EIGHT HOUR DAY GOES INTO FORCE

Civic Employers Will in Future Quit Work Earlier—Improvements Discussed.

The meeting of the city council called for yesterday afternoon to consider the mayor's address on the occasion of the first meeting, resulted in the adoption of almost all the things which he proposed.

The famous auditor's report again came up and this time the council seemed to be inclined to tackle it. It was decided to discuss it at a special meeting to be called by Mayor Lee for the purpose. The meeting will probably not be until the week after next and perhaps later.

More Work for Engineer

After considerable discussion it was decided to make the city engineer responsible for proper carrying out of all work undertaken by the waterworks department or the board of works. It was held that the engineer had enough to do, but the majority were of the opinion that only by the general supervision of the city engineer could thoroughness and uniformity in all matters of improvement be obtained.

The council proved unanimous in agreeing with the mayor's suggestion that a storehouse be built for the city supplies and that a storekeeper be appointed. They also approved of the plan of removing the board of works stable from Tipperary and finding another site for it.

Sewerage Systems

The engineer was instructed to prepare plans for sewerage systems in the West End and in Sapperton. The council thought it well to be prepared to increase the sewerage system of the city, althought it is improbable that a great deal of the work will be done in the current year.

The mayor's harbor scheme was given another push to the front when it was decided by the council to invite Engineer Powell, of Seattle, to come here and discuss with the council a general scheme for the improvement of the harbor along comprehensive lines.

Eight Hour Day Carries.

Without a dissentient voice it was decided to adopt the eight hour day in all civic departments where it is not already in force, as soon as possible.

The improvement of the parks came in for some consideration, and although the council did not know what sum of money would be available for expenditure on this work, it was decided, if possible, to make considerable improvement to them during the course of the year.

The city solicitor will be requested to prepare a bylaw governing the conduct of pool and billiard parlors in the city.

As a convenience to persons interested in the proceedings of the council as well as to the aldermen themselves it was decided to post on the bulletin board in the corridor of the city hall, notice of all matters of importance at least twenty-four hours before the matters are to come up for discussion in the council.

Matters Held Over.

One or two of the changes mentioned in the "address from the throne" were laid over for further consideration. The question of the removal of the tax from improvements was considered too serious a matter to be decided at once and the question of raising the board of aldermen from seven to nine was laid over also. When this comes up again Mayor Lee expects to have some information regarding government by board of control or by commission and he will report to the council.

Aside from the discussion of the mayor's address there was little business done. The labor men brought up a proposition to exempt householders from paying the road tax, but this scheme was laid over until a later date.

The street car service on the city lines again came in for some criticism and it was decided to endeavor to arrange for a conference between the B. C. E. R. officials and the city council to see if some agreement as to an improvement in the service could not be reached.

The next meeting of the council will be held on Wednesday night, as Mayor Lee will be absent in Victoria on Monday.

Wealthy Lumberman Suicides.

Calgary Mulcted.

Calgary, Jan. 21.—The city council of Calgary yesterday lost a case brought against it by W. Davis, a contractor who alleged wrongful dismissal. Judgment was given for the plaintiff, damages being assessed at the high figure of $116,000.

THIRD DEGREE.

Organized Labor Would Abolish the Police Sweating System.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 20.—Organized labor in the various states is called upon to exert its influence to secure legislation forbidding the alleged use by police authorities of the "third degree" to secure confessions from prisoners, in a letter sent out from the national headquarters of the American Federation of Labor at Washington and which has been received by the trades council of this city.

The letter, which is signed by Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, describes the practices as having no warrant for its existence, "except the brute power of barbarism derived therefrom," and declares that "its practices on the part of the police is unsurpation that must be stopped."

New Orleans Gets Exposition.

Washington, Jan. 20.—By a vote of nine to six New Orleans was selected today by the house committee on expositions as the site for the Panama canal exposition in 1915. The bill giving recognition to New Orleans was referred to a sub-committee of the committee for slight changes. It is expected that the appropriation item will be eliminated.

GREAT SPORTING EVENT TO BE WATCHED BY "LOIS"

Miss Lillian Goldsmith Will Figure in Big Newspapermen-"Stubborn Cinderella" Bowling Match.

Precisely as the clocks of the city ring out the hour of four, and the bells of all the ships in harbor announce that it is, in the parlance of the sea, eight bells, the sporting event of the year will begin.

The event is a great and glorious bowling match between the newspaper bowling team of the city of Westminster and an aggregation of bowlers travelling with the "Stubborn Cinderella" company, and representing New York and other unimportant and deserted mud flats in the effete east. It has long been known to all the world and his wife that New Westminster is the home of championships of various kinds, and it is the hope and intention, freely expressed by the long-haired geniuses who spin words on paper for a living, to add one more layer on the lustre of the city's coat of arms, by bringing home in triumph the bowling championship of the North American continent.

The gentlemen who will on this occasion throw a ball for home and country are: Signors Turner, Best, Sutherland, Fraser and Levy.

Like unto a tourney of old will be this clash of arms between the knights of the pen and the knights of the road, and like some ancient joust it will be presided over by a Queen of Song in the person of Miss Lillian Goldsmith (whose beauteous countenance greets the reader from page seven), and who will watch the foul line with eagle eye and call the strikes and spares with equal impartiality for her friends travelling and stationary.

Witnesses of the game, as many as may be accommodated in the Front street establishment, wherein the war will be waged, will be permitted to enter and view the battle without money and without price, a suggestion that they be charged ten kopeks for this privilege having been outvoted in the interests of publicity; but said witnesses are hereby solemnly warned that rude and unpropitious remarks, unsolicited advice, and other extraneous contributions to the proceedings will be the signal for the instant ejectment of the offenders, without benefit of clergy.

Miss Goldsmith is not to be merely ornamental; she is to be a public benefactor. Kind hearted Manager Goettler has written out two double passes for the show this evening, and has passed them on to Miss Goldsmith to pass them on to whoever asks for them. The lady may be approached at the bowling alley, on the street, anywhere. The first person to ask her for the passes gets them.

NEW ZEALAND CONTRIBUTES TO STEAMSHIP SUBSIDY

Prime Minister Sir Joseph Ward Announces Amount Will Be $100,000 Per Year.

Wellington, N. Z., Jan. 20.—In a statement issued today, Sir Joseph Ward, prime minister, said that New Zealand's subsidy to steamship service between Vancouver, Auckland and Sydney, would be $100,000 per year.

He further said he hoped that after a conference between the premiers of Canada and Australia a solution satisfactory to Australia in tariff and trade affairs would be brought about.

Prince Rupert Police.

Prince Rupert, Jan. 20.—Charges against the police of graft and connivance at illegal practices are being investigated by the board of police commissioners here.

STEEL COMPANY BORROWS MILLIONS

Western Steel Corporation Will Use English Money For Plant on Fraser River

Seattle, Jan. 20.—A ten million dollar loan on the properties of the Western Steel corporation, one million of which is to be paid over here on February 1, and the balance to become available as needed, were the arrangements made yesterday by James A. Moore with London capitalists.

The consummation of the deal will be made by Mr. Moore as soon as he reaches London, for which place he sailed yesterday.

The money is to be used in increasing the plant at Irondale and for building an auxiliary steel plant in British Columbia, a site for the latter plant, according to reports, having already been secured on the Fraser river, a short distance below Westminster.

It is stated today, however, that the plans and location of the Canadian plant will not be revealed until the return of Mr. Moore from London.

INVITE THE KING TO VISIT CANADA

Toronto, Jan. 20.—A large deputation will wait upon Sir James Whitney tomorrow to urge that the hundredth anniversary of the battle of Queenstown Heights be marked by the erection of a monument in stone and bronze near the parliament buildings as a lasting memorial to Brock, Tecumseh, Macdonnell and the other leaders and soldiers who fell in the war of 1812.

The Empire Club of Toronto today unanimously endorsed the action of the Centenary Celebration Association in petitioning the Canadian parliament to invite King George to visit Canada in 1914 for the centennial of the conclusion of peace after the war of 1812.

CENSOR MOVING PICTURES FOR PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

No One Under Sixteen Will Be Allowed to Enter a Theatre Without an Adult—Changes Suggested.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Propositions have been made to the Hon. A. J. Matheson in connection with the regulations governing moving picture shows in the province, and the suggestions have been discussed by the Government, although nothing definite yet has been done. It is proposed to change the present regulations, which are controlled by the provincial treasurer, in such a way that all films to be shown in the province will be exhibited before a censor in Toronto, who will have provincial jurisdiction.

At present there is a good deal of trouble and dissatisfaction, on account of the system by which a censor in Toronto may pass a picture, and a censor in Hamilton, London or any other place may not allow it to be shown there. Numerous cases have been reported where films which passed the censor in Toronto have been put under the ban in other cities and towns. In order to obviate this, it is suggested that either the superintendent or one of the inspectors of the provincial police department be appointed a censor, to inspect all films. Whenever he passes a film, it will be stamped, "Approved by the Provincial Inspector," and the first thing that will appear on a screen in any picture show will be the official censor's stamp, showing that the film has passed inspection.

It also has been suggested that no child under sixteen, unless accompanied by an adult, be allowed to enter a moving picture theatre. This matter has been taken up by different cities in the province, and it is very likely that the suggestion will be adopted.

GUELPH STUDENTS ALLOWED TO DANCE

Toronto, Jan. 20.—No longer will the students at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, be compelled to promenade instead of dancing at their entertainments. Although the petition which the students prepared for presentation to the Hon. J. S. Duff never reached that minister's hands, he has given his consent to dancing at the institution. Yetsterday, the minister said: "Certainly, I have given my permission for dancing at the Ontario Agricultural college and Macdonald Institute. At the same time I do not see why there should be so much fuss about it. As a matter of fact, I have not received any petition from the students, but I have a letter from the president, intimating that there was a feeling that the resriction should be removed.

"I do not know of any other secular educational institutions where dancing, under proper restriction, is not permitted, and hence I do not see why this privilege should not be enjoyed by our students at Guelph."

DEAL STERNLY WITH SOCIALISTS IN JAPAN

Mikado Determined to Dam Rising Tide--Ministers' Resignations Not Accepted

Tokyo, Jan. 20.—Indications that the Mikado has decided upon the most severe action to dam the rising tide of Socialism in Japan came today, when he summoned Premier Katsura and Ministers Oura, Hirata and Komatsudara and refused to accept the resignation of their portfolios, tendered as a result of the condemnation of twenty-six Socialists alleged to have conspired against the life of the emperor. The Mikado urged Katsura and his counsellors to work devotedly for the good of the empire. The action is taken here as being one of the most eventful in the history of the empire.

There is no indication that the government will commute the death sentence against Denjiro Kotoku, leader of the Socialists; Suga Kanno, the woman associated with him, and ten of the other ringleaders in the al-

U. S. APPEAL COURT SAYS AN EGG IS AN EGG

Question Not Frivolous, but Important to Customs Department—Again a Hen Is Not a Bird.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Eggs are eggs. Also a hen is not a bird! So says the United States Court of Customs Appeals, in a decision which seems to settle a question which has muddled the customs, perplexed the experts and finally called in the zoologists.

Eggs coming from China usually are broken out of the shells, packed in tin cans and frozen. Customs officials contended they entered this country in competition with home laid eggs and assessed a duty of five cents a dozen.

The importer objected, claiming they should be free of duty under that section of the tariff which puts the eggs of birds on the free list and contended that at most they were only albumen and dutiable as such. It was claimed on the contrary that importers' claims on a hen as a bird lacked merit and that an egg is an egg in the shell or out of it. Recently the court held that a yam was not a sweet potato. A customs agent also recently prepared a twenty-three page report on the undervaluation of turnips.

WOMAN POLICEMAN MAKES FIRST ARREST

Seattle, Jan. 20.—Dr. Mary B. Martin, the only woman rated as a police patrolman in Seattle, made her first "pinch" Wednesday night. Not only that, but the man in the case, Peter Johnson, a laborer, will spend the next thirty days in the city stockade toying with stumps and underbrush.

Patrolwoman Martin (in plain clothes) was on the job Wednesday on Fourth avenue, when she observed Peter making eyes at every woman and girl who crossed his path. She pulled her best frown and landed on Peter. She marched Peter to Second avenue and Pike street and turned him over to Patrolman McNamee.

UNDERGROUND PHONES IN TREADWELL MINE

Juneau, Jan. 20.—Progressive mining is working wonders at Treadwell. In addition to installing the largest single hoist in the world, converting all of the old steam power machinery into modern electrical driven appliances and discarding all the early-day mining contrivances, a telephone system, running throughout the miles of workings, some of which extend far out under the waters of Gastineau channel, was completed last week and the miners are no longer compelled to resort to bells for signal purposes, being able now, at all times, to talk from under the bed of the inland passage waters to the men employed on the surface.

CLEARED GOOD SUM.

Royal Columbian Hospital Will Profit Handsomely by Recent Ball.

The ball given under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Royal Columbian hospital netted a clear profit of $122.50, according to a statement handed to the News yesterday by the financial secretary. The receipts from the sale of tickets amounted to $193.80, and the total expenses came to $71.30, divided as follows: Music, $25; rent of St. Patrick's hall, $20, printing of tickets and program, $16.50; drayage, $5; help in kitchen, $4.80.

The auxiliary was unfortunate in selecting January 12 as the date of the ball, as this was election night, but in spite of this, and the bitterly cold weather, the ball was well patronized and reflected great credit on the organizers and those responsible for the success of the event.

Forty Miners Killed.

Berlin, Jan. 20.—A news despatch from Sosnowice, Russian Poland, says that forty miners lost their lives in a fire in the Casimir colliery in that place. Three hundred and sixty others escaped.

SURVEYORS RETURN FROM SUMMER TRIP TO NECHACO

Walter C. Cotton and his brother Ernest returned yesterday after spending several months surveying land in the Nechaco and Horsefly valleys, in Northern British Columbia. When they left the Nechaco a little over a week ago the weather was bitterly cold, over three feet of snow being on the ground. They report conditions favorable for rapid settlement in the northern valleys, and state that a big rush to the vast fields of the interior may be expected in the early spring.

On their journey home the Cotton brothers met a number of old Westminster boys who are settled in the Nechaco and Quesnel districts. At Fort George they spent some time with Warren DeBeck, who is running a jewelry store and in his spare moments discharging the duties of postmaster and telephone manager. Will Johnston and Dave Hoy, who have a large ranch in the Nechaco valley, also entertained the returning surveyors. Johnston and Hoy have big herds of cattle and make a business of supplying meat to survey parties, land seekers, etc., also wintering horses for parties who do not wish to part with their outfits for the few months they intend being away.

At Quesnel, now a busy town, J. W. Howison, a brother of Mrs. Captain Seymour, is running a general store. Rev. William Stott, son of W. Stott, of Sapperton, is in charge of the Union church at that place.

MERGER OF FLOUR MILLS.

To Control Milling Trade on Pacific Coast in United States.

Portland, Jan. 20.—The capital stock of the Portland Flouring Mills company has been increased from $300,000 to $1,500,000. Additional articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state yesterday. This is the biggest deal in flour made in the northwest and is understood to be a forerunner in concentration of the entire flour interests of the Pacific coast. The purpose of the company is to combine all of its plants and properties in the northwest into one holding company. Up to this time the various mills and warehouses have been operated separately.

The company has branch mills in Eastern Washington, including plants at Walla Walla, Prescott, Lind, Dayton and other places in the wheat belt as well as mills and other holdings on Puget sound, all of which will be merged into one corporation.

RACES CLASH OVER SITUATION IN HAWAII

Honolulu, Jan. 20.—Japanese on the sugar plantations where Filipinos also are employed threaten a general strike unless the latter are discharged.

The Japanese charge that the Filipinos, who have been brought here recently in considerable numbers, are loafers and robbers. Several recent instances of holdups and robberies of Japanese by Filipinos on the island of Kauki precipitated the crisis.

The local Japanese press supports the laborers in this movement, and says it is not safe to be abroad at night in the district where Filipinos are employed.

DEBATE CLOSED ON THE ADDRESS

Cawley Has Scheme to Build Canal From Pitt Meadows to Burrard Inlet.

Victoria, Jan. 20.—The debate on the address concluded in the House today. The speakers were J. H. Hawthornthwaite, S. A. Cawley and Mr. Fraser.

Hawthornthwaite moved a Socialist amendment to the address, which was promptly voted down, only he and Parker Williams supporting it.

Hawthornthwaite sarcastically congratulated the two leaders of the Liberal party on their contribution to the address. He said John Jardine reminded him of the dove that flew from the ark for a long time but found no rest for its feet. Therefore, he congratulated him upon at last finding a resting place in the Conservative ark.

Cawley Wants a Canal.

Mr. Cawley, of Chilliwack, followed in a speech in which he intimated that it was his intention to bring in a resolution urging the Dominion government to build a canal from Pitt Meadows to Burrard inlet.

While the cost would be large, the benefits would be great. It would convert Burrard inlet into a semi-fresh water harbor and thus destroy the teredos. The earth taken from the canal could be used to fill in the flats at Port Moody, and so reclaim many acres of land now lying waste.

Another advantage would be the draining of Pitt Meadows, where there was twenty-five thousand acres that could not be reclaimed by any other means. In addition to that the deflection of so much water from the Pitt river would lessen the freshets on the Fraser, and make arable large tracts in Chilliwack and Dewdney, now subject to flooding, and would also provide an easy means of access for the produce of Pitt Meadows and the Fraser valley to the markets of Vancouver.

Future in Cariboo.

The speech of Fraser was devoted chiefly to a description of the resources of the Cariboo district, for which, with the advent of the G. T. P. and the C. N. railways, he predicted a great future.

This closed the debate on the address.

On Monday the consideration of the bills before the House will be proceeded with.

Nine members, including the five for Vancouver, went over on the afternoon boat to spend the week end on the mainland.

INDIANA 'VARSITY IS 91 YEARS OLD

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 20.—Indiana university is today celebrating the ninety-first anniversary of its founding. This morning the 1300 students, headed by the faculty and the university band, paraded the campus and marched to the men's gymnasium for the exercises.

An oratorical contest in the afternoon for the prizes, consisting of interest on a sum of money given by William J. Bryan to the university, concluded the exercises.

BARBERS MAY BE LICENSED.

Legislation Being Sought to Secure Appointment of Examiners.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—A move to secure the appointment of a Provincial examining board for barbers and provincial regulation of the barber trade in general will be made at the coming session of the legislature. A draft bill entitled the barbers' regulation act has already been prepared and circulated among the members, and a determined effort will be made to secure its approval by the legislature.

The desire for legislation comes, it is understood, from the barbers themselves, and an important clause of the draft bill is one providing that every man engaged as a barber must be registered. The board of examiners would, according to the draft bill, be composed of three members appointed by the government, to hold office for three years, excepting the first appointees, whose terms would expire at one, two and three years. The board would visit different parts of the province examining applicants for permission to practice, who would be required to show a working knowledge of the trade, together with an understanding of skin diseases such as a barber comes in contact with. Power is also given the examiners to inspect shops.

The draft provides for penalties in the case of barbers following their trade without being registered.

Burned to Death.

Toronto, Jan. 21—Mrs. Percy P. Brooks and her three children, the eldest five years of age, were burned to death at an early hour this morning in a fire which destroyed their home. The maid escaped. Mr. Brooks is absent in Chicago on a business trip.

TALLEST AVIATOR COMING TO GIVE SISTER A TRIP

Thomas Sopwith, of Channel Fame, Stands Six Feet Three Inches and Is a Star in the Air.

New York, Jan. 20.—England's giant aviator, Thomas Sopwith, who is twenty-two years old and six feet three inches tall, is coming to the United States next spring. This announcement was made by his sister, Mrs. Grubb, of Burlington, N. J. He is the tallest aviator in the world, and one of the best fliers in England, having recently made 174 miles when flying from England across the Channel to Belgium for the Baron De Forest $20,000 prize.

Sopwith's performances in the last month have stirred the English public to wild enthusiasm. While he has been an aviator for only two months, he has accomplished more in that time than any other birdman. Only a few weeks after he learned to fly he held the record for the Michelin Cup in the British empire, traveling a distance of 107 miles in three hours and twelve minutes.

The young giant birdman is come to this country to give his sister and her husband, Gen. Grubb, a ride in his aeroplane. Besides, he is going to try to outfly some of the American aviators for some of the big prizes now standing. He is fond of cross-country flights. His trip from England to Beaumont, Belgium, in three and a half hours was the first flight across the Channel in an all-English machine, the Howard-Wright biplane. It took him twenty-two minutes to connect the English and French coasts via the air, keeping 1100 feet above the surface of the water.

When Sopwith reached the French coast on his DeForest prize flight his compass failed, and he had to steer his machine by the sun. Later the sun became hidden behind clouds, and he had to trust to chance for his direction. Cecil Grace, who tried for the same prize after Sopwith, lost his way while trying to fly back to England and has never been found. It is believed he was drowned.

Mrs. Grubb is enthusiastic about taking a trip with her brother. She said: "My sister, Miss May Sopwith, has been up with Tom, and was delighted with the experience. It will also please me, I am sure, because Tom is a good flyer, and I don't think I will have any fear. My husband wants to learn to fly while Tom is here."

AUSTRALIA'S DISCOVERER.

Commonwealth Archivist Says It Was Amerigo Vespucci.

Melbourne, Jan. 20.—An interesting announcement is made by the federal archivist, Mr. Petherick. He declares himself certain, after forty years' research, that Australia was first discovered by Amerigo Vespucci in the year 1499. Great interest has been aroused in archeological circles by the statement of the archivist, and no doubt his claim on behalf of the explorer who gave his name to the Continent of America will be subjected to severe tests. Mr. Petherick bases his final proof on an ancient map dated 1509, which his researches have brought to light.

HOLLAND MAY JOIN THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE

Paris, Jan. 20.—French opinion is greatly occupied with Holland's proposal to fortify Flushing, because it interprets the move as indicating the intention of The Netherlands to throw in their lot with the Triple Alliance in the event of an Anglo-French-German conflict.

The semi-official press says the fortifications would have no political justification unless intended to guard against an attack by Great Britain, which Holland has no reason to fear if not tied up with Germany.

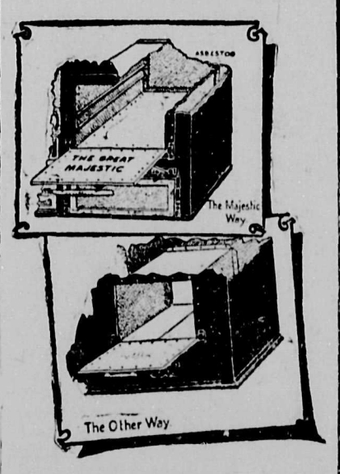
The Oven Of a Range



THAT a perfectly constructed, air-tight oven will bake better with half the fuel than a loosely constructed oven, is a fact beyond question. The Majestic oven is made of heavier material than any other, and is riveted (not bolted) to a malleable L or angle iron frame, making it absolutely air-tight. The oven in an ordinary stove or range is bolted or riveted to the range body, without bracing and without frames, allowing a knife blade to pass through corners and sides. It is natural that with an oven constructed in this manner, it requires twice the fuel, and not near as good results as can be obtained in any oven of a Majestic Range. The Majestic oven stays that way, too.

RUSH ASSIGNMENT MADE GOOD STORY

English Scribe's Impressions of America Gained in 38 Hours Visit.

London, Jan. 20.—W. R. Holt, who had an assignment to cover America in thirty-eight hours for the London Daily Mail, and who fulfilled his mission, incidentally breaking some records, gives his impressions in an issue of that paper.

"I had always conceived the capital of the United States as a city of Roman architecture, irrelevantly stuck into the middle of a new and bustling country, instead of which I discover that its real nature—I speak from eyesight only—is neither newness or splendor, but a clean, homely domesticity; just as if old Southern Grandees, in clean white Southern clothes, had mixed themselves up with a gaudy regiment of the King of Italy's Guards. Black men and black women were everywhere in far greater proportion than the whites. I should have felt some fears for the white man's burden had I not been informed that nobody in Washington, black or white, has a vote in virtue of his Washington residence.

President Taft.

"Imagine Athos taking up politics in his maturity, and you see President Taft. A tall, straight, stalwart dragoon, dressed in a beautifully cut morning suit. Popular caricatures show him as a fat man; but he is not fat; he is big and bold and strong. He has a clear eye, a transparent complexion, and a drooping yellow moustache. His laugh is the jolliest thing I heard in America. Soldiers, I am told, assert that the laugh finishes at his nose, and that there is no merriment in his eyes. Unhappily, I did not hear of that until I had left his room, and the detail, if it be true, escaped me.

"My own impression of the president, who honored me with an interview, was that of a strong, penetrating man, who finds indulgence in his natural spirit of jollity as good a cloak as any other for his inmost thoughts. He is an unmistakable diplomatist. His tart and whimsical reply to a deputation this promise to "consider the matter" sounded like a note of doom), his fatherly graciousness towards a blushing bride, and his frank interest in my own expedition showed me three different Mr. Tafts within twelve minutes.

"Uncle Joe."

"The vice-president, Mr. Sherman, was genial but reserved. But the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Joseph Cannon—known throughout the United States as "Uncle Joe"—is vigorous enough to give a glow to the continent. He paced his red throne-room like a fretful tiger; and he addressed me as if I were a public meeting.

"Except that the language used was different, I might have been in the den of an old-fashioned Tory squire. Old age pensions, with their temptation to extravagance in youth and middle age; the naughtiness of Mr. Gompers and his crew (I had just time to infer, taking breath under a Niagara of eloquence, that Mr. Gompers is afflicted with Socialistic tendencies); the general trend of Communistic opinions throughout the civilized world, and a contemptuous regret that the old English parties are now selling themselves to the Labor men—these were the matters of Uncle Joe's tirade.

New York by Night.

"If I were the ruler of New York I should order all strangers to enter my kingdom by night. By day or by night the eye is caught by the skyscrapers, those ingenious devices by which the landscape gardeners of New York have made up their lack of immediate mountains. In the sunshine the skyscraper is a cold and stark affair, all legs and no body. By night it is bewitching.

"I envy the American his readiness, if need be, to haul up his anchor. In England a lad is apprenticed to a trade and sticks to it until he qualifies for an old age pension, or, after going to a public school, he joins one of the learned professions and remains in it for life—always provided he does not fall by the way and become a member of Parliament. In America nobody dreams of following his profession. A lawyer takes to banking "on the side," with possibly a bit of railway directing thrown in, and the doctor speculates in real estate. They try several callings, and select the one that pays the best.

"The lift-boy, if he honors you with his friendship, will tell you about something good in Wall street the next day; and the stenographer can give you exact information as to the profits of this concern or that, adding with much point her view as to whether it is worth while.

"I love the American language. I love its idioms. I love its humor, which is as keen as Tabasco sauce. I do not think it is musical, but one cannot have everything.

Amazing Gabble.

"The most amazing gabble that has been invented since the completion of the Tower of Babel is the English which the average American reporter says we English use:

Most excitin'!—most excitin'! Not a moment to catch me breath since I had me morning hawth, y'know. Motor-cars, trains—trains, motor-cars; every blessed instant on the move, y'know. But, oh, I say, such a time as I've had! Such a bally well fash'ous, rippin', bloomin,' bouncin,' bang-around time as I've had! Quite. I assure you. Right oh! I'm off!

"That, according to a New York paper, was me. I now understand the feelings of a mother-in-law towards comic papers, and of the Irishman towards the English music hall stage.

"So far as I know, I speak English like the average Englishman, though doubtless with some remnant of my north country youth. But do Englishmen ever say "fawncy?" Did any Englishman ever say "rother?" The choice between "chahnce" and "chance" is open to everybody. Professor Skeat, of Cambridge, one of the greatest authorities on English pronunciation, once assured me that "chahnce" has the better pedigree of the two. But did any Englishman, alive or dead, ever say "fahncy" or "fawncy?" Is it that the printed vowel sounds have different values on different sides of the Atlantic, or is it that Mr. Cobb, for one thoughtless moment of his life, degenerated into a stage Irishman?

"You get few good cigars in America. An odd thing, considering that the best cigars in the world come from that continent. Friends tell me that they are too much "rushed" to wait for the tobacco to mature before they smoke it, and that they like something strong with a bite.

"They give you nice things to eat in the United States, but you never know what you will get to drink. Their own custom is a cocktail to begin the meal, and iced water for the rest of it. Being a 'Conservative English journalist,' as the papers of the United States informed me, I could not flourish on these delights. I asked the waiter for beer. I have learnt that I asked for the wrong kind of beer. Continental travel has taught me to demand the wine of the country. If I had asked for 'Munich' or 'Pilsener' I might have passed for the thirty-second cousin of a duke. As I requested them to give me Anheuser Busch, I am afraid my hopes of social distinction have gone forever.

There Are 999 Cocktails.

"There are 999 cocktails in the American Pharmacopoeia, of which Martini is the king, Manhattan the vice-president, and Bronx the heir-apparent. They are illustrious, but they possess nothing like the reputation of the 'Nothing Doing' cocktail—a subtle, tender mixture with blackberry brandy. 'After two of these,' said my instructor, 'you go into a quiet corner and die. No witnesses allowed.' A whisky and soda without ice is a high crime and misdemeanor. The nearest approach you can get to it is a 'low ball,' which is neither whisky nor soda, but a rye whisky, followed by a 'chaser' of iced water.

"America, which loves various significations of words, is lamentably lacking in the value it gives to one. 'Wine,' the most versatile of words in our vocabulary, has only one narrow meaning in the United States. Red wine and white, dry wine and sweet, sparkling wine and still, fruity wine and thin—these richly magical words convey nothing to the American. To them wine means dry champagne and nothing else.

"I have ridden in several American taxicabs, and I do not like them. London has spoiled me not only by its cabs but also by its roads.

"I like the American shoeshine. It costs 10 cents and a tip—say, sixpence in English money—but it is worth it. You could have taken a photograph by the high light on my boots after the street-corner artist had touched them up.

"The chauffeurs of private cars are as smart as English chauffeurs, but no footmen to sit beside them.

"You do not have to buy matches in New York; buy a cigar and a half a dozen boxes of matches are yours without charge if you desire so many. If you happen to be locked up at night you do not have to wait until the next morning to learn your fate. A night magistrate tries you at once, and either admits you to bail, dismisses you, or fines you, or commits you for trial the next morning."

A STUBBORN CINDERELLA

The return engagement of "Stubborn Cinderella" and Miss Hazel Kirke to the Westminster Opera house tonight will be looked forward to with delight by the theatre-goers who were unable to see the play when here in the early fall. Since leaving this section, the company has been more than successful in their tours of the west, southwest and central states. By their criticisms, one can readily see the success scored in Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver and Salt Lake.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—"Is an immense hit"—Examiner.

"The production is gorgeously staged."—The Bulletin.

Los Angeles, Oct. 26, 1910.—"One rarely sees a performance so excellent in every detail."—Times.

Denver, Dec. 18.—"Better than ever and always welcome. Go see it, or you will be sorry."—Post.

Salt Lake, Dec. 26.—"This engagement is the second which "A Stubborn Cinderella" has played in Salt Lake, but the company is not only quite the equal of the original one which came to Zion, but is just a little bit the better."—Tribune.

"Compliments are for every girl in the chorus, for the chorus is one of the very best and hardest working that has traveled this way in many days. It is handsomely dressed and well drilled and does its level best to drive dull care to the four winds. "A Stubborn Cinderella" is one of the best musical comedies the Colonial has offered this season."—News.

A PLEA FOR THE GARDEN.

It would be well if something could be done to awaken a more general interest in the pursuit and pleasure of gardening in this city of ours. Nature has endowed her with many features of beauty, we have a number of good streets, and quite an amplitude of fine residences; but the all too prevalent existence of unkempt and untidy grounds which should be beautiful garden plots discount all these advantages.

Passing along one of the most pleasantly situated residential thoroughfares of New Westminster a few days ago we could not help noticing the utter absence of any attempt to provide even an aspect of tidiness in the outer surroundings of the greater number of the houses. Lot after lot was passed on both sides of the street and every one was neglected, some presenting very much the appearance of a dust contractor's yard. Suddenly, however, we came upon one of the larger houses in the street which presented a perfect picture of beauty and taste. The owner had evidently disposed his ground with judgment. He had a large square lawn, with a broad gravelled path next the house and surrounded by flower beds; on the opposite side of the lawn was an ample kitchen garden, partly planted with fruits of all kinds. Though it was midwinter the whole place was beautifully neat and tidy, and not a blemish was apparent on the beautifully level surface of the lawn. Now, if all his industrious citizens neighbors had followed his excellent example this street would wear an aspect of real beauty and be a source of delight to all who pass by that way. There are many other streets and avenues where the same absence of respect for the house plot prevails. But there are others we know where the residents vie with each other in the excellent keeping of their gardens.

New Westminster owes no small measure of its happy reputation to its beautiful situation and the splendour of its homes. But when one sees so many neglected exteriors it engenders a doubt as to wether this reputation is not in danger of being discounted by visitors. If only every houseowner could be induced to surround his dwelling with a well kept garden, how thoroughly our city would merit the appelation of the "city beautiful." To the individual such a condition of things would be an advantage, just as much as a permanent sidewalk and a good roadway, because it would enhance the market value of his property. Surely too, there are few to whom beautiful surroundings do not appeal or do not give a feeling of pleasure and joy?

There are a goodly number of enthusiastic amateur gardeners in New Westminster and we suggest that a few of these might get together and establish an association for the encouragement of gardening. With the spring and the summer before us now is an admirable time to commence an educational work of this character. There are numerous ways in which such work could be made effective, such for instance as flower shows, lectures, and a gardening journal and so on. Our impression, based on experience, is that here are many who would set about the beautifying of their plots if only some helpful advice were available; whilst there are others whose interest in the desired direction could be stimulated by educational and exhibition work.

Everyone knows the fame of the Portland Rose festival and the rare charm and beauty of the city where this function is held. This result has been almost entirely brought about by the educational efforts of a local association. The same could be done for New Westminster.

POSTAL CLERKS ARE NOT CUPIDS

Seattle, Jan. 20—Postmaster George F. Russell does not believe that Uncle Sam wants to let his general delivery clerks act as matrimonial agents or accommodation clerks for crooks, girls who want to make dates and so on, so he has cut out two of the five general delivery windows in the local post office. Hereafter no individual may have mail delivered at the general window for more than thirty days. The economy worked by this plan saves the office $7300 a year in salaries, the postmaster says.

SEGREGATION OF FOWLS.

Editor Daily News:

Sir,—I should like to draw your attention to a matter that concerns the public health in our market. There are large quantities of meat exposed there for sale, and crates of fowls, very evil smelling, and never a disinfectant. In most public markets poultry are either segregated or thoroughly disinfected when put up for sale. Can not this be done in our Royal city?

At the conclusion of the conference it was officially announced that as a special act of mercy by the Mikado twelve of the twenty-four Socialists sentenced to death would be commuted one degree, to penal servitude for life. Okabe, minister of justice, communicated the terms of the commutation to the Socialists at the Tokyo prison at midnight.

Stunned by the proven error of earlier reports that all of the condemned Socialists except Kotuku and Kanno had escaped the death penalty, the adherents of their political faith today are cast down, and, despite the vigilance of the police and the government agents, rumors are generally current that the execution of the twelve Socialists still in peril of their lives will be followed by a series of the very acts of violence which the government, by its drastic action, had hoped to suppress. All over Tokyo and in the other cities of the empire the leaders of free thought are gathering their forces to present petitions to the Mikado urging clemency for all the prisoners. It will be urged that no good can come to the emperor by persecuting liberal thinkers.

Partisans of Kotogu and his fellow-prisoners today are already in receipt of promises from the Socialistic centres of both Europe and America that every possible effort will be made to procure from their government a representation to the government of Japan counselling against the execution of the twelve prisoners condemned. There is no anticipation that anything stronger than unofficial and secret interposition will be made, but this, coupled with the undoubted restlessness of the people here, gives, it is thought, a fair chance that the Kotoku Socialists may yet avoid the sealing of their political faith in blood.

Whatever the ultimate fate of Kotoku and his followers may be, it is certain that Japan is writhing under the world criticism of their trial and sentence. The charge made abroad that "Japan is a barbaric nation" has struck home. How deeply it has struck is indicated today in the unofficial announcement that Count Okuma, a leader in political affairs, will visit England and America during the coming summer with the idea, it is believed, of stemming the tide of adverse criticism developed by the Socialist incident.

This will be Count Okuma's first trip abroad. In his entourage, if it is finally decided that he shall make the trip, will be a number of other leaders of Japan's political and military life, and the whole affair will be designed to offset the charge that the Mikado's empire in any way lacks the "trimmings" of the spirit of a modern power.

TWO SOCCER GAMES IN CITY LEAGUE TODAY

Two games in the City Soccer league will be played today. One will be between the High school and Sapperton at Sapperton and the other between the City team and the Rangers at Moody square.

The Rangers will be chosen from the following: Pratt, Woods, Douglas, Carse, Borland, Ferguson, Currie, Evans, Kenny, Webster, R. Smith, C. Smith and Wilkie. Both games will start at three o'clock and the players are requested to be there ready to play at that hour.

BOWLING

A team of Westminster bowlers took a fall out of five men on the Shamrock alleys in Vancouver last night, beating the Terminal City men by almost two hundred pins. The following is the score, which contains no remarkable features outside a score of 235 made by Mulligan, otherwise known as Buck Marshall, in the first game.

UNIQUE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Almonte, Jan. 20.—When it comes to getting over a given piece of territory in a given time, "Mag" McGregor, the Almonte boy, who played with the Tecumseh lacrosse team, has old man Euclid beaten to a frazzle. "Mag" got a hurry-up call to go to Port Arthur to play with the Lake City team on Christmas Day. He made the jump, played two games with the Port team, the last on January 2, being instrumental in winning both matches. He clambered aboard the train next day, arrived in Almonte after two days' travel, played with the local team that night, drove to Carlton Place, caught the night train, arriving in Toronto the next morning. He made connections with the Berlin hockey team by train the same evening, and after travelling over half the continent, and playing hockey everywhere, he jumped on the ice, and was the star man with the Berlin team against Galt. He played in Berlin again the following Monday night, and on Wednesday played for Port Hope. Then he played with Berlin at Galt.

"Mag" holds a long-distance hockey record that will hardly be broken for some years to come.

MEDAL FOR ELLEN TERRY.

New York, Jan. 20.—In recognition of her distinguished services to dramatic art, Miss Ellen Terry, the English actress, was presented with a gold medal yesterday by founders of the New Theatre. The presentation was made before a large assemblage of men of letters, playwrights, musicians and the flower of stageland.

To Miss Terry falls the dual distinction of being the first woman and the first British subject to be so honored. Prior to the presentation, a special performance of Maeterlinck's "Sister Beatrice" was given.

MORGAN IN FAVOR OF CENTRAL BANK

New York, Jan. 20.—Whether Senator Aldrich's banking and currency scheme is ever adopted by congress, it, at least, today has the official O. K." of the house of J. P. Morgan & Co. Morgan personally was understood to favor the scheme when he saw it in an undeveloped state at Washington. Today Henry P. Davidson, Morgan's banking partner and former head of the First National Bank, said:

"I believe that Senator Aldrich's plan is admirably effective and simple. The proposal made is well fitted to all conditions and all sections of the United States possessing all the advantages of the great central banks of Europe."

WAR IS DECLARED AGAINST THE TURKS

Aden, Arabia, Jan. 20.—The Imam of Sana Kahya has declared war against the Turks and armed bands are gathering in the Yemen Mountains. The notorious Sheik, Ben Pasha, has joined the Imam's standard and a rising in Yemen, a region of Southwestern Arabia, is expected.

The pretender, Idrize, has assumed the defensive against the Turks. The capital of Asir province has been under siege since early in December, the governor and a large garrison being barred in. A new governor has been appointed owing to the activity of the Arabs.

CARS MUST BE CHANGED.

Pay-as-you-enter By-law of Toronto Railway Company Suspended.

Toronto, Jan. 20. — The Ontario railway and municipal board gave judgment to lay in the hearing of the issue raised between the City of Toronto and the Toronto Railway company regarding the pay-as-you-enter system. The board suspended the company's by-law, save in the case of cars constructed and equipped according to the standard laid down by the board, with enclosed rear vestibule, grab rails and large platforms. The adoption of a rear exit was left optional with the company, which is allowed eighteen months to change its cars.

WAR SEEMS IMMINENT IN THE WEST INDIES

Port au Prince, Hayti, Jan. 20.—War with Santo Domingo appears inevitable. Dominican troops have occupied Grand Groscer, on the Haytien southern frontier, and are marching on Saltrou, Hayti.

The government has decided to oppose the invasion of this territory and is hurrying preparations for sending large forces of infantry and artillery to menaced points. The German minister is making an effort toward conciliation but with little prospects of success.

DENIES UNDERSTANDING.

New York, Jan. 20.—Jack Johnson denies a secret understanding with Al Kaufmann to fight in London under Hugh McIntosh's management, but at the same time says Kaufmann is the best heavyweight in the world, barring himself, of course.

Johnson says Kaufmann would "eat up" such men as Jeannette, McVey, and Langford, simply because of his splendid physique. As for Bill Lang, of Australia, Johnson says Kaufmann can beat that fellow in a few rounds, and maybe a half dozen.

"I don't believe Kaufmann wants to fight me," says the heavyweight champion. "I hear he challenged me recently just to boost his show, and I don't think he will be ready to talk business for a long time. But whenever he is ready I am.

"No, there wouldn't be any interest in a fight between me and Langford, because as I said some time ago, two negroes will not draw. That's why I think in time there'll be further interest in the fight between me and Kaufmann. If Kaufmann won't fight, I hope this fellow Morris out in Oklahoma will amount to something. I'd like to lick just one more white man before I retire.

"But I've got to get my price, remember, before I get into the ring with anybody. How much did I make out of the Reno fight? Well, all told, my end of it was about $140,000, counting in a $20,000 wager, and I ain't blowing it in, as some people would have you believe.

The members of the Educational club of Columbian college, entertained on Tuesday afternoon at a reception. About fifty members of the Vancouver branch came over by special car. The guests were received by Mrs. Sippiell, Mrs. Cloverdale Watson, president of the New Westminster branch, and Mrs. Reed, provincial president. They were taken over the college and shown the improvements which have recently been made, and all expressed their approval of the new heating plant, which the Educational club were instrumental in installing. The visitors also noted with much interest and pleasure the new electric fixtures throughout the building, and the decorations which have added so much to the appearance of the rooms. There was a delightful program presented in the Assembly room. Miss Hitcham, assistant principal, gave a talk on higher education for women, while Mrs. T. R. Pearson played and the college students gave musical selections. Afterwards the guests were invited to the household science building where the girls of the domestic science class served dainty refreshments prepared by themselves, under the directions of Miss Watson. Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Robson, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Pearson were in charge of the tea tables.

Mrs. R. H. Davidson entertained a great many friends very delightfully at a tea in her new residence, Queens avenue, on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Davidson, who was wearing a handsome imported gown of black crepe de chine, trimmed with lovely black and white lace, received in the living hall, where clusters of yellow chrysanthemums brightened the appartment, and were in perfect harmony with its brown furnishings. Miss Davidson, of Shawnigan Lake, who received with the hostess, was gowned in white ninon. All the rooms were charmingly decorated, the drawing room being in yellow daffodils, and the library, where the ices where served, was lovely with pink carnations. The very attractive tea table in the dining room was centered with daffodils and violets. During the first hour Mrs. Charleson and Mrs. G. E. Corbould were at the tea and coffee urns, and later were relieved by Mrs. Gaynor and Mrs. G. R. Grant. The ices were served by Mrs. Gracey, and helping to look after the guests were Miss Corbould, Miss Cotton, Miss Nora Armstrong, Miss DeWolf Smith, Miss Wright, Miss Josephine Martin, Miss Marion Martin. DEATH OF A REAL SOLDIER OF FORTUNE

New York, Jan. 20.—Captain George H. Boynton, a real soldier of fortune and the hero of several romantic stories, including the Richard Harding Davis novel of that name, is dead. He was sixty-nine years old. Boynton was a veteran of many wars in South and Central America and had fought pirates, traded in slaves, run blockades and engaged in numerous filibustering expeditions.

MARKET REPORT

Owing to the fact that the river was blocked with ice on its upper reaches the supply of produce at the market yesterday was hardly up to the standard, but considering the conditions there was a fair amount.

Prospective purchasers evidently imagined that there would be a scarcity for the attendance was not large.

The quiet market did not result in any price changes of importance. Meats still showed a downward trend, owing possibly to the quality showing the effects of winter, but the other prices remained practically unchanged.

Potatoes, which were brought in in fairly large quantities, sold at from $28 to $30 per ton, and there is little likelihood of any great change until the new potatoes are offered in the spring. There is not such a great quantity of tubers being kept on the farms as there was last year, but there seems to be enough to meet all reasonable demands and any startling rise in price, such as took place two years ago, is unlooked for.

It is expected that next week the Chinamen will begin their purchases of chickens for the celebration of their New Year, and that event will enliven the market considerably.

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh, and as a general tonic.

Many thousand pounds of this root are used each year in the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for catarrh.

SUFFRAGETTE TILTED AT HOME SECRETARY

London, Jan. 20.—The cabinet held its first meeting to day for the purpose of drafting the speech from the throne and a program of legislation for what promises to be a historic session of parliament.

The militant suffragettes thickly dotted Downing street, determined to remind the ministers that their demands were as urgent as any others. The banner suggested that Home Secretary Winston Churchill should be imprisoned. The active bearer of this managed to elude the police, and rushed at the home secretary when he appeared on the street, used the banner as a lance and attempted to knock off Mr. Churchill's hat. The police quickly took steps to stop the demonstration.

GREAT REVENUE FROM ALCOHOL

Geneva, Jan. 20.—In 1887, by a popular vote, a form of referendum, the Swiss people voluntarily handed over the monopoly of alcohol to the Federal authorities, who have controlled the importation, manufacture and wholesale distribution of spirits—in quantities of not less than forty litres since that date.

The latest statistics, from 1887 to 1909, show how the monopoly has been worked for the last twenty-two years, and with what good results. The loans and expenses required to establish the monopoly, amounting to $1,339,200, were paid off within ten years by the government, and the profits from the sale of good alcohol, supervised by Federal experts, amounted during the twenty-two years to $25,880,000.

The profits were divided each year among the cantons according to their population, and one-tenth of the revenue was applied according to the law to counteract alcoholism, with very encouraging results. The government, by abolishing communal and cantonal duties on wines and beer, by suppressing the evil of the many small stills that existed in the country before the monopoly, by increasing the taxes on spirits to three times as much as before 1887, has carried out its original policy of supplanting the use of spirits by that of fermented beverages, and above all, has succeeded in reducing drunkenness and increasing the health of the Swiss people.

In 1904 the consumption of alcohol of 50 per cent in Switzerland was per head 4 litres 30 centilitres, and in 1909 it had fallen to 3 litres 72 centilitres, and is said to be gradually decreasing.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.

Take notice that an application has been made to register Emma McLaren, William Chalmers McLaren and John Edward Valillee, as the owners in fee simple, under a tax sale deed from C. C. Fisher to John MacLaren, bearing date the 1st day of April, A. D. 1902, of all and singular that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the District of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, more particularly known and described as Southwest quarter of Section 14, Township 7.

You and those claiming through or under you and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by descent, whose title is not registered under the provisions of the "Land Registry Act," are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within forty-five days from the date of the first publication of this notice upon you, and in default of a caveat or certificate of lis pendens being filed within such period, or in default of redemption before registration, you and each of you will be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the said land, and I shall register Emma MacLaren, William Chalmers MacLaren and John Edward Valillee as owner thereof in fee. And I hereby order that publication of this notice for thirty days in a daily newspaper published in New Westminster, will be good and sufficient service thereof.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, New Westminster, Province of British Columbia,, this 9th day of January, A. D. 1911.

FRENCH AVIATION PAPER ROASTS THE AMERICANS

"Alfred LeBlanc, Emile Aubrun and Pierre Gasnier, who have just returned from America, are not very much in love with Americans.

"They are brutes!"

"They are savages!"

"They are barbarians!"

These expressions appear to reflect only the scrupulous verity.

"To make dollars, then to make more dollars, and to make them always, is the motto of every Yankee who has any self-respect. There is nothing which is not a mere pretext to win money. The entire American society reposes upon this base. Moreover, that which is not American, doesn't exist and should not exist; for one knows that the United States is the first country in the world. With principles of this sort one can see what chance French aviators had to defend their colors at Belmont park.

"The Statue of Liberty race is an example. A false time was given out and as soon as the American, John Moissant, was given the victory, the event was declared finished.

"During the Gordon Bennett cup race, the time was posted. Gasnier, who did not care to be taken for a "pear" (the equivalent of the American word sucker) verified the time by a superb chronometer. Inasmuch as the time made by Leblanc was really under what was announced. Gasnier kicked. The soi-disant official timekeepers, who stood back of him marking the minutes and seconds, saw their error and 'phoned in a lively fashion to rectify the figures.

Cut the Wires.

"Twice the wires controlling the commands of the Bleriot apparatus which Aubrun piloted, were filed. Warned in advance (of American trickery) he took particular pains to verify his machine before each flight. Thus, in two instances, he prevented by the discovery of the filings, the most frightful of catastrophes.

"Leblanc started in the cup race with an insufficient amount of petrol. There was certainly in this, a guilty manoeuvre, made with the view to preventing the French champion from winning the event. Unfortunately, Leblanc, trusting to the watchfulness of his machinists, himself neglected to verify things. The negligence of his employees came near costing him his life.

"At Belmont park nothing was in readiness for the cup race. Pierre Gasnier passed his entire time defending the interests of the French aviators He had to do everything, see everything. The Americans, who made little of the lives of their own countrymen, only mocked the more at the lives of foreign aviators, and above all of those of the French. If Pierre Gasnier had not demanded that the current in the electric supply wires be cut off, Leblanc would have been electrocuted then and there.

"Since then, the president of the Aero Club of America, Cortlandt Bishop, has been unseated. It is a satisfaction, a little thin it is true. Bishop who also makes dollars, had taken upon himself the Baltimore meeting. There were no prizes. There only seemed to be. Aviators were engaged. Speculating upon the "backs of the flying men" Bishop established himself as manager. Can you see a Frenchman engaging aviators for a meeting to make money?

"But in America that sort of thing is all right?"

WOMAN OWNS BIG FARM.

St. Paul, Jan. 20.—Miss R. N. Hillman, the American-Canadian advocate of free trade between the land of her adoption and her native land, is the active head of a profitable farm of nearly 2000 acres. She was born in St. Paul and for some years was well known as a stenographic reporter. Shortly before leaving for Canada, she moved to a Wisconsin farm. Here, she became interested in farming. She longed to get out on the western prairies, so with what capital she had, she took what she calls a long chance and staked her savings in Canadian land. What she did, she persists many girls now working on a small salary can do.

With her mother and small brother she went into the country, purchasing supplies in a blind way, for she knew very little about farming. She is now classed as one of the large grain growers in the vicinity of Moose Jaw, and recently refused a place on the directorate of the Grain Growers' association, which piled into cars 1300 strong and took Ottawa by storm in the interest of free trade, or at least, reciprocal trade relations. From small beginnings her land possessions grew. At first it was forty-five miles from the railway. It was a waiting game, but market came as it must inevitably to a fertile country and now what was once the frontier has a station within easy hailing distance.

FORESTRY CONVENTION.

Fire Protection an Important Theme at Meeting in Quebec.

Quebec, Jan. 20. — Hon. Sidney Fisher delivered the first address at the Dominion forestry convention yesterday. He congratulated the province on its work in fire prevention, particularly along the line of the railways.

J. G. Peters, of the United States forestry commission, reviewed conservation work there. He said 5000 fires cost $25,000,000, destroying a forest area of 4,000,000 acres; 34 per cent. of the fires were caused by railways. The cost of extinguishing them was $1,000,000.

C. B. Hall, Quebec forestry superintendent, advocated the setting aside as reserve all mountainous lands carrying 50 per cent. arable soil. He urged the need of better patrols, lookout stations, regulations, timber drives and telephone systems where roads were non-existent or scarce.

The afternoon session was given up to a consideration of proposed legislation dealing with forestry matters.

PROF. DAWKINS DESCRIBES FIRST MEN OF ICE AGE

Professor Boyd Dawkins, one of the great authorities on the mammals of the Pleistocene or Ice Age, in his Huxley memorial lecture at the theatre of the Civil Service Commission, Burlington Gardens, recently, marshalled the evidence which points to the fact that man first appeared in that epoch.

The view of the higher antiquity of man based on the discovery of chipped flints in earlier ages has been rendered untenable, as it can be proved that these forms can be, and indeed have been, produced by natural agencies. The skull and thighbone found by M. Dubois in Java, in 1894, Professor Dawkins regarded as belonging to a real precursor of man, not only appearing at a point in the geological history where it was to be expected, but in a tropical region taken by Lord Avebury and others to have been the birthplace of the human race.

In Europe, continued the professor, there is ample evidence of the existence of the river-drift man and of the cave-dweller in the caverns and in the river valleys of the Glacial Age over the whole region between the Mediterranean and the Baltic. Europe in the Ice Age was invaded dryshod by the earliest men from the south by way of Gibraltar and Sicily. The climate then was continental in character, with cold winters and hot summers.

The river-drift man's implements mark his existence in North Africa, Palestine, Arabia and India, and over the south and middle zones of Europe as far north as Yorkshire, crossing on foot from Germany and France.

The cave-man, marking an advance in culture, lived almost wholly in the regions north of the Alps and Pyrenees, and his weapons are found north of Yorkshire. The cave-men probably came into Europe from and retreated into Northern Asia at the close of the Ice Age.

The Ice Age was undoubtedly of vast duration and the antiquity of man is corresponding great but, concluded the professor, "the more minutely I examine the events that have taken place since man appeared in Europe the more profoundly am I impressed with the vastness of his antiquity and with the futility of any attempt to compute it in terms of years."

ST.CHARLES EVAPORATED CREAM

The Golden Cow is the trade mark of the St. Charles Condensing Company. This sign on a can of Evaporated Cream stands for purity and quality.
