadily increased from 7,000,000 bales, worth $300,000,000, twenty years ago, to 13,000,000 bales last year, worth $628,000,000. The home grown cotton demand of the mills of the United States is now about 4,000,000 bales a year. The census of 1900 shows that in twenty years the improved acreage of twelve southern states increased from 78,082,484 acres to 107,573,679.

Monster Spider Crabs.

"I have collected specimens of crabs in all parts of the world," said a naturalist, "but I shall never forget the pleasure I experienced in securing a monstrous specimen of the Japanese spider crab, the largest ever found. The combined length of the feeding arms of this monster was more than twelve feet, while the body portion was about twenty inches across. When alive, it weighed about seventy-five pounds. One of the oddest things about these creatures is their ability to assume a disguise. This feat they are able to perform owing to the flexibility of their pinchers and to the hooked hairs and spines with which their numerous arms are studded. By means of their pinchers they tear off small fragments of sponges and seaweeds. After first putting these to their months, which contain a glutinous saliva, they place them on the surface of their limbs and bodies by sticking them fast with a rubbing movement. By this method the crab succeeds in completely changing its appearance and rendering itself indistinguishable from the materials common to the bottom of the sea. While crawling along it seems as though a portion of the ocean bed was in motion, so close is the resemblance."

A BRIDGE CURIOSITY.

Odd Structure In Mexico Built of Solid Mahogany.

As mahogany is among the most costly woods in the world, it may well be inferred that this tropical material is not very extensively employed in the construction of buildings, etc. A bridge constructed of solid mahogany is certainly a rarity, a curiosity. There is one, claimed to be the only one in the world, built of that material. This structure is located in the department of Palenque, state of Chiapas, republic of Mexico. This district lies in the extreme southwestern part of Mexico, near the boundary line of Guatemala.

This mahogany bridge is constructed entirely of that valuable wood except some iron supports, braces and nails that are necessary. The bridge spans the Rio Michol, and its total length, including approaches, exceeds 150 feet, while the width is fifteen feet. It is used by both teams and pedestrians, and, although somewhat rude and primitive in construction, it is very substantial.

None of the timbers of the flooring were sawed, for in that region there are no sawmills, but were hewn and split.

In that section of old Mexico there are several very large rubber plantations, and mahogany trees are quite common. In clearing away the tropical forests for setting out the young rubber trees the mahogany growths are also cut down and removed. As this wood is quite abundant, some of it was used in building the bridge.—American Inventor.

Cheering Tommy Up.

The obstacles which beset the path way of a photographer when he endeavors to secure "a pleasant expression" are many, particularly when his sitters are of a tender age.

"I do not believe whipping does children a particle of good," said Mrs. Green, returning flushed and discouraged from a visit to the photographer with her Tommy. "Here I've spent over an hour in that hot room trying to make this child look pleasant. I've slapped his hands twice, and he looked crosser each time than he did before."—Youth's Companion.

The Corpse Plant.

The corpse plant is a remarkable carnivorous specimen that grows in the colony of Natal. Its principal feature is a bell shaped mouth, with a throat opening into a hollow stem. It is almost black and covered with a thick, glutinous secretion, while its odor is very offensive. This attracts carrion feeding birds to it and once they alight on it they are lost. Their claws become entangled in the secretion, the bell shaped mouth folds up and they are literally swallowed.

Costliest of All Fish.

The fish was no bigger than a silver dollar. Its color was bright gold, and it had a beautiful bushy golden tail.

"That," said the pet stock dealer, "is the finest aquarium fish in the world, a Chinese brush tailed goldfish. It is handsome, healthy and long lived. A good brush tailed goldfish," he concluded, "costs $250 or $300, and some fine specimens have sold for as much as $700 apiece."

Good Some Other Time.

"Just as Jack was about to kiss me last night father walked into the room."

"What did you do?"

"I gave Jack a rain check."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Imperative.

First Doctor—Is this operation absolutely necessary? Second Doctor—It is. The only possible chance we have of collecting our bill is from his life insurance!—Life.

A Poor Wrapper.

"Yes; poor Mrs. Elderly is all wrapped up in that son of hers."

"And he isn't much of a wrapper, eh?"

Employment and hardship prevent melancholy.—Johnson.

"Drumming" in Mexico.

Cheap traveling men who can pick up orders in a brisk and breezy fashion in the west and southwest of our own country are not the men who may be expected to do business in Mexico. The professional "hustler" is quite apt to be of no use down here. Men of education and culture, with gentlemanly manners and a knowledge of the language, its people and their customs, are the sort of traveling men American firms need not only for this country, but for all Spanish America.—Consul J. A. Le Roy of Durango.

Polish Editors and Jail.

Some Polish editors have a hard time. In a parting word to his readers the retiring proprietor of the Polish paper Gornoslazak says that during the five years of the paper's existence the responsible editors have spent four and a half years in prison, while $3,750 has been paid in fines.

Judge Selects Winners In Kennel Club Show

Dr. Clayton, of Chicago, has finished his judging of the New Westminster Kennel club's show, and expressed himself as extremely pleased with both dogs and arrangements. He saw that the dogs were a splendid lot, and particularly mentioned the fox terriers, setters, pointers, cockers, and Scottish terriers as very strong classes, with dogs in them that are fit to compete anywhere. Dr. Clayton is well qualified to express an opinion, as he has visited all of the best shows for the past twenty years both as judge and spectator. He has crossed the continent three times this year to officiate at kennel club shows, and was asked to judge the Salt Lake City kennel show, which takes place at the same time as the New Westminster exhibition, but he had previously promised to officiate here.

Among other shows which Dr. G. W. Clayton has judged during the past year may be mentioned the Chicago Detroit, Seattle, and Portland.

The New Westminster Kennel club is affiliated with the Canadian Kennel club, and all dogs entered and prizes given are registered with the older association.

Mrs. Cook's New Palace.

Mrs. Cook's new coffee palace has attracted a great many people during the three days which it has been open, and continue to attract many people for months to come. The new cafe, which is situated in the Dominion Trust building, and has a separate entrance on Sixth street, is fitted up in the most approved style and has windows on two sides of the restaurant.

The furniture of the new coffee palace is entirely new, not one of the tables and chairs being transferred from the old coffee palace on Columbia street to the new premises. The new furniture is of ancient oak and will match well with the other equipment of the restaurant when the staining of the beams and woodwork is completed.

The waitresses are enabled to wait on the diners with more celerity on account of the room being in a more extended shape. This advantage to the people wishing to eat in a hurry is great and Mrs. Cook is endeavoring to do her best to have her patrons served with as little delay as possible.

CHANDLER NOT ANXIOUS TO AGAIN MEET BURN

It is quite probable that the 15-mile race which was proposed between Burn, the champion of Western Canada, and W. R. Chandler, of Vancouver, will not come off. A proposition was made by Chandler prior to Wednesday's race in this city that in case Burn succeeded in beating Chandler in the 10-mile race, a return event should be given for fifteen miles, as Chandler thinks he can do his best work in a fifteen-mile event.

The question of running the long distance was casually talked over between the managers of the principals yesterday in Vancouver and it developed, according to report, that Chandler was not at all anxious to meet Burn again, even at his own distance. Another conference will be held today and if no arrangements for the race are completed, Burn will leave immediately for Calgary, where he will run two open races before leaving for Toronto to meet Coley and later Longboat. He expects to race Coley about the fifteenth of this month, and Longboat about the end of October.

What about that endowment policy in the Mutual Life of Canada? It will pay you to see S. W. Bodley at 250 Columbia St. This is the solid company.

Special Prizes.

The keen competition for the special prizes offered by the different milling companies for bread and pastries made from their special flour was one of the features of the display in this class. For the $25 offered by the Lake of the Woods milling company, no les sthan sixty ladies competed, while for the $15 prize offered by the Ogilvie Milling company, fifty entries had been received. The judges had a hard task to determine the winner in these two classes, for although a large number of the exhibits were very much inferior to the prize winners, several were dangerous competitors, and the prizes were only won by the narrowest of wargins.

often wonder why the boy or girl is so backward at school—and naturally feel disappointed that the child is so dull; then, too, the loved one is subject to harsher treatment at school because he or she seems so stupid. It may be the fault of the child, or it may be the child has defective eyesight and is therefore at a disadvantage because the sight is not normal. What we want to say to the mother is: Send your child to us. We will have our optician examine and test the eyes to see if the poor sight can not be improved by the use of glasses. We will be honest with you and the child. If glasses are not needed, we will tell you so. The examination and testing will not cost you a cent. We have the appliances for testing and correcting all kinds of poor sight, and can supply glasses at your own price. Our charges are about half what some others charge. Our optical department is in charge of F. W. Heath, graduate optician, late of Ottawa. In all cases satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

POLICE SUFFER FROM NO LACK OF SUPPLIES

Gun-ah-Noot Has Every Chance in the World of Eluding His Pursuers.

Victoria, Oct. 3.—Yesterday Superintendent of Provincial Police Hussey received a telegram from Sergeant Murray, dated Hazelton, to the effect that Constable Otway Wilkie, in charge of one of the searching parties for the Indian murderers, Simon Gun-an-noot and Peter Hi-ma-daa, had reached Bear lake on September 17. The information thus effectually disposes of the report that the searching parties from Hazelton would not be able to take to the woods this fall at all, owing to a lack of supplies, which are scarce at Hazelton. The telegram would indicate that Sergeant Murray reached Hazelton in time to lay in his supplies before the shortage made itself felt.

While the provincial police authorities express themselves as confident that the parties now scouring the northern country for the Indian fugitives will be successful in locating them, Harry Berryman, Dominion police opcer at Port Essington, who is now in the city, thinks that the chase as at present organized will be a fruitless one. Mr. Berryman came down on the Princess May. He heard the report that the searching parties would be unable to get out this winter owing to lack of supplies. Whether the party has sufficient supplies or not, Constable Berryman believes that the search will be unsuccessful. He deems the searching party too small to be of service, and says it would take a regiment of men to make a proper hunt for the Indians. The country to be traversed is wild and full of dense brush, and the fugitives could lie within a dozen yards of the trail without being discovered. Constable Berryman accompanied Constable Wilkie last spring in his long search and is thoroughly familiar with the country.

They owe allegiance to neither state municipality or its citizens. They pay neither taxes or rent, but like all "gulls" they are ever on the wing, excepting when gathering from their victims the necessary for locomotion. They know nothing about the eye or the science of optics, and care less, so long as they can relieve the unsuspecting of their hardearned money.

If your eyes are troubling you and you have not the time to come to an eye specialist like Dr. Jordan (Vancouver), then spend your money with your local optician, and at least have the satisfaction of knowing you stand a chance of getting some degree of satisfaction, which you cannot hope to get from fakers. SO BEWARE!

PREMIER'S ADDRESS TO SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Hon. Richard McBride Comments Upon Good Work Done by Convention.

Premier McBride addressing the convention of British Columbia school trustees in the council chamber Wednesday night, said he felt we had a great deal to learn from a body like that to whom the Council of Education were already greatly indebted for some valuable suggestions, some of which they had been able to adopt. He believed the public schools of the province had now been placed upon a far better footing than they had ever been before. It was pleasing to find that a far more general interest was taken in educational matters than hitherto. He assured them that so far as it was posible the Board of Education would take cognizance of the wishes and suggestions of that convention of trustees. It was only a plain statement of fact that educational reforms were in a great measure due to the work of the trustees. He encouraged them to continue their good work. Dealing with some of the resolutions passed during the present convention he assured them of support in the matter of school flags, the cheapening and supply of school books, the provision of which he knew was a burden upon parents, and the provision of more healthful conditions in schools.

The premier spoke at length upon the question of providing a provincial university in favor of which he found a generally expressed opinion. It was a very onerous undertaking. They would be brought into direct competition with the established universities in the east and south and as they must have the very best talent in Canada for British Columbia a very heavy bill of expenses would be incurred. The three million acres of land which had been reserved for the endowment of their university would not produce one dollar too much. His colleague, Dr. Young, was engaged in preparing a scheme that would make adequate provision for their university. He spoke appreciatively of the work being done by the McGill University in connection with Columbian college, the latter institution being, he said, a great credit both to the province and the city of New Westminster.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the premier for his address upon the proposition of Secretary Dougan, seconded by D. S. Curtis, the latter expressig a hope that the university would be centrally located between New Westminster and Vancouver.

What about that endowment policy in the Mutual Life of Canada? It will pay you to see S. W. Bodley at 280 Columbia St. This is the solid company.
