HORRORS! SKEENA'S MEMBER FOUND BUT OUR MAYOR HAS DISAPPEARED

DYNAMITE WAS PICKED UP LYING ON THIRD AVENUE

Trouble Awaits the Careless Powderman Who Has Menaced the Safety of the City---Explosive Was Moved to the City Hall---Col. Davis to Investigate

Don't kick any innocent looking box you see lying round near street grading contracts. It may be your last kick if you do. Only last night a box containing several sticks of dynamite was found left carelessly about in the neighborhood of the Empress Hotel for anyone to kick at.

To leave dynamite around in this fashion is strictly against the city by-laws in relation to the safe handling of explosives, and the members of M. Gurvitch's gang responsible for the care or lack of care of the explosive will be brought to book about it.

City Engineer Davis is attending to the matter. It may interest the powder man of the gang to know that the box of dynamite is now at the City Hall. He may have looked for it this morning or he may have forgotton it. It was only a few sticks of dynamite anyway Not worth taking care of evidently, and so nice for the children to pick up and play with!

The City Engineer warns contractors, foremen of gangs, powder men, and all in anyway responsible for the handling of dynamite to acquaint themselves fully with the provisions of the law regarding explosives, for it is to be strictly enforced.

(Special to the Optimist)

Saulte Ste. Marie, Jan. 20.—It has just been discovered here that Dr Beattie Nesbitt, president of the Farmers' Bank of Toronto, who is badly wanted in that city in connection with a charge of misappropriation of funds and making false returns to the government arrived in this city on Sunday. From the evidence gathered here he appears to have left for Chicago on Monday. He was observed in the Park Hotel under the name of W. Neshil. He is reported to be well supplied with money.

UNITED STATES DECLARED UTTERLY UNREADY FOR WAR

Representative W. E. Humphrey of Washington Causes Great Scare---Says Japan Could Seize Pacific Coast Towns Before States Could Get 75,000 Men to the Front

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Jan. 19.—At a great banquet here tonight Representative W. E. Humphrey of Washington, created a sensation by declaring emphatically that he knew his country to be utterly unprepared for war. In tones that cut like knife-stabs at his hearers, he declared that Japan could seize Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, the Bremerton government naval yard and five transcontinental railways before the United States could get 75,000 ment o the front.

Representative Humphrey's assertion caused a great sensation. Immediately the banquet broke up the news was spread throughout the great city and the wires carried the dread message swiftly all over the continent. Coming on the back of all the invidious rumors regarding the secret operations of the Japs in the Pacific waters it seemed to carry a double significance. It was no unsupported statement such as might result from brain storm or hysteria. It was a cold and obvious calculation of a situation that is very seldom considered by the dollar dazzled leaders of the country.

Who Wants Electricity?

STEAMER IS ABANDONED

BRITISH SHIP PARISIANA BURNS IN THE PACIFIC

Fire Got Good Grip and All Efforts of Crew Could Not Save Her—Transport Took the Crew to Melbourne.

(Special to the Optimist)

Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 20.—The British steamer Parisiana, which sailed from this port on October the 29th has been abandoned at sea. Fire was the cause of her abandonment. The flames had such a grip of the ship before they were noticed that it was found impossible to quell them.

Every effort was made to cope with the blaze and all hands manned the pumps but without avail. A slight breeze stimulated the fire so as to nullify the manful efforts of the crew. She completely disappeared a short time after she was abandoned. The British steamer Transport has arrived with the crew of the ill fated vessel aboard.

GOVT. HAS RIGHT TO TAX LANDS

AND WILL COLLECT $300,000 ARREARS IN NELSON

First Legal Decision Appealed by C. P. R. but Is Upheld—Taxes on Railway Land Will Amount to $75,000 a Year.

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Jan. 20.—The Court of Appeal has upheld the decision of R. S. Lennie in the judicial court of Revision, Nelson, to the effect that the Provincial Government has the power to tax lands of the B. C. Southern Railway. The decision was opposed in court by the C. P. R. but the previous opinion was confirmed that the government had the right to tax.

This judgment means that the government has the right to collect taxes for the last four years, ever since, in fact, the land became taxable. It is estimated that the taxes on the railway will amount to $75,000 a year or $300,000 in all.

She is leaving Esquimalt tomorrow for Alberni and Northern British Columbia. She is expected to traverse the North Pacific up to Alaska and on her way will call in at Prince Rupert. On her return vouage she is expected to call at Nanaimo, and Vancouver, at which latter place she is expected to obtain some recruits.

MR. JARDINE SUPPORTS GOV'T.

HAS ASSURANCE THAT RAILWAY EXTENSION WILL START SOON

Members of Legislature Invited to See Premier Turn First Sod—Will Stimulate Business on Island—Premier Introduces Bill.

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Jan. 20.—In the house yesterday Mr. Jardine, the member for Esquimalt, exploded a bomb when at the afternoon session he rose to his feet and delivered a speech in support of the government's policy. On several occasions in the course of his speech he attacked the arguments of Mr. Brewster, the member for Alberni.

He said that he had an assurance that the Victoria Barclay sound extension of the Canadian Northern Railway would be started within thirty days and that the members of the Legislature would be invited to see the Premier turn the first sod. After having voted for the bill last year it had been his intention to resign if the bill did not prove to be in the interests of the people. None however had disapproved of the scheme.

The advent of the railway would stimulate business all over the Island.

The Premier introduced a bill to amend the Coal Mines Act. The object of the bill is to ensure greater safety for the lives of the mine employees.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

A wedding of much interest to the people of Prince Rupert was quietly solemnized yesterday afternoon by the Rev. F. W. Kerr at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams, when Miss Eva Ray was united in marriage to Dr. Neil M. McNeill of this city. The bride who was attended by little Doris Pattullo, wore a handsome dress of white satin and the regulation veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations, was given away by Mr. Williams. Mr. C. H. Orme was best man. As the bride entered the beautifully decorated drawing room Mrs. Williams played the Wedding March. The groom's gift to the bride was a piano and a valuable lot. To the flower girl he gave a gold pin.

After the ceremony a dejeuner was served at several tables decorated with white flowers and green leaves. The happy couple left by the Prince George for a month's trip to California, the bride looking particularly handsome in a smart travelling suit of Alice blue cloth and a large white hat. On their return to the city Dr. and Mrs. McNeill will occupy a suite in the Clapp building corner of Second avenue and McBride street. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Manson, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pattullo, Miss Doris Pattullo Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morris, Mr. Peck, Mr. Orme. Mr. McClymont, Mr. McRae, Mr. Deacon and Mr. Denholme.

Women in Insurance

Men and women are coming more and more into active competition in all branches of modern industry. Within a comparatively short time many women seeking new channels in which to provide for individual maintenance are becoming life insurance agents. One case known to the writer was that of a woman who had achieved considerable success as a piano saleswoman, but who turned to life insurance as offering larger opportunities. She was very successful in underwriting. Many other woman who have made similar ventures have found that it is easier for them to reach women than it is for their masculine competitors. With women as with men, however, equipment counts for much, and a woman to be successfu' must be able to meet the exacting requirements of the business. Women of large incomes who take advantage of the protection afforded by life insurance frequently, if not always, prefer to contract for the life insurance they require through keen women agents. Life insurance as a career for women is not to be reckoned as a refuge for those who have failed in everything else, but as a profession in which every ability, every energy and all skill may be used to the highest possible afvantage.

A Girl's Evening Coiffre

In the evening there is naturally a desire to arrange the hair in a somewhat more elaborate manner than is suitable with a school dress. As a rule however, if a becoming means of arranging it has been found it is best to keep to it until the fashion has been outgrown, and the bright colored ribbons will dress it up nicely.

When the hair has been regularly put up a simple twining of ribbon about the knot is attractive in the evening or a cluster of tiny rose buds may be placed at a becoming angle against the knot. It is the fashion of the moment, hoewver, to wear no ornament or flowers in the coiffure save a costly jeweled band or really handsome ornament, such as would be most inappropriate for a girl not yet "out," and at the smartest dances the majority of girls present wear no ornaments, not even the pretty flower wreaths, in their hair.

Ribbon run through pieces, or, rather, strands of hair, has gone out of vogue, but narrow bands of silk or satin twisted about the knot give an undeniably pretty touch of color just where it will show most becomingly. White is not as a rule so becoming against the hair as a brighter shade, but any pale shade which matches the gown will carry out the color effect of the dress eattractivly.

SECOND IN LUMBER

B. C. Takes Second Place Through Quebec Falling Off

An increase of 22 per cent in the lumber cut in British Columbia, accompanied by a decrease of 7.7 per cent in the cut of Quebec has caused Quebec to drop from second place among the provinces in point of lumber production, which it has held for many years. B. C. now occupies second place, a position which, because of the rapid exploitation of the fir and cedar forests, it will probably maintain.

Mr. Newton's "Letter of Explanation"

Our hysterical contemporary seems to be quite up in the air at the suggestion that it had apologized to Mr. Frank Mobley for libelling him, and in its usual muddle headed way, advances evidence upon evidence to show that its editor's "letter of explanation" will not hold water.

Its amended attitude is that in charging Mr. Mobley with "wholesaling liquor to non-license holders" it did not mean intoxicating liquor. Granted: then wher is the offence. There is no point in the accusation unless the inference is that the liquor referred to was "intoxicating liquor." It would be no more an offence than wholesaling Empires to non-license holders.

That by the term "liquor" is meant "Every spirituous and every fermented and every malt liquor and every wine, and every combination of liquors or drinks or preparations or mixtures capable of human consumption which is intoxicating," is proved by the interpretation clause of the Act which our contemporary so ineptly quotes.

Nothing can be gained by such efforts to cuttlefish the question. The fact is that the Empire charged Mr. Mobley with what both legal interpretation and popular usage understood as a breach of the Liquor Laws. It has been very glad to sneak out of the responsibility for its words by explaining that by the word "liquor" it meant temperance liquor. Very well. That is the measure of its bombast.

There is an excuse for a layman if he neglects to make his meaning clear on paper. There is none for an editor. An editor who requires to write a lengthy "letter of explanation" to make the public understand a simple statement and who finishes up by making it mean the exact opposite of what everybody else thought it meant, is clearly unfit for his job. If in addition he sees fit to haggle as to the degree of regret expressed in his "letter of explanation," the incident becomes illuminative.

Most of us have been brought up to consider it an honorable and manly thing to give an ample apology for any act of injustice inadvertently done. In crediting the editor of the Empire with an apology we would appear to have given him an honor he is not entitled to.

An Amazing Story from Real Life

A story which harrowed the hearts of many newspaper readers last April has been revived and confirmed by an inquiry in the House of Commons. The story at first seemed unbelievable. It stated that two Indian children were burned to death in a prairie fire near Kinistino on April 24th. Their father had his hands and feet burned off, and their mother was so fatally burned that she afterwards died. Suffering great agony she managed to ride two miles to a halfbreed's house for assistance, who in turn rode to the government telegraph station to telegraph for medical assistance. The halfbreed had no money, and the telegraph operator was reported to have refused to send the message assigning the extraordinary reason that he could not accept it unless it was prepaid.

An investigation into the affair substantiates the amazing and heart rending story, with the added information that the father has since died of his injuries, and that no inquest has been held on any of their deaths.

Fidelity to a trust is a virtue, but any person with the virtue so highly developed as has that telegraph operator should no longer be kept in the government service. He is wasting his talent. He should be in the employ of some Eastern loan-shark, where his gifts would be appreciated to the full.

Hon. Mr. Oliver in announcing the result of the investigation to the House says "The department has instructed Indian Agent Macarthur to report the operator to his superior officer, or if that could not be done to advise the depart ment of his name and the station of which he is in charge in order that he might be reported."

Is it a misprint for "deported?"

To Water Consumers

The cold weather has practically stopped the supply of water on the mountain. Since the 10th inst. water has been supplied to consumers by pumping, this supply is at present sufficient for all necessary purposes, but on account of numerous taps being left wide open, the pump cannot keep up the necessary pressure to supply the higher points in the city.

The chairman of the Water Works Committee hopes the consumers will assist the Water Works Department by curtailing the waste of water and avoid the necessity for cutting off the supply at night.

WAGE-WORKERS HOLD A RALLY

MASS MEETING ON SUNDAY TO DISCUSS WAGES

Prince Rupert Industrial Association Has Secured Hall on Third Avenue —Hospital Conditions Protested Against—Sec'y-Treas. Elected.

A well attended meeting of the Prince Rupert Industrial Association was held in the Presbyterian Church Hall last night. On the programme for the evening the wages question was billed for discussion, but it was decided that a general rally of the workmen of Prince Rupert would be held on Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Association's new hall situated on Third avenue at Eighth street. In arranging to hold the special meeting there on Sunday night it was decided to extend an invitation to all workers, and all unions of workers in Prince Rupert to be present and join in the discussion of the wages question.

Conditions at the hospital were severely criticized by some members of the Association, and it was agreed to prepare a petition and protest for presentation to the city council.

A committee of workers will attend the inquest on the victim of the Seal Cove blasting accident tonight, and the circumstances regarding yesterday fatal accident will be enquired into by the Industrial Association.

The idea that the wage-earners should be represented by one of themselves on the Hospital Board was heartily approved.

Comrade Morse was by acclamation elected secretary-treasurer of the Association, with Louis Vuckavitch to assist. The committee in charge of the framing of the constitution was honorably discharged.

Financial matters dealt with resulted in the voting of $12 for payment for the use of the Presbyterian church for three months' meetings, and $26 for printing. The finances of the Association are voted healthy. At the Special meeting on Sunday a big gathering of workers and members of workers' unions is expected.

D. McRae of Vancouver and Mr. E. J. Palmer of Chemaimus. The new organization of which these two capitalists are the incorporators is to be called the Wallace Fisheries Limited. Incorporation has already been secured at Victoria.

It is understood that besides purchasing these two canneries the new company has also secured an option on at least two more with the ultimate purpose of securing control of a large number of canneries in the North. It is said that all the plants will be put in an up-to-date condition and enlarged to meet the expected requirements of a gigantic concern.

GERMAN ARMY IS STARVED

SO SAYS IMPORTANT CRITIC TO WAR OFFICE DEPARTMENT

Claimed That It Is Being Neglected in Order to Favor the Navy—More Pay Wanted for the Soldiers.

Berlin, Jan. 18.—Public opinion has been somewhat diverted from perplexing speculations about the growth of social democracy in the fatherland by questions affecting the army, its strength its administration and its service conditions in general.

The complaint is made that the army is being starved in favor of the navy. Able critics like Captain Otto Stegemann, have severely criticized the attitude of the government, and even accused the war office of incapacity. Another complaint is that the men are not paid well enough.

Controversy never sleeps in Berlin, and the army question came more prominently than ever before the public mind as a result of debate on the new law fixing the peace strength of Germany's army during the coming five years. The increase proposed, will in due course bring the peace strength of the army from 590,551 to 601,200 non-commissioned officers and men. Eighteen more batteries are to be added to the field artillery, nine more battalions to the foot artillery and five new battalions to communication troops. These and other reforms account for the greater part of the new expenditure proposed—$20,000,000 in immediate outlay and $5,450,000 permanent and annual expenditure.

He and his passenger said thay had the flight of their lives.

ONCE A PASTOR NOW UNDERTAKER

LOS ANGELES DIVINE FRETS FOR FREEDOM AND RESIGNS

Does Not Want to Be Bound to a Denominational Affiliation—Civic Righteousness and Economy Before Theology.

Los Angeles, Jan. 19.—The congregation of Memorial Baptist church has not recovered from its surprise over the announcement yesterday of its pastor, Rev. C. C. Pierce, that he intended to retire from the ministry to become an undertaker. Rev. Pierce has been pastor of the church twelve years. Chafing at "denominationalism and longing for freedom," as he expressed it, Rev. Pierce yesterday informed his congregation that he would retire on the last Sunday in February.

"I do not want to be bound to a denominational affiliation, and I want to be able to preach whenever, where and what I please," he told his flock. "I don't care for theology, but everything for civic righteousness and economy. There are too many denominations in the churches. Another thing, the constant financial strain for outside needs makes a pastor's life hard."

TODAY'S DELINQUENTS

Old Man Gets Six Months for Obnoxious Offence

Two vagrants, Thos. Foran and Geo. Pierce, were each fined $25 and costs. Both pleaded guilty.

The old man, L. W. Blood, charged with living on the immoral earnings of his wife admitted guilt and was sent to six months' penal servitude.

A number of dubious characters are reported to have left the city last night.

WALTZ CONTEST WENT WELL

Dancers Had Lively Time Last Night in K. of P. Hall

Corley, S. Stickney, and Will Lessing. Three couples were selected for the semi-final decision. They were Mrs. Embleton and Mr. Brown, Miss Alexander and Mr. Mills, Miss Cliff and Mr. Bradbury. Of these after judicious changing of partners Mrs. Embleton and Mr. Mills were awarded first honors last night.

Making Perfect Garments

The final operation of examining garments for any imperfection in tailoring is a most important one, and, in the 20th Century Brand tailor shops, is done by a staff of eight competent and experienced examiners who are given plenty of time to do the work thoroughly. Their examination is a most critical one and the garment must measure up in every particular to the 20th Century Brand standard or back to the tailor shop it goes. When once the garment has been passed by the final examiners it is boxed and made ready for shipment. It is also ready to fit and ready to give entire satisfaction.

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

"When I went to New York," said the able financier, "I didn't take $10 with me."

"That," replied Dustin Stax, "indicates a degree of caution which largely accounts for your subsequent success."

"What is Bliggins' grievance against the railroad company?"

"He has two grievances; one is that some of the trains don't stop at his station, and the other that after he gets on board the train loses time by stopping at other stations."

Rusty Rufus—Say, Tom, wouldn't it be great ef youse could git all de eat an' drink youse wanted by jist pressin' a lectric button?

Tired Thomas—It shore would—ef I had somebody ter press de button fer me.

"Are you in favor of a high tariff or a low tariff?" asked the suffragette.

"I don't know," answered the very young recruit. "Which would you consider the more becoming?"

Sillicus—Love at first sight always makes an unhappy marriage.

Cynicus—Oh, I don't know. Even love may ripen into friendship.

"Can I sell you this book?" inquired the eloquent agent.

"No," replied Mr. Sirlous Barker.

"But you seemed interested?"

"I was. And I haven't the faintest idea that the author can write as interestedly as you can talk.

G.T.P. PURCHASE AT VANCOUVER

SECURES LARGE SHARE OF THE WATERFRONT FOR WHARVES

Building Will Be Started Soon to Cope with Pacific Steamship Trade —Albion Iron Works Site Included.

Vancouver, Jan. 17.—Ninety-day notices have been served on the tenants of the waterfront property from a point about 30 feet west of the foot of Main street produced up to Gore avenue, it is understood, thus confirming the stories to the effect that the G. T. P. Railway company had secured the foreshore for the purpose of building wharves for its Pacific steamship trade.

It also stated definitely that the deal for the Albion Iron Works site, running from the same westerly boundary up to near Gore avenue and from the C. P. R. tracks to Alexander street, had also been acquired for the railway company.

The announcement that the railway company had made all arrangements with the C. P. R. respecting the lease of the waterfront given to the Vancouver Wharf company, that long wharves were to be constructed out into the inlet and that it was the proposal of the G. T. P. to utilize almost the whole 500 foot stretch of foreshore for its own purposes, have also been confirmed.
