ANGLICAN SYNOD TRANSACTS BUSINESS

Bishop Dart Strongly Favors Church Weddings--Reports Read– Officers Elected.

The twenty-eight annual session of the synod of the diocese of New Westminster opened auspiciously yesterday morning, His Lordship Bishop Dart, of New Westminster, presiding. The forenoon was taken up by the reception and enrollment of the delegates, of whom there were about sixty, from all parts of the diocese, from points as far away as Kamloops, and the hearing of the bishop's charge, which was listened to with marked attention and interest.

In the afternoon the election of officers occupied the attention of the meeting till half-past four o'clock, when an adjournment was made for lunch, which was kindly provided by the ladies of the two city parishes. The delegates took only a few minutes for refreshments.

Marriages in Churches.

That it is one of the canons of the English church that all marriages should take place in a house of worship, except in exceptional cases, was the fact pointed out in the synod yesterday in the charge delivered by His Lordship, Bishop Dart. His Lordship said that scriptural prohibitions against divorce were in force in the Church of England but there was another section of the canon which did not seem to be so well known. The section referred to is as follows: "Wherever there is a parish church or building set apart for public worship, the marriage shall be solemnized therein, provided that the bishop may for such causes as shall seem to him sufficient, issue a special license for the solemnization of the marriage elsewhere, and provided also that where either or both the parties reside at a greater distance than five miles from any church it shall be lawful to solemnize their marriage elsewhere, provided further that in urgent cases where reference to a bishop is practically impossible, the clergyman shall act at his own discretion and forthwith report the circumstances to the bishop." The bishop recommended this section to the consideration of the synod.

Appointments of Clergy.

Another matter which His Lordship called to the attention of the synod was the appointment of clergymen in case of vacancies occurring. He pointed out that appointments could not be made without the advice and consent of the bishop. When less than half the salary of the incumbent is provided by the parish, the bishop makes the appointment unconditionally; where more than half is raised by the parish the bishop shall consult with the church committee before making the appointment, and where the stipend is provided entirely by the congregation, the bishop shall not appoint a rector without securing the consent of a majority of the parishioners.

Afternoon Session.

The main business was the election of officers.

The ballot resulted in the following being declared elected members of the executive committee: Archdeacon Pentreath, Archdeacon Pugh, Rev. G. C. D'easum, Rev. H. Beacham, T. S. Annandale, A. McCreery, J. R. Seymour, Rev. A. U. de Pencier, Rev. J. Hinchcliffe, Rev. C. C. Owen, Rev. J. H. Hooper, Messrs. A. D. Taylor, W. J. Walker, J. P. Payne, J. H. MacGill; Treasurer, A. McCreery; Au-

Funeral of Henry Bruce.

A sad and impressive sight yesterday was the funeral of the late Henry Bruce, who was among the few survivors of the Royal Engineers Five of the late Mr Bruce's comrades in the Sappers and Miners corps—Robert Butler, Victoria; P. Jackman, Aldergrove; Samuel Archer, New Westminster; Allan Cummings, Vancouver, and G. Turner, New Westminster—with W. H. Keary, acted as pallbearers. Rev. J. S. Henderson conducted an impressive service at the chapel of the undertaking rooms of Murchie & Sons, and then the remains were taken to the Masonic cemetery, many of the oldest and most respected citizens of New Westminster following the body to the grave.

Accident on Columbia Street.

An accident occurred last evening about ten o'clock when a lady stepped off a car on Columbia street into the ditch that has been dug preparatory to the laying of the new car line. The lady stepped off the north side of the car, not knowing that the ditch was there. As a result of the fall she injured her hip and received a bad shaking up. She was taken to Ryall's drug store and was later able to go home.

Help From Kaiser Wilhelm.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—Emperor William today donated $5000 for the relief of the flood victims in Paris, and he also sent a warm telegram of sympathy to the French government, through Prince Von Radolin, the German ambassador to France.

WINTER DOES NOT STOP IMMIGRANTS FROM COMING

All Previous Records For November, December and January Shattered —Americans Bring Cash.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—"Never before in the history of western Canada have so many immigrants flocked into the country during November, December and January as in the last three months," said J. Bruce Walker, Dominion Commissioner of Immigration, yesterday. "All previous records for the same period have been doubled. I believe that is chiefly due to two things—the splendid crop of 1909 and the good reports concerning Canada spread abroad by the Americans who went home after a successful season in this country with their pockets full of money and themselves full of enthusiasm.

"Last week three hundred and twenty settlers came into Manitoba from the south, each of whom possessed from two to five thousand dollars."

NOT GOOD ENOUGH.

Stock Company Below Westminster Standard, and Not Coming.

The stock company which was to have come to the Opera house here on February 7 for a week's engagement will not play in New Westminster. The advance man wanted Manager Tidy to cut down the time from one week to three days at the end of the week. Harry made some inquiries and decided that the outfit was not good enough, so he called the deal off.

However, Louis James is coming on February 16, and the playgoers of the city will have a chance to see one of the best productions of Henry the Eighth that has ever been presented to American audiences.

Manager Tidy made two more bookings yesterday, Babes in Toyland for April 7, and St. Elmo for April 16.

Millionaire Lumberman Dead.

COUNSEL SPRINGS SURPRISE IN SUGAR FRAUDS TRIAL

New York, Feb. 2.—Henry Stimpson, special counsel for the government in the sugar underweighing prosecutions, sprang a surprise on the defence today when counsel for Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, and five other defendants, former employees of the company, appeared to argue their special plea of immunity.

Mr. Stimpson declared that he was prepared to go to a jury on the truth or falsity of the allegations raised in the plea, and announced that in the event they were not sustained he would move for the sentence of the defendants without further trial. He held that the plea of immunity was in effect a plea of guilty.

Judge Martin finaly put the whole matter over to Friday.

HEBREWS ADVISED TO SPREAD OVER COUNTRY

New York, Feb. 2.—"Distribute over the country, don't congregate," is the advice of Jacob H. Schiff to Jews, made public through the Young Men's Hebrew association of this city.

"It is true," continued the banker, "that this country yet has room and a profitable living for two or three million more Jews, but we don't want them to settle where congestion will militate against their making a livelihood. We want to facilitate their going away from New York. In the west and south there are boundless opportunities."

PREHISTORIC BONES BROUGHT TO GERMANY

Berlin, Feb. 2.—The first shipment of prehistoric bones collected by the German expedition in East Africa, comprising forty-six large boxes, reached the Berlin Paleontological museum today. Reports from the explorers indicate that they have been highly successful in finding important specimens. One of the most treasured is a thigh bone, which measures six feet eleven and three-quarter inches, as compared with the four foot eleven inches measurement of the corresponding bone of the American diprotodon. The African specimen is the largest in existence.

The explorers have reached the conclusion that the African saurians are the direct progeny of those whose remains were found. The expedition was despatched by the government to investigate the remains of antediluvian animals discovered by Professor Hanz, of Stuttgart, in 1907, in the southern part of German East Africa, and to make thorough search.

HOPE TO AVOID DISEASE EPIDEMIC

Health Authorities of Paris Distribute Quicklime and Other Disinfectants.

Paris, Feb. 2.—The flood recedes, the streets of Paris present a deplorable condition. Miles of them in the districts along the Seine are covered with broken wreckage and slime, and present in many places dangerous pits.

In the past twenty-four hours the river has fallen from two to three feet, but below Paris there are several feet of water and boats are to be seen everywhere carrying relief to the sufferers.

Health Authorities Sanguine.

Every measure has been taken to prevent a scourge following the flood, and the health authorities are sanguine that the danger of an epidemic of any disease except typhoid is negligible.

Rigid Inspection.

Typhoid is always epidemic in Paris, due undoubtedly to the pollution of the water supply. Nevertheless, with the warnings issued against the drinking of unboiled water, it is hoped to avoid this danger.

The government has instructed the prefects of the departments and the provincial authorities everywhere to enforce the most rigid disinfection as the waters recede.

Already large quantities of chloride of lime, quicklime and various other disinfectants have been employed, and immense supplies have been concentrated in depots in each of the arrondissements of Paris for free distribution.

Health officers and physicians who have volunteered to do the work have been detailed to inspect the disinfection done privately.

Leave of Absence For Soldiers.

General Briand, minister of war, has decided that so soon as their services can be dispensed with the soldiers who have been taking part in the flood work will be given a week's leave of absence.

Subscriptions Pouring In.

Not taking into account foreign contributions to the relief fund, or the $400,000 appropriated by the French parliament, the total French subscription up to the present exceeds $800,000.

The collections in the Catholic churches so far have amounted to $60,000.

At nightfall the Lycee and Austerlitz stations were still surrounded by water and the tracks of the Orleans and Invalides stations were submerged, the flood at these points being nine feet deep.

The water is receding from the wine and spirit warehouse at Bercy quay, the largest in Europe. The losses here alone are estimated at $800,000.

RED CROSS DETAINED.

Steamer Sails to Bring Back Nurses Detained By Gen. Estrada.

San Juan Del Sur, Nicaragua, Feb. 2.—The United States cruiser Des Moines has sailed for Corn Island to bring back the members of the Manague Red Cross society who were sent to Bluefields to aid the wounded after the battle of Recreo, and who were detained by order of General Estrada.

Advices received here indicate that war operations around La Libertad are confined to the movement of the troops.

ARMAMENTS.

If Canada Has Navy, United States Will Watch Her Closely.

London, Feb. 2.—The Manchester Guardian, discussing the Canadian Navy bill, says that it plainly satisfies neither party, and fears the effect upon relations with the United States. The Guardian adds:

"If Canada begins to build a navy which might conceivably be used against the objects of American policy we must live to see transplanted into America the European malady of competitive armaments."

TRUCE EXPECTED.

Tariff Negotiations Between America and Germany Nearing End.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—It was announced at the state department today that either a complete agreement or a truce between Germany and the United States in the present tariff negotiations might be expected tomorrow. The cattle and meat inspection issues are the sole stumbling blocks.

Two Trappers Injured.

Kenora, Feb. 2.—In an explosion which occurred at their camp near Ingolf on Tuesday two local trappers, William Virden and J. Campbell, were badly injured. The men were making dinner, when a cartridge, which had in some unaccountable manner got into the stove, exploded, resulting in Virden's face being badly burned and the loss of his right eye. Campbell received severe wounds on the body. Both men are in the Jubilee hospital here.

REVIVE SCHEME TO BUILD Y.M.C.A.

Meeting Tonight Will Discuss Advisability of Starting Athletic Association Here.

Another effort is being made to establish a gymnasium, or probably a Y. M. C. A., in this city, a public meeting in the city hall having been called for this evening for the purpose of discussing the scheme and naming committees to look after the details, should it be decided to go ahead with the proposition. Rev. J. S. Henderson, who has been trying for a long time past to establish a Y. M. C. A. in Westminster, will outline a plan of action tonight which is expected to meet with the approval of the citizens, and which, if given the support it merits, should go a long ways toward establishing the desired headquarters for young men of athletic tendencies.

Good Sum Promised.

When an effort was made to build a Y. M. C. A. here about two years ago subscriptions amounting to about $5000 in large sums were promised, while a large number of smaller amounts were also offered, the list being now in the hands of T. J. Trapp, who took considerable interest in the movement. The scheme went off to a good start, but for some reason the months dragged by and the project did not materialize.

However, all the promised subscriptions are still looked upon as collectable, and a lot on Royal avenue, which was donated as a site for the proposed building, is still available. The city council also promised to give free light and water for a term of years, and it is probable the same privilege could be secured from the city fathers of today.

Would Cost About $25,000.

As outlined in 1908, the Y. M. C. A. building was to be a three-story structure, with a swimming bath in the basement—the Royal avenue lot is a ravine, which would make excavation unnecessary—and would cost from $25,000 to $30,000. In addition to the usual reading, recreation and office rooms, gymnasium and lecture hall, furnished rooms for young men would occupy the upper story. A considerable revenue could be derived from these quarters.

Might Affect Boys' Clubs.

At the present time there are six or seven boys' clubs and athletic societies connected with the different churches in the city, the total membership amounting to well over two hundred. It is probable some of these clubs would die a natural death in the event of the Y. M. C. A. being firmly established, as the members could secure much greater advantages by being associated with a world-wide institution.

Tonight's meeting, which is called for eight o'clock, is open to all who care to attend, and suggestions for or against the scheme will be welcomed.

REGINA STREET CARS.

Winnipeg Man is Making a Proposition to the City Council.

Regina, Feb. 2.—M. de C. O'Grady, of Winnipeg, late of the Northern Crown bank, is in the city with his solicitor, Mr. Hugg, with a view to making a street railway proposition to the city council. This will make two new proposals now before the council. Lawford Grant, of Montreal, who is associated with certain New York financiers, has already submitted a proposition. The council has decided to extend the date for receiving proposals for the street railway franchise to February 8, on which date the differnt offers will be opened and considered.

"Chesty George" New Chief.

New York, Feb. 2.—Police Inspector George McCluskey, who was once nicknamed "Chesty George" because of his associations with several millionaires, is said to be slated to succeed Inspector Cofferty as head of the detective bureau.

Attempted Suicide.

Clerks Go On Stirke.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—The county treasurer's office was tied up last night by a strike of twenty clerks, who refused to work overtime unless the board of county commissioners grants their demand for an increase in pay for night work, Sunday and holiday work.

FREIGHT RATES RAISED TO AVERT RATE WAR

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 2.—As a result of the reduction of the westbound freight rate by the Erie and Lackawanna railroads, and to avert a rate war among the trunk lines, the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad will raise its first-class rate from sixty-nine cents per hundred to seventy-five cents on its Canadian Pacific and Ontario and Western routes. It is now inferred the Erie and Lackawanna will return to the standard western rate.

PACKING CONCERN FAILS, LIABILITIES $37,000,000

New Jersey Firm Operating in Mexico Goes Under When Banking Company Suspends.

New York, Feb. 2.—The Mexican National Packing company, a New Jersey corporation controlled by English investors, and operating a string of slaughter houses and packing houes in Mexico under special concessions from the Mexican government, failed today with liabilities, including stock, of approximately $37,000,000. The assets, it is estimated, exceed the liabilities.

The company will continue to operate its plants as usual. The appointment of a receiver was not brought about by a condition in the live stock market, but by the tying up of part of the company's funds in the United Banking company in Mexico City, which suspended recently.

PRAISE FOR CANADA.

London, Feb. 2.—A. W. Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk railway, presiding at the Canada club banquet last night, declared that Canada was not over-advertised. He advocated a state system of emigration.

Subway and elevated tracks and surface cars killed eighty-nine persons, automobile and motorcycles forty-six and horse vehicles seventy-nine Of the automobile victims twenty-three were children, while forty-one children were killed by trucks, wagons, etc., and twenty-two by surface vehicles.

CARMEN THREATENING STRIKE IN NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 2.—Conferences were held today in an effort to avert a strike of 5000 motormen, conductors and guards of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company's elevated system, threatened because of the discharge of forty men recently.

The men say they were discharged because they joined a union. The management denies this and declares the men yielded to the influence of agitators. Following a meeting of several hundred employees it was declared that a strike would be inaugurated Thursday unless the men were reinstated.

GREECE SAYS TURKISH ANXIETY IS GROUNDLESS

Athens, Feb. 2.—A semi-official statement was issued tonight, declaring that the anxiety excited in Turkey by the summoning of a national assembly in Greece is quite groundless, that the Greek cabinet is animated by a pacific spirit and is composed of men too prudent to pursue a risky policy. It will defer the date of the parliamentary elections, which might have given the Cretans an opportunity to realize their intention of sending deputies.

Constantinople, Feb. 2.—The Greek minister today visited the porte and protested against the anti-Greek attitude of several of the Turkish newspapers. The minister of war has requested the press to refrain from publishing anything relating to military affairs.

PROCEED TO BUILD HUDSON BAY RAILWAY

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—In a speech yesterday, Hon. Mr. Graham, minister of railways, referred in detail to the question of the Hudson Bay railway. He said that the government was committed to this project and would proceed with all possible speed. A vote will be taken to start the building of the railway at once, and a boat will be sent by the marine department to examine the straits, the channel and the approaches to the two harbors, Nelson and Churchill. He spoke of the question which of the two ports shall be selected, and stated that the road for 200 miles north from the Pas Mission will be common to both destinations.

The late Mr. Fraser was well known in newspaper circles, having established several papers which are still flourishing in this province. He leaves a wife and two small children. His brother-in-law, C. D. Peele, of this city, went to Victoria yesterday on receipt of the news.

OVER CANADIAN NORTHERN.

Officials Favor Proposal For Entrance of N. T. R. to Winnipeg.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—At a conference held in the office of the minister of railways this morning in respect to the entrance of the National Transcontinental railway into Winnipeg, Mr. F. H. Phippen, solicitor for the Canadian Northern, suggested an arrangement whereby the N. T. R. could get into Winnipeg over the C. N. R. right-of-way from its present junction with the Dundee branch east of St. Boniface.

Commissioner Young of the N. T. R. favored this proposal, and the railways were given ten days to further consider it.

CANADA URGED TO ASSERT DOMINION

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—The Canadian government was urged yesterday by Senator Poirier, speaking in the senate, to continue activity in the Arctic archipelago. The senator expressed belief that the United States might some day assert ownership to some of these lands and object to Canada claiming Hudson bay as a closed water. Recent revelations showed, he said, that Russia had stolen Alaska and a part of the Pacific coast line from Canada.

A document discovered at Sitka and forwarded to the governor-general at Ottawa, according to Senator Poirier, contained instructions to a Russian officer as late as 1826 to make a secret expedition and bury along the coast tablets indicating discovery and possession by Russia at a far earlier date. In this way Russia established her claim to Alaska, afterward sold to the United States government.

Sir Richard Cartwright said the Canadian government had despatched two expeditions and was about to send a third to assert jurisdiction in the north.

SCARED BALDHEADED, GIRL GETS DAMAGES

St. Paul, Feb. 2.—For being scared until she turned baldheaded, Tillie Ominsky, a factory girl, was awarded $2000 by a jury in the circuit court here yesterday. Tillie was employed a little more than a year ago at a machine which elevated paper boxes to the floor above. In some manner her waist caught in the wheels and shafting, and she was drawn tight against the machine.

During the trial just concluded physicians and surgeons testified that fright had so affected her nervous system that her hair fell from her head.

COMET'S TAIL CRACKS OVER EARTH MAY 19

New York, Feb. 2.—Camille Flammarion, the French astronomer, in a letter published here today, says that the vaporous tail of Halley's comet will envelope the earth on May 19.

"For several hours," he says, "we will be immersed in the gaseous caudal appendage whose chemical constitution is still little known. The comet will pass directly between the sun and the world at two o'clock in the morning of May 19. At that hour the Pacific ocean will be in full daylight, while in France it will be night. Little danger may be expected, however, for the tail will probably be so rarified as to be inoffensive."

SLEEP AND NERVE REST.

A Necessity That Is Overlooked In the Modern Strenuous Life.

In the days when eight hours for sleep were nominally regarded as a hour too long for any self respecting individual the exhausting character of modern life was unknown. There was less wealth and more contentment; less competition and more security; fewer distractions, but more simplicity. Work was easier, slower, and care anxiety, apprehension—in a word, worry—did not feed, like the worm i' the bud, upon the hours exempt from toil. We are remorseless in overtaxing the delicate mechanism of our minds and nerves. The best walker, for instance, does not propose to himself to go regularly sixty miles a day or to subject the same set of muscles in any other form of physical exercise to intense and unremitting labor. But that is what we do with the immediate agent of our minds—the brain machine. We cannot watch its operations. We often assume that its movements are as light and endless as the ripples of the universal air. We know and nevertheless we forget that the brain is a substantial apparatus as liable to depreciation as the fixed plant in a workshop. Now nothing is more certain than this—that the potential capacity of the human brain has not increased, if at all, by anything like the proportion of the immensely aggravated demand upon it.

The modern man is subject to as much mental and moral wear and tear in a day as his ancestors in no very remote generation experienced in a week. Yet in respect of sleep we have hardly changed traditional habit. We keep later and still later hours. We catch our trains in the morning as usual. There is no doubt whatever that we burn the candle at both ends with unprecedented disregard of the laws of psychological economy, and that the amount of rest we allow for nerve and brain is no longer adequate.—London Telegraph.

A Fast Train.

On the Riviera line near Ventimiglia, Italy, the train, after ambling gently along, stopped suddenly. An impatient passenger put his head out and asked crustily, "Is this Bordighera?" No answer. "Guard, is this Bordighera?" he shouted again. A voice came from the fore part of the train, "No, monsieur, it is not Bordighera—it is a cow." When the cow had been removed from the line the train ambled on again. Two minutes later it once more came to a dead stop. "Another cow, I suppose?" shouted the testy passenger witheringly. "No, monsieur, it is not," said the guard placidly. "It is the same cow."

A Costly Desk.

There is a famous old desk in the British war office in London. It is a desk to which old hands point with emotion. That desk cost the nation $25,000,000. In it is a pigeonhole with a story. It was into that pigeonhole that the dispatch of King Theodore of Abyssinia was thrust—and forgotten. After we had been to war the document was found in the desk, and we all learned that there ought to have been no war.—London Sketch.

The Stag.

"I hear your firm discharged you."

"Yes, but I wouldn't mind that so much if they hadn't added insult to injury."

"How?"

"They advertised for a boy to fill my place."

Sheridan fell in love with Miss Linley and told the story of "The Rivals," which is a true account of his courtship.

Don't Worry! Smile.

Centenarians give various reasons to which they ascribe their longevity, but it is significant that they all agree on the advantage of plenty of work and little worry in adding length of life. The advice lately given by a woman over a hundred is worth considering as she advises one to eat when hungry, sleep when sleepy, with plenty of sleep, to work constantly, keep cheerful and avoid worry. This puts in a few words the doctrine of the simple life, and her conclusion is worthy of an ancient sage when she says that if these rules will not produce health and long life there is bad blood in the family and it had better die out.—Baltimore American.

Charging Was In His Line.

A party of gentlemen sitting on the veranda of a leading hotel at Jackson, N. H., fell into an amiable discussion of their delightful host, who bore high military title and who won his military spurs on the staff of a New Hampshire governor. One of them asked: "Did he get his title from service in the defense of his country?" And the reply, from a retired army officer was: "He must have, for he has not forgotten how to charge."

Enduring Engine Bell.

"There's one thing about a locomotive that hasn't changed in the last forty-five years," mused an engineer. He was looking at an engine that was drawing some coaches through the train shed. The bell was clanging loudly.

"I've railroaded a good many years," he continued, "and I can't remember when the old engine bell didn't sound just as it does today. It's always been rung by a cord too. The coming of compound cylinders and the improvement in boilers, pistons and exhausts have revolutionized railroading, but the old bell swings backward and forward just as it did when I first climbed into a cab."

Beacham, Rev. H. St. George Buttrum; Secretaries, Rev. H. Beacham, J. R. Seymour.

Canon is Discussed.

Only one of the proposed new canons was discussed yesterday, and that was the one dealing with the removal of a clergyman from his cure. The canon was introduced by the Rev. Archdeacon Pentreath, and runs as follows:

"If the bishop, on consultation with the executive committee, shall be of opinion that the continuance of any duly licensed clergyman in his cure is likely, from any cause or causes other than those provided for in the canon on discipline, not to be conducive to the welfare and progress of the church, he shall issue a commission to report on the facts, and if such report sustain the bishop in his opinion, then, after further consultation with the executive committee, he shall relieve such clergyman of his cure at the expiration of six months notice, or on payment of six months salary in advance."

The motion was discussed at length, but there was such a difference of opinion on the matter that it was deemed advisable to refer it to a committee composed of three clergymen and three laymen, which will not report until the next annual synod.

Earlier in the afternoon the Venerable Archdeacon Pentreath, of Columbia, read his annual report. The report congratulated the church on the good work done during the year but deplored the fact that some of the parishes in the west had not made up the amount of money required of them.

The report was adopted as read.

Treasurer's Report.

The treasurer's report then came up for discussion, and as it had been printed and distributed among the delegates it was not read. The report shows that the finances of the diocese are in fairly good shape, although the appeals sent out for missionary funds were not responded to as well as might have been.

The meeting suspended business for the day about seven o'clock. In the evening a well attended service was held in the cathedral, at which the Rev. A. U. dePencier officiated.

Today's Business.

The program for today includes two very important items—one the discussion of the advisability of appointing a coadjutor bishop to assist Bishop Dart and the other the establishment of a superannuation fund for clergymen, the clergymen to be retired from active work at the age of sixty-five.

The following are two of the clauses describing the powers and duties of the coadjutor bishop, if the synod sees fit to appoint one:

"The coadjutor bishop shall perform such diocesan duties and exercise such Episcopal authority in the diocese as the bishop shall assign to him, and if the bishop shall not assign any such duties and authority, or if any difference shall arise between the bishop and his coadjutor regarding the same, the matter shall be decided by the metropolitan of the province of British Columbia, or if there be no metropolitan, then the senior bishop in British Columbia in each case acting with the primate of all Canada.

"The coadjutor bishop shall have the seat in the synod and the same right of voting therein as any priest of the diocese sitting in synod. In the absence of the bishop from synod he shall have the same powers and authority therein as the bishop of the diocese. In the administration and episcopal work of the diocese he shall have the same powers, privileges and authority therein as the bishop of the diocese, but shall exercise them in subordination to the bishop."

The business will resume this morning at ten o'clock. There will be a communion service at eight a. m. and matins at half-past nine a. m.

MISREPRESENTING CANADA.

Some attempt has been made on the other side of the Atlantic to produce an impression that the Liberals of Canada are not imperialistic. What are the facts? Since coming into power in 1896 the Liberal government have done everything possible to foster relations between the two countries. The British preference was stoutly fought by the Conservatives in the House and in the country. The Liberal party stood firm, however, and this commercial bond was welded firmer in spite of Tory opposition.

Since the Liberal government came into power in 1896 there has been a steady growth of imperialism and loyalty to British institutions by Canadians. In this regard the Liberals, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, have neglected no opportunity to strengthen the bonds which unite Canada to the British crown.

Sir Wilfrid's attitude at the Colonial Conference, his advocacy of measures of a distinctly imperialistic tendency, the British preference, and more recently the efforts of the Canadian government to bring about closer union between Great Britain and the colonies by a system of cheaper cable rates, all are permeated with the controlling idea of bringing us closer to the motherland.

The building of the National Transcontinental will bring the Orient seven hundred miles nearer the Pacific coast, and the advantages to the empire of this state of things is incalculable.

All these things mean that the Liberal party, the governing power in Canada, are Imperialists in the widest and best sense. Why then should the Canadian government, Canadian institutions, Canadian public men, and all things Canadian be misrepresented in the way they have been by one or two British papers?

Under the Liberals Canada has shown her loyalty to the Crown, her fealty to the Empire, and a practical desire to encourage trade relations. She has shed her blood, given her money, and this without anything in return. Canada proffered a trade preference which has greatly stimulated trade between Great Britain and this country. This was given freely, without asking or expecting anything in return. The garrisons at Halifax and Esquimalt have been taken over, and an immense financial burden has been transferred from the shoulders of the British taxpayer to those of the Canadian. Yet a portion of them misrepresent and slander us.

That Canada is loyal to the Empire, and that a vigorous, healthy imperialistic sentiment is growing, is largely in consequence of the attitude of the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The evidence of this is enumerated above, and requires no argument to support it.

The party of Opposition in Canada—that is, the poliitcal portion of the Opposition—think nothing of country, nothing of imperial unity, nothing of the evil effects upon the future of the Dominion; but they think much of the joys of office and the opportunities of power. They never neglect the chance of belittling the government of the day, and to cast aspersions upon the honor of public men in the Liberal ranks is regarded in the light of a sacred duty.

That much which is published injurious to Canada is inspired from Conservative sources here is well known. The Canadian government, to whom the poeple of England are under a deep debt of gratitude, are constantly maligned by their political opponents, who appear to find a section of the British press willing to circulate the most improbable stories without any attempt to secure authority or corroboration.

It is the wish of Canadians that love for the mother country should be undiminished, their loyalty keep pace with their prosperity, and imperialism be their guiding star. That Canada should share with the motherland the material blessings with which she has been so richly endowed by nature is a national desire. These thoughts are submitted for the consideration of that section of the British press which treats lightly of Canadian public men and Canadian projects, with a fervent hope that they may profit by them.

Rare Book on Newfoundland.

The title of the book is "A Discourse Containing a Loving Invitation, Both Honorable and Profitable, to all Such as Should be Adventurers, Either in Person or Purse, for the Advancement of His Majesty's Most Hopeful Plantation in the New-Found Land, lately Undertaken." PAUL ACOOSE TAKES FIRST TRIP EAST

Speedy Indian Runner Has Two Races Arranged and More in Sight.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—Paul Acoose, the Grenfell Indian, is off on his first trip to eastern Canada and the United States. He was in the city yesterday and left last night for Toronto. Form the Queen City he travels to New York, where he will be pitted against the best Powers and Pallock, the two big promoters, can collect.

On his lengthy trip Paul will have W. L. Staples as his travelling companion and manager. Jack McLeod, who brought him into the limelight, is unable to keep him company, possibly because it is curling weather, and he has handed over the reins of government to another. Mr. Staples has known him for a long time, and the people of Grenfell anticipate the new manager can handle him to perfection.

The two were quartered at the Manitoba hotel during the day and Paul had just awakened from a little nap when they told their plans.

On Wednesday night an open race is on the bills, in which Red Hawk, Hans Holmer, Percy Sellen, Meadows and Crowley—the latter recently turned professional—and others will take part. There is only one other engagement so far booked, and that is what Paul considers to be a big affair. It takes place in New York on February 14 at Madison Square. Just who Paul will have to go up against is not known, but he didn't seem to care, for he says he is afraid of no one.

Paul spoke a little more than usual yesterday, in fact for him he was quite chatty. Among other things, he said he had only just come off the reserve, where he had been since he came back from the coast. He appeared perfectly fit, and though he seems to have put on weight he says he has been training on the reserve, where the other Indians give him encouragement.

Mr. Staples says that though he has only two races fixed up he expects there will be lots doing down east. On his way back he would like to meet someone in Fort William, and is also anxious for something to do in Winnipeg.

"Acoose challenges the world, bars no one, and will race them winner take all. Coudl anything be fairer?" Mr. Staples asked.

A suggestion has been made for a Madison Squart Garden race, Indians vs. United States runners, for a distance of twenty miles, but whether it comes through or not time will tell. It hardly sems likely, but the proposed runners are as follows:

Indian—Tom Longboat, Red Hawk, Acoose, Fred Simpson.

The race would be scored on points for position, the lowest or highest score, according to the system utilized, deciding the team championship.

WESTERN CANADA LEAGUE TO INCLUDE EIGHT CLUBS

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—It is expected a meeting of the Western Canada basketball league will be called early this month to definitely settle on the circuit and make other arrangements for the season.

It is likely the league will be composed of the same eight cities as last year. Saskatoon wants to come in and would fit in nicely, but it is felt none of the present members will relinquish their franchises. Little has been heard from Brandon, but it is confidently expected that the Wheat City will be in line again. Calgary, Edmonton, Moose Jaw and Winnipeg are certainties. Regina has quite a deficit to face as the result of mismanagement last year, and some of last year's officers are none too enthusiastic, but the writer has been assured by prominent business men, notably those connected with the Boosters' club, that Regina will have baseball all right. Most of last year's players are under reserve, and it would not be hard getting a team together. In fact, this satisfactory condition prevails all around the circuit.

Doc White Joins the Holdups.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—"Doc" White the Chicago Americans' clever left-hander has joined the army of holdups. "I haven't and will not sign until I have a good long talk with President Comiskey," said White last night. "He sent me a contract at the same old figure right after the season closed and I returned it. I believe I have worked hard enough to entitle me to a little more money. Comiskey has found me willing to play the outfield when a fielder was needed and I am always ready to take my turn in the box."

LAMY DOES WELL AT BIG SKATING MEET

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 2.—Six events were run off this afternoon at the annual international outdoor skating championship on Saranac lake. Edmund Lamy won the half mile, one mile and three mile heats. W. G. Finlayson, of Montreal, clipped off two-fifths of a second from the 220-yard record.

ONLY ONE TEAM TO REPRESENT VANCOUVER

Con. Thinks by Bunching Best Players Together He May Win Minto Cup.

Vancouver will only have one senior lacrosse team in the provincial professional championship series this coming season. The players have decreed it and though the executive of the Vancouver and Maple Leaf clubs at their recent meeting deemed it best for the national game that there be two teams representing the city in the league during the season of 1910, it is the playing element of the club which controls the situation.

Tuesday night at the National Sports club President Con Jones of the Vancouver Lacrosse club took the players into his confidence and had a pleasant little chat with them on the future of the game in this vicinity. The wisdom of putting two teams in the league from this city was debated at considerable length and the players expressed themselves as opposed to the suggestion. They considered that it would be farcical to put two Vancouver teams out during the com-

SOCCER LEAGUE OFFICIALS SHOW UNCOMMON ENERGY

Only Three Days Late in Notifying Bruce and Craig That Charges Are Laid Against Them.

The fast method in which the officials of the District Soccer league handle their business is shown by the reecipt of the following letter, dated January 29, here yesterday:

"Messrs. John Bruce and James Craig, Rovers Football Club, Westminster:

"Dear Sirs—You have been reported by Mr. John Savage, who refereed your league game with Westham Island on January 22, for hitting players of the visiting team.

"Our next league meeting is on Monday next, January 31, at eight p. m., in the National Sports club in this city, and your cause will be brought before it.

"In al. probability you will be asked to state your side of the question, so we hope you will endeavor to be present. Yours faithfully,

"T. E. DAVIES,

"Secretary Senior Division League."

How Mr. Davies expects Bruce and Craig to get back from Wednesday to Monday is not explained. In regard to the charge against Craig, the players say that Trimm, of the Westham Island team, had him on the ground and was choking him. When Craig got he naturally took a jab at Trimm, and it was only then that the referee noticed something. Craig has the reputation of being a clean player.

The charge against Bruce is probably the outcome of a scrap between that player and McCallum, who had been consistently kicking his shins throughout the game. The other players maintain that no blows were struck, and that McCallum was the aggressor in the quarrel.

Hyatt May Go to Boston.

ADVERTISE IN THE NEWS

TOWNS WITH TROUBLES.

London's trouble is her fog.

Tokyo's trouble is earthquakes. In her worst 200,000 residents were killed.

The mistral is the trouble of Marseilles, an east wind that increases the city's death rate 50 per cent.

Calcutta's trouble is cholera, and the bubonic plague is the trouble of Bombay. Each city pays to her trouble an annual tribute of 9,000 souls.

Bagdad's trouble is the "Bagdad button," a sore that attacks practically every resident and visitor, leaving a button shaped permanent scar.

Madrid's trouble is the solano, a summer wind from the southeast. It is exceedingly hot and is accompanied by blinding, choking clouds of dust, so that notwithstanding a temperature of 105 or 110 degrees all windows must be closed.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Science of Chemistry.

Chemistry did not become a science—in other words, chemistry proper did not exist—until the seventeenth century, and it was as late as the middle of the eighteenth century before it began to amount to much. The old alchemy undoubtedly contained the germs, or at least the possibilities, of the present day chemistry, but beyond this the relationship between the modern science and the ancient delusion is slight indeed. Still, it cannot be denied that it was in the foolish search for the "Philosopher's Stone" and the "Elixir of Life" that men first hit upon the discoveries which were destined to develop into the great science of to-day.—New York American.

The Sarcastic Cabby.

The London bobby is notorious for overgrown feet and hands. Likewise the London cabby is generally accredited with never being at a loss for a reply. One day a bobby lifted up his hand majestically to halt a cabby, but the latter crowded his horse ahead.

"Didn't you see me raise my 'and?" demanded the bobby.

"I did see the sky darken a moment, but my 'orse was shyin' at your feet," retorted the cabby as he whipped up and went on.—London Graphic.

Knew From Experience.

"I say," said a friend the other day, "you are an old hand at it. I have only just got married, and don't understand much about the business, but has a married man any rights left when he once assumes the hymeneal responsibilities?"

"Rights? Yes, lots! He's a right to pay all the bills, to"—

"Stop. I mean this. Let me give you an instance. Every box and drawer and portmanteau and, in fact, every available receptacle of every description is stuffed full of my wife's property and when I want to put away a few cuffs and collars"—

"Hold hard! I know what you mean. Listen, young man. If your bedroom were 200 yards long and lined from the floor to the ceiling with drawers and you wanted a place to stow away a couple of collars, you couldn't find a nook that wasn't full of hairpins, tufts of frisses, pads, scent boxes, old gloves, powder puffs, rings and things. So just accept the inevitable. Wrap your personal property in an old newspaper or some brown paper and hide the parcel under the bed."

The inquirer smiled loudly and ironically and passed on a wiser if not a better man.

Eskimo Throwing Sticks.

A "throwing stick," "throwing board" or "spear thrower," as it is sometimes called, is a contrivance for casting a javelin or harpoon, which is employed by various savage races, such as the Australians, some South American tribes and especially by the Eskimos, among whom its use is almost universal. Roughly speaking, it is a narrow grooved board a foot or so long, with one end cut into a handle and the other provided with a stud or spur for the butt of the spear to rest against. It is used thus: Grasping the handle as he would a sword, the man fits the shaft of the spear into the groove, with the butt resting against the stud, steadying the spear with the finger. Then, extending his arm and bending back his hand till the spear lies horizontal, he aims at the mark and propels the weapon by a quick forward jerk of the stick. In this way I have seen Eskimo boys casting their forked javelins at wounded waterfowl.

Downstairs and Up in Business.

"Downstairs for oysters? Not now. That day's gone by. People don't like to go downstairs for anything. They don't mind going upstairs, but object to the basements." So spoke an old timer. "Yet it is easily within the memory of a middle aged man when oyster cellars were numerous. There are only a few left. The same way with barber shops. Forty, or even thirty, years ago most of them were in basements. Even saloons were often downstairs, despite the obvious difficulty of throwing an obstreperous customer out. Nowadays it's upstairs for everything.—Philadelphia Record.

Champion Button Sewer.

The Philadelphia Record declares that Charles C. Reber, an employee in a shirt factory at Strausstown, Berks county, Pa., is an expert at sewing on buttons. He sewed on 4,200 buttons one day recently in five and one-half hours, which means 600 shirts, seven buttons to a shirt, or about fourtees buttons in a minute. At another time, not being aware of the fact that he was being timed, he sewed on seven buttons in twenty-five seconds. Mr. Reber claims he can fasten, on a wager, twenty-one buttons in a minute, seven buttons to a shirt.

STEAMBOAT DRAMA.

Floating Palaces That Furnish Entertainment For River Towns.

Anybody who lives in a town on the banks of the Mississippi river and hears a calliope play at 5 o'clock in the morning knows that it is not a circus that is coming to town. It is the floating palace, which is the name given to a unique form of theatrical transportation entertainment that is used only on the river and its tributaries, the Ohio and the Missouri.

There are at the present time more than a dozen floating palaces. Each of them carries a well equipped stage, a company of from sixteen to thirty-five actors and actresses, and has seating capacity for from 200 to 700 persons. Each of the boats has a steam piano with which the people from the countryside are called to the landings, where the shows are given on the boats, and most of the boats carry pretty fair bands.

Nowhere else in this country or abroad is the drama carried up and down rivers on steamboats. Barring the railroad, the favorite means of transportation in England and in continental Europe is the wagon. There are many wagon shows in this country, but they would find it difficult to reach all the towns that are easily reached by the floating palaces. Many of the towns that get all their dramatic sustenance from these floating playhouses have no railroad connections whatever. If it were not for the shows that float down or up to them by boat they would have to go without theatrical fare.

Mark Twain, who knows the big river about as well as anybody, used to be well acquainted with the old time managers of a few of the floating palaces. He introduces one of them into "Huckleberry Finn." But times change, and men change with them, and the floating palace of today is much more elaborate and much finer than were the floating palaces of the older time.

They play to thousands of persons each season, and they give pretty good shows. Their managers, who live in Cincinnati and St. Louis, make good profits on the investment.—Chicago Tribune.

HUMOR

AUNTIE'S MEMORY.

What She Knew About the Fall of the Roman Empire.

An old colored woman down in Alabama was reported to be of great age and was extremely proud of the distinction. The proprietor of a museum, on hearing of her, sent one of his agents to make an investigation, as she would be a valuable acquisition to his museum. The agent plied her with questions regarding her age. He asked her:

"Auntie, do you remember George Washington?"

"Does I remember George Washington? Laws a-massy, mister, I reckon I does, for I done nussed him when he was a chile."

"Well, I suppose you remember the Revolutionary war?"

"Yes, indeed I does, honey. I stood dar lots of times an' seen de bullets flyin' round thick as hailstones."

"Well, auntie, how about the fall of the Roman empire? Do you recollect anything about that?"

"De fact is, honey, I was pretty young about dat time, but I does 'member, now you speak ob it, dat I did hear de white folks tell 'bout hearing som'pin' drop 'bout dat time."—Harper's Weekly.

A LASTING REMEMBRANCE.

How soon we are forgotten,
Our memory put aside,
Although we have been mighty
And much puffed up with pride!
A gentleman from nowhere
Steps in our place to fill.
How soon we are forgotten—
Unless we owe a bill!

We go out west or somewhere
To grow up with the place,
And few will mourn our going,
And few will miss our face.
But an account unsettled
As a reminder stays;
The owner will recall us
Once every thirty days.

The ones that we have favored,
The ones that we have fed,
The fellows we have boosted,
Will count us with the dead
Or, if we still are living,
They languidly may guess.
The ones with money coming
Hang on to our address.

How soon we are forgotten
And on the scrap pile placed,
Our name no longer mentioned,
Our memory effaced;
Recalled at times by no one
Our prowess and our skill.
How soon we are forgotten
Unless we owe a bill.

SEEK POWER TO RUN RAILWAY LINE HERE

Legislature Asked to Grant Charter to Vancouver-Westminster Terminal Railway & Dock Co.

Victoria, Feb. 2.—The act to incorporate the Vancouver-Westminster Terminal Railway & Dock company was before the railway committee of the house this morning and consideration of the bill was adjourned till Feb. 10, at the request of the petitioners in order that they may have opportunity to present profiles of the route of their proposed main line and branch line railways.

The petitioners seek power to build a railway from a point on False creek to New Westminster. Authority is also asked to build branch lines from any point on the proposed lines not exceeding ten miles in length.

The private bills committee will next Monday take up consideration of the act to amend the Vancouver Incorporation act and the act to amend the False Creek Foreshore act.

In the former bill there is an interesting clause to the effect that "no person who heretofore erected or who shall erect any building upon any established or contemplated street in Vancouver without having previously secured the proper street grade from the city engineer shall have any claim for compensation if his property is injuriously affected by a subsequent alternation of the street grade. It is noted that the clause is retroactive in effect.

PLAN HOSPITAL FOR CURE OF JUVENILE CRIMINALS

New York, Feb. 2.—A plan to erect in this city a hospital in conjunction with the children's court, where child criminals may be examined and treated for mental and physical defects which are believed to be responsible for their criminal bent, is discussed in a court report which went to Mayor Gaynor today.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, it is said, has been deeply interested in the project and probably will be the largest, if not the sole, contributor. The cost of hospital will be more than $1,000,000.

The report handed to the mayor today says that one child in every seventy-five in New York under 16 years is arrested. Many of these children, it is said, could be cured by simple and inexpensive treatment. "And cure is cheaper than confinement," is the conclusion drawn.

LABOR LEADER WOULD ORGANIZE TEACHERS

Pittsburg, Feb. 2.—Where does the school marm belong—in the professional class, or to that of the wage-earners? This is the question attracting the trainers of youthful minds here. An attempt is being made to form a union for the teachers, but Emma Jane Williams, of the Pittsburg Teachers' association; Clara McMillan, vice-president fo the organization; Emma Hood, president of the North Side Teachers' association, and Mary Lang, of the executive committee of the latter organization, insist that they are in the professional class and therefore they should not be unionized.

Thomas H. Flynn, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, says that the teachers are wage-earners, and that a union is the only remedy for their troubles. Flynn says that he can convince them in course of time.

BACHELORS WRATHY AT PORTLAND PRESS

Columbia County's Single Men Declare They Are Sincere in Object.

Dayton, Wash., Feb. 2.—Attempts of Portland newspaper correspondents to cast the shadow of insincerity over the Blue Mountain Bachelor's club has brought down the unbridled wrath of that organization. President Ralph Hunt today denied every inference of an article sent out a few days ago from Portland purporting to give an interview with a former Dayton girl now living in the Rose City. He said:

"It is untrue that the club is a schoolboy organization. The youngest member is 23, the oldest 60. All are farmers, owning ranches near Dayton or interest in ranches; and any one of us is amply able to take care of a wife. If, as the fair informer of the Portland correspondent says, Dayton young ladies are forced to go elsewhere to make a living, they do so out of preference. In Dayton, as in other small towns, are many girls who prefer the city to the quiet life of a farmer's wife. Furthermore, the condition in Dayton is not representative of Columbus county, of which Dayton is a small part. In the Blue mountans, where the club was organized, there are six bachelors for every young woman. Members of the club are farmers—not Dayton boys."

Plans are now being made to form a National Bachelors' club and to place it on a fraternal basis.

A CIVILIAN HERO.

He Served His Country as Truly as Any Soldier In Battle.

At the close of the Franco-Prussian war a hasty conference was held by the German leaders to decide upon the amount of indemnity which should be exacted from France. Bismarck, differing from Von Moltke, telegraphed to Berlin for a financier in whom he had unbounded confidence. The man was a Hebrew and was for some reason disliked by the great Prussian general. When, therefore, he gave his opinion that the amount demanded should be so many thousand million francs Von Moltke exclaimed impatiently:

"Absurd! It is too much!"

"I know the resources of the French people," said the financier calmly. "They can pay it."

"It is a monstrous demand!" repeated Von Moltke angrily. "If a man had begun when the world was created to count he would not have reached that sum now."

"And that is the reason," interrupted Bismarck quickly, his eye twinkling, "that I got a man who counts—from Moses."

Von Moltke and the Hebrew tried to look grave, but both laughed, and the storm was averted.

The sequel to the anecdote has a deeper meaning. The financier, when he received the summons to the conference, was undergoing treatment for some affection of the eyes which required confinement to a dark chamber. His oculist warned him that if he obeyed the summons the exposure and delay in the treatment would almost inevitably result in loss of sight.

He was silent a moment and then said: "I think that I am needed. I have no right to consider my sight. I will go."

He went, and the results which the oculist had feared ensued. He became blind for life.

Von Moltke, when the story was told him, said briefly: "I wronged the man. He has served his country as truly as any soldier on the field."

BAD CROP YEARS.

When Birds and Animals Do Not Mate at the Mating Season.

"When birds and animals do not mate at the mating season, it is a sign that a bad year is coming," said a farmer.

"Quails, gophers, rabbits and squirrels all refuse to mate in certain years. These years afterward turn out to be bad ones. The quails are particularly weather wise. By instinct the little wild creatures know that for lack of rain or for some other reason there is to be a grass famine and a seed famine, and, instead of pairing off and mating and setting up housekeeping in little families of two, they remain unmated in the large bands in which they have flown all winter, living, as it were, a kind of apartment house life. That year inevitably turns out a bad one, though the bachelor and spinster quails, with a good deal of picking and scratching, manage to get enough to eat. But to feed families of little ones in such a famine year would be impossible.

"In California the squirrels in a famine year not only do not mate; they do not even live. They become dormant. As by a miracle, they remain dormant until a season of plenty comes with the next winter's rains."—Exchange.

For Her Welfare.

Mrs. Goodheart had made up her mind that most of the so called charity of the present day was not, strictly speaking, charity at all. Whoever gave, she had concluded, did so for the pleasant sensation of seeing his or her name figure on subscription lists, and she did not agree with this ostentation.

"Here, my good man," she said one day last week to a man who had begged alms of her, "here is a threepenny piece, and please to understand that I do not give this because I hope to be rewarded for my charity some day, but because it gives me pleasure to do so."

"Look 'ere, mum," he said. "In this 'ere wicked world we don't often get the chance to enjoy ourselves. Why not make it a shillin' an' 'ave a real good time?"—London Tit-Bits.

A Hole in the Roof.

Mrs. Anna D. Cornelewis, a handsome widow, is the owner of rental property in Rochester, Ind. When she rented the property to Perry Coplen for a term of years she failed to reserve the right of entrance through a hallway to her rooms upstairs for herself and son. When Mrs. Cornelewis returned home from a visit she and her son, without permission of Coplen, began to pass through the parlors of Coplen's rooms to reach the stairway. Coplen protested and later served notice on her not to trespass. He then padlocked the door of the stairway.

Widow Cornelewis' son is a carpenter, and he got a ladder to climb to the attic roof, where he opened a way through which the widow and her son have been making their exit and entrance.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

ing season, and they recognized themselves that while there are about twenty-six or twenty-eight players available for the two teams there would not be enough first-class men to make two strong twelves. One of the two teams consequently would be somewhat of a joke and would do more harm to the game than good.

A plan proposed by President Jones was received with much favor. It is to unite the entire playing strength of the city in one grand effort to bring the provincial championship and the Minto cup representing the world's championship, to Vancouver. All the players are to be signed up for the Vancouver club and only one team will be entered in the league. That will give the club over a score of capable players to choose from to oppose New Westminster. Then a sort of a city league will be formed in which the Vancouver team will play weekly games against the second team, which will be composed of the players who do not catch on with the first team. These games will provide the battleground on which the players will contest for places on the first team and will furnish a double purpose in developing players from the second team and keeping the men on the regular lineup in the pink.

The players are in earnest about going after the Minto cup, and when President Jones announced that he intended to take the team for a tour through Eastern Canada next fall in case they beat out New Westminster this coming season the announcement was received with wild applause. The team if successful in winning the British Columbia championship will go east right at the conclusion of the season. If Montreal separates New Westminster from the cup before then the trip will be after the world's championship trophy. If New Westminster retains the trophy against Montreal then Vancouver by beating the Royals will go on the tour as the cupholders themselves, but it will only be an exhibition jaunt.

There were about twenty players on the job last night when the roll was called, and the bunch included practicaly all of last year's team. The most notable absentee was Dave Gibbons, the goaltender. Dave has been flirting with New Westminster, and it may have only been his bashfulness that kept him away, but the other players did not seem to like it at all. Billy O'Brien who intends to try for a position as a defence player this year, and Ralph Ravey, the big utility man, were the other men not on hand. Among those present were Waldo Matheson, George Matheson, Ernie Murray, Bert Murray, "Toots" Clarkson, Bidy West, "Bones" Allen, Harry Griffith, Vernon Green, Jim McConaghy, Harry Godfrey, McKeown, Art Garvey, "Weldy" Clark and Spike Hennessy. — Vancouver Province.

Call at The Royal Cafe for lunch, dinner or after theatre supper. **

Two sawmill accidents occurred yesterday, one at the Fraser River Mills, where G. Tanakau, a Jap, had his arm drawn into one of the machines and had it so badly torn that it had to be amputated at the elbow, and one at the Pitt River mills, where Frank Crosby fell on a saw and received a deep cut, extending across his face from his left eye to his mouth. Both the men are at the Royal Columbian hospital and are progressing favorably.

Dr. J. D. Gamble, optician, is at 625 Columbia street, Room 13, every Friday.
