HEAVY DOCKET FOR CRIMINAL ASSIZES

Three Murder Cases to be Heard at Sitting Which Opens This Morning.

This is the first day of the Westminster assizes and Justice Clement will be faced with the heaviest docket that has been provided here for many years. Most of the cases are extremely serious and it is difficult to tell how long the sitting of the court will last.

Deputy Attorney-general McLean will be the prosecuting attorney. The following is the docket:

Rex vs. Wilcox brothers. The prisoners are charged with murdering Harry Garner at Devil's Run last January.

Rex vs. Kengo Ishimaru, a Jap charged with the murder of Nishiwaza, a fellow-countryman at White Rock. The victim received several stabs, each one sufficient to cause death.

Rex vs. August Charlie, an Indian, charged with the murder of Howard Wade last August. Charlie and Wade were working on Silver Creek, near Harrison Lake. Wade's burnt and decomposed body was found by some prospectors and Charlie had disappeared. The authorities searched for Charlie for several months and he was located and arersted a couple of months ago by Joe Cole.

Rex vs. Simon George, a Chilliwack Indian, charged with wounding another with intent to kill.

Rex vs. Ford, a Pitt Meadow farmer, charged with stabbing A. Le Lion with intent to do bodily harm.

Rex vs. Johnnie, a Chinaman, charged with writing a threatening letter to a young school girl at Pitt Meadows.

Rex vs. Dedul, of New Westminster, an arson case laid over from the last assize.

The case of Carty vs. the British Columbia Electric Railway, for damages arising out of the Lakeview wreck last November, will also come up for trial.

In this list there are no crimes charged against any of the citizens of New Westminster, and the police are congratulating themselves that during the year there has been but little violent crime in the city limits. Ford and Dedul are the only white men cited to appear. There are two Indians, one aJpanese, one Chinaman and three half-breeds.

OPERATOR DIES AFTER LINGERING FIVE DAYS

Watchman Injured at Burnaby Powerhouse on Thursday Died Last Night in Hospital.

Male, the operator who was injured at the British Columbia Electric Railway substation at Burnaby early on Thursday morning, died at the Royal Columbian hospital at half past ten last night. He has been lingering at the hospital ever since the accident, but it was thought that his life would be saved.

The late Mr. Male had not been in this country long, coming from England a few months ago. He leaves a wife and one small son. The family were living near the powerhouse in Burnaby.

The exact facts of the accident which resulted in the death of Mr. Male are not known. On Thursday morning people living near the powerhouse heard a tremendous explosion. The first man on the scene, a watchman, found the roof of the building in flames and Male lying unconscious in front of his machine. When the watchman entered Male revived sufficiently to instruct him how to shut off the power and to tell him to telephone for the doctor. Dr. Rothwell was summoned and after attending to the injured man had him removed to the hospital, where he has been since. His feet and arms were burnt and he had received a tremendous shock, which weakened his heart action.

Male could not give a clear account of the accident which resulted finally in his death. He had been taking some observations on the machine in front of him and evidently some part of his body or clothing had touched a live wire. The powerful current must have passed through his body and on into the ground. In the cement foundation at the back of the station there is a burnt hole where the current went through the hard concrete.

R. Male was the chief operator and was only on night duty temporarily in the absence of a man who was off on sick leave.

Many Come to Canada.

London, May 24.—During last April 23,278 emigrants left British ports for Canada, as against 11 475 a year ago. In the same months 20,784 sailed for the United States, this being probably the first time that the emigration to Canada has exceeded that to the States. For the first four months of the year 42,110 persons left these shores for Canada.

ANCIENTS OF CITY FIRE ANVIL BATTERY

Forty Fifth Annual Salute Yesterday Under Commander Peele's Direction.

The most ancient and honorable Hyack Anvil Battery fired its forty-fifth annual twenty-fourth of May salute at noon yesterday from the guns and ammunition supplied as usual by ex-Mayor Thomas Ovens.

There was a great crowd present after the first of the twenty-one shots had been fired. The ceremony had not been advertised and consequently many people were unaware that the great event was taking place until 12 noon, when the first report rang out and the anvil was shot into the air.

Every year since 1865 the late Queen Victoria's birthday has been celebrated in this manner by a few of the faithful patriots of the city. Yesterday's event proved quite a surprise to many Vancouver people, who came over to see the lacrosse match and remained spellbound when they saw the men with military precision pouring powder into a hole in an anvil.

After the full salute of twenty-one guns had been fired, Commander Peele called on the crew for three hearty cheers for His Majesty King George V., and the crew responded right royally.

The following is the roll call:

Commanding officer and swabber—Captain Peele.

Powder monkey and loader—Ex-Mayor Thomas Ovens.

Toucher-off—C. Pickles.

Blower-up—C. Donahoe.

Timekeeper—W. Mortimer.

Chalker-up—A. Adams.

Commercial Cable Company Has Not Joined Anglo-American Company.

New York, May 24.—Clarence H. Mackay today made the following statement in regard to the report in the London and evening papers that the Commercial Cable company had formed an alliance with its competitors, the Anglo-American Telegraph company. The Commercial Cable company never has had, and has not now, and does not intend to have any connection whatsoever with its competitors. All reports to the contrary are false.

YOUNGSTERS SING WAY TO HEARTS OF AUDIENCE

Juvenile Bostonians Give Appreciated Performance in Aid of Native Sons of British Columbia.

A large crowd of theatre-goers were pleased last night with the attraction put on at the opera house by the Juvenile Bostonians. "The Ransom" can hardly be called comic opera and it is certainly not grand opera, but it is a singfest all the same and those youngsters certainly could sing. It was the comparatively old songs that caught on best. "Whistle If You Want Me, Dear," "Silvery Moon," and others were repeatedly encored; in fact, the whole performance was a series of good songs, rendered two or three three times over to satisfy the noisily appreciative audience.

The performance was given under the auspices of Post No. 4 of the Native Sons of British Columbia.

KING ENDS MESSAGE TO HIS COLONIES

London, May 24.—On the occasion of the anniversary of Empire day King George has issued two gracious messages to the colonies and India, somewhat similar in style to the message which he addressed Sunday to the nation. In both he refers to his previous tours through the respective dominions, promises to follow in his father's footsteps, unhold constitutional government, safeguard the liberties of the colonial empire and devote himself to the well being of the Indian people. With reference to the rumors that it is the intention of the Queen Mother Alexandra in the future to live in Denmark, a court circular announces that Alexandra will always look upon England as her home.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DELEGATES AGITATE FOR COLORED MEN

Washington, May 24.—Massachusetts delegates to the world's sixth Sunday School Congress have been instructed to protest to the congress against the disbarment of negro delegates from the District of Columbia. The whole question of the color line, which has been kept off only through skilful management by the peaceful ones, now threatens to break loose on the last day. Two small meetings were held this morning and in the afternoon 6,000 delegates and other workers united in a mammoth meeting in the convention hall.

COLLISION ON LAKES SEND SEVENTEEN MEN TO D ATH

Steamer Goodyear Rammed by Steamer James B. Wood and Sunk in Forty Seven Fathoms of Water---O a Few of the Passengers Were Saved

Port Huron, May 24.—In a collision between two big steel ships on Lake Huron, north of Point Aux Barques, in a dense fog Monday morning, seventeen men are believed to have been drowned when the steamer Frank H. Goodyear, of Cleveland, was sunk in forty-seven fathoms of water.

The steamer James B. Wood, of Cleveland, which struck the Goodyear bow on, came into Port Huron harbor today with a big hole in her bow, carrying half a dozen survivors from the Goodyear. The latter carried a crew of twenty-three men and several passengers.

Capt. F. R. Hemenger, of Algoma, Mich., who commanded the Goodyear, Chief Engineer Steward David Bassett, one wheel man and two passengers, Mrs. Thomas H. Bassett and her daughter, of Marine City, Mich., were saved and brought to Port Huron on the steamer Wood.

The only hope of survival of the others who were on board the Goodyear lies in the possibility of their having been rescued by the steamer Sir William Siemens, which was near the scene of the wreck and is due at Detroit and Sault Ste. Marie later today.

The Goodyear was struck amidships on the starboard side, while both of the bows of the Wood were punctured.

In a moment it was seen that the Goodyear was doomed, as she began rapidly to fill with water. Every one on board was supplied with a life preserver and every effort was made to man and launch the small boats, but the water poured into the hold so fast that the heavy hatches were forced from their frames by the pressure from underneath and shot into the air in every direction. The falling hatches spread injury and death among the terrified crew and passengers of the sinking vessel.

With his infant child in his arms Steward Bassett almost reached safety in one of the lifeboats when one of the tumbling hatches snatched the baby from his arms. The infant fell in and was drowned, despite the frantic efforts of its father to recover it.

When the Goodyear settled beneath the surface of the water it was evident that she was practically broken in two, the action of the water having completed the destruction begun by the blow received in collision.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 24.—The steamer Seimens passed Detroit this morning and did not report any survivors of the wrecked steamer Goodyear. It is believed certain she would have reported had any survivors been aboard.

PROVISIONALS REPULSE REGULARS AT BLUEFIELDS

Government Troops Fail in Attempt to Dislodge Gen. Mena's Forces—Firing Kept Up All Night.

Bluefields, May 24.—The government troops began their attack on the position which the Provisionals had entrenched themselves last night, but they were repulsed and returned to the woods.

The artillery fire was kept all night until dawn this morning, when the attack was resumed.

BRYCE NOT ASKING TO BE RELIEVED

London, May 24.—A report that Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador at Washington, had asked to be relieved from duty at the American capital was denied today at the foreign office.

Swindler of Prince Sentenced.

Berlin, May 24.—Leslie Clerk, who was charged by Prince Francis Joseph of Braganza with complicity in a mining swindle, was today sentenced to two years' imprisonment. The prince claimed that he was induced to invest $100,000 in a mining venture under misrepresentation.

Comet Dropped a Meteorite.

Philadelphia, May 24.—Captain Anderson, of the Norwegian steamer Frica, which arrived here from Port Antonio, reports that on the night of May 18, when abreast of Cuba, he witnessed the fall of a large meteorite from the direction of Halley's comet, which was plainly visible at the time. Captain Anderson says he saw the shining mass fall into the water, and his story is corroborated by members of his crew who were on deck at the time.

MONTREALS SEEK GAME WITH WINNIPEG TEAM

Winnipeg, May 24.—A letter was received by the Free Press sporting editor the other day from the champion Montreals, who make the trip to Westminster in search of the Minto cup in July, asking if an exhibition game could be arranged with a Winnipeg team between July 1 and 10 on their way to the coast, or else on the return trip between the 25th and 30th of the month. Such a contest should help to put the grand old game on a better footing in the east if it were possible to arrange it. However, it would appear to be altogether out of the question for the Winnipeg teams are amateur, while the eastern cracks are professionals. It would be necessary to secure the sanction of the M.A.A.A. to play such a game, but that body could do lots of worse things than to allow such a game to take place. It would be in the interest of lacrosse for the local association to grant permission and it would also give Winnipegers a chance of witnessing the champions of the east in action. The Shamrocks have been asked to give the Montrealers a game and they will ask the permission of the amateur body before replying. There are several good lacrosse players in the city at present and an all-star combination could no doubt be chosen to give the champions a pretty fair argument.

TWENTY TWO LIVES LOST IN CHANNEL COLLISION

British Steamer Skerryvore and German Barque J. C. Vinnen Crash Together in English Waters.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, May 24.—Twenty-two persons were drowned as a result of a collision today between the steamer Skerryvore and the German barque J. C. Vinnen in the English Channel. The Skeryvore sank.

Only two of the steamer's crew were rescued, one of whom died a short time later.

Junior Lacrosse Yesterday.

As a curtain raiser to the big event of the day, the high school lads and the Westminster juniors played a lacrosse game at Queens park early yesterday afternoon, the Westminsters winning out by the healthy majority of 11 goals to 2. The slippery nature of the ground proved troublesome to most of the boys.

EAST END LADS TO MEET CENTRALS TONIGHT

The East End and Central junior lacrosse teams are to play a match postponed from Friday last at Queens park this evening, the face-off being at 7 o'clock. This is to be the East End lineup: W. Keary, goal; A. Whitaker, point; Day, coverpoint; D. Sinclair, Reid, Bob Whitaker, defence field; Laury Johnston, centre; Ted Eastman, Tip Sinclair, E. Mannering, home field; McKenzie, outside; Huff, inside. Tim Mahoney will referee.

Real Estate vs. Mortgages

Some of our shrewd clients are beginning to feel that outside property is now nearly as high as it is worth. They say that the old stock exchange axiom is good which says "Sell when everyone wants them; buy when no one wants them." They have figured out that they have done pretty well by real estate and are now buying mortgages. They say that seven to eight per cent. is good for such high class, gilt edged security—in fact there is no security better than a mortgage on improved real estate which has withstood all the scrutiny given morgages which passes through our hands. They feel that with such mortgages they can sleep pretty comfortably—no anxiety as to a possible drop in value.

If real estate has done well for you, or if you are for any reason looking for the greatest security in investment, it will pay you to see us and talk over the matter. Our knowledge is at your disposal without charge. Years of experience and study of financial matters of all kinds fit us to speak with some degree of authority.

AMERICAN PROMOTER LEAVES FOR MOUNTAINS

Minneapolis Man, now Prospecting for Minerals, Has Had Interesting Career.

Edmonton, May 24.—For the purpose of investigating certain mining claims on the west slope of the Rocky Mountains in which he became interested during his trip through that section of the country last summer, Stanley Washburn, a young prospector, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived in the city on Monday afternoon and left last evening by the G. T. P. for Wolfe Creek, where a pack train awaits him to accompany him to the scene of his summer's operations in the mountains. During his stay in the city Mr. Washburn was a guest at the Alberta.

Although, when interviewed by a Journal reporter he would say little as to his plans for the development of the mining claims in the mountains, to which he is turning his attention and energies, and in which he hopes eventually to interest extensive eastern American capital, Mr. Washburn is an intensely interesting conversationalist in the recounting of his adventures met with while he was engaged as correspondent for the Chicago Daily News during the Russo-Japanese war and other uprisings more or less serious which have occurred in the Far East during the past half decade.

The outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war found Mr. Washburn in Japan, whither he had gone shortly before the commencement of hostilities. He was engaged there as war correspondent for the Chicago Daily News and during the first four months of the war he had charge of a despatch boat. He was before Port Arthur with General Nogi's army during the siege of that fortress and when the Baltic fleet was expected to arrive on the scene to relieve the situation for the Russians, he was despatched down the coast to meet it. His hopes of adventure on this assignment, were frustrated, as the Baltic fleet never appeared.

He was in Bulgaria in 1905 when an outbreak of hostilities between the Bulgarians and the Turks was threatening, and when the Russian revolution was assuming its most alarming proportions he was engaged in journalistic work for the American papers in St. Petersburg. His profession as chronicler of international difficulties took him twice around the world within a period of three years, and of his adventures in connection with these various campaigns he has many an interesting tale to tell.

Of late years he has been engaged in an exploration of the mineral deposits on the west slope of the Rocky mountains, where he believes that a few years more will see rich mines opened up. The trip on which he is now embarking is the seventh which he has made into the far northwest since 1897. Last summer he went west from Lacombe and prospected the Brazean country and the district about the Yellowhead, and this season he will continue operations in that district.

ARROWROOT FOR CATTLE.

When Fodder Failed Biscuit Was Served to Animals.

New York, May 24.—After being towed for 800 miles by the steamship Anglian of the Furness-Leyland Line the Dominion liner Englishman has arrived safely at Queenstown, Ireland, with her shaft disabled. There were 450 head of cattle on board the liner, and when the fodder ran out it became a problem as to how the animals should be fed.

One of the men in charge of the cattle remembered that he had fed horses and cattle in Alaska on arrowroot when the fodder ran out during the long winter, and he suggested that some cases of cereals in the cargo in the hold should be broken and given to the cattle. This was done and the animals appeared to be quite content with their new food.

Homeseekers Representing $300,000.

Winnipeg, May 24.—A party of 300 homeseekers representing a capital of $300,000 arrived in the city this morning on their way to points west. They were brought on the G.T.P. special homeseekers train, which arrives in Winnipeg every Thursday morning. There were eleven cars on the train this morning. Three of these cars were occupied by a party of 109 homeseekers coming west under the auspices of the Luce Land Development company, St. Paul. They are on their way to Scott, thence to the Tramping Lake district, reputed to be one of the richest pieces of country in the west.

THE BRITISH NOBILITY.

The interest which has been aroused in the British House of Lords, and among the nobility generally, by the keen controversy which has arisen on the other side of the Atlantic in regard to its purpose and powers, makes apropos the following contribution by an esteemed subscriber to The News, which we print without comment:

"The discussion of the question of the British House of Lords, the future of which is just now in the balance, has made it apparent that some rather strange ideas in regard to the general position and character of this ancient institution and of the British nobility prevail in this part of the Dominion. It would seem indeed from what one hears upon this subject in various places where men do congregate that there is a good deal of misconception respecting the real character and conditions of the nobility and aristocracy of Great Britain. The reason for this would appear to be a confusion of ideas; a failure to differentiate and distinguish between the plutocracy and aristocracy.

"At once it may be said that these classes, these two social grades, are as clearly distinct in kind as the lion and tiger, which though both quadruped creatures of prey, and allied as members of the genus Felidae, have entirely different habits of life and notions of conduct. A plutocrat may, for instance, belong, or may not belong, to the highest social order, and if he does enjoy this privilege it is not because of his wealth, but by reason of the quality of his social attributes and, possibly, the circumstances of his birth. And, too, a plutocrat may become a noble by creation, but he does not necessarily then also become a member of the aristocracy, and before he can gain admission to this peculiarly exclusive circle he must prove his personal worth therefor. A circumstance of difference between the plutocracy and aristocracy, which may often be observed, is that whilst the former is necessarily a person of wealth, the latter is not infrequently poor in worldly means. Yet this circumstance makes no material difference to the social position or rank of the aristocrat, or in any way lessens the honors to which he may be entitled by merit of his birth and lineage. Thus it will be seen that whilst mere wealth is not, per se, the key which will open the door to the refined and exclusive circle of British society, poverty does not materially diminish the privileges and position of a member of the aristocracy, whether he be noble or commoner.

"Hence it comes about that the House of Lords, as a body, is not synonymous with the aristocracy of Great Britain. In fact, this select portion of the community is in no small measure composed of commoners, who enjoy their privilege and distinction by virtue of birth and breeding. It is the quality of birth, the flow of blue blood in their veins, and not the quantity of worldly means that endows a man or woman with that peculiar distinction which gives entree to the aristocracy.

"There is one aspect of the character of the true British aristocrat which is of peculiar significance. This is his sense of duty, first to his king and country, and then to his fellows. He is animated by a desire to direct and assist others, who by accident of birth occupy a less elevated plane in the social scale. He assumes a minor sovereignty, as it were, a spirit born of the dignity of over-lordship of feudal times, and this is generally done in so easy, elegant and kindly a manner that it very seldom attains the abhorred character of dictatorship. To this end every sprig of the aristocracy is trained from his birth upward. His character is first to some extent moulded and formed by a tutor, then he is sent to Eton, or Harrow, or Rugby, or some other of the great public schools, where he undergoes the plainest and severest discipline. Thence he is sent abroad, possibly accompanied again by a tutor, to travel abroad and gain an intimate personal knowledge of the world, and finally he enters the army or navy, or perhaps goes into parliament or enters the diplomatic service, or in some other way applies his qualities and talents to the service of his country. Thus the flower of the British aristocracy is being constantly renewed. There are of course exceptions to this as to every rule, and every born aristocrat is not a useful member of the community. But the quality of goodness and usefulness of this select class of society is, in the concrete, considerable, and to imagine Great Britain bereft of this section of its people is to me impossible."

SIR WILFRID WILL VISIT ISLAND POINTS

Ralph Smith, Home From Legislative Duties, Speaks of Premier's Tour.

Victoria, May 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith have returned to their home in Nanaimo from Ottawa, where the member for Nanaimo has spent a busy six months in the interests of this province.

In referring to the work of the session which, in Mr. Smith's opinion, was the most important in the last thirty-seven years, he said the naval bill was the greatest subject considered. Under this it is proposed to build the nucleus of a Canadian navy of eleven ships, four of which will be stationed on the Pacific coast. In connection with the naval program the government had passed a bill bonusing companies for building ships and dock yards, and at the present time there was at Ottawa a strong financial English company negotiating under the new act to build private ship yards both on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, the result of the whole expenditure being enormous development resulting in absolutely necessary naval protection to the country, to operate in conjunction with the Imperial navy.

Other important legislation of the session was the passing of a bill to investigate combines, a bill brought in by the minister of labor, Mr. Mackenzie King, the object of the bill being to protect the public wherever it felt that prices were unduly raised by combinations of capital. The insurance act which had been under consideration for two sessions, was also finally passed, being legislation of importance to the people of this country, as it brings insurance companies under more strict government regulations.

Mr. Smith is a member of the committee which is arranging the premier's western itinerary for the coming tour ,which will take up sixty days west of Lake Superior. It is Sir Wilfrid's intention to spend twelve days each in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, leaving twenty-four days for British Columbia. From Vancouver he will come here and after delivering an address in the capital, will board a special car on the E. & N., visit Duncan, Chemainus and Ladysmith and, arriving in Nanaimo, will deliver an address there, embarking from that port for Prince Rupert.

About 200 people, all that the Paystreak is allowed by law to carry, took in the trip to Chilliwack yesterday. The boat left here at 7 o'clock a. m. and returned about 10 o'clock at night. The dancing on board the boat was a feature enjoyed by the excursionists.

Double your enjoyments. It is the cheerful, harmonious atmosphere of the Royal Cafe that attracts guests quite as much as the excellence of the food and service. The artistic decorations of this beautiful cafe will soothe your nerves, raise your spirits and satisfy your appetite at one and the same time. Dine here tonight. There will be music from 6 to 8 and from 9 till 11:30. The Royal Cafe is open day and night. **

In spite of the fact that yesterday was a public holiday there was very little drunkenness in the city. Up to a late hour last night the police station was empty of enforced guests.

Look at my advertisement of today. It may be what you want. P. Peebles. **

ESTMINSTER HOME NEEDS A GENERAL

ithout wishing to cast any disparment on the splendid work of the who held down positions on the tminster home at the lacrosse ch against Vancouver yesterday noon, the fact remains that that of the team needs strengthening, so much in speed or ability as in ralship and head work. A player eeded on the Westminster home can be the pivot of every play, a who is always "there" when ed. Until such a man dons a red blue uniform the officials of the club will not feel happy.

for blood that boded ill. To avoid slaughter the referee tooted his little whistle and sent Spring to the fence for the rest of the game and for safe keeping.

Much unsolicited advice fell to Ditchburn over his handing a check to Spring and letting Howard go free. The man with the big say explained that he could not penalize Howard for something he intended doing; he could only warn him. In the meantime Doughey had his rest-of-the-game punishment.

Last Quarter.

Play lagged somewhat in the last twenty minutes of the game, there being a disposition to play "rag" when time was nearly up. Vancouver made a heroic effort to stave off defeat by scoring one more goal, but the Giffords and Buck Marshall declined to permit too frequent incursions into Westminster territory, and if by any chance some one did get through, Charlie Galbraith was there with the weight and ability to keep them out. But for the classy work of Sandy Gray and the aggressive defence of Galbraith things would have looked serious for the home team on occasions yesterday. Although neither of these two had been overtaxed at practice, years of experience stood them in good stead and they showed themselves a pair that would be hard to equal anywhere in goal-saving ability.

Pete Latham and Garvey ambled back to the field a few minutes before time was called, Latham signaling his return to the scene of activity by making a flank attack on the Vancouver goal. The result, however, did not come up to his expectations, owing to Gibbons' interference. Adamson almost scored against Westminster—almost.

Billy Turnbull put the motive power behind some long passes intended to bring trouble to Con and company, but they didn't; they only worried for the time being.

For the last couple of minutes of the game the play lagged, the boys commencing to feel the effect of the hard going on the soft ground. Vancouver had no chance to score during the final five minutes.

Cheer, Boys, Cheer.

When the gong sounded anouncing the cessation of hosttilities four thousand throats cheered the winners lustily. The first league game of the season had been played and won by the home team, but it had been a victory worth while, over opponents of mettle and grit.

RESOLUTION CALLING FOR PROHIBITION TURNED DOWN

Edmonton, May 24.—The annual meeting of the Edmonton district of the Methodist church, which was convened on Friday in McDougall Methodist church, with Rev. Dr. Riddell, chairman of the district, in the chair, and which concluded its sessions last night, went on record as opposed to the provincial prohibition agitation maintaining that the campaign to extend local option is a pregnable policy to pursue at this time.

A resolution was presented to the meeting advising the petitioning of the provincial government for the enactment of a prohibition measure, but the resolution was voted down, the representatives of the various churches of the district contending that the most advisable course at present was to continue the local option campaign, which has been approved both by the district and the Alberta conference.

BRITISH FLEET TO SAIL ROUND THE WORLD

Fighting Sea Machines Will Cruise From Home Station to the Colonies.

London, May 24.—Britain is preparing to send the greatest fleet of warships ever assembled to her colonies in southern and far eastern water. They will also travel up the Pacific coast to Vancouver and Victoria.

The armada will consist of fully 200 battleships, amored cruisers, gunboats, torpedo boats and destroyers. It is said that the primary object of the cruise is to give the British colonies the spirit of imperialism.

Although plans for the tour had been under discussion at the admiralty office for several months, it was not until May 4 that a decision was reached to despatch the fleet on its cruise. The subject has since been kept a secret.

The fleet will first go to Gibraltar, then to the new South African federation, India and Australia. Several Chinese ports will be visited by subdivisions of the armada, which will then reassemble, visit Japan and head across the Pacific to San Francisco and then sail northward.

The cruise will take place in 1911.

VETERAN OF 67 WEDS HIS BROTHER'S WIDOW

Cincinnati, May 24.—The marriage of William Leichtle, 67 years old, veteran of the Civil war and of several Indian campaigns, and Mrs. Mary Mueller, 65, both of Cincinnati, reveals a love story which goes back to the sixties.

Mrs. Mueller, then 18, married Leichtle's brother Alexander, while William was fighting in the Civil war. He missed a second chance because he was chasing redskins in 1877, when his brother died. The widow married again, and when Leichtle came home from the wild west he found she was Mrs. Michael Mueller.

Mueller died in 1895, but William Leichtle was roaming again, some say with South American insurgents. But he finally heard the news and came back to court his old love.

Mrs. Leichtle has two married daughters.

ROBBED OF THOUSANDS IN WOLF BOUNTIES

Ontario Badly Mulcted by Westerners —Northwest Mounted Police Round Up Old Offender.

Toronto, May 24.—During the year 1909, according to the public accounts, the province paid $18,135 in wolf bounties. Of this amount $315 was paid to Arthur McDougall.

A month ago Superintenden J. E. Rogers of the Provincial Police received a letter from the constable at Blind river, stating that he had read in the newspapers of the wolf bounty frauds recently perpetrated and that the Winnipeg fur firm of Moses Finklestein & Benjamin Levison had been committed for trial for supplying coyote skins for this fradulent purpose. He reported that an agent of this firm, Arthur McDougall, had recently made application from Blind river for bounties on six wolves alleged to have been killed by him.

Inquiry at the Treasury Department in the parliament buildings showed that McDougall had drawn $360 under affidavit last month on a most improbable allegation. A warrant was issued for his arrest and provincial constables tracked him to Port Arthur, whence he had decamped to Winnipeg.

The co-operation of the Northwest Mounted Police was secured with the result that McDougall was apprehended by them near Calgary. Inspector William Greer went west, secured his man from the federal force and brought him back to Blind river, where, on Saturday, he was convicted before Police Magistrate Brodie on charges of perjury and fraud and sentenced to six months on both.

The treasury department is satisfied that during the past ten years the province has been defrauded of tens of thousands of dollars in wolf bounties. The frauds, it is believed, have been engineered by several syndicates of Jewish furriers operating throughout the west. These syndicates purchase coyote skins for $4 each and ship them to agents in Ontario who collect bounties upon them.

Twenty convictions have been registered so far this year and the names of several of the men convicted recur on the public accounts of former years. As a result the Ontario act is being amended by a clause defining more rigidly the bona fides of the claimant and permitting the payment of the bounty only upon the slaying of the genuine grey wolf.

THOUGHT SALE WAS RIGHT.

Hungarian Girl's Statement in Windsor White Slave Case.

Windsor, May 24.—The "white slave" case, in which eighteen-year-old Felippa Radobanich and Stephen Lipyar are principals, came up in the police court this morning, but owing to the inability of any of the parties to understand English intelligently it was adjourned until tomorrow, when Hungarian interpreters will be present. The girl today freely admitted she believed herself the wife of Lipyar, beause "had he not paid her uncle $67 for her?" She consented to leave her uncle's house in Detroit and accompany Lipyar to Windsor after she had been promised a pair of new shoes. The police were unable to locate M. Jagewich, the uncle of the girl, who sold her to Lipyar.

WARNING TO CANADA.

Should Prevent Resources Falling Into Hands of U. S. Monopolies.

Toronto, May 24.—Hon. Clifford Sifton, speaking tonight at a meeting in the interests of the conservation resources, said Canada's position had greatly altered in a few years. Formerly the demand was for population and capital; now both were flowing in and Canadians should be careful lest her resources fell into the hands of United States monopolies, which appreciated the value of the resources and would use all energy and business capacity to acquire them.

The meeting was held in the university convocation hall. It was not so well attended as was expected. E. T. Blackstock, K. C., declared that the lack of interest shown indicated that public feeling was at a low ebb.

DIPLOMATIC CONTROVERSY.

Russia and Great Britain Engaged in Serious Dispute With Germany.

Berlin, May 24.—A serious diplomatic controversy is in progress between the German government on one side and Great Britain and Russia on the other regarding the open door in Persia.

Germany firmly protests against the joint warning of the other two powers to Persia not to grant railway concessions to the Germans. This warning was delivered some weeks ago, and the dispute arose much as did the difference between Germany and France in Morocco.

MANUEL WAS MARKED.

King of Portugal Was Tracked to England by Anarchists.

London, May 24.—That a desperate plot to assassinate King Manuel of Portugal during King Edward's funeral was frustrated by Scotland Yard was admitted tonight.

It develops that in addition to guarding all the gathered monarchs against well known anarchists, the British police, alarmed, placed an extra corps of police over King Manuel, fearing a repetition of the Lisbon tragedy in 1908, when Manuel's father and brother were shot to death.

That their fears were well grounded was shown by the fact that members of the same band which killed Manuel's father followed Manuel into London, where they were immediately placed under arrest.

DAINTY WASH FABRICS

They are the prettiest we have ever had—exquisite in design and coloring—charming flower-strewn effects and smart conventional patterns.

Qualities are excellent—they will bear the test of hard service, and bear it well. Yet, withal, prices are modest in the extreme.

Materials for a complete spring outfit of pretty, washable wear-things can be chosen from these selections with ease and economy.

Sheer and heavier textures, dark and delicate colorings are amply represented. Frocks for the children to wear at play or in school, dresses for the woman to wear about her daily tasks, dainty afternoon gowns, separate waists and the hundred and one washable garments for which warm weather brings such urgent need can be fashioned from them.

You are especially invited to inspect the new muslins, summer suitings, cotton shantungs and mercerized fabrics.
