SAVOY LICENSE NOT RENEWED

TECHNICAL OBJECTIONS RAISED BY TWO COMMISSIONERS

Peculiar Ruling of License Board—All Other Licenses Are Renewed—Charge Is Laid Against the Knox Hotel.

Although there is no charge or suspicion of misdemeanor against A. J. Prudhomme's conduct of the Savoy Hotel, Licenses Commissioners Smith and Merryfield this morning refused to renew his license. They urged as a reason for their action that the original license was not legally obtained. Corley & Burgess's license obtained at the same time and under the same circumstances they granted, however.

At the outset over the adoption of the minutes of the three previous meetings Commissioner Merryfield objected to the minutes of the meeting which he abruptly left. His contention was that he had given notice that he would leave before the vote was taken on the applications of Messrs. Corley & Burgess and A. J. Prudhomme. After some discussion on the motion of Commissioner Merryfield seconded by Commissioner Smith the minutes were expunged.

A communication was read from Thos. J. Davidson calling attention to the condition of the windows of the G. T. P. Inn and Premier Hotel bars

SERGEANT REGAN FACES THE MUSIC

MAKES A COUNTERCHARGE AGAINST MR. PATMORE

Latter Denies Truth of Mr. Patmore's Charge—Hearing Marked by Heated Language—Commissioners Will Make Investigation Thorough.

The court which the police commissioners are holding at the City Hall to try the charge against Sergeant Regan of accepting bribes for protecting gamblers, was on Saturday made the scene of several exciting incidents. Charges and countercharges were rife among the witnesses, who on several occasions almost came to blows. Much of the evidence was expressed in such heated language as to be quite unprintable. The commissioners, Mayo Stork and Alderman Mobley are still sitting, determined to get to the bottom of the charges and countercharges or conspiracy which are being made.

The testimony of the man Zarelli was stoutly contradicted by John Goodman, of the Grand Hotel, who said that the only offer of money he had ever made to Regan was a $10 bill and a box of cigars as a Christmas gift, which the sergeant declined to accept. Goodman declared that Zarelli had threatened to blackmail him, unless he gave him money.

ALD. PATTULLO FLOORS MR. CUTHBERT

GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL RUSHES ON PLATFORM TO DEFEND HIS ASSESSMENT BUT IS MADE TO EAT HIS OWN WORDS

NOISY MEETING HELD IN OPERA HOUSE

Ald. Smith, Charged With Leading the "Boo-Boo" Squad, Denies Charge, But His Denial is Refuted by Witnesses—Personalities Were Rife at Mr. Manson's Meeting—W. E. Williams Refutes Accusations.

The race for municipal honors shows no abatement of energy or effort on the part of the various contestants. On Saturday night in the Empress Theatre they rounded the last bend in the course in a bunch and entered upon the final home run. The bumpings and borings were carried on flagrantly despite the proximity of the judge's box.

Alderman Pattullo figured prominently throughout. First of all he had a wordy duel with Alderman Smith as to whether the latter had used his vocal organs to interrupt the meeting by "boo-hooing" on the previous evening. They differed widely and vigorously on the point, and then left it to the decision of the audience. Mr. Pattullo's next opponent was Mr. Cuthbert, the gentleman who made the G. T. P. assessment which Alderman Pattullo has criticized so consistently. Mr. Cuthbert denied that he had made a biased assessment in favor of the Development Co. but failed to disprove the damaging facts of the Alderman. Another notable feature was the determined manner in which Mr. Patmore, the chairman, delivered the audience from the soporific effects of Mr. Newton who apparently was relying upon unlimited time being placed at his disposal.

Leaders Are Brief

Mr. William Manson did not make speech as there were so many others on the platform and he thought it right that they should have a chance.

Alderman Mobley followed this example closely. He supplemented his platform by adding the abolition of the Ward system and advocating that steps be taken to facilitate the fishing industry of Prince Rupert and district. A market on the waterfront would greatly facilitate that industry, the magnitude and future prospect of which was not properly realized.

Another Acrobat

Mr. Seguin who announced himself a wage-earner, spoke in favor of Mr. Manson. He admitted that at last election he had opposed Mr. Manson, but he now saw the error of his ways! At last election he had worked sincerely for Mr. Stork putting enthusiasm and ginger into his efforts. He intended to devote the same quality of enthusiasm now for Mr. Manson.

Proceedings Warm Up

Alderman Pattullo's appearance had a warming influence upon the audience. He wanted to say in regard to Mr. Seguin, and he would say it with great reluctance, that that gentleman was in the same position as a number of others who had not got from the City Council that which they hoped to get. This remark was greeted with cries of dissent but after the Alderman told the interrupters that they were not going to rattle him no matter how they behaved. Proceeding he said that it was with great regret he had learned that Alderman Smith, Alderman candidate George Kerr, had seen fit to come to their meeting on the evening before and interrupt the proceedings by vulgarly boo-hooing the speakers. This accusation was greeted with loud applause, in the midst of which Alderman Smith rose from his seat and vehemently denied the truth of the statement. Alderman Pattullo referred to Mr. Williams who had said that he heard Alderman Smith boo-hoo, whereupon Mr. Smith defied both of them to prove it. "It is a lie," he said excitedly, "one of the blackest lies you have ever uttered."

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Mrs. Sloan will not receive tomorrow nor until further notice.

Brains versus Beauty

A pretty woman is as often a fool as an Adonis is a fop. Beauty and brains are separate things, says a writer in Truth, and they hardly ever go together in women, because brains have a way of moulding the features into strength. This is all very well in a man in whom strength is considered beauty, but in a woman it jars with our preconceived notions. In Greece, it seems, brains used to make a mould which was magnificently beautiful; it is not so in these days. We have a few curates with Greek profiles, a few beauties of the classic type but one seldom hears of their possessing exceptional brains. If Darwin had been a woman letters would have appeared in the papers suggesting that women of science were dreadfully plain, no doubt because, being plain women, they took up science as a last resort. The idea that size and formation of the brain forbade smooth, high brows and a small mouth would never have occurred to these critics.

Helen of Troy was stupid; one cannot read her history without adoring her for the mixture of beauty and silliness which produced Homer, and, after many centuries, dipped Marlowe's pen in the divine fire. To be "a lovely lady garmented in light from her own beauty," whose "beauty made the bright world dim," is, as a rule, reserved for those who devote themselves to being beautiful.

Mme. Recamier has been cited as an exception, but both her beauty and her brains have been questioned. On the whole, it seems that she was a very pretty and graceful woman, with exceptional charm, who studied the art of listening. Brains have their own beauty, but it is not of the sort to appeal to the man who goes to see a procession of earnest and hardworking women in the spirit of the man who goes to a cattle fair and appraises them quite in the manner of the purchaser.

The gift of great beauty is rare, and, as has been said, it is its own excuse. Prettiness is very common, but it does not usually go with brains in either sex. But charm is independent of brains, beauty, income or anything else, and when we come down to the matrimonial basis of calculation which prevails among those who write to the newspapers we shall find that charm wins the day.

Folding Knife Case

Every one does not happen to possess a case of cutlery, but most people like to keep a second set of knives and forks for special occasions. If care is not taken in storing them they easily become rusty, and the ivory of the handles turns a bad color.

A simple little case, which allows each knife, big or small, to be kept separate from its neighbor, can be easily made at home out of a broad piece of flannel, serge, or green baize. Cut the cloth about two feet long, bind the two sides with braid to match the color of material, and double one side over lengthwise till the edge reaches to within a few inches of the other sides and bind them with braid. Then stitch down the double part at equal distances, allowing sufficient space between each row for inserting a knife. In this way you can store any number, and you will find they will keep in a perfect condition. The case can be rolled up and packed away in a very little space.

Good for the Eyes

It strengthens the eyes to bathe them either in very hot water or in very cold. Better yet is to take pieces of absorbent cotton, rounded and made into little pads to fit the eyes, dip them in ice water and place them on the lids, changing them as they become hot. After a few minutes of such treatment the eyes will feel comforted and relieved to a great degree.

Some Questions For Mr. Smith

Tonight is the "at home" of Alderman Smith, that great friend of labor, whose time is all bought and paid for by the contractors for the G. T. P.

It would be a great opportunity for him to tell his labor friends what he has ever done for laborers on the G. T. P. Yesterday fifteen of them arrived in the city, with their pay checks drawn on Alderman Smith's firm shaved of $2.30 for the privilege of riding fifty-four miles on a flat car in a snowstorm to get their checks cashed. Alderman Smith is not obliged to act as collector for the G. T. P. in this matter. But the fact that a conductor on the G. T. P. will coolly write on a workman's check to deduct a portion and remit it to him, is evidence of where Alderman Smith's firm friendship lies.

Perhaps Alderman Smith will also tell his laboring friends if it is true as alleged that these men are charged 1c a mile to get up the line in a carriage and 4c a mile to get back on a flat car to draw their pay. If it is true that at Mile 54, Alderman Smith's firm have a bunkhouse, 20 by 24 in which thirty workmen have to sleep. Whether it is true that out of their pay of $2.55 for 8 1-2 hours, the men had to pay at Kitsumkalum 75 cents for dinner and $1.00 for supper.

Charity begins at home. If Alderman Smith is the friend of labor he professes to be, he has ample opportunity to demonstrate it.

What Alderman Mobley Has Done

The delight of one speaker at Mr. Manson's meeting on Saturday at his ignorance at not knowing what Alderman Mobley has accomplished during his term of office was humorous to behold. It reminded one of the pitiful delight of some bucolic "oldest inhabitant" who boasts he has never seen a railway train. It would have been but poetic justice had Alderman Mobley when challenged promptly taken the rest of the gentleman's time in telling the audience of some of the things he has accomplished.

Here are a few of the things he did in addition to his work as police commissioner and chairman of the Fire Committee:

He helped to give the city an adequate water supply, with pipe lines to every house possible; he gave plank roadways to the outlying parts of the city; grading improvements in the business section; secured a municipal light and telephone plant; helped in the drafting of by-laws regulating licenses, hotels, medical health public morals, fuel and food, sewers and traffic. On top of all this he has consistently aided in the fight against the efforts of the Grand Trunk to hurt the city's finances, and to evade a payment of their assessment. A good record for seven months.

There are some kinds of ignorance which are not excusable. The gentleman who spoke on Saturday is an example.

Notes and Comments

Why does not Alderman Smith run in his own ward? Is it because the machine is stronger in Ward One?

When Alderman Smith told D'Arcy Tate that he would give one-quarter of his own real estate to get the G. T. P. question settled, he proved his unfitness to represent the citizens.

Alderman Smith should give a solo on his "boo-hoo" at the at home tonight. It would require less mental effort than a speech.

Alderman Smith says his chief desire for re-election is that he may have a hand in settling the G. T. P. question. He would settle it by handing over the city's claim along with his real estate.

Cheap labor is always dear labor. They city will pay dear for Alderman Smith's services if it sends him back to represent the city at the settling of the G. T. P. assessment.

The man who excuses himself from attending to the public service by saying that his time is all bought and paid for by the contractors for the G. T. P. is not a fit representative of the public at the G. T. P. assessment question. Ratepayers be warned.

It was unfair for Alderman Hilditch to attack the City Solicitors on trumped up charges. It was cowardly to do so if he thought they were precluded from reply. And it is mean of him after they have disproved those charges to squeal out and cry "politics." He should take his medicine like a man.

Twice now in the presence of William Manson, Alderman Pattullo has challenged him to tell what he has done for Prince Rupert and the Alderman would tell what Mr. Manson had failed to do. On neither occasion was the challenge accepted. None knows better than Mr. Manson that the story of what he failed to do for the city would fill a big book.

The alacrity with which Mr. Cuthbert took the platform on Saturday to answer Alderman Pattullo's criticisms of the assessment was nothing to his alacrity in beating it off the platform when he found the Alderman had the facts ready in his pocket. His answer "You are a windbag" was very gratifying to the machine supporters. Will it be so to the ratepayers he discriminated against.

Notice to machine candidates. Anyone found giving the old Council credit for anything they did last year will be called out of the field by "business associates in the East" and an "independent" candidate will be substituted. Square deals will not be tolerated by the machine executive. Take warning.

The Empire on Mr. Wm. Manson

The Optimist does not publish this as its own opinion of Mr. Manson. All the articles under this heading are taken from the Empire, a journal which today is appealing to the electors to return Mr. Manson as Mayor. They were written seven months ago, before the Empire had its dispute with the city over a printing account.

It is still the same Empire, and the same Mr. Manson. The paper has not changed owners or editors; nor has Mr. Manson done anything in the meantime to merit any change of opinion regarding him.

(From the Empire of May 18th)

Down with the hotel intimidators. Down with tyranny even against hotel keepers. Why not the Mansonites pitch up the sponge and save a Waterloo.

When Mr. Manson helped to vote down the Hawthornwaite bill he proved himself an enemy of labor.

How is it that Mr. Manson has forgotten to explain those mysteries surrounding the Tsimpsean power charter?

Prince Rupert will never prosper with partizan officials. But what else can we look for with dual representation.

Let the responsibility rest with Mr. Manson who is alone to blame for the shameful non-enforcement of the law.

Mr. Manson has ruled Prince Rupert for two years, and is alone to blame for the existing conditions.

Only a circus rider can ride two horses with safety, yet Mr. Manson thinks he can straddle-the-fence on the temperance question and thus pull the wool over the eyes of the church people.

Having returned from the south I want immediately for various clients SEVEN to TEN THOUSAND acres farming land on the Upper Naas, on proposed route Canadian Northern at right price.

I want TEN SECTIONS or 6,400 acres of timber on lower Skeena or tributaries, with at least 15,000 feet to acre, at fair market price.

I want SAND and GRAVEL proposition accessible to Prince Rupert.

I want $1000 on first mortgage at 10 per cent. on improved town property. Security about $700 due in cash in next five months, and crown granted land immediately marketable at $3,400.

I want to see anyone interested in a local oil prospect of exceptional merit. There is a penalty also a bounty both in favor of Canadian oil and the British navy is looking for Empire oil.

I want a sound reliable coal prospect where owner has sufficient faith to take all his share in profits from the marketed product. With this condition Eastern capitalists will put up $200,000 to develop.

I want the stakings of 10 to 20 coal sections provided transportation, outcroppings, water power, price terms and amount asked in cash and amount willing to take in syndicate are satisfactory.

I want several sections of farming land on north-east coast Porcher Island right prices.

IN THESE CASES I AM THE BUYER. IF YOU ARE A BUYER OF TOWN LOTS, REMEMBER THE MAN WHO PUTS YOU NEXT THE SNAPS.

WORKMEN HELD UP ON RAILWAY

FIFTEEN EMPLOYEES OF FOLEY, WELCH & STEWART ARE SORE

Beating Their Way on a Flat Car in a Snowstorm They Were Made to Pay $2.30 Apiece to the Railway. —Think It Unlust

There are fifteen pretty sore men in Prince Rupert today. They are former employees of Foley, Welch & Stewart, who have been working on the railway, and are here to get their pay checks cashed.

They boarded a worktrain at Mile 54 on Saturday night riding on a flat car. A blizzard was blowing at the time. At McLeod's Siding the train was boarded by Superintendent Dempsey and Conductor Revill who insisted on each of the men paying $2.30 for the privilege of continuing the journey. Under compulsion those who had money paid; those who had not, consented to have their pay checks on Foley, Welch & Stewart reduced by $2.30. One of the checks so treated was brought into the Optimist office this morning.

After paying the $2.30, they were permitted to stand for the remaining 46 miles of the journey in the caboose of the snow plough. None of the men are going back. Some of them had been nine days tramping through the snow with their packs from the other side of Hazelton, before they picked up the train. They feel sore that after being taken up the line for 1c a mile to work, they should have to pay 4c a mile to ride on a flat car in a snowstorm to get to town to draw their hard earned pay.

All of the men had to throw away their kits. One man was so overcome by his struggles through the snow that he threw away a new suit case, containing a $25 suit, blankets, boots, under-clothing, etc.

LADIES and GENTLEMEN:

In response to a request from a number of electors I have decided to offer myself as a candidate for Alderman in Ward 2 for the year 1911. I take the opportunity of the announcement to solicit your support, and promise if elected to give you my best service in the council.

The section belongs to the company. The section I am making comparison with is Section Eight which is only across the road."

Mr. Cuthbert Retires

Reading from his authority Alderman Pattullo said that Block 21, Section Nine was assessed at $25 while a lot in Block 34, Section Eight, immediately across the street was assessed at $100. Another illustration he gave was in Block 30, Section Five where a lot was assessed at $250 against a private individual whereas in Block 12, Section Three, adjoining but belonging to the company a lot was assessed $10. These figures he defied Mr. Cuthbert to disprove. (A Voice—"That's right.") Mr. Cuthbert retired with the assertion that he did not use his endeavours to get a good assessment for the company and when he had resumed his seat and heard Alderman Pattullo still quoting evidence against him, he interrupted with the remark that Mr. Pattullo was a windbag. Alderman Pattullo defied anyone to refute the statements he had made and promised to retire from the contest if it could be done.

declared he could criticize Mr. Williams as the leader of a party himself.

While the Alderman was speaking Mr. Naden sent up the question "Will Alderman Hilditch please state whether Alderman Pattullo's statements regarding the assessment of G. T. P. lots is correct or not?"

After City Solicitor

Alderman Hilditch replied a little vaguely that he believed some of the G. T. P. lots were assessed very lightly and said he wanted to get after Mr. Williams. Cries of "Answer the question!" arose, and "What about the assessment?" but Alderman Hilditch only went on to say that Mr. Williams was one of the members of a political party which is going to make a political machine of Prince Rupert. He didn't want to play to the gallery about the electors' roll (A Voice—"But you are!") but if the City Solicitor had given advice to the council to make everybody register their names the result would have been a clear list.

Alderman Hilditch was going to refer to "The Famous Liquor By-law" when he was stopped by cries of time. Mr. Williams secured permission to reply to Alderman Hilditch if the audience so wished." (Cries of "We do.")

The Messenger Boy

Ald. Smith who followed criticised Ald. Pattullo for saying that he was not a proper person to entrust with the city's business. He was not egotistical enough to set himself up as a judge and jury to pass judgment upon himself, as Mr. Pattullo had done. In regard to the G.T.P. settlement he said he obtained the opinions of a number of prominent citizens. He had asked Mr. Pattullo if he had done so and he said he had not. "Who then," asked the speaker, "represented the people in that settlement." In regard to financing the city he said Ald. Pattullo had only acted as a messenger boy between the bank and the council.

Pattullo's Political Death

In regard to the accusation that he would not be able to serve the city for the whole year as he was leaving in June his plans had since been changed. It was now certain that he would be in Prince Rupert for at least another year. By that time he expected to see Ald. Pattullo die a natural political death. He said his opposition to the clause in the Liquor License By-law was because he thought it unconstitutional.

Ald. Pattullo promised to show at a later date how Ald. Smith had approved of every financial transaction of the messenger boy.

Would go on Forever

Editor Newton asked for unlimited time to address the audience as long as they would sit for it. Amid cries of "go to it," he told of his strong views and desire to let others have theirs. Mr. Newton declared himself for the larger scale of pay for satisfactory workmanship. Under the conditions of outside work in Prince Rupert $3 was not enough. The higher rate would encourage into the city the class of workers who would remain and become permanent citizens.

The "sizzling" of Mr. Manson's supporters by their opponents, Mr. Newton had not seen, and he could not criticise Ald. Mobley's platform because there was nothing to it he could see. He defied Ald. Mobley to show anything in his council work to justify his candidature for the Mayoral chair.

Ald. Mobley stepping forward said simply that he did not need to brag about what he had done. He gave his audience credit for sufficient intelligence to see what he had done for themselves. (applause).

Mr. Newton is Pleased

Up got Mr. Newton again. "That is exactly where I wanted to catch Mr. Mobley," he said, "I gave him the opportunity to tell you what he has done and he has told you nothing."

Mr. Newton extolled Mr. Manson. "You've changed your mind since last fall," cried a voice, and Mr. Newton went on to explain that he had lost faith in the civic administration.

The Fire Engine

He criticised the automobile Fire Engine. "What would happen to many of you," he cried, "if a big fire swept the town?"

Defining the Issues

The Chairman asked Alderman Pattullo to confine himself to the issues of the campaign.

"So I will," replied the Alderman, "but I choose to define for myself what these issues are." (Loud applause.) He then told the audience that Mr. Seguin came to his office along with a compatriot to try and get him to use his influence to get his, Mr. Seguin's tender, accepted for a certain work despite the fact that his tender was not the lowest.

Mr. Seguin—"I challenge that statement. I'm not a contractor."

Alderman Pattullo—"You are not an honest one anyway. I told you that you would get it if your tender was the lowest."

Another Battle

On catching an interruption from Mr. Cuthbert, Mr. Pattullo turned his attack on to him. He indicated the gentleman and stated that he was responsible for the worst assessment ever made. (Loud applause.) Mr.

Cuthbert resented the statement and denied it whereupon the Alderman invited him to come on the platform and have it out.

Alderman Pattullo Scores

Amid great excitement Mr. Cuthbert boarded the platform. Mr. Pattullo repeated his opinion that the assessment was outrageous. Mr. Cuthbert demanded figures and nothing loth Alderman Pattullo produced his authority showing that lots on one side of the boulevard in Section Eight belonging to private citizens were assessed at $250 each whereas the company's property on the other side of the boulevard in Section Nine only bore a $10 assessment.

Mr. Cuthbert—"There is no map of Section Nine."

Alderman Pattullo—"If there is no map of the section how did you come to make an assessment of a lot that did not exist."

Mr. Cuthbert—"I inquired from the Land Registry Office but I had no map."

Alderman Pattullo—"Then if you inquired how did you come to make the assessment you did."

Mr. Cuthbert then declared that there was no part of Section Nine private property.

Alderman Pattullo—"I know that.

Hilditch on Grading

What Alderman Hilditch called "a noisy house" greeted him when he appeared. He remarked that Alderman Pattullo's claim for support on the record of the previous council did not convince him. There were four members of the first council running. Alderman Pattullo and Alderman Mobley, Alderman Smith and himself. They represented two sides.

While Alderman Hilditch claimed that the citizens would have endorsed the scheme of grading Second avenue as far as from Alderman Lynch's store to McBride street, he maintained that the part beyond Lynch's store they did not want graded.

A Voice—"We're paying for it though"

"Yes, you are paying for it," replied Alderman Hilditch, "but you are borrowing our money to pay for it, and you will know more about how you're paying for it by next fall." He said City Solicitor Williams had criticized him on the previous night on the ground that he was attacking him from a party standpoint. Alderman Hilditch

SEWERS FOR REST OF CITY

Trunk Sewer Scheme Wanted Drafted Early

In a report of the streets committee at Friday's council the city engineer's recently prepared sewer scheme was ruled too costly meantime, and it was suggested that a new scheme be prepared draining only from subgrade. More urgently important, said the report, is the scheme for trunk sewers only throughout the whole city which should be first submitted to the council.

COAL FOR LIGHT PLANT

Tenders for Supply Opened by the Council

Tenders for the supply of steam coal for the city light plant were opened at council as follows: Rogers & Black, steam coal $8.20 per ton, straight pea coal $7.30 per ton delivered. Rochester & Munro Comox steam coal (strongly recommended) $8 per ton delivered provided a plankway is completed to let it be delivered in bulk. The tenders were referred to the light committee.

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

"And how old should I say I am?" giggled the golden-haired spinster, with a coy glance at Jones.

"Ah, Miss Smiley," replied Jones, with a low bow, "don't think you are old at all. Ask rather how young do I take you to be."

And she was so pleased she forgot to.

Unfortunately the woman who knows exactly how to manage a husband seldom gets a chance to demonstrate her theories.

Dauber—Do you think my new battle picture expresses the horrors of war?

Kittrick—Oh, yes; it's the awfulest thing I ever saw.

In honor of the eventful day of graduation from a cooking school she got up a little spread.

"Yes, I've got the loveliest diploma!" cried the fair graduate. "It's on sheepskin parchment with a big gold seal. I cooked this dish you are eating. Now, just guess what it is."

"Is it—er—" the young cynic paused impressively, "is it the diploma, Peggy?"

Eve had just tied a garland of maple leaves about her ankles.

"What on earth are you up to, my love?" asked Adam.

"I am trying on my new hobble-skirt, sweetheart," returned the partner of his joys with a sweet smile.

Towards the close of a recent lawsuit in Massachusetts, the wife of an eminent Harvard professor arose and with a flaming face timidly addressed the court: "Your honor," said she, "if I told you I had made an error in my testimony, would it vitiate all I have said?"

Instantly the lawyers for each side stirred themselves in excitement, while his Honor gravely regarded her.

"Well, madam," said the court, after a pause, "that depends entirely on the nature of your error. What was it, please?"

"Why, you see," answered the lady, more and more red and embarrassed, "I told the clerk I was thirty-eight. I was so flustered, you know, that when he asked my age I inadvertently gave him my bust measurement."

If you want money for a legitimate business venture, want-advertise!

Are You a Want Advertiser?

Do You Read and Answer

WANT ADS?

Do you let want-ad publicity run your errands—find people for you?

Do you watch the want ads for opportunities—for chances to buy and sell, to lease, to invest, to find work or workers?

Do you realize that these little ads are the best Real Estate Salesmen in town?

Do you use them in your tenant-hunting, in your quests for a partner, a backer, a buyer, an investor?

The want ads ought to work for you in their ways every time you have work for them—which ought to be about every day.

PATTULLO FLOORS MR. CUTHBERT

"Broke," replied the audience cheerfully.

"But that fire engine has not arrived yet," went on Mr. Newton.

"Its broke," said some wag in the rear.

"When it comes you'll need a costly expert to run it," continued the speaker.

"Give Pattullo the job," shouted some of the crowd.

Mr. Newton went on to say that common horse sense was required in the selection of automobiles for Prince Rupert.

Mobley's Stand—and Manson's

At this point cries of "Time!" interrupted the speaker who said he had no intention of sitting down yet. He did not think they wanted him to sit down or he would't need to be asked twice; and went on to talk of the Licensing question, saying there would have been no need for Scott Act agitation if the police commissioners had enforced the law.

Mr. Newton declared that if the electors wanted a good business head for Mayor, Mr. Manson was the finest thing in this line in the field.

A New Candidate

A new candidate in the person of P. I. Palmer was introduced. He briefly announced himself as strictly independent with no party affiliation whatever. He had supported Mr. Manson last time and he was going to do so again. Regarding the labor question he would not make any announcement beyond saying that he was open to consider any proposition brought to him in the proper way.

"Oh you sidestepper" was the amusing retort of someone in the hall.

Married Versus Single

D. W. Morrissey spoke briefly on the labor issue, saying that Mr. Newton's idea practically duplicated his own. He was strongly in favor of the establishment of a free employment agency. In regard to wages he discriminated between married and single men. The married men who intended to live in the city and bring up their families should get the big money but the single ones should not.

Another Tiff

Mr. W. H. Montgomery the labor candidate received a rather mixed reception on rising to support Ald. Mobley. He did not go far before falling foul of a man in the audience. He knew him he said and had quit him on account of his disreputable character. He was a caterer down the tenderloin. This brought about a storm of protest and Mr. Montgomery gave way to Mr. Gosden, the person reflected upon.

Mr. Gosden came upon the stage and admitted that he made his living down the dead line by catering. He did not attempt to excuse himself; he justified himself. The dead line was as much a part of the social fabric as any other part, and surely it was no sin to serve meals to the people who came in need of them. The speech made a splendid effect.

Mr. Stephens Retires

M. M. Stephens announced that he was going to withdraw from the contest owing to business arrangements. He assured the audience that if they heard of any dissensions and divisions in the Manson camp they had nothing to do with him.

Nelson and Education

In a most pleasant and sensible little speech, O. M. Nelson came forward as candidate for school trustee. As a parent he had the interest of education for the rising generation at heart. He believed in the public school system, which trains boys and girls for the fight for existence, and also incidentally for the fights of an election contest.

Mr. Williams Explains

Mr. Williams of the city solicitors firm then stepped upon the platform to refute the personal charges made against the firm. His explanation of how the eight hour clause came to be inserted and altered brought Ald. Hilditch to his feet protesting. The Ald. had claimed that the clause was drafted by the Council themselves. Mr. Williams pointed out that he was present in Council at the time and drafted the clause. It was the privilege of the Council to dictate the terms of their clauses. If it was not, what was the use of having a council at all. All the city solicitors had to do was to put their wishes into legal shape. In the one instance Alderman Hilditch blamed them for not framing a clause, and in the case of the Liquor License By-law he blamed them for doing it. What they did in both cases was to obey the Council's instructions.

The meeting broke up near midnight with hearty cheers for Mr. Manson.

SERGEANT REGAN

In denying the charges of graft, Sergeant Regan accused Mr. L. Patmore of trying to get him to swear in a trial before Judge Young that a client named Williams accused of incendiarism, was crazy. He said Mr. Patmore represented that it would increase his reputation to get Williams off, and offered him $500 to give the evidence. He said that affidavits were made by himself and Constable McEwen about the affair at the time.

Mr. Patmore heatedly denied the charge, and threatened to take proceedings against anyone reporting the accusation.

D. Helberg, William White, Ed. O'Shaughnessy and other who were said to have given Regan money denied on oath having done so. Jas. Carriggee said Regan even had refused to accept a free supper. He had heard that the whole thing was a "political frame up."
