PRICE, FIVE CENTS

STEVEDORES HAVE QUIT WORK

Big Steel Ship Belle of Scotland Lying Idle

Men Ask Fifty Cents an Hour Instead of forty Cents—Made Demand a Little After Eight and Quit Work at Once.

Last night's rain evidently had a bad effect upon the stevedores employed in loading the Belle of Scotland for they went to the office of the Pacific Coast Stevedoring Co., at ten minutes past eight this morning and demanded an increase in pay of ten cents an hour. They did not get it and now all is quiet at the wharf. The busy scene of the past few days is no more and the men who have been lying around idle for several weeks have resumed the same job. The Pacific Coast Stevedoring Company of Vancouver, has the contract of loading the five thousand tons of coal rails which the Belle of Scotland brought around from Sydney for the T. P. They also unloaded the other five steamers and in each case they paid forty cents an hour and there was no trouble. That rate was started here and was apparently satisfactory.

Capt. Mercier is representing the Stevedoring Co., here and he told the Optimist this morning that he had heard absolutely nothing of the approaching trouble until ten minutes after eight this morning when the men all walked into the office and demanded fifty cents an hour. "I could not give it to them," said the captain, "and I asked them to go back and work until Saturday night to give me an opportunity to take the matter up with the head officials in Vancouver. This they refused to do and quit work. They will stay out until I get a reply from head quarters. I will communicate with Vancouver during the day."

The Belle of Scotland with Capt. Nuttman in charge, has nothing to do with the trouble. The Pacific Coast Stevedoring Co., of Vancouver took the contract of unloading and they will have to handle the strike. In the meantime the big ship is lying idle in the harbor and losing valuable time. It is not thought however that the trouble will last long.

STRIKE ON GRAND TRUNK

RAINMEN REPLY TO OFFER OF MACKENZIE KING

Some One of United States Interstate Commerce Commissioner As an Arbitrator—Hays Refused To Accept an American.

(Special to the Optimist)
Ottawa, July 22.—The Grand Trunk rainmen on strike have made a dignified reply to Minister of Labor Mackenzie King's offer to bring about a board of arbitration. For their representative on the board they offer the name of E. E. Burke, of the interstate commerce commission of the United States. This brings the point at issue to where it was at the time of the ultimatum offered to President Hays, of the railway, Mr. Hays then having declined to allow an American to be called in as an arbitrator. Minister King has still hopes of being able to surmount this and other difficulties that may be presented and bring about a mutually satisfactory agreement.

Montreal, July 22.—As the result of a conference of many weeks between the officials of the Canadian Pacific railway and its trainmen, an agreement has reached this morning which is said to prevent the possibility of this company's trainmen and conductors joining in the Grand Trunk strike. The nature of this agreement has not been made known.

JACK AN UNDESIRABLE

Officials of Australia Are Down on The Colored Champion

(Special to the Optimist)
Melbourne, July 22.—The enquiry that has been going on into the suppression of the moving pictures of the championship fight has disclosed the fact that every time Jack Johnson has come to Australia he has had to put up a bond and to leave directly his ring engagement ended. The officials have passed him as an "undesirable."

TELEPHONE VOTE ON AUGUST 8

CITY CLERK WAS APPOINTED RETURNING OFFICER

Polling Booth in the City Hall—Polls Open from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Telephone Directory Will be Issued By the Committee in Due Time.

A vote of the people will be made on August 8th to ascertain whether the council will take the telephone plant over and run it as a municipal enterprise or not. This decision was arrived at last night. It was also decided that only telephone directories that were printed would be published by the telephone committee and the business people will not be called upon to advertise in them.

Telephone Directory

A communication was received from E. C. Beard asking the privilege of printing the city telephone directory. He would supply it free if allowed the privilege of inserting advertisements.

The mayor opposed the idea of having a directory full of advertisements. The business men will only have to pay for it and the telephone department should be able to pay for its own directory, or go without one.

Ald. Pattullo, Ald. Lynch and Ald. Mobley agreed with the mayor and said that there were three printing houses in the city which could do all the printing required.

Ald. Pattullo introduced a by-law defining the duties of the city engineer and staff. It was read a first time and passed.

Telephone Vote

City Solicitor Williams reported that he attended a meeting of the Telephone Committee held Wednesday night and he had a copy of the agreement passed by the company to transfer its assets to the city. He asked if the council wished it read. The company will require at least part of the money in a shorter period than one month and it would be necessary for the city to arrange with the bank to advance the money pending the issue of the debentures.

The agreement was then read. Solicitor Williams asked what the council's policy would be in regard to the company. Would the council wind the company up or would it be allowed to die.

The aldermen decided to wind it up. Then it was decided to go ahead and submit a by-law. The city clerk was appointed returning officer and the polling place will be at the city hall and the polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. The election will be held on August 8th.

Laurier at Melville

Acting as Rooter for Minister Graham in Baseball Match

(Special to the Optimist)
Melville, July 22.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party rested here yesterday, in the afternoon enjoying a baseball game in which G. P. Graham, minister of railways and Premier Scott of Saskatchewan played on opposite sides. Sir Wilfrid sat on the bench and rooted heartily for his cabinet minister.

Another Aviator Dying

Rome, July 21.—(Special)—Harmant, the famous aviator, fell with his aeroplane yesterday, owing to the engine becoming disabled. He is reported to be dying from the effect of his injuries.

DR. CRIPPEN NOT YET CAUGHT

Newspapers Retelling Story of Murder Mystery.

Scotland Yard is Silent and Makes No More Boasts of Contemplated Arrests. Resume of Principal Points in the Tragedy.

(Special to the Optimist)

London July 22.—No further confirmation has been received from Cardiff of the arrest there of Dr. Crippen and Mlle. Levene, and it is thought to be merely a newspaper sensation. It succeeded in working up the public to a renewed interest, and a large crowd assembled at Scotland Yard and waited to a late hour in the hope of some important news being given out, but they were disappointed. The police officials stated they have no further information for the public. There are rumors, of course, that the alleged murderer's whereabouts are known, but meantime the newspapers are endeavoring to appease the popular demand by reviewing the whole story with here and there a new point of minor interest.

This story of the finding of the remains of Belle Ellmore, a famous vaudeville artist, and the sudden disappearance of her husband, Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, has thrilled the people of the two continents. After the unrecognizable body of the woman was found in the cellar of the doctor's residence it became clear that there was a murder, and the sudden disappearance of Dr. Crippen, in view of his previous misrepresentations as to the death of his wife, pointed the finger of suspicion at him so strongly that experts say he is the murderer.

Belle Ellmore was treasurer of the Music Hall Artists' Guild, and shortly after her disappearance, in answer to inquiries as to her whereabouts, a notice of her death in California appeared in London papers. Though it was generally credited, there were some reasons for suspicion.

So frequent were the rumors of foul play that the police questioned the doctor. For some reasons their interview seemed satisfactory, but immediately

PRINCE GEORGE ON HER WAY

New Steamer Leaves Vancouver Tonight on Maiden Trip

(Special to the Optimist)
Vancouver, July 22.—Steamer Prince George will arrive here from Seattle at mid-day and will leave on her maiden trip to Prince Rupert this evening.

Invited to Coronation

London, July 22.—(Special)—It is understood that all invitations to the imperial conference next year will be accompanied by invitations to the coronation.

CROSSETT HAS GOLD PROPERTY

SAMUEL HARRISON VISITED THE NEW MINERAL FIELD

Only a Prospect With About Ten Feet of the Vein Uncovered—Crossett Has Taken Out Drills to Do Some Development Work.

Samuel Harrison visited the Crossett gold claim about a quarter of a mile back of the mouth of Bitter Creek. He returned to Prince Rupert this morning and stated that the discovery is only a prospect yet. He has got about ten feet uncovered and while he brought into town several samples which showed gold that is visible to the naked eye and which also carried copper, he cannot say, and neither can anyone else say, what there is in the property. Mr. Harrison, along with a number of Stewart men went out and examined the rock. To them it looked good and they do not doubt but that Crossett has found gold, but they cannot say how much. Crossett has confidence, however, and has taken out drills and other tools and will get busy for a while to see what he really has got. There has been no stampede, however.

The new Grand Trunk Pacific division superintendent, G. A. McNicholl, left on the Prince Rupert for a business trip to Vancouver. He will probably return on the same steamer.

PERILOUS SLIDE DOWN GLACIER

FRANCIS L. OTTER SLIPPED AND ROLLED 300 FEET.

Companions Thought He Was Killed—Carried Jas Lidden Along With Him—Stopped When They Struck a Boulder.

Francis L. Otter of Samuel Harrison & Co's office at Stewart, slid 300 feet down the side of a mountain while returning over the glacier from the gold fields. His trip was a most hazardous one and all his companions expected him to be dead. He is still alive and is going about the town as usual although a little sore.

Otter, Harrison, Lidden and a number of others were crossing the glacier on their return home. Jas. Lidden and party was leaving Harrison and Otter and he sat on the slide and started down. Otter, who was picking his way along the ice turned to see him and slipped. He shot down the side of the mountain like a streak of lightning. Harrison called to Lidden who had stopped and as Otter came down grabbed him, but he was travelling too fast that the force took him along also, and they rolled on down in each other's arms until they reached some big boulders. Otter's back came in contact with one of these and their perilous trip was stopped. The men above hurried down expecting to find both men dead, but Lidden jumped up and helped the others to fix Otter up. His back was injured and his arms were badly bruised. After a time he was able to proceed toward camp although the pace was naturally a very slow one. He will be all right however in a few days.

It was most fortunate that he did not break a leg as it would have been impossible to have taken him home. It would have been a case of leave him there as the trip over the glacier is a ticklish one and a man needs all his strength and both arms and legs to make it

That part of the mountain down which Otter went has since been called Otter Slide.

WHEN THE KING IS CROWNED

GREAT GATHERING OF EMPIRE FIXED FOR NEXT JUNE

Members of the Government of Overseas Dominions Are Especially Invited to Take Part in Coronation Ceremonies—Will Be Crowned in Westminster Abbey.

London, July 21.—The date of the coronation of King George V. was announced nearly a week earlier than was expected. His Majesty will be crowned in Westminster Abbey on June 22 next year.

Another departure is being made in connection with the ceremony. The overseas states will officially participate in the event. The members of the governments of the Dominions will be specially invited to take part, and will be accorded definite official status.

A deputation today waited on Col. Seely, under secretary of state for the colonies, urging that the dominions beyond the seas should receive special recognition at the coronation. This representation Col. Seely listened to most sympathetically, and there is no doubt but the required change in official procedure will be made.

MANN BEGINS SUIT

Canadian Northern Magnate Seeks Injunction as to Smelter Patent

Toronto, July 21.—D. D. Mann, vice-president of the C. N. Railway, issued a writ today to restrain Dr. J. S. Island, a dentist and inventor, from using or transferring his inventions or patents Dr. Island is the inventor of a process for smelting low grade ore at a low cost, and Mr Mann alleges he holds an option on the invention. He claims that after giving him this option, Dr. Island formed a company, which after considering the offer made by Mr. Mann refused it as not being high enough and proceeded to establish a smelter. Mr. Mann asks that Dr. Island be restrained from giving his time, services and secrets to anyone else.

SASKATOON

There's a town that's coming strong,
Saskatoon,
And it's coming right along—
Coming soon;
There, the summer winds are low,
Where the summer roses blow;
You can stand and see it grow—
Saskatoon.

In a valley, O, so fair,
Saskatoon,
(See the railways will be there,
Very soon);
Sunny skies and fields of gold,
Land you'd like to have and hold,
Place to have your fortune told,
Saskatoon.

A blind pig can usually see an officer approaching.

The hot-dry weather seems to have caused a drought in the local labor market.

Prince Rupert insists on being original and progressive. One of the latest is dementia gasolinia.

The water famine in the Grand Trunk creek from which we get our daily supply of aqua pura has been temporarily suspended.

A Liberal correspondent inquires whether an "affiliated" Liberal means one who has paid his dues. We refuse to guess the answer.

To-morrow the city council is going out to look for power. One would think that being rulers of the greatest city in the world they would be satisfied with their command.

If Premier Laurier is in good humor when he visits Prince Rupert he may be induced to finish up the big wharf which the McBride Government started some years ago.

The entertainment committee who are to look after Premier Laurier should arrange for the weekly procession of transfer wagons-carrying four day's mail from the Camosun to the post office. This is one of the sights of the North country.

afterward the doctor disappeared, as if frightened. This disappearance of course, stimulated inquiry, and the Crippen home was at once searched, with the result that a ghastly find was unearthed. The body of a woman was found, but it was partly destroyed by quicklime and had been buried for some weeks in the cellar. By the finding of the body and some other discoveries all doubt of the identity of the corpse has been removed. The indications point to a coolly planned murder.

An investigation was begun and it was learned that when the officers visited Crippen they forced him to admit that his wife had not died in California. He then said that he and his wife had quarreled and that the following the quarrel she disappeared. The police refused to accept his explanation because of the fact that the woman was found to have left her jewelry and money behind.

IRISH QUESTION AGAIN

Lord Grey Advises That Parliament Come to a Decision

(Special to the Optimist)

London, July 22.—Lord Grey in his public speeches has been advising an early settlement of the Irish question, and it is now believed that his course is due to the fact that Colonel Roosevelt, when in England, pointed out that if this were settled Great Britain and the United States would be very near to an important agreement, possibly an alliance.

No Council Meeting

There will be no council meeting until Monday night. Saturday night the aldermen will be up the river looking for a water power.

"THE NEW NORTH"

Miss Cameron's New Book Commended by London Times.

Miss Agnes Deans Cameron's book, "The New North," is being favorably reviewed by many critics, both in the old and new world. In a notice of Miss

Cameron's latest work, the London Times, says:

"Miss Cameron is a Canadian tempered in the tense life of Chicago, and, when she made up her mind to 'run as far as God has any land,' and not to follow the lines of lesser resistance from that midway metropolis, nothing in the world would have prevented her from traveling northward through Central Canada to the delta of the Mackenzie, the land's end in that direction.

A kindly humor (comparable with that of Mark Twain's travel books) and a gift of shrewd observation are revealed in her impressions of the people she met—Indians of several "nations" and Eskimos, English and French pioneers and the various types of half-caste.

Miss Cameron is most interesting when she ceases to think of the spectacular development of the northwest and introduces her readers to the makers of this new north at their work and at their play. She gives us a charming description of a ball at Fort Chipewyan, that ancient seat of an inclusive hospitality. Louis-the-Moose acted as caller of the dancers, and none of the dancers in moccasins on the earthen floor (obviously the waltz is impossible at Fort Chipewyan) dared to disobey his orders.

Ladeez, join de lily-white han's,
Gents your black-and-tan!
Ladeez, bow! Gents, bow-wow!
Swing 'em as hard's ye can.
Swing your corner Lady,
Then the one you love!
Then your corner Lady,
Then your Turtle Dove.

Many a picture of the kind she gives, always allowing the Northerners to talk their trans-Athabaskan lingo. Here are some specimens of their queer colloquialisms. "He reached out his hand for a drink" rendered into that lingo would be "He got his thievin' irons on the joy juice," or "He stretched his mud-hooks for the fight-water." "He set him afoot for his horse" means "He stole his horse," and from this form of expression is derived such phrases as "He set him afoot for his blankets." To call the tribe together the Indian chief sends around little pieces of wood and from this custom originates the phrase "go send your chips" for a dance or a business gathering.

AUTOMOBILE ORDERED

Machine Costing $8,100 Will Be Here in Three Months.

The Fire and Water Committee sent an order today to Walkerville Ont for a Seagrave combined hose and chemical automobile. This machine will cost in Walkerville $7,850 and $250 will be the freight charges coming out, making a total cost of $8,100. It will require, according to the agreement, three months to get it here, but the committee will be impressive upon the manufacturers the urgency of the machine and it is expected that it will be here sooner.

Gasoline Tanks

The Building By-law was passed its third reading on Wednesday night and finally adopted last night. It goes into effect at once and the building inspector has started to work under it. During the past few days he has been visiting the various places of business where gasoline is used and acquainting the proprietors with the regulations in the by-laws governing the gasoline cans and tanks.

Metal Workers Scrap

On July 14th, C. O. Roe, of the Prince Rupert Sheet Metal Works, and John Brownlee, got in a mix up in the Helgerson building over the metal work. As a result Roe was before the magistrate this morning on a charge of assaulting Brownlee. He was remanded until 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when he will be given a hearing.

Remanded Again

G. T. Williams the self confessed fire bug appeared before magistrate Carrs this morning, but on the request of the prosecution, he was remanded until Monday morning. Williams interests will be probably looked after by L. W. Patmore.

BETTER THAN A KNOCK

M. Aldous Tells Winnipegers About Prince Rupert

M. Aldous, of Winnipeg, paid this city a visit during the latter part of last month, in the interest of a British syndicate largely interested in property here. When he returned to his native city M. Aldous gave the following interview to the Free Press.

"M. Aldous, of Montague Aldous & Laing, has just returned from a trip to Prince Rupert in connection with the erection of buildings and the advancement of the property interests of a European syndicate which he represents. He was astounded at the development of the place since he was there a year ago. Then, he says, he found practically nothing but a little hamlet around the dock, now there is a substantial, progressive town of between 4,000 and 5,000 people. Already it has some twenty miles of planked streets; and it is installing telephone and electric lighting systems which are expected to be in operation in a very short time.

"Of course, Mr. Aldous says, the future of Prince Rupert ultimately depends upon the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, of which it is the terminal point; but its importance is greatly enhanced by tributary resources.

"Take Queen Charlotte Island, for instance," said Mr. Aldous, "it is a future realm in itself."

"Mr. Aldous regretted that he had not time to go over, but he talked with a number of people, who said that its fisheries and minerals were immense, while in climate, like Vancouver Island, it was superior to the mainland."

BUYING MORE RAILWAY

Mackenzie and Mann Have Secured Several Ontario Lines

Ottawa, July 20.—It is stated on good authority that Mackenzie and Mann have practically completed negotiations for the purchase of Central Ontario, Bay of Quinte, and Brockville and Westport railways, aggregating some 284 miles of road. It is understood the purchase of the Brockville and Westport line, 44 miles in all, was completed last week. Negotiations for the acquisitions of the Central Ontario line, 132 miles north from Picton to Bancroft, and of the Bay of Quinte line connecting Deseronto, Napanee, Tweed, Harrowsmith, and Kingston with 108 miles of rails, have been in progress for some months.

These lines will be valuable feeders to the new C. N. R. line now under construction from Toronto to Montreal.

BITTER CREEK'S GOLD FIELDS

M. P. McCAFFERY VISITED HIS OWN CLAIM LAST WEEK

Says the Country is Good—He Has Great Confidence in it Now That He Has Seen it—Hard Trip Over the Mountains.

M. P. McCaffery, of McCaffery and Gibbons, returned from a trip to Bitter Creek and Stewart on the Prince Rupert this morning. He spent a week in the north and aside from doing considerable business in Stewart real estate he made a trip to Portland Canal mine which he was greatly impressed with, and then he went over to the Bitter Creek reef where he and the Gibbons each have a claim which was staked by Anderson. Their claims are among the best and they have great value. As has been stated before not enough work has been done on the reef to show what really is in the claims, but what he saw was about 12 feet wide and had been uncovered for a distance of 3000 feet. He is confident however, that the reef can be followed much farther than that and that the values will keep up.

Since he went up and saw it for himself Mr. McCaffery says he has a great deal more confidence in the property. In speaking of the trip he told the Optimist that it was the best outing anyone could take. The climb over the mountains is great; the scenery is wonderful; the weather was fine all the time. "I climbed the mountains until all the skin is worn off my heels. Coming back I came alone and I wouldn't do it again for a good deal. It would be a very easy matter for a man to slip on the glacier and roll into a crack and remain there completely hidden from the world. The old prospectors may say the trip to Bitter Creek gold fields is easy but to the tenderfoot it is hazardous and extremely tiresome.

OLD WORLD CONCEPTIONS

Too Slow to Grasp Rapidity of Frontier Development

The London Times contrasting Sir Wilfrid Laurier's present tour through the west with his famous campaigning trip of 1894 says:

"Sixteen years ago there was a certain hopelessness in great portions of the west. Population was coming in slowly, communications were scanty and inadequate, and the future seemed dark. The Canadian Pacific was a single-track line with comparatively few branches; it now has branches in all directions, which are added to every year, and its main line is being double-tracked. In addition, the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Pacific are rapidly opening up vast territories, into which streams of new settlers are pouring. What were struggling towns sixteen years ago are now great and prosperous cities, what were villages are towns on the way to be cities, what was prairie is covered with townships. These places grow with a rapidity which baffles all our Old World conceptions of agricultural life. While an English country town is getting a few sheets of plate-glass in its principal street, a Canadian village is equipping itself with theatres, public halls, electric tramways, libraries and newspapers."

Growing Power of West

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier became Prime Minister of Canada the West had ten members in the Dominion parliament. The number now is thirty-five and it is probable that next year's Dominion census will give the West a representation of fifty-five members at Ottawa. The West is destined to dominate in the affairs of the Dominion; and the present century will not have advanced very far on its course before that destiny is fulfilled. —Mantoba Free Press.

Furnished Rooms May Be Rented Profitably.

Just to have "furnished rooms to rent" is no great feat—or novelty. The number of people whose homes are in furnished rooms—"homes within homes"—is very large.

And among the people who live in "one room homes" are an increasing number who like to have things a little better THAN USUAL. They like to have a pleasant room, and they like to have it fitted up DISTINCTIVELY, with taste.

They will cheerfully, eagerly, pay for SOMETHING BETTER in the way of a furnished room. Fix yours up to please the particular tenants, and ADVERTISE ACCORDINGLY, and you'll get back your investment with profit in a very brief time.

Eight Hundred Lots Will Be Put on Sale—Location is an Ideal One for Near at Hand.

Messrs. Gibson and Van Houten of the Bitter Creel townsite syndicate are in town today on business. The syndicate have a beautiful property at the mouth of Bitter Creek and Bear River containing about 800 lots in about 21 blocks. The land is good and it lays well and if the mines develop as everyone believes they will, there will be a good little town at Bitter Creek. All the most promising prospects are almost immediately adjoining Bitter Creek and there is everything in its favor. The syndicate are now applying for a crown grant and it is expected that in a short time the lots will be for sale.

Workmen's Compensation.

The appointment of Sir William Meredith to inquire into and report on workmen's compensation is another step in an endeavor to bring this question into bounds. The subject of workmen's compensation has produced a long list of intricate problems to be settled by judicial authorities. In Canada we have a large number of Acts operative in the various provinces. They differ materially and it requires an expert to figure the question of liability in a given case in a given province. The report to the Ontario Government by Sir William Meredith will undoubtedly prove to be a valuable contribution to the subject. The Monetary Times hopes that it will contain a reference to the desirability of uniform legislation relating to workmen's compensation in Canada. The provincial statutes tend to make more complicated an already involved matter.

Those Tiresome Addresses

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's visit to the West will be no idle mid-summer jaunt. Delegations are arranging to waylay the Premier at every stopping point, and he will be fully informed of every grievance that exists in this greater half of the Dominion. To add to the festive character of the trip he will be presented with addresses galore, the phraseology and sentiment of which can not fail to recall recollections of something he has heard before, the familiar voice of an old friend who will not be denied. —Vancouver Province.
