USINESS SLIGHT AT COUNCIL MEETING

hree Members Absent---Sitting Short and But Little Work Done.

The city council at their regular eeting last evening was waited on F. R. Glover, assistant general anager of the B. C. Electric railway ompany who asked that steps be aken at as early a date as possible or conveying to his company a right-f-way on Front street, but owing to e absence of Mayor Keary and Alermen Jardine and Gray, no action as taken. A communication was also eceived from General Manager Sperling to the effect that his company was nxious to have all details pertaining o the proposed Westminster-Chilliwack line completed as soon as possible. This was also laid on the table o be taken up at a future meeting.

Owing to the death of Alexander wen and the consequent absence of ldermen Jardine and Grey, who are elatives of the bereaved family, no mportant business was transacted ast evening. Only communications nd reports from the various committees were dealt with. Among the ommunications were the following:

Formal application was made by Officer Gosling of the local Salvation rmy corp, for the use of Queen's park oday as a place for holding the anual Salvation Army picnic. Permission was readily granted.

Messrs. Butterfield, Mackie & Co., orwarded a plan of their proposed harf on water lot 56, for the council's approval. The firm also applied or permission to lay building material n Front street near the scene of the roposed construction.

The board of works will take the matter under consideration and will eport later.

An official report of the slaughtering of four dogs, a deed for which he was responsible, was received from Pound Keeper Batt. The assumption of the council was that the unfortunates had lacked the magic piece of metal which costs the sum of one dollar each. The report stated that 460 tags had been issued to date. The sum of $10.50 in pound fees for the month of June was also reported by the pound keeper. The document was filed for reference.

Nine property owners petitioned the council for a new sidewalk on the west side of Third street, between Queen's and Third avennes. The petitioners stated that the owners contemplated boulevarding the block at their own expense and also planting shade trees along the street. The application was referred to the board of works for a report.

On behalf of the Fairview Baptist Sunday school, P. H. McEwen applied for the use of Queen's park on the tenth instant, for the purpose of holding the school's annual picnic. The request was referred to the chairman of the parks committee.

A copy of the song "British Volunteers" was forwarded by F. W. Howay, who stated that it had been donated to the Carnegie library by Mrs. A. W. Sillitoe. The song was composed some years ago by the late Bishop Sillitoe while a citizen of New Westminster. The clerk was instructed to acknowledge the gift and express the thanks of the council direct to Mrs. Sillitoe, who now resides in Seattle.

Mr. Howay also wrote on behalf of the trustees of the estate of the late Augustus William Lundbom to the effect that provisions had been made in the will for the purchase of $250 worth of books for the New Westminster library. Mr. Howay stated that the trustees would be glad to receive suggestions from the council as to the variety of books most required.

On motion the library committee was authorized to act in conjunction with the trustees of the estate in selecting the books.

An invitation to the mayor and council and clerk was received from the local council of women, to attend the reception of the members of the national council on the afternoon of Thursday, July 18, and also to attend the at home which will be given in their honor at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Hill in the evening. On motion of Ald. Garrett, the invitation was accepted.

A communication was received from the C. P. R. solicitor in reference to the proposed New Westminster-Eburne tram line, a report of which will be found in another column.

A letter signed by James Cunningham, the New Westminster gas works, and Belyea & Co., called attention to the condition of Twelfth street near the corner of Third avenue, which they alleged was in a disgraceful state, on account of the presence of stumps, loose stones, ruts, etc.

Ald. Henley reported that he already had that matter under consideration, but on account of the shortage of labor, he had not yet been able to commence repairs.

The matter was referred to the board of works to act.

Reports were received from Ald. Henley, chairman of the board of works, and Ald. Johnston on behalf of the chairman of the market committee, both recommending that certain small accounts be passed for payment. The recommendations were adopted.

Ald. Johnston then moved that the council adjourn out of respect to the memory of the late Alexander Ewen, who passed away yesterday afternoon. Mr. Ewen had been for some years a member of the council, and had always taken a keen interest in everything pertaining to the city and its up-building. Ald. Johnston also moved that the clerk be instructed to write to the widow and family, expressing the deep sympathy of the council in their sad bereavement. The motion was carried and council then adjourned.

FLUTTER IN NEST.

Local Owls Greet Big Wisdom Bird This Evening.

The first official visit of Grand Organizer Leavitt, of the Order of Owls to local Nest No. 29 will take place this evening, when the New Westminster members of the newly formed lodge will assemble in the Eagles' hall to greet him. The occasion will also be marked by the attendance of a large number of vistors from Vancouver lodge, No. 11, who will come over by special tram to take part in the business of the evening, and to enjoy the social hour which will follow.

Grand Organizer Leavitt is not only prominent as the organizer of the Order of Owls, but is also known as the founder of the Order of Eagles, a society which is very similar in its principles to the Owls. The executive of the Owls anticipate that every one of the 200 members in this city will turn out to meet Mr. Leavitt.

W. C. R. Baker, of the local lodge, attended the meeting of the Vancouver lodge last evening, which was held in connection with the visit of the grand organizer there. After the transaction of business, a very pleasant social was spent, which lasted until nearly midnight.

DISTILLERY TO CLOSE FOR SUMMER MONTHS

During Close Time, Improvements Will Be Made to Joy Juice Factory.

The B. C. distillery will run through the last vat of mash today, and will at the end of the week shut down the plant for two months. The plant can be operated during the warm days only at a disadvantage, and since opening up three years ago, the management have made a practice of closing down for about two months during the warmest part of the season.

During the months of July and August, a number of contemplated additions to the distillery will be completed, and everything will be put in readiness for a good start on September 1. A two-story stable and store house has just been completed, and a two-storey office building has already been started, and will be completed without delay. These buildings are of brick and built along up-to-date lines.

A new department will be added to the distillery when the company commences business again. This will be the raising of cattle. It is well known among stock raisers that the grain, after the spirits have been distilled from it makes excellent feed for cattle, and the refuse from the local plant will be utilized for that purpose in future. A long row of cattle sheds have already been erected, and the management will commence buying stock very shortly.

BLUE PRINT SHOWS TRAM LINE ROUTE

Vancouver and Lulu Island Railway Road Defined---Council to Approve Plan.

Official information in the form of a blue print of the route of the proposed Westminster-Eburne tram line was received at the city hall yesterday from J. E. McMullen, assitsant solicitor for the C. P. R., and was laid before the council last evening for approval. The plan was accompanied by a letter which was to the effect that the company was anxious to have the council approve of the plan as soon as possible. The writer offered to furnish any further information which the council might require.

According to the plan, which was drawn by the C. P. R. engineer, the road will commence where the present C. P. R. track ends on Fourteenth street ,near the Independent Shingle company's plant, and will run up Fourteenth street a short distance, and will then curve across Delta, Welland and Huron streets, thence across Third avenue, Fourth avenue, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Eighteenth and Twentieth streets. In its course the road will run a short distance along Fifth avenue, near Eighteenth street. From the commencement near the foot of Fourteenth street the road will follow the contour of the slope for some distance and will strike the waterfront in the vicinity of Nineteenth street, from which point it will follow along the water for a distance of over half a mile west of the city limits. From the point, where the route leaves the river, it will follow almost uninterruptedly the elevation all the way to Eburne.

The road will be known as the Vancouver & Lulu Island railway. It will be constructed by the C. P. R., and operated by the B. C. Electric railway company, under lease.

The plan was referred to the finance committee for a report.

DELEGATES LEAVE TO-DAY FOR BIG CONVENTION

At seven o'clock this evening, thirty delegates from New Westminster to the Christian Endeavor convention at Seattle will embark on the Iroquois at the Union Steamship wharf, Vancouver, accompanied by about ninety delegates to the monster meeting from the Terminal city. The local delegates will leave New Westminster on the five o'clock tram, and will be away from the city for a week, returning here on Tuesday next.

Members of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian, the Queen's Avenue Methodist, and the Knox Presbyterian church congregations will attend, while some of the other churches may also send delegates. Some of the New Westminster Endeavorers who will make the trip are: the Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Barraclough, A. H. Muttit, R. Embrose, T. W. Haslam, J. Kirkland, W. Reid, Mrs. F. C. Macdonald, Mrs. F. J. Nicholson, Mrs. E. K. Blewett, Miss May Marshall, Miss Mabel Bowell, Miss Alice Dean, Miss E. C. Stott, Miss M. Johnson, Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. M. Roscoe, R. H. Cairns, Miss Cairns and Miss Bell Menzies. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will also accompany the Endeavorers on the trip and will take in the convention while in the Queen city.

Extensive preparations have been made in Seattle for the reception of the Christian Endeavorers, who are coming to the convenrtion from all parts of the world, and housing accommodation for over twenty thousand people has already been secured. The big meeting will be held in an immense tent, larger than any circus tent on the continent, and in this speeches will be delivered by some of America's foremost speakers. Vice President Fairbanks will be among those who will address the gathering.

Fifteen Horses Burn.

Milestone, Sask., July 8.—On Saturday, while the foreman and hired help were away, a barn containing fifteen horses on the ranch of Norton and Alverson, two miles southeast of Wilcox, caught fire from heated manure and destroyed the building and thirteen horses, only two head being saved through the efforts of a neighbor, whose attention was attracted by the smoke from the fire. The loss is estimated at $3,000.

CANNING CHERRIES.

Fruit Cannery Puts up 1200 Gallons Every Day.

The New Westminster Fruit Packing company is doing a tremendous business in packing cherries, which is out of all comparison to the amount of that class of fruit put up last year. No less than 30,000 pounds of cherries have already been canned and more consignments will arrive within the next few days from Chilliwack and other up-river points. Manager Haigh states that since commencing the season's work last Tuesday, he has canned about 1200 gallons of cherries a day, and will keep that ratio up until the supply runs out, which will be about ten days hence. This is considered phonomenal in view of the fact that not more than 200 gallons of cherries were canned by the company last year.

Mr. Haigh has a buyer travelling through the fruit district who has been successful in getting all the fruit which they can handle at five cents a pound for first class stock and four and four and a half for other varieties. The only trouble connected with the business, reports Mr. Haigh, is the lack of sufficient help in the factory. About fifty all told are now employed there, and almost as many more could be put to work if they could be secured.

ESCAPED LUNATIC CAUGHT ON ISLAND

Probationer Who Fled From Farm In Boat Captured at Old Home Near Nanaimo.

After making a sensational escape from the provincial asylum probation farm in a small boat, an insane patient named Brown, accompanied by another lunatic, managed to elude the vigilance of the police for two weeks, during which time a strict lookout was kept for the fugitives, but without success. Yesterday, information was received in this city to the effect that the men had been discovered at Ballanac island, near Nanaimo, and that the Chief of Provincial Police Stevenson, accompanied by Constable Trawford, had the two men under surveillance.

Brown formerly lived at Ballanac island, and the authorities expected that sooner or later he would return there, and consequently kept a strict watch on this place, their vigilance being finally rewarded. Dr. Doherty informed the News last evening that Brown had been a patient of the asylum at intermittent intervals for the past four years. He was a harmless man, otherwise he would not have been out on the farm, only the most trustworthy patients being allowed this liberty. Brown is expected to return to his old headquarters some time this week.

SHIP BUILDERS SECURE SITE ON LULU ISLAND

It is practically settled, although the city council has not yet given its final assent, that the Chappell Bros., who came to New Westminster about a month ago in search of a site for a ship-building plant, will be given a lease of a tract of land situated on the west end of Lulu island, directly across from the Small & Bucklin saw mill. It is understood that these men have considerable capital and an extensive experience in the art of ship-building behind them, and that they propose to build up an industry in the city which will be of no mean proportions. They have already looked over the ground in company with members of the city council, and regard the proposed site as a suitable one.

The matter will be taken up by the city council at an early date, and it is understood that the ground will be leased to the firm at a small rental.

Band Sails for Dublin.

Calgary, July 8.—To the cheers of hundreds, the Fifteenth Light Horse band left last night for the Dublin exposition. It will play in many cities en route. Forty-five men are in the band. The large military camp here broke yesterday. Col. Steele, ex-commandant of the South African Constabulary, says it was the finest body of men he has yet seen in any country.

DEATH CLAIMS TWO PIONEER SETTLERS

Alex. Ewen and Frederick Eickhoff Passed AwayYesterday---Both Well Known

Two pioneers of New Westminster passed away yesterday within a few hours of each other, death claiming Alex. Ewen, the well known cannerman, early in the afternoon, while about ten o'clock in the evening, Frederick Eichoff passed away at his residence, Carnarvon street. These two men formed part of the now sadly diminished band of those who arrived here in the very early days, and blazed the trail for others to follow and share in the prosperity of the country.

For years Alexander Ewen and Frederick Eickoff conducted their respective businesses within a few feet of each other, Mr. Ewen having a cannery on the site now occupied by the Windsor hotel, while Mr. Eickoff conducted a general store on Front street, at the rear of the premises now occupied by the Fraser hotel. The two men were constant companions in the early days, and their friendship only increased with years.

Frederick Eickhoff.

Frederick Eickhoff was in his seventy-fifth year at the time of his death, and had been a resident of this province for over half a century, coming here when only a young man of about twenty, and casting his lot with the then hamlet on the banks of the Fraser. After working around here for some time, he opened a small business in Douglas, and remained there for some time, but later returned to this city, where he opened a general merchandise establishment on Front street, where he remained until burnt out by the disastrous fire of 1898, when he lost heavily, his store, dwelling house, and several other buildings owned by him being destroyed.

Since the year of the big fire, Mr. Eickhoff had been in indifferent health, but it was only within the past few weeks that his condition became serious, and he gradually sank until yesterday evening, when the end came quietly. He was conscious to the last, and died surrounded by several of his children.

The deceased leaves behind him four sons and six daughters to mourn his loss. Henry, the eldest son, is married in Victoria. All the other members of the family reside in this city. Mrs. J. Leishman and Mrs. H. H. Lennie are two married daughters, the other girls being Misses Sophie, Irene, Hilda and Florence. Three boys, A. W., Walter and Ernie, compose the remainder of the family.

Alexander Ewen.

Alexander Ewen, who passed to the great beyond yesterday afternoon, was one of the best known men on the coast, having been a resident of New Westminster for about forty five years, coming from Scotland. For a time he fished on the Fraser river, and later established the first cannery in New Westminster in partnership with James Wise, now fisheries guardian. The cannery was on the site where the Windsor hotel now stands.

In later years, Mr. Ewen built the cannery which bears his name, and also secured interests in several other establishments. When the B. C. Packers' association was organized, Mr. Ewen was appointed president, a position which he held for a long time. He was also an extensive landowner, having considerable property on Lulu island and other places.

Mr. Ewen held several important positions in this city, being elected alderman in 1888. He was also a prominent member of the board of trade for many years. He was a charter member of Royal City Lodge, I. O. O. F., and was a Past Grand in the order.

The deceased was 77 years of age, and leaves three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Jardine, wife of Alderman Jardine, Mrs. J. W. McMillan, and Miss Alexandria Ewen, to mourn his loss.

Many Coats Stolen.

Ceylon, Ont., July 8.—A big find of stolen goods was made here this morning. R. Whitney, the grain buyer, was loading a car when he discovered a large bundle of furs under the elevator platform. In it were five ladies' coats, some of them very expensive, lamb and mink being the chief furs. Near it were found three men's coats. It is thought the coats were stolen from some furrier.

WATER FOR DISTILLERY.

Special Pipe Being Laid to Factory This Week.

The city force working under the direction of Water Superintendent Stott will commence tomorrow laying pipe for the new main which is being constructed direct from the reservoir to the B. C. distillery for the sole use of the company. Work was commenced on the trench a few days ago, and Mr. Stott expects to have the entire main laid within the next ten days.

Up to the present, the distillery has obtained its water supply direct from the big main which passes near the distillery on its way from Lake Coquitlam to the reservoir. This method was found to be injurious to the system in view of the fact that, while the distillery was drawing water, the flow to the reservoir was checked.

Boy Killed in Vancouver.

A small boy was killed on Hastings street, Vancouver, late yesterday evening by being run over by a tram car. The boy is said to have attempted to pass in front of two cars, which were coming towards each other on different tracks, near the Woodward Departmental store, and was caught by one of them before he was able to get clear of the rails.

DIAMOND DUSTERS WANT SECOND TEAM

Baseball Boys Prepare to Organize Senior Nine In City.

Plans for the organization of a second senior baseball team in this city are being discussed in ball circles, and it is likely that the organization will be effected very shortly. During the summer, a great number of new ball enthusiasts arrived in the city to work and have identified themselves more or less with the baseball team. The manager has therefore had an abundance of pretty fair players to choose from in making up a team, although real star actors are none too plentiful.

It is considered by those who are instigating the forming of another team that another baseball aggregation in the city would be better for the game in many ways, and would, also give the plentiful crop of ball players a chance to show themselves.

The city has two good pitchers, namely Lewis and Sayce, and although the local catchers are not of the first rank, there are several who can catch a very good game, and these would naturally improve with the extra practice that would result from having two teams in the field.

AMITY LODGE INSTALS NUMBER OF OFFICERS

The installation of officers of Amity Lodge, No. 27, I. O. O. F., for the half year commencing June 1, which took place last evening in the Oddfellows' hall, was marked by a large attendance, most encouraging reports, and a very enjoyable time. Speeches followed the installation, after which refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake in abundance, were served.

Following were the officers who were installed: N. G., C. S. Richmond; V. G., Archie McDonald; F. S., G. G. Davey, P. G; R. S., W. C. Coatham, P. G.; Treasurer, Alex. Adams, P. G.; Warden, A. P. S., Alexander Bailey; Chaplain, Rev. A.deB. Owen; R. S. V. G., George Stagg; L. S. N. G., C. Purvis. The installing officers were S. N. Strople, D. D. G. M.; J. J. Johnston, Grand Marshall; A. P. Halladay, G. W.; E. Walmsley, G. S.; H. H. Williams, G. T.; and Howard Welsh, G. G.

The lodge was never in a more flourishing condition, according to the reports submitted by the heads of the various committees. There were 52 degrees conferred during the last term of six months, and in the same length of time, 21 new members were added to the roll, bringing the membership up to 177.

FIGHTING EDITOR ROUTS UNION BULLIES

Blue Pencil Wielder Rids Tough Town of Terrorizing Thugs.

Lindley C. Branson, a young editor, arrived from Nome when the "union" was in the full flower of its dominion, feared and deferred to by all classes, and started two daily newspapers, The Tonapah Sun and The Goldfield Sun. He had successfully edited several mining camp dailies in Alaska. He is a quiet forceful young man who does things without any bluster. There are few men today who know so thoroughly the psychology of a mining camp.

Several weeks after he began to get out his papers, Joseph Smith, the walking delegate of the I. W. W., called on him and told him that his printers, pressmen, devils, and whoelse he employed would have to join the "union." Branson said he would look into it. He did. Smith came back expecting a cringing submission to this "polite command." He was staggered when the editor said to him, "My men will not join the I. W. W. They do not believe in the Debs hash of socialism and anarchy. Already they are members of the American Federation. I will have something to say about your organization in a few days." The walking delegate retorted that requests to join the union were never disobeyed by prudent men. Prudent men were those who wished to remain in the desert and not be buried there. His storm of threats subsided very suddenly when the young editor drew from his jacket pocket two shortbarreled 44's and spread them ostentatiously but significantly on the top of his desk. Exit the walking delegate.

The organization had power enough then to persuade every merchant, tradesman, broker, wildcatter, and even many mine-operators to refuse any advertisements to his papers. Even the newsboys, messenger boys, bank clerks, brokers' clerks, shop clerks, stenographers young and old of every employment, were members of the I. W. W. then. It was commonly said that they became members through the "fear of God" established by the "union." The miners were in the same plight, though they feebly proclaimed that they had a union of their own distinct from the I. W. W. and a local of the Western Federation of Miners.

This "fear of God" Branson proved a miserable superstition that foundered utterly when a man of initative and uncommon pluck challenged it. He demonstrated that the bad men and desperate characters of the "union" were contemptible cravens, and he branded them in his headlines as "Curs," "Scoundrels," "Assassins," "Cheap Skates," "Low-browed Thugs," "Cowards," and "Sneaking Murderers." That he found men with the courage to set the type was considered as remarkable as his own dauntless front.

When it came to the disciplining of a man who could shoot with both hands without taking them out of his pockets or aparently moving a muscle the I. W. W. leaders were revealed in their true light. One attempt was made to kill him and only one. He sought out the man who had shot at him from behind a shed and made him go down on his knees to him in front of the I. W. W. headquarters and beg for mercy. Dozens of workers looked on in sullen silence.

By this time Branson had the backing of such noted gun-fighters as George Wingfield and Diamond-field Jack Davis. These two millionaire mine-owners had volunteered their services as his newsboys. They distributed his boycotted papers in a spectacular fashion, spitting them on the barrels of 44-calibre revolvers and and taking them from the shotted files to hand to purchasers. No "worker" had the temerity to disturb these newsboys.

Then Branson, Wingfield, Davis, and United States Senator George S. Nixon organized their protective association and declared a boycott upon the boy-cotting union. The hundreds of miners who had been bullied into joining the outlaw union were notified that the mines would thereafter be closed to the I. W. W. men. When the miners refused to do this the mines were closed, and finally they were starved out of the Debs organization.

Leaders of the American Federation of Labor were brought to the camp, who under the protection of the Mine-Owners and Business Men's Protective Association, organized the separate trades out of the I. W. W., until at last there were no "workers" left who had any distinctive calling recognized by the American Federation —Barton W. Currie, in Harper's Weekly.

L'ACTION SOCIALE WILL JOLT MASONS

New Clerical Paper in Quebec Promises to Make Itself Felt.

Montreal, July 8.—As the month of September approaches the interest in the proposed publication of L'Action Sociale becomes more and more acute in religious circles throughout French Canada, for that is the name decided upon for the new paper which is to appear in the city of Quebec, and which is announced in advance as possessing the approbation of the head of the archdiocese, Mgr. Begin, archbishop of Quebec.

One of the best known writers on the French press of the New England states, in the person of J. K. Laflamme of the seminary of Quebec, has been selected as the leading writer on the new journalistic venture. This gentleman is noted as having combated in the most energetic manner the policy of Mgr. Walsh, bishop of Portland, in his attempt to Anglify the French-Canadians of New England and his articles against the English-speaking priests and prelates of Maine have generally been headed "If Rome Only Knew" or "When Rome Learns the Truth."

It is, however, the mission which the archbishop of Quebec and the clergy of this province have called upon Mr. Laflamme to carry out in old Quebec, that makes the publication of L'Action Sociale an event of prime importance in political and religious circles. The statement is made on the authority of a distinguished French-Canadian ecclesiastic, and supported by a well known newspaper movement is about to be entered upon for the purpose of combating Freemasonry, which they allege has taken a very deep hold upon the French-Canadian youth.

"It is not English Freemasonry that we fear," said a leading church layman to the writer yesterday, "but you would be really surprised," he added, "if you knew the number of French-Canadian young men who have become allied to French Masonry. This is the great danger in front of us, and this is why L'Action Sociale has been called into being."

At the recent French-Canadian convention at Waterville, Me., Mgr. Walsh, the bishop of Portland, refused to attend the demonstration while the gathering by a standing vote rejected a proposition to ask the bishop to bless the work of the convention by soliciting this favor from the apostolic delegate at Washington, Mgr. Falconio.

An article from L'Etoile, as reproduced in Le Canada of Saturday, shows that very strained relations exist between the French-Canadians and the English-speaking Catholics of Maine and the New England states in general.

FURIOUSLY FUNNY
FAMOUS FARCIAL
FORCE OF FORTY.

Quite the most pretentious aggregation of colored performers ever on tour will be seen with the "Dandy Dixie Minstrels" at the Opera House on Wednesday July 10. Besides the Campbell Brothers, whose inimitable monologue and parodies entertained thousands of theatre goers on the New York roof garden last summer, the Dandy Dixie Minstrels offers an olio of specially engaged novelties, a first part of stunning spectacular effects, an afterpiece of furiously funny farce—"A Fowl Deed"—and the famous matchless minstrel musicians, "The Cotton Pikers' Band" travelling in their $20,000 Pullman palace car, "The Dandy." This magnanimous melange of mistrelsy will tour the world, after visiting every important city of the United States and Canada from Aug. 6, 1906, until June 30, 1907.

Among the all-star performers are the Campbell Bros., an original ragtime comedy musical act, Williams and Stevens, comic impersonators, the Toney Trio, dare-devil acrobats, John Prampin, comedy juggler, Ben. Jones, the Texas teaser, H. S. Woten, Indian Terriority tenor, and forty other head line singers, dancers and minstrel men.

A MATTER OF TRAINING.

Lately there was an occasion to say something about the misconduct of children in trespassing upon and doing malicious damage to the property of their neighbors. Fortunately there has been comparatively little ground for serious complaint in this direction here in New Westminster, but that there is room for improvement will not be denied. It is rather a surprise to find from an article in one of the Toronto papers that the doings of the children in that city have caused great annoyance, and that the conduct of Toronto children is held to be in very unfavorable contrast with that of children in American cities. It is pointed out that long before it was common to find front lawns and boulevards unfenced in Toronto, "the Canadian visitor to American cities was gladdened by the sight of grass and flowers left safely to the tender mercies of children who showed no disposition to abuse the confidence reposed in them by the owners of these beautiful spots. Much the same remark applies to the treatment of birds and the smaller quadrupeds that are usually found only in the forest. Squirrels are as common as birds in some American cities, and quite as fearless."

This, the writer of the article from which we quote holds to be "a matter of home and school training. Children have no natural antipathy to flowers, grass, birds, or squirrels. Properly trained and educated, they would take an interest in them all and not merely refrain from molesting them but use their influence to prevent or dissuade others from gratifying destructive propensities. The sense of beauty is always present in children, and it may be successfully appealed to by those who know how to reach it. The feeling of humanity is equally prevalent if those who have never become demoralized, and so is the sense of justice. This is a matter of so much importance that both parents and teachers should feel grateful to a friend of children for calling attention to it."

Why should not our school trustees take a hint from this? The condition of the grounds at the Central school might be improved in a way which would at once lend itself to the purposes of education along the lines above suggested, give a convenient opportunity for practical instruction in landscape gardening and botany, and convert an eyesore into a beauty spot. The cost would be small, and we have no doubt that many of our citizens would gladly put a few dollars into a fund to be devoted to such an object.

Women are invading the field of industry more and more extensively as time goes on, and it is said that a movement to form women's trade unions is now mooted. What changes will come in social conditions as a consequence of all this? asks a contemporary; and it adds to the general question this specific query—will the $20-a-week typewriter girl wait for the $10-a-week male clerk to pop the question? We give it up; such mysteries are beyond our ken.

Collier's has invented a new title for certain politicians which will suit some men in all parties and in every party into which the political forces of the various countries, and more particularly the "new," or partially developed countries, may be divided. It is "Representatives of the Prospective Grab." The title is intended to apply to hon. gentlemen in the United States; but we fear it would be evidence of a foolish credulity to limit its application to them. The species is very widely distributed.

There was a feeling some years ago that Ottawa did not greatly sympathise with the demand by Dominion Government servants in this province for a higher rate of pay "on account of the greater cost of living"; but now the civil servants at Ottawa are themselves demanding an increase on the ground that the cost of living has advanced. They have discovered that, to the man with a small fixed income "prosperity means poverty". That is to say, the proseprity of the country raises rentals, raises the wages that must be paid for household help and occasional service, raises the price of many staples, but does not raise the salary of the government clerk. Nor is it to government clerks only that this disadvantage from general prosperity accrues. The old saying about one man's meat being another man's poison has an application here which is keenly felt by many people in such "growing times" as we have with us now.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Local Council of Women Prepare to Entertain Delegates.

Final arrangements for entertaining the members of the national council of women in this city on Thursday of next week were made by the members of the local council of women at their regular monthly meeting held in the city hall yesterday afternoon. The program as already drafted includes a sail up the river on the steamer Beaver, and an At Home in the evening at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Hill. It was decided at the meeting that the members of all affiliated societies should be invited to attend the At Home. The members of the executive committee will act as an entertainment committee.

A large number of members of the local council attended the meeting, and considerable routine business was transacted. The chair was occupied by the president, Mrs. E. L. Webber.

STOTT IS RELIEVED.

"Whispering Willie's" Brother is Appointed Road Master in Richmond.

Provincial Road Superintendent Stott has been relieved of the arduous duties of supervising road construction in the municipality of Richmond, by the appointment of E. McBride to the position of road master in that section, which took effect on the first of the month.

Heretofore Mr. Stott has had charge of all roads in the district of Westminster, but henceforth will leave the highways in the electoral district of Richmond entirely to Mr. McBride.

The appointee is a brother of "Whispering Willie" McBride, who figured prominently on the stump against John Oliver, M.P.P., in the last provincial campaign.

Horses May Have Been Stolen.

Up to last evening, the two horses which were missed from a barn belonging to William and Woodrow, of Vancouver, had not been recovered. J. Parker was again in the city yesterday, but failed to find any trace of the estrays. Alex. Matheson, proprietor of the Liverpool Arms, saw two horses tramping through the city early Sunday morning, but the description of the animals does not tally with the missing equines. The theory is gaining ground that the horses have been stolen, and a sharp lookout is being kept at boundary points where an attempt is likely to be made to get the horses across the line.

A Jap was the third.

A very large threshing machine, which was manufactured by the J. I. Case Threshing Machine company, of Racine, Wisconsin, has arrived, consigned to T. J. Trapp & Co., and will be offered for sale. The large cleaner, which is almost completely of metal, is accompanied by an engine which will not only supply the power for threshing, but will haul the machine from place to place.

The number of houses that are in course of erection in Sapperton, and are contemplated for that flourishing part of the city, is being commented on generally. It is understood that several builders will commence very shortly the erection of a large number of houses on some of the vacant lots there. These will be for the accommodation of the new settlers, that are coming to Sapperton to work in the saw mills, the glass works, and other industries.

A lacrosse game between the Brownsville Indians and a picked team from the Tecumsehs and the junior Reginas will be played at Queen's park on Thursday evening. The Indians expect to be able to get the long end of the score on this occasion, having been doing some fancy work in the practice ground across the river since the last game, and feeling in the best of condition. The pale faces are not at all afraid, however, and maintain that they are quite able to hold up their end of the argument.

The best advertising hanger that has yet been issued by the R. A. & I. society has just left the press and is being distributed by Manager W. H. Keary. It is much larger than former hangers, and presents an interesting and attractive appearance, with its views of fruits, sawmills, mining plants, ships, etc., representative of British Columbia's natural resources. A. W. McLeod brought out the lithograph under contract with the society and he in turn had the lithographing done by the B. C. Printing and Engraving corporation of Vancouver.

The junior Reginas and the Sapperton lads are to clash in a lacrosse game at Queen's park this evening, when some good junior playing will be in evidence. At the last game in which they figured, the boys from the neighborhood of the hospital managed to break even on the score, and they intend to better the performance this evening. The junior Reginas will consist of the following, in the order given: H. Gifford, E. Mannering, W. Burnett, W. Mark, E. Wilson, R. Henderson, S. Trapp, H. Allam, N. Kenny, J. Gifford, W. Day, J. Buckland. The game will commence at six-thirty sharp.

William Stott, superintendent of the city water works system, reports that although the days are very warm and a great quantity of water is being used for watering lawns and other places, the supply of water in the reservoirs continue up to the average. He is obliged, however, to keep the pump going, as is the custom every year during the summer months.

SAFECRACKERS WORK BUT GET SMALL BOOTY

Vancouver Visited by Yeggmen---Twenty Offices Ransacked---Secured $100.

Vancouver, July 8.—The gay and festive burglar held high carnival in Vancouver last night or in the early morning hours of today. Nearly twenty offices located in the Jones, Safe, Imperial, Crowe & Wilson and the Williams buildings in the centre of the business district, were entered. Safes, office vaults and desks yielded to the skill of the daring intruders. No explosives were used. The victims comprise dentists, lawyers, contracting firms and insurance companies. Despite the magnitude of the operations the burglars, who are still at large, had very poor success. Their total gains did not amount to $100.

It is possible that last night's work was performed by half a dozen men, each being assigned to a separate building. They are certainly adepts at the business and their ill success was due to no fault on their part. The burglars virtually drew a blank at the Jones building on the corner of Homer and Hastings streets. Nothing is missing from the various offices visited there.

Their modus operandi was apparent by an inspection of the havoc wrought to the safe in the office of F. G. T. Lucas in the old Safe block. They wrenched off the knob of the combination and then inserting tools forced off the combination, shattering it into several small pieces. Here they were rewarded by securing $10.15. Mr. Lucas returned last night and had a large sum of money on his person. He intended to have gone to his office to place it in the safe, but changing his mind returned home instead.

Next door, in the office of W. S. Buttar, chartered accountant, the same method did not work. The combination knob was wrenched off but the lock resisted the efofrts of the manipulators. They had a similar experience across the srteet in the office of the British Columbia General Contract company, in the Crowe & Wilson building. The daring operators, however, showed their versatility by successfully solving the combination of the safe in the office of the Mutual Fire Insurance company on the same floor. They got away with a trifle—only $2 in silver.

PRISONER ESCAPES.

American Fighting Extradition Gets Away From the Sheriff.

Toronto, Ont., July 8.—Herman Bartels, millionaire brewer from Syracuse, who has been fighting extradition proceedings in Canada for weeks escaped from court this morning and abruptly terminated the proceedings for the time being. Bartel's extradition was ordered by Judge Welb of Welland, but the case was appealed and came before Justice Riddell at Osgoode Hall this morning. Sheriff Smith of Welland had the prisoner in charge just before court opened and left him alone in the corridor of the hall while the sheriff went into the lavatory. When he returned Mr. Bartels had departed and made good his escape. It is doubtful if he can be retaken and his sensational escape places the whole case in a rather peculiar position.

Murderer Defies Police.

Grandview, Alta., July 8.—The posse in pursuit of Joel Winn, who shot Joseph Story, have not at last advices effected his capture. Policeman Diamond and Cox and two men have him corralled in a bluff near the Mountain Gap, and have repeatedly sighted him, but he being armed with a rifle and pistol, and the police being reluctant either to shoot him or expose their lives in capturing him alive, he is there still at liberty. Bare-headed except for a piece of lining from his coat bound around his temples in place of a hat, so far as known he is without provisions and matches. The police have wired the attorney general's department for authority to fire on him and secure his rearrest by any means.

Fighting in Formosa.

Victoria, July 8.—The steamer Tremont, which arrived last night, brought news of desperate fighting in Formosa, where the Japanese are conducting operations against the Formosan natives, mostly head hunters. Five hundred Formosan Chinese, trained by Japanese officers and led by Lieut.-Col. Hayakawa attacked the natives who held Chintozan, a hill offering considerable cover, and after three days' fighting carried the stronghold after a desperate charge in which the officer in command and a hundred and thirty of the five hundred troops were killed. The Chinese troops trained by the Japanese behaved with much gallantry.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Mayor Keary left yesterday on a trip to Eastern points, and will be absent from the city about ten days. He gave out before his departure that Minneapolis, Minnesota, would be one of his objective points.

The body of Jake Terry, the notorious outlaw, who was murdered at Sumas, Washington, on Friday by Gus Lindsly, while the former was attempting to enter the bedroom of the latter's wife, was buried in Bellingham at the expense of the city, no relatives having appeared on the scene to claim the body.

In order to allow more light to penetrate in some of the rooms at the Burr block, windows are to be placed in the west end of the building, the workmen having commenced on this task a few days ago. Four rooms will be benefitted by this means, two on the first floor, and two on the upper story.

Sixty young people attended the social given last evening in the Queen's Avenue Methodist church under the auspices of the Epworth league an enjoyable time being enjoyed by all. The social was given with the object of attracting strangers to the church, and in this the promotors were eminently successful, sixteen new members joining the league during the course of the evening. Ice cream, strawberries and cake were some of the delicious refreshments provided by the entertainers for their friends.

The city carpenters at the park have just completed the construction of four long tables and benches under the shade trees between the race track and the boulevard which will be at the service of picnic parties. Ald. Johnston, chairman of the parks committee, since his election to the council board, has originated many improvements to the parks, which visitors to the grounds have found to be decidedly useful, and the tables and benches will certainly not be the least appreciated of them. The tables are 20 feet long and will therefore accommodate a fairly large crowd. Besides the tables, Ald. Johnston has had constructed a large brick oven, suitable for boiling water and warming feed, and he has also had a tap from the city water service placed near the tables.

INDIAN WOMEN STRIKE AT NORTHERN CANNERIES

Victoria, July 8.—A report has just been received from the north to the effect that there has been considerable trouble with the help in the northern canneries, and that in many of them the Indian women are on strike. Nothing is known as to whether the trouble will be settled in time for handling of the fish which are now beginson has been backward and the river is swollen to an extent that makes it difficult to fish.

The run of salmon in the Columbia is still light, with no decided increase looked for until the high waters begin to recede and get clearer. From Puget sound nothing of importance has come to hand. Fishing is being done in the more favorable parts of the waters of upper British Columbia, and also in several streams in Alaska, but no particulars have come to hand.
