VANCOUVER IS INDIGNANT WITH PREMIER McBRIDE

Two Crowded Mass Meetings Protest Against Rejection of Annexation Bill—Deputation of Three Hundred Going To Victoria This Afternoon

(Special to the Optimist)

Vancouver, Feb. 27.—The action of Premier McBride and his followers in turning down the bill providing for the annexation of South Vancouver to Vancouver city has aroused intense indignation here. Two packed indignation meetings were held last night in the Orpheum Theatre and the Orange Hall at which well known local clergymen spoke.

As a result of the meetings a strong delegation of three hundred indignant citizens of South Vancouver left at one o'clock this afternoon on the steamer for Victoria, where they will have an interview with the Premier and voice their feelings at the treatment given the two municipalities over the rejection of the annexation bill.

Great interest is being taken in the city in the mission of the deputation. It is hoped that by bringing pressure to bear, the bill may be revived by the House.

City Council Backs Down

The Council after consideration have decided to report to-night that they do not deem it advisable owing to possible "legal difficulties" to grant the 45c increase most of them promised the Industrial workers.

They will promise to consider giving them increase of wages instead.

MILITARY RULE FOR PORTUGAL

STERN MEASURES ARE REPORTED NECESSARY FOR AWHILE

Royalists in the North Are Endeavoring to Arouse the People—Presidential Election Is Expected to End the Trouble.

(Special to the Optimist)

Lisbon, Portugal, Feb. 27.—The inauguration of a period of military rule until the presidential elections are over is believed to be imminent. The Royalists in the north are using every opportunity to arouse the people against the Republic. Minister Machado is to be appointed head of the military dictatorship until the elections are over and peace restored.

AUSTRIA-RUSSO WAR

International Scrap on Ninth Ave. Ends in Police Court

This morning the three Russian Finns, Mike Pillske, John Kuropatkin and Joseph Moscuik, charged with having created a disturbance on Ninth avenue on Saturday night answered to their names in the police court. Evidence to the effect that the Russians had invaded the shack of a neighboring group of Austrians came to light through the babel of foreign tongues.

A young Austrian, Clyne Kripotkin, who ran for the police for help thinking his brother was killed, gave a pretty clear account of the happenings.

Somehow or other a Russian's coat had been left in the Austrian shack. On claiming it, it's owner alleged that a dollar bill was missing from the pocket. A man was asleep in the Austrian shack. "Are you the man who take mine dollar?" demanded the coat proprietor. No reply. The man in the bunk, according to his countryman's evidence, "sleep like hell."

So there was nothing doing in the dollar finding business, and as a result the Russians came over in force and wrecked the Austrian shack. One young fellow defended the door with the butt of a rifle, and this morning the principal intruders are adorned with black eyes and cut faces.

Sergeant Phillipson has his work cut out during the fight to sort out the innocent from the guilty by the aid of a flash light, but Magistrate Carss, satisfied that the Austrian account of the invasion was substantially correct, fined the war-worn Russians each $10 and costs for fighting, and warned the whole collection whose names sounded like a list of casualties at the Russo-Jap war, to be careful in future and not get so violent in argument again.

MANY FISHERMEN RESCUED

(Special to the Optimist)

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—A report from Helsinfors says that forty-five of the five hundred fishermen who were carried out to sea on an ice floe have come safely to shore at Heiskar Island, and another party at Kowisto. Search parties are after the others.

DUNCAN ROSS AT VICTORIA DEFENDS TRADE AGREEMENT

Mass Meeting of Liberals Pass Unanimous Resolution In Favor of Reciprocity—Premier Is Held Responsible for High Cost of Living in Province

In an exhaustive address before a mass meeting of the Liberals of Victoria, Mr. Duncan Ross, ex-M.P. for Yale-Cariboo dealt with the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Mr. Ross went into the question very fully, giving first a most interesting historical review of the attempts made since long before Confederation by both political parties to secure a trade agreement with the United States, and going on to show in a concise manner how the arrangement at last reached was going to benefit the Canadian consumer and producer alike.

At the conclusion of his address the following resolution was passed unanimously: "Resolved, That the Liberals of Victoria, in public meeting assembled, unanimously endorse the proposed tariff agreement between Canada and the United States."

Twitted the Premier

In his address Mr. Ross took a fall out of the Premier and Hon. Price

Ellison for their statements that reciprocity would result in the ruination of the British Columbia fruit industry. He said:

"The Premier of the province and his doughty finance minister, Mr. Price Ellison, have both declared against the reciprocity agreement, and have both suggested the old Tory cry of lessening the tie that binds us to the mother land. Mr. Ellison has always been an enthusiastic booster for the Okanagan valley and its magnificent fruit. After his recent visit to England it was gratifying to hear him tell, in enthusiastic language, how British Columbia-fruit met the fruit of the world, including the famous Hood River apples, in good old London, and invariably British Columbia fruit took first place. (Hear, hear.)"

Can Meet All Competition

"British Columbia fruit has no pro-

PREMIER BRIAND HAS RESIGNED

PROTEST AGAINST CRITICISM OF THE SOCIALIST MEMBERS

Republic of France Experiences Another Change of Ministry. Threat to Resign Has Been Carried Out Owing to Frequent Bickerings.

(Special to the Optimist)

Paris, France, Feb. 27.—Premier Briand and all his cabinet put in their resignations this morning, as a result of the criticisms of the Socialist group in the French chamber. They claimed that the cabinet were not enforcing the anti-clerical law against congregations as passed by Premier Clemenceau, and demanded that the Cabinet resign.

Owing to the many bickerings among his followers, Premier Briand has frequently of late threatened to resign.

MUTINY AT CONSTANTINOPE

Garrison Objected to Being Sent to Quell an Uprising

(Special to the Optimist)

Constantinople, Feb. 27.—A mutiny is reported by the garrison of Yildiz Palace, which objected to being sent to quell the uprising at Yemen. The mutiny has grown and the rebels have now barricaded themselves, and are well armed with artillery. A large body of loyal troops lined up outside the palace and a fight is likely today. Little news of the crisis has been sent out, as the censorship is very strict. It is believed the mutiny will spread to other sections.

Hungarians Burned to Death

Hazleton, Pa., Feb. 27.—(Special)—By a fire in the mining quarter here last night the homes of three Hungarians miners were burned and seven lives lost.

COUNCIL AGREES AT LAST

Recommendation Regarding Wage Rate Settled Only this Afternoon

Finishing touches to the 45 cent wage rate report from Council in Committee as a whole, to the City Council tonight, were put on between the hours of three and eight p.m. today. Progress was made at Saturday night's meeting, but some of the aldermen had to sleep over the matter once or twice more before they would venture to decide on a report. Before the recommendation was finally drafted and typewritten it had to be talked over again. Whether there remains anything else to be said about it will be seen at tonight's City Council meeting. A big attendance of workers is promised for tonight to hear the momentous decision.

LOST FORTUNE IN JEWELRY

MRS. BALDWIN DRUMMOND IS ROBBED ON ATLANTIC LINER

$160,000 Worth of Jewels Disappear From Stateroom on Liner Amerika. Search Through the Ship Fails to Locate the Missing Baubles.

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Feb. 27.—When the Hamburg-American liner Amerika landed at Hoboken today, it was made known that a great jewel robbery had taken place during the voyage across. Mrs. Baldwin Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., of Chicago is the victim. She reports the loss of diamonds and pearls valued at $160,000.

According to the story told to the police, Mrs. Drummond left the jewels in a drawer in her stateroom. It is thought the door of the stateroom was left unlocked. Two of the missing articles are pearl necklaces with over two hundred choice pearls in each. An exhaustive search was made all over the ship, but without finding any clue to the thief or the missing gems.

STEEL STEAMER ARRIVES

S. S. Skogstadt from Sydney, Cape Breton. With 4700 Tons

On Saturday afternoon the steamer Skogstadt, Captain Rhyning, arrived from Sydney, Cape Breton, with 4700 tons of steel rails and fastenings for the Grand Trunk line. The Skogstadt left Sydney in the first week of December last year, and has made a pretty fast trip. The steel is being unloaded by the Pacific Coast Stevedore Co., whose men have been awaiting her arrival for some days. Under weather conditions such as greeted her arrival the Skogstadt should have her holds clear and be ready for sea again in about ten days or a fortnight.

IS HAYS HAMMOND NOT ACCEPTABLE?

RUMOR THAT HE WILL NOT BE SENT TO THE CORONATION

Statement is Made the Former Ambassador Henry White, Will Represent the United States at the Coronation Festivities.

(Special to the Optimist)

Washington, Feb. 27.—It is rumored here that Hays Hammond is not acceptable to the British Court as the United States representative at the Coronation festivities of King George V. and that Henry White, former United States ambassador to France will go instead.

It is not stated why Mr. Hammond who is one of the wealthiest and best known of mining experts is not acceptable. It is believed that it has some connection with his part as a member of the "Jameson raid" in South Africa which helped to bring about the South African war.

TRAIN WRECK NEAR TORONTO

SEVENTEEN FREIGHT CARS FALL DOWN EMBANKMENT

Three of Crew Are Badly Injured, and Damage to the Freight and Grand Trunk Rolling Stock Will Exceed $25,000.

(Special to the Optimist)

The crew of the train had a narrow escape of their lives. Three of them are seriously injured and are now lying in the hospital.

(Special to the Optimist)

Paris, France, Feb. 27.—Two solid miles of troops lined the march to the grave of General Brun, late Minister of War, who was buried here yesterday. The military spectacle was a striking one. Premier Briand delivered a funeral oration over the grave of his departed minister.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. T. Dufferin Pattullo left by the Prince George for a few weeks' visit to Seattle and Vancouver.

Mrs. G. S. Carl entertained at a small tea at her rooms in the Prince Rupert Inn on Thursday.

There was a large and representative gathering of the citizens of the city at the opening reception at the new hospital Friday evening. Mrs. D.G. Stewart, the wife of the president of the Board of Directors and Miss McTavish, the matron, received the guests, with the nurses, wearing their neat uniforms assisting. The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Stork and Mrs. Wark assisted by Miss Dunn. One of the large wards downstairs was cleared for dancing, while Gray's Orchestra supplied the music.

The Ladies Athletic Committee of the Kaien Island Club have issued invitations for a dance on Monday evening, the twenty-seventh. As this will be the last dance before Lent there will likely be a large attendance.

A Little Dutch Princess

"In the quaint garden of the two-story palace at The Hague plays a little Dutch baby," says Woman's Home Companion for February, "all unconscious that in her are centered the patriotic hopes and fears of a brave nation.

"As yet she is hardly old enough to pronounce her full name, which is Juliana Louise Emma Marie Wilhelmina, Princess of Orange-Nassau and Duchess of Mecklenburg; but she is in truth heiress to the throne of the Netherlands, and her birth on April 30, 1909, relieved the people of the imminent fear that their next sovereign would be a German prince, and that their cherished land with its splendid traditions of pluck and independence would become merely a subordinate principality of the German empire. Her people knew her well both by sight and through gossip and it is an article of faith among them that she is wholly and completely Dutch. 'She is the picture of her mother,' say the rosy Dutch vrouws, 'and not the least like her father.'" Now her mother, the dearly loved Queen Wilhelmina, is manifestly and aggressively Dutch, while her father, Prince Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, had the misfortune to be born in Germany.

"The little princess had better play while she may in the tulip gardens, as before her are years of hard discipline with little pleasure, in order that she may be fitted to hold her own in the complications of European politics and to emulate the virtue of her great ancestor, William the Silent, whose statue guards the gate of her palace.

"Moreover, Queen Wilhelmina, reputed to be the richest woman in Europe, spends little on herself and much on the poor, and the small princess will undoubtedly be trained likewise to live simply and to give both generously and intelligently."

OUR DAILY RECIPE

Breakfast Breads

Corn Bread—When making corn bread by any recipe, if one large cooked potato, hot or cold, is rubbed through a very fine sieve into the batter, it greatly improves it, making it light and feathery, and absolutely delicious.

Wheat Muffins—Two tablespoonfuls

sugar, one tablespoon butter (heaping) one egg, three-quarters cup sweet milk (generous), one and one-half cups flour, a pinch of salt, two teaspoons baking powder. This recipe just makes twelve muffins. Bake in a real warm oven.

PRACTICAL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

A clever device for letting the oil drip slowly from the bottle when making a salad dressing is this; Cut two grooves in the cork on opposite sides, one groove admits air, while the other permits the oil to run slowly and evenly.

To cooked canned corn without burning, remove the paper from the can and put in the teakettle to boil for 15 minutes. Then open and pour the corn into a hot buttered dish. Season with a dash of salt and pepper and a little cream.

SEND OFF FOR NEW HOSPITAL

INFORMAL OPENING CEREMONY AND DANCE

Matron and Staff Have Worked Hard to Have Wards Ready Early. Excellent Arrangements Made. Patients Admitted Today.

In every way successful was the opening of Prince Rupert's new General Hospital on Friday evening. Arrangements for the opening were in the hands of the Ladies' Auxiliary, the Matron, and Hospital staff. An informal function was planned to take place from 7 p.m. onwards, and by a happy thought a dance was included in the plans.

The fact that Prince Rupert ladies had the arrangements in hand ensured the attractiveness of the affair. One of the spacious wards was cleared for the dance, and decorated with flags. Gray's Orchestra, most popular dance musicians in Rupert, was in attendance, and under the brilliant electric lights a big company of Rupert's "Boys and Girls" of all ages and stages had a delightful time.

Refreshments prepared by the Hospital staff and kitchen department were liberally and tastefully provided and formed the medium by which the good cause might be helped along to the extent of "two bits" by the generously inclined. Up to about nine p.m. the visitors looked through the hospital which will be open for patients on Monday. Miss McTavish, the matron, and members of the nursing staff conducted them through the wards which are now furnished and ready.

The large "John Houston" ward was the centre of attraction. In use it will be the surgical ward. The Houston Memorial Fund is over the $600 mark now, but a surgical ward in an up-to-date hospital can use subscriptions well beyond that sum. Other wards ready for occupancy are the "Daughters of the Empire Ward," the "Masons' Ward" and the "Eighth and Ninth Avenues Ward." All are in spick and span order, Miss McTavish and staff having worked most energetically since their appointment to have the institution in working order at the earliest possible date. From the kitchen department in the basement where is situated the nurses' dining room, to the residential rooms upstairs, everything is in order for the comfort of patients and staff. The building is electrically lighted throughout, the installation by

WEDDING BELLS AT MASSET

PARTY OF THREE HUNDRED ATTEND INDIAN MARRIAGE

Mr. Walter Samuel and Miss Martha Marks United. Brass Band and Big Bridal Breakfast. Sixth Wedding Since New Year.

(Special Correspondence)

Masset, Feb. 27.—A wedding that once more brought together the residents of Massett, was celebrated on the Indian Reserve last week when Walter Samuel, one of the most progressive young men of the Haida nation, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Martha Marks, a native daughter of Massett Reserve. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Hogan, pastor of the parish, being the sixth wedding performed since New Year. The Massett Brass Band accompanied the bridal party to the church, where a large number of the friends of the contracting parties were present. After the ceremony the wedding party and their friends went down to a sumptuous repast in the Town Hall. After partaking of the wedding dinner several of the guests including the pastor and Indian Agent were called upon to propose the health of the two young principals. The band under the direction of the leader, Alfred Adams, played several selections and the evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner.

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Feb. 25.—Hon. Mr. Bowser this afternoon introduced a bill to ratify the agreement between Vancouver and the Great Northern Railway regarding False Creek. He departed from the usual procedure by making a statement when the bill was in committee of the whole before the first reading instead of waiting until the second reading, which will be taken tonight. He claimed the bargain was a much better one than that made by the city. Under the agreement, the company must build within five years a station costing half a million. Other lines are to have use of the station on paying certain rentals. The whole of the Great Northern system becomes a party to the agreement. A round house and freight sheds also are to be built.

Down With the Land Grabbers

The protest of Mr. Duncan Ross before the mass meeting of Liberals at Victoria—quoted in part in another column—in which he voiced his indignation at the Provincial Government's land policy, came as a timely interjection in the reciprocity discussion. It brings the matter very closely home to the people of the Skeena district.

A man need not be a student of history to comprehend that no development can be worth much to a country that does not provide for the settlement of its lands. No people can get a secure grip on a country save by the settlement of the land. The conquest by plow and harrow is the only effective conquest.

It comes almost as a surprise to most of us to remember that the lands we now call Canada and the United States were in the possession of Spain and France before the coming of the English. It was because those nations failed to settle the land that their conquest was never complete. The Spaniard was a gambler and an adventurer. He saw in the new continent only the possibilities of finding mountains of gold and new Eldorados. The Frenchman loved adventure too, but he blended his interest with a passion for missions. It was not until the English came in their three tiny ships up the great river which they called the James in honor of their King, and landing at a fork in the river started to till the land, that the real conquest of America began.

Here in Northern British Columbia we are facing an ironical condition. With lands and climate fitted for agriculture, most of us are importing stale foods from Eastern Canada, upon which heavy railway and brokerage tolls are being paid. Over on Graham Island—the potential market garden of the northern Pacific—hundreds of would-be settlers are sitting with folded hands, denied by the government the right to settle on the lands. Some of them have been actually driven off the land by the government, in the interest of the coal stakers. In the eyes of the McBride government the speculator is of more value than the settler.

This evil works harm in three ways. It retards the real development of the Province; it hinders hundreds of honest men with families from earning livings at useful and productive labor, and it increases the cost of living for us, who living in the midst of a garden, are obliged to import food from across the continent.

As Mr. Duncan Ross well observed in rebutting Premier McBride's suggestion of disloyalty, "The man who can reduce the cost of living to the laborer or the artisan by twenty-five or fifty cents a day is more the patriot than the man who waves the old flag, suggests disloyalty of his political opponents and while he is thus employed, allows the public domain to fall into the hands of American land grabbers.

Notes and Comments

Amusing is the unanimity with which the anti-reciprocity parties of both Canada and the United States declare that the negotiators of the other country "were too slick for us." Representative Fordney, of Michigan, rising in the United States Congress declared, "I know we have been buncoed by the Canadian representatives into a free trade agreement. Why, our representatives surrendered body, soul, and breeches to Canada."

In olden times when annexationists existed in Canada, their argument was this: "Annexation is made necessary by the impossibility of reaching the United States market without it." But now that the Liberals have made it possible to reach the United States market without annexation, they are, strange to say, denounced in some quarters as annexationists.

An officer of an Atlantic liner has been sent to jail for having brought his diamond ring inside the line marked by the Statue of Liberty. Free traders modify the words of the French aristocrat, and say that the things done in the name of liberty would make jackasses laugh.

FRIENDLY MESSAGES NO. 5

Funny how some people take an innovation. Heard a fellow say yesterday that I was not original, that my messages have been worked to death in other towns. Original? Bless you, no. If I were I would own the country. Solomon exhausted all sources of originality thousands of years ago. But I am utilizing someone else's originality to present my message to you. The message is that you and I can make some money if we get together. I am boosting and telling the countless millions that read the newspapers about Prince Rupert Opportunities. If you have not found your opportunity better see me. I may find one for you. Principally I sell and buy real estate, but that, like charity, covers a multitude of sins. I have inquiries and offers and propositions and one of these may fit you. Why not see me and talk things over?

"Well, I think I had better bring you my bill today; tomorrow it will be too late."

"I do not know. I never saw her with her hat off."

"What's the trouble?" asked the faithful friend.

"I'm up against a paradox," he answered. "When I get through reforming things and abolish all these sinecures, I'll have one myself."

Several Families of Permanent Residents Arrived Last Week

(Special Correspondence)

Masset, Feb. 24.—Twenty passengers arrived on the last trip of the steamer Prince Albert, including James Martin and C. Harrison and several families who intend locating permanently on Graham Island. Among the passengers was Mr. A. S. Christie, who is interested in several locations on Massett Inlet. It is Mr. Christie's intention to build on the new road, near Dalkatla Bay, where Mr. Wilson of Prince Rupert has disposed of several locations to intending settlers and residents of Massett Inlet.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,—The selling of intoxicating liquor within this city has been made a legal business for less than a dozen men, but it is legal only under certain restrictions. The men to whom has been granted this most lucrative monopoly are not satisfied. They wish certain restrictions removed that they may sell more liquor and be held less responsible.

To extend the hour for the sale of intoxicating liquor from eleven o'clock to midnight will undoubtedly mean a great increase in drinking by those who already have had enough and are beginning to lose control of themselves. It will prevent useful citizens from getting early to work and will enrich the few.

The clause which prevents licence holders from turning a man out unaccompanied at midnight who is incapable of walking our elevated streets safely is most humane and should be kept in the by-law in the interests of our common humanity.

Yours truly,
F. H. DU VERNET

DUNCAN ROSS AT VICTORIA

tection in the English market 6,000 miles away, and it more than holds its own there. It is surely not the same Mr. Ellison, who, with tears in his eyes and tears in his voice, tells a sympathetic legislature that the British Columbia fruit industry is going to be ruined because it is to have no protection in a market at its very doors. Let me tell Mr. Ellison that Canadian cheese and Canadian bacon have overcome all competition in the English market, and Canadian fruit will do the same at home or in England. (Hear, hear).

"I have more confidence in the enterprise of the British Columbia fruit-growers than to suggest that they are to be ruined if the government of the Dominion of Canada in its wisdom finds it necessary to make a reasonable trade agreement with a view of securing a reduction of the high cost of living in this country. Let me tell him further, that the greatest competition to British Columbia fruit in the northwest market does not come from the United States, but from Ontario, and with a new market opened up in the great border cities of the United States Ontario fruit will no longer be sold in Manitoba and in the Northwest, but right at the very doors of this province, across the border.

Is Responsible for Dear Food

"Mr. McBride, as leader of the government, is responsible more than any other man, for the condition of affairs in this province, a condition that makes reciprocity so essential to this province if the outrageously high cost of living is to be materially reduced. (Hear, hear).

"I refuse to accept a suggestion of disloyalty from a gentleman who has never seriously applied himself to problems of government, who has permitted the lands in the province to be held by speculators, who has thereby retarded settlement, and thus prevented the production within the province of the natural products which are so essential for human food, who is thereby responsible for the outrageously high cost of living. The man who can reduce the cost of living to the laborer and the artisan, by twenty-five or fifty cents a day, is more the patriot than the man who waves the old flag, suggests disloyalty of his political opponents, and, while he is thus employed, allows the public domain to fall into the hands of the American land-grabbers. (Applause).

"I have no patience with those who are too lazy or too prejudiced to give proper consideration to trade arrangements and who, in the absence of any solid argument, are found waving the old flag and impugning the loyalty of those who are just as loyal as themselves.

A Hopeless Contradiction

He pointed out that when the old reciprocity treaty was abrogated in 1866, some foolish people believed that the abrogation would force Canada into annexation with the United States, and one congressman went so far as to introduce a measure providing for the annexation of Canada. When colonial preference was abolished Canada was to be forced into annexation. When the reciprocity treaty was passed it would lead to annexation, and when the reciprocity treaty was abrogated it would force annexation. (Laughter).

(Special to the Optimist)

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The challenge of Phoenix, B. C., to send a team for a contest to try and wrest the Stanley Cup for championship hockey has been received. This brings the number of challenges up to five. Trustee Foran says that at least three teams will have to wait till next year.

The cup is at present in the possession of the Montreal Wanderers' team, but Ottawa is leading in the contest and cannot lose the cup for 1911.
