SECRETARY MORSE DISCHARGED FROM CUSTODY

STRIKE LEADERS FREED NO CASE AGAINST THEM

Secretary A. O. Morse and P. Macdonald Discharged by Magistrate Carss by Consent of Crown Prosecutor—Thirteen Others Have Been Sent For Trial

By consent of the prosecution yesterday afternoon A. O. Morse and P. Macdonald of the P. R. I. A. who were detained charged with inciting to riot the strikers, were discharged. It is understood there was no case against them. A. O. Morse is secretary of the P. R. I. A. and has been in custody since the 6th of April. He was welcomed back by the members of the association who have been carrying on the organisation in his absence with F. Scadden as secretary.

The Unlucky Thirteen

The strikers committed for trial number thirteen, most of whom are out on bail. So far the venue of the trial of these men has not been definitely fixed, but as soon as the deposition sare ready this matter will be settled by the authorities.

GETS $2,000 COMPENSATION

Inspector Dew is out Trailing the Newspapers Now

(Special to the Optimist)

London, April 25.—Inspector Dew who is well know as the detective who arrested Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve, has recovered £2,000 damages from the Daily Chronicle, which printed a statement that Dew had admitted to its reporter that Crippen had confessed to him while in custody.

This statement appeared in eight other papers, and was a serious reflection on Dew's discretion as a police officer. He retired from the London Police and instituted libel actions against the papers, of which the Chronicle's is the first.

The paper offered no defence, but said it had published the article in good faith. It was a "faked story" sent in by an American reporter.

Fair generally, with light winds south and southwesterly and smooth seas to moderate or light swell in places is today's morning wireless report of the weather along the coast.

Two Cobalters, Kadleck and Crane Charged with Fraud

(Special to the Optimist)

Cobalt, April 25.—A sensation was caused in mining circles here by the news that warrants are out for the arrest of E. P. Kadleck and M. W. Crane, two local brokers, who are charged by clients with defrauding them of sums totalling $5,000.

Kadleck left hurriedly for Buffalo on Good Friday and has not since been heard from. Crane was last heard of in Montreal.

A very few minutes after he stepped off the S. S. City of Seattle last night at nine o'clock, Mr. R. H. Thonpson, City Engineer of Seattle commenced work on plans and specifications of the waterworks. Mr. Thompson is here to consult with City Engineer Davis.

This morning he was out bright and early with Colonel Davis going over the ground. In about two days' time he will be in a position to make a statement, he says.

DIED WITH HIS GIRLS

Father's Heoric Efforts to Save His Daughters Failed

SANK IN LAKE SIMCOE

Overloaded Boat Swamped with Party. Fred Lepard Swam for Shore with Two Little Girls. Drowned within Three Feet of Safety.

(Special to the Optimist)

Belle Ewart, Ont., April 25.—After heroic efforts to save his two little daughters from drowning in ake Simcoe today, Fred Lepard lost his life along with them when only three feet from shore.

Tempted out by the fine weather a little party of friends took a boat on the lake. The boat was quite a small craft not intended to carry more than two or three, but tucking the children into the corners, the whole party started out for a row.

Not very far from the shore the boat began to lurch dangerously and the water lapped over the gunwale frightening the children who started up. In a second or two the party were all struggling in the water. By clinging to the boat all were saved except Fred Lepard and his two little girls. The little ones got away from the boat, their father swam to them, and strove to reach the shore with them. But the frightful chill affected his heart and he sank in only seven feet of water just within three feet of safety.

The others managed to reach the shore. Later the bodies of the three drowned were recovered. The little girls were only eight and ten years old respectively.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CHIEF IS BUILDING INSPECTOR

Mr. McNeil Superintendent of Street Work---Other Appointments Made at Council Meeting Last Night—Late Sitting, But Nothing of Importance Put Through

In addition to doing duty as Fire Chief, Mr. Neil McInnes, will, in future, be the city building inspector.

Mr. J. M. McNeil, who has been building inspector, will now devote his whole time to superintending street work.

Mr. Ralph Walker, erstwhile assistant water works foreman is now city plumbing inspector at $100 a month, a $10 increase over his former salary.

This was the chief business done last night by the city counc The recommendations of these appointments came up from the fire and water committee and were adopted.

Can Do It Himself

Mr. Angell asked to have sewer connection with his place. If he complies with the requirements of the City Engineer, Mr. Angell may build the connection himself. The cost will be $1,490. The finance committee recommended that the city could not afford to do this work at present.

Reduce Water Charges

If the dwellers in cabins have water put inside their places, the city will reduce the charge for water from $12 to $6 a year per cabin. This is done to prevent so much water being wasted which is the case with the stand pipes now outside the cabins.

Water on Ninth

Alderman Morrissey wanted water connection for the householders on Ninth avenue. He argued lengthily on the need of water in the houses there. The City Engineer will investigate and report.

Still Unsettled

A letter from S. P. McMordie, city contractor, stating that he was pushing work as speedily as possible and asking about the enforcement of the penalty clause. The matter was dropped when the following motion moved by Alderman Morrissey, seconded by Alderman Clayton, was carried: "That the City Clerk be instructed to acknowledge receipt of letter and to state that the council has not agreed to any understanding that no penalty will be demanded for delay in work."

Rat Catcher

Thomas Reed applied for the position of official rat catcher. His application may be considered later.

The streets committee will report back on the application of the Salcation Army for the construction of a good sidewalk from Third avenue to the S. A. barracks.

Want Original

A copy of the new specifications of the new motor fire engine was presented to the council, which arrived from the makers of the engine, but as it was not the original signed copy, the council decided to wait until the original arrived before the engine was accepted.

Various Matters

Tenders will be called for 500 piles for use in sewer construction.

Paul Kauffman wrote registering a complaint about the waste paper, etc., left outside the Empire office. Alderman Newton said his establishment was kept satisfactory to the sanitary inspector, but as Mr. Kauffman, the music master, also complained about gasoline left around the place, the fire and water committee will look into the matter.

Sure Will Scare 'Em

Mayor Manson and his eight assistants or civic papas will test the new fire engine. That means they will have a ride round on the "red devil" some sunny day soon, under the care of Fire Chief McInnis.

T. Dunn and 34 Others

Thomas Dunn and 34 others want that piece of road running from Sixth avenue to the B. C. Tie and Timber Co., taken over by the city. At present it is owned privately. The streets committee will report back.

Nothing Doing

There will be no compensation granted to G. W. Nickerson for the 15 boxes of oranges destroyed by order of Medical Health Officer Dr. Reddie. The oranges were found to be all bad. Mr. Nickerson claimed $17.25 as compensation, but he won't get it. The finance committee advised the refusal of the application and the council upheld the advice.

Empire Got It

The Empire Publishing Co. was awarded the tender to print the balance sheets for the city at a price of $56.

Total $7,832

Accounts totalling $7,832 sent up for payment from the finance committee were ordered to be paid.

Clear the Reserve

Dr. J. O. Reddie, medical health officer, sent in a report, advised very strongly to have the G. T. P. reserve cleared of shacks, etc., and the district bwteen First avenue and Wayne Place, also to at once put sewers in alleys in the up town district. The doctor explained sewer connection in the alleys was absolutely necessary for the prevention of disease. The health committee will look into the subjects referred to by Dr. Reddie.

Want 200,000 Gallons

This summer the G. T. P. mechanical department will need 200,000 gallons of water every 24 hours and the other departments of the company will need more water this year than ever before.

Alderman Newton wanted to know in the event of a shortage of water, where would the city be. It was explained that by an agreement the G. T. P. have first right to the first 40 inches of water.

Finally it was decided to ask City Engineer Davis to co-operate with the G. T. P. to see that there was no water wasted.

Will Supply Pipes

The Thompson Hardware Co. will supply 1,000 feet of piping for carrying water.

Home for New Fire Engine

To house the new fire engine, a temporary shed will be built near the Bank of B. N. A. on Fulton street. The work will be done by the city under the supervision of Fire Chief McInnes.

It was half past eleven before the council was through. The by-law governing the duty of city officials passed the committee. It gets its third reading next week.

Branching Out

Arthur Little, the proprietor of Little's news stand, intends opening a branch stands at Kitselas and Hazelton. He will go up on the boat tomorrow to both places to complete arrangements.

PRESBYTERIANS PURCHASE PERMANENT CHURCH SITE

Will Locate on Fourth Avenue, One Block East of McBride Street Will Build Handsome Edifice There---Church Has Had Rapid Growth in Membership Since Start

Before long, probably this summer, the new First Presbyterian Church of Prince Rupert will be building on a fine central site on Fourth avenue near McBride street which has just been secured by the congregation through their office-bearers.

Building to Cost $25,000

A building permamently constructed of stone is what the congregation have set their hearts upon, and they will spare no effort to attain their ambition. Already in the purchase of the site a laid out, but more is forthcoming for the building.

The site is on Lots 23 and 24, Block 1, Section 6. This season, it is hoped, a substantial place of worship costing about $25,000 will be erected there. Later on something statlier, and as soon as possible a temporary church costing up to $10,000, if it is not feasible to put up the larger building this season.

Thriving Congregation

Beginning with a small wooden structure on the Reserve near Centre street, the Presbyterians have increased in number so much of late that now the Rev. F. W. Kerr conducts the services in the Empress Theatre which is well filled. Rev. Mr. Kerr has proved himself an energetic and popular pastor and a fearless preacher. Ambitious for the welfare of his charge, he tirelessly exerts himself along with the office-bearers of the church who are all as keenly alive as their pastor. So the church is forging ahead splendidly.

A glance at the map of the townsite shows that the Presbyterian Church has taken a stride, as it were, in the step with gathering population of the city, that is, towards McBride street. There can be no question of its progress there as in its old position.

BLOWS THROUGH FLOOR

Ald. Clayton Wants Oil Cloth on City Hall Floor

"New business," said the Mayor glancing down his agenda. Alderman Clayton pushed up his coat collar, after returning from stirring up the big fire in the big stove, and said: "I should like to have some oil cloth put on the floor under the table along this side—which is the west side. The draught that comes through the floor is enough to give us colds." Mayor Manson opined that it would never do to allow any of his colleagues to catch cold through a faulty city hall floor and there'll be some oil cloth there.

Owing to the fact that the Boscowitz Company's steamer Vad so is disabled the S. S. Leebro is taking the Vadso's place, carrying freight only.

FEAR A GENERAL STRIKE IN CITY OF LOS ANGELES

Arrest of J. J. McNamara and McNigle on Charge of Complicity in Recent Dynamite Outrage Has Aroused the Union Men of the City

(Special to the Optimist)

Los Angeles, April 25.—Before the week is over a general strike is likely to occur in this city, as a consequence of the arrest of J. J. McNamara and T. McNigle on a charge of being concerned in the dynamite outrage which wrecked the Times building.

McNamara is the Secretary of the Structural Iron Workers' Union and is very popular among the union men. The Western Feration of Miners has pledged itself to raise a fund of $250,000 to defend him if necessary. Both he and McNigle are due to arrive in the city tonight, and their arrival, it is feared will be made the occasion to proclaim a general strike. This has long been threatened. A strong editorial in the Times calling on the authorities to take rigorous means to handle the situation has rather helped to irritate the situation.

The police are taking special precautions to guard against any demonstration on the men's arrival.

THE END OF THE STRIKE

The news that the men had decided to declare the strike at an end was received with satisfaction all over town yesterday. That it was better to make a formal declaration, rather than let the matter fizzle out to a casual ending, is certainly the better way. It clears the air of misconceptions, and frees every man who returns to work from the suspicion of disloyalty to his fellows. In addition it gives a foundation for the establishment of new relations. The issuing of the statement by the men is quite in harmony with their expressed intention to make a win or lose fight without any compromise.

Closely following the news of the men's letter came the news that it had been decided to release Messrs. Morse and Macdonald from custody on charges of inciting the men to disorder. The coincidents form an effective interchange of desires, which will go a long way to smoothing out ruffled feelings.

Happily the fears that the man Nick Pavich who was shot during the melee at Kelly's cut, might succumb to his injuries, are now removed. This would have been a dark blot and hard to forgive, however amply the deed might have been justified by law or the necessity for self-defence. Probably no one is more glad of the assurance that the man will recover, than the unknown citizen who fired the shot.

It is impossible that the memory of the strike will be ever obliterated. The citizens, the contractors and the strikers have suffered too much by it to feel that they can forgive those whom public opinion is agreed are at the bottom of the trouble. But they are content to abide their time, and impose a proper and exemplary punishment in the fullness of time.

In the meantime, the council has given no intimation as to how they will act in regard to the 45 cent policy they inaugurated. That policy, taken with the promises made by individual members of the council, did more than anything else to keep alive the hopes of the strikers, and fan the flames of discord and strife in the city.

There is no condition of misfortune so bad that some scant consolation cannot be gleaned by the reminder that "it might have been worse." With the exception of the one unpremeditated occasion on April 6th, the conduct of the strikers has been most exemplary, and in accord with the pledges they gave in the early days of the strike. The pity of it is that the trouble ever originated in the way it did, or that having reached a point where the council could not control the situation they created, that arbitration was not resorted to.

The news that the men have officially declared the strike at an end is the most reassuring piece of news in Prince Rupert in seven weeks.

MASSETT INLET IS A SUMMER HOLIDAY GROUND

Mr. Thos. Deasy, Indian Agent at Massett, Writes Alluringly of the Beauties of the Inlet---Is Destined to Be Favorite Spot for Campers

Within sixty miles of Prince Rupert indenting Graham Island for over forty miles, is a body of water which compares favorably with any known inlet on the North American coast. Rivers and streams, teeming with fish, enter the Inlet on both sides and wild fowl can be seen at the mouth of the waterways. The difficulty encountered in other places on rivers and lakes in proceeding from one part of the country to the other, is obviated here by the current which carries a boat up and down the Inlet on each tide at the rate of six miles an hour. Along the shores are splendid camping places, where the wild strawberry grows in abundance. Wild beasts, insects, and other dangerous pests are noticeable by their absence. The only animals found on the island are black bears, martin and land otter. None of these are dangerous and are very scarce. The summer climate compares with that of Vancouver Island with the difference that the daylight lasts until 11 p.m., in midsummer and it is dark for but two hours. Wild flowers and other beauties of nature, with the bathing places and sandy beaches afford an ideal spot for camping and amusement. There are no mountains along the east coast of Graham Island and the interior has been prospected only by a few adventurous men. Summer gardens where vegetables and flowers will grow profusely, are now in the experimental stage. It must be remembered that there are only a few hundreds of people on the north end of Graham Island. Three years ago but ten persons were located there, without counting the four hundred law-abiding and progressive Indians. The writer of this article is not a "land booster;" but has spent a year on the Inlet and over half a century in the province. As a summer resort where the weary man of business and his family require rest and recreation, there is not a more ideal spot in this beautiful province. Along the peninsula near the entrance to Massett Inlet, the camper can enjoy a walk or ride on the hundreds of miles of sandy beach along the seashore or on the Inlet but a mile away. The quaint Indian villages with their totem poles and other curiosities, marking the former homes of the once powerful Haida nation, is well worth a visit, without speaking of the fishing and shooting that can be found in the rivers and streams. In the course of a few years the resident of Prince Rupert will have their summer homes at Massett where the children will obtain the education they require in the schools, and the family the recreation that only such a country and climate can afford. The timber, coal and other resources that are now attracting the attention of business men; but the wealth of Massett Inlet in health-giving facilities must, eventually, attract the thousands who desire to spend the summer months within reach of the business world. Massett Inlet and the whole of Graham Island, will be the garden spot for Prince Rupert with the thousand acres of agricultural land in the neighborhood. When it is understood that one woman preserved three hundred pounds of wild strawberries picked on the shores of the Inlet, the fruit possibilities of the Island will attract attention. The wooded shores on both sides of the Inlet afford protection from storms during the winter season and the clearing of the timber from the thousands of acres now held as timber limits will place innumerable homesteads at the disposal of the government. The picnic grounds and beautiful scenery should attract a large number of excursionists during the coming summer. It has been usual on Vancouver Island for the residents to spend a week or two at the seaside camping in tents and houses along the shores. The business men of Prince Rupert have a summer resort at their doors on Massett Inlet, that will afford a more varied and delightful resort for the thousands that will, in the near future, make Massett Inlet the place nature always intended for it to be, the home of those seeking rest and recreation.

Seats will be reserved for ladies.

MUSINGS

"Rev. Father Lebert will replace Rev. Father Hartman temporarily at Prince Rupert, who goes to the Queen Charlotte Islands for a few weeks."

Modestly and without sensation or ostentation The Empire made this astounding announcement yesterday. After mentioning casually that the Reverend Fathers named are to vary their spheres of activity, which is quite an innocent and interesting bit of news, my matter of fact and rather prosy old pal the Empire jogs on in the same tone of voice, so to speak, to spring the tremendous statement that "Prince Rupert goes to the Queen Charlotte Islands for a few weeks."

What does it mean? Why has this staggering information been allowed thus surreptitiously to slip out? When is the stupendous visit or visitation to take place? How, in the name of all that's possible, is Prince Rupert going to get over to the Queen Charlotte Islands without endangering the lives of the lieges, its inhabitants, my fellow citizens? Surely some further comment is needed, something to calm the women and children, something to reassure the real estate men, and all who own lots in this rising city. But there is nothing. Merely the insignificant announcement. We are left in awful suspense.

Even while you read these words perhaps the appaling cataclysm of nature is impending, the vast upheaval more terrible by far than the 'Frisco earthquake, which will hurl Prince Rupert at one fell swoop across the seas to the Queen Charlotte Islands. Think of it old timers, you who have witnessed coyote blasts in Prince Rupert's early days, picture to yourselves the dread import of the news, that the city you helped to found is to be caught up like a storm-tossed slicker hat, and deposited who knows which end uppermost on the Queen Charlotte Islands of all places!

Are we to land there in little bits or all in a chunk? Is there any chance of us missing the Islands and dropping into the wide salt sea with a cold, wet, sloppy, splash? Couldn't we contrive somehow to keep steam up while we are doing the aeroplane stunt, and head her for Honolulu "for a few weeks?" I don't see the use of us being at all stuck up or provincial about our Spring outing. If we could make Honolulu we might cut out the "few weeks" business, make a bonfire of our slickers, and stay there for keeps. What do you think about it citizens of Prince Rupert? Couldn't we kind of swear ourselves in as special constables, take turns of sitting up nights, and when the psychological moment comes, be ready at the blast of the Power plant whistle, to jump to our posts and with Skipper Barney Johnston on the Hays Creek bridge, navigate the townsite clear plumb to Heligoland, I mean Honolulu? And say, oh joyful thought! Could not we manage to drop the City Hall overboard on the way?

The American invasion of Canada is in full swing now, and settlers with their effects from the land of Uncle Sam, are pouring over the border. During the past ten years 333,000 Americans have taken up their homes in the Canadian West, and this year it is estimated that at least 150,000 will establish themselves here before the fall this year.

Mr. Theodore M. Knappen, Secretary of the Western Canadian Colonization Company, in an interview recently contended that British Columbia would benefit as a result of the immigration. He mentioned that 9,000 carloads of settlers' effects would pass through Minneapolis bound for Canada during the next two months. This would mean 45,000 newcomers representing a total capital of about $20,000,000. It was his conviction that land values in Canada would increase considerably. Mr. Knappen believes that reciprocity will tend towards a swifter development of Canada. He says: "It was a realization of the fact that the Dominion had not been treated fairly in the past which no doubt prompted President Taft to use all his efforts to give Canadians a decent bargain."

B. C. DIAMONDS

Report of Discovery Leads Prospectors to Mt. Olivine Distr

The report of the Geological Survey of the Canada that Simonpure diamonds are to be found in the Mount Olive district of this province has stimulated very active interest in the district in question and many prospectors have gone in from Princeton and are staking claims in an endeavor to secure precious stones large enough to be of commercial value, several of these having lately been discovered in the conglomerate. In a letter to a friend at Princeton heading the Ottawa date of ten days ago, Mr. Charles Camsell of the Dominion geological staff of experts says of the original discovery that "the sample of chromite from which the diamonds were obtained also yielded platinum and gold. This is the first time I have been able to see the platinum in solid rock. . . . Practically all the diamonds obtained are clear and white, apparently excellent stones, if we can only find them big enough and there is not reason why we should not."

Interest in the diamond discovery in the Tulameen section continues. Actual prospecting for diamonds in the "wash" will begin as soon as the snow leaves that altitude.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

THE TRUTH

Friend, though thy soul should burn thee, yet be still.
Thoughts were not meant for strife, nor tongues for swords
He that sees clear is gentlest of his words
And that's not truth that hath the heart to kill.
The whole world's thought shall not one truth fulfil,
Dull in our age and passionate in youth,
No mind of man hath found the perfect truth,
Nor shalt thou find it; therefore, friend, be still.
The babbler of consistency and rule;
Wisest is he, who, never quite secure,
Changes his thoughts for better, day by day;
Tomorrow, some new light will shine, be sure,
And thou shalt see thy thought another way.
And of the road that points the way
One half is wrong, the other right.
Be wise, my boy, and e'er abide
Upon the golden sunny side.

—Archibald Lampman

FASHION NOTES

Suggestions of Summer in the Spring Fabrics

Many of the new cotton materials brought out this spring have borders in Persian and other designs and colorings.

Black and whits designs are relieved by a dash of vivid red, Chinese blue, emerald green or some other bright color, veiled under chiffon.

Some of the new skirts are made with plaits in sections, but these are held down so as to keep the straight lines.

Large hats are not considered so smart for street wear as the snug-fitting turbans and small hats.

Foulard is likely to be popular again among next summer's silks, and the bordered foulards will be a good choice.

Suit coats for the spring are to be shorter than last year. There is a movement towards reviving the bolero jacket.

Directoire fashions are coming in again in Paris, the waist of such models being short and the skirt without fulness and hanging as straight as possible.

COME FOR MORE CANDY

Made Good. It Makes Good Every Time

Put in a clean agate saucepan I cup of granulated sugar and 1 1-2 cups of molasses. Boil until it becomes hard when dropped in cold water. Add butter the size of a walnut and 3 teaspoonfuls of vinegar. Let boil a minute or two. Remove from fire and add 1 teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a very little water. As it foams pour over tin plates well greased and partially filled with nutmeats.

THE SUNNY SIDE

Two newsboys stood where warehouse shade
Fell on the sidewalk chill and dun
And left the long and splendid street
One half in shadow, half in sun.
They saw the belt of color wide
Then hied them to the sunny side.

Ah, what a change! They left behind
The chill of winter, dark and raw,
To stand a moment after where
The air is thrilling with a thaw.
They glance where shadows chill abide.
Then laugh upon the sunny side.

And soon adown the sounding street,
With little feet equipped with wings.
They cry their wares with music sweet
And those who like to hear such things.
And ever through the city wide
They always keep the sunny side.

Ah! life is like the street today

DOG'S STRANGE TASTE

Rotgen Rays Revealed Remarkable Rapacity

Pillowed and wrapped in blankets and bandages, a little fox terrier puppy, Caesar by name, is lying at Our Dumb Friends' League Animals' Hospital in London, the hero of one of the most remarkable experiences ever brought to the notice of surgeons.

Some time ago, says the London "Daily Telegraph," Caesar's master and mistress, a couple in very humble circumstances, took the dog to the hospital for treatment. They were in despair, for he had been suffering from some mysterious ailment for several weeks. The dog seemed to be in acute pain and howled when touched. With head and neck stretched out almost rigid, Caesar took his food with difficulty, and a swelling at the neck was taken to show the pressure of an abscess in the throat.

On being minutely examined no wounds or abscesses could be found. Hot compresses were tried, without avail. Finally Caesar was put under the Rontgen rays and the truth was revealed. Embedded horizontally along the dog's body was a hat pin over twelve inches long. The point was just outside the gullet, the knob at the extremity of the stomach.

So extraordinary was the case considered that it was decided, contrary to the usual practice of the hospital, to operate. Caesar was given chlorofrom and the hat pin removed successfully. Carefully tended, he is now rapidly recovering his health and spirits and is being visited by eminent surgeons, who declare his case to be quite without precedent.

DELICATE PROCESS

With Care You Can Recurl an Ostrich Feather

To recurl an ostrich feather have a teakettle full of boiling water and shake the feather vigorously through the escaping steam being careful not to get it too damp. Next, take a silver fruit knife and, beginning with the feathers nearest the quill, take a small bunch between the thumb and forefinger and draw it gently over the blade of the knife.

A Little Sun, A Little Rain

A little sun, a little rain,
A soft wind blowing from the west—.
And woods and fields are sweet again,
And warmth within the mountain's breast.
So simple is the earth we tread.
So quick with love and life her frame;
Ten thousand years have dawned and fled,
And still her magic is the same.
A little love, a little trust,
A soft impulse, a sudden dream—
And life as dry as desert dust
Is fresher than a mountain stream.

If You Are Even Half-ready To Buy Property, Study The Real Estate Ads!

As soon as the property-owning purpose gets a foothold with you—begin to read and answer and investigate the real estate ads!

And by the time you are half ready to buy a home, learn all that the ads can teach you of property-values—all that ad-answering can teach you of desirable places to live.

Your interest in real estate advertisements may be responsible for your securing a better home than you can imagine you can afford—and for your securing it sooner than you had hoped to do.

ITEMS OF .. SPORT

Mr. Assheton-Smith, who had on paper the most powerful steeplechasing stable in England this season, has had a discouraging experience. Jerry M. top-weight in the Grand National, went wrong, and Cackler, nixt to him in the list, struck himself a week before the race. Holy War, for which he paid $20,000, died, and he is left with Indian Runner which laso cost $20,000, but does not look to be worth that many cents.

Summer aviation in the United States will begin with a cmahpionship race over the 250 mile course between Washington and New York, with a big prize to be offered by the Aero Club of America. The advertising features are not to be overlooked, inasmuch as the last leg of the course will afford a spectacular view from the summer resorts along the coast.

A letter from Jimmy Fitzgerald, the Calgary runner, who was in England with the Canadian Olympic team, reveals the little fellow in New Zealand. He says he won the New ealand one and five-mile championships this winter, and that he has several matches ahead. He says he will return to Canada shortly to meet meadows, HolMer, Sellen, and others at 10 and 15 miles.

Not to be outdone, Milwaukee has produced a "white hope." The latest candidate is Ray Burns, a South Bend, Ind., boilermaker, who weighs 220 pounds. Burns participated in two battles, but both of these ended in his favor, and his manager is trying to get a match with Carl Morris.

The Virginia league schedule calls for 123 games, the season to open April 20 and close Sept 6.

Work is being rushed day and night to have the Washington stands ready for the American league opening.

The Montgomery team of the Southern league has dropped its old nickname "Climbers," and will be known this season as the "Billikens."

The Appalachian Baseball league has been originated with teams in Knoxville, Bristol, Johnson City, Morristown and Cleveland, Tenn., and Ashville, N. C.

Manager Jimmy Barrett, of the Milwaukee team, has his thirsty Brewers—not thirsty, but thirty—training in Champaign, Illinois. Don't forget the Illinois and cause a libel suit.

In his new ball park at Newark, N. J., Manager Joe McGinnity will fit up a cosy retiring room for women, with a matron in charge. There is still some class to the old "Iron Boy."

Dainty Supper Stunt

Make small, dainty sandwiches, spread with butter and a layer of marmalade or thinly sliced cheese. Put them on pie tins and then under your gas broiler, and when lightly toasted on one side turn and toast the other. These will just melt enough and the marmalade just warm enough to be deliciously appetising.

QUITE SIMPLE

But It Saves Quite a Lot of Annoyance

Thin white oiled paper spread under the child's plate at the table and extending a little way beyond, will protect the tablecloth. This will not be very noticeable, especially if it is bought in sheets, and the pieces are cut and laid smoothly on the cloth. When a piece of paper is soiled, it may be thrown away or burned, and a fresh piece substituted.

LOVELY OLD LACE

The Coronation will, of course, bring out all the beautiful old lace which belongs to the wardrobe of so many women in London. Flounces will be laid flatly on skirts, showing up the exquisite designs, and the lace can be arranged,

WILL HELP B.C. FRUIT

Government Institutes Scheme of Market Reporting

TO PUT GROWERS WISE

Agents in Prairie Fruit Distributing Centres will Wire Daily Reports to be Bulletined at Victoria for Province.

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Cpril 25.—Steps are being taken by the Provincial Government to institute a comprehensive system of market reporting for the benefit of the fruit industry of British Columbia. The intention is to have the agents in all the distributing centres on the prairies. They will wire to Victoria daily reports of the state of the markets for the various fruits in their seasons, prices, and special particulars of demand.

These telegraphic reports are to be compiled in the form of bulletins at Victoria, and immediately wired out again to the affiliated associations of fruit growers throughout the province. This system will cut at least five days off the time at present required to get information from the originating points to the producers and will keep the associations posted up to within twenty-four hours of the actual market.

$400 DISAPPERAS

Police are Investigating Matter and Several Arrests of Suspects Were Made Today. Guilty Persons are Netted.

A case of theft involving the sum of $400 is being investigated by the police who have already arrested several persons against whom strong suspicions exist. The money belonged to a lady who arrived here with her husband only a day or two ago, and took a house on Eighth avenue. It is their intention to make their home in Prince Rupert.

Evidently the knowledge of the fact that they had come here prepared to invest, and had withdrawn sums of money from the bank for immediate purchases became known to certain of the dishonest fraternity. The house was evidently watched, for the theft took place on Sunday morning when husband and wife were out.

Up to the present, while the police have certain information which must not be divulged, the actually guilty person has yet to be made certain of.

MANLY SORT OF GIRL

Ready for the Wild and Woolly West

A female second cabin passenger arrived at St. John the other day who gave her name as "Miss Jack May" was detained by the Canadian immigration officials, she being attired in male costume. She readily admitted that she was of the opposite sex and said that she and her male companion had worked on a farm in England. She had her hair cropped short, wore leggings and tan boots and a short skirt that was not visible below a man's overcoat. Her age was about 30, and she was rather good looking. They had about eleven pieces of baggage including a rifle and were bound for the Canadian west.

HOBBLE HORRIFIED HORSES

Town Council Has Girl Arrested for Wearing Hobble Skirt

After a girl wearing a hobble skirt had caused a disastrous runaway, for which she was arrested, the town board of Buchanan, Mich. ban on the hobble and the harmer skirt. Miss Frances Walters, daughter of prominent parents, threatens to sue the town because a constable arrested her.

Miss Walters tripped on leaving the postoffice owing to the tight-fitting skirt. In her struggles to regain her feet, she frightened a team of oxen hitched in front of the building. The animals stampeded madly down the street and broke the windows of three stores. A call was sent out for the constable, but he was fishing. He arrested the girl later.

CHINESE LADY DOCTOR

A tiny woman in Oriental dress, with titles longer than she is, has been spending several weeks on this side of the Pacific. She is Dr. Yamei Kin, a native of China, graduate of the Woman's Medical Sshool of the New York Infirmary, conversationalist, lecturer, and the head of the Imperial Peiyang Women's Medical School and Hospital. Dr. Kin directs within that hospital a training school for nurese; it is for the purpose of furthering this work especially that she has been in our country. Sanitation is greatly needed in China's congested cities, and it is hoped that the work of these nurses will be largely educational. The problem of infant mortality is far more serious in China than with us, the death-rate being about fifty per cent which is not by any means all accounted for by the Chinese custom of drowning girl babies. Dr. Kin investigated our progress in civic hygiene, household sanitation, and the conservation of child life. She believes that it will be the district nurse who will reform and make sanitary the homes of overcrowded China.

THE WEST THEY THINK

A Little Different Isn't It, from the West you Know

In the Far West "Hamlet" was one evening given by a strolling company, and this is the criticism that appeared next day in the local paper, written by the local dramatic editor:

"There is too much chinning in this piece. The author is behind the times, and seems to forget that what we want nowadays is hair-raising situations and detectives.

"In the hands of a skillful playwright a detective would have been put on the track of Hamlet's uncle, and the old man would have been hunted down in a manner that would have lifted its audience out of their cowhides.

"The moral of the piece is not bad. The scene where Hamlet sasses his mother is a very bad example to the rising generation.

"Our advice to the author is more action, more love-making and plenty of specialties. The crazy girl scene should be cut out altogether, and a rattling good song and dance substituted."

Mrs. Thomas McClymont will receive with Mrs. W. E. Williams on Thursday 27th April.
