CROP YIELDS WERE OVER THE ESTIMATE

Interesting Figures of Acreage Under Cultivation in Saskatchewan.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—The final returns of the field crops in Saskatchewan, as compiled by the bureau of information and statistics in the department of agriculture, are as follows:

Wheat—Acreage 4,085,000, yield 90,255,000 busels, average 22.1 bushels.

Oats—Acreage 2,240,000, yield 105,465,000, average 47.1.

Barley—Acreage 244,000, yield 7,833,000; average 32.1.

Flax—Acreage, 319,100; yield, 4,448,700; average 13.9.

These figures, both of acreage and yield, are somewhat in excess of the estimate of last September, made at the close of cutting, with the exception of barley, the average yield of which fell two bushels per acre below the estimate.

SOCCER PLAYERS NOT TO BE PROFESSIONALIZED

At a meeting of the Vancouver branch of the B. C. A. A. U. last night it was decided to ask the provincial organisation not to professionalise any of the soccer players who are at present signed with any of the teams that come under the jurisdiction of the B. C. A. A. U. There has been some talk recently of weeding out the professional men from the ranks of the teams on the first and second division leagues, but the Vancouver branch does not want any such action taken until the season is over which will be about the twenty-fourth of May.

MAILCARRIER LOSES LIFE IN A BLIZZARD

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 13.—Henry Loose, a mailcarrier, perished from exposure while attempting to take the mail from Tropic, Garfield county, to Panguitch, on January 5, during one of the worst storms of the winter. He left Tropic January 4 on horseback leading a pack animal loaded with mail. The mercury fell rapidly and the wind gained terrible force. Rescue parties went out. The body, after great hardship, found Loose sitting on his horse and holding the bridle. A locked mail sack was near him. He was still alive, but so far gone that he could not speak. He died before the rescuers could get him to Tropic.

The pack horse, with several sacks of mail, has not been found.

A number of Westminster Knights of Pythias will journey to Chilliwack today for the purpose of instituting a lodge of that order in the Valley City. Several Vancouver Knights will also make the trip. The lodge will have a first membership of fifty-four, and will be the first of the order in Chilliwack.

VENEZUELA WILL NOT RECOGNISE MINE TRANSFER

Caracas, Jan. 13.—The Venezuelan government has notified the representatives of the Pan American Ore company that it will not recognise the transfer of the rich Imataca mine, in which Charles M. Schwab is believed to be interested, to that company on the ground that the title to the property is questioned. The protocol signed by William I. Buchanan as commissioner from the United States, and this country, expressly prohibited any person or persons from taking possession of the mine until the title is cleared. It was the intention of the Pan American Ore company to begin work at an early date.

COLD FREEZES DYNAMITE AND PREVENTS MURDER

Quantity of Explosive Placed Under Strikebreaker's Residence Fails to Explode.

Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Twenty sticks of dynamite were found last night by officers in the doorway of John Shaffer's store, Anstruther, where two dynamiting outrages have occurred in the past two months. The caps set to discarge the dynamite exploded but the dynamite was frozen and failed to go off.

A strike-breaker named Coy resides above the store and three other strike-breakers board with him. The police believe the preparations to blow up the place were directed at these men.

QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP TO BE SETTLED IN COURT

Twenty-Five Acres of Land, Formerly Part of Holmes Estate, Claimed By Two Parties.

A case of considerable interest to local men will come up in the supreme court in Vancouver in the course of a month or so. A suit has been instituted in the Vancouver courts by J. E. Braithwaite and T. S. Craig against C. W. Gillanders, executor of the last will of the late William Holmes, of Sapperton. It is set forth in the plaintiffs' statement of claim that in April, 1908, Gillanders sold to them all of Lot 1, Group 1, which was then owned by the estate. The plaintiffs paid the defendant $12,000 for this property, which is situated in Sapperton, just outside the New Westminster city limits. Braithwaite and Craig then subdivided the land, about sixty-two acres in all, and which they and the executor thought was the whole of the property belonging to the Holmes estate. The plaintiffs have since sold this land in five-acre blocks.

It has been recently discovered that besides the land subdivided and sold by the plaintiffs, there is about twenty-five acres of land in the same vicinity, which appertains to the estate, although no one seemed to know that it did at the time of the sale. The plaintiffs claim that they purchased the whole of the estate and so are entitled to the ownership of the twenty-five acres. Mr. Gillanders disputes the claim, stating that the sale was put through at the rate of $200 per acre and the purchasers secured all the land they paid for.

The property in dispute has become increased in value since the sale was put through and is probably now worth in the neighborhood of $10,000 more. Davis, Marshall & McNeil are acting for the plaintiffs and Wade, Wheeller & McQuarrie for the defendant.

The property in question is probably one of the first settled spots in the district, the late Mr. Holmes securing it forty-five or fifty years ago, and retaining it until he died in 1907.

BARES SECRETS OF CHARNEL FARM

Accomplice of Mrs. Belle Guinness Describes Murders of Laporte Farm.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—Ray Lamphere, who died recently in the Indiana penitentiary at Michigan City, while serving a life term for complicity in the murders on the farm of Mrs. Belle Guinness, near Laporte, did not carry the secrets of the Guinness charnel farm to the tomb with him, according to a copyrighted story in the Post Dispatch today. When he believed he was near death he confessed. The confession was made to the Rev. Dr. E. A. Schell, formerly pastor of the Laporte Methodist church, and held by him inviolate as a secret of the confessional.

The Post Dispatch says Dr. Schell could verify, if he would consent to break the silence, the confession it publishes. The Post Dispatch however says the confession published today was made to a man of unassailable character. Lamphere, according to the confession, had a guilty knowledge of the murder of three men in the Guinness home during the time he lived there, about eight months in 1907, and he assisted Mrs. Guinness in disposing of the bodies of the three men.

Each time a man was murdered, according to Lamphere, Mrs. Guinness sent him to purchase chloroform. Lien, one of the victims, was thought by Lamphere to be the third husband of Mrs. Guinness. At the time of the Lamphere trial it was thought Jennie Olson, whom Lamphere now says he Mondell Bill Will Pass.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The Mondell bill, which is intended to unlock the gates to the conserved coal domain by permitting agricultural entries on coal lands in the United States, was practically agreed to the House Committee on public lands today. An estimate by Chairman Mondell, of the committee, estimates that there are 70,000,000 acres of coal. The bill does not apply to Alaska.

NEW YORK WANTS WORLD'S FAIR IN 1913

New York, Jan. 13.—Plans for a world's fair, to be held in New York city in 1913, have been launched here. The proposed exhibition will commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the settlement of Manhattan island. The promoters of the enterprise have effected a preliminary organization and have taken out articles of incorporation. No site for the fair has yet been chosen.

EDITOR TAYLOR ELECTED MAYOR OF VANCOUVER

C. S. Douglas Defeated by Majority of 235 Votes—Aldermanic Results Show Confidence in Old Council—Morley Elected Mayor in Victoria, Planta in Nanaimo, Robinson in Kamloops.

Louis D. Taylor defeated Mayor Charles S. Douglas in the Vancouver mayoralty contest last night. The fight was very close, Taylor winning by a majority of only 235 in a total vote of over 6000. Douglas secured a large majority in Ward One, but the suburbs went decidedly against him. This is the second time that Taylor has contested the mayoralty with Douglas, being defeated last year by a small majority.

Taylor Returns Thanks.

Mr. Taylor awaited the result of the contest in The World office and as soon as his election became reasonably certain, he spoke to the large crowd which had been waiting there all evening for the returns.

"Gentlemen," said the successful candidate, "I thank you for electing me mayor of Vancouver and I assure you that when my term is up I will not be ashamed to run again. Gentlemen, this is the proudest moment of my life."

A torch light procession escorted Mr. Taylor to the city hall, where he was given a rousing reception.

MAN WHO OPPOSES MARTIN SAYS THINGS ARE SPLENDID

"Stormy Petrel of B. C." May Once Again Understand How a Defeated Candidate Feels.

London, Jan. 13.—Discussing the situation in East St. Pancras today, Mr. Preston, the Conservative candidate, who is opposing Joseph Martin in that constituency, said things are going splendidly. "Of course," said Mr. Preston "the majority at the last election was 1800 against us, but prospects are becoming increasingly hopeful every day."

London, Jan. 13.—Writing to E. Parks, the Unionist candidate in Central Birmingham, Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, on her husband's behalf, says that Mr. Chamberlain is much interested to hear of the progress of tariff reform in the constituency which confirms his own impression that the Unionists ought to win a number of seats in the district and throughout the country.

The selection of grand and petit jurors for the next assizes will be made at the provincial court house this afternoon.

WILD BILL ENGINEERS DOUBLE ESCAPE FROM JAIL

Former Cowboy Breaks Out of His Cell and Frees Fellow-Prisoner—Both Escape.

New York, Jan. 13.—A remarkable double escape by means of sawed bars and severed chains was effected today from Castle William, on Governor's Island. William McLaughlin, a former cowboy known as Wild Bill, and now a private waiting court martial, is believed to have engineered the break from the military prison. He took with him Charles R. Dale, who was serving a five-year term.

Three bars in Dale's cell in the upper corridor were cleanly severed but were bent inward. Downstairs McLaughlin's cell bars had been cut and bent outward, indicating that the latter had first broken loose and freed Dale. On the floor of Dale's cell was the iron ball that had shackled him, the chain having been filed through.

A gang of men will start work today grading the lower end of Columbia street to get it into shape to lay Hassan pavement. The surface dirt will be removed but no blocks will be laid until all danger of frost is over.

Agreement Is Reached.

Victoria Jan 13.—Negotiations have been concluded between the Canadian Northern Railway and the McBride Government. Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann will leave the city tonight. Details will not be made known until the bringing in of the bill in the legislature.

A clause in the proposed contract provides that the construction of the line in British Columbia must begin within ninety days of the passage of the ratification measure by the Provincial Legislature but actual work will probably be started long before that period expires.

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Only New Man on Executive is Mayor Lee, Named President By Virtue of His Office.

The annual meeting of the Benevolent society was held yesterday afternoon in the board of trade room in the city hall. The mayor of the city is, by virtue of his office, president of the Benevolent society, and so J. A. Lee will preside at this year's meetings. All the other last year's officers were elected without opposition. They are as follows: Vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Hill; treasurer, Mrs. John Forrester; secretary, W. A. Duncan.

The secretary read an encouraging report of the work done during the year and a short sketch of the history of the society. The report is given in full below:

Secretary's Report.

The first meeting of this society was held at the city hall December 18, 1902, in response to a letter from Mayor Keary addressed to the pastors of the several congregations in the city asking to have two ladies appointed from each congregation to meet and consider the best way of distributing relief to the poor of the city.

The chair was taken by the mayor, and the city clerk acted as secretary. Eighteen ladies, representing nine churches, attended.

It was decided to hold monthly

BAD MAN NOT DEAD

Report of Killing of Dutch Henry Was Premature.

Moose Jaw, Jan. 13.—In regard to the rumor that "Dutch Henry," the notorious border outlaw, was shot by a R. N. W. M. policeman in the south country on Monday, the latest word from Montana police headquarters at Wood Mountain is that there is no truth in the report. This opinion is corroborated by settlers from that district now in the city.

WILD STATEMENTS MADE ABOUT CANADA

Cost of Living in England and in Dominion Used as Campaign Argument.

Wolverhampton, Jan. 13.—The Liberals, from Premier Asquith down, venture wild estmates as to cost of living in Canada, and make the estimates stick. A Liberal on the train said that the working men were as well off on six dollars a week in England as he was on twenty dollars a week in Canada.

Eggs are four cents each in Wolverhampton and milk eight cents a quart.

Before a meeting of six thousand people, and all cheering, Hon. Alfred Lyttelton spoke in glowing terms of Canada, and the unanimous gathering cheered every mention of the Dominion.

Dirty Politics.

Canadians who think there are no dirty politics in England should hear Mr. Hickman explaining that the Liberals lied about him in a statement that he retired from the army on a fat pension, because he was afraid of a German invasion. Mr. Hickman retired into his family firm of wealthy manufacturers and gave up his right to a pension so that he could remain on the active list.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

The officers installed were Rev. T. Wardlaw Taylor, P. C.; W. T. Cooksley, C. C.; A. E. Mann, V. C.; J. J. Mahoney, Prelate; Mr. Tedford, M. of W.; A. McDonald, K. of R. and S.; A. H. Ferguson, M. of F.; F. R. Maxwell, M. of E.; George T. Reid, M. at A.; Thomas Hembrough, I. G.; Fred McIntosh, O. G. Thomas Hembrough was elected a grand lodge representative for the next two years.

The installing and installed officers were entertained to dinner at the Russell hotel.

EDMONTON HAS FINE BUFFALO HEAD SPECIMEN

Edmonton, Jan. 13.—A magnificent specimen of buffalo head, pronounced one of the finest yet secured in Canada is at the shop of Brewster & Wolf, taxidermists, of Second street. The head is that of the buffalo killed last week at Elk Park, Lamont, by E. Carey, owing to it having a broken hip. The animal was fourteen years old and weighed 1400 pounds. The head was purchased for $350 from Howard Douglas, superintendent of national parks, by Richard Secord, of this city.

Powerf[illegible] Speaker Declares Day of Heaven's Vengeance Against Landlords at Hand

Rugby, Jan. 13.—A huge crowd was waiting tonight on the streets in a snow storm for the opening of the doors which would let them in to hear Dr. John Clifford, the great Baptist divine.

Dr. Clifford is one of the big forces in English politics and perhaps a greater platform speaker than either Mr. Asquith or Mr. Balfour. He is a frail old man, and his voice is not powerful, but flashes of humor and sarcasm relieve the solemnity of his deep and pathetic eloquence.

A Dangerous Adversary.

Dr. Clifford is a dangerous adversary for Unionists. He has all the effectiveness of a demagogue without a demagogue's infirmities of ignorance and insincerity. The audience, which consisted exclusively of working people, followed Dr. Clifford's anathemas of the lords with the wildest enthusiasm. He could have heated the furnaces of denunciation sevenfold without getting the fires hot enough to suit his hearers, who hooted Lord Roseberry and groaned at the names of Curzon and Lansdowne.

Dr. Clifford said that the budget put a tax on land that was able to bear it and that the tax should have been put there twenty-five years ago.

Uses Hot Language.

The speaker called Lord Curzon an Oriental potentiate, Lord Nelson a pensioner, and Earl Roseberry a traitor to the noblest ideals of a splendid youth. He moved his hearers almost to tears by his description of men and women singing doxologies of praise to God for blessing the country who gave old age pensions instead of leaving the aged to die in the workhouse.

Lloyd-George Religious.

Dr. Clifford, who has been the intimate friend of Chancellor Lloyd-George for twenty years, said that Lloyd-George was the most profoundly religious man in the government since the time of Gladstone. He named the Carlton club, "a London public house" and held the Unionists up to execration as being slaves of drink and traffic.

Burden Can Be Borne.

At Rugby, the Liberal candidate, Lord Clonnel, an Irish earl, told his hearers that the budget placed the burden "on backs that were able to bear it and not on the shoulders greased with the sweat of carrying the burden of daily toil to and from the workshop." The argument had a peculiar sound, inasmuch as the audience was made up of comfortable and well fed men and women in dress and appearance not unlike an audience in smaller factory cities of Ontario.

A Canadian gains a truer idea of forces which the budget brings into battle against tariff reform when he listens to Dr. Clifford preaching a crusade against the Unionists and proclaiming the election as the great and terrible day of the Lord for Heaven's vengeance against the landlords of England.

TEUTON TAILORS IN HARD LUCK IN WINNIPEG

Sextette of Snips Seeks Assistance From Immigration Officers—No Money, No Work.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—Six young Germans who have been working as journeymen tailors in Toronto appealed to Joseph Burke, provincial immigration officer, this morning for assistance and redress, explaning that they had been brought to Winnipeg under false pretenses and could not get work.

It was ascertained that they had given up their work in Toronto and signed contracts to work for a Winnipeg firm, but on arrival here about a week ago they found that there was no work for them, and they have spent all their small savings on board and lodging in the meantime. Now they are penniless and have no prospects of immediate employment. They appeal for work or transportation to Toronto and are getting legal advice today.

Disagrees With Borden.

London, Jan. 13.—The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to Canada's proposition to provide five cruisers and six destroyers does not agree with R. L. Borden that the contribution would be too much for an experiment.

AMBASSADORS CHANGE.

Italian Government Makes Numerous Transfers.

Rome, Jan. 13.—King Victor Emmanuel today signed a decree transferring Baron Mayor DesPlances, the Italian ambassador at Washington, to Constantinople, and appointing the Marquis Cusani-Confallionerri, for the past three years minister to Switzerland, to the United States ambassadorship. The decree also recalls Count Gallini from Paris and transfers the Marquis San Guilliano from London to the Paris post. The Marquis Imperiali, ambassador to Turkey, has been appointed to that post for Great Britain.

MEN'S FEET GROWING SAYS SHOE EXPERT

Brockton, Mass., Jan. 13.—A local expert asserts that men's feet are larger than they used to be, and that there is evidence of this in the increased demand for the larger sizes in shoes, more eigths and nines being made than ever before, with a run on sizes even larger.

"The demand is being felt for twelves, and from that anywhere up to fifteens," says this authority.

HENEY HOPES TO SHOW HERMANN'S GUILT

Portland, Jan. 13.—Francis J. Heney, in opening the prosecution of Binger Hermann today, told the jury that the prosecution expected to prove that in 1901, when Herrmann was commissioner of the general land office at Washington, it was known in Oregon that timber speculators obtaining advance information on lands to be included in proposed forest reserves were getting many persons to make applications for these lands,, which were later sold to the speculators for small sums.

Heney declared the prosecution would prove that Herrmann entered into a conspiracy with Franklin Mays, W. N. Jones and others to assist them in the creation of a forest reserve in southeastern Oregon, the reserve to include 49,680 acres of school lands which were later to be secured by Mays and Jones from men who were to be paid from fifty cents to five dollars each to sign applications for the lands in blank. The net profit expected by Mays and Jones was, Heney said, about $600,000.

Scotch Whisky

Protecting the Consumer.

When you buy Watson's Scotch by the bottle you can be sure of getting the genuine article, because we brand our corks and use an adhesive capsule bearing our name, that cannot be removed without tearing.

Unfortunately we are not so well able to protect the man who buys Watson's by the glass—some dealers will refill bottles.

But, once you become accustomed to the use of Watson's, any attempt on the part of a dealer to substitute an inferior article is almost sure to attract your attention—for Watson's is a Whisky so distinctive in flavor and so far beyond imitation, that those who once use it, can usually detect the difference between it and other brands.

Insist on Watson's

"THREE STAR"—A mild, thoroughly matured Scotch.
"NO. 10"—A full-bodied, richly flavored Scotch.

meetings, and a constitution was adopted, the officers were to be: President ,vice-president, treasurer and secretary. Mayor Keary was appointed president, Mrs. A. J. Hill vice-president, the late Mrs. Warwick treasurer, and the city clerk secretary.

Regular meetings were held at first on the second Monday in each month, but this was found to conflict with the meetings of the Local Council of Women, and the day was changed to Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Meetings are held every month in the year with the exception of August, when so many are out of town that it was considered advisable to have no meeting in that month.

The money expended by the society is received from the city council each month by a cheque in favor of the society for sufficient to pay the accounts incurred for food, fuel, house rent, etc., for no money is given directly to those receiving relief, and the accounts for those things are brought before the monthly meeting and passed for payment before being paid, which is done by cheque signed by the president or vice-president and the treasurer, drawn on the Bank of Montreal, where the money received from te city is deposited.

The total amount expended during the seven years in which the society has been in operation is $6,736.64, or something less tan $1000 per annum, besides which the society has distributed clothing, etc., received from charitable citizens for use of those in need. The number of adults receiving relief during each year has varied from eight to fifteen, in addition to which there were a number of children.

The society, since its organization, has not neglected any case requiring relief in the city, and the ladies, when notified of any new case, invariably visit them and apply what relief may be necessary, reporting same at next meeting.

Some of the invalid poor have had to be treated at the hospital, and in some cases nurses have been engaged to look after them at the expense of the society.

In conclusion I may say that the amount of good done by the society since its organization can hardly be estimated, and the funds, administered as they have been carefully and economically, have relieved the poor more effectually than perhaps in any other way.

I may also state that scarcely ever have all the churches in the city been represented at the meetings, even by one lady, and, as in many other societies, there are the few faithful ones who do the work.

AGED PRIEST REMEMBERS VISIT OF HALLEY'S COMET

Nonagenarian Was Impressed With Beautiful Aerial Visitor in the Days of His Youth.

Winnipeg, Jan. 12.—Rev. Father Dandurand, the aged priest in the archbishop's palace at St. Boniface, is one of the few survivors who recollect the last visit of Halley's comet. Interviewed yesterday and asked to tell his story of that memorable event, he said: "I was a little boy then, and I am nearly ninety-one now. I was born in March, 1819, and the comet came in 1835. I was studying in Montreal, where I was under special professors, having nearly completed my classical studies and being near the end of the course in philosophy, as I had begun very young. I saw the comet and was impressed by it. It remained visible for many weeks. When it reached its perfection it was very beautiful. It nearly reached the zenith, and its tail swept the horizon, being millions and millions of miles in length. One could see through the tail; it seemed to be a fluid or gaesous substance. It is all foolishness to talk of danger to the earth from the comet. I remember that many people used to go out to see it, as it was a very beautiful sight."

Father Dandurand wondered if the heavenly visitor would show itself this time in the same magnificent proportions. He remembered the comet of 1858, but said it was much inferior in splendor to Halley's comet of 1835. As he is still active and vigorous, he is looking forward with interest to the reappearance of the marvelolus spectacle which caused so much wonder in his boyhood days.

CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS COMPULSORY ARBITRATION

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 13.—The program was given out here today for an international conference of government boards of mediation and arbitration, to be held at Washington, D. C., January 17 to 19. The conference grows as a result of the unsuccessful efforts made here last spring to have the lake and marine strike settled by the joint action of the mediation boards of the states bordering on the great lakes. An executive committee will be appointed to arrange a conference which would include representatives of all the states and Canada. The conference will aim to effect greater uniformity in the dealing of government bureaus with industrial disputes. Compulsory arbitration and trade agreements will be among the many topics that will be discussed.

CANADA AND DEFENCE.

Much has happened since the resolution in regard to Imperial Defence was agreed to by the Dominion House of Commons last March. The changes that have occurred in the aspect of the European situation have served to give a greatly increased importance to the question of Great Britain's naval strength and position. There is indubitably a pretty general feeling that a real danger exists in the menace of Germany and that the political situation has became so strained that it is only a question of time when Britain will have to defend her position. In the light of this possible danger the introduction of the "Naval Service Act," which is intended to provide for Canada's participation in the scheme of Imperial defence, by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, on Wednesday, possesses an interest and importance which it would be difficult to overestimate.

It is a happy circumstance that both parties in the Dominion are agreed that it is the duty of Canada to contribute in an effective manner towards the maintenance of a fleet and force for Imperial defence. The only question that arises is the method by which this should be done. The Act introduced by the Premier and read a first time, provides for the creation of a Canadian navy which, ordinarily, will be used for the defence and protection of the Canadian coasts, but which, in time of emergency, may be placed at the disposal of the Crown. The cost of the eleven vessels of war which it is intended to lay down is estimated at $11,700,000.

It will, of course, take some years to bring the proposed navy into being and upon this ground, and the circumstance "that we are confronted with an emergency which may rend this Empire asunder before the proposed service is worthy the name" Mr. Borden, the Conservative leader, somewhat severely criticised the government proposals. He urged that in face of the present situation, immediate and vigorous action was necessary, and that Canada should provide a unit of the Empire fleet, in the shape of a Dreadnought, at once.

It cannot be denied that under the changed conditions which have arisen there is some force in Mr. Borden's plea. We have no doubt, however, that if when the Bill has been properly considered and discussed by the House, the views thus expressed are at all generally agreed in, the Government will adopt such amendments as may be necessary to give effect to these. Canadians to a man recognise the deep obligations which we are under to Great Britain and the British navy, and will certainly approve any action the Government may take to strengthen the defence of the Empire.

LADNER ROAD.

What is the Delta Municipality doing to allow the River Road, Ladner, to be in such a disgraceful condition as it is at present? We are informed that persons who have to use this highway, including the mail carrier, have to run a positive risk of their lives and belongings every time they drive over it. The present road was constructed by the V. V. & E. Railway company to replace the old Ladner highway, part of which they took for their right of way for the new "scenic" line, and for the maintenance and repair of the highway the company is responsible. There is no excuse for the inactivity of the Delta Council, because they are empowered under an order of the Railway Commissioners, made in February last, at any time they consider it to be out of repair, to engage Mr. H. J. Cambie, who was appointed by the Commissioners for this specific purpose, to report and require the company to put it in a proper state.

CAPTAIN WALBRAN'S BOOK IS INTERESTING VOLUME

British Columbia Coast Names by Captain J. T. Walbran, published at Ottawa by order of the Honorable L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries of Canada for the Geographic Board of Canada. Bound in Cloth.

Canada, in common with Australia, abounds in place names that invariably have an historical or personal significance. Unlike the place names in the mother country and other of the more anciently settled portions of the globe, only a comparatively few of our towns and settlements owe their designation to any local circumstance, physical peculiarity or tradition, and such as do are nearly always a perpetuation of an Indian name. Being, therefore, generally connected with some personal association, Canadian place names possess a peculiar interest. The coast of British Columbia abounds in such designations, and almost every place along this beautiful, rugged shore of the Pacific has some connection with the early discoverers of this portion of the Dominion.

Very few people are aware of the origin of these, and therefore the publication by the Department of Marine and Fisheries of Captain John T. Walbran's "British Columbia Coast Names," should be widely welcomed. Captain Walbran will be remembered as the scholarly commander of the government survey boat Quadra, which was engaged in survey work on this coast for some seventeen years. This voluminous work, which runs to nearly 600 pages, has been a labor of love to the author, woh has dealt with his very interesting subject in a spirit of rare thoroughness. Apart from its primary object, it forms indeed a biography of every person, be he great or small, who has been, either directly or indirectly, associated with the discovery and settlement of our coast. The book abounds in scholarly lore and it is apparent that the author has spared no pains to make his work as complete as possible.

As Captain Walbran remarks in his preface, "the history of a country is often indicated by its names." Certainly this is true of the coast of British Columbia, where we find that with a few Indian exceptions, the earliest names are of Spanish origin, while those of later date are British. This fact agrees with the historical record, the Spanish being first to visit this coast, but contenting themselves with its discovery; British adventurers were the first to fully appreciate its value and to determine to possess it."

Within these pages are many entertaining stories of adventure. We have here recorded the famous experiences of Captain Cook, Captain Barkley, Captain Vancouver; the old-time Greek pilot Juan de Fuca, who was here in 1592; Admiral Cockburn, one of Nelson's captains; Sir Alexander Mackenzie; Simon Fraser and many another. One of the most entertaining stories told by Captain Walbran is that of Captain James Jones, known to his familiars as Jemmy Jones, the memory of whose remarkable exploits is perpetuated by the existence of Jemmy Jones island in the Baynes Channel. Jones was a man of daring and resource, and seems never to have been at a loss for a means of extricating himself from the innumerable difficulties which he got into.

STEERS STAND SIX FEET AND WEIGH 2600 POUNDS

Calgary, Jan. 13.—"We have in our yard two range steers which weigh 2600 pounds each," says P. Burns, of Burns & Co., packers. "They are six feet in height and are about five years old. These mammoth steers show what southern Alberta's grasses are capable of. They have never seen inside shelter of any description, and their only feed was ntaural grass on the p airie."

ALBERTA SURVEYORS SEEK INCORPORATION

Edmonton, Jan. 13.—The Dominion land surveyors residing in the province are making arrangements to seek incorporation at the coming session of the legislature. Their object as announced is not to form a close corporation, but rather to improve the standard of the profession in the province, and with this end in view the proposed board of examiners will be placed under the control of the senate of the University of Alberta. It is expected that the membership of the association next summer will be about fifty, including the Dominion land surveyors who temporarily work in Alberta during the summer months.

TOWN OF LAKEVIEW IS UNDER WATER

Lakeview, Ore., Jan. 13.—Three hundred inhabitants of the town of Paisley, 45 miles north of here, are homeless today as the result of an ice jam which flooded the town to a depth of five feet. The people were forced to seek shelter in the foothills and will camp there until the ice jam is broken and the water subsides. Although provisions are plentiful the extreme cold caused much suffering because of the flimsy nature of the tents and cabins in which the refugees are living. Relief will probably be sent from Lakeview today. The people of Paisley are preparing to spend an indefinite period in the tents into which they have moved. They will not be able to return to their flooded homes until warmer weather causes the melting of the ice jam on the river.

GRAIN EXCHANGE BUILDING

Calgary Will Erect Permanent Home for Grain Interests.

Calgary Jan. 13.—At a cost of $35,000 the Calgary Grain Exchange has secured four lots with a view to later erecting a permanent home for the exchange building erected by W. R. Hull. All grain companies that could possibly secure locations in this building have secured offices under lease extending over several years. Grain interests here admit that the present six-storey exchange building will in the course of a few years be entirely inadequate for their needs. The new building, when erected will permit of all grain companies in the city securing offices in one building.

MONTREALS SUGGEST DIFFERENT DATES

Minto Cup Challengers Would Rather Play Here on June 25 and July 2.

The Montreal lacrosse club, challengers for the lacrosse championship of the world, are not quite satisfied with the dates suggested by the locals for the two matches which will show whether or not the battered mug is to go back east again or remain here. In a letter received yesterday by Secretary H. Ryall, W. E. Findlay, president of the club that fain would call the cup its own, explains that the dates named by the locals are not agreeable to the back east men, for several unstated reasons. He intimates that Saturday June 25 and Saturday July 2 would be just about the best thing in the date line from the Montreal's point of view.

In concluding Mr. Findlay requests an answer by wire and wishes, the club a prosperous season. He could not wish it a successful season and be consistent.

But before the Westminster lacrosse club agrees to play on other dates than May 24 and 28, there will be a big noise. The twenty-fourth is a holiday and there is a precedent for playing Minto Cup games here on Victoria Day.

For years past July 1. Dominion Day, has been recognised as Vancouver's big lacrosse day, and it would be going against the traditions of B. C. lacrosse to disappoint the terminal city supporters this year. The boys could not possibly play two big games in two days.

If the dates are not amicably arranged at an early date the matter will be referred to the trustees of the cup for arbitration. This will give P. D. Ross a chance to get in a little more of his fine work.

VANCOUVER ROVERS HEADED FOR SPOKANE

Vancouver, Jan. 13.—A quartette of amateur boxers and wrestlers will leave for Spokane this evening to represent the Vancouver Athletic club tomorrow evening in the international tournament with the Spokane Athletic club. Stephens, the little boxer who won the provincial championship recently; Harry McLean, the featherweight boxer, who lost on a foul to Jack Macpherson at the last tourney; Billy Peacock, the welterweight wrestler, and George Walker, a middleweight grappler. Johnny McCallum, the crack 125-pound boxer, was scheduled to make the trip, but he is down with la grippe.

The next intercity tournament in Vancouver will take place in Vancouver on February 18, when the representatives of the Multnomah club of Portland will hook up with a local quartette.

Senior Lacrosse in Victoria.

Con Jones, the Vancouver lacrosse magnate, returned to the terminal city from Victoria yesterday. He reports that the lacrosse fans in the Capital city have the Minto Cup bug and are making arrangements to get into touch with some eastern players with the object of gathering a team to enter the senior lacrosse league this year.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—It is announced that Ottawa will have a new lacrosse team next summer. Members of the Capital club are dissatisfied with the way things were run last year, attributing the failure of the team to mismanagement and trouble between the players and the club. The players have been assurred sufficient financial backing and will make an effort to obtain a franchise in the National Lacrosse union.

FATHER CHARRIER TO TOUR WORLD

Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church Is Leaving Shortly on Long Trip.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—Rev. Father Cherrier, the veteran pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, is leaving on January 15 on a tour of the world. He will proceed from here to Vancouver, where he will go south to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California points of interest, and will later sail for the Orient from San Francisco. He will tour Japan, China, India and the Holy Land, and after a visit to the chief points of historical interest in Greece he will proceed to Rome, where he will spend some time in the head of and centre of influence of the church of which he is a distinguished apostle.

From Rome Father Cherrier will proceed to Oberamergau to witness a performance of the famous Passion Play next summer, and after that interesting occasion will continue his tour through Germany and France to the British Isles, where he will spend several weeks. He will return to Canada next fall in time to be present at the great Eucharist congress in Montreal, which he will attend before returning to Winnipeg on his world-girdling tour.

chloroformed, had been killed by Mrs. Guinness.

The confession details show how Mrs. Guinness informed Lamphere of the coming of her victims. The first man killed was from Minnesota. He never awoke from his sleep in the Guinness house. In the darkness Lamphere was ordered by Mrs. Guinness to dump a gunny sack and its contents in a hole that had been made by another farm hand for rubbish. Mrs. Guinness never told him what became of the man, but Lamphere received money from Mrs. Guinness.

Within a month another man arrived. He wanted to know his rights before paying off the mortgage on the Guinness farm and Mrs. Guinness took him to St. Joseph, Mich., Lamphere thought, and there they were married. A few nights after they came back there was another buying of chloroform.

Then Andrew Helgelein came from South Dakota with a check for $2,893. This was cashed and Helgelein was given to understand he was nothing more than a farm hand. Lamphere was sent on an errand to Michigan City to remain all night. He returned to the Guinness home and through a hole in the floor heard Helgelein groan in distress and begging Mrs. Guinness to send for a doctor. It was chloroform she had given him, according to Lamphere.

Presently Helgelein fell to the floor and Lamphere said he saw Mrs. Guinness strike the prostrate form and end his life. Lamphere, the following night, buried this body with Mrs. Guinness' assistance.

Shortly after Mrs. Guinness and Lamphere quarrelled over money and he was ordered off the farm. She put her money in the bank the afternoon before Lamphere, seeking money, chloroformed all in the house and robbed and set fire to the place. Lamphere said he was drunk the night he visited the place. He thought he would find $15,000 on the premises, but they only got between $60 and $70. The light they used was a candle and they left the house without knowing they had left behind a spark that soon burst into flames.

The men killed by Mrs. Guinness were Andrew Helgelein and Ole Budsberg and Tonnes Petersen Lien. Helgelein, Lamphere thought was the third husband of Mrs. Guinness.

At the time of Lamphere's trial it was thought that Jennie Olsen had been killed by Mrs. Guinness. Lampere however details how Mrs. Guinness had secreted her in the house after she returned from a visit, and she was chloroformed by Lamphere and his accomplice.

PROPOSE TO BUILD ABATTOIR IN EDMONTON

Edmonton, Jan. 13.—It is possible that next summer the retail meat dealers of the city will build an abattoir in the city for their own use and operate the business as a joint stock company. The question was discussed at a meeting of the Provisioners' association held on Tuesday night and a committee was appointed to look further into the question and report at a later date. If the company is formed as suggested, it will be capitalized at about $100,000 and stock will be sold to the local dealers, farmers and others who are interested.

CORPSE DANCING MATE OF A BEREAVED NEGRO

Cincinnati, Jan. 13.—The unusual sight of a negro singing and waltzing along the street with the dead body of a woman in his arms startled Patrolmen McCorkhill and Reynolds today.

They closed in on the man, who thereupon dropped the body and ran. The body proved to be that of the negro's wife. The negro, Thomas Harvey, was taken to the police station and held for safekeeping.

Harvey, griefstricken over the loss of his wife, left the house in the afternoon and did not return until midnight. The undertakers were in the house preparing the body for burial, but Harvey drove everyone from the house, placed a cigarette in the dead woman's mouth, and, taking the body in his arms, started out on the public street.

BIG LOSS OF LIFE IN STEAMER WRECK

Czarina Goes to Pieces off Oregon Coast in Raging Gale—Thirty Drown.

Marshfield, Ore., Jan. 13.—Repeating the Valencia disaster on a smaller scale, the Southern Pacific Railway company's steamer Czarina, which left port yesterday for San Francisco, was wrecked in sight of this place. Nearly all of the thirty-two people aboard met death.

Between twenty-four and thirty were drowned, a number who had climbed into the rigging being swept overboard at 1:30 p. m.

Waves Break Over Her.

The Czarina left port during a gale. Tremendous seas were breaking outside the bar, and heavy seas were washing over it as the Czarina attempted to pass out into the ocean. Suddenly those on shore, who had gathered to watch the departure of the boat, were startled to see the Czarina swerving toward the north spit. Her engines seemed to have become disabled. The heavy seas appeared almost to envelop the vessel and she drifted rapidly onto a spit at a point about a mile above the jetty. There was no way to reach the disabled vessel, and she pounded heavily, swaying from side to side, with great waves constantly breaking over her.

It was too rough for tugboats to approach her, and those on shore were compelled to stand idly by, unable to succor the doomed crew and the one passenger, Harold Millis, son of C. J. Millis, the steamship agent of the Southern Pacific company at this place.

Captain Duggan, of the Czarina, made an effort to stop the onward sweep of the vessel toward the rocks. He dropped anchor, but it would not hold, and she soon grounded. The members of the crew crowded into the rigging and made frantic gestures of appeal, but the fates were against them, and from time to time one or more of the men were washed overboard to death.

Watched on the Beach.

The crew from the lifesaving station launched a boat, but was unable to reach the distressed ship. They made an effort to fire a lifeline across the vessel from the shore. In this, too, they were unsuccessful. The distance was too great. As darkness closed in there were but few to be seen on board the wrecked vessel, which, heavily laden with coal as she was, had settled far into the water, and the waves were washing over her steadily. All night long scores of persons patrolled the beach. Huge bonfires ligted up the shores.

Calls for help were sent out to sea by wireless, and one vessel, the steamer Queen, answered the call, but arrived too late to render any assistance.

Two Lives Saved.

Harry Kentzell, first assistant engineer, was picked up unconscious in the breakers early today. Some hours after Kentzell was rescued he recovered consciousness sufficiently to state that Captain Duggan and Harold Mills, the only passenger, had been bound to one of the masts. Kentzell said that when the forward mast, to which he and five others had climbed, went by the board, the master, first officer, Mills and two seamen were still alive in the rigging. These, he said, were the only ones left on the ship.

When Kentzell was rescued hope for a moment sprang up, only to be dashed to earth again by the assertion of H. J. McKeown that he had seen through marine glasses both masts of the Czarina and a rope ladder carried away and with that their burden of fifteen men.

Harry Kentzell and Assistant Engineer V. Robinson are believed to be the only men saved.

JAPANESE LABOR UNION IS FOUND IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—The report of the California state bureau of labor statistics, which is being prepared for Governor Gillett, contains striking facts concerning the nature and extent of the Japanese holdings and activities in the state, it was learned yesterday.

The Japanese population in the state is said to be more than 50,000. Japanese holdings run into the millions and the investigations have disclosed a complete organization controlling the supply of Japanese labor. The Japanese, it is found, through their organization, are moved from district to district where the harvest demands are supplied. A majority of 450 farmers, whose opinions concerning this labor have been obtained, favor the employment of the Japanese.
