SALMON CANNERS' REPORT PACK IS VERY SMALL

Latest Reports From the Canneries With Figures Confirm Fears That Pack is Small This Year—Alaska Pack is Also Very Light This Season

Indications are general now that the salmon pack for the 1911 season will be a small one. Returns for the canneries nearest to Prince Rupert are not immediately available, but the latest figures from canneries north and south of the Prince Rupert district are disappointing. It is early enough yet fortunately to hope that the pack will not be a record short one. It is too late unfortunately to expect that the evident shortage so far may yet be made up.

Figures so Far
Following are the figures showing the actual number of cases packed up to a few days ago at the various canneries between here and Vancouver. Each estimate will be increased proportionately before the end of the season, but no packer predicts any substantial difference to reduce the shortage. Enquiries at Smith's Inlet Cannery showed the number of cases to be 16,000; Rivers Inlet, 10,000; Strathcona, 9,000; Good Hope, 9,000; Brunswick, 10,000; Kildalla, 10,000; R. I. C., 12,000; Beaver, 8,000; Namu, 7,000; Bella Coala, 6,000; Skimsquitch Drennis, 2,000; Buttermere's, 1,200. Returns from Skeena and Naas River canneries are expected to be proportionately reduced as compared with better seasons, and news from the north is also of shortage.

Alaska Figures Short
The Alaska figures, too, are short, every company save one on Bristol Bay being short of last year's pack. The Alaska Packers' Association have only put up 400,000 cases as compared with 476,000 last year and 657,000 in 1909.

MAY PRESENT MEDAL TO CAPT. BARNEY JOHNSTON

Launch Owners Along the Water Front are Great Admirers of the Clever Skipper's Starboard Landings—It is Easy on Their Boats and They Appreciate It

Boat slip proprietors and owners of items in Prince Rupert's mosquito fleet moored along the waterfront between McBride street and the G. T. P. wharf are seriously thinking of presenting a service of plate or a gold medal to Captain Barney Johnston of the S.S. Prince Rupert as he seems to be the only skipper of a big boat calling at Prince Rupert who can make a starboard landing.

Hurts Small Craft
All the other steamers take the familiar sweep around the harbor in order to make the easier port landing. In doing this they send their wash heavily ashore just where the little boats and launches are moored, pounding them cruelly against each other and against the grade. Even the boat stages themselves and the piled wharves are affected, some say dangerously, by the wash of the bigger boats passing swiftly.

Alas, the Sniff Yacht
When the civic sniff yacht was moored at this point her poor old timbers used to get unmercifully jarred against the piles, and if the swell can so trouble a lumbering old lavender box like that, what must it do to a light launch? Waterfront men are still hoping that other boats besides Barney Johnston's may either make the starboard landing when possible or go dead slow past the boat stages.

Mrs. M. P. McCaffery returned to Prince Rupert by the Prince Rupert this morning.

HUDSON BAY RAILWAY

Either J. D. McArthur or Mr. J. O'Brien to Get Contract

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—Construction on the Hudson's Bay Railway is to be started this fall. Tenders were opened this afternoon. In all eight were delivered but the choice narrowed down to two, those submitted by J. D. McArthur and by Mr. J. O'Brien. Both of these tenders it is said were on a very satisfactory character and within the estimates secured by the railway department. These figures however, will yet have to be gone over in detail before any official announcement of the awarding of the contract will be made.

MILLIONAIRE'S DEATH

John W. Gates the Plutocrat, Answers the Inevitable Call

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Paris, Aug. 9.—John W. Gates, the American financier, died here this morning in the arms of his wife and his son Charles C. Gates. The end was peaceful and it seemed as if he was falling asleep. He was only fifty-seven years old.

For several years past John W. Gates had been considered one of the greatest forces in the financial world and a strong factor in Wall street operations.

THE NEW "PRINCE JOHN" REACHES PRINCE RUPERT

New G.T.P. Passenger Steamer For the Islands is a Handsome Boat and Splendidly Fitted—Proved Her Seaworthy Qualities on the Voyage From England—Captain Weirmouth is in Command

Fog banks in the Sound delayed the arrival of the new G. T. P. S.S. Prince John yesterday, but towards evening she steamed into the harbor trim and speedy, a pretty, three masted boat with white upper works, and funnel aft bearing the well known maple leaf badge.

Captain Weirmouth is in charge of the new steamer which will take over the run of the old Prince Albert. Those of the Prince Albert's officers who join the new boat are Mr. Griffiths, second officer, and Mr. Durage, purser. Mr. Shields, chief steward of the Albert will also join the Prince John which carries a crew of twenty-seven men.

Perfect Passenger Boat

"A miniature Prince George" is an apt description of the new steamer as regards passenger accommodation. The Prince John has on a dainty scale, all the conveniences and luxuries of the big G. Y. P. fliers. Her state-rooms are arranged commodiously on the upper deck, and are airy and comfortable. That feature de luxe of the palatial George—electric reading lamps right beside the pillow of each bunk is present also in the Prince John's state-rooms, and every other item of stateroom furniture is in keeping. Two splendid staterooms are situated right aft on the boat deck. They are secluded, cosy, and delightful for a private party. Forward, as in the George is an observation room luxuriously furnished. By a polished oak staircase you descend from there to the lofty stateroom on the main deck, a smoke-room which fairly puts many a bigger boat in the background. A well furnished bar completes this suite.

Dining Department

Dining room and galley with stewards' accommodation are all of the most attractive. The dining saloon occupies the whole beam of the boat, and is lofty in proportion and finely furnished. The galley conveniently at hand is planned and equipped for swift appetising service. A new special compressed cork flooring is laid on this section of the boat. It admits of the most perfect cleanliness, with warmth and springy softness under foot. Arrangements for food storage, and for the accommodation of stewards also the mess room for the crew are all cleverly and comfortably planned.

Ship's Equipment

From mast head to keel the Prince John is a well built and seaworthy boat. Her engine room is very roomy. She can do twelve knots without extra pressure. Two dynamos supply her with electric current. An ash ejector does away with the dusty task of bucketing refuse overboard. She carries six boats, and if necessary could accommodate 225 passengers 56 of them first cabin. Her steerage accommodation just being completed is fresh, clean and airy with comfortable lavatories. Steam heating throughout the whole boat, and wireless equipment must be added to the list of her attractions. The crew's quarters forward are comfortable, there is abundant cargo space, and Captain Weirmouth has found his new steamer a splendid sea boat. There can be no doubt that she will be a popular passenger boat to and from the Islands.

RIGHT-OF-WAY AGENTS ARRIVE

G. H. Pope, General Right of Way Man and W. H. Dempster His Assistant, Land Today to Take Train to Aldermere.

By the S.S. Prince Rupert today W. H. Dempster, assistant right of way man of the G. T. P. arrived with the Right of Way Agent Mr. G. H. Pope.

Mr. Pope with Mr. Dempster proceeded up the line by train on the way to Aldermere on right of way business. It is not the intention of the right of way agent to go farther than Aldermere at this time, though the contract for clearing the first 50 miles beyond that point is let, and the work will soon begin.

An Indian named Harry Collison was today brought before Magistrate McMullin charged with having had liquor in his possession. He admitted it, but promised to point out the man who gave it to him said to be a white man. The police are looking after this matter now. Prisoner came from Kitkatla, and was one of "Pat" Phillipson's gleanings.

AFTER FOUR LONG YEARS MURDER COMES TO LIGHT

George Whitford, a Half Breed, is Arrested in Montana for the Alleged Murder of Victor Thomas in October 1907—Clever Work of Mounted Police

Lethbridge, Aug. 9.—The old saying that murder will out seems likely to come true in the case of George Whitford, the half breed who was arrested yesterday at Browning, Montana, by the Mounted Police on a charge of murdering Victor Thomas, another half breed, in October 1907.

Story of Crime

Thomas who was a teamster in the employ of the city at the time of his death, was found drowned in the river at Diamond City in the spring of 1908 six months after he was last seen with his team in the river bed at Lethbridge.

Police Heard Story

A few days ago Sergeant Ashe

of the Mounted Police heard that a half breed at Browning, Montana, had told of seeing a man murdered in the river bed at Lethbridge. He immediately connected the story with Thomas' death, and went to Browning to investigate.

Has Three Witnesses

Sergeant Ashe not only managed to arrest Whitford at Browning, but he also found three other halfbreed witnesses, who profess to have been present when the fight occurred, and saw Whitford murder Thomas and throw his body in the river. The Sergeant is now on his way back with the four men.

START WORK ON HYDRO-ELECTRIC PLANT

Supt. Clark Durant Left With Party of Axemen This Morning to Commence Operations—Mr. Brutinel Says They Will Spend $2,500,000 in Next Four Years

Started Their Camp

Mr. Clark Durant, superintendent of the Hydro-Electric Company, left the city this morning with a party of axemen to start work on the construction camp at Khtada River. Mr. Durant says that within a few weeks there will be a couple of hundred men at work at the camp.

In company with Mr. Kennaugh, C. E., Mr. Durant made a preliminary survey of Khtada Lake last week. He describes it as being several miles larger than that shown on the Provincial Government's maps. No exact survey has yet been made and the maps are of course only approximate. The expedition satisfied the party that a tremendous drainage area enters the lake, guaranteeing an even greater continuous water power than at first anticipated.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Vancouver, Aug. 9.—According to the statement of Mr. Raymond Brutinel of Paris, France, one of the directors of the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Company, an active survey of the work has been started in connection with the company's plans for supplying power and light in Prince Rupert. The program recently adopted by the board of directors contemplates the expenditure of $600,000 during the next twelve months and $2,500,000 within the next four years.

It is proposed to develop the Khatada River power by building a dam capable of giving 15,000 horsepower, and it is expected that within a year there will be available not less than 3,000 kilowatts which will be increased to 15,000 kilowatts within four years.

The power will be conveyed to Prince Rupert a distance of 42 miles. The falls on the Excha River, 24 miles from the city, are capable of furnishing the same amount of energy but will not be harnessed until circumstances warrant such an action.

PUTTING THE LONG PROBE INTO THE CORPORATIONS

Millionaire Geo. W. Perkins, of the U.S. Steel Corporation, May Have to Tell all He Knows About Corporation Campaign Funds or Go To Penitentiary

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, Aug. 9.—George W. Perkins, a director of the United States Steel Corporation, and one of the men who is said to have aided in averting grave financial disaster during the panic of 1907, is now facing the alternative of answering questions to the House Committee on inquiry into the steel corporation, bearing on his personal campaign contributions and such contributions as were made by the New York Life Insurance Company, or of being cited to appear before the bar of the House of Representatives.

Should the House sustain the majority of the Committee and order Mr. Perkins to answer and should he then still refuse, he may be adjudged in contempt of Congress and imprisoned.

ALD. NEWTON'S PLEA OF GUILTY

Now that Alderman Newton has confessed his guilt, and admitted that he wilfully altered press despatches referring to reciprocity, the News is content to resume the discussion of the economics of reciprocity. It is always a good day's work to unmask a hypocrite and make a vendor of untruths eat his own wares. The public can now judge of the fitness for public life of a man who admits to altering press despatches to suit his own candidature.

The whole incident casts a strong light into the real character of this "holier than thou" candidate, who in confessing his guilt tries to make the public believe that he was acting within the limits of journalistic usage in wilfully altering one despatch and inventing another, in order to further his private interests.

We do not know what are the journalistic ethics of Mudville-in-the-Bush, or wherever it was that Alderman Newton got his training in village newspaperdom. We do know that no self-respecting journalist in any city in Canada, would tolerate on its staff for one moment an editor who would wilfully alter the meaning of a press despatch to further his private ends. To alter a despatch which states that the Laurier Government had "made a strategic move," to read "unfair move" is not editing. It is lying. When done wilfully it is wilful lying, and when done wilfully by a man who is opposing the Laurier Government in an attempt to enter public life it looks like wilful lying for personal ends. A great man truly to set himself up as holier than the rest of the members of his party.

The incident raises the question as to the moral perceptions of the candidate. A man who admits to the public that he altered a press despatch and faked another because "it was palpably unfair," must have a peculiar type of mind. It is the type of mind apparently that delights to vent spleen and throw coarse abuse at innocent men with neither the means nor the ability to answer back, and then whines and crawls the moment someone with the ability and occasion to act, administers a little corrective punishment.

It is an amusing sight to see this journalistic swashbuckler and village bully howling out that he is being persecuted for righteousness sake, when merely confronted with the evidence of his attempt to befoul the electors of Comox-Atlin by altering press despatches out of their original meaning.

Alderman Newton in his statement says that the News is actuated by a desire to get him out of the field for fear of his getting votes. That is an absurd conclusion, only possible to a mind blinded by vanity. The News dares Alderman Newton to stay in the field and see what happens to him.

THE MAYOR AND PREMIER McBRIDE

Important Telegram Expected Today from Mr. Manson in Reference to the G. T. P. Assessment Settlement in Abeyance.

Acting Mayor Kirkpatrick and City Clerk Woods are anxiously expecting a wire some time this afternoon from the Mayor in reference to his interview with Premier McBride in particular regarding the Provincial Government's attitude to the proposed Grand Trunk Assessment settlement.

No reply had come to hand this forenoon, and Mr. Kirkpatrick remarked that he understood the Mayor would probably have an appointment with the Premier some time today if he had not already had one last night. The fact that no wire was received early today was taken as indicating that the interview was probably still in abeyance. All members of the council except perhaps Alderman Hilditch in his less assured moments, are confident that the Premier's attitude will be favorable to the agreement, but many citizens who favor the agreement will not prove as easy over the Hydro-Electric plan when both matters come to the vote.

Only Kept Alive by Stimulants Now

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Paris, Aug. 9.—John W. Gates had another bad turn this morning and was only kept alive by heart stimulants. Congestion of the kidneys has returned and heart action is very weak. It is believed the end is not far off.

LAUNDRIES TO BE SEGREGATED

By-law to be Introduced Governing Matter—Buildings an vernal Matter. Buildings and Utensils must be Sanitary.

Segregate. The suburb of the local inferno is to have a sister district, or in other words, all laundries in future will likely be segregated. The Board of Works last night recommended that all laundries, wash houses, etc., shall be built in the district of Block 41 and 42, Section 5, which is near to Comox avenue.

Alderman Hilditch introduced the recommendation and found unanimous support. He will also introduce a by-law to govern the matter. The by-law will also require laundries in the proposed district to have concrete floors, metallic inside walls up to a certain height, sanitary washing utensils, etc.

Alderman Douglas objected to the location named on the ground that it would effect property in the district to a disadvantage, and threatened to get a petition opposing the idea. After a satisfactory explanation following a consultation of the map of the city, he withdrew his objection.

DOMINION MINE INSPECTOR HERE

Alfred W. G. Wilson, Special Inspector from Department of Mines at Ottawa now Visiting District—Sent Specially to Goose Bay and Hidden Creek.

That the importance to the Dominion of Canada of the mines in the Prince Rupert district is appreciated to the full by the Department of Mines at Ottawa, is shown by the fact that just now Mr. Alfred W. G. Wilson of the Department of Mines Office—Mines Branch—is in the district on a special tour of investigation arranged particularly in view of the Goose Bay and Hidden Creek developments.

Back from Islands
Today Mr. Alfred Wilson after returning on the Princess Beatrice from the Queen Charlotte Islands where he has examined promising properties left in the launch Cloyah from the Rupert Marine Wharf to visit Observatory Inlet and Goose Bay. Captain Babington took charge of the launch. Mr. Wilson will make a general investigation of the Hidden Creek Mines, and afterwards will pay a visit to properties on the Oostaw River.

It is not generally known that the Department of Mines at Ottawa is divided into two distinct sections. These are the Geological Survey and the Mines Branch of which latter Mr. Wilson is a representative.

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

CHARMING MATERIAL

A most charming material is coming into favor again, the silk crepe and crepe de chine. In the lighter weight it is especially well adapted for summer gowns and can be draped into soft folds and lines that are so essential to the present style of dress. It is a fabric that might be said to be suitable for any sort of trimming and on which embroidery or lace shows to great advantage. It also is so beautiful in itself that it looks well without trimming, its color and texture being quite sufficient in most instances. The gowns that show fullness around the waist are easily carried out or treated in crepe de chine, one charming model in a pale rose pink has quite a lot of fullness below the high belt. The gown in question is trimmed with a fascinating fichu of the finest net and lace, finished in front with a soft knot. The fichu falls over the wide high belt of deep rose pink satin, on which are rhinestone buttons. It is a gown that can be worn in the afternoon or evening, but if worn in the daytime should have a transparent yoke of the finest net obtainable.

Swiss Steak

One and a half pounds of beef, a small cup of flour. The beef may be cut from the round or any other portion, but better be in one or two slices—steak form. Add pepper and salt to meat, then place on a board and pound into it with a china plate a small cup of flour. Render in a skillet a few small pieces of suet cut from the meat, and when smoking hot lay the beef in the pan and brown both sides quickly. Pour two cups of boiling water over the steak, cover with a pan, and cook slowly for one hour. No matter how tough or coarse the meat is, the result will be the most tender steak, with a delicious brown gravy.

CURE FOR BLACKHEADS

Don't Imagine You Can "Kill" Them. They are not Alive

If you apply carbolic acid to the blackheads you will be sorry just once, and that will be always. It would burn the skin. Blackheads are not "live" things, so you cannot speak of "killing" them; they are merely dirt in the pores of the skin. Wash with warm, soft water, and rub well with complexion brush if necessary. Pat dry, and then dab on a little cologne water or dilute alcohol to contract the pores. Follow by an application of cold cream to soothe the skin after this heroic treatment. Keep on hand a lotion made of boric acid, 1 drachm; alcohol, 1 ounce; rose water, 2 ounces. Apply daily but this will not take the place of washings; it is merely an aid.

NATURE'S RESTORER

Twenty-four Hours' Sleep Equals One Week's Holiday

A physician who holds a high place in English medical circles says that if you want to obtain complete rest and recuperation equal to a week's vacation in minimum time, sleep the clock round twice.

"To spend twenty-four hours in bed," he said to a friend, "instead of rushing away for a few hours' change of scene, when you are run down physically and mentally, is worth a week's holiday. The night before having gone to the theatre to take the mind off worries and having supped wisely and well, instructions should be given that the morning call shall be omitted.

"Then sleep. On waking turn over and sleep again. On waking again take some hot milk. Drink it and sleep again and keep on sleeping. Have nothing more substantial in the intervals than soup.

"Do not read. Keep the eyes shut constantly. Have a warm bath in the evening and sleep again.

"When you are tired of sleeping sleep again for the night. Nothing clams the nerves more than resting the eyes."

Never press a fur-lined coat. It will ruin the skins.

When making underclothes by machine it sometimes happens that they get oil-stained. The stains should be taken out with ammonia before the garments are sent to the laundry.

Hack Spencer, the large catcher, formerly with St. Paul, will join the Philadelphia national league at once. The deal was consummated yesterday, Philadelphia paying $2,000 for Spencer's release.

Groge Ellis, the seaport representative of the Winnipeg Free Press, who is beating his way to Prince Rupert on a motorcycle, is progressing well on his journey west. The run from Brandon to Moosomin, Sask., was made in 9 hours, and the machine and rider were both in good condition.

Penisa Maid, R. J. Mackenzie's free-for-all trotter, with a record of 2.04 1-4, is dead. The cause of her death has not been definitely determined. She was purchased by Mr. Mackenzie in 1910 from M. D. Shutt of Roch Rapids, Iowa, for $25,000.

Breeders and owners of thoroughbreds entered in the 1911 Futurity have been officially notified by the Coney Island Jockey Club that in consequence of the existing laws there will be no fall meeting on the club course and that, therefore, the famous futurity has been declared off. Seventy-two horses were still in the stake, which would have been worth about $25,000. Whether there will ever again be another futurity depends upon legislation, according to the jockey club's Secretary.

President Emmett Quinn of the National Hockey association stated that he had every reason to believe that there would be a big exodus of eastern hockey stars to the west in the fall. He contemplates no radical change in the N. H. A., but believes that Lester Patrick's new hockey league will lure many good players to the coast, thus repeating the history of the Vancouver lacrosse boom. He shares the general belief that the N. H. A. may have to boost its salary limit in order to hold its men.

Tom Flanagan refutes the despatch which came from England to the effect that John Flanagan, his brother, the world's champion with the weights, was beaten at the British championships. John Flanagan has not been out of Ireland since he left America almost a year ago. He will compete shortly in Scotland, and will represent the United States at the Olympic games in Sweden.

Jack Johnson is making $2,500 a week playing in the London music halls. He works in his boxing and monologue sketch in four different halls each night, going from one to another in his racing car. The champion has been matched to fight Bombardier Wells. Wells has been guaranteed $20,000 for the match, which will take place in London. Johnson is ready to fight any eligible candidate for his title, and cares not when, where, or who the promoter may be. If Hugh McIntosh offers Johnson any matches large guarantees will have to be included in the articles.

Josephine Reda of Klondyke Hotel Found Guilty Today of Running a Blind Pig.

Josephine Reda—proprietrix of the Klondyke Hotel who was yesterday fined $200 for letting an Indian have a bottle of whisky, was today charged with running a blind pig. She was found guilty and fined a second $200.

A number of witnesses were to have appeared on her behalf all with the same story that they had clubbed together to buy a barrel of beer and a bottle or two of whisky. Chief Vickers who discovered a team load of ingeniously concealed liquor and empty bottles in the place, knew better, and Magistrate McMullin soon sized up the worth of the evidence.

Accused appeared before Magistrate McMullin wearing a tight grey suit with mouse-colored velvet trimming upon the collar and a lofty turban to match trimmed with black veiling, a large aigrette and diamond buckles. She gasped when she heard she had to find a second $200 and hinted that heaven alone knew where she was to discover the money.

She was allowed an hour or two, to approach her source of information and produce $202—her fine and costs—or choose the alternative of a three months holiday at New Westminster.

End Will be Soon

HAD LIVELY BALL GAME

Royal Blues Scored over Quilldrivers after Keenest Struggle Yet Seen. Score 18-32.

Last night's indoor baseball game between the Quilldrivers and the Royal Blues was certainly a crackerjack. Royals won 18-32.

Nothing could have been finer than the last three innings when with a splendid spurt the Quills wrote down 13 runs on their score sheet. Keeping up their game the Royals made 16 in the same time made up their winning balance.

Umpires Sloan and Dunn did excellent work. There was the best of good feeling throughout the match which was witnessed by a number of live and popular girls. Audiences continue to swell in number which is all the better for the coming Outdoor Ball Park Fund.

FOLLIES OF 1911

Musical Comedy at the Empress Proved to be Great Fun Maker.

A large audience filled the Empress Theatre last night to enjoy the musical satire "The Follies of 1911." The scene is laid "down below." That does not mean Vancouver. For a couple of hours the audience enjoyed the fun of seeing Jack Westerman acting the part of deputy Satanic Majesty, meting out favors to his earthly friends. The scene in Hades was cleverly staged, credit for the electrical effects being due the local firm of Parkin & Ward.

There were lots of good songs, by Josephine Gerrish, Drena Mack, Jack Westerman and Harry Harry Cleveland, the latter's "Chink of the Miser's Gold" and Westerman's "Black Salome" being especially good. The chorus "Have a Drink" by the male quartet was so good that it had to be repeated. The show was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

HEAVILY FINED FOR OFFENCE

Mrs. Josephine Reda Paid $200 Yesterday for Having Supplied an Indian with Whisky and Now Faces Blind Pig Charge.

Harry Collison, the Indian who was found drunk the other day, gave information to the police yesterday which resulted in the summary conviction of Josephine Reda of the Klondyke Hotel for having supplied him with liquor. The charge was laid by Sergeant Phillipson. She was fined $200 in the afternoon.

A further charge against her of running a blind pig was at once lodged as a result of the police visit to her premises. Quite a large quantity of whisky, and other intoxicating liquor in bottles similar to that found upon the Indian was discovered in the place. The woman faced the second charge this forenoon.
