PRESIDENT DIAZ OFFERS MEXICAN REBELS PEACE

TORONTO REJOICES AT ADVENT OF CHEAP POWER

Jubilant Scenes This Morning When Sir James Whitney Pressed the Button that Connected the Factory Wheels of Toronto to the Energy at Niagara Falls

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Toronto, May 3.—In the presence of an enormous crowd, estimated at fully one hundred thousand people, Sir James Whitney, Premier of Ontario, this morning pressed the finger of Hon Adam Beck to the electric button which connected the factory wheels of Toronto with the giant waterpower of Niagara. It was the culmination of three years of work, and the crowning triumph of the Whitney administration.

Great Hydro Electric Scheme

In pressing the finger of Hon. Adam Beck to the button, the Premier signified the credit due to his Minister, who for the past three years has devoted himself to the problem of cheap power. While in the Cabinet "without portfolio," Hon. Adam Beck is recognised as "the Power Minister." The scheme evolved under his direction has resulted in the manufacturing towns of Ontario being supplied with cheap power direct from Niagara. The Ontario Government has made contracts for the purchase of power in large quantities at Niagara, from the different power companies, has built an immense transmission system on towers over the country, and delivers power at low rates to the municipaltiies.

A Jubilant Crowd

The occasion of the official opening partook of the nature of a general holiday. All the political bodies, as well as the manufacturers association, joined the ceremony. Lieutenant Governor Gibson, Mayor Geary and the City Council with the members of the Legislature and special guests had seats on a raised platform outside the City Hall. In the City Hall Square the crowds surged, stopping the street car traffic. Their noise was so great, that it was impossible for the speakers to deliver their speeches. These will be printed in the newspapers instead.

In the crush several people were hurt, and had to be removed to the hospital, but no serious injuries were recorded

BRITISH TROOPS LANDED IN STREETS OF CANTON

Men From Four British War-Ships With Quick-Firing Guns Quell Chinese Riots—Horrible Sights Witnessed After Conflict Between Troops and Rebels

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Hong Kong, May 3.—A large detachment of British marines and blue jackets with rapid fire guns landed today at Canton, from four British warships in the harbor to quell the native riots which have broken out again.

A battle took place in the streets of the city before the British troops were landed. The native troops and the rebels fought with great ferocity. The details forwarded here tell of fierce fighting throughout the whole district. The report to the naval commander, says that as the British force marched through the streets, they passed countless corpses.

The native vengeance had been exacted upon those suspected of favoring progress. Nearly all the headless bodies were clad in European dress. A large number of queue-less heads were exposed in prominent places on the streets of Canton. The troops will remain for fear of further outbreaks.

HUGE ROCK DOES DAMAGE TO THIRD AVENUE RESIDENCE

Mass Weighing Six Hundred Pounds from Nick Stroga's Contract Crashed Through Roof of C. B. Wark's Home---Narrow Escape of Mrs. Wark---Parlor is Wrecked---Overcharge of Powder Probable Cause

Havoc was wrought in the home of C. B. Wark on Third avenue this morning by a heavy blast shot on Nick Struga's station contract just behind the police station. A huge rock weighing over six hundred pounds was flung high in the air and crashed down on the roof of Mr. Wark's house just above the parlor. Rending its way through timbers and ceiling the mass, just missing a handsome fauteil, cut through the thick carpet and buried itself in the floor. It took six men to get it out, and the whole room was upset by the concussion.

Narrow Escape

Fortunately Mrs. Wark was in the kitchen at the moment. A very few minutes before the shot she had been in the wrecked room. Every one who saw the upheaval caused by the blast expected to hear of injuries or even loss of life. Other houses were fairly sprayed with spattered muskeg and smaller pieces of rock. The veranda of Mr. D. McLeod's home was wrecked, and Mr. Vernor W. Smith's white house presents a mottled appearance owing chiefly to muskeg. Wires on the light poles across the street were dislodged, and an insulator was shattered.

Difficulty yesterday with the bore for this blast which was being loaded is said to be the cause of today's smash. The charge burnt out yesterday, and the boring was reloaded today. It is thought that some of the old charge may have remained in the hole making the shot too heavy. Chief Vickers is looking into the matter.

A GIRL SHOT AT KAMLOOPS

Celia Demarchi Victim of Unknown Assailant

ITALIAN AFFAIR

Fifteen Year Old Girl Went to Open Door, and was Immediately Shot in Both Legs—Police Investigating Mystery.

(Canadian Press Dispatches)

Kamloops, May 3.—A mysterious shooting affair in the Italian quarter is perplexing the police who suspect revenge or jealousy at the bottom of it. Celia Demarchi, an Italian girl of fifteen years is the victim. Late last night she was summoned to the door of her father's house by a loud knocking. As soon as she opened the door she was shot at in both legs by some unknown person. The girl is badly injured, and doctors fear she will have to have both legs amputated.

WANT UNION OF CHURCHES

District Methodist Ministers Favor Radical Change

MAYOR'S WELCOME

Public Meeting Last Night Discussed Union of Presbyterian Congregational and Methodist Churches—Not a Dissenting Voice Heard.

Not a single dissenting voice was heard last night when the subject of church union of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches was discussed at a public session held in the Methodist church near the G. T. P. Annex, of the conference of the Methodist ministers of all the churches in this district. A vote to determine who is and who is not in favor of the union will be taken at the meeting of the conference today and every delegate has intimated that he will vote in favor of the union.

Since the first joint committee of the three churches in question met in Toronto, December 21, 1904, to talk over the advantages of joinging together as one church, Rev. G. H. Raley of Port Simpson, chairman of the meeting, explained the subject has become a prominent one. "There is nothing in the way of the evangelical churches uniting," he said. "There is a scarcity of men for the church work and this would help solve the difficulty.'

On the Road

"We are a long way on the road towards the consummation of the marriage of the churches," stated Rev. J. C. Sing. "Difficulties may be in the way, but these may vanish with the actual union He spoke at some length on the many phases of the proposition and concluded with the remark: "I for one believe that the bodies of Protestantism would be greatly benefitted by the union."

Gave Warning

"Go slow," was the warning issued by Dr. R. W. Large of Port Simpson, who explained that when the Congregationalists of Canada voted on the subject some time ago only fifty per cent of the members of the church took advantage of the opportunity to vote and only 85 per cent of those who did vote were in favor of the union. He also submitted that it was believed that an approximate number of Presbyterians in favor of the change was two to one. Dr. Large, however, said, personally he was in favor of the proposition and would vote accordingly.

Mayor Welcomed Visitors

Mayor Manson maintained that Northern B. C. would materially gain by a banding together of the three churches and in a short speech gave his reasons for his belief. Then, on behalf of the citizens of Prince Rupert, he welcomed the visitors here. Rev. Mr. Raley replied to the welcome.

Divisions Harmful

"It is a hopeful sign of the times that church union is being discussed," contended Dr. Kergin and he avowed that divisions in religious matters caused a waste of time and money.

Dr. J. C. Spencer of Skidegate, Rev. W. H. Pierce of Port Essington and C. S. Reddick of Port Kitamaat, also spoke in favor of the union.

SIR WILFRID MAY GO YET

Rumor That Parliament Will Move an Adjournment

IT IS UNLIKELY

Government is Pledged to Put Reciprocity Through—Hon. Mr. McBride and Mr. Bowser Expected at Ottawa at End of the week.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Ottawa, May 3.—There is a rumor here this morning that the House will order an adjournment in order to permit Sir Wilfrid Laurier to attend the Coronation, and that the House will resume early in the fall, pass a Redistribution Bill, and put reciprocity through after going to the country.

It is not considered likely that this will be done, as it would delay reciprocity till the end of the year, and the government is pledged to put the pact through, at an early date.

Hon. Mr. McBride, Premier of British Columbia and Hon. Mr. Bowser are expected here at the end of the week to confer with the Conservative leaders.

Gone Inland

H. B. Rochester of Rochester & Munroe, left for Hazelton on the Inlander yesterday on a business trip.

The first boat this week for the north will be the S. S. City of Seattle. The S. S. State of California will go south on Friday morning.

ANOTHER SECHELT VICTIM

Body of Woman Found Floating in English Bay

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Vancouver, May 3.—A gruesome find was made by a fisherman in English Bay last night. It was the badly decomposed body of a woman, with the clothing almost all gone from her body, and with hair about two feet long streaming in the waves. The men did not make any attempt to recover it, owing to its shocking condition. There is little doubt but that it is the body of one of the victims of the Sechelt disaster.

One George Has Paid

Up to date only one George of the city has come through with a donation to buy King George V. a coronation souvenir and this lone one is the loyal soldier of the King, George Leek. City Treasurer Woods says that if any other Georges want to come through they must hurry as the money collected has got to be in Victoria by May 15.

WANT PEACE IN MEXICO

Federal Envoy Offers Terms to the Rebel Leaders

TO CONFER TODAY

If Successful Terms Can be Arranged the Rebellion May Come to a Speedy End—Envoy is Sent by President Diaz.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

El Paso, May 3.—The war in Mexico may come to a speedy end now. For the time being there is a truce. Today the special peace envoy sent by President Diaz and the Federal Government will meet with the rebel leaders.

The peace envoy arrived here yesterday, and a conference was speedily arranged. The inability of the Government troops to dislodge the rebels makes it likely that the Government will deal generously with the rebels to secure peace, rather than enter on a renewed and larger campaign.

CANDIDATES NAMED FOR VACANCY IN WARD TWO

W. J. Alder and George Phillpotts Asked by Friends to Enter Aldermanic Field to Fill Vacancy Caused by T. D. Pattullo—Petitions in Their Favor Circulating

J. W. Alden and George Phillpotts are named as likely candidates for the by-election in Ward 2 to fill the vacancy in the city council caused by the resignation of T. D. Pattullo.

Petitions in favor of the men mentioned are being circulated by friends. It is understood that neither of the two have definitely decided to consent to nomination.

City Clerk Woods is now open to receive nominations and will remain so until two o'clock Monday afternoon. Nomination forms can be obtained from him.

Thursday, May 11, is fixed for election day and the polling booth will be at the City Hall.

HON. FRANK OLIVER ASKS FOR AN INVESTIGATION

Says That There is no Foundation for Charge That He Used His Influence for Personal Benefit—Committee of Five to be Appointed with Power to Investigate

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Ottawa, May 3.—The charges made by Mr. Dan McGillicuddy against Hon. Frank Oliver, that he accepted a gift of $50,000 for using his influence to have an exchange of lands made to benefit a railway company, are to be investigated by a parliamentary committee of five. This is to be done at the request of Hon. Mr. Oliver, who promptly asked for an investigation as soon as he heard of the charges against his character.

When he made the request he made a statement to the effect that there was no foundation for the charges. He stated that he had made the recommendation that the company be allowed to select Saskatchewan lands instead of Manitoba lands, but that in recommending the transfer, he did so in the public interest, and not for any private benefit.

The Cabinet decided this morning to grant an investigating committee. It is expected that there will be more discussion of the matter when it is brought up in the House.

DAILY EDITION. WEDNESDAY, MAY 3

THE SPIRIT OF THE PRESS

The unfamiliar sight of a newspaper, the Inland Colonist of Kitselas, printed on light brown paper of more than usual thickness, and the editorial explanation that "owing to the lack of newsprint in town, the paper is being printed on wrapping paper supplied by local tradesmen" makes us pause to pay a tribute to the Spirit that will not be beaten. It is the spirit that has made the West; a spirit that has been richly exemplified by the pioneer newspapermen of British Columbia and the prairie provinces.

In proportion to its population Canada has more newspapers than any country in the world. It is a fact to be read into the other fact of Canada's great development. The newspaper is a necessity to development. Nothing helps a town more internally, nor advertises it more effectively to the outside world than a well conducted newspaper. For instance an English school mistress with interests in Prince Rupert writes to the Daily News this week, and tells of reading to her class a story of the castaways on Zayas Island in an Optimist of two or three months ago; a subscriber in York, England, tells of how the paper is passed round among a circle of friends; a story of the exploits of a Graham Island settler on his way to his pre-emption brings an inquiry from Virginia about Graham Island. The wide-awakeness of the frontier newspaper, puts to shame the hundreds of towns in Great Britain with from 5,000 to 15,000 inhabitants who cannot support a local newspaper.

Getting out a newspaper on the frontier is a very different matter to getting out a newspaper in a city block with a paper factory at one end and a machine shop and type foundry in the basement. It was the editor of the Inland Colonist we think who entertained his readers last fall with a harrowing tale of his troubles with a broken chase. In a city not one man in a thousand knows what a chase is; in Kitselas every man, woman and child has a personal knowledge of and regard for the source of the Colonist's trouble. Every time the monkey wrench drops into the press and gets run over by accident every man, woman and child in Kitselas goes into mourning with the editor.

And this Spirit that Will not Down, this spirit that runs the edition off on wrapping paper rather than be beaten, affects a whole community. It inspires others to share in the sacrifice. Many a man in Kitselas this winter has carried home his new suit of clothes over his arm, saying: "Never mind wrapping it up. Send the wrapper over to the Colonist instead,with my compliments." Many a woman has stayed up late at nights hunting up wrappers from parcels and smoothing them out for the press. Getting out those brown paper editions has become a communal feature, something in which everyone in Kitselas could lend a hand or a sheet of paper.

The spirit that prints the edition on brown paper of various shades, is the spirit that conquers. It is the spirit that has built up the West. It is something to boast of. So with a feeling of genuine regret we read in the last edition the editor's announcement that he intends to move his plant and energies to Telkwa—a place he announces in capitals, "where every man is a born booster."

Is this latter a sly dig at Kitselas?

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The obstructionists who talk with delight of the pleasure they will have keeping the House in session during the hot summer months, forget that Parliament Hill is just as hot for obstructionists as for any other folk in the merry month of June.

A man has recently been arrested in San Francisco for walking through the streets carrying a placard stating: "I have a family to support. I want work. Who will give me a job?"

Is it so much worse to advertise one's need for work, than one's need for purchasers of cigars, or bread, or whisky?

The men who are trying to convince the people of Canada that they can make themselves rich by keeping taxes on their food ought to try and convince their audiences that it is possible for a man to lift himself by his bootstraps. There's a similarity in the propositions.

Haunted by a word. Such is the dreadful fate of a very well known and highly respected fellow citizen, a man who has been with the city since it was a shack, so to speak, just like the Irishman who owned his wagon since it was a barrow. It is not the word itself that is so dreadful, it is its grim persistence. Unlike the ghosts that come in the still, chill hours of night, this spectre word comes to its victim by day. It comes in the morning with the sunshine It comes at noon. It comes softly with the gathering shadows of twilight. Even in the kindly lamp-light upon the festive board the haunting word has made its dreary presence felt.

Its victim, erstwhile a man of cheerful presence, of repute as a raconteur, and with a vein of dry humor sometimes cutting, but not merciless, is becoming visibly affected by the troublesome visitation. In the midst of a conversation, let that word but slip out for an instant, ay, even in the veriest whisper, and a change comes over the man. A weary expression takes hold of his features. His voice loses some of its manly music, becomes vexed and querulous, and is raised in troubled protest. That word should be taboo, but even the most watchful among the victim's friends have failed to preserve the taboo perfect. Out slips the sorry term, and its melancholy echo is hard to forget. So the victim still suffers.

To him the sound of the word is like the stirring up of an ancient wrong, like the laying bare of a brand upon the shoulder of an athlete in the hour of his triumph, like the intrusion of the old love just when you are getting on nicely with the new. It is a cruel sort of apparition this haunting word, and the plaint of its victim is the most pity-awakening sound today in Prince Rupert. For all men are not cast in the same mould, and there are many who in ignorance trot out the word thinking to compliment its hapless hearer. Others there are who bring it out inadvertently. Apparently the last hope for our haunted fellow citizen lies in flight.

What is the dismal set of syllables that when articulated exhales an influence so gloomy, a miasma so broodingly bitter? Curiously enough those syllables to some men's ears sing sweetly with a note of much-to-be desired dignity. There are even men who have striven with a great ambition to have the word for their own family ghost. Could they but attain that ambition how tenderly would they not cherish the haunting melody of it. How they would cherish its very echo. For the word is none other than the word ALDERMAN, and with a little search you may find hidden in this column the name of the haunted man himself. When you know him you will surely spare him at least your share in the infliction that so preys upon him.

Yes; Some Good Printing Costs Too Much, Too

It's the same as with other good things. The temptation to charge "stiff prices" for high class things, or high class service, is always natural. But it's not always justifiable—not even usually. For in all artisanship nowadays the standard is higher—the doom of the commonplace is pronounced. So that, as to printing, high grade work is not apt to cost you more than its worth; still, you can pay more for it at some places than at others—and this shop is one of the "others." : : : :

BORDEN ST. SEWER

Need for This Local Improvement Pointed Out

Residents of Borden street had arranged that a deputation should wait on the city council Monday night to request that a sewer be constructed under the Local Improvement System to serve this residential district. Several members of the deputation were unable to attend but Mr. W. E. Williams, and Mr. Thomas McClymont attended. Mr. Williams made the request pointing out the increasing improvements in this district which render the sewer an advantage, and Mr. McClymont suggested that the engineering problem was practically nil owing to the nature of the ground. The matter is left with the streets committee.

= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

HOW MANY WOMEN

How many women this moon-smitten night
Lie sleepless, smiling, holding each apart,
Like exquisite white roses on her heart,
The wondrous words love whispered her all day,
Fearful lest slumber dim their dear delight.
Oh, happy sisters, through the moon and dew,
Here with my roses, I rejoice with you.

How many women this moon smitten night
Turn from its wonders lest their heart may break,
And yearning only sleep—yet count awake
Each empty hour—like steps that lead from love—
Praying but rest, but rest—in joy's despite.
Oh, sisters, would tonight your eyes might take
This sleep I banish for my roses. sake.

—Theodosia Garrison

IN THE SPRING

A Woman's Fancy Seriously Turns to Thoughts of Hats

The important thing in the matter of hats is always to wear what is most becoming, and certainly there is no excuse this season, with hats of every size and conceivable shape, for any woman wearing one that does not suit her style. There are certain women who may wear only small hats, while others seem to demand something larger, more splendid or dashing. But the artistic woman tries to discover what style suits her best and then dresses accordingly, whether she follow the fashions rigidly or not.

The floral turban appears as regularly as spring itself. It seems to be a compromise between the winter and the summer hats, and though each year sees some new development of it, it is nearly always becoming for the reason that flowers soften and tone down nearly every face. One of these floral toques was quite a gorgeous affair of immense yellow and purple pansies. Another was made of large single Russian violets, with four elongated loops of bright blue velvet ribbon at the back. A third, which was very dainty, was of large roses of the palest pink, arranged in symmetrical rows, with several loops of violet velvet ribbon. Turbans such as these are worn, of course, only in the afternoons and with elaborate gowns of foulard, surah and changeable taffeta.

Large hats may this year be worn at all places and seasons: they are used quite as much with the tailored morning suits as with evening gowns; and, in fact, fashion in that respect is now completely reversed. Whereas we used to wear the small hat during the day, considering it more correct to reserve the large picture hat for evening, the exceeding beauty and richness of the new turbans have made them the accepted form of millinery for evening wear.

Ornamental head-dresses are now fashionable for theatre and evening wear, and they certainly impart a great deal of brilliancy to the costume. They may be as simple or as ornate as one pleases. Some are merely a ribbon of tulle twisted round the head and fastened with a crystal buckle, while others are high caps of iridescent gauze ornamented with pearls, aigrettes or feathers.

GREY TOO SOON

Remedy for Restoring Hair that Has Lost Color

For prematurely grey hair, have the following prescription made up, which is not a "dye." One of the ingredients stimulates the secretions of the pigmentary glands, while the others are tonics and cleaners: hydrochlorate of pilocarpine, 6 grains; tincture of jaborandi, 1 ounce; rectified spirit of wine, 1 ounce; rose water 4 ounces; orange flower water, 4 ounces; any perfume desired. Rub into the scalp every night, pouring a little of the mixture into a saucer and applying to the roots of the hair with antiseptic cotton, which is destroyed as soon as used.

APPLE CREAM

Makes a Delicious Sweet

Peel, core and slice one pound and a half of good cooking apples. Put them into a lined saucepan with half a gill of water, two tablespoonfuls of castor sugar, and the grated rind of one lemon. Stew till quite tender, then rub through a wire sieve and beat well with an eggwhisk. Whip half a pint of cream till quite stiff, stir the apples into it, heap on a glass dish and sprinkle with chopped almonds

GLOWING SIGNS COMING

Council is Inclined to Favor the Fixing of Electric Advts.

Before long the blaze of the brilliant electric sign will illuminate our streets. J. H. Kelly has applied to the city council for permission to erect one over the Phenix theatre. There was some discussion about the matter in council, Alderman Clayton expressing himself in favor of Illuminated signs as they are revenue producers, but remarking that if projecting signs were to be prohibited in some cases (such as his own) they should be prohibited in all cases. Some signs, he said have never been taken down. The question of signs is left meantime in the hands of the streets committee. Mayor Manson inclines towards favoring the permission to erect signs not projecting very far over the sidewalk.

Wants More Time

Eric Rosang has applied for an extra three months for the completion of his contracts on Third avenue and Hays Cove Circle. He pleads the strike as a hindrance, also alleging delay in cross-sectioning by the city. His request went to the streets committee.

Rupert May be There

The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire in B. C. plan a big splash for the coronation day They have arranged to hold a procession in Victoria, and are asking all the city fathers of the Province to take part by arranging a car representative of their city. Prince Rupert has been invited and the council are considering it.

Want a Sidewalk

Second avenue residents petitioned the council Monday for a sidewalk between Seventh and Eighth streets. Referred to the streets committee.

To Start Ambulance Class

There is a proposal on foot that a branch of the St. John Ambulance Association shall be organised in Prince Rupert. Steps may shortly be taken to organise a branch here under a medical man who will instruct members.

Ald. Hilditch Improving

Alderman Hilditch is improving. He is able now to sit up. Monday the Mayor and council expressed the hope that he would shortly be back among them again.

Wants a Clean-up Day

Alderman Clayton wants the whole city to have a half holiday for the purpose of cleaning up things. A day in June will be fixed, but Alderman Newton does not want the cleaning process to be compulsory.

ITEMS OF .. SPORT

The Ontario Football Association has decided to communicate with all provincial associations in Canada with the object of organizing a Canadian Football Association. This will mean the institution of a genuine Canadian championship.

Seats for the international polo matches at Long Island, N. Y., next month are being sold for $5, while boxes will cost from $75 to $200.

A. E. Woods, the ex-champion ten-miler of England, who is now residing in Toronto, wants to meet any man in the world at 10 or 12 or 15 miles.

Harvard university will reect a building for athletic training purposes at a cost of $50,000. This building will be in finish, a modern hotel with accommodations for about fifty men. The building is erected as a memorial to Francis Vardon Burr, who captained the Crimson players in 1908.

Ad Wolgast, instead of being a poor money-maker as a champion, promises to gather in the coin faster than did Battling Nelson in his best days. Starting with the first Brown fight, and including the Moran fight on July 4. Wolgast will have made $54,000 in a little less than five months. He got $6,000 for the first Brown fight, $7,000 for the second Brown go, $4,500 or more for the Memsic battle, $7,500 for Lagrave, $8,000 for Hogan, $7,000 for Burns and $12,000 for Moran.

Carl Morris is the white man's hope, Jack Johnson is the black man's hope, and Hank Peters, the Hagersville Indian, appears to be the red man's hope in this heavyweight pugilistic squabble.

After their long training trips several major league teams will have to get their real baseball practice during the first two months of the season.

Johnny Kane, who has been a utility performer with the Cubs for several years, has been released to the Vernon Club of the Pacific Coast League.

There will be no free "ladies day" in the Tri-State League this year. The stingy old things.

You can't beat Joe Cantillion. At his Minneapolis ball yard Joe will have girls selling tickets and "Rube" Waddell performing "right on the inside, gents."

Chief Bender of the Philadelphia Athletics has uncovered a new curve. He calls it the "come back."

Connie Mack says that no matter how good a ball player his son Earl may become, he will never play on the Athletics while he is the head of that aggregation. He does not believe in mixing up family affairs in a ball game.

Ottawa Britannias will have all but two or three of last year's paddlers for their war canoe crew.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Lethbridge, May 3.—A strong feeling prevails among the mine-workers generally against the proceedings of the Conciliation Board's being conducted behin closed doors. Today the Local Union at Michael passed the following resolution:

"We, the members of the Local Miners' Union of Michael, request the executive board of district 18 to give no evidence before the conciliation board as long as proceedings are held behind closed doors."

The board is now in session, and it is not known what action may be taken regarding the matter.

The resolution awaited the members of the board on their return to Lethbridge after both parties had made a tour of investigation in the district.

Somebody Lied

A certain man was heard to remark in the Majestic Theatre last night that Reilly's Bakery Lunch was just an old lunch counter where a barber used to be. There is a ten dollar bill waiting for that man if he can prove his statement. Perhaps if he had not been so penurious he would have informed his lady friend and inquirer that Reilly's was a nice tea room where they could get a lunch after the show.

"Systematic and repeated advertising in the local newspapers is building up a good business for me," is the testimony of Mr. Reilly, proprietor of the bakery and lunch counter under the Empress Theatre. Let the people know the prices of things for sale and they come to your store knowing what they can afford to spend.

"Keeping everlastingly at advertising in the newspapers must inevitably bring business. I speak from experience."

GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Townsite

ELLISON

The only Main Line Townsite in British Columbia in which the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co., has announced its joint ownership. -:

Lots in Ellison Townsite and Rogers Addition For Sale.

SEE THE OFFICIAL MAP

The first glance will show you that ELLISON is located at the junction of the Skeena River and the Bulkley Valley. The Grand Trunk Pacific has announced that they are joint owners in the townsite of Ellison. Now, my dear reader, you must remember that up to date the Grand Trunk Pacific has not announced that it has any interest in any other main line townsite in British Columbia. Does that start you thinking?

STUDY THE MAP and you will find that Ellison is where the railway tracks leave navigation. That fact is a very important one for conservative investors to think over. What is known as the Hazelton district covers a territory many miles in extent in every direction radiating from the townsite of Ellison. Mining machinery, ore shipments, smelters, reduction plants and all sorts of mining operations starting up in this rich mineral region, must necessarily have a metropolis, a HUB, a headquarters. If any sane, conservative man can figure out any other spot except Ellison for the hub of the great commerce of this district, his plan should be very interesting to the Grand Trunk Pacific officials. It does seem as though these officials, after several years of investigation and engineering, would know just what they were doing when they put their official stamp on Ellison.

STUDY THAT MAP—I desire to say to all parties who are talking townsites in the vicinity of Skeena River and Bulkley Valley that there will no doubt be several small towns, just the same as one always finds in a mining district. There will be towns in the vicinity of Ellison along branch railways, probably towns at the ends of branch lines made to serve the mines and the collieries, but it will be history repeating itself in regard to the building up of every metropolis. Ellison has every natural advantage, has every earmark of being the future mercantile and financial centre of the Skeena River mining district and the entrance to the Bulkley Valley.

STUDY THAT MAP and you will find that all of the mining towns and railroad towns around there just beginning to be talked about will only be feeders to city and port of ELLISON. The Grand Trunk Pacific has put its official stamp on Ellison. Do you believe the company will do as much for townsites owned by individuals as it will for one in which its stockholders are joint owners? If you do, don't buy any lots in Ellison. If you desire to make a permanent investment, or merely to make a little quick money, you must decide for yourself right now. Do you propose to follow the individual townsite promoters or the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company.

STUDY THAT MAP—If you desire to put your money into a real estate promoter's townsite you will have many, many opportunities this summer. The average promoter is full of hurrah and red fire. He must enthuse investors of the mail-order class with his wares. ELLISON is in the Missouri class. Therefore, I am not telling any fairy tales about it. I am making statements that can be readily verified.

STUDY THAT MAP.—If you want to join that great army of investors-at-long-range, then you should put your money into promoters' townsites. If you want a perfectly safe and sound inuestment, certain to bring you large profits, then put your money where the Grand Trunk Pacific, after years of careful investigation, have put their money.

STUDY THAT MAP.—It is not likely the Grand Trunk Pacific will have any other townsite in British Columbia for sale this year. The officials of the company state that the company is not interested in any townsite in the Hazelton district except ELLISON.

ELLISON is on the bank of the Skeena at its confluence with the Bulkley. You may change railway surveys, you may change the location of towns, but you cannot change the geography of the country through which the railway passes. The head of navigation necessarily means an important townsite. Ellison will not only be at the head of navigation, but the centre of a mining district wonderful in its resources that is now being opened up, and for which Ellison will be the shipping point both by rail and water. The fact that trains may change engines up or down the line or in the suburbs of the town of Ellison does not amount to shucks in building up a town when such places are compared with a town located where rails and navigation meet.

STUDY THAT MAP.—You will find on the official plan of Ellison that a large part of the townsite has been reserved for future sales, the same as the company has done with certain sections of Prince Rupert townsite. There are, therefore, at this time, comparatively few lots on the market. You must hurry if you want one.

STUDY THAT MAP.—ROGERS' ADDITION to Ellison, only a small parcel of land, lies within eight blocks of the site of the railway station. Lots in this are being offered. I am advising my clients to buy Rogers Addition lots at $150 for inside lots and $250 for corners. Terms—10 per cent. discount for cash, or 10 per cent. down and the balance on easy terms, no interest.
