TEAM FALLS INTO SEWER

FIFTEEN FOOT DROP FOR BARBEAU'S HORSES

Frightened by Barrow They Start Off and Fall Over Plankway, but Escape Injury by a Miracle.—Fell Fifteen Feet into Sewer Cut.

Two valuable horses belonging to L. A. Barbeau had a marvellous escape from serious injury this afternoon on Eighth street where the sewer operations are in progress.

The team was standing yoked to the heavy express wagon near their stable, when the horses took fright at a barrow wheeled by a workman.

They started off and before the teamster who had been a little way off, could catch the reins the team had plunged clean over the plankway into the sewer cut, a distance of fifteen feet.

Fortunately the wagon was caught between the street and an upright post and did not fall on the horses. The men near hurried to help the teamster, and the animals were quickly extricated. By a sheer miracle they were unhurt.

RISE AGAINST AMERICANS

Anti-American Demonstration In Mexico Taking an Aspect of Revolutions.—Two Americans Killed In Mexico City and Two at San Antonio—American Homes Barricaded

(Special to the Optimist)

Mexico City, Nov. 12.—Repeated insults to the American flag and the frequent assaults of Americans in the streets, led to protests being made to the authorities. This in turn resulted in an anti-American demonstration a great rabble of Mexicans parading the streets and crying "down with the Americans." Then the Mexican Herald office, a daily newspaper printed in English, was stoned and all the windows broken, several of the employees being injured. It thus developed into an international affair, vigorous protests being lodged with the government by the American minister. In the meantime Washington was appealed to and awaited further reports from Minister Wilson before ordering him to demand his exequatur.

The attacks of the Mexican mobs were renewed on the following night, the windows of over a dozen leading American business houses being smashed. The mob also attempted to demolish all the newspaper offices, and even the El Imparcial office was wrecked. At this the mounted police was called out and charged upon the mob, killing one of the rioters.

The American flag was everywhere torn down, trampled and spat upon by mobs of students. It is held that the attacks upon Americans published by the Mexican newspapers incited the students to riot.

A street car filled with American children on the way to school was stoned and a number of children injured by the missiles.

At the Municipal palace Governor Landa addressed the students approving their demonstration of patriotism and their protest against the Americans, but cautioning them against violence. The police made no attempt to suppress the demonstrations except in the one instance mentioned.

Minister Wilson, in his note to the Mexican foreign office, described the occurrences as a disgrace to the Mexican people. Foreign Minister Creel replied that every effort would be made to punish those guilty of offering insult to the American flag, but said the people were incensed by the action of Americans in lynching a Mexican in Texas recently.

Probable Cause of Demonstration

Washington, Nov. 12.—The Mexican government has entered a vigorous protest because of the lynching of Antonio Roderiguez, at Rock Springs, Texas, on November 3rd. Roderiguez was a Mexican citizen and confessed to the murder of an American woman named Mrs. Henderson. He was burned at the stake. The state department seems inclined to the belief that the outbreak in Mexico may have arisen out of this affair.

An Incipient Revolution

San Antonio, Nov. 12.—That Mexico is in the hands of an incipient revolution, the aim of which is the overthrow of the present government, is the statement of Mexican revolutionists here. According to private advices received here Mexico City is in a state of siege. The Americans are said to be in great danger and to have barricaded their homes. It is not believed that the burning at the stake of Roderiguez has anything to do with the outbreak.

LAYS CHARGE AGAINST SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie Asks the School Board to Investigate Accusation that Mr. Hunter Unduly Punished Her Nine-Year-Old Son.—Mr. Hunter's Statement In Defence of Charge.

A new game invented by the boys at school the other day has been indirectly the cause of a difficulty over the matter of corporal punishment. The game was a pretty severe test of courage imposed by some of the bigger boys upon the smaller boy scouts in which there was a good deal of horse play. Young Happy Ritchie, the nine-year old son of Mr. J. Fred Ritchie, one of the prominent residents of Prince Rupert, was in the game and came in for some heavy scuffling with another boy. He retaliated by flinging a stone, and for this was punished by the headmaster before the bigger boys. There is to be a School Board investigation of the circumstances, the boy's mother claiming that the punishment inflicted was very much too severe.

Mrs. Ritchie, who in the absence of her husband, Mr. J. Fred Ritchie, was most anxious that the whole matter should be kept private until it has been dealt with through the School Board, stated that her little boy who is of a sensitive and nervous temperament, had evidently had a severe shock. He was very sick when he came home. Mrs. Ritchie called in Dr. Eggert who considered the boy in no fit condition to go back to school for some time. There are said to be dark bruises from the strap about his body, and his neck bears bruises as if he had been grasped there too tightly. Mrs. Ritchie has approached C. V. Bennett, chairman of the School Board, and Mr. D. G. Stewart, though with much reluctance as she would far rather have had her husband deal with the matter.

MRS. RITCHIE'S STATEMENT

Speaking to an Optimist reporter Mrs.

Ritchie said. "I am not the kind of a mother who does not wish her children punished in school at all. But Mr. Ritchie called Mr. Hunter's attention especially to the fact that Happy has

Deadlock in Norton Griffith Land Deal

It is understood, on information supplied the Optimist from most reliable sources, that the big colonization scheme of Mr. Norton Griffiths, M. P., is at a standstill, the option on the lands in the Naas Valley which Mr. Griffith held, having expired.

Unless the matter is adjusted by a special Order-in-Council, complications may be expected to arise, involving a thorough investigation of the telegraphic system.

It is stated that the first payment of $45,000 which Mr. Griffith was to pay Government was cabled from London, Eng., in time to reach the Government agent at Prince Rupert. Owing to delays on the telegraphic system, the cable did not reach Prince Rupert till 9 a.m. on the day following that on which the option expired.

Government Agent McMullin is at present out of town, and until his return, nothing can be done in the matter. The story is, however, confirmed by several persons who are acquainted with the facts of the case.

had a serious operation to his head and neck and is not constitutionally fit to bear harsh treatment. He flushes up and suffers more at a word than another boy would at a blow. I do not think it was at all necessary for Mr. Hunter to drag him out of his own classroom where his lady teacher could have sufficiently punished him if he was wrong, and deal so severely with him that he came home to me in the state he did."

THE SCHOOLMASTER'S STORY

Asked as to the truth of the story Mr. Hunter admitted chastising the boy, and said:

"It was a case in which I feel my position to be perfectly clear. The boy did a thing which cannot be allowed to pass unpunished. He threw at rock at another boy cutting his leg pretty badly. I saw the wound bleeding when the boy's trouser was rolled up, and the bigger boys were helping him. I punished Happy Ritchie less severely than I would have punished my own boy for doing the same thing. I gave him two or three blows from the strap on each hand and one stroke about the legs. I punished him in the presence of my own class of bigger boys, and I do not think that I was any too severe."

"Necessary Discipline," He Says

"Discipline must be maintained and the throwing of stones by boys at one another I consider a very grave offence which I cannot pass over lightly. Yet I cannot feel that the boy was cruelly or even too severely punished, and as far as my position in the matter is concerned I am prepared to stand firmly

ELEPHANT KILLS ITS TRAINER

HAS RECORD OF HAVING KILLED SEVERAL MEN

Queen Was a Bad and Treacherous Beast and Crushed Life Out of Old Animal Trainer Who Was Trying to Subdue Her.

New York, Nov. 8.—Queen, an 8,400-pound elephant, formerly owned by Cole Bros.' circus, went on a rampage recently at William Bartel's wild animal farm and winter quarters, Marcy avenue and the Newark plank road, Jersey City, and killed Robert Shields, an animal trainer.

The elephant was admitted to the farm a week ago and began early to show a bad disposition. She was placed in a shed with a smaller elephant and the attaches warned one another to keep out of the way of her trunk.

Shields sent Charles Reed, a negro employee, into the shed to see if the elephant had hay. Reed ran into the yard a moment later and cried, "O boys! Queen is loose and she 'pears to be mighty mad."

Shields found that the elephant had broken the chain which fastened her leg to the floor and he started to secure her. Reed was then in the yard.

As the trainer got within reaching distance the elephant swept her trunk around his waist with a mighty grip and swung him several feet with terrific force against the side of the building. Then she set up a trumpeting and started to tear around the shed. The negro heard the commotion and ran in. He saw Queen standing with her right forefoot on Shield's head as the trainer lay in the corner. She waved her trunk viciously. She stamped on the unconscious man as Reed appeared in the doorway, and then rested the entire weight of her big bulk on her victim as if determined to crush out all life. Reed called for help and together the elephant employees managed to make the elephant fast.

Shields was picked up dead. His skull was crushed and many of his bones were broken. It is believed that his head was struck against the wall of the shed as the elephant threw him and that death was instantaneous.

Queen is said to have once been known in the circus business as Gypsy Queen. Since she has been at Bartel's it has been common gossip among men who follow the careers of circus animals that the elephant had killed three or four men in her time and that her name was curtailed to Queen on account of her bad record.

FOUNDATIONS ALL READY

For Double New Warehouse on First Avenue

The work of preparing the ground for the large new double warehouse being constructed by E. Kauffman for Messrs. Stewart & Mobley and J. Piercy Morris Company on First avenue and the waterfront adjoining the Kelly Douglas warehouse, is now almost completed.

The contractor has made good progress with the work although there was a good deal of rock to clear, and blasting had to be light owing to the proximity of buildings. Now that the site is ready work on the framing of the building will be proceeded with rapidly and provided the supply of lumber keeps coming in fast enough the contractor expects to have the building very soon in shape.

The work on the framing is arranged to start on Monday.

THE COUNCIL ACTED WISELY

The council acted very properly on Thursday night in deciding to award the section D and G grading contracts to Contractor Gurvitch despite the recommendation of the City Engineer and the protestations of Alderman Hilditch.

Gurvitch is a property owner; he deposited a check with the council as evidence of his bona-fides, and in addition is prepared to secure bonds for his fidelity. He is also prepared to abide by the condition which allows the city to retain twenty per cent of the money earned on his contract until thirty days after the completion of the contract. In the face of all these securities it would have been presumption on the part of the council, as well as a betrayal of the people's interests for them to have awarded the contracts to other parties at an added cost of $18,000.

Alderman Hilditch may wish to be generous with the people's money, but despite his professions, it is hard to credit his statement that he would act in the same manner on his own private business. Because a man's name ends in "witch," or because he happens to be the lowest tenderer, should not disqualify him from sharing in the city's contracts.

The Beach avenue grading is not the only work which has upset the calculations of those critics who could only see red ruin ahead of a contractor. The British Admiralty's docks at Malta are a case in point. But just as the Beach avenue contractor showed that he knew more about the nature of his section than the critics, so the Italian contractors who built the Malta dockyards showed by the use of improved machinery and methods, their ability to carry out a great public work at a comparatively low cost.

Apart altogether from the dangerous precedent it would have established and the avenues of graft it might have opened up, ordinary justice and the interests of the ratepayers endorse the action of the council.

LET THOSE REJOICE WHO CAN

We who live in British Columbia, and are to the last man loyal to the British flag in the face of all our political differences, cannot appreciate the appeals to race-hatred that have distinguished the recent campaign of the Quebec Conservatives in Drummond and Athabasca.

Surely no Conservative can read the speeches of Messrs. Monk and Bourassa in this "great Conservative victory" without a blush of shame for the depths to which the party in Quebec have fallen. To rejoice over such a victory, as the Manitoba Free Press has said, is enough to make that great and patriotic Conservative, Sir John A. Macdonald, turn in his grave.

The following are samples of some of the traitorous and lying appeals which were addressed to the ignorance and passion of the voters:

"Laurier has betrayed the Province of Quebec and all Canada, but he will not suffer the consequences of this iniquitous law. He is seventy years old and has no children. He need not worry himself about the consequences. In twenty years the recruiting officer will come to your homes and will say to your wives: 'Mothers, you count on your son to make you happy in your old years; you expect him to protect your old age; but you are mistaken. The law passed in 1910 by the Laurier Government robs you of your children and I will carry away thy son with me. In twenty years, perhaps, your children many be mortally wounded on the bridge of a warship because you have been too Liberal to vote against Laurier.'

"One day your wives will see the agent of the Government coming to them with this iniquitous law in his hand and saying to them: 'Good mother, it is necessary that you give me your son, not to defend his native country, but to fight in all countries and on all the seas of the world in favor of the English flag'; but when your women learn some months afterwards that an Austrian howitzer, a Japanese bullet, or a German ball has slain her child, who has fallen into the depths of an abyss or from the bridge of a ship, do you think she will say: 'It's all right. My husband was a good Liberal and as it was Mr. Laurier who passed this law, it's all right.' No, she will curse you, and she will be right in doing so."

"The navy is a conspiracy of the English to drown the Canayens. Laurier has consented, after having betrayed us as regards our language, to man all the ships of war which we will have with French-Canadians. This will take 50,000 to 60,000 men, all fathers of families or young men on the point of so becoming, who will have to go to Japan, China or Oceania, under the command of English officers, who, wishing to make our race disappear, will see to it that these ships go to the bottom of the sea. Laurier has sold us to the English in return for the honors he has received, and in twenty-five years there will be no French-Canadians left."

P. B. Blondin, M. P. for Champlain tried even to exceed these excesses when he told his hearers:

"The English have never done anything for the French-Canadians; we owe them nothing. Those who disembowelled your fathers on the Plains of Abraham ask you today to go and get killed for them."

There is a limit beyond which decent men may not go, no matter what their race, their temperament, and their temptations. There can be no rejoicing at a party victory won by such a campaign.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Social Notes

A very successful bridge party and sewing bee was held by Mrs. Vernor W. Smith at her residence on Third avenue yesterday afternoon.

The guests included Mrs. McCullagh, Mrs. Pattullo, Mrs. Cremon, Mrs. D. McLeod, Mrs. Lamont, Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Christie, Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. Bacon, Mrs. Andrew Stewart, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Bondeau, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. Tarby, Mrs. Stain, Mrs. Captain Johnson, Mrs. H. L. Johnston, Mrs. Dr. Deggatt, Mrs. Dr. Tremayne, Mrs. Dawes Gilmore, Mrs. S. McB. Young, Mrs. Naden, the Misses Rochester, Pruder and Martin.

Mrs. Pattullo won the first prize for bridge, Mrs. D. McLeod being second. The booby prize went to Miss Jean Rochester. Mrs. Tarby won the first prize in the button hole contest, Miss Pinder being second, and the booby prize going to Mrs. D. Gilmore.

A number of letters from Canadian women are being published by British newspapers, and all give different views of the life on Canadian farms. Some complain bitterly of the large amount of work required and the conditions under which the work is done; others speak most highly of the new life to which they have come. Quite likely all are true, for there are as many different conditions as there are farms, and fashions vary with the district. Where there are a large number of Scotch Canadians, for instance, the tendency will be for them to set the fashions in social and domestic life. As there are settlements of Crofters, English from the poorer districts, and semi-aristocrats, as well as of various foreign peoples, it can be easily understood that there will be much variety in the conditions which obtain.

Men, Women and Music

Evangelist Chapman says that where good music is employed men are more easily moved than women by the appeal to come to the penitent bench. His experience of the different effect of music on the sexes finds curious corroboration in musical circles apart from religion.

The Thomas orchestra on Friday afternoons gives a concert at which practically every auditor is a woman, and on Saturday evening to an audience composed in large proportion of men. Members of the orchestra agree with Dr. Chapman.

These men say that an audience of women is unemotional, cold, and difficult to play for, while an audience of men displays enthusiasm and shows that it is moved by the music. Women are unsympathetic, while men quickly attune themselves with the players and their theme.

Psychologists tell us that the emotions of men are stronger than the emotions of women. Physicians state that the nervous organizations of women are not as finely wrought as that of man, that women do not feel physical pain as keenly as man, that woman's likes and dislikes do not endure, that she forgets while man remembers.

Relief of Headache

An ice-bag, which some people consider the best cure for a headache, is not always a success. There are severe head throbbings which are the result of neuralgia, or at least of an incipient cold, and the indiarubber bag, ice-cold and clammy, makes the pain a great deal more unbearable.

Some headaches (says the Family Doctor), can be cured most easily by very gentle massage at the back of the neck. Only the base should be rubbed, the head being laid on a cushion, while a second person, with a light but firm touch, massages slowly upwards and downwards with the finger-tips at the very back of the neck under the hair, very firmly and evenly. Another good cure for a headache is said to be that of rubbing on a mixture of alcohol and menthol. The menthol and spirits must be in equal parts, and should be dabbed over the forehead, or where the pain is most severe. This has the effect of making the skin deliciously cool.

In any case, powders which are credited with the power to cure nervous headaches should be avoided, some of the best being at least exceedingly lowering. If the pain does not yield to either rubbing or cold, the experiment should be tried of plunging the feet into very hot mustard and water, which was considered an infallible cure for headaches in our grandmother's days, as well as a remedy for an incipient cold.

Crib Covers

A pretty crib cover may be made from a yard each of white and pale blue or pink flannel. On the colored flannel embroider a flower and bowknot design; on the white a conventional border, and a large central monogram. Bind the two together by means of a wide satin ribbon, and put a bow or rosette in one corner, with the colored side considered as the top.

Washing Flannels

Never rub soap upon flannels in washing them, except upon badly soiled spots. Have a warm suds to which you have added a little ammonia, rub the flannels between the hands not upon the board. Dip them up and down in the water until they are clean, squeeze them in the hands and rinse out in water of the same temperature as that in which they were washed. Never rinse in very hot or very cold water. Dry the flannels in the shade and, while still slightly damp, iron on the wrong side. Done by this process, flannels will not thicken and become yellow. When colored flannels and white are to be done in the same water wash the colored flannels last.

No Longer King, But--

You will probably be interested to know that, while Don Manuel Phillippe Charles Amelie Louis Michael Rafael Gabriel Gonzague Xavier Francois d'Assise Eugene is no longer King of Portugal, he is yet High Suzerain of the Hither and Further Afric Seas, Lord of Guinea and Master of Navigation and Commerce of Ethiopia, Arabia, Persia and India. In addition to this he has many kinds of knighthoods as you would care to shake a stick at. Likewise, what will be more pleasant to a boy of his alleged tastes, a very gratifying bank account.

New Pool Room

The many friends of H. Ross will be glad to learn that he will open the first of the week a pool room in the new building being erected next the Phenix theatre on Second avenue. Full particulars will be given later.

RAILWAY SERVICESUPERINTENDENT MEHAN GIVES AN ENCOURAGING REPORT

Just Returned From Trip Up the Line—If Frost Keeps Off for Four Weeks More, Can Then Run a General Service.

On his return from a trip of inspection up the first hundred miles of the G. T. P. line Superintendent Mehan was asked by the Optimist this morning what chances there were of using the railway to carry mail for up river points this winter. The gist of the reply was that it all depended upon the weather. The company had hoped to have some sort of service in operation within the next three or four weeks, for passengers, mail and freight, and if the weather did not interfere this would doubtless be done. As to carrying the mails, that would have to be arranged for by the government. Just as soon as the company was in a position to carry the mails the postal department of the government would be notified and would no doubt act without loss of time.

Snow On the Track

"But," says Mr. Mehan, "I found from four to six inches of snow on the track yesterday, from Mile Sixty-five east, and that has got to be taken into calculation. We have the steel laid now to the end of this section at Mile One Hundred, and the ballasting is proceeding rapidly. It is a question if the snow along the track means winter. I met a man at Sixty-five Mile who has come down the river from Hazelton in a canoe, and he said the snow was heavier up the line and in Hazelton. If this means that real winter has set in, it means that we have to stop, as we cannot put in ballasting when it is freezing."

Outlook Is Good

There is a very good chance, therefore, that Prince Rupert will soon have a regular train service for one hundred miles along the Skeena, which will not only provide mail facilities much better than those of previous years, but will protect the settlers along the Skeena and Bulkley valleys from any shortage of provisions. In every locality where river navigation is suspended during the winter season there is generally more or less a shortage of general supplies, owing to the merchants putting off the getting in of their winter stocks until the last minute. This occurs every year on the Yukon as is done on the Skeena.

Interior Is Well Supplied

This year there was only two hundred tons for the interior left over at Prince Rupert at the close of navigation, so that all the interior points must be well supplied for the winter. The river tonnage this season amounted to 2,500 tons, an increase over the season before from 1,200. For next season the esti-

A BEAUTY SPOT
FOR A TOWNSITE

WILL BE OPENED UP IN PLEASANT VALLEY

It Has No Name as Yet, But Is on the Line of the G. T. P. in the Great Bulkley Valley.

Pleasant Valley is a little valley situated in the heart of the great Bulkley Valley, and is itself one of the very choicest spots in all Northern British Columbia. The scenery is beyond description, the climate is ideal, not too cold, not too wet, not too warm nor yet is it too dry. In short it is just right for humanity to get the best results. The land in Pleasant Valley is extremely rich and has been proven by the settlers already in there to be suitable for the cultivation of first grade fruit, garden produce and all kinds of farm produce. The valley is already well settled and the farmers are making big money by supplying the railway construction camps, and as there will be heavy work going on there for a long time the settlers will have a good market at all times and will receive high prices.

In this Garden of Eden of the North a townsite is now being platted and will shortly be put on the market by W. S. Benson and Law-Butler Co. They are offering prizes for the one who can suggest the best name for the new town. The townsite is not large, there being about fifteen hundred lots, but it is so situated that it will make a very fine town, and an ideal place of residence. It is just at the junction of the Bulkley and Buck rivers, the latter runs right across the townsite.

The town will be on the G. T. P. railway, it being one of the original townsites selected by the company. It is connected with the wonderful fertile country around Francois Lake by a trail, also with Ootsa Lake, and Bella Coola on the coast, as well as several other sections.

The new townsite in Pleasant Valley should be one of the best investments in the north. The lots will be put on the market at a reasonable figure. Send in your own idea of a suitable name to the firms mentioned above and get interested in this new town.

mated tonnage for up river points is placed at between five and six thousand tons. It will probably go over that because of the large amount of mining machinery which the development of last summer has made necessary. But by that time there will be the railway, and the railway is likely to have keen competition on the water, as the Inlander company is figuring on a new boat and there will be other boats to take the places of the boats used last season by the contractors.

Should the weather not prevent the completion of the ballasting the railway will soon hustle that two hundred tons to the end of the line and as much other freight as offers all the winter through.

THE VANCOUVER LIBERALS PLAN INTERESTING SCHEME

The Liberal party of Vancouver is not without worthy ambition although it does chance to remain in the cool shades of opposition, and one of its noteworthy aspirations is to give the party a permanent home without reducing the funds available for necessary campaign purposes. More than that, it proposes the erection of a building that will not only give the party a home rent free, but still ensure a handsome rent roll than can be used as the sinews of political warfare.

The project emanates from the local leader of the party, J. W. Weart, the well known barrister. It is endorsed by John Oliver, the president of the provincial Liberal association and calls for a stock association to erect a fifteen-story, steel-framed concrete structure at a total cost of $1,250,000. Mr. Oliver says the proposal has been submitted to and endorsed by the Liberal associations of Vancouver and New Westminster. It is a large undertaking the successful completion of which will be of incalculable benefit to the party.

As the project has now been endorsed an option has been secured on the southwest corner of Howe and Hastings street, Vancouver, 120x104 feet. In the letter calling the meeting President Oliver stated that "Mr. Weart does not ask for the association to assume any financial obligations, what he does ask is the endorsement of the Liberal executive, and if they approve of his plan, he will assume the financial responsibility, only looking to the Liberals of the province for their good will."

"The successful carrying out of this scheme means a large fund for immediate organization work as well as a continuous future income. Mr. Weart has carried to a successful issue some of the largest financial undertakings in the city of Vancouver, and is quite positive that he can with the good will of the Liberal party carry this undertaking to a successful issue."

Mr. Weart's organization plan, in which the club building is the principal feature, sets forth:

"In the interests of the Liberal party in British Columbia, it is expedient that a complete organization throughout the province be effected at an early date, and that such organization, when effected, be made continuous."

"In order to accomplish this, without taxing the few to bear the heavy expense incident thereto, it is proposed to organize a company amongst the Liberals throughout the province, purchase the southwest corner of Howe and Hastings streets, Vancouver, 120x104 feet, and erect thereon a modern building, which will be the home of Liberalism in the province, socially and otherwise."

"Such a building should provide a rental space sufficient to pay all operating expenses, fixed charges, reasonably fair dividends to the shareholders, and a surplus of $50,000 per annum, after setting aside, free for the use of the party, a spacious hall with a seating capacity of 800, a small hall 20x40 feet, for committee meetings, a private office for the use of the party leader, a provincial secretary's office for himself and staff, say, 20x68 feet, and other committee rooms."

"One entire floor could be converted into suitable quarters for a social Liberal club, fitted up as a modern club, with dining rooms, reading rooms, lounge room and billiard room. Every Liberal holding a share of stock in the company would be entitled to membership without an entrance fee. All non-resident members who wished to join the club, would be in good standing to enjoy its privileges on payment of, say, 50c a month. Resident members would be expected to pay more, say, $10 per year. You will, I think, admit that the club would enjoy a large membership, as every Liberal would, during his stay in the city, be glad to go there to meet his friends and view for himself his own property."

social, and to which all strangers in the city should be introduced with the object of enrolling them in our ranks. This club, being a separate body, would have to pay rent for its premises."

The estimate of cost of the proposed building is given as follows: land $300,000, building $600,000, organization of province and maintenance thereof, $200,000; organization of company, placing capital stock, etc., $150,000, total $1,250,000. The capital stock is divided into five issues, ranging from $1000 to $100 per share at from five to three per cent. The estimated revenues give $137,000, which would pay dividends on stock up to $48,250 and leave a surplus of $40,000 annually for keeping up the organization.

The plan seems to be an excellent one from every point of view and there is every reason to hope that it will prove a success from a financial as well as a party standpoint.

Contractor McInnes while Out Starts to Collect An Old Debt

A. D. McInnes, of McInnes & Kelly, the contractors for the Eighth avenue grading returned on the Prince Rupert from a trip to Vancouver, rendered necessary by the state of health of Mrs. McInnes. While there the affairs of the Tacoma Short line, which runs from Youngstown to Tacoma, were brought to his attention and he recalled the fact that three years ago he constructed about three miles of the road and had not yet received a balance of $7000 due to him. He immediately wired his lawyers in Seattle to tie up the line in order to force a settlement. The result has not yet reached him owing to the telegraph wire having been in trouble.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

TWENTY DOLLARS IS OFFERED
FOR A GOOD ONE

Messrs. W. S. Benson and the Law-
Butler Co. Offer Prize for a Good Name for a New Town They Are Promoting in Pleasant Valley.

These two firms have acquired a piece of land for townsite purposes in the famous Pleasant Valley (a valley within the greater Bulkley) on the line of the G. T. P. Railway, about thirty miles east from Aldermere, and eighty-five miles from Hazelton, at the junction of the Bulkley and Buck rivers. It is the natural townsite of Pleasant Valley, which is one of the richest valleys and contains some of the best land in the interior of British Columbia.
The land in the valley is all taken and the greater portion settled on. The trail to Francois, Fraser and Otosa lakes runs within a mile of the townsite and will be diverted to this town.
The site is surrounded by the richest agricultural lands, as well as coal lands;
is only five miles from the famous Barrett Ranch, conceded one of the best in British Columbia. Engineers and surveyors are now on the ground planning the site, and the above firms anticipate putting the lots on the market by January 1st. They have not, however, quite decided on a name for the town and believing thoroughly in the old adage that "everything's in a name" are going to offer a prize of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) in Gold, for the most suitable and appropriate name for their new town.

Conditions are as follows: Contest open to the world. The name must be one word, not to exceed ten letters, and a reason given why the contestant considers it an appropriate name. The contest closes on Friday, November 25th, at six o'clock p. m.

"So you are going to take him for better or worse?" "No—I'm going to take him for more or less."

"The horse show opens soon."
"Going to exhibit?"
"Two daughters and one wife."

"I don't know whether I ought to recognize him here in the city or not. Our acquaintance at the seashore was very slight."

"You promised to marry him, didn't you?"

"Yes, but that was all."

Mother—Ain't you goin' to wash up them tea-things, Mariaranne, before you go out?

Daughter—No, I ain't, I'm late enough for "Mother's 'elp" class, as it is.

Mrs. Whyte—Did you enjoy the opera?

Mrs. Brown—Not a bit. Mrs. Black, who sat directly behind me, had a new hat and spring suit, and I didn't.

Friend—You fought bareheaded?

French Duellist—Yes, and got a fine sunstroke.

Mother — The report you have brought me from Sunday School displeases me very much.

Harry—Yes mother, I told the teacher it would, but she's so obstinate, she wouldn't change it.

But when the new chaplain essayed to ban wine, women and song, the gay cavaliers flung him from the battlements.

What else are banners for? they protested mirthfully.

Attention

In the rugged mountains of Virginia dwell a primitive folk who, it is said, live mostly on wild berries, and philanthropic old ladies. A northern man who visited this section was greatly shocked one day to see two of these mountain women busily engaged in pulling each other's hair and tearing each other's garments. It was only by sheer dint of muscles that he finally succeed in getting the two contestants apart.

"Aren't you two ashamed of yourselves to fight like that?" he demanded. "What were you fighting about, anyway?"

Dusty, dishevelled, perspiring, they paused a moment, and then one of them, pushing back the straggling locks back from her eyes, replied: "Well, mister, what's er lady to do when another lady cusses her?"

YUKON PROSPECTS GOOD

Auditor of White Pass Tells of Work Of Season

"The season has been up to the average and prospects are good in the northern country," said Mr. W. B. King, auditor of the White Pass & Yukon route, to a Province reporter. Mr. King and Mr. A. L. Berdoe, general manager of the company, have come out for the winter.

"The biggest thing in the mining industry as it affects the Yukon was the installation of the world's largest dredge at Bear Creek for the Canadian Klondike Mining Company," continued Mr. King. "This huge plant, which was shipped north from Vancouver on the Princess Ena, gave our road no trouble and we handled all the heavy machinery easily. The dredge is set up and has made a few trial runs. Another development is the proposed construction of a power plant on one of the creeks by A. N. C. Treadgold and associates. This will supply electrical power to dredges and be used for general mining operations."

LOST SECOND YACHT

Mikkelsen's Misfortunes Seeking An Arctic Continent

Captain E. Mikkelsen, the explorer who has induced a number of scientists to believe that a new continent will be discovered in the Arctic ocean, has lost another ship. The exploring yacht Alabama, furnished him by the New York and Copenhagen Geographical Societies, has met the same end as his former ship, the ill-fated Duchess of Bedford. The Alabama was crushed in the ice on the eastern end of the Arctic ocean on August 28 last, and as soon as the ice parted the vessel sank to the bottom with the entire outfit.

Mikkelsen and his fellow argonauts escaped on the ice, and according to advices received by G. J. Lomen, the Swedish-Norwegian vice-consul at Nome, they are now mushing across the ice floes and along the shores of the Arctic ocean in an effort to reach the civilization of Bering sea. Including Mikkelsen, there are seven men in the expedition, two of them being lieutenants in the Norwegian army.

TAXATION IN LARGE CITIES

Under the present estimate it will cost every man, woman, and child in the big city $36 for city expenses next year. In Toronto the cost is less than $20 per head.

The Prince Rupert Sheet Metal Works company received a wire from Victoria today announcing that their tender for ventilation contract on the new school house had been accepted. The contract will amount to about $1000.

Early Purchase

is the Key Note of Success in Mining Stock Investments

The successful investor buys into a developing company before the dividend-earning era, and secures a large holding at small cost. It is a safe plan, providing the company is of actual and substantial merit and managed by men of unquestionable integrity who can be depended upon to bring the enterprise to a profitable conclusion. - - SILVER CUP MINES has all the requirements, consisting of a rich mining property, a strong financial management, and a general policy undertaken to systematically develop the several properties and establish SILVER CUP MINES as one of the big dividend-paying mines of British Columbia. - - To secure an interest in the special treasury issue now selling at 12 1-2 cents per share, call at our office and make your reservation. We are confident that all who investigate the merits of SILVER CUP MINES will appreciate the value of an early decision in the matter.

A Teacher's Risk

"I will say, however, that in administering corporal punishment a teacher is always liable to meet with the rare exceptional cases where the pupil punished is nervously incapable of bearing ordinary severity. This is a risk inevitably associated with corporal punishment in schools. Not even a doctor can tell the state of a boy's nervous system in this respect, and if corporal punishment is to be administered at all teachers have to take this chance."

School Trustee Speaks

The attitude of D. G. Stewart after consultation with Mr. C. V. Bennett, is that the whole matter is one for investigation by the School Board. "The issue is a straight one of either condemnation or exoneration," says Mr. Stewart, "and at next meeting of the School Board we will deal with the matter in proper form. It is a delicate situation requiring just and tactful handling for while discipline in the school must be maintained the natural concern of the mothers must be considered also, and the children protected from too harsh treatment."
