DR. CRIPPEN ON HIS TRIAL

NO NEW EVIDENCE INTRODUCED THE FIRST DAY

Miss Le Neve Refused To See Her Father Except on Condition That He Makes No Reference To Her Relations With Crippen.

(Special to the Optimist)

London, Sep. 6.—A great crowd gathered around the building when the court room opened for the trial of Crippen Bow street for a time being rendered impassable. But few managed to gain admission to the court and a large squad of special police kept the crowd moving. Even the reporters had to undergo a careful scrutiny, and none were permitted to enter the court except those properly credited to leading London newspapers.

There was a great array of legal talent and much formality in the proceedings. The case against Dr. Crippen charged with murder, was begun but there was nothing new in the evidence, the greater part of which was in regard to the finding of the body of Mrs. Crippen.

Miss Le Neve was formally arraigned as an accessory and also the second count of the indictment that of harboring and assisting a fugitive from justice was read to her. She pleaded not guilty to both counts.

The prosecution stated that it would proceed against the girl only as an accessory after the fact, and they did not claim, so far, that she had any real knowledge of the alleged murder. The second count was to be tried separately.

While she has been awaiting trial Miss Le Neve has refused to see her father unless he promised to speak on casual subjects only and not to refer to the Crippen case. She also refused to be questioned by him as to her relations with Crippen. He saw her a few minutes only the daughter being much more agitated than he but both relieved when the interview was over.

CHAMBERLAIN SENDS WIRE

The General Manager Has Suggestion For Arbitrating Tax Dispute

W. C. C. Mehan, received the following telegram from E. J. Chamberlain on the 4th:

"Would suggest to citizens committee that they formulate a proposition based on President's letter to Mayor and submit."

It would appear from thus that after all there has been a proposition from the G. T. P.

The aldermen endeavor to deny the charge that the Hays communications were considered in star chamber sessions but the communications from the G. T. P. have not yet been made public. They were not read at the council meetings along with the other communications. "Why should they be kept dark?" is the question raised by the citizens.

CITIZENS TAKE UP ASSESSMENT

Ultimatum of President Hays Discussed and Thomas Dunn Appointed Delegate to Open Up Fresh Negotiations With Railway Company at Vancouver.

The difficulty in regard to the Grand Trunk Pacific assessment has so exercised the minds of prominent citizens of Prince Rupert that after a preliminary informal conclave on Friday they assembled in the City Hall on Saturday afternoon to meet the mayor and members of the city council and discuss the matter, stating their view that immediate steps should be taken towards negotiation with the Grand Trunk Pacific on the subject with a view to arriving at an amicable settlement.

When those interested has assembled the mayor briefly stated the purpose of the meeting and P. I. Palmer called on Tom Dunn to act as spokesman and give expression to the citizens' point of view regarding the assessment question.

Thos. Dunn said that after a conversation with Mr. D'Arcy Tate during which Mr. Tate had said that owing to the assessment deadlock the G. T. P. would certainly shut down their work here for an indefinite period, he had felt that the citizens should make some move to have the matter amicably arranged. "It is not up to us as citizens to fight the G. T. P." he said, and explained that the citizens' meeting had been called for that afternoon because C. M. Hays and party were leaving Vancouver on Tuesday and it was urgently necessary that the matter should be looked into before Mr. Hays left the coast.

Some Mistake in Matter

"We all understand, I think," said Mr. Dunn "that the assessment on some portions of the G. T. P. property is excessively high, and if this is so there is no reason why it should be. If there has been some mistake in the matter owing to letters not reaching their destination there is no reason why the city should force the G. T. P. to pay. "We are agreeable to abide by the result of government legislation in the adjustment of the matter" he continued "but we do think it time that an arrangement was amicably arrived at. We shall never have so opportune a time again for negotiation."

The mayor said there seemed to be some misunderstanding regarding what had actually taken place at the council representatives' meeting with C. M. Hays. He re-iterated the point that Mr. Hays had been asked to submit a proposition and had refused to do so.

Hays Wants Exemption

"It is not a question of getting that assessment reduced on the part of the G. T. P. but one of abolishing it altogether" said the mayor, "and if the assessment is cut off the city improvement works cannot go on. The city is as anxious to treat the G. T. P. fairly as the citizens here present."

Thos. Dunn—"Then get into negotiations with them and see if they will arrange this matter."

Ald. Pattullo—"We tried this but Mr. Hays wants what is practically exemption—that is a tax of only about $6000 for fifteen years. It was represented to Mr. Hays that the G. T. P. hotel and other improvements were not to be taxed. The G. T. P. own so much of the townsite that if the assessment is reduced it simply means that we cannot go on with the public works."

Thos. Dunn—"They don't want the taxes reduced on their townsite property but merely on their right of way."

Ald. Pattullo—"They want more than that."

Thos. Dunn—"Whatever they want is a matter for negotiation. Get into touch with them."

Ask For Proposition

P. I. Palmer thought that Mr. Dunn had expressed the feeling of the citizens concerned very well. Then Ald. Pattullo suggested that if the citizens were not satisfied with the situation they should prepare a proposition and submit it to the council.

Thos. Dunn—"Not at all. Let the council suggest something."

Ald. Pattullo—"Is it your wish then that the council should suggest to the G. T. P. that they are willing to exempt G. T. P. property for fifteen years?"

P. I. Palmer was in the act of saying that he thought that might be the feeling of the meeting when he was interrupted by cries of "No! No!" from every direction, and Thos. Dunn said "Not for fifteen years."

"Well" said Ald. Pattullo "that is just what C. M. Hays wants us to do."

The Optimist Was Alive

After some references on the part of the citizens and councillors present, to the presence since the beginning of the meeting of the Optimist reporter, and the question of how much of the proceedings it was desirable to make public Ald. McIntyre rose expressing satisfaction at seeing so many prominent citizens taking so active an interest of the city.

"You will find" he said "that the council and the citizens are really unanimous on all matters affecting the best interests of Prince Rupert."

The matter of the meeting with Mr. Hays about which the citizens seemed to be nervous, he went on to say, was not a formal meeting binding on the council. The situation was open for any negotiations that might later be necessary. "But," he said "the matter is important as affecting our revenue considerably, and no alderman or citizen is antagonistic to the G. T. P. The attitude taken up by the council is a sensible one. There was a court of revision. The G. T. P. had the opportunity to appeal and did not appeal. It seemed almost babyish on the part of the G. T. P. to want the assessment reduced now. Besides they are able to pay."

A Little Give and Take

Ald. McIntyre agreed, however, that there ought to be a little give and take in the matter. "I would be quite willing to open up any sort of negotiations with the G. T. P. that would be to our mutual advantage, but at the same time we have to maintain our dignity as citizens."

Ald. Pattullo asked if the citizens present had any suggestion to make. "The only thing we suggest" said Mr. Law is that we get into communication with Mr. Tate and let him know that the citizens have met and desire to enter into negotiations."

Would Be Undignified

Ald. Lynch said that after what had occurred he did not see how the council could approach Mr. Hays without a proposition. Mr. Hays had asked for exemption first because he said the assessment was ten times too high, and second to delay their improvements, and Mr. Hays had spoken of Port Simpson.

"It would be undignified on our part after they refused to give us a proposition here, to go now and beg them on the same question," said Ald. Lynch warming up to his subject "whether the assessment is too high or too low, I will not attempt to say. It was made by the assessor appointed by government, and I for one will not interfere with the assessment except to submit it to the people."

Doesn't Give a Cent

"C. M. Hays, I believe," he went on, "will build his shops here just when he needs them and not a day sooner. As for his hotel, I don't care five cents whether he builds his hotel here or not. I don't believe Vancouver is one bit the better of having the Hotel Vancouver. Seattle and Tacoma cities were benefited a great deal more by the enterprise of individual hotel managers in business for themselves and better than any hired hotel manager could ever be."

"C. M. Hays' reference to Port Simpson is all talk" went on Ald. Lynch. "We know that the G.T.P. has expended too much money on this townsite to change it now. They are fixed here irrevocably. The man who will most regret it if the news is published broadcast to the world that he has made war on Prince Rupert his own chosen terminal will be C. M. Hays. The G. T. P. have sold millions of dollars worth of property to investors who have trusted to their representations regarding Prince Rupert. The G. T. P. want millions more and want them from the English investor. A prominent capitalist with Mr. Hays' party said to me 'Let the news that C. M. Hays is at war with Prince Rupert be published and he will find it difficult to rustle for money in the English markets to carry on his plans.'"

"I will not give you one minute's assistance in formulating a proposition" concluded Ald. Lynch emphatically "I speak for myself remember; I am not speaking for the council."

Against Any Reduction

M. M. Stephens spoke rather in support of the council's action. He thought it would be unwise of the council to submit a proposition now. Let the G. T. P. submit one if they had one. If the G. T. P. wanted to go to Port Simpson they'd go whether their Prince Rupert assessment were reduced or not. He was not in favor of a reduction of the waterfront assessment to six or seven thousand dollars a year, and did not think any blame attached to the mayor or aldermen interviewing Mr. Hays.

The matter of the interview with C. M. Hays was again dwelt upon, Ald. Pattullo stating that Mr. Hays had continually reduced the matter to the simple question "Do you or do you now want these improvements to go on?" C. C. Westenhaver wanted to know if the assessment were a proper assessment, and if it were based on a true valuation.

ALMOST LOST LIFE FOR HAT

PRINCE GEORGE PASSENGER HAS A CHILLY BATH

Smart Rescue By Captain and Crew Of the Steamers British Columbia And Prince George Late on Sunday Evening.

Prompt and seamanly action on the part of the commander and crews of the steamers Prince George and British Columbia at a point within a days steaming of Prince Rupert on the way to Vancouver averted what might have been a drowning tragedy.

The Prince George on the way to Prince Rupert on the latest trip had just passed the British Columbia when the cry "man overboard" was raised and the Prince George was immediately stopped and sent astern while a boat crew sprang to their stations.

Meanwhile the British Columbia had been signalled and her captain also lowered away a boat and sent a man aloft to look out for the dark spot on the water that told where a passenger from the Prince George was struggling for his life.

By good luck and good eyesight the drowning man was spotted smartly from the British Columbia and in about fifteen minutes he was hauled out drenched and shivering and put aboard his own steamer.

The passenger who desired that his name be withheld, stated to his rescuers that his hat had blown overboard, and in the act of trying to save it he had himself overbalanced and followed his head-piece in to the chilly water. He was naturally relieved at being so smartly rescued. To lose his life for his hat was not by any means a plan to his mind.

HAS LOST THE SERIES

Vancouver Team Pulls Up But Again Gives Way to Spokane

(Special to the Optimist)

Vancouver, Sep 6.—The local team won a double header on Sunday and thus broke even once more with Spokane, but in the Labor day game she lost, and this meant the loss of the series by one game. She has still a chance for the pennant, however. On Saturday there was no game between the two, it being called off on account of rain. At the Tacoma the local team beat Seattle by score of three to one.

PAINFUL FRACTURE

Prevents Hans Olsen From Appearing as Witness

A painful accident occurred on Saturday night to Hans Olsen of the Hotel Skandia. While passing along the sidewalk by the Royal Bank block his foot slipped and he fell heavily, fracturing a small bone in his leg. He was removed to his home by the police, and the injury was attended to. The fracture is not a serious one, but will prevent Olsen from attending his duties for several weeks.

He was to have appeared as a witness in the Police Court this morning, in the case of Eric Rosang formerly in partnership with Olsen who was charged with having sold whisky to Alex. Norberg, but was of course unable to attend.

MINING NEWS FROM THE SKEENA DISTRICT

Lead King Starts Shipping With Four Ton Sample.---Telkwa Claims Taken Over By Colorado Operators.

A. E. Whiting and C. O. Redd of Denver, Col., both mining men of large experience in western United States, returned several days ago from the Telkwa district where they completed arrangements for taking control of the claims owned by C. Thomas, in Hunter Basin, and providing the money for development purposes.

Mr. Whiting expressed himself as being very well pleased with the showing on the property, the remarkably high grade of the ore being its most attractive feature. Present plans call for considerable work this coming winter and a vigorous campaign next summer. The claims involved in the deal lie close to the well known and rich properties owned by Carr brothers of Hazelton and Bulkley valley, and Wm. Hunter. Besides being a high grade of copper ore the veins in Hunter basin carry silver values running in some cases to several hundred ounces to the ton.

Copper City Cable Ferry

The cable ferry which during the past month has been in operation between Copper City and the north side of the Skeena river, is kept busy every day in the week ferrying passengers across the river, and all who have so far crossed the river on it, pronounce it the "slickest" ferry they have ever seen.

First Shipment Encouraging

Returns have been received of the values contained in the trial shipment of about four tons of Lead King ore sent to the Trail smelter several weeks ago. To be exact, the dryweight of the ore was 8,225 pounds, assaying 92.4 ounces of silver, 38.5 per cent lead, and 25.6 per cent zinc. Freight from Hazelton to Trail consumed $91.42 of the values, and the treatment charge of $10.50 per ton took $43.18, leaving a balance of $109.19, without taking into consideration the lead bounty of three-quarters of a cent a pound on the lead, which will amount to a total of $23.75 more.

This is a remarkable showing. Considering the fact that the ore was practically found on the surface within three months after the claims were located, it is still more remarkable. No attempt was made to sort the ore and after it was landed in town last fall, people who thought they knew did not hesitate to say it would not pay its way to the smelter.

The high percentage of zinc is proof that there was no attempt to sort, as a reduction in the zinc would have been the first thing sought in that line.

While it is quite possible to ship ore of this or a better grade at a profit under present conditions, it would be nothing short of folly to do so to any extent beyond that of tests. With the laying of steel on the second section of the G. T. P. in another twelve months shipment costs will be very much reduced, effecting a saving of much more than interest on the amount involved.

Work on Kinman Property

On the Erie work is continuing. The contract for fifty feet of sinking is completed. The paystreak has passed into the hanging wall and it will be necessary to cross-cut for it. Surface stripping shows the ledge to be continuous. At the beginning of the week an oreshoot 275 feet long has been exposed on the surface and was at depth nine feet wide.

To Start Development Work

Wm. Dalton, foreman for G. Lloyd Faulkner and associates, who have bonded five claims on Fourmile, making a cash payment of $8,000, has returned from Vancouver and gone to Fourmile to inaugurate work on the property, which he states is to be carried on all winter with a good force of men.

MONEYED MEN FROM ALL OVER

COMING TO THIS PROVINCE FOR SHOOTING SEASON

Millionaires From Gotham and Multi Millionaires From Standard Oil
City of Cleveland—Some of Them
Are Gone to Yukon.

The present season promises to see a greater number of big game hunters in this province and the contiguous Yukon than in any previous season, the influx of moneyed men in search of royal sport being in large measure due to the energetic and systematic advertising campaign conducted by the government.

No fewer than eight parties are looked for as a result of the interest excited through British Columbia's fine exhibit at the Vienna sportsmen's show, and the eloquent presentment of the province's opportunities for sport made by the commissioner in charge, Mr. Warburton Pike. The majority of the already arriving hunters, however, are from the Eastern States, and all are men of means. As a result it is confidently to be expected that while enjoying the sport which British Columbia provides for lovers of the hills and valleys, they can scarcely be blind to the opportunities offering also in the way of industrial and commercial investments.

The majority of the new arrivals are said to prefer payment of the full year's license for shooting and fishing, Count Campbell, who is now in Atlin, is hoping for a later chance for sheep,
setting the fashion in this respect.
Mr. Peters, of Columbia, Ohio, has left for the headwaters of the Mc-Millan, intending to be out at least two months, with Roderick Thomas as guide. Wilson Peter, of Philadelphia,
H. W. Corning, of Cleveland, and Otto Cybert, of New York, are heading for the Upper White river, and have with them Tom Dixon, of Klauane, as guide, and Bruce Fisher as camp boss, pack-train foreman and general aide. Hamilton Fish, jr., and Benjamin Moore are two other New Yorkers in search of health, rest and sport afield. They have booked H. E. Porter as guide and started out for Lake Arkel, where mountain sheep are reported as plentiful as fleas on a yellow dog. Still another party includes F. C. Havemeyer and Insley Blair, of New York,
the former a son of the so-called "Sugar King." They have Joe Lamb as guide and will try their luck in the White river country.

BUSINESS MEN FAVOR ARBITRATION

Saturday's meeting of the business men brought out several points in connection with the G. T. P. request for a nominal tax rate. The principal one is that the business men almost unanimously admit that the yardage tax on the company is away out of proportion. Some try to blame the assessment but that shirking the issue. Certain of the aldermen who were at the conference with the company repeatedly state that Mr. Hays had no proposition yet they announce that Mr. Hays insisted upon a $6000 tax for fifteen years. The two statements are rather contradictory. It sounds very much like a suggestion of a proposition at any rate, and it is certainly something with which to start an arbitration. In view of the failure of the conference to accomplish nothing but a rupture with the company it is regrettable that more of the aldermen were not present. The business men seem to be of a more friendly attitude toward the company than the councillors who held the conference.

In explaining at the public meeting Saturday the reason why there were only a few members of the city council at the conference with the G. T. P. officials the mayor says he only had short notice of the meeting, yet he succeeded in finding Ald. Pattullo who lives at one end of Section one and Ald. Lynch who lives at the other end, to say nothing of the city solicitor who lives away out in quite another direction.

"Don't be stampeded" is the pleading of the aldermen which is a somewhat different song from the battle cry on the electoral range on May 19 last.

A verbatim report of Saturday's public meeting reads like a Pattullo sandwich.

The Northern News of Athabasca Landing, which is the farthest north newspaper east of the mountains, states that on August 1st the average measurements of grain in that district were: Wheat five feet; oats 50 inches; rye 68 inches; barley five feet; alfalfa sown May 20, 39 inches; red clover 29 inches. This is a record for central Alberta to be proud of. That country is the feeding ground for Prince Rupert.

BUSY MORNING IN COURT

SEVERAL CASES OF LIQUOR SEL-LING PRESSED

Magistrate McMullen Presides Over
A Crowded Court of Pretty Well Mixed People Likewise a bottle of Scotch—Morning's Little Breeze.

This morning's police court after yesterday's holiday was crowded. Pretty nearly every nationality known to the coast must have been represented, including Swedish, German and Chinese. Scotch was there too—in a bottle; and during the court proceedings there were heard within the very precincts of law and order, the clink of the bottle against tumbler brim and the festive guggle of the firmly forbidden barley bree.

A case of spirit selling against Eric Rosang of the Skandia hotel was adjourned till tomorrow after various witnesses had been heard. Magistrate McMullen who presided in the absence of Magistrate Carss desiring to consider the evidence before pronouncing upon the case.

There was some doubt as to the sobriety at the critical period, of a witness Alex Norberg in this case. He was the principal witness for the prosecution, and Mrs. Olga Rosang was principal witness in favour of her husband.

In the next case which was also a spirit selling charge against Joe Kelwassar the same witness, Alex Norberg, also appeared and caused some merriment be declaring from the box "I was drunk that was a cinch". In the same case Joseph Schwetsler a german told of a staff called Vermuth which was a light kind of wine, and which accused declared was all the liquor he could possibly have supplied to anyone. Schwetsler declared he had had a drink from the suspected bottle every morning for about a week, and that the stuff was Vermuth, whereupon Mr. Manson suggested that it must have been a mar-

MENT NEGOTIATIONS

Tom Dunn's Telegram Sent Within Fifteen Minutes of Close of Citizens' Meeting on Saturday Afternoon. Reply Anxiously Expected.

Up to the present nothing further has transpired in reference to the G. T. P. assessment situation. Tom Dunn, the citizen's representative in the matter is awaiting the reply from C. M. Hays to the telegram sent at his request by Superintendent Meehan to Mr. Hays.

"The telegram was on its way within fifteen minutes after the close of the meeting," Tom Dunn told the Optimist today. "No reply has as yet been received, and until we have a reply it is impossible to say what the nature of the negotiations it is proposed to enter upon with the G. T. P. will be.

"The terms of the telegram were simply these: that the citizens of Prince Rupert had met and discussed the matter of the assessment with the mayor and members of council, and that the citizens desired negotiations to be opened upon the subject."

vellous bottle to last!

Mr. Patmore was interested in the nature of Vermuth, and Kelwassar declared that in his opinion it was "a rotten stuff" which nobody would ever drink enough of to get drunk on, and which his patrons sometimes flung out on the floor after a taste.

Regarding the colour of the stuff, the witnesses were dubious. Some thought it pink, others said it was brown. All were sure it wasn't exactly the colour of the whisky in court which Chief McCarvell poured into a tumbler for inspection. This case was also adjourned along with the case against Winnie Johnson charged with having run a peculiar type of domicile.

Baseball Up River

A beautiful day and a large gathering was the order of things at Little Canyon last Saturday when the long talked off championship baseball match between the Kitsumkalum Kids and the Little Canyon Tigers were decided. About one o'clock p.m. the crowds commenced to assemble and they seemed to flock in from every direction. The game was billed to commence at 2:30 sharp but owing to the distance some of the patrons had to come, the management decided that 3:30 p.m. would be more suitable. The grounds were beautifully laid off and Mr. Geo. Little did everything in his power to cater to the wants of everybody. The ladies stand was to the right of the scorer's booth where they had a magnificent view. Mr. Little was very much in evidence in this particular quarter where he was voted a regular Beau Brummel for his very much appreciated attentions. Refreshments were served before and after the game. Everybody was in their glad rags and seemed supremely happy. The game ran very smoothly although very disastrous to the Tigers, and seldom in the annals of the great, American game was better ball played double's being quite the order of the game.

Adjustment an Abolishment

"Suppose we take it that it is not?" said Ald. Pattullo.

"Then it should be assessed correctly on a proper valuation. That is a matter for a committee to consider and adjust" said Mr. Westenhaver.

The Mayor—"It is not a matter of adjustment but of abolishing the assessment."

The probability of the G. T. P.'s leasing the waterfront was mooted.

"They won't," said M. M. Stephens. "I happen to have taken up the matter with them and am in a position to know that they won't."

C. C. Westenhaver suggested that perhaps a few preliminary negotiations were all Mr. Hays wanted.

Again the subject of the interview with Mr. Hays was gone over the only fresh point brought out being contained in a remark of the mayor's, that Mr. Hays had said "There are four of you here, any one of whom can sit down and in a few minutes write out what you want,

Are All In The Dark

"What sort of proposition would you have us submit to Mr. Hays?" asked Ald. Pattullo.

"Yes, what should we say to Mr. D'Arcy Tate if we write him?" added the mayor.

Mr. Law thought a proposal on that part of the council to consider knocking off so much of the assessment for this year at least would be sufficient to open up negotiations. Thos Dunn said the point was to get D'Arcy Tate here before the party left the coast.

There followed some further discussion on the question of whether the assessment was considered equitable or not, and who should adjust it if it were too high. A remark by Mr. Law that apparently the two hours spent in discussion might have been spent to better advantage, brought the meeting back to the direct business in hand.

Company Might Shut Down

Ald. Smith rose and said "The real question is the question of the waterfront assessment on the G. T. P. I don't think it a good thing for the city to get at logger heads with the G. T. P. It is a thing which will do the city a great deal of harm. Mr. Hays' party came with the intention to put the works in hand right away. They left saying they would not do this on account of the difficulty with the city over the assessment. Now I would like to point out a thing which has not been touched upon yet. That is that labour conditions in B. C. are particularly bad for railway construction, and it is quite possible that if the difficulty persists in Prince Rupert the G. T. P. may withdraw all operations at this end and build from the other end of the line where they can ship men in cheaper. With this in view "he concluded" I think we should enter into negotiations with the G. T. P."

There was some applause as Ald. Smith sat down.

Re-open Negotiations

Ald. Pattullo again wanted to know what proposition the citizens wished the council to submit.

Thos Dunn moved that the mayor get into communication with Mr. D'Arcy Tate before he left Vancouver, and P. I. Palmer seconded the motion.

Ald. Barrow said that the G. T. P. as the aggrieved party had let slip their opportunity, and suggested that the mayor should write to Mr. Hays confirming the council's interview with him, but suggesting that the G. T. P. should now offer a proposition and appoint some one to discuss the matter.

Mr. Benson added that some one in authority should be sent here, say Mr. D'Arcy Tate.

"Are we not rather a handful of citizens to take such a step as this motion?" put in M. M. Stephens.

"It is the first steps" said Thos Dunn

Difficulties in the Way

The mayor pointed out the difficulty the council had in approaching Mr.

Hays when they had already asked him for a proposition and been refused. He protested against having to go back to Mr. Hays.

C. C. Westenhaver supported the mayor in this, and said it was up to the citizens to shape something up and take a little of the responsibility off the mayor.

Ald. Pattullo thought that Thos. Dunn might write to D'Arcy Tate himself and suggest that he should come up and discuss the matter.

The mayor then reminded the meeting that Mr. McNicoll was in the city, and suggested that he be asked to wire Mr. Tate to come.

Thos. Dunn—"If anyone is needed to go to Mr. McNicoll, I will go."

Ald. Smith suggested that three representatives citizens might form a committee to negotiate with the G. T. P.

Have No Legal Powers

Ald. Lynch said that it was this private impression regarding the interview with Mr. Hays that the G. T. P. were well aware that the city had no legal powers to alter the assessment and give them the fifteen years' exemption they wanted. He thought they wanted to make a deal with the council to submit to the people. "That is my impression only" he said "take it for what it is worth."

Mr. Benson: "Why should a few aldermen jump to the conclusion that the G. T. P. want fifteen years' exemption?"

Ald. Pattullo "That is exactly what they do want."

It was then moved by Mr. Law and seconded by Mr. Arnott that Thos. Dunn be appointed a committee of one to communicate at once with the G. T. P. on the subject of the assessment with a view to opening up negotiations.

"From the Campbellton, N. B., calamity we should learn a lesson on insurance. Those who have property owe it to themselves and others dependent on them, as well as the place in which they live, to keep properly insured, and if Campbellton had had reasonable insurance there would not be the privation we see today. Merchants should be insured for the protection of those from whom they buy, as well as themselves. I remember one large firm of manufacturing clothiers used to have on their invoices in red, 'Are You Insured?' and it is a reasonable question for them to ask, even although the buyer may be well rated."—Mr. W. RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA

NEW YORK SUN ON LAURIER'S TOUR OF WEST

United States That Has Been Slow In Rejustment of Relations to Suit National Trade Requirements Of Two Countries.

The speeches made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the course of his tour of the North-West says the New York Sun, have caused great resentment among the supporters of the Chamberlain policy of Imperial federation based on trade preference between Great Britain and the Colonies. Thus a correspondent of the Daily Mail has discovered a great mare's nest. According to him there is a "conspiracy" on the part of settlers from this country to "Americanize" the Provinces in which they have bought land, with a view to destroying the efforts of "loyal Canadians," and so on. Then as a sort of anti-climax comes this: "Everywhere the opinion is held that within the next two years a treaty of reciprocity will be concluded between the United States and Canada."

The Dominion Premier has been perfectly open in his advocacy of better business relations between us and the Dominion. Addressing a number of former Americans at Winnipeg early this month, he advised them to take part in local politics, in the following words:

"Yours is the greatest of all patriotic privileges. You can do much to improve the relations between the land of your birth and the land of your adoption, and you can do much to weld the bond of union into an offensive and defensive alliance between the British Empire and the American Republic. The result would be a state of affairs of the world under which not a single gun could be fired without their joint permission. Perhaps this is too ambitious a dream, but there is something we can do. Our commercial relations in the past have not been satisfactory, and we must improve them. We have taken up our stand on British preference, and that we will not depart from. It is, and shall remain, part of our fiscal policy; but I can conceive a wide field of reciprocity. That is the goal we can attain."

As a matter of fact, it is this country, and not Canada, which has been shy as regards the readjustment of legislation to suit the national trade requirements of the Republic and the Dominion. Which simple fact makes the conspiracy theory ridiculous.

It is furthermore absurd to allege, as the correspondent of the London Mail does, that "Everybody here (in Canada) realizes that the United States is striving with might and main to secure that preference which Great Britain persistently refuses." Canadian statesmen who can consider the question with unprejudiced minds realize the futility of trying to divert trade by means of a preference, seeing that, in spite of that given to Great Britain, the steady increase in the volume of business done with this side of the line, under comparatively adverse conditions, has not been checked to any appreciable extent.

MANY FOREIGN INVESTORS

MUCH CAPITAL NOW COMING IN FROM ABROAD

Canada Most Attractive Investment Field of Present Times—New Country With Energetic and Capable Men Guiding Its Destinies.

In an interesting article the Monetary Times gives an analysis of the amount of foreign capital invested in Canada. The article is one of a series the two first dealing with British and American investments. British investments for the past five years amounted to the enormous sum of $605,453,852 American investments for an indefinite period have aggregated $279,075,000. Foreign capital other than the two stated investments in the Dominions amounts to $77,889,650.

French investments more than equal the total of money sent from all the other countries of Europe. Many French institutions have so long been established in Canada that in the east they are looked upon as Canadian institutions. Naturally the most of it has been attracted to Quebec, but of the entire $49,250,000 the republic has sent to the Dominion some $500,000, has been invested in British Columbia real estate. The Pacific province is more deeply indebted to Germany however for it is a remarkable thing, that of the $16,500,000, the aggregate of German investments in Canada, the comparatively enormous sum of $2,000,000 has been placed in British Columbia, chiefly in real estate.

No doubt is there, that Canada, as an investment field is one of the most attractive of the present times. It is a new country, with all before it. The personality of most who are guiding its destinies is marked with energy and confidence in their country's future. This spirit is the birthright of those whose cradles are rocked in Canada. It is a gift to others who have adopted Canada as foster mother. Progress has been enough in Canada to allow capital to feel comparatively safe here. Sufficient nation building has been accomplished to banish grave capital risks as exist in many other countries. The building which remains to be done will insure the obtaining for capital of adequate return.

There are eggs and eggs but the eggs stamped with the red "C" are Fresh Eggs. tf.

PLEASANT HOLIDAY

A Fine Labor Day Enjoyed by Prince Rupert Citizens

Yesterday being Labor Day the fine weather was particularly welcome. A big percentage of Prince Rupert citizens observed the holiday. Places of business were closed and the papers were not published. In the morning a regular procession of jolly picnickers went down to the boat houses burdened with provision baskets and other festive impedimenta. The weather clerk was in excellent humor throughout the day, and by nightfall the picnic parties were back again in the city with hearts as light as their baskets now relieved of their store of good things. Parties of hunters who had left the city for the hunting grounds on Friday and Saturday returned with the darkness, and there is much banter going in the city this morning on the subject of bears and deer. Everybody is emphatic on one point, however, and that is that they had a downright good time.

There are no chickens in the eggs stamped with the red "C". tf
