FUGITIVE GIVES HIMSELF TO JUSTICE

PITIABLE OBJECT IN PRISON CELLS HENRY JOES FACES CAPITAL CHARGE—WEEPS BITTERLY WHEN INTERVIEWED.

Yesterday afternoon Henry Jobs, who stands accused by a coroner's verdict of the deliberate murder of his wife, Sarah Ann Jobs, last Saturday morning on Fourth street, gave himself up to the police authorities of Westminster and thus closed a search which had for the past six days been kept up by the police of this and neighboring cities.

Sitting huddled up in his cell, the prisoner presented a miserably dejected spectacle, and one could not but feel a regret that Jobs, now cornered, would be a burden to himself until the assizes, which will be held next October, and to which he will doubtless be committed by Police Magistrate H. L. Edmonds this morning at half past nine o'clock.

With tears streaming down his cheeks, and pale and haggard, Jobs in his cell, told to the Daily News man who was present when he was brought to the station house, how since the terrible morning of last Saturday, he had tramped over the border to American territory, where he maintained, he "hung around" in Blaine until Thursday morning, when he decided to give himself up to the authorities, and in this settled frame of mind, he came back over the line and walked along the Semlhamoo road until he came to the junction of the Scott road where he branched off to the Tilbury road and laid down to sleep, as it was then dark. Yesterday morning, he awoke in a heavy downpour of rain and being then in close proximity to the St. Mungo cannery facing Annacs Island, he went up to the cook house at the back of that establishment and informed the wife of the cook who he was.

He was told that one of the company's boats would sail for Westminster in a few minutes, and the crew, who were finishing their dinner, arose from the table and escorted the now self-accused man to the Clutha, which was carrying back some baggage this afternoon.

The mate of the Clutha took Jobs into the pilot house, locked the door and immediately afterwards the boat pulled out. In the meantime those at the cannery telephoned to the police here, and Jailer Pittendrigh quickly found Constable Bourke, whom he detailed to await the arrival of the Clutha. When the boat was made fast to the wharf at the foot of Eighth street, Bourke went aboard and the pilot room was unblocked and out walked the prisoner. "I am Jobs."

In these few words, the murderer introduced himself to the constable who took the man in charge, and within a few minutes he had been searched and placed in a cell. Here he sat with his head buried in the palms of his hand, insensible to the movements around him. After a while city officials, including the mayor, visited the lockup and saw the accused. His jacket was so drenched with rain that the jailer deemed it advisable to take it away to be dried.

In company with the authorities, a Daily News representative visited the cell and conversed with Jobs for a short period. To the reporter, Jobs denied ever having been in Vancouver. He seemed to be dazed when spoken to and the blinding tears which streamed from his eyes hid his questioner from him. So completely was he upset that he failed to remember the American city where he had spent the best part of a week in hiding, and it was not until the writer had suggested Blaine that Jobs lifted up his face and said in a muffled manner, "yes, that's the place I was at."

George Adams, who had known prisoner, was present and asked that Jobs, who had said he had not touched a bite of food since last Monday, be supplied with a substantial meal, which might tend to make him less despondent. This was done and later when seen through by the aperture of the cell door, the murderer was sitting quietly on a chair with his face still buried in his hands.

Money and Revolver Missing.
All that the police found when Jobs was brought in to the station house, was some tobacco, a pipe and some matches and unimportant papers. Despite the fact that he maintained that hunger was the chief factor why he gave himself up to the authorities, he had no money in his possession, although he took, according to a son's story, some $67 when he left the residence on Fourth street last Saturday. It is surmised that he had in the interval been drinking heavily, but that would not account for the absolute present poverty of the man when he struck this city yesterday. The .32 calibre U. S. revolver which he bought from Speck's store on Front street, and with which he is supposed to have committed the foul deed was also missing, but he refused to say what

WELCOME IS WARM FOR VISITING TROOPS

Canadian Contingent Heartily Received in Liverpool—Civic Greeting Accorded the Party.

London, June 9.—The Canadian contingent of soldiers for the coronation arrived in Liverpool today, and received an enthusiastic reception. The Lord Mayor of Liverpool met the Canadian troops at the Princes landing stage, and the streets through which they marched to the railway stations to enjoin for London were thronged with citizens.

EFFECT OF COAL STRIKE MEANS USE OF EASTERN COKE

Nelson, B. C., June 10.—The first trainload of eighteen cars of Pennsylvania coke was received at the Granby smelter yesterday afternoon. Preparations are being made for the blowing in of a few furnaces next week. One hundred and fifty cars of eastern coke are on the way here.

World's Polo Championship.

New York, June 10.—After three postponements owing to heavy rains, the second and what turned out to be the final match in the international polo encounters for the trophy was played yesterday afternoon, and resulted in the defeat of the English officers comprising the visiting team. The Americans early in the game showed that they had better control of the ball, and after their first goal the result was rarely in doubt. The final score was America 4½ goals, England 3½ goals. The cup, therefore, stays in the States. The losers, who are all attached to the personal staff of Lord Kitchener for the coronation celebrations, are due to sail Saturday.

IMMIGRATION NEEDS CONTROL

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE REAFFIRMS DESIRABILITY OF BRITISH IMMIGRANTS CHOOSING OVERSEAS DOMINIONS.

London, June 10.—At today's session of the imperial conference in this city, Prime Minister Fisher, of the Australian Commonwealth, moved that the resolution of 1907 be confirmed. This dealt with the desirability of encouraging British emigrants to proceed to the colonies rather than to foreign countries, and that the imperial government should co-operate with the colonies which desired that this class should settle in the countries over the seas.

The president of the local government board, Right Hon. John Burns, speaking to the motion, said that since this matter was last brought to the notice of the conference four years ago, its objects had to a large extent been acted upon with satisfactory results. From statistics which he made up it was shown that if the rate of departure of emigrants who had left the motherland in the four months just concluded was maintained for the remainder of the year, the total who had gone to other countries would amount to 300,000, of whom 80 per cent. would settle in the British possessions.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who is taking the greatest interest in the gatherings, was satisfied that the English minister's figures were correct, and he seconded the motion, which, after being altered, but to no appreciable extent, was passed unanimously.

Dinner to B. C. Premier.

London, June 10.—A dinner was given at the Savoy hotel last evening in honor of Hon. Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia. There were present Lord Desborough, Mr. Churchill, Admiral Sir Lewis Beaumont, Sir C. Preston Lucas, Sir Rufus Isaacs, Sir Arthur Birch and Sir Albert Rolit, in addition to a large number of notabilities in imperial and colonial politics.

SERIOUS RIOTING FOLLOW ON STRIKE

Cleveland, Ohio, June 10.—One hundred policemen were required to control a riot arising from the garment workers' strike between sympathizers and non-union hands, and one policeman was killed, and six injured in the disturbance.

Death of Carrie Nation.
Leavenworth, Kansas, June 10.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the temperance reformer whose strenuous methods frequently brought her notoriety, is dead. The end came yesterday afternoon, after she had been alling a long time, the cause of her end being paresis.

TAX SALES ARREARS MUST BE FORTHCOMING

SURPRISING MOVE CAUSES CONSTERNATION—RAKING UP OLD DEBTS WILL AROUSE ANIMOSITY OF FORMER OWNERS.

Although City Auditor Cotsworth concluded his official appointment on the first of this month, the arrival at many business places yesterday by mail of an official document dealing with tax arrears made it clear that he is still on the job.

When the depression ruled in Westminster in the early nineties many of the citizens could not afford to keep possession of their lots, and the properties were sold at tax sales for what they would fetch. Many lots passed under the hammer at less than the taxes on them, and under the New Westminster Incorporation Amendment Act of 1895 it is distinctly laid down that when the sale price does not reach the amount due to the civic treasury, the owner, or late owner shall be served with a notice requiring him to pay the difference, together with interest.

Whether the adoption of the Municipal Clauses Act of 1910 makes any difference to the enforcement of this provision of an act which it supercedes is not clear, but upon this act of 1895 Mr. Cotsworth has based his claim to compel payment, and from the clauses he draws several inferences, one of which is that it is unfair to honorable citizens to compel them to make up the difference between the actual sales, and the taxes fixed by the assessment commissioner. This demand comes as a bombshell to those who preferred to let their lots sell in default tax sales rather than keep up payments, as by the present date, the interest on the amount due has equalled or surpassed the principal.

There is likely to be a fight put up by certain interests who are badly hit by this new development, particularly as they claim they cannot find any sanction of the city finance committee for issuing the demand notes by the auditor.

Rehearsal for Coronation.
London, June 10.—The coronation ceremonies were rehearsed at Westminster Abbey yesterday, many high officials occupying the places in the procession which they will take on June 22. Everything passed off satisfactorily.

Steamer is Burnt.
Blagoveshchensk, Asiatic Russia, June 9.—The Amur river steamer Muraviev Amursk was destroyed by fire last night. The passengers jumped into the water and scores of persons were drowned.

Presbyterian College Education.

LONG CHASE AFTER ALLEGED DEFAULTER

Man Wanted in Connection with Embezzlement Charge is Located in Missouri.

Vancouver, June 9.—A chase of several thousand miles, up and down and across the continent, ended yesterday on a ranch near the town of Warsaw, Boston county, Missouri, with the arrest of T. C. Lockhurst, who is charged with the embezzlement of some $4000 from the firm of C. Gardner Johnson & Co., of Vancouver. Lockhurst is being held at Warsaw for extradition and it is reported that a police officer will be sent from Vancouver to bring the man for trial as soon as arrangements for his extradition are completed.

Lockhurst was well known in insurance circles in Vancouver, he having been manager of the insurance department of C. Gardner Johnson & Co. Last September he disappeared and when an audit was made of his books the firm lost no time in putting detectives on his trail. The chase was taken up by the Thiel detective agency.

From Vancouver Lockhurst's trail led down into Mexico. He doubled back to Kansas City, then jumped to New Orleans and there all trace of him was lost for several months. Finally a clue led the detectives into Missouri and at Warsaw, the county town of Boston county, it was learned that a man answering his description had bought a ranch at Coal Camp, a few miles away.

Lockhurst is a married man with three children.

Missing Foreman.
Nelson, B. C., June 10.—Foreman Linquist, of the Napoleon mine, has been missing for some days, and it is feared that he has been drowned.

GATHERING HERE OF PHARMACEUTISTS

ANNUAL MEETING OF B. C. ASSOCIATION WILL BE HELD HERE ON WEDNESDAY—LOCAL MAN IN PRESIDENCY.

Arrangements are completed for the annual convention of the B. C. Pharmaceutical association, of which F. J. MacKenzie, M. P. P. is for a second term president. It is three years ago since the organization held its session here, and as customary the proceedings are to conclude with a banquet, which is fixed for Wednesday evening at the Russell hotel.

In the morning is held the semi-annual council meeting, and in the afternoon members of the association will convene at the Odj Fellows' hall for the business meeting, when officers will be elected, and the vacant places on the council filled.

Subsequently Mr. MacKenzie is personally taking a party over the B. C. E. R. as far as Huntingdon, the trip covering a large part of the Delta constituency.

At least thirty or forty will be in attendance, and covers are to be laid at the dinner for fifty guests.

Chief McRae Retires.

Winnipeg, June 10.—Chief of Police McRae resigned last evening after thirty years police service, having joined the force at the age of twenty-two. He retires with a pension of $2485 a year.

ROMAN REACHES PORT FROM HALIBUT GROUNDS

The B. C. Packers' boat, the Roman, reached port last evening with 170,000 pounds of halibut. She has been away ten days off Queen Charlotte islands, had a good catch, and satisfactory weather. The crew expect to unload at the Columbia Cold Storage company's wharf today, and pull out for the banks tomorrow.

Although the season is over many seals, both sleepers and travellers, were to be seen on their way northward to the Behring seas. A small adventure befell one dingy, which was capsized, and some tackle lost, together with the boat's fish.

MADERO FAILS TO REVIEW SOLDIERS IN CAMP

Mexico City, June 9.—The attitude of Francisco I. Madero, jr., now regarded as the virtual head of government affairs, toward General Figueroa's troops is today causing some apprehension here. Madero promised to review Figueroa's soldiers, encamped twenty miles from the capital, but he failed to appear, explaining that he had been attacked by a gripe. Figueroa's troops are said to be most impatient, and government officials are conferring as to the question of pacifying them. Rumors and east of the Philippines. Hong-Kong-Honolulu vessels and Yokohama-Sydney ships touch there.

TREATY DIFFICULTIES MAY FOLLOW AGREEMENT

Various Nations Anxious to Know the Situation Created by Reciprocity—Changes Existing Plan.

London, June 9.—The treaty problem consequent upon the reciprocity agreement grows in complexity. It is understood that the Spanish government, which is one of the twelve governments whose most favored nation arrangement with Canada Sir Wilfrid Laurier is now asking the British government to negotiate to annul, has instructed its embassy here to make a special and immediate report on the agreement as it affects Spanish interests. The British ministers would seem to feel considerably embarrassed by the formal resolution which Sir Wilfrid has made at the imperial conference. It amounts, in their view, to notice to the whole world that the imperial treaty system can no longer be regarded as a stable affair upon which they can rely. It is Canada's notice to quit.

No one yet pretends to say what the twelve foreign countries affected, which include Austria-Hungary, Switzerland, Russia and Argentina will do. They may follow Germany's example and refuse to make a renewed treaty, keeping all British commerce at the mercy of the Bundesrath's yearly arrangement. Or they may imitate Japan and demand that Britain restrict her fiscal autonomy by pledging herself not to impose import duties, that is to say, to adopt tariff reform and preference. It is pointed out here as an irony of the situation, that while reaching so persistently from the text of autonomy and fiscal freedom, the British government, in the case of the reciprocity agreement, should be deliberately handing over the control of their own tariffs to foreign nations.

HILL ACQUIRES FEEDER FOR CANADIAN SYSTEM

Charter of Alberta Central Taken Over by Great Northern for New Transcontinental.

Winnipeg, June 10.—Winnipeg and Calgary business men have sold the charter of the Alberta Central railway to James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railway.

The proposed line runs from Pincher Creek to Red Deer, and on to the Brazeau coal mines. This forms one of the feeders which Hill will have for his transcontinental line between Winnipeg and Vancouver, and is the fourth line which he has secured for that purpose. The purchase price of the charter was $250,000.

NO CONTEMPT TO CRITICIZE JUDGE HIGGINS

Melbourne, June 9.—What was alleged to be contempt of court on the part of a newspaper which criticized a judge for his decisions has been held by the high court of Australia to be legitimate comment on a matter of public interest. The case was brought against the publishers of the Hobart Mercury, Tasmania, which was charged with contempt, the case being based on the journal's statement that Mr. Justice Higgins had allowed political bias to influence his decision in the awards made in arbitration cases.

The full bench of the high court dismissed the proceedings, the chief justice stating that the only grounds for contempt were obstructing justice or scandalizing the court. If a judge displayed political bias it was in the public interest that he should be criticized. The judges unanimously held that no contempt had been committed.

JAPANESE BASE MENACE IN PACIFIC

BONIN ISLANDS WILL BE FORTIFIED BY MIKADO'S GOVERNMENT—ON IMPORTANT TRADE ROUTES.

Tokyo, June 9.—In spite of formal denials from the navy department, it is generally believed here today that Japan plans to establish a naval base at the Bonin islands. In official circles the rumor is current today and is accepted as authentic. The Bonin islands, known also as the Parry group of the Arzobispo islands, lie south and east from the southern point of Japan, almost directly west of the Hawaiian islands and north and east of the Philippines. Hong-Kong-Honolulu vessels and Yokohama-Sydney ships touch there.

In April Minister Saito, of the navy department, and Admiral Uru, head of the navy, visited many of the islands around Japan. It is reported that they decided that the Bonin islands offered the best possibilities as a base for future operations in the Pacific. Secret negotiations for the base are said already to be under way and plans for its establishment formed.

At the naval department today a formal denial was issued. The Japanese naval policy, it was said, is to increase the movable armaments for defence, rather than devote large sums of money for stationary defence work.

SIX ARE KILLED IN HEAD-ON COLLISION ON SANTE FE

Albuquerque, New Mexico, June 9.—The Santa Fe passenger train No. 3, known as the California Limited, was in collision with a tie train near Domingo, thirty miles north of here, at 10:45 this morning. Six persons are reported dead and a large number injured.

Among the known dead are: A. W. Green, engineer, and the fireman of the Limited. A mistake in orders is said to have been responsible for the wreck. A relief train of nine cars, carrying surgeons and hospital supplies, has left for the scene of the wreck.

FAMOUS WALKER IN WESTMINSTER

GLOBE TROTTER, WHO IS NEWSPAPER WRITER OF AMSTERDAM, PRESENTS AUTHENTIC CREDENTIALS IN ROYAL CITY.

Last night one of the leading newspaper men of Amsterdam, Holland, Herbert P. Norwell, walked into the editorial office of the Daily News, and presented his credentials from the scribes in the land over the seas. Mr. Norwell is the manager of one of the greatest walkers who ever took up this form of athletics, namely Gottfried Rodrigues. This athlete, who like his manager, is a writer on the Telegraph in the Dutch capital, over two years ago set out on a walking tour of the world, and he has been walking ever since. While it was the intention to continue on this globe trot and get back to his motherland inside twelve months, Gottfried has changed his plans and after a two nights appearance at the local opera house, he will walk to San Francisco and after a brief rest make an attempt on the world's record from that Californian city across the continent to New York. Weston's famous record which has stood many years despite attempts to smash it up, looks like being relegated to the has-beens when Rodrigues gets through. From authentic and duly certified statements in the possession of his manager, it is clear that Holland has given to the world one of the greatest natural walkers in history.

Among the many records which stand to the credit of this wonderful athlete are his trips from London to Edinburgh in 16½ hours, 40 minutes; Paris to Lyons, 192 hours; Geneva to Lugano, 48 hours; Milan to Naples in 20 hours and from San Francisco to Los Angeles in 190 hours, and 40 minutes.

The foreigner, who speaks four languages perfectly, will give a novel entertainment at the house, and will describe his experience as well as sing in different languages.

SUICIDE OF METHODIST MINISTER

Well Known Here as Speaker on Moral Reform.

Toronto, June 9.—Word has reached the city that yesterday morning Rev. H. S. Magee, a well known divine of Toronto, strolled out into the woods from the Gleason health resort on East Hill, Elmira, N. Y., and hanged himself, the body being found by an attendant.

Rev. H. S. Magee was associate secretary of Temperance and Moral Reform of the Methodist Church of Canada. He was in the sanitarium suffering from neurasthenia, partly due to hard work and partly to financial worries occasioned by the misfortunes of a relative.

Several times Mr. Magee had spoken on moral reform work on this coast, and owing to a confusion of names with that of Rev. F. A. Magee, formerly of the West End, now Sixth avenue Methodist church, his friends were alarmed till the correct information came through.

CHINA WILL PRESS

MEXICAN CLAIMS

GONZALES ASSUMES OFFICE AS GOVERNOR OF CHIHUAHUA, AND WILL ARRANGE FOR MANY PROMISED REFORMS.

Juarez, Mexico, June 9.—China will uphold the claim of Chinese residents of Torreón that they did not fire on the insurgents prior to the massacre on May 15, and besides damage indemnity for the killing of the Chinamen, will enter a claim of $500,000 against the Mexican government for property losses.

303 Chinese Killed.
This is the substance of the official report, received here today from Wu Lan Poo, of the Chinese legation, who has been investigating the Torreón massacre. Mr. Poo, who reports 303 Chinese were killed, declares that just before the attack began the Chinese residents were in no condition to fight, even though the insurgents looted their stores.

"All of my countrymen deny that they bore arms or that they fired upon the insurgents," says Mr. Poo in his official statement.

Losses $500,000.
"The Chinese losses will aggregate $500,000, of which the stores owned by Juan Maa, who was killed, represented $100,000."

Mr. Poo says many of the 200 who were saved were sheltered by men and women at great peril to themselves.

With the departure of Abram Gonzales to assume his duties of provisional governor of Chihuahua, affairs in Northern Mexico are expected rapidly to be put in readiness for the political reforms which are promised from Francisco I. Madero's conferences with President De La Barra.

Among the early announcements expected from Mexico City is one for the division among the poorer classes of the larger Chihuahua estates, some of which exceed 1,000,000 acres.

"THE CAT AND THE FIDDLE."

The attraction at the Westminster opera house today will be the musical extravaganza success, "The Cat and the Fiddle," which deals with magic, sprites, gnomes, elves, fairies, and a story of the mythical Isle of Eye. It is said to form a combination that pleases the most fastidious, and reminds one of "The Babes in the Woods," "Mother Goose" and the present success of the century, "Little Nemo."

"The Cat and the Fiddle has many weird and novel stage characters: The Good Genii and her wonderful gigantic cat; Queen Circe, the false queen, who with Great Gobs rules over the destinies of the mystic island, and the earth beings, who are spirited away to Elfland; all are said to contain many new ideas in the line of musical comedy.

The plot leads to and permits of a score or more of pretty ballet evolutions, some 20 musical numbers, and a bevy of pretty girls well selected and trained, while the costuming is of new design, strikingly handsome in many cases and decidedly weird in others, in conformity with the locale of the scenes.

The presenting company numbers forty or more people. The cast is headed by Mr. Harry B. Watson, a favorite comedian and it is said he has scored heavily everywhere he has thus far been seen. He is ably assisted by those clever artists, Rose and Arthur Boylan, whose grotesque and acrobatic dancing delineations have made them famous, not only in this country, but in Europe and Australia. Lawrence Gotthard, an animal impersonator of no mean ability, is the "Cat." George E. Hart, Marty Martz, J. O. Campbell and George E. Wakefield are all among the principals. Seats on sale at McKenzies' Pharmacy.

GREAT MEETING OF PACIFIC COAST EMPLOYERS DECLARES MILITANT POLICY — HEAD-QUARTERS IN PORTLAND.

Portland, Or., June 9.—Business men representing open shop advocates from every city of importance on the Pacific coast from San Diego to Vancouver, B. C., have met at Tacoma and organized the "Federation of Employers' Associations of the Pacific Coast," with the avowed object of waging a war against the closed shop.

W. R. Rust, president and manager of the Tacoma, Wash., smelter, was elected president; D. P. N. Little, of the Founders' and Employers' Association, and Merchants and Manufacturer's Association of Los Angeles, vice-president, and Bruce Gibson, president of Chamber of Commerce of Everett, Wash., treasurer.

H. S. Hastings was appointed secretary and general manager of the organization, with headquarters at Portland.

According to the policy to be followed as officially given out here will be to "secure for employers and employees the freedom of individual contract in matters of employment; to oppose restriction of output, sympathetic strikes, lockout, boycotts and other acts that tend to undermine man's constitutional rights."

SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS.

Kas and Mo, the twin baby elephants, which you heard so much about last year and which were imported from India at great expense in the middle of the season, will again be seen with the Sells-Floto Shows when they visit this city on Tuesday.

As everyone knows the elephant grows more slowly than almost any other animal, but a perceptible increase both in weight and height will be noticed this year. Professor Allspaw, the head trainer of the circus, has been hard at work all winter in teaching the little fellows the rudiments of the actor's art. He really succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of the management. So much so, indeed, that the twin babies will be seen both in the parade and tournament, driven tandem to a high-wheeled carriage by Mlle. Zora. While so hitched they go through the evolutions of the kindergarten, which includes walking upon bottles, standing upon their heads, saluting, cake walking and many other interesting, and for their age, marvelous feats.

It is said by competent trainers that these little animals show more precocity than any two baby elephants ever exhibited in captivity in this or any other country.

TROLL BARB CATCHES IN FISHERMAN'S THUMB

Accident to Jules Lafamme—Rushed to City in Gasoline Launch for Treatment.

Ottawa, June 9.—With the steel barb of a heavy troll deeply embedded in the thumb of his left hand, Jules Lafamme, of the Interior department, was rushed down the Rideau canal to the city on a fast gasoline launch late Saturday night. Mr. Lafamme was strolling from a canoe on the river above Hog's Back when he hauled in a large pickerel. As he was lifting the fish over his canoe, one of the barbs of the troll sank in his thumb. Efforts to drag it out only helped to secure it in the flesh more firmly.

To add to the complications the big fish got stuck on another barb of the troll and resisted all efforts to remove it.

Mr. Lafamme was taken ashore, suffering intense pain. The thumb was slashed with a sharp knife, in an effort to cut the hook out, but in vain. The injured man, who all but fainted with the pain, was given a drink of brandy and he revived sufficiently to enter a canoe and scramble into a passing launch. Blood was dripping fast from the wound, and he was rushed down to the Bank street bridge. He was then taken to the office of Dr. A. S. McElroy, where the hook was removed.

BIG LINERS CANNOT LEAVE SOUTHAMTON

Southampton, England, June 9.—A strike of coal porters broke out here today. The American line steamer St. Paul, scheduled to sail for New York tomorrow, will be delayed, and the mammoth White Star liner Olympic is having difficulty in getting coal. The whole fleet of ships chartered by the government and others for the naval review is lying off the port unable to take on coal.

When the coal porters decided to go on strike the St. Paul did not have a bunker of coal on board. The firemen threaten to desert if strike-breakers are employed. The American line officials are hopeful of being able to get the vessel started on her voyage to New York by way of Cherbourg on Monday.

When the officials of the steamer Olympic, which is due to sail for New York by way of Cherbourg and Queenstown, June 14, tried to engage a crew this morning the men demanded that their wages be increased to thirty dollars a month. The White Star officials refused this demand and the men marched ashore.

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unusually early scalp troubles, especially premature greyness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

SURGEONS OPERATE IN SEMI-DARKNESS

Hartford, June 9.—Believing two o'clock in the morning to be a good time, the Willimantic Gas & Electric Light Company shut down its plant to make repairs on the dynamos, and that a patient at St. Joseph's hospital in that city is alive is due only to the steady nerves of three surgeons. They worked fast and true in the darkness, which was broken only by the continuous lighting of matches and the dull glow of two oil lamps, which an orderly detached from waiting automobiles. The three surgeons were summoned in haste from a dinner at the Hotel Garde in this city and dashed away for Willimantic, thirty-one miles distant, soon after midnight. A delicate operation for an internal construction has progressed to the critical point when the powerful operating reflectors, went out and nurses lit matches in relays, using up three large boxes. The physician who was administering the ether, noted the patient's pulse in the dark and regulated the flow of the anesthetic in that way. There is no indication of any serious complications attending the operation.

Kerr has in his possession an autograph letter from Prince George, now king of England, which he received seventeen years ago, and which he believes will obtain him a place in the procession.

Kerr says that he received the letter from the prince while the latter was on a visit to Malta, where Kerr's regiment was stationed at the time, after he had saved the prince from an attack by a dog believed to be suffering from rabies.

B. C. AND IMMIGRATION.

Some soreness of heart has been displayed in a few of the journals in the east in connection with the decrease in the number of immigrants settling in the prairie provinces of late, and the powerful attractions which British Columbia has had for newcomers from across the Atlantic.

This pre-eminent favor which the Pacific province is enjoying has been very fairly commented upon by the Globe, which observes:

It is not merely in numbers that British Columbia has had the advantage. In education, enterprises, and financial standing the British Columbia settler has probably been the best of late that ever came to Canada.

The visitor to British Columbia sometimes wonders if the amazing progress there is the real thing or simply the result of an unsubstantial boom that will collapse and leave ruin and stagnation behind it.

MARKET REPORT

Heavy rains yesterday did not prevent farmers, and the usual class of buyers from attending at the weekly sales at the market square, and the attendance was large.

Delta potatoes brought up by the Transfer did not arrive until the market had opened, but the purples were of a quality that made for a ready sale.

Cabbages were like the potatoes selling at a high figure, this due to the cost of carriage from the south. Good cooking gooseberries made their initial appearance for 1911, and held stiff at ten cents per pound.

Florist Tidy has devised an original idea for hanging flowers in baskets and this labor saving device found a ready sale.

Veal soared yesterday, while beef went down a point. Mutton was conspicuous by its absence, but on the other hand, pork showed full counters and cleared at the price obtained last Friday.

The demand for spring salmon was far in advance of the supply, this being accounted for by the wait for the tide rising. Smelts, sturgeon and rock cod were well represented.

Table with market prices for various goods like Beef, Pork, Veal, Chickens, Eggs, Butter, Onions, Potatoes, etc.

ENCOURAGE HARVARD MEN TO TRAVEL

Boston, June 9.—Stipulating that it be used to give Harvard graduates a chance to travel abroad, Mrs. Grace R. Shaw, who died last Sunday, left $35,000 in trust to the fellows and president of Harvard.

"While I recognize that great good is done by travelling fellowships intended to provide means of study and research for young men preparing themselves for a scholar's career, I have in mind a different object, that of benefiting young men of worth who, without necessarily having attained to the highest scholarship in college, have made good use of their opportunities and give promise of success in professional or business careers.

"I therefore do not prescribe any formal tests, for I believe the qualities which should determine the award can be better judged through the personal acquaintance of the president and his advisers with the candidates."

TWO NATIONS SEEK SHARE IN CHINESE LOAN

Peking, June 9.—Though the Chinese currency reform loan of $50,000,000 already has been completed with the American, British, French and German groups of bankers equally participating therein, the Russian and Japanese governments have signified to China their desire of taking part in the loan.

Russia and Japan argue that the pledging of the Manchurian revenues to secure the loan may conflict with their prior rights in that province.

If Russia and Japan follow up their signified wishes to participate in the loan it may bring about a diplomatic contest, it is believed here, of a more serious aspect than that which surrounded the historical entry of the American syndicate into the Huk Wang railroad loan agreement.

It is reported in financial circles that a strong international group of bankers is being formed in opposition to the quadruplet banking group. The nucleus of the opposition is said to be the Russo-Belgian syndicate, which is expected to take in British bankers and probably also Japanese financiers.

Chummed with Cat.

San Francisco, June 9.—The ruthless hand of the stableman at the Rainy Mountain Indian school, Oklahoma, put an end to a strange romance in animal life a few days ago, when he killed an old gray rat which had long been the friend and companion of the school cat.

The cat slept in a corner, and the rat was often seen taking his rest beside the cat.

ALTERATIONS IN SALMON BELLIES ASSURES GENERAL IMPROVEMENT

Reorganized Twelve for Today's Great Encounter at Vancouver Will Make Combined Attempt to Retrieve Laurels--The New Referee--Herb Ryall and the Elixir of Life--Matt Wells Wins Over the Scribes--Jack Johnson's British Opponent.

BY ROBERT A. WILSON.

OF course YOU are going to the match at Recreation park, Vancouver, this afternoon, and of course you're going to put that green back on the Salmon Bellies. That's right. Now, as you have all answered yes, we'll have a little talk over the teams which will do duty for the respective cities, sort of size 'em up and see where we are getting off at. Yesterday afternoon, Sanly Gray had not returned from Victoria, where he had gone to rest out his shoulder which was strained during some of the plays in goal last week. The popular custodian was expected back by the last connecting yesterday evening, but he may go right on to the park this afternoon, instead of reporting to the officials here. Johnny Howard will appear at point in place of Galbraith and this may strengthen what was conceded to be one of the weak departments in the last encounter. Tom Gifford will take Johnny's place at cover and here again we should be stronger. The defence field will be altered from that which was out last week, Jimmy Gifford taking first, Tom Rennie second and George Rennie third. Punk Windemute has been swung round from second home to centre, Cliff Spring thus playing on the home. Cliff should be in his glory in this position and fast play is certain to be seen from this changing. Bill Turnbull is, of course retained at third home and Pat Feeney at first. On the home, Hughie Gifford will be held in reserve and may be seen in action during the third or fourth quarters in place of Patrick. Len Turnbull and Gordon Spring will as hitherto be stationed at outside and inside homes respectively. The News was the first paper to announce that the Vancouver team would be the same as last Saturday. The radical changes will give the carping critics a chance to see whether the suggestions thrown out from various quarters will be for the good of the scoring end of the game, and when all is said and done that, is the chief end.

BARLOW GALBRAITH will act as referee, and should make good with the whistle. He is an old player who in past plays has shown that his knowledge of the national game is extensive. It is to be earnestly hoped that some curb will be placed on the crowd at today's match, and that every consideration will be given to the ref., that class of official which seems to be bereft of officers when play is in progress. Galbraith must have the support of the association and demands it not only for the good of the game but for other officials who may come after him. Spectators quickly get next to such a man when he may have lost hold of the play and then life is not worth living. Spectators, play the game and play it fairly and squarely and all will be well.

Table with 2 columns: Team/Position and Name. Includes Westminister, Vancouver, Goal, Cover Point, Defence Field, Centre, Home Field, Outside Home, Inside Home.

GEORGE E. LARNER, the greatest walker of modern times, and who has arrived in the Dominion to meet Canadian Champion Goulding, has been by eastern critics severely reprimanded for his style of pedestrianism. Photographs which were expressly taken to prove the contention of the scribes back east, are said to show the Englishman with but the left heel on the ground, the right toe being clear off mother earth. It has been proved time and again that photographs lie, and so it is in the case under notice. Lerner who has won more honors on the cinder path than any other walkers in recent years has been under the critical eyes of some of the leading authorities in the world and this outcry from the east is the first ever heard that Lerner, whom I have repeatedly watched in action, had ever walked in any thing but an absolutely fair manner and in accordance with the rules as laid down by the ruling amateur bodies. In some things, the A. A. of England may be and is slow, but those who "run the walking end" of the sport are too straight to permit of means of progress by any manner than the fairest. Heal and toe have always obtained in the old country and always will.

BRITISHERS who love the boxing game will hear with a deal of regret that those behind Bombarier Billy Wells, have seen fit to suggest pitting the Tommy against Jack Johnson for the world's championship. Whilst I readily admit that Wells has proved himself to be the best we have had in the motherland for a decade, surely a big mistake has been made by thus early in his career stacking Wells up against a man who has shown that he stands on a pinnacle by himself. Some weeks ago I had word from London that Jim Maloney desired to rush Wells to the top ranks before his time had come and the news which has been switched over the wires from the empire's capital now bears out that Jim, who brought Wells from the soldiering ranks in India, has confirmed this statement. Surely when one calmly thinks out the whole proposition, it is not fair either to the sport or to the man himself to match him against the world's undoubted champion at this time and when Wells has so much to learn in the mitt game. Better would it be to bring Wells to the States and send him in to beat men like Flynn, Jim Stewart, Joe Jeannette, Joe Thomas, Al Kaufman and forsooth our friend and joke, Carl Morris. We know that Wells is good, so much that I would place my money on him scoring from all but the second last named on this list, whilst he may be a slow thinker, has had more experience in the magic square than Billy and this must tell, and especially if the contest was decided in the States, where the Queensberry rules are interpreted in a manner foreign to Englishmen. Hitting on the break is not permitted in the old country, whilst the protect-yourself-at-all-times clause has reduced the rules on this side of the pond to a farce.

DEFEAT at the hands of Johnson, and this is inevitable, would take all the ginger out of Wells and would certainly tend to put him to the bad. Rather make him battle his way up against the men I have named, not necessarily in chronological order, and that provided he was successful class him with the "smokes." In my list I have not included the name of Sam Langford. For this "pusson" I have a very high regard, but Sam is not reckoned in the heavy-heavy class, if you get my meaning. The Nova Scotian has more or less always been looked upon as a middleweight, and at best is in the (fortunately) small category of light heavies. As Langford will return to London in the course of a few weeks, that is, provided, he holds to his schedule, it would be a good plan to match him to meet Wells. This would prove of what material the Englishman is made, although I am inclined to the opinion that the good would win out, always remembering that there is a wonderful difference in the height of the twain, and this in Wells' favor. I have said before in these columns that Langford is a boxer to be respected. For many reasons he is in bad with the chief promoters or least ways, his manager, Joe Woodman is, and when this is so, it is always a difficult matter to get on a match. Sammy is one of the most unlucky men in the profession. Time and again he has finished training and at the eleventh hour and the fifty-ninth minute some one has jumped in and put the full stop mark to his bouts materializing. With five more inches tacked on him he would be the hardest proposition in fistiana today, but--

HAVE you ever noticed how public opinion takes the strange habit of veering round? When Matt Wells first arrived in the States from London and met and defeated some of the best second-rate boys, the sporting scribes termed the visitor a meal ticket boxer, who would be out of his class if he stacked up against some of the leaders. Even Charlie Harvie who at my personal request brought him from London, joshed me unmercifully in the east and later in California, and suggested that a return trip to the old country would be the best thing that could happen to the ex-amateur champion.

WELLS did return, and so completely wiped up Fred Welsh that the wise (?) ones began to sit up and take notice. Since Matt made his second appearance in New York, the critics have been watching his movements like a cat watching a mouse. Everything the London boy did, was published in long screeds in the sporting columns and when he went into training for the best they could find at short notice, one of the knowalls--and in New York, this class falls off the trees--said: "Put him against Leuca Cross and this will take the starch out of his collar." They did. Wells won in a canter. Now promoters are falling over each other in order to secure the services of Matthew. Having for many years known the Londoner, having been with him in his amateur days and having suggested to him the advisability of going after the money end of the game, I am entitled to take not a little credit to myself for the high position which he occupies at this time. His chief contests over the water were conducted with this writer as the third party to the argument until such time as I took hold of his affairs when I considered it only in the interests of sport to have another refereeing the bouts in which he took part. There are some things in life a man regrets for all time, and now I come into the class of the regretters. Had Wells come with me when I sailed from the motherland I would certainly have taken charge of his business on this side, but as I had fixed up a number of his future bouts, and as I had to join the Jeffries party en route for Rowardennan, it was impossible for me to tarry. Wells will with careful training defeat the best in the States, now the home of this weight, and the day is not far distant when Packey McFarland's scalp will be dangling from Matt's belt. Immediately before I left England, I fixed a match up with Wells and a Liverpool boxer on the stipulation that the pair were to split SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS! Slight change now, eh?

BOXING enthusiasts will not enthuse over the forthcoming battle between Freddie Welsh and Matty Baldwin, which is due for decision in San Francisco in the closing days of this month. This will be the second appearance of the Welshman since his return to the States, but it would have been a wiser move had Fred clashed with someone who meant something to his future career. What has Baldwin ever done in the mystic square to entitle him to a match with this classily lad from Pontypridd? Welsh as the exholder of the Lonsdale belt is surely entitled to a more lucrative engagement than with M. B. There are many things about about Welsh which I do not admire but that does not hinder me saying that he is one of the few Englishmen (or Welshmen, if you will) who has learned practically all he knows of the boxing game in the United States and who has brought back to the land of his birth many of the tricks of the trade. There is no man in England at this time who knows so well as Fred, the almost countless moves on the board and who can when "inside" rattle an opponent more than he whose motto is "Wales for ever." Only those who witnessed from close quarters the battle, which gave Welsh the English championship from Johnny Summers in the fall of '09, knew that he used his head around Summers' chin and jaw in a manner which if not absolutely foul, was on the borderline. Had Corri refereed that bout, there is no question in my mind that he would have cautioned once and disqualified on the second offence for this un-Britishlike method. This is but one of the many tricks picked up by Freddie and whilst it may help to the fat end of the purse, sportsmen do not like it.

CRICKETERS in the province are slowly but surely making their presence felt, and who knows that in 1913, we may send a team over the M. C. C.? This is perhaps writing somewhat boldly, but in the past month, willow-wielders have sent up some big scores and this is only the beginning of the popularity of the summer sport of England. A son of the famous Spofforth has joined the ranks of the Westminister C. C. and there are dark rumors that others who have gained high positions in their respective county matches are on their way to B. C. in the search for wealth, and might it be added, cricket? Lacrosse holds first place in this Dominion, and rightly so, but there is plenty of room for the enthusiasts of baseball and cricket. The people of Canada are it has to be confessed, a cosmopolitan people, whose various sports must be encouraged. Sport in its proper place is the backbone of all races, and as Canada has in the past ten years come full steam ahead in the field of athletics, she can yet forge further ahead and show to the respective motherlands that the adopted sons have not neglected the pastimes of their youth.

AND talking about youth, puts me in mind somehow or other of Doc Herb Ryall, the man who administers to our ills and other things. On Wednesday night, Herb shone as a baseball fielder and his play at centre field for the Balmorals, did much to give that combination the victory over the Maple Leafs. Ryall, who does not even mind being called Riley on the field of play is a standing example to the young men of this city of what the cultivation of sport can do for one who is past life's first hillock. It was whispered to me at the game that Herb was well past the half century, but to see this good fellow capering and galloping about the diamond, one was inclined to say that he was born prematurely grey. This man has always been a devotee of all manner of healthy sports and now when the majority of men of his age are anxious to get home and smoke the pipe of peace, we find him prancing around like a two-year-old.

IT must be remembered that Papke has had the greater experience in the ring than his opponent (Sullivan) and this may favor him in the battle under notice. I wrote this in closing a short article in Thursday's News, and after I had summed both men up, I had thought that Sullivan might be enabled to land this title against a more ripe boxer, and leaned to the fact that Papke had not become acclimatized to the English atmosphere. The cabled reports show that the Yankee won by the K. O. route in the ninth round of what was a sterling battle for supremacy. This offset will tend to sharpen the loser and we have only seen the beginning of Jim in first-class company. His climb up the fistic ladder will be slow if he stays on in the old country and he would be well advised to take the trip over the streak, as opponents in London will be a bit scared to meet a man who can stand against Papke if even for nine rounds.

Cricket Here Today. Yesterday F. A. Rose was appointed captain of the Westminister Cricket club, and this afternoon, this ex-county player will take charge of the team which will meet the twelve from Cedar Cottage in an engagement at Moody Square, when good class play should be witnessed. The Royal city combination will be, in rotation of going, F. A. Rose (captain), Canon d'Easum, T. D. Sherriff, Rev. E. R. Bartlett, W. Spofforth, P. C. Lashmar, Thompson, C. H. Judd, T. A. Jones, Langford, and McLaren. Webber will be on the reserve. The game will start at 2:30. The Cedar Cottage eleven will be selected from Beecher, Arthur, Phillips, Goddard, W. Goddard, W. L. Glover, Whitaker, Wiggins, Nell E. W. Gardner, Read, S. A. Shrimpton and Harper.

BASEBALL. Friday, June 9. At Vancouver--Vancouver 7, Portland 4. At Tacoma--Tacoma 3, Victoria 2. At Spokane--Spokane 3, Seattle 4 (11 innings).

Junior Lacrosse Today. The Shamrocks and Tigers will meet in a junior lacrosse game this afternoon at Moody square. The Shamrock team is: Goal, G. Slaughter, point, L. Earle; cover point, D. McWaters; defence field, Swanson, Smith, and K. Adams; centre, J. Lynn; home field, Currie, Press and Malne; outside home, S. Reid; inside home, J. Gunn, Spares, Allison and Topping.

The Oven Of a Range. Image of a range oven with text: 'The Other Way'.

THAT a perfectly constructed, air-tight oven will bake better with half the fuel than a loosely constructed oven, is a fact beyond question. The Majestic oven is made of heavier material than any other, and is riveted (not bolted) to a malleable L, or angle iron frame, making it absolutely air-tight. The oven in an ordinary stove or range is bolted or riveted to the range body, without bracing and without frames, allowing a knife blade to pass through corners and sides. It is natural that with an oven constructed in this manner, it requires twice the fuel, and not near as good results as can be obtained in any oven of a Majestic Range. The Majestic oven stays that way, too.

RURAL SCOTLAND'S

CARNEGIE'S HOPE

Laird of Skibo Developing Scheme to Repopulate Farming Districts—To Check Pauperism.

Edinburgh, June 9.—Andrew Carnegie is developing a new scheme for repopulating Scotland. Some time ago he established a fund by which old Scots who had fallen on evil times in other countries were assisted back to the land of their birth and allowed a pension—in some cases amounting to $4 a week.

The scheme now under consideration is more ambitious. It is proposed to extend assistance to any able-bodied Scot whose conditions of employment in England, Wales or Ireland threaten to render him a burden on the rate payers or in any philanthropic organization. If it can be shown that he is a man of good character, anxious to work, he will be provided with a plot of land which, it is calculated, will enable him to get a living free from the embarrassments that follow casual employment in big industrial centers.

Financial assistance, under certain conditions, will be given him for the first twelve months, and longer if necessary, to allow him time to realize the products of his labor. The root idea of the scheme is to place Scotsmen back on the land and give them a proprietorial interest in what they cultivate, instead of being, as at present, exposed to the caprice of absentee landlords, who only appear in the country when there is sport to be found.

FIND GARTER SNAKE STOLE PUSSY'S MILK

New York, June 9.—The mystery of the continued theft of milk left for the pet cat at the plant of the Bergen Point Iron Works, Avenue A and Fifth street, Bayonne, was solved when the thief, a three-foot garter snake, was caught in the act. As a kitten pussy was taken to the works by one of the employees, and she became a pet with the office force, who took turns seeing that she did not want for food. Every few hours a saucer of milk was placed on the floor for her, and she began to grow fat.

Three weeks ago it was noticed that pussy was getting thin, and the men wondered. The milk diet was doubted, one of the employees decided to do some detective work. It was his turn to furnish the milk, and after he had filled kitty's saucer he hid behind the desk and watched. Pussy went at her milk voraciously, but she scarcely had tasted it before the snake crawled to the saucer. On its appearance the cat wildly dashed away and the snake slowly consumed all the milk, its head coiled up over the saucer. Its appetite satisfied, the snake was making tracks for its nest when Quinn killed it. Kitty, it is expected will regain her lost fat. Fright of the snake, the men believe, caused her decline as much as the loss of the milk.

On Monday evening the much discussed, and often postponed presentation of the estimates for 1911 will be made at the council meeting. The chairmen of the respective committees met in camera during the week, and have progressed so well with their deliberations that Monday was settled upon for the financial standing to be made public.

The monthly meeting of the Local Council of Women will be called into session on Monday afternoon. Recording Secretary Mrs. C. A. Welsh, who has been making enquiries on the question of the selling of milk in sealed bottles, will read the result of her investigations which she submitted to the city aldermen three weeks ago, and which the civic fathers promised to take into consideration.

Moses B. Cotsworth's report for 1910-11, which was ordered to lie on the table for one week so that the council might become conversant with the many details, will come up for discussion on Monday. At least two of the aldermen have marked paragraphs in the advance copies so that ratepayers may see a recurrence only on a smaller scale of the unpleasant incidents which characterized a similar report.

ITALY FACES A FINANCIAL PANIC

Rome, June 9.—Italian business men are becoming greatly alarmed at the prospect of one of the worst financial panics in their country that the world has ever seen.

The nation has been passing, during the past few years, through a period of almost insane inflation. At just about the time when the bubble seemed certain to burst, there comes the nearly complete failure of the jubilee year celebrations. Everyone had expected an enormous influx of tourists for the festivities, but the tourists did not come as fast as desired. Things are, in fact, not so lively as usual.

Another trouble is that the masses of the people have not been allowed to share in the prosperity of the upper classes and the result is that there has been an immense overproduction in all lines of industry. Finally, labor troubles have reached such a point as to interfere with every kind of business.

The storm threatens to break any day and when it comes there is every sign that it will be terrific.

CRISIS PROBABLE IN BRITISH POLITICS

London, June 9.—If an important situation is developing at all, it is outside rather than inside of parliament. Sir Edward Grey's admission to the National Liberal club on Thursday, that if the scheme of the House of Lords for reconstruction had been known earlier the present conflict might have been avoided, has caused lively comment. It is believed that the problem gains a new complexion by this speech, which is regarded as indicative of developments in the direction of peace.

There is a very general impression also that home rule has been "betrayed," that is, that the compromise will be reached between the veto bill and transformation of the Lords on the understanding that home rule be postponed. It is now generally believed that Mr. Balfour's bitter hatred of home rule alone made the famous conference abortive and that he will agree to much if that is abandoned.
