LOCAL MINING MAN IN SHOOTING TRAGEDY

J. B. Phillips, Mining Expert, Well Known Here, Shot His Wife and Wounded Himself—Was in Rupert Last Fall

Mining men of Prince Rupert and district are startled by the news just to hand today that J. B. Phillips the well known miner of Yukon, Omineca, and Cobalt experience, shot his wife on the morning of Empire Day and tried to shoot himself. Mr. Phillips was expected in Prince Rupert this month. He was here last year in the fall on his way to make an expert examination of some Omineca placer mines.

Is Society Tragedy

Phillips' wife is who desperately wounded in the right breast is a mere girl. She was very pretty and popular in society circles in Toronto. The shooting took place in Phillips' fine residence on 264 St. George street, one of Toronto's most exclusive thoroughfares. Phillips who has inflicted severe flesh wounds on himself was said to be under the influence of drink. He was inclined to exceed occasionally, and had threatened his wife before.

Successful Miner

After his Yukon experience, Phillips mined in these districts, and going to Cobalt later made a great success there. His marriage in Toronto, to one of that city's young society girls followed, and was a brilliant affair. Since then Mr. Phillips has visited B. C. several times as a mining expert, and has interested Toronto capital in mines in the Omineca district Last fall he arranged for the bonding of sereval properties there to Toronto people.

LABOR REPORTS DIFFER WHICH ONE IS TRUE?

Manitoba Press Tells of the Difficulty of Getting Men —Men tell of Difficulty of Getting Work

In view of the stories that are coming down river sometimes through authoritative agents, sometimes merely as hearsay, that there is not work enough on the railway for all the men who have gone up there this spring, the following from the Manitoba Free Press is interesting:

Says Dearth of Men

"It has long been realized that for certain classes of heavy work the foreign element had to be relied upon for the supply of labor. And in past years there was little dearth of this class of workers. This year, however, despite the great number of European immigrants arriving from time to time, railroad companies, contractors and lumbermen find it difficult to procure sufficient men to fill their needs.

High Wage Offers

"Applications are being received continually for axemen, excavation men, railroad carpenters, teamsters and other classes of railroad labor, and the demand continues to exceed the supply. For good axemen $2 a day and board is offered; for excavation work, $2.25 a day, without board (board costing $6 a week); for teamsters, $35 to $40 a month and all found; for railroad carpenters from $3 to $3.50 a day; and for other classes of labor in proportion.

For Mountain Section

"The firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart has been encountering great difficulties in procuring sufficient men for the construction of the mountain section of the G. T. P., and applications are being continually received from that firm for men at good wages. In fact it was found necessary recently to bring a big batch of laborers from Fort William for points in the mountains."

GOT ENOUGH CASH FOR HALF AN AMBULANCE

G.T.P. Sent $500 for the Good Cause Some Weeks Ago —Who'll Come Through with Balance

That a check for $500 from the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway towards the cost of an ambulance, is waiting in the hands of Dr. Eggert and that so far neither the city nor the Hospital Board have taken any steps to secure an ambulance for the city, is made evident by inquiries conducted by the Daily News this morning.

It is understood that the Hospital Board have been hanging back from arranging for the purchase of an ambulance, as it has its hands full with other financial needs, and it had been hoped that either the city or some private benefactor would present the balance of the money needed to secure an ambulance. The total cost of an ambulance is put at about $1,000 at least.

The G. T. P. Position

It is the desire of the G. T. P. officials here that an ambulance should be available as soon as possible, and Gen. Supt. Mehan himself was instrumental in securing the $500 donation which was promptly sent. To the Daily News this morning he said simply this:

"The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Co. through their Medical Department, have donated the sum of $500 towards the purchase of an ambulance. The cheque is in the hands of Dr. Eggert ready to be handed over to the Hospital Board as soon as the Board is prepared to go ahead and purchase the ambulance."

Prompt action in the securing of the vehicle is the only condition imposed by the G. T. P. as regards their gift.

The Board's Position

"There is nothing definite yet before the Board regarding the ambulance," said President D. G. Stewart to the Daily News this morning. "We are aware that $500 has been donated by the G. T. P. and it was expected that Dr. Eggert would have brought

In Honor of a Great and Good Queen

The winged figure of Victory which surmounts the gigantic Queen Victoria Memorial, the late Queen whom it commemorates and the Emperor of Germany who took part in the dedication ceremonies in London last week. The gigantic memorial has taken over nine years in being constructed.

(Colonial Press Despatch)

London, May 27.—The presence of the German Emperor, Empress and their daughter Victoria Louise, whom rumor says is to be given in marriage to the Prince of Wales, at King George's dedication of the great Victoria Memorial and the beginning of the Festival of Empire, marked the beginning of the reign of merry-making with which the British Empire will celebrate the Coronation of the King and Queen in June—incidentally putting millions of dollars into the pockets of the British tradesmen, who, in anticipation of the enormous crowds of visitors, have been busily engaged in furbishing up their wares, not forgetting to add thereto a few shillings in honor of the occasion.

Though the Festival of Empire with its beautifully decorated Crystal Palace; its gigantic operatic performances by the Imperial Orchestra twice daily, and the wonderful pageants with which it will be replete, will extend over a greater length of time, the main feature of interest was the unveiling of the great Victorie Memorial which marked the King's first public appearance in

MAY HOLD A MARATHON JULY 1

S. Holmquist Who Competed in the Classic Event at Athens Will Keep Challenge Open for Ten Days---Prince Rupert Has Some Very Good Runners.

A great deal of interest is being aroused in town over the possibility of a long distance race on July 1st between W. H. Sherman the winner of the three mile race on Empire Day; A. Nicholson, who ran a very close second in the contest, and Holmquist the Swedish runner, who by mistaking the course in the early stages of the race, was unable to show the Prince Rupert public what a fine runner he is.

Three Good Men

All of the men are speedy, and a credit to Prince Rupert, and all have very creditable performances on record. Nicholson is an old running mate of "Alfy" Shrubb, the famous English long-distance runner, and his friends say that had it not been for being put out of his stride near the finish of Wednesday's race by a collision with a dog, he would have given the winner an even harder tussle for the prize.

Who Holmquist Is

Holmquist, who has not yet given the Prince Rupert public a taste of his quality is one of the best Marathon runners of the day. He ran fourth at Athens in that celebrated event over the Marathon course when Dorando by the unkindness of Fate, had victory torn from his grasp by a technicality which gave Johnny Hayes the honor. He runs like a moose," said one oldtime champion enthusiastically as he saw him practising the other night. He has only been in the city a few weeks, and cannot speak English very well, but he can run all right in English if the distance is made long enough.

Is Out With Challenge

Holmquist's friends have authorized the Daily News to renew the challenge to the winners of the Empire Day event, on condition that the race is made from ten to twenty-six miles, and that an acceptance is given within ten days, so that he can go into training for the event.

A Race Is Likely

It is understood that Nicholson is likely to accept the offer of a race with Holmquist, as he has already done some excellent work at the longer distance. No mention has yet been made of a prize, and Holmquist has offered to run for the amateur's love of a contest, but it is likely if a race is arranged that sport lovers of the city will see to it that a suitable trophy is provided.

VANCOUVER WORKMEN TO ORDER A GENERAL STRIKE

District Trades and Labor Council Decide on Drastic Move by 40 to 5—Idea is to Help Carpenters Force their Demands.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Vancouver, May 27.—A resolution to call a general strike of all the organised industrial workers in the city of Vancouver, to take place on Monday, June 5th, was carried by the executive of the District Trades and Labor Council of Vancouver last night.

The matter was fully discussed at a special meeting of the executive called to consider the recommendation of a special committee on the carpenters' strike situation. It was pointed out that a general strike of all the workers would be the most effective protest that organised labor could make to the Master Builders' Association for refusing to meet the demands of the carpenters.

Owing to the importance of the occasion the entire full strength of the Council, representing all the trades unions in the city, was present. The issue was discussed by many speakers pro and con, but when the matter came to a vote, out of the whole body of forty-five, forty voted in favor of a general strike, and five against it.

The decision thus arrived at is to be re-affirmed at the next regular meeting of the Council on Thursday night, next, when a monster demonstration of the allied trades will be held in the city.

The decision means that this is the last resort in the strike situation. It is hoped by the men, that their resolve will arouse public feeling in the city, and bring pressure to bear on the Master Builders to make them submit to the demands of the carpenters.

CAN YOU SPELL THIS? P-A-R-A-L-L-E-L-O-G-R-A-M

Popular Young Man Met His Waterloo Last Night in Trying to Negotiate It

P-A-R-A-L-L-E-L-O-G-R-A-M, pronounced par-al-lel-o-gram.

This was the missile fired by one member of the Daily News staff at another in a spelling bee at the Presbyterian Church last night which proved to be the latter's undoing. Amid much laughter and applause, the prize was awarded to Miss Alma Christiansen, the final survivor of a valiant half dozen, who for awhile contributed to the gaity of nations.

The identity of the unfortunate scribe it would be cruel to disclose. He is probably expiating his offence in quiet corners, by studying the dictionary in his spare moments.

The incident was only one in a series of entertainments which marked the social evening arranged by Mrs. Donald McLeod and her class, all of which were enjoyed by a large gathering that responded to the general invitation.

Especially worthy of praise was the Maypole dance, performed by a group of the girl scholars, and a pretty little poem, read with much charm and grace of diction by Miss Grant. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

LANDLORDISM HAS COME

If some man after picturing the horrors and tyranny of landlordism in England or Ireland were to warn the people of British Columbia lest a like fate might overtake them, he would probably be laughed at. Yet the laugh might be on the laughers before the laughing is done with. Large as is this province, its area of arable land in accessible districts is limited. At the rate at which it has been gobbled up by speculators during the past four years, its end might be even safely forecasted into a rather surprising short length of time.

We have already reached a point where it is impossible for the bona fide settler to stake a pre-emption within reach of civilization. Already the settler has begun to pay tribute to the land-owning class. Already the land-owning class has commenced to place a tax on industry, and exact from the land an unearned increment. The evils of landlordism in England and in Ireland are already here in an uncomfortable degree.

The story of British farmers being driven from the lands of the British landlords, because the agricultural operations interfered with my lord's partridges and pheasants is received by us with amazement and indignation.

What difference is there between the case of the British farmer thus excluded from the land, and the settlers—would-be settlers—over on Graham Island for instance, who are driven from the lands to make way for the coal speculator?

Why raise our hands and voices in horror at the British duke who puts his ten square miles into a game preserve, and keeps silent while individual speculators stake hundreds of square miles as coal preserves?

If there actually were coal deposits or even discoveries on the huge tracts thus kept out of cultivation, the situation might be tolerated even at the cost of keeping the entire surface of the lands from settlement. In the present case, however, no discoveries are recorded; the entire surface of rich farming lands for hundreds of square miles is kept out of cultivation, to accommodate the plans of speculators who stake areas in the hope that someone will pay a good price for them in the belief or expectation that coal may be found.

Even in the case of farming lands, the policy of selling to speculators is an unsound one. It means that the speculators' profit is to be imposed as a tax on the bona fide settler, and on development. It retards development, and by making land difficult of purchase by the farmer tends to create a landlord class who will retain the title, and rack-rent the man who tills the land.

For the handing away of these lands from the public domain to swell the wealth of speculators, an enlightened public opinion will some day sweep away the men responsible for the policy. But even enlightened public opinion cannot recover the lands.

There has been no occasion to alienate the public domain from the ownership of the people of the province. On a Prince Rupert platform, the Premier of this Province has boasted that his governement has on deposit a sum of $8,000,000 in the banks. This is the price of selling off a domain worth incalculable millions to the people of the Province, and increasing in value every year. For the money, we have no use—it is on deposit in the banks. Divided up among us it comes to about $30 a piece. It is for this we have sold our birthright of publicly owned domain and natural wealth.

That statement of the eight million dollars on deposit in the banks—usually received with cheers and applause—is the crowning iniquity of the whole business. It is the sort of thing that deceives the ignorant. As though the trustee of an estate is justified by anything save poverty, and the inability to borrow on security, from sacrificing at bargain prices, the estate committed to his care and keeping.

It is not statesmanship which is satisfied to auction off the public domain, for the empty boast of being able to stand guard over a box of money.

RATS ARE A VERY EXPENSIVE LUXURY

It Costs Great Britain About $73,000,000 a Year to Feed Them—They are a Frequent Source of Fires Too—Facts About the Rodents

The efforts now being made to exterminate the rats in Prince Rupert before the port enlarges, makes the following facts about the destructiveness and destruction of rats of importance. They are from the results of the Biological Survey which investigated the rat problem in the United States:

"Experiments show that the

average quantity of grain consumed by a full-grown rat is fully 2 ounces daily. A half-grown rat eats about as much as an adult. Fed on grain, a rat eats 45 to 50 pounds a year, worth about 60 cents if wheat, or $1.80 if oatmeal. Fed on beefsteaks worth 25 cents a pound, or on young chicks or squabs with a much higher prospective value, the cost of maintaining a rat is proportionately increased. Granted that more than half the food of our rats is waste, the average cost of keeping one rat is still upward of 25 cents a year."

Damage by Rats

"A few estimates of the amount of losses from rats in foreign countries have been published. In Denmark they have been reported as amounting to 15,000,000 francs ($3,000,000) yearly. In France in 1904 the total losses from rats and mice were estimated at 200,000,000 francs (nearly $40,000,000). The German Ministry of Agriculture, in a circular addressed to various subordinate chambers of agriculture, states that the people of Germany suffer an annual loss through the agency of the rat of at least 200,000,000 marks ($50,000,000). Sir James Crichton-Browne, of the English Incorporated Society for the Destruction of Vermin, says that the damage done by the rat in Great Britain and Ireland 'in its rural activities, to say nothing of what it does in towns and in connection with shipping, is 15,000,000 pounds (about $73,000,000) per annum.'"

"The destruction of feedstuffs by rats is a serious loss not only on the farm but in every town and village in the whole country. Often through carelessness or the indifference of servants, the bin or barrel in which feed is kept is left uncovered, and rats fairly swarm to the nightly feast. In some cases investigated in Washington, D. C., the loss was equal to 5 or 10 per cent of the grain bought. A grocer was buying feed for two horses and several hundred rats; the horses were fed at regular intervals, the rats nearly all the time. In the cases of establishments keeping from fifty to a hundred horses, the loss of feed in the course of a year amounts to a large item.

"Rats are fond of nearly all small fruits, picking them up from the ground and even climbing grape vines, raspberry or blackberry canes, and currant or gooseberry bushes to obtain the ripe fruit."

Fires Caused by Rats

"In the museum of the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, London, some years ago, a rat nest was exhibited bearing the following note:

"Rat's nest and young. This nest was set on fire by a lucifer match ignited by the old rat as she worked it into her nest. A fire was nearly caused thereby on H. M. S. Revenge.—Lieut. A. H. Gilmore, R. N.

"It is generally believed that rats and mice cause fires by igniting matches with their teeth. The testimony of chiefs of fire departments and adjusters of fire-insurance claims confirms this belief, and many specific instances have been given of fires caused in this way. A fire which resulted in the partial destruction of the Sultan's palace at Scutari, Asia Minor, in 1856, had such an origin. During 1907 the fire department of Washington, D. C., gave a similar explanation of a fire which seriously damaged a large store and its contents.

Rats and Public Health

"The most serious charge against rats grows out of their relation to human health. It is now positively known that rats are chiefly responsible for the spread of bubonic plague, a malady which, in spite of modern methods of fighting it, has within the past dozen years destroyed over 5,000,000 human beings in India alone. During 1807 the deaths from plague in India were 1,200,000 and by May, 1908, the present epidemic, which started in China in 1894, had invaded all the continents and infected 51 countries of the world. The identity of plague in man with plague in the rat was proved some years ago, but the particular means by which the disease is transmitted from rat to rat and from rat to man was not clearly understood until recently."

"The conclusions of the Plague Commission had already been practically accepted by medical men in most parts of the world, and recent outbreaks of plague were followed by active measures for the destruction of rats. In India, as early as 1905, the authorities of the United Provinces (Agra and Oudh) began a persistent war upon the animals. Rewards were offered for killing rats, and traps were given to the people. In the four centres of population—Agra, Allahabad, Bareli, and Daduan—a total of 416,403 rats were killed before the close of the first year.

Similar attempts to get rid of rats have been made since September, 1907, in some of the Pacific ports, particularly in San Francisco, where up to February, 1908, 77 deaths from plague occurred. Traps, poisons, bounties, and other means were employed to reduce the number of rodents.

"From May, 1908, to January 1, 1909, 115,869 rats were trapped and 9,797 were found dead in San Francisco. On an average, over 140,000 poisoned baits per week were placed, but as a matter of course the number of dead rats discovered was only a small per cent of the total number killed by poison. The last rat found infected with plague bacillus was taken October 23, 1908, but no human cases of the disease have occurred in the city since January, 1908."

WEALTHY TRAMP QUITS THE ROAD

Denver Millionaire Will Go Hoboeing no More Now

New York, May 24.—Edwin A. Brown of Denver, famous as the "millionaire tranmp" because of his excursions in search of information as to how the other half lives, is in New York today at the end of his last excursion in overalls. He is through seeing the seamy side of life from the inside, he says, and henceforth will carry on by other means his work of impressing upon cities the necessity of providing for the worthy poor.

Mr. Brown has seen the inside prison walls in every section of the country, always on the sole charge of not having enough money to buy food or bed. The need of municipal lodging houses and similar institutions is the view he is advocating. His final trip, just completed, was through southern cities.

Mr. Brown will sail next month to Europe to study the tramp problem in Germany.

Announcement is made from Boston that Pitcher Sam Frock has been sold to the Atlanta Southern League club for $2,000.

Seventeen home runs have been made on the Philadelphia National League grourds this season. The Phillies have made eleven of them.

Think this over and you will get a clew to the value of one man to a ball team: Ty Cobb, in one game, scored from first base on a single, scored from second on a wild pitch and stole home with a winning run.

Nick Williams is still a bit peeved over the way the umpires treated him in the North, and for that matter so are a number of the other managers. With one or two exceptions, President Lindsey seems to have asesmbled a staff of incompetents.

John T. Bush, owner of the Giants, has heeded the protest filed by the manager of the New Orleans club, of the Southern League, and Frank Manush, who was released to Newark, will go back to his old club. Manush was drafted from New Orleans, and under the rules that club has the first call on his services if released.

The exit of Pitcher Jack Pfeister from the National League recalls the days when he was pitching some swell games for Spokane. He was with the San Francisco club in the Pacific National and with the smash-up went to the Middle West, finally landing with the Chicago Cubs, where he has been prominent until last season.

Gloom has fallen as a heavy pall over the fight fans of Vancouver as a result of the Vancouver Athletic Association, incorporated, having called off all future athletic exhibitions which were billed to be held here during the next two months. The managers of the athletic association are much disappointed themselves, but as there has been so much opposition to the contests from a certain element in the city, it was decided to be a losing game to attempt to continue.

The greatest of all natural fighters, of course, is Jack Johnson, and the best things in his repertoire are the uppercuts with which he times his men so fearlessly and faultlessly. It was thought after seeing the way he butchered fellows like Jim Flynn and Tommy Burns with his lifting punches, that he was only poison to short men, but, after that unfortunate affair at Reno, we know differently.

It is announced that Billy Papke, the American middleweight, and Jim Sullivan, the English champion, have signed articles in London for their twenty-round match for the world's championship on June 6. The papers provided that the fight is to be for $10,000 and a side bet. Eugene Corry will be referee.

There is also talk that Owen Moran will be brought to the coast. Moran is perhaps the only boxer in the world who smokes cigarettes while training for a fight. The little Briton likes to drag at the harmless-looking little pills, and he smokes when and where he pleases, as a general rule.

Willie Keeler has "come back." The little fellow is playing great ball at Toronto these days. He is hitting with his usual skill and has plenty of speed in running the bases. In his first four games he made ten hits. Keeler appeared to be all in when the Highlanders let him out a year ago, and even as a Giant he lacked sufficient form to warrant his appearing as a regular. But with his old chum, Joe Kelley, he has become rejuvenated and is hitting up a fast pace. Kelley has instilled the veterans, Tim Jordan and Bill Bradley, with renewed vigor.

Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Townsites

Do a Little Thinking for Yourself

Wainwright

Wainwright is one of the Divisional Points on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and had its first boom last year when the steel of the main line of the Transcontinental reached there. It is grown and is still growing not only because it is a town in which the railway is directly interested, but also for the reason that, like Ellison on the Skeena, it is a point where navigation meets steel rails. There are still chances of getting in on Wainwright or on one of its additions, at a very low figures, and easy terms of payment.

Buy in New Towns and Make Money

Watrous

WATROUS, which is the Terminus of the branch line of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the next place of importance to Saskatoon, in the centre of a rich prairie country and is also growing in fame as a health resort. Little Manitou Lake is at Watrous, and the healing power of this water is the wonder of modern medical science. As it is the only great medicinal mineral lake in the Dominion, the railway is bound to make it famous. There is still a chance of planting a few dollars in this townsite, and their rapid growth and crop is bound to be interesting.

Do a Little Thinking for Yourself

Melville

MELVILLE resembles Chicago in "sitting at the gates of trade." The junction point of railways so important as the Grand Trunk Pacific and Hudson Bay railways must, in the natural course of events, become an important city. Now is the time to buy. The prices for choice lots are extremely low and the possibilities for profit practically unlimited. The purpose of the Grand Trunk Pacific in offering these lots so low is to encourage the upbuilding of Melville, and thus create a market for its superb transportation facilities.

Rivers

RIVERS is a divisional point between Melville and Winnipeg, and it also has hopes of having branch connections, one to join the Great Northern at Brandon, and the other to Regina. The Grand Trunk Pacific purchased a large townsite here with the prophetic belief that from its geographical position as the centre of a great wheat growing district, a large city would naturally grow up at this point. And to encourage this growth the railway company is offering lots at low prices and very liberal terms of payment. Better call and see us about Rivers.

Biggar

BIGGAR is one of the divisional points on the Grand Trunk Pacific, and in the company's yards there already seven miles of trackage has been laid and is in use. The site is between Watrous and Wainwright, and the town is named after W. H. Biggar, general solicitor of the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is not only on the main line of the great transcontinental railway, but it also is the junction of the branch lines of that railway to Battleford and to Calgary and the Winnipeg-Edmonton branch of the Canadian Pacific runs through the townsite. Within the last few days we have made several remittances on account of lots purchased in Biggar.

Ellison

ELLISON needs little to be said of it to Prince Rupert people for the reason that since navigation on the Skeena opened a number of people have gone there by boat from Prince Rupert to first look into the whole situation before investing. What they say of this river port and probabilities of its becoming a great railway city is the best kind of advertising for local readers. Those who desire to invest can do so through the Land Commissioner of the Railway direct, through A. W. Bridgman, the company's agent for Ellison in Victoria, or through J. H. Kugler of this city.

ELLISON -- ROGERS' ADDITION -- SEALEY

Every Railway Town is a Money Maker. Think of the unearned increment attaching to present dots on the route of the Great Transcontinental Railway that you know are bound to become, in the next few years and under ordinary rules of Commercial Development, populous, bustling cities. The railway does it. TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES RAPIDLY INCREASE POPULATION. POPULATION RAPIDLY INCREASES VALUES OF REALTY. Before the railway trunk highways and navigable waterways decided the sites and were the builders of the great centres of commerce and industry. The latter is still a mighty factor, and wherever navigable waters meet the steel highway THERE IS BOUND TO BE AN IMPORTANT CITY. This established fact is what makes ELLISON AND SEALEY TOWNSITES so important from the investment standpoint. It must be remembered that Ellison is the railway townsite in British Columbia in which the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company is directly interested and is a joint owner. Sealey is situated on the Skeena River and is a townsite within a townsite. On its three sides the lots of Ellison are divided from those of Sealey simply by the width of the streets; its fourth side is the waterfront. Sealey has already the nucleus of a business centre. The shops and supply warehouses of the great railway contractors, Messrs. Foley, Welch & Stewart are situated at this point, and it is the river port of the company's steamers. A lusty payroll is a mighty factor in the building of a city. In a direct line from Sealey through the heart of Ellison, and only seven blocks from the site of the railway station and the great freight yards, is ROGERS' ADDITION TO ELLISON. Its slight and gently sloping elevation makes it ideal for the residential section of the City and Port of Ellison. Investors have, therefore, a choice. Lots in Ellison are $250 for inside, and $350 for corners. Sealey lots run from $200 to $375 according to location. Rogers' Addition lots are $150 for inside, and $250 for corners, with liberal terms of payment. A lot in any Grand Trunk City cannot fail to be a safe speculation or a profitable permanent investment.

"Ask Uncle Jerry"

For Lots in Rogers' Addition to Ellison or Lots in Sealey, address: JEREMIAH H. KUGLER, "Uncle Jerry," Prince Rupert, B.C.

TRAINING FOR LONG DISTANCE

Notes for Young Athletes by a Noted Coach

Michael C. Murphy, coach of the University of Pennsylvania teams and 1908 American champion Olympic team, in a recent interview said:

"I have been getting a great many letters from young men all over the country requesting my advice how to train for particular events. Much of the information sought is for the Marathon run. To all youngsters who wish to train for this long, hard run I say begin to train now by living the simple life. Eat good sensible food, neither too much, nor too little.

"The training for this race, as well as the race itself, will be a severe drain on a man's energy, and the first step is to build up the proper vitality. Let your hours of sleep be regular and of sufficient length. Take systematic exercise every day. You must use your own judgment in determining the distance you should run each day. If a man sleeps well, eats well, and does not lose weight or strength by this exercis he may rest assured that his course of training agrees with him, and if it does he will increase in weight and strength, or at least he will hold on to his weight. After a short while you should be in a condition to run and walk a mile in about six minutes.

"If you have been smoking cigarettes cut them out for good. Above all don't drink anything alcoholic under any circumstances. Drinking is bad, particularly if a man perspires a lot. An orange is worth more to a thirsty man any time than a glass of beer. In exercising on the road or track an orange carried in the hand with an opening at one end from which a small amount of juice can be sucked, will keep the mouth and throat moist and materially aid the wind. This also removes all particles of dust, while the juices will keep the stomach toned up and prevent nausea."

RESPITE

Alone I paced the miry ways,
Aloof I watched the humming crowd,
Musing on dim, remembered days
Far off, remote as peak or cloud.

A nameless presence haunted me,
A subtle strangeness thrilled my soul,
It seemed that I and destiny
Slowly drew near the final goal.

Soon, soon, I thought, my life will close,
This haunting presence will unveil
The portals of my Father's house,
And I be shut without the pale!

Soon shall the voice of perfect Law
That tunes the orchestra of space,
That holds rebellious stars in awe
Pronounce my sentence of disgrace!

Yet still I pace the miry ways,
Aloof I watch the humming crowd,
Musing on dim, remembered days
Far-off, remote as peak or cloud.

CREAM PUFFS

Deliciously Appetising Delicacies for Your Supper Table

Take one-half cup of butter, one cup of hot water; put on the stove to boil in a small granite pan. When boiling sift in one cup of flour, stirring all the time; set aside to cool. When barely lukewarm stir in three unbeaten eggs, adding one at a time. Drop on a well-buttered pan, and bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven. For the cream use one cup of milk, one egg, half cup of sugar, one tablespoonful of cornstarch mixed with a little cold milk, flavor with vanilla, orange or rose; boil in a double boiler. The puffs may be baked two or three days before using, but the cream must be freshly made. Cut a slit in the top of puff and fill.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD

Ever so Cool and Refreshing for a Picnic or Supper

Six tomatoes, two cucumbers, half pint cream dressing, lettuce. Scald the tomatoes so that the skins can be easily removed. Cut a slice from the top of each and with a small spoon remove the seeds. Peel the cucumbers and cut them into dice, season highly and mix with at least half the dressing. Fill the tomato cups with this and put another spoon of the dressing on top. Sprinkle a very little finely chopped parsley over and serve on a bed of lettuc leaves.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Plain, Practical and to the Point

Save all the lemon hulls, drop them into the vessel in which you boil your tea towels and it will whiten them wonderfully, and there will be a clean freshness about them that is very desirable.

Sew the skirt binding on the hem of your skirt before you press it. Pressing the goods flattens it, and it becomes difficult to fell the braid on a thin fabric without stitching through it.

Put a good-sized lump of salt into a cup of vinegar and put into the vessel that is discolored and let it stand for half a day. Wash well with warm water and soap and sediment will come off easily.

THE IDEAL KITCHEN

White Enamelled Ware for the Cooking

Ah ideal kitchen would have its copper and its bright tinware for beauty, but for perfection in cooking there is nothing to surpass the white enamel. The white enamelled ware, with a narrow dark blue edge for binding, may be had in every conceivable form of dish, from the large pails and bowls that hold gallons to tiny dainty molds for jelly and blanc mange. As there are no seams, no crevices to retain dampness or dirt, its superiority in that one respect alone is apparent.

A great many dishes for use in the kitchen are now made of glass. These include small cream churns and mayonnaise beaters, and dishes with covers which are for holding butter, and are both convenient and sanitary.

WANT TO REVISE THE BYLAWS OF HOSPITAL

Special Meeting to be Called on June 6th—Arranging a Loan of $4,000 for Current Needs

It will be necessary to hold a general meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association for the purpose of considering the Revised By-laws now being prepared on the lines of the Victoria Jubilee Hospital By-laws. This decision was come to at the meeting of the Hospital Board yesterday afternoon in the new police court. There was a good deal of conversational discussion on the subject, and Mr. C. V. Bennett advised the Board on a number of points that were tentatively touched upon.

Remember June 6th

As a result of the discussion President D. G. Stewart suggested that the meeting should fix the evening of Tuesday, June 6th, for the general meeting of the association to go into the revision of the by-laws. The meeting will be called for 8 p.m. on that day, and will be held in the new police court. As the last general meeting of the association had to be doubly advertised owing to the meagre turn outof members at first, the press-men present were requested to emphasise the importance of this special general meeting.

Require $4000

In order to carry on the work of the Hospital at present the sum of $4000 in ready cash is required, and the Board has authorised the borrowing of this sum through the Union Bank which has been approached on the matter. The bonds relating to the hospital property are lodged with the bank as collateral, and the following information as to the hospital finances is furnished the bank manager for forwarding to the head office before the branch here can negotiate the loan. Already the sum of $6000 has been borrowed. To make up $10,000 required by the hospital another $4000 is needed, and the hospital can count on coming assets thus: Outstanding subscriptions $3,454.30, Outstanding fees $1,505.10, B. C. Government Grant due quarterly, first quarter now due $1,058.10. Besides which the city has promised $5,000. With this information furnished for his Headquarters to consider, Mr. Broderick of the Union Bank here, is confident that the loan will be forthcoming.

Honorary President

Some talk was engaged in yesterday on the subject of the suggested appointment of an honorary president with voting powers in Board matters. This is a question still to be decided, though President D. G. Stewart is inclined to the opinion that the Board favors this appointment. Among other minor matters was also discussed the appointment of a nurse probationer which is not approved by the Matron or the medical fraternity at the present stage of the hospital's history There are thirteen patients at present in the wards, and the institution is thriving says the Assistant Secretary.

Stewart's Offer

Not the genial President, but the town of Stewart, made an offer to the Hospital Board yesterday. The offer was from the Secretary of the Amateur Dramatic Society of Stewart that the society should come down to Rupert and give an entertainment all the proceeds of which should go to the Hospital Funds, provided only that the Board would pay the expenses of the amateur company's visit. The idea was not considered a practical one, though the Board appreciated the offer of the Stewart amateurs, and M. M. Stephens thought it strange that Prince Rupert has to learn from Stewart that an amateur dramatic society can do a lot to liven up a city.

The Empress Theatre

Newly decorated in bright and refreshing style with foliage, fruit clusters, and clever landscape work by the Dutch Artist Charles Sleyd working for Messrs. Ward Bros., The Empress Theatre is most attractive just now. Ventilation is improved, and last night a large audience enjoyed a series of brilliant new films. Tonight's show promises fresh entertainment.

At the Majestic

Every available seat was occupied at the Majestic Theatre last night, and in perfect comfort the audience saw some of the latest view and story films, excellently clear and vivid. The picture story of the girl who gave her life to return to her benefactor his stolen reputation is a thrilling one.

Phenix Makes Good

Under the new brilliant electric sign, the first ever in Prince Rupert, you enter the Phenix Picture Theatre and every effort is made here by the management to provide a delightful entertainment. The satisfaction of the big audiences amused nightly is a feature of Phenix shows.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The return match in the tournament arranged by the Wanderers' Club, took place last evening at the residence of Mrs. H. L. Johnston. The men were again the victors, their total score amounting to 6994 points, while the ladies' totaled up 3916 points. Mr. G. R. T. Sawle and Mr. S. P. McMordie won a beautiful pair of silver loving-cups, their score being 1828 points. Mrs. Johnston in a handsome gown of black voile made a charming hostess. Delicious refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was indulged in until an early hour. The following is a list of the teams with their total scores:

Mrs. Johnstone and Mrs. McMordie 1004.

Mrs. Tremayne and Mrs. McLennan, 958.

Miss Milligan and Miss Johnstone, 920.

Mrs. Morris and Miss Martin, 612.

Mrs. Spain and Mrs. Christie, 422.

Mr. Sawle and Mr. McMordie, 1828.

Mr. Toby and Mr. Simpson, 1594.

LYTTON HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Midnight Fire Found Them Without Any Fire Brigade

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Lytton, B. C., May 27.—The town of Lytton had a narrow escape from total destruction by fire last night. At midnight a fire broke out, and there was no fire brigade to handle the situation. It looked as if the town would be enveloped. A company of railroad men, however, formed a bucket brigade and with axes and other weapons saved the town.

A BOOST FOR PEACE VALLEY

Prof. Chamberlain Tells Senate Committee It Can Supply the World With Wheat.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, May 27.—In giving evidence here before the finance committee of the Senate, which is collecting evidence for and against reciprocity, Prof. Chamberlain of the South Dakota State University said that the Peace River Valley in British Columbia could supply the world with wheat.

He asked the committee to go very slow in throwing open the American market to Canadian wheat.

"They'll swamp us," he said.

In Honor of A Great Queen

an open procession through the streets of London.

The dedication ceremonies all took place near Buckingham Palace, where the great monument to the late Queen will overtop the Mall and rear its stately proportions high in the air, crowned by a gigantic statue of Victory done in bronze.

A troop of the famous Life Guards preceded the open carriage of the King and Queen; followed by many more barouches, bearing the Prime Minister, members of the Cabinet, dukes, duchesses, members of Parliament, and a host of other notables.

At the foot of the monument a great platform had been erected and it was here that the actual ceremonies attendant upon the dedication took place.

The monument itself is one of the most striking structures ever undertaken by man, and has consumed a period of building commensurate with its magnitude. Nine years ago the scheme for this memorial was set afoot by King Edward and Sir Aston Webb.

A model was prepared, which included an addition to the new Hall, a garden, new walls and gates, etc., and Brock, the famous sculptor, was engaged to build the whole. He set to work with a will, gathered about him some of the most accomplished artisans in Europe, and in a short time the scheme began to take form.

Time passed, and in 1909, when the citizens of London had nearly forgotten that such a structure was in the course of construction, the mantle of planks was torn from the partly completed edifice on the late Queen's birthday anniversary, and London was given a chance to view the partly completed structure. Then came the untimely death of King Edward, the succession of King George and the plans for the Festival of Empire, with its proposed dedication of the memorial.

FATALLY SHOT BY A BURGLAR

Young Englishman Named Probert Likely to Die

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Whonnock, B.C., May 27.—In the early hours of this morning a young Englishman named Probert employed in a store here, was shot in the stomach and is probably injured by a burglar.

The thief who had entered and pillaged the store, after helping himself to what he wanted went up stairs and aroused Probert, demanding that he turn over some money to him.

A fight followed, during which the burglar fired a shot at Probert which entered his stomach. Search for the miscreant is in progress.

the matter before the Board at yesterday's meeting. I was surprised that it did not come up. As soon as there is something definite before the Board the Board will act."

Mr. Stewart went on to say that the matter of an ambulance has been considered pretty thoroughly amongst the members of the Board, and that it is believed that a horse ambulance will be best for the town as at present. The cost cannot be less than $1000. The Board's difficulty is a financial one. They feel that the city's contribultion of $5000 is about the limit meantime, and the provision of the rest of the cost of the ambulance lies with the public.
