WAPPENSTEIN LOST HIS JOB

MAYOR HI GILL PUT CHIEF OF POLICE BACK

Seattle's Mayor Knows Nothing of Any System Whereby Law Breakers Are Receiving Police Protection and Reinstates the Chief.

(Special to the Optimist)

Seattle, Oct. 3.—Mayor Hi Gill hurriedly broke up his vacation when the news reached him that Acting Mayor Max Waddell had dismissed Chief of Police Wappinger, as a result of his investigation into the graft charges. At four o'clock Friday the acting mayor removed Wappinger from office; at half past six o'clock Mayor Gill returned and said that if Wappinger was guilty he would have to stay fired. At midnight the mayor briefly and bluffly stated, "I will reappoint Wappy in the morning." Which he accordingly did. He said:

"I am in hearty sympathy with any fair investigation of the men connected with the city government. So far as I am personally concerned I know nothing of any system whereby law breakers have received police protection. Waddell's intentions are all right, but he lacks the experience to handle the situation."

FLYING ACROSS ROCKIES

First Attempt Ends in Failure Owing to Mechanical Defects

Vancouver, Oct. 3.—Aviator Mars attempted late on Saturday to fly across the Rocky Mountains, starting from Butte, Montana. He ascended to a height of seven hundred feet when something went wrong with his engine causing the machine to glide to earth, small trees breaking the fall.

Oriental on Railway Work

London, Oct. 3.—The Morning Post says regarding the talk of importing Orientals to railway construction work in Canada, there should not be the slightest chance of Canada again trying such a disastrous experiment.

Suffragette War To Re-open

New York, Oct. 3.—(Special)—The return of Mrs. Mackay Smith from Europe yesterday means the re-opening of the suffragette war in this and other states. A large war fund was collected during Mrs. Smith's tour.

Times-Democrat Has Fire

New Orleans, La., Oct. 3.—(Special)—The publishing plant of the Times-Democrat was partly destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $125,000.

Senator LaFollette Suffering

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(Special)—Senator LaFollette is to be operated upon this afternoon.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

All the Bricklayers on Coast Will Probably be Called Out

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Oct. 3.—According to President Bowen, of the international bricklayers' association, a sympathetic strike of bricklayers will be called today at Portland, San Francisco, Seattle and perhaps Vancouver. The men here will strike also.

No Clue to Julian's Slayers

Victoria, Oct. 3.—The provincial police say they have no clue to the murderers of Julian at Revelstoke.

BERLIN NOW MUCH QUIETER

BLOOD-AND-IRON METHODS ARE NOW DEMANDED

Fear That Police Would Fire on Any Gathering Kept Streets Clear Last Night—Two Hundred Wounded Still in the Hospitals.

(Special to the Optimist)

Berlin, Oct. 3.—Since one o'clock this morning the city has been quiet. Yesterday the newspapers were united in their demands that Bismarkian blood-and-iron methods should be adopted to stamp out the disturbances.

The authorities called upon all peaceable citizens to remain in their homes last night, and it was generally feared that the police would fire on any gathering in their attempts to put the disturbances down. As a consequence there were no disorders.

About two hundred of the wounded are still in the hospitals.

WAR CLOUDS LOOMING UP

SITUATION DECLARED TO BE CRITICAL IN CHINA

Asiatic Fleet of United States Under Steam Ready to Sail to Hongkong —British Foreign Office Flooded With Appeals for Protection.

(Special to the Optimist)

Manila, Oct. 3.—Acting under orders from Washington large bodies of troops have been placed on transports ready to sail for China at a moment's notice. Officials here regard the situation as the most serious yet. The whole of the Asiatic fleet of the United States has been ordered to be in readiness to sail for Hongkong. The bustle of preparation is now practically over and orders to sail are momentarily expected.

London, Oct. 3.—British missionary societies are flooding the foreign office with demands that steps be immediately taken to protect British subjects in China. The conditions at Shanghai, where former riots were reported, is said to be most critical, and a general uprising means a great loss of life among the foreigners in Hunan province.

Shanghai, Oct. 3.—Because of the friendliness shown by foreigners to the government the patriotic societies of China believe the time has come to throw off the yoke of their Tartar conquerors, and they are now on the verge of starting a revolution with the object of establishing a Mongol and anti-foreign government.

TENDER IS CAPSIZED

Feared That Many of the Crew May Have Been Drowned

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Oct. 3.—The tender belonging to the battleship New Hampshire capsized this morning. It is impossible to know at present how many were drowned. More than a hundred of the crew were in the water. Further news are awaited with great anxiety.

No Confirmation of Report

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—(Special)—There is no confirmation of the report that President Taft has invited Canada to set a date for the re-opening of tariff negotiations.

DR. COOK OUT IN INTERVIEW

NEW YORK WORLD FINDS HIM IN WEST LONDON

Explorer Declares He Will Shortly Return and Denounce Peary— Will Prove That He First Discovered Pole Exactly As He Stated.

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Oct. 3.—The World newspaper claims to have discovered Dr. Cook in a dingy office of West London, and it prints a copyrighted story today which tells how Cook will return and denounce Peary.

Since his disappearance Cook has visited Toronto, Halifax, Liverpool, Gibraltar, Tangiers, Lisbon, Buenos Ayres and across the continent back to London. His wife was with him most of the time. His children are at school on the continent.

Cook says that he was in Albert Hall at the time when Peary lectured there. He was also a spectator at the king's funeral.

The Doctor says: "I shall have a message in a short time for those interested. This will prove that I discovered the North Pole exactly as I said, on April 23rd, two years ago."

The interview concludes with a close criticism of Peary's story of his dash to the pole.

GELATINE USED FOR EXPLOSION

POLICE HAVE NAMES OF MEN SUSPECTED

Five Wicker Baskets of Unidentified Remains—Mass Meeting Called for This Afternoon at Which General Otis May Be Leading Speaker.

(Special to the Optimist)

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—The police are in search of two men, L. Bryson and William Morris, in connection with the destruction of the Times printing office. These men bought five hundred pounds of eighty per cent. gelatine from the Giant Powder company just before the explosion. They said they were going to use the gelatine on a ranch at Auburn, for cleaving stumps.

Five wicker baskets are at the morgue, containing the remains of those impossible to identify. Three hundred men are excavating the ruins for the remaining bodies.

Thousands uncovered their heads when under the direction of the fire chief, two firemen placed a ladder against the blackened and warped flagstaff of the building and nailed a silken American flag at half mast.

An attempt is being made to raise a large reward in the endeavor to locate the guilty parties.

Dynamite was found under the Zack Chandler home. This bore the stamp of the Giant Powder company.

A mass meeting of the citizens has been called for this afternoon. It will probably be addressed by General Harrison Grey Otis.

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—Five more bodies were recovered early this afternoon. The residence of General Otis and the Chandler house are being heavily guarded.

Three arrests have been made. Martin Hagan, Anarchist, was arrested last night but the fact was not known until a few minutes ago.

GENERATOR HAS ARRIVED AT LAST

CITY LIGHTING PLANT WILL BE A REALITY SOON

Complete Equipment Waits at Van- couver Till Site Is Ready and City Prepared to Instal It, and Turn on the Juice.

The dark days are drawing rapidly near, and the long nights. But citizens of Prince Rupert need not be long anxious about that lighting plant for the city. The generator has arrived, and the rest of the equipment is at Vancouver ready for shipment as soon as the site is ready, the boilers fitted and in position, and the necessary arrangements made for putting up the complete city power plant.

Now that matters are in such a forward stage there can be no doubt that good speed will be made with the completion of the plant and turning on of the much needed light.

FEARED RIOTS AT LOS ANGELES

POLICE ARMED READY FOR ANY EMERGENCY

Bomb Found Near Residence of Owner of Wrecked Newspaper— Feeling Between Union and Non- Union Men Increased in Bitterness

(Special to the Optimist)

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—The feeling between the union and non-union men is so strong, following the destruction of the Times office, that rioting was feared all day Sunday, but nothing of importance took place. The finding of a bomb near the house of General Harrison Grey Otis, owner of the Times, led to special detectives being told off to guard the house and also the person of the man who started the war on unionism in this state.

Rifles and ammunition were secretly conveyed into the police stations last night to be ready for any emergencies that might arise, as the federation of labor is alleged to have planned and to have sworn to carry out further outrages directed against the enemies of organized labor.

The president of the International Typographical Union states that the explosion was not caused by dynamite at all but by a defective gas pipe which fed the linotype machines.

Sam Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor declares that unions fight now by peaceable means, and he blames Otis for charging the union with such a dastardly outrage.

The dead are now known to reach fifteen, and there is likely to be a few more.

The police declare they have positive clues to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Appointed Chinese Commissioners

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Gordon Grant and J. W. Defaris have been appointed a commission to inquire into the entry of false Chinese passports through Vancouver, which led to the suspension of Inspector Bowell.

Three Killed During Week

Metz, Oct. 3.—(Special)—Aviator Haas was killed yesterday, he and his mechanic being dashed to the ground. This is the third German aviator to meet death during the week.

BUSY HARBOR YESTERDAY P.M.

TIME THE NEW GOVERNMENT WHARF WAS READY

Steamers Came in Crowds Yesterday Afternoon and Had to Wait Their Turn for Wharf Room. The Union and the Bannockburn.

Harbor business as brisk as that of Sunday is the finest possible evidence that Prince Rupert is already pre-eminently a seaport with a future. But the briskness of the business, the arrival of steamboat after steamboat, and the impatient clamor of the sirens and hooters as they announced their coming and looked in vain for wharf room, is also excellent evidence that it is about time the new Government wharf was making more rapid progress.

At least eight steamboats came and went from the G. T. P. wharf yesterday. The busiest time was the afternoon when the G. T. P. steamboat Prince George arrived and found no room for her at the wharf. Just at her heels the C. P. R. steamboat Princess Ena steamed in and going round the waiting Prince George endeavored to establish a prior claim to wharf room. It wasn't a case of "Ladies First," however, and the Princess had to wait for the Prince's pleasure. The American boat had the wharf room, but got her business done quickly and pulled out, when the Prince George got in with the expected mails.

Meanwhile to add to the lively appearance of the harbor the big handsome freighter Bannockburn swung out into mid-harbor lightened of her load of steel, and amid the farewell booming of the steamer sirens, she steamed off through the entrance her propeller thrashing up the foam astern. Captain Dent of the Bannockburn has been very popular in Prince Rupert, his genial and hospitable manner winning him many friends.

The Bannockburn would have cleared the port about twelve hours earlier, it is said, had it not been for the stringency of labor union law which forbade the longshoremen from unloading the last ninety-five rails from the steamer's hold after six o'clock on Saturday night.

Considering the restricted wharfage accommodation for them the various steamers calling at Prince Rupert got through their business with remarkable facility and speed. The fact that the harbor was occupied yesterday by the Prince George, the Princess Ena, the Lilloet Bannockburn, Bruno, Henriette, Chieftain, a new steamer, and the American steamer is a pretty fair showing in favor of the coming sea-ward prosperity of the city of Prince Rupert.

But the Government wharf needs to be hurried on. Nothing apparently has as yet been done towards starting the construction of the reinforced concrete piles which it may be mentioned cannot be successfully built in frosty weather. The winter will soon be here now, so it may be safely predicted that the piling work at all events of the wharf must hang fire until spring.

CAMOSUN IN DRY DOCK

Will Probably Be on the Run Again by the End of the Week

James M. Rogers, local agent for the steamer Camosun, has received instructions by wire that the steamer Camosun, having to go into dry dock because of an injury to her machinery, will at the same time be entirely refitted and overhauled. She will have larger berths put in and other improvements made.

Edmonton, Sept. 25.—Wm. Connors, alias Guthers, acting as cook for a shooting party at Cooking Lake, disappeared Thursday after supper and the discovery of his body fast among the rushes with Connor's cap in the bottom of the boat, is believed to indicate suicide in the lake. He came some months ago from Cleveland with a shooting party which includes Sir Louis Davies, H. J. Dawson, George McLaren, S. H. Robertson and Sheriff Robertson.

ESQUIMALT DRY DOCK

Application Made By Messrs. Bullen For Federal Subsidy

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—Another big dry dock project for the Pacific Coast is being brought before the Minister of public works. Messrs. Bullen of the British Columbia Marine Railways have applied for a subsidy for a dock of the first or largest class to be located at Esquimalt. They intimate that they will file plans shortly. It is believed that the Bullens are associated with some British hipbuilding yard in their enterprises, which will involve the expenditure of at least $3,000,000.

To harbor fretful and discontented thoughts is to do yourself more injury than it is in the power of your greatest enemy to do you.—Mason.

SETTLED DOWN IN NEW STATION

CHIEF CONSTABLE McCARVELL AND STAFF QUITE AT HOME

Showing How Efficiency Can Be Quite As Efficient in a Small Place as in a Large One. Everything Shipshape in the New Police Shack.

Chief Constable McCarvell is a man of adaptability and resourcefulness and possesses as well the gift of contentment with things as they are, when they are as they have to be, and the best possible is being done with them.

Since Saturday the city's police chief has been in occupancy with his staff, of the new and palatial city Police Station airily situated in the rear of the plain and unpretentious Provincial Government building in which for a space Chief Constable McCarvell and his staff held transitory sway.

The cells are there, and their occupants, but the Chief and his staff have been promoted a little farther up the hill, and they have been busily engaged in making themselves at home this week end.

Their new premises are compact, and not entirely lacking in comfort or convenience while they possess the great advantage of a certain degree of privacy for the conduct of those constabulary concerns that necessitate tactful handling. The cheerful and unlooked for, also unwished for, Butinski will perhaps be less conspicuous now, thinks Chief McCarvell, upon the station horizon.

Within the Chief's new domain things are taking marvellously orderly shape. The telephone is in, the pictures—the fascinating gallery of criminal beauty, the "lost, stolen or strayed" section of the convict world as portrayed by the police photographer—these works of art are all adorning the walls behind Chief Constable McCarvell's business-like desk. The orderly rows of piled records are there ready for instance reference; there in a corner are certain grim looking guns neatly labelled—the productions of past cases awaiting their consignment to Victoria. Bright and cheerful above range the polished handcuffs, and the pleasant, persuasive six-shooters, likewise that other gentle persuader, the hardwood billet and truncheon of office.

The space is small but like all men who have known the power of discipline and profited by it to their own personal efficiency, Chief Constable McCarvell and his staff can make the most of every inch of space. With just a little difference the present city Police Station reminds one of the famous lines:

"The cottage was a thatched one,
The outside poor and mean
Yet everything within that cot
Was wondrous neat and clean."

And would-be delinquents are warned that Chief Constable McCarvell is just as capable of dealing with misdoers in his new premises as he was in the former ones.

PROTECTION OF GAME

Police Interfere With Sport of Railway Men at Jasper

Edson, Alta., Sept. 27.—After nine months of lone vigil in Jasper Park, the dominion forest reserve, which covers 5,000 square miles in the lower and higher reaches of the Rockies, Constable Richard Francis, mounted police, is to be relieved and brought down to Edson. In his place will be Constable H. G. T. Wells, who leaves here on Monday next on the 121 mile journey that will take him to Jasper House, and then on the lonely police post, where with his gun and his dog he will guard the wild herds of sheep and goats that roam about the mountains in thousands. Grizzlies, deer and elk will also be in his keep.

Constable Francis left Edmonton for Jasper House last December, and since that time he has acted as forest ranger, shepherd, wild animal keeper and guardian of the law. Prior to his arrival at the park, the wild sheep and goats were being slain by the hundreds. With the coming of the G. T. P. right-of-way clearers, mutton became quite a favorite and rather plentiful, while the sheep and goats seemed to be vanishing in the air as it were, growing less every day. Constable Francis had orders to seal all guns. This he did immediately after his arrival, and it is safe to say that there is hardly a rifle or other weapon in the hands of its owner in the park today.

Whoever is sensible of his own faults carps not at another's failings.

Thoughts, like diamonds, cost often less trouble to find than to polish.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

The financial muddle in which the city council finds itself brings about a crisis in our municipal history. The untangling of things and the ultimate way in which the trouble is overcome will influence the city probably for all time to come. Instead, however, of wasting more time in criticism and explanation there should be something done to overcome the difficulties of the situation. If the city is to be made a live one and a progressive one there is action needed now. Citizens and council should set aside their differences at least for the time being and get down to business. To raise sufficient funds on bonds in the regular way in order to carry on the contemplated grading will take a long time and many months of time have already been lost. That bonds backed by the votes of the citizens could be satisfactorily floated is beyond question but what about the meantime? The Optimist believes the wise course in the present situation is to go to the Provincial Government with the request that the Government back the bonds to the city to the extent of about a quarter of a million dollars. The Government is deeply interested in this city, both morally and financially, and it would not be out of keeping with their policy to make such a guarantee. With such a promise from the Provincial Government no assessment difficulty could interfere with the city's credit. The Optimist believes that with the matter placed before the Government in the proper way, and by the proper persons that the assistance of the provincial administration can be secured. At any rate, it will not cost anything to try.

CONGESTION AT THE WHARF

If Premier McBride had happened to take passage on the Prince George he would have seen the necessity of urging the completion of the government wharf. He would have had to wait on the Prince George while the Cottage City got out, and then he would have seen the Princess Ena waiting for a berth. The latter boat, owing to the delay, had not time to unload her local freight, as she was in a hurry to catch the last boat down the Yukon with a large part of her cargo, so Prince Rupert merchants will have to wait for their freight until she returns from Skagway.

MERRIMENT AND MUSKEG

SLIPPERY PATHS FOR PASSERS—BY ON SECOND AVENUE

Amusing Incidents Where People Take Short Cuts Over McMordie's Grading Work—New Plankway for Their Convenience.

The grading operations in active progress on Second avenue opposite the Government Buildings and at the junction of Second avenue with the old plankway leading down to Center street and the G. T. P. wharves, are causing quite a display of acrobatics on the part of the pedestrians who want to use that handy short cut as formerly.

There is no clause in McMordie's contract to provide paths temporarily for accommodation of foot passengers across his workings, nevertheless, a certain devious and narrow plank path, dry and more or less continuous, has been kept open since the start of the operations. But owing to the progress of the work, this pathway has changed its position from day to day, and as a result of lack of observation, several pedestrians have found themselves in precarious predicaments out in the midst of the mud and muskeg.

To set out along any plankway that came handy was a perilous proposition since you never could tell just where any particular plank was going to lead you. The other day a party of three ladies whose complexions betrayed their origin as somewhere in the Sunny South, got rather rattled in the effort to negotiate the maze of workmen's plankways. The lightest lady (in tow senses) tripped along and making a few elegant jumps got safely on to terra firma. Not so alas! the heavier damsels of dusky shade.

They tried one trail after another only to reach time after time a wheelbarrow and a muskeg face with a bowing and smiling Italian or Swedish laborer at the end of it shouting directions freely (and perhaps also cuss words) in his own language.

The duskiest and heaviest of the ladies got far separated from her companions, and amidst a volley of directions and, be it confessed, also a good deal of derision on the part of the burly muskeg heavers, she landed herself on a slippery pedestal where like a bronze statue of a lady of fashion she stood momentarily expecting a plunge into the muddy fluid below.

A workman—we think he was a susceptible son of the Emerald Isle, helped her on to a plank which led her considerably nearer to safety but still there was a leap of nearly four feet of slush to negotiate between my lady and the solid plank path to the wharf.

Amid the encouraging cheers—we had almost written jeers—of the spectators the final stage of the slippery crossing was accomplished with a splash, and a shriek of laughter, and then the show was over.

Mr. McMordie was this morning engaged in laying a broader pathway for those who avail themselves of this short cut, and it will now be possible to get over it dry shod.

Where I Assured My Life— I Assured My Life in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada

Because—Its profits to policyholders are large and equitably divided.

Because—It is a strong and prosperous Company, with large and well invested assets, yielding a high rate of interest.

Because—The Sun Life of Canada issues an absolutely unconditional policy. Great care is taken in the selection of risks, but when a policy is once issued there are no vexatious restrictions imposed on the future actions of the assured, but he is freely allowed to travel anywhere or do anything he chooses. He need have no fear of breaking conditions which he may not even understand.

Because—The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada transacts its business under a special license from the Government of the Dominion of Canada. It has its affairs yearly investigated by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department, an official acting under the instructions of the Honorable the Minister of Finance. It is the duty of this gentleman to thoroughly examine every bond, mortgage and other asset claimed by the Company, and also to verify the statements of its accounts, as given under oath by the Company's officers, in all their details and cause the same to be published yearly in the Government blue book. He has access to all the books and records, and is thus in a position to know exactly the nature of the Company's business, and to check any action or tendency of which he may not approve. This close and able supervision by Government officers is one of the best possible guarantees which the public can desire.

LAKE STILL HOLDS BODIES

BUT THEY MAY BE RECOVERED BY TONIGHT

Continued Efforts Kept Up for Recovery Yesterday and This Morning—Storm on Lake May Make Sad Task Successful.

Strenuous efforts were made during the whole of Saturday for the recovery of the bodies of Alex. Allen, and Harry Gilroy who were drowned on Friday night in Shawatlans Lake. Many of the old timers of the city who knew the two young fellows well from the early days of Prince Rupert went out to the scene of the accident to lend their aid in the sad task of dragging and blasting for the bodies. The efforts, however, were unsuccessful but a wide spread of tackle was stretched over night in the lake at the scene of the disaster and it was hoped that by this means the bodies might be recovered on Sunday. No news to the effect that the recovery has been accomplished had reached the city on Sunday.

Up till one o'clock today the bodies had not been recovered, as far as the city staff could tell. It was thought that the rough weather on the lake last night might have aided in hurrying them to the surface, and news of their recovery may come to hand tonight.

BEFORE BAR IN NEW POLICE STATION TODAY

Magistrate's Stern Warning to Drunks Who Resist Arrest.—Lady of Color Misses Her Jewels—Found in Frank Plant's Possession.

Though the new police station is small the first cases held within its walls have been fairly serious—so much so that it was at first intended to hold the police court in the Provincial Government court room as ormerly. Quite a little crowd assembled there; but at 10, a.m., Magistrate Carss decided to hold court in the new premises.

Accordingly, Harry Rown, a Swede, and David Graham, whose name sounds a wee bit Scotch, were both charged in turn with having looked too fondly on the "bottled kind of Scotch". Graham was fined the usual fine and costs. Rown was called upon to fork out a twenty dollar bill daintily embellished to the tune of the necessary two for costs.

Rown had resisted arrest, and the Magistrate warned him very sternly that this sort of thing must be put down, and that the next man who appears before the bar charged with "Drunk and Resisting" will be in danger of doing ten years for it.

Frank Plant also appeared charged with having stolen jewelry to the value of about $50 from Katherine Washington, a colored lady of sporting propensities resident on Comox avenue, who gave evidence regarding the jewelry, its value and its disappearance.

The productions were a bracelet of the expanding type, an opal ring, a garnet ring, and a solitaire diamond ring. The latter had been entrusted to accused by complainant to be handed to a jeweler for repair. It was valued at $50, the other articles at less sums.

Sergeant Regan gave evidence regarding the woman's complaint as to the loss of her jewelry, and the arrest of the accused in the house on Comox avenue. Accused was searched at the police station and the bracelet was found concealed in his clothes below the knee. One ring was found next morning on his finger and the other he told the police was in his blanket in the cell. The third and most valuable he told the Sergeant was in his pocket book where he had been keeping it. He told the complainant previous to his arrest that there was a difficulty regarding the price of the repair job.

Accused said nothing in answer to the charge, but called Sergeant Regan's attention to the fact that he had him told about the diamond ring.

Plant was committed for trial after this preliminary examination.

FIRM HAS LEASED McINTYRE BLOCK

BRIN BROS. CONTEMPLATE BIG EXPANSION

McIntyre Hall Placed at Disposal of Hospital Board Ladies' Auxiliary Free of Charge for Hospital Dance.

Messrs. Brin Bros. of the Brin Furniture stores have just leased their present premises, including the McIntyre Hall and whole McIntyre Block for a number of years, with a view to a considerable expansion of their business in the near future. The firm intend to use the McIntyre Hall as part of their department store, but as the arrangements for the expansion of the business are not yet completed, and it is not certain yet where department of the business will be allotted to the hall space, the hall will probably be available for dances during the season.

For one forthcoming dance it certainly will be available. That is the Hospital Dance at present being organized by the Dance Committee of the Hospital Board Ladies' Auxiliary. Through the kindness of Mr. H. K. Brin and his brother members of the firm the hall has been placed at the disposal of the Ladies' Auxiliary Dance Committee for this dance, entirely free of charge, in order that the dance may produce the maximum of result for the object in view.

The premises of the firm of Brin Bros. will be closed for business Tuesday and on the following Tuesday—two complete days altogether, as this is the season of the Jewish New Year Festival, and these days are set apart as public holidays amongst the Jewish community. All business premises under Jewish proprietorship in the city will be closed on these days which are strictly observed by the Jews throughout the world.

DEALS IN NINE MILE CLAIMS

"Steve" Singer Sells Group for $15,000

That the Hazelton Nine Mile Mining district is coming to the front by leaps and bounds is evidenced by the number of important deals consummated in the past few weeks. Mr. Steve Slinger who has been prospecting the interior of British Columbia from the Kootenay north to Hazelton for the past ten years has just sold through the F. T. Bowness Brokerage Co., of this city, his group of claims on the Nine Mile Mountain, the amount paid being $15,000. Mr. Slinger will be in the city a few days longer making arrangements with merchants for large consignments of merchandize in the early spring. He is very much pleased with the outlook for the upper Skeena country, particularly as regards mining and land and predicts a big boom.

PLENTY OF LABOR

Not only from the coast but from Alaska have laborers been recently making for this port. Two batches from Cordova, one of them numbering forty, came in during last week, being part of the thousands working on the Northwestern railway there that have been let out owing to the near completion of the contract. By every boat there have been a few scores landed and it was learned at the office of Foley, Welch & Stewart this morning that there was no dearth of labor although many of those sent in for the railway construction work had chosen to work on the city grading.

One thing which makes the contractors slow to put on more men than present requirements is the difficulty facing them of getting in the winter supplies. The water continues at a low stage and there is at present no hopes of being able to get in all the supplies now stacked in the warehouses awaiting transportation.

Traveller From Far North

On the City of Seattle, which came down from the north Saturday morning, was J. Andrews, the travelling representative of the Associated Press of the United States. Mr. Andrews has returned from a trip made from Seattle to Cape Liscomb, many miles north of Nome. He went by the Pacific coast route and at St. Michael went up the mighty Yukon to Whitehorse and from there to Skagway. His trip is a part of the policy of the Associated Press to get into closer connection with all points in Alaska.

HAYS A JUST MAN

Resigned Presidency of Southern Pacific Because of Injustice

In the course of a strong, denunciatory article on railway stealings by iniquitous freight charges, published in Hampton's Magazine, Charles Edward Russell tells why Charles M. Hays resigned the presidency of the Southern Pacific in these words:

"I will now recite for your entertainment a little chapter of history showing that these abuses are not only flagrant and intolerable but firmly rooted.

"C. P. Huntington died in 1900. "At that time, one of the American railroad executives most talked about for sagacity, energy, skill, knowledge and results was Mr. Charles M. Hays.

"Mr. Hays was selected to take the place of Mr. Huntington as head of the great Southern Pacific system. He remained less than a year when, to the amazement of the railroad world, he suddenly resigned.

"Everybody knew there must have been some trouble and all railroad men knew that the trouble was not with Mr. Hays. Almost at once he was snapped up by the Grand Trunk, of which vast and extending system he is still the chief commander.

"Mr. Hays never publicly explained his dissatisfaction, but according to close friends of his he began, soon after he took the Southern Pacific, to examine the freight tariffs by which the company gathers the interest on all these securities.

"Mr. Hays is known to be a just man. It seemed clear to him that the rates were indefensible and ought to be adjusted. He undertook to adjust them. The power behind the railroad that, being greater than all law and government, had for many years thriven upon these exhortions, objected to the changes Mr. Hays desired. Mr. Hays insisted; the Power insisted. Finding that the Power was supreme and that he could not do justice, Mr. Hays resigned."
