CENTRAL PRISON TO BE BUILT IN BURNABY

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT TO REORGANIZE JAIL SYSTEM OF BRITISH COLUMBIA—200 ACRES OF LAND SECURED.

Victoria, March 20.—The first intimation that the provincial government contemplates a comprehensive reorganization of the prison system of British Columbia was given out last night, by a call for tenders for the clearing of a prison farm site at Burnaby and the building of jail quarters.

Two hundred acres of land have been secured for prison purposes.

The jail will be made self-supporting by the operation of a prison farm.

It is the intention to make this jail the headquarters of all prisoners sentenced in British Columbia, the jails at Victoria, Nanaimo, New Westminster and Nelson being abandoned as soon as possible.

The plans for the building have been drawn by Hugh Hodson, architect, of Vancouver. These provide for a model institution, allowing the utmost freedom compatible with the necessary supervision of the unfortunates.

The establishment of this large central prison has been rendered necessary by the constant overcrowding of the four provincial jails at present in use.

Work on the building of the new institution will start this summer.

Cricket Match Today.

The Westminster Cricket club will put the following team on the field this afternoon when the opening match of the season will be played between that club and the eleven representing the B. C. E. R. C. C., of Vancouver: Rev. G. C. d'Easum (captain), Judd, Rose, Jones, Bartlett, Richardson, Lashmar, Thompson, Birks, S. Thompson and Sherriff. Ellis, Webber and Senior will act as reserves. Play starts at 2:30 on Moody square.

Strike Date Secret.

Glasgow, Scotland, May 19.—At a largely attended meeting of seamen today Secretary French, of the local seamen's and firemen's union, stated that a date for a general strike at all ports had been fixed, but that the union officials had decided to keep the date secret until the eve of the day the strike is to become effective.

Wrecked on African Coast.

Portland, Me., May 19—The barkentine Kingdom, of the Holy Ghost and Us sect, has been stranded off Sangomar on the west coast of Africa and probably will be a total wreck, according to information received here from the National Board of Marine Underwriters in New York.

TAFT DOES NOT FAVOR CHANGES IN RECIPROCITY

No Matter Who Suggests Amendments or Alterations, President Says "Nay."

Washington, May 19.—President Taft is opposed to amendments to the reciprocity agreement no matter who is the sponsor. It became known today that the president looks with disfavor on the proposed amendments of Senators Root and Lodge, two of his personal friends and close advisers. Mr. Taft believes the agreement should go through congress as it was introduced. He will make his first fight along that line, no matter what the Republican leaders attempt to do.

James D. Boyle, instructor in economics and political economy in the University of North Dakota, is an advocate of reciprocity. He told the senate committee that the price of wheat was fixed in the world markets, not in those of this country; that the farmer would gain under the agreement and that a high Canadian tariff wall is likely to be raised against this country if the bill is not passed.

As long as the United States had a surplus of wheat, he said, the tariff can have little effect, if any, upon its price. Differences in prices of wheat in Canada and this country, he claimed, have not been due to the tariff.

FIRE IN VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, May 20.—(2 a.m.)—The shipping shed of the E. H. Heaps Lumber company was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

Laurier Arrives.

London, May 20—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, arrived in Liverpool yesterday afternoon. He declined to be interviewed on political questions. The railway company placed the saloon car of the royal train at his disposal, the distinguished visitor's quarters being decked with flowers.

A FAT RACE.

Fat Man Offers Fat Prize for Fat Men's Race at Kiddies' Sports.

Fired with the enthusiasm of youth after seeing the children run races at Queens park yesterday afternoon, A. E. Kellington decided to add to the gaiety of nations and the enjoyment of May Day by fathering a fat man's race, out of compliment to himself.

The speed struggle was to be confined to members of the committee weighing over 200 pounds. Gowan Macgowan tried hard to make the weight, but failed by 102 pounds. He therefore gave W. N. (Bill) Carty power of attorney to do the Mercury stunt in his stead. W. N. (Bill) Carty can get even with 238 pounds on a scale any time and was therefore qualified. He ran in the race. So did J. J. Cambridge. So did J. J. Johnston. W. N. (Bill) Carty gave up. Cambridge fell down, literally, figuratively and bang on the ground, denting the Dominion of Canada shamefully. J. J. J. came back to the starting point after a while and was hailed victor and winner of a $5 pair of shoes, to be purchased at W. E. Sinclair's.

J. J. Johnston's weight is exactly 3296 ounces. He travelled 3600 inches in 82 7-8 seconds, by a stopped watch.

WELL KNOWN VICTORIANS ARE PLACED UNDER ARREST

Disappearance of Goods from Naval Stores at Esquimalt Lands Four Men in Trouble.

Victoria, May 19.—At the instance of the British admiralty four well known Victorians were arrested yesterday afternoon, all charged as being implicated in connection with naval stores which disappeared from Esquimalt under suspicious circumstances. Charles J. V. Spratt, president of the Victoria Machinery Depot, and William Houston, superintendent of the same concern, are charged with unlawfully retaining in their possession certain public stores the property of the admiralty, consisting of seven drums of paint of the value of $15, which had been stolen. Oliver Richards, foreman of the machinery depot, is charged with receiving in October last a quantity of paint and rubber valued at $200, knowing the same to have been stolen, and John Day, who for many years past has run a saloon in Esquimalt, is charged with being in possession unlawfully of naval stores, including candles and paint, valued at $425. Bail was allowed in $2000 in each case.

The arrests are a sequel to a seizure of the naval stores a few weeks ago by the customs officials.

New Real Estate Firm.

Two native sons, Messrs. McBride and Clarke, have opened up premises in suite 16 of the Collister block, McKenzie street, in the real estate and fire insurance business, and if the first few days transactions are any criterion, then this firm are going to be kept busily engaged for some time to come. Mr. Clarke has had a lengthy experience in the fire insurance business and his advice on matters appertaining to this branch of professional work will be welcomed by those who may have dealings under this head. Fifteen years constant exchange of opinions with men in the business have made Mr. Clarke conversant with all the moves on the board. As an expert fire underwriter, Clarke has gone through all grades until he reached the top rung of the ladder in Vancouver. His partner, Mr. McBride, with eight years of law practice, conveyancing and notary public work behind him should help form a combination which will be all for the good of the clients which are already becoming affiliated with this young firm. The Westminster agency for the Niagara Fire Insurance company has been secured by Messrs. McBride and Clarke and though only in the field a few days, a number of policies under this company have been written.

BASEBALL TODAY.

Alerts Play First Home Game of Season, Against Balmorals.

The third game in the Westminster Baseball league will be played at Sapperton this afternoon when the Balmorals will be the guests of the Alerts, last year's champions. The proceedings are elated to commence at three o'clock. The Bals will probably send Lewis to the slab for a starter, Galloway being behind the bat. The Alerts' battery is a deep secret.

Several days ago it was rumored around the city that the first ball would be pitched by Miss Helen Borham, of "The Barrier" company, but at the last minute the married players on the two teams called the deal off.

GRAND JURY MAKES CUSTOMARY REPORT

ASSIZE COURT JUDGE RECEIVES DOCUMENT, BUT IS NOT IMPRESSED WITH ITS POSSIBILITIES—SEEK MORE PAY.

Mr. Justice Clement yesterday morning received the yearly presentment as compiled by the grand jury at the spring assizes. His lordship had told this jury when charging them on the opening day of the assizes that their day of usefulness, so far as presenting a report of this nature is concerned, was over and the inspection which was annually made to the various institutions had outlived its time. His lordship, after hearing the lengthy document read by Registrar Cambridge, thanked the gentlemen of the jury for what they had done and spoke on several matters which he suggested might be carried into effect.

Individual Work Needed.

The principal thing to do, he said, with this report is to see that not only does it get into the hands of the proper authorities, but what was of more importance was to see that the contents were read. In the Dominion and provincial capitals, the receipt of such documents was, he might say, almost a daily occurrene and the result was that these were pigeonholed. Each member of the jury must keep hammering away at their members in each house and not remain satisfied until the remedies suggested were carried into effect.

With regard to what he had heard in the report regarding the moving picture shows, he would see that a copy of the presentment was forwarded to the city council which had authority over such places of amusement.

A Dirty Docket.

The present was a dirty docket, one of the dirtiest he had ever sat upon. He was pleased to tell his auditors that the calendar was made up for the most part by people of races other than British. It was unfortunate that these criminals had to come here, but when they did come, the judges of the British king had to mete out British justice.

The grand jury was discharged after being thanked for their services by the court.

The Presentment.

Following is the document prepared by the jury:

New Westminster, B. C., May 19th., 1911.

To the Honourable Mr. Justice Clement:

May it please your Lordship, we, the members of this Grand Jury, bearing in mind your charge to us, and agreeing with your Lordship, that the duties of a Grand Jury are largely of a perfunctory nature, but yet believing that as Grand Jurors we have certain public duties to perform, which have been a long established custom, and the members of this Grand Jury, being unwilling to establish a precedent, by departing from these ancient customs, have visited the several public Institutions of this city, and beg to submit our presentment as follows:

The Provincial Jail.

This institution we found very clean and orderly, which we consider is remarkable for such very old buildings as this institution consists of, but as we were led to believe that plans are already out for new buildings, the inconveniences and lack of accommodation complained of will no doubt be entirely remedied. We regret to note, that owing to the lack of facilities, the mixing of young prisoners with the older and more hardened criminals, will not tend to the advancement of these comparatively young men, on completion of their sentences.

This institution is most capably governed.

The City Lockup.

Grand Jurors in the past have spoken very unfavorably of this institu-

WINDSOR HOTEL HAS EARLY MORNING FIRE

Careless Guest Sets Fire to Bedding—Blazing Pillows Tossed Outside—Slight Damage Done.

Owing to the carelessness of some roomers in the Windsor hotel at an early hour this morning, some bedding was set alight and but for the prompt appearance of the fire auto from No. 1 engine house and a wagon from the hall on Eighth street, serious loss might have resulted.

Fire Chief Watson had the burning pillows and mattress removed to the street and with a plentiful supply of water the flames and smoke were quenched.

The majority of the guests in the hotel were asleep and the scene when the fire fighters rattled up the stairs to the first floor caused a junior but quickly subdued panic.

MAY DAY FETE IS HUGELY ENJOYED

BOYS AND GIRLS REVEL ONCE AGAIN IN GLORIES OF OLD TIME FESTIVAL — WEATHER MAN KIND TO KIDDIES.

The twice postponed and oft discussed May Day celebration of 1911 is now a thing of the past, the fates and the weather man having been sufficiently lenient yesterday to permit the kiddies having the one big time of their little lives. From the minute the procession started on Columbia street shortly after one o'clock until late at night when the adults in charge insisted it was time for the bairns to return to their respective homes, Young Westminster enjoyed every tick of the clock.

The Parade.

The procession attracted much attention as it passed along the business section of the city, the different features of the parade being carried out according to program, although there was a limit to the number of autos placed at the disposal of the youngsters, and also a smaller force of Boy Scouts and Young Soldiers than would have been the case had the festival been held as originally intended.

The royal party rode in a gaily decorated hack, their majesties being escorted by a guard of honor, drawn from the stalwarts of the Boys' Brigade. Shetland ponies, ridden by little boys and girls, added considerably to the importance of the parade, which was ably marshaled by Fire Chief J. H. Watson and led by the veteran Captain Peele in full uniform.

Kaleidoscopical Queens Park.

The open air court of Retiring Queen Mary Keary, the scene of the crowning of the queen elect, Miss Kathleen Welsh, was a blaze of color, the bright uniforms of the boy soldiers forming a striking contrast to the sombre garments of the adult males, while between these two extreme all the hues of the rainbow were interpreted in the costumes of the ladies, little and grown-up. The bleachers at the south end of the field were crammed with a mass of humanity, the majority on the sunny side of life.

Long Live the Queen.

The crowning of the queen for 1911 passed off with eclat, the ceremony being accompanied with the usual speeches, the two queens and the master of ceremonies, Alderman J. J. Johnston, all giving expression to the great joy they felt in being called upon to play so important a part in the day's festivities. The adorning of Queen Kathleen's brow with the floral diadem was accompanied with suitable music.

After a series of drills and evolutions by the young lads in uniform, the ribbons adorning the Maypole were unfurled and the streamers placed in the hands of little children, who executed a march around the royal group, seated on the throne at the foot of the pole. The circular procession, while interesting in a way, could be greatly improved upon with a little training of the children. The "dance," as at present interpreted on May Days, is a dance in name only, and can be called pretty only by courtesy.

But if the kiddies act with due decorum and restraint while circling the Maypole, they give free rein to their animal natures a few minutes later when the candies and oranges are being distributed in one of the buildings. The boys and girls stormed the doors yesterday afternoon in a manner that made pictures of the Heights of Dargai seem tame. True, the candies and nuts and oranges had all been packed into the same paper bag, and in many cases the boiled sugar had melted and got mixed up with the fruit, but what of that?

FRANCE'S ACTION HAS SUPPORT OF RUSSIA

Germany Informed in Plain Language that Bear Will Growl if Ally Is Annoyed.

Paris, May 19.—As a reply to the German threats that France must limit her operations in Morocco to the protection of her citizens, it is semi-officially announced that Russia has informed Germany in a friendly but formal manner that she approves the French policy in that country, and is prepared to fulfil her duty as an ally.

The Europeans who are believed to be in Fez consist of eleven French, three Algierians, thirty officers of the French military mission, fourteen English, one Swiss, nine Germans, twelve Italians, six Spaniards, one American and thirteen Algerian Jews.

There are fourteen white women and twelve children, eight of whom belong to an Italian colonel, who is the commander of the ammunition factory.

Parliament Adjourns.

Ottawa, May 20—After hearing Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, deputy governor general, give his assent to the supply bill for $34,000,000, and a number of other measures, the house adjourned at ten o'clock last night. Replying to R. L. Borden, Hon. W. S. Fielding said reciprocity would be discussed again on July 18.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

First Shoot of Season to Be Held Today—Officers Elected Yesterday.

The annual meeting of the Westminster Civilian Rifle association was held yesterday evening in the armouries, J. H. Vidal occupying the chair. The officers for the season were elected as follows: J. D. Taylor, M. P., honorary president; J. H. Vidal, captain; A. F. Menzies, secretary-treasurer. These, with V. H. C. Abbott and J. C. Chamberlin, form the executive.

The first shoot will take place today at the Brownsville range, but it is not expected that any records will be smashed, as the targets require to be fixed up. Another shoot will be held on May 24. The officers of the association are on the lookout for two or three boys to act as markers and are willing to pay the youths "enough to make it worth while to keep away from the lacrosse match." The stipulation is made, however, that the kids must not be rabid fans, as the bottom of the treasury is visible to the naked eye.

MR. AND MRS. MILLEN DECLARED "NOT GUILTY"

Remarkable Scene in Court Room When Jury Returns Verdict Freeing Accused.

Amid a wild outburst of cheering and handclapping which the court officials were unable to still, the jury sitting on the Rex vs. Millen case brought in a verdict of "not guilty" yesterday morning.

Officials shouted "silence," "be quiet, please, "sit down," but all fell on deaf ears and a general rush was made from the public section of the spring assizes court room so that those who had listened to two day's evidence in a complexing case might give further vent to their feelings.

This case, which was one instituted by the crown against Francis and Margaret Millen, alleging that they had attempted to blackmail their brother-in-law, James B. Wilson, of Sixth avenue, by demanding the sum of $50,000, had created a deal of excitement in the city where the parties were well known, especially Wilson, who, in the real estate line of business, had made a number of big deals.

After having been out overnight, the jury filed back to their seats and listened attentively while Mr. Justice Clement charged them on the different points of the law involved in cases of blackmail. His lordship pointed out that the name of J. B. Wilson had been brought into the case by the defence in connection with an alleged offence which this man Wilson was supposed to have committed on Margaret Millen. It would be well that the jury cast this from their minds as it had absolutely nothing to do with the case which they had reviewed for the past two days. The case had, in his opinion, been conducted in a fair manner by Magistrate Edmonds in the lower courts and that official had seen fit to dismiss the charge preferred against Wilson. It was not for them to say whether that decision arrived at was right or wrong. The fact remained that that case did not form any part of this present charge, which dealt with the husband and wife now in the dock having attempted to extort from Wilson a sum of money which they were alleged by the prosecution to claim should be given to them for the wrong done to Margaret Millen.

After an absence of two hours the foreman stated that all the jury were of the one accord that the prisoners were not guilty of the charges preferred against them.

The jury was thanked by the court for their attendance and discharged.

RECORD CATTLE PRICE.

First Prize Guernsey at Canadian Exposition Brings $3200.

Philadelphia, May 19.—What are declared to be world's records for Guernsey cattle were obtained today at a sale on the farm of Frederick Phillips, at Villanova. Mortimer F. Plant, of New London, Conn., paid $3200 for Billy's France of the Hogue, a three-year-old bull, that was awarded first prize at the Canadian exposition last year. The same bidder paid $2600 for a choice of one of nine cows and selected Billy's Frances Lady Gazelle, a four-year-old cow, bred by Yves Lanoe, of the Isle of Guernsey.

Seventy-eight animals were sold for a total of $37,275, which is also said to be a world's record for cattle of this strain. Guernsey fanciers from all sections of the country were present.

COUNSEL QUESTIONS COURT JURISDICTION

JUSTICE CLEMENT DOES NOT AGREE WITH STUART HENDERSON ON POINT RAISED IN TRIAL OF FRANK FLORENCE.

During the hearing of the case Rex vs. Frank Florence, an Indian, at the spring assizes yesterday, a strange point of law jurisprudence was raised by counsel for the defence, Stuart Henderson, of North Bend.

Florence had stabbed a member of his tribe during a squabble and had been sent from the lower courts to stand his trial before a judge and jury in this city. After evidence for the prosecution, conducted by W. Norman Bole, K.C., had been given by John Smith, the assaulted man, Mr. Henderson called W. D. McCrae, the land agent, to show that the Boston Bar reserve at North Bend, where the crime was committed, was not in the county of Westminster, and consequently, counsel maintained, it was not within the jurisdiction of a court held in this county to try the case.

Supreme Court Has Jurisdiction.

Mr. Justice Clement referred to section 577 of the Criminal Code and by this he interpreted the meaning that where a prisoner is in custody, it was within the jurisdiction of the court to try such a case. His lordship also stated that this was the supreme court of British Columbia and as such had jurisdiction over the entire province. He further was of the opinion that if there had been any objection to the manner in which it came about that the prisoner was in this city, that question should have been raised at the preliminary hearing. There surely had been plenty of time to protest before this time, this eleventh hour.

Mr. Henderson said he had had no opportunity nor chance to make such an application.

Mr. Justice Clements replied that counsel had apparently forgotten the Habeas Corpus clause which was applicable in cases such as this.

Mr. Bole, whilst agreeing with his lordship that it was within the jurisdiction of the court to try the case, said he was perfectly willing to produce evidence to prove that this city was within the boundary.

Justice Clement said the whole matter was irrelevant and desired that the time of the court should not be taken up in this manner. He refused to listen further to counsel.

Mr. Henderson applied for an appeal against his lordship's ruling.

This was ordered to stand over until the rising of the court.

After the case had been heard, the jury charged and brought in with a verdict of guilty on one of the counts, prisoner's counsel again mentioned the application.

After stating that he would reserve sentence on prisoner until the close of the assizes, his lordship said that he would take further time to consider what counsel for the defence had said and on Monday morning he would speak on the matter.

Mr. Henderson remarked that he would like to appeal the case. The judge said that could be done, but counsel had better wait until he had thought out the whole circumstances.

History of the Case.

The case itself can be summed up in a brief manner. The chief witness for the crown, John Smith, swore that not once during the day upon which he was assaulted had he tasted any drink, but others in the stand averred that he had been drunk at the time. Counsel Henderson, speaking to the jury, said that his client had been in prison since last November and urged this in mitigation of the verdict which the twelve men would bring in.

Charging the jury, Mr. Justice Clement spoke strongly against what prisoner's counsel had said with regard to Smith's stay in prison. This was a remark which never should have been made by counsel and he regretted that such a statement had fallen from learned counsel's lips. The question of what time prisoner had spent in prison was one for him to take into account if he saw fit. All the jury had to do was to decide whether or not Florence had committed the crime with which he was charged. After an absence of practically an hour a verdict of guilty on one of the counts was returned and sentence deferred until the close of the assizes.

The court rose until Monday morning at eleven o'clock.

HARDWARE MEN AGAIN MEET ON SOCCER FIELD

The return match between the football teams connected with Trapp's and Cunningham's stores will be played this afternoon. On the occasion of the last match the Cunningham lot won handily, but from rumors which will not be downed, the losers swear that things will take a different turn today. Trapp's bold sweatered soccerites will be: Stevens, goal; Rae and Hislop, backs; Burden, Eadie and T. Trapp, halves; Series and Sharpe, right; Burr, centre; F. Trapp and McPhadden, left.

Cunningham's champions will take the field in the following order: Saint, goal; Swanson and Ball, backs; Main, Symington and Robertson, halves; Davis and Crawford, right; Follis, centre; Wright and Dawe, left.

FREAK JEWELRY.

Thumb Rings, Magpie Chains and Ankle Bracelets the Rage.

Paris, May 18.—Thumb rings, magpie chains and ankle bracelets are in favor in Paris at present. An actress started the thumb ring fashion. She wore one of a design so wide that it reached nearly to the nail, and the emeralds which composed it matched her green gown and hair ornaments. After that theatrical first night the jewelers received orders for thumb rings of unique designs, and there are many to be seen now.

Serpents set with rubbies or emeralds are popular for ankle bracelets, and those of plain gold with jeweled eyes are also fashionable. The short tight dresses make ankle ornaments a necessity, it is declared and when the gowns are long the lower hems are of lace or chiffon, so the anklets can be seen and appreciated.

The black and white combination which is fashionable in introducing itself into such accessories as the long neck chains or chains for lorgnettes, which are now made of black and white beads of satin and wood or of round particles of gun metal and porcelain. These are known as the magpie chains, and with them are used black and white bead handbags and parasols with black and white striped handles.

AIMED AT TRADES UNIONISM.

French Railway Workers at Meeting Denounce Companies.

Paris, May 18.—The railway employes at a meeting in the Labor Exchange this evening, in favor of the reinstatement of their fellow-workers who were dismissed after the recent railway strike on account of having taken part in the disorders, adopted a resolution declaring that the companies, by these dismissals, aimed to destroy the trades union organization. The resolutions expressed the hope that the government would take steps to compel the companies to submit the decision to parliament.

Similar meetings were held in many towns throughout France, but no disorders are reported.

CHILD MANNEQUINS.

New Scheme of a Paris Dressmaking Firm.

Paris, May 18.—Just as several of the leading Paris dressmakers have decided to abandon the practice of sending mannequins to race meetings to show off their latest creations, one firm has revived it in a new form by sending two little girls to Longchamps dressed in the latest styles for children. The two little maidens, neither apparently over six, walked up and down before the grandstands hand in hand, evidently enjoying the attention they attracted and quite eclipsing the few of their grown-up colleagues who were trying to show off the latest modes for adults.

Miners Leave for Property British Pacific Coal Co.

Work Will Be Rushed for Early Shipment of Coal

The Superintendent and the Miners are on their way to the Property of The British Pacific Coal Company, Limited.

Long before the distant reader of this paper receives this information, a report will be flashed over the wire to the office of the Trustee, that the party has arrived safely and are at work on the property.

The British Pacific Coal Company, Limited, will be first in the field on Graham Island this year.

This corporation intends to develop—it is not a holding or speculative proposition.

There is nothing to wait for; no railways to be built or expense of trams to be installed, all of which are more or less problematic as regards the interior of Graham Island.

The property of The British Pacific Coal Company, Limited, fronts on salt water—30 fathoms of it at the shore.

The property fronts on Skidegate Inlet, one of the finest harbors on the Pacific Coast.

Skidegate Inlet is on Graham Inlet, 80 miles distant from Prince Rupert.

On Skidegate Inlet two cities in embryo, Graham City and Queen Charlotte City.

In a very short while the shores of this Island locked harbor will be as active as the shores of Burrard Inlet.

The coal mines of the British Pacific Coal Company, Limited, will surely employ 100 miners.

It is not necessary to drill the property, but prove it up.

It is therefore out of the prospect class.

Engineer Alexander Faulds, who carefully examined the property and reported upon the same in his statement, said:

There are 36,000,000 tons of coal in one seam and there are six seams in the property.

This entirely eliminates the element of chance or gamble.

Just think of it, 8320 acres of coal land, one of the largest bodies of coal land embraced within the holdings of one corporation and 36,000,000 tons of coal in one seam represents $22.50 at the back of every dollar you invest in the property.

This is indeed an enormous profit but is identical with the history and the experience of the operators of coal mines on Vancouver Island and in the Crow's Nest Pass country.

A word of warning:

T. R. Morrow, the Trustee, has offered a limited block of shares in the British Pacific Coal Company, Limited, at 35c a share.

This block is almost all taken up.

Remember that this stock can be secured now for 10 cents per share cash, balance in three monthly payments.

Call at the office of T. R. Morrow, Trustee, for full details. Don't delay.

Remember, the New Westminster office of T. R. Morrow, Trustee, is located at 421 Columbia St., New Westminster, B. C., and is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. (Travers' Real Estate Office)

TAYLOR AND LOOT.

The Saskatoon Phoenix comments on the fact that the responsible newspapers of both parties all over Canada, turned down very hard the charges made by McGillicuddy.

In part the Phoenix says:

"The Calgary News-Telegram, with which its former incarnation, Mr. Dan McGillicuddy was connected says:

"Mr. Oliver must not expect to bluff it off with cuss words. He must dig up and show down. If he's a man it won't hurt him. If he is a grafter, the experience will do him good.

"The public wants to know where the money came from. And for Sir Wilfrid's information, we would like to remark that unless Mr. Oliver tells and proves that he is telling the truth, the government will promptly lose Alberta."

If the government loses Alberta as a consequence of the pipe dream which Dan McGillicuddy unloaded through the medium of the Toronto Telegram, we should say, let it go! But Alberta is not so little as to take stock in the charges of an irresponsible and chagrined old backnumber who was turned down very hard by responsible newspapers of both parties all over Canada before he found a sewer in Toronto willing to convey his stuff to the public.

"The minister of the interior has been one of the most upright and hardworking ministers Canada has had. He had. He has done a great deal for the west, and for Alebtra in particular. So we say if it is a choice between him and dan McGillicuddy it is not hard to guess which Alberta will choose."

It is indeed time that the respectable as well as responsible papers, refused to comment, while the case was sub judice, but not so J. D. Taylor, M. P. and editor of the Columbian, he simply gloried in the charges and added his quota on the floor of the house.

Graft and loot has always been the keynote of J. D. Taylor's articles, but what can be worse, than to allow employees in his own office to go and strike off names from the voters' list, then scoop the advertising, at so much per line (the more names struck off by his faithful servants, the more "pap" to the Columbian), and at an aggregate of several thousand dollars, and then to cap the climax, to print in his own offices the voters' lists; we wonder what his colleagues would think of him at Ottawa. Purity Taylor, indeed; we should say the biggest looter of the lot.

We would tremble for our country: we would tremble for the nation, if men like J. D. Taylor ever got into power. In our city of New Westminster, we have seen quite enough of graft, in advertising pap, to pay a substantial salary to the member, let alone keep a "rag" going to insult ministers and others conducting the business of the nation.

We have sat too quiet, and let the vile insinuating attacks, that J. D. Taylor from time to time has made on his political opponents, that it is quite time to show up the manner of man, he is himself, and how if ever his party got into power, and men of his stamp held office, it surely would be a case of "Heaven help Canada."

McGillicuddy-Reeks is not a double-barreled name of Dan McGillicuddy, of Calgary, but the name of a range of mountains in Ireland.

HARVEY—RASHLEIGH.

A pretty though quiet wedding was celebrated at Holy Trinity cathedral on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Frances Mary Harvey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey, was united in marriage to Mr. Donald Sadlier Rashleigh, youngest son of Paymaster and Chief G. V. Rashleigh, R.N., and Mrs. Rashleigh, Portsmouth, England. The Rev. Canon d'Easum officiated. The youthful bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in her simple though beautifully cut wedding gown of soft ivory satin trimmed with silver beaded net, wearing a bridal veil over a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried an exquisite bouquet of white bride's roses. Her only ornaments were the bridegroom's gift, a diamond emerald ring and a very handsome pearl and olivine necklace, the gift of the bridegroom's mother. The bridemaids were Miss Beatrice Annandale, who wore a dainty frock of pale lavender silk and Miss Frew, of Seattle, in a handsome gown of pink satin. They both wore large white picture hats with floral trimmings. The ushers were Mr. Wilton Harvey, brother of the bride, and Mr. Shannon, while the groom was supported by Mr. Dean, of Vancouver. After the service a reception was held at "The Glen," the residence of the bride's parents, which was attended by the relatives and most intimate friends. Mrs. Harvey received the guests at the door and was most becomingly gowned in mauve crepe de chine, with hat to match. Mrs. Winterbourne, sister of the bride, a most charming frock of pink satin with a large white hat and black plumes, and Mrs. Walter Brown assisted, wearing her handsome wedding gown of white satin with a large black lace hat. The young couple were the recipients of very handsome presents, among the number being several large cheques from the groom's relatives in England. They left on the Great Northern 4:30 train for California and expect to travel for several weeks. The bride's going away gown was a smart tailor made tan suit with Irish crochet lace collar and cuffs and a large tuscan straw hat with pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Rashleigh will reside in Vancouver.

ECZEMA CURE A BEAUTY WASH.

Although D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for years as the one remedy for Eczema, Psoriasis, and all other forms of skin diseases, it is now known that there is no other wash, even those used by the beauty specialists, that can compare with this mild liquid for cleansing the skin of pimples, blackheads, rash and all similar skin affections.

For this reason alone, a bottle of D. D. D. should be kept on hand in every household. A free trial bottle will show you the merits of this great remedy as a complexion wash.

D. D. D. seems to remove the cause, what ever the trouble may be, cleansing the skin, and leaving it as soft, as smooth and clear as that of a healthy child.

May Day Fete Is Greatly Enjoyed

Candy is candy, and shape matters little to a tot of three or four.

After the distribution of the goodies the children trooped back to the oval, where sports occupied their attention for the remainder of the afternoon.

There was one feature of the May Day celebration that was missing yesterday, greatly to the chagrin of the children. The famous foolish Hayseed band was not on the scene, a difference of opinion as to the value of the services of the bandsmen having prevented their appearance. In past years this fun making aggregation provided all kinds of merriment for old and young, and its absence at this year's festival was a matter of general regret.

The annual ball was largely attended in the evening, the March Past being led by Miss Welsh and Master of Ceremonies Johnston. The children had the floor until ten o'clock, after which their elders took possession and waltzed until the dawn commenced to break.

COMMENTS WEEKLY REVIEW OF SPORT CRITICISMS

CONCERTED ACTION IS LIFE OF CANADIAN NATIONAL SPORT

Combination Work Overshadows Brilliant Individualism in Lacrosse—Rumors of Impending Battles and Bloodshed on Field of Sport This Season Deplored—Len Stevens Again in Spotlight.

BY ROBERT A. WILSON

SO much is happening and has happened in the local sporting world this week that I am beginning to really feel that I am in the midst of live sports. To one who has daily been brought into contact with sportsmen in practically every branch of sport, that one must be pardoned for feeling as I have done for the past two or three months, like a fish out of water. And just as a side whisper let me state that I have lately become aware of the fact that by some unknown reason I have become quite a big person in the opinions of some Westminster people, and wonderment has been expressed as to why I am in this part of the world. I prefer for many reasons to ask some of those nosey "buddies" to mind their own business and to all those making such enquiries in the future, I would recommend them to Tommy Burns.

AND talking of sport, hasn't this been a busy week? Bet your life. What with the assizes, the city council and school trustees meetings as well as the final of the billiard championship, the Len Stevens investigations of this morning, the lacrosse match (?) this afternoon, the boxing bouts at Sumas on the American side of the line tonight and the bartenders union outing to Derby tomorrow, ere tomorrow evening comes to a close a strenuous week will have been lived by this writer. I love to hustle and bustle and although this may be living one's life at a break-neck speed, give it to me every time. Vim for muh!

LET'S start at the beginning and as it were, work down in chronological order. Because I have been waiting somewhat eagerly for the lacrosse match meeting of this afternoon, I must perforce hike back to the game of last Saturday, the first of its kind I had ever witnessed. Whilst there are those who aver that that game was to a large extent a joke and that Westminster did not try, I must confess that the play gave me more than an insight into what the game really was, and whilst I never throw around or distribute bouquets, I want to go on record as a lacrosse fan. There were some who looked for blood and broken limbs at last week's try-out and doubtless these relic hunters will turn up at the second game this afternoon at Recreation park, Vancouver, when the Maples and Con's bunch meet in battle array. For this class of sportsman (?) who only seems to remember who mangled so and so and how Whatshisname was torn limb from tree by Whoisit, I have no use, and the presence of this group do no game any good. I have seen sterling good boxing bouts in which science was displayed from the first to the last bell and yet found those who, because there were no casualities, termed the goes tame. I have always failed to see the arguments adduced by this species of half-baked idiot and have at the same moment wondered why it is that some men cannot witness a branch of sport without wishing for something to happen which would put someone out of business, or that someone would start a rough house. Let's play the game all the time, but let's play it squarely and fairly.

BECAUSE Johnny Howard has joined the ranks of the Salmons, is not in my opinion, any reason why he should be rendered a cripple by the stickhandlers from the Terminal city, yet this statement is in certain classes, an open secret. What is to happen to Newsy Lalonde has all been planned out and whilst I have not seen the charts and sketches of what part of the field the affrays are to be enacted, the geeks who come out flat-footed with this gratuitously, take it as a surprise that I, for one, will not believe these fables. The latter word is the correct one, as I do not for a moment give the stories any credence. Westminster did not gain her high honors in the lacrosse world by underhand play or dishonest tactics, but by a display which proved that the members comprising the team were sportsmen in the truest acceptance of that elastic word. Surely no one at this late stage of the game and when the opposition this season promises to be extra strong should suggest that Manager Welsh's boys will lower themselves in the good opinions which followers of the game have held for so long. And identically the same remarks apply to the twelve players who made up the personnel of the Vancouver team. Jones personally, the club directors and more importance than all these, the game itself, has too much to lose by lacrosse being played in anything but a fair manner.

NOW it is recognized since the word "amateur" was dropped by the association that all are out for the dollars, and who can blame the players, no matter whether they come from Timbuctoo or Ladner, from getting all they think their services are worth. I have not been long in this province, but that has not hindered me from gathering information affecting the case in all its phases. I have become heartily sick listening to men in this city talking of the decadence of lacrosse now that the home-brew question has been shelved by the introduction of players from the outside. Take the playing list for some time and you will find that the teams which won the championship for years contained the names of men—all sportsmen of the best type—who were born very many miles from the Royal city. I will grant that Westminster in the years gone by did a wonderful deal of good by training her youths in the stickhandling game and she is deserving of all the honors which are coming to her on that score, but forget all about this home-brew dope.

I WANT to make it plain that in this matter I am speaking strongly and I have reasons for so doing. The opinions expressed are not given to me by any one on the inside but are thoughts which have been hovering in a wee brain cell for some weeks. I have no strings to pull and no official of either club has strings on me. To some people it is known that I favor the chances of Westminster team in the league championship and why I have backed them for a matter of twenty bones against Vancouver and that with Tommy Burns, is simple, and can be told in a few words.

COMBINATION is generally conceded to win out and when it is remembered that with few exceptions Welsh will put practically the same team on the field this year as did service in the past, surely it is plain that the players knowing the moves and methods of their fellows, must be the better enabled to make headway to home and by that combination nullify the tactics of players who have not played but in practice with each other. Of course, I may be all at sea when the competitions are over, but combination has been found in the past to win over ragged play, and so it will this season. When I say "ragged" play I do not wish to infer that individually the men play thus. From what I am told by those who have seen all the imports, the players represent the candy kid class and are, therefore, opponents to be respected, but they are new to each other and cannot yet be expected to show that finesse in the general play that comes of long association with players on the same team. I have seen not once, but many scores of times in the old country, examples of this very thing. Football players have been bought by clubs away down on the league table with a view of stemming the tide and making the club's position safe for the following year. You would expect that when a club coughs up $5000 for a transferred player that he must be a mighty good man, eh? Yes, so he was in the ranks he had been used to playing in. In new company—and it is my strong point—I have seen these same men, famous in the soccer game turn out dismal failures and what the directors of some of the clubs which had procured these stars, said when the games he was expected to save, but didn't, would not be fit to set to hymnal tunes. The whole thing is combination. All else being equal and in the players of Westminster and Vancouver, I think we have this, combination must win out. By the time these notes appear next Saturday, the first league match of the season will be a matter of record. I would, therefore, at this time, ask all concerned, players, and fans to go to the matches and enter into the spirit of the game with that love for good, genuine clean sport which has made the British nation what it is today and what it will remain for all time—top dog.

TODAY'S game I do not take very much heed of. The Maples made a dismal showing last Saturday against our team, and whilst I for one was perhaps the strongest advocate for their admittance to the B. C. L. A. on the general principle of enlarging the association and thus fostering and helping the national game, I fail to see on their form where they stand a one, two, three chance. Con's bunch will be foolish if they do not score as many goals as they possibly can. This will give us an idea of how good, or rather how poor, the Norths are. Vancouver would be well advised to play at top speed in each quarter. The only chance I can see for the Maples is to put up a good game and at the meeting to be held afterwards when the admittance question comes up, to ask for honorary membership for this tion, there has been no improvement since the last presentment.

The Royal Columbian Hospital.

This institution, like the Provincial Goal, is suffering from lack of conveniences and accommodation. This main building is as clean and sanitary as old buildings can possibly be. Plans have already been accepted for a new building, but the operations seem to be slow in maturing. Prompt action for this work to be carried out is premptory. As the work of this institution covers a very large district, and it is sadly cramped for money to properly maintain this very necessary institution, we would strongly recommend to the Provincial government a largely increased grant.

Public Hospital for the Insane.

This institution is a credit to this growing city and the province, it is scrupulously clean, and in perfect order. The visit made to this institution by our Grand Jury was more of a pleasure than a duty. The Medical Superintendent C. E. Doherty, M. D., and his assistant J. G. McKay, M. D., spared no pains in showing us every detail of the work, and the manner in which this institution is governed.

This institution is to be congratulated on its medical superintendent.

It was also our privilege of visiting the Colony Farm at Coquitlam, and we were surprised at the amount of work already done on this farm of about one thousand acres. We were pleased to learn that when the improvements contemplated are carried out, this portion of the hospital for the insane will be self-supporting.

Your Grand Jury call attention to the fact that in their opinion legislative safeguards should be provided for the purpose of securing the safety of the public in case of fire by egress from moving picture shows and other like entertainments, and also providing for the necessary ventilation and sanitary conditions of such places, and if such enactments are on the statutes, either provincial or civic, they should be rigidly enforced.

Your Grand Jury are strongly of the opinion, that with the increased cost of living, expenses have also proportionally increased, so that the remuneration which has been paid to jurors and witnesses for many years past is entirely inadequate. We trust this will be remedied.

Your Grand Jury note with regret the increase of crime in the adjoining city of Vancouver, and it is with pleasure we congratulate your Lordship on the comparatively small criminal docket now before this assizes.

We have the honor to remain,
(Signed). R. K. CHAPMAN,
Foreman.

The C. P. R. have stated publicly that all their engines will use oil for fuel. Their boats are already doing so. Within five years every engine on every railroad and every steamer throughout the world will be running on oil fuel. This is an acknowledged fact.

Last year's consumption of oil was 340,600,000 BARRELS. In 1915 you will have to multiply this 100 times.

The big oil corporations, Standard, Imperial, American Petroleum, Reed Crude, United Petroleum, Union Oil, etc., etc., have all made their fortunes out of oil selling at from 40c. to 52. per barrel.

Weekly Review of Sport

their first season. By this method, exhibition games could be arranged with the champions and the near-champions and by the time 1912 rolls round, a team will have been gathered together which would do credit to the all too limited ranks of the B. C. association. At this time their admission would not be for the good of the game and doubtless the delegates at tonights conference will see the whole matter in the same light as this writer.

AFTER many days! Thursday evening saw the commercial billiard championship brought to a close, with the real estate team winners of the handsome gold medals presented by John B. Gray. During the luncheon hour yesterday I went on the hunt for the respective members of the winning team but failed to connect with any cheap wine, not that they would not stand treat but simply that they could not be found in their usual haunts. I will expect from each medal winner, free phiz on the night of the banquet which is to be held in honor of the donor of the gold plate and the winners, as the suggestion to present medals originated in the marvellous and all-too small cranium of mine. It wasn't because I thought the newspaper boys would win that I suggested to Mr. Gray that he withdraw the cup and hang up medals, but I hold that a cup by even amateur sportsmen is never looked upon as the property of any one man and there is a happiness in having dangling to your watch chain or fob a souvenir which you can always look upon and hand down to your heirs, or p'raps your uncle if you are in a tight corner. Right through the tournament just concluded, there has been true sportsman like feelings displayed and everyone feels that a hearty shake of the hand is coming to Bert Fletcher and his able henchman Scotty Grant, for the manner in which they have so ably engineered this, the first league championship in the city. More power to their respective elbows!

LEN STEVENS or Stephens, who was in the spotlight some little time ago as having competed in the amateur ranks when he had boxed as a professional in the old country will have the time of his life in the course of a few days when the officials of the B. C. A. A. U. meet to discuss this case. I have been asked to meet the members of this body early this morning in Vancouver, and then we shall see what we shall see.

TONIGHT a series of professional boxing contests are down for decision at the I. O. G. T. hall, Sumas, Wash., and from the look of the program, things are going to buzz some, believe me. "Two-round" Thompson, of this city, and Grover Crooks, Sumas, are matched to settle an argument over the six rounds route, and a nifty bout is expected. I have been invited to referee this go. Thompson has in the past shown that as a mitt performer, he can be depended upon to hold his end up whilst his opponent has proved in good company that he is a boxer of merit. The program is a lengthy one and should be well worth patronizing. As the curtain does not rise until nine o'clock, those travelling from this city can leave on the six o'clock B. C. E. R. car and get to the little town over the border in time. It is to be hoped that those behind the affair will conduct matters from start to finish in a manner which will leave no doubts in the minds of the lovers of true sport that all is fair and above board. Personally I look for the O. K. mark on the bill of fare.
