ATTACK ON COL. DAVIS WAS PROVED TO BE UNFAIR

Ald. Pattullo Made Ald. Newton Chew the Carpet Last Night---Phantom Army of 133 Election Crooks Vanishes Into thin Air Upon Explanation

To state as the Empire stated that 133 men had been hurriedly rushed on to city work for the engineering department just before election day, January 12th, for electioneering purposes, seems to Alderman Pattullo a particularly unwarrantable assertion. As a matter of fact in the first twelve days of January, 1911, only 42 men were added to the city employment roll by the engineering department, and these simply because the work required them. Alderman Pattullo in drawing the council's attention to this last night suggested that Alderman Newton might realise that with the power of a newspaper to criticise there went also the responsibility of using that power rightly and reasonably.

In reply Alderman Newton said that he had heard there were no employees at work under the engineering staff on the first of January. When he heard of the employment of men before the he had naturally come to the conclusion that they were employed for electioneering purposes. He had the city engineer's own statement that the staff employees had expanded to 133 during January.

Alderman Hilditch suggested that the press might be more inclined to boost than to knock in future, and instanced some criticism of himself by the Optimist.

But Alderman Pattullo pointed out the Empire's implications regarding the city engineer were much more serious. Had there been any truth in them Alderman Pattullo declared he would himself demand the resignation of the city engineer. But the insinuation that Colonel Davis would lend himself to using his department for electioneering purposes was a mean attack upon one who from his position was unable to come out in self defence. Because there were some 40 men set to work early in January to do culvert work, etc., Alderman Newton got seeing a nigger in the fence. "That nigger," said Alderman Pattullo "has been seen on the fence for the last six months." As a matter of fact it was the new council who has raised the staff to 133. Replying to this Alderman Newton declared that if there was any difficulty over the attitude of the press a certain gentleman who had taken exception to him over the telephone franchise, was himself to blame for it. "I have very serious misgivings," said Alderman Newton regarding the appointment of certain men on the city pay roll. But we are all liable to make mistakes. The trouble is that too much power is relegated to the city officials, and I intend to do all I can to reduce this power with my voice either by my pen or by any other means can be made to exercise this influence."

WATERLOGGED SCHOONER

News from the Dominion Government Wireless Stations

The wireless operator at Tatoosh this morning spoke with the steamer Atlas, which reported finding the waterlogged steam schooner Ed. B. West out at sea. The steamer got a line to the schooner and is towing her in. The position of the Atlas was not given.

An eighty mile hurricane is blowing at Triangle Island. The steamer Beatrice passed Point Grey outbound at 8.45. The steamer Kestrel was off Cape Lazo northbound at 8.15. Steamer Capilano southbound at 9.15.

DELINQUENTS OF SOCIAL SYSTEM

INTRODUCTION TO THE SUBJECT OF CRIMINOLOGY

Rev. Mr. McLeod Addresses Baptist Young Men's Club Upon Important Phase of Society—Will Treat Other Aspects Later.

"Delinquents of Society" was the title of an address delivered to the Baptist Church Young Men's Club last night by the Rev. Mr. McLeod. The address was mainly an introduction to the subject of criminal sociology which he intends to discuss with the club at later dates. The first question to be answered was who was the criminal? The criminal was the abnormal man and the starting point for their study must be a conception of the normal man and of normal social relations. In dealing with men and women he said that experience trains one to recognise certain manifestations of mental action and habit as normal while others struck the shrewd observer as eccentric and peculiar in all the varying degrees from oddity and slowness to imbecility or mania. After treating elaborately of the phases of criminology, its relation to society and the normal mind he said that habitual criminals were divided into two classes, the aimless vagabond and the professional There were criminals by passion and criminals by occasion and they had their sets and classes like other branches of society.

WILL SEND UP EXPERTS TO STUDY SOIL AND CROPS

Interesting Announcement by Hon. Price Ellison---Budget Shows Products of B.C. for Last Year Exceeded $100,000,000---New Scheme of Taxation Contemplated

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Feb. 14.—The Budget was presented to the House yesterday by the Hon. Price Ellison, the Minister of Finance. In presenting his statement the Minister announced that the liquid assets of the Province would be sufficient within the year to wipe out the whole of the bonded debt of the Province which at the end of last year stood at $9,616,800. He expected the surplus revenue this year would be over $2,500,000.

During the summer two experts will go over the country lying between Prince Rupert and Hazelton to study the soil, precipitation and climate, with a view to determining which variety of trees, cereals, and crops generally, could be most successfully cultivated in that territory.

He also announced the re-adjustment of taxation throughout the Province by means of a commission. He was looking for a general reduction.

He placed the products of the various industries of the Province for the past year at $100,402,000 and divided it up as follows:

Manufactures $35,000,000.
Mining $17,160,000.
Timber $27,160,000.
Agricultural $14,399,000.
Fisheries $8,000,000.

The mineral output shows an increase of $1,704,000, and the timber an increase of $5,100,000. The total output of shingles was $1,627,624, which is about 25 per cent of the whole output of Canada.

WILL FURNISH A WARD

Daughters of Empire Announce Result of Recent Ball

On Saturday, February 11, a special meeting of the Daughters of the Empire was held in St. Andrew's Hall. After all the expenses of the recent ball were paid the sum of $189.50 was realized. After some discussion, it was decided to use this amount to furnish a ward in the hospital to be known as the Queen Mary Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire.

The thanks of the ladies are expressed to Mr. Grey for his discount on his orchestra, to Messrs. Merryfield, Leggatt & Williams, Foley, Welch & Stewart, Hart, the Exchange Grill and the Kaien Island Club.

Were Married in Rupert

Mr. Oscar Haun, the popular jeweler of Stewart, and Miss Blanche Renz of the same place were married at the Roman Catholic rectory on the 12th by Rev. L. M. Bunoz in the presence of a few friends.

CITY WILL PAY EMPIRE'S BILL

"MORAL CLAIM" IS INVOLVED IN THE CHARGES

Surprise Expressed That the Organ Which Poses as Champion of the City's Welfare Is not More Generous.

It was suggested by the acting Mayor at last night's council that the Empire Publishing Company's account which was passed for payment by the finance committee, was one of those which are morally entitled to be paid by the city.

Alderman Pattullo was not at all convinced as to the morality of the claim. He held that it was excessive, and was rather surprised that any account should be rendered at all by the Empire. Many private citizens had contributed willingly and liberally towards the end of incorporating the city without hope of return. The Empire as an organ professing so much to have the welfare of the city at heart might have been at least as generous. Instead of that it was now soaking the city at the rate of ten cents a line for work which the city could get for from 3 to 5 cents a line. To reduce the account would not be without exact precedent, for Alderman Pattullo pointed out that the former management of the "Optimist" had submitted to a reduction of $100 on a $400 account to meet the city.

Alderman Newton took no part in the discussion, of course, but retired to the comforting neighborhood of the stove. When the matter ended with the carrying of the motion to pay the Empire's account he returned to his place at the council board.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED

Man Charged With Perjury Set Free by Judge Young

W. J. Blanchfield, who was brought here from Jedway to face trial on a charge of perjury, was this morning honorably discharged by Judge Young.

The charge arose out of a liquor selling prosecution. Blanchfield elected a speedy trial, and retained Mr. A. M Manson to conduct his defence, the Crown being represented by Mr. W. E. Fisher. At the conclusion of the trial his Honor found that there was no case against Blanchfield and ordered his release.

HOCKEY MATCH WITH STEWART

Plans Being Arranged—Bear River May Be Scene of Play

Negotiations are being made for a game of hockey with Stewart some time next week. "Paddy" Martin, one of the best known and most daring of the old Rossland players, better known as the "Bronze Demon," will captain the local team. They will probably play out of doors on Bear River and are using a skate built specially to go over the humps on rough ice.

SPREADS OVER SIBERIA

Despatches State That Plague Now Threatens Europe

Special to The Optimist

London, Feb. 13—The conservative press of the city is in a state of alarm today over a series of despatches from China to the effect that nothing can now stop the plague from spreading all over Siberia and threatening Europe.

LADIES ATHLETIC CLUB DANCE

Lively Time Promised at Kaien Island Club Tonight

Tonight at 8.30 the Ladies of the Kaien Island Athletic Club hold a dance in the club rooms. Preparations have been made for a most delightful evening. Music of the best will be provided, and the ladies responsible for the arrangements have spared no energy to make this dance a fascinating function. All members of the Athletic Club are invited.

FOR AN-UP-TO-DATE RUPERT

City Engineer Will Investigate Civic Methods Down Below

Permission has been granted by the city council to Colonel Davis, city engineer, to go down to Victoria to obtain information regarding various details of city work which can best be seen in actual operation. A city scavenging system for Prince Rupert is one of the matters to be enquired about. Colonel Davis will probably leave by the Prince George on Thursday and may be absent for a week or two.

CITIZENS MUST LOOK OUT

It Is Impossible to Guard the Danger Points

The claim for $700 damages pressed against the city council by L. Patmore on behalf of a man named Olsen who fell into a sewer cut and broke his ankle is not recognised by the city. The sewer was a government contract. In discussing the matter last night Alderman Hilditch said: "It is up to the citizens to take care of themselves when the city is in its present state under construction." Reasonable care as far as may be is taken but to guard every dangerpoint is impossible."

CITY SOLICITORS' DISCHARGE

Claim Entered for Month's Salary in Lieu of Notice

Messrs. Williams & Manson have claimed from the city council one full month's salary as city solicitors on the ground that their services were dispensed with without the month's notice to which they were entitled when the new council got busy with the broom.

Alderman Hilditch believes that the Municipal Clauses Act gives the city power to fire any employee without notice; but in the minutes dealing with the appointment of these the first city solicitors for Prince Rupert one month's notice before their services could be dispensed with is expressly stipulated for.

The finance committee had recommended that Messrs. Williams & Manson be paid up to the end of January, but last night's council decided to refer the matter back to the committee for further investigation.

MYSTERY ON THIRD AVENUE

STRANGE APPARITION WITNESSED BY OFFICIAL

Intrepid Investigation Produced Remarkable Results Which Will not Be Forwarded to the Psychical Research Society or W. T. Stead.

On Saturday night an apparition of terrifying aspect was seen at the corner of Third avenue and Fulton street. A well known member of the community whose official position guarantees his veracity, witnessed the awe-inspiring spectacle.

It seemed at first like a whirling mass of yellowness through which bright flashes and black spots flickered momentarily. A nearer approach rendered audible certain mysterious noises accompanying the apparition; and the still more alarming semblance of a nest of infuriated snakes darting hither and thither around that whirling yellow gleam.

Without hesitation the intrepid observer made a bold attack upon the mystery. He seized it with both hands. A curious aromatic odor assailed his nostrils. He felt something eel-like and elusive wriggle from his grip. A voice from the entangled palpitating mass cried. "Lettee me go piecee p'leeceman, all litee, only like piecee fun," and in the twinkling of an eye the snaky yellow apparition had resolved itself into a trio of Chinks whose hilarious mood had tempted them to indulge in a series of Oriental tumbling tricks during which their loosened queues had whirled merrily in the breeze

The Knack of Buying

The old woman who bought a sentry-box because it might come in useful some time had not even the excuse of the man who snapped up a bargain coffin-plate. His thrifty soul did not flinch before the realization that some day he would require it—though most of us prefer to leave such melancholy accommodations to the good offices of the undertaker, whoever he happens to be.

The amount of money that people fritter away on things they can do without very well is astonishing; and the first aid to frittering is the bargain counter. Every bargain counter should be approached, as the Greeks used to say, with even mind. Its contents should be surveyed sanely and cold-bloodedly, even as one looks upon a new relation, and with no regard to the placard proclaiming a slaughter in price from $4.50 to $2.98.

As business and philanthropy do not go hand in hand, some good reason usually lurks hebind the sweeping sacrifice. The article may be shopworn, out of date, or of poor color, or there may be faults in the make or the material—there may be many reasons. A standard article commands its market price at any time, and is the most satisfactory in the long run.

The most objectionable stuff found on bargain counters is tawdry finery—soiled chiffon hats trimmed with fly-specked cotton roses, neckwear that has lost its freshness and will not wash, tarnished scarves and passementeries, gaudy belts and flashy hair ornaments, spotted and fancy gloves of unsaleable blues and yellows and terracottas, exaggerated and out of date veils, etc., etc., etc.—all pitfalls for the unwary—first aid to the fritterer.

If one's income is limited (and, indeed, in any case), it is good a idea to ask oneself before taking the final plunge at a bargain counter some such searching question as, "Do I really need this?" "Is it worth that much to me?" There is no economy in buying a shabby or out-of-date article simply because it is cheap. It is only a source of dissatisfaction to its owner every time she puts it on; and there is little sense in accumulating a pile of odds and ends on the chance of their coming in useful some day. So many things come between today and tomorrow.

The Aeroplane Treatment

The long flight of M. Farman has suggested to Dr. Edouard Toulouse the utilization of aviation in the cure of diseases. He says:

"The physician has here a new physical agent, which may be called altitude. Without exciting the muscular action, it stimulates the heart functions and modifies the rhythm of respiration by reason of the rarefication of the atmosphere.

"People with nervous or cardiac affections might well take to this passive species of gymnastics, so to speak. Better still, ill persons can find in aeroplane flight perfect sunshine, pure air, and the exhilarating calmness which even Egypt and the Rivera cannot afford.

"Light at great elevations has peculiar qualities. It is richer in the ultra-violet rays than at the sea level. The ultraviolet rays have an intense anti-bacterial effect. The coolness of the upper air may operate also as a tonic. Its purity is far greater than at ordinary levels."

Dr. Toulouse predicts that the airship will play a large role in the therapeutics of the future.

Red Hands

Red hands are a mortification to many girls, but they can be cured by rubbing them night and morning with the following mixture: Equal parts of pulverized chalk and almond oil. Mix together and smear over the hands, let remain a few minutes, and then wipe off.

OUR DAILY RECIPE

Bird's Nest Pudding

Pare and core six large, sound apples, then put them into your well buttered biscuit pan; now mix together five heaping teasoponfuls of flour, one scant teaspoonful of salt and one cupful of milk into a smooth paste, then add the yolks of three well beaten eggs; add the whites and another cup of milk; pour this over the apples, bake one hour; serve hot with hard sauce or sweetened whipped cream flavored with lemon extract.

PRACTICAL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Learn to know what damp means—especially when used upon polished woodwork. Think it means wet and you will be reviling valuable information as "newspaper rubbish." Dip a cloth in hot water, wring it in the air and it should have about the right amount of moisture.

If a screw is rusted in its bed of wood there are one or two expedients to be adopted to remove it, when it will not yield to the screw-driver. Either heat a poker red hot and apply it to the head of the screw or pour a drop or two of oil about the head. Then, after a few moments' delay, the screw will be easily turned.

Always keep a small slip of white paper and a magnifying glass in the sewing machine drawer. If the machine is in the shadow, slip the piece of white paper behind the needle and then hold the magnifying glass at the right angle between the eyes and the needle. The threading hole will come out into perfect distinctness and the needle can be threaded with ease.

The Wedding-Ring Finger

The wedding-ring was not always the plain circlet of gold nowadays associated with its name. In ancient days it was richly set with gems and worn on the first finger of the right hand. The Christian era brought about the wearing of the wedding-ring on the third finger, and the popular superstition about the "ring finger" says that a vein runs direct from it to the heart. The real reason is probably a religious one. The priest who performed the marriage rite used to put the ring first on the thumb, saying "In the name of the Father"; on the first finger he said, "And of the Son"; on the second, "And of the Holy Ghost." When the "Amen" was reached with the third finger the ring was put on to stay.

A SOCIETY PET IS WHITE HOPE

WARREN BARBOUR WILL STEP OVER LINE TO PRO-ISM

Amateur Champion Disqualified—Carl Morris Not a White Hope so Much as a Red Hope—Mother Was Cherokee.

New York, Feb. 11.—Warren Barbour, champion heavyweight, who is a society pet and has a millionaire papa, is the latest "white man's hope," or is soon to be. Barbour admitted here today that he is likely to enter the professional mitt weilders' ranks, as a result of a suspension against him by the American Athletic Union following a fight with John Garr tson. In the Garretson battle Barbour put out the sleep producer in the first round. He thinks tha if he could hang a similar wallop on Johnson he could win from the big smoke. Barbour already holds the amateur c own.

Morris's Antecedents

Carl Morris, the huge Oklahoman touted as the grandest young elephant of many s asons, is an Indian, and, therefore, shouldn't count as a "white man's hope" at all. When Morris was visiting the Kansas City newspapers a few days ago a scribe cha ced to comment on the young giant's high cheekbones and dark complexion. Morris explained that he came by these features naturally, as his mother was a Cherokee Indian of Oklahoma. His father i an eastern man, said to be part Yankee and part German. Morris is probably, considering the mixed blood of the Cherokee , 90 per cent white man, but he counts as an ndian under tribal law and under the rules by which the government gives allotments to the aborigines.

DEMOCRATS TO VOTE RECIPROCITY

CAUCUS ENDORSES TREATY BY A LARGE MAJORITY

Means Reduction of Prohibitive Scales of Payne Aldrich Tariff—Will Tend to Expand Trade of Both Countries Equally.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Favorable action of the house on the Canadian reciprocity agreement was assured when the caucus of Democratic representatives formally pledged the party to vote for the agreement.

The resolution indorsing the anadian agreement was carried, 90 to 22. On motion of Mr. Clark, of Missouri, the action of the caucus was made unanimous.

Against Resolution

The twenty-two voting against the resolution, it was explained later, were those who had voted for the free lumber, etc., and their action in caucus was to make their position consistent. It was said they would vote with the party. The resolution as adopted follows:

Text of Resolution

"Whereas, The Canadian reciprocity agreement negotiated, while not formulated in accordance with the Democratic platform plans, is a reduction of some of the prohibitive scales in the Payne-Aldrich tariff lawk, will tend to expand the trade of the United States and Canada; therefore be it

"Resolved, That this caucus indorse the Canadian reciprocity agreement and bind ourselves to vote for a bill carrying it into effect."

DAILY EDITION. TUESDAY, FEB. 14

The Work of the "Patronage Committee"

The one bright spot at last night's council meeting was the protest made by Alderman Hilditch against the Optimist's criticisms. The point was not well taken, it was not genmane to the issue, theOptimist's words were not even correctly quoted, but the incident was cheering nevertheless.

The matter arose over the action of Alderman Newton's colleagues in settling the Empire's account for pre-incorporation printing which the last council refused to pay alleging that the prices charged were exorbitant. Even Alderman Newton's colleagues admitted that there was no hope of their valiant friend being able to collect the account in the courts, and used this amazing circumstance as a ground for taking the matter away from the court, and paying Alderman Newton's bill in full.

The Optimist in commenting on the matter said, "To make a payment of $250 to one of their own number, on an account which they admit cannot stand in a court of law, sounds perilously like malfeasance of office." It was this statement which aroused Alderman Hilditch's ire. His protestations are encouraging. It is a bad thing when a man's public conscience gets calloused.

But now that the Council with the exception of Alderman Pattullo has agreed to withdraw its defence to Alderman Newton's action, in the face of legal advice, and in the clearly expressed knowledge that the account was not collectable at law without large deductions, the Optimist can only repeat, "To make a payment of $250 to one of their own number, on an account which they admit cannot stand in a court of law, sounds perilously like malfeasance of office." The council ought not to hand out public money to their friends under such circumstances.

The Optimist is reluctant to touch on these matters, but it is a duty not to be shirked. The next item of business after passing the Empire's account last night was a request from the Empress and Majestic theatres for a lowering of their license fees from $200 to $100. It is no secret that the theatre interests are virtually vested in Alderman Smith and Kirkpatrick. This indeed was admitted. But Alderman Newton, after having been helped to $250—most of which it was admitted he had no legal claim to—promptly turned in to go one better. He had heard that the theatre license fee in Vancouver was $60, so he proposed that the city clerk write and find out. If it proved to be $60, then he moved that the Empress and Majestic licenses be reduced to $60. The argument for high license that Prince Rupert has but two houses to the fifty or more of Vancouver, he inverted and asked for a reduction "because there are only two of them." To the onlooker it certainly looked like a game of "You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours."

The matter was emphasised by the refusal of the council to make a grant to the B. C. Anti-Tuberculosis Society—an institution that is doing a noble work—on the ground that the council had no money.

After donating $250 to Alderman Newton, proposing to rebate either $200 or $280 to Alderman Smith's and Alderman Kirkpatrick's companies, they turn round and plead that they cannot send $25 or $50 to the Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

In informing the council that their actions in regard to the distribution of patronage and in looking after one another's interests do not impress the public favorably, the Optimist is doing a service to the council as well as to the public.

Why not let the picayune matters of patronage alone and take up some of the real issues that confront the city?

KING'S SLANDERER CANNOT GET HIS PAPER PUBLISHED

British Chamber of Commerce Had Threatened a Boycott—All the Parisian Publishers Declined to Print the Journal Since Mylius' Conviction.

Paris, Feb. 11.—As a result of conviction of Edward Mylius, for libeling King George of England, in the Liberator, a periodical published here by Edward James, an American. James was informed by his former publisher that he could no longer print a journal. The printer stated that the British chamber of commerce had threatened a boycott. James tried several other publishers but all refused to do the work.

FROM TWO VIEWPOINTS

London Chronicle and N. Y. Tribune Endorse Reciprocity

"It has been hastily assumed that the agricultural states of the West would align themselves against the agreement on the ground that it sacrificed agricultural duties. But that presumption seems to have been premature. Kansas is a typical agricultural state, and is also 'insurgent.' But to judge from the comment of 'The Topeka Capital' on the Canadian agreement, Kansas is not going to oppose reciprocity because of its supposed threat to the farming interest. 'The Capital' said last Saturday:

"As the opening wedge to more liberal general trade relations the administration has honored itself by its persistent efforts resulting in this agreement, now subject to the action of Congress. If that action is favorable, the Taft administration in establishing reciprocity with Canada will have performed an act of farsighted statesmanship and an achievement of policy which will be historic.

"The reciprocity agreement is attracting widespread support because it is truly national in purpose and aims at results beneficial to the whole country."

London, Feb. 10.—(Canadian Associated Press.)—The Chronicle characterizes the tariff reformers' views on the agreement from the view of imperial patriotism as the most potent heresy and economically a profound delusion.

On Wednesday evening the Epworth League hold their Social Evening to which all young people are invited. Refreshments and program are being provided. An essay will be given on "How we got our Bible."

Rumors Abroad in Brandon About Hudson Bay Line

Brandon, Feb. 10.—There has been a persistent rumor here that the Grand Trunk Pacific is negotiating with the Great Northern for the purchase of the Brandon, Saskatchewan and Hudson Bay line or for running rights over that road. The calculations are that if the Grand Trunk secures the line or running rights over it that the road will be immediately extended north.

A TRAIL-SIDE OPERATION

Plucky Doctor's Effort to Save Man's Life

Frank Jackson, the cruiser and prospector arrived in Kitselas Saturday evening last from Hazelton with operator Hughes who for the past few years has been stationed at Second cabin north of Hazelton. Operator Hughes was operated on last winter for appendicitis, the doctor who went north to bring him to the hospital, finding it necessary to pitch a small tent and perform the operation right on the trail. He has never thoroughly recovered from that illness, and is now on his way outside where he will go to the hospital and probably undergo another operation.—Inland Colonist.

KITSELAS MAIL TIED UP

Heavy Snow Falls Near Mile 50 Causes Delay

The mails from Prince Rupert due Kitselas last week have not yet arrived, and according to best reports obtainable, they have not yet passed Graveyard Point. This delay is caused by a succession of heavy snow-falls in the vicinity of miles 43 to 50, which have tied up all G. T. P. traffic and caught the mail contractors a number of mile away from any town in which dogs can be secured.—Inland Colonist.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—(Special)—The indisposition of the Kaiser has grown more serious although it is stated that there is no danger.

"How long have these people lived in the fourth flat next door?"

"Six months tomorrow."

"Well, I guess it's safe for us to go and call on them. People who stay six months in a flat ought to be worth knowing."

As the thin man and the stout one were talking of diet and food in general, the thin man said: "You can get an excellent dinner at Clapham's, the restaurant near my office, for 25 cents. Ever try one of his dinners?"

"One of 'em Yes, I should say I had" said the stout man. "Why I ate four of 'em one day last week"

Nephew—What do you think of the opera?

Uncle Josh—Them women in th' boxes ought to be able to raise enough money on their diamonds to buy some clothes with, by jinks

"Mummy, have you worn a black nightgown since Aunt Minnie died?" "No, dear, no." "But, mummy, aren't you as sorry, then in the night as in the day?"

Miss Dreamer—When you stood on the brink of Niagara and looked into the seething, surging, unfathomable depths below, did you feel that you would like to jump in?

Mr. Tournier—No, I hadn't received my hotel bill then.

GRATEFUL TO TAFT

Philadelphia Ledger on the Reciprocity Treaty

We think that this country owes an especial debt of gratitude to William H. Taft for his energetic, statesmanlike advocacy of immediate reciprocity with Canada. The President will perform two great services if he shall remain unalterably firm in forcing this great measure through Congress. The first service will be that to the trade, commerce and industry of the republic, and to the consumers of the country. . . . The next great service will be a political service, in that the debate on this measure is about to lay bare the preposterous cant and humbug that have been sustained for some time by the cohorts of hypocrisy. . . . If the insurgents, after all their professions, shall now desert the cause of the people, they will have nothing but their hollow professions with which to confront the real reformers and statesmen like Taft.

Free Wheat Will Increase Trade

Brandon, Man., Feb. 10.—Vincent Harrold, of Seattle, who represents the Washburn, Crosby Milling Co., of Minneapolis, is here, taking a special business trip to meet personally western millers. He thinks the proposed reciprocity agreement will have the effect of greatly improving commercial relations between the United States and Canada and making better wheat prices. He anticipates the Canadian hard wheat trade with the United States will be enormous within a few years.

Maxims of Men

The avearge man never admits it.

Patience is a great virtue in men—other men.

A man worships his brains—especially if he hasn't any.

It is frequently difficult to corner a man who isn't square.

By the art of cheerfulness men conceal their real feelings.

Many a man catches on who doesn't know how to let go.

Men who do not make the most of themselves will not amount to much.

The man who quickly finds his limitations is the man who doesn't hunt for them.

HARD FIGHTING IN MEXICO

Two Days' Skirmishing Costs Twenty Lives—Locomotives Destroyed

(Special to the Optimist)

Mulato, Mexico, Feb. 13.—In a two days' fight with the insurgents the Mexican Federal troops under General Lugue sustained a loss of twenty men. A despatch from Monterey states that the round house was burned and fifteen locomotives destroyed there by the rebels on Saturday.

Cheaper in the Long Run

The finance committee have recommended the payment of $1000 to Mr. E. Taylor, the solicitor, who claimed $2,000 for services rendered in connection with the incorporation. It is understood that Mayor Manson has advised the payment of this amount rather than contest the total sum charged in the law courts.

THIS NEW BUILDING IS A CREDIT TO RUPERT

Messrs. J. Piercy, Morris Co. Move to Their New Premises Near the Water Front---Description of Building and Scope of the Firm's Enterprise

The best promise of Prince Rupert lies in the faith of her business men; and it is a valid promise because the faith is above suspicion. The enterprise of the business men is not to be confounded with the speculation of the stock gambler; the former is the courage of honest industry anticipating the demands of a growing community, the latter a bird of prey sucking the life blood out of the earth. It is therefore with a high degree of pleasure and pride that Prince Rupert welcomes the inauguration of a new or the extension of an old business concern.

An Imposing Structure

One of the most recent enterprises to gladden the eyes of the citizens of Prince Rupert is the great new store and warehouse erected on First avenue with its "ulterior" facing the bay, for J. Piercy, Morris Co., wholesale dry goods and clothing. It is an imposing structure, modern, commodious, utilitarian, and one to be proud of. It is ranged alongside of the great block erected by the Kelly-Douglas firm of Vancouver and with it shares the honor of being one of the largest warehouses in the city. It is split in two, Messrs. Stewart & Mobley occupying one portion, with the balance of floor space in favor of Piercy-Morris on account of the lay of the land.

Entry First Avenue

The main entrance is by First avenue, where the fifth, or top floor, meets the grade of the street. The rear of the building is in line with the G. T. P. tracks running north of Center street, and in order to avoid any alterations in the future, care has been taken to have the basement floor on the level of the cars. The advantage of this course may not be very apparent in the meantime as the intervening space between the line and the warehouse is not built in but with an image of the completed wharf in one's mind it is easy to understand the value of the point.

Clerical Department

Besides being used for the display part of the house the top floor will accommodate the clerical department for which branch of the business a generous portion has been clipped off and raised a semi-flat higher. It is in here that the head work will be performed. The scenic view over the harbor from this part of the house is entrancing. Whether it will inspire the staff to juggle better with numerals is a question that remains to be seen—but it is beautiful.

Sound and Solid

With the exception of the flooring, the window sashes and doors the whole structure is built of Georgetown lumber. An Otis elevator with a carrying capacity of one ton will convey all the shipments from the floors above to the basement where it will be an easy matter either to have them put aboard the steamer, or aboard the trains when the line is operating for that purpose.

Business Expansion

The new season is just about to commence and the firm is laying in a big stock of dry goods. It is their firm belief that business will be three times greater during the incoming season than it was last season. Their only regret is that the means of transportation will not have increased to accommodate the expansion. For the shipment of their goods up the river to Hazelton and other places they have to rely on three river boats; and last year's traffic was sufficient to strain them to the utmost. By next summer, however, it is hoped that the line will be running as far as Hazelton and that will facilitate the business of Messrs. Piercy-Morris a great deal.

Commendable Enterprise

They are a firm thoroughly conversant with the conditions of trade in this part of the country and that has given them a great advantage over their competitors. For their enterprise in opening up a new and magnificent store they deserve all the commendation that is coming to them for while it will certainly benefit themselves it will give an added distinction to the city, and through that medium to the citizens.

Informal Dances

Informal dances will be given in the McIntyre Hall every Wednesday night beginning on February 15th, under new mamnagement. Music by Grey's Orchestra. 2t

GOOD NEWS FROM STEWART

New Strike on Portland Canal Mine Last Week

Just back from Stewart, Mr. Samuel Harrison brings word that what is described by Mine Manager Elmendorf as one of the largest sheets of ore yet discovered in the Portland Canal mine was struck the other day in No. 3 tunnel. The face is in five and half feet of solid ore, and there are 150 feet of backs. Drills are now working in a three-foot face of solid ore, and a total of twelve feet a day is being put out by the mine.

Mr. Harrison also mentions that the raise from the Red Cliff main tunnel to the upper workings being made by Supt. McPhee shows very good values indeed.

While at Stewart Mr. Harrison saw landed the Camosun's consignment of 10,000 ties for the newly named Canadia North Eastern Railway—the Portland Canal short line which is expected to make very rapid progress this spring.

The foundations are laid for new large saw mills at Stewart.

FARMERS ENDORSE TREATY

Saskatchewan Agriculturalists Hold Convention in Regina

Regina, Feb. 11.—At a crowded meeting of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Society's convention this afternoon, the following resolution was adopted with practical unanimity:

"That this community regards with approval the proposed reciprocity arrangemnet with the United States."

A resolution was also passed that the railway companies be asked to provide in connection with each harvest excursion train at least one colonist car exclusively for women, and give the same rate to any able-bodied woman who is willing to come west and engage in house work on a farm during harvest.

MUST WAIT A LITTLE

Extension of Hotel Hours Is Deferred Awhile

The application by the retail liquor license holders to have the closing hours altered and the bar-tenders' license fees reduced has been laid on the table at the city council in accordance with the report of the committee dealing with it.

Alderman Kirkpatrick said a deputation had waited upon him to protest against allowing the bars to keep open an hour longer and he thought it "not advisable yet to extend the hours."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Grand Chancellor Thompson Will Visit Lodge—Church Parade

Skeena Lodge No. 45 Knights of Ptyhias will have a very busy week. Grand Chancellor John Thompson will arrive on Wednesday on the Prince George and a special meeting will be held in the evening. After the business is concluded a social hour will be spent with the Grand Chancellor. Every member is requested to be present.

Church Parade

Next Sunday is the Knights of Pythias anniversary and Skeena Lodge has arranged to parade to the Methodist church at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon when Rev. Mr. Sing will deliver a special sermon. This is the first church parade for Skeena Lodge and the members are requested to turn out in force. 2t

Not Yet, But Soon

Prince Rupert will make no grant to the Anti-Tuberculosis society. The city, says the health committee, is not at a sufficiently advanced stage for that yet.

"Delays Are——"

Alderman Newton asked after the famous fire engine at last night's council. Nothing doing.

Don't forget the Masquerade Carnival tonight at the rink. All will unmask at 9 o'clock. Admission 25c.
