AMONG THE MINING MEN

News Of Development From Various Properties in Hazelton District

E. P. Spalding, of Spokane, who has become prominent in mining affairs in this district, has begun work on the Amargosa group of four claims, on Rocher de Boule mountain, adjoining the Great Ohio. This promising property, formerly owned by H. Neville Wright, was recently taken over by Mr. Spalding and associates. A temporary camp has been established and work on the trail is now under way. A permanent camp will be built at once, and Mr. Spalding says the miners will be working underground before the end of the month.

The big tunnel on the Rocher de Boule is now in 750 feet. The management of the mine is seriously handicapped at present, through having no supply of cars. All bunkers at the mine and tram and all available cars are full of ore, awaiting clearance of ore from Prince Rupert, where the company's bunkers are also full.

Fifty men are starting work this week on the Knauss property on Fiddler Creek. A camp is being constructed and a road for auto trucks, which will transport ore and supplies between the property and the railway, will be built at once. Development work will be under the direction of D. J. Williams.

An assay of arsenical ore from the Cobalt group, adjoining the Hazelton View, gave a gold value of $266.60, the highest return in the yellow metal yet obtained from Hazelton ore. The six claims are owned by S. J. Martin and Arthur Lindquist.

F. H. Dakin, a California mining operator, has gone to Copper Creek with a small crew, to make a thorough examination of the big copper showing recently located at that point.

J. King, a prominent mining man identified with the Tonopah-Belmont company, arrived from the coast last night, and is examining properties on Rocher de Boule mountain.

A remarkable sample of bornite from the White Heather group, on Hudson Bay mountain, was brought in this week by Frank Martin, and is on display at the Progress Club.

T. H. Rea, managing director of the Debenture, is here for a few days. He reports good progress in development. The crosscut was driven 17 feet last week.

S. J. Martin reports an assay of 44.2 per cent antimony from ore found in the Thoen Basin section.

C. J. Haggerty, an operator from the Nevada mining camps, was among yesterday's arrivals.

M. W. Sutherland has gone to Thoen Basin, to look over some mining claims.

HUNGARY SEEKS INDEPENDENCE

TIRED OF WAR, WOULD DESERT AUSTRIA---

ROUMANIANS ADVANCE AGAINST TEUTONS

London: An event of importance in deciding the war, far transcending the intervention of Roumania and the prospective entrance of Greece, is anticipated in the chancelleries of the Allied countries. This expected coup is nothing less than Hungary's defection from the Teutonic alliance. It is believed the Hungarian nationalists have gained such strength that they will be successful in making their country a separate kingdom.

Despatches received today indicate that Greece has already joined the Allies. An Entente fleet of 23 warships and seven transports is off Piræus.

Saloniki: There has been fighting between the Greek garrison of Saloniki and the Greek volunteers recently organized to assist the Greek regulars who are resisting the Bulgarians in Macedonia in opposition to the orders of the pro-German war office. French troops intervened to suppress the conflict. The garrison finally surrendered and marched out of Saloniki.

Geneva: Fighting has become general along a front of 400 miles in Transylvania. The Austro-Hungarians are finding it impossible to hold the frontier and are retreating to their second fortified line.

It is reported a council of war, to be attended by the Kaiser, Francis Joseph, and Ferdinand of Bulgaria, will assemble shortly at Vienna.

Bucharest: Russian troops invading Transylvania have occupied the important industrial centers of Petrosen and the Tailunge valley, near Kronstadt. On the northern and northwestern fronts our advance continues in all directions.

Paris: Competent authorities estimate that 550,000 Germans have been put out of action in the Verdun region alone since February 21. The total number of prisoners taken in the Verdun sector exceeds 43,000.

Four German aeroplanes were shot down yesterday on the Somme front. Another was captured.

London: There is great aerial activity on the Somme front. Five successive infantry attacks on the British positions were repulsed.

Petrograd: Brusiloff has again assumed the offensive and vicious battle are being fought. Russians are taking many prisoners.

Rome: The Italians have begun an offensive in southern Albania and have occupied the town of Pelpelini.

A Teuton attack on the Isonzo was repulsed.

London: General Smuts has occupied the German town of Mogoro, the provincial government seat in German East Africa.

NEWS OF OUR SOLDIER BOYS

Information received by the Soldiers' Aid is to the effect that Corporal John Wadey, who enlisted here soon after the outbreak of the war, has been killed in action.

That the 102nd Battalion, in which twenty Hazelton men are serving, has been in action already is indicated by the appearance in the list of wounded of the name of A. L. Russell, of Burns Lake.

T. W. Brewer, who is company sergeant-major of the grenade company of the 16th Battalion, has received the military medal for notable conduct. Tommy is at present in hospital, wounded, but doing well.

G. R. Middleton, popularly known as "Spot", is handling a machine gun in the 16th. He is now a corporal.

James Turnbull, of the Princess Pats, has so far escaped wounds and sickness, although there are only seven men in his company who were on the roll when he joined the famous Pats nineteen months ago.

Fred. Field has been promoted to sergeant in the 102nd Battalion.

The Soldiers' Aid has sent another assortment of tobacco, cigarettes, candy, etc., to the Hazelton boys at the front. The committee endeavors to supply all men from this district with these comforts, as well as with newspapers and magazines.

Special to Telkwa

An effort is being made to secure a special train to carry Hazelton excursionists to the Labor Day celebration at Telkwa on Monday morning, returning at night.

May Prevent Strike

Washington: An eight-hour bill has been introduced in congress. Most leaders agree that if enacted today, the bill will justify the railroad brotherhoods in calling off the strike ordered for Monday, which would tie up 225 railroads.

Mrs. George Hall Dead

After a prolonged illness, Mrs. George Hall passed away at the Hospital this morning. The deceased lady, who was aged 34, leaves a husband and four children.

The funeral will take place on Monday at 11 a.m.

Send in your ore exhibits for the Fair.

The Club is endeavoring to arrange for the lighting of streets on the evenings of the Fair.

Committee on Improvements

The board of trade has appointed R. S. Sargent, S. J. Martin, and J. Naylor a committee to act in conjunction with the committee of the Progress Club in arranging for electric light and waterworks systems and other town improvements. J. F. Maguire was appointed honorary secretary of the joint committee.

W. McAdam returned from Edmonton on Wednesday, and has gone to Fiddler Creek, where he and his associates are developing a promising property.

KEEPING UP A GOOD WORK

The remarkable work of the Canadian Red Cross in the great war has elicited praise from all authorities, and it is generally conceded that among the many organizations which are laboring to relieve the sufferings of wounded soldiers, none is doing more efficient work than Canada's great humanitarian organization. The Canadian Red Cross, though working in conjunction with the British society, is itself maintaining a large number of general hospitals, convalescent homes, field hospitals, etc. Its establishments are located in various parts of England and France and in various theaters ot war, and are receiving each month thousands of Canadian and other Allied wounded. The maintenance of this organization, in itself vaster than anything of the kind known previous to the present war, requires the provision of immense quantities of supplies and large amounts of money. That funds and material have not been lacking goes without saying—Canada is doing its duty in this as in other respects.

It will be a satisfaction to the people of the town to know that the Hazelton branch of the Red Cross is doing its share. The work of the local society for the six months ending in July is shown in the following figures, handed in by the treasurer of the branch:

RECEIPTS:

Individual Cash Donations	$129.65
Employees Chicago Group Mine	24.15
" Red Rose Mine	4.75
" Rocher de Boule Mine	84.60

" " 1st July Picnic	328.75

DISBURSEMENTS:

For Badges, Express, Postage, Etc.	20.25
Remitted to Head Office	635.00
	$912.17

	$983.70	$983.70

From material supplied by the working committees, the following have been made up locally, 132 pairs of socks, 15 sets of pyjamas and 12,500 surgical dressings. There is still on hand a supply of (approximately) $100 worth of material.

The Hazelton branch, which has 101 members, is to be congratulated on the splendid showing it has made. We are confident that the people of the town will continue to give the Red Cross their hearty support in the noble work it is doing so well.

Germany's Last Reserves

London, Aug. 28:—An Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs:

"It is clear from information reaching Holland that the last two months have been spent by the German military staff in Berlin in readjusting home military arrangements in order to release every single available fighting man. Every garrison has been practically cleared of every trained man, leaving a minimum of inefficients with inexperienced officers for any normal, and possibly abnormal, duties that may arise in the towns throughout Germany.

"This latest and probably the last mustering of men has secured a very considerable addition to the fighting forces. The men thus collected have been sent to certain centers within easy reach of the east or west fronts. Thus Cologne had recently to provide for 130,000. Germany's man power may be regarded therefore as now at the absolute maximum on all fronts, the authorities having been forced by the urgent necessities of the military situation to adopt extreme and heroic measures in a final desperate effort to hold the Allies' advance toward German soil. The minimum number of German munition workers, compatible with safety, has been retained in the workshops, recourse being had to foreign labor on even a greater scale than hitherto.

"A decision, so far as the present type of warfare is concerned, is fully expected before the end of the summer. I am told that even large numbers of men of the navy have been brought ashore, put into field gray, and trained for land fighting. I have every reason to believe this statement to be accurate."

A Splendid Program

A splendid program has been arranged for the Prince Rupert Fair, to be held on Sept. 20, 21 and 22 next.

A good line of exhibits is promised in all industries, a feature in the fishery exhibit being the collection of C. Harrison, of Massett.

Competition will be as keen as usual for the Dewar cup in the district exhibit. On the recommendation of the judges a new system of point scoring has been adopted, and this competition is now placed on the same basis of competition as in other parts of the province.

Attractions of all kinds in the way of sports, fireworks, vaudeville, baseball and football are promised and the usual Old Time Barn Dance will wind up the event.

A change has been made as to the distribution of prizes, the directors having decided to use all efforts to pay the prizes on the third day of the exhibition instead of mailing them later.

The transportation of exhibits has been considerably improved upon. All exhibits are subject to a refund of all freight paid provided they are disposed of for charitable purposes. The directors have arranged for all exhibits owners of which are willing to send in under the above ruling, to be sent in by freight collect. The freight will then be paid by the association and a refund obtained by them. In sending in exhibits under this arrangement address them to the Secretary N. B. C. Association, Prince Rupert. Freight must be paid by exhibitor on all exhibits the return of which is desired by the exhibitor in the usual way. All charges for transfer from dock or depot to building are paid as usual by the association.

One gate only will be charged admitting to the building and games, etc.

The livestock classes have been cancelled.

Prohibitionists Organize

A meeting of local people interested in the success of the prohibition movement was held last evening in St. Andrew's Hall. Rev. Wm. Stevenson, of Vancouver, representing the People's Prohibition party, gave a brief talk on the subject, after which a committee was appointed to conduct the local campaign.

Result in Doubt

Dawson, Sept. 1:—The prohibition referendum taken on Wednesday seems to have resulted in the triumph of the "Wets", although the "Drys" claim to be still confident. Results so far show a majority against the measure of forty, with eight polling places, totalling 200 votes, to hear from.

Doubling Phone Business

The local system of the Northern Telephone Co., now includes 31 phones, as compared with 17 in June. Arrangements are being made for the installation of a central switchboard.

THE MINER WAR BULLETINS

MONDAY, AUGUST 28

London: Roumania has declared war against Austro-Hungary. The official announcement was made today in Bucharest.

Roumania is the fourteenth nation to engage in the great war. Her action adds half a million well-equipped and trained soldiers to the forces of the Entente Allies.

Russia will now be enabled to strike at the Teutonic powers through Roumania. In anticipation of favorable action by the latter, Russia has been concentrating on the frontier for months.

England is rejoicing over the announcement. There is grave apprehension throughout Germany. The Kaiser wrote King Ferdinand of Roumania that he was sending Duke Albrecht on a special mission to Bucharest. Ferdinand replied that he preferred any communication from the German government should come through ordinary political channels. Immediately on the declaration of war on her ally, Germany dismissed the Roumanian minister at Berlin.

London: The Prussian guard was sent, wave after wave, to recapture trenches at Thiepval held by the Wiltshires and Worcesters. No fiercer fighting has taken place on the western front. Shell flashes lighted the guards as they pressed their charges, making them targets for the numerous machine guns with which our trenches were armed. The British continue to hold the positions, which the German troops have been instructed to take at any cost. Every attack has been beaten back.

The British have gained ground at Mouquet farm, notably to the southwest, where 400 yards of German trenches were captured.

German troops twice attempted to enter the British lines near Arras, but were repulsed.

Paris: After an intense bombardment the Germans last night launched an infantry attack west of Tahure, in Champagne. They penetrated the French position, but were subsequently expelled.

On the Verdun front, east of the Meuse, the enemy attacked the French line between Fleury and Thiaumont, but made no advance.

Paris: The landing of Italian troops at Saloniki has been completed. Italians have occupied Porto Palermo and the summit of Mount Kalarat, in southern Albania, in order to watch the Albanian coast.

The Bulgarians have suffered a sanguinary defeat and are falling back, continually pressed by the Servians, whom they are stubbornly resisting.

The Bulgarians have captured the Greek fort of Starlia.

Rome: The Italians have made further advances in the Fassa Alps, in the Travignola and Rienza valleys. There is comparative quiet in the Gorizia sector.

Petrograd: Fierce fighting continues on the Stokhod.

In the foothills of the Carpathians, in Galicia, the Russians have pressed the Austrians back, making a considerable advance. West of Nadvordan our advance guard occupied the village of Guta.

The Turkish forces, in an attempt to encircle the left flank of the Russian Caucasian army, appears to have received a crushing blow from the troops of the Grand Duke Nicholas in the region of Lake Van.
